Sylvia's POV:

When I had made it halfway through my run, Rufus strode over to me and picked me up, carrying me back to my ward. "Why didn't you put on any shoes before going out of the ward? You're pregnant. You should be taking care of yourself."

I looked at the chair beside the bed. "It looks like the chair has been moved."

She looked in the direction of the chair and smiled. "I ran out in a hurry, so I accidentally bumped into it. Besides, I just woke up. I wouldn't know if anyone came here, anyway."

I nodded. "That makes sense."

Rufus' POV:

I ordered my private soldiers to secretly investigate what Sylvia had done after she left the palace today.

In less than an hour, one of my subordinates came back to report the result of the investigation.

“Miss Todd went to the black market to see Murray during the day. We don’t know exactly what they had talked about because when we went there, Murray wasn’t in the cottage. I grabbed his hand and scrutinized his forehead carefully. "Maya told me you got into an accident while driving. Are you alright?"

Soon, the corners of Rufus’ mouth curved into a smile. He extended his hand to wipe away the bubbles off my face and said, “I was just kidding.”
