The Domestic Hero - Chapter 1461

“Oh, those two demon king guards are indeed not stupid. They have prepared so many troops here. It seems that in order to get Zoe and the real eye, they can really make sense.”

Wang Yan slowly fell to the ground, his eyes insidiously swept toward the dense demon guard in front of him.

The square and the street in front of us are already filled with the guards from the two demon kings. The number is probably two or three thousand!

The vast majority of them are heavily armed, barbarian guards armed with shields. These barbarians are all fighting races, born with excellent warriors. At this time, they are strong and tall, equipped with uniform armor and weapons, and the pressure formed there is huge.

Among them, the leading captains of the barbarian guards are all the more noble purgatory demons. Under the command of the Purgatory Demon Race, regardless of the majestic momentum and strict discipline, they have obviously risen to a new level.

On the two sides behind these guards, there are still more powerful hellhorse cavalry, a full number of two or three hundred! In addition, there are hundreds of crossbowmen, all hidden on the roofs of the streets on both sides.

It has to be said that so many heavy armor guards are very bluffing and guarded.

Not only were there enemies on the front, but behind Wang Yan and others, hundreds of guards guarding the city gates were also mobilized.

Among these city gate guards, two captains of the guards have also received the favor of Wang Yan, but at this time they have no choice but to accept the order and lead people to block Wang Yan's retreat.

At this time, Wang Yan's team can be said that the enclosed water is not leaking and it is difficult to move forward.

“Ma'am, are they crazy? Use so many people to deal with us ?!”

With a loud insult, Lord Chew confessed that the rest of Wang Yan's men and slaves also rushed out of the underground black market and fell to Wang Yan's side.

It is true that there are many people and no one. Once a group is scaled, even a single strength may not be as strong, but the pressure formed by the aggregation is really huge.

If a single legendary strongman, or a small group of slaves, meets such a heavily guarded army, I am afraid that only a handful of players can capture it, and it is estimated that they will not be able to struggle even a few times.

However, there are many masters on Wang Yan's side. It can be said that apart from some of the female slaves that followed, the rest of the members are all elite who have been through battles. In addition, there are several powerful legendary lord-level powerful suppressors, so not only did there not appear any fear, but all the fighting spirits were high and eager to try, even the more than 30 slaves who came with them were exposed. The deputy went out and followed the perseverance of Lord Mo Yan to the end.

The single round team cohesion, Wang Yan's side is undoubtedly much stronger than the demon king's guards in front of him.

As for the leader of this team, Wang Yan will not be afraid of these heavily guarded guards.

But he couldn't help but think that the two demon guards used almost all the power they could use, and even broke the face completely with Wang Yan and the brutal master, just to take away the appraiser Zoe and the real Eyes, such a price is undoubtedly too great.

Dare to pay such a price can only explain one thing, that this Zoe with superb identification skills is bound to be related to the important secrets controlled by the three demon kings, even the red demon king himself!

“Lord Flame Lord, you are indeed strong, but can you be stronger than so many troops?”

Seeing that he had his own army to protect, General Dunbar got upright immediately, and screamed fiercely across the heavy guards, “If you have the ability, keep on chasing, and dare to go to the demon king’s guard, but you can’t get through with your majesty. ! “

“What are you doing nonsense with them?” General Cass, who was relatively cautious, quickly stepped on a * dog and hummed, “Lord Lord Mo Yan is so good, let him chase it, and wait until the palace of the devil, hum! See if he can There are a few lives toss! “

“It’s not too late, let’s go!” Dunbar, holding Zoe, also mounted a * dog, and with Kas, turned and fled.

Zoe, who was lying on the back of the * dog, looked at the dense demon guards in front of him, and his heart was full of dignity. Her demon flames can really deal with so many troops, and can she really be rescued?

Without waiting for her to think carefully, the hellhound that had been running had taken her to the distance.

“Fuck things, how dare you dare to take the initiative in this county?” Wang Yan was on his side, and the brutal master of the county immediately scolded loudly.

She saw that the two Demon King guards were so disrespectful, they were almost mad, and the key was in the face of Lord Mo Yan, which embarrassed her.

And now the army that belongs to her father is so faceless, this is not just not to put her in the eyes, it is clear that in the eyes of her father Chilian Demon King, she does not have any actual status, just a favorite Daughter only. If she does not meet Wang Yan, she may still be used as a political tool in the future and arrange to marry someone.

However, the guards who guarded the army, even though they feared the brutal master, remained immobile, and the death order they received was more important than the unhappy that caused the brutal master.

Therefore, these imperial guards who were in front of them were always unmoved, silent, and besieged Wang Yan and others to the same place. This looks can bite the teeth of the brutal county master, and the eyes are full of breath. .

At this time, Wang Yan could not help but chuckled: “Oh, I really don’t know what to do.”

The two demon guards were so arrogant and bold that they really annoyed him. And only these people in front of him, dare to stop him Wang Yan? Just kidding, does he seem so bully?

“It is still that sentence, catch up with the lord, any obstruction will be destroyed!”

Wang Yan spoke lightly and spoke slowly, but fell into the hearts of those guards and guards, but they were as heavy as an enemy, making them all tense, and even the sweat of the tension was wet come out.

“charge!”

One command had not yet fallen, and Wang Yan didn’t know when there was an extra warhammer in his hand. As he issued this command, the Warhammer in his hand crashed to the ground.

“boom!”

Suddenly there was a roar, and the ground underneath was rolling like waves, with layers of scorching waves and mud, directly hitting the forward guards.

“Wow!”

“Woo!”

The square in front of the black market was instantly destroyed by shock waves, and those guards, under the impact of shock waves and rolling ground, fell together and made a mess.

At this moment, the screaming ogre, like a high-speed container truck, crashed into the guards.

“Boom!”

“Uh ah!”

The first guards blocking the road immediately flew into the air in a tragic howl.

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 1462

“Boom!”

“Bang Bang Bang!”

In the chaos, a sound like the collision sound of morning bells, twilight drums, and the screams of the demon king’s guards, one after another, endlessly.

It was this elite gladiator from the Ogre Crow Maul, Abulon Maul, that caused such a commotion.

Ogre Abron has been successfully promoted to the level of legendary lord with the help of life and death, and Wang Yan’s personal help. This made him all cells, has been greatly refined and evolved. The power contained in his body almost made him comparable to the power of a dragon, which turned over several times!

At this time, the ogres Ablon, the breath is more restrained, but the temperament is more majestic, under the huge and sturdy body, a strong muscle full of explosive power, as if naturally.

Coupled with tough skin and a fierce appearance, he was like a giant bear rushing into the flock, raising his hands and throwing them in the foot with terrible power like a mountain.

Even though the ogre has lost the metal mallet before, every punch, every palm, every collision, he will be able to blast a few, even dozens of guards.

As long as the demon king’s guards are bombarded by ogres, the shield will be twisted, the weapon will crack, and the armor will be dented.

Some demon king guards raised their spears and choppers, and attacked the ogre at their own risk, but found that a layer of legendary body protection had been attached to the surface of the other party's skin. Defense!

In fact, even without this layer of body protection, only the ogre's own tough skin is not a weapon that these devil's guards can easily penetrate.

Therefore, in this momentary peak, the ogres that charged ahead made the demon guards who stood in front of them feel the fear of going deep into the bone marrow.

“Listen, for the sake of the brutal master, you don't have to be too heavy to start, don't die.”

Wang Yan followed closely, and added a light sentence. After hearing this, the Master of Abuse County was so moved that he almost didn't cry. At the same time, his resentment against the Demon King and his brothers increased a lot.

Of course, the reason why Wang Yan said so is actually different.

First of all, here is the home of Chilian Demon King. Although Chilian Demon King and his three sons are not here, it is not a joke that there are more than 100,000 guards and twelve leading generals in the entire city. If it is in wartime, the purgatory demons are all soldiers, the number is even greater.

Although the Guards Corps guarding the city is scattered throughout the fortresses of this huge city, no one except Red Demon Lord has the right to mobilize. The two demon protagonists, Dunbar and Kas, only risked defying orders and mobilized the two thousand guards they controlled.

However, once large-scale casualties occur in this city, Wang Yan and others will undoubtedly be regarded as the enemies of the riots, and the entire city's army will also take emergency measures to launch large-scale siege and killing of Wang Yan and others.

At that time, because of the conflict of escalation, causing unnecessary losses to him and his companions, it will be worth more than the gains.

Wang Yan can expect to see him as a nail in the eye, and the helpless Chilian Demon King and his forces will definitely take the opportunity to seize the excuse and hurt the killer against Wang Yan and others. This is also the reason why Dunbar and Kas, these two generals, fled towards the palace of the demon king, and at the same time wanted to lead Wang Yan.

There is the palace of the Red Refining Demon King, which gathers the most elite guard troops in the Great Fire City, with a number of tens of thousands, plus a more tricky warlock army, as well as fortifications, defense towers and many other defenses against the enemy. Even if it is a demigod demon king, it can't compete with the fortifications of the entire devil palace. Wang Yan and others dare to break into the devil palace, which is really a dead end.

This is just like the ant can kill an elephant if there are more ants. Once a certain amount of change has accumulated to a certain degree, a qualitative change will form. A large number of armies and related professional weapons and tools are gathered together, that is, qualitative change, even the top strong can not compete with a large army.

And once the demon king of Chilian, including his forces, grasped the handle and killed Wang Yan and others in a large-scale melee. Even if there is really a big force behind Wang Yan and others, there is no way to do it.

Therefore, Wang Yan will not be stupid enough to grab anyone's handle. At present, as long as it does not cause large-scale casualties and does not impact the Devil's Palace, the situation will only stay in conflict with the two Devil Generals, instead of crisising the entire Great Fire City. Security, and the riots ruled by the Red Demon King.

Therefore, after Wang Yan ordered it, most of his men could understand the truth.

But the ogre Ablon Giantmaul scratched his head and thought for a moment. What did he mean by Master Moyan? It is necessary to destroy all the obstacles that block the road, and not to kill people. To what extent?

Then the ogres figured it out, just beating them to death.

“Awow!”

There was a ferocious roar, and the ogres were surrounded by the crowd, exerted their strength, and issued a shocking roar of battle. The powerful impulse shock wave is just like the internal force of Chinese traditional martial arts practice, and it will overwhelm all the dozens of demon guards around.

The road in front of him was emptied out.

Under the command of Wang Yan, the Lord of Red Confusion led five barbarian elite gladiators, following behind the ogres Abulon, and drove all the way forward. Wang Yan personally took the rest of his companions and his men, followed closely behind.

In this way, the group relied on the advantage of hitting first, as if the arrow that was ejected was lost, and shot into the stack of demon king's guards.

For a time, the screams of Hellhounds, the screams of the guards, the roars of ogres and barbarian gladiators, and the roaring and collapsing of armor colliding with the surrounding buildings were like a chaotic and high symphony. In the majestic vast city of drifting fire, one after another staged.

Dunbar and Kas, who were still running, heard the chaotic noise and looked back, the soul was almost flying.

Behind the rampage, an ogre like an ancient behemoth, wielding a battle axe, the confusing lord who made the inferno fire tide and the five powerful and highly skilled barbarian gladiators, seemingly incomparable. The blocked beasts of water and floods are mourning everywhere, and the weapons that collapsed and the demon king's guard who couldn't resist, flew around.

After this vanguard unit, the most feared Lord of the Demon Flames was carrying the rest of his men as if the Demon King had come and approached at low altitude.

Once the Lord of Demon Flames approaches, will it still be?

Riding a * dog, Cass, who was running behind Dunbar, immediately panicked the command: "What are you still doing? Let's release arrows! Use the Purgatory Rope!"

General Cass groaned so loudly that it did have an effect.

Those who were placed on the roofs of the two sides had two or three hundred crossbowmen. They quickly stood firm in the turmoil and all directed the crossbows in their hands to Wang Yan and others below.

The arrows used by these crossbowmen are all forged from purgatory steel, which has extremely high energy adhesion and can cause some damage to some high-level strong men.

The hellhorse cavalry equipped with * wire is even more troublesome. They used a heavy crossbow to eject the wire mesh made of * steel. Once captured, dozens of hundreds of * dogs joined together, even if it was an ogre Ablon It will also be difficult to break free.

Once trapped by dense steel cable hinges, Wang Yan and others, even if they have the skill, will be like trapped beasts in cages and difficult to perform. For a long time, I am afraid that under the attack of the dense crossbows and the demon king's guards, he will fall down with hatred.

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 1463

However, things did not develop as expected by General Cass. Just as the crossbowmen placed above the roof were just about to launch their attacks, two silver-haired shadows flew into the formation of the crossbowmen.

These two black figures with silver hair and silver pupils are the dark elves Elsa and Enzo.

Elsa held an ordinary hunting bow, and the arrow she used was also a common commodity from the Hill Blacksmith's Shop, but this ordinary weapon played an unexpectedly powerful role in her hands.

She was tossing around in the hands of those demon king's guards, extremely dexterous. Sometimes she used a hunting bow to shoot at a near range and sometimes used martial arts to catch and kick. In short, she was like an impenetrable flying butterfly. Dancing alone in the crowd.

Coupled with her black magic energy, it is an extremely rich manifestation of dark energy, which is very corrosive to most living creatures. So with every blow she made, there must be an enemy who howled down and fell off the roof.

Even if it is just rubbed and touched, the strong dark energy will also cause serious corrosion and damage to the bodies of those demon guards.

On the opposite side of Elsa, the dark elf Enzo dragged to the dark devil qi, holding a two-handed sword from the Hill blacksmith's shop in his hand. His swordsmanship was very superb and his skill was extremely agile. , Rushing into the hands of the demon king's guards is like chopping melons and vegetables, opening and closing, as if no one was there.

Often those demon-guard crossbowmen haven't had time to react, they will be hit by a sword energy concentrated in dark energy, and fell to the ground miserably.

Of course, both Elsa and Enzo understood the meaning of Wang Yan, and his shot was not fatal, but under the erosion of dark energy, those guards of the crossbowmen were half dead, and it was inevitable that life was better than death.

“Woo!”

“Don't come here! Ah!”

“Where is the dark elf ?!”

“Come, come and shoot him! Uh!”

Rows of rows above the roof suddenly made a mess. Those demon king's guards of crossbowmen suffered a big loss by surprise, and when the reaction came, they were difficult to use because of too many companions and too close distance. When they drew their daggers and prepared to fight Elsa and Enzo, they had already lost their opportunities.

Coupled with their abilities and strength levels, where can a master like Elsa and Enzo compare? Dunbar and Kas, the two magic generals, carefully prepared for Wang Yan's killing tricks, and were instantly disrupted.

However, there were still a lot of arrows lost. During the first round of attacks, he shot at Wang Yan and others, but under Wang Yan 's command, Lydia raised his staff in his hand, activated the necklace on the neck and unfolded it. Powerful wind defense skills-the guardian of the goddess of wind.

“Wow!”

Only listening to a gust of wind, a layer of nearly invisible wind barriers, all wrapped up Wang Yan and others.

The arrow that was shot seemed to hit a layer of invisible wall. Except for the water ripples that hit the stars, the barrier was not damaged.

However, this powerful guardian skill cost Lydia a lot of magic. Without the assistance of inheriting the holy crow and human staff, she could not extend the guardian barrier to such a large range. In addition, such defensive guarding is only temporary. Once the magic power is exhausted, this defensive barrier will naturally disappear.

Fortunately, the crossbowmen on the roof have been mostly attracted to Elsa and Enzo, all of them are tired of coping, it is difficult to take care of Wang Yan and others below, and the arrows lost are very limited. Wang Yan and others could not form any actual harm.

A wave of crossbow crises was so skillfully resolved by Wang Yan, but the real crisis was actually those hellhorse cavalry.

These Hellhound cavalry have extremely high mobility and impact. The impact of the charge is huge, and they are also equipped with purgatory cables. It can be said that this set of equipment is for dealing with high-level strongmen, or It is carefully designed for large creatures.

But unfortunately, the two magic generals, Dunbar and Kas, were too afraid of the power brought by Wang Yan. They also pulled the Hellhorse cavalry into the streets of the city and mixed them with a large number of guard infantry. More can bring advantages.

But they forgot that in the narrow streets full of buildings, the burly hellhorse cavalry had a hard time functioning. In addition, the surrounding surroundings are filled with guard infantry, which makes the city streets that are not spacious enough to become more crowded.

Under such circumstances, the Hellhound cavalry not only lost their mobility, but even their powerful slashes were difficult to perform.

While facing the arrow rain, Wang Yan immediately ordered to everyone around him: “Everyone just attack the * dogs around!”

As soon as these words came out, more than thirty eagle body demon behind Wang Yan threw their talents, wind blade, thunder arrow, lightning chain and other magic on the * dogs on both sides.

These * dogs are large and difficult to avoid in crowded places, so either the blood cut by the wind blade is dripping, or the body is paralyzed by electricity, and the fur is burnt.

The * dogs are very strong themselves. These low-level magic can't hurt their lives, but the pain makes them roar and grow more and more restless and difficult to control.

At this time, more than ten succubus behind Wang Yan, under the leadership of Wang Yan's pet charmer, undoubtedly added fuel to this riot and made the whole scene completely erupt.

“Cough, cute puppy, come and play with my sister for a while?”

With a whisper of laughter, more than a dozen succubus, led by the legendary charmer, spread a large piece of charm to the * dogs on both sides.

These * dogs were originally under harassment and attack, and their emotions were restless. This time they were controlled by the charm technique, and they were all crazy.

Suddenly, the loyal Hell Dog suddenly showed his fierce fangs to his companions, or took the cavalry master and began to run wildly in the narrow streets.

Those Hellhound cavalry had no time to project the Purgatory Rope, and they were all dropped to the ground one by one, even being bitten and stepped on by their own mounts.

The most unlucky ones were those demon kings' guards, who suddenly began to suffer enemies, not only to face the frontal charge of the violent ogres and the confusing lords, but also there were one or two hundred mad * dogs behind him. , Making them miserable.

“No, isn't it ...”

“With only a few slaves, the two thousand guards were crushed by half!”

“Master Lord Mo Yan, he and he, how did he do it?”

At this time, the guards responsible for the gate after the break, Qi Qi issued a shocking argument.

They are just the most basic security guards in this city. This time, they were sent by the two demons of Dunbar and Kas to assist the demon king's guards, and they were responsible for blocking the path of the Lord of the Flame Flame.

But they never dreamed that it was just a round of confrontation, but a few breathing skills before and after. In the past, the demon king's guards who used their nostrils to watch people, half of them were washed down, and the whole guard was caught. It's a mess.

This makes them basic guards, shocked and happy.

If it were n't for the Lord of Flames, they would n't have seen them in this life. The guards who used their nostrils to watch people on weekdays had such awkward times.

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 1464

"Team, captain ..."

The battle in front of me was really too fierce and too shocking, so that all the guards at the gate after the break were stunned. Among them was a soldier of the City Guards, who asked their captain in a jerky manner, "I, shall we go?"

"Snapped!"

The voice did not fall, and the captain of the guard team who had received the favor of Wang Yan slapped him on the head with a slap: "Last fart? Your brain is broken, you have to go against Master Moyan? How many lives does your kid have? Dare to toss like this? "

The voice of the captain had just dropped, and another deputy captain who had also received Wang Yan's favor immediately reproached: "Do you guys have any brains? The order we received was to break the cowhide of the guards after they were cut off. , It didn't let us attack at all, so we are here to guard, no order, no one is allowed to attack indiscriminately! “

“Yes Yes Yes Yes!”

Hundreds of nervous city gate guards heard this order, and they breathed a sigh of relief.

Just kidding, they are nothing more than a trivial garrison soldier. Their calves tremble when they think of enemies with the powerful Lord of the Demon Flames. And in their eyes, Lord Mo Yan is a compassionate subordinate and worthy of respect. If there is a chance, they even want to go with Lord Mo Yan, who wants to fight against this tall man?

Besides, on weekdays, those demon kings' guards simply could n't look down on their group of gate guards. They had previously mobilized him, and the order they received was that after they were responsible for breaking off, they did not receive any attack instructions at the moment, so they It is better to stay in place like this, anyway, it is also obeying the order, there is no problem.

The gate guard continued to stand by on the spot, feeling at ease.

The team of Wang Yan does not need to be attacked by the stomach and the back, and the pressure is greatly reduced. But without the assistance of the gate guards, those demon king guards led by Dunbar and General Cass were miserable.

Kas, who had previously issued the attack order, looked back, and his liver was almost frightened.

In his view, the tactical arrangements that must make Wang Yan's team lose a lot, not only did not play any role, but at this time it was a mess.

The two dark elves, like two clever prey, rushed into the hands of the bow and crossbow.

The Hellhound cavalry, under the harassment of the Hawks, and the control of the succubus, became a mess. As for the guard infantry fighting head-on, it was even more terrible under the impact of the ogres and the confusing lord. The whole army is hovering in an atmosphere of panic and chaos, and no effective resistance can be organized at all.

“Why, why?” Cass' heart beat wildly, and the whole person was dumbfounded.

He originally thought that under the restraint of the arrow rain of the crossbowmen and the restraint of the hellhorse cavalry, Wang Yan and others would surely be captured firmly, and be controlled on the ground, and eventually a large number of guards around him will attack in turns. Until death.

This is also a common tactic they use to deal with high-level powerhouses or some large creatures.

But what is going on now? Why does it look like this? How did the demon king's guards under his command become so vulnerable?

Of course, there are many things that General Cas does not understand.

For example, as soon as the war started, the two generals fled first. Can ordinary guards condense effective combat power?

We all know that once the number of ordinary arms is scaled, the combat power will be qualitatively changed, and the top masters will also be qualitatively changed.

On Wang Yan's side, the two leading legendary fighters are the leaders, and the five barbarian elite gladiators. The ordinary guards can't compare with their strength or skill.

The succubus enchanter who followed Wang Yan around and the brutal master of the county are also as strong as the legendary.

Especially Wang Yan's succubus charmer, now strong at the legendary level, her inherent talent charm, even a legendary lord, is difficult to control. How can these low-level * dogs and ordinary guards around him resist Bearable?

Right now, under her leadership, more than ten succubus together with her, continue to spread the charm of the blockbuster blockbuster, the chaos in the guards will easily occur. Coupled with Meier's own outstanding combat effectiveness, there is no guard at all on the left side of the team she is guarding.

On the other side, with the help of a holy weapon dagger, the brutal lord of the battle with the poison Jiao long whip, a bit more spicy than Meier.

She was completely irritated by these short-eyed demon guards. At this time, she launched an indiscriminate attack. When she saw someone, she attacked, how to get venomous, and vowed to let out this bad breath.

Especially her long poisonous whip with poisonous poison, who really touched someone who was unlucky, and had to peel off the skin even if he died.

Compared to Meier's left, the guards on the right side of the team she guarded were even more tragic, and none of the guards dared to come to death.

On the farther sides, it is the dark elves, Elsa and Enzo, who have reached the legendary level of half a step on both sides.

By virtue of their dexterous body skills and fighting skills, the two men continued to pull out wave after wave of crossbowmen on the high roofs on both sides to reduce the enemy's far-reaching fire damage for Wang Yan and others.

In the middle of this team, Wang Yan is under the control of Li Yan, and behind Wang Yan is Lidia, who controls the defensive barrier. Around Lidia, she is constantly using talents to attack the eagles of the Guards around. Shemale.

Such a team with both offensive and defensive rushing into the formation of the Guards is like a warship that rides the wind and waves, and advances by the wind and waves.

Of course, Wang Yan also has a stronger legendary master, still lurking in the dark shadows.

“Dunpa, we can't hold it anymore, escape, let's escape!”

General Cass knew that something was wrong and immediately urged the Hellhound mount, screaming at Dunbar in front of the panic.

But at this moment, a dark awn suddenly flew out of the dark alley of the street, and shot at the speed of General Cass.

Cass was caught off guard, and when he responded, a dark elf with cold eyes had rushed into his arms head-on, and he flew him off the mount.

This cold-eyed dark elf is the leader of Elsa and Enzo, as well as the young general of the Dark Blade Legion, Camus of Shadow Spikes!

With a clatter, Kas dropped his weapon in his hand, and the whole person fell heavily under the pressure of Camus.

Cass was beaten with seven meats and eight elements, but he was also a legendary devil anyway. Although panicked, he immediately reacted. He quickly flapped the magic wings behind him, ready to get up.

However, Camus stepped on him as if he had expected him to do so, and his shot was faster and more ruthless.

In a short span of time, two murderous blades had already appeared in the hands of Camus. Kas's pair of magic wings, which had to be fanned in the future, was instantly killed by Camus with two murderous blades, and he was crucified on the ground.

The double blades formed by the pure dark energy, and the rich to dark death attached to it, began to quickly erode Cass' wings.

“Uh ah!”

Under the dark energy, the flesh and blood body was corroded into a dead body, and the violent pain reached the soul, so that a man like Kas couldn't help but scream.

“Fuck things! Me, I'm going to kill you!”

Under intense pain, Cusden's eyes flashed in anger, and he did not care about anything. He stretched out his powerful arms and wanted to strangle Camus.

“Humph!”

Faced with Cass, Camus sneered disapprovingly, flashing dark eyes in his eyes, two murderous blades, appeared again in his hands.

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 1465

“bass!”

“Numbling!”

Like the sound of a dagger piercing into the leather, although Camus, the Shadow Stinger, does not have a weapon, he uses the energy of dark energy to form double-edged blades, as if endless.

General Cass’s outstretched hands were penetrated by Camus’s double-edged blades, and then nailed to the ground.

At the same time, Cass’s shoulders, waist and abdomen, and legs were all nailed into the double blades of the transformation under the instant attack of Camus.

The rich dark energy in the transforming blade instantly dispelled the strength of General Cass’s body. The dead energy in the dark energy, which was fatal to the living creatures, also began to corrode General Cass’ body and flesh.

General Cass’s wound was immediately blackened and eroded under the influence of corrosion, and he was nailed to the ground with his face up, like an insect specimen nailed on the page of the book with a thumbtack. Move more.

This is the power of light and life, the relative darkness and death, even if it is just touched, it will cause serious damage to living things, not to mention that it is like Camus, which turned into a sharp blade and directly penetrated into Cass. In the body.

“I don’t know what is alive, but spare you a dog’s life first.”

Camus lowered his eyes, sneered contemptuously, then flashed into the shadow of the corner, disappeared again, as if he had never appeared.

Camus moved extremely fast, and finished all this, but before and after the effort between breathing. And the combat skill he is best at is the unexpected assassination. The more chaotic the battle situation, the better for him.

If you do n't follow Wang Yan 's intention at the moment, prevent the situation from expanding and avoid harming yourself. He had already given this devil Cass a fatal blow when he was just lighting up, instead of temporarily abolishing his ability and crucifying him. It's on the ground.

“Damn elf dog, you, you are waiting for this general! This general will never be able to spare you!”

General Cass was beaten and disabled by sneak attack, trembling with rage and roaring again and again.

Assassination attacks naturally have the advantage of assassination attacks. People with superb assassination skills often take advantage of their lack of preparation, and can kill each other in one shot. But if you do a head-to-head battle, you won't say the outcome, Tacas thinks he won't be so miserable.

At the thought of this, he became more and more annoyed in his heart. With a surge of anger, he wanted to break through the erosion of dark energy.

But at this moment, a series of roaring screams began to spread into his ears.

Cass stiffened his neck and squinted, his eyes suddenly spit out, and he quickly panicked: “No, don't wow!”

“Well !!”

A wail of sorrow traversed the sky, and the original demon guards, who had been rushed to the ground, all fled backwards under the strong impact of Wang Yan's team.

The galloping * dogs, and the guards that filled the entire street, all stomped over from the body of General Cass.

General Cass, who made the second big disaster, naturally ended up with a broken bone, which was terrible.

Since the development of the situation, half of the big cities of Liuhuo have fallen into chaos, and the entire city crowd has been attracted by the fighting here.

Especially in this area as a battlefield, houses collapsed, roads cracked, and howling roared.

Fortunately, this resident was cleaned up by the Demon King's Guards. The civilians had no casualties, but the more than 2,000 Demon Kings' Guards gathered here suffered heavy losses.

At this moment, Wang Yan spread the magic wings to glide at low altitude, overlooking the entire battlefield.

Seeing that the Demon King's guard was in chaos right now, knowing that it was a good time to break the lineup, he immediately urged the ogren who was the front striker to urge the order: "Who can break through the enemy line first, the lord will reward him with two pounds of braised meat ! "

"Two or two pounds of braised pork ?!"

As soon as the ogre heard the word, his eyes were red. When the spit drooled, the whole person was as excited as the chicken blood.

"Go away for Lao Tzu! Roar!"

For the sake of two pounds of braised pork, the fighting spirit of the ogre Ablon Giantmaul was completely inspired. He immediately raised a battle roar in the sky, and the talented bloodthirsty skill from the ogres exploded in an instant!

At this moment, the ogre was already very powerful and fierce, and once again madly increased, a terrible muscle full of wildness, once again expanded and condensed, even his body surface was flushed with blood.

Ogre's bloodthirsty technique, but only the most elite top ogres can inspire talent skills. Once the show is successful, they will inspire the most brutal and primitive beasts in their hearts. They will become extremely fanatical and full of warfare, regardless of strength, speed, or resistance to attack, will be greatly improved.

So once a certain ogre begins to perform bloodthirsty, there is no doubt that this ogre will start desperately.

But for the ogres desperate for two pounds of braised pork, I'm afraid there is only Ablon Giantmaul.

"Mom, * it!"

"Then, that ogre is crazy! Hurry, run!"

"Ooo! Ooo ..."

The ogres Ablon Giantmaul who exhibited bloodthirsty techniques, a fierce and perhaps violent resource, reached the point of being exciting.

Not to mention the guards, even the dogs are afraid.

Those * dog hells, regardless of whether they were disturbed by the spirit of the succubus, at this time, as soon as they smelled the sweat and odor on the ogre, they were all like ghosts, and they ran with their tails "whooping".

Otherwise, there is only one way to be overtaken by the ogres. After all, Wang Yan said, do n't kill people, but you ca n't kill dogs.

"Aw, roar! For braised pork!"

The ogres were full of war. He picked up a big trailer pulling goods from the side of the road. He was like a mallet in his hand, and ran forward.

The big trailer was made of steel anyway. It was five or six meters long and three or four meters wide. It was very heavy, but it was like a toy in the hands of an ogre.

He just smashed left and right all the way, and the place he passed was like being disturbed by a hurricane, the house collapsed, the rubble and the enemy flew around, and even the ground under his feet seemed to be lifted off several layers.

“I’m a little bit grinning, for the braised pork, as for?”

Lord Chew and the five barbarian gladiators around him united in shame. They also wanted to eat braised pork, but they couldn’t really grab the goods right now.

“Roar!”

With a roar, the ogre lifted the heavy trailer with both hands and slammed forward.

“Boom!”

A series of powerful roars roared past, and the last wave of the Demon King’s Guard was finally smashed by the ogre.

At this point, Wang Yan and his team finally broke through under the obstruction of the Demon Guard.

“After the confusion led others to break, we continue to chase!”

Wang Yan also changed his position again at this time. As he waved with one hand, the striker began to turn into the back. The leader of the Red Confusion led five barbarian gladiators and immediately stood on the street behind Wang Yan, blocking the entire street Full of dangdang.

At this time, the high-spirited ogres continued to open the way ahead, and Wang Yan himself continued to chase away with the rest.

“It’s over, things, things are making a big deal!”

In front of General Dunbar desperately fleeing, his forehead was already covered with cold sweat.

His mouth was dry and his heart was beating wildly, but he dared not look back, fearing that he would see Wang Yan’s angry face when he turned around.

But at this moment, he was driving the  dog and finally crossed the city street.

Looking up, a large and magnificent square has appeared in front of him.

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 1466

“Hahaha, God is helping me too!”

General Dunbar saw that he had escaped from the city and entered this magnificent large square. He couldn't help but feel a joy and couldn't help laughing.

Because there is a dozen miles of Noda Square along this square, looking straight ahead, the towering building in front of it like a mountain is the Devil's Palace!

As long as he reached the Devil's Palace, his plan was successful, at least he would be safe.

Although he never expected that the combat effectiveness of Wang Yan's team would be so strong. Because of them, they actually made things to this point.

The entire area behind him is almost destroyed, causing such a turmoil. It can be said that no matter whether it is successful or not, he and Kas are probably unavoidable.

But as long as Zoe, who has the real eye, is forced back, and there is a conflict with Lord Lord Moflame and the Sovereign Sovereign, there will be a conflict. He and Kas don't care.

And if Zoe, who has the real eye, really has a great effect on Chilian Demon King and Prince Chile, maybe the guilt will be alleviated by then, and there will be no sin to death.

But if it just falls into the hands of the raging Demon Lord and the Cruel Lord, then his life is over. Even if it is a lucky chance to survive in the hands of Mo Yan, the brutal master of the revenge heart is estimated to torture him to disability!

“Never, never fall into your hands!”

At the thought of this, General Dunbar couldn't help but shudder, worrying about kicking the hellhound mount again, and letting the already running white foamy hellhound desperately look forward to running again.

“No, it's not good ...”

Appraiser Zoe was suppressed by Dunbar with force, and was lying on the back of the * dog at this time, making it difficult to move. But she glanced over her eyes and could already see the towering Demon Palace from afar. She knew that as long as he gave this Dunpa a little more time, he could rush down to the Demon Palace, and then Lord Moflame wanted to save her again. There is no hurry.

But at this moment, she had no other choice but to pray silently in her heart: “Master Demon Flame, hurry up!”

“Silly big guy, run fast, this girl will give him a shot!”

Following Wang Yan's team, under the direction of Wang Yan, Lydia fell to the ogre's shoulder with a light body technique, then raised her crow and cane in her hand and whispered. The mantra, “Cut the ground gently, the air rushes like a blade!”

“Hurl!” The ogres couldn't help shivering when they heard the familiar mantra.

Although he didn't understand the human slave girl, he was talking about what it meant, but the magic that the human slave girl exerted was really terrible!

What's more, there is still an inheritance holy hand in hand. Now that the human slave girl is casting magic, even if he has broken through to the legendary level, he does not dare to hard connect.

As the saying goes, he is willing to gamble to lose. As a traditional * creature, he previously lost to Lydia. At this time, he is also convinced and full of respect for this human slave girl.

Hearing Lydia's meaning at this moment, the ogre immediately changed the stance of the head before running, and began to chase forward quickly and steadily.

Outside world creatures like Hell World, the evolutionary path is the same as the creatures on earth, and they all follow the laws of nature. So some species are good at running, some species are good at attacking.

In the same level, it is obvious that the species that is good at running is undoubtedly faster and has stronger endurance. As a result, the fast, explosive, and aggressive Hellhound was domesticated into a mount by the Purgatory Demon Race.

Dunbar's mount is a leader-level * dog that is capable of half-step S-class. Speaking of running speed, it is faster than ordinary legendary masters, and the endurance is stronger.

But the ogre itself is a species full of primitive wildness. Perhaps in the long-distance attack, a fat ogre is no better than a healthy * dog. However, in a short sprint, the powerful ogres are like a running rhinoceros, and the speed is not slow at all.

As for Wang Yan, he is actually faster and more agile now, but he also wants to test his specific abilities and cooperation now. In the future, there are too many places that need to use these men. Now in this battle, It is undoubtedly the best test for him.

Therefore, before the distance from Dunbar was not really opened, he did not rush to shoot, but calmed down, like a real commander, gave it to his hands to do it.

“Haha, an ogre and a human slave girl, also want to chase my * dog leader, dream!”

Dunbar glanced towards the rear secretly, and could not help but laugh again, and urged his mount again, “Hurry, run fast! You idiot!”

He is not far away from Wang Yan and others who are chasing behind him. As long as he is a little slower for a second or two, he loses the state of high-speed attack at the moment, and he will be chased or the top of his head next time The harpy banshees stuck together.

So now he dare not stay at all, even if he ran to death by his mount, he could not slow down.

However, at this moment, a strong wind breaking sound suddenly came from behind him!

The violent sense of crisis made Dunbar's body covered with cold hair, and he couldn't help glancing backwards. He suddenly came to the terrifying scene of himself, and almost didn't scare his soul out.

"Hey, what the * is this magic ?!"

Dunbar's heart was beating wildly, and he saw a terrible powerful wind blade exaggerated behind him. Then he couldn't avoid it, so he had to give up his mount, dragging Zoe in a panic and rushing to the side.

This wind blade is indeed terrible and tight, the source of the wind blade is naturally Lydia standing on the shoulder of the ogre.

Now she has a full combat experience, all kinds of magic are easy to use, and with the help of the inheritance of the holy crow and the human scepter, just two or three breaths, one through the superposed eightfold wind blade, has been brewed. .

At the beginning, she was suppressed in the B-level field level in the slave arena, and she used her strong spiritual power to superimpose the eight-fold wind bomb, defeating the powerful ogre in one fell swoop, and almost died.

Now she not only restored her strength, but also inherited the help of the Holy Artifact in her hands. The eight-fold wind blade brewed from this, and its terrifying power, naturally far exceeds the original.

Just in front of everyone, this outrageous wind blade, the diameter of the half moon shape, I am afraid that there are several small buildings as tall, powerful and concentrated wind elements, condensed and true, making this wind blade surface as bright and beautiful as the moonlight , Sharp and compelling.

As the wind blade was released with great force, cold sweats were scared out of the ogre that served as Lydia's mount.

Everyone looked at this creepy eight-fold wind blade, and strongly cut the hard ground, dragging the long tail all the way, carrying the high-pressure fluctuations that even the air oscillated, and shocked the ground all the way. The huge gully, all the way to the back of Dunbar!

“Wow!”

At that moment time seemed to be still.

Dunbar dragged Zoe and fell to the ground in embarrassment. On the side of him, the * dog, who also felt a severe crisis, was cut into two segments in an instant when he was scared to urinate.

The * urine of the * dog didn't even have time to bark, and the whole body kept running forward, but the body turned into two bodies with neat cuts, and fell heavily to both sides.

And the terrible eight-fold wind blade continued to run forward for hundreds of meters, and then gradually subsided. With the disappearance of the wind blade, the hard and neat square ground left a huge gully of nearly a thousand meters!

The brutal trace was shocking.

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 1467

“hiss!”

“Lidia, this little girl, is a bit exaggerated ...”

At this time, behind Lidia, some people, including Wang Yan, couldn't help but take a breath of breath, one after another in the heart, it seems that no one will provoke female magicians in the future, this way Attacking magic is really terrible!

The ogre who temporarily acted as Lydia's mount couldn't help but wipe the cold sweat of his forehead, and began to feel deep sympathy for the * dog that was cut into two pieces. At the same time, I was also secretly thankful. Fortunately, he did not have to face such magic, otherwise it would be too miserable and miserable.

Now even if he has advanced to the legendary level, but if such aggressive magic, if he hits directly, he still commits a sudden attack, and he will be hit hard if he is not careful.

“Call, call ...”

After releasing the guardian of the goddess of powerful defensive magic wind, and the eight-fold wind blade of this move, Lydia’s physical and magical power was exhausted, and the whole person was breathless.

However, she was more concerned about the safety of the appraiser Zoe, and quickly said: “Come on, hurry ... Go and save Zoe!”

Although the appraiser Zoe has the peculiar peculiarities of the Hawk Lady and the cunning formed in the underground black market all year round, the nature is actually very simple and the heart is very kind. After getting along for a while, Lydia is right This female slave who came to the outside world still has a lot of goodwill, otherwise she will not spare no effort to help the demon flame master to save this Zoe.

In fact, without Zoe’s reminder, the ogres had already taken Lydia and rushed to General Dunbar and Zoe who had fallen. On the other side, Wang Yan also led other men to surround him.

The dozens of people on Wang Yan’s side soon formed a surrounding trend, and the resulting oppression was like a group of mountains closing together, which was quite compelling.

“Dumba, you are so brave, even the people of this lord dare to rob!”

Wang Yan slowly fell from the air, and a pair of powerful eyes slowly moved to the fallen Dunbar. The look seemed casual, but in fact it seemed to hide the power of great power.

Falling on Dunbar, Dunbar suddenly felt very heavy, and the whole person’s nerves tightened accordingly.

His eyes widened in horror, and now that he had nowhere to go, he caused so much damage in the city and caused heavy losses to the Demon Guard. Not only did he fail to bring Zoe into the Demon Palace, even to him He was surrounded by himself, no matter how the outcome ended this time, he could not get any good fruit to eat.

“Huh! I don’t know what life and death are, even the master of this county dares to offend. Do not dare to bite your master’s dog like you! Don’t do it!” It seems to contain endless killing intentions.

She has always treated the prince cruelty, when was offended by her father’s men? This Damba and Kas not only dared to grab her real eye at the auction, but also dared to grab the female slave of Lord Moyan, and in the face of her scolding, still facing each other, this rebellious approach, For the cruel master, it is simply the biggest offense to her.

Is it because the backing behind them is Prince Chile, and there is a signal from her father, Chilian Demon King, that they dare to act so arbitrarily, and dare to be so disrespectful to her lord?

Or did she say that she was cruel to the hostess, even though she was indulged by her father Chilian Demon King, but after all, it was just a political tool that used her to marry people to draw up relationships?

In short, at any point, she has deeply touched the heart of the Dao brutal master. She is determined to make a change. At least she has to make decisions for her own destiny, not live under the control and shadow of her father or family!

“You, you, don’t, don’t come over!”

Feeling the strong oppression, General Dunbar tightened his body and hurriedly climbed up from the ground. He dragged Zoe around and threatened, “All back, otherwise I, I will kill her!”

He stopped Zoe in front of his chest and pinched Zoe’s throat tightly, as if he could force Zoe’s slender neck to shatter with a big hand.

“Then you can try, whether you are faster or I am faster.”

I don’t know when Camus, the stabbing shadow, suddenly appeared behind Dunbar. A finger hardened by dark energy, like a sharp dagger, lightly touched Dunbar’s neck.

That finger seemed ordinary and unremarkable, but it showed the invisible elephant, the cleverest means of supremacy. It seemed that as long as it fell gently, General Dunbar would put the head on the ground, and the dead could not die again.

General Dunbar suddenly sweated out, and he could clearly feel the fingertips of Camus, the hardness and sharpness of his throat, and the strong dark energy, the cold and deadly sensation of death.

He didn't dare to take any extra action. He didn't dare to breathe more than to catch Zoe tightly.

In contrast, Zoe, who was captured by him, was not so afraid. She knew that the admirer she admired would surely come to rescue her. Even if it was dangerous, the admiral would surely come up with a way.

Although she does not want to be a hostage, Master Moyan who is threatened by others, she also wants to wait for the opportunity to escape, but under the suppression of the absolute strength of Dunbar, she cannot use her strength. This is the disadvantage caused by the difference in levels. So now she has no choice but to wait for rescue.

“Give up, Dunbar. If you regret it and let Zoe go, the lord may spare you.”

Wang Yan led the people to a stop a few tens of meters in front of Dunbar and stopped. His attitude was majestic and full of undeniable momentum. Even if the opponent is a legendary demon general, but in front of Wang Yan, regardless of identity or momentum, they are obviously suppressed by death. The gap between the two is not a star.

“Leave her?”

Dunbar sneered with tension, “Oh, joke! If I let this slave girl go, I still have a way to go?”

“Bold!” The cruel county chief squinted and yelled, “Dunbar! You are still daring to be rampant now. With the temper of the county chief, you should have been dying for thousands of times. Don't think you are a slave girl. The lord of the county will let you go. How much can that slave girl be worth? “

“Humph! Lord Moyan is generous and generous, and gives you a chance to live a second life. If you are smart, you will confess your sins and let others go, otherwise the master of the county will peel your skin alive!”

The brutal master of the county was so powerful that it really scared Dunbar a little. Coupled with the cruel and cruel behavior of the brutal master, Dunbar has no doubt that after touching such a big mold, the brutal master can definitely peel his skin mercilessly.

At the thought of the tragic ending of being caught alive, Dunbar shuddered with fright, and grabbed Zoe’s big hand. He couldn’t help but force a little: “Don’t come, don’t force me, I, I don’t believe it!”

With his exertion, Zoe immediately showed an uncomfortable expression, seeing that Camus, who controlled General Dunbar, was slowly exerting his fingers.

The sharp fingertips immediately touched the skin of Dunbar’s throat, and the strong death gas immediately began to erode the skin surface of Dunbar.

Dunbar was agitated, his nerves tense immediately, and the atmosphere on the spot was raised all the way, and began to grow more dignified.

at this time.

A series of cold and powerful mechanical rotation sounds suddenly came from behind Dunbar and Camus.

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 1468

“Boom!”

The violent gear rotation sound caused a trembling roar, as if the mountains and rivers were moving, and the earth underneath them shook slightly.

Under the powerful sound effect, Wang Yan and others could not help but looked up behind Dunbar and Camus. I saw a magnificent and magnificent building far away from thousands of kilometers, which deeply shocked everyone's soul.

The towering building was located in a gray mist, so that just now everyone had not been able to see its full picture in the first place.

This gray fog, needless to say, must have been deliberately arranged around this majestic building for defense and cover up. At this time, Wang Yan and others, by virtue of their outstanding eyesight, looked carefully into the mist.

I saw in the mist, an ancient and majestic giant city, quietly standing in the very center of this large square.

The scale and majesty of this huge city far exceeded Wang Yan's expectations. It feels like Wang Yan is a towering mountain with many layers of mountains, set on the horizon imposingly.

The wall in front of this giant city is so wide that you can't see it at a glance. The inner battlement tower and palace tower are stacked one after another. It is like a solid fortress, a combination of a magnificent palace, both an offensive of military garrison and a palace where the king lives.

Wang Yan has already guessed what the giant building is, but no matter what else, this magnificent building complex alone is indeed enough to show the power of Chilian Demon King and deter any enemies from coming.

"Senior Demon Flame, this is my father's residence, and the ruling center of the Red King Demon King's Palace-Demon Palace!" The Red Crab Sovereign frowned slightly, and whispered in the side, "If there is no summoning on weekdays Even I can't get in and out of this palace normally. "

After a brief introduction by the cruel master, Wang Yan can roughly understand the specific role of the Demon Palace.

This is not only the core of Liuhuo City and the palace of Chilian Demon King, but also his ruling center and the last fortification.

According to the scale it can't see at a glance, tens of thousands of troops can be easily stationed inside, plus the defensive facilities built around, it is definitely a very difficult bone to eat.

In addition to it, there is the main palace of the county, and the palace of the three princes as a satellite outer city, and on the outer side is the fortification of the entire Liuhuo city itself.

Such a layer of fortified structures, coupled with a large number of garrisons, made this devil-led capital city armed to the teeth. If you want to capture this capital city from the front and kill the red refining demon king inside, it is really difficult to climb into the sky. .

Although the Chilian Demon King is as strong as a demigod, the more powerful it is, the more he cherishes his life and status. Usually, the ruler of this city lives in the palace of the devil, and he controls the entire devil's collar.

According to the tradition of  and a high degree of competition, even biological children will move out of the devil's palace once they reach adulthood, have their own palace, and have their own enclosure.

This is the case with the cruel prince. After she became an adult, she owns a prince's palace equivalent to a villa, and a fief that belongs to her. The prince's palace in the fiefs and the Great Fire City is her residence.

The same is true of her three elder brothers, but without the advance notification and permission, even the devil's palace cannot enter easily.

It can be seen that the Demon Palace, which symbolizes the absolute authority of the Red Refining Demon King, is an institution that represents the running power of the Red Refining Demon King. In this piece of Demon King's collar, there is an absolute power that overrides everything.

“Ji-Ji! The door of the Devil's Palace is open. Do you dare to go down again?”

Dunbar didn't return her head, but when she heard the sound, she couldn't help but laugh excitedly, “Lord Demon Flame, I tell you, I'm Dunbar but the general of the demon king's palace! Let me know it, this is the case Forget it, otherwise, with the strength of the Demon Palace, you will definitely not be able to walk around! “

“Really?” Wang Yan sneered disapprovingly, “I also tell you, if you are obsessed and unconscious, then even Chilian Demon King can't save you.”

These words choked General Dunbar's chest, and he couldn't spit it out for a long time.

Lord Demon Flame, who was transformed into Wang Yan, was strong in his actions and hegemonic in his means. It was absolutely unmatched by ordinary people. Even the Demon Palace could not suppress him at the moment, and it really made Dunpa suffocated.

Speaking of which, Wang Yan is even worthy of the Chi Lian Demon King, not to mention the military institution under the Chi Lian Demon King.

He Wang Yan is not a person in * himself, he is just an earth camouflage lurking in disguise. The authority in * is floating clouds for him, and he does not care.

However, the powerful military power that the Devil now possesses should not be underestimated.

Wang Yan also had some concerns about Zoe's safety, so he secretly buckled the sub-god-level eight in his hand, and at the same time signaled Camus to prepare to start.

But at this moment, the rumble of gears finally stopped.

In the distance, the imposing towering giant gate up to a hundred meters slowly lifted upward ten meters. Under the city gate, a pair of guarded demon king guards began to surround Wang Yan and others like a tide.

The number of these demon guards is so large that it is difficult to count, and the pressure thus formed is also increasing rapidly.

“Boss, we can't break this side.”

A report came.

The man who was originally responsible for the post-absence of the Red Confused Lord and others had already merged with the two dark elves and gradually retreated behind Wang Yan.

Wang Yan did not look backwards, just swept away his mind, and already felt that a large number of troops had gathered from all directions, and within a short period of time, he had formed a trend of encircling and closing.

It seems that the defenders of Liuhuocheng have treated Wang Yan and others as riots.

Soon after the army surrounded Wang Yan and others, an elderly warlock wearing a flame witch robe and wearing a metal witch crown slowly walked out of the crowd behind Dunbar.

Those demon kings' guards took the initiative to separate to the two sides, and all bowed down to the elderly warlock one by one. They looked very respectful.

At this time, the brutal master of the county once again introduced in Wang Yan's ear: "He is my father's most trusted strategist and the governor of the Devil's Palace. Among my father's many men, only he is the most respected. By the way, Lord Mo Yan He is also a senior warlock, and outsiders usually call him, Emerson, the strategist of the prison. "

"Inferno strategist Emerson?"

Wang Yan was a little curious, and the brutal master who had always been rude to others, speaking of Emerson, the strategist around the prison, showed his respectful expression for the first time, which made Wang Yan look at the other party with a few eyes.

From this look, the other party is indeed a bit capital. The other party belongs to the orthodox purgatory demon clan, with a restrained atmosphere and a seemingly approachable surface, but the temperament is very majestic, and the whole body reveals a respectable strong person.

And this senior warlock Emerson, although old, still has a strong body, and under the skin full of folds and aging, clearly contains powerful elemental power.

If Wang Yan was right, the energy contained in this senior warlock clearly reached the legendary peak state.

The pinnacle of legend is only one step away from the demigod demon king. It can be said that it is the top state in the legendary level.

According to the normal division of strength, Emerson's current state is even higher than Wang Yan's. Of course, Wang Yan's real strength has far exceeded the ordinary legendary strongman, but he is only a distance away from the demigod demon king and this Emerson.

Usually in the world of hell, a powerful person who can reach the peak of the legend, coupled with his excellent work ability, can indeed be used as the general manager of the Red Guardian Demon King.

At present, Emerson, the strategist of the inferno, can gain the trust of the Red Demon King and the respect of so many guard generals, which shows that this person's ability and strength are very good. Otherwise, the garrison of the entire city, and more than a dozen legendary demon warriors, will be replaced by no one who can manage the services they manage.

At this time, the eyes of Wang Yan and others all fell on Emerson, the strategist of the inferno, but the old warlock, as if he didn't feel anything at all, was still unmoved.

He slowly walked out of the crowd like this, holding a scepter of flame like a halberd, and moving slowly and slowly.

Until he came between Wang Yan and Dunpa, he was not in a hurry to ask the reason, nor did he rely on the power to instigate the teacher to indict him, but gentle and gentle to Wang Yan and the cruel master of the county, Shi Shiran performed a salute: "Momsen, I have met the brutal master and Lord Mo Yan. "

This move made Wang Yan's eyes slightly closed, and he couldn't help but look at him a few points.

Before doing things, salute the soldiers, that is, take care of the status of the master and servant, and do not leave the handle, which can be completely different from reckless  generals, such as the general Dunbar who advocates brute force.

It can also be seen that this old warlock Emerson, who can become a highly respected strategist and director of the Red Refining Demon King, is indeed reasonable.

But this politeness did not last long.

After Emerson straightened up again, his eyes were startled, and he said with great power: “Recently, Your Majesty is not in the city, you dare to behave like this, it’s a real courage!”

Such a cold drink made the pressure around Wang Yan and others suddenly increase. The strong man who has reached the pinnacle of the legendary body is indeed a trivial coercion. In a moment, it is like a real thing, forcibly spread to the surroundings.

At the same time, behind the city wall behind Emerson, four magic minarets light up at the same time, and a ballista cannon rotates in unison. Wang Yan has not yet understood these big killers, but there is no doubt that the dangerous breath from them is a giant dragon, which is estimated to be killed by a blow!

Not only that, but the five legendary generals who accompanied them around the same time also showed their coercion in the crowd, as if they echoed with Emerson, the coercion of the six legendary strongmen became a sudden After one piece, it seemed to have the momentum to compete with Wang Yan and others.

Coupled with the lack of water around the area, I am afraid that the elite army of no fewer than 10,000 people, the formation of such a siege is indeed quite terrifying. Even if it is a demigod demon, being included in such a large army, I am afraid that my heart will commit a sudden attack, not to mention Wang Yan team, so a little bit.

“Boss, this time it’s not easy to handle. Are there many other people?”

The deluded lord who likes to bully and be hard, immediately doubled the pressure and quietly sent a message to Wang Yan. However, Wang Yan didn’t pay attention to him, so the product was again transmitted to the master refiner Hill, and asked, “Old Hill, do you have anything hidden? Can you kill tens of thousands of guards’ secret weapons at once? Give us self-defense. “

Master Hill did not expect that things would get bigger and bigger, and he was a little nervous at the moment, but after hearing the request of the confusing Lord, he could not help but give the other person a white eye and chuckled: “What are you kidding? Kill tens of thousands of guards at once? Thanks to you, if anyone has this skill, this master will worship him as a teacher! “

In fact, there are indeed weapons that can kill 10,000 people.

For example, the nuclear bomb technology mastered by human beings, not to mention tens of thousands of people, can be solved at once. However, nuclear bombs have limited lethality for high-level powerhouses with excessive abilities. The main reason is that it is difficult to hit the other party, and the other party has many means, which are far beyond the scope of conventional creatures.

Coupled with the indiscriminate attack of nuclear bombs, it is easy to injure innocent people and cause damage to the environment and ecology. Therefore, as a human killer, a nuclear bomb is the ultimate weapon that will not be easily used unless it reaches the most critical moment.

In addition, the legendary artifact that can contain a huge power like a curse also has the power to wipe out 10,000 people, but that kind of thing, I am afraid that the master craftsman-level refining master has the ability to make it, Master Hill believes that I haven't reached the level of magician yet.

Right now, not only the confusing Lord and Master Hill, but the rest of the slaves and companions, under the power of the other party, they seem a little nervous, even the ogres Abulon Giantmaul, who has been fearless forever In the face of the enemy, feel pressure.

Opposite these people, a gloomy color flashed in the eyes of the hot prison strategist Emerson. He saw that under his own authority, Wang Yan 's men had been clearly suppressed, and now he was moving forward and was preparing for further deterrence. .

Under the secret voice and guidance of Wang Yan, the cruel county master stepped forward and raised his hand with a slap. He slapped heavily on the old face of the Yan prison strategist.

At the same time, screaming: "Come on!"

This reproach, great momentum, coupled with the arrogance of the brutal master who grew up from small to large, bluffed the tens of thousands of demon kings around.

The old aggressive warlock, who had been aggressive before, was suddenly slapped by the brutal master of the county. The whole person stared at the eyes, unable to speak at all.

Not to mention Emerson, even the group of people behind Wang Yan took a deep breath, and the body and mind were trembling.

Among them, the sorrowful lord sighed silently in his heart. His sister is really arrogant and courageous. In this case, dare to spur on? Do n't you fear that they will be involved in the gang, and finally give these angered guards a pot?

In fact, this is exactly what Wang Yan intended.

If Wang Yan and others show fear of weakness, they will give up on their own initiative, but they will do bad things instead. Once this happens, the old warlock Emerson will occupy the peak. In the end, it is very likely to take the opportunity to control Wang Yan and others, and finally be detained into the prison of the Devil's Palace.

At that time, Wang Yan and others wanted to fight again, but there was no chance.

Right now, taking advantage of the unclear situation, Wang Yan and others Yu Wei haven't diminished. Give the other party a chance to dismount the horse first and put the initiative of the situation in their own hands, so that there is a chance of defeat.

Of course, this kind of thing is better left to the brutal master.

As soon as the world of  is well-defined, the brutal master has no real power, and that is also the daughter of the devil. Those who guard the demon will be the devil's courtiers, in fact, they are a kind of slaves who are afraid of the devil's force. The daughter of the devil went to trouble, they had no way.

Secondly, the tyrannical county leader is arrogant and notorious, and she is also a female. Even if something bad happens, most of the people of the Red Demon King family can only swallow their voices. If it is replaced with Wang Yan, I am afraid it will cause a large-scale battle.

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 1470

“Miss, don't think that you are the daughter of His Majesty the Demon King, you can ignore it! Now you are bringing an outsider ...”

Emeryson, the strategist of the Inferno, was indeed stunned by the slap of the brutal master, and his heart was anxious and angry, and the momentum condensed from his body was dissipated by the embarrassing atmosphere.

But after all, the other party was the devil's daughter-in-law, and he was not easy to attack. He had to hold his stomach resentful, preparing to raise his spirit and re-establish his prestige.

But before he had finished speaking, he was pointed at his nose by the brutal prince, and scolded again: "Huh! You old, eye-catching old thing, indiscriminately, help the chaotic thief of Dunpa, and ask our Xingshi criminal, What is your intention? "

After being so shouted by the brutal master of the county, this matter is starting to become confused.

In particular, the tens of thousands of guards surrounded by the scene and the other five generals who were sitting in the guards. They originally thought that the foreign lord, Mo Yan, was making trouble in the city, and all of them were fighting with the enemy. The Lord shouted like this, but shook them one by one.

These demon king guards and demon generals can't help but start to think, isn't this what they imagined? Isn't Lord Lord Mo Yan making trouble, there are other reasons?

Emerson, the infernal strategist who was angered in front of him, had a deep heart in his heart, and his face turned black and black.

He is the confidant of Chilian Demon King, and like Chilian Demon King, he naturally has no good intentions for this Lord of Demon Flames. He wanted to take the opportunity to kill the Majesty of Lord Demon Flames. It's extremely embarrassing to be out of the station.

"Miss Brutality made a serious statement. How could the old deceased help Domba to ask your teacher to blame? It's just that there is such a large-scale fighting in the city, and the old decay will always ask Master Moyan for a statement."

Emerson suffocated his grievances, but he didn't dare to stubbornly confront the brutal master. He had to turn his shadowy eyes to Wang Yan behind him.

Although he wasn't sure what happened, he still instinctively favored himself, that is, General Dunbar who held Zoe.

Now that such a big event happened, he didn't believe it, and then he couldn't find a handle on Wang Yan and the others. At that time, he must take back the lost face on Wang Yan and others!

“Ask the lord to ask for a comment? Haha, it's so funny! That's how your famous Devil's Palace is censored?” Wang Yan laughed contemptuously, and then turned his eyes casually, “Why don't you ask the Dunpa, see Look at the generals of your Demon Palace, what is happening right now? “

Emerson was ridiculed by Wang Yan and was deflated again. His old face was almost green.

He is not nonsense at the moment. He turned his eyes angrily to Dunbar, and his eyes were vigorously signaled to Dunbar, as if as long as Dunbar gave a good reason, he would immediately order the shot. Forgive this Lord Mo Yan and his men.

“This, the cause of this matter, is all because of the Lord of the Demon Flames! Sir Emerson, you must do justice for me!”

General Dunbar's eyes lit up, as if he saw a savior, he quickly grabbed Zoe's neck and shouted to Emerson, “Prince Chire ordered me and Kas to buy this Zoe, and Bring it back to the Devil's Palace. I have negotiated with Kas and Chairman Neder on the black market, and I was about to take this female slave Zoe away, but the magic flame actually made a stalk from it, and wanted to take this female slave away! It was lawless and fundamental. Do n't take our Chilian Demon King and Devil Palace into consideration! “

“In desperation, General Kas and I had to flee, but the demon flame was chased down to this point. Now General Kas doesn't know the life and death. If it's not a sir, you will arrive in time, and they will even kill me! “

Dunbar said that the compassion was touching, and she burst into tears. In addition, his neck was still caught by Camus, and he couldn't help but increase his conviction.

“Mo Yan! What else do you have to say?”

Emeryson, the strategist of the Inferno, finally found the handle, and immediately slammed, “Dare to do anything in our city of Liuhuohuo, and catch without a good hand!”

“Oh!”

The surrounding guards were also fanned by Dunbar’s words, and immediately shouted, Qi Qi pointed his weapon at Wang Yan and others, and the expressions were filled with righteous indignation.

Facing the fierce devil and the guard, Wang Yan instead sneered with a calm expression: “Lord Lord is still the same sentence, is your devil’s palace reviewing things like this? Really disgraceful.”

“What do you mean?” Emerson’s face was so ugly that he couldn’t understand it. Even now, this demon lord is not afraid of begging for mercy. Why dare to laugh at him again and again? Could it be that the head of the magic flame was terrified?

“Open your dog’s eyes, take a good look!”

Wang Yan sneered, it seemed rare to talk nonsense with him, but just raised his hand and showed a skin contract in front of everyone.

The people present are all fighting races with outstanding abilities. Even if they are far away, they can still see the words on the animal skin contract clearly.

In just a few breaths, the tortuousness has gradually become clear.

“This is the female slave’s contract of self-sale. Your gang of wine bags will open your eyes to Miss Ben and take a good look!”

The brutal lord of the cruel county pinched his arms, and once again met the guards around the devil’s palace, screaming angrily, “I and Master Moyan have already bought this female slave, which is the two chaotic thieves of Dunbar and Kas, secretly Taking away the female slaves who belonged to us, I and Master Moyan were helpless and had to chase down. These two thieves were still set aside in the middle, trying to kill me and Master Moyan! “

“Now you’re better, don’t catch the criminals, but face each other with Lord Sword and Lord Magic Flame’s swordsman? Is that how our guards of the Royal Palace in the Great Fire City do this? The Lord Sister really feels embarrassed for his father!”

The brutal lord looked around, eloquently speaking, and his face was filled with disappointment and indignation.

Tens of thousands of guards and five demon generals all felt embarrassed. The weapons in their hands could not be lifted anymore. They did n't wait for Emerson 's order. After looking at each other, they put their weapons back together. He stared fiercely at Dunbar and Emerson on the other side.

Isn't it playing them? With this method, they now feel ashamed of themselves.

Although the world of * is full of chaos and violence, social operations still follow some constant rules. For example, this contract of self-sale, has a slave's self-sale contract, and signed on it to leave the spiritual imprint of both parties, then who this slave belongs to.

This approach is simple and clear, and has legal effect. At the moment, Wang Yan and the Brutal Lord have Zoe 's slave contract. Obviously, Zoe belongs to Wang Yan and Brutal Lord. The Dunbar and General Kas dare to steal Zoe, which is a violation of the law of hell. .

Furthermore, as the officials of the Red Refining Demon King, two generals, Dunbar and Kas, dared to take the initiative to the daughter of the Red Refining Demon King, that is, tortured county, which is a felony in rebellion in hell.

The surrounding demon guards and the five demons who came to support them were not stupid. They did not dare to challenge the traditional laws of * since ancient times. They naturally stood on the side of Wang Yan and the cruel master.

The situation reversed instantly.
