

Cursed 751

Chapter 751 Inheritance Book

Sylvia's POV:

Murray paused, causing the crystal ball in his hand to stop spinning. "Are you telling the truth?"

Title of the document

"Of course, I am. If you still think I'm lying, you can cast a curse on me that from now on every pack of Ramen I buy will come with no flavor packets."

Murray was rendered speechless and went silent for a while. Eventually, he put the crystal ball back in its proper place.

"Since you said you got the bug by accident, I want you to tell me exactly how you got it."

I fought the urge to grin in exasperation when I heard him say that. He was such a cunning old man! I could tell that he was still testing me. One wrong word and I would be doomed.

Chapter 752 Set Out Again

Sylvia's POV:

I glanced at Murray, who had followed me out of the room, and cleared my throat. "Let's go."

Blair caught my hint, bid goodbye to Murray, and left the ramshackle cottage with me.

When we were alone, I continued the subject we hadn't been able to finish. "You said you've seen that book before. Where did you see it?"

"While I was collecting evidence in your pack, I came across something suspicious. It was in Gamma Mateo's room. That book was very strange. I wanted to check it, but I couldn't even pick it up. It seemed glued to there. I read a few pages, but couldn't make any sense of it. In fact, my head also started spinning."

Chapter 753 Romance

Sylvia's POV:

I scoured through my phone and dialed Maya's number. Drawing a deep sigh, I explained that I was fine and ready to go back.

Title of the document

I could almost hear her relief over the phone, and she told me that she would be waiting for me at the gate of the palace.

I echoed the relief that Maya felt with a sigh, wiped the sweat on my forehead and hung up the phone.

A chuckle escaped Blair, who was standing next to me with his signature smirk. He walked away just when I parted my lips for a question, leaving me wondering what he found amusing.

Chapter 754 Proposal

Sylvia's POV:

My eyes widened in shock and my heart palpitated rapidly yet I could hear every individual beat echoing in my head. As the thought of what was about to happen formed in my head, I stood up abruptly, but it was too late. The movie screen slowly went up revealing the stage, and the lights came on.

Title of the document

Rufus, standing gracefully with flowers in his arms, appeared in the center of the stage. His deep-set, affectionate eyes were capable of making people fall in love with him at first sight.

My mind raced and my breathing was in a frantic state. In truth, the surprise Rufus had arranged for me brought only panic and no joy to my heart. I could tell that he was going to propose to me.

Chapter 755 In Danger

Rufus' POV:

Sylvia's tears slid down her cheeks as she looked at me. Her beautiful face glowed under the lights while she stretched out her hand and softly called out my name.

Chapter 756 Save Her or The Baby

Rufus's POV:

The heated discussion whether we should keep the baby raised tensions among us.

When we finally stopped arguing, the doctor who had been ignored by us from the very beginning spoke in a low voice, "In fact, Miss Todd is in good condition..." What?

Chapter 757 Yes, I Do

Sylvia's POV:

As I lay there with my back to Rufus, I overheard him talking on the phone at the door. It sounded like he had something urgent to deal with. That explained why he came back into the room, grabbed his coat, and left in a hurry.

Title of the document

When he closed the door from the outside, I slowly opened my eyes. I waited for a few seconds before I lay on my back and breathed a deep sigh of relief.

I stared at the ceiling blankly for a while and then sat up. When I saw the ring box on the bedside table, I picked it up and opened it.

Sitting quietly inside the box was a large diamond ring, dazzling like a star.

Sylvia's POV:

It was this cheeky devil again.

Title of the document

When I opened my eyes, I immediately saw Blair's smirking face.

I wordlessly sat up and raised my chin, indicating for him to close the door.

Blair clicked his tongue and went to close the door. Then he faced me again and joked, "Do you really have to do this? I know you pretended to p@ssout just to avoid the proposal. If you didn't want to marry him, you should've just let him know."

Chapter 759 Suspicion

Rufus' POV:

I was on my way to city hall when I realized that I left in a hurry and forgot to tell the nurse that the needle in Sylvia's hand had come off, prompting me to have the driver turn around and return to the hospital.

Title of the document

I felt really guilty as I glanced at my watch. Sylvia slept soundly when I left. What if she moved while she slept and hurt herself by accident?

Soon I arrived at the hospital and went straight to the VIP ward on the top floor. I had just stepped out of the elevator when I saw Blair coming out of Sylvia's ward.

Blair didn't seem to notice me and left through another exit. I was a little surprised. Was Sylvia awake?

Chapter 760 Watch The Surveillance Footage

Rufus' POV:

I sent the others away and watched the surveillance footage in the corridor outside Sylvia's ward as I sat alone in the control room.

Title of the document

After hesitating for some time, I finally managed to click on the video.

The video showed Blair knocking on the door and entering the ward not long after I left. About ten seconds later, he closed the door and stayed inside for 25 minutes before leaving.

Omar's eyes widened in realization. He finally knew why I was so gloomy. "W-What the hell... What was Blair doing?"
