Chapter 881 Perfect Heir

Crystal's POV:

Perry, who was standing in front of me, was startled by my stern voice. Just when she was about to turn around, I quickly walked up to Beryl, blocking Perry's sight. Then, I secretly used magic to extinguish the flame in Beryl's hand.

"Beryl, you're too young to understand this, but witchcraft is really dangerous." I felt so helpless. I wanted to explain to her how destructive witchcraft could be, but she didn't listen and insisted on opposing me.

"I didn't use witchcraft for fun! I'm just punishing bad people." Beryl pouted, feeling wronged.

I pursed my lips and said in a serious voice, "Perry is not a bad person. Even if she did something wrong, you shouldn't use witchcraft on her. I've already told you not to use your power, and you've already given me your word. So, you just can't do this. Why can't you just listen to me for once?"

Crystal's POV:

I was surprised to know that Arron didn't like Perry either. Perry had always cared about him and praised him.

Not to mention, Arron was a lovely child. He could get along with just about everyone, so this was the first time he expressed his hatred for a person so straightforwardly.

Chapter 884 Mature

Crystal's POV:

After firing the nanny, I took Arron to the city hall for a meeting. Then I asked my subordinate to search for Beryl and keep an eye on her.

Title of the document

Before the meeting, I placed a child's chair next to me and made Arron sit on it. Several of the elders noticed his cute face during the meeting and often turned their heads to get another look at him. They really adored him. Arron was very obedient. He didn't make any noise. His curious eyes were wide open as he listened to us with rapt attention the whole time. He was more composed and focused than the adults.

Crystal's POV:

After some thought, Arron finally nodded his head. "Yes, I know. She's probably at the orphanage."

Title of the document

In all honesty, I was taken aback by what he said. I didn't expect her to be in the orphanage. But after giving it some thought, I was not surprised at all. Beryl was a whimsical girl and rarely had friends. But unexpectedly, she became close with the orphan girl, Alva.

This gave me another headache just thinking about it. When I first came to the border, I had a sneaking suspicion that Alva was not as naive and innocent as she appeared to be. The girl seemed smart to me.

Crystal's POV:

When I tore open the bag, I found more than a dozen of Beryl's favorite treats, all in different flavors.

Aside from myself, Felix arguably knew Beryl best.

"You are spoiling her." I sighed and closed the bag in my hand.

Upon hearing what I said, Felix smiled and replied, "She's still young. It's okay to spoil her once in a while.

I felt helpless, but didn't say anything more. Instead, I changed the topic and asked, "Have you found the house yet?"

Chapter 887 Meeting Grandma

Crystal’s POV:

I took my kids out for dinner in the evening before returning home. As soon as I stepped through the door, my subordinate approached me holding an exquisitely crafted invitation.

Title of the document

As I took in the familiar national flower and the elegant cover, I instantly guessed what the invitation was for. “Is this an invitation to the celebration of the empire?” I asked.

My subordinate smiled. “Yes, Alpha. The military parade, which is held every four years, is about to take place. Will you attend it this year?”

“No. Just arrange for the gifts and send them to the capital city as usual. Inform them that I’m too busy with government affairs to attend the parade.” I shook my head and took the invitation from him. Unlike before, this year’s invitation also included a handwritten letter from the lycan king. As I ran my fingers over the beautiful familiar handwriting, a wave of bitterness rose within me.

Chapter 888 A Familiar Voice

Crystal's POV:

Laura's eyes lit up at the sight of the two kids. Unlike the noble and elegant queen that she usually appeared to be, she didn't look aloof and distant to them at all.

Title of the document

Beryl and Arron liked their Grandma very much. They both scrambled to tell Laura what had happened this week.

Arron always restrained himself and patiently waited for Beryl to finish her words first.

Listening to the children's innocent chatter and silly stories, Laura laughed heartily.

I felt somehow comforted watching them talk so happily like that.

Laura's POV:

In the video, Sylvia sat aside, evidently lost in her thoughts. Needless to say, she must be thinking about Rufus. She had been Alpha for a while now, and able to manage the pack efficiently; however, she could not hide her thoughts on certain things. They were all clearly written on her face.

Chapter 890 Choosing A Wife

Laura's POV:

I didn't understand. Rufus had no intention of getting married before, and he didn't have any interest in any she-wolf. Why did he suddenly change his mind?

Title of the document

Rufus fiddled with his ring, as if what he said was nothing. "I'm about to turn 35. Now it's time to train the heir."

I frowned at his reason. I still thought it was wrong to make a hasty decision about this matter. Rufus didn't know that he had already had two kids. Besides, he couldn't just marry a random woman he didn't love and have children with her!
