

Cute Baby19

chapter 19

On the second morning, Gabriel went out early.

After he left, Nina went out for the exhibition.

Today, Nina went to an international dress design exhibition.

She had a bun on her head, a white loose sweater, a pair of skinny jeans, and a pair of white shoes.

She looked like a young girl.

She took a taxi to the exhibition hall.

Nina walked into the exhibition hall and saw all kinds of dress designs.

“It’s really unique and beautiful. Even the edge lines of this dress are outlined vividly. No wonder it was designed by the queen of the design world, Anne.”

“Yes, in the fashion industry, black represents stability and solemnity. The black wedding dress exudes a charming, high-grade aristocratic aura, and is very modern.”

“Most importantly, I’ve never seen her design of this wedding dress. It’s very unique. It looks like the wedding dress is finished and looming in front of us.”

“Well, I don’t know when I can see Anne in person. I really want to ask her some questions...”

.....

As soon as she entered the exhibition hall, she heard many people discussing her design.

A sweet smile appeared on her face, and her most important design finally came into everyone’s view.

Nina walked to the painting and looked at it with her deep eyes.

There were many mysteries in Nina’s eyes.

The design of this pure black dress in front of her was steady, deep and mysterious. It was the pursuit of Nina all the time.

“Susan? Why is she here?”

In the crowd, a coquettish woman looked at Nina.

She walked behind Nina in her eight centimeter high heels and shouted.

“Susan, why are you here?”

Nina heard a familiar voice and turned back slowly.

“Nina?”

Susie looked at Nina in surprise.

Their side faces were so similar that they didn't recognize Nina.

Nina looked at her expressionlessly.

At a glance, she recognized the coquettish woman in front of her. She was Susan's sister five years ago.

"Susan's bumpkin, why are you here?"

She looked at Nina with disdain from beginning to end.

"Why can't I be here?"

Nina asked.

"Can anyone come to this place casually? Can you understand Anne's design? Anne's design is not for people like you."

She raised her chin arrogantly, crossed her arms over her chest and mocked.

"Oh, really? Do you know Anne's design concept? Why black? Why did you choose this unique design?"

The two of them discussed the design of Anne's black wedding dress.

It attracted more audience in the design field.

"Of course I know. I'm afraid you don't know!"

She looked at Nina arrogantly.

Nina glanced at her and ignored her. He walked to the drawing and touched it gently.

"I advise you not to make a fool of yourself here. If you want to know more about me, I can tell you."

Susie sneered and glanced at him.

Everyone looked at Nina and Susie, waiting to hear what they could say.

Susie, this name was known to all. The design director of VL international had participated in two international dress designs and won the championship.

Therefore, everyone applauded for her ability.

But she was worried about the "college student" in front of her.

"At the mention of wedding dress, people will naturally think of western white wedding dress and Chinese red wedding dress, right?"

Nina asked, but no one answered her.

At the same time, a mocking smile appeared on Susie's face.

Let's see what you can say.

Nina didn't care what others thought of her, but continued to talk about her.

“Marriage is a joyous thing for us. We prefer joyous colors, so most people used to choose bright red. With the development and progress of the times, white wedding dresses are now mainstream. However, the main color of wedding photos with black elements has been rarely seen... ”

.....

“So, I guess that’s why Anne designed this wedding dress.”

Then, a burst of applause came.

Nina started from the external design, line design and design concept of the wedding dress.

What she said was really impressive.

At this time, Nina walked to the stunned woman standing aside.

“Miss Susie, do you think I need to add or say anything wrong?”

Susie was speechless.

What she could think of, what she could understand, what she couldn’t think of, what she couldn’t understand. Nina told her everything.

“You...”

She looked at Nina in disbelief.

Five years had passed, and Nina became eloquent. It was no longer the bumpkin she knew five years ago.

“How do you know so much?”

Nina asked subconsciously.

“Miss Susie, I don’t think I need to explain so much to you. We don’t seem to be familiar with each other.”

Nina looked at her and said.

“It seems that you don’t have such a good taste this time.”

“Yes, you can’t judge a person by his appearance.”

“Which company is this girl from? Even miss Susie, the design champion, is willing to admit defeat. ”

“.....”

At this moment, Susie suddenly felt humiliated and wanted to find a hole in the ground to hide immediately.

“It’s useless to say it out loud. If you have the ability, you can also design a dress.”

A complacent smile could cover the panic on her face.

“Didn’t you say that you had seen all the designs of Anne? You are the winner of the national design champion. Even I, a bumpkin, know her design better than you. It seems that your champion is not real!”

Since she was forcing him step by step, then don’t blame her.

“You Nina, just wait and see!”

Nina ignored her as if he didn’t see her.

In this way, Susie fled the exhibition hall in embarrassment.

The crowd dispersed.

Then a man walked towards Nina.

His handsome face was a little evil and attractive. He was tall and straight in a three piece blue suit, exuding an elite aura.

“Hello, beauty. I’m Austin.”

The man introduced himself.

“Hello.”

Nina replied politely.

“Are you also interested in Anne’s design?”

As soon as she stood aside and looked at the design of Nina, she could see that Nina was also very talented in design.

“Okay.”

Nina smiled.

“This is my name card. If you are interested, you can come to my company. Our company needs a designer with novel design ideas like you.”

Austin gracefully handed over his business card.

Nina took it.

VL, international dress design center.

“Okay, thank you.”

“VL company is the largest and best dress design center in the country. You can have a better development there.”

Austin introduced confidently. Ordinary people wouldn’t refuse to go to VL.

“I know, but I’ll think about it.”

It was indeed a good opportunity for Nina to go to work, but she couldn't make a decision in advance considering her current situation.

“Okay, I have my phone number on it. You can call me at any time if you have made up your mind.”

Then a meaningful smile appeared on his face.
