The Domestic Hero - Chapter 1631

“Wow!”

With a slight thunder, the core of the Yanxi dog and many auxiliary materials that were put into the first compartment began to gradually decompose.

A large amount of pure energy extracted from the magic crystal is continuously transported into it. The inscribed inscriptions on the inside and outside of the machine, like the indicator lights, immediately shine.

In the first cabin, as the pure energy gathers more and more, the light blue energy light, like a trickle, surrounds the core of the Yanxi dog, surging continuously.

It didn't take long for the Yanxi dog's core to be broken down into fine particles that were indistinguishable to the naked eye in this stream of energy, and under the control of Zoe, it poured into the second cabin.

This is a separation compartment like a centrifuge. In this uniquely shaped compartment, this energy flow, protected and diluted by pure energy, began to rotate rapidly. A light blue vortex like a galaxy was formed.

Just when Wang Yan looked at this beautiful wheel, like a galaxy-like vortex, when his heart sighed, a little red light suddenly lit up in this galaxy!

One point, two points ... one piece, two pieces ... Soon the light blue galaxy, most of them began to transform into this dazzling red.

Yingying's light shone Wang Yan's face.

Staring at this beautiful fire, Wang Yan couldn't help but whispered: “Here, this is ... the fire of the life of the Yanxi dog!”

Really felt the life fire of a galaxy beast, Wang Yan deeply realized that this small piece of fire in front of him looked like a galaxy-like beautiful fire, which is the fire of life of the hellfire dog!

Master Hill grinned proudly, and stood aside with the other two master craftsmen, laughing without words.

When Zoe closed his eyes and was concentrating on his control, he heard Wang Yan's exclamation, a charming smile, and said: "Master Demon Flame, I don't know what kind of life fire is, but This energy body is the life source of the Hellfire Breath Dog, and contains all the strength and life messages of the Fire Breath Dog. "

"I'm purifying it now, and keep the part that is good for Hell Dog and can promote the evolution of Hell Dog."

Zoe, who was devoted to his life, controlled the machine. Instead of brightening the bright and shining red galaxy, a small part of it gradually dimmed and continued to peel off.

The small part of the gray matter that has been stripped off is just like the carbon ash left after the flame is burned, and it is also like the free dark matter in the universe. Eventually, it will fall to the cabin under the centrifugal gravity of the second cabin. Lowest level.

At the lowest level of this cabin, there is another disposal mechanism. Those waste materials will eventually be decomposed and digested here, and all will become energy, which in turn will be supplied to this machine.

In short, the conservation of energy is equally applicable everywhere.

In the end, the remaining red galaxy was pure and clear, like a trickle, with the pipeline flowing into the upper layer of the third cabin, and where it began to converge and merge.

Because the Hellfire Breath Dog has the same origin as the ordinary Hell Dog, and belongs to the upper and lower relationship on the biological chain, there is no need to add too many auxiliary materials and neutralizers, as long as it waits for it to re-integrate.

At this point, the Hellhound in the third compartment seemed to feel a little nervous, but it was already restrained and could not move at this time.

“Master Magic Flame, evolution is about to begin.”

Zoe reminded him that the source of life of the suffocated dogs that had been reassembled was stored in the upper chamber of the third compartment. At this time, with her manipulation, a long arm device like a syringe began to extend from the top of the third compartment, and suddenly plunged into the back spine of the * dog below.

“Aoo!”

The unknowing * dog was stung by this needle and screamed in horror.

At the same time, the source of the sighing dog after being diluted and optimized began to be slowly injected into the body of the * dog like an alchemy medicine.

The magic crystal that provides pure energy also injects all the remaining energy into the third compartment.

The mist of energy is thick like water, the teeth of grin and the fierce expression of the * dog are also caught in the evolutionary frenzy at this moment.

“Master Moyan, I have made improvements here.” Zoe explained to Wang Yan again, “Here not only can be injected directly, to promote the evolution of the * dog. It can also purify the life source of the Yanxi dog into a medicine. Or blood crystallization. But I personally think that direct injection evolution here will avoid extra energy waste and the effect will be better. “

Zoe’s meaning is very simple. The source of life reaches the third compartment. After the final fusion and optimization, it is already a finished product. When it is time to make a medicament or crystal, it is nothing to do. Consumption, the effect is better.

Otherwise, it will use more energy to make medicine or crystal, and the source of life in this state will gradually dissipate over time, and the effect will become lower and lower.

After all, to purify the source of life to this state, its balance has been subject to human interference, and it will dissipate quickly without special methods of preservation.

“Woo, woo ... Ao! Ao ... Ao roar!”

At this time, with the origin of the life of the Yanxi dog, it was gradually injected into the body of the * dog. This ordinary * dog began a mutation that was different from the conventional. Roaring excitedly.

Wang Yan clearly saw that as the pure energy provided by the magic crystal was continuously absorbed by this * dog, its dark gray body hair began to gradually become black and hard, fangs burst out, and the body began to grow vigorously. The red flames spreading out began to spread under its black and hard hair.

The thick fire gathered around the * dog. The little stars of Mars flutter around like snowflakes. The fierce and fierce momentum of this * dog also gradually increased with the increase of evolution.

Finally, with a roar that shocked the air and resounded throughout the workshop, the door of the third cabin opened suddenly, and the turbulent fire, like red smoke, spewed out of the third cabin in an instant.

Thick fire and mist filled the room, a strong, fierce dog-shaped, with a vigorous pace, came out of the cabin.

The dark and hard hair, the flame patterns all over the body like lava flowing through, and the thick breath of breath between the breath! At this time, this * dog, all over his body, is not everywhere, its superior blood and king's temperament!

“Hell Breath Dog!”

Wang Yan looked in his eyes and raised the corners of his mouth.

Succeeded! He painstakingly studied for several months of research, and finally got results!

In front of him, this * dog, which was originally only of A-level strength, is a common breed of * dog. At this time, he successfully completed the evolution and became the king of * dogs, a real * spit dog! And the strength has increased to half-step S-level, which is only one step away from the S-class Yanxiu King.

Such a successful and perfect evolutionary experiment makes Wang Yan ecstatic.

This is enough to show that his theory is useful and his hometown of the earth has been saved!

Now that he has such an evolutionary mechanism, he can quickly strengthen his men and the strength of the entire world of superpower through artificial debugging and control!

As long as we seize the time, and further improve this method, I believe that the promotion speed of the entire super energy world of the earth will be greatly improved. At that time, the carefully-organized earth superpowers will definitely have enough power to face the powerful abyss army!

Enough is enough, the next time is enough!

Wang Yan thought with excitement in his heart. Although Uncle Pao took a big risk this time, there is no doubt that he has won more years for the earth and Wang Yan.

With the past few years, the strength of the earth superpower can definitely raise the level again. If in the next time, and then achieve the God-level strongman, and never make a breakthrough, then all this is perfect!

“Zoo, thank you so much.”

Wang Yan was excited and stepped forward, giving Zoe a big hug.

“Hey? Hey!”

Zoe had just finished the operation, and just walked out of the machine, he was embraced by Wang Yan, and a pretty face with a “puff” turned red.

“Demon, Lord Moyan, me, me, me ... its, in fact, is not my credit alone.”

Zoe’s cheeks were scorched, and she felt that her heart was “banging” wildly. The tiredness accumulated in the previous body was all left behind, and there was only a roar and blank in her mind.

“I know, but I still have to thank you. You helped me a lot.”

Wang Yan patted her delicate beautiful back, and whispered her gratitude again. Afterwards, Wang Yan also embraced fervently with Master Refining Master Hill to show his gratitude.

The other two Master Spirit Masters have no entity, so naturally they cannot hug and thank them, but Wang Yan nodded to them and expressed his gratitude.

“Master Demon Flames is too polite, and the person who really brought out the attention is Master Demon Flames. You, those of us, are just a little bit of effort and action.”

Master Hill plucked his beard and smiled, “It’s an honor to be able to work for Lord Demon Flames. What’s more, I can make this kind of treasure that can create miracles. As a refiner, I Satisfied! “

To receive the gratitude from Wang Yan, the son of the demon god, for Master Hill, it is simply a glory. He is also very lucky to be able to serve young heroes such as Lord Mo Yan. And as a great master of refining, he can create such treasures that are not artifacts but comparable to artifacts. He feels that there is no regret in this life.

“Yes, yes ... It’s also an honor for Zuo to be able to play for Lord of the Flames.” Zoe’s face was red, and his shy voices were a little unheard, “Devil, Lord of the Flames, this treasure It has not been officially named, or you, you give it ... “

Wang Yan is right to think about it. This treasure that can create miracles should be given a name.

Although this machine has just been born, it is not as powerful as weapons and equipment, and it was not as powerful as the legendary artifact when it was born, but in Wang Yan’s eyes, this machine is an artifact, and its role is far more than one. The artifact is much bigger!

Just to name this machine, it is a bit difficult for Wang Yan.

what name should I choose? Is it called the bloodline evolution machine? Is it a bit too earthy, too mediocre?

At the time of Wang Yan's troubles, Zoe said weakly on the side, "Master Demon Flame, if you don't want to call it the key to evolution? Unlock the key to the mystery of evolution."

"The key to evolution?"

Wang Yan thought about it and thought it was quite good. "Then it is the key to evolution. Can it be reduced in size and fit into storage equipment?"

"Of course, we have taken this into consideration at the beginning of the design." Refinery master Hill introduced, "We use the most top-grade materials, plus inscribed special runes, this evolutionary key, can shrink about five times, enough to fit into a piece of storage equipment. "

Such a large machine, it is still very large to shrink five times, but this should be the limit that Master Hill and Zoe can do.

"But Lord Moyan, there is another principle that must be followed regarding the evolution of the bloodline." Zoe seemed to think of something suddenly, and Jiao Rong began to take it seriously.

"What principle?" Wang Yan asked.

"Equivalent exchange."

Zoe used her concept of alchemist to explain, "If you want to make a certain creature evolve, you need to pay the corresponding price. Otherwise, if the corresponding conditions are not met, the evolutionary technique will be performed. There will also be irreparable accidents. "

Wang Yan nodded thoughtfully.

Zoe's alchemy principle says that it is actually very simple, just like the law of conservation of mass on the earth, it is one of the most basic laws in nature.

This is like if you want a * dog to evolve into a suffocating dog, then you must provide all the conditions and energy that a * dog can complete evolution. Because the required energy cannot be generated out of thin air, if it is lacking, then the reluctantly started interference evolution will naturally not be completed.

But if we think about it from another angle, is it enough to be promoted to be a god, then Wang Yan can also evolve into a * through this treasure called the key to evolution?

At the thought of this, Wang Yan's whole body was boiling.

Although this is only an assumption, and many calculations and speculations are required, it is undoubtedly a path that can be explored.

This is already good news for Wang Yan. After all, equivalent exchange and conservation of quality are one of the most basic laws in nature!

“Wow, wow wow! Demon, Lord Moyan! Me, my * dog, really, really turned into a sighing dog!”

Behind Wang Yan and others, the rock leader of the barbarian stunned for a long time before crying out in surprise.

The barbarian captain Rock was stunned, surprised and happy. He reached out and stroked the end of the mount that had evolved into a flaming dog, his face unbelievable.

The Yan Breathing Dog is also quite spiritual. When the rock strokes it, it converges its anger and rubs the palm of the rock intimately, which makes the whole rock excited.

In order to increase the rapport with the mount, the barbarian who was selected as the * dog knight will eat and sleep with the * dog, and get along with it day and night. It can be said that each other is a partnership of life and death.

And a well-trained hellhorse mount is of high value, but it is not a war weapon that any barbarian can possess.

Now the rock is already a rare Hellhound mount, and it has evolved into the top of the Hellhounds. The strength has also risen by a grade, reaching the same half-step S level as him!

For his tiny barbarian squad leader, it was as pleasant as a lottery that won a billion yuan!

“Rock, you have been my personal bodyguard since the battle between the Yanhu Master and me. It has been a long time.”

Wang Yan turned around and patted the shoulder of the barbarian captain Rock, and asked with a smile, “Have you ever thought of breaking through your bloodline and becoming a real barbarian king?”

“Magic, Lord Moyan, you, you, you mean! Like, like my  dog, go, walk in there, then, then!”

The barbarian captain Rock was stared at by Wang Yan, and the whole person shivered with excitement.

It wasn't until a word of incoherence that he forcibly pressed down his inner excitement. The whole person solemnly and solemnly looked at Wang Yan, and solemnly replied: “Think!”

“That's easy to handle.” Wang Yan raised his mouth, and a plan that made his heart surging suddenly appeared in his heart.

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 1632

“Zoe, can barbarians evolve now?”

Wang Yan turned around and asked, it was not too late for the matter, and there was not much time for him to prepare.

“No problem, as long as it is a creature, you can use this evolution key to evolve life!”

Speaking of this treasure, Zoe was energetic, “As long as we obtain the corresponding data and parameters from both sides, we can modulate the necessary source of life according to the ratio and use it to promote evolution.”

After obtaining Wang Yan's affirmation, he set about setting parameters and related materials and reagents immediately.

As the chief alchemist under Wang Yan, Zoe has not been idle since this time. Barbarians, ogres, purgatory demon races, succubus, eagles, and other races have all collected corresponding racial information. In addition, she is already familiar with various materials and resources, and soon will be able to configure Wang Yan with the corresponding secret recipe suitable for the evolution of barbarians.

"Rock, go in, it will be fine." Wang Yan raised his chin, indicating that the barbarian captain Rock could go in. "As long as you can succeed, you will be my first flaming predator!"

The scorching marauder, but under the command of the devil * Satan, the army of the Royal Marines, is powerful enough to frighten everyone.

It is undoubtedly a terrifying feat if we can now transform an ordinary * dog into a combination of a barbarian warrior and a flaming marauder! Even Wang Yan can have a top-level army comparable to the * in the world in a short time! And the loyalty and discipline of this army are unquestionable.

This method of promoting biological evolution is really important. Of course, all this must be based on the premise that the next rock test is successful.

"Bang! Bang! Bang!"

Seeing Wang Yan's expecting eyes, the barbarian squad leader Rock immediately banged his chest and shot, "Rock believes Master Moyan! Rock will not live up to Master Moyan's expectations!"

That's the Flame Breaper, the strongest marine unit in the Purgatory Demon Race! As a lowly barbarian, Rock dreams of wanting to become a top warrior comparable to the Yan Marauders, and even beyond the Marauder Marauders!

What's more, once the evolution is successful, he can get a breakthrough and a new life like his mount * dog!

To know that the barbarian warriors have strong fighting power, but the adult barbarian soldiers are usually only B-level in strength. Only a few elites can reach the A-level. S grade.

As for the S legendary barbarian warrior at the apex, it is a top strongman who can become a tribal leader, known as the barbarian king.

Every barbarian warrior is eager to become the most powerful barbarian king, and his rock is also very eager.

But he is currently in the half-step S-level stage, for many, many years. Now that he is about to enter middle age, if there is no possibility of promotion, then in his life, I am afraid that he can only reach the point in front of him. Afterwards, he will grow old and weaker with the passing of time. This can be said to be the most feared nightmare of every fighting race.

Therefore, even if there is only one ten thousandth of hope, he, the barbarian captain, is willing to try it. What's more, Lord Master Moyan has said that there is no problem, then there must be no problem.

He trusted the Lord Mo Yan more than himself.

“Very good, I understand your loyalty. Go in. After success, the Divine Son will definitely reward you.”

At the direction of Wang Yan, Rock, the barbarian captain, said nothing, took off his upper body armor, and stepped into the third compartment.

Then Wang Yan personally selected a legendary barbarian kernel for him. The race of the barbarians was born to fight, and has excellent physical fitness. The evolution of the physical direction is very suitable for this race.

However, there is no complete barbarian blood and flesh for genetic supplementation, plus the exaggerated race, so only one core needs Zoe to add additional auxiliary reagents and purification neutralization reagents.

This can complete the original genes of the wild beast. Although the preparation work is very tedious and the operation is very troublesome, it is indispensable. Otherwise, the success rate and degree of evolution will be affected accordingly.

Fortunately, Zoe has made a lot of preparations for the evolution of the barbarian, so the operation is fast now.

After a while, the evolutionary operation of the barbarian squad leader began.

Perhaps it was the first time a human body test was performed, and Zoe was obviously nervous, and his expression was more focused.

Although in terms of evolution, humanoid races and other species actually share the same path, there is no difference. But after all, the humanoid race is on the same level as herself, so that her tension will emerge.

At the moment, Wang Yan is also focusing on every step of progress.

Since this is the first time human trials have been conducted, it is impossible to say that there is no risk of failure. As long as it concerns the evolution of species, there are bound to be many unmanageable risks. What's more, under the circumstances of human intervention, it is natural to carry out mandatory optimization, in which risks are naturally necessary.

Of course, using this treasure is much safer than Wang Yan's bloodline evolution alone. But as long as there is a trace of instability in it, Wang Yan cannot rest his mind completely.

Not only Wang Yan and Zoe, but also the master refiner Hill and the other two masters, also stared at all of them intently.

This is the moment to truly test their achievements. Whether their hard work and endless hard work can ultimately succeed, all of them fell on the barbarian soldier at this moment.

As long as there is a little change in the rock of the barbarian captain, they will immediately alert them.

In this way, after a period of time, the refined source of life finally began to converge on the upper level of the third cabin.

This is a green liquid full of rich life and exudes vitality. It is shining brightly in the cultivation tank on the upper layer of the cabin, letting people understand at a glance that this liquid is full of vigorous life force.

“Well!”

In the third compartment, the barbarian rock leader suddenly groaned in pain, and the syringe extended from the top of the compartment finally plunged into his body.

The evolution of this barbarian team leader also began at this moment.

“Rock, don’t let me down.”

Wang Yan secretly lamented that once there is nothing wrong with this test, then the strength of his men can get an overall improvement, and then the superpowers of the entire earth plane will also get a qualitative leap!

This matter is crucial and must be done. At the thought of getting such a major breakthrough, Wang Yan will feel bloody. Whether or not all of this can be achieved falls on the rock in front of us.

Under the eyes of everyone, the time seemed to be extremely long.

Just when everyone held their breath, and when the third cabin, all the vigor of the original green power was transformed into pale white mist.

Suddenly came from the cabin, “Bang” murmured.

In the next moment, the cabin door was opened in response to the sound, and the strong air pressure inside it rolled up layers of water mist and sprayed out.

In the mist of the mist and the smell of sweat, a strong and powerful body stepped out and appeared in front of everyone.

“Success, success!”

Zoe jumped happily.

On the other side, the master refiner Hill and the two master spirits also smiled and clapped their palms.

“Hahaha, okay, that’s great!”

“Master Magic Flame, we succeeded!”

“Our hard work is finally complete!”

Wang Yan looked at the body as if it were steel, and the rhythm was like a rock like a mountain, and finally he was relieved. It can be said that basically, all of Wang Yan’s previous research and the key to the evolution of the anti-treasure tool created after repeated experiments have been truly completed!

“Master Moyan, me, I feel my body full of power!”

Rock clenched his fists in both hands, feeling the powerful vitality that filled every cell in the whole body, and the whole person was a little excited.

But just when he took his steps and walked out of the cabin, wanting to thank Wang Yan, a thunderous thunder came suddenly and suddenly sounded above everyone’s head.

“It’s a punishment.” Wang Yan spoke slowly.

This barbarian squad leader has evolved through blood, and has indeed broken through the shackles for many years. Now he is officially stepping into the realm of legend. At the same time, what followed was the heavenly disaster after the promotion.

In the following period, Wang Yan and others watched the official promotion of the barbarian rock leader.

The rock that has been optimized for blood veins and has greatly increased physical strength. In order to show Wang Yan his strength and courage, and to avoid damage to Wang Yan’s property, he jumped on the roof of the workshop in one fell swoop The strong body made of steel and iron casts hard against the thunder that has fallen this time!

Attracted by the countless barbarians and ogres shouting at it, one by one envied.

Who are these low-level races who do not want to soar? So how can we soar in the * world of weak meat and strong food? Naturally, he rushed to the legendary realm in one fell swoop, and achieved the leader's general!

After a period of time, as Lei Yun dissipated, the barbarian rock captain finally completed his promotion.

He screamed in the sky, venting his accumulated emotions for many years, and the spirit of rebirth in his heart.

The countless soldiers below are eager to envy. It wasn't until the rock fell in front of Wang Yan, the respectful kowtow gratitude, that the hustle and bustle around gradually calmed down.

"Rock, remember, as long as you know that you have succeeded in the promotion of the legendary realm, how to break through the promotion, don't leak out." Wang Yan stared at the rock, the seriousness in his expression was beyond words.

Although Rock is a rude barbarian, but he is not a fool, he understands Wang Yan's meaning, and now he kowtows to guarantee: "The subordinate understands that this is a big secret. Even if the subordinate is dead, he will not reveal half a word! "

"That's good, hold it, this is for you."

Wang Yan raised his hand and lost a hundred magic crystals to the rock, and said, "Let's take your mount down first. New equipment suitable for you. The Divine Son will look back and distribute it to you."

"Thank you Lord Moyan for your reward! Thank you Lord Moyan for your kindness! Every word spoken by Lord Moyan is remembered by your subordinates!"

The rock took over a hundred magic crystal coins, and immediately threw his heads excitedly, thanking Dade again, and then took the brand new Hellfire Breath Dog mount and walked out of the workshop with his head upright.

At this moment, he felt that he had almost reached the peak of his life.

Hundreds of magic crystal coins are almost worth the salary of his five-year captain. This is the high salary given by Lord Mo Yan! And this Hellfire Breath Dog is one of the top mounts in the Purgatory Demon Clan. Only the real nobility can usually enjoy it. If we use the words on the earth, this Hellfire Breath Dog mount is like a shiny Lamborghini!

At the moment, I have been a rock of poor cockroaches for many years, and I have gained super strength, a huge fortune, plus a top mount, and later there is a distribution of top equipment. Such a generous welfare treatment, he felt that at this moment, he was really about to be happy.

But he was very clear in his heart that it all came from the respected Lord Mo Yan.

Lord Mo Yan gave him the kindness he could not repay in his life. Even if he gave his life for Master Mo Yan in the future, he would never say no, no regrets!

After the rock was gone, Wang Yan put this crucial machine into the secret realm left by the starry sky god.

This secret realm is sealed in the title page of the Book of Stars, where it is self-contained, no matter how noisy it is inside, the outside world cannot perceive it.

Although the site he currently owns is completely under his personal control, there are occasionally a promotion under his staff.

Can ten, one hundred, one thousand men all need promotion? By that time, it will inevitably attract the attention of the outside world, and even a glimpse of it.

Although paper can't hold the fire, before this secret leaks, what Wang Yan has to do is to strengthen himself as much as possible, as well as the strength of the earth superpower.

Including at any cost, to create a new  for the earth!

By that time, no matter who they dare to glimpse Wang Yan and the precious wealth of the earth, they will have enough power to defend their own interests.

“Zoe, report to me. How many consumables did you just need to help rock evolution?” The people gathered together again, and Wang Yan asked first.

“Helping a half-step S-class powerhouse evolve is much more expensive than an A-class * dog.”

Zoe took out a small book, and after writing all the notes, the report said, “According to the principle of equivalent exchange, if you want to help a half-step S-level strongman evolve, then you need a legendary core, the best It is a complete flesh and heart, and the effect will be better. “

“In addition to that, it is necessary to purify and neutralize the potions. If these are converted into magic crystals, plus the power supply of about tens of thousands of magic crystals ... rough calculations will prompt a half-step S-class strong man Evolution, I am afraid that it needs to consume 20,000 straight magic crystals of about 25,000. The main legendary core is really rare, the price fluctuates greatly, and it is not easy to obtain easily, so the price will also fluctuate greatly. “

When Zoe calculates consumption, he also takes into account the market of supplies. Because the higher the evolution, the energy consumption is a trivial matter. The key is the legendary core and other advanced consumables necessary for evolution. The higher the level, the more valuable the market is, and it is difficult to obtain. Therefore, this price will also cause considerable fluctuations due to supply and demand factors.

“If it is to help the evolution of the legendary lord’s life, the resources that need to be consumed are about ...”

Zoe carried out a series of calculations and then replied, “If it is a legendary lord, I am afraid that the magic crystal energy that light needs to consume will require more than 20,000 or 30,000 pieces! Plus rare advanced cores, and rare auxiliary Material ratio ... The minimum consumption must be at least 100,000 magic crystals. “

This is still Zoe’s conservative estimate. It is important to know that a legendary pinnacle core and flesh body are often necessary for the manufacture of secondary holy items and even holy items. You can casually fry up to 70,000 to 80,000, or even more than 100,000 magic crystals. If it is a legendary peak core with better quality and outstanding attributes, the price will be even higher.

The corresponding auxiliary materials are not counted, the core of the legendary peak alone has to spend so many magic crystal coins to buy, it is conceivable that the more evolved, the lack is not the ordinary energy supply, but the more advanced rare Resources.

“Senior Demon Flame, this is just a preliminary estimate. The actual situation may require more magic crystals to be consumed ...” Zoe told the general consumption in detail. Later, her pretty face was slightly dignified.

Because if her master, Her Majesty, wants to build a top-level army and uses all evolutionary techniques, then the cost is too great, too big!

“It takes only two thousand magic crystals for an A-class elite to evolve into a half-step S-class elite?”

With only two thousand magic crystals, a class A soldier can get a qualitative leap, which is also very cost-effective!

But Wang Yan secretly estimated that he immediately took a breath.

He now brings in a handful of tens of thousands of people, basically all are carefully selected A-class elite soldiers, only a few hundred are half-step S-class elites.

If you let them evolve once, or even twice, and then equip them with new equipment and materials, this trivial resource-consuming trivial matter is not counted. The funds used in evolution alone are enough to make him completely ruined. Not enough.

But this is very worthwhile, very worthwhile, what the magic crystal is left in the hand is just the magic crystal. Only by turning them all into strength, and truly loyal to his Wang Yan’s strength, can better development be achieved.

Uncle Gun’s plan for their abyss trip was only half successful.

There is not much time left for him.

“It takes about two or three thousand magic crystals to promote an A-class elite soldier to a half-step S-class. If all his 10,000 soldiers are upgraded to a half-step S-class, wouldn't it be tens of millions of magic crystals? Isn't it going to be hundreds of millions of magic crystals when all of them are promoted to legends? “

“If we consider the large-scale purchase and sale of resources and cause supply and demand problems in the market, wouldn't this price have to be raised by several percent?”

“If these elite soldiers are replaced with corresponding weapons, then this cost is simply a bottomless hole?”

Wang Yan made a little calculation in his mind, and the whole person suddenly had a hard time.

The soldiers he brought this time, there were about 10,000 people, mainly seven thousand barbarians, two thousand ogres, the remaining members were eagle body succubus and succubus, and there were a few dark elves.

These tens of thousands of soldiers can be said to be the core strength that Wang Yan has carefully cultivated in the past year. Each one is carefully selected. Some barbarians still follow Wang Yan when he first came to hell. It can be said that the merits are outstanding. And most importantly, their loyalty is unquestionable.

If all these outstanding soldiers are upgraded to a legendary level, they will definitely become a team that can even surpass the powerful combat power of the army directly under the demon god!

If there are tens of thousands of legendary generals in hand, Wang Yan is sure to push any enemy.

With this combat capability in hand, no matter what enemies he encounters, Wang Yan at least has confidence. But now it is difficult, so many valuable magic crystals, where to get it?

Speaking of these, Wang Yan has been worshipped by the royal princes, nobles, and devil kings in these days, and all kinds of treasures have made a lot of money.

But the key to the evolution of a treasure took nearly half of his assets.

Now he has only about 20 million magic crystals on hand. The reason why he said that is because the magic crystals he owns are not more than one million. The rest are all kinds of rare treasures, these things have to be sold. In order to change to magic crystal, the current estimate is about 20 million, depending on the market price.

In this way, letting his bloodline evolve into a half-step S-class alone, not counting the later equipment and supplies, is enough to hollow him out, which may not be enough.

Although it only takes more than two thousand magic crystals, it is a very cost-effective thing for an A-level man to get the evolution and improvement of the bloodline. But with a large number of people, Wang Yan would have to be hollowed out even if he was sitting in Jinshan and Yinshan.

After thinking for a moment, Wang Yan decided to say: “Zoe, you and Master Hill have a good day’s rest first, and then start preparing. I plan to give priority to the backbone of my men and give priority to evolution.”

“Zoey takes orders, and Zoe must serve Lord Moyan wholeheartedly.” Zoe respectfully bowed her head. Although her status has improved many times over the past, she still remembers that she is Wang Yan’s slave girl. Serve Wang Yan as much as possible.

“Hill also follows Master Moyan’s order.” Master Refiner Hill, who also responded with respectful salutes, “Improve the promotion and give it to Zoe, and the enhancement and production of equipment and weapons are given to the old man.”

With the command of the two, they immediately started a lot of work.

As for the backbone of Wang Yan’s mouth, it naturally refers to the confusion, cruelty, Ablon Giant Mallet, and legendary men such as Zhang Weidao, Wuwujie, and the Desert Emperor who are companions with the earth.

Counting it, a few of the * world’s men, plus the partners from the earth, except that Lydia does not require additional evolution, there are a total of fifteen legendary strongmen. In addition, there are five barbarian warriors in Wang Yan’s army, which have also reached the legendary level.

The five barbarian warriors were also barbarian gladiators rescued by Wang Yan from the black market of Liuhuocheng. They were born as mercenaries themselves, and have been fighting for many years. They have very rich combat experience. Later they also followed Wang Yan and attacked the Chilian Demon King. Their combat capabilities were very good.

Wang Yan has been serving as a barbarian general for a long time. Later, because of the rewards given to them by Wang Yan, he has been promoted to the legendary realm.

Now these twenty legendary men and companions are Wang Yan's most powerful backbone generals so far. Under the current lack of funds, it is definitely the most sensible approach to allow them to give priority to evolution and upgrade to become a more outstanding vanguard.

According to Zoe's conservative estimates, to optimize promotion for each legendary lord, at least 100,000 magic crystals need to be prepared.

More than one hundred thousand magic crystals, that is, the price of a top-grade spiritual weapon or a second holy weapon, but in Wang Yan, it can make a legendary lord and be promoted to the peak state.

This price / performance ratio is definitely extremely cost-effective.

You have to know that reaching the legendary level is already the limit of most purgatory demons. Even if you want to take one step upward, it will be as difficult as going to the sky. Many hardships have become legendary lords of the purgatory demons, basically to death. It can only be in this state.

If these legendary lords are told, as long as they spend more than 100,000 magic crystals, they can be promoted to the peak of the legend. Not to mention that ordinary lords will squeeze their scalp, even the confusing lords who are clinking poorly in that year will smash the pot and sell iron to steal. Come try it.

But the only thing that currently disturbs Wang Yan is the problem of resource supply.

Even though Satan, the devil god, regards Wang Yan as his son, he will not open all his money and materials to him. There is no reason why Satan, the devil, will not easily approve.

In addition, Wang Yan does not want to tell this kind of secret weapon to outsiders, especially the outsider, such as Satan, who is currently unable to fight against him, he is even more unable to disclose.

Therefore, the lack of resources and wealth can only be slowly obtained through their own ways.

A little bit of time passed, and after about ten days, Wang Yan and his companions again gathered in the secondary space of the Book of Stars.

In the subspace, the entire sky is full of pure magical glory and beautiful.

Just above the top of the starry sky tower, everyone gathered in front of the key to the evolution of the treasure, waiting for the emergence of the desert emperor's evolution.

“Hey, hey, boss, I really didn't expect that you discovered this kind of anti-sky technology in the relics of the old man of the starry sky god. I really admire the youngest!”

Lord Chi Chi who had just been successfully promoted to the pinnacle of legend, seeing Wang Yan sitting patiently in front of the treasure, hurriedly came forward with a smile on his face, serving tea and pouring water to wait and said, “Come on, boss, drink tea. It's a pity that this life optimization can only be performed once in the current stage. Otherwise, the younger brother will let the most of them try a few times and directly rush to the demigod devil, how good it should be. “ “Insufficient greed, if you are not afraid of genetic collapse and die, being the boss can make you come a few more times.” Wang Yan took the tea and casually said a word.

Upon hearing the gene collapse, the confusing Lord shrank his neck, and quickly waved his hand and said with a smile: “No need, my brother feels that he has just advanced and the state is not yet stable. It will be later, and we will talk after we get more resources.

That 's right, these ten days have not only been the Lord of Deception, the Lord of Cruelty, the Ogre Ablon Maul, Walpole Blue Shield, Dark Elf Camus, Elsa, Enzo, and five The legendary barbarian warriors have all been optimized for blood, and successfully promoted to the peak of legend!

Even Alchemist Zoe and Alchemist Master Hill have been successfully promoted to the pinnacle of legend with the help of the core and other resources carefully auctioned by Wang Yan!

And after this kind of genetic optimization, all qualifications and talents have been greatly increased. This is also the biggest advantage of bloodline evolution.

Wang Yan's improved bloodline evolution technique is powerful in that it not only enhances the user's current strength, but also optimizes the user's own bloodline genes so that their life structure can be truly sublimated.

The many benefits brought by this are enough for users to use for a lifetime.

However, this bloodline evolution technique cannot be reused multiple times at a certain stage. This has been verified by the Red Confused Lord many times.

Because of the same bloodline gene, after optimization for the user, it is difficult to play the role of repeated optimization. And a user cannot fuse too many different genes, otherwise it will cause the gene chain to collapse and the creature will die miserably.

If you reach the pinnacle of legend, and you want to continue to enhance your bloodline genes and obtain more powerful power, you need to find more powerful semi-god-level prey. And the multiple optimization attributes that this demigod level can provide must also be consistent with itself, so as to obtain optimization and promotion again.

For the past ten days, Wang Yan's cronies from the world of * have basically been optimized and promoted. On this side of the earth, Zhang Weidao, Wu Wujie, and Shen Tu Tianlu also successfully obtained optimized promotion and successfully reached the legendary peak state.

As for Lydia, she does not need Wang Yan's assistance to optimize the bloodline.

She herself is the heir to the starry sky god, and she has a set of methods that use magical elements to continuously quench body evolution. Coupled with touching the fire of life, his qualifications and talents are outstanding. Therefore, since this time, she has completed the promotion of her own strength in this starry sky tower by virtue of the rich and pure magic elements here.

Now Lydia has successfully reached the peak of legendary level, and her heart has matured and firmed a lot, which has saved Wang Yan a lot of heart.

However, the promotion of the remaining Shiva goddess Indira, high priest Berika, and the desert emperor Ganeses made Wang Yan a bit difficult.

The three goddess Shiva, the high priest Berika, and the desert emperor themselves have reached the peak of legend. Their strength is very good, and the degree of life evolution is already very high. If you want to get evolution and breakthroughs again, the difficulty can be imagined. .

“Lao Wang, do you say that Lao Sha can succeed this time?” Zhang Weidao and others whispered and asked beside Wang Yan.

“I don’t know, Lao Sha’s life level is too high. In the absence of resources, even Zoe can’t guarantee it.”

Wang Yan frowned, and Chuanyin replied, “Otherwise, let’s let Belika fortune teller? Look at the chance of success this time?”

“Bah! Pharaoh, are you a priest and a fortune teller on the street?”

The high priest Belika passed by with a white eye, and inserted into the dialogue by means of sound transmission, “This is what time it is. To believe in science, you can’t solve problems with science, can you solve them by fortune telling?”

Hearing Belica ’s vomiting, Wang Yan, Zhang Weidao and others were shocked, and the corners of their mouths could n’t help but smoke.

The heart said that this magical stick priest actually said he wanted to believe in science? Are you kidding me?

However, the situation encountered by Wang Yan is indeed very difficult.

In order for the Shiva Goddess, Belika, and the Desert Emperor to achieve an evolutionary breakthrough, the resources and materials needed must reach the level of demigods.

That’s Qiangda’s demigod-level creature. Any Qiangda’s demigod is a party hegemony and no one dares to provoke it.

At that time, Yanhu ruled the occupation of Chilian Huze and became king. The Red Refining Demon King, who ruled that area, froze for hundreds of years without daring to attack. One can imagine how noble deterrent a demigod-level overlord is in the world of hell.

Where is such a powerful overlord-level creature, their flesh and crystal nuclei, available at random? Even if it is a large black market in Shendu, this level of precious resources is priceless in the market, and can be encountered but not sought.

If it is said that a legendary lord, evolution and promotion to the peak, only need more than 100,000 magic crystals. So if you want a legendary peak powerhouse to use evolution to break through to the demigod, the price must be at least one million magic crystals!

Because the flesh and blood corpses of demigod-level overlord creatures, related auxiliary materials to assist evolution, and even the energy supply of evolution are not counted, just a demigod-level core is worth millions!

The semi-god-level core, but the key requirement for making the best holy artifact, and even the sub-artifact, the power contained in it is unparalleled in this world.

If you want the desert emperor to break through the promotion, it is not enough to have a demigod core. This demigod core must match the desert emperor himself.

In addition, it is best to have this demigod core and corresponding complete corpse. Coupled with related auxiliary reagents and a large amount of pure energy supply, in this way, the desert emperor can successfully and perfectly obtain sublimation on the level of life.

Wang Yan's preliminary estimate of one million yuan consumption is really the lowest limit. But even if it costs two million or three million for this, as long as he can get a demigod in his camp, it is an absolute bargain.

You know, a demigod-level overlord, it is the ultimate life at the highest level under the devil in the world of hell.

Wang Yan is confident that he can have more demigod-level strongmen in his camp. Not to mention the other forces of the * world, he can have the power of a battle. Even if he is facing a demon god, he may have the ability to escape.

This is the key to having top powerhouses in the camp.

It is a pity that the demigod core is too rare. Wang Yan has not yet auctioned a suitable demigod core. Therefore, after consulting with several companions, it was decided to use the four-core legendary core with a variety of auxiliary materials. One-time exact matching is used to replace a semi-god-level kernel.

The precise calculation of this material is mainly conducted by Zoe. If it succeeds, then Wang Yan will find a way to shape the divine personality, and there will be a shortcut.

The actual situation is always more difficult than imagined.

In a blink of an eye, the crisis has struck.

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 1634

“Buzz!”

A sudden roar suddenly sounded in the cabin of Evolution Key.

The air in the cabin shook violently, and the light yellow energy mist that originally diffused in the chamber immediately boiled and rolled, and changed into a large and strange blood mist color.

The desert emperor himself also made a scream that couldn't restrain it. The whole person knelt on the ground tremblingly, the back muscles bowed high, the whole person's expression was grim and distorted.

“No, it's an accident!”

The confusing Lord standing around, as well as Zhang Weidao and others, Qi Qi's eyes widened, and his face was all dignified.

“Master Moyan, it must be that the life source of mixed deployment is too complicated, and it has already begun to collapse and fight back, and the optimization process must be terminated immediately!”

Zoe quickly looked at Wang Yan with a nervous face. She could not understand the crises in the evolution of the bloodline.

“Stop the process immediately, inject the booster reagent, hurry up!” Wang Yan frowned, and immediately issued a stop order.

He wouldn't take the life of an important partner around him to take risks. Before the bloodline evolution, the relevant safety measures have been fully prepared.

Upon receiving the order, Zoe, who was already prepared, immediately shut down the input of the source of life, and at the same time injected a gene amplifier into the body of the desert emperor.

At this time, the desert emperor, his eyes were red, his body had more cracked and bleeding, and he looked terrible. However, with the injection of this booster, his situation immediately improved.

This booster reagent comes from the desert emperor itself, and its role is to enhance the desert emperor's own genetic vitality and enhance his life force.

In this way, the tangled life source input was cut off, and the exclusion was immediately controlled. At this time, the desert emperor's own vitality was enhanced, so the desert emperor, with his powerful cells, began to kill in turn, and devoured those foreign sources of confusion. Just like a cold, the body's immune mechanism kills cold viruses.

Gradually, the wound of the desert emperor's cracking began to heal, and soon after that the many negative conditions that made his body reject began to gradually disappear.

After a while, the cabin door was opened, and the desert emperor gasped and stumbled out.

The desert emperor's own level is already very high, and the vitality is also unusually tenacious, enough to resist this level of refusal of genetic invasion, which is also the confidence he dares to accept Wang Yan's proposal. However, it is related to the evolution of life, and the risks are still very large, and a little carelessness will cause irreparable consequences.

Upon seeing this, Wang Yanli immediately stepped forward to support him, and apologized and said with apologetic: “Lao Sha, let you suffer, are you okay?”

“No, it’s okay? Do you look like I’m okay?” The emperor of the desert gave Wang Yan a white eye, and with his temperament, he almost couldn’t help but scolded his mouth. The cores are probably not fakes? This experiment is almost fatal! “

“Fake goods are not enough, but the level of life contained in the core is too low, and there are many types of cores used, which eventually caused the combined gene chain to collapse, and it turned back against you.”

Wang Yan smiled bitterly, and said that it seems that different types of low-level kernels are used to replace a semi-god-level kernel. The hidden danger is still too great. This road does not work.

Once this road does not work, then he plans to use a variety of low-level resources to build a way to become a god, and it seems to be impossible.

“Lao Wang, you don’t have to worry too much. Your achievements are already very high.” The desert emperor saw the difficulty of Wang Yan, so he whispered, “I am promoted to a demi-god right now. Matching demigod-level overlords, I can wait. “

The desert emperor naturally dreamed of breaking through the shackles and becoming the sixth semi-god powerhouse in the true sense of the world of superpower. Besides, he was unwilling to be left behind by the wicked Pharaoh for a long time.

And among the companions from the earth now, only he has the best strength and the highest level. If it is possible to break through, it is not him who is undoubtedly, which is why he participated in the evolution of this adventure.

“But Pharaoh, if you want to test anything next, don’t look for me anymore, I can’t eat it anymore. Find it, find her.”

The Emperor of the Desert said, turning his gaze with horror, looking to the goddess Shiva on the side, quietly whispering, “Indira is a goddess of Indian Shiva teaching, with outstanding strength, not under me.”

Watched by the eyes of the desert emperor and Wang Yan, the goddess of Shiva felt a creepy feeling, and suddenly came to her heart.

“What are you looking at me for? You, wouldn’t you want to experiment with me?”

The goddess Shiva became more and more frightened, and she retreated back and forth, “I don’t want to go through that kind of ghost experiment, don’t even think about it!”

Aside from the high priest, Berika also sucked inwardly: “The kind of experiment on evolution is really terrible. Gee ... how can this kind of terrible and painful experiment let girls try? Pharaoh, if you dare , I, I curse you on behalf of the earth! “

“No experiment, no trial, I already got the desired result.”

Wang Yan no longer heard the sound, let go of the voice and said, “It seems that low-level lifeforms cannot always replace the life source of high-level lifeforms. If you want to break through the legendary peak in a short time, I am afraid you have to find a suitable semi-god level overlord It will do. “

After listening, everyone around them nodded in agreement.

These people are all close friends of Wang Yan. These ten days have been working hard to advance together. They are also aware of the dilemma facing them. And the technique of bloodline evolution seems to be against the sky, in fact, it still conforms to the laws of nature, but it takes a shortcut.

“Next I need to inquire about the information of some overlord-level creatures. If we can add a demigod to our camp in the future, whether it is in the * conference or the future * battle, it will benefit us immensely.”

Wang Yan said, Lord Chong Chi beckoned, “I will leave it to you to handle it. You are the purgatory demon race. You will handle this matter, which is much more convenient than Camus and Zhang Weidao.”

This place is the core capital of Purgatory Demon Race. All foreign races are inferior class in the eyes of Purgatory Demon Realm. No one wants to take too much attention at all. But here is also the heart of the entire Purgatory Demon Realm. There is nothing here that is not available here.

“Boss, you can rest assured, this matter is covered by my brother!” Lord Chidu patted his chest to ensure that now he is not the same as now. After following Wang Yan, even in this god, they are all one. Yeah.

Wang Yan nodded after listening, and then looked at everyone again, saying: “At present, it is not practical to optimize all 10,000 men at one time. So I plan to select 30% elite first, as the first batch of soldiers, priority to build . These 30% are elite, and you will go to the barracks for selection by Camus. “

“Yes!” Camus took the order immediately.

“Also, you have to remember, and you must let the following people remember, this thing is absolutely not allowed to disclose the slightest wind to the outside world.” Wang Yan tightened his eyes and sternly told.

He now masters this set of improved bloodline evolution, and he can turn this anti-celestial technique into a key to the evolution of the treasure, which can be said to be an artifact without the name of an artifact in the world today!

Once revealed, it will inevitably cause the outside world to watch. Not to mention the powers of Fallen Demon and Dark Demon, even now the forces of Purgatory Demon Realm will surely rush.

Therefore, Wang Yan intends to keep the secrets related to this treasure as confidential as possible. In particular, Satan, the demon that he can't fight now, can't reveal any news.

Otherwise, this treasure is still not his own, it is not easy to say. Besides, if you live all day under the glance of external enemies, that kind of life will not be easy.

Fortunately, Wang Yan's men, including the 10,000 elite soldiers, are the same as the previous barbarian rock captain. After his careful selection, he won the trust, otherwise he would not be able to use this treasure to optimize the bloodline for them.

“Master Demon Flame, you can rest assured that those men have been carefully selected and very loyal. A few of us can assure you that we will never reveal any news to the outside world!”

Camus, Confusion, Ogre Ablon Giant Mallet, and Meier and Zoe all vowed to Wang Yan that they would never leak any wind to the outside world.

Wang Yan nodded his approval. These few powerful men were all excellent generals who took the lead of Wang Yan. With their management at different levels, he was assured.

“Master Hill, you need to strengthen and forge a batch of new equipment next, and this will be yours.”

Wang Yan helped the desert emperor walk to the side of the seat to rest, and at the same time looked at Master Hill, laughing, “Master Hill is sorry, and then you have to work hard to work overtime. Of course, what are the needs, Just mention it to me. “

“Huh, the old man is on your thief ship. I thought that following you, Master Mo Yan, would have a good life, but I would be more tired every day than an apprentice.”

Master Hill smoked a cigarette pot and spit out the smoke ring. “At present, I will first come to five tons of purgatory steel. This is the main material. I will declare other materials to you as needed.”

“No problem, no problem, I need everything for you.”

Wang Yan smiled and patted Master Hill on the shoulder. A master refining master in Hell World is even rarer than a demigod demon king. With the help of this master refining master, it is really worry-free and money-saving.

Otherwise, so much military supplies, as well as the strengthening and repair of equipment and weapons, if this master refiner were present, he could only spend a lot of money to buy it, go to an outside workshop to order it, and spend money and time, not to mention, quality There is no guarantee.

Now he only needs to find some apprentices for Master Hill and set up a workshop. After that, as long as he provides the necessary materials, he can guarantee his entire military supply. And each piece of equipment is equipped with excellent quality and excellence. Where can we find such good things?

“All right, the old man doesn’t ask for anything, as long as you can treat my daughter better.”

Master Hill smoked a cigarette and gave a meaningful glance to Zoe before bidding farewell to Wang Yan, and went to the workshop first.

Both Wang Yan and Zoe were stunned for a while, and the people around him who had always loved to join the lively Chess Lord and Zhang Weidao, Shen Tu Tianlu and others immediately came together with a smile.

Although Master Hill and Zoe are not the same race, Zoe, who is lonely and helpless, is the adopted daughter of Master Hill since childhood. The two are not biological fathers and daughters, but they are better than biological fathers and daughters.

Now this scene is very obvious. This dedicated Master Hill is clearly working for his son-in-law?

“Master Moyan, I, I think you, you are to me, already, already very good ...”

Under a few unreasonable eyes, Zoe’s face turned red at once, and she wanted to explain something, but the voice behind was almost shy and inaudible.

The more chaotic the explanation, the more ambiguous the scene becomes.

It wasn’t until Wang Yan glared at the confidant Lord and others that the unsuspecting big guy had left with a smile and said that he was busy with his own business.

“Cough, Zoe, those guys love to be messy, don’t mind.”

Wang Yan laughed a little, trying to change the atmosphere at the scene. However, Zoe’s blushing cheeky face replied on the spot, “It’s okay, anyway, Zoe is your slave girl anyway, yes, it’s your person ...”

Wang Yan’s eyes stunned for a moment, and he was speechless for a moment, and he didn’t know what to say at all.

But thinking about it, according to the concept of the world of hell, this argument is really not wrong.

After Wang Yan was helpless, he had to digress again, and Zoe counted the consumption of various materials so far.

Since this time, they have carried out two optimization experiments for the desert emperor, and ultimately ended in failure.

Although no demigod cores are used, a combination of multiple legendary cores is used twice, consuming a total of eight legendary cores, and a variety of auxiliary materials and energy supplies, which cost more than one million magic crystals.

The optimization promotion of dozens of legendary men also cost nearly three million magic crystals. Adding one to the two items costs more than 4 million!

Wang Yan had a total of assets before, but only about 20 million remained. After this conversion, there were about 15 million remaining.

The total assets of more than 15 million are only estimated using various materials and resources.

In fact, there is no magic crystal in Wang Yan now. The only resources left are those of the royal nobles. If you want to use it, you have to sell it and replace it with magic crystals before you can use it for purchase.

In addition, Wang Yan intends to give priority to the promotion of 3,000 soldiers, which will require more than 6 million magic crystal consumption, plus the army's military equipment, and even the upgrade supplies of the mounts. The estimated consumption is about 8 million magic crystals.

At the thought of such a huge expense, Wang Yan felt a lot of pressure.

This has no funds and can't really support an army.

At this point, Wang Yan handed a Goblin storage box to Zoe: "Zuo, you need to sell this stuff first."

Ugh!

No way, until now, Wang Yan can only sell iron and resources.

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 1635

“After these resources are sold, bring a few more people to classify and manage the remaining resources for me. They are useful to stay. Those that are temporarily unavailable are sold and replaced with magic crystals.”

Wang Yan made a simple plan for his existing materials and resources. Now he can use every resource and magic crystal.

“Master Moyan, just give it to me, and I will definitely sell you a good price.” Zoe took the storage box and immediately honored the salute.

She was born on the black market, but she is familiar with the black market transactions, plus she is good at appraisal and eloquence, and it is suitable for her to auction.

“Master Moyan, me, me? What am I doing?”

The neglected brutal master who had been ignored by the side, rushed over with jealousy, and said with carelessness, “The slave family is now also a legendary pinnacle, and the slave and slave family are also useful!”

Wang Yan looked at the brutal master who was eager to express himself, and then nodded and said, “Fortunately, it is not convenient to go out and do things as Zoe, so you will come forward to buy and sell materials, and Zoe will assist you. But you need to obey Zo. Yi’s suggestion, she is more professional than you. “

“Very good!” The cruel master immediately cheered with a smile, “This master can finally do things for Lord Mo Yan!”

“Uh?” Wang Yan looked ashamed of himself. Why was this crazy brutal master going crazy? Doing something, so happy?

“correct.”

When Wang Yan and Zoe were about to leave, they suddenly remembered something and reminded them, “This is not a small place like Liuhuocheng. Let Camus arrange for you to accompany a few masters and leave you with everything.”

Although they are all subordinates and slave girls of Wang Yan, the son of the demon god, but in a place where the gods are gathered, who knows if anyone will make a fortune or even take the risk? Especially in places like the black market, more care is always necessary.

“Oh, Lord Mo Yan! You, you really care about the slave! The slave, the slave is so moved!”

The brutal master of the county was immediately moved, and his eyes were full of tears, and the whole person darted to Wang Yan.

Wang Yan fell in cold sweat and dragged her up, “This God Son has no time to mess with you, hurry and work for me!” Then she threw her out.

“Hey, ouch!” The Abbot of the Abuse County stumbled a few steps, but he was scolded, and instead turned his face in worship, “Well! My demon flame, the look of the wind, it is so charming!”

“Not yet!”

“Go, go! Ooo ...”

The men also left one after the other and did their own thing.

Wang Yan just left the subspace with sweat and returned to his palace.

The Second Artifact Star Book was placed in the secret chamber of the god’s womb, so Wang Yan came out of it and returned to his bedroom in a few steps.

The peripheral barbarian and ogre guarded closely, and there was no outsider in the entire Divine Demon Palace. The environment was quiet and comfortable.

“call.....”

Wang Yan lay on the spacious sofa and exhaled for a long time. Meier immediately poured water for Wang Yan's tea and delivered fruits. This short leisure time made him feel relaxed.

However, while enjoying leisure and taking a break, Wang Yan is constantly thinking about the dilemmas he faces.

Since he went to the abyss world, he deeply felt that the power of the abyss is stronger than the purgatory demon race. Especially the abyss demon Kaos, who is quite sturdy and cunning, has been personally seen by Wang Yan.

Although the destruction of Uncle Gun and others caused the invasion of the abyssal forces to be postponed for several years, this threat is always present. If enough power is accumulated at this time, it is impossible to confront the abyssal forces.

In addition, he is now next to the devil Satan, but his identity and appearance are all disguised, which can be said to be equally dangerous.

So far, the only thing fortunate is that they have found a way to save themselves.

However, this road that can quickly improve his own strength requires huge resource consumption, which makes him a bit difficult.

Magic crystals, cherish resources, the core of advanced creatures, preferably a complete flesh and core of a rare creature, so that evolution can be carried out perfectly.

But the difficulty is that these consumptions are expensive materials that he is currently scarce.

And the path to becoming a * that he is trying to pursue now, is it still necessary to look for special resources that are more precious and rare than demigod-level overlord creatures?

But this world is more precious and rarer than the demigod-level overlord creature, there is only one resource.

That is.....

“Is it the devil’s gene?”

Wang Yan couldn’t help but think of such a thought.

He absorbed the essence of Satan, the demon god, and evolved the body of the demon god, breaking through to the peak of the legend in one fell swoop. Later, stimulated by the fire of life, he broke through again and was promoted to demigod.

These are the genes of Satan, the various advantages provided to him, which still benefit him a lot.

Therefore Wang Yan couldn’t help but think that if more Demon God genes were collected, his own genes would be replenished again. With the fire of life absorbed by him, can he get another breakthrough?

Perhaps it is a little impossible to become a * directly, but at least it can make him go further, reach the peak of the semi-god level, and become a real devil, should n’t it be a problem?

Wang Yan conceived this way, and then using the genes of Satan Demon God is obviously no longer possible. Do you want to use the essence of the avatar of the fallen Demon Samel or the Dark Demon Mamen?

“hiss!”

Wang Yan was taken aback by his own thoughts.

To obtain a demon avatar is like cutting off one of the demon god’s arms. The difficulty is more than going to heaven?

The avatar of Satan, the devil, was successfully obtained only by coincidence and ambush. Now if you want to get another one, it is undoubtedly a dead end. The difficulty is too high for him to describe.

“Forget it, forget it, these ideas are too far away. Not to mention the road to god, now even how to break through the shackles for the desert emperor and promote the demigod has not been solved.”

Wang Yan leaned on the sofa with his eyes closed, thinking, “If it is really impossible for the desert emperor and others to be promoted to demigods, I’m afraid we can only build a strong team first.”

The army naturally has the role of the army, but if there are more top demigods, there is no doubt that the deterrent and strategic perspectives have far-reaching significance.

Only reality is reality. If you can’t get a lot of resources and magic crystals, then helping your partner to be promoted to the high demigod can only be empty talk.

Thoughtless and useless, Wang Yan stood up and was about to find a way to earn some magic crystals and rare resources.

“His Royal Highness Young Master, Your Highness Demon God invites.” Chilian Demon King bowed his head and asked for peace, indicating his intention.

“I know, I’ll go by now.”

Wang Yan nodded his head, and now it is still unknown what the Devil God Satan asked him for.

“His Royal Highness, the subordinate retired first.” The Chilian Demon King finished the report and saw Wang Yan thought deeply, so he retreated with respect.

On the surface, the Red Demon King is loyal to Wang Yan, and is Wang Yan’s servant. In fact, the person he is truly loyal to is still Satan, followed by Wang Yan, the son of the demon god. Those who are not like Wang Yan, in their hearts, will always be Wang Yan alone.

Therefore, Wang Yan’s bloodline evolution has not been revealed to Chilian Demon King and his three sons, nor is he planning to optimize the bloodline for him and his three sons.

After Yan Chi demon king left, Wang Yan put away his thoughts and set off for the Demon Palace.

After a while, Wang Yan wandered into the majestic demon temple.

The tall and magnificent Demon Temple always gives people a sense of oppression. In addition, the entire ground is as clean as a mirror, and the internal environment is quiet and spacious. Even Wang Yan's current state of mind will be affected to varying degrees.

This could not help but sigh him. In the end, the Devil God is the Devil God. Even the place where he lives, people can't help but awe.

At this time, the devil Satan was sitting on his throne, looking like Wang Yan had been waiting for a long time.

Wang Yan stepped forward and asked Ann to greet him as usual, but this time there was no one in the Demon Temple. The atmosphere seemed a little serious, which made him quietly more cautious.

After all, the devil only covered the sky with his hands, unfathomable, he didn't dare to carelessly.

"My good son, get up quickly without much courtesy."

When the demon * Satan lifted it with one hand, an invisible force lifted Wang Yan who bowed to salute gently.

"My son, you must be curious to find you suddenly for your father. What is the reason for it?" Satan the devil said slowly, but there was more solemn emotion in Meiyu.

"Yes, the baby is very curious." Wang Yan still pretended to be his role, and reverently replied, "You removed the guards and maids in the temple, and there are hidden concerns in your expression. It seems that you have It 's important to discuss with your child. "

"Yes! My children are resourceful and very happy for my father!"

Satan Satan raised his mouth in satisfaction, and at the same time looked at Wang Yan with dignity, "The next thing for the father to talk to you is very important!"

"Baby would like to hear the details."

Wang Yan approached the seat of the * under the sign of Satan the demon.

Devil God Satan looked at Wang Yan's respectful and ceremonial appearance, and was very pleased. After nodding slightly, he slowly said, "My son, do you know the true meaning of the * meeting, and the final reward?"

Wang Yan froze for a moment, and replied: "Of course I know."

This is almost the old man in the world of hell. It is very clear to the children, women and children. How could he not know?

Satan the Devil raised his head and motioned, "Tell me."

"The Hell Conference seems to be a collision of young people, winning the strongest among the younger generation of the * world. In essence, it is your game with the other two demons. You use the * world as the chessboard, and the strong people of all races as the flag. The three parties jointly played a game of chess that spanned a long time. "

Wang Yan already knows a lot about the Hell Conference, and now replied, "The victorious side will gain more territory, resources, and more population and military power. Over time, the stronger will be stronger, the weaker will be more. The balance that is weak and wins sooner or later will lean towards the side with the most winners. "

"As for the final reward, it seems to be a sub-artifact, as well as a large number of territories and the supreme power of the famous hell."

As for the final reward of the Hell Conference, Wang Yan, like most people, understands this roughly.

According to the historical deeds, after winning the victory, it is nothing more than the reward of the three-party demon god, giving the strongest a lot of treasures, beautiful women, and the most precious large areas. After the winner returns to the Demon Territory, his own Demon God will be rewarded again, and the lords of the parties will also win. The next step is to enter the political system in common, and go all the way.

But in addition to this, there is also a rumor that the winner is usually the person of the three parties, especially the other two enemy forces. The ending is usually not a good ending.

This is also the result of too much exposure, but there are still countless * youths, in order to stand out and incomparable benefits, squeezed their heads to fight for the pawns of the three devil gods.

As for Wang Yan, there is naturally no interest in this * conference champion. His main purpose in attending the * meeting was to get close to the devil and wait for the opportunity to find Uya Ange.

He didn't care how much he could get in the end and whether he could make merits for Satan, the devil. In his original intention, even if he went to a * meeting, he just coped with it.

“Yes, this is indeed the real purpose of the * conference for the father and the other two demon gods, and the final reward that the winner can get.”

Speaking of the other two demon gods, Satan's eyes showed a bit more hostility, but as soon as his voice changed, there was a little more suspiciousness in his expression, “If it is the past, it is true, but this * meeting, It's not that simple. “

“Oh? Is there anything different in this * meeting?” Wang Yan frowned slightly, and looked very puzzled.

In fact, he was secretly secret, and it was absolutely not easy to let the devil Satan care so much.

“Not long ago, my father met with two other demon gods for matters related to the Hell Conference.”

Satan's gaze gradually dimmed, “The other two demon gods, in the process of negotiating with their father, hope to change the final reward of the winner. In the end, the result of our three demon gods' negotiations is that the winner of the * conference can The three demon gods of ours make a wish separately. We must swear to the Stygian birthplace of the universe's origin, and we must not breach the contract, otherwise we will be swallowed by the oath, and the other two demon gods will join forces to destroy! “

Wang Yan did not speak, but his heart suddenly moved, and his nerves gradually tightened.

Listening to these words, the other two demons want to take advantage of this  meeting?

And the winner can actually make a wish to the three demon gods, and the three devil gods can't break the contract. Does n't that mean that the winner of the  meeting can get even the three demon gods' avatars?

When he thought of this, he couldn't help but jump.

“Among the three demon gods of hell, the purgatory demon domain ruled by the father is the most powerful. In the previous  conference, the purgatory demon clan for the father also won more and lost less, and the benefits gained were much greater than them.”

Satan, the devil, was bragging about himself. He said that he leaned over and looked at Wang Yan seriously, “Our purgatory demon clan is obviously stronger and more powerful, but the other two demon gods, at this time, demand to increase the weight of the winner. Obviously there is fraud! “

“It seems that there is indeed fraud!” Wang Yan nodded, and said that Satan, the devil, was really cunning. The other two demon gods' methods were already very obvious.

Obviously, the other two demon gods are already in a very embarrassing stage, and they are planning to take advantage of the time of the  meeting and make a desperation to fight against the other two opponents. At least we must take the opportunity to defeat one of them, so that the state of the three devil gods in  will collapse completely!

The water inside is really deep.

“Oh, my son is really clever and clever.” Satan the Devil is very satisfied with Wang Yan's performance, and he resolutely replied, “Needless to say, there are definitely tricks in it, so I promised them for my father!”

Hey! Wang Yan sighed slightly inwardly, and it was really pride to secretly devil Satan! Knowing that there are tigers in the mountains, they prefer to travel in the mountains. This is to make a fuss and take advantage of the situation to uproot the other two demons.

“Father Emperor really has courage!” Sighing back, Wang Yan still echoed the admiration.

“Haha, that is!”

The demon * Satan was boasted with red light and laughed aloud, “Naturally we must uproot them for our father. Our Purgatory Demon Race is the most powerful fighting race in the world! Compared with our Purgatory Devil Race, those fallen angel And demon, all are bluffing soft eggs!”

As a home-grown fighting race in the  world, the purgatory demon race has a large population and powerful combat power, and it has occupied the geographical advantage in the  world. This Demon God, Satan, is also the supreme demon of the Purgatory Demon Clan. He ruled the entire Purgatory Demon Clan. Compared with the other two Demon Gods, he did have that advantage.

To this end, Wang Yan clapped his hands again, and praised a few words artificially.

But at this moment, Satan’s expression suddenly depressed: “Son, but this time, there is really cheating!”

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 1636

“Uh!”

The sudden change of Satan, the devil, made Wang Yan slightly stunned, especially staring at the other party’s sorrowful gloom, and an ominous hunch could not help rising from his heart.

“How much fraud can there be?”

Wang Yan asked with some anxiety. Could these three demon gods be so delicate in their thoughts, and could they be cheated?

“Ugh!”

Satan, the devil, mentioned this, and was very depressed. “For the father, I thought that the two demon gods were in a very embarrassing position, so they had to make a decision to break the balance and let the father defeat one of the forces. And let the remaining party get a breathing opportunity. “

“In addition to having your baby son as the father, the  conference is bound to defeat the other two parties and win the conference championship. With the conference award, the two parties will be weakened again. After that, you and my father and son will join forces and count on it, let alone defeat One demon god, it is easy to unify the whole  in the future! “

The devil  Satan narrowed his eyes and was ambitious, but in a blink of an eye he lamented again, “But I never thought that the father was counted by the other two devil gods!”

“The reason they dare to increase their chips at the Hell Conference is not only to break the balance of the  world and take advantage of the opportunity to defeat each other. In fact, their biggest purpose is to defeat their father and make them fatherless!”

Satan, the demon god, sighed, and immediately made Wang Yan “chuck” in his heart.

“Absolutely, affirmative? What, what affirmative?”

Wang Yan was stunned for a moment. When the reaction came, he could not help but take a breath.

Isn't it the so-called descendant of the Devil God?

He is now regarded as the dear son of Satan the devil, and he is still the only son. After letting the devil Satan die, wouldn't he want him to finish playing completely?

“Son, care for your father.”

Devil God Satan reached out and patted Wang Yan on the shoulder, with a sad expression on his face, “According to intelligence information, in the other two Demon God camps, there has actually appeared a semi-god-level young strong!”

“The Dark Demon God and the Fallen Demon God have been weak for many years, but they did not expect them to hide their humiliation and secretly cultivate two peerless geniuses. This has never been the case in the past!”

“Exactly this time, for your father, you just got your wonderful son. Obviously, the two * deities, now dare to increase their big chips, just to lure you to compete in person, so as to wait for the opportunity to kill you, let you Completely disappeared in this world! “

Under the sorrowful eyes of Satan the devil, Wang Yan was dumbfounded. The dark Satan was really a dad. Is this simply pitting him to death?

It didn't take Wang Yan to think too much, and something that made him collapse came.

“In the camp of the two demon gods, if there is only one more semi-god-level youth genius, don't worry about being a father. Raise the young talents and be confident for the father. No one can match my son. Just ... “

The devil Satan stopped talking and paused, and then he was depressed, “According to intelligence, these two semi-god-level youth geniuses are just a lieutenant general, who really represents the two devil devil gods in the competition, in fact there are other others.”

What, what?

Hearing this, Wang Yan was a bit stunned.

No wonder the devil * Satan died before his son earlier, aside from those sons' own problems, this demon * Satan is not only a pit son, it is simply pushing his son into the fire pit?

The two half-god-level youth geniuses are only means on the bright side, so is the real hole card hidden under the hands of the dark demon gods and the fallen demon gods, is it even more terrible than these two half-god-level youth geniuses?

“My father, are you pushing your child to the cusp of the storm and becoming a live target for everyone?”

Wang Yan was cold and sweating, and his mouth was bitter.

Now because of the arrogance of the demon  Satan, he directly pushed Wang Yan to the center of the vortex of the three demon gods.

His reputation as the son of the demon  Mo Yan, Wang Yan, has gone out. Indeed, his scenery is infinite. As a result, he has become the target of the two demon  forces. The dangerous degree can be seen in it.

“Hey, good son, how can you be willing to push you to the cusp of your father and mother? Obviously, those two demon gods are not things, and it is abominable to want to murder me!”

Demon God Satan was angry, and punched on the armrest of the seat beside him, and the whole temple shook it suddenly.

Wang Yan was speechless for a while, and said that he finally knew why Satan the devil, and why he had a doppelganger buried in the earth.

In addition to the platoon formation with him and Uncle Gun, the arrogance and defiance of Satan, the devil, was also one of the great factors. Just like now, it is clear that because of their high self-esteem, they not only pit themselves, but also bring him Wang Yan.

“Son, do n’t worry, for the father already knows their plans, naturally he will not watch you murdered by others. Even if the father tears his face with the two demon gods and fights completely, he will surely protect you! “

Satan, the demon god, was afraid of being such a good son. But the words are changing again, “But good son, this  conference is now, you have to participate, and you must win the championship, otherwise your life, and the fate of the infernal demon, Will be seriously threatened! “

What, what?

Woller go!

Wang Yan couldn’t help but burst a swearing in his heart, this demon  Satan is really a crater, a crater!

Say to protect him from Wang Yan and Zhou Quan? But the result must also participate in the * meeting, otherwise not only his Wang Yan may die, even the fate of the entire Purgatory Demon Clan will be threatened.

Wang Yan will naturally not care about the fate of the Purgatory Demon Race. But his own life, he did not want to be buried here, he still has many important things to do, for him, those important things are more important than his life.

“Ah! Father and Emperor, you really hurt the child.” Wang Yan sighed in a hypocritical manner. “Forget it, I understand, this is the destiny to be a son of the devil.”

In fact, as Wang Yan said, becoming the heir of the devil Satan will inevitably be targeted and suppressed by the hostile forces of all parties.

This is like the earth society, the heirs of the ancient kingdom, from ancient times to Chinese and foreign, which prince will not experience the * storm before taking the position? Even in some modern commercial empires, who will not experience the targeting of all parties? There are countless bright, dark, foreign, and internal.

Since the moment Wang Yan became the son of the demon god, he has become the focus of attention in the entire world of hell, let alone the internal forces. The other two demon gods, if they do n't do something for Wang Yan, it 's really strange. Too.

After knowing this situation, Wang Yan soon relieved himself in addition to vomiting inwardly.

While he gains many benefits from the Demon God's Son, various crises and targeting will follow.

“Mo Yan is worthy of being a good son of the father, thanking my son for understanding.”

Devil God Satan was so moved by Wang Yan that he was so moved that he almost cried. He was busy and kindly persuaded, “It's not good to say that it is the father, but since you are the only son of the father, the * of the * world, you are doomed Yes. Fortunately, we already know the enemy 's movements, and then we must help you to prepare the * meeting for your father so that my child can be invincible! “

“It seems that the period of  turmoil has really come. I hope the children can survive the disaster with their father and adults.” Wang Yan pretended to be pessimistic and continued to talk to Satan the devil.

But right now, as Satan the Devil said, he has to participate in the Hell Conference until now, and he must win the championship.

First of all, he became the son of Satan, the demon god. In the world of hell, he has basically become the dark demon  and the fallen demon god. These two demon gods are nailed in the eyes and stabbed in the flesh. The two demon gods and their forces must want to get rid of it first and then quickly.

These two weaker demon gods have long been hiding in secret, and now they have accumulated all their strengths, in order to work hard in this venue of the prison conference and break the deadlock of the entire  world.

Now if Wang Yan does not attend the  meeting because of fear, then the forces of Satan, the demon god, will definitely lose the ability to win the championship.

In this way, the other two Demon Gods, no matter which side wins, can use the championship right to make a wish to Demon God Satan and let Demon God Satan kill the only son Wang Yan.

If Satan the Satan agreed, Wang Yan would not be able to survive. Not agreeing is to break the contract. In addition to being swallowed by the oath, the two demon gods of the two countries have enough reasons to join forces and directly fight the devil  Satan.

Devil God Satan is indeed very powerful and powerful, but with one enemy and two, I am afraid there is no advantage. Coupled with the oath, it can be said that it will be defeated.

After the development of the situation to the end, I am afraid that Satan himself and his Wang Yan may be cut off by the other two demons.

Once the Devil God Satan and the Purgatory Demon Clan are under devastating blows, and the world of Hell is fighting again, then the plane base located on the Purgatory Demon Clan's site must be affected, which will indirectly cause the Earth's defensive circle and an irreversible blow.

So until now, Wang Yan, who has become the son of the demon god, can't escape this matter. He can only choose to participate in the * conference, and he must win the championship.

Otherwise, if he does not have god-level strength, it is difficult for him to escape smoothly when the two demon gods shoot at the same time, and the earth's defense circle will be destroyed as a result!

In addition to the above-mentioned factors that have to be done, in fact, the dangerous * conference is also full of many opportunities, which is another reason why Wang Yan needs to attend.

If Wang Yan can seize this opportunity, then he can achieve many of the urgently needed goals.

At the Hell Conference, being able to get close to other Demon God forces in order to obtain the news of Uya Ange, naturally this need not be said.

In addition, the earth is threatened by the abyssal forces. While improving the overall strength of the earth superpowers, a god-level strongman must be in town, so as to ensure that the earth's defense circle will not collapse.

How to become a god-level powerhouse? Wang Yan found a way to strengthen his bloodline genes to the extreme. With the fire energy of life he had previously absorbed, he might have the opportunity to impact the god-level strongman. This requires a more powerful god-level life factor to complete.

The source of this divine-level life factor must not be overwhelming, otherwise Wang Yan's current body may not be able to bear it, and eventually it is counterproductive. The most ideal source is an avatar from the devil.

Wang Yan has already used the demons of Satan, so he needs to obtain them from the other two demons in Hell World.

It happens that the Hell Assembly finally rewards this, which can be used. In this way, if you want to save your life, find Uya Ange, and seek a way to impact the god-level strongman, you must participate in this * conference and win the final championship!

Thinking of this, Wang Yan is under great pressure, but the whole person has been more serious than ever.

As of today, he has to go without going, and he has to win if he doesn't want to win. This is already a road without turning back.

“Son, I have a request for you from the father. You must come to the temple of the father every day in the future, and for the father to personally direct you to control the power.”

After roughly talking, Satan, the demon god, took care of him, “And all your slave legions are disbanded. You know that your father lived a hard life in the past. You can only rely on those slaves to expand your army. Next to the father, let's switch to his father's inferno massacre and heavy guard. These two armies have excellent combat effectiveness, and each one is enough for you to pull to the * conference and fight with the enemy. “

Although the Hell Congress requires youth participation, it is perfectly possible to select carefully some young talents from among the several royal armies.

“It would be better if my father and father would give me personal advice. The children would come regularly every day. But as for the dissolution of the slave corps, the children thought it was a good idea.”

Wang Yan first politely agreed to this matter, but soon after he was promoted to a demigod, this is almost a human limit for a human being. It's very, very difficult to get a level of improvement in a short time, even if there is a devil's guidance, it is unlikely.

However, in terms of strength control and combat skills, if a demon * personally gives instructions and even has the opportunity to simply move, Wang Yan's strength will definitely be improved qualitatively.

Once the two are in the same state in battle, the difference between the two in their control of strength and the combat skills and experience will immediately cause a huge gap between the two's combat power, which will directly affect the outcome of the battle.

But when it comes to dissolving Wang Yan's current slave corps, Wang Yan still politely refuses.

There are several reasons. First of all, Wang Yan and members of the existing legion, get along with each other, know each other and trust each other, and understand the advantages and disadvantages of various races, Wang Yan himself is also aware of it. Knowing what your opponents understand is very important in a battle, and often determines success or failure.

In addition, all of Wang Yan's men are elites who stand out from thousands of horses and horses, and have been carefully tuned by Wang Yan himself and all his generals. Those low-ranking men are hard-working, and each member has a common goal. They are training hard every day.

Therefore, Wang Yan's men have outstanding fighting abilities and strict discipline, and the team cooperates in a tacit understanding, which is no worse than the pure blood purgatory demon. There is such a trusted arm that is familiar with each other, trusts each other, and has a strong combat power. Why should he be replaced by a completely strange Demon army?

In addition to this, the most important first point is loyalty.

Wang Yan's army is only loyal to Wang Yan, and his cohesion is very strong. Many of the slaves' men even regarded Wang Yan's barracks as his home and the place where he struggled for his whole life. It can be said that these men who are loyal to Wang Yan, even if they betray Satan, the high devil, will not betray him Wang Yan.

How can Wang Yan find such a loyal man?

In addition, if Wang Yan is comfortable, he directly uses Devil God Satan's legion to participate in the Hell Conference, then the army's combat power and equipment are indeed very good, but invisible Wang Yan will fall under the supervision of Devil God Satan This outweighs the gains.

Therefore, Wang Yan would rather continue to spend his thoughts and build his own army, rather than take over the army directly under Satan.

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 1637

"Ah! It's such a stubborn child. Just let it be you."

Devil God Satan shook his head helplessly. There was always worry in his expression. Obviously, in his eyes, apart from the pure blood demon clan, other races were all in common.

Upon seeing this, Wang Yan moved his heart and waited for the opportunity to answer: “Those of my slaves, although they were of low background, are all carefully selected masters. And I am already very familiar with them. In my hands, their The combat effectiveness may not be worse than the pure blood demon. “

But when it comes to this, Wang Yan shows his embarrassment, “If the gap is said, it may be that the children lack equipment and weapons. This problem is really difficult ...”

“My son, do you mean that you lack weapons and equipment? Hey, this little thing, you and your father mentioned that the father gave you a batch.” Devil God Satan waved his hand with a generous atmosphere.

In his view, the strength of his son’s slaves really cannot be underestimated.

Previously, this son of his son also said that anyone who wants to enter the team of his demon god’s son must win his men. As a result, God is so noble and competing, and no one can win.

Although this result made him feel very embarrassing, Satan, the Devil God, but there is no doubt that the young people of the Inferno Demon Race may have become worse than before due to the corruption of the Satan Parliament. And his son’s men are indeed stronger than those of pure-blood demons.

There are a group of slaves instead of expeditions, although his demon Satan can’t survive, but as long as he can win the  meeting, it is enough.

“I don’t know my father, how much equipment and weapons are you willing to send me?”

Wang Yan continued to compliment hypocritically, “Since it is the equipment and weapons to participate in the  conference, at least it must be the level of the Yan prisoner and the heavy guard, otherwise the children will take them out, even if they have poor offense and defense capabilities , The key lost is yours. “

The world of  has always been based on competition. Even if he is the son of the devil, Satan will not give him endless wealth in addition to his daily care. This is like the son of a king on earth. Before the king abdicates, the old king will not deliver his treasure to his prince.

Therefore, Wang Yan intends to wait for the opportunity to get something out of Satan, the demon god. He can withdraw as many things as possible. After all, he is too poor now, and he wants to cultivate a strong army. The consumption is really exaggerated.

“The Hell Conference is actually a miniature version of the battlefield of the Demon God. The three parties will be launched in a 100-person team battle for the purpose of simulation and highlighting the military strength of all parties. In the final circle, it is necessary to fight with a thousand-person army to reduce the number of individuals. The role of bravery really tests the commander’s strategy. “

The devil Satan briefly talked about the competition system of the  meeting, and then extended a finger, saying, “Provide you with a hundred slaves’ top equipment, and the rest of the guards are the guards and flames for the father’s heavy equipment. The predator is ready. If you do n’t think it’s enough, send your father hundreds of inferno prisoners for your father to take you out with majesty. ”

In the eyes of Satan the devil, other races are still not favored, but only for the son’s sake, following the son’s wishes.

“Only one hundred? If there were any special circumstances, wouldn’t the children even have replacements and rotations? What’s more, you said that in the finals, you would have to participate in a thousand-man team?”

Wang Yan secretly scolded the demon  Satan stingy in his heart, and at the same time, he extended a finger, trying to seize the truth, “I want so much, otherwise don’t talk about it, I just don’t have you dad, I don’t have the equipment to find a way! “

“Okay, I’ll depend on you, I’ll depend on you for your father. One thousand sets, one thousand sets! This one thousand sets is enough for you to use.” Satan, the demon god, was also afraid to make this baby son anxious, so he agreed. Come down, “

“What? Thousand sets? Father Father Hall of Supreme Devil God, you give the child a thousand sets?”

In the tone of a playboy, Wang Yan needs to open his mouth, “But the baby brought a large army of 10,000 people, you will give me a thousand sets, how is that enough? No matter, I want 10,000 sets!”

“One, ten thousand!”

Devil God Satan was almost breathless and breathless, and then said with difficulty, “Ten thousand sets of sub-class weapons and equipment, are you amused as a father. The father now supports a total of 10,000 There are only thousands of sets of top-level equipment in the immediate legion of the United States. Now is the time when the three parties are in tension, it is impossible to give you all. “

Satan, the devil, is a little dizzy at this moment. His baby son, his mouth is 10,000 sets. Is it really the equipment of the Marauder Marauder and the heavy guard who are all street stalls? Can it be made casually?

The equipment of the predators and heavy guards under his command are all of the second-class standard equipment, and they belong to the top level in the armament of Hell World.

Now he has a direct army of 10,000 prisoners, composed of Yan prisoner slaughterers, Yan Breathers and heavy guards. Among the three demon gods in hell, the combat effectiveness and number are the most prominent ones.

You must know that among the three elite elites, the selection criteria must be pure blood demon clan and reach the legendary level.

Don't look at the purgatory demons occupying such a large site, sitting in dozens of large cities. However, the total number of pure blood purgatory demons is only 200,000.

It can be said that the cost of building such a legion has already broken through the sky. Even a demon god, it is very difficult to bear. In the world of hell, that is, Satan, his most powerful demon, can maintain such a huge army all year round.

“Otherwise, three thousand sets is good? Give you three thousand sets for your father, and then send a thousand-man corps for you to dispatch.”

Demon God Satan was embarrassed under Wang Yan 's despising eyes and had no choice but to coax Wang Yan to say, “Being a good son of the father, now in the army directly under his father, there is not much logistic reserves. This army is the key to victory. If you miss the opportunity to win because of inadequate logistical supply, it will be difficult to manage. “

Indeed, as Satan the Devil said, every Demon God has cultivated such an extremely elite core army in order to give the other party a fatal blow in the final battle. The other armies and lords are all cannon fodder, and the three demon gods usually do not ask too much.

“It’s only ten thousand sets, and my father can’t bring out ten thousand sets?” Wang Yan naturally understood the truth, but he still questioned a few times. Doesn’t your devil God want to play a kind father? Put pressure on you.

After the fact that he could not squeeze it out, he simply showed a concessionary attitude, “Since the father and father are tight in logistics and can’t take it out, then forget it. Three thousand sets is three thousand sets. Alas! It seems that these years, the Satan Parliament The elders secretly ate a lot of resources, and now they can’t even get 10,000 sets of equipment. If we go on like this, we will be worried about the future of the Infernal Demon Race. “

“That’s right, thank you Wuer for understanding, alas! I blame the father for neglecting his management, and let the parliament gangs get a lot of money and materials deducted, and he must take care of them for the father in the future!”

Demon God Satan blushed old, and under the contempt of knocking sideways beside Wang Yan, he had to transfer the problem to the Satan Parliament.

“It really needs to be rehabilitated.” Wang Yan agreed, and then the voice changed. “My father, I don’t want your thousand legions, or will you provide some supplies to my army?”

Although the Thousand Army Corps, but a pure legendary army, the number of thousands has been exaggerated to the extreme. But that legion must be loyal to Satan, far more loyal to him than Wang Yan.

Now as long as there are resources, you can cultivate loyal to your own lineage.

“Army, military supplies?” Satan the devil was stunned for a while, then gestured, “Good son, how much do you want, despite saying.”

The evil spirit Satan said on his lips actually put a lot of sweat into his heart. The heart said that this son might not come to collect debts? The off-the-shelf army does not need to pull a bunch of inferior slaves.

Even if you use an army of inferior slaves, you still have to gather top equipment and military supplies for these slaves. Is that too much money to burn?

However, due to the slightly stable father-son relationship, the devil Satan had to spend money to find a stable one. The son wanted to play with him and let him play. Now it is not a bad thing to practice those slaves.

“That father, the baby is welcome.”

Wang Yan raised his lips, and then spent a lot of time on his tongue. Finally, at the Devil God Satan, he got 3,000 sets of top weapons and equipment, plus valuable resources worth more than 7 million magic crystals.

Three thousand sets of top-level equipment and weapons, but a huge expense! If Wang Yan relies on his existing resources, it is impossible to create 3,000 sets of top-level equipment and weapons in a short time.

Now with these weapons and equipment, after a bit of transformation, it is enough for Wang Yan to perfectly equip 3,000 soldiers. If you count the resources now collected from Satan the devil, and the remaining resources before, this time equipped with 5,000 soldiers, it is not a problem!

Not only was he able to promote and perfectly equip 5,000 soldiers, Wang Yan estimated that he still had millions of precious materials left. Wang Yan intends not to use the remaining supplies for the time being. After his team is initially stabilized, he will make plans.

Because now, apart from strengthening the troops under his command and increasing self-protection capabilities, the more important thing is to launch a demi-god as soon as possible.

At present, the most promising person to be promoted to the demigod level is the powerful desert emperor.

Wang Yan secretly calculated that according to the information from Satan, the other two demons, he prepared enough killer tools for him.

In addition to the demigod-level strongmen who are now on the bright side, there are a lot of hidden cards in the background, aimed at him, the son of the devil.

Because once he, the son of the demon god, died in the Hell Assembly, the side of the Purgatory Demon Clan must be defeated, and morale would be greatly affected. The other two demon gods will eventually be rewarded by the * conference as a threat.

By that time, the two seemingly weaker demon gods would join hands to defeat Satan, the demon god! Once such a situation is formed, the powerful Purgatory Demon Clan will completely collapse, and his Wang Yan, as well as his companions, including the entire Earth Defense Circle, will be severely impacted, and it is no exaggeration to speak of the end of the world.

Therefore, the only way Wang Yan can do is to fight to the end and break all obstacles! Otherwise, he will not only die himself, but even with the entire defensive circle of the earth, he will step into destruction.

More than when, Wang Yan's personal destiny has been tangled invisibly with the fate of the earth and even the future of the world of hell.

Is this the result of the Gaia consciousness of the earth and the world of hell, and the selection of Wang Yan in the midst?

Is this really true, Wang Yan can't think too much.

However, according to the existing intelligence analysis, the other two demons, under normal circumstances, have no chance of starting against him.

Only in the * meeting can he justly kill his Wang Yan, and in the face of the entire world of hell, the impact of the killing of his son, the devil, will be maximized.

Therefore, Wang Yan initially estimated that other means are not counted, but under the control of these two demon gods, one bright and one secret, there will be at least two young strong men who are as strong as half gods! And it must be two very outstanding demigods.

In this way, there will be a total of four half-god-level enemies in the two demon gods. This is still a preliminary estimate.

Wang Yan is confident that he will fight alone and will not be inferior to anyone, nor will he be killed on the spot anymore. But what if the strong man is like a cloud, plus a secret conspiracy? No matter how strong Wang Yan is, he can't beat both hands with his fists.

Therefore, in his camp, there can be one more strong man, and his combat power and chance of winning will be increased by one point.

So for the next limited time, his Wang Yan will let the desert emperor be promoted to the demigod anyway!

Too much thought has no effect, and now more of these plans have to be put into practice.

Wang Yan soon was about to leave after receiving the large amount of benefits from Satan, who suddenly thought of something.

So when he parted, he asked again: "Master Father, you said that you really represent the generals under the two demon gods, but there are actually other people. Do you know the relevant information of these two generals?"

The generals who represent the three parties of the demon gods in the * conference are usually the spokesmen of the three demon gods. Just like the demon son of the demon * who is currently Wang Yan disguised as the demon god, he represents the will of the devil * Satan and will also be the future heir of the devil * Satan. At least it will become the ruler and executor who represents Satan, the demon god, and dominates the purgatory demons.

The commander-in-chief of the fallen demon Samel and the dark demon Mamen must be a powerful character comparable to Wang Yan.

"The generals under the two demon gods?"

Satan frowned, shook his head and said, "It is still unclear that the two old thieves of the Demon God are really deep. For these two generals, their origins, strength, characteristics, and even appearance, except for the core around the Devil God The characters and outsiders are unclear. Even the eyeliner controlled by the father cannot find out their actual situation. "

Since I couldn't find out, Wang Yan didn't ask any more questions.

The heart said that the other two demon gods all knew how to hide their lives and hide their cards, but this demon * satan was good. In order to show off and so-called deter the enemy, he directly highlighted his Wang Yan. The enemy was deterred, but Wang Yan was also placed on the bright side.

It seems that the devil God Satan, who is arrogant by nature, can't hide the bottom card, and then the bottom card can only be hidden by himself Wang Yan himself.

Just as Wang Yan was about to leave, Satan, the demon god, suddenly stopped him: "Wait, the father suddenly remembered, according to the informant, and glimpsed far from the next man, the two masters appointed by the demon god, both They are the heirs of the two demon gods, and they are both young women, but they can't see clearly. "

"Young, female?"

Suddenly, Wang Yan's heart throbbed, and his thick thoughts poured into his heart.

Will one of these two heirs be the Uya Ange he is looking for?

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 1638

"Won't it be so coincident?"

Wang Yan was very excited and thought secretly. Although it is just speculation now, it is not impossible.

According to the scarce information previously obtained, Uya Ange is likely to be an illegitimate daughter of the devil. If the clue left at the time is true, then these two generals representing the devil, will one of them be An songs?

Wang Yan's face was quiet, but his heart was already surging.

Although this is only possible, for Wang Yan, this is undoubtedly great news! Regardless of whether the information is true or false, Wang Yan must see him in person!

“Huh, I didn’t expect that the two old thieves hid so deep that they actually cultivated heirs in their backs! But what if there is an heir? How could it be comparable to the god’s baby son?”

Wang Yan was still secretly excited about the information he had just obtained, and the devil Satan was still resentful and cursed at the other two devil gods, full of resentment.

It seems that for so many years, the three demon gods have not complained to each other in the hegemony.

Due to limited information, Wang Yan did not stay too much. After a few words, he said goodbye to Satan.

Out of the Demon Temple, Wang Yan was thinking about Uya Ange all the way.

It is also constantly wondering whether one of the other two heirs of the Devil God is Uya Ange?

If yes, Uya Ange participated in the Hell Conference on behalf of the other devil, will he have the same things as he has to do? If so, how to fight this  conference?

There are too many thoughts, and Wang Yan will be unable to sort out his thoughts in a short while.

So Wang Yan was speechless all the way and returned to his bedroom.

Back in his dormitory, Wang Yan summoned his cronies and his companions from the earth.

After the staff arrived, Wang Yan told them about the intelligence obtained from Satan the devil.

All of these men and their companions on Earth felt pressure at this moment, and their nerves were tense.

There is no doubt that they are Wang Yan's men and companions, and are also the closest people around Wang Yan. To some extent, they have been tied to Wang Yan on the same boat.

Now that Wang Yan is being stared at by two other demon gods, and the plans of the other two demon gods are not only as simple as threatening Wang Yan and their lives, as well as the entire purgatory demon clan and even the * pattern may be subverted.

Therefore, confusion, cruelty, Camus, Zoe and others all understood the seriousness of the situation.

Even the ogres Ablon Maul and Walpole Blue Shield knew that something was going to happen next, and it was about the safety of all of them.

Zhang Weidao, Wu Wu Jie, Shen Tu Tian Lu, as well as the desert emperor, Shiva goddess and high priest Berika, also knew the severity of the situation, and because they also carried the destiny of the superpower of the earth, they were more capable Understand what this session of the dark tide surging congress means to them and the world of superpower behind them.

The next * meeting will undoubtedly be a dangerous and arduous journey!

“Boss! Even if I die, I will definitely guard your safety!”

The loyal and loyal younger brother of the number one confuses the lord. When he stood up firmly in the face, he vowed to defend his boss Wang Yan.

“Ablon's life is given by the Lord. Ablon will never allow anyone to hurt the Lord!”

The ogre Abron Giantmaul, filled with indignation and anger, in his simple thinking, Lord Moyan is the only will. Whoever dares to hurt Lord Master Moyan, he will kill him, even if the other party is a Demon God, he is still Will go forward.

“Master Demon Flame, your kindness to us is too great. Although we are foreigners, we are also your slaves. Please believe us, even if we let us choose between the fallen devil Samuel and you, Both Elsa and Enzo will stand on your side without a doubt. “

The dark elves Camus, Elsa and Enzo all bowed down piously, saluted Wang Yan respectfully, and swore, “We will guard your safety with life!”

In their view, Wang Yan's kindness to them could not be repaid in this life. Their lives were also given by Wang Yan. Not only that, Wang Yan also healed them, avenged them, and even recovered many of their lost compatriots who became slaves.

And Wang Yan's request to them was just to serve him for 20 years. It is up to them to go and stay afterwards.

Such graciousness, they feel grateful and surrendered from the heart. Now in this situation, they almost have no hesitation in choosing Wang Yan. Even in the future, some of them may return to the Fallen Demon Realm and return to their hometown, but in the days when they became servants of Wang Yan, they will definitely stand firmly on Wang Yan's side.

Not only them, all the men around Wang Yan at this time have declared their oaths, all of them must swear to guard Wang Yan's safety. Step over.

“What we have to do next is not just to defend our own security, but to win this * conference, otherwise everything will become empty talk.”

Such loyalty of his subordinates also gave Wang Yan more confidence, so Wang Yan glanced at many men and said, “Then we will run out of time, everyone will take action immediately!”

“Yes!”

Everyone shouted in unison to answer, and then left one after another, busy with their respective tasks.

The desert emperor, Zhang Weidao, Wu Bujie and others also exchanged glances with Wang Yan, and then began their own practice.

Even Lydia, who does n't know Wang Yan's true identity, also walked into the starry sky tower of the subspace at this time and began a new round of retreat preparations.

Because everyone at the scene understood how powerful the demon * was. This session of * is of great importance. Wang Yan and their companions, as the main force of Satan, will surely be attacked by the other two forces.

Hell is a world of weak flesh and unreasonable food. The blows from the forces of the two demons, either light or dark, are often unpredictable.

Once Wang Yan fails to be killed, it means that their group of men is difficult to survive, and even with the entire Purgatory Demon Clan, and this * world will fall into chaos and collapse.

For the desert emperor, Zhang Weidao and others, such a situation would mean even more tragic consequences. I am afraid that even the entire Earth defense circle will be indirectly destroyed in this turmoil.

Therefore, these Wang Yan and the people who are about to face the storms and bloods can only make themselves invincible in the next * meeting by continuously improving their strength.

...

Time passed a little, half a month, only three months from the day when the Hell Assembly began.

During these days, Zoe was busy every day to help Wang Yan optimize the promotion of various soldiers. Camus, Elsa, and Enzo, the three instructors, each worked overtime to train the army for Wang Yan. Master Hill led a forging team to build and strengthen various weapons and equipment for Wang Yan.

The cruel master has become more capable. Under Zoe's guidance, she is already very familiar with the black market trading, plus everyone knows that she is a son of the devil, and no one in the gods dare to bully.

Since these days, the brutal master will usually join Meier with a few guards, enter and exit the major black markets in the inner and outer cities of the * capital, sell and purchase various resources and expensive magic crystals to ensure the logistics of Wang Yan's entire army. Operation.

The rest of the people are also in their respective positions, or busy with the tasks assigned by Wang Yan, or busy to enhance and consolidate their own realm, or busy with each other to compare and compare.

In short, everything is proceeding in an orderly way. The only thing that makes Wang Yan regret is that he still hasn't found a suitable devil emperor, or Shiva goddess and high priest Berika, the three semi-god-level overlord monsters promoted.

There is no way. The world of * is too big. Although it is full of various monsters that have been reproduced since ancient times, it is very rare and difficult to find in this vast area.

Even if you can find some, it may not be suitable for the desert emperor and others.

So that the deceived lord who is now in charge of this task has followed the rumors and ran out of the God Capital. So far, there has been no news for several days, and I do n't know what the situation is now.

There is no way for Wang Yan to do this. Right now he can only do as much as he can.

On this day, Wang Yan finished today's practice in the Devil's Temple, and just returned to the bedroom, where he happened to meet the desert emperor, Zhang Weidao and others in the space of the book of stars.

"Pharaoh, are there any clues over there? We are so anxious to wait every day."

There were no outsiders, Zhang Weidao, Wu Wu Jie, and Shen Tu Tian Lu immediately came in order. The desert emperor, goddess Shiva and high priest Berika also followed.

Their daily study, daily practice, combat experience and control of power are indeed increasing with each passing day, but if you want to be improved in the realm, breaking through the nearly demi-god level, it is undoubtedly a fool's dream, unable to obtain qualitative transformation in a short time .

Especially the Desert Emperor among several people, although he didn't say anything and did not mention any comments, Wang Yan already understood the anxiety and desire in his heart.

However, there is really no good news coming now. Wang Yan shook his head and replied, "Not yet."

“Alas!” Zhang Weidao and others could not help but sigh with a long breath. “There will be more than two months to officially start the * meeting. We will also leave here. If we can’t find a suitable overlord level Warcraft, I am afraid there will be no Opportunity to launch a demigod. Could it be ... this is God’s will? “

“Amitabha, no matter if it is God’s will or not, if we can have one more demigod, we can have one more hole card, and we can have one more chance of winning in the event of a crisis.” Time still has a little hope, and we cannot give up hope. “

“It would be nice if we knew what kind of enemies we would meet and what kind of crisis we encountered at the Hell Conference.”

Shen Tu Tianlu wiped a bright head, took out a piece of purgatory steel, and banged, chewed up, “Pharaoh, will you let Miss Belika calculate for us? Look at the future we will What kind of encounters did you encounter? “

“Bah! You are enough. Are you really a priest who is a fortune teller on the street?”

The high priest Belika gave Shen Tu Tianlu a rather dumb eye, and then turned to Wang Yan without anger, and said, “Lao Wang, you have to believe in science. I can’t figure out such a thing. Now * world Being in a great change, the future is full of variables. Even if I use prophecy, I can’t determine the future direction of the * world. “

“But ...” The high priest Berika said quietly, squinting, “but I used to spend real money, peeped into the future, and learned that the key figure in this big change is our pharaoh. Next, whether it is life or death, as long as you follow the pharaoh, then you are right. “

After listening, Wang Yan couldn’t help but wipe out a cold sweat: “Is it good to believe in science? Let’s talk about it, isn’t it still feudal superstition?”

“Why is this a feudal superstition?” The high priest Belika waved his hands, and the gods said, “All the future starting points are in our present. All predictions are also based on what we have now. Various conditions. As long as you grasp the present moment, it is enough to affect the future. “

“Stop, stop, say nothing.” Goddess Shiva has some headways. “In short, if you want to face the unknown future, you have to do something from now on, otherwise you just have to wait like this, but it’s not me style of.”

“I think so too,” the desert emperor nodded in agreement. “There are still more than two months. Maybe we will search separately, maybe we can get something.”

Although it may be a good idea to place a separate search elsewhere, it is possible to search blankly in the vast world of hell. I am afraid there will be very few gains.

However, rather than waiting here, the characters of the desert emperor and Shiva goddess are better to go out and search for rare prey in person.

“It seems that this can only be done, so we go out and search together.” Wang Yan thought for a moment and replied, “It happened that I also received a few suspicious places here, but it may not be true, and the prey is not necessarily what we need, But idle is also idle. Let’s take a look at it together. If we search for an additional area, we can also have a chance of success.”

Since these days, Wang Yan has also received a lot of gossip from the Shendujing well, of which 90% is useless and false information, and the remaining 10% and 90% are intelligence that does not meet Wang Yan’s needs. In the end, only 1% of the limited information remains, and it is ambiguous, to be confirmed.

So now there is less and less time. If you go on like this, Wang Yan can only take someone to try his luck.

Just when Wang Yan planned to use the dead horse as a living horse doctor, and took some luck with his companions, a familiar voice suddenly came eagerly from the door of the palace.

“Boss! Boss! Boss!”

When the source of the sound pushed in, the crowd saw a burly figure with a pair of wings on the back, but a muddy, demonic strong man was rushing in from the outside.

Everyone took a closer look, and it turned out that the newcomer was the deceived lord who was in charge of searching for information. But looking at him, it seemed like he was climbing out of the grave after being buried alive.

“Boss! Hey, hey, brother, little brother has discovered, there is a big discovery!”

The confusing lord was disgraced, but his face was rejoicing. When he saw Wang Yan, he grinned, and at the same time, he held a scroll of animal skin in his hand. After approaching, he quickly presented it to Wang Yan, “That’s it! My little brother, I spent five magic crystals, I bought this from a cunning gerbil man! “

“Hey, this is a good thing. It’s the map of Laosha, the Lord of Hot Sands!” The confusing Lord almost couldn’t smile, and he smeared a face of dust, proudly, “To confirm the truth, I’ve been to it quietly once in the past few days. This map of Lao Nest is true! “

“Hot sand overlord?”

“Is it ... a rare demigod-level overlord monster?”

Including Wang Yan, everyone at the scene took a deep breath.

The map brought back by Lord Chew is too precious and too timely! Moreover, looking at the sorrowful lord Lord with a dusty face, but happily closing his mouth, this information will not be wrong!

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 1639

“Xiaochi, you can make a big contribution this time. Tell me about where you got this news? And this hot sand overlord, what is the origin?”

Wang Yan was overjoyed, seeing the * meeting was about to begin, and did not want to work hard for the deceived lord, actually brought him good news, and greeted the deceived lord in the moment.

Along with the Red Deceived Lord, there were also several powerful men such as Red Cruel, Camus, and Zoe. In addition, Ablon Giantmaul, Walpole Blue Shield, the two loyal ogres, they quickly followed from outside when something happened.

For a time, Wang Yan's bedroom hall once again gathered his backbone. But this time everyone's eyes were on the confusing lord standing in the middle.

“Hey, hey, brother, I have been sleeping for more than half a month in order to find out the news recently, and I have been covering more than half of the purgatory magic domain. In order to hurry, the younger brother spent a lot of money, using the portal of the grandsons of the purgatory warlock, back and forth Hurry up. “

The sorrowful lord looks like he is inviting himself and brags, “For the past half a month, no matter whether it is official or on the streets, most of the news is useless, but this hot sand overlord is absolutely in line with you. Request! “

Hearing the words that absolutely met the requirements, the eyes of the desert emperor shrank slightly, and the expression was full of urgency and expectation.

Everyone knows that his ability is to control sand and melt into sand. If classified in detail, it is a derivative ability of soil elements, which is alternative and powerful. But the disadvantage is that this ability is really rare, whether in the earth or the world of hell, it is very rare.

This also makes it very difficult for Wang Yan to match him with suitable optimization sources.

Originally, the Desert Emperor planned to give up, but at this time, the Lord of Confusion found an overlord-level monster that absolutely matched him. How could this make him not excited?

“I think there will be time for bragging and so on. Now let's talk to us about this hot sand overlord now.” Wang Yan motioned to the confidant Lord to sit down, stop bragging, and quickly talk about the key points.

The confusing lord Han Han smiled, and after sitting down with the crowd around the table, he grabbed a glass of water on the table, and the gourds went down.

“Speaking of this hot sand overlord, that would be great.”

Drinking a glass of water, the sorrowful lord's excitement was slightly relieved, so he said vividly, "I heard this information from the gray squirrel man who lived in the small waterway outside the city of Shendu. It is said In the hot sand desert of the home of the sand dune squirrel, there is an unmatched overlord-level monster, it is the hot sand sovereign! "

"It is rumored that the hot sand overlord was in the depths of the hot sand desert as long as 10,000 years ago. In the hearts of local residents, the prestige of the hot sand overlord is far more prominent than the local demigod. Especially in the hearts of some indigenous peoples, This monster is almost deified. When the name is mentioned locally, even a lizard will have to dig into the hole. "

"However, although the hot sand overlord is powerful, its whereabouts are very mysterious, and the way of hiding is deep. If the younger brother is not wrong, it is an ancient monster that attempts to impact the * realm in secret, so it will hide in the desert and deliberately avoid The eyes and ears of all living things. "

The confessed Lord said, spread out the map of the hide on the table in front of him, "This is the map I bought from a squirrel man. Without this map, no one can do it in hot sand. In the desert, find the hiding place of the hot sand overlord. "

"In order to determine the true and false, I also went to the hot sand desert specially. I did find traces of the activities of giant creatures on the edge of the map!"

The confusing lord pointed to a point on the edge of the map, his eyes were shining, and he swore vowedly, "Through the perception on the spot, the huge trace is full of rich sand elements. The lord can guarantee that it is definitely from hot sand Overlord, and with what kind of powerful particularity, it definitely meets the optimization requirements of Lao Sha Brothers! "

"This is an ancient monster trying to hit the * realm in secret? It looks like this legendary monster is nothing different."

Wang Yan murmured secretly, it sounds like this hot sand overlord is very powerful, and cunning by nature, not easy to deal with.

Not only Wang Yan, everyone at the scene was also very aware of the power of an ancient monster. In particular, several native residents of Hell knew more about the difficulty of hunting an ancient monster.

Hell is a huge and ancient world. On the surface, this world is divided and controlled by the three demon gods, but how many creatures in secret are trying to break the shackles and become a god. This number may be too long to count.

However, none of these top creatures attempting to become gods have succeeded in the long years.

In addition to the difficulty of becoming a god, another point is that the three demon gods will severely attack these potential opponents. Once discovered, it will either be destroyed by the army under the devil's command, or it will be destroyed by the devil himself.

Therefore, among these creatures that attempt to become gods, the most difficult thing to deal with is the ancient monsters that hide from the world. These ancient monsters, after years of baptism, are very pure in strength. In addition, being able to evade detection from the outside world is enough to show that they are naturally cunning and difficult to deal with.

“What kind of monster is this hot sand overlord?”

Wang Yan continued to ask that he, like his companions, began to care about how to deal with this monster.

Lord Chew frowned slightly, revealing troubled colors: “As far as I know, it seems to be an ancient dragon!”

“Gulong ?!”

Several native * residents at the scene immediately froze for a moment, they knew the horror of this ancient creature.

At this time, even the dark elf Camus from the Fallen Demon Realm and others could not help but sigh, “It seems that this prey is not easy to deal with.”

“Gulong? What is Gulong?”

The goddess Shiva was puzzled and asked curiously, “Is this kind of monster difficult to deal with?”

In fact, not only Shiva, but also Wang Yan, several companions from the earth, knew very little about Gu Long.

“Ancient is not simply a long-lived, there are very old dragons, but a general name for a dragon species, to be exact should be called ancient dragon species.”

Before following Wang Yan, Zoe the Eagle Body Lady was the best appraisal master in the black market of Liuhuocheng City. Hard to reach her.

So under the eyes that everyone expected, Zoe continued to explain: “An ancient dragon species is a primitive species with a more primitive bloodline and an older age. From a pedigree perspective, they are the closest to the galaxy giant, So since ancient times, each ancient is very powerful. “

“Compared to the dragons and sub-dragons of later generations, Gulong, an ancient species from the ancient times of the wilderness, has certain specialities.” Zoe is like a beautiful teacher, in front of everyone, seriously explain .

“The vast majority of ancient dragons have inherently strong attributes. Their bodies are very strong, their bone strength exceeds steel, the scale structure is special, and there are many mysterious elements in the blood gene. It is an important material for the magic weapon. The magic weapon made by the ancient dragon is very powerful. These are places that ordinary dragons or sub-dragons cannot match. “

“In other words, the ancient dragon is the natural condensate of the universe, and each end has special natural attributes. The hot sand overlord now searched by the lord of the puzzle should be an ancient dragon of sand or rock. But if it is It would be very difficult to deal with it in a place like hot sand desert. “Zoe’s explanation is both simple and direct to the subject.

The so-called ancient dragon is an ancient species that is more ancient and closer to the true dragon of the god-level galaxy monster. This ancient dragon often has extremely strong natural properties, and the dragon body is naturally natural, far stronger than ordinary dragons, and the sub-dragons are even less powerful than ancient dragons.

Wang Yan looked at the Emperor of the Desert, who apparently learned the ancient power and strengthened this kind of creature, full of expectations. But the Desert Emperor, like everyone else, was full of distress about how to capture this powerful creature.

“Don’t worry too much, we also have masters of sand control.”

Wang Yan patted the desert emperor on the shoulder, without fear, “If there are any shortcomings, and we are still there, I think it’s hard to reach us with an ancient dragon.”

Nowadays, Wang Yan’s level is very high, and his mentality when he is in trouble is also calmer. The ancient dragon of the sand or rock system is nothing more than possessing ancient blood and being in a favorable position. The next step is to find the right method. With their current lineup, they are fully capable of dealing with a colossal boss.

“Master Demon Flame said that only a demon-level monster, so many of us masters, how could we not be able to pay for a monster?” There were other people present, and the desert emperor also called Wang Yan with a loud voice.

At this time, his eyes were full of fighting spirit, all the previous concerns had been swept away, and what he had exchanged was fiery expectations.

Once this ancient dragon is captured, then he has enough chances to hit the high demigod. Once he can rush to the demigod realm, he will no longer be the one left behind by the Pharaoh. He will become an important combat force around the Pharaoh, and he will also become a main battle member defending the earth’s defense circle!

“Fight against a demigod ancient beast? Sounds interesting.”

“I don’t know if I can hand over the treasure of the ancient dragon, and I will pay it off together. The old monster that has lived for many years, God knows how many good things are hidden!”

A few men around Wang Yan rubbed their hands one by one, eager to try. For the hunting of this top monster, these men who have experienced the storms and waves together with Wang Yan are all full of anticipation.

Among the men, the nerve-hungry ogres Abulon Giantmaul even reached out to touch his belly and looked forward, “I just don’t know Gulong’s meat, it’s not delicious.”

“Delicious, delicious!” Another ogre Shaman Walpole Blue Shield quickly extended his hand and wiped the saliva from the corners of his mouth. “According to the ancestors, dragons and humans are top rare. The delicious, ancient dragons are rarer than ordinary dragons, and must be more delicious than ordinary dragons and humans! “

“Suck! Goodong!” After listening to Ablon Giantmaul, he swallowed deeply in his throat.

He glanced at the shaman Walpole Landun in the tribe, and the two ogres simultaneously smirked at the same time.

Ogres are notoriously greedy, they are like a hungry brown bear, full of longing for food. Especially the demand for meat has almost occupied a large proportion in their lives. At the beginning, Wang Yan almost conquered the entire ogres tribe with a braised pork, which shows how greedy these ogres are.

Now they follow Wang Yan and receive a good education. Anyway, people can't eat anymore, but the beasts outside can eat it. Isn't that ancient dragon a more powerful beast? And according to the records of their ancestors, the ancient dragon should still be a rare cherished meat than the dragon.

Can such rare meat be delicious?

At the thought of this, both ogres and their eyes were shining brightly. Now the two of them were greedy by just thinking about it, and at the same time they were also grateful. They thought they would have meat with Master Moyan! And they are still the best meat that ancestors can't eat, which is a blessing for them.

If Master Moyan is in a good mood, then cook them again, the taste will be perfect!

“You still want to eat Gulong's meat?”

Wang Yan looked at the two in front of him and was full of beautiful fantasy ogres. He could not help but browed his brows and wiped a cold sweat in his heart.

These two ogres are really foodies. The ancient dragon's body is full of treasures, but that is the top material that can be used to refine the weapon of the gods. How can it be eaten casually?

To eat, you have to bake it first.

Uh.....

Wang Yan felt a lot of shame in his heart, and he said that he had also led the two ogres away.

“Okay, come back to the truth, as to how to deal with the hot sand overlord, we will discuss later.”

Wang Yan raised his hand, interrupted the discussion around his entourage, and then greeted the leader of Chidu, “Xiaochi, tell us about the specific location of this nest, our time is running out.”

“Okay, okay, this place is on the southwest border of our purgatory ...”

The Lord of Confusion nodded his head again and again, and then took out another large map to explain the specific location and related routes for Wang Yan and others in detail.

It turns out that this hot sand desert is on the southwestern border of the Inferno Domain. To be precise, the hot sand desert is actually a borderless, very desolate uninhabited area.

There is a three-regardless zone that is not under the jurisdiction of the Infernal Demon Realm and is not controlled by the Dark Demon Realm on the other side.

This part of the area at the border of the Infernal Demon Realm is just the edge of the hot sand desert. If you want to reach the nest of the hot sand overlord, you must also cross the border of the purgatory demon domain and truly reach the desert hinterland.

Once there, many things are no longer under control. The powerful influence of Purgatory Demon Clan cannot reach that kind of place. On the contrary, beast poisons, harsh environments, and various crises will emerge one after another.

The harsh environment alone is enough to deter ordinary creatures. Even the sorrowful lord of today's strength has become so embarrassed after just a trip. The harsh environment there has already been seen.

Of course, the thing that worries Wang Yan and others most is still the issue of being too close to the border of the Dark Demon Territory.

Once it attracted the attention of the Dark Demon Realm, Wang Yan and others would be in big trouble.

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 1640

“Master Demon Flame, although the hot sand desert is vast and endless, but it is now in a sensitive period. It is difficult to ensure that there will be no scouts of dark demon territory in the desert hinterland.”

The dark elf Camus stretched out his long fingers and lightly tapped at several locations on the map. “Once encountering the scout of the Dark Demon Realm, with the influence of Lord Mo Yan, it will definitely attract the army of Dark Demon Realm, Nestle encirclement and suppression. By that time we are in the depths of the desert, I am afraid we will fall into a situation of isolation and helplessness. “

Before Camu surrendered to Wang Yan, it was the special forces directly under the fallen demon Samel, the young general of the Dark Blade Legion, known as the Shadow Stinger, who was very good at special operations such as raids and beheadings.

Therefore, they are very familiar with the forces of the three parties and the deployment of the three forces. In addition, he has accumulated rich experience in battles throughout the year, which also makes him have a very good predictability of the enemy’s layout.

These are also the places where Wang Yan values him very much, and therefore makes him, along with the female elf Elsa and the elven swordsman Enzo, become generals and instructors in his team.

At the moment, Camus pointed out the problem very clearly, and the several he marked are likely to appear in the dark demon scout, not too far from the hot sand nest.

Therefore, once the attention of these scouts is attracted, the army of the Dark Demon will soon be sieged. If in the desert hinterland, surrounded by the army of the dark demon domain, then Wang Yan, the son of the demon god, I am afraid that he will not escape.

“This ... is really a problem. I heard that the demons of the Dark Demon are all bloodthirsty and brutal lunatics, and they are all afraid of death.”

The brutal master who had been following Wang Yan obediently, looking at some suspicious locations on the map, his face could not help showing a worried look.

“There is indeed this rumor.” Zoe, who also gathered beside the map, frowned and said, “Although I haven’t seen the demons of the Dark Demon, I have often heard in the black market that people in the Dark Demon Usually unreasonable, very barbaric, people who stray into the borders of the Dark Demon Realm are usually killed on the spot. “

The forces of Dark Demon Realm are based on fierce and militant, based on the world of hell. At this point, even the Purgatory Demon Race, a brave combat race that admires bravery, feels ashamed.

Wang Yan has been in the world of * for more than a year, and he has a certain understanding of the characteristics of various races.

But now even the brutal master of the county, this kind of miserable girl, is beginning to call the demon of the Dark Demon Domain a lunatic. Zoe, who was born in the black market, also confirmed this with certainty. It can be seen that the forces of the Dark Demon have long been known, far exceeding his Wang Yan’s estimates.

“The scout of the Dark Demon Realm is indeed a trouble.” The sullen sorrowful lord squeezed his fat chin, and some unswerving murmurs said, “I think we will rush this hot sand overlord again Hurry away, it should not attract the attention of the enemy. “

The dark elf Camus still shook his head and speculated rigorously, “It is impossible to fight a large-scale overlord-level monster without triggering large-scale movements. And our time is limited, impossible. Lead the brigade to march urgently, so once we fall into the encirclement of the enemy, we will be very troublesome when we are at a disadvantage of the number of people. “

Indeed, in the battle between Wang Yan and Yanhu, the entire Chilian Lake was shocked. If you want to hunt the ancient monsters from the wild times, such as the hot sand overlord, the noise will definitely be no small matter.

But not yet, Camus still gave a risk-worthy affirmation: “Although there is a little danger, as long as we move fast enough to come and go clean and neat, we may not encounter the scolding of the Dark Demon Domain.”

Because the area of the hot sand desert is really too large, it is not necessarily comparable to the addition of a piece of devil king ruled by several devil kings. Therefore, in the center of such a vast desert, it may not be possible to meet the scouts of the enemy.

Besides, there are scouts in the Dark Demon Realm, and they naturally have them. As long as they can find out in advance, they will still have time to evacuate.

“Then it is so decided, we must get this hot sand overlord. Even if there is a potential threat, our luck is not so bad.”

After listening to the suggestions of several men, Wang Yan immediately ordered, “Everyone is ready, we will start tomorrow morning!”

Several of the surrounding men and companions immediately replied loudly, and then left one after another, preparing for the next day’s adventure.

...

One day passed quickly, and the morning of the next day, Wang Yan, a pedestrian, assembled.

Because the road was very far away, Wang Yan did not lead the army and took the warship. Therefore, it takes a long time not to mention that the large-scale battleship’s expedition is too eye-catching.

At that time, let alone the attention of the enemy, seeing this large warship coming, the Hot Sands Overlord had no idea where to escape.

Because of Wang Yan 's confusion, cruelty, Zoe and Ablon Giant Mallet, and Zhang Weidao, Wu Wujie, Shen Tutian Road and seven earth companions including the Desert Emperor and Lydia Take the fixed-point teleport previously used by the Lord of Confusion and teleport all the way to the destination.

This fixed-point teleport has similarities with Lydia's teleport magic. It's just that the spatial nodes between these cities are all controlled by the official, and the teleportation spells are also performed by the official warlocks. Usually those warlocks will call this teleportation the gate of hell.

It is very convenient to use the Hell's Gate to order teleportation. It allows users to teleport directly from one large city to another. Almost every Demon Collar has one or several.

However, the disadvantage is that the cost is high, the opening time is limited, and it is difficult to send teams or materials. And this fixed transmission method is all point-to-point, and the transmission distance is also limited.

A team of more than a dozen people like Wang Yan needs dozens of magic crystal coins to send once, and the specific payment depends on the distance between the major cities and the opening time of the * gate.

In addition, portals that are expensive and controlled by the government are not available to anyone. Under normal circumstances, it is not enough to have money, but you have to look at your identity. It is not that the dignitaries are expensive, and they are simply not qualified to use it. Otherwise, whoever dares to offend the authority of a demigod demon king is to find death.

However, Wang Yan and others naturally did not have this kind of trouble. He is now well-known in the entire world of hell. In the domain of purgatory, no one knows or knows.

Although Wang Yan did not plan to announce his whereabouts to the outside world this time, as long as he reached the teleportation point, he could use it by brushing his face, and none of the warlock officials present dared to collect money.

Afterwards, there were also local demon kings who came out personally to greet the see-offs, some even set up banquets, invited Wang Yan to spend the night, and so on. One by one, they fell on their knees.

In the meantime, Wang Yan also led people through the capital city of the Giant Rock Demon King. The flattering Giant Rock Demon King has long loved the teleportation circle, and he waited for the court to wait. After seeing Wang Yan 's arrival, he once had to wind and dust Wang Yan and send his daughter, Send granddaughter to serve or something.

As everyone knows, this team of special envoys of the giant rock demon king was also robbed by Wang Yan, and even the * hands of his chief lord were taken by Wang Yan.

Of course, this kind of thing will not be mentioned by Wang Yan, and now he has no time to play in these demon king cities, and immediately refused the goodwill of these devil kings, and told everyone present to not reveal his whereabouts, otherwise immediately Put to death.

Everyone at the scene, including the Giant Rock Demon King, suddenly took a breath.

Wang Yan did his own thing, killing the iron-handed style of decisive decision, but when he punished the Satanic Parliament, it has spread to all corners of the world of * and penetrated into the hearts of the people. Therefore, none of these demon kings and their servants and servants really dared to discuss and reveal.

In this way, Wang Yan bid farewell to the Giant Rock Demon King and teleported to the destination of their trip again.

After so many transmissions, Wang Yan and others finally arrived at the destination of their trip in the afternoon of this day, the hot sand desert border city, Black Rock.

Just listen, there is a “buzz” sound in the ear, the vibration of the space fluctuation.

The light curtain in front of him gradually faded away, and when his sight was restored, Wang Yan and others felt the scorching dry airflow and were rushing towards the face. Looking up, everyone had come to a hall full of desert style.

This hall has thick columns and tall yellow walls. The dome is a hollow shape, embossed with various exotic beasts, and the blazing sunlight is slanting down from the hollow gap, making the atmosphere of the whole hall look ancient and solemn.

“Welcome, welcome, under the Black Stone Demon King, and welcome Your Highness Mo Yan!”

At this time, a full and diligent voice was introduced into Wang Yan's ear. Wang Yan turned his eyes, just below the teleportation altar, a thin-skinned, middle-aged demon with a fierce look, who was leading people to greet him for a long time.

There is no doubt that this thin and powerful middle-aged demon in black armor and gray robe is precisely this piece of the devil's collar, and the ruler of this city, the black stone devil.

The Blackstone Demon King is restrained in temperament, filled with a sturdy heroic spirit. At this time, more than a dozen legendary purgatory demons and other races kneeling behind him should be his courtiers. However, due to the large class gap between them, Wang Yan just glanced at them and found that there was nothing special about it, and he was no longer interested.

"Your Highness Demon Flame can visit our black stone city, it really makes this small place under your brilliance, and your subordinates are really honored!"

The Blackrock Demon King looked full of spring breeze, nodded and bowed his waist, and also made an invitation gesture on his hand, "Please, His Royal Highness here, take your stroll around."

"Come on, lead the way, this God Son will have some things to ask you later." Wang Yan set out a shelf of the Son of Demon God and walked towards the altar. The men who came with him followed with the companions of the earth.

"Please, please, Master Moyan, please, later, Master Moyan has something to ask your subordinates, they must know everything."

The black market demon rushed to serve beside him. Although he didn't know what the high-end demon son Mo Yan had suddenly visited him in this desolate place, he knew very well that no matter what the demon deity wanted to do, he just waited. Just fine.

"Hey, Brother Blackstone, I haven't seen you in two days. Why don't you recognize me confused?"

The confidant Lord who followed Wang Yan walked down the altar and greeted the Blackrock Demon King.

Two days ago he came here to inquire about the news. It was with the help of this black stone demon that he successfully reached the border of the hot sand overlord's nest. For this reason, he was on the side of Wang Yan and mentioned the black stone devil several times.

“Haha, brother Chi, what are you talking about? You can’t recognize anyone, you can’t recognize you, brother Chi!”

The Black Stone Demon King quickly hugged the shoulders of the confusing lord, and looked at the two men as brothers and brothers, as if they hadn’t seen good friends for a long time.

There is no way, who made him confuse the lord that he was Wang Yan’s first loyal dog. Because of Wang Yan’s relationship, and indeed he himself worked very hard, now the water is rising, and the confusing lord who accompanied Wang Yan’s many battles has long been famous. Wherever he goes, he is a guest of honor.

Just like his lord, he can now be called a brother to a demigod demon king. It is estimated that he is the only one in the entire purgatory field.

Of course, it was not only the deceived lord, who followed Wang Yan all the way to the hands of the gods, and now in the purgatory demon clan, all are worthy characters. No one dared to underestimate the identity of some of his slaves.

“Haha, my brother, I know that you will be visiting these days, so I have prepared something you like to ensure tenderness! Otherwise, after the dinner, I will give you and Your Honored Lord Mo Yan, Arrange to the palace? “

Wang Yan shouted and walked in front. The black stone demon king followed behind, and he did not forget to draw close to the Lord of Red Confusion. The enthusiasm was even closer than seeing a relative.

“Hey, hey brother Blackheart has a heart.” Lord Chew smirked with a smirk on his face, thinking about the exotic beauty, he couldn’t help laughing.

But the smile turned back, and the confusing lord turned around, and refused, “Brother Heishi, although the younger brother likes it, this time we have something to do. Those little beauties will wait until later. In addition, my boss Lord Mo Yan, I heard a lot of information about you here last time, and Brother Blackstone, you are righteous. So, after the end of the * meeting, His Majesty Mo Yan intends to open up a business road from the hot lake city he established, and the end point is directly reached. Your Black Rock City, I do n’t know brother, what do you mean ...? “

“Good! Good! Good thing! This is a great thing!”

The Blackrock Demon King was shocked for a moment, thinking he heard a lie, and after he reacted, he was immediately ecstatic and shouted a few times, “Thank you His Royal Highness for seeing us in Blackrock City! Thank you for your recommendation and support! I Blackstone The Demon King will do his best to serve His Highness, please rest assured!

Knowing that the newly built Yanhu City, which can become the son of the demon god, the end of the future business road, the black stone demon king was so excited to fly, and he was overjoyed with a grateful oath, fearing that he would not serve well, and the son of the devil * who was above him would abandon him. .

To know that he is a desolate place where birds do n’t shit, except for the enemy and Warcraft, he ca n’t even see a ghost, let alone the traveling caravan.

Even some small businessmen are not afraid of the difficult road and dare to take risks, but they are too far away from the large cities of purgatory demons. Those small businessmen might be killed by robbers somewhere and eaten by Warcraft.

Therefore, this also led to his city, lack of materials, economic backwardness, and the production of agriculture and animal husbandry is very low, and the civilians living here often do not eat enough. On the other hand, besides guarding the frontier, he is not as good as the lord of an inland rich land.

As usual, he called it a suffocation in his heart, but once His Royal Highness Mo Yan is willing to open the way to his city, it will be different.

As long as he is able to trade, he is an economically backward but resource-rich border city, which will quickly take off immediately. Perhaps it will attract more people and powerful people because of the light of His Royal Highness. By that time, the entire city is becoming more and more developed, and it is very likely that in the future, it will become a border town with equal emphasis on military and economy!

By that time, he Black Stone Demon King is still worried about not having a good life? Maybe it’s a good performance, but it can also promote promotion.

To this end, he Blackrock Demon King, willing to make a cow and a horse to the honorable Lord of the Flame Flame.
