Chapter 861 Grow Up

Harry's POV:

"Then arrest me!" I held my ground and yelled at Laura, "You've already sentenced Sylvia to death anyway, so I don't care if you arrest me."

"Do you really think I wouldn't do it?!" Laura roared, took up the cup, and prepared to smash it on the floor.

Suddenly, a petite figure rushed out and quickly tugged at my sleeve. It was Joanna, who was just released without charge.

Chapter 862 Execution

Harry's POV:

Soon it was the execution day. As soon as dawn arrived, I waited for Joanna downstairs at her dormitory.

Five minutes later, she emerged from the building wearing a black coat and a black cap.

My heart was heavy. Joanna and I had prepared for this day. We were both set to take Sylvia away from her execution.

have heard about it yet. If she did, she would have marched here despite her delicate pregnancy.

"Let's go." I took Joanna's backpack and carried it to the capital city. It was a public holiday today, and because the person to be executed was the fiancée of Prince Rufus, the road was very crowded. Numerous cars were rushing to the city center, eager to

Chapter 863 A Sinner

Harry's POV:

Sylvia was brought to the center of the trial platform. Laura raised her hand, signaling the crowd to quiet down. Then the judge took to the podium with a large stack of paperwork in hand and began reading the charges against Sylvia. "Sylvia Todd colluded with the black witch and wreaked havoc in the imperial palace. She manipulated the servants with witchcraft to poison the lycan king. She even hurt Prince Rufus, causing him to fall into a coma. To this day, he is still unconscious. There is no way to dispute the evidence at this point, so she will be sentenced to death and executed immediately."

Title of the document

The crowd broke into discussions upon hearing the judge. Before the announcement, they thought it was all just a rumor. But now that the charges were announced, it proved all the suspicions.

"I told you she was the mastermind behind everything, but some of you didn't believe me. You should be ashamed of yourself."

Chapter 864 Never Gamble On Human Nature

Noreen's POV:

I hid in the black smoke and laughed at Sylvia as she stood on the trial platform. "Look, no one will believe you. You'll never be anything but a lowly slave in their eyes. No matter how hard you worked and how many people you saved, you would be discarded without a second thought. Just like now, no one cared about what the truth was. They only believed what they saw with their own eyes. So, come with me. There is a better world waiting for you outside of here. Don't waste your black witch bloodline here."

Chapter 865 A Dagger Inserted Into Noreen's Heart

Noreen's POV:

"What did you just say? Speak louder!" I exclaimed with a proud smirk. I felt ecstatic seeing Sylvia lower her pride and show her weakness to me.

"Please save me, Noreen. I beg of you," Sylvia said. It was rare for her to talk to me in such a pleading tone. She used to be cold and arrogant. Of course, the cause of her change was that she was already on the verge of death.

Chapter 867 Noreen's Death

Sylvia's POV:

The fire that was consuming Noreen intensified. It soon engulfed her body, leaving only her head unscathed.

Title of the document

Noreen let out a painful yell. The blood that splattered across her face gave her a frightening appearance.

"Sylvia, please spare my life. I promise I will stay away from you from now on. I won't get involved in your life any more. If you keep me alive, I will do whatever you say. Just please spare me this time." Tears streamed down Noreen's face as she now finally tasted fear.

"Joanna! Where are you?" I called out to Joanna loudly. Unfortunately, I couldn't even catch a whiff of her scent. While I was burning with anxiety, the black mist suddenly began swirling and slowly began to fade away. Soon, I was able to view everything around me clearly.

I rubbed my eyes and realized that I had been swept to the edge of the trial platform. However, Sylvia had vanished, and even Laura was gone!
