

Cute Baby18

chapter 18

On the other side.

Celia brought Hanna home after shopping.

As soon as they arrived home, Hanna ran upstairs anxiously like a rabbit

“Cheney!”

As soon as Hanna ran upstairs, Cheney was sitting in front of the computer.

Two little hands were typing on the keyboard.

“What’s wrong?”

Sitting in front of the computer, Cheney stared at the screen.

“I have a big news for you. Do you want to know?”

Hanna kept her in suspense.

“What news?”

Cheney still looked at his computer calmly.

“I saw mommy with a person who looked exactly like you today!”

Hanna told Cheney in surprise.

“Mommy? Is there another person who looks exactly like me?”

Cheney suddenly stopped typing.

“Yes, yes, it’s just a big version of Cheney!”

Hanna told Cheney affirmatively.

“Besides, Mommy seems to have a special relationship with him.”

Hanna narrowed her eyes and guessed their relationship.

“Cheney, is he our father?”

All of a sudden, Hanna thought of what Cheney looked like with him, and her mother was with him again.

Every time they mentioned who their daddy was? Nina always avoided this question.

Such an idea popped up in her mind all of a sudden.

“Do you know his name?”

Cheney was also interested in this matter. Maybe he was really their father.

"I know you can find out their information as long as you have someone's name, so I asked for his name."

"His name is Gabriel ."

Hanna said slowly.

Then, Cheney was typing on the keyboard: Gabriel .Search.

As soon as the website was opened, there were very few information about him, and many of them were locked.

It was not easy for others to get his information.

It seemed that ordinary people couldn't find out his information.

"How could this be?"

Hanna looked at the website on the computer screen and couldn't find out who on earth Gabriel was. She couldn't see any related information about him, just like a worried kitten. She became anxious all of a sudden.

"It's not difficult for me."

His long and narrow eyes narrowed, and an evil and attractive smile appeared at the corners of his mouth.

It was a replica of Gabriel !

The crackling sound of the keyboard and various kinds of website pa**word cracking.

Within five or six minutes, all the information about him was presented on the computer screen.

"Wow, Cheney, you are awesome!"

Hanna looked at Cheney with admiration and praised him.

Hanna had always admired her brother. Although he was not five years old, he was a hundred times smarter than her peers.

Hanna just didn't express it easily.

"Let's see who he is?Is he our daddy? "

She kept scrolling through Gabriel 's information

Gabriel , the current CEO of the Empire group, owns sixty-six point six percent shares of the Empire group and the core of the Empire group.

After reading the materials one by one, Cheney and Hanna looked at each other.

In the Gu family's house.

The three of them almost stayed together the whole day. It was time for dinner.

“Do you think that girl looks like you? Susan, what do you think?”

Caroline said casually while picking up food.

Nina was stunned and dropped the food on the table.

“How could it be? How could my child be like me? ”

Nina lowered her head. Her heavy heart made her unable to swallow the food in her mouth.

“You’ve never seen that boy. He looks exactly like you when you were a child.”

Caroline thought of Cheney at once.

“Ahem...”

“Mom, I have a sore throat. Enjoy your meal.”

Then Nina went upstairs in a hurry.

She was afraid that if she was irritated like this again, even if they did not ask her, her expression and expression would betray her.

So she chose to leave.

“She looks exactly like me?”

Gabriel was confused and didn’t seem to believe it.

How could a child grow up without his own child.

“Yes, I would think he is your child if you didn’t have a child.”

“Those two kids are so beautiful.”

Caroline said with a smile.

“My child...”

Gabriel was lost in thought.

Five years ago, that woman disappeared after having s** with him for a night. And she left without asking for anything from him. So far, she had not been found.

As for whether she had escaped with his child or not, it was still unknown.

The little girl looked about four or five years old. According to the time, they could match up.

If she was pregnant at that time and the child looked exactly like her, would it be her own child.

Hearing Caroline’s words, Gabriel suddenly thought of the night five years ago.

After dinner, Gabriel went upstairs with a heavy heart.

“Susan, do you have sisters?”

Gabriel suddenly stopped and looked at Nina coldly.

Although Nina pretended to be innocent and watched TV all the time.

Gabriel ‘s words aroused all her thoughts again.

“No!”

Nina answered without hesitation.

“But the little girl looks like you.”

Gabriel said casually.

“You don’t miss me at all. You don’t look like me at all? Besides, how could I have such a child? ”

Gabriel ‘s words excited Nina.

“I just said it casually. Why are you so excited?”

Gabriel narrowed his eyes.

“I have to go out tomorrow. I’ll go to bed first.”

Nina went back to the bedroom and lay on the sofa.

Why did this woman feel strange today.

Gabriel looked at Nina ‘s back.

Then Gabriel walked in.

Nina lay quietly on the sofa, recalling what had happened today.

‘is Gabriel really the father of Cheney and Hanna?’.

No wonder she felt familiar at the first sight of him, and he looked so similar to Cheney.

And the smell of cigarettes on his body. Maybe he was the man five years ago.

She couldn’t let Cheney meet him. Everything would be over if they met.

Now the only way was to find out their DNA and confirm their relationship first.

There were many people who looked like each other in the world. Maybe she had thought too much.

Nina was nervous the whole night.
