The Domestic Hero - Chapter 1311

The three brothers, Chile, Chigu and Chiyan, were a little surprised when they saw Wang Yan. The level of astonishment is definitely far greater than in such a place, seeing the confusion and cruelty.

In the eyes of their three brothers, Wang Yan in front of him, like a demon of a demon, sat in front of the eyes of the three of them.

In particular, he has a taller and more majestic body than ordinary purgatory demon races, and the dark red evil skin like hellfire, even if it is just there, the expression is angry and joyless, but the light comes from him. The powerful power exudes is still unparalleled and shocking!

“Brother, this ...”

Both Red Bone and Red Rock were under Wang Yan’s seemingly calm gaze, and his heart was tight. Instinctively feeling great pressure, he had to turn his attention to their elder brother, Lord Lilie, the eldest son of the devil.

Lord Chile, the eldest son of Chilian Demon King, is also the most perfect heir to Chilian Demon King’s blood. It can be said that from the moment he was born, in the vast demon king’s territory in this area, he is under one person and above ten thousand people.

Coupled with his pure blood and outstanding talents, he was carefully cultivated by the Red Demon King. His powerful strength is far more than the average  lord.

The world of  is a place where strength speaks. With such a high status and outstanding strength, he almost never encounters the  lord who can be compared with him, and he has never seen the demon youth at the same stage with him.

However, Wang Yan in front of him, with an extraordinary and powerful manner, really surprised him.

Chi Lie dare to conclude that there is absolutely no such a young and promising person in the devil's collar ruled by his father, and there is no big family that can produce such an excellent heir.

He speculates from this that the Demon youth who seems to be born with a king's demeanor in front of him must come from other demon kings.

“It should be a devil prince heir who can compare with me.” Chi Lie tried to keep his pride as the devil's eldest son, and whispered to his two younger brothers, “Chi confused the boss in the waste mouth, it must be him.” “

Although he said that he could match his shoulders, in fact, after seeing Wang Yan, Chi Lie's heart was lost for the first time.

However, he has always been proud and has never met his opponent. He is not willing to admit this at all, so in his eyes, Wang Yan in front of him is at most a descendant of the devil who can compare with him.

After listening to Chi Gu and Chi Yan, there was a sudden surprise, and they thought so. Now the * meeting is about to start. The imposing young Mozu youth must be the heirs of other devil princes traveling abroad. On the way back, they traveled to their demon king's collar, solidified their sister, and collected the waste from the road Be a little brother.

At the moment, looking at Chiku's waste, he was clearly hugging his thighs. Their younger sister seemed to be fascinated by the demon youth in front of her.

But this is also good. Their younger sister is not disciplined and has a arrogant personality. Being able to find a spouse on her own is also a worry for their family. Coupled with this Demon youth, it seems that the identity background is very noble, enough to be worthy of their sister.

Marriage relations among nobles in the * world are generally characterized by high-level marriages. However, unlike the earth with many rules, a high noble can have many spouses, but in order to maintain excellent blood lineage, the main room must also be a noble.

Once the marriage relationship is reached, the two big nobles naturally form a close alliance.

Therefore, even if the cruelty is expensive as the master of the demon king, when it reaches a certain stage, it will still become the tool used by the demon king to marry.

Survival is so ruthless, but in front of me, I saw that the cruel master had found one himself, and it looked very good. The three brothers Chile naturally had nothing to say.

Just when their three brothers put away their arrogance and planned to introduce Wang Yan again, the owner of this aristocratic club, Coles, chased over the passage.

“Three highnesses, three highnesses ... Here, this layer has been covered by your sister Miss Abuse.” Coles burst into sweat on the forehead and hurriedly laughed, “I haven’t finished speaking yet, three Your Highness left. It really killed me. “

The three brothers, Chile, Chigu and Chiyang, have always been accustomed to do whatever they want. Who dares to hinder them in the domain of their father Chilian Demon King? So as soon as they heard the room they wanted was occupied, they rushed up angrily without waiting for the boss Coles to speak.

With a hard face, Coles had to chase after him. Fortunately, these four are their own brothers and sisters, and there is no major conflict. It is estimated that speaking good things, mediation can be done, and he was relieved.

“Three Highnesses, would I have to change you downstairs? The elegant room downstairs is not much worse than this one.”

Coles fartly followed behind the three demon kings, seeming to be honest, but actually smiling trivially, “There is this female slave, and after the three highnesses move, I will immediately let the next person give her Make up and dress up, and then enjoy it with the three Highnesses. “

With that said, Coles pulled the chain in his hand, and a poor human girl was pulled by him from the floating platform behind him.

Upon seeing this, Wang Yan shrank.

The charming and charming human girl is the granddaughter that Emmons entrusted him to find, Lydia!

“Did this unlucky little nizi, after he came to hell, be caught by the three sons of the Red Refining Demon King? And just handed over to the boss Coles to freshen up and prepare to enjoy here?”

Wang Yan couldn't help but murmur in his heart, no wonder the wild monsters he sent out to search, no traces have been searched till now, I thought that the area of hell is too vast, it will not be found in a moment and a half, it turned out that these three guys Hands.

Wang Yan's eyes narrowed, and she looked carefully at Lydia.

At this moment, this outstanding female magician, with a haggard expression, looked really disgraced, and did not see the simple and elegant appearance of the past.

Her hands are locked in an iron chain, like a slave pet, held by these purgatory demon races. The hair is also a little messy, the tip of the nose and the cheeks are covered with dirt, and it must have been a lot of sins in the process of being caught.

However, her water-blue robe is still neat and complete. It seems that she was not on the way to come and was poisoned by the three demon princes. This really made Wang Yan relieved.

“My name is Chile, the eldest son of Chilian Demon King, and the heir to the future Great Fire City.”

Lord Chile is also a person who knows which one is more important. Instead of ignoring boss Coles, he takes the attitude of the devil prince and takes a step forward to face Wang Yan's initiative, “I do n't know how you call it, and where Beloved Son of Lord Demon? “

Seeing the other party taking the initiative to speak, Wang Yan slowly turned his eyes and looked at Lord Chile with a pretentious look.

Lord Chile was unreasonable in his heart. What was going on? Why is this guy watching so much pressure?

“How do I call it?”

Facing Lord Chire’s initiative, Wang Yan chuckled lightly and replied casually, “Oh, my name is Mo Yan, as to where this Lord comes from? This does not require you to ask.”

He had no affection for the three self-righteous devil princes. Now that Lydia has fallen into their hands, he naturally cannot stand by.

Chi Lie’s eyes narrowed, and he scolded the Lord Mo Yan, what the * was it? In front of the Lord Chile, the son of his demon king, he was still so arrogant and arrogant. Was he proudly fainted to death after receiving the waste from Chiyu and getting the favor of his sister’s abuse?

Chi Lie’s two younger brothers, Chi Bone and Chi Yan, also gritted their teeth, and their eyes were slightly more fierce.

In this field of demon kings, only these three brothers have always been the part of their power. When did a foreigner dare to do power in front of them?

The key to their sister is still obsessed with it. The more the other party is showing off, the more their younger sister is upside down, which makes their faces a little unrestrained.

In addition, the waste is confusing, and he is still a little brother. Although Chidu never enters their eyes, after all, the name of their family hangs. Seeing the heirs of his family’s sidelines, in front of them, it’s very embarrassing to be a servant to an outsider.

The three brothers were angry and hate before, but it was also hindered by each other’s identity. Afterwards, he made a good show of friendship and ended up with a cold butt.

The surrounding atmosphere fell into a sudden silence as the voice fell.

The club owner, Coles, sweated coldly, and said, just fine, how can it suddenly become so embarrassing now? Every one of them is a person he can’t afford, and this little boss, what should he do now?

Finally, the sister of the devil’s third son, the cruel master stepped forward and broke the silence.

“My demon flame master, does not want to say his own back, naturally there are reasons why he does not want to say it, what are you doing so many of you? The master of this county is free to love, the father does not care, when is your turn to interfere Alright? “

The brutal prince squinted and scorned the cross, “Also, have n’t you seen that this elegant room has been taken over by the prince? If you have to fight with the prince, the prince will go to his father Lord is the master! “

On the one hand, Cruel Sorrow sighed with his own Master Moyan, even her brother didn’t take it into consideration. This spirit was really awesome. On the other hand, I was also annoyed by the three disgruntled brothers who didn’t know where to grab the personal slave girl. Even if the key was to destroy her good things, I couldn’t bear it.

“Yeah yeah, come first and come later, wouldn’t the three highnesses move to the floor below? The elegant room below is not worse than here.” The club owner Coles quickly stepped forward to ask for advice and patted the * by the way. Give these three brothers a face, or give them a step down.

Chilian Demon King favors this cruel tyrant master, Chibiao moves out of Chilian Demon King, and her three older brothers will naturally not fight with her again.

“Well, being a brother, you will naturally not fight with your sister.” Chi Lie glanced at the two brothers beside him, and then smiled pretentingly.

In a few moments, he turned his eyes to Wang Yan again and said sarcastically: “Before we took the risk, I hope Brother Moyan will not be surprised. We will invite you to visit the Palace of the Demon King someday, and then our three brothers will treat our brothers, everyone Let ’s talk together again. ”

Wang Yan’s expression still had no waves, but he just casually nodded his chin and counted as recognition.

This pride gesture, which seemed to override everything, actually made the three brothers Chilie feel sullen again.

With patience and anger in his heart, Chi Lie had to vent his grievances to Chi Dao.

“Waste, don’t forget your own identity!” He glared wildly and snorted coldly, greeted, “Humph, let’s go.”

After all, he turned and took over the iron chain in the hands of boss Coles, and wanted to leave.

Two of his brothers, Red Bone and Red Rock, both glared red and confused, and then they would follow to the next floor.

Lord Chew was stunned by the three brothers, as if he had become a traitor who ate inside and out. Although there were complaints in his heart, he did not dare to attack.

But he accepted this point calmly in his heart, he planned to eat inside and outside, and one day, he will follow the boss, all these brothers and fathers who do not regard him as a person, step on all feet!

“Please over here, please over here.” Boss Coles hastily bowed down to give away.

He was really relieved in his heart, and sighed that he was finally safe. Although the money of these princes and nobles was easy to make money, they were moody and really difficult to deal with.

“No, no, let go, let me go! Woo ... I, I don’t want to be enjoyed ...” Lydia, who had just passed away, was pulled by the chain and immediately struggled helplessly.

Her mouth is mixed with humans and the less skilled language of hell, plus her messy clothing, her delicate and helpless appearance, the more she struggles, the more she looks more attractive, and finally stirs up the three brothers Chilie, Chigu, Chiyan Of desire to conquer.

The three brothers looked in their eyes, and their faces showed excitement and obscenity, and even the anger they had just received was all thrown into their minds at this moment.

It can be said that they brought this human slave girl back home for thousands of miles and did not want to touch her along the way, just to enjoy once at this moment.

After all, like this extremely rare female slave, their three brothers will naturally find a good place, open a body, and enjoy it slowly.

The cruel master of the cruelty was empty for a moment, and glanced at Lydia, who was held in the hand by Chile, and secretly was indeed a human slave girl I saw.

According to her understanding, in recent decades, there have been fewer and fewer human adventurers who have come to the * world to take risks, and even ordinary humans have become scarce goods. Human slaves with equal appearance and strength like this are even rarer. If it is placed on the auction house, I am afraid that it is a sought-after among many * devil.

Cruel and sighed, I really don't know what her three brothers who didn't learn and did not know what * luck, they could actually catch such a superb quality. When they have enough play, it is a lot of money to change hands, which is really lucky.

But now they are about to leave, and Brutality is too lazy to look at them again.

She couldn't help but irrelevant people around her, and they were all gone, so she could do something that everyone loves to do with her Master Moyan.

Oh, Lord Mo Yan ...

The more cruel she is, the more she will spring up. She is a demon with a succubus gene. Some aspects of her talent are inherent.

Just as she was like Wang Chunshui, she slowly turned around and looked at Wang Yan, but Wang Yan turned her eyes and looked at the human slave girl.

“and many more!”

Wang Yan's eyes narrowed slightly, and the corners of his mouth rose fiercely, “That slave girl, I want it!”

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 1313

What, what?

The head of the cruel county screamed, his eyes widened.

She didn't believe her ears a little bit, and Lord Mo Yan, what she just said, was surely true, didn't she hear it wrong?

What is going on now? Is she not beautiful enough, or is she not good enough? Why does Lord Mo Yan look down on her, but she just likes the human slave girl?

If you talk about the charm, you can compare the best succubus beside Moyan with her, but which is worse than the human slave girl?

But the fact was like a thunderous thunder, and it slammed into her heart. The strong sorrow hardly made her cry.

Woo, is she not doing enough cruelty? Lord Mo Yan, how can you do this?

On the other side, the confusing lord and the club owner Coles were all stunned.

The confusing lord twitched inwardly, secretly, the boss is the boss, which is too cool! Fancy that female slave, that female slave, even the female slave of the devil's son dare to * it!

The club owner Coles is also a twitch in his heart, but his mood at this time is not excitement, but panic. After the curse is over, things are going to start again!

Only the succubus beside Wang Yan, still snuggling up beside Wang Yan, looking at all this with a smile, was completely unbelievable.

“what did you say?”

Lord Chile's eyebrows tightened, and he slowly turned around, the anger in his heart, and now he could not restrain his face.

At first he thought he had heard it wrong, but in fact, the words "that slave girl, I want it" had penetrated deeply into his ears.

At this moment, he couldn't believe his ears. Where is the courage of the young Devil who claimed to be Lord of the Flame Flame? How dare you grab the woman he fancy in front of him?

"I said, that slave girl, I want it."

As if to fight the Lord Chile once again, Wang Yan repeated what he had just said, even the tone of his speech did not change at all.

"Mo Yan! Don't go too far!"

The anger in Chi Lie's eyes came out in a puff. "It was just for the sake of the cruelty. Our brother was kind to you, but don't give your face away. It's boring!"

Chilie's two brothers couldn't help it either. Among them, Chi Yan shouted rudely: "Well, the old ladies have captured the female slaves who have come back thousands of miles, do you think you want them, how old are you?"

Chi Gu also laughed with the Yin Zhu strangely and said: "Jian Jie, Mo Yan? Huh, it's such a big fact. Do you know who is the site here? Even if the Devil comes, you have to take it in this city. Take your temper! "

Awkward and silent, he wiped a cold sweat in the bottom of his heart and secretly said: Niang, excitement! It's so exciting!

In the past few decades, he has been thinking about when he has a chance, he must brutally abuse these brothers who have bullied him since childhood.

Unexpectedly, he didn't have a chance himself, but the boss helped him realize this desire, making him see it as an addiction.

“Something to say, everyone has something to say.” Boss Coles smelled the gunpowder in the air, his mouth shuddered with fright, and everyone stepped forward to welcome him.

At this moment, he felt that his scalp was a bit blown. Like the Lord of Confusion, he also wiped a cold sweat from the bottom of his heart, but he cursed in his heart. What is this name called Mo Yan? Don't know if the ground snake can't mess with it?

He could hardly imagine that a lord from a foreign land, so robbed or not, was actually too brave to grab the woman whom Chilian Demon King's son wanted.

“The two lords, aren't you? The subordinate has a proposal.” Boss Coles' fat ugly face looked at Wang Yan nervously and laughed, “It's just a female slave, or ... Humble people call Master Moyan a hundred, Master Moyan wants to pick as many as you want, and make sure each one has a taste than female humans! “

“If Master Moyan likes it, the concubine will give the female slave chosen by the adult to the adult.” Seeing Wang Yan looking at him carelessly, the boss Coles quickly pleased again, “Hey, how? As for the human slave , Let's just forget it? “

After talking about it, the three brothers, Chi Lie, Chi Gu, and Chi Yan, bowed their knees and made a wink, as if hinting at Baki, this is fine, he turned around and had another benefit, to compensate these three brothers.

The three brothers, Chilie, Chigu and Chiyan, though they were very unhappy in their hearts, but after making an effort to reconcile with Coles, they opened their faces in shame and stopped talking.

Naturally, they also have a bit of vision. The Lord of the Demon Flame in front of him is extraordinary, and his blood and strength are extraordinary. Presumably heir of a large family. Coupled with his overbearing and arrogant style of behavior, this is undoubtedly true.

The world of * respects the strong, and the family built around the strong is undoubtedly a very powerful behemoth. Their three brothers, although they are heirs of the devil prince, but their father Chilian demon king, but a demon king who has only been newly promoted in the past few hundred years, the development strength is far from the deep-rooted old guys who have long been famous.

In addition, their sister seems to have hooked up with each other, so they think that if there is a chance, it is better to take the opportunity to get in touch with the strength behind him. A strong combination is better than a strong one.

Now boss Coles is also hinting that they will be compensated, so they still choose to endure again, as for revenge? This Liangzi is considered to have been settled, and will be found back sooner or later.

Even, get rid of this obnoxious Demon Lord!

“My demon flame master, what good is this human slave girl? Or, you look at the slave family? The benefits of the slave family, but there are more ...” Jiao Di, the master of the cruel county, attached to Wang Yan and was charming. The appearance picked by Ren Jun, as well as some naked hints, made people blush.

Boss Karls looked cold and sweaty. Her three elder brothers were even more embarrassed in their eyes, and they all had the heart to kill.

Their younger sister, the lord of the Tang Devil King, was so angry with a foreigner that they were so angry that they were about to vomit blood.

In fact, the brutal master also felt that he was very innocent. He was like a dog in the heart. At first, this guy was confused and troubled. Now her three elder brothers are also making troubles. The key is the dirty human slave girl. He even came to grab a man with him. Was it deliberately mad at her?

She just wanted to quietly tease a man, why is it so difficult?

“Wow, a hundred female slaves ...” The stunned lord was stunned, his excited heart leaping, and sighed that the boss’s hand was really high. This was simply a hundred female slaves with empty gloves!

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 1314

“Boss, why don’t you do this?”

Lord Chew was marveling at the terrible financial resources of these local tyrants, and whispered in the ear of Wang Yan.

The human slave girl is indeed very beautiful, with soft skin and good figure, but the boss Coles, in order to calm down, the conditions for opening are 100 female slaves! And fancy anyone can take away, this extremely attractive condition, where can a human slave girl compare?

“Boss, Boss, choose one hundred female slaves quickly, and then split me in half, no, no, no ... ten, just divide me into ten.” The confusing lord Lord was surging and frowning.

There was a sigh of emotion in his heart. The secret boss is the boss. This trick is really awesome, it is simply fraud!

If you change to him, you will definitely choose a hundred slaves, and all 100 must be taken away!

In the face of the surrounding eyes and different expectations, Wang Yan has remained immobile, and his eyes are still full of interest, and he looks at Lydia with panic and daze.

It took a long time to speak slowly: “Oh, a hundred slave girls? Where is it comparable to this human slave girl. After all, Chi Lie made a price, I want this human.”

Wang Yan’s careless chuckling suddenly seemed like a boring thunder, which slammed into everyone’s heart.

The sorrowful lord almost did not spit out old blood, and a hundred female slaves could not compare with this human chick?

Boss, are you sure you are kidding?

The confusing lord was horrified in his heart, with an unbelievable state of mind, he fixed his eyes on it, and suddenly the boss of the dark road really had a good vision. It turned out that this was a superb human slave girl!

The human female magician in front of her, although it looks a little messy, but it looks really pink and pretty, and she is very young, with an excellent quality, and even reached the half-step S level, which is extremely rare among female slaves. And if you look closely, you can find that her body seems to have been baptized with elements, which has extremely high affinity and recovery ability.

With this excellent qualification, let alone rare, it is simply a unique existence!

“Sure enough, the boss is the boss, this unique vision, he can not compare with ordinary lord.” Chi confessed lord shook, so that one hundred female slaves, really can not compare with this unique human chick .

Aside, the brutal master of the county was also fainted, swearing at his dream lover, how could he never miss this human slave girl? Is this human slave girl really so good?

She looked at Lydia quite disobediently, uh ... a closer look, it was really good.

“Mo Yan! What do you mean? Do you think this lord owes this money? The lord can tell you clearly that you want this slave girl? Dream!”

Chi Lie was really annoyed. His eldest son of the divine demon king was repeatedly taken away by this demon flame, which is really hateful! If this matter is passed on, how can he and his brothers be mixed in this demon king’s collar in the future?

“Mo Yan, don’t you not lift it up!” The second son Chigu gazed at the bird of prey and said coldly, “Don’t forget who is here, it’s not your turn to spread the wild.”

Sanzi Chiyan didn’t speak, but he was wild by nature, waiting for Wang Yan fiercely, as if a beast with a low bark, although he was about to step forward to eat and bite.

The boss Coles, who is behind these three sons, has a fat and ugly face, and has been entangled in worry.

He was in the noble colony, outside the magnificent Demon Palace. Although he usually makes a lot of money for these upper-level nobles, if these devil prince heirs make trouble with him? In particular, it alarmed the great demon lord and blamed him. How could he bear it?

But now the air was filled with the smell of gunpowder, and the conflict between the two parties was on the verge. He, the owner of this small entertainment club, now dared not even say much. If he goes on like this, how should he clean up this mess?

“Oh, the deal with you is to give you face, why? You still want to use traditional methods to resolve disputes?” Facing Chi Lie, the three brothers of Chi Gu and Chi Yan, with aggressive eyes, Wang Yan’s expression did not change at all. Instead, he chuckled softly, “Alright, but I’m afraid you can’t take it.”

His pure genetic bloodline from the Devil God is exactly the strong foundation of his hell. In addition, he has inherited a very powerful Vulcan power. The combination of the two makes him worth any legendary * lord.

And he was already familiar with the rules of survival here, knowing that the more such an unbelievable dude, the more he wanted to suppress them. Otherwise, in the end, it will be fooled by the other party.

“Mo Yan, you have a big tone ...” Chile, the first to bear the brunt, was gritting his teeth and teeth, and his face turned pale.

The two brothers, Chigu and Chiyan, were gloomy and angry.

The three of them grew so big. Except for their eldest son, the Red Demon King, they had never seen anyone more arrogant than them. The demon flame in front of them, could not help but be full, looking for death?

“Why? Not convinced?” Wang Yan turned his eyes slightly and continued to sneer. “Then call your father over and I can talk to him.”

“You!” Chi Lie has always conquered by force. Wherever he has encountered such an arrogant mouth gun, he suffocated in the heart on the spot, and almost did not bleed.

But his brother, Lord Chiyan, who was so irritable, finally couldn’t help it.

Such provocation and humiliation made him burst into shouts: “Fuck, find death!”

“Roar!”

In the next moment, Chi Yan was petrified, and his foot was kicked, just like a blasted stone cannonball, suddenly burst and protruded.

“Humph!”

Wang Yan groaned at the tip of his nose, stepped on the stone dining table with one foot, pulled a punch horizontally, and blasted towards Red Rock.

“Wow!”

Wang Yan’s fists were so fierce that they instantly stirred up layers of flames. The red rock rushed, like a ferocious beast of stone, descended from the sky and moved forward.

however.

“Boom” exploded!

The dining table under Wang Yan’s feet crackled, and his fists slammed into Chi Yan’s face at the same time.

“Oh!”

A layer of air waves erupted, and Chi Yan roared with muffled noise, and the petrified skin on the face suddenly cracked. And his whole person was under a heavy punch of Wang Yan, just like a dead dog kicked and flicked, twirling towards the rear and tumbling.

“boom!”

“Boom!”

Along the way, the floor, corridor columns, and ornaments were all crashed into pieces.

In an instant, the whole scene became silent.

Boss Coles eyes stared at the boss, the two brothers and sisters who were both confused and abused, and their eyes were also wide open, and they couldn't stop talking.

Opposite them, Chi Lie and Chi Gu's two brothers, their faces turned green and red, and the twisted look was as ugly as being fed a shit.

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 1315

"Fuck ... you, you dare to beat my brother!"

Lord Chilie was furious and gritted his teeth. The  fire controlled by his talent, with his anger, rose on the surface of his body, and soon a large blaze of fierce and evil  fire cloud was formed suddenly around him.

His brother Chigu also flashed a gruesome gesture at this moment. The bone spurs that had originally grown on his joints began to resemble reverse scales. The roots were erected, and the eyes of a pair of vaginal birds were full of heartbreaking, vicious breath.

The high temperature and the spicy breath began to spread in this elegant room, and the surrounding drapery ornaments burned.

The boss, Coles, who is closer to the two brothers, was immediately burned by the heat, and was terrified by the fierce breath. Scared that he turned around and threw himself to the side, the ugly expression was as if he had died his son.

The most luxurious and elegant room in this club, he spent a lot of money to decorate it. After a little conflict in front of him, he destroyed a piece of it. If he goes on like this, his loss is far more than selling a pro son!

No, no, in his eyes, the son can be regenerated, and the money can be transferred again, but can he have only one life? If something goes wrong and angers Lord Demon, he will have a hard time in the future.

“boom!”

Wang Yan squeezed with both fists, a red-like energy like fire and mist, and instantly blasted away the debris in front of him.

The elements of * fire that were permeating in the air also gathered around him.

The dense red cloud of fire, like a living creature, moved abruptly around him, making him like a demon coming from the flame, full of intimidating deterrence.

Chi Lie’s face became more and more difficult to look at. The power and fire that he showed were indeed burning fiercely, revealing a chilling evil spirit, but compared with Wang Yan in front of him, it was obviously inferior.

Lord Wang Yan, the incarnation of the demon flame, has a close affinity to the flame. Even a certain * demon king may not be able to compare with him.

At this moment, he just showed a fighting stance, and the fire element in the surrounding air seemed to be naturally called and rushed toward him.

The fire cloud condensed around him is obviously more pure and pure, revealing the incomparable kingly spirit. Chi Lie’s talents, the elements of Hellfire that were forcibly gathered, naturally cannot be compared with him.

“The confusing * flames, my little brother confuses the lord, and they are more professional than you.” Wang Yan stood in the * fire cloud, beckoning with disdain, “Save trouble, you go together.”

“Fuck!”

“you wanna die!”

The two brothers, Chile and Chigu, each made a roar, killing Wang Yan respectively. That posture that wanted to tear Wang Yan apart could not be stopped.

Especially Chile, he was blown away by Wang Yan.

In front of him, Yaowuyangwei did not say anything, but even dare to say to him that he is better to confuse that waste? This is simply the biggest shame on him!

His eldest son Chile, how could he not be as confusing as the illegitimate son who did not know where he came from?

What a joke!

“Wow!”

With a loud air blast, Chi Lie jumped up and pulled his arms up. The flames of * were like tide, condensing around him. With the movement of his arms, it was like a beast of flood water.

Hellfire!

It is the most outstanding talent skills of the Red Refining Demon King and his heirs!

Absolutely most purgatory demons have a high affinity for fire, but controlling * fire like tidewater is an extremely rare high-level power.

At that time, Chilian Demon King relied on this powerful fire ability to burn his opponent Demon King alive. And his eldest son, Chi Lie, also inherited this point perfectly. At the current legendary level, the elements of Hellfire have been perfectly controlled and powerful.

“Jin Jie, die!”

The second son Chigu is obviously a hybrid, but his strength is still recognized by the demon's father. At this time, during the forward rush, he saw a flash of cold light in his eyes, squeezed with one hand, Wang Yan suddenly ejected a large piece of white sensational spurs on the side wall.

Such a vicious and fierce blow, although there is no fierce and aggressive domineering, but it is unpredictable.

“Oh, really obedient, let you go, you go.” Wang Yan’s mouth slightly raised, and continued to disturb people’s mouth guns.

At this time his eyes narrowed slightly, the left side is a solid, fiery * fire wave, and the right side is a large piece of sharp bone spurs, so the left and right shots are indeed seamless. In exchange for other * lords, there are nine or nine times that cannot be escaped. In the end, they can only make a hard connection until they fall into the opponent’s offensive and are beaten and bruised.

However, Wang Yan is different from other * lords.

Almost in a short moment, a pair of wide demon wings raised high behind him was a slam, the space power attached to the wings was immediately activated, and Wang Yan flew tens of meters away. .

The fierce * fires, the thorns of the red bones, blasted each other, exploding in the place, the flames of gravel, and the crushed floor gravel, flying like a shell.

And Wang Yan, who flashed away, floated loosely behind Chilie and Chigu, and a pair of fists gathered a flame, and when the two reacted, they attacked them instantly!

“Boom!”

The collision of the three strongmen suddenly let the entire Yajian blast.

At such a level of strength as Wang Yan, the laws of the Yan system have long been integrated, and the abundant elements of hellfire around him are even more controllable.

Like Chi Lie, under the control of the powerful fire law, every punch Wang Yan makes and every flame he makes is all a force of solid elements. But compared to Chi Lie’s forcible * by talents, Wang Yan’s flames are undoubtedly natural and more aggressive, even if he does not use the childish warhammer, he can still fight one enemy and two, and the battle is easy.

In addition, until now, he has been using the mouth gun to stimulate the other party, just to make the other party angry, use his energy, and make a lot of chaos.

This approach not only allows him to hide his identity deeper and more confusing, but also allows him to take the initiative unconsciously and master the rhythm of the entire scene.

But Chi Lie and Chi Gu are indeed strong enough.

Although the two of them were stunned by their anger, their excellent qualities and the long-term understanding of their relationship with each other led to a fierce and unusual struggle with Wang Yan.

However, their inner confidence was extremely high. Their two brothers were already young leaders, and they did not believe, two to one, and they could not win this foreign Lord of Flames.

No more, when Chi Yan climbs up, they can still have three to one!

If this won't win, then the name of the devil's three sons has really been called in vain for so many years.

at this time.

A loud noise came suddenly!

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 1316

“boom!”

Wang Yan shone, escaped the sneak attack of Red Bone, and then threw a punch, and suddenly collided with the attacking Chi Lie.

Suddenly there was a loud noise, and a violent and terrifying wave of flames directly broke through the roof, and the turbulent tide rushed towards the endless night sky, half of the Great Fire City, and the brightly illuminated moment.

“Boom! Wow!”

The aftertaste of the explosion, like the thunder in the rainy season, tumbling in the sky. The crumbling rubble and rubble fell from the sky like a hail on fire.

At this moment, the elegant room on the top floor of the entire club was completely destroyed, and all four walls were blazed with a fire.

However, the architecture and materials of Hell World are indeed very strong and durable. Wang Yan and they are all like this. This elegant room is just blasted off the roof, and the entire floor is not collapsed.

But even fortunately, he looked at the ruins of the Yajian that had been almost razed to the ground, and the boss Coles wept on his back, and burst into tears.

It 's over, it 's over, the top class room he is proud of is completely gone!

Not even that. In this great city of drifting fire, it can be said that the Chilian Demon King is so powerful as to cover the sky with one hand. All three sons are here with him, and he fights with a foreign lord. Looking at the posture, I was beaten more often. If you go on like this, it will inevitably attract the attention of Chilian Demon King.

Next, whether it's the army or the Red Refining Demon King, as long as he angers with him, he, the little boss, may only be responsible for his own blame.

“Look, look at that!”

“Who, who is fighting there? Isn't our Liuhuocheng City prohibiting private fighting?”

“Bang!” “Crack!”

“Wow! Lou, the Lou is about to collapse! Hurry, run out!”

Above the top of the building, Wang Yan and Chi Lie, the one with the bare bones called a hot sky, the earth-shattering posture caused the whole club building to roar and tremble.

The wealthy aristocracy in the clubhouse, and the large number of Yingying Yanyan, were all scared to run to the street outside the building. They are all just low-level  residents who are greedy for pleasure. Who knows that the big fights above their heads will be a big move to destroy them together with the whole building?

“Look! Then, that, that, that is the eldest and second son of His Majesty the Devil!”

“Devil, the eldest and second son of His Majesty the Demon King, are fighting a strange young man!”

“My God ... Well, what on earth did that young man come from? How could it be so strong? So, with one enemy and two, it still doesn't fall down!”

“Wow! The fire is coming, hurry, hurry!”

Those who ran down the street, and the inhabitants of  who ran out of the surrounding buildings, finally saw who the protagonist was.

The onlookers of these good things jumped one by one in their hearts, and their eyes were shining.

What are the unreachable existence of the high devil princes? And the young man who fought against the devil prince must be some unattainable royal family?

In short, the two parties in front of the melee, regardless of their status or their own strength, are far from ordinary people like them, and can be compared.

Right now, these high-ranking high-ranking nobles are suddenly on the roof of this clubhouse, and it is definitely a rare event that has been rare for a hundred years.

This stimulation stimulated the strong curiosity of these ordinary residents. How can they usually see such a fierce battle? What's more, the demon king's son in this city is fighting another demon youth.

People with good things are already in their minds, and crazy brains make up countless guesses and imaginations. The lower-level Goblin, barbarian and other races were even more excited to run and shout in the street, attracting a large number of belligerent residents, who also followed and shouted for battle.

However, although these ordinary residents are good and happy, they also know how many insurmountable gaps there are with the legendary lords above.

Strength is the hardest truth here.

Therefore, while they were excited and watching, they never dared to take a step forward, for fear that the fighting gangsters above their heads could smash them and destroy them with a single blow. After they died, there was no place to reason.

“Team, Captain! Yes, it is Chile, and His Highness Red Bones are fighting!”

A team of city guards flew to the scene as soon as they sensed the battle. The one hundred guards were all dumbfounded when they saw the target of the battle.

“Not only, but also His Highness Chile, the demon, Lord Demon Flame!”

“My God! Mo, Lord Mo Yan and Chi Lie, and Chi Bone, two and two His Highness fight!”

The 100-person guard who recognized Wang Yan was the team who had previously guarded the gate. At this time, he had just shifted to patrol, but he just encountered such a shocking event.

Two of the captains of the guards were previously favored by Wang Yan and were not punished by the brutal master of the county. Seeing the protagonist of the battle at this time, it was Wang Yan who changed his name to Mo Yan. He opened his mouth suddenly and opened his eyes.

Wang Yan, who is quite a fan in their hearts, why are they fighting with the demon king now? If you want to play, you have to play in the trial competition of Hell!

What should I do? They dare to control civilians, but how do they manage these big men? The most important thing is that, with their strength, they can't even get in there?

“Captain, me, what should we do? Do you want to take care of it?”

Several guards probed the brain beside the two captains and tried to inquire.

As soon as these words came out, the two captains barely spurted out old blood. The captain of the guard on the left scolded and said, “Tube? Are you in the past, let me watch over Laozi?”

“You idiots, which of the adults, which one can we afford? Let alone such a fierce hellfire, with your strength, can you bear it?” The captain on the right is also a big head Khan shouted wildly, “Don’t look silly, hurry up, go with me and report to Lord Devil!”

“Wow!”

It was another horrendous chaos, and dozens of guards came from all directions, and they quickly joined together. Most of the guards stayed in place to maintain order, and the rest followed more than ten main captains. Run to the Devil’s Palace.

The fierce hellfire was burning on the roof of the clubhouse.

Even if there is no burning material around, there are only bare and dark walls, but the  fire still shows no signs of extinction, but because of the more and more fire elements gathered around, it burns violently out of thin air.

In the fire, Lidia, who tied her own chain and held it in her hands, looked at it with horror.

Now she has built a guardian wind shield based on the holy weapon necklace to resist the burning of the surrounding waves, but it is already very difficult, but above her head, she is using this power, the fiery flames and fierce battle of fierce battle, and the red bone , How strong are their strengths?

I am afraid this is the terrible place of the legendary S-class. It is estimated that this level of power can only be compared with the son of flame, right?

When she thought of Wang Yan, the son of flames, Lydia's heart seemed to have a courage out of thin air. She pulled up the chain that locked her and stood up and tried to escape.

But at this moment, a huge, ugly face of the Purgatory Demon Clan blocked her.

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 1317

"Cheesy maid! Where are you going?"

The fat and ugly boss, Coles, was furiously blocked in front of Lydia who wanted to escape.

As soon as he saw the human slave girl, the boss Coles was out of breath, his teeth tickled.

"Humble humble slave! Do you know that it's all because of you, and several adults have fought against me here! It's also because of you, my proud top class room, which has completely turned into a ruin!"

Boss Coles stared at Lydia fiercely, scolding his teeth, "Now, you mean a slave, you still want to run? I think you are eating bear heart leopard gallbladder, it's really a lifeless thing!"

Coles said more and more angry, raising his hand and trying to teach this disobedient slave girl.

Faced with the palm-sized slap, Lydia suddenly shuddered and shivered.

If in the past, with her excellent talents and magical abilities, you are not afraid of this Coles. However, after she was put on a metal collar now, she couldn't use any magic. She could only protect herself by controlling her magic power.

She understands that the collar around her neck must have been enchanted to some extent, so now she can't resist Coles' big slap at all. It's really a slap in her hand. Absolutely choking!

at this time.

“Boo” sounded softly, and a long red whip with barbs suddenly hit Coles’ face.

“Snapped!”

There was a * scar on Coles’ face.

The pain made him even more angry, and when he turned around and looked back, the smart long whip took a roll and dragged Lydia in front of him.

“Succubus? How brave you are!”

When Coles saw the succubus beside Moyan, he pulled the human slave girl away in front of him, and his eyes were about to burst into flames.

How can such things happen among their purgatory demons? Such a fascinating pet, too brave?

“Oh, the noisy dead fat pig, this is the slave girl of my demon flame master, which is a lowly guy like you, you can touch?” The succubus squinted slightly, sneered coldly. Life and death, be careful, grandma, I’ll peel your skin alive! “

“It’s earthshaking! A little succubus dare to talk to me like this, is it really like I can’t control you?”

The fat on Coles’ face was shivering with anger, although his status was not as good as the devil prince present and the general lord, but in the end, he had been in this great city of fire and fire for many years.

As far as this club is concerned, there are thousands of female slaves trained by him. When did they be abused in front of a charmed pet by a charming pet? He will still be peeled? Did he really grow up with dry rice?

At the moment, he took a fierce bite on the ground, leaped a scolding step, and flew towards the succubus of Wang Yan.

However, he hadn't rushed far, and was brutally slapped by the master of the county halfway through, slumped to the ground.

"Fuck things! Didn't you hear that? This is Lord Moyan's slave girl, that is, the slave girl of this county. Do you even control the slave girl of this county?"

The brutal master shrieked coldly and scared Coles with cold sweats, lying on the ground and repeatedly compensating for it.

Coles wanted to cry without tears in his heart, cursing and forgetting that there was still such a cruel ruler.

The cruel county master said to the demon lord Lord, that one was always passionate, and he was dead, and she was there, lending him a hundred guts, and he did not dare to make times.

"Humph! Go away, there is no room for you to speak here!"

"Yes Yes Yes....."

The brutal lord gave a squinting look, and Coles quickly lost money and shrank away.

The surroundings were fiery and messy, and the cruel county chief was also in a hurry and a mess.

She felt that she had really seen a ghost. Her own Master Moyan, fancy this female slave, Xiaosan, she even helped to maintain it. What is happening to her now?

On the other side, the succubus slightly raised his mouth and said coldly: "Miss slave girl, if you don't want to die, just stay with me, otherwise there are tens of millions of ugly * creatures in this city, waiting Will enjoy you. "

She smiled deeply, and her words really scared Lydia.

Lydia did not recognize that Mo Yan was Wang Yan, nor did she recognize this succubus, the pet favorite beside Wang Yan.

Now that Wang Yan has used bloodline evolution to evolve into the purgatory demon clan, no one can recognize him as Wang Yan without saying anything.

With the help of Wang Yan's bloodline evolution, the succubus has used the purgatory red lotus, and a variety of fire materials to evolve towards the fire creature, plus she has broken through to the legendary S level . Appearance and temperament have been very different from the past. Not to mention Lydia, even friends who have had more contact with Wang Yan before are probably unrecognizable, not to mention Lydia who doesn't know too much about the succubus itself.

However, Lydia felt that the mysterious and cold succubus in front of her did not seem to have any malicious intentions, and she had realized deeply that her own strength, in the world of hell, a dangerous world full of dangerous creatures, really It's not enough to look at.

If she acted rashly again, I am afraid there was really only one way to go.

“Alas ...” Lydia sighed in despair, “Son of Flame, where are you ...”

Now I blame myself for being too rash, not finding the child of flames, nor entering the remains of the starry sky god, but letting myself fall into crisis. What should she do in this way?

The succubus glanced at Lydia without saying anything.

Now that she has reached the legendary level and added the affinity of flame, she easily uses magic power to separate a layer around to isolate the fire-free space of * fire.

She still leaned elegantly on the sofa, holding a glass of crystal clear liquor in her hand, and quietly stared at the host Wang Yan who was fighting above.

Today, she and her master Wang Yan are different now. As long as they follow the master, no matter what opponent they meet, she will not be afraid.

“Third brother!”

“Chiyan!”

“When are you going to lie down? Hurry up to me!”

“Come with us and kill this * magic flame!”

Chilie and Chigu were above the top floor, calling out in anger.

Despite the fierce fighting between you and me from the beginning of the war to the present, in fact, the time has only passed a dozen breathing efforts. It’s just because they are so strong that their movements are already fast enough to dazzle ordinary people.

“Slurp!”

Buried in the rubble of rubble and rubble, he stood up suddenly. He shook his head angrily, and Wang Yan struck his cheek with all his strength. The clear fist marks left began to recover quickly with the naked eye As always.

“Fuck things ...”

Angry Red Rock is like a furious beast, staring closely at Wang Yan above, “Dare to hurt me, I want your life!”

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 1318

“Okay, terrible resilience ... Is this the powerful feature of the Infernal Demon Clan?”

Lydia looked back on her feet again, almost unharmed Chi Yan, scared and stunned.

Although she didn’t know the strength of Wang Yan, who is now incarnation of the magic flame, how powerful the full blow was, but when she saw the magic flame lord, the red rock was blown away with a punch, her heart jumped.

The punch seemed ordinary, but it was simple and rough, full of shocking explosiveness. With her current strength and vision, she has clearly seen in that very short moment that the Lord Mo Yan sways his fist, and the space around the fist is slightly jittered and twisted.

This is such a powerful force? Even if it is a red tank famous for its strength on earth, I am afraid it is impossible to take this punch hard?

Indeed, Wang Yan was able to contend with the red tank in terms of strength, and now he uses bloodline evolution to absorb the genes of the Demon God's avatar, which can be multiplied by the increase in the attributes of all parties.

The red tank must not be able to catch it now, and the Red Rock Lord could not.

It was under the violent punch of Wang Yan that the red rock was blasted to a distance of 100 meters, lying on the ground and dizzy for more than a dozen kung fu before he got up again.

But the terrible place of Purgatory Demon Race is that after eating a heavy blow to Red Rock, after just a dozen breaths, it is still like a human being, still living with dragons and tigers, and its murderousness is even more ruthless.

At this time, Lydia realized with horror that the book was indeed true, and * was indeed a world full of dangerous creatures.

In the library of Starry Sky College, the recorded world of * is very one-sided. Until she came here in person, she realized how dangerous it was and how powerful the creatures were.

In the case of Purgatory Demon Clan, such terrible recovery ability makes them have a very abnormal endurance. If some kind of attrition battle is played, the racial characteristics of the Infernal Demon Race will definitely be worth any opponent. Or in a certain battle between Uncle and Zhong, with such tenacious vitality, it is enough to reverse the whole battle in the end.

“No, Mo Yan must be in danger.”

Lydia's eyes narrowed slightly, and she found that Chi Yan did not immediately join the battle when she stood up, but she bowed her body and locked the movement of Lord Mo Yan tightly.

It seems that it is waiting for the opportunity, and finally gives this magic flame lord a fatal blow.

According to common sense, Lydia didn't really care about the life and death of these purgatory demons, but compared to the three demon kings, she felt that if she fell into the hands of this magic flame, she would be safer.

The succubus, the red puzzle, and the brutal master of the county all saw this.

The succubus still sits coldly and quietly, and his expression is ancient, but his eyes and mind are always locked in every action on the battlefield.

Now she has a deep understanding of how powerful the master Wang Yan is. In the face of the two legendary lords, Wang Yan is absolutely at ease.

What if you face the three demon kings at the same time? Although she is not sure what the result will be, she believes that even if the three demon kings join forces together, they may not pose a great threat to Wang Yan.

In addition, she is a very obedient darling. Without Wang Yan's speech, she will not easily add chaos to Wang Yan. So she decided to take good care of Lidia, the little nizi, and then she could wait for Wang Yan's order at any time.

Compared with the succubus' unhurried calmness, the Lord of Deception and the Lord of Cruel Abuse fell into a fierce inner struggle.

In the heart of the confusing lord, he called a seven up and eight down. Although he had long wanted to fight back his old man and beat his brother, it was really at this juncture. The fear and humiliation that had been accumulated in his heart for decades. Instead, the shadow has brought him great pressure.

For a long time, Chilian Demon King, who did not regard him as his son, was like a towering mountain, and it was pressed heavily on his heart. His three elder brothers were also better than him since childhood, and each of them regarded him as a servant and took pleasure in bullying him.

At the thought of these memories of the past, the confusing lord became tight and sweaty. These past events are undoubtedly not one obstacle after another on his way forward.

In addition to his current strength, it was only in the last two or three decades that he was thrown into the wild land like Chilian Huze before he advanced to the legendary level with his own efforts.

With this strength, whether he can match his three brothers is all unknown, which undoubtedly increased the pressure on his heart again.

“Mother’s ...” Chidu swallowed and swore secretly.

He looked up and looked at the boss who was fighting above his head, and his heart was ruthless. Once he grasped the battle axe in his hand, a flashing body traversed in front of Chi Yan.

Chi Yan, who was attentive and ready to attack, was taken aback by the confusion that suddenly struck in front of him, and immediately angrily scolded: “Fuck things, are you going to betray the family and fight with our three brothers?”

At this time, he still did not count Chidu into their brothers, only as a servant with the name of Chilian Demon King.

“Bah! It’s your * fucking thing!” At this time, the confusing lord was also forgiven. His fangs snarled and said angrily, “What’s the matter with the lord traitor? You guys have never seen the lord lord as yourself. Now the lord lord has followed the boss of the magic flame, and now he is watching the boss fighting alone. Without help, that ’s betrayal! “

“Reverse, really reverse!”

Chiyen’s eyes were bulging, his body trembling straight.

He didn’t expect it at all. He was cowardly and incompetent. He was bullied by his brother for decades, but now he dares to talk to him like this, and he dares to face his sword. Where is the courage?

“For so many years, you have only been our brother’s plaything, and now you dare to do it to me? Hahaha, you really have a good time!” Chi Yan smiled angrily, staring fiercely at the confusion, “Well, really good!” The lord will fulfill you now. Look at how capable you and your boss are, and dare to fight against our brothers! “

“Don’t talk nonsense, come on!”

When Lord Chew clenched his teeth, he fought against Lord Chiyan in a rush.

Both of them are tough and strong men. The confusion makes a double-edged battle axe. Although it is not a precious weapon, it wins a solid and heavy victory. From the storage belt, Chiyan pulled out a hot, hammer-like two-handed hammer that looked like metal and stone.

Obviously, this warhammer has a flame attribute, which is a level higher than the confusing tomahawk. However, the blood in a bewildered blood filled the gap in weapons.

The two attacked each other with axe and hammer. These two weapons are heavy and powerful guys, and every time they collide, a violent violent weather erupts.

Lydia looked aside, looking pale.

The demon lord and the two demon princes, even the thrill of the fierce battle, even now this confusing and the other demon prince, the same momentum is fighting.

Is this the terrible power of  creatures?

Lydia has been deeply aware that the proportion of S-level legendary strongmen here is simply more than the A-class guru strongmen on earth!

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 1319

“Third brother ?!”

Chi Lie was waiting for Chi Yan to come to support, but turned his head to look around, almost no old blood spewed out.

The wasteless confusion of the unknown life and death, even helped this outsider Mo Yan, and his third brother Chi Yan, fought underneath!

“That bastard, where is the courage to dare to betray our brothers for the sake of outsiders?” The red bone saw it, and immediately gnashed his teeth, cursing slyly, “Mo Yan! Don’t be proud, there is no red rock, with our brother It can still pack you up, and it will take the most time. “

“Oh, is it? The two of you?”

Wang Yan easily escaped the attack of Red Bone and laughed contemptuously, “Speaking of my little brother, he is much smarter than you, at least he is a lift, and you? Ha ha ... not even the Goblin I met . “

“What do you say?” Chi Lie’s eyes were cold, “Chi Gu, don’t talk nonsense with this guy, no matter where he comes from, we know him!”

Chi Gu had already lost his patience, and suddenly his eyes flashed cold, and together with Chi Lie, he gave Wang Yan a cruel hand.

“boom!”

“Click!”

The flames of hell, the flying bone spurs, and the broken rock fragments on the wall once again exploded above the clubhouse.

The battle situation escalated accordingly, and the onlookers and residents around the clubhouse and surrounding areas continued to gather good things.

These crowds gathered more and more, and they were shocked to find that above their heads, there was not only a battle between Moyan and the two demon princes, but also a confusing lord and another demon prince. .

Such unprecedented emergencies almost excited all the onlookers. They all seemed to be beaten with chicken blood, and there was a lot of talk on the outside, cheering and screaming.

Those who lived in the outer slums naturally wanted to join in the excitement and crowded into the noble settlements here, so that in the neighborhoods of the clubhouse, more and more people gathered, so that the guards who maintained order Difficult to resist.

The crowds who are far away and have poor vision are mostly covered with roofs and treetops. This kind of stimulating scene is rarely encountered once in a century. They are not willing to miss it.

With the substantial increase in the flow of people, it also brought huge pressure to the scene.

Wang Yan naturally doesn't matter. He has this strength and he has mastered the initiative on the spot, so he is still insulted. Wang Yan's younger brother, Lord Chew, has not changed much.

This confusing nerve is relatively thick. Since he decided to get rid of it, he was too lazy to think about it, thinking about how to knock down the red rock that had bullied him.

But the devil's three sons are different. Since they are playing, they must not lose, otherwise their devil's three son's name, and their father Chilian demon's face, where to go?

It's just taking advantage of this. While fighting with them, Wang Yan used mouth guns to continuously increase the pressure on the three demon kings, which attracted the fiery atmosphere of the scene.

On the top floor of the clubhouse, the Abbot of the Abuse County stood anxious.

On the one hand, she was worried that Master Moyan would be hurt by her brother, so she couldn't help but want to help. But because of his own identity, it is difficult to disobey his brother and father.

This made her anxious to be neither the left nor the right. Finally, she turned to look at the female slave Xiao San who caused the disaster, and she felt depressed again.

Isn't it a human slave? Although it's a bit rare, beautiful, and a little better, is it still a human slave? As for beating a female slave like this?

Thinking about it like this, she feels that Master Moyan, if you receive a P3, just receive a P3, how big can it be? Speaking of blood lineage and identity, the main room will definitely be hers in the future.

Thinking of this, the narrow-eyed master of the Abuse County slightly squinted and shouted above his head: “Chilie, you are my elder brother, why are you so stingy? You said, how much did you sell this slave girl to me!”

Above, Lord Chilie slammed his fists, struggling to crush Wang Yan ’s fist, and said anxiously and anxiously: “Little girl, do you know that the current problem is not on this slave girl!”

“Well, since the problem is not with this female slave, then this female slave belongs to me!” The brutal county master immediately pointed at the female slave Lydia.

Above, Chi Lie and Chi Gu heard, almost headless and dizzy, and fell down from the sky.

What does it mean that the problem is not with this female slave, and the female slave belongs to you? What kind of thinking is this woman? Did she understand what is happening now?

“No one is allowed to move that slave girl!” Chi Lie gave her sister a suffocating suffocation, suffocating a sullen moment, and scolded: “Chi abuse, now you still need to protect this devil magic flame? I think you are faint It’s over! “

“Now give you two choices, either come and help me kill him, or stay obediently, do n’t mess around!”

How can Chilie be distracted now? The magic flame in front of me is unexpectedly difficult. Since he is playing now, he must not be let go. Otherwise, according to the rules in hell, he will not only be seen by the other party, but the subsequent troubles will only increase. Even the majesty of their Chilian family may be lost.

“What? I’m fooling? I’m dizzy? You tell me clearly!”

Where did the brutal master suffer from the fierce criticism? Immediately, she fluttered her wings and flew in front of Chi Lie, exclaiming, “This female slave is going to move, isn’t it a human female slave? Why can’t you sell it to me?”

“I said sister, can you carry the situation? Can you not bother me?”

“What? I bother you? Why am I bothering you?”

“You, you are really my sister!”

In the face of such cruel and cruel cruelty, Chile's depressed couple wanted to vomit blood. My sister, really spoiled by their father, does everything at his own will, no matter which one is more important.

In this short moment, Wang Yan's mouth slightly raised, and the red bone in front of him suddenly seemed to be an enemy, and he secretly cursed his mother to sell it. Is he boneless?

Just in a flash.

A flaming warhammer suddenly appeared in Wang Yan's hands.

Soon, as Wang Yan shone, his figure was like a flash, and he jumped high in front of Chi Gu.

“Red bone? Ha ha, you just talked a lot.”

Wang Yan sneered, and in the next moment, the fire hammer in his hand seemed to contain the earthly power, wrapped in layers of flames, and fell suddenly!

“not good!”

The red-bone pupil shrank, and the curse was worse.

At this moment, he is alone, feeling like he is facing a terrifying devil! The awe-inspiring pressure from the other party seemed to be a big hand, holding his heart tightly, making him breathe like a stagnation.

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 1320

“do not underestimate me!”

The red bone gazed at the bird of prey and snarled.

As the son of the devil, he was naturally not a vegetarian. At the turn of the crisis, he immediately raised his arms and crossed the front. One bone spur after another, as if created out of thin air, quickly interweave and combine in front of him.

In just a moment, three bone spur shields composed of dense bone spurs were formed!

“Ji Jie, this is the defensive secret technique that the lord is proud of, you are absolutely impossible ...”

The Red Bone Lord laughed arrogantly, but his voice hadn't fallen yet, and there was a crisp crackle that followed his ears.

“Click!”

“Click!”

“Boom!”

With just one blow, the three lines consisted of dense bone spurs, and the defensive shield suspended in front of him suddenly burst into pieces.

Terror and fierce flames, like a large hot splash, immediately spread in front of him in all directions. And his bone shields, comparable to purgatory steel, were like blasted glass, blasting away all around.

“No, it's impossible! Why, how could this be?”

The eyes of the red bone were wide open, and the heart was horrified, thumping violently in his chest.

Among their three brothers, he may not be as inferior as the hellfire hegemony controlled by his eldest son Chile, and there is no third son Chiyan. But as the second son of Chilian Demon King, his talented bone spurs are strange and fierce and unpredictable.

The bone spur shield built by him is even more indestructible, and the interior is full of elemental energy, and its hardness is even stronger than the charged purgatory steel.

But the Lord of the Flames in front of him, even with a single blow, even broke his three bone spine shields, how did he do it?

What kind of equipment is the fiery warhammer in his hand, and what terrible power does he have?

Surprised to be surprised, the demon's second son with red bones is indeed very powerful. With a violent blow, Wang Yan only shattered the bone shield in front of him, and failed to advance his duty.

However, the shock wave from the explosion made him suspended in midair, a staggering, wide open portal.

“Red bone, your words, too much.”

Wang Yan, who had already gone through a lot of battles, immediately seized the opponent's defensive gap, his eyes flashed coldly, and he turned around to turn a foot.

“puff!”

The red bones were violently violently spitting out a bite of blood. The whole person was like a prawn bowed, and was suddenly kicked out.

“Bang Bang Bang!”

A sea of scorching waves suddenly emptied. Under the red air wave, the red bone was like a baseball that was hit. First, the floor of the clubhouse hit a big hole, and then it broke through several floors one after another, and then stopped.

There was a sudden silence at the scene, and then there were crowds of people on the perimeter of the clubhouse, and immediately there was a tremendous shock.

“Wow! Okay, so strong!”

“The hammer just now was ... too, amazing!”

“Here, this Lord of Demon Flames, was able to blow through the three bone spine shields of His Royal Highness Bone with one blow, terrible, terrible!”

Watching the crowd around, Qiqi shocked Wang Yan to the heaven and earth!

Soon, the crowd’s exclamation gradually turned into a noisy discussion with reverence and speculation.

“This Lord Lord of Flames, what is the origin? Why, how can it be so powerful?”

“That’s right, you look at him all over the fire, it’s so handsome, so handsome!”

“Is he ... a certain devil, heir of the great noble?”

“I look like ... right, aren’t you on duty at the club? Tell us about it, what is the origin of this Lord Mo Yan?”

“Yes, yes, let us know.”

A waiter who escaped from the clubhouse building was immediately surrounded by the crowd.

As for the other employees who had escaped from the clubhouse, the banshee, even the domineering Goblin, was surrounded by curious crowds.

Hell world worships the strong man, this unfamiliar demon lord, for nearly a hundred years, the devil's second son, who has always been above him, has made a move.

This is really exciting and amazing!

“Me, I’m just a chapel, how can I know me?” The surrounded waiter replied in a daze, “But our boss, Lord Coles, is very respectful to them. , The background should be deep and deep ... “

“Possibly, it’s a high-ranking big man, a heir to travel abroad?”

The waiter answered ambiguously, but his speculation was also the speculation of the crowd around him.

Through such an overbearing and fierce blow, Wang Yan is undoubtedly a tall person in the eyes of these onlookers, traveling to the heirs of their great city of fire.

Otherwise, how could this demon lord Lord have such a strong and domineering momentum?

On the roof of the clubhouse, Lydia collapsed at the foot of the succubus, a pair of charming eyes staring at the top, standing in the air, the majestic Demon Lord.

“Okay, what a terrible power!” Her delicate body shook instinctively at the moment.

After all, her strength did not reach the height of these * lords. With so many * lords, fighting each other, and the coercion of imposing coercion, no matter how good her mental quality is, her body will still instinctively feel deep fear.

That’s right, it’s fear, that is, the instinctive fear that ordinary creatures feel when they face advanced predators because of their powerlessness and despair.

For the first time, she truly realized how aggrieved and helpless she was lacking in her own strength.

According to her previous life on the earth, because of her excellent talents and the careful teaching of Grandpa Emmons, at a young age, her cultivation ability has soared.

She is like the top student in the school who has won the first test. She has never felt how difficult it is to practice and improve her strength. In her heart, if you want to improve yourself, you just need to spend some time to work hard. It seems that practicing is never difficult.

But here is different, here is a ruthless and cruel world of hell, no one will give time to let you grow up and develop slowly. With a little carelessness, it will become a prey stepped on by others.

It's like the devil's second son, Red Skeleton, who has just been arrogant and arrogant, and also like himself who is now being sold as a slave girl.

If there is a chance to come again, her Lydia will never be caught as a slave again, and will never be so dominated by helplessness. She will do everything she can to become stronger and become like The Son of Flame is as powerful and outstanding!

Only by constantly breaking through himself, can he survive in the cruel world of hell, find a child of flames, recapture the relics of the starry sky god, can he return to the earth, and let the starry sky college rise again!

Lydia made a lot of determination in her heart, but when she remembered the son of flames, she couldn't help but look at the burning fire hammer in the hands of Mo Yan.
