The Domestic Hero - Chapter 1841

“Gao Mingyue, she is amazing.”

Lei Hongxi is like gold, and in a small chat with Wang Yan, he rarely uttered a complete sentence.

It can be seen that apart from Wang Yan and the two girlfriends who have been promoted to the realm of God, the only one who can really make Lei Bang praise is the only one who invited the moon sword Gao Mingyue.

“Yes, especially her, invited Yuejian Gaomingyue.”

Wang Yan raised the corner of his mouth and sighed again, “It’s unexpected and I don’t know what happened to her. In just three or four years, she reached the peak of the semi-god! The speed of promotion is really scary. jump!”

Speaking of inviting Yue Jian, Gao Mingyue, Wang Yan couldn’t help but shudder.

When it comes to the new generation of Chinese powerhouses on earth, she is definitely one of Gao Mingyue.

Wang Yan felt that if he hadn’t had a chance encounter in the world of hell, he later inherited the * of fire, Zhu Rong, maybe he could really be caught up by this female sword repairer.

“How? I think my strength has grown too fast, giving you a sense of crisis?”

Just when Wang Yan pretended to be chilly, a pleasant female voice was passing from Wang Yan’s side.

Wang Yan turned his eyes and looked at a beautiful woman wearing a white sword suit, stepping on a flying sword, and standing on her shoulders, hovering on the edge of the cliff beside him.

It is the young strong who Wang Yan and Lei Hong have just talked about, and invite Yue Jian Gao Mingyue!

Gao Mingyue’s temperament is now a little more mature and calm, just like the orchid in the empty valley, high and clean, but tough and unyielding.

Looking closely, Wang Yan found that Gao Mingyue’s seemingly immutable clothing has now undergone some subtle changes.

For example, she always wears a clean and sharp sword suit, and now there are a few more ink moires at the corner of the garment. This subtle change makes the sword suit more distinguished, and also sets her off more temperamentally and dusty.

According to Wang Yan's understanding, this is definitely not the decoration that Gao Mingyue deliberately added for beauty, but a higher-level symbol.

Especially when I saw Gao Mingyue's waist, there was a simple and transparent sheep fat jade pendant than before.

The jade pendant was carved with a simple Shu character, while the exquisite carvings and the noble and beautiful tassels all showed that this jade pendant has a very special symbolic meaning.

"Gao Mingyue, is it now the master? Not bad, congratulations!"

Upon seeing this, Wang Yan smiled gently and congratulated Gao Mingyue.

Right now Gao Mingyue's only thing that hasn't changed is probably the only cold sword that invites the moon.

"Wang Yan, the congratulatory person should be me."

Gao Mingyue raised the corner of his mouth, revealing a warm smile, and immediately bowed to congratulate, "Wang Yan, congratulations on your success in setting foot in the realm!"

"You are polite, I can be promoted to God Realm, mostly luck. But I believe that with your qualifications, you only need an opportunity, you will be able to break through the shackles and transform into a god!" Wang Yan's modest attitude, affirmed with appreciation With encouragement.

Gao Mingyue's eyes are also full of appreciation for Wang Yan. The two eyes are facing each other, and the past is constantly rising.

The atmosphere is harmonious and comfortable.

There was already some thunderous love experience, his mouth raised, and he deliberately looked away.

Brother is picking a girl, he can't be a light bulb.

But at this moment, many familiar breaths were approaching from the bottom of the cliff.

Wang Yan, Lei Hong, and Gao Mingyue turned to look down.

I saw a lean and capable figure, actually broke through the clouds below the top of the mountain, and ran up vertically.

The coming person is the one who is well-known for his speed, a friend of Wang Yan's East China Branch, Scud.

"Haha, you are really here, Pharaoh. Without Miss Gao Mingyue's guidance, we can't find your trace yet."

Scud greeted loudly. He walked on the almost sharp cliff, and then stepped * his feet. The distance of hundreds of meters was fleeting. The whole person overcame and fell easily to Wang Yan.

“Haha, Pharaoh, so many leaders and colleagues have been here before, and we are not comfortable. At this time, we have a few brothers, and we will gather again!”

A rugged voice came from under the clouds. Then I saw a burly figure as strong as a bear, coming from below.

It was Wang Yan’s other friend, Bursting Bear.

However, at this time, the explosive bear did not fly up with his own strength, but wore a set of black and white, very cool power armor, relying on the jet device on the back and feet, flying up.

And the bear is not alone at the moment. On his broad shoulders, his gorgeous wife, Yuan Xiaorou, a poisonous young woman, is sitting.

“Giggle, Wang Yan hasn’t seen you for a long time. Today’s exception is to let Bursting Bear drink with you.”

Yuan Rourou wore a set of green rubber power armor and a tight suit, which outlined her attractive figure vividly.

At this time she reached out her skillful hands and greeted Wang Yan. Now that she has a happy life, she looks more and more beautiful.

“Okay, haha, I didn’t dare to drink more last night. I am relieved if you have a wife! Haha!”

He got his wife’s approval and burst into joy. He jumped up and jumped to the top of the mountain.

“Explode the bear, Yuan Rourou, your suit is very popular.”

Wang Yan looked at the two of them unexpectedly. Although he saw many soldiers wearing power armor and suits at the base, the suits of Bing Xiong and Yuan Rourou were obviously more special, obviously tailor-made paragraph.

It seems that the earth world has gradually merged technology and abilities, and has figured out a development path of its own.

With the aid of technology, even the weaker superpowers can play a powerful role. Especially in group combat, this effect will be more obvious.

There is no doubt that this evolutionary path is just right for the human population on the earth with a large population and extremely high reproduction efficiency.

Right now, the main force of the Earth Allied Forces is these superpower warriors.

“Hey, Wang Yan, the two of them are now senior sergeants in the mobile warfare group. They are very prestigious in the army.”

This is an old and hoarse voice, obviously giving a dark and cold feeling.

Soon, a black wind came, and a thin old man, carrying a strange coffin, slowly fell to Wang Yan.

It is the old veteran who has also taught Wang Yan Nian Li to get started, the corpse man.

The emaciated and corpse man has now changed his business.

He was wearing a black Tang suit and his big back was combed. In addition to his evil smell, he now really felt like a guru.

“Hey, Wang Yan, the old man knew that you must have a great future, but I didn’t expect your work to be so great!”

Seeing Wang Yan, the Corpse Daoist immediately stepped forward enthusiastically and grinned with emotion, “A god, who can imagine our former companion, would actually become a god?”

“Seniors haven’t seen you for a long time. If it wasn’t your guidance at the beginning, the juniors don’t know how long it will take to grasp the essence of the mind.”

Wang Yan’s achievements today are inseparable from the help of these companions.

Moreover, this corpse Taoist is also quite legendary in his life. He not only survived the chaos of the warlords in the late Qing and early Ming dynasties, he also fought against Dongying Shinto and resisted the Japanese. Now at the juncture of the Earth crisis, he has gone out again and led all the doormen to resist the extraterrestrial demon.

Although he practiced the “Nine Yin Profound Corpse Dafa”, it is an out-and-out evil sect technique, but he has to admit that he is an out-and-out justice man and a respectable senior.

At this time, when the corpse came, Wang Yan stepped forward and shook hands with each other.

The memories that once seemed to be yesterday, and now I feel so warm.

“Xiao Yan, long time no see.”

At this moment, a gentle female voice with excitement and a little shyness came from the clouds.

Wang Yan looked up and saw that a beautiful fox demon with eight tails was falling rapidly from high altitude in the clouds fainted by the morning sun.

It was the sister of Wang Yan’s sister, Linghu Yaojue, the branch director of the East China Branch of the National African Bureau.

Linghu Yaojue lightly dropped, dressed in a workplace full of intellectual taste, so that she has an elegant and graceful appearance under the natural and beautiful appearance.

However, it may have been too long since I saw Wang Yan. At this time, Linghu Yaojue stood in front of Wang Yan and was a little nervous.

Her heartbeat was accelerating, and it was only half a bang that Shanshan explained: “Because it is necessary to lay out defensive measures in the East China region that I am responsible for, the major cities, so last night I, I failed to come in time ...

Linghu Yaojue was like a young girl who had never been in the world at this time. She was at a loss and stood there, where there was the reckless appearance of the former director of East China Branch.

In the eyes of Wang Yan, there was a slight warmth in her heart, which once reminded her of all the ridiculous things that happened with herself under the match of the teacher and the mother.

“Director Linghu, the duty is important, we can meet at any time.”

Wang Yan stepped forward and took the initiative to shake hands with her, “Director Linghu really hasn’t seen you for a long time. During my days in the * world, thanks to your help on the earth, I must invite you well when this battle passes. once.”

“Humph, you have a conscience.”

Linghu Yaojue’s pretentious dissatisfaction snorted, but inwardly secretly rejoiced.

Sure enough, my sister said yes, chasing men must be persevering, meticulous, this is not it? The distance from Wang Yan has gradually narrowed.

At this point, apart from being busy with the task and unable to get away, the friends familiar with Wang Yan, especially the East China Branch, were almost all staffed.

Just as in the past years, the East China branch with a large number of talents gathered once again.

This situation, so many of the people present with emotion, but also miss thousands.

It was a day full of laughter and energy. Although everyone is weak, they come together for a common purpose.

The ups and downs of those common experiences are like a precious asset, always staying in the memory of everyone

Suddenly.

Thunder, which had been silent, stood up from the cliff.

“Pharaoh, come and do it!”

It seemed to be touched by the scene of the gathering of all the people in front of him. His heart was filled with blood, and he reached out and pulled out a jar of Xing Erguo from the inner pocket of the suit, unscrewed the bottle cap, and raised his head to work first.

Linghu Yaojue, who was getting along well with Wang Yan, looked in his eyes and suddenly took a breath.

“Lei bang, stop, you can’t drink this wine.”

Linghu Yaojue’s eyes widened, and she hurriedly stopped. The small heart in her body that had just calmed down her emotions, she couldn’t help getting nervous again.

In the past, when she had just been the director of the East China Branch, she had heard the suggestion that Lei Hong should not be allowed to drink.

At the beginning, she was only a wind in her ears, and she wanted to get drunk men and women. She could see more. It was nothing more than embarrassment. At most, it was shameful. What could be the big deal? Remind Lei Hong to drink less later.

But until the subsequent experiences, especially at the Youth Conference, the scene of kissing the Indian goddess with alcohol in front of the world in the world reminded her that she would numb her scalp.

The complexity of the international disputes caused during that time really took more than half a year to calm down.

This is just one example. If you let Lei Hong drink a few sips of wine under this kind of exhilarating mood, maybe the goods will now carry a spear and go to the demon army to single out.

“No, drink!”

Lei Hong frowned, holding Erguotou who unscrewed the bottle cap, and denied Linghu Yaojue’s stop.

It seems that under this situation, he thundered and did not drink a few glasses with his good brother Lao Wang, and he would have a bad view.

“No no no, Lei Hong, you can’t drink this wine.”

Linghu Yaojue said with a big head, “The war is coming and drinking is easy to make mistakes.”

In order to take into account the atmosphere and thunderous feelings on the scene, Linghu Yaojue also specifically looked at the crowd, “Do n’t drink wine for a few days. The planes are about to collide now. Anything can happen, it’s about the earth and all of us Safety, we are not careful. “

“Director Linghu is right, brother, our old friends are a rare reunion, and we really should have a drink to reminisce about the old. But now the war is coming, and now it is only the calm on the eve of the storm, or the overall situation is the priority, and the end of this battle, Let’s get together and celebrate. “

Wang Yan also came forward to persuade with cold sweat. During the speech, he also took Leihong’s Erguotou, screwed the cap on again, and stuffed it into the inner pocket of Leihong’s suit.

Although Lei Hong looked sorry, he still accepted Wang Yan’s proposal. After all, it was important to deal with the extraterrestrial demon.

The other companions around him also breathed a sigh of relief at this time. Although Baku Xiong really wanted to have a good drink, the unknown consequences of drinking with Lei Hong, he should bear with it again.

“Young man, drink and hurt, it is better to drink less. Come, try this, the old man only respects the old man’s good things.”

The corpse people on the side, not panicking, the old * is there.

The good things he said also attracted the attention of his companions, including Wang Yan.

Good things to honor Master and the elderly? Is it possible to make antler angelica kidney soup?

The companions around him were full of curiosity. Under these eyes, the corpses slowly took out a bundle of drinks from the storage ring.

Everyone took a closer look, it was actually a happy house of fat house? And still the happy water of the ice house!

Wang Yan and his companions were almost stunned. They said that the disciples and grandchildren of the corpse priests actually took this to honor the corpse priests? His old man's preferences are too advanced with the times?

“Hey, hey, this price is not expensive, but the old man is better now.”

The corpse person smiled tentatively and smiled, sharing one person by one jar, “This thing is so good, drink a refreshing breath, especially after the ice, the temperature is controlled at about 4 degrees, the taste is the best.”

“Senior, pay attention!”

Everyone was stunned, but all of them gave thumbs up. This corpse man is worthy of being an older generation who experienced the old age, and retains many good styles. Everything is really very particular.

The morning breeze is blowing, and the sun is welcoming, and a can of happy water is chilled.

“Goo, goo.”

Everyone touched the jar, and took a few sips with their heads up, cold and sweet, sliding down the esophagus, and the whole body was physically and mentally relaxed.

When the mood was good, the crowd opened the chatter box and bathed in the gorgeous morning sun.

Just as everyone chatted and laughed, an awe-inspiring power suddenly appeared as an airstrike.

Immediately afterwards, a blaze of light, just like a little sun, broke through the high-altitude clouds at once, and fell quickly towards the mountain side on their side.

The panic power suddenly overwhelmed everyone's head, and the entire base was instantly enveloped by this divine power.

Especially the kind of horror power that is comparable to the rising sun, as if the mountains in front of you will be easily destroyed as long as you fall to the ground.

...

...

The sudden horror of power shocked everyone.

Fortunately, all personnel inside the base are already familiar with this powerful power, otherwise it will inevitably cause the entire base to fall into panic.

Linghu Yaojue looked up at the scorching light mass flying in the air and exclaimed with respect, “He, he succeeded!”

“Successful? You mean ... God Realm!”

Wang Yan was shocked on the spot, and his heart was surging. Linghu Yaojue’s brother-in-law is naturally referring to Wang Yan’s master Yan Zun Cao Jinglue.

This powerful coercion, from the very beginning to the sun, is overbearing and powerful. If it is really like Linghu Yaojue said, it means that Uncle Cannon has broken through the shackles of mortals with his own power, ignited the fire, and promoted to God!

“Fat! Hahaha, what a feat!”

The corpse man holds Coke in his hand, but his eyes are full of enviable burning glory.

“My God, good, strong firepower!”

“Master Yan Zun deserves to be our patron saint of China!”

“Bear bear, me, I’m a little bit excited, my heart beats a little bit faster ...”

Along the side of the hairy legs, bursting bears, Yuan Rourou all widened his eyes, and under the vast divine power, one after another blood boiling, admiring.

There is no doubt that Yan Zun Cao Jinglue successfully broke through the shackles and returned to the gods, which is a huge incentive for all members of the resistance.

Be aware that as you get older, the efficiency of your practice tends to become slower and slower.

This is not just because his own blood, potential, energy and perseverance have been exerted to the limit, and even the confusion in the heart will gradually increase.

If you are in a relatively comfortable environment, this slackness will gradually increase.

Basically, all practitioners have reached this stage, and every step of the realm is further difficult.

Therefore, often many practitioners, after reaching their own limits, will simply give up the realm of improvement, and instead exercise their skills to improve their strength in disguise.

The original Shushu Yanzun did the same.

It is only in these years that under the successive blows of apprentice Wang Yan, his majesty has been frustrated.

In particular, he gradually realized that his three wives were all evils, and none of them were fuel-efficient lamps. With his original strength, Shou Yuan is only a hundred years old. If he waited for his life to end, wouldn't his three wives have to entrust Wang Yan, an apprentice, to take care of him?

Thinking of this terrible ending, he couldn't settle down even lying in the tomb.

How can this happen? In addition, there is also the devil's pressure outside, and even the apprentice Wang Yan's slave girl can abuse him hundreds of times.

Under such strong internal and external pressure, Uncle Cannon was considered shameful and courageous.

This is where the Gaia consciousness of the earth is located. If Uncle Cannon wants to improve, he can only seek help from Gaia on the earth.

Unexpectedly, under the serious threat of the plane of the earth, Gaia consciousness made an exception to help the uncle Cannon.

Baptized many elements for him, which is the same preferential treatment that Wang Yan actually enjoyed in hell. The pure flame element drawn by Gaia's consciousness has been deeply tempered for each of his cells.

At the same time, the Gaia consciousness of the earth world also shared the original earth full of flames, and the meaning of all the flames and life that has multiplied to this day, to Uncle Cannon.

You know, the fire master Zhurong was born from the flames of the primitive earth.

In fact, when all things are exploded by the power of chaos, the initial flame generated is born and evolved, and eventually it will return to chaos in the final fire.

Once the mystery of the power of flame is realized, the path of Uncle Gun's promotion is paved.

“admire!”

Thunder, who had stood at the peak of the demigod, gave a thumbs-up to the sky and admired it.

The more powerful you are, the more you can often realize how hard and difficult each progress is.

“Predecessor Yan Zun is really a master!” Gao Mingyue also said with a respectful face, “It seems that the rumors are true, and Lord Yan Zun is really the son of the earth. Now! “

“It's really not easy.”

He could see Uncle Cannon and his elders successfully set foot in the divine realm, and his heart was full of comfort and pride.

If it had not been the care and guidance of Uncle Gun, Wang Yan would not be able to step into the flames so smoothly, and he would not be able to reap many achievements today.

And over the years, Uncle Cannon and the three aunts have treated him as his own child and have taken care of him, which makes him very grateful.

Now that seeing Uncle Gun can achieve such great achievements, he is happy from the heart.

“Hahaha, success! Success for the teacher!”

With a mighty laugh, he rolled from the sky like a thunder.

Uncle Gun, who had set foot in the realm of the gods, was like a dazzling small sun. With his sharp mind, he immediately caught Wang Yan’s location, and then stopped suddenly at a high speed. Over the sky.

Uncle Pao Yan Zunwei’s imposing momentum, with fiery power, quickly enveloped the mountains.

Many companions on the top of the mountain congratulated Yan Zun.

Hidden in the general base beneath the mountains, in the main entrances, a lot of superpowers flew out in a flash, and they all met below to celebrate.

For a time, the sentiment raged, and all came to the court.

“Tu’er Wang Yan, visit Master!”

Wang Yan also flew into the sky at this moment, and respectfully paid respect to Uncle Gun.

At this time, Uncle Pao is very beautiful, a teacher, the only mentor and apprentice, who have all set foot in the divine realm. What a glorious thing in this world?

With all the people coming here, the apprentices are filial, and his wife is beautiful, what could be more satisfying in this world than at this moment?

Haha, really cool! Unexpectedly, he can have such a beautiful day!

Uncle Gun’s heart is very comfortable, as if life has reached its peak at this moment.

At this time, seeing that the purpose of showing off the divine power had been achieved, Uncle Cannon slowly began to converge the outward divine power, and the light and heat energy also subsided.

Uncle Gun, who shows the true face of human beings, is no longer the original lazy uncle.

At this time, Uncle Gun’s appearance appeared to be obviously a few years younger, and his body was a bit stronger. The whole person looked refreshed and refreshed.

“Tu’er, although you have set foot in the divine realm, don’t be proud and complacent. The really powerful one should be our heart.”

After Uncle Pao converged on Shenwei, he immediately looked like a teacher, and solemnly patted Wang Yan on the shoulder in front of him.

Wang Yan raised his mouth, complimenting and thanking him again: “Thank you Master Zuo’s teachings, and the children should keep in mind.”

Haha, cool!

Uncle Cannon’s surface was quiet, but in fact his heart was already comfortable.

He can’t remember how long he has been admonishing his baby apprentice like he is now. The feeling of instructing apprentices is really enjoyable!

“Yoyo, you have just been promoted to God Realm, this is floating?”

Just as Uncle Cannon was endless, a charming female voice came from behind the clouds.

Wang Yan turned his eyes and looked at his three beautiful teachers and ladies.

It was the master lady who swayed first, the swaying Nine-tailed Sky Fox Linghu Yaofei.

Linghu Yaofei was swaying with nine tails behind her, and the movement fell lightly to the side of Pao Shuyan Zun and Wang Yan. On the spot, she smirked and said: “Cao Cannon, our family Xiaoyan can kill two demon gods, you As a master, I have barely been promoted to God Realm until now. What’s so good about it? “

Uncle Pao’s heart was hit hard, and the majestic face of the master was suddenly stiff, and he couldn’t stop seeing it. He had no choice but to whisper to Linghu Yaofei: “Hey, my wife, there are outsiders, Give some face, leave some face for the husband ... “

“Oh, what’s so good about you?”

At this time, with a flash of holy light, blonde hair, and three sisters in the nun’s robe, they flew with outstanding temperament, “As far as I know from the Father, Xiao Yan gave him his most precious trophy. His master and mother-in-law, even one of the gods they harvested, were given as gifts to our daughter Lulu. “

“In my opinion, you can be promoted to God Realm, at least half of which is Xiao Yan’s credit.”

The three goddesses’ bright * made Daier stare at Uncle Gun, and then looked at Wang Yan with joy, “Xiao Yan, we will be a family in the future, don’t pay attention to your unfamiliar master.”

“Yeah, Xiao Yan, your master is a guy who gets cheap and sells well. Without your gifts, who of us can get to the state now?”

Prince Rose, who is also very fond of Wang Yan, is like a medieval lady, with a touch of blood, falling extremely gracefully to the sides of the four.

“Xiao Yan, Nana’s girl told me everything. The sister-in-law has never seen her so happy.”

When Prince Rose fell to the ground, she took Wang Yan's hand, raised her lips, and said with joy, "Sister-in-law didn't expect that you were willing to give her such a precious personality as an engagement gift. In short, you can be together, I This girl is really happy for you. "

"The three teachers and sisters don't have to be so polite, you should treat Xiao Yan as a child, and Xiao Yan should honor you and your master."

Wang Yan smiled modestly. He defeated the two demon gods one after another and saved the kingdom of light. The loot and benefits he gained were innumerable. It is also appropriate for him to come up with the most precious part and help his masters and teachers to improve their strength.

In this way, not only can he repay the love and cultivation of Uncle Pao and his wife, but he can also enhance his own strength and achieve more in one fell swoop.

It's just that Wang Yan's gift is too precious. The shot is a bottle of water for one person. The gift is also the deity of the devil, and the rest of the treasures are a lot.

Not to mention that the three mother-in-laws who had loved him originally, that is, the mother-in-law who had never met each other, could also fall completely under this offensive.

The three teachers and sisters, you and I have a good relationship with Wang Yan.

On this side, Uncle Gun, who had just set foot in the realm, was completely ignored.

Uncle Pao wants to cry without tears. It stands to reason that in this situation, should he be the protagonist at this moment?

But he was favored by Gaia's consciousness, a veritable son of the earth, and had just been promoted to a god. Such a powerful and powerful feat, shouldn't his wives go around and beg for fascination? Shouldn't the people of the world cheer for him?

But what's going on now?

Why did his attention go to his apprentice Wang Yan? Even his wives have gone with the apprentice?

What the * is going on here?

"Hey, wife, your husband has just become a god. God of the earth, do you want to come and celebrate?"

"Xiao Yan, Xiao Yan, look at the Master, is it strong enough? Who is more powerful than those demon gods?"

"Hey, hello ..."

Under the hopeless call of Uncle Gun, the kind-hearted Xiao Yan did not come to remember to answer, but was pulled to the ground by the three teachers and sisters and walked toward the inside of the base.

Uncle Cannon was left alone, suspended in midair, silently choking.

He looked up at Qingkong helplessly, and suddenly felt life was as sad as snow ...

...

More than an hour later, hiding in the Earth's Anti-Union General Base under the mountains.

In the Anti-Union Command Room, Uncle Pao Yan Zun, Wang Yan, and leaders of major organizations around the world sat at large conference tables and discussed the final battle plan.

Nowadays, all the major sub-bases of the earth have built apex transmission channels. Right now the plane is about to collide, and all personnel have entered a state of combat readiness, and the response is very rapid.

Upon learning of the news of the anti-Union Leader Yan Zun Cao Jingluo, set foot on the divine ground, and returning strong, the big brothers of all parties rushed to the general base located in the mountains of China almost immediately.

This kind of politeness is naturally indispensable, and even the leaders of the China National African Affairs Bureau have been boasted by all the leaders.

Not to mention, two gods appeared one after another in China, one was chosen by fate, and the other was favored by the Gaia consciousness of the earth.

These two special powerful gods are not comparable to ordinary wild hair gods. It can be said that because of the presence of the mentors and apprentices Wang Yan and Uncle Pao, for a long period of time in the future, the leadership position of the China National African Affairs Bureau will be unshakable.

Included in the hegemony in the major planes outside the earth, the earth will also have a lot of power in the future because of the appearance of two powerful gods.

It was at this moment that Uncle Pao finally enjoyed the long-lost highlight moment, and the whole person was full of enthusiasm and lofty ambition.

Many people sought after, and the world's big brothers came to congratulate, especially Mitsui of Dongying Chao's own team, and leaders of the descendants of Indian gods.

However, Uncle Gun was not too proud. After all, the three wives and his apprentice Wang Yan were all at the scene.

Speaking of this apprentice, he was relieved and helpless.

Can there be an outstanding and sensible apprentice, can he be happy and pleased? But helplessly, this apprentice is really outstanding. Even if he as a master successfully set foot in the divine realm, he can't compare with the apprentice in merit.

The key to his three beautiful and beautiful wives, and the love of Wang Yan as an apprentice, made him feel a little embarrassed.

Right now, in front of the three wives and this excellent apprentice, he really can't help it.

...

“Since you are quiet, I will say a few more words below.”

Uncle Gun sat on the chair and deliberately coughed, pretending to be an old leader.

Below, organizations such as the Dongying Super Self-Team, the African Ancient Witch Alliance, and other organizations immediately put on a deaf ear.

Even the powerful Midi Super Shield Bureau, the Polar Bear Secret Service, and the leaders of the Light Holy See and the Dark Council, including Wang Yan sitting beside him, represented non-staffed forces, all of which were obedient.

Uncle Cannon looked around for a while, and this situation made him very satisfied with his prestige.

He nodded and said slowly: “According to the detection, the plane collision is still about three days away. Fortunately, the preparations we should make are all prepared. However, before the actual war, any accidents may occur, so I hereby ask everyone to make sure that every post, every post, and even every inspection, every gun, must be foolproof. “

Take precautions and pay attention to every detail, it is always good.

The leaders below immediately echoed with each other and said that they would obey the discipline and listen to the command. They must ensure that every detail will never fail.

“Beyond that, to what extent are our nuclear bombs loaded?”

Uncle Cannon asked aloud that the nuclear bomb was undoubtedly the last killer on the earth.

“Relax, all our nuclear bombs in China have been assembled.”

The first person to speak out was Han Hongbo, Director General of the National African Affairs Bureau. “We have half of China’s nuclear bombs loaded on Xiaoyan’s battleships, and the other half are personally responsible by our National African Affairs Bureau.”

By managing the nuclear bombs in batches and then releasing them in batches, you can ensure the success rate of detonating nuclear bombs. In wartime, you can also take a surprise blow to the enemy by surprise.

“Our Polar Bear Secret Service’s nuclear bombs have also been fully loaded, and three teams are responsible for delivery.”

The Polar Bear Secret Service Director patted his chest with arrogance. “Our members of the Polar Bear Secret Service have already made preparations for the jade crush. With the amount of nuclear bombs from our Polar Bear Secret Service, as long as the launch is successful, the entire abyss will definitely be given. Explode! “

“All the nuclear bombs of our Super Shield Bureau have also been fully loaded.”

The director of the Super Shield Bureau is James, an old acquaintance. At this time, he solemnly said, “Our male superhero of the Super Shield Bureau has automatically asked for help. In the wartime, if we fail, he will personally bring all nuclear bombs with the main force of Heavenly Devil. perish together!”

As soon as these words came out, the atmosphere at the scene was a bit tragic.

This battle has been related to the survival of the entire human race. The earth superpower community has become a city. Every capable person is doing his best to contribute to the protection of his homeland, even at the expense of his life.

The Polar Bear Secret Service has always been known for its bravery and fearlessness. In the eyes of their people, as long as they can defeat the extraterrestrial demon, everyone can put life and death out of their sight.

The Super League’s male superhero is still a foreign immigrant. But he and his sister, Super Girl, already regarded the earth as their home.

In order to protect his homeland, he was even willing to act as a surprise soldier, rush into the enemy formation, and sacrifice himself.

Such a fearless spirit has deeply admired everyone present.

As for the use of the vast majority of the world’s reserve nuclear bombs, there is no way out of it.

If their coalition forces collapsed across the board, their earth coalition forces would only use nuclear weapons, and they would die with the incoming army of heaven and demons.

By that time, I am afraid that few of these people present will survive, but only by breaking up the abyss and destroying most of the extraterrestrial demon, the earth, and humans living on the earth, will it be possible to survive.

“Less than a last resort, we will never let any warrior sacrifice in vain.”

Uncle Pao very solemnly assured everyone that this is the maximum guarantee he can give under the current situation.

If this is really a last resort, even the leader of the Anti-Unification League, who has just set foot on the divine realm, must put aside his life and death and fight to the end.

“Also from now on, we need to keep in touch with several allies at all times.”

Uncle Pao said, turning to Pope Guang, Prince Rose, and his apprentice Wang Yan.

These three correspond to the Kingdom of Light and the Fallen Demon Realm of Hell World, and Wang Yan can contact more allies. He is the core of this alliance.

“Lao Cao, don’t worry, my father, His Majesty, has been closely watching our plane of the earth.”

Father Guangming solemnly replied that since Wang Yan and his companions saved the Kingdom of Light, the Kingdom of Light has undoubtedly become the firmest ally on the earth. A large number of technology and personnel have been transported to the earth through the channels of the Holy See.

“The strategy, our daughter Nana, is now the young leader of the Fallen Demon Realm. You can rest assured about the Fallen Demon Realm.”

The Dark Lady Catherine, although not a prince of the rose, accepted the first embrace of the prince of rose and became a blood descendant of the prince of rose. The two have the same blood, and to some extent, they have been regarded as the daughter of the prince of rose.

Since he is the daughter of Prince Rose, he is naturally the daughter of Uncle Cao Jingluo.

“Xiao Yan, don’t worry about it even more.”

When Prince Rose mentioned Wang Yan, there was more tenderness in his eyes, “Now the new Demon God in the Dark Demon Realm is his daughter-in-law Uya Ange, Satan, the Demon God in the Purgatory Demon Realm, inherited from his father and son, and the Kingdom of Light Saved by him. I think these allies will stand firmly on our side of the earth anyway. “

“Master, rest assured, my side is ready, everything is going according to plan.”

Wang Yan gave Uncle Pao a reassuring look. Although he had avoided the world for more than a year, he also participated in some decisions and suggestions in the process of avoiding the world. In addition, his group of people who can speak on their own have saved him a lot of unnecessary labor.

“Well, that’s good.” Uncle Gun nodded, looking like he was relieved.

This war is destined to involve the entire galaxy, the earth, hell, and the kingdom of light. As the three planes bearing the brunt, joint alliance is the key to defending the enemy.

From the current point of view, this alliance is very strong, and the earth has also been relieved a lot.

Next, everyone discussed and simulated a variety of strategic plans, how to face plane collisions, and how the enemy would invade the world of the earth. These are the questions that Uncle Cannon, Wang Yan, and other senior leaders must think about.

At the time when many big brothers discussed in detail, Mitsui of Dongyingchao’s own team served tea and water among the people and shuttled back and forth. The kind of diligence has already reached the environment.

On the way, I did not forget to shout out “Earth will win”, “Heaven will be defeated undoubtedly”, “Yan Zun, Yan Shen, immortal” and other flattering words.

As the leader of Dongying, Mitsui’s slavery is deep, and he thought of surrendering at the beginning. In the face of the powerful extraterrestrial demon, why should he resist?

However, the Earth Resistance Alliance, and even the resistance alliance of the entire Milky Way galaxy, is extremely united under the external pressure, and he is all united. As a leader of his small East Yingchao team, he dare not say anything more.

In addition to flattering, he is also dedicated in other ways.

For example, almost all of the nuclear fuel at Dongying has been donated to the Earth Resistance. In addition to the four islands of Dongying, all the people, at his call, donated money and materials spontaneously, which was regarded as a contribution to the earth's resistance to the United Nations.

Now because of the constant approach of the planes, as early as three or four years ago, many small plane holes appeared, allowing many abyss creatures and abyss demons to penetrate. To this end, the world of superpowers has fought a lot of siege and seal wars.

It is precisely because of this, the collision of the earth superpowers, extraterrestrial civilizations, and the abyss planes in the near future, and the invasion of extraterrestrial demon are no longer secret.

And to the point where it is today, this is already a war for all mankind.

The resistance of the Earth can develop to the present level in a short time, without the contribution and support of ordinary human beings.

The meeting lasted for a small period of time. After the core tactics were basically determined, as the leader of the Earth Anti-Union, Artillery Uncle slowly stood up and announced, "You guys, today's combat meeting is here."

"Submit the order to let all the combatants go back in shifts to meet family and friends, and also you several old guys. You need to write a will to write the best. Just remember now. Forty-eight hours later, all combatants, All gathered here. "

In the last sentence of Uncle Gun, with a little ridiculous tone, it just seemed to be relaxed and casual, and actually uploaded into people's ears, how much more sad.

There is no way. It is only more than seventy hours from the prediction of the plane monitoring and the collision between the earth and the abyss plane.

Once the two sides collide, there will inevitably be a war about the survival of mankind.

In the face of the powerful extraterrestrial demon and abyss coalition, and the supreme devil who is far more terrible than the gods, no one knows whether it can survive.

If you do n't get together with your family and friends now and leave some testaments or something, I'm afraid there will be no chance after the war.

"Your Excellency Yan, a few of us will go back to the sub-base first, and each is ready to go."

The leaders of several superpower organizations present stood up and said goodbye to Uncle Cannon.

Afterwards, Super Shield Secretary James, Pope Bright and Secret Service Director Polar Bear and others also successively quit to Uncle Cannon.

The leaders of a superpowered organization in a room left the meeting room one after another and walked along the passage to the transmission point.

After the people around were almost gone, Uncle Cannon breathed out a sigh of air and returned to the original uncle of Cao Cannon in the original shop.

“Wife, look, how did Weifu just behave?”

Uncle Pao quickly asked the three wives beside him with a smile, “Oh, speaking, this leader is really not very good. Well, this is a heavy tone, too serious, and the tone is too weak. It is not easy Yeah, it’s not easy ... “

“You, don’t you just be the anti-Union commander? See what you can tolerate.”

The master lady Linghu Yaofei gave Uncle Gun a white eye on the spot, but then she smiled and warmly encouraged, “I just did just fine.”

Uncle Cannon’s heart burst into joy.

Linghu Yaofei, who has been suppressing and criticizing him, has been so gentle to him this time. This feeling is like drinking a glass of wine and making him feel comfortable.

It seems that he, the commander-in-chief of the Anti-Union, has just done a good job.

“Husband, you have worked hard recently.”

Prince Rose and the other two sisters glanced at each other, and then walked behind Uncle Cannon, raised their hands and pressed his shoulders for Uncle Cannon. “Close your eyes and relax.”

Hey hey, Uncle Cannon had secretly stolen and laughed out of the pig’s voice. He hadn’t remembered how long he hadn’t enjoyed such a supremacy of husband power.

However, on the surface, he still pretended to be calm and said: “The wife is hard, and the husband is not tired, not tired.”

“After having a brief meeting for so long, you must be thirsty? Come, drink some tea and relieve your fatigue.”

The courtesy received by Uncle Pao has not yet been digested, and the little sister-in-law, Daier, has actively made a pot of tea for him, and tenderly handed him in front of him.

“Good, thank you wife.”

Uncle Pao’s mouth couldn’t close anymore, he took the tea quickly and took a sip, “Well! Good tea, good tea!”

At this moment, Uncle Cannon floated all over.

Whatever commander of the Anti-Unification Force, and what set foot in the * realm, can’t compare to this moment. He will not change how much money and fame he gives.

Wang Yan couldn’t help but smile from the heart.

The three teachers and sisters would not easily serve Uncle Gun, the rough man, if they were to switch to normal times, but this is not an ordinary period.

With Uncle Cannon's upright character, once the war breaks out, he will surely take the lead and try his best to resist the enemy and protect his companions.

But now the enemies they are about to face are not the small characters on the earth, but the extraterrestrial monsters that are so powerful that they cannot resist.

If something goes wrong, the four of them will probably live and die.

Even if they are the top masters of the earth, they have already put life and death out of their minds, but where can the couple's love for so many years be let go?

So how can they cherish this precious time right now?

"Oh, by the way, Xiao Yan, what about the division's tactics just now? You have a lot of ideas. If you don't give staff advice for the division, we'll be ready to start."

Uncle Pao was surrounded by three charming wives, and the whole person was comfortably fluttering, looking at his baby apprentice Wang Yan with a smile.

"Uncle Gun, the layout you just made is perfect, and you can't pick out the fault. But when it comes to the backstage ..."

Wang Yan pondered briefly, then whispered to Uncle Gun and the three sisters-in-law, roughly described his plan.

But when Uncle Pao heard it, he stood up from his seat in a hurry: "No! Xiao Yan, you can't do this kind of backhand, and you have to be my master if you want to go!"

At this moment, the three teachers and sisters also looked grim, and they all voiced their opposition.

But since they are opposed to Wang Yan's departure, they must be headed by their husband Jun Pao.

But this post-stroke plan clearly shows that there is a way to die without return. Whether it is Wang Yan or Uncle Cannon's sacrifice, it is very painful and unacceptable for them.

"Uncle Gun, Aunt Gun, I know you treat me like your own son, but this last move can only be done by me."

Wang Yan understood the concern of Uncle Gun and his three aunts, so he patiently explained, "At that moment, our Earth's resistance forces still need the command of Uncle Gun, and Uncle Gun can't leave. Besides, this Although the move is dangerous, it may not be alive. "

"No, this is absolutely not the case, I disagree anyway."

Uncle Pao still shook his head worriedly, "I can give you the command of the army against the Earth, Xiaoyan, your leadership ability is not under me. And you said that this last move may not be a dead end. Let the teacher do it for you. "

“Yeah, Xiao Yan, you are still young. Although you were promoted earlier than your master, your master is still older and has more experience than you, so let him go to us and rest assured.”

The three gunmen also followed the idea of Uncle Gun and persuaded Wang Yan to let him give up the idea of the last move.

At that time, his master Uncle Pao would have to do it.

It's just that they said peace of mind, but in fact their faces were inadvertently full of worry.

Uncle Pao is their husband, and Wang Yan has been treated as their own son to some extent.

On the one hand is the husband, on the other is the child, who will send them to the most dangerous battlefield, they will feel like a knife.

“Uncle Gun, Aunt Gun, I understand your good intentions, but it is too early to say these, we may not be able to use that trick, let's talk about it ...”

Wang Yan felt the care from Uncle Gun and Aunt Gun, and his heart was very warm. He was thinking of using a euphemistic method to ignore this matter in the past.

But at this moment, a loud noise suddenly came from outside the base.

“Boom!”

The violent roar made the whole world tremble.

...

...

“Boom! Rumble!”

The severe tremor that suddenly came at this time is very different from the ordinary earthquake.

It's like two giant wheels on the sea, slowly colliding with each other, the shock has already involved every inch of space.

If we compare the earth to one of the giant wheels, the violent collision at this time is not only the vibration of the ground underneath, but also the tremendous shaking of the space where everyone is located, even the air.

“Wow!”

In the entire base, all the table cases and small ornaments on the walls were almost instantly thrown up and fell to the ground. Inside the base, the time became a mess.

A large number of employees can no longer stand, and they can only fall to the ground and fall into a ball with the force of the shock in the shaking that the world and the world shake.

There was chaos everywhere, and there was exclamation and wailing everywhere.

The entire base was almost instantaneously shrouded in a thick panic.

“Why, what’s going on? Why is there such a strong shock?”

“Did the planes start to collide?”

“Impossible! Three years ago, the advancing matrix built by the Abyss has been destroyed by me and Uncle Cannon. It can’t be so fast!”

“Is it ...”

“Demon Lord, Luo Sui?”

Mentioning this name, the scene was suddenly cold.

At this time, in the conference room of the general base, the uncle Cannon and the aunt Wang Yan still sat steadily on the spot without being affected by this shock.

They seem to grow together with the floor, letting the materials on the conference table, notebooks, drinking glasses and other objects scattered, they are still unmoved.

It’s just that Uncle Cannon and the three aunts, in a brief discussion, suddenly realized the situation, but something was not right.

With their powerful strength today, they can clearly perceive that the vibrations at present are definitely not as simple as ordinary earthquakes, but are plane collisions full of space power!

But you must know that as early as three years ago, Uncle Pao and the four major gods of Linghu Yaoifei, Pope Bright, and the male superhero, bravely penetrated the abyss plane, and attacked and destroyed the plane matrix of the abyss world. The collision between the abyss world and the earth world had to be postponed to today.

Now, according to the prediction of their Earth Resistance Test Department, the abyss world collides with the plane of the earth world, at least for more than seventy hours.

And normal plane collision, although there are vibrations and anomalies, it is more like the fusion of two bubbles. It is definitely not as violent as it is now.

Now this terrible plane shock is definitely a force that is fueling behind.

Who can have the power source that can accelerate the plane to move, besides Luo Sui, the ancient powerful demon beyond the gods?

The thought of the demon Lord Luo Sui, Uncle Gun and Aunt Wang, and Wang Yan present, all immediately realized the seriousness of the matter.

“No, it’s bad!”

Mitsui, the leader of the Dongying Chao Guard, who was most afraid of death, first ran back from the outside passage and asked for help, "Your Excellency, great, great things are not good!"

"Don't be arguing, things are not irreparable."

"Mitsui, pay attention to your image. You are the leader of Dongying. If you can't calm down, how can your army's military mind be stabilized?"

Pope Guang and Han Hongbo, general director of the National African Affairs Bureau, followed Mitsui into the meeting room, but both of them had unusually solemn faces.

Super Shield Secretary James, and the leader of the earth superpowers who had just walked out of the conference room, also rushed back.

The faces of these people are very serious. They have a pair of panic eyes, and they have concentrated on Uncle Cannon and Wang Yan. They seem to want to find a way to deal with them from the two.

"Everyone, don't worry, we have made enough preparations to deal with any situation."

Uncle Cannon first settled his mind and stabilized the people. Then he asked everyone around him in a tone of majesty and calmness, "Who can tell me what is going on now, what is going on?"

At this time, after the first collision between the two planes, the violent vibration finally recovered.

Inside this general base, almost all the personnel are superpowers, and the unstable standing caused by the vibration just did not cause them any harm.

Now as the shock ceased, the employees and soldiers who had fallen down all climbed up one after another, looking solemnly, waiting for the tactical command of the chief commander.

All warship weapons in the base were safely fixed during non-wartime, so there was not much damage to weapons and ammunition.

Only outside this base, this beautiful planet, and the innocent civilian world, I am afraid that it will cause great damage due to the huge vibration caused by the collision of planes.

"Oh, Lao Cao, it's hard to say a word, you should take a look at it yourself."

Pope Guang frowned, signaling an urgent situation and not optimistic.

"Notify all sub-bases in the world and start the global combat readiness immediately!"

Uncle Cannon was also serious, and ordered loudly, "All personnel are ready to go to war!"

...

With the passage of the general base facing the ground opened, Uncle Cannon and Wang Yan, and others, leapt from the general base under the mountains to the air in a flash.

At the sight, everyone at the scene was shocked on the spot.

The 100,000 mountains that seemed to be endless at this time have become a mess.

The original precipitous peaks and rugged rocks have collapsed and collapsed in the violent plane collision. The clear rivers and rivers of the mountain stream turned yellow and turbid because of a large roll of sand and rocks.

Insects are screaming, birds and beasts are fleeing wildly, and the depths of the mountains are now affected on such a large scale. If you look at the world, how much damage will this collision cause?

The loss can no longer be estimated.

However, this is just the beginning.

“Jingle, Xiao Yan, look there.”

The moment the master lady Linghu Yaofei raised her head, the whole person was shocked on the spot. She knew that something was wrong and quickly called Uncle Gun and Wang Yan.

“This, this is ...”

Uncle Pao, Wang Yan, and everyone present, quickly raised their eyes and looked into the air. They suddenly dilated their pupils and took a deep breath.

That is a terrible and terrible space!

Everywhere is a dark and gloomy ocean of dark energy, and in this dark ocean, there are crumbled broken continents floating.

These crumbling massive continents, with their terrifying and terrible shapes, are huge and majestic, and they can feel the uncomfortable violent and chaotic feelings only with the naked eye.

The most terrible thing is that this terrible and broken space is slowly moving closer to the earth world at a speed visible to the naked eye.

From the present point of view, this fragmented space, the only obstacle to the earth's world, is probably only between two planes, which is insignificant, like a space barrier like a transparent film.

Once the barrier of this space breaks, the two spaces will formally contact, and everything from that different space will also rush into the earth without reservation.

“No, no!”

“It is the abyss, there is the abyss world!”

The Pope of Light and the Super League of the Super Shield Bureau both exclaimed from their hearts at this moment.

Like Uncle Gun and Aunt Wang, and Wang Yan, both of them have personally been to the abyss world. The horror of the abyss world is still fresh in memory.

In this case, there is no doubt that the abyss plane has hit the earth world!

“Your Honor, I have something to report to you!”

Just as everyone was shocked on the spot, an intellectual beauty dressed in scientific research clothes and wearing gold wire glasses on the bridge of her nose quickly flew up from the base below.

The person who came here was Dean Yun Zhi, the head of scientific research at the China General Administration.

Yun Zhi looked at Wang Yan from afar, and there seemed to be a lot of things she wanted to say to Wang Yan, but the situation was urgent. She had to leave Wang Yan with a reluctant look. As you can see, the plane of the abyssal world has been promoted by some kind of power or some kind of device. “

Hearing this sentence, Uncle Cannon and the leaders of many superpower organizations present immediately gurgled.

Whether it is a kind of powerful power or a mysterious device, it can certainly promote the abyssal world. And the initiator of all this must be the powerful devil Luo Suo!

If Dean Yun Zhi was just a big blow for everyone, then the content of her next report is undoubtedly a thunderbolt.

“The only thing that can slow down the progress of the abyss plane now is just the plane of our earth itself.”

Dean Yun Zhi looked at the tablet in his hand, then looked at Uncle Gun, and sighed, “The space barrier of our earth plane is the only existence that can hinder the approach of the abyss plane. Perhaps another way of saying, Right now you are reluctantly preventing the presence of the abyss plane from reaching Gaia consciousness. “

“Gaia consciousness?”

“Is it possible to stop the collision of the two planes, leaving only Gaia consciousness?”

The Pope of Light and James James, the director of the Super Shield Bureau, were amazed and asked.

All of the superpowers present here can understand that every planet with life is a wonderful life form in itself.

It’s just that unlike humans, birds and beasts, planets can’t move freely like animals, but every planet has its life cycle and its joys and sorrows.

For example, if humans living on the earth always fight each other, hurt other creatures and destroy the environment, the earth will naturally not be happy as the mother of many lives.

It is not happy, so the human culprit, don’t think about the good weather.

This kind of consciousness that can control the weather of the earth is usually called Gaia consciousness, that is, the consciousness of the earth itself.

As the life form of the earth, the space barriers on the periphery of the earth are like skin that helps humans resist viruses and bacteria.

When a certain god, or an alien intruder like the abyssal world, forcibly breaks into the plane of the earth, the Gaia consciousness of the earth will do its utmost to strengthen its own space barriers to prevent the invasion of outsiders.

But this obstacle is very limited, especially in the face of the abyss world, the collision of the entire world, what the Gaia consciousness of the earth can do, may just delay the time.

“The abyss world is an entire plane, and the Gaia consciousness of the earth alone cannot prevent the planes of the two worlds from merging.”

Uncle Pao frowned, and asked Dean Yunzhi aloud, “Yunzhi, according to your test, Gaia consciousness is the space barrier of our earth. How long can it last?”

“Approximately, we can only speculate on an approximate value.”

Dean Yun Zhi pushed his glasses and said solemnly, “At most there are only four or five hours left. If the extraterrestrial demon has other means, this time may be shorter.”

“Is there only four to five hours left?”

The situation is very serious, but Uncle Cannon secretly rejoiced, “The remaining time is enough for us to prepare, everyone ...”

The Earth Resistance has already prepared and planned for the collision of the two planes. As long as they are given some time, it is enough for them to complete the layout, at least to minimize the damage to the earth.

However, the order of Uncle Gun has not yet been issued, and the accident from the abyss plane suddenly happened again.

Just before everyone’s eyes, the vague abyss planes, the terrifying and frightening void warships, no longer knew when, they appeared at the end of the abyss in contact with the plane of the earth.

These warships are huge in size and gritty, and the whole body is full of the force of Xiao Sha.

Uncle Cannon and Wang Yan and others recognized them on the spot. These warships are a mixed fleet composed of abyssal forces and co-organized with extraterrestrial demon.

The atmosphere instantly solidified.

The emergence of these warships immediately felt that everyone on this side of the earth felt strong oppression.

This is not counted. At the end of the abyss plane, these brave warships immediately appeared in the space barrier of the Earth plane and poured out crazy artillery fire.

Dense shelling, like raindrops, keeps falling on the contact point between the abyss and the plane of the earth.

“Boom! Boom!”

The explosion covered the entire sky in an instant. The dazzling light is like a firework flashing in the night sky. But the violent tremor that followed immediately shook both the abyss and the earth.

“Ka! Rumble!”

Under the indescribable strong explosion, the abyss world produced a terrible spatial shock.

The dark purple thunder and lightning flashed continuously in the abyss sky, and the whole abyss world was shaking and trembling.

The endless abyss of the dark sea, at this moment, all rolled up and boiled. The broken continent floating in the dark sea is like a ship in the wind and waves, constantly colliding and collapsing. In the disaster, howling and crying, and finally withering away.

The entire abyssal world, in a blink of an eye, turned into a * on earth, as if it would be on the verge of destruction at any time.

The same is true of the earth world.

Under the violent impact of the explosion, the whole world once again experienced the terrible plane shock.

The mountains began to collapse, the world began to change color, the sun and the moon were dark, insects, ants, birds, beasts were panicking and hissing, and even the river was boiling.

This is just a catastrophe that happened between the surrounding mountains. If you look at the world, the loss and damage caused by this terrible disaster can no longer be counted!

“This time it **** ...”

In this situation, even Wang Yan, who was firm in his heart, was deeply distressed.

Now that there is no war, such a huge destruction has occurred. Next, whether it can win or not, the civilization of the earth will probably be destroyed once.

...

...

“Damn extraterrestrial demon, they are a group of lunatics!”

The master lady Linghu Yaofei looked at the surrounding mountains and rivers, and her soul was covered with charcoal. She was angry and insulted on the spot, “Do these bastards, do they want to destroy the abyss and the earth?”

The planet in front of her, but she was born and raised, who can endure her own home and suffer such terrible damage?

And in order to accelerate the integration of the abyss plane and the plane of the earth, the extraterrestrial devil will spare no effort to forcefully bombard the space barrier where the abyss and the earth just overlapped.

The resulting spatial shock is devastating to any world.

The impact of this plane turbulence right now is huge, and the entire earth world will be affected. The top powerhouses such as Xiang Ling Yao Fei can not be affected by their own strength, but ordinary civilians and the entire human society will probably usher in an unprecedented catastrophe.

“It won’t work like this. Too many civilians and innocent creatures will be mistreated.”

The little sister-in-law, the bright goddess of the world, has a heart for the world. At this moment, seeing this tragic situation in front of her, her heart is full of pity and anxiety.

“Uncle Cannon, give orders.” Wang Yan turned to look at Uncle Cannon. “Now there must be many catastrophes in the world, and we must minimize the loss.”

“Strategy, we must do something.”

“Yes, Lao Cao, we have prepared for so long for this moment.”

“Commander-in-chief, order! I believe that our planet can overcome this difficulty, and human civilization will continue.”

The little sister-in-law Prince Rose, the Pope of Light, Han Hongbo, general director of the National African Affairs Bureau, and James Chao, director of the Super Shield, all called out for help.

Although the scene was a doomsday scene, but everyone’s ambitions, but instead showed unprecedented cohesion.

“Everyone, the end has come, and the safety of the earth, please come to you!”

Uncle Pao glanced at everyone, Zheng Zheng head said, “This is a catastrophe involving all mankind, we must put aside all personal thoughts, and work together in order to fight for our humanity tomorrow!”

“The subpoena is now going on, starting the doomsday procedure, all the sub-bases around the world, assisting human officials, and leading civilians into the refuge.”

Uncle Cannon looked solemn and ordered loudly, “All combatants are on the battleship, ready to go to war! The rest of the gods and some legendary elites, follow me and Xiaoyan to rescue!”

“Yes!”

With the order of Uncle Cannon, in the air and the general base below, there was an immediate response of mighty unity.

Soon, instructions were quickly sent to thousands of sub-bases around the world.

Most of these sub-bases of various sizes are sub-bureaus of major organizations, but at the moment of war, these super-organization sub-bureaus were all converted into sub-bases located in the main base of China. It is uniformly dispatched by the China General Base.

On weekdays, these sub-bases are mainly used for detection, patrol, eradication of any external enemies using space holes and slipping into the plane of the earth, while doing everything possible to assist the construction of the China base.

Now after receiving the order from Uncle Cannon, all the sub-bases scattered around the world have launched emergency measures, and all the superpowers have been dispatched.

These superpowers are all second-line combatants. They may not be particularly powerful, but they are more than enough to cooperate with the official government army to carry out civilian rescue and * missions.

At the same time, these sub-bases and the official government have jointly built many large refuges to save the surviving civilians and relocated all to the refuge.

Perhaps in this near-doomsday war, unless we can win this impossible war, we cannot save all mankind by relying solely on these shelters.

But if the resistance forces of the earth and the galaxy can win this war, then these sturdy refuges will greatly guarantee the integrity and continuity of human civilization and the ecology of the earth.

With the order conveyed, the world has begun a fierce transfer and rescue operation.

At the China General Base, all combat preparation personnel quickly landed on the battleship and immediately began to prepare for ignition.

Over this side of the base, Uncle Gun glanced at Wang Yan, and several companions left, and said: "Xiao Yan, and all of you, we must reduce the large-scale disaster as much as possible, and strive for more transfers of civilians. Much time. "

"The forecast of the disaster and the scheduling of us are handed over to Dean Yunzhi and Linghu Yaojue." Wang Yan looked at Dean Yunzhi not far away and Linghu Yaojue, the branch director.

"Wrap it on us." The two immediately nodded to Wang Yan, and then quickly returned to the base.

Wang Yan, Uncle Gun and others also instantly became a rainbow, disappearing over the sky.

The Pope of Light, the Prince of Roses, the Angel of Light, and several EU leaders, such as Emmons and Lydia, quickly returned to Europe. The desert emperor, Shiva goddess and others rushed to the African continent and India respectively.

The men's super team rushed back to North and South America with Super Shield Director and High Priest Berika. Wang Yan, Lei Bang, Gao Mingyue, and Uncle Pao and the master lady Linghu Yaofei, etc., rushed to different parts of China.

The violent impact caused by the turbulence of the plane is too great.

At present, the whole earth is shaking, mountains and rivers are broken, volcanoes are spewing, seawater is pouring back, high-rise buildings are all destroyed and collapsed ... Such a huge disaster is no longer an ordinary person, or an ordinary superpower, can be prevented.

The only people you can rely on at the moment are these peerless strong men who are more than half gods.

“Woo! Save, help!”

“Sea, the tsunami is coming!”

“We can’t escape, we can’t escape ...”

“Wow, mother! Woo, woo, where are you mom? Woo ...”

In the city of Huahai off the coast of China, all the evacuating citizens were in a panic. There were crying and panicking crowds everywhere, and even the squad of superpowers who commanded the evacuation was full of deep despair. .

In Huahai City, the Yangtze River merged into the East China Sea here, but just as the plane was violently oscillated, the entire river was evacuated, and the seawater retreated hundreds of miles from the coastline.

At this time, the retreating seawater rushed again, and the giant tsunami formed was nearly 100 meters higher than the Huahai Center Building before the collapse!

Under such a terrible kilometer tsunami, let alone ordinary human beings, even the superpowers who reached the legendary level are full of despair.

In particular, the huge waves of thousands of meters formed by the sea water have been seen right now, and when the sky is overwhelming, the civilians who are migrating on the streets can only do so desperately, waiting for the end of the day.

“not good!”

Wang Yan, who was rushing at a high altitude, saw this terrible scene, and he was very worried.

This tremendous wave hits his head and covers his face, not to mention the innocent civilians in front of him, even the entire city of Huahai will be razed to the ground!

The most important thing is that Wang Yan ’s parents and family are still in the far suburbs of Huahai City. If this tsunami falls, will his family want to ...

At the thought of this, Wang Yan immediately transported the vast divine power, and he would rush towards the tsunami.

But at this moment, a magnificent cold rushed into the sky.

Just at the edge of the coastline, the extremely cold chill rolled up the icicles, and the thicker and thicker it was, as if it were a icy storm, rushing into the clouds and puncturing the thick atmosphere instantly.

It was in this vast energy that was brewing to the ultimate moment, a powerful chill that erupted instantly!

“boom!”

The force of ice condensing to the extreme is like an ice blue streamer, traversing the entire coastline at a rapid speed.

“Click! Click!”

Goose feathers and heavy snow drifted down at this moment, enough to be called a miracle, happened.

With the flash of this extremely cold streamer, the giant waves that are about to overturn are forcibly frozen!

And this force is still spreading. It seems that it is necessary to completely freeze the entire coastline of China.

Everything around me seemed to fall into a frozen world at this moment.

Seeing this, Wang Yan couldn't help but take a long sigh of relief. The only person in the world who can do this is his girlfriend, the ice goddess Huangfu Nanlian.

“Nan Lian.”

Wang Yan's eyes quickly searched, and finally found the figure of Huangfu Nanlian near the coastline, and immediately fell.

“Xiao Yan, I knew you would come.”

Huangfu Nanlian looked solemn, but when Wang Yanfei arrived, she still showed a gentle smile, “You can rest assured, my parents, I have let the clan take the refuge, now let me here, I will be late Will go to the main base to meet you. “

After Huangfu Nanlian and Wang Yan rescued the Kingdom of Light, she was not badly injured. Fortunately, she was healed in time, and then she returned to the ancestral land of the Winter God, where she resumed conditioning and carefully condensed her strength and state of mind.

This stay was more than a year ago, and she has not appeared so far. She didn't even participate in the Earth Resistance Conference.

It was just that at the first moment of the disaster, returning to Huahai City to rescue Wang Yan's parents made Wang Yan's heart slightly warm.

“Okay, Nanlian, you are here to work hard, I will go to rescue other places that need help.”

Wang Yan nodded gratefully to Nanlian, “Also, thank you for your embarrassment and thinking about our parents.”

At this time, it was not time to speak, and Wang Yan once again flew into the air in a hurry.

Nan Lian looked at the back of Wang Yan’s departure and raised her lips slightly: “Fool, your parents are my parents.”

When Wang Yan left, Nanlian’s expression became solemn again, and a surging chill came up again.

What she has to do is not only to freeze the coastline of Huahai City, but also to freeze the entire coast of Huaxia, so even if a huge tsunami strikes, the high solid ice wall is enough to resist for a while. .

...

“What? Kunlun cracked, erupting underground lava?”

Wang Yan, who had just flown to the sky, received a request for assistance from Dean Yun Zhi.

When Wang Yan heard it, he was shocked immediately.

Kunlun is a large mountain range on the Asian continent. It is called the mountain of the ancestors in China. If Kunlun cracks in the plane and ruptures and emits magma under the ground, the damage caused will be absolutely huge.

“I will deal with it immediately.”

At this time, Uncle Pao went to Changbai Mountain, Aunt Pao, Lei Hong, Gao Mingyue, etc., respectively to the Southeast Plains, Northwest Desert, and the South China Sea Islands. Therefore, this Kunlun Mountains can only be given to him by Wang Yan.

In the end, there is a huge crack that stretches for hundreds of kilometers.

The crack was like a greasy wound that appeared on the ground, from the winding mountains to the distance. The internal lava rolled and continued to follow the cracks to the outside.

If not dealt with in time, these lava can be recast into a map, and all nearby towns and refuges will be buried and burned.

“First fill these lavas back!”

Wang Yan floated in mid-air, one-handed one move, the powerful power of Fatianxiang Earth, immediately above the mountain range, showed a thousand hands.

The big hands gathered together, and most of the magma spewed out, which was stuffed back into the crack.

A few times, most of the magma was stuffed back. Then Wang Yan folded his hands together, and under the powerful divine power, the huge Kunlun crack was gathered by Wang Yansheng.

The crowd in the distance began to cheer.

Since these refugees have witnessed Wang Yan's abilities as gods, Wang Yan's status in their hearts has almost reached the level of the legendary gods in the temple. Everyone is kneeling to thank and praise Wang Yan's reputation.

However, one wave after another.

The rolling Kunlun Mountains has more than one place to collapse. When Wang Yan was about to repair it, he received the distress message sent to the State Administration of Africa by the Great Snow Mountain Diaowang.

This message was conveyed by Director Linghu. It is said that a large-scale lava eruption also occurred in Daxue Mountain. Now the entire Daxue Mountain is about to collapse. The gathering place of their demon clan has almost been completely buried.

Wang Yan had no way to do it, so he had to leave the ancient Flame Demon and the three-legged Jinwu. These two pets continued to repair the Kunlun Mountains.

The three-legged Jinwu has reached the * level, the ancient Flame Demon also has a demigod peak, and they are all top-level fire elemental creatures, dealing with lava and repairing the surface, which is perfect.

"Remember, we have limited time, and we must resolve all crises within an hour!" Wang Yan urged them to complete their tasks in time, and then returned to the main base to join him.

"Boss, let this little thing be given to us!"

"Young Master, rest assured!"

The three-legged Jinwu and the Ancient Flame Demon patted their chests to ensure that perhaps this is the advantage and strength of elemental life. The collapsed ground and spewing lava at the moment can't cause them any damage. A hot bath is as comfortable.

Therefore, to prevent such problems as the spread of magma, they cope with it easily.

Wang Yan nodded, and then flew into the sky to the Daxue Mountain in the Tibetan area.

...

"Grandpa, we are going to die, we are going to be buried alive! Ooo ..."

The secret area of Daxue Mountain in Tibetan area, the gathering area of demon races, is in a panic.

At this time, a snow-white little ferret shivered shiveringly behind an old ferret standing in human form, his eyes full of distressing crystal tears.

"Granddaughter, no, grandpa is here, and none of our demon races will be buried!"

The old ferret is majestic, with solemn eyes, and a pair of mink claws are struggling to support the top of the head. The ice and snow enclave formed by this is covering the entire demon realm and many demon clan people behind them.

It's just that although its enchantment is solid, the crushed rocks and snow falling from above the Daxue Mountain weigh more than ten million tons! In addition, the lava that is constantly spouting out, constantly impacting the enclave, and also melting more ice and snow that is not tolerated for thousands of years.

The avalanche is like a mountain collapse, and it keeps falling towards the mysterious realm of the demon clan in the mountains. Coupled with the large amount of mixed lava, everything that seems to be blocking the front will be completely submerged and destroyed.

...

“Boom!”

The mountains were trembling, gravel avalanches, and a lot of lava flowing, just as the landslides and tsunamis continued to run down the mountain.

The snow and ice enchantment supported by the Great Snow Mountain Sable King is like a large semi-circular bowl, covering the entire demon clan's secret realm.

Saying it is a secret realm is actually just a gathering area of demon clan covered with illusion. This is a demon clan dominated by Daxueshan marten king.

There are many members of these demon clan members, but their strength levels are uneven, and they are generally in the D-level C-level, the B-level is already very small, and the A-level is so dozens. Self-protection is difficult, and can only rely on the legendary high-level Daxueshan Marten King to support the enchantment and support.

Otherwise, under the overturn of boulder lava and Wanjun ice, this demon tribe will be completely erased.

But now, the Great Snow Mountain Sable King looks dignified, his arms tremble, and with intense consumption, it has less and less enchanting power.

It can no longer support it.

“King, please run away with the lady, leave us alone!”

A burly panda demon, can't bear to look at the hard support of Diao Wang, kneeling down to the ground and voluntarily giving up his life.

“King, do you still want to escape with the lady! We don't have to die!”

“We have been sheltered by you so far and have been satisfied!”

“Hurry and take the lady out of here, we will make a passage for you!”

Each demon clan begs on their knees, and then hugged each other, using their flesh and blood, to build a passage to the outside world for the big snow mountain sable king and granddaughter Xiaoxue.

This flesh and blood channel may not be able to support for a moment, but they believe that with the strength of their demon king, they can definitely break out of the scope of the magma avalanche in an instant.

“You, you ...”

The Daxueshan Marten King was moved by heart, but the more moved, the more it hurt.

How can he do it if he wants to give up these kind demon compatriots?

“Woo, big brother, Xiaoxue wants to see big brother ...”

Behind the marten king, the little ferret cried silently. In order to be able to defeat the Yingying Yanyan next to the big brother, it has been staying with the big brother for a long time. Over the years, he has been following the painstaking practice of Grandpa Wang in Daxueshan, hoping to grow up as soon as possible and transform the human form as soon as possible.

It's a pity that it hasn't succeeded in cultivation, the earth has encountered such a big disaster, and their demon clan is destined to be completely destroyed today.

It's not afraid of death, but it's just that I can't see the big brother I'm missing anymore.

Suddenly.

The roaring all around suddenly stopped somehow.

Then the Great Snow Mountain Sable King felt the pressure on the periphery of the enchantment suddenly lightened, and the mixture of tens of millions of tons of gravel lava and ice and snow was all cleared in the blink of an eye.

“Me, are we saved?”

“Has the comrades of the National African Affairs Bureau come to us?”

“Whoever has such a great ability, can actually eliminate such a disaster in the blink of an eye?”

All the demon clan and Daxueshan Diaowang were relieved for the rest of their lives. At the same time, I was also secretly marveling. What kind of big guys can easily eliminate this catastrophe in a flash?

As the Great Snow Mountain Marten King carefully removed the ice and snow enchantment that enveloped the entire Yaozhai, the scene that appeared in front of them, once again deeply shocked the spirit of every demon tribe.

That's a giant flame as tall as the Snowy Mountains!

This majestic flaming giant, standing upright and magnificent, is like a flaming monarch who is in the world, full of awe-inspiring majesty.

“Big, big brother? Then, is that big brother ?!”

The little ferret was full of surprise, oh round mouth, half closed.

If it were n't for the fact that it was very familiar with the breath of his big brother, he could not believe it. The flaming giant in front of him was his big brother Wang Yan!

“Oh, he is, of course, him! I really didn't expect that he came to save us, this boy has a conscience.”

Daxueshan Marten Wang looked at Wang Yan with a smile on his face, his face full of pride and gratification, “Xiaoxue, now your big brother is a majestic god, if according to the etiquette, even grandpa has to call his majesty . “

Of course, those etiquettes are for outsiders. In the eyes of the Great Snow Mountain Marten King, Wang Yan is his grandson-in-law, and his grandson-in-law is actually a god. !

“Wow! Yes, it's Grandpa!”

Behind Marten King, the panda demon will cheer with excitement, “Aunt is here to rescue us! Long live Aunt!”

As it screamed loudly, many demon clan behind them all boiled.

A few years ago, Wang Yan came to Daxue Mountain in addition to this. Many of them have also drunk with Wang Yan and broke their wrists.

Now that this great aunt has not only been promoted to god, but also saved their whole family, how can they not be excited about it?

However, at present, Wang Yan has no time to say hello to these demon clan. He who exhibited the law of heaven and earth, waved his hand and tens of millions of tons of lava and avalanche pressed above the demon village were easily removed.

Now Wang Yan has spewed out lava from the top of the cracked Daxue Mountain again, gathered it again, and stuffed it back into the crack.

Then Wang Yan held both sides of the mountain with both hands, and with a little effort, the cracked Daxue Mountain was re-closed by him.

This is not over yet, and Wang Yan puts in his own pure yang true qi and enters it in order to appease the boiling lava underground.

So far, the disaster of this land has been temporarily removed.

Busy of all this, Wang Yan put away the Fatianxiang Earth and fell in front of Daxueshan Marten King and many demon races in his usual human form.

“Senior Wang, I haven't seen you for a long time.” Wang Yan pretended to be a junior, and humbly arched his hand to Daxueshan.

This old-timer, who had taken good care of him and was Xiao Xue's grandfather, now respectfully calls him a senior.

"Xiao Yan, you're welcome, you're welcome, everyone is a family and you don't have to be so out of touch."

Daxueshan Marten looked at Wang Yan with a smile on his face. He is now more and more satisfied with the grandson-in-law, and his heart is full of joy.

Then he led the clan and thanked Wang Yan for his solemn salute: "Also, thanks to your rescue, Xiao Yan, you are the great benefactor of our clan. Willing to work hard! "

"Your Majesty Wang Yan, you are the patron saint of our Daxue Mountain demon clan, and we will always serve you forever!"

The gratitude sounded one after another, and countless demon clan kneeled down to the ground, respectfully and respectfully defeated Wang Yan.

"Big brother!"

Suddenly, a white figure flew out from behind Daxueshan Diaowang.

It looked like a white streamer, and after leaping to mid-air, it suddenly became a little girl with pink toots and plunged into Wang Yan's arms.

It was Wang Yan's former pet, Xiao Xue, Xiao Xue.

"Woo, big brother Xiaoxue misses you so much, it's been a few years, woo, you don't come to see Xiaoxue!"

Xiaoxue grabbed Wang Yan's collar, crying and rubbing, with a moan in his mouth, but his head was reluctant to leave Wang Yan's arms for a moment.

"Xiao Xue, I miss you too, and I am very happy to see you."

Wang Yan touched Xiaoxue's little head and comforted, "I have been too busy in recent years, went to hell, went to the asteroid belt, and then went to the Kingdom of Light, and I had to work hard to improve my strength. There is no time to do it. "

"Woo, big brother, hard, big brother hug ..."

Although Xiaoxue can now be transformed, his mindability is still the same as that of the little ferret in the past, which makes Wang Yan feel cordial.

After Wang Yan comforted Xiaoxue for a while, he gave Xiaoxue back to Daxueshan Diaowang: "Senior Wang, Xiaoxue still has to take care of you, and there will be a tough battle for the juniors.

"Xiao Yan, please go, Xiao Xue will hand it to me."

The Great Snow Mountain Sable King, and many demon races on the scene, gradually looked dignified.

Next, Wang Yan 's powerful opponents are the culprits of the terrible catastrophe of the earth, the extraterrestrial demon!

“No! Xiaoxue will go with Big Brother!”

Xiaoxue played with the little girl's temper and saw that Wang Yan was going to leave it, and now he was going to Wang Yan's arms. After all, converted to human age, she is now no bigger than Wang Yan's neighbor's little girl.

“I already have A-level realm! I can stay in shape for a whole day, I can help the big brother to beat the bad guys, I want to follow ...”

But before Xiaoxue's words were finished, he was caught by Daxueshan Diaowang.

“Silly girl, where is Xiaoyan going to go, is this a little demon like you who can't go?”

Daxueshan sable king pointed to the sky in the east direction and said seriously, “Did you see? That world is called the abyss, even if Grandpa used to be difficult to deal with, and now there are more terrible enemies than the abyss demon, came to that world, want to Invade our home over there. “

“Facing such a powerful enemy, you will only add chaos to your big brother.”

The words of Daxueshan Diaowang were direct and true, and they were also full of blows to Xiaoxue, making it completely silent.

The distant eastern sky is now full of terrible images of the abyss.

The plane of the abyss world has been closer to the plane of the earth than before. The contact surface of the abyss world with the earth world is also constantly spreading. It seems that it will not take long for the two worlds to formally merge.

Even from the present point of view, the dark and deep abyss image full of chaos and destruction makes the demons at the scene shudder.

Little Ferret also felt the fear from her heart. Although she wanted to be with Wang Yan very much, she was filled with unwillingness, but she couldn't go to the big brother Wang Yan for confusion?

“Xiaoxue, we will meet again.”

Wang Yan rubbed Xiao Xue 's little head and took a piece of crystal clear crystal out of the storage ring. “Before leaving, I have a gift for you, but I will trust you for your safety. Grandpa takes care of it. “

“This, this is ...!”

Daxueshan Marten King took the * crystal and immediately felt a mighty power go straight to his heart.

In an instant, it even stood up with the hair on its tail.

“It's too powerful, it's really too powerful!”

Daxueshan Diaowang's beard was raised, and he repeatedly sighed, "The old man has never seen the crystal with such powerful power, and the breath exuded on it, okay, it seems like ... Galaxy Monster? Is it from Galaxy Monster?"

At this time, not only the Great Snow Mountain Marten King, but also the Little Ferret on the side, as well as many demon clan eyes widened in surprise.

All of them secretly marveled in their hearts, the gods deserved to be gods, and the random shots far exceeded the imagination of all their demon races!

You have to know that the galaxy monsters are the ancestors of these monsters! That * crystal actually came from the powerful and mysterious galaxy monster?

How can their aunt Wang Yan do it? It's amazing too!

"Senior senior has good eyesight. This is a true dragon blood crystal. It is the essence of life extracted by the extraterrestrial demon from the body of a god-level galaxy monster."

Wang Yan smiled and explained, "The huge power contained in this blood crystal is of great use to your demon clan, but Xiaoxue is too young and too shallow to use too much at a time."

During the speech, Wang Yan danced with his fingertips, and a real dragon blood crystal was quickly cut into thousands of equal parts by him.

"After Xiaoxue's foundation is firm, you should use a small one every once in a while. It must be completely consumed before you can use the next one. If there are old seniors who will guide you from the side, Xiaoxue's strength will definitely advance rapidly. It won't take long for the demon king to break through. "

"After Xiaoxue's promotion to the demon king, there must be a lot of real dragon blood crystal left, then the rest will be used by seniors and Xiaoxue. The power contained in it should be enough for your grandson and grandson to be promoted to demigods."

The Pangran power contained in a real dragon blood crystal, even if a * absorbs it, he will run away, not to mention the little ferret who has just reached the A level.

Now Wang Yan gives a precious real dragon blood crystal to Xiao Xue, which is undoubtedly a big gift to the tribe where it is located. Sufficient enough for Xiao Xue and Grandpa to attack the demigod, and more than enough.

"Xiao Yan, please be assured that the old man will do his utmost to teach Xiao Xue!"

Daxueshan Diaowang took the true dragon blood crystal, all eyes are solemn.

"Xiaoxue, time is limited, and I'm going away soon. There are too many creatures in this world that need me to save. I'm going to have to face the out-of-world devil."

Wang Yan patted Xiaoxue's shoulder and said goodbye, "Take good practice with your grandfather in Daxueshan. When you become really strong, I will come back to pick you up."

Take you home in one sentence, let the little ferret burst into tears.

In the past, when I was in the Xianghu Community with my big brother, I couldn't forget it in my life.

But now it is also very clear that the terrible extraterrestrial demon has already come. If the elder brother does not go to fight against the extraterrestrial demon together with his companion, the common home earth of human and demon race, will be destroyed.

If his home is gone, he and his elder brother can no longer be together.

The most important thing is that it is indeed too young and weak, and there is really no way to stay with the big brother.

"I, I know, big brother, let's go ... I, I will practice with my grandpa, but ... After I become strong, you, you must come to pick me up!"

Xiaoxue turned back to the appearance of the little ferret's body in a flash, his head down with frustration, and at this time it finally began to understand that metamorphosis was just a little trick.

His grandfather rarely transformed, because the appearance of the appearance is all flashy foreign objects. When you become truly powerful, transformation is just a matter of course.

And only if it becomes really powerful, it can dominate its own destiny, and it can follow the big brother Wang Yan to live a happy life.

Thinking of this, Little Ferret sighed silently in his heart, and at the same time made a determination silently.

From now on, it will grow up quickly and become stronger soon, so that the big brother will come to pick it up.

Wang Yan looked at the little ferret who started to be sensible, and then looked at the big snow mountain marten king and many demon clan, then nodded and said goodbye: "You, there will be a period.

After saying nothing, he flew into the sky and flew again to the place where he was needed.

Right now the whole world is in the shadow of a heavy doomsday, and the plane turbulence that comes from time to time will continue to affect the entire earth.

The civilization once left by humans on earth was almost destroyed in an instant. Even the original geographical features have changed at this moment.

In this plane war involving many gods, ordinary humans on the earth are as small and fragile as a weak ant.

However, because of the superheroes like Wang Yan, many souls on earth and human beings are filled with firmness and hope.

Although the whole world is constantly being destroyed, they always believe that they will never succumb and that they will definitely win this war!

Just as Wang Yan, Uncle Gun and other top powerhouses are fighting to save others around the world, the Anti-China Huaxia Base is not idle at all.

All warships located inside the general base were already prepared a few months ago.

In the abyss of the extraterrestrial demon occupation, at the moment when the plane raid was launched, all combatants boarded the battleship one after another, and a fleet with a good atmosphere, just like a ferocious steel behemoth, quickly out of the library .

War is about to happen.

...

“Give me action quickly!”

“How long will the main gun be fully charged?”

“Quick bombardment! Hurry to smash the space barriers of the earth world!”

“You foolish inferior pariahs, Your Majesty the Great Demon Lord, have no patience to wait for your ink!”

At the same time, the broken and turbulent abyss world, a fierce and fierce void warship, lined up before the point of contact between the abyss and the earth world, continuously venting firepower on the space barriers of the two worlds.

If you want to enter the world of the earth faster, in addition to bringing the two azimuths closer together, breaking the space barriers of the two worlds is often the fastest way.

Right now at the forefront of this mixed fleet that bombards space barriers, it is precisely the abyss that has been attributed to the devil Lord Luo Sui.

The abyss has a powerful formation consisting of three Dragon King-class void main ships, dozens of destroyers, and hundreds of frigates and transport boats.

These fleets and soldiers can be said to be the abyssal forces, all the elite powers they possess.

Among them, the Dragon King ship, which is the main flagship, is a large forged warship that uses the corpse of the abyssal dragon at the peak of the semi-god level, combined with steel technology.

This kind of void warship is very gritty, with a thick and wide hull, a sturdy impact angle, and heavy black muzzles.

The warships of the abyssal world naturally do not have the beauty and elegance of the light kingdom, nor the powerful technology of the extraterrestrial demon, but they are very similar to their neighbors, the purgatory demon.

Ruthless and fierce, strong and heavy, and very good at melee combat, it is the characteristics of their ethnic warship.

Therefore, the warships in the abyssal world are usually not large in size, far less powerful than the strike ability, but the victory is fast, the melee fire is dense, and like the purgatory demon, they are very good at close combat and landing warfare.

At this time, the general who led this abyssal fleet was precisely the two demon kings who had fought for your life for the * of the abyss, Dark Mist and Bloodthirsty.

To be precise, Dark Mist and Bloodthirsty are no longer the great demon kings of the previous demi-gods, but use the supreme power of the demon Lord Luo Sui, and the two defaced consciousness gods, forcibly catalyzed the abyss demon god!

Just to get the dream power of the dream, the two demon gods, Dark Mist and Bloodthirsty, couldn't be happier.

By now, not only the abyss world has been easily occupied by the devil Lord Luo Sui, but even their entire abyss Demon Clan has been reduced to war slaves under the devil Lord Luo Sui's colonization.

The two of them did gain the power they once dreamed of, but the price was always controlled by the demon Lord Luo Su, enslaved, and eternal life and eternity could not be relieved.

In front of the space barriers that intersect with each other, the sound of "rumbling" artillery bombardment continued.

A pair of his magic wings, covered with mighty dark golden magic patterns, full of dark energy like fog, was lingering around him. But no matter how strong the force, no matter how powerful, it can't hide the helplessness and sorrow in his eyes.

"Bloodthirsty man, you said that we had worked hard to fight for a seat of the Lord of the Abyss. What does it mean?"

The Dark Mist Demon God communicated with his former opponent through the internal communication network, and now the abyss companion, the Bloodthirsty Demon God, "Now all our tribes have become the war slaves of the Heavenly Demon, and we must be monitored by the Heavenly Demon in battle, even our soul Both are banned, and if they do not follow, they will be destroyed. "

Speaking of them, he and the bloodthirsty, only got the devil Lord Luo Sui, the god-level power that came quickly for them.

The two of them are indeed god-level powerhouses, but neither the state of mind nor the understanding of the laws of the universe have kept up. From this aspect alone, the two of them are far less than the god-level strongmen who rely on their own strength to understand the Divine Realm Avenue.

And the current state of the two of them is like the demon Lord Luo Sui made two god-level puppets with their two big living people.

In addition to retaining their own consciousness, everything belongs to the demon Lord Luo Sui. As long as the devil Lord Luo Sui has an idea, they will destroy all the souls.

At that time, the demon Lord Luo Shou only needs to take out the gods placed in their bodies and re-find two suitable servants to regain the two god-level puppets.

This is the terrible place of the demon master Luo Sui's secret technique!

If it wasn't for the war with the fire master Zhurong, he suffered heavy losses, and the fire of the divine personality is really difficult to ignite. The demon Lord Luo Sui can even build a god-level puppet army!

"Alas, Brother Dark Mist, things can only go like this until now, and it is not necessarily a bad thing to be a puppet of His Majesty the Lord."

Among the neighboring Dragon King ships, the sturdy, ugly-looking bloodthirsty Demon God sighed, and simply accepted, "We have great power anyway, as long as we follow the demon Lord Luo Sui in everything, we are still free at other times. As for our clan who became the servant of the demon Lord Luo Sui, how much better than being annihilated?"

"Oh, what the bloodthirsty man said is." Dark Mist Devil smiled bitterly and replied from the internal communication. "As long as we accept the rule of the demon Lord Luo Sui and win this war, we can prosper like the clan, saying It may still be more prosperous than ever."

"Yes, even if we become servants, it is better than following the earth and the bright old dogs together to be annihilated."

As of today, the two, Dark Mist and Bloodthirsty, can only comfort themselves so much. It is better to be alive than to die. At present, this situation is always a way of life, and as long as you work hard, the benefits seem to be quite many.

In addition to these two abyss leaders, in the cabin of the abyssal fleet, a large body, the extremely fierce dark sea shark cavalry, and the powerful and abyssed soldiers armed with teeth, basically all feel so.

Anyway, their homeland, the abyss world has been on the verge of collapse, and now it does not matter that they are occupied by extraterrestrial demon, then as long as they desperately capture the earth world, they can get a brand new home.

According to the promises from the extraterrestrial demon to them, as long as obediently obey the orders of the extraterrestrial demon, after the earth is captured, this rich planet can be given to the abyss demon. And the abyss demons can also become third-class citizens under the rule of the extraterrestrial demons, and their descendants can all proliferate on the earth.

Regardless of whether this kind of promise is true or not, now every abyss Demon Race is rushing.

In the same way, every Abyss Demon Clan is holding on to it because of this promise, as if as soon as the space barrier is opened, they will rush into the plane of the earth and completely conquer that world.

“Dark Mist! Bloodthirsty! You have been ordered to attack the space barrier for more than an hour. Why hasn’t it been broken? When will you procrastinate? His Majesty the Lord is guilty, can you afford it?”

Just in the dark fog and bloodthirsty, while chatting over the war, they suddenly jumped out on the big screen of the main ship where they were.

It was the female demon * who had previously defeated in the kingdom of light, the plague apostle Seramis!

Xeramisi and her husband, Black Apostle Gangte, were defeated in the Kingdom of Light, and suffered heavy losses, which completely annoyed the demon Lord Luo Sui.

When the population of pure-blooded heavenly demons is scarce and people are employed now, the demon Lord Luo Sui temporarily spared their death sins and gave them a chance to make a contribution.

As a result, they became the abyss demon, these first cannon fodder supervisors.

At this time, the two Sky Devil fleets of Xeramisi and her husband Black Meteor Aunt Gunte are behind the Dark Mist and the Bloodthirsty Demon God.

In addition, at this juncture, these four forces have spared no effort, and the number and strength of the single fleet are even greater than when they invaded the Kingdom of Light.

It can be said that the earth world in front of them is bound to win.

Otherwise, once they fail, waiting for them will be the uncontrollable anger of the devil Lord Luo Sui.

“Go back to Miss Theramis, the Gaia consciousness of the plane of the earth is really too tenacious, but our fleet is working hard, I believe that this last barrier will be broken soon!”

“Yes, as the Brothers of Dark Mist said, our fleet is working hard, and cracks have begun to appear on the space barriers in front of us. When our main gun is fully charged, we will definitely be able to bomb it in one fell swoop. Miss Ramis and His Majesty the Devil Lord, wait a moment. “

The two abyss leaders, Dark Mist and Bloodthirsty, quickly nodded and bowed to the screen, respectfully and courteously.

These foreign races, in the eyes of pure-blooded demon, are just a group of domestic watchdogs, and their status is extremely low. Even if Dark Mist and Bloodthirst have been promoted to the Divine Realm, they are still inferior to real pure-blood gods such as Ceramis.

“Huh! If it wasn’t His Majesty the Demon Lord, he was using his Demon King ship to move his position forward, and the old man needed you inferior people to open the space barrier?”

On the main screen, the plague apostle Siramis grumbled badly, “Dark fog, bloodthirsty, you better know that your majesty does not like failure!”

After all, the communication is over.

Dark fog and bloodthirsty are facing the empty big screen, and the gritted teeth in their hearts are filled with resentment. In the end, as long as all their complaints are vented to their subordinates.

“What are you stupid people still doing? Start fire! Hurry up to fire this seat!”

“Deliver the carrier-based aircraft and concentrate all the firepower to bombard the space barriers!”

...

Just when the dark fog and bloodthirsty command the fleet to bombard the space barriers with all their strength.

Behind the fleet of the abyssal forces, in a void mothership belonging to the heavenly demon, the plague apostle Theramis connected with her husband Blackfall Apostle Gunter.

“It seems that the time for the total attack is coming.”

Theramis sighed slightly, and the charming and charming face was full of sadness. “This is our last chance. If we can’t make up for it, we may be punished severely by His Majesty the Lord.”

“Relax your wife, you can rest assured that there is only one earth. If there are not a few new gods recently, the abyss alone will be enough to even them!”

In another mothership adjacent to Theramis, the Black Meteor Apostle Gangte was facing the screen and comforting her, “Now not only the abyss but also our husband and wife join forces to break through the defense of the earth world, absolutely easy.”

According to the intelligence collected by the extraterrestrial demon, the Earth’s plane is remote and backward, relatively closed, and the human’s empty combat capability is not even comparable to the barbaric * and abyss. The abyss world is on a par.

If it wasn’t for the Earth’s plane, a fire lord Zhurong who could fight against the demon Lord Luo Sui was born. Their extraterrestrial demon would now not regard this not too big planet as their primary target.

“Humans on the earth? Oh, concubines don’t worry about those weak humans.”

Xeramis’s brow furrowed and worried, “It’s just the kid named Wang Yan, but he can’t be underestimated.”

It’s called being bitten by a snake. After ten years of fear of Jingsheng, they had suffered a great loss in Wang Yan’s hands. Now they are afraid that this kid named Wang Yan will stir up some troubles.

But in fact, once they conceived this way, they were already wrong.

The earth is indeed remote and backward, and relatively closed, but how can human combat power be simple and measurable in terms of personal ability?

And Wang Yan is indeed a major pillar of the earth’s world, but not all of it.

Of course, this information is naturally not beyond the territorial demon, and the abyss demons, extraterrestrial races that do not understand human characteristics, can understand it.

“Loving your wife, you can rest assured that no matter how cunning the kid is, he is just a fledgling new god. If we count his servants and girlfriends, there are only four gods on the earth.”

Black Meteor Apostle Gunter used internal communications to comfort Salamis, “Including you and my husband, we also have four demon gods on our side, and our army is comparable to the earth’s side? As long as it can break the earth’s defense, Even if we make a contribution! “

“Fujun, just a single earth, we humans can really take it, but the kid has a great relationship with hell, and now the bright old dog is also standing on the same boat with him, and the concubine is worried ...”

Xeramis’s emotions eased slightly, but a dangling heart couldn’t let go.

“Love your wife, are you worried that * and the kingdom of light will be allied with the earth? Ha ha, what if they are allied?”

Gunter sneered disapprovingly, “My wife, there is no space node, so the distant plane, but no one can cross it. Even if the three devil gods of Hell and the bright old dog, there is a way to come to the earth, but their The Fleet can’t follow. Well, by that time, what kind of gods of those inferior races can we use to fight against our army of demon? What’s more, behind us, but all the gods and deities are His Majesty! ”

“Cough, husband, you’re right.”

Xeramis smiled and sneered, “Hell and the kingdom of light, even if they want to help the earth, their army will not pass. If the three devil gods of the * and the old dog dare to come alone to help, it is to find death!”

“Oh, that’s right! The earth will definitely be destroyed today!”

...

“So, the concubine is at ease.”

Plague Apostle Theramis, and Blackfall Apostle Gente, after a brief discussion, finally let out a sigh of relief.

In their eyes, the demon Lord Luo Suqin led the heavenly demons up and down, and the whole army was under pressure, and the small earth was unable to stop it.

What if the earth has Wang Yan, the heir of the firelord?

Don't come out with this ability, Wang Yan. Once you show your face, you will be hit by the devil Luo Luo personally. The main purpose of the demon master to lead the army is to completely destroy this successor of the fire master.

In addition, because of this Wang Yan, the earth currently seems to have many allies.

But what about allies? Far away, Hell World and the Great War Fleet of the Kingdom of Light, it is impossible to pass through the short plane passage. The three demon gods of Hell alone, and the Father of Light, come to death alone.

Are the unparalleled demon Lord Luo Sui, and the powerful gods and goddesses, vegetarians?

For the devil Luo Luo, not only did he not worry that there would be reinforcements on the earth, but he hoped that these reinforcements would arrive as soon as possible. He also had to fight all the remnants and future generations who dared to resist him and unify the network to prevent future troubles!

The task of Xeramis and Gunter at the moment is to break the plane barriers of the earth and the earth's air defense.

From now on, this task is no easy task.

With their entire family and all the strength of the entire abyss world, their couple, such a powerful and numerous mixed army, if they cannot win even a small earth, then they might as well die.

In this way, time passed.

Suddenly!

As the charged main guns of the three Abyss Dragon King ships roared together, three powerful beams of concentrated energy were simultaneously bombarded in the outer layer of the earth, and cracked space barriers had appeared.

"boom!"

In the violent roar, the solid and tenacious space barrier in the outer layer of the earth was finally completely broken.

The Abyss Plane and the Earth Plane had a huge earthquake, and the broken space barriers were like broken glass. They collapsed and scattered around, and finally disappeared and vanished.

The Gaia consciousness of the earth world has completely lost its protection to the earth.

If it is replaced in a normal state, the space barrier is broken, and then it will automatically heal under the constant law of conservation in the universe.

But at this time, the abyss plane has coincided with the earth plane. The two space planes opened a hole, just like two soap bubbles, because they are too close, and finally merge into a large bubble.

Unless the plane of the abyss is removed, this hole that connects the earth to the abyss will never heal itself.

The thick abyss and the dark sea began to flow like tides, pouring into the earth world through the caves. Soon even the scene on the other side of the earth was covered by the thick dark sea tide.

These are the substances of the dark sea, which is a very rich dark energy. How does such a large equivalent of dark energy flow into the plane of the earth, and how will it affect and destroy the earth's world? It is not known now.

But there is no doubt that all the abyss demons on the scene have completely boiled at this moment.

Even in the warship's cabin, a huge dark sea shark seemed to perceive the tidal surge of the abyss and dark sea, and became hyper-exciting and irritable.

“Good! Nice job!”

The plague apostle Theramis looked at the space barrier on the plane of the earth and was opened a hole, immediately excited and called out.

Although it took more than two hours, the task was finally completed on time. Next, as long as they lead the army into the plane of the earth, slaughter the rebels at will, and suppress the entire humanity completely, it is best to force the flame * Wang Yan, which is already a great thing!

“Dark fog, bloodthirsty, what are you waiting for?”

Plague Apostle Theramis was in a happy mood, and immediately issued a loud voice to the abyss fleet in the front row through the communication facilities, “Attack! Break into the plane of the earth and destroy all rebellious humans!”

“Yes!”

Dark Mist and Bloodthirsty were all excited, and immediately turned around to give orders to their ships.

“Abyss Demon, it's time to seize the new home!”

“All fleets, attack the earth!”

“Oh!”

All abyss demons, all excitedly wailed, started the engines one after another, and the whole army was promoted.

The entire abyssal fleet quickly set up an offensive formation as it flew towards the space hole.

The three Abyss Dragon King ships are firmly in the center of the fleet with a character. Dozens of abyss destroyers are scattered on the front and left and right sides. As many as hundreds of frigates and high-speed transport boats are all like fish, scattered on the back and around the main ship.

Don't underestimate the deterrent power of abyssal warships. These warships are not only ugly in appearance, but also imposing, and their combat capabilities are also very powerful.

Compared with the naval fleet in the earth's oceans, the scale, size, and even grand scale of these void warships are far from comparable to that of the navy fleet.

Take the Abyss Dragon Dragon, for example, this large void warship has a single hull length of several kilometers! This still does not count its width, volume, and staffing and weapon strength.

In addition to the abyss dragon king ship, the abyss destroyer, the main force of the abyss air combat, is also not small in size and power.

The destroyer of the abyss world is a small and medium-sized void warship, but the length of the hull is more than two thousand meters, the width is hundreds of meters, and it has heavy armor and flexible maneuverability. There are four heavy guns on the front of the ship, hundreds of secondary guns on both sides of the hull, and missile launch holes.

In addition, there are more than ten carrier-based aircraft inside the battleship. The ship is also equipped with 8,000 to 10,000 abyss warriors and shark cavalymen, who are famous for their fierceness.

This kind of empty warship armed with teeth and equipped with many soldiers. If it is confronted with military equipment that the earth has fallen behind, I am afraid that this destroyer alone is enough to destroy all the military forces of a small country on the earth!

In addition, the abyss world also has a large number of frigates and transport boats, which are much smaller in size.

Among them, the length of the frigate is about four to five hundred meters, so that the single volume can be comparable to a large aircraft carrier in the earth 's ocean.

The frigate's firepower and range are much weaker than the destroyer, but the victory is in the number and speed. The staffing is only a few hundred people. The victory is in flexible maneuvering. The main task is to detect and * large warships.

The transport boat and the frigate are similar in size, but with less weapons and thinner armor, and the corresponding internal space is much larger, so each transport boat can carry an abyssal army of four or five thousand people.

Transport boats are not suitable for combat in the sky, but they can play a tremendous role once they have approached and landed.

“Don't be afraid of everyone! Weak humans are simply not opponents of our abyss demons!”

“After the past, all the rebels will be eliminated!”

“From now on, this world is ours!”

Enticed by the benefits of the heavenly demon's promise, the two coaches, the Dark Mist Demon God and the Bloodthirsty Demon God, continued to shout orders in the two main ships, encouraging morale.

In their view, the earth world is already at hand.

Although their abyss demons are barren and backward in the eyes of the extraterrestrial demons, they are more confident than earth and humans.

Judging from the intelligence collected by Kaos, the former abyss master, before his death, the world's armed forces are nowhere near as good as their abyss demons.

Their abyssal demon not only have strong individual combat power, but also mastered a set of warship technology for combat in the sky in the past with many races.

None of these are powerful advantages that the small and closed humans can compare.

Now the momentum is so good that the long-awaited army of the abyss, Zhengxiong, is arrogantly flying towards the hole that connects the plane of the earth, and is closer and closer to the earth world in front, and it can be completely penetrated in a moment The plane hole has officially reached the plane of the earth.

at this time.

A dazzling dark purple beam suddenly blasted at them from behind the plane hole.

“boom!”

The swift and magnificent light beam is like a neon traversing the long sky, and the vast power that passes through makes the space violently oscillate.

Just in an instant, the two abyss frigates that were exploring the road ahead, and even the same one followed them, and the abyss dragon kingship that was leading the way, was penetrated by this terrible beam!

“Boom! Boom! Boom!”

After three explosions, the two frigates were instantly destroyed by this fierce beam of destruction.

Following the abyss Dragon King ship, the majestic and heavy hull was directly melted by this beam gun, and a large cave of 100 meters wide was melted!

With just one breathing effort, a violent fire ignited from inside the Dragon King ship. The entire battleship was blinking, and in a series of explosions, it burst into a huge fire.

So far, two auxiliary ships, one main ship, and tens of thousands of abyss demons on the battleship were completely destroyed under this blow, and no one was spared!

There was a moment of silence at the scene.

There were only three blazes of blazing fire, which illuminated the surroundings.

“Dragon, Dragon King ship, was sunk!”

The flares of warships that were scattered and scattered by the firelight were extremely clear. All the abyss demons in the surrounding battleships were stunned at this moment, dumbfounded, chilling.

At this moment, even the plane hole close to the ground seems to become a big mouth that eats people. It seems that no matter who is close, it will be swallowed by this big mouth!

“Why, how is it possible? That’s me, our Dragon King main ship!”

“What shelling was that? How could this be so powerful?”

Among the remaining two Dragon King main ships, the two abyss leaders, Dark Mist and Bloodthirsty, were pale and trembling.

The power of that shelling is really terrible!

Not to mention the fragile frigate, their abyss dragon dragon ship, but with the abyssal keel of the peak of the semi-god level, plus the powerful main ship forged by the fusion of steel technology!

Not to mention the attack firepower, the Dragon King ship has always been known for its melee ability, its strong point is the heavy armor and defense capabilities.

But just after the shelling, after connecting and destroying two frigates, it still easily penetrated the entire Dragon King ship.

As a result, one main ship, two auxiliary ships, and tens of thousands of abyss demons were all turned into fly ash.

This terrifying power, horrifying, is comparable to the full blow of a powerful demon!

...

“Then, that’s ... our Devil’s phase matrix gun!”

Located behind the abyss fleet, the plague apostle Theramis shocked the exit in her mother ship.

Phase matrix guns, but they are powerful technology of extraterrestrial demon!

The characteristic of this technology is that in addition to active charging, it can also absorb all the free energy in the universe, and then transform it into the destructive magic energy that the extraterrestrial demon is good at using.

The recharged phase crystal can produce a terrible destruction pulse in the matrix gun body. Until the moment of release, this destruction energy will break through instantly, fired from the only exit, the muzzle, and destroy all obstacles along the way Thing.

Especially as a large flagship ship-based main gun, it is powerful enough to completely destroy a large space station and even an asteroid under one blow!

This terrible shelling is clearly the prestige of the main gun of a Demon flagship!

“Yes, it is a flagship main gun!”

On the other side adjacent to the plague apostle Syramis, the Black Meteor Apostle Gunter was also exclaimed in his mother ship, "I know, yes, it is him! The earth that can own our flagship flagship Man, only him! "

Nothing but the Blackfall Apostle and the Plague Apostle couple would be so nervous.

Because, as they said, there is only one earth person who can own a flagship of the Devil, that is the * of flames from the earth, Wang Yan!

really.

Just when all the abyss demons are still in shock.

A tyrannical red and black giant ship, like a giant steel whale, with a harsh roar, jumped out of the space cave.

Seeing the world's mighty momentum, the audience instantly spread!

All abyss demons were stunned at this moment.

The giant ship has a slender and magnificent body, which is nearly twice as big as the rough Dragon King ship in the abyss world! The level of advancedness is even more unmatched by an abyssal warship.

In addition, the whole metal structure makes it full of cold king spirit.

The muzzle of the main gun, which has not yet been recovered by the bow, is still hot and red. The blazing high temperature of the aftermath is a manifestation of the terrible attack it has just launched.

"This, this is ... Tianmo's line-star ocean-going battleship!"

The leaders of the two abyss fleets, Dark Mist and Bloodthirsty, immediately recognized this huge and mighty warship.

Such a powerful large space battleship is one of the best top battleships in the world of Demon, once possessing a powerful killer called the Void Beast!

In the world of Heavenly Demon, basically only the lofty God of Heavenly Devil is qualified to own this flagship star with capital.

Usually only the old demon gods such as Ackerman the Swallowing Star, Celamus the Plague Apostle, in order to carry more supplies and soldiers, will choose the giant war fortress of the Void Mothership as their own interstellar main ship.

And the newly-incarnated demon gods like the apostle Nagham, due to their own wealth and power constraints, usually make every effort to build such an ocean-going battleship as its own main ship.

There is no other reason. The combat power of this large battleship is no worse than that of a void mothership.

First of all, this large battleship has strengthened the engine and firepower. It may not be as huge as the star-shaped war fortress of the Void Mothership, but it has the mobility of high-speed movement and the destructive power comparable to that of the Devil God.

It is enough to build a medium-sized battleship formation around this main ship, and it is enough to turn a giant void carrier and its * group into space garbage after three or four main gun salvos!

And this large battleship can also accommodate hundreds of carrier-based aircraft, and about 100,000 combatants.

It can be said that the battle formation formed by this powerful main ship alone is enough to conquer a planet or even an entire plane under the leadership of a demon god!

“No! Yes, it’s him! That kid!”

“You mean, that flame * Wang Yan?”

After seeing this powerful battleship, the Dark Mist Demon God and the Bloodthirsty Demon God looked at each other through the main screen, and their hearts were shocked.

Undoubtedly, the opponent they face now is Wang Yan, the * of flames from the earth, and also the son of Satan, the demon * of Hell!

Dark fog and bloodthirsty were both in the hands of Wang Yan, who was incarnation of the magic flame, and had eaten a lot of dark losses. Just over a year ago, even their former master, Kaos, the abyss master, died in this king. Yan’s hands.

So much so that the name Wang Yan is mentioned now, and all abyss demons must shake their hearts.

There is no doubt that Wang Yan is now the natural enemy of these abyss demons!

However, this natural enemy, now controlling the giant ship, appeared in front of all of their abyss demons, and when they came up, they gave all of them a dismantled horse.

This deterrent to knocking on the mountain and shaking the tiger, even the two new demon gods of Dark Mist and Bloodthirsty, hit the heart suddenly.

If it were not for the gods of the two heavenly demons behind him, the two fleets led by them were supervising the war. The appearance of Wang Yan alone was enough to let the abyss demon on the scene escape half.

“Oh, you filthy abyss demons, dare to invade the earth, the hometown of the original god, what a bold courage!”

Wang Yan, a fiery red armor, was sitting on the captain’s seat of the main ship bridge. The majestic voice quickly spread to every corner through the warship’s expansion system.

The abyss demons who were afraid of Wang Yan’s prestige at the scene, all their hairs stood upright, as if they were on their backs.

Morale of the Nether Fleet of the entire abyssal world began to fall rapidly.

“Boy, you came just right, so you don’t have to go to the earth to find you in person!”

Seeing the morale of the abyss demon fell, the plague apostle Seramis, who was fighting in the rear, immediately slammed, “Dark fog, bloodthirsty, quickly kill him for this seat! What climate can a few warships have? “

“Yes! He just picked up a few warships, our fleet is ten times, one hundred times!”

Black Meteor Apostle Gunter also shouted loudly in his main ship, “Have all listened to this seat! This kid is a big trouble for His Majesty the Lord, who can kill him, His Majesty the Lord will have a reward ! “

The voices of the Plague Apostle Salamis and the Blackfall Apostle Gunter are spread throughout the battlefield in the warship’s rapid expansion system.

“Go! All on this seat! Fire fiercely on this seat!”

“His main gun is still cooling, don’t be afraid!”

“Oh!”

Hearing the encouragement of the two gods of heaven, all abyss demons boiled. Under the leadership of the two new demon gods, Dark Mist and Bloodthirsty, they immediately turned the bow and launched a violent attack on the battleship flagship where Wang Yan was.

“Humph!”

The plague apostle Seramis gloomy and hummed coldly, “I don’t know the so-called boy, just because you want to fight with our demon? Really looking for death!”

From the perspective of Theramis and Gunter and his wife, Wang Yan can have today’s achievements, that is, natural cunning, plus some good luck.

In particular, the newly promoted Devil Ash Apostle Nagham would be stupid enough to be taken away by the opponent with his bare hands, and eventually died in the opponent’s hands.

When such things are said, their couple feels ashamed.

However, the couple believes that the warships owned by Wang Yan are nothing more than the flagships captured from Nagum, as well as the scattered ships that the couple and Ackerman and Kaos dropped in the abyss world.

In addition, the most is the world of hell, and some warships supported by the Kingdom of Light.

With such a mixed warship, how can it bully and bully the group of cannon foes of the abyss demon, how can it be compared with their regular army of Heavenly Demon?

Next, as long as the group of cannon foes of the abyss demon, go up and fight to consume, the two of them will be able to catch up and wipe out Wang Yan and the earth!

“A group of people who want to wipe me out?”

Wang Yan sat on the bridge, facing the abyssal fleet coming from the nest, his eyes condensed, disdainfully ridiculed, "Then let me see, do you have this ability!"

If, a few years ago, Wang Yan and the earth faced the abyss demons that were more powerful and barbarous than them, they really had no solution at all.

But now, his Wang Yan is different from the earth in the past, and he is fully capable of contending with the abyssal world.

At this time, with Wang Yan's command, a huge battleship, like a giant steel beast, rushed towards the abyssal fleet head-on.

"Wow!"

During the flight, the surface of the warship Wang Yan, the armor turned, and at the same time the powerful phase prism on the Demon warship was activated, and an indestructible lilac shield immediately enveloped the entire battleship.

"Bang! Bang Bang Bang!"

The abyss artillery that poured from all directions fell like raindrops on the surface of Wang Yan's battleship, but apart from the bombardment of ripples, the phase shield of Wang Yan's battleship remained immobile.

This is the power of Tenma's top battleship!

In addition to having a powerful firepower output, the internal energy storage is also very amazing. Like the flagship of the battleship Wang Yan, the energy shield generated is enough to resist several attacks by a demon god.

Unless a powerful energy storage main gun is used, ordinary attacks from an abyssal warship will be difficult to threaten it for a while.

"Break them!"

On the bridge, Wang Yan ordered to drink, and the entire battleship immediately activated its engine strategy to its maximum.

In an instant, the entire warship is like a rather unreasonable rhinoceros, flying fast towards the front.

The main gun in the abyss has just been bombarded, and it is not yet available for use. The main ships of Ceramis and Gunter in the distance have just begun to recharge, and they will not be able to attack at one and a half.

Therefore, it is a good time for Wang Yan to use his own advantages to launch a fierce attack on them.

"Wow! Bump, bump!"

"Quick turn rudder! Turn rudder!"

“Oh!”

An abyss destroyer didn't expect Wang Yan to make this move. When he saw Wang Yan's warship rushing towards them, the abyss demons of the entire warship panicked.

The abyss demons exploded their scalps one by one, panicked, and hurriedly tried to turn the rudder to avoid, but it was too late.

“Boom!”

With only one loud shock, the fragile and simple abyss destroyer was blocked by Wang Yan's giant ship and burst into two groups of fire in an instant.

At the same time, the armor on both sides of Wang Yan's battleship quickly rose, and thousands of shipboard guns and missile launchers immediately poured out a terrible firepower that was enough to tear the sky.

The war broke out!

...

“Boom!”

Machine guns sprayed, missiles roared, one abyssal warship, the main ship commanded by Wang Yan, dense and powerful firepower, torn apart, and then exploded into countless wreckage floating in the empty sea.

“Turn the bow to the left, and all near-anti-aircraft guns continue to fire without stopping!”

In the battleship, Wang Yan ordered loudly, and the fierce artillery light shone his face.

This war across multiple planes is related to the survival of mankind, but at the moment it has just begun, and he cannot afford to relax.

Now the entire abyssal world has become a cannon fodder for extraterrestrial demon. If you want the extraterrestrial demon to really hurt your bones, you must defeat these cannon fodders!

Under the command of Wang Yan, the Void Battleship slowly turned the rudder, the slender and graceful hull, and the indestructible phase shield filled it with the mighty power of the air overlord.

It is like a giant whale that rushed into the enemy formation, even if it just flicked its head and tail, it can cause huge casualties to the enemy.

Right now, under the command of Wang Yan, this giant ship rushed into the formation of the Abyssal Fleet, and then sank three Abyssal warships. Then the firepower was fully on, and several abyssal warships, under the intensive melee firepower of Wang Yan's warships, were wrung into pieces of debris scattered in the sky.

Thousands of abyss demons haven't had time to land on Earth. They are destroyed and destroyed by the terrible firepower of the giant ship in this abyssal dark sea.

This is the terrible place for battleships! Once the battleship was destroyed, few people were able to escape.

"Lord, the abyssal formation has been washed away by us, but the energy reserve of our phase matrix has dropped by 38%, and so on ..."

At this time, a charming and enchanting woman with heavenly demon, full of fatal temptation, respectfully sat down in Wang Yan and gave a soft report.

It was Wang Yan's maid who was as strong as God's Devil, and Bliss Devil Ji Cui Lisi.

There are now more than 40,000 prisoners of heavenly demons who have turned to Wang Yan, mainly of them are soldiers, and the number of hybrids is also more. The true pure blood heavenly demons, Wang Yan is no more than a thousand people.

This group of elites were all handed over to the gods of the heavenly demons, which is the management of the celestial devil Ji Cui Lisi.

She is a pure-blooded heavenly devil, and she is a smart, capable, intelligent and wise woman who controls these surrendered heavenly devil captives. She has a way.

In addition to the other vassal races that were captured last time in the Kingdom of Light, there are more than 80,000 battle-hardened battleships in this warship.

They are all ace veterans with rich combat skills and experience. Now the warship commanded by Wang Yan is the driver.

It is precisely because of them that Wang Yan, the Void Massacre, can exert such great power so easily.

Only with the collision of the battleship, its shield energy value also began to decline rapidly.

In a blink of an eye, the kung fu dropped by more than 30%. If you continue to be attacked, once the phase shield is broken, even this powerful warship can only sink under intensive attacks.

After all, Wang Yan is now facing the entire abyss world. Even if their former master Kaos is dead, a large number of troops are buried in the Kingdom of Light, but the remaining warships and warriors are still not Wang Yan. collapse.

"Don't worry about them, move on!"

Wang Yan looked calm, still sitting firmly on the captain's seat. "If you want to eat these enemies at once, what should you do without paying a price?"

"Yes! The concubine will obey your will."

As a maid under Wang Yan's maid, Bliss Magic Ji didn't understand the tactics that Wang Yan had laid down earlier, but she had long believed in Wang Yan and immediately ordered Wang Yan's order to the whole ship.

The soldiers of the entire warship were immediately stunned. One by one, there was a horrified question in the bottom of my heart. In the face of the army of the entire abyss world, their master Wang Yan, with only one warship, would continue to charge forward?

Is this a joke about life?

It should be known that once the shield collapses, the entire battleship, along with more than 80,000 crew members, will almost be buried in this deep abyss.

However, the will of the master Wang Yan is their will. If Wang Yan wants to rush forward, then they will obey unconditionally.

The speed of the entire warship did not decrease, but increased. After changing the bow, it was again like a giant whale, constantly tumbling in the enemy.

"Come! That giant ship is coming!"

"Quick, hurry away!"

"What a powerful firepower! We are over, oh!"

With strong ships and artillery, Wang Yan suppresses his strength and sweeps the abyss all over the world in a short time.

A large number of abyss demons wailed in despair.

The panic and helpless cry for help continuously passed through the communication network to the two abyss leaders, Dark Mist and Bloodthirsty.

"Fuck, shit!"

On the bridge of the Dragon King ship, the bloodthirsty demon shouted angrily through internal communication, "This kid is just relying on the strong performance of the Devil's main ship. Is it really like our abyss army, can't take him?"

No, the bloodthirsty demon god's spear pointed at the two Sky Devil fleets behind him. "Also, are those Sky Devil fleets fighting with us all eating dry food? Our main guns are cooling, they can't. Do we provide some firepower support?"

The bloodthirsty demons scolded all over with resentment.

Right now the Celestial Fleet and Gunter's Demon Fleet have been watching from afar, always standing by and watching them, and they scolded them at every turn, which made bloodthirsty demon gods and other abyss demons, almost eager to vomit blood, and had no choice but to do so.

"Blood thirsty, I can't say that again."

The bloodthirsty Demon God screamed, and the Dark Mist Demon God quickly stopped, “We are all slaves of His Majesty Lord Luo Sui, accepting the rule of their extraterrestrial demon, and now they are inferior, and there is no way to do it.”

“At present, the main fleet on the earth has not appeared so far. We are now asking the two heavenly demons to assist the war only because of one Wang Yan, don’t we want those heavenly demons to look flat?”

The Dark Mist Deity urged sadly and patiently persuaded, “Again, our abyss Demon Clan, nominally a forward, is actually cannon fodder. If we can’t lead the earth’s main force, we will open the passage to the earth, those outside the domain. Heavenly Devil will never shoot, only let us continue to consume the power of the enemy. “

“Mother’s!” The bloodthirsty demon * gave a reluctant sip, and then he reluctantly resisted his own temper, “Since Heavenly Demon won’t shoot, what should we do? The battleship is as hard as a hard stone, we now that there is no main gun, how can I sink it? “

“Oh, sink it, why do you need a main gun?”

Dark Mist Devil smiled coldly, “Look at the bloodthirsty man carefully, Wang Yan’s boy’s battleship shield has not been able to support it for long. Ha ha, in my opinion, he is an arrogant arrogant! “

“His might want to break away from the battleship formation that blocked the hole in the plane, while attracting our firepower, so that the main fleet of the earth can safely pass through the hole in the plane and start a decisive battle with us.”

Dark Mist Devil’s eyes gradually darkened, and a grin evoked from the corner of his mouth. “But he seems to have miscalculated his own strength. The phase shield of his battleship now cannot collapse for a long time. We will only drag him now, I am afraid He can’t even wait for the reinforcements, he will be buried under our army! “

“Yes! Jie Jie, Brother Dark Mist, you are right!”

After listening to the bloodthirsty Demon God, he laughed cruelly, “Wang Yan is the No. 1 target of His Majesty the Demon Lord! As long as we are trapped to death, it is a great thing!”

“Ji Jie, we will only lose a few warships and some soldiers, but as long as we can kill the flame * Wang Yan, what are those losses?”

“That’s right!” Dark Mist overcast, said, “As long as Wang Yan is surrounded, the earth’s backward armed forces can’t compete with our abyss! It’s even more impossible to break through our siege and round with Wang Yan’s battleship!

“Oh, that is to say, as long as Wang Yan is successfully surrounded, the kid will definitely die!”

The two abyss leaders, Dark Mist and Bloodthirsty, combined, revealing a heavy murderous opportunity.

In their view, Wang Yan is their impression of the arrogant son of Demon God Mo Yan.

This demon flame is proud of nature, no one in his eyes, right now is the result of his adventurous death.

As long as they shut up Wang Yan, who was alone, and surrounded him, with the power of hundreds of warships in their abyss, Wang Yan and his warship could be blasted into the sky in minutes.

As for the upcoming Earth Fleet, hehe, in their view, the humans on the earth are not worth mentioning. They only need to separate a small part of the warships and block the plane holes, which is enough to resist.

“Wang Yan! Today is your death time!”

“Boy, let me see where you can escape!”

Soon, the leaders of the two abysses, Dark Mist and Bloodthirsty, ordered one after another to separately command their respective fleets and march to Wang Yan.

Only dozens of warships were left at the scene, guarding the plane hole, and the remaining hundreds of large and small warships of all kinds were immediately chased from all directions to Wang Yan, and a huge encircling circle was formed in the blink of an eye.

The scene is so magnificent, I have to say it is breathtaking.

The warship commanded by Wang Yan was enemies in the blink of an eye, and the crisis appeared frequently. The shield on the outside of the battleship also changed in a short period of time, and the ripples kept changing.

There is no doubt that no matter how fierce the tiger is, in the face of the ferocious pack of wolves, for a long time, it has to fight to death.

however.

At this moment, a rude laughter came from the plane of the earth.

“Hahaha, boss, your faithful little brother is coming!”

“Little ones, rush with Lao Tzu!”

The person who made the noise was the purgatory devil who claimed to be the first loyal dog under Wang Yan!

The Red Demon King can now possess the strength of the Big Demon King who has reached the peak of the demigod, and his nature is more and more wild.

At this moment, his screaming laughter was like a thunder rolling, and spread to all corners in a flash.

“Reinforcement?”

“The reinforcements of the Flame God are here?”

The abyss demon guarding the hole near the plane, immediately followed the reputation in the battleship, and was shocked.

I saw that on the side of the hole in the plane, five high-speed destroyers from the purgatory demon were rushing towards them fiercely.

“For the Lord, kill!”

“Crush these despicable abyss demons!”

“Long live my Lord!”

The Nether Warships of the Infernal Demon Race are gritty, heavy, and solid, and their style is similar to that of the Abyss Demon Race, but they use the unique mineral resources of the Inferno Demon Realm. The battleships of the Infernal Demon Race Warship are even more powerful.

At this time, the five warships of the Infernal Demon had already been on the plane of the earth, and had enough speed, and in a blink of an eye, they crashed into the fleet of the abyss Demon remaining near the hole in the plane.

The sharp and terrifying impact angle of the purgatory warship tip hit the cabin of the abyss warship at once.

The three abyss warships that were too late to avoid were immediately blocked by the waist!

At the same time, the five purgatory warships that are very good at medium and close combat, all fired, and the spitting linear fire melting guns instantly bombarded these three abyss warships into three groups of fires.

In addition, the five purgatory warships that had rushed into the enemy formation opened their inner cabins, and each landed boat quickly flew out.

These powerful warriors personally led by top powerhouses such as the Big Demon King, Ogre Ablon and others are full of almost fanatical loyalty to Wang Yan.

And they have followed Wang Yan for a long time.

The assault team composed of them, as long as it fell on the enemy's battleship, it was a massacre.

“The Holy Light is with us!”

“For the Lord of Flame God, the whole army charged!”

A small fleet of abyss demons staying near the plane channel was just stunned by Wang Yan's old ministry. At this moment, a heroic female voice suddenly came from the right side of the abyss demons.

I saw that the three Holy Light cruisers, the beautifully semi-curved Shenguo cruiser, slowly passed through the plane channel and appeared in front of all abyss demons.

Seeing three cruisers of the Kingdom of God, dozens of abyssal warships on the scene, all the crew above, suddenly felt half cold.

The cruiser is a large-scale void warship second only to the battleship class. It belongs to a large-scale battleship with relatively average performance, which is enough to adapt to various occasions.

Although the size and firepower of the cruiser are much smaller than those of the battleship main class of Wang Yan's level, when they travel near the abyss battleship, they are like the same giant. An abyssal warship is like a small sampan next to a cruise ship. It is far from comparable in size or exquisiteness.

In addition, the Shenguo warships have special technology. They are not only gorgeous in appearance, but lingering in holy light. In fact, they are equipped with exquisite ceramic armor throughout the body, and have a strong defense against beam weapons.

Moreover, the Shenguo warships are good at space leaps and beam weapons. They are flexible on the battlefield and are very good at long-range attacks.

At this time, as soon as the three large cruisers appeared, they launched a long-range artillery bombardment on the abyssal fleet on the side of the guard plane. At the same time, Archangel Antalya, personally led two hundred elite men, each took a single fighter jet and rushed to the abyssal fleet.

These luxurious Chinese warships and warplanes, as well as thousands of fighting angels, are all great gifts that the Father of Light gave Wang Yan free of charge.

It has to be said that the Father of Light this time is really generous.

“Boom! Rumble!”

The artillery bombardment of the Divine Kingdom cruiser was fierce and fierce. The fighter group led by the Archangel Antalya was flexible and maneuverable, and it immediately defeated the abyss fleet on the right.

“Don't stand it!”

“Not good! The archangel is here!”

“Quick, quick withdrawal! Woo!”

In the abyss, only dozens of large and small warships were arranged near the plane passage, and at the moment it was instantly destroyed by Wang Yan's men and destroyed by half.

The remaining half, how dare you continue to resist?

They turned their heads one after another, trying to merge with the large forces where the two abyss leaders, Dark Mist and Bloodthirsty.

But at this moment, a ship with a tough style, beautiful hull and full of ultra-modern style is flying from the plane of the earth.

Suddenly, the atmosphere of solemn and mighty power immediately spread to all directions.

“This, this is ...”

“The main fleet of the earth world ?!”

All the abyss demons were stunned. Even the abyss leaders who were busy encircling Wang Yan, the two demon gods, Dark Mist and Bloodthirsty, glared at this moment.

In their minds, the earth’s world is backward in armament, and the earth’s people are small and fragile, and they can’t be compared with their fierce abyss demons.

But what about these big and small battleships?

Although the battleships from the earth are not very large, they are just like the abyss battleships, but the tough structure of the whole metal, the beautiful and simple design of the hull, and the cold metal color and bright red paint. It does not show that they are tough and unyielding.

Coupled with hundreds of Earth warships, all arranged neatly and slowly moving into the shocking scene of the battlefield, it almost puts the disciplined and energetic trend into full play.
