Chapter 781 Elope With Her Lover

Sylvia's POV:

Shawn's legs started to tremble from fear. Subconsciously, he assumed Rufus was the one who grabbed his wrist, so he hurriedly explained, "I'm sorry, Prince Rufus. I just saw a bug on Sylvia's shoulder and wanted to help her get rid of it! Please forgive me!"

"He is not Rufus." Shawn's action rendered me quite surprised. I looked at him with contempt and said, "Are you so weak that you can't even smell his scent?"

Shawn wasn't that powerful back when I was still in the pack. He would always mess around and indulge himself in lust. But now, he was so weak that even his sharp sense of smell as a werewolf had degenerated.

Shawn finally straightened his back and let out a sigh of relief when he heard what I said. Then he asked curiously, "So who is this then? Your bodyguard?"

Sylvia's POV:

When I walked out of the secret room, I saw Blair guarding the door anxiously. I asked curiously, "What's wrong, Blair?"

Title of the document

Blair nervously stared at me from head to toe. "Do you know how long it has been since you walked into that room? You've been in there for three days! I would have already rushed in if you hadn't warned me earlier to stay outside."

I wasn't aware that three days had elapsed till that point, but I was ecstatic nonetheless. So I grinned broadly and informed Blair, "I got my mother's inheritance!"

Sylvia’s POV:

Shawn was speechless, but when he noticed Blair’s toned arms, he didn’t dare say anything more and instead got out of the pool in silence.

Blair snorted on the poolside and watched Shawn with evident insult.

Furious and embarrassed, Shawn gritted his teeth.

The servant quickly brought clean clothes, which Shawn changed into while suppressing his anger. Then he continued to lead us to the dining room, but this time, he behaved obediently and didn’t dare provoke Blair anymore.

Shawn's POV:

The crowd jeered to my words, with majority of them supporting me. This was because the news about Sylvia helping me out at the entrance of the pack had already spread like wildfire in the pack.

The strong ruled and dominated everything in the werewolf world. Sylvia was no longer as weak as she once was. With her current strength, she had proven to everyone that she was no longer the same slave they knew back then.

Prince Rufus had really abandoned her, the other pack members would gladly welcome her for the sake of their former relationship. If she could serve as the Beta of the pack,

Sylvia had blossomed into a beautiful woman. Even if she wasn't particularly strong, her beauty would certainly make up for it. After all, the pack rarely had a stunning she-wolf

When I saw Cherry in shackles, I felt like I had seen myself from the past. Cherry had committed many horrible acts, but that was no reason to turn her into a slave.

But obviously, Shawn didn't understand this at all. He flung the glass in his hand and snarled, "Don't be so ungrateful, Sylvia."

I sneered, "Shawn, you are still as arrogant and conceited as before. You don't care about the lives of other people."

Sylvia's POV:

Shawn swiftly sprang to his feet and seized the sold*ier's collar. "What did you say? Who is here?" he asked in disbelief.

Title of the document

"Prince Rufus..." the sold*ier replied, his voice trembling. Startled, I instantly knew that Rufus was here to catch me.

Several days had passed since we left the capital city. Rufus being able to locate us was not unusual. After all, he had spies all over the empire.

Blair and I exchanged glances and immediately decided that we should run now.
