Chapter 921 Seriously Injured

Crystal's POV:

As soon as I threw myself on the bed, I immediately checked Arron's condition. He was still in a coma. Fortunately, his breathing was stable, but he had gauze dressing wrapped around his head and feet. His little face was pale, and he also had a wound on his cheek.

When I touched his head, my heart ached, and tears welled up in my eyes. He had never been this severely injured before. He would at most lose his balance and fall on the ground sometimes.

When I recalled the blood in the forest and the corpses in the morgue, it still made me shudder. I didn't know what had happened to Arron and Beryl on their way to the capital. I just knew that he was lucky he managed to escape.

Chapter 922 Changes In All These Years

Crystal's POV:

I sat down on the sofa with Harry and Joanna. We talked about what had happened in the past few years until the topic finally came back to Arron.

Title of the document

“Our car broke down on the way and we called someone to repair it. We got bored while we waited, so we decided to take a walk in the roadside woods. That was when we saw a little boy being chased by two robbers. He fell down the hill by accident before Joanna and I could rush over and help him. Fortunately, the hill wasn’t very high and there were only leaves on the ground where he landed. Otherwise, he might not have...” Harry trailed off and heaved a sigh of relief. Chapter 923 Unable to Escape

Crystal’s POV:

I smiled faintly and explained, “Laura’s actually a soft-hearted person when you get to know her. We’ve stayed in touch for all these years. Both she and Ethan have helped me a lot in secret so that I could gain a foothold in the border pack.”

Title of the document

“When they announced your sentencing five years ago, I opposed Laura in public and said a lot of harsh words. I think she’ll never want to see me again.” Smiling awkwardly, Harry scratched the back of his head.

“You were only trying to protect me back then. Laura wouldn’t take it to heart. In fact, the last time we talked, she told me about you and Joanna. She was very happy for you two.” I sighed and took Joanna’s hand. I locked eyes with her and asked seriously, “So when do you two plan to get married?”

Chapter 925 Daddy

Rufus' POV:

Early this morning, I received news that Crystal took Warren's permit and managed to leave the palace last night.

Title of the document

Expressionless, I straightened out my tie. While listening to the report on the phone, my mood became more and more gloomy. The arrogant she-wolf from the border pack really didn't take me seriously at all.

"After leaving the palace, Alpha Crystal acted very strangely. She seemed to be looking for someone and checked every bus station in the city. Then she went to the suburb. In the end, she went to the hospital just after dawn. Because Alpha Crystal was quite sharp, our people didn't dare to get too close to her in case she noticed we were following her. We don't know who or what she was looking for."

Hearing this, I frowned even more tightly, and the uneasiness in my heart just kept growing. My instinct about her was right; there really was something wrong with that she-wolf. It had only been a few hours since she arrived at the imperial palace, yet she was so impatient to get out that she didn't even bother to put on niceties.

The more I thought about it, the angrier I felt. There were not many people who could easily provoke my emotions now, but that she-wolf took the cake.

I pried the little girl's hands off, squatted down, and looked at her seriously. "What's your name?"

The little girl tilted her head to the side and looked at me in confusion. "You're my dad. How could you not know my name?"

I was choked. "I'm not your father," I said in a hoarse voice.

The girl in my arms slumped her shoulders. It seemed she was also in a bad mood.

The she-wolf's hand holding the candies slowly dropped to her side, and her dark green eyes were full of disappointment. At this moment, my heart inexplicably softened. Before I could stop myself, I suddenly blurted, "You're married?"

"I hope so." I sighed helplessly. I should've been thankful. It was already a miracle that my two kids survived such a harrowing event. As long as they were both safe and sound, I didn't dare to ask God for more.
