The Domestic Hero - Chapter 1721

...

“Why, who?”

“Dare to break into my Daredevil camp, so brave!”

Bliss Mo Ji stepped in this step, it was indeed easy to express, but for the two guards of the night demon clan at the door, it was like a catastrophe and nervous.

Just kidding, the duty of the two guards of the night demon clan is to take charge of the commander of the night demon king and prohibit anyone from entering and leaving at will.

If anyone casually puts in the account of the night evil demon king, then the two of them will not be able to do this post? If the night evil demon king blamed, they would definitely not be able to walk around.

“stop!”

“I will stop you!”

Two burly night demon guards outside the door, hurriedly chasing the figure of Elysian Mo Ji, rushed into the camp account, and she would be taken down.

Not to mention, the position of the night evil demon king personally serving as a guard is quite different among the night evil clan.

They can serve as personal guards around the night demon king, all of them are carefully selected elite elites, and they are all elites in the elite, nobles in the nobility.

They are not only noble, they have excellent strengths and abilities, and the legendary level is just the bottom.

Although they are not as prestigious as the commander-in-chief of the devil-level demon king, they are close believers around the demon king of the night, and they are all people outside. After spending so much gold next to Yesha Demon King, even if he fails to be promoted to the Demigod in the future, but as soon as he retires, he will be a big lord directly under Yesha Demon King!

For this reason, how dare these celebrity guards slack off? Immediately reaching out, grabbed the shoulders of the Bliss Maggie.

However, Bliss Maggie is still standing in the same place, not avoiding it, not even a little extra action.

However, around her, there was a sudden inexplicable wave. The hands of the two Demon Clan guards stretched out, so she missed her shoulders for nothing and slipped empty.

“Huh, what’s going on?”

“Strange, weird ...”

The two Night Demon guards were all stunned, looking at their hands inconceivably, and the Bliss Mo Ji in front.

This man was standing in front of him. Why did he suddenly miss this short distance?

The key opponent does not use any ability at all, but the result will be such a peculiar phenomenon. This is ... really, weird.

“Cough, stupid inferior race, ignorance is a sin.”

The Bliss Magic Ji turned slowly, his mouth slightly raised, and there was a playful scorn in his eyes.

At the same time, in her soft eyes, she suddenly flashed a very strange purple luster, a mysterious wave, and then spread around her.

In an instant, even the air seems to be scented and sweet because of this mysterious wave.

“Not good!” Ye Sha Demon narrowed his eyes and secretly shouted, quickly concentrated on guarding his mind, when he reacted, and then wanted to stop it, it was too late.

With only a clatter, the Sabre clasped in the hands of the two guards suddenly fell to the ground.

The two Goblin clan guards who had reached the pinnacle of the legend, just in a blink of an eye, were as if they had lost their souls.

“Hey Hey.....”

They were smirking obsessively, their expressions twisted and excited, with irresistible excitement, and finally their saliva flowed out because of the uncontrollable silly expressions.

The scene is so weird and horrifying!

And the thing that makes the night evil devil most nervous is that not only the two guards, but the prince of the night blade, which is a little further away, also raised his mouth at this time, and his face was full of satisfaction and excitement that was difficult to hide.

If you listen carefully, you will find that Prince Yeren is still talking about “Dark Song, Dark Song”!

Looking at him, it seems as if he is having a blissful joy with the Dark Princess who is missing him.

“Oops, it’s Devil Bliss!”

Ye Sha Big Devil suddenly realized that the strange scene in front of him, out of ten, is the rumored Heavenly Devil Bliss!

According to legend, the supreme demon master of the extraterrestrial demon, combining the racial characteristics of the extraterrestrial demon, created the original anti-celestial technique “Tianmo Infinite Power”. Its strength is enough to open the sky and fight.

As time goes by, this anti-celestial power has evolved many secondary magical powers, which has benefited the extraterrestrial demon family and gained an unprecedented increase in strength.

Among them, the Heavenly Demon Bliss is the most evil kind of secondary magical skills. Only the most outstanding female demon, who has undergone many tests, can be fortunate to obtain the inheritance of such divine skills.

According to the contact between Yesha Demon King and the extraterrestrial demon during this time, he learned that once this magic skill is taken, the soul of any creature will fall into an obsessive bliss illusion, and then as long as the bliss magic Ji is willing, any one The spirits of recruiting creatures will all be absorbed by her!

really.

Bliss Devil Ji Xie eyes circulated, Tan mouth slightly opened, lightly sucked towards the two guards who had fallen into a silly state.

Horrible things happened.

“Hiss, shout!”

The fragrant wind flows, and a large amount of dark red life force begins to flow quickly along the eyes, ears, noses, and mouths of the two guards, and even the skin surface, and finally merges into a small stream, which is instantly sucked into Tan mouth by Mole.

“Hey Hey.....”

The blood of the two night demon guards began to dry up, and their muscles began to disintegrate quickly. The two eyes were violently burst out because of the gradually shrinking skin around them.

But in this terrifying state of near-death, the guards of these two Night Demon clan guards uttered a weird laughter, as if they were enjoying a piece of bliss.

In this way, just two or three breathing kung fu, two strong and tall, the night deer clan guards with a strong legendary peak strength, has become a handful of ashes.

At the next moment, the ashes and the armor they had originally wore were scattered all over the floor.

Yesha Demon King’s eyes widened, and the scene in front of him could not help making him a little stunned.

The two legendary peak guards, even if he shot himself, will inevitably take some effort to kill in one fell swoop.

But this Bliss Maggie, with just a glance, let the two legendary peak guards turn into a pile of ashes in an instant.

Such a strange way of killing evil people is terrible to the extreme!

The key opponent looked very relaxed, and it seemed that he didn't even show his true skills.

This can't help making the night evil demon king secretly sigh, is it ... the ability of the extraterrestrial demon and their control is really so powerful?

"Well ... It's a lot of weight, really a strong race."

The blissful tongue of Bliss Magic Ji gently licked the scarlet thin lips, a lazy gesture, just like a proud lady despised, as much temptation as you want.

"It's a pity that the pedigree is too poor, and the taste is still worse."

Bliss Mo Ji beautiful eyes are like water, she exhaled slightly, as if she had just enjoyed a meal, and she is still enjoying the aftertaste.

"enough!"

Ye Sha Demon face was gloomy, he watched the two elite guards turned into white ashes, and his son Ye Ren was also struck by strokes, his heart was not hitting one place, and immediately gave a low drink.

Suddenly, an awe-inspiring power spread from Zhou Zhouzhou. The sweet fragrance in the air was swept away immediately.

"Um ... ah!"

Stimulated by the mighty prestige of the Yesha Demon King, Prince Yeblai shocked the whole person, and finally broke free from the blissful fantasy.

As soon as he was awake, he was startled by the two ashes in front of him. Combined with his own experience, he looked at the Bliss Maggie's eyes, full of scruples.

The extraterrestrial demon is terrible to such a degree, how can there be such a powerful race in this world?

The heart of Prince Night Blade was beating wildly. He had a bit of self-confidence before, and felt that the extraterrestrial demon was just an extraterritorial race with a slightly stronger overall strength.

But who thinks, the extraterrestrial demon actually has such unfathomable power.

It is only now that he has truly realized that the extraterrestrial demon and their race are not at the same level. This pre-natural strength is probably beyond the reach of other races.

"Wow!"

Hearing a low drink from the night evil demon king, a large number of night evil clan soldiers immediately gathered towards the camp.

However, an angry look in the night evil demon king made these soldiers retreat.

Then the night evil demon king waved with one arm, a powerful magic turned into a strong wind, rolled the ashes armor on the ground, and rushed outside.

The camp door was then closed, leaving only Yesha and his son, and the extraterrestrial Demon Bliss Moji.

Ye Sha Demon face gloomy, pretending to glance at Bliss Mo Ji, first snorted: “Lord Mo Ji, you broke into the king’s camp for no reason, and still killed two of the king’s guards. Is this how the devil treats allies? ? “

If it wasn’t for the extraterrestrial demon, he couldn’t afford it anymore, he urgently needed to use the extraterrestrial demon to help him get rid of the demon * Mamen and seize the other’s divinity.

Otherwise, he would never swallow the sulking, any woman so wild in front of him.

“Cough, it’s really boring, but it’s just two inferior races. If it’s gone, it’s gone. Who made them dare to touch the body of the concubine?”

Bliss Mo Ji slowly turned around and raised the corner of her mouth in disapproval, as if the two night demon clan killed by her, but two little bugs that lifted their feet and stepped on the death, were basically insignificant.

Both Yesha Demon King and his son Night Blade Prince, both looked somber.

The father and son scolded in their hearts that the two guards of the night elf races, but the carefully selected elite elites of the pure blood night elf race, each with its own unique ability, how could it be a poor inferior race?

Say that the two Night Demon guards are inferior races, so are their fathers and sons too?

“Your Night Lord, your vision is still too narrow. When you can one day stand at the apex of this world, you will find that these inferior creatures are just insignificant ants, don’t need to worry about it in your heart.”

Seeing Yesha’s father and son’s face not so good, the Bliss Maggie no longer entangled too much, and her beautiful eyes turned around, but instead looked at the father and son lazily and said, “Besides, the concubine suddenly visited, naturally there is a need I will inform you about it. “

Upon hearing that Bliss Maggie said there was an important notice, the father and son of Yesha Demon King and Yeblad immediately came to spirit.

“Your excellency, you mean ... Your Majesty Ackerman, has you arrived?”

The Yesha Demon King immediately looked at the Bliss Demon Ji eagerly. Of course, his son Ye Ren didn’t know who Ackerman was, so he secretly asked his father Yesha Demon King by voice.

Soon, the news was that Ackerman was a supernatural demon god!

To be precise, it is the one among the many gods and gods outside the realm, who mainly attack the world of hell.

This demon * Ackerman was swallowed by the demon master to swallow the star apostle in the extraterrestrial demon. Once in the ancient times, it was he who led the extraterrestrial demon vanguard, invading the world of hell. At the time, his opponent was the dark demon Mamen.

Now Ackerman is making a comeback. His purpose is the same as the night evil demon king, pointing directly to the dark demon Mamen!

Hearing this news, Prince Eye Blade's eyes glowed, and his heart was full of irresistible impulses.

The extraterrestrial demon is so powerful, then how terrible will the extraterrestrial demon gods be? And there can be a * from the extraterrestrial gods, this battle will undoubtedly win!

"Your Excellency, your lord His Excellency Ackerman, has arrived outside * and is ready to attack."

Bliss Mo Ji's eyes were cruel, and he replied slowly, "Her Majesty Ackerman is a special concubine who will come to help you. As long as you launch an offensive, His Majesty Ackerman will launch a strong attack from above and destroy the Mamen with you. With his demon palace! "

"Okay! Okay! It's so good! Your Majesty Ackerman is finally here!"

After listening to the night evil demon king, he was very excited and shouted a few times, "I night evil devil king, who has been working hard for hundreds of years, finally waited for this moment!"

"The concubine first congratulated you on your success, and asked you to send your soldiers immediately. This time could not be delayed." Bliss Mo Ji arched her hand falsely. Although the surface is polite, in fact, there is no slight temperature in his eyes.

"Wait." The night evil Demon King was excited, his eyes suddenly tightened, and he said, "What's the matter with His Majesty Ackerman's promise to this King? If there is no definite answer, this King will definitely not send troops."

"Cough, you Daredevil, you are really cautious, never mind. Your Majesty Ackerman had expected you to react like this."

Bliss Mo Ji smiled and shook her fingertips, a mysterious scroll had appeared in her palm, "Styx of Styx, you should be familiar with it?"

"Your Majesty Ackerman has signed the contract first to ensure that the Mamen's divine personality will be delivered to you after the war, and you will help yourself to become a god! In the future, Lord Ye Sha, you will be our * spokesman of the heavenly devil Lord! "

Ye Sha Demon King took the mysterious contract, fixed his eyes, and suddenly his eyes straightened.

The Stygian Oath has a very powerful effect on the gods. Ackerman Arkman, who swallows the star, can sign the Stygian Oath for Yesha, which is absolutely stable.

"Your Lord Shasha, my lord Ackerman has already shown his sincerity. What to do next depends on you."

Bliss Devil Ji Mei narrowed her eyes, her voice full of bewitching meaning, “Your excellency, you are a new  after the event is completed, don’t forget to take care of my little sister.”

“sure.”

Ye Sha Demon King couldn’t help but stare at Xie Tsai carefully for several times, and then it was very treasured to put it away, and at the same time looked at his son Ye Jian, “My son, your time for revenge! Gather the whole army and go with your father! “

Night Blade Prince listened, and his eyes glowed instantly.

...

...

The night is like water, and the shining moonlight, like a silver-white blanket, spreads over Nuo Da’s darkness gods through the light clouds.

Wan Laiju was silent. At this time, the entire city had fallen asleep, and there were only a few fireworks in Liuxiang, which still continued their enthusiasm and joy.

Near the north gate of the tower, two well-equipped gods are guarding, standing above the tower, at the top of the high watchtower, looking far away from the distance.

This is their daily work, and it is also their job as a guardian of God.

After all, they were born and raised here, and their family and friends all live in this city. It would be an honor for these soldiers to be the guards of this city and serve the great capital.

Tonight is as peaceful as ever, even more peaceful than ever before. In the forest far away, there is not even a bird or animal hiss, as if the whole world is asleep.

The two guards who stood in the tower and sent their guards were more relaxed at the moment, because as soon as five more magic months passed, the sky would be dawning, and they could also take a break and do something they wanted to do.

On the lookout tower, standing on the left is a demon clan guard with beast horns. He looked far away at this moment, and he couldn’t help feeling a little emotion.

It does n’t matter whether it is a demon clan or a purgatory demon clan. Although they are all fighting races advocating bravery in the world of hell, they do not affect their longing for a peaceful life.

Only a peaceful and peaceful living environment, their relatives and friends, as well as future generations, can live in peace and prosperity.

The dark  capital behind them is undoubtedly such a great peaceful and peaceful capital city.

To the right of the demon clan guard is a night demon clan guard. Just hearing the feelings of his companions, he didn't talk, but instead looked far away to the northern forest, with some dignity in his eyes.

“Brother, relax, with Brother's experience, as usual tonight, nothing will happen again.”

The demon clan guard was a bit older. He claimed to be his elder brother. When he saw that the night demon clan guard was silent, he leaned to the right and smiled patted his companion on the shoulder, jokingly asked, “After a short shift, do you want Go out for a drink? Now our gods are in business with Yanhu City, His Royal Highness Demon Flame, and there are a lot of good things in the city ... “

Under the rule of the dark demon Mamen, Mamen began to work from top to bottom, and has been working hard to create a policy of great harmony among various races. Whether it is a demon, a shadow demon, or a night demon family, they are all a family, which is also the basis for the dark demon domain to be based on the world of hell.

Therefore, the three races in the Dark Demon Realm have maintained a very friendly relationship with each other.

After the Hell Conference, the Dark Song Princess of the Dark Demon Realm and the Demon Flame Son of the Infernal Demon Realm have good relations with each other, and they have also opened up a trading port between the two cities. This also made the originally prosperous Dark Gods even more Prosperously.

“No, I have something important for a while.”

The night demon guard smiled politely, his eyes still thoughtful.

“No? You are going downstairs to Miss Mayfair again?”

Seeing this, the guard of the demon clan seemed to think of something, and then grinned badly, “Hey, boy, at a young age, this ability is really not small. But the girl is very good, but the identity of the people is too high, we are not big. Lord, you can't climb high. “

Mentioning Mayfair in the city, the young night demon guards showed a shy smile.

As his companion said, as his little guard, it used to be impossible to climb high, but after tonight, everything is hard to say.

At the thought of this, the eyes of the guardians of the night demon clan could not help but a little more.

at this time.

A team seemed to merge into the shadow of the night, and was quickly approaching the city gate in the shadow of the forest outside the city.

The demon clan guard, who was still joking, was immediately vigilant.

“This, this is ... night fangs ?!”

His eyes narrowed, and with his many years of experience, he immediately recognized the fast-moving black silhouette.

“It’s so late, what are they doing here suddenly? And we didn’t get notice at all ... wait, no!”

The experienced demon veteran felt more and more that something was wrong and immediately wanted to issue an early warning.

But he had just turned around and a sharp short knife had been inserted into his heart.

“Brother, brother ... for, why? Demon, Your Majesty, treat you well?”

The blood overflowed, and the demon guard couldn’t believe it. His eyes stared at the night demon companion in front of him.

Although there have always been rumors of the rumor that the Night Demon Clan has a second heart, he doesn’t believe it at all.

Even if it was just a second ago, he didn’t believe that the partner of the night demons who had been with him day and night would wave a butcher knife to him.

But at this moment, the cruel reality clearly told him that the brotherly race that had always lived in harmony with them had already betrayed them.

“Brother, I don’t want to, but our Dark Demon Domain will be ruled by Mamen again, there will be no future!”

Although the night demon guard had guilt in his eyes, the short knife in his hand penetrated the body of the demon companion more firmly.

“Our night demon tribe is the overlord of this piece of demon domain!”

At that point, the night demon guards the short knife and stirs it out suddenly.

“His!”

The heart of the demon guard was completely crushed, and a lot of blood spewed out, and his life was also cut off at this moment.

Similar scenes began to be staged one after another.

An unprecedented  rebellion began at this moment.

...

“Boom!”

The closed city gate of Shendu is slowly opening, and the entire city wall has already fallen into flames.

There are broken limbs and broken arms everywhere, and the corpses of the tragic defenders, and the blood is like a river, flowing down the city walls.

too suddenly.

This rebellion has been planned for a long time, but it came too suddenly.

No one realized that the Night Devil Lord and Night Blade Prince would rebel suddenly at this time.

The members of the Night Demon clan mixed in the guards immediately killed the companions of the sentry nearby. Without the sentinel guards outside the guard, the night elves' elite scout night fangs easily approached the city gate and touched the city wall.

At this time, it was late at night, the night demons' ability increased greatly, and the defenders on the city walls were all unprepared, and they were precisely assassinated by the fangs of the night.

A large number of defenders fell to the ground, the north gate wall was instantly lost, and a large number of city defense weapons with great lethality were all reduced to decoration. Even the north gate guardian sky was not opened.

When the city defense troops stationed in the city reacted, the dark night demon army had rushed across the city gate and quickly killed them.

“kill!”

“Your Majesty has orders, all the resistance, execute on the spot!”

“Don't stay alive, demons and shadow demons all kill!”

The army of night demons is well-trained, like wolves and tigers, and the opposite is the panic and crying of the military and civilians near the city gate.

“Night, the Night Demon betrayed! Hurry, run!”

“No, don't come! Wooooah!”

“Help! Help, help!”

Shouting the sound of crying, crying for mercy, and suddenly became a piece in the northern city of Shendu, and the flames of the night sky were burning red.

At this moment, a burly figure holding a double-edged sword and a pair of horn-like demon generals in the army barracks in the north gate city rushed out of the barracks.

He is the guardian of the demon clan who is strong in the demigod realm, the giant blade Sando who guards the northern gate.

Just before the magic month, he had just finished his daily inspection and returned to his military camp to rest.

But not long after he lay down, the whole northern gate burst into shock.

“What’s going on? What kind of enemy is it, how could it enter the city so easily?”

Giant-bladed General Sando stood in a barracks in a panic and looked around. The whole North City had fallen into a sea of fire, and the whole area was in chaos.

Fighting and wailing are endless, and a lot of dogfights are staged in the city. Both the defenders of the North City, the surrounding residents, and even the beggars wandering at the foot of the city were all  slaughtered.

At this time, the whole North City was full of corpse blood, and the tragic scene, even his demigod-level general, was deeply shocked.

“Report, report!”

At this time, a guard soldier with a  face, who was fleeing from the direction of the north gate, saw General Sando, the giant blade, and quickly fell to the ground. He panicked and reported, “The general, the night, the night demons rebelled! “

Just a short sentence, but like Thunder exploded in the mind of Giant Blade Sando.

Then a deep sense of anger began to surge in his heart.

“He, how dare they ...?”

The giant-bladed general Sando’s eyes were ruthless, and he immediately issued an angry command, “Everyone will fight against the thieves with me!”

This violent anger really played a certain inspiring role, and a large number of soldiers in a mess around him began to gather around him.

This is the barracks of the northern city defense. It is responsible for the security and daily duties of the entire northern city. Even in this situation, there are many active forces that can participate in the battle. If it is deployed properly, it may even save a lot of losses and further reduce the scale of the rebellion.

As long as the brothers came, they still had the ability to suppress the rebellion. At least General Sando, the giant blade, and the soldiers gathered around him thought so.

But the reality is far from as smooth as they expected.

The giant-bladed general Sando, before he could lead the team to kill the barracks, faced with a large number of dark and repressed night demon rebels, and surrounded them.

In particular, the ceremonial prestige led by the middle-aged Devil men full of swallowing mountains and rivers immediately made the giant-bladed general Sando feel unprecedented pressure.

There is no doubt that this imposing middle-aged devil is the leader and commander of this rebel army. The dark devil is second only to the demon  Mamen, the night devil!

Yesha Demon has a gray complexion, thick horns, and a pair of sharp eyes, as if he can put everything through.

The mighty dark energy black flame, like a vicious ghost, lingered around him. The majestic set of armor on his body was shining with dark golden power under the black flame.

He was like a prince of the night, with a towering momentum, making it difficult for the semi-divine general, Giant Blade Sando, to resist.

Not only the night evil demon king.

Beside him, there is a young Demon tribe with pale skin and a somber complexion.

It is the Night Demon Youth Strong who is well known in the entire Hell, Night Blade of the Night Devil King!

Although this night blade had a big ugly appearance in the  meeting and lost his face, but he had the strength to be a demigod at a young age, but no one dared to ignore it.

“This, so many gods and devil ...”

In addition to these two commanders, the giant-bladed general Sando was horrified to find that there were more than a dozen demigod-level strongmen who were attacked with the night evil demon king!

Isn't it ... Yesha Demon King gathered all the powers of the Night Demon Clan to rebel against Majesty Mamen?

If you think about it this way, then the rebels who attacked the God Capital absolutely exceeded 100,000! If you count some affiliated races, this number is probably more!

The giant blade Sando was still in shock, and beside the Yesha Demon King, he saw several very strange aliens.

This is a race he has never seen before.

These foreigners have purple skin, a gorgeous congenital pattern, looming beneath the purple skin, and this foreigner's forehead, as well as a pair of obsidian black ink sharp corners, a large amount of free energy around them, are being affected by these pairs of sharp corners absorb.

With such strange characteristics, the fool knows that this alien race does not belong to hell, the abyss, or any other known world.

The most important thing is that the eyes of these foreign races show the extreme indifference, as if in their eyes, all the creatures are just reptilian ants that are so humble to be worth mentioning.

This extremely indifferent look chilled General Sando, the great blade general.

Needless to say, this mysterious race is a foreigner colluding with the night evil demon king, and it is also the card he used to subvert the entire dark demon domain and deal with the dark demon  Mamen!

“Oh, General Sando, the giant blade, this king reads that you are a useful talent and can keep you alive.”

Ye Sha Demon looks calm and full of this imposing power. He stared at the giant blade general Sando coldly, while leading the army, walking slowly to Sando step by step.

“Kneel down to the king and recognize the king as the master. The king will protect you from glory and prosperity in the future and enjoy it endlessly!”

Faced with the direct threat of the night evil demon king, General Sando, the giant blade, suddenly snorted.

The first reaction is over, they can't hold it anymore.

In this case, facing so many strong men, so many big armies, he alone, and a few defenders in the broken barracks, could not resist the offensive of the Nightlord.

Run away?

But soon the giant blade general Sando found desperately that in such a short period of time, their barracks had been besieged by the rebels of the night evil demon king.

I want to come too. They are the defense corps of the North City. They must be the primary targets of the Night Demon rebels. However, once they give up resistance, the entire Shendu North District will fall.

“Huh, want me to betray His Majesty Mamen and surrender to you? You dream! Is it true that my Sando is a greedy and fearful person?”

The giant-bladed General Sando was resolute and resolute. Instead of giving in, he yelled loudly, “This general is a great general appointed by His Majesty. Your Majesty! You are the one. Ye Sha's thieves actually colluded with outsiders and rebelled against His Majesty. It's really bold! “

At this time, General Sando, the General of Blades, resented his anger. He knew that he could not escape. He simply kept life and death out of his reach, determined to fight to the end.

As a hand-held general of the dark demon Mamen, he finally arrived at the moment of his loyalty!

...

...

“Bros!”

At this point in the thought, General Sando, a giant-bladed general, shouted his arms, and his fighting intentions soared sharply, “Let us fight for the guard brothers of the temple, and fight for more time! Revenge for us! “

“Roar!”

There was a roar of war, and thousands of responses.

The remnants of the surrounding surroundings were still panicking and fearful, but at this moment, under the influence of General Sando, the giant blade roared fearlessly, and died as if they were home.

They cannot survive, but they can choose to make their death more meaningful.

Their relatives and friends, the love of their wives and children, live in the city behind them. This city and this country must not be destroyed by anyone!

“We can’t retreat!”

“You can’t let these traitors enter the city!”

“Swear to guard Your Majesty Majesty! Your Majesty will definitely avenge us!”

Killing oneself into a benevolence, not afraid of life and death, has always been the toughest spirit of the demon family, and it is also the foundation of the dark devil’s proud establishment.

Yesha Demon King didn’t think there was anything special about these demons before, but at this moment, he was really tickled by the hatred of the stubborn demons.

“A group of ignorant things ...”

The eyes of the night evil demon slowly tightened, and the fierce light was revealed, and the current one arm waved, “Destroy them! All blockers, die!”

“kill!”

Yesha Demon King said nothing, his son Yeblad jumped out first, the dark energy devil halberd shuddered in his hand, and spurred straight towards the giant blade general Sando.

At the same time, the dark army behind the night evil demon king began to surge like a tide toward the remnant army of the northern city of Shendu.

As soon as the two sides touched each other, they immediately led to fiery heat.

I have to say that the army brought by the Yesha Demon King is really too powerful.

This rebel army is the entire military force secretly cultivated by the night evil demon king in the past few hundred years. It can be said that all the fighting power of the entire Night Demon Clan lies here.

The total strength of the Night Devil alone is over 100,000! The strength of basic soldiers is at least B level. If you count the dependence on race, this armament force will have to be turned over!

Of course, these large numbers of basic soldiers are mainly placed in four city walls and in the vast metropolitan area.

They were led by a powerful demon, and at this time, like the tide, they radiated away from the first north gate to the other city walls and the entire city.

Now following the army beside the Demon King of Night Sha, it is the main force of the main force and the elite of the elite in the whole army.

Among them, the half-step S-Class Night Demon Guards surpassed 10,000 people! S legendary personal guard command has reached a horror of more than 3800 people! There are seventeen demi-general generals!

In addition, there are more than a dozen devil-level demon generals who are leading the base army, and this is not a siege.

Such an elite force armed to the teeth in front of one eye, let alone one  demon, can't be compared with ten  demon plus one piece. It would be more than enough to pull this legion into an inferior plane world.

The most terrifying part of this legion led by the night evil demon king is that they are not only powerful, but also have a large number. The legion is also equipped with heavy armored infantry who are good at frontal combat. There are lion and scorpion knights proud of the night demons, and various siege weapons.

With such a combination of near and far, and with the cooperation of multiple arms, it is not comparable to the unexpectedly defending military.

In addition, every member of this legion was trained and brainwashed secretly by the Yesha Demon King and his relatives, and he firmly believed in the Yesha Demon King and Night Blade Prince.

For a long time, Yesha Demon King and his cronies have been proclaiming in this legion that the old demon  Mamen is old and weak, and will fall sooner or later, as long as he follows Yesha, the entire dark demon domain, and even the entire  world will belong to their night demons.

Under such constant dark brainwashing, these elite night elves are full of almost fanatical faith in the night evil demon king. When the war comes, this faith will turn into a powerful fighting force, making these night elf elites elite Unstoppable.

The battle with the North City Defense Force, General Sando, the Great Blade General, started quickly and ended quickly.

Within half a month of the magic moon, he resisted the last giant blade Sando, and finally fell under the siege of the demon king. The Beicheng barracks were destroyed, and the entire Beicheng, the dark god, was completely destroyed.

The whole battle of God Outer City gradually came to an end at this time.

There were constant reports of success, and the look of the Nightshadow Demon King, who was sitting in the middle of the army, became more and more energetic.

“My father, according to the report, except for the north city we have captured now, the entire outer city of the gods has been completely occupied by our people, and then only the devil temple in the inner city is left!”

Prince Nightblade stood in the middle of the barracks, as if picking a souvenir, cruelly pulled off the head of General Sando, the giant blade, and turned to report the war to the night evil demon king.

The blood was flowing down the head of Sando, the blade of the giant blade, and a large piece of it dripped, and the corpses of the fallen soldiers were everywhere.

Behind him, the whole city has been completely plunged into a war, howling everywhere, and the whole scene is like the end, enough to make anyone tremble.

But in his eyes, he didn't have any worries, but was full of strong murderous intention.

That's right, he wants revenge, he wants to bring fear to everyone who has laughed at him!

"Giggle, it's really good, things are smoother than the concubine expected. You night demon clan is very good, especially your young son, the concubine appreciates it."

A charming and charming laughter came from the side of Yesha Demon King.

Then an alien woman with lilac skin, full of charm, and temptation was walking slowly in front of the Night Lord Demon King and Prince Night Blade.

Needless to say, this alien woman is the * of the extraterrestrial demon, the apostle Ackerman who swallowed the stars, and the female demon sent to the night evil demon king to supervise the battle.

Her looks are beautiful and touching, her lips rising upwards, with her natural nobility and contempt, so that her words sound inattentive, but the Yesha Demon King has no temper.

It was just that when she looked at Prince Nightblade, Nightblade, who had just been murderous, shuddered, and her nerves were tense.

If he could, Ye blade didn't want to see this terrible woman again in his life.

Ye Sha Demon King looked at this Bliss Mo Ji, his eyes were looking at his son, and his heart was straight.

But in the eyes of Bliss Maggie, only the meaning of appreciation, no further plans, he was relieved at night.

So he smiled and said, "Your Excellency Mo Ji wins the prize, and the two of you work together, and with the assistance of His Majesty Ackerman, the old man of Mamen is definitely not our opponent. Now it seems that it is just a matter of searching for things, easy! "

"Cough, Mamen is certainly mortal."

Bliss Mo Ji Mei's eyes narrowed slightly, but there was a chill in the water-like eyes, "But don't blame you for not reminding you personally, you don't have much time, if you can't lead Mamen's true body by then, Let that cunning old thing escape quietly, hehe ... His Majesty Ackerman blamed him, but no one can afford it. "

"Your Majesty reminds you."

Hearing this remark, Ye Sha Demon King's heart suddenly tightened.

According to the original plan, the night demon king of the Night Sha gave priority to breaking through the temple, enticing the real body of the demon * Mamen, and then the extraterrestrial demon * swallowed the star apostle Ackerman, and he would personally solve the demon * Mamen from top to bottom. .

This is also the guts of the Night Devil King who dare to rebel against the riots now, but no one knows what will happen until the last minute.

Every clever god, who has few magical means? What's more, Mamen is a well-regarded old devil.

At this point of thinking, the Great Demon King Yesha didn't dare to drag on, and immediately shouted: "By the order of the King, Mamen's old things are already dying, and it will no longer be possible. Everyone will attack the Demon Temple with the King!" Team, reward millions of magic crystals, General Feng! "

"Oh!"

With the sound of the night evil demon king rumbling across the city, the army of night demons all over the gods, all excitedly screamed, and the subsequent offensive became more rapid.

Just kidding, as long as the whole team of the city is broken, there are millions of magic crystals, and the title of general is no longer rare.

What's more, didn't the leader of the night demon clan Yesha Big Devil say it? Mamen, the old demon god, has fallen into the west, and it will not work anymore.

Suddenly, mass killings began to be staged everywhere in Shendu. Wherever the Night Demon rebels passed, whether it was a fleeing guard or local women, children and children, they were executed on the spot.

At this moment, the dark * capital that was once prosperous, turned into a cruel sea of blood in the wild!

...

After half a month.

right now.

In the center of the inner city of Shendu, the dark temple towers into the clouds, and the temple complex composed of towers seems to be connected to the dangerous peaks and majestic mountains.

It's just that this magnificent and symbolic temple complex in the past is like a lonely reef trapped in a sea of storms in the night sky full of smoke. Under the smoke, it seemed both vicissitudes and sorrows.

"Stop, can't keep ..."

"Those * traitors!"

"Brothers, defend His Majesty Mamen, fight with them!"

“Yes! Fight with them! Coexist with the temple!”

Below the dark temple, there is a thick guard wall. Strong battlements and majestic gates all show their powerful defensive abilities outwards.

Only the fierce fighting at the moment makes the wall mottled and broken, and there are potholes everywhere.

Above the city walls, a large amount of originally fortified city defense armaments were also destroyed one by one under the powerful offensive of the night demons.

At this time around the temple, a team of night scorpion lion, scorpion and knights were circling in the sky. A set of siege equipment has been drawn under the shrine city. The dark night demon rebels, but the water surrounded by the whole temple is impenetrable.

The brutal rebels, chased to the city defense where there is nowhere to escape, are gathering under the city gates and above the remaining city walls.

They are also regarded as iron-blooded soldiers, even in this desperate situation, they are still trying to build a defense line, trying to make a final stubborn resistance.

It's just that the defenders of these cities are very miserable. Most of them have bloodstained and wounded, but in their eyes, after the panic, they have gradually shown their strong anger.

Just before the magic month, they saw the night demon clan companions who had been with each other all of a sudden, and they suddenly waved a butcher knife to themselves. A large number of relatives and friends fell in front of their eyes, and the dark gods they were born and grew up in are now caught in fire ...

All of this made the remaining temple guards feel a sense of outrage.

But the number of them is too small, too few. The defenders in the whole city have no more than ten, and they can reach the defenders under the temple alive, but there are only three or four thousand people.

However, the number of night demon rebels is more than ten times that of them, and in the army that followed the night evil demon kings together, there are more than ten demi-level devil kings sitting in the town, and the legendary level has more than 3,000 people. This powerful combat capability is not the remaining remaining defenders at all, which can be resisted.

“Slap, pop!”

Under the temple city, the ground was covered with thick plasma, which was being cracked by a team of high-spirited night demon generals.

At this time, a team of senior generals of the night demons, all the way through the rebels, walked to the front surrounded by the night demons before stopping.

In this team of night demon clan, headed by a pair of night demon clan father and son, this pair of father and son magic angle is magnificent, the armor is bright, the natural king of the whole body is straightforward.

The two are the leader of the Night Demon Clan, the Night Devil King, and his son Prince Night Blade.

At this time, Yesha Big Devil, looking at the guard of the shattered temple, couldn't help but surging inside.

“It's finally this day! I'm Ye Sha, and finally waiting for this day!”

A pair of prestigious Yesha Demon Kings are full of irresistible greed, “Hehe, Mamen old thief, I will serve you for hundreds of years without pain, and now your Godhead, everything you have, will belong to me Yesha Demon King! “

At this time, the guards of the temple were on the verge of collapse, and the morale of his army was flourishing. The next step is the last one. As long as you break through the gate of the temple and lead out the real body of the dark demon * Mamen, then the terrible * of the demon * Swallowing the Apostle Ackerman will take action in person to solve this biggest trouble.

Once at that time, he will use the method of extraterrestrial demon to teach, absorb all the magic power of the demon * Mamen, and finally inherit the deity of Mamen, and become a brand-new * in the dark demon domain!

That is a * with unparalleled strength, even the same life in heaven and earth!

At that time, once he becomes a new deity, and then cooperate with the extraterrestrial demon, the entire * world will be swept by them all the way.

Eventually when they sweep the world of hell, as long as the extraterrestrial demon walks away, he will be the nightlord, no, nightshade demon, will be the only master of the world of hell!

In the * world of Nuo Da, he can do as he pleases, do whatever he wants, and the entire night demon clan will become the only superior race in * world!

Such a bright future, just thinking about it can make him excited and impatient.

But there is still a small resistance left in front of him, and he needs to completely disintegrate this last diehard.

...

...

“Stupid resistance, your stubborn resistance will not change any enchantment. Mamen will die today, and my night evil demon will dominate the world!”

The night evil demon king was powerful, and a pair of pretentious eyes swept coldly, and all the temple guards who swear to death in front of them.

“All the wise men put down their weapons and bowed to the king for mercy. The king might be able to spare you a dog’s life, otherwise ...”

The last sentence of Yesha Demon King did not say it, but the horrific killing intention revealed by him seemed to be extremely cold and frosting, which was horrifying.

Under the sky of smoke, all the remaining guards were afraid, and some guards could not even control the trembling.

But from beginning to end, none of them spoke, nor did they surrender on their knees.

So far the answer is very clear.

These guarded remnants, mainly composed of demon clan and shadow demon clan, have determined to be loyal and swear to guard the dark temple, and will not compromise with the night evil demon king.

“A group of ignorant things!”

The night evil demon king was repeatedly annoyed by these stubborn resistance. At the moment, his eyes were ruthless, and he spit out a few words coldly, “break through the temple and execute all!”

When the servant of me was really prosperous, and the one who was against me died, the night evil demon king did not hesitate at all and immediately issued an execution order.

Suddenly, shouting and screaming, it became a piece in front of the temple, the lion, scorpion and knight on the top launched the dive, the siege machinery on the bottom began to start, and the imposing night demons reloaded the infantry, and they all launched charge.

The night demon rebels are fierce and fierce. Under the wall of the temple, there is only a little remaining garrison, as if the other party only needs one charge to destroy them.

However, just as the remnants of the temple clenched their weapons and shields, preparing to coexist and die with the temple.

With a violent anger, suddenly came from behind the city gate.

“presumptuous!”

The sound of anger was like thunder, full of panic.

In a short span of time, fear was forced into everyone’s heart.

The next moment, I heard a popping sound of “Bang”.

In front of the temple, the scarred city gate was suddenly forcibly slammed from the inside by a great force.

A thick dark mist of dark energy, instantly screaming with the rolling sound waves, turned into an unstoppable violent shock wave, rushing towards the door, just like an invisible big hand, in the city Swept in front of the door

In just a moment, the Daredevil rebels who attacked at the foot of the city gate were expelled.

“Wow!”

Thousands of night demon rebels rushing down the city, Qi Qi was rushed backwards by this angry and mighty force.

The scene of the original chaos, just because of this bold and powerful anger, suddenly became silent.

Those Daredevil rebels who had not been overwhelmed were all nervous, and none of them dared to step forward.

Even if there was a reward previously promised by the Night Lord Shasha, none of them dared to approach the gates of the misty city.

And those desperate guarding the remnant army, now all rekindled hope, and gathered toward the edge of the city gate.

Because they knew that what the enemy feared, the supreme * they dreamed of was finally here!

A whirl of extremely dark dark energy magic began to pour like mercury, flowing out from the quiet and deep city gate.

That vast and domineering atmosphere of terror seems to have passed through the end of time, coming from the oldest flood era. At the moment, just a little bit of breath is enough to make everyone on the scene scared and heartbroken.

“Old guy, finally let go.”

Ye Sha’s gaze tightened, and for the first time a serious look appeared on his face.

Not only him, but all the rebels around him, all looking dignified and extremely nervous.

It is nothing more than such a powerful army, they will feel so nervous. Because everyone now knows that the real master of this dark demon domain, the dark demon Mamen known as the Scorpion Emperor, is finally coming out!

Unlike the large number of rebels led by Yesha Demon King, all the remaining temple guards on the scene were all pious and awesome, even if they were injured, they also knelt down to the city gate and the atmosphere instantly became solemn .

“Your Majesty welcomes you, and His Majesty will always cover the earth!”

The reverent worship of the remnants of the defending army looked sullen in front of the smoke-filled Jingmu Temple.

At this moment, under the public attention, a burly figure with white hair and a crown in his head finally walked out of the city gate slowly.

The real body, the dark demon Mamen that appeared this time, is undoubtedly his real body!

Over the years, the dark demon Mamen has revealed his real body for the first time. This unprecedented shocking spirit made everyone on the scene, whether rebels or defenders, dumbfounded and shocked on the spot.

There is no other reason. The real body of His Majesty is really majestic and shocking!

He is like a giant Titan, full of oppressive oppression.

Even the 100-meter-high gate of the shrine looked narrow and rigid in front of him. Ordinary humans are like a tiny bug in front of him, so tiny and insignificant.

At this time the dark demon Mamen walked out slowly, standing proudly and majestically under the gate. The momentum of the world was immediately spread across the earth in a sweeping Liuhe.

In front of the people, he was wearing dark gold armor and a noble robe like a body in the night. His eyes showed the majestic glory of the world.

He is like a majestic old king, although his hair is white and old, but the share of the king's spirit, and the vast divinity, seem to be endless, making every creature on the scene feel awe from the heart. And looking up.

The feeling is like floating, looking up at the giant tree, you can't get a glimpse of it. In the same way, under the proud and calm appearance of the demon * Mamen, it seems to contain undetectable power, as if the universe stars are vast and endless.

Even if the demon * Mamen is just standing under the city and looking down pretentiously, the sense of overwhelming pressure is enough to make everyone below be frightened, and the atmosphere does not dare to breathe.

“Well, Your Majesty is so powerful, your servant is really scared, good ...”

Seeing the Dark Demon Mamen Megatron in the audience, Yesha Demon King was about to come forward to revive the power, but when his eyes swept behind the Dark Demon Mamen, the whole person was stunned.

Four people followed the demon * Mamen and walked out of the city gate together.

The two people walking on the outermost sides of the two sides are the old and the young, and the two Shadow Devil.

The shadow demon on the left, like a black mist body, only half of the old face, exposed in the mist. He has a pair of short horns on his forehead, his eyes flashing two groups of inspiring golden awns, and his body is full of a hidden sense of oppression, so that no one at the scene dares to take a slight look.

This old man of the Shadow Demon Race, everyone at the scene knows, is next to the dark demon * Mamen, the famous personal servant, the old * servant Water.

He is the current leader of the Shadow Demon Clan, and also one of the best demigod peak demon kings in the dark demon realm. Its influence in the dark demon realm is probably second only to the night demon big devil.

Opposite to the old * servant Walt, on the other side is a young man of the shadow demon clan wearing tight armor.

This shadow demon youth is also half in the fog and half is exposed, but his eyes are exposed outside the black fog, showing the martial arts and perseverance, like a sword that has just been sheathed, maybe just finished. , Still very new and very young, but the sharpness is beyond doubt.

In the same way, this young Shadow Demon family is very familiar to everyone on the scene.

He is the son of the old * servant Walt, the future successor of the Shadow Demon Clan, Darren Walker, the young master of the Shadow Demon.

Darren Walker reached the demigod realm at a young age, and the single-round talent even surpassed the night blade prince. Especially in the * conference, the blockbuster was impressive, impressive and very amazing.

Behind the shadow demon father and son, there are two others.

One of them is a beautiful woman with a dignified manner and a graceful posture.

The stunning beauty wore soft, close-fitting leather armor, black veil, and a pair of soft and watery eyes, revealing the innate nobleness and coldness.

In addition, there was actually an arthropod tail thorn like a scorpion behind her.

This tail thorn is her strongest move and the best proof of her pedigree.

There is no doubt that this beauty of scorpion tail, which combines tenderness and coldness, is the daughter of the dark demon Mamen, the Princess of the Dark Song Uya Ange.

The old * servant Walter and his sons, together with the three people of Uya Ange, walked out with the dark demon * Mamen, without any surprise.

But what if Wuya Ange, the daughter of the demon god, followed by a pure blood purgatory demon?

In this case, it is far beyond people's expectations.

That's right, this pure blood and magnificent purgatory demon clan is Wang Yan, who is the incarnation of the demon * demon flame.

His thick horns on his forehead, exaggerated magic wings, and majestic body, as well as crimson red skin, had long been popular at the Hell Conference.

As soon as Wang Yan appeared, everyone at the scene, whether it was the Night Demon rebels or the only guards of the temple, were all shocked on the spot.

How could the son of Satan, the purgatory demon, appear in the dark temple? And still standing next to Princess Margaret's daughter Dark Song?

Seeing how intimate they are ... Is the rumor true?

“Fuck, * ... shit!”

At this moment, when I saw Wuya Ange and Wang Yan, the prince of Night Blade who was originally silent and cold, his face suddenly showed a distorted color of pain.

His eyes were fierce, his body was trembling, and the resentment that had been filled in his heart reached the extreme almost instantaneously. As if he was a little careless, he would rush out and fight with Wang Yan to live and die.

You know, long before the * meeting, he tried hard to make this dark princess smile, but the other party was only just perfunctory, and now he is dealing with that devil, flames, eye contact, secret appointments!

Even the two met in private, and actually went to the dark temple. The demon * Mamen’s eyelids were low, which made him unbearable and almost spitting blood!

Nightblade, which point is not as good as that magic flame? Why can Mo Yan get the favor of Princess Darksong and Demon God Mamen without much effort, but he did everything he could to make no progress?

Especially when Yeblad thought that it was because of this Princess Darksong and her maid flame that he would become the laughing stock of the entire world of hell, making it impossible for him to raise his head in his life.

This shame, this hatred, like the * fire burning in my heart, tortures him at all times, so that he will never forget it forever!

“How could the magic flame thief be here? Damn things, these dog men and women ...”

The night evil demon king saw Wang Yan next to Wuya Ange, his eyes narrowed now, his heart was filled with resentment, and the curse of this little * was really deceiving.

If it weren’t for this little bastard, he was a baby son, would his state of mind be destroyed like this? How can he lose such a big face at the * meeting when he and his father are at night?

At this time, he saw his son Ye Jian, after witnessing both the dark song and the magic flame, you were directly angry with his face white and trembling, and he couldn’t help but resentful this magic flame. Minute.

“Yue Renwu, don’t worry, wait for your father to clean up the old Mamen thief. The dogs and men must be handed over to you!”

With the demon * Mamen in front, the night evil demon king dared not act rashly, so he quickly transmitted a voice to his baby son, Night Blade. I am afraid that my son, because of excessive emotions, act rashly, otherwise I will suffer a big loss in front of the devil.

“Father! The child can’t wait anymore, this hatred is not reported, the child vows not to be human!”

The eyes of Prince Night Blade became bloodied with repressed resentment in his heart.

He stared at Wang Yan, if it wasn’t for the demon * was still present at the scene, I’m afraid he had already rushed up to fight with Wang Yan.

Yesha Demon sighed deeply, and hated this demon flame for ruining people, but now he has the advantage, and later he will see the dark demon Mamen, the mamen's daughter Dark Song princess, and the magic demon little jerk. Can't run away!

"Humph! Ye Sha! You are so brave! Do you want the entire Night Demon Clan to follow you in smoke?"

At this time, waiting for the night evil demon king to take action, the dark demon Mamen took the lead and swallowed with awe, a pair of cold prestige, swept the audience.

Suddenly, an awe-inspiring divine power came to everyone in the scene.

The scene became silent for a moment, and every night demon rebel face was dignified and frightened.

They may have fallen into a state of excitement and fearlessness just because of the killing, but the moment when the dark demon Mamen really appeared, the unparalleled majestic power was like a pot of ice water, which poured into their hearts.

Fear of fear dragged their emotions to the bottom of the valley, making them tremble with irritability.

You must know that the Dark Demon Mamen, known as the Devil Scorpion Emperor, is the first-hand creator of the Dark Demon Realm of Hell World.

As the supreme ruler, the supreme demon * Mamen, he has ruled this demon domain for thousands of years. Every demon soldier and demon present on the scene has been under the shroud of Mamen divine power. Health.

Even the Night Devil is no exception.

Among the bones of all demon soldiers and demon masters, the immortal immortal imprint of the devil * is already branded.

Although they were under the brainwash of the night evil demon king, they were determined to overthrow Mamen's rule and make them the only supreme race.

But at this moment, when truly facing a demon god, the fear that was buried deep in the bones immediately emerged from the bottom of my heart, making them all demon soldiers and demons will be all soft and even have a kind of want to bow down The urge to cry and cry for mercy.

At this time, even the Night Devil King himself, in front of the demon * like Tianwei, was trembling, and his heart was filled with the feeling of suffering.

However, he has the guts and cards of the night evil demon king, otherwise he will not start the rebellion today after painstakingly waiting for hundreds of years.

...

...

“Your Majesty made such a difference. Since Majesty created the Dark Demon Realm, I have been loyal to His Majesty for generations. In order to open up the territory to His Majesty, I do n’t know how many ancestors paid the price of life, and there is no complaint. No regrets. It ’s just that His Majesty is now in high age, and the burden of operating the Demon Realm is too heavy. It is time to abdicate and let the virtuous. “

Ye Sha thought of the man standing behind him, and he regained his enthusiasm, his waist was straight, and his voice was agitated: “But, when His Majesty was selecting an heir, he chose a dark song princess with half human descent. Dare to ask His Majesty. , Where did you put our Daredevil tribes? Should n’t the rivers and mountains laid down by our Daredevil tribes be ruled by half-humans? “

As soon as the words came out, the night demons’ rebellious forces languished, and they immediately boiled, and anger and blood were brewing in their bodies.

Yeah, the mountains of the Dark Demon Realm, but countless night demon clan desperately beat them down. Why should His Majesty the Demon God easily hand over to a half-blood Princess Dark Song?

Where does this practice place the entire night demons?

The emotions were so intense that the night demon clan people once again ignited a fierce atmosphere, and the fear of the demon * Mamen was also diluted.

“Shut up, Ye Sha turns against the thief.”

The old * servant Water exploded with anger. “Neither our Shadow Demon Clan nor the Night Devil Clan are living under the protection of His Majesty’s wings, and they have reproduced to this day. If there is no protection from your Majesty, it is up to you Clan can also develop to today? “

“Water!” Yesha Big Devil sneered and glanced at Water, then glanced at Uya Ange and Wang Yan, and said with a sneer, “Dark Song Master mainly inherited the throne, and I have no big opinion on Yesha. But now princess It was actually hooked up with Satan ’s son Mo Yan. Could it be that we wanted to use our entire dark demon domain as a dowry to contribute to the Purgatory Demon Race? “

As soon as this remark came out, the people of the Night Demon clan were even more angry, and the eyes looking at Wuya Ange and Wang Yan were full of anger. Especially for Wang Yan, the “inferno demon”, he gritted his teeth with hatred, as if he would be swallowed alive.

Even those temple guards who were standing next to the demon * Mamen had some fluctuations in their emotions. It seemed that they had been moved by Yesha Demon King’s remarks. They already had some care for Wang Yan, an outsider.

Wang Yan’s eyes narrowed, and the old thing of dark night shame really splashed dirty water, and his brainwashing skills were set one after another.

And this girl wants to treason, it seems that planning is not a day or two? At that time, Wang Yan and Sister An Ge were still on earth.

Directly below the shrine, the two sides confronted each other with a good atmosphere.

Demon God Mamen didn't answer immediately, but there was a little dignity in his eyes.

He understands his current debilitating condition and the current rebellion. The scale is really too large. If he can't make a big effort to turn the tide, he may have immeasurable consequences.

Wu Ya'an also has a little more worry in her eyes. She has lived with her father Mamen so far. Although it has only been less than three years, she has deeply understood that her father's pains and difficulties.

This also made her determined to share her worries with her father and guard this magic field.

But one side is her biological father and one side is her lover Wang Yan. Both are very important people in her life. If she is allowed to make a choice, she really doesn't know what to do.

From the night provocation of the night evil demon king, to just a moment in the past, the atmosphere of the scene has changed instantly.

Wang Yan looked at all the people in the scene, and then the demon wing jumped into the air.

"You guys, please listen to me."

The magic wings behind Wang Yan spread powerfully, standing empty in the air, attracting everyone's attention at once.

However, Wang Yan ignored the anger and almost torn his eyes and admitted frankly, "I am Mo Yan, son of Satan, the future heir to Purgatory and Demon Realm."

"Magic Flame Little Thief, how dare you!"

Wang Yan just stood up, the night evil demon king sneered, "You dare to enter our dark demon realm alone, is it true that our dark demon powerhouses are all muddy, are they all decorated? Ha ha, since you came today Do n't think about going back again! "

"Magic Flame!" Prince Night Blade stared at Wang Yan fiercely, and his eyes were full of gloom and anger. "You and my new hatred and old hate, I will definitely calculate the ledger with you today!"

"Bah! How defeated the men are, how far away they are, not to mention that I am the son of the devil, who is the son of a devil in your area, what is the right to talk to me?"

Wang Yan turned and took a sip, contemptuously, and completely put on the appearance of a super second ancestor, with a disdainful face, "Your entire night demon clan, that is, your father is qualified to talk to the son of the god."

"You, you ..." Prince Night Blade was sulking with anger.

This magic flame is really deceiving!

“Today the Divine Son did not come in plain.” Wang Yan was naturally too lazy to take care of that night blade, a pair of mighty demon eyes, sweeping the audience, “Since the Dark Demon Heroes are all here, then my demon flame as the son of the Devil God Satan, Announce to the whole world. If Princess Darksong is willing to marry me, she will be the permanent Dark Devil Empress. My Purgatory Demon Clan will not only not commit the Dark Demon Fall in the future, but will also cede the seven big cities as a gift and permanently merge into the darkness. Demon Realm! “

what?

The whole scene was suddenly in an uproar!

Whether it was Night Demon or Shadow Demon, the scene was dumbfounded and shocked at this moment.

That 's seven big cities. Is n't His Royal Highness too decent? You know, there are only twenty-nine large cities in the Dark Demon Realm, which are the subjects of the Dark Demon Realm from generation to generation, made of blood and life.

Moreover, the magic flame * son's intention is that the honorable * son looks like a dark song princess and is willing to enter the dark demon domain. Not only that, their most powerful purgatory demon, not only will not annex the dark demon domain, but also respect the dark Princess Song is the empress!

Where can I find such good things?

In an instant, the temple guards who were loyal to the dark demon Mamen, the morale immediately rose, and looked at Wang Yan's eyes as if they were looking at the son-in-law of the dark demon domain.

Even many elite tribes can't help but feel alive, if this is the end, it is acceptable.

“Fuck boy, you, no, your father Satan, really willing to spend such a heavy gift, and let you into the dark magic domain of the old man?”

Dark Demon Mamen gave Wang Yan a strange look, and whispered quietly.

Let 's not spend such a heavy salute. If even everyone came, it would be to give the heir of the Purgatory Demon Domain to the Dark Demon Domain in vain. Such a thing he did n't believe in the cunning demon * Satan, would be willing to let his own Baby son, fall into their dark demon domain as son-in-law.

“My father-in-law!” Wang Yan pushed the boat down the river and immediately changed his voice.

This father-in-law stunned the head of the demon Mamen. Can't help but curse in the heart, this kid is really thick-skinned, give a good face and kick his nose to face. But Wang Yan's follow-up guarantee made him feel more comfortable.

“I and your daughter have a close relationship, and the promises you just made will naturally go without saying anything.”

Wang Yan turned around to give Demon God Mamen a positive look, and solemnly said, "Don't say this little thing, for your daughter, even if you give up the identity of Demon God's Son, I will not hesitate!"

Wu Ya An Ge is already an indispensable person in his life for him, and he will not give up Wu Ya An Ge anyway.

Besides, he is a native of the earth. The identity of the devil's son is fake, he doesn't care at all. And he knows Satan the Devil very well. He has a hundred ways to allow Satan the Satan to agree to this marriage and offer.

"Good boy, this is what you said."

The demon Mamenwei squinted and hummed, "For your true heart to my daughter, the * can promise you that after you have cleaned up the gang of traitors, reconsider your and my daughter's Marriage. But before that, you can tell me to be honest. "

The dark demon * Mamen now, the more he looks at this demon flame, the more pleasing to the eye.

Regardless of ethnic origin, this demon flame is young and unparalleled in potential. He is also agile and flexible, and he is not afraid of imminent danger. He really does n't know how many times he is better than that of Ye Ye.

Before the switch, he had a good impression of the Night Demon Prince Night Blade, at least young and promising, with a promising future. As a result, before Ye blade enthusiastically pursued his daughter Ange, he also closed his eyes.

But when compared with Mo Yan at the Purgatory Conference, a huge gap immediately appeared, and the more he looked at Night Blade, the more uncomfortable he became. How can such a typical golden jade lose its merits, and its bad character is worthy of his daughter?

Although he was reluctant to admit it in his heart, looking at the whole hell, that is, the kid of Mo Yan, could really get into his eyes.

"That son-in-law thanked Master-in-law first!"

After hearing this, Wang Yan was very happy, and quickly heard flattery, "This gang of anti-thieves is so ambitious that the father-in-law must have a good lesson. If there is any assignment in the future, please ask the father-in-law to give him orders."

The demon * Mamen glanced at Wang Yan rather dumbly. He secretly confessed that this boy was really thick-skinned. He hadn't admitted this marriage. This boy regarded himself as his son-in-law?

Besides, he is a dark demon god, but he can only deal with the housework at present, and deal with several night devil clan who do not know the life and death, but also need your junior help?

Forget it, for the sake of the boy's sincere attitude, he got the idea.

In short, in just one or two breaths, the old man and the young man interacted with each other, and the two were obviously more close.

This point naturally fell into the eyes of everyone on the scene. Needless to say? Obviously, Demon God Mamen has regarded Demon Flame Son as his own!

The morale of the guards of the shrine immediately increased, and the night demon rebels looked down again.

Yesha Big Devil had just planned to provoke alienation, but the negative effects not only did not spread out, all the previous efforts, in this short breath, instead became an assist to Wang Yan, which in turn turned his own headquarters rebels. Floating.

Even his prodigal son, Ye Jian, turned angry at this moment, and his teeth were crumbling. He was even depressed and hesitated to vomit blood.

However, he was also a wise man, and if he didn't do anything, he immediately changed his mind.

"Huh, Demon Flames, you really have the ability to talk about white wolves. You haven't inherited the position of Demon God. What are the qualifications to promise the salute of the seven big cities?" Ye Sha Demon's face sank, his face sneered. .

"Yesha." Wang Yan looked down from the air, smirked, and sneered. "How precious is the identity of the Son of God? Will he open his mouth? If His Majesty Mamen agrees, the Son of God can immediately contact the Father and invite him to come down and come down in person. This gift. The * child dare to guarantee that the seven big cities just promised are only part of the gift! "

Suddenly, there was a sense of shock at the scene. The rebels under the night demon king, the people's hearts became more and more floating.

"Trick, this is the trick of your Purgatory Demon Clan! Sooner or later, your Purgatory Demon Clan will let us all spit it out." Ye Sha Big Devil screamed on the spot.

He was calm on the surface, but in fact his inner secret was not good. He said that he would give it to this kid. I am afraid that half of the night demon tribes would not want to fight. At the moment, his eyes turned and bewitched, "Your Majesty, as long as you are willing to marry Princess Darksong to Yeblade, the night demon tribe will respect her from generation to generation as the empress."

"Go!" Mamen, the dark demon, had a cold look, and immediately shouted, "Yesha thief, at this time, do you think the * will marry her daughter to your waste son? Huh! This time, you and your rebel, dare Instigating rebellion, you all will be subjected to capital punishment! "

"And you stupid night demon tribes, the original * wants you to be blinded by the night shame, you can not blame in the past, if you continue to be obsessed, the original * will set you down!"

The dark demon Mamen sipped this time, divine and mighty, the night demon rebel sergeant was agitated, and the people were panicked.

Ye Sha Big Demon King saw this, his eyes were murderous, and he sneered extremely: "Well, since His Majesty Mamen insists on selling the Dark Demon Domain to the Purgatory Demon Clan, I Ye Sha represents the Night Demon Clan, the first one does not agree ! "

He understands that he can no longer pretend to act, otherwise this battle will not be fought, and when one arm is held high, the war will be ordered.

At this moment, a series of sweet laughter sounded among the rebels behind the night evil demon king.

“Giggle ... Yesha, you look really embarrassed now. These are people who are going to die. What are you talking about with them? Just do it directly.”

As the sweet laughter wafted, the night demon rebels immediately shivered, and the crowd immediately separated. I saw a delicate and charming interracial woman, walking at a graceful pace, the models came out.

The woman who has just spoken is precisely this alien demon from outside the realm, Bliss Devil Ji Cui Lisi!

She walked to the side of Yesha Demon King, her eyes smiled, and she looked at the audience with contempt.

The kind of gaze that looks at the world is extremely cold, without a little emotion, as if everyone is in her eyes, but they are all small ants that are not worth mentioning.

Seeing the Bliss Maggie walk out of the crowd, the dark demon Mamen suddenly narrowed his eyes as a supreme demon, and for the first time he showed a dignified look.

...

It seems that this extraterrestrial demon alone makes him more scrupulous than the mighty army led by the night evil demon king.

Wang Yan also felt that this extraterrestrial demon came badly, and he wrinkled slightly to look at Bliss Mo Ji.

It was found that this interracial woman had very beautiful lilac skin, a figure similar to that of the earth, but she had a pair of small horns on her forehead. She was wearing attractive soft armor, which looked like leather and glue. Wang Yan could not see the material at all, and It is very different from the known civilization styles such as earth and hell, but it looks so beautiful and decent.

Obviously, this interracial woman comes from a very advanced civilization.

In addition, from the appearance alone, this interracial woman is indeed very beautiful, charming, mysterious and strange. But in this beauty, there are endless dangers, which even Wang Yan himself dared not ignore.

“Master Father-in-law.”

Wang Yan secretly looked at the demon Mamen, and could not help whispering, “Look at your solemn eyes. Is this strange female giant demon king, what is the origin of this amazing?”

father in law?

The dark demon Mamen glanced at him coldly, and said that this kid would rather be a snake and stick on the stick. The sound of the father-in-law gave him an addiction.

It was just that there was no mood to worry about him at this time, and the voice was slightly worried, saying: "Boy, her origins can be bigger."

...

...

"Master Father-in-law, how deep is the origin of this alien girl? Why do you even care about it?"

Wang Yan whispered a voice to the demon Mamen, and he was suspicious in his heart for a moment.

He is now far more powerful than before. Since he even feels that the mysterious interracial woman is unfathomable, the strength of this interracial woman is definitely not simple.

The most important thing is that as strong as the demon  Mamen sees her at the moment, his face changes suddenly, which is not great.

The dark demon Mamen, known as the Devil Scorpion Emperor, how great is the devil in this galaxy?

What kind of people, or what kind of race, would make such a supreme demon  so scrupulous?

This was the most unexpected thing he could not believe.

"Huh, boy, there are thousands of intelligent races in the universe. Although you are young, your experience is still too shallow." Dark Demon Mamen snorted coldly and answered with a voice.

He was able to find an opportunity in front of Wang Yan and claimed his seniority. Wang Yan was very humble in front of Mamen, and repeatedly said yes.

Perhaps he did experience a lot compared to other people on earth, but in front of the dark demon Mamen, his experience was indeed not even the tip of the iceberg.

This modesty has gained a lot of favors from the dark Demon Mamen, but the Demon God Mamen still sighed a little, and the voice answered: "Ah, boy, I do n't know if you have heard of the extraterritorial natural disasters in ancient times! The Milky Way star cluster, countless souls and gods, are all involved in this unprecedented battle of world destruction. "

Wang Yan shook his head, beckoning that he was not clear about the World War One. The demon Mamen glanced at him, so he continued to explain.

"It doesn't matter if you don't know, as long as you understand that the culprit responsible for this world-famous natural disaster is the mysterious alien."

"In the ancient times, they had a name that dreaded the gods ... the demon outside the realm!"

“Alien Devil?” Wang Yan was wary in his eyes, but more was puzzled and puzzled.

However, listening to the dark demon * Mamen’s tone, this natural disaster outside the territory seems to be related to the fall of his inheritance deity, Vulcan Zhurong.

“Boy, you do n’t know it is normal, after all, it ’s been too many years. Now it ’s not time to talk, I can only tell you that this is a terrible innate race from outside the region.”

The dark demon Mamenwei narrowed his eyes. He used a sound transmission method to briefly outline the origin of the extraterrestrial demon.

It turns out that the extraterrestrial demon is a galaxy beast that is more ancient than the dark demon Mamen, which travels through the universe.

At the beginning of the universe, countless creatures came into being, but they are unique among the hundreds of millions of spirits. Born from heaven and earth, it belongs to the real darling of heaven and earth, the son of the universe!

According to the specter of the dark demon Mamen, they are probably the first race in the world to touch the laws of heaven and the heavens and grasp the origin of the world, the power of chaos.

As a result, the extraterrestrial demon also called itself innate true demon, which is the real demon in the world.

This race is so powerful that it completely overrides all living beings, so that in the long years, their ambitions have begun to expand extremely, and they increasingly do not take other living creatures into their eyes.

In their view, they are the only higher life in the world, and the other lower lives are nothing but ants, beasts and domestic animals!

Because of this, the more powerful the extraterrestrial demon is, the more it desires for stronger power. Under the leadership of the devil, they tried to control everything in this world, truly transcend the heavenly path, master this cycle, and become the only master in this universe!

So the war of aggression across the plane opened the curtain.

One plane after another, they are all occupied and colonized by them. In the end, after absorbing the power of life, it was completely destroyed.

Until the ancient times, the extraterrestrial demon came to the cosmic plane of the Milky Way, but encountered the resistance alliance led by Vulcan Zhu Rong.

Countless galaxy creatures and spirits participated in this worldly war.

Finally, the leader of the resistance alliance, Vulcan, Zhurong, with the self-sacrifice of courage, let the extraterrestrial demon defeat and return. However, the Milky Way galaxy was also hit hard, and many civilized races were extinct, including Vulcan Zhurong, and most of the gods also fell.

Hearing the story here, Wang Yan couldn’t help but took a breath of breath: “It turns out there is such a terrible race in this world ...”

It seems that Vulcan Zhurong was sacrificed in that battle. At that time, the dark demon Mamen was a god-level galaxy beast persecuted by the extraterrestrial demon. In order to fight against the extraterrestrial demon, he joined the fire * Zhurong's camp and jointly resisted the extraterrestrial demon.

Knowing this past event, Wang Yan couldn't help but look a bit higher at the dark demon Mamen.

As the saying goes on earth, your uncle is always your uncle. No wonder the dark demon * Mamen, in the face of the thousands of horses and horses led by the night evil demon king, does not blink at the eyelid, and it is only the opponents such as the extraterrestrial demon that can make him a little moved.

“Innate races, born of nature, are truly unparalleled, but only true pure-blooded demon can truly be called an extraterrestrial demon.”

“True pure-blood heavenly devil, every adult is a legendary strongman, and with a slightly better qualification, he can become a demigod demon king. The only thing that is gratifying is that the pure-blooded devil has very low fertility, and the clan is very rare. . “

Dark Demon Mamen 's voice is heavy, but he still encourages Wang Yan to say, “Although the race outside the territory is powerful, it is not invincible. In the eyes of the old man, innate advantages are only innate advantages, acquired efforts and opportunities, It may not be possible to surpass them! “

This sentence has strengthened Wang Yan's confidence a lot. The innate advantage can really make them gain strength and enhance their strength more quickly and conveniently, but ordinary races may not be able to catch up with them through the acquired efforts and opportunities.

However, the strength of the extraterrestrial demon is too powerful.

Prior to this, Wang Yan had also seen many top races, such as Purgatory Demon Race, Abyss Demon Race, Night Demon Race, Shadow Demon Race, or Angel Race, Superman Race and so on.

These races are very high in the evolution of the bloodline genes, and can easily reach the A level, but compared with the extraterrestrial demon who can naturally touch the laws of heaven and nature and can be promoted to the S-level legendary level in adulthood, that is worse. More than one star and a half.

And looking at the posture, the extraterrestrial demon that can confront the entire galaxy and all the gods, among them, the god-level strongmen, there can never be only one or two.

When he thought of this, Rao was as strong as Wang Yan, and felt pressured.

“Hahaha, Mamen old thief, it seems that you are not confused, and you know this is Lord Tianmo!”

After the face of the night evil devil was overcast, he seemed to have made up his mind and sneered. “Mamen old thief, since you are stubborn and take your own way, don't blame me for being rude! Ha ha, Just last night, Master Ackerman specially asked the contempt to say hello to you! “

“what?”

The face of the dark demon Mamen suddenly changed, “Ackerman ?!”

“He wasn’t the old man’s venom-killing venom ... how could he not die?”

The dark demon Mamen was tense and his face changed dark and sunny, and then he took a deep breath and yelled again and again, “Yesha! Are you crazy? You are colluding with the extraterrestrial demon, and the collusion is still the swallowing apostle Akman , Do you want to push the Night Demon Clan, along with the entire world of hell, into a land of nowhere? “

The Night Demon Race is a race supported by Mamen with one hand. On them, Mamen actually spent countless efforts. How can it be without emotion?

What’s more, he has already settled in the world of hell, this is his homeland, how can he tolerate foreign racial occupation?

“Hahaha!” The Night Devil Lord seemed to put aside everything and laughed coldly, “Mamen, you are really scared! My people are listening, Master Ackerman is the dead enemy of the old Mamen thief. The chased Mamen thief fled the whole universe and had to hide in the world of hell. Moreover, Master Ackerman had promised that after he had won the whole world of hell, he would all put the world of  under the management of the Night Demon Clan. From now on From now on, our night demon tribe is the world of hell, the only higher race !! “

Rule the whole hell? The only higher race?

The people of the Night Demon clan suddenly became hot, and their eyes began to shine. According to the night evil demon king, even the purgatory demon clan must be ruled by the night demon clan!

Wang Yan, Wuya Ange, the old  servant Walter and Son, and everyone beside the dark demon  Mamen, all collapsed at this moment.

What kind of a terrible deity was the dark demon Mamen, the star-swallowing apostle Ackerman who had chased and hunted down?

...

It was at the time when the Yesha Demon led the rebels and confronted the dark demon Mamen and Wang Yan.

The vast expanse of outer space is full of deep darkness.

In the distance, the stars are faint and the light is faint, as if they will be swallowed by the darkness around them at any time, and they will completely merge into a void.

But in this vast and dark universe, a planet with a faint red light is showing her charming glory outwards.

This red planet may not be as beautiful, flawless and crystal clear as the human-known earth, but in this vast universe, she still has her quiet beauty.

She has a vast open red earth, azure blue ocean, and clouds and atmosphere with a faint white light.

Her volume is much larger than the earth. The criss-cross mountains and red land above form a wonderful and complicated pattern, which makes her look mysterious and vicissitudes, and makes her full of intriguing beauty.

This beautiful red planet, although not the earth, is also a cradle of life.

And she has a name very close to the earth, hell.

At this time, just a few hundred thousand kilometers away from the planet of hell, a small black spot is approaching at a rapid speed.

The long expanse of the universe reached the front immediately.

It was like a meteorite flying through space, crashing toward the southwest corner of the world of hell.

Soon, its outline gradually became clear.

It turned out that this is a giant warship of immense magnificence.

It is not so much a battleship as a void fortress that travels through the universe.

Because of its size, it is too big, too big.

This giant warship has a length of more than ten thousand meters, and the widest point is several kilometers. Compared with the majestic temple of Satan, the purgatory devil, it is one third of the size!

If it counts the special space structure inside, it can easily load two or three hundred thousand people, more than enough!

It is like a small city suspended in outer space, full of vigor and magnificence.

In addition, this giant warship is made of a mysterious metal like gold and gold, cold and dark, full of mechanical cold texture, which makes it like a mountain, majestic and heavy.

The hull of the giant ship is also covered with complex lines shining purple light. These lights form a layer of nearly transparent mysterious force field around the hull, which keeps the battleship in an invisible state. Among.

That's right, it's a completely invisible state. Whether it is mental power or physical detection and scanning, it is impossible to observe its existence.

It went straight to the extraterrestrial track of the world of hell. None of the three devil gods of the world of * could find it.

“Change the prism refraction arc, the engine starts, and the whole ship is ready to burst into the atmosphere!”

A voice of indifference and majesty, but with a faint excitement, suddenly came out from the battleship command module.

This ship looks like a gigantic mountain. The metal parts that emit purple light on the ship immediately began to rotate and strengthened the energy output.

Soon, the original almost transparent stealth shield above the battleship gradually became darker, and turned into a layer of high-energy shield with a lilac light that exuded solidity.

“Wow!”

At the same time, a series of sounds of armor moving began to come from the deck of the giant ship.

The metal hull that was originally integrated suddenly showed countless muzzles.

A cannon full of destruction was slowly moving out of the open muzzle, especially at the front of the battleship deck. A huge caliber main gun was slowly extending, as if it was a block in front. As a demon god, it can smash it in one blow!

“Boom! Huh!”

The giant ship also started the engine at this moment and slowly turned the bow to face the red planet below.

Obviously, the destination where it is about to dive down is the Devil Scorpion Temple shrouded by a dark cloud below!

If the dark demon Mamen can see this scene in time, it will be recognized at a glance.

This giant ship is not the product of any civilized world such as hell, abyss, or even the kingdom of light, but comes from this universe, the enemy of all living creatures-the extraterrestrial demon!

In this era of extraterrestrial demon, people are quite strange and almost no one knows. But if it is passed into the ears of ancient species that have experienced old times, the term is as horrible as the end of the world.

Even if it is a supreme demon god, it will shake when it smells.

This race of extraterrestrial demon is the beginning of the universe, the earliest batch of congenital races that came into being. They are the darlings of heaven and earth. Their powerful strength and wisdom are unique and unparalleled.

Right now this giant battleship is nothing but the star-level flagship of the extraterrestrial demon, the Void Mothership!

As far back as the ancient times, that worldly war involving all living beings in the universe almost wiped out the gods of the entire galaxy.

As the extraterrestrial demon of the invaders, their interstellar flagship was at that time a destroyer that was enough to destroy the world!

The single round of destructive power is probably enough to compare to a  demon!

“Your Majesty, the main gun has been fully charged. Will you start attacking now?”

In the command module of the Void Mothership, an authentic extraterrestrial demon commander turned to the master of this warship and reported respectfully.

This extraterrestrial demon herald has strange purple skin and wears a set of gray armor that almost covers his body. He looks extraordinary and heroic.

If you look closely, you can find that this commander has a powerful strength to reach the realm of demigods.

A strong demon god, who is just a herald, is only a herald here, and when facing the object of the report in front of him, his attitude is even more respectful and humble.

Right in front of him, on the majestic tall metal throne, was sitting a majestic middle-aged man of heaven.

This middle-aged heavenly demon, dressed in a set of grey large cloaks engraved with Zhou Tianxing's stars, as his gaze turns, the stars engraved on this large clot will also slowly flow with his ideas, very mysterious.

Under the great cloak, the middle-aged demon's skin was dark purple, the cheekbones were high, his eyes were dark, and his body was full of immortality.

However, under his eyes, the left half of the face was as if sprinkled with concentrated sulfuric acid. The entire half of the face was corroded and rotted, the injury was almost bone, and half of the face could not see a trace of intact flesh.

Although this look is very terrible, but he is the master of this giant mother ship, an ancient * from the extraterrestrial demon.

Swallow the Star Apostle Ackerman!

...

...

Mention the star apostle Ackerman, Wang Yan, An Ge, and a new generation of young people, perhaps no one knows, but if it reaches the world of hell, the earliest of the three oldest demon gods, it is definitely a thunderous existence like thunder !

Even for Vulcan, who has already fallen, Ackerman, who swallowed the star, was also a powerful first-class * in that year.

That's right, it's a god.

And at the beginning, he was also a powerful * who had formed a coalition with Vulcan Zhurong, and had fought fiercely in front!

As an extraterrestrial demon family, one of the thirteen god-level apostles under the demon master, he was the commander of the advance army leading the invasion of hell.

Although he was defeated together with the Demon Lord at that time, he was even hit hard by his opponent, the Dark Demon Mamen. And in the same year, the dark demon Mamen hit the face of Ackerman with the venom of killing the god.

The demon venom possessed by the dark demon Mamen can even be poisoned by the gods, so the wound on Ackerman's face cannot be healed. It is still eroding his face, and the severe pain has caused him torture until today.

But in any case, he has returned!

Once again leading the army, with full of resentment, came back!

The group of night evil clan leaders with ghosts underneath has been conquered by him. And in this outer space, he has been thinking about it for hundreds of years, in order to wipe out the dark demon below at one stroke!

Especially his rival, the dark demon * Mamen, he must break his body!

...

At the same time, under the vast universe.

Directly in front of the Temple of Devil Scorpion, the diffuse mist haunted more and more, the two armies arrayed opposite each other, and the atmosphere was so suffocating.

On the side of the dark demon * Mamen on the high and great shore, Wang Yan's eyes swept across the audience, knowing that the enemy was present, and could not let his morale continue to decline. When he first jumped into the air, he looked at Ye Sha and sneered: "Ye Sha, you Still want to rule the whole hell? Haha, what a big ambition. "

Just listening to the voice of the Great Demon King that night, the Ackerman he turned to should be a * of the extraterrestrial demon.

Moreover, listening to his tone and the reaction of the demon * Mamen, it seems that this star swallowing apostle Ackerman is indeed very powerful. At that time, he was able to escape the demon * Mamen all the way to the world of hell. It is definitely a bit of a skill.

But after seeing it in Wang Yan, now he wants to rule the whole * by a * of the extraterrestrial demon alone? It's really delusional.

Now looking at the entire hell, there are three demon gods. In addition to the Dark Demon Mamen, there is Satan the Purgatory Demon, and Samel the Dark Demon.

Is it true that these three demon gods are decorated?

Although they fought against each other internally, once they encountered foreign enemies, they would inevitably unite and join hands to fight against the aggression.

"I don't know if I'm going to die, hehe, boy, this king wants to see how long you can be arrogant!"

Ye Sha Demon King sneered sneerfully. In his hands behind his back, I don't know when there was an extra shiny metal ball.

Obviously, this flickering metal sphere is just some kind of guidance signal, or some kind of positioning device. And this device has been activated.

Just when everyone was too late to respond, a strong wind pressure suddenly fell from the sky.

The violent wind pressure changed the climate of the entire area around the demon temple. Wang Yan and the demon * Mamen and others looked at the sky and their faces changed rapidly.

I saw that a huge shadow had covered the entire sky.

The huge object that was getting closer and closer, like an asteroid made of steel, was falling fiercely towards the ground with the power of destruction.

...

Far above the atmosphere of the * world, in the extraterrestrial Demon's Void Mothership, the starry swallowing apostle Ackerman sat in the main control room with dignity and majesty.

The half of his face corroded by the killing venom was sparse. The wound that rotted into the bone was twisted and ugly, and it smelled bad.

In this way, there are still pink granulation on the edge of the wound, which is regenerated by his divine power, but soon, the new granulation will be eroded and corroded by the surrounding toxins, and will turn into a pool of rotting water, and then disgust Fall down.

The growth and decline, rebirth and extinction, seem to find a balance point on the half face of Ackerman, and repeat it here.

The pain and torture in it, I am afraid that even a demon * can't bear it.

“Uh uh uh!”

The severe pain caused the swallowing apostle's face to twitch.

He stretched his hand right next to the armrest of the sacred seat, in a container full of pills, grabbed a forbidden medicine and threw it into his mouth, swallowing with a “Gam, Gam”.

If this special banned drug controlled by the extraterrestrial demon is placed on the earth or the world of hell, it is like a potent drug. Not only can it temporarily stimulate the body's activity, but it can also greatly paralyze the body's senses and keep people in a state of excitement.

Of course, addiction and dependence are naturally inevitable.

Ackerman Arkman, who swallowed the stars, relied on his powerful divine power and this special forbidden drug to survive under the detoxification of the dark demon Mamen until today. Enough to make a god, the heart collapse, completely reduced to a mad walking dead.

Now, for all these years, all the pain and torture suffered have been turned into revenge.

Do not destroy the demon * Mamen, do not destroy the * world that he failed to destroy at that time, he swallowed the star apostle Ackerman, he will never stop!

Ackerman Arkman, who swallowed the stars, looked at the world of * that was approaching, and the dark sky covering the entire dark god, and the cruel face gradually raised a cruel sneer.

“Main gun, fire!”

Ackerman’s voice was hoarse and harsh, just like an old broken bellows. It seemed that the poison of killing gods and his vocal cords were corrupted, but the pain did not affect his desire for revenge.

He stared at the large area in front of the mother ship, shrouded in dark clouds, and ordered his teeth and teeth, “Break the * sky curtain and let the mother ship crash at full speed!”

The star-swallowing apostle Ackerman narrowed his eyes narrowly. At this time, he seemed to have seen the demon * Mamen. Under his force, he looked like a wail.

This feeling made him very comfortable.

Soon, after receiving his order, a dozen extraterrestrial demon in the command module of the Void Mothership hurried in front of them, shining brightly on the operation panel, and quickly controlled it.

In an instant, the energy-gathering main gun above the deck of the Void Mothership came out a “buzzing” trembling. A large number of purple brilliances began to flow like rivers and rushed to gather in the muzzle.

The huge equivalent of power and the terrifying atmosphere of destruction are beginning to increase exponentially. It seems that even if it is a small asteroid with a diameter of 10,000 meters in front, it can hit and break through!

Suddenly.

“Boom!”

Suddenly, there was a huge roar from the main gun of the Void Mothership.

The strong recoil force allowed the outer defense shield of the mother ship to immediately stir up a circle of translucent air waves. The huge hull of the entire mothership was born under this recoil force and was recoiled tens of thousands of meters backward!

At the same time, the focused beam emitted from the main gun of the mother ship, with a diameter outside the hull, expanded instantaneously. Above the dark sky.

“Boom!”

The terrifying and violent fluctuations, like a violent hurricane, immediately exploded violently above the troposphere of the planet Hell.

Since the establishment of the Dark Demon Realm, the dark sky covering the entire dark * and the surrounding earth has been completely exploded in a moment.

A huge equivalent of dark magical energy, like the waves of the ocean tide, is overwhelmingly dissipated above the stratosphere.

The operation center of this dark sky comes from the Devil Scorpion Temple of the Dark Demon Mamen.

Its role is to gather free energy between the universe and transform it into pure dark magic energy to provide the absorption and cultivation of dark energy creatures below.

At the same time, the dark sky also has cover detection, which greatly enhances the ability of dark energy creatures and the defense against foreign enemies.

However, at this moment, this film has protected the dark gods below for hundreds of thousands of years. Under the forceful blow of the main gun of the Void Mothership, it was completely disintegrated.

That is to say, at this time, the Dark God City below, and the Demon God Palace where the Dark Demon Mamen is located, are all exposed in front of the Heavenly Devil outside the domain, and there is no more thing to block.

“Run down at full speed!”

Ackerman Swallowing Star, staring at the tumbling atmosphere of the magic cloud below, his eyes became more and more fierce, as if to destroy all below, all burned to ashes.

“Boom!”

Hundreds of large and small engines on the hull of the Void Mothership, once again blazed a blazing flame, the huge and heavy hull began to accelerate slowly, and the black cloud center that was churning downwards ran straight down!

The purpose of the star apostle Ackerman is simple. He wants to destroy his enemies and everything underneath! And the impact force generated by the high-speed landing of the void mothership where he is located is undoubtedly a high-energy nuclear explosion!

Under this high-energy impact, his mother ship will only suffer some impact damage, but the gods and all creatures below will be destroyed once!

All creatures below are about to usher in a devastating disaster. However, the only thing that can bless the creatures below is that the energy-gathering main gun of this void mothership has just charged up to that point, and the light energy consumption will use 30% of all energy storage of this mothership.

In a short period of time, it is difficult for this mothership to open the second gun, otherwise all the creatures within a hundred kilometers below will be spared.

“boom!”

“Click!”

The violent roar rumbling and rolling over the heads of the people, the fragmented sky fragments, mixed with the boiling energy fluctuations, set off a severe storm in the atmospheric stratosphere.

The following is also a gusty wind, stretching the sky for hundreds of thousands of miles, all the black clouds are surging, there is no sky, and it is once like the end.

The soldiers who had been waiting for the battle were silent at this moment. Whether it is the guard of the temple or the night demon rebels brought by the night evil demon king, they are all silent and fearful.

Although a terrorist explosion of this scale is very far away from them, the panic power from the huge equivalent of power can destroy the world.

These soldiers are very clear, they are just adding one piece, they are probably not as powerful as the big killer above them.

In front of this kind of killer, manpower seems to be insignificant.

“broken!”

Under the shroud shrouded in black clouds, the dark demon * Mamen looks extremely unsightly. He glanced at the shattered dark sky, and quickly looked at Wang Yan on his side, “I didn’t expect Ackerman to come so suddenly, Mo Yan, hurry! Quickly notify your father, or you will be too late!”

The Void Mothership is a big killer, but even his demon * Mamen is quite scrupulous. Once landed, the spirits will be painted, and the consequences will be unimaginable.

Coupled with the military power and armament attached to this mothership, there is no doubt that Tamar is alone and will be unable to stop it.

It is really time to come, I am afraid that the two demon gods of the world of hell, and even the three demon gods, will be able to fight one.

“Sister-in-law, don’t worry, I will inform my father.”

Seeing that the dark demon Mamen’s face was so dignified, Wang Yan knew that this time things were really big.

Not to mention, the power of the main cannon on the top of the head alone is almost ruined. If there is no dark sky, it seems that even the planet will be penetrated by it.

At this level of horror, Wang Yan did not dare to resist with flesh. And the extraterrestrial demon who can have such terrible force is absolutely more powerful than imagination.

“Click!”

Wang Yan did not dare to delay, and quickly took out the Demon God Order and smashed it.

The magic energy of blasting immediately turned into a beam of light, rushing towards the sky.

But at this moment, four huge crystal columns suddenly appeared in the southeast and northwest.

The dark demon Mamen had a pair of prestige, suddenly shrunk: “Oops! It is a four-phase matrix!”

“Four-phase matrix?”

Wang Yan was puzzled. He had never heard such a strange name. But before he could think about it, the four giant crystal pillars had penetrated the thick black cloud and fell instantly.

The four bizarre crystal giant columns shone with lilac light, each of them was huge, and the length even reached thousands of kilometers!

They are like four giant pillars of heaven and earth, full of magnificent momentum.

Wang Yan couldn't recognize their materials, but at this time the four crystal pillars exuded magnificent power outward, and the space immediately experienced unprecedented fierce fluctuations.

And Wang Yan clearly saw a layer of purple light, like a layer of translucent film, connecting the four crystals into one. Make these four crystal columns falling at the same time, just like a square cup with an upside down buckle down towards the dark * capital below.

“boom!”

“Boom! Boom! Boom!”

The earth trembles tremblingly, and four giant crystal pillars plunge deep into the earth. The entire dark * of Nuoda, together with everything inside, is all steadily included by the square junction formed by the giant crystal pillars.

The space signal just released by the devil order in Wang Yan's hand was at this moment, hitting the energy boundary formed by the giant crystal pillar.

Just listening to the sound of “Poo”, the Demon God order sign that was originally capable of tearing the space, but at this moment, like a firework entering the water, disappeared without a trace.

The enchanting barrier, which seemed to be translucent, didn't move at all, without even a single ripple.

Seeing this scene, Wang Yan was dumbfounded.

It was the devil order made by Satan, the purgatory demon god, using numerous precious materials. Inside contains the supreme divine power of Satan, as long as it is in this planet and any place with a plane channel, once the space beacon of the Demon God Order is activated, it can directly open a plane channel connecting with Satan.

Therefore, as long as the Devil God Order appears in Purgatory Demon Realm, it will be like Satan's presence, and it will have a great deterrent effect on any enemy.

However, the demon * order is too precious and rare. Only a few devoted demon kings who are appreciated by the devil * Satan, and Wang Yan, a pro son, can have it.

Once used, Satan the devil must come to the scene in person, which can be said to be the most powerful means of life-saving for the entire purgatory.

But the demon * order that could tear the space off now, but silently extinguished, even a trace of ripples could not be lifted, which made everyone's emotions at the scene fell into the bottom, and their eyes widened one by one.

Could it be that the entire dark god's space was sealed by these four crystal columns?

...

...

"Damn!"

The dark demon Mamen suddenly changed color, looking at the energy field that shrouded the world around him, his eyes tightened, and he secretly scolded, "Old Ackerman is so poisonous that he uses a four-phase matrix, he is trying to kill us what!"

"Master Father-in-law, the junction of these four crystal columns is a four-phase matrix? How can it be so powerful?"

When Wang Yan saw the energy enchantment shrouded in the sky above the gods, it was like a huge sea bowl with an upside-down seashell, and his face was dignified.

With his current cultivation as his strength, and his understanding of the laws of space, how could he not know that this is a terrible enchantment with isolated space? Any material or energy that wants to cross the space and escape the enchantment will be blocked by this layer of enchantment.

Even after he crushed the demon order, there was a trace of the spiritual power and divine power of Satan, which was blocked by the energy barrier.

This made Wang Yan not only fail to send out the message, but also wasted a magic order.

But in this case, even if the Devil God Satan is called, I am afraid it is useless. What kind of small space can be summoned through is just a projection containing the energy of the demon god, and the overall strength is absolutely beyond the level of the big devil king. The enemies are coming now, even if there is one more avatar projection of the devil Satan, it is just giving away.

To solve such a large number of enemies, I am afraid that Satan, the demon god, must come in person, and he must lead the army to this place to solve the problem.

In addition, listening to the dark demon * Mamen tone, this four-phase matrix is unusual. Even among the extraterrestrial demon, they are extremely precious seals. Even his highly respected demon * is very scrupulous.

If it is really like the demon * Mamen expected to speculate, the * of the extraterrestrial demon, the swallowing apostle Ackerman, I am afraid that in a short time, all the spirits of this city will be wiped out!

“It seems that our trouble is serious ...”

In the face of today’s situation, even if he is as strong as Wang Yan, he still feels numb for a while.

This is true even for him, not to mention the guard generals under Mamen.

“Wow! Huh!”

At this time, the black clouds were rolling in the sky, and the wind was violent, and the whole city was shrouded in a doom-like scene.

But in this extremely depressing environment, the whole city was still sealed by four phase crystal columns, and the whole city seemed to be packed into a sealed iron jar, waiting for the end of the world.

All the temple guards on the scene were in such an endangered environment, one by one with despair and panic.

The people on the side of the Yesha Great Devil were also shocked by the scene in front of them.

Especially the unseen god, Arkman, the swallowing apostle, actually drove a giant mothership over, and with a single blow, the dark sky with which the entire Dark Demon Realm was proud was smashed.

This deterrent, every Night Demon and its rebels at the scene, was deeply shocked and in awe.

“Hahaha, worthy of being Ackerman, amazing, really amazing!”

Ye Sha Big Devil himself was naturally shocked by the scene in front of him, and then from the surprise to the joy, Yang Tian laughed.

The Dark Sky is a symbol of the Dark Demon Realm on this side, and it is also the most powerful formation of the Dark Demon Mamen in that year. As a result, he was bombarded by Ackerman with such a blow. Such powers made him a terrified body and mind.

In particular, the four-phase matrix that followed the sudden drop, and the space seal formed by it burst out of an unprecedented and unheard of power.

It can be said that now the Dark God is in the whole city, just like it is packed into a sealed bottle, the people inside cannot go out, the people outside cannot come in, even a trace of space signals cannot be transmitted, and it is impossible for foreign aid to come .

And with the strength of his great demon king, he can clearly feel that the translucent enchantment constructed by the four-phase matrix seems to be an understatement, and in fact is indestructible, and every inch of position is filled with high-intensity energy. Even if he was allowed to attack by force, he might not be able to break it.

This is another powerful aspect of the extraterrestrial demon. Their power is mysterious and beyond reach.

Now the people who are sealed inside are nothing but turtles in the urn, and they will all be allowed to be slaughtered!

“Mamen old thief, your end is here!”

Thinking of this, Ye Sha’s eyes were full of fanaticism. He is now out of fear, replaced by intense greed.

It seems that the one standing in front of his eyes is no longer an untouchable demon, but a purely precious divinity waiting to be picked up!

Cultivate to the level of the Great Devil of the Night Sha, and then think of becoming a  before you can do more than just hard cultivation.

Or, by virtue of understanding and chance, he condenses his divinity and ignites the fire of God, thus sealing God in one fell swoop. Or, you need to get a godhead, absorb and refine it, and finally form your own godhead.

However, the difficulty of the former is just like earth-shaking. Since ancient times, few people have reached this level. The latter is obviously much easier, it only takes some time and energy.

For the Nightshadow Demon King, the difficulty of the former makes him less likely to become a god. So if he wants to be the supreme god, he must seek divinity.

This is also one of the reasons why the night evil demon king is so risky to rebel against the demon  Mamen.

As long as he can be promoted to God, then he will not be allowed to swim in the world? By then the energy of the entire universe will be used by him, and the entire world of  will be ruled by him!

Not only the night evil demon king, his son Night Blade Prince, also in extreme excitement.

“Mo Yan! This time you are all turtles in the urn. This prince wants to see. How will you escape this time?”

Prince Yeblad’s eyes widened, and his pale face was a little flushed because of the excitement in his heart, “Moyan thief, if you are wise, please kneel down and surrender for mercy! Haha, maybe this prince Soft-hearted, can accept a dog minion like you, and by the way can spare you a dog’s life. “

“Oh, idiot.” Wang Yan glanced and sneered with sneers. “Your father and son are really used to being dogs, but don’t be a god.”

Although Wang Yan said this on his lips, he kept thinking about it.

The unfavorable situation in front of him made him a little difficult.

The seal, called the four-phase matrix, has a very strong isolation of space. With Wang Yan's understanding of the laws of space, it is far from being able to solve the large array of space isolation.

Within this large formation, Wang Yan couldn't even notify Satan the Satan, let alone use space coordinates to establish a space tunnel to summon his men.

What's more, under such a desperate situation and a huge military gap, even if all the friends are summoned, I'm afraid it's just food delivery.

"Fuck!" Prince Yeblah was stimulated again, staring at his eyes, and grinning angrily, "Oh, demon thief, this prince is too lazy to play with you again, in short, everything you put on this prince, this The prince will repay you ten times and one hundred times! "

After all, he stared at Uya Ange again, that is, greedy and resentful, "Does Her Royal Highness think that she has today? If you now regret this prince, this prince can still forgive you and let you be My concubine. "

"Oh, idiot." Wuya Ange learned Wang Yan's appearance and sneered coldly, "Dare you like me to dare to delusion me? No matter which aspect, Mo Yan is ten times stronger than you, no , A hundred times. A * like you is only worthy of an ogre. "

"You! Huh!" Prince Yeblad's face was red and white, and his heart was stuffy, and he almost spurted blood out.

Before, Princess Ange had always been a cold and gentle princess fan, but unexpectedly cursing people now, it was so harmful and malicious.

Night Blade Prince didn't even know how hard it was to pretend to be a princess fan when Uya Ange played for the past two years. You know, her nature on the earth is Queen Fan, the Queen, who is so charming that even Wang Yan can't help it.

"Yeah, Princess Ange didn't mention it, but the God Son forgot."

Wang Yan raised his lips and said with a chuckle, "Yeblade, the ogres who were happy with you last night, but they know a lot about your food. You might as well take this opportunity to eat The devil's son-in-law, maybe you can reproduce more prominent descendants of bleeding veins? "

"puff!"

In the presence of the soldiers of the two armies, Prince Night Blade was nakedly exposed, and he could no longer contain his inner depression. On the spot, a suffocated breath blew out.

What happened that night was a source of nightmares and fears in his life.

"Mo Yan, this prince is going to kill you, and you are going to kill you!" Prince Night Blade roared wildly, his eyes covered with red blood.

"Yeah?"

Ji Cui Lisi, who has been observing the development of the situation, couldn't help covering her mouth, and her eyes showed unbelievable colors. "It turns out that your prince still has such hobbies? Giggling ~ ogre?"

The disdainful look overwhelmed her gorgeous face, "This taste, Gee ..."

Originally, in the view of Bliss Magic Ji, this Night Blade Prince was already a Demon King at a young age, and his bloodline was still so-so. He had a chance to taste it, and it was also necessary to inhale some essence.

Now, since her appetite has diminished, she subconsciously moved away a few steps, clearly even the thoughts of picking up ~ Hehuan are gone.

As a result, Prince Nightblade was almost mad, and his demon spirit was soaring, he would jump out and fight with Wang Yan in a rage.

"calm!"

In a hurry, the night evil demon king scolded, and the majestic momentum suppressed the night blade prince. "Are you stupid, do you think it's shameful enough?"

Ye Sha is now more and more dissatisfied with this son. Would n't it give Mo Yan a chance to take hostages?

"Yes ... Yes!" Prince Ye Blade bit his teeth, and under the pressure and anger of Yesha Demon King, he calmed down a little. Although he felt resentful, he dared not rush up.

"Humph!" Yesha Big Demon King is also very unhappy, and glared coldly at Wang Yan, "Mr. Flame Flame, now it's useless to play tricks. If you are willing to surrender me, I will give you the purgatory domain . "

Yesha Big Devil also wants to persuade Wang Yan, if he is qualitative, then it will be much easier to deal with Satan, the purgatory demon. He is not afraid of the trouble caused by the kid of Mo Yan, as long as he dares to surrender, he has a way to deal with him.

Wang Yan glanced at the night evil demon king, he was too lazy to take care of this extraterrestrial demon running dog, but he knew that the situation was serious, and he quickly murmured to the dark demon * Mamen, "Master father-in-law, you are the devil god, you do n't have a few. Zhang Di? If you go on like this, we will be stuck here, and your city will be destroyed. "

"The bottom card? Of course there are some gods." The demon * Mamen glanced at Wang Yan, and said angrily, "If you are only dealing with a night Yesha and his night demon clan, the * tells him to die in minutes. But if you want to deal with Ackerman and the extraterrestrial demon under his command, I am afraid that you will not be able to catch it ... "

Speaking of which, the demon devil slightly sighed. If you change to young and strong, even if the front bar is no match for Ackerman and his army, at least you can tear off a few pieces of meat on the other side.

At that time, Ackerman, the apostle who swallowed the star, suffered a big loss and almost died in the way he didn't want to play.

Only now, unfortunately ...

“Isn’t it enough?” Wang Yan frowned slightly and secretly shouted.

It seems that the strength of the extraterrestrial demon is still above his Wang Yan imagination.

“Ange, my daughter.” The dark demon Mamen lowered his eyes and looked at Uya Ange. His eyes were filled with apology and kindness. Placing the road is a mistake for the father ... “

“Father!” Uya Ange stunned, and a bad hunch suddenly appeared, quickly interrupted and said, “Don’t be impulsive, I, we still have ...”

But Uya Ange said half of it, and was interrupted by the dark demon * Mamen raising his hand: “You mean for the father to understand, but until now, only by fighting hard, can we have a line with this dark demon domain. vitality.”

After all, the demon Mamen raised his finger and raised it, wearing the black and gold crown on top of his head, fluttering lightly and vigorously, and then steadily landed on the top of Uya Ange.

This black gold crown inlaid with dazzling gemstones is shining brightly at the moment, just like the star in the night sky, pleasant and revealing endless majesty.

It seems to represent some kind of supreme mysterious rule between the universe of heaven and earth. As long as it is possessed, it can control this world.

Everyone’s eyes were deeply attracted by the black gold crown that suddenly shined. It seems that as long as you look at this magnificent and unusual crown, the body and mind will emit awe from the soul.

Only the Great Demon King Yesha, after seeing this crown changing master, immediately exclaimed: “No! This is the crown of the emperor that condenses all the inheritance of Mamen. The old thief of Mamen wants to hand over power. All Everyone, give it to me! “

The army of the night demon clan was ordered to immediately kill the demon temple like a tide.

The demon garrison was naturally unwilling to show weakness, and bravely resisted, and the armies of both sides instantly fought into a regiment.

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 1729

...

“kill!”

“Huh!”

In front of the dark temple, the fighting sounds skyrocketing.

The night demon clan soldiers are numerous, and the coming is extremely violent. Although the number of defenders in the Devil's Palace is small, the victory is determined, and relying on the geographical location, desperate to resist.

The old * servant Walter and his son, together with several demi-level generals, have joined the battle.

Seeing that the situation was so severe, Wang Yan didn't dare to carelessly, and quickly stood in front of the dark demon Mamen and his daughter Uya Ange.

In any case, he must protect the father and daughter.

The tremendous battles in the outside world did not seem to affect Mamen's father and daughter.

A large amount of dark magical energy, like a trickle river, is flowing into the black gold crown through the fingertips of the demon * Mamen, and then spread from the black gold crown to the body of Uya Ange.

"Father, father ..."

Wearing a black gold crown filled with the inheritance of the dark demon god, Uya Anjo suddenly felt a magnificent force of law, enveloped her, and entered into a trance state.

In between, she seemed to have merged with the demon temple behind her. And there is a huge amount of knowledge that is endless and endless, and the surging power begins to flow into her body continuously.

She knew very well that these precious knowledge and meanings, as long as they are well absorbed, her realm will definitely rise to a large level, and she will even benefit a lot from her future impact on the divine path.

It's just that her heart is close to her father. Where else can she absorb this knowledge and meaning?

Dark Demon Mamen remained silent, as if he had not noticed his daughter's resistance and anxiety, and continued to pass a lot of magic power to the black and gold crown.

After several breaths, the dark demon Mamen stopped the power transmission and slapped Wang Yan's shoulder fiercely: "Boy, take care of my daughter. Next, it's up to you!"

The demon * Mamen's slap was thick and heavy, and this shot almost didn't break Wang Yan's whole body.

But waiting for Wang Yan and Wuya Ange to react, the dark demon Mamen has jumped up, carrying his hands, flying towards the sky above the sky.

The back of the demon * Mamen is awe-inspiring and awe-inspiring. He was like an elderly emperor who went on his own. Although the white hair was late, Wei An's body remained unchanged.

Even more than he was now, at this moment, he has a more frank and decisive, as if far away, is his best destination.

“Cough, with your old stuff, do you want to break through the four-phase matrix of His Majesty Ackerman?”

Bliss Maggie Treilis sneered dismissively and was lazy and charming, but although she said so, she was still full of vigilance in the charming eyes of the demon Mamen.

“Bart! Ruckhouse! What are you waiting for? Don’t let this old thing go wrong, Your Majesty!”

The other party is a powerful god, and no matter how arrogant she is, Trish does not dare to underestimate a god. Even if the other party is old and late, that supernatural power is not a person and can be easily touched.

Right in the middle of Trilith’s speech, the right hand wearing a metal bracelet waved sideways.

I saw a black and purple brilliance, shining from the top of the bracelet, blinking time, a magical space tunnel suddenly appeared from the light curtain.

Subspace, Kingdom of God!

Or in the traditional Chinese saying of the earth, this is a Tibetan soldier cave!

Obviously, the golden bracelet worn on the wrist of the bliss magic Ji Cui Lisi seems to be ordinary, in fact, it is a secondary artifact very similar to the book of stars.

Such special sub-artifacts with sub-spaces are very rare and rare in the sub-artifacts of the same level.

If refined properly, you can not only have a small world, but also build a small world where creatures can survive for a long time!

The starry sky * who had almost become a * at that time, the subspace left in the book of stars, is the magic kingdom created by the starry sky * for himself, and it is also the best example.

Judging from the high-purity energy exuded from this bracelet, the secondary artifact of the Bliss Devil Ji Trilis, in terms of grade alone, is no weaker than the book of stars left by the * of the sky.

It’s no wonder that Bliss Devil Ji Trilis, but the commander-in-chief of Acme Swallower, Ackerman, was sent by Ackerman to the Night Demon King to supervise the war. Hidden cards.

Right now this sub-artifact is her long hidden card.

“Hahaha, General Ben can finally come out to breathe! Where is the old Mamen dog? General Ben is going to kill God today!”

An arrogant laughter suddenly passed through the subspace tunnel.

Then the tunnel light curtain flashed, and a hand-held double-edged axe, full of fierce and pure blood demon, came out of the subspace first.

This pure-blooded demon, unlike other extraterrestrial demon, has an elegant and noble image. He was ugly and rough, wearing a set of magical energy armor with a thick blood, a double-edged battle axe as wide as a door, and it was shining with a green magic fire.

His body is also unusually tall, far exceeding the ordinary extraterrestrial demon, and even the night demon clan known for its flesh and force can't be compared with it.

Especially under his dark purple tough skin, with strong rock-like muscles, it made his body sturdy and fierce, and reached a terrifying point.

As he appeared, fear began to flow like a tide, and madness poured into the hearts of everyone on the scene.

He, under the aegis of the swallowing apostle Ackerman, one of the trusted generals, possesses the peak of the demigod, the pure blood demon of the realm of the great demon, and the fearful messenger Lukehouse!

As a pioneer general under Ackerman, Ruckhouse is powerful and cruel. He can bring the terrifying shadow of the extraterrestrial demon into the hearts of every race on every expedition.

“Oh!”

Suddenly, a powerful dragon yelled out.

I saw that after Lukehouse, another general in armor also flew out of the tunnel and hung in midair.

This is a peculiar race with a dragon head and silver hair.

He was burly and strong, almost comparable to the tall Ruckhouse. But his face was extremely cold, and when he came out, he was silent. With a heroic and majestic air, he almost suffocated the people around him. Even if it was just a look, it also made the crowd around him chill.

This bizarre race general is a race conquered by the extraterrestrial demon in the universe, the leader of the dragon human race, the soul-evil dragon king Bart.

The dragon race belongs to the direct bloodline of the Xinghe true dragon. It has gradually evolved into a humanoid race in the long history.

Soul Evil Dragon King Bart is the leader of a dragon tribe. He has the strength of a big demon who is as strong as a demigod peak, and he is also a cronic general under the apostle Ackerman.

As a race that is attached to the extraterrestrial demon, Bart, the ecstasy dragon king, can lead all the people and become a general under the extraterrestrial demon god. One can imagine how powerful his personal strength is with this dragon race.

Soul Evil Dragon King Bart, Lukehouse, the Thoroughbred Horror of the Pureblood, plus the Elysian Ji Trilis, who is also the Pureblood Demon.

As soon as the three great demon kings appeared, they showed their surging power and swept the audience immediately with the arrogance of the heroes, making both sides of the fierce battle stare.

“This cunning demon girl still hides this hand!”

When the night demon king saw Trilith open the subspace, his eyes narrowed slightly, and he cursed at him the cursed woman, which was not as simple as it seemed on the surface. There was still such a baby hidden in his body.

If this is not clear, he can really be combined with the other two demon kings by her behind, and die alive.

But now he is holding the army of night demon clan, and he is not afraid of a few more demon kings outside the domain.

But the spirit of the night evil demon king hasn't had time to relax yet. The army of celestial demon coming out of the space tunnel has surprised him with a dumbfounded.

“Wait, this, this is ...”

In the shocked eyes of the night evil demon king, a sturdy army equipped with unified armed forces, like the tide, rushed madly from the secondary space channel opened by the bliss magic Ji, and soon spread in this land. Above.

A conqueror legion of extraterrestrial demon!

Yesha Demon King had witnessed it when he met Ackerman a long time ago.

The vast majority of this legion is composed of mixed-blood gods and dependent races. They are dressed in uniform off-white arms and weapons, each of which is the most outstanding strongman in the world, with extremely powerful combat power.

Among them, half-blooded demon, naturally refers to extraterrestrial demon with insufficient blood lineage.

The number of pure-blooded demon is very rare, but in the long years, some sub-level hybrid offspring have also been born. These hybrids have a slightly larger population, but their talents, abilities, and status are much worse than those of pure blood.

Therefore, the real pure-blooded demon, and these mixed-blood descendants, are called inferior demon.

Do n't underestimate these inferior demon, they may have little status for pure-blooded demon, but in other races enslaved by the devil, each of them is a tall aristocracy, all of them are leaders of the rank .

Moreover, the large number of inferior demon, or the backbone of the extraterrestrial demon army, is also the cornerstone of the dominant power of the extraterrestrial demon. The occupation and control of most of the planets in the universe are accomplished through these inferior heavenly demons and their slave races.

As for the other races joining this legion, they are naturally the subordinate races as strong as the dragon race. The number of them is comparable to that of lower-level demons, but each one should not be underestimated.

The key is the number of legions coming out of the space tunnel. There are really too many, too many.

In just a few breaths, the number of the demon army in front of the lineup is enough to compare with his night demon rebels.

Yesha Big Demon King looked up carefully, and the strength of this army of Demon Gods made him take a breath.

The night demons he brought, and the rebels of their affiliated races, are indeed very large. Especially as the core main force, surrounded by the main force in front of the Devil Scorpion Temple, the half-step legendary elite has nearly ten thousand people.

Among them, there are more than three thousand five hundred legendary commanders who participated in the siege of the Scorpion Temple, and there are as many as seventeen devil-level generals.

If he and his son Night Blade Prince are counted again, among their night demon rebels, the devil above demi-level has reached the terrible nineteen!

This is already a terrible number, plus huge strength advantages, as long as you are not afraid of sacrifice, even a demon  can be shocked.

But at this time, from the secondary artifacts held by the Bliss Devil Ji Trilis, the large number of Tianmo forces, and the strength, really made him a big devil.

Perhaps the total number of the Devil's army is not as good as his night demon rebels, there are only about 5,000 people, but each one is actually all the top legendary strong!

More than 5,000 legendary strongmen alone are not counted. According to the powerful spiritual power of Yesha Demon King, one or two semi-god generals are standing in front of each team.

If you count carefully, there are as many as forty-five generals of these gods outside the realm!

Now, the three princes of the Bliss, Jill Talis, Soul Evil Dragon Bart, and the Horror Messenger Ruckhouse, plus forty-five semi-god-level demon kings, and five thousand legendary elites.

Such a terrifying army, the overall combat strength is probably more than his night evil demon king, more than double.

This is not counting overhead, Lord Ackerman and his immediate forces in the Void Mothership.

If relying on such a force, as long as it is properly manipulated, Yesha Demon even thinks that relying solely on the power of Master Ackerman who swallows the star, I am afraid that it will be enough to destroy this dark demon domain and even the entire world!

“My son, you can stay for more snacks, especially the three over there, so you can't easily provoke them.”

Yesha Big Demon King quickly whispered to his son Night Blade. At this moment, he was really a little bit afraid. Dealing with the Heavenly Devil outside the territory is like tiding with the tiger.

However, he was reluctant to use children, and he could not afford a wolf. As long as the extraterrestrial demon can help him become a god, and help him to lay down the entire hell, how could he be the dependent race of Lord Ackerman?

He is now glad that when he first found himself in the adult, he wisely stood on the side of the adult.

Although Prince Nightblade was almost blinded by anger, the instinctive fear and the voice of his father made him calm down quickly.

The extraterrestrial demon is worthy of being the conqueror that existed in the ancient times!

He didn't understand the horror of Heavenly Demon before, but at this moment the strength revealed by Heavenly Demon outside the realm, but only the tip of the iceberg, was enough to subvert their entire world. This really shocked him.

Such terrible ancient races must not become enemies of their night demons.

Now it seems that the father's decision is right! With such a powerful racial alliance, the night demons will surely be able to climb to the top of hell!

There are many people who have similar thoughts to Prince Night Blade.

As the Bliss Devil Ji Cui Lisi showed the cards of their extraterrestrial demon, most of the night demon rebels were more frightened and more convinced that their night demon clan will definitely overthrow the rule of the three devil gods of *. From then on, the Demon family is the only one who has become the man of the whole * world!

The opposite is Wang Yan's side.

"This time it can be ..."

Wang Yan's eyes tightened a little, looking at the dense enemy under the temple, an unprecedented sense of crisis began to appear in his heart quickly.

The fleeing defenders, plus the remaining defenders in the Devil Scorpion Temple, add a piece of only three or four thousand people on both sides, and only a few demi-level demon kings.

With just a little manpower, most of them were wounded and their strength levels were uneven. Since the beginning of the battle, there have been constant deaths and sacrifices. At present, these surviving defenders can only rely on the fortifications of the temple to barely defend.

In addition, the entire city is still enveloped in a powerful enchantment formed by a four-phase matrix.

Coupled with the overhead, the ship looks like a huge city ship, which is getting closer and closer ...

If we go on like this, wouldn't the remaining group of people be wiped out in minutes?

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 1730

...

“Don’t worry about the ants, let me hold this old guy, your majesty is coming soon!”

The Bliss Magic Ji Trilis made a one-handed move, and the sub-space tunnel was closed. Then the eyes flashed, and the whole person had floated up, blocking the path of the dark demon Mamen.

In the eyes of their pure-blood gods, the night demon rebels who were not far away, and the demon and shadow demon defenders, were just inferior ants, and it was not worth mentioning.

The only one who was worried about them right now was the dark demon Mamen who rushed towards them.

“It’s just an old and decayed galaxy beast. In front of our devil, can he turn the sky?”

The tall, muscular tyrannical messenger Ruckhouse, standing his axe, his eyes full of unbearable excitement and tyranny.

“Oh, although the old thing is old and old, it is a * anyway, we can’t carelessly.”

On the other side of the Bliss Maggie, the head of the dragon has a silver-haired soul-eating dragon king Bart, with a grim complexion and a half-air. At the same time, he raised one arm and ordered to the demon army outside the domain below, “Everyone, lift the shield!”

Just listening to the sound of “Wolla”, all the soldiers of the extraterrestrial demons below raised their left arms together.

Suddenly, golden energy shields were born in front of the demon soldiers. But in the blink of an eye, these translucent energy shields actually became a whole.

Five thousand demon soldiers, forty-five semi-god-level generals, formed a powerful battle array, and suddenly became a golden splendor, just like a small sun that was born, full of high-density energy, blocking death. In front of the dark demon Mamen.

The purpose of the pure-blooded demon such as Bliss Mo Ji is very simple, that is, to trap the beast in the cage and trap the demon * Mamen alive in this four-phase matrix.

Besides, at this time, the Void Mothership is bursting into the atmosphere, and the huge pressure will disperse the clouds. The horror shadows that cover it, covering the sky and the sun, are like a 10,000-meter high mountain, which is about to press on people’s heads.

It won’t take long for the Void Mothership to land, and Ackerman, the swallowing apostle, will also lead the army and sweep the Liuhe.

By that time, all the demon * Mamen, and any stubborn resistance, will be wiped out by their pure-blood heavenly demon and absolutely strong power!

The two parties at the scene of the battle became silent because of the powerful power revealed by the Demon Army.

In front of the temple, Wang Yan, An Ge, and others were all looking at him with anxiety.

Only the demon Mamen, who was heading forward, still looked relaxed and indifferent. It seemed that what was standing in front of him was not a thousand troops, but only a group of local chickens and dogs, which was not worth mentioning.

“Old stuff, dying, just pretend.”

The demon * Mamen’s unprecedented posture angered the arrogant extraterrestrial demon. Among them, the ecstasy demon Ji Cui Lisi, the demon eyes cold, raised his arms and ordered, “Attack! For Your Majesty Ackerman, he captured this old thing alive.”

“Wow!”

The surface of the golden shield array assembled by the army of heavenly demons suddenly blasted out a beam of energy that was as solid as the arrow was lost, and directed toward the demon * Mamen.

This kind of energy armament capable of attacking and defending is precisely the special equipment mastered by the extraterrestrial demon. And the members of the demon outside the field knew that their * Majesty Ackerman, the intractable wound on his face was caused by this demon * Mamen.

The Demon God Mamen is the dead rival of His Majesty Ackerman. Now if they can hurt this Mamen before the decline of His Majesty Ackerman, it is definitely a great thing!

“attack!”

“Hurry down the old thing!”

“His Majesty Ackerman will have a reward for shooting down the demon god!”

The morale of the Heavenly Demon Legion is high, and the beam of light directed at the demon * Mamen is as dense as raindrops, which makes people feel terrified.

“Ignorant juniors, you also want to stop the gods? Ha ha, when the gods are in the universe, your father and mother were not born!”

The dark demon Mamen must be pale, and his eyes were magnificent. In the face of the fierce attack, he just sneered disdainfully, without even raising his eyebrows.

But before actually meeting the shock, he quietly turned his head and glanced far below the temple.

At the same time, a voice was silently remembered in his heart: Daughter, say goodbye.

At the next moment, a loud roar that sounded like Long Yin and Hu Xiao suddenly appeared in this world.

“Awow!”

The shocking sound waves rolled up the layers of white air waves and spread violently in all directions.

This sudden roar, the momentum was so loud, that everyone was shocked in an instant. Even the three great demon kings outside the territories shuddered, staring at their vigilant eyes and staring at the dark demon mamen.

At this time, the demon * Mamen was already surrounded by large layers of dense mist.

The magic mist condensed by pure and dark energy is as dark as ink and condensed as water, and it expands rapidly in the air. Within a short period of time, the range of several kilometers above everyone's head was completely enveloped by a thick black mist.

“puff!”

“Puff puff!”

The energy beams of the celestial demon soldiers that were previously blasted out, and when they were shot into the magic fog at this moment, they all entered the sea like mud bulls and disappeared without a trace.

And this extremely dark magic mist, with the momentum of swallowing everything, expanded and expanded more and more, the panic divine power exuded by it, creepy, just like a world, it must be swallowed clean by it.

“Father, father ...”

Far below the shrine, the bad hunch in Wuya Ange's heart began to grow thicker, and his eyes became wet unconsciously.

Wang Yan stood beside her, her nerves tense, watching all this closely. He really wanted to help, but in this desperate situation, his personal strength seemed insignificant.

unless.....

Unless there is an adult with his father-in-law, such a deity can stand up, maybe they can turn decay into magic, and they can have a little life.

“This old guy ...”

The bliss Mo Ji Ji Lisi, who is standing in front of the magic fog, has a soft and charming look, which is gradually cooling, replaced by dignity and vigilance.

She was instructed to trap the demon Mamen, wait for His Majesty Ackerman to come, and then launch a total. Now Ackerman's flagship is about to land. If at this critical moment, let this Mamen run away, then her sin can be blamed. Big.

But at this moment, the magic mist that had been thick like a mountain and stretched for dozens of kilometers suddenly issued a fierce tremor.

In the next moment, all the thick and thick magic fog, like living creatures, rushed towards the bliss magic Ji Trilis and others.

The condensed magic mist is like a tornado tsunami falling from the sky.

Cui Lisi narrowed her eyes suddenly, exclaimed quickly: "Prepare! That old guy is here!"

Between the talks, two hook-like weapons had appeared on her pair of haunted wrists, and a shield unfolded instantaneously.

Lukehouse, the burly and cruel messenger of terror, did not dare to carelessly at this time, and quickly hurled a double-edged axe across his chest, and gathered a * gang of gas in front of him.

Soul Evil Dragon King Bart is also facing an enemy, a pair of ruthless dragon eyes tightened suddenly. At the same time command the army of Demon, quickly set up a defensive formation.

However, in the eyes of everyone, the Devil's Army is almost indestructible, and the water-proof defense formation is almost as fragile as paper in front of the black mist that burst down.

Just listening to the loud noise of "Bang", a wave of white gas spread violently.

The fierce magic fog, like a tornado, roared past, with the momentum of destroying Gula, and instantly detonated the defensive battle array composed of the heavenly demon outside the territory with one blow!

It was like a golden solar energy shield of the little sun, just like a burst glass, and it burst into pieces of golden light in an instant.

"How, how is it possible?"

"Well!"

"Wow!"

The three demon kings headed by Bliss Mo Ji, each with their eyes widened, could not believe the scene in front of them. But they had no time to have more reactions, strong impact, and the backlash of the shield burst, which had caused them to spit blood and fell down.

Behind the three demon kings, the soldiers of the thousands of extraterrestrial demons couldn't resist the impulse, and all the people who had been rammed turned their horses upside down, embarrassed.

Perhaps it was because of their pride and care that they encountered this setback.

But there is no doubt that these eyes are above the top, and they never put any creatures in the eyes of the extraterrestrial demon. The first time they were strong, they were hit hard and unprecedented.

"hiss....."

Far from the other side, Yesha Big Devil's eyes widened, his heart took a breath.

Insulting the demon * Mamen this old guy, usually behind him, always looks like a general, how can such a powerful force suddenly burst out at this moment?

Fortunately, the first bird is not their father and son, otherwise they really hit the tip of the knife and did not know how to die.

Not only was the Great Demon King Ye Sha, his son Ye Jian, and the soldiers on both sides of the temple under the temple, all squinted and stopped.

The shock just now was really shocking.

The thick magic fog that stretches for dozens of kilometers, covering the sky and the sun, is like a fast-moving meteorite. In front of this shrine, it runs unimpeded.

Is this a god, the real power?

Everyone didn't know, but at this moment, a roar that shocked the world and sounded again.

“Oh!”

The majestic and powerful long roar, bleak and vast, with a strong atmosphere of ancient floods, echoed for a long time between heaven and earth.

Everyone stared at each other, and in the thick magic mist, a huge body resembling a mountain resembled a giant whale leaping out of the water.

Between the world and the earth, Chang Xiao sighed inwardly.

The ancient creatures leaping out of the magic fog, with their mighty courage as if crossing the long river of history, faced the phase crystal with the energy enchantment scattered in front of them, and rammed their heads.

This is a behemoth that is nearly ten thousand meters long, and the solid carapace all over the body is as dark as a gem.

Six abdominal limbs covered with sharp bone spurs, thick and majestic, a pair of giant claws with gray cheeks, like two heavy hammers that are enough to split the sky, majestic. At the end of the body, a sturdy curve with a spiked tail, it is even more chilly and chilly.

The galaxy giant scorpion is the real body of the dark demon Mamen!

At this time, the thick dark energy magic fog comes from it. The mist of dark to dark magic energy seems to be endless, all the way to set off its huge body, slanting towards the phase crystal that covers the sky in front.

“Boom!”

Dark Demon Mamen, head-on hit the top of a phase crystal.

The violent roar suddenly changed the sky and earth, and the mountain immediately shook beneath the ground. The ground at the foot seemed to be a violent earthquake, and the whole city was trembling.

At the same time, the fine cracking sound began to be densely transmitted on the top of this phase crystal.

“No, no!”

The Bliss Maggie who was hit to the side, climbed up from the ground in awkwardness, and his eyes shrank as he raised his head, and quickly screamed out with disappointment, “Then, the old guy, broke the phase crystal!”

“How, how is it possible!”

“This is impossible!”

All the extraterrestrial demons were in an uproar, but it was too late to stop it.

The fierce and huge body of the dark demon Mamen has completely penetrated the seal of the four-phase matrix, just like a dragon with a long black tail, and rushed into the sky all the time.

The remaining phase crystal has a missing piece at the top. Although this seal array is arranged by the linkage of four large crystals, the missing piece will not cause the array to collapse, but the missing piece will naturally be a hole was unavoidably exposed.

“Okay! Wow!”

“Long live your majesty!”

“Your Majesty Shenwei, Yong Yao Demon Realm!”

The night demon rebels and the heavenly demon army were all shocked, but the temple’s only remaining defenders increased their morale at this moment, and they all cheered with excitement.

Just kidding, isn’t the four-phase matrix that is claimed to be able to seal even the gods, was it a hole hit by His Majesty Mamen, their supreme demon?

Of course, the reason why a hole can be knocked out is because the demon * Mamen is familiar with the seal formation method of the extraterrestrial demon, and understands that this formation method has eight corners on all sides and belongs to the most stressful and vulnerable part.

In addition, as a god-level galaxy beast, he has an exoskeleton armor, and its sturdiness is indestructible, even the planets can be crushed. This made him stubborn, relying on brute force, forcibly hit the corner.

But no matter how, under such a desperate situation, it really made his soldiers see the hope of life!

“Your father deserves to be a demon god, and he didn’t expect him to have such a powerful power, it is really admirable.” Wang Yan looked at the Wuya Ange on his side, even if he was stronger than himself, this moment was also seen by him The scene was deeply shocked.

He never imagined that a demon god, who had lost a lot of power and was already dying, would have such a terrifying explosive power for his daughter and a people.

This courage really awed his junior.

Wu Ya Ange didn’t speak, a pair of nervous eyes, closely following the back of his father’s departure, both fists were trembling slightly because they clenched tightly.

Others may not know it, but she is very clear.

Her father Mamen, due to the previous injuries, suffered a serious loss of power, and the relentless scrubbing in the long years, the power that can be used is very limited.

But at this moment ...

Her father, I am afraid, has given it all.

“Yes, the * Mamen, actually, actually smashed the phase crystal!”

Under the shrine, the night demon rebels shrank, and the pupils of the night demon king shrank in horror.

The power of a demon * is so terrible. In front of the Demon God’s body, the legendary strongman is probably like the weak ants, who can be pinched to death by poking his finger.

Even if he is the demigod-level peak demon king, I am afraid that he can’t resist several attacks of the demon * real body.

terrible! It’s terrible!

Yesha Demon King and his son Prince Nightblade, at this time, a cold sweat came out of the back. But fortunately, their backing is also a demon god, and it is still the demon * who controls a large army of heavenly demons.

At the thought of this, they finally settled down.

“You don’t have to worry! The demon * Mamen does have some strength, but with his own strength, how can he compete with His Majesty Ackerman and his army of heavenly demons?”

At this point of thinking, Yesha Big Demon King immediately confuses loudly, “Ben Wang looks at the old guy, he clearly wants to escape!”

However, his voice failed to cause a little response,

At this time, not only did everyone ignore him, but they all looked at the sky.

Yesha Demon King hurriedly followed him and suddenly breathed a sigh of relief: “Why, what?”

“He, did he dare to attack the Void mothership of Lord Ackerman with his own strength? He is just looking for his own way!”
