

D. Hero 211

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 211

The power of flame in Wang Yan's body converged into the gun body like a trickle. The flame-like runes gradually radiated crimson light, as if they had life, every rune was blooming.

At this moment, Wang Yan felt that it was alive, and had a feeling of being connected with him.

"What about bullets?" Wang Yan's breath was short, and he couldn't wait to try the power of this rune super sniper.

"Mr. Customer, the bullets are here." Su Qianqian took out several bullets from the gun box and offered them fartly.

Wang Yan took the bullet and found that it was completely different from the previous special bullet. It was much shorter in length and lighter. It weighed only about one kilogram and was covered with complicated red mysterious runes. Huh? Wang Yan raised her brows and said in surprise: "This bullet has no bottom fire?"

"Mr. Customer, this rune super-sniping launching principle is completely different from ordinary firearms." Su Qianqian explained with a skewed black framed glasses, sincerely explaining, "It takes the flame rune to charge, and the power is instant The principle that the explosion produces a driving force to fire the bullet. Although the gunpowder gun has been improved for hundreds of years, it has been improved by the kinetic energy of the gunpowder. It must be in contact with oxygen and undergo sufficient chemical combustion to produce gas expansion ...

"Qianqian, don't need to explain so much to him, he can't understand."

Yun Zhi hugged her PAD and said frostily, "You just need to tell him that this rune super-sniff uses fire rune energy storage to drive bullets, which has a great advantage over traditional bottom rifles."

Wang Yan held the Rune Chao, and a drop of cold sweat slipped. I just understood what the little girl said just now.

“Director Yun, I, I don’t understand.” Su Qianqin blinked his eyes wide, showing a blank expression, and said weakly, “Shouldn’t we try to answer the customer’s questions as much as possible? I think I just explained clearly what.”

Yun Zhi rarely touched her head with pity, with a long heart, but still said coldly: “Qian Qian, although you are very smart, but you are still young. From a social psychology point of view, men usually have a childish self-esteem. When you find that you are far inferior to a woman, you usually re-establish your dignity and status in an irrational way, such as anger, anger, gag, etc. So, you should learn to take care of the self-esteem of men with lower IQ. “

Wang Yan silently peeled a big white rabbit toffee in his mouth, feeling a little melancholy. As far as IQ is concerned, Wang Yan understands that he grew up to be moderately superior to ordinary people. Although the body has evolved repeatedly, it has made great progress in memory, understanding, and insight.

But compared to these real geniuses, there is still a big gap. But being so naked ~ pointed out nakedly, was also taken care of as a low IQ, and my pride was inexplicably sore.

“Director Yun, although I still don’t understand.” Su Qianqin nodded seriously, “but I will do the same.”

“Very well, even from a marketing perspective, you can’t discriminate against customer self-esteem. You have to learn how to tout the customer and make him full of superiority and pride.” Yun Zhi praised with satisfaction and taught that “In this way, they will pay off the merits. You will get more resources to develop the projects you really like.”

“Well! Qianqian understand.” Su Qianqian’s eyes were shining, and he focused on it very seriously. Then he pulled up his watery eyes and made an expression of admiration for Wang Yan. His eyes flickered, “Wow, Mr. Client. You are so smart, so amazing. The whole body is full of shining and flourishing. Admire it, admire you so much. “

“This.....”

A chill spread from Wang Yan’s tail vertebrae straight to the back of the head, chilling again and again. This little girl’s acting is really exaggerated. This rune research institute, sincerely is an abnormal concentration of human beings.

Wang Yan's mind now is to test the power of this rune super-sniper. If satisfied, start quickly and quickly flash people. If you stay here more, you will be tossed about to see a psychiatrist.

“Click!” “Click!”

Wang Yan unloaded the magazine and pressed the three bullets into it one by one, and inserted the magazine into the super-sniper. “Click” pulled the bolt, and with the slight sound of metal texture, he clearly felt the bullet of a kilogram and was pushed into the magazine and loaded.

An inexplicable sense of power flooded Wang Yan's heart.

“Test target preparation.” Yun stopped seeing it, and operated twice on the PAD.

There was a trembling tremor under the ground, and an iron wall rose buzzingly. Each iron wall is ten centimeters wide, and the distance between the iron walls is thirty centimeters.

Everyone stepped back a hundred meters.

Wang Yan held the rune super-sniper, and began to boil a little. Aiming at the iron wall bullseye in a prone position.

To be honest, Wang Yan's experience and skills in playing sniper rifles are far inferior to professional snipers. But this kind of heavy sniper weighing a hundred or dozens of kilograms is not usable by ordinary snipers. The powerful recoil can easily crush the sniper's scapula.

Wang Yan adjusted his breath and gently pulled the trigger.

Almost instantaneously, Wang Yan felt that the flame energy in the gun barrel “boomed” and exploded, and the bullet burst out at an alarming speed. Its speed is extremely fast, and it explodes several times the speed of sound with ease. The sharp howling pierced the eardrums, and the front air was squeezed to form a transparent wave, which extended backward in a spiral shape.

Do n't look loud, but in fact the target being sniper ca n't hear the sound and will face the harvest of the sickle of death. Because the speed of bullets is much higher than the speed of sound.

The distance of one hundred meters is instantaneous.

“boom!”

The bullets hit the iron wall, bursting out a large fire. To the naked eye, you can see some red hot pieces of iron spattering in all directions.

Even after being separated by 100 meters, Wang Yan can feel the aftershock of the shock wave generated when the bullet hits the iron wall.

Little Black, who had never seen such a burst scene, was scared to lie on the ground and covered his ears.

Su Qianqian, the designer and manufacturer of Rune Chaozi, clenched his fists in excitement, his eyes glowing with fiery light. Of course, she has tested the power of the rune super sniper, but that can only be controlled by the mechanical arm to control the firing. Even as a manufacturer, she was the first to see this super-human test.

As for Yun Zhiyun's strength, the pretty face is as cold as ever. But the eyes under the wire glasses glanced a little surprised.

“How is it? How does it feel?” Su Qianqian knelt in excitement in front of Wang Yan and took out a recording pen, let's start asking non-stop.

“call!”

Wang Yan exhaled and gave a thumbs-up, said: “Cool!” Even with his physical fitness, there was a faint pain in his shoulder, and he couldn't help rubbing his teeth with a grin.

“The role of force is relative. Although I have tried my best to design a shock-absorbing structure, it is still far from being usable by ordinary people.” Su Qianqian said after a series of words in a rapid tone, he immediately covered his mouth and then pitifully confronted the king. Yan grinned, “Sorry, Mr. Client. You are the most handsome, you are really smart.”

Wang Yan climbed up and rolled his eyes faintly: “I graduated from undergraduate school, and I understand the positive and negative forces anyway.” Soon, Wang Yan was excited and touched the gun and said, "It's really baby, I pulled the trigger Going on, the direct zero response will explode. Cool! The response mechanism is many times more sensitive than the original Super Sniper. "

When Su Qianqian just wanted to explain a few principles in excitement, he thought of something, and laughed twice, showing a sweet smile, and his eyes were full of small stars: "As long as you are satisfied, Mr. Customer, you are really awesome. So handsome. Otherwise, you can buy it. "

"No hurry, let's look at the power effect." Wang Yan was too lazy to vomit, carrying a rune super sniper to check the power effect.

Rao was mentally prepared, but after seeing the power of Rune Chaozi in person, Wang Yan still couldn't help but secretly slam. The first iron wall has been bombarded with a twisted basketball hole. The iron wall has been deformed by the impact of the shock, forming an iron-like concave shape inwards, and it is still an iron pan with a leaky bottom.

The holes in the second iron wall penetrated by bullets are larger, but the whole is only slightly concave.

The third iron wall, the bullet has been biased above. But the iron wall was still blasted out of a big pit, penetrating about half the thickness.

"Great power!" Wang Yan uttered this sentence only half a minute later. Only this time, there was no need for Su Qianqian to promote it. Wang Yan directly asked: "Little girl, how much are you going to set the price of this super-sniper?"

"Pricing?" Su Qianqian carefully counted his fingers for a minute, then reached out and said, "413 merit points." Then he blinked and looked at Wang Yan, fearing that he would not be satisfied.

This price ...

Although it sounds high, Wang Yan feels okay. Under this power, even if the B-level master field is fully open, there will be no good end after being hit. As for whether it can beat the A-class monsters like the Golden Armor Corps, Wang Yan dare not speculate. But at least, Golden Armor will want to easily block its bullets, it will not be so easy.

This super-sniping material and bullets are definitely very sophisticated.

“You little idiot, do you have almost the same number of materials?” Yun Zhi couldn’t look at it, and said coldly, “You have spent so much effort, and time is not counted? You are super for this rune, It took about a year before and after. “

“Yeah, then add 20 merit points.” Su Qianqian slapped his head and mumbled cruelly, “I took a long, long time to make it, Mr. Client, if you think it’s too expensive , At 15 o’clock labor cost? “Blinking, blinking, a little uneasy, pitiful.

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 212

This time, Wang Yan could not stand any more. Does this little girl want to die herself? After one year of hard work, do you charge yourself 15 labor costs?

Director Yun didn’t do it anymore, took Su Qianqian behind him, and said to Wang Yan: “Qianqian is still small, and she is a simple and kind girl. You are not allowed to bargain with her with the charm of female skills. You can come at me.

She is tall and slender, with a bumpy appearance. The gold-rimmed glasses and white coat filled her with intellectual beauty. Make such an action. Under the interweaving of the two temperaments, some chemical reactions were born.

Even Wang Yan, who is accustomed to all kinds of beautiful women, couldn’t help but jump a little, and felt a little strange.

Wang Yan peeled the toffee in his mouth, and the sweet taste spread to his heart in his mouth. My heart is secretly funny, who is playing tricks?

“Director Yun, I’m just here to buy a gun. What are the means and ideas? Let’s hurry, how much merit is this gun? If it is appropriate, it will be sold, and it will not be appropriate.”

Although he likes this rune super sniper very much, he will do it if Yun Zhishi opens his mouth. No matter what, you can’t let people squeeze the slaughter, right? He has decided in his heart that it can be accepted within 700 merit points.

Fortunately, Yun Zhijun is not a business man's material, but just wants to get Su Qianqian some expedient expediency, calculating: "The target I just gave you a test, a bullet will be given to you. But Qianqian one year The effort is a little higher. Well, even if you have a total of 500 merit points. "After she finished, she added," The reason why the value of the materials spent in Qian Qian Qian is so expensive is because it will consume a lot of money during research and development. Supplies. " 500 points?

Wang Yan breathed a sigh of relief. I saw her so aggressive just now, and thought that it would cost me eight or nine hundred.

"This price is very fair." Wang Yan nodded.

"There is one more thing to declare with you in advance. Because the kinetic energy of this rune super sniper comes from the rune gun itself. The energy in the rune energy storage array is only enough to fire three shots. Once the energy is exhausted, it needs to be recharged before it can be used. Yun Zhi fairly pointed out the flaws of the rune super-sniping.

Can you only hit three bullets in one battle?

Wang Yan thought about it carefully. I feel that although the limit is larger, it is still acceptable. After all, the power of this rune super sniper is much stronger than the original super sniper. The sniper rifle is not a machine gun, the power of the first hit is the most important parameter.

Then Wang Yan and Yun Zhi communicated and learned that there are two ways to recharge this rune.

First, placed in a normal space, the clustered rune array will slowly absorb energy from the sun.

Second, the flame abilities can use their own energy to help this super-sniper. As for how long it can be filled, it depends on the quality and intensity of the flame.

Wang Yan checked the rune super-sniff according to the prompt, and really found a red scale on the side of the gun handle. There are three grids one centimeter long in this scale. Now the first grid has become gray, which obviously means that one grid of energy has been consumed.

Wang Yan tried to use the flame energy in his body to inject into the Super Sniper Rune Array. The mysterious mysterious rune on the energy storage rune array exudes a faint red light, rhythmically flickering and dimming, like living creatures breathing. Then clearly saw a red ray of light slowly rising in the gray scale grid. After a full ten minutes, the gray grid completely restored crimson. It means that a grid of energy has been restored.

Wang Yan was amazed in his heart. The Rune Array is really a magical circuit structure. But if he was allowed to learn these inscrutable knowledge, he would be relieved, and he would have a big head. Professional things, let the professionals do it.

After all the problems were resolved, Wang Yan stroked the rune super-sniper, "500 merit points are fair. I can also give 20 merit points, which is a private donation to this little sister for her favorite experiment.

"Thank you, Mr. customer." Su Qianqian bowed excitedly and said, "You are such a great person, and you are really smart."

Wang Yan's face was black and he muttered secretly. If she was so praised again, she would be praised as a neuropathy.

"You are really good at enchanting females." Yun Zhi glanced at Wang Yan with her scalpel-like eyes, then took out the PAD and clicked twice, "520 points of merit, pay."

"Uh ... I have 200 spare merit points. But ... I haven't settled the mission merits this time. It will take a few days to exchange this gun." Wang Yan answered honestly.

As soon as these words came out, both Yun Zhi and Su Qianqian looked at him with strange eyes.

He looked straight at heart, and his face was hot. Would n't it be that you do n't have the money, and you 're going to recharge your customers and make big money? It's really tiring to deal with the woman in this abnormal human center.

“Guest, Mr. Client. You, your mission this time! Can you earn 300 points of merit?” Su Qianqin looked at Wang Yan with bare eyes, and almost drooled.

call! It turned out that I thought I made more money. Think about it too, the little girl opened herself up and priced 20 merit points a year ...

“It depends on the difficulty of the task.” Wang Yan thought about it and said honestly, “Because this time the task was done desperately, the difficulty is very large. So in the end, it was assigned to 300 merit points, it should be It ’s not a problem. “

In fact, Wang Yan also felt a little sighed in his heart, although the combatants got a lot of merit. But which one was not exchanged for life?

“I also heard that Brother Wang Yan’s mission was accomplished very well this time. Listening to Director Zhao Xiu said that at least thousands of merits can be divided.” Xiaohei said to the side, “However, the superpowers of the war department Colleagues are usually the most dangerous. I heard that the Central China Branch had died of a B-level colleague this time. “

“Even a B-level colleague is dead?” Yun Zhi said with a solemn expression on his eyeglasses frame. “Did you have an A-level strongman in your mission?”

“There is an A-level strongman, but only half of the fight.” Wang Yan recalled the fierce battle with the Golden Armor Corps, and he still had some fear. “A-level strongman is too terrible, too powerful. The tip of a long rifle blocked me from a special bullet. “

As soon as this remark came out, Yun Zhi and Su Qianqian were shocked, and were a little curious.

Wang Yan probably talked about the power of Jin Jia’s body. At the same time, it also said that it is impossible to beat the A-level strong with this rune super sniper. If the B-level powerhouse is earth, then the A-level powerhouse is heaven. Under normal circumstances, even sniping can’t hit the other party.

“It turns out that the A-level master is so terrible? I heard that our East China Branch also has an A-level master sitting in town.” Xiao Hei said excitedly, “I really want to see it with my own eyes. One of the top secrets, I dare not hack the server to check information. “

“We still have A-level masters in our bureau?” Wang Yan was also slightly surprised. He originally thought that only the headquarters of the National African Bureau will have A-level powerhouses. But I did not expect that our East China Branch also has A-level strongmen sitting in it.

“Brother Wang Yan, you don’t need to envy people at all.” Xiaohei said, “You should be envied by others. You only have to join the National African Affairs Bureau in just three months. You are already a C + level strongman. There are many in the unit. Everyone is betting on when you will become a B-level powerhouse. According to my data analysis results, everyone is optimistic that you will be able to understand the strength of the field to reach the B-level realm within half a year to two years. Be extraordinary and become a class A strongman. “

“Taking foot in the field is extraordinary,” Wang Yan said with some fiery longing in his heart, but said modestly, “The field power is not something that you want to comprehend. Some people get lucky overnight and some people get stuck in C + At the level, I ca n’t understand for half of my life. This has nothing to do with qualifications, but also has to pay attention to chance. As for reaching the state of transcendence, it is really too far away, and I do n’t have to think about it now. “

Although Wang Yan thought that he was practicing the “Pure Yang Divine Skill” passed by Uncle Pao, he did not dare to say that he would certainly be able to understand the realm.

Xiaohei also knew this, and comforted him: “Brother Wang Yan, no matter what, your present achievement is already a level that countless people have dreamed of and couldn’t find.”

When everyone is talking.

Yun Zhi took a look at the PAD, frowned slightly and said, “We rune research institute, there are very few regular guests. I didn’t expect to go one after another today.”

“Since Director Yun has guests, let’s say goodbye first.” Wang Yan politely lowered his body.

“The rune is super-sniper, you take the body first, and you are also provided with three rounds of rune bullets.” Yun Zhi said coldly, “When your merits are settled, deduct it on your own initiative.”

“Then I would like to thank Director Yun.” Wang Yan liked this rune super-sniper and honestly put it in the storage bracelet.

Then, everyone boarded the tour bus and drove all the way to the entrance.

But I did not expect to encounter another tour bus on the halfway. Sitting on it were the five big and three thick bears, and the short and sturdy Scud. As soon as Bong Xiong saw Wang Yan, he smiled and said happily, “Xiao Yan, I said that you can’t get through your phone. So you are doing things here? Have you done everything? Hey, Xiao Hei is also there. “

The Rune Research Institute is deep underground, and has not built a communication base station like the headquarters of the East China Branch Bureau, so it is naturally impossible to make a call.

After some greetings from everyone.

Bao Xiong said with a smile: “Don’t go away first, just happen to encounter a very interesting thing, share with you.”

When Wang Yan thought about it, it would be fine to go back anyway, and he heard Xiong Xiong say interesting and interesting things. He simply didn’t leave, and followed him for a while.

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 213

Everyone returned to Yunzhi’s office.

The row of zombies of Qing Dynasty officials remained there honestly.

It seemed like a burst of bears and scuds who were familiar with the road, and behaved casually in Yun’s office. Especially the amused hairy legs, took off the top of a zombie’s head wearing Hua Ling, put it on his head, and said with a smile: “Your director Yun is really like a hundred years. Only pets. “

“Don’t make a fuss, be careful that the director of Dianyun turns you into the next pet.” Explosive bear slapped him on the shoulder and smiled hippy.

“Is it? I’m so honored.” Scud legs crackled twice, flicked two sleeves, and knelt on one knee.
“Please ask Yunnian to take the slave’s knee.”

Wang Yan looked so excited that these two goods were really vulgar.

Then, the ten corpses jumped up and down. However, the SCUD is not afraid, and his body is like a smoke. He has the flexibility to shuttle back and forth among the jumping corpses, and from time to time he changes a hat with a jumping corpse.

This made Wang Yan look very surprised. It seems that Brother Leg also has quite a bit of attribution. At least this body is slippery like a loach.

Yun Zhi poured a glass of water expressionlessly and took a sip. Suddenly the finger flicked, and a light green jade charm flew out. The hairy legs twisted around and flashed away easily. However, before waiting for his complacent face, the jade charm burst open.

“Crack!”

The electric arc net with dozens of fingers thickly covered the hairy legs instantly.

“Ah!” The hairy legs were caught off guard unexpectedly, trembling with electricity and twitching.

Then, there is no more. More than a dozen corpses rushed to the Scud, and pressed him screaming repeatedly: “Help, don’t touch me. Too disgusting, don’t kiss my face. Director Yun, Yun Niang, I will never dare . “

“hiss!”

Such a miserable appearance of Scud makes Wang Yan feel chilled. Did these two products take the wrong medicine today? I can see that Director Yun is not easy to provoke, but he took the initiative to ask for abuse.

Then, SCUD was carried by a group of jumping corpses and thrown outside the office door.

Yun Zhi was drinking hot water slowly, and gave the bear a light glance: “This is what you said, very interesting thing?”

Bursting Bear was also excited, and hurriedly said with a smile: “How is it possible? I came over today, there is a case, need to ask a comrade of the research institute to cooperate with the investigation.”

“Case? Are you saying that the comrades of our institute have committed something?” Yun Zhi’s cold face was suddenly full of coldness. “Explode the bear, please speak carefully. Comrades of our institute Everyone is a loyal guardian of the country and can only stand the test. “

The atmosphere in Yunzhi’s office changed suddenly.

It seemed that there was an invisible ice breath that filled the whole house. Even Wang Yan couldn’t help but shivered slightly.

“Director Yun, don’t be angry first, listen to me slowly.” Bao Xionggan laughed twice, “This case was not originally a big case. It was just a colleague from the Public Security Bureau who found a case There were some mysteries in the smuggling case, so Scud and I were involved in it. But I did n’t expect such an investigation to find out some incredible things. And we found that the suspicion of a comrade in your office is very big ... “

“Oh, this is the interesting thing you said?” Yun Zhi said with a sneer. “You said who was suspected, I immediately called him to face-to-face interrogation. But I will warn you if this case has nothing to do with him.” , Or this case is not as interesting as you said. Do n’t blame me ... hehe. “

It can be seen that the director of this cloud is still very short-sighted.

When Xiong burst into a chill, he said with a smile: “Director Yun, we dare to come. We must have obtained the evidence, just want to ask your comrades to cooperate. As for whether it is interesting, Director Yun will know by looking down. If Director Yun feels boring, I’ll handle it with you. “

Then, Xiong Xiong proposed a name, Zhang Mei.

With a long face, Yun Shuo asked Zhang Mei to come over through her PAD.

At this time, Wang Yan was also curious. Bursting the bear dare to boast about such a big estuary, there must be something to rely on. Together with Xiaohei, I watched the drama with peace of mind.

After a while, a woman, also in a white coat, knocked on the door and entered the office. Her appearance is about twenty-seven or eighty years old, and she looks good.

She didn't expect that there were so many people in Director Yun's office. She was scared and shrunk her shoulders, her face slightly pale. Slightly hesitantly said: "Director Yun, what do you ask me to do?"

"Zhang Mei, don't be afraid, the comrades in the bureau come to get some information from you." Yun Zhi got up and poured a glass of water for her, and said with a pale face, "What do you need to know? To be honest. "

"Okay, Director Yun." Zhang Mei's face was pale, her eyes dodged slightly, and she sat on the sofa.

"Comrade Zhang Mei, hello." Biao Xiong sat opposite her and smiled, "Don't be afraid, I just want to understand the situation."

Perhaps the image of a bursting bear was too scary. Zhang Mei shook her hand holding the cup and splashed a few drops of water.

"Alas." Wang Yan sighed secretly on the side, there is a great possibility that this rose has problems.

"Comrade Zhang Mei." Bing Xiong took out a copy of the paper and asked, "Where are you Monday and Thursday every week?"

"Yes, on duty at the international airport." Zhang Mei took a sip of water and her eyelids drooped.

"What specific job did you do when you were on duty?" Bong Xiong asked politely.

Zhang Mei swallowed and said in a low voice: “In the security inspection department, special equipment is used to detect whether the passengers in transit are unregistered superpowers. Or whether there are runes or magical props that have not been carried.”

Hearing this, Wang Yan suddenly realized. It has always been heard that people in the relevant departments will set up special instruments at the entry and exit gates and monitor them to prevent unregistered superpowers from entering the customs without permission. Of course, it also includes random outflows such as rune grammars.

This detection method is not only available in Huahai City, but is standard at all ports across the country. Not only are there official checkpoints, even the anti-smuggling teams will have specialized personnel to perform relevant tasks.

According to the question from Bingxiong, did Zhang Mei have a problem in this regard? Wang Yan is also very puzzled. Generally, those who hold such positions are responsible for the division of labor among the local State-African Bureaus. The appointed personnel are all carefully selected, and there are rarely problems with collusion between inside and outside.

However, even if such a problem arises, this case may not be interesting? Wang Yan wondered.

“So, may I ask, do you know this person?” Bingxiong took out a picture and placed it on the table.

Zhang Mei took a look, and his body shook slightly. Unconsciously, he shrank his head and said, “No, I don’t know.”

At this time, Wang Yan and Yun Zhi both joined together and glanced at the photo. As soon as he saw the man in the picture, Wang Yan’s doubts became stronger. It was a man in his thirties with rough and dark skin and thin skin, and his appearance was not so good-looking.

And he also wore a security uniform, which was no different from the security guards who were on duty in the parking lot in the building. Belongs to the crowd, no one will go to see more people.

“That’s weird, then why does this man go abroad once a week and return to the country.” Bursting the bear ring holding his hands, his mouth teasing, “And every time I go abroad, it’s Monday, and when I return home, it’s a week Four? This situation has been going on for 17 weeks. “

“I, I, I don’t know.” Zhang Mei is obviously not the kind of woman who is very experienced in interrogation. His face is very white, and he panic said, “Also, maybe it is a coincidence.”

As a result, Lian Yunzhi’s face was a little angry.

“Coincidence? Maybe.” Bao Xiong smiled and said, “Then why at the time node of Wang Erniu’s crossing each time, the detection instrument is either broken, or there is a false alarm, even many times, it has been deleted. What about the traces? Ms. Zhang, I hope you understand the facts. I came to you, not to talk to you. If it were not for the facts, why would I dare to fight the snake! “

“Snapped!”

Burst Bear threw out a stack of photos again. On each photo, there was a close photo of Zhang Mei and Wang Erniu. Some walked in the woods of the park, some hugged by the river, and two kissed in a car. These photos are very clear, and Zhang Mei’s face seems to be filled with a ray of light, a ray of happiness.

Yun Zhi looked at these photos and froze. Immediately she became whiter and her fingers were shaking: “Zhang Mei, I can’t figure it out. It’s normal for you to fall in love and want to get married. But for the time being, this man looks so sloppy Why is it so stupid to cooperate with smuggling? “

Not only Yun Yun couldn’t figure it out, Wang Yan also felt very strange. Although this rose is not a great beauty, but it is also a woman with good looks and good temperament. With her work, income, appearance and so on. It is easy to find a good man.

Why did you fall in love with this king, Wang Erniu?

“I beg you, I beg you not to catch Brother Erniu.” Zhang Mei pouted and knelt in front of the bursting bear, trembling and begging, “I planned it all, I took it The unit ’s storage bracelet. He did n’t know anything about him. “

“Ah!” Bao Xiong Yang Tianchang sighed and said, “Everyone is sullen, why can’t I find such a good girlfriend when Xiong Xiong? Xiao Yan, you talk about it, is it a man Is n’t it bad that women do n’t love? So many good girls would love such a guy who does n’t love her uncle or uncle? ”

“Uh ... you mean, that Wang Erniu is more than Zhang Mei’s girlfriend?” Wang Yan’s eyes were also a little shocked.

“There’s more than one.” Biao Xiong said with jealousy. “He’s like a stallion male protagonist in YY’s novels. Girlfriends have female presidents, female nurses, female teachers ... and each one has quality Temperament and looks pretty. “

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 214

With a sad face, Bing Xiong threw out a stack of photos, which were scattered on the coffee table. These are some photos of Wang Erniu and different women, each of which is a different woman. But there are two similarities. First, the actor in the photo is indeed the dark and rough Wang Erniu who is very short.

Second, every woman in the photo is at least medium-upper appearance, stylishly dressed, and has her own temperament.

“This guy must be awesome.” Wang Yan picked up the stack of photos and was astonished. “Either it’s rich, or it’s a big liar who is proficient in the art of being a girl.” At this time, Wang Yan felt that this case became interesting.

“Two Niu brothers, he is not a liar.” Zhang Mei shouted angrily, “I have said that this matter has nothing to do with him, I do it all by myself. I am willing to pay all legal responsibilities. “

“Shut up.” Yun Zhi said angrily, “Zhang Mei, but you are a social elite who got a Ph.D. at the age of twenty-five, and her parents are all party cadres. The net worth is innocent and the future is promising. I think you are Dizzy! For such a man, you carry all the crimes on yourself, you can carry it at least? You are not only a crime of dereliction of duty! It is also suspected of endangering the safety of the country and the people, even your parents may be suspended. survey.”

“Director Yun, I thank you for your constant care and cultivation. This thing is really just a matter for me, and it has nothing to do with my parents.” Zhang Mei bit her lip and said firmly, “Also , Also has nothing to do with Brother Erniu. “

hiss!

Everyone took a breath of cold air.

“Sister Zhang Mei, why are you doing such a thing?” Su Qianqian, who had not spoken for a long time, said with tears, “You are not short of money.”

“Qianqian, you are young, you don’t understand.” Zhang Mei lowered her head and bit her lip, “Maybe when you grow up and meet the most important man in your life. You will understand.”

“I’ll just say, this is a very interesting thing.” The voice of the SCUD rang at the door of the office.

I saw his hands hard to pull on the door frame, his whole body was ragged, and his face was swollen. It looked like it was pulled out by dozens of men and ruthlessly ~ it was miserable after hundreds of times.

Yun Zhi, who was in a bad mood, glanced coldly away.

More than a dozen zombie hands popped up in the corridor, dragging Scud a little and dragging him down. By the way, there was another hand that brought the office door.

“Help me, Director Yun, I didn’t tease you this time.” “I just want to try my kind of hanging silk. Will a big beauty like Director Yun be tempted?” “Ah ~ don’t ~ don’t bite There!”

...

“Director Yun, I think things are already clear.” Bao Xionggan smiled and said, “I will take away this Zhang Mei first. What will happen when I look back, I will report to you.” Bao Xiong also felt, Today, the atmosphere seems to be very unharmonious. If you stay here, the fire of Director Yun will spread to his head.

“Wait!” Yun Zhi said coldly.

“Director Yun, what other instructions do you have?” Bao Xiong compensation laughed.

“This case, I don’t find it interesting.” Yun Zhi said with a blank expression, “Zhang Mei is very regular and talented. She believes that she may not have been in love and suffered a lot of love. The man’s bewitches made some mistakes. “

“This, Director Yun. We are only responsible for investigating the case and collecting evidence.” Xiong said with embarrassment, “I don’t dare to commit malpractice for personal gain.”

“Who wants you to commit malpractices for personal gains?” Yun Zhi said coldly, “Zhang Mei is my person. She has a problem, and I can’t run the responsibility. So, I have to take part in this case. As long as the mistake is in her , I absolutely do not cover it up. And I will hold the file in person, and Mr. Feng asks for sin from there. “

“This ...” Bao Xionggan laughed and said, “Director Yun, is this not compliant?”

“Why don’t you comply with the rules?” Yun Zhimian Ruo Frost said, “I will not interfere with your collection of evidence, I just want to participate in the cracking of this case. Wang Yan!”

“Uh ... Director Yun.” Wang Yan, who was watching the movie, pointed to his nose and said hesitantly, “You call me?”

“Wang Yan, I hope you can help me.” Yun Zhi’s eyes showed a begging look to him.

Wang Yan thought for a moment, frowned and said, “Director Yun, I appreciate the leadership like you who strives to maintain subordinates. But I don’t know how I will help you in this case.”

“You go to use your special skills to see if she can clear her mind.” Yun Zhi pointed to Zhang Mei.

These words almost made Wang Yan spit out old blood. What’s this called? My Wang Yan is a member of the War Department of the National African Affairs Bureau. He is good at various combat tasks. Does it really let me seduce women?

“Director Yun, I don’t think it’s necessary?” Wang Yan touched his nose and smiled bitterly.

“Mr. Customer, please help Sister Zhang Mei.” Little Lori Su Qianqian also ran over and begged, “It’s a big deal, you don’t charge your R & D expenses for that gun.”

“Director Yun, flourishing. You don’t need to ask someone for help.” Zhang Mei bit her lip and said, “All this is due to me.”

“Wang Yan, anyway, you are also a man with the title of” Danghu male  “. Do you still feel that you are not as attractive as a migrant worker security guard?” Yun Zhi gritted his teeth and began to use his tactics.

Wang Yan sighed: “Director Yun, it doesn’t matter if I have charm or not. Even if I have the ability to make her fall in love with me, I can’t change her suspicion of crime. The most urgent task now is to implement the arrest of Wang Erniu. It must be understood whether he smuggled anything into the country and would threaten the country and the people. “

“Xiao Yan, the smuggled goods don’t care too much. They are all luxury goods with large price differences and small size. It may harm the market, but it will not cause a big disaster.” Bao Xiong smiled and said, “Otherwise, I have already reported to Director Feng, and immediately arrested Wang Erniu. You should listen to Director Yun ’s suggestion, try to see which one she naturally likes, or be charmed by the spirit. If you are sure she is If the spirit is charming, then she is only one of the victims. “

However, Bao Xiong is very suspicious of this. He secretly investigated that if Wang Erniu is a master of mental hypnosis, he does not need to rely on this method to make money at all.

Use storage bracelets to smuggle luxury goods for profit? Hehe! Any spiritual hypnotist, if you want to get some money, it can’t be easier.

Wang Yan thought for a moment and walked to Zhang Mei, showing a sunshine-like clear smile: “Miss Zhang Mei.”

“You don’t need to test me, I’m not enchanted by spirit.” Zhang Mei said coldly, “My brother and I are true love and will never die.”

Yun Zhikuo said: “Zhang Mei, even if you are really interested. Then I ask you, is this guy handsome?”

“Handsome!” Zhang Mei hesitated and told the truth, “And it’s very sunny and clean.”

“Then do you think he is handsome, or is your two Niu brother handsome?” Yun Zhi asked skillfully.

“He is a hundred times more handsome than Er Niu.” Zhang Mei said honestly, “I know that Er Niu has a bad image in your eyes. But his heart is very kind and loves me very much. I love it, and Not his appearance, but his people. “

Yun Zhi’s face was a bit gloomy, and the problem seemed a little big. This is very different from the reaction of a person charmed by the spirit.

“Oh, if he loves you very much.” Wang Yan’s mouth showed a mocking look, “Why should you be dragged into the water and pushed into the abyss of crime?”

“I said, this is my idea.” Zhang Mei was annoyed, “He didn’t know Er Niu.”

“Well, even if your second brother Niu Niu is unaware.” Wang Yan smiled indifferently, “So please, you use Wang Erniu to smuggle luxury goods for profit, what is the purpose?”

“I, I want money. I like money, and I need a lot of money.” Zhang Mei gritted her teeth and said slightly panic, “I am a woman who is greedy for vanity.”

“Well, you just said that you and Wang Erniu are true love that will never die.” Wang Yan sneered. “I almost believed it. But, I can’t understand. If you love so deeply, why should you Your brother Niu Niu pulls into the abyss of crime? The case he committed is definitely enough for him to be shot several times. It turns out that you love him so much? Real hypocrisy! “

Zhang Mei’s complexion changed, and she seemed to be aggrieved. Stop talking a few times. But in the end, it was still important that the jaws didn’t speak.

Wang Yan also felt that it was not like being charmed by the spirit.

Yun Zhi’s face is also very bad, she is well aware that spiritual enchantment is a means of compelling enchantment, which will cause mental disorder of the person being operated and logical thinking ability greatly reduced. In fact, just in front of the institute, there is a monitor to monitor whether employees and visitors are in a state of mental control. While Zhang Mei commuted to work normally, no mental problems were detected.

“If you want to help Zhang Mei, there is only one way.” Wang Yan said with a straight face, “That’s a showdown with Wang Erniu.”

“How to say?” Yun Zhi asked nervously.

“We set a game to make Wang Erniu clearly understand.” Wang Yan Shen Sheng said, “He and Zhang Mei can only live one. See how he chooses.”

“What’s the use of this?” Yun Zhi frowned.

“It’s very simple. If Wang Erniu chose to abandon Zhang Mei and live on his own. It means the biggest betrayal to Zhang Mei.” Wang Yan analyzed and said, “If Zhang Mei wakes up at this time, it is not a magic trick.” On the contrary, it is a kind of evil magic that we do not commonly see. “

“Brother Yan, why don’t we avoid Zhang Mei to discuss this issue?” Xiao Hei asked strangely.

“Because it allows her to see the facts better.” Wang Yan said with a smile, “I believe that at this moment, Miss Zhang also wants to do this test?”

Zhang Mei hesitated a little, bit her lip and nodded, “Okay, I’m willing to try it.”

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 215

The night of Huahai City is neon.

How many migrant workers, recent graduates, and entrepreneurs regard this as an ideal place for hard work.

Some people became rich overnight, and some returned home. There are also people who, through unremitting efforts, have a firm foothold here and thrive.

Wang Erniu had also struggled in this city. He started with small brick moving workers, and finally became a master masons, and then learned some electrical chores, relying on hardship and hardship. . It was just his appearance and financial constraints that made him hit the bachelor until he was thirty.

Later, he broke a leg on the construction site and could not do heavy physical work. Simply use the money saved to do some small business. But Wang Erniu's nature is not the material for doing business. After losing money, he lost all his hard-earned money for many years.

Nowhere to go, Zhao Dongmei, who was doing electrical equipment business, was taken in and became a security guard in the company. Although the salary is not high, but can live a life on earth.

Several years have passed.

He watched Zhao Dongmei's business grow more and more prosperous, from a small company with tens of millions of assets, all the way to a group company with more than one billion assets. Zhao Dongmei's business is doing well, but the love and marriage are very unsatisfactory. The separation between the two husbands before and after, not only suffered a huge economic loss, but also exhausted the body and mind, and even got depression.

Wang Erniu is very anxious. He has always been grateful for Zhao Dongmei and love for him. In addition to doing his job as a security guard, he has been paying attention to Zhao Dongmei silently. It's just that people are the goddesses in the sky, and he is just an old security guard with some lameness. Although he was anxious to repay his heart, he did not dare to feel the slightest suspense, and there was no way to change the situation.

All he can do is to guard silently and do a security duty.

On that day, Zhao Dongmei was chased and chased by several rogues in an underground garage because of an economic dispute with his ex-husband. Wang Erniu rushed up without hesitation, guarding Zhao Dongmei with his thin and weak body. As a result, he was seriously injured and was comatose in the hospital for three days and three nights due to severe concussion.

It was at that time that he changed.

Name: Zhao Dongmei.

Gender: Female.

Age: 35 years old.

Identity: Chairman and President of Huamei Chunmei Group.

Zhao Dongmei, dressed in a simple and fashionable dress, sat in the interrogation room of the Huahai Public Security Bureau. The ups and downs of Shanghai over the years have developed her calm and restrained personality.

Excellent life, exquisite maintenance, physical exercise and body shaping at a fixed time every week. Let her age not only have the appearance of young women, but also the frankness and restraint after years of vicissitudes.

Coupled with a successful career, rich family wealth.

It stands to reason that such women who are very good in all aspects, even if they have been divorced twice, will still be sought after by countless fans, of which there are definitely many young and talented talents.

But in the end, she chose an old security guard who dropped out of junior high school and was short and lame.

And love to die.

Love comes to life, this is not a casual talk.

Wang Yan waited for someone, staring at women in the interrogation room, each with different identities and personalities.

There are four women.

Zhao Dongmei and Zhang Mei are just two of them.

Another female teacher and female nurse are also women with good family conditions and very good conditions. And according to the survey, they have a good reputation among friends, relatives and colleagues.

But even these four women with different identities and backgrounds all fell in love with the same man.

The most bizarre thing is that they both know each other's existence.

In the monitoring room.

Although SCUD has a swollen nose and blue face, it is still full of spirits, and its expression is full of envy and jealousy: "The devil is really too devil. If Xiaoyan is such a thing to do this step, I will recognize Scud. But the king Erniu, who is even uglier than me, can achieve such a result. If he is not a top hypnosis master, I will worship him as a teacher. These four women, each of them claimed that they are their own ideas, and Er Brother Niu has nothing to do. "

Director Yun was in a bad mood, his eyes squeezed him like a knife: "What kind of envy is this scum fighter? I infer that the man is a professional liar even if he is not a hypnosis master. . "

"But from the perspective of Wang Erniu's past experience, he has no place to learn professional deception." Wang Yan frowned slightly. "As for hypnosis, we have just passed professional instruments and methods and tested them one by one. Mental health, even mental health is very sunny and healthy. No, there is a problem. "

"What's the problem?" Everyone asked.

"According to Zhao Dongmei's information, she was diagnosed with depression three years ago and received medical treatment." Wang Yan's eyes surged and her chin was puzzled. "And the result of the diagnosis just now is very good. , Full of positive optimism. "

"Ji Jie, then there is only one possibility." The Scud learns Wang Yan holding his chin, so he meditates, "Class II Erniu is very powerful in a certain way. They are full of happiness and love ~~ Ji 桀桀~ "

“Uncle Scud, what’s the power of falling down?” Because of curiosity, Su Qianqian, who was entangled to see the bustling, asked weakly with blinking innocent eyes. “

Wang Yan hurriedly pulled Su Qianqian behind him, glaring at Scud with annoyance: “There is a child here, and Brother Li should pay attention to the influence.”

“Studies from a certain academy of science have shown that strong ability does increase happiness in a certain sense. But this does not explain the four women, who are not jealous of each other and are commensurate with each other.” Yun Zhi looked frostily at the face. The Scud said, “I have a friend who specializes in all kinds of human body transformations, including cosmetic surgery, and greatly improves that ability. If you like Scud, I can arrange for you to undergo surgery. But even if you become Tall and handsome, and capable. But your genetic flaws still make me feel sick. “

“Director Yun, do you really have that kind of friend?” The eyes of Scud burst out, and the forehead was sweating with excitement. “Be sure to introduce me to it, even if I spend more money. But I am missing a genetic level. ? What is missing? Does it matter? “

Yun Zhi choked back with a word, and refused to ignore him with a cold face.

Wang Yan could n’t eat it anymore, he quickly pulled the hairy legs and said, “Brother Leg, what Yun said is long. Your filthy and obscene, has penetrated deep into the bone marrow, even if it looks good, it is useless. Human Morality and temperament are radiated from the inside out, and have little to do with appearance ... “

“Why is it useless? Xiao Yan, you are tall and tall, a small white face that can eat by the face.” Fei Mao sighed sadly, “A handsome guy like you who actively puts on her back, How do you understand the suffering of our hanging-screw man? Director Yun, can you copy a copy of your friend’s contact information? “

Speaking of the second half, the hairy legs were already smiling, and they came together flatteringly.

Yun Zhi was so entangled that he had no choice but to give him a call. Then, the Scud ran as fast as a treasure, ready to contact the other party for the first time.

In this scene, Wang Yan was a bit dumbfounded and said with surprise: “Director Yun, do you really have such a friend?”

“Why do you need it?” Yun Zhi looked at him coldly.

I do n’t know why, Wang Yan felt a chill, and hurriedly shook his head and said, “No, I do n’t need it. It ’s just a little curious. Is the foreign body optimization technology already able to do that step? By the way, which country is it? Research Institute? Even so sophisticated. “Wang Yan also said with emotion.

“Thailand.” Yun Zhifeng said lightly.

Cough!

Wang Yan was suffocated with a spit of old blood in his chest, and he even had some pain. When I thought of a call from Brother Leg, the other party said “Savadika”. Would he be so scared that he threw all his mobile phones?

At this moment, there was a message from Bingxiong.

“Wang Erniu has come to surrender and the comrades of the Public Security Bureau are filing, and he will be brought up immediately.”

Wang Yan looked at the phone and smiled and said: “I didn’t expect that Wang Erniu really came to surrender. But, is he very clever to realize that he can’t run away, why should he surrender? He is essentially a responsible man. “

“How can such a shameless man who uses women to make money be a responsible man?” Yun Zhi sneered with disdain.

“If you don’t try it, you will know? Only at some point in life and death can you really see a person’s nature.”

In a special interrogation room.

The four women are arranged in four cubicles, and they can all see and hear the contents of the interrogation room. However, he was unable to communicate with anyone in the interrogation room. When they saw Wang Erniu voluntarily surrender, their faces were distressed, and they felt a little relieved.

And Wang Yan, sitting in the seat of the interrogator. The bear is like a non-human, wearing sunglasses and holding his hands to cheer.

Sitting in the position of the interrogator was Wang Erniu, who was wearing a common security suit. The incandescent light hit him concentratedly on his face, making him feel a sense of evasion.

Wang Erniu seemed very nervous, his forehead sweating constantly, his eyes panicked, his body trembling slightly. He was not handcuffed because it made no sense.

“Wang Erniu, when did you wake up?” Wang Yan, a high-end suit with a pair of sunglasses on his nose bridge, directly cut into the theme at the opening.

“What? What?” Wang Erniu grunted, swallowed, and said in a panic, “I, I don’t know any powers.”

“Wow ~”

Wang Yan stretched out his hand slowly, and a blazing flame rose in the palm of his hand, dancing dangerously and eerily.

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 216

The temperature in the entire interrogation room seemed to increase a lot in an instant.

“Ding!”

A coin bounced between the fingers of the bear and fell accurately into the flame. After less than a second, it had been burned red. Two seconds later, the coin could not withstand the high temperature, melted into a liquid, and ticked into a large glass.

Zi la la.

A large amount of white water vapor evaporates from the cup. For a time, there was some smoke in the house.

Wang Erniu was dumbfounded, his mouth widening. There was a trace of confusion in his eyes, his legs were shaking, his sweat had soaked his clothes.

“Wow ~ Uncle Wang is so handsome when he shows the power fire.” Su Qianqian was amazed in the monitoring room, his hands closed on his chest, showing the admiration.

Yun Zhi also thought that Wang Yan’s flames were amazing. The coins were nickel-plated steel cores, which melted so fast. The core temperature of the flames should be more than two thousand degrees. And his awakening ability is only a few months now. The future potential is really limitless.

At one point, she did not agree with Su Qianqian.

This kid is pretty handsome even if he doesn’t use the fire ability. Yun Zhi began to think about whether he should be ranked in the first sequence.

In the isolation room, Zhao Dongmei and four other women also showed surprise in their eyes, but their respective reactions were not too great.

“Analysis from the perspective of micro-expressions.” Yun Zhi said lightly, “These four women have a high degree of acceptance of such things as abilities. Perhaps Zhang Mei in our Rune Research Institute has revealed the news of abilities. Give them. Maybe, they know that Wang Erniu has abilities and have seen them. “

...

“Formally introduce myself.” Wang Yan withdrew the flames and smiled kindly. “My name is Wang Yan, which belongs to a national special agency, and specializes in cases like your use of superpowers to break the law and discipline.”

Wang Erniu grunted and swallowed, his eyes panicked.

“Let me guess. Three years ago, you were beaten by a group of gangsters in order to protect Zhao Dongmei.” Wang Yan opened the file and looked at it while saying, “You were seriously injured and diagnosed with severe concussion. I was unconscious in the intensive care unit for three days and three nights. I think ... “

Wang Yan paused, drinking tea and said: “You must hate yourself at that time, hating yourself is useless, and hate yourself for having no way to protect the goddess Zhao Dongmei who is kind to yourself.”

Wang Erniu lowered his head, closed his eyes in pain, his fists were squeezed tightly, his body was trembling, and tears were squeezed out of his eyes: “Yes, I hated that time, hate myself useless.”

“Two Brother Niu!” In the isolation room, Zhao Dongmei also shed tears and murmured.

“Three days later, you woke up.” Wang Yan continued with a blank expression. “You suddenly found yourself changed. You have some power that makes you feel scared, scared, and excited. Then you use this Ability to revenge the few escaped bastards, one of them died in a car accident, and one of them was drowned by water. “

“I didn’t, I didn’t retaliate against them.” Wang Erniu suddenly stood up in horror and excitement, “Sir, you know, I originally wanted to scare and warn them, but Dong Mei said the past things passed. Just let them get the sanctions that the law deserves. They have nothing to do with me, they really have nothing to do with me. “

“Snapped!”

Wang Yan closed the file and said with a smile: “They didn’t have an accident, but escaped to avoid the wind, and sneaked back last year.”

“Sir!” Wang Er said with a muffled voice, “So, what do you mean?”

“It’s meaningless.” Wang Yan got up, took off his suit and put it on the back of the chair. Lifting the cuff and saying, “We are all superpower awakeners. I just showed you my superpower just now. According to the principle of courtesy, you should also show me your power like me.”

“Yes, long, sir.” Unconsciously, Wang Erniu has fallen into the other party’s established consciousness of knowing that he has super powers. He closed his eyes honestly and began to display superpowers.

Wang Yan looked calm, but he was a little nervous in his heart.

It is conceivable that this super power of Wang Erniu must not have evolved the body and spawned flames like himself, but rather belonged to the mysterious and unknown class. Human beings are always instinctively in awe of the unknown.

Suddenly, the changes are steep.

The white wall in the interrogation room twisted suddenly, melting like hot wax. Not only the walls, but also the tables, chairs, and electric lights began to melt.

The melted liquid almost drowned Wang Yan’s knee in the blink of an eye.

The creepy feeling instantly struck Wang Yan’s body. With a moment of relief, he burned a flame around him, scorching and domineering. However, the flame from the very beginning to the sun has no effect on those people. They followed Wang Yan’s calf and steadily ascended upwards, and reached his chest in a few breaths.

“This ...” Yun Zhi’s complexion suddenly changed in the monitoring room. She flung to the monitor, her face unbelievable. “How is this possible? This is definitely not mental hypnosis.”

On the monitor, the scene that Yun Zhi sees is exactly the same as that seen by Wang Yan and Bao Xiong. The entire interrogation room melted away unbelievably, the white liquid was surging, and Wang Yan and the explosive bear were to be engulfed.

Yun Zhi’s logical thinking told her that the scene she saw should not be true, otherwise the monitoring equipment would also be melted. However, it is certainly not a power like mental interference. Because even if Wang Erniu is very powerful, he can only interfere with Wang Yan and the explosive bear with his spirit, so that they can have hallucinations.

Mental power cannot be transmitted to the monitoring room through the monitoring equipment, and then interferes with Yunzhi's brain, causing her to have the same illusion.

So, the picture taken by the monitor is real!

Seeing that the turbulent white solution would obliterate Wang Yan and the explosive bear.

I saw Wang Yan sneer at the corner of his mouth, and wiped it on his wrist. A three or four meters long, exaggerated rune super sniper appeared in his hand. The muzzle directly reached an empty place. Shen Sheng said: "Wang Erniu, take your abilities, otherwise shoot on the spot."

Rune Chao is extremely smooth and sci-fi, with a domineering image, and inadvertently exudes a dangerous force.

"Wow!"

The white solution stopped rising and disappeared in a flash. The entire interrogation room was restored to its original state, the walls were still walls, and the tables and chairs were still tables and chairs. And Wang Erniu was sitting in the chair honestly, and the muzzle of the rune super black hole was facing his forehead.

It seemed that Wang Erniu was terrified, his hands tremblingly raised, and cold sweat straightened and said, "Long, sir. I, I am acting according to you, your request, to exert super powers." That gun It looks terrifying. He has an intuition. When the other party shoots, he will be bombarded with meat.

Wang Yan ignored him and contacted Yunzhi with a headset: "Director Yun, you are more knowledgeable. What is his superpower? I don't look like hypnosis."

"It's really not hypnosis, it's like virtual avatar, or illusion." Yun Zhijian saw Wang Yan controlling the scene and instantly regained his calm. "From a traditional perspective, illusion is divided into two schools. The first kind It is the mental interference of the neurons in the brain, which causes people to produce various hallucinations in consciousness. This is the most common illusion, also known as hypnosis. Take our East China Branch, for example, there are more than ten skilled people. Second This is sensory fraud. By deceiving the visual sense of smell, hearing and touch, etc., people form an illusion. Some magic schools are good at using sensory fraud. He looks like the second kind, but I am not sure. You just How do you feel about it? “

“It feels very real.” Wang Yan said calmly, “My eyes saw the scenes, and my sense of touch sensed the flow of liquid. The most important thing is that my mental strength also told me that those are real. No, To be precise, when I sensed all this mentally, I felt like real and fake. How to say, between illusion and reality. “

“I’ll add one more sentence.” Bing Xiong said with a lingering fear, “I’m good at physical strength, and the mental strength is relatively weak. But my mental strength tells me that those are real. Mother, really terrible ability, I just wanted to attack Wang Erniu didn’t even feel where he was. “

As a result, everyone was concentrated in the interrogation room. Even when he heard the news and hurried back, his frustrated hairy scud had come together to watch the excitement.

“Wang Erniu, you tell us whether your illusion is true or false?” Wang Yan did not put away the super-sniper, but continued to hold it in his hands as a deterrent. This guy’s ability is too weird, so he has to be careful to avoid chaos.

“Long, sir.” Wang Erniu was surrounded by a group of people and was terrified. “I, I don’t know. I, I, Dongmei call this ability of my dream reality.”

“Dream reality?” Wang Yan frowned, “You mean, can you change everything you want?”

“Yes, yes.” Wang Erniu nodded honestly.

“Then you’ll be a beautiful girl,” said Scud, energetically. “As long as I sniff, I know the girl is real or not.”

Wang Yan glared: “Don’t make trouble, these videos are to be used as evidence for the leaders, pay attention to the impact. Wang Erniu, if you can, you can come out as a puppy.”

“Good, good.” Wang Erniu’s eyes closed.

In a blink of an eye, there was an extra black dog on the interrogation table. It squatted on the table and looked at the people around it in horror, trembling with anxiety, and screamed twice in his mouth.

So wonderful, let everyone feel shocked. Wang Yan reached out and touched, but the black dog was still very clever to hide behind. His hands felt its black hair, smooth and shiny. And it was clear that a warm body temperature was passed.

“Hawhhhhhhh!” The black dog sticks his tongue out and licks twice on the back of Wang Yan’s hand.

“This ...” Wang Yan’s face was uncertain, which was beyond common sense.

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 217

The rest of them were shocked. Everyone is a superpower, and it is not unusual to see superpowers under normal circumstances. But this ability is really difficult to understand.

Wang Yan concentrated his energy and shrouded this native dog with his mental strength. After closing my eyes for more than ten seconds, I opened my eyes and said, “I’m sure it’s fake, but it’s very real, including the internal organs, blood, and bones. However, I can feel it as soon as I lose my mental strength. It’s virtual. “

“It’s indeed fake.” Xiaohei put on a black-framed glasses frame and said seriously, “Under my mental strength, this native dog is like an image created by a holographic image.”

Wang Yan gave Xiao He a surprised look. Before, he said that he was very mental and could not be hypnotized. At that time, I didn’t take it seriously, but now it seems that Xiaohei’s mental strength may be better than himself. However, what Xiaohe is best at is mental power. In terms of personal strength, a secret agent can abuse him as a dog.

All eyes are on Xiaohei.

He smiled shyly and coughed twice, saying: “Holographic projection technology, a slightly developed state department, and even some high-tech companies are researching and developing. And the key technology has repeatedly broken through, and is currently in the take-off stage. Individual countries, has begun to try to apply holographic projection technology in the military field. “

“I watched some videos on the Internet.” Wang Yan said doubtfully, “but it’s completely different from the feeling that this dog gave me. It has body temperature, blood, and even some fishy smell.”

“It’s just that the levels are different, and the final goal is the same.” Xiaohei explained, “The so-called holographic projection refers to the real projection. It’s just that the technology is far from reaching that level, at most it looks more realistic. But with the holographic technology sooner or later, one day will project infinitely real projections. In the vision of relevant technical scientists, the projected humans have all the data of real humans, body temperature, blood, hair, IQ, etc. Even, humans can talk to holographic projections Love, marriage, monkey birth. Regarding monkey birth with holographic projections, scientists have come up with at least three means to achieve ... “

Wang Yan was stunned: “Those scientists are really full and have nothing to do, who will go to the holographic people to give birth to monkeys ...”

“I, I, I!” Said the Scud on the side, raising his hands with his eyes shining brightly. “How good a holographic person is, just what she wants to grow into, what character she wants, what she wants, what she wants.” Such a posture ... well, all in all, if it really looks like the kind of holographic person described by Xiaohei, I would like one hundred and ten thousand to marry. “

Wang Yan glanced at him silently. Sure enough, the elder brother’s lasciviousness, devoting the whole world’s positive energy can’t save him.

Fortunately, after such an explanation by Xiaohei, everyone probably understood what happened to Wang Erniu’s super power. Fantasy reality is really dream reality!

Everyone went to the monitoring room for a meeting.

First report this matter to Director Feng.

Director Feng pondered over the phone and said: “Wang Erniu is a rare super talent, but our National African Bureau pays most attention to the nature of human beings. Xiao Yan, continue to act according to your plan and figure out him What is the nature of the smuggled goods, the motivation? “

After hanging up the phone, Wang Yan and Xiong Xiong returned to the interrogation room again.

“Wang Erniu, we have already figured out your superpowers.” Wang Yan said solemnly. “Now, you can tell your question honestly. The time, place, and goods, profit, etc. of each smuggling . “

“Yes Yes!”

Wang Erniu honestly told the crime after crime.

Wang Yan keeps making notes and asking various details. After more than an hour, Wang Erniu explained all the explanations. Wang Yan made a statistics. The goods he smuggled are all electronic products, cosmetics, perfumes, luxury watches, and other people’s livelihood supplies.

Every illegal profit is between several million and 20 million, with a total profit of more than 140 million.

This result made Wang Yan also sighed with emotion. Smuggling using storage bracelets is indeed a profiteering activity. In just a few months, the profit was so exaggerated. And the places he went to were all the places where the regime was chaotic, where he could use the ability of fantasy reality to easily avoid danger, as well as the monitoring of loophole superpowers.

“Wang Erniu, your profit looks very high.” Wang Yan suddenly asked casually, “But since you have the ability, why not go to a place like the Golden Triangle and transport some poison ~ goods back. Just a sum , You can withstand your hard work for months. “

Wang Erniu was agitated suddenly, blushing and said, “Sir, sir. I, I can’t do this kind of thing. Drugs, that’s a harmful thing.”

“Snapped!”

Wang Yan slapped it on the table and said angrily: “Do you still know that drugs harm people? Do you think the things you smuggled are harmless?”

“I, my things are leaking and tax leaking.” Wang Erniu slurped, “I, although I broke the law, but, but I am not harmful. It can also make people use less money to buy likes s things.”

“Oh, listening to what you said, are you still doing martial arts?” Wang Yan could not help but sneer. “I will not talk to you about smuggling and tax evasion first. Let me give you an example. If I am an entrepreneur, In order to support my family, and to make my family live a better life, I spotted a brand project to do. In the process, I invested more than ten years of savings and one million borrowed. In the beginning I managed to do well and managed to do very well. But it didn’t take long for a lot of the same goods to appear on the market, but the price was much lower than mine, and even lower than my purchase price. “

After a pause, Wang Yan said: “My goods can’t be sold, and the accumulation of funds in my hands caused the capital chain to break. Not only did my years of accumulated blood savings go home, but I also owed a * debt, and my wife and children were panicked with me Day. “

After Wang Erniu’s face was puzzled, he showed shame. Obviously, he only thought that smuggling was just tax evasion, but he did not expect that it might cause harm to other legitimate operators.

“Maybe you would say that the example I gave is too extreme. Those legitimate businesses have money, and it doesn’t matter if they lose money.” Wang Yan sighed. “But the money earned by others is not money? Is my money the money? Well, I lost money and I owed debts. In order to support my family, I also risked smuggling or secretly selling those smuggled items. In this way, no one has done a serious business. Everyone digs into the hollow to think about the evil way. Then, the whole order is so chaotic. “

“I, I ...” Wang Erniu blushed and said, “I didn’t think so much.”

“So, if you break the law, you break the law. Don’t give yourself so many reasons to act as psychological support, and make yourself very reasonable.” Wang Yan said indifferently, “Why, why smuggle?”

“I, that. Lack of money.” Wang Erniu said hesitantly.

“It seems that you are not telling the truth now.” Wang Yan picked up the file and said, “Due to the global economic crisis, Zhao Dongmei’s enterprise has had a problem with the capital chain in the past two years. Then she encouraged you to smuggle, and in order to smuggle, A detailed plan was drawn up. At the same time, you used special abilities to seduce Zhang Mei and used her feelings for you to help you commit crimes. “

“No, it’s not like this.” Wang Erniu stood up angrily, shaking all over his body. “Dong Mei’s funds are indeed in trouble, but this is my idea, it has nothing to do with her.”

“Oh, then you are using Zhang Mei for the goddess in your heart.”

“No, I didn’t use Xiaomei, and I love her. No, no, I used Xiaomei, and I deceived her.”

“So you caused Zhang Mei to commit treason. She will be sentenced to secret shooting in the end. Her parents who raised her will also be implicated, and then she will live alone.” Wang Yan sneered with a sneer. “You really love her enough.”

Shot! Her parents were implicated.

These keywords have seriously stimulated Wang Erniu. He was distracted, his eyes panicked and panicked: “How could this happen, how could it be? Xiaomei, I hurt Xiaomei. No, it can’t be like this.” He growled with a blush, “I can’t let you shoot Xiaomei. “

Suddenly, the environment of the interrogation room changed again.

The dense primitive jungle grew rapidly, and the dense moisture came.

“Guru.”

The grunt of the fierce beast’s throat sounded, and the three claws ran smoothly, and the velociraptor with long feathers flew like arrows.

Wang Yan’s face didn’t change a bit, and there was a bang, and the whole person burst out like a shell.

“Boom!”

There was a muffled noise.

The primitive jungle and velociraptor inside the house disappeared without a trace, and the original appearance of the interrogation room was restored.

However, Wang Erniu had already grasped his throat with one hand and pushed it against the wall.

At this time, Wang Yan's strength had surpassed that of ordinary people many times, and Wang Erniu was carried away by dozens of centimeters from the ground.

Wang Erniu was blushing, his hands desperately trying to break Wang Yan's hand, but he was still.

"Your ability is really interesting, but you want to use it against me, but it is a lot worse." Wang Yan said coldly, "If you like a talent, if you join our National African Bureau, the treatment will be very good. Unfortunately, you are a criminal. "

"Let go, let them go." Wang Erniu's eyes widened and he stared angrily at Wang Yan.

"I can give you a chance." Wang Yan said lightly, "If you can prove yourself innocent, you can join the National African Affairs Bureau and start your glorious life."

"How to prove?" Wang Erniu was pinched in his throat, his voice very hoarse.

"It's very simple. As long as you accuse all smuggling, it is a plan made by Zhao Dongmei and Zhang Mei, and you are just the victim of their deception." Wang Yan smiled and said, "This way you will get rid of the crime and be punished. Recruited into the national system, Guangzong Yaozu has a promising future. "

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 218

"Don't underestimate our work, our work is to protect the safety of the country and the people, and the benefits and honors are very high." Wang Yan's voice is full of hypnotic charm, "Take me, my administrative level is already deputy hall level. "

During the speech, Wang Yan's hand was slightly loosened.

"Cough, what will happen to them?" Wang Erniu coughed and asked.

"They?" Wang Yan smiled and said, "Zhang Mei and Zhao Dongmei will definitely be sentenced to death, and the other two will be somewhat involved, probably for a few years. But rest assured, so you can Take yourself out, the future is bright. "

"I'm relieved to be a fart." Wang Erniu roared angrily. "I do everything, what's the matter with them? What means do you have, even though it's directed at me."

"Wang Erniu, don't destroy your future." Wang Yan's eyes became cold and ruthless, and his strength increased a bit. "Don't think that you are valuable. Ordinary superpowers like you, our country. There are many non-bureaus. "

"Ge Laozi's. All, I did it. They, they don't know." Wang Erniu's eyes said suddenly.

"Tell you an unfortunate news, even if you spare your life to protect them, you can't protect them. Because we have already grasped the exact evidence of their crimes." Wang Yan's eyes were cold, his mouth sneered, "Whether you supply or not They, their ending will not change. As a superpower, I advise you to confess them honestly, so that you can at least keep yourself. "

"Sell your own woman and let myself survive. I, I would rather die." Wang Erniu struggled, kicked on Wang Yan's chest, "Lao Tzu's, all the crimes committed by Lao Tzu, why should I They are back. Lao Ge, you son of the turtle. "

"Poof" Get it!

Wang Yan didn't move.

"Stupid." Wang Yan sneered, "You are dead now, you have nothing. If you survive, with your ability, you will definitely have whatever you want in the future. Women, you can still chase it. Ronghua riches, Guangzong Yaozu, go to the peak of life, aren't these exactly what you want? "

“Wow!” Wang Erniu flew out with a spit.

Wang Yan casually turned his head to avoid easily. The corner of his mouth sneered and said: “You are stubborn, attacking law enforcement officers. According to the superpower management regulations, I have the right to kill you now. Since you want to die, I will complete you.”

Crunch.

Wang Yan’s hand tightened, and the force generated by the tiger’s mouth caught Wang Erniu’s throat, pinching it in a little.

“Please, please.” Wang Erniu’s brain began to lack oxygen, his eyes were white, and he whispered begging, “It’s all my fault. Let them go.”

“Release, let them go.”

“put.....”

A minute later, Wang Erniu’s head was crooked and his tongue was spit out.

“Huh! What a brutal guy.” Wang Yan exhaled and laid him on the ground. But to him, Wang Yan still somewhat admired. Before he died, he still begged the woman who let him go.

at the same time!

Several women in the observation room in the cubicle were mad, and they all watched Wang Erniu giving “torture torture” and was tortured to death. And until he died, he was defending them and wanted to help them fight for a lenient opportunity.

Although they were handcuffed, they struggled frantically, screaming. Even if the blood was dripped with handcuffs on the wrist, it didn’t matter.

The cloud in the monitoring room, the more silent he sees the back. Finally, she entered the observation room of the compartment herself and opened the handcuffs of the women. If they were allowed to go crazy again, their wrists would be crippled.

Then, Wang Yan was unlucky.

The four women, like four crazy velociraptors, rushed into the interrogation room, and the two fell on the ground and cried Er Niu. And that Zhao Dongmei and the female nurse threw themselves up and tried desperately with Wang Yan, and he kept cursing at him.

Faced with this situation, Wang Yan also took a breath.

The torture confessed just now, the image of Wang Yan's "insidious bad guy", set off Wang Erniu's demeanor of "regarding death as his home".

Not only did these women not recognize the "true face" of Wang Erniu, but they also covered him with a layer of death to protect their sacred glory.

Fortunately, Wang Yan had a good skill, and he evaded slightly.

...

Almost at the same time.

East China Branch of the National African Bureau, in the office of the director.

An old ferret wearing a bowler hat and meticulously dressed like a gentleman is sitting cross-legged on the sofa, crutches are lying on the thigh, his eyebrows are down, his breath is as long as meditation.

The snow-white and pink little ferret snuggled snugly beside it.

"Senior Marten, this is how things go." Feng Yuande wore a loose Kung Fu shirt and took a sip in a purple clay pot, and said with a heavy tone, "Whether it is the O League Superpower Federation, or the news shared under the Crown of the Bright Church Show. FBG company's actions around the world have become more and more unscrupulous. And we got the exact news, Xiao Tian Lang Wang did not die. I have reason to believe that FBG's recent actions in China have the Xiao Xiao Lang behind Wang's support. "

“Ah ~” Lord Diao sighed, “I thought that among our eight demon kings, although we couldn’t talk to sisters who were sympathetic, we have been watching and helping each other. At that time, we never expected that we would encounter that catastrophe and die in the end. Dead, scattered. Xiao Tiancheng is late, compared to the most I care about him. “

“Diao Ye, don’t ever miss your old feelings,” Feng Yuande whispered. “Xiao Sirius was determined to follow the World Demon King, destroy the human world, and respect the Demon Race. He would not hesitate to provoke war between the two sides. Such a desperate demon is really not worthy of sympathy. “

“If it is from the perspective of the demon clan, Xiao Tian is also a hero who would rather die.” Diao Ye said lightly, “but his brain is too rigid and he does not understand the changes of the times. If he insists on raising the human ~ demon two clan. The battle of the demon will be wiped out sooner or later, and occasionally it will survive, and it will live like a mouse crossing the street. So Xiao Cao ’s proposal is good. The National African Affairs Bureau is established to treat the demon and superpowers equally. Safeguard the interests of each other, shemales coexist peacefully and share a planet. “

“Ye Diao has a thorough view, but the Sirius Sirius is quite obsessive. As long as he lives for a day, he will explode at any time like a time bomb, destroying the hard-won situation.” Feng Yuande said seriously, “The evidence now shows that , He and FBG collaborated together, and the threat was greatly increased. I suspect that he tried to join FBG to rescue the world demon. “

Diao Ye closed his eyes halfway, slightly stroking his long beard and said, “I heard from Tianjizi some time ago that the sky is dangerous and disorderly, and I am afraid that a big disaster will come. Could it be that this is the matter?”

Feng Yuande’s face was also slightly dignified: “The old fairy’s proverbs have also been heard by the younger generation. Our bureau has started a series of preventive measures. But FBG is now rampant and nobody is committing crimes in China. The last time was you Granddaughter, and later the blood angel chaos. This time, Sun Shu of my Central China Branch was killed in battle directly. I can’t bear this matter with the old Feng, and the same can’t be endured up and down by the National African Bureau. “

“In this way, the National African Bureau is ready to make a big move?” Diao Ye’s eyes opened slightly.

“We are not in the late Qing Dynasty and the early Republican period, when the national power is declining. If someone is knocked on the door, there is no reaction at all, wouldn't it be ridiculed by the peers in the world?” Feng Yuande said with a serious look, “This Once our National African Affairs Bureau not only had to do it, but also had to move hard enough. Let FBG know what happened to the China National African Affairs Bureau. Also let the world's superpowers take a look. Ability and determination. “

An extraordinary breath rose from Feng Yuande.

Time has passed for another seven days.

In these seven days, Wang Yan had a very leisurely life. During this time, I also took the time to go back to my hometown and spent three days with my parents. The rest is to sit in the sun at home, read various books to improve the knowledge reserve. At night, most of you are practicing pure Yang Shengong. Occasionally, a group of colleagues handed it over to drink, sing K, and life was easy.

Early in the morning, Wang Yan drove to the unit.

Because there is no task, he is in a state of half vacation. Wang Yan wore a clean sportswear, a cap, and a pair of sunglasses on the bridge of his nose, which looked very sunny and fashionable.

When he came to the unit, it was Xiaotu Meimei who said that his mission merits had come out, so he came to the unit to settle. At the same time, he wanted to exercise with the equipment of his unit. For many days, there was no high-intensity exercise, which made his bones feel rusty.

“Squeak!”

A black Mercedes-Benz stopped at the door of the unit.

First a beautiful woman got off the co-pilot, and then two more came down the back seat. Coupled with the push out of the driver's seat, there are four beautiful women with good looks.

Wang Yan pressed the brake and stopped, looking at the scene with a half-open window.

The reason is simple, because all four women, Wang Yan knows. Zhao Dongmei, Zhang Mei, and a nurse and teacher.

In the end, it was Wang Erniu, the winner of life, and Shi Shiran came down from the back seat. He is very handsome today, wearing a high-end suit and polished leather shoes. Just because of tension, my head kept sweating.

“Husband.” Zhao Dongmei stepped up and encouraged him to wipe his sweat distressedly. “Don’t be afraid, Xiaomei doesn’t say that either. The National African Affairs Bureau is a serious unit, just like what the SHIELD filmed in the American drama. Similarly, the social status and welfare of internal members are very high. “

“Husband.” The pretty and cute nurse girl held Wang Erniu’s arm and said excitedly, “When I think of my husband as a superhero like the protagonist in the Marvel movie, I feel so admired and admired you. . “

“But ...” the temperament female teacher said worriedly, “the work done by superheroes is very dangerous, I always feel a little scared.”

“Don’t worry about it.” Zhang Mei gently treated the collar of Wang Erniu. “Her husband’s super powers are not the main battle. They are unlikely to be sent to perform tasks. Besides, the director Yun also said that her husband’s super powers Ability is very rare and useful. She wants to invite him to the institute to help with a project. “

This feeling is really a winner in life.

“Ridiculous, so ridiculous.” A stern, solemn voice suddenly sounded.

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 219

This sudden sound deterred the scene.

I saw two men walking side by side at the door of the unit. One of them was almost middle-aged, dressed in a suit, and looked like Zhao Xiu, director of the logistics department. The other, short and sturdy, has a slightly bald head. Although he tried his best to show a very correct appearance, it was difficult to conceal a thick and frivolous breath on his body.

To be fair, in terms of looks, the SCUD is even stronger than Wang Erniu. Therefore, in the heart of the SCUD, there must be a lot of dissatisfaction, plus envy and jealousy.

At first, some women were still weak, but after seeing the Scud, they all showed disdainful expressions. The dull breath of this guy has penetrated deep into the bone marrow, evaporating outwards all the time.

“Remember that you call Scud, right? What do you mean?” Zhao Dongmei took the lead in saying, “We love what I want, it’s your business.”

“I think he is jealous.” The nurse beauty held Wang Erniu’s arm and said provocatively to the Scud. “Jealous to our husband, there are four beautiful wives.”

Scud’s face was slightly embarrassed, but he immediately said righteously: “Wang Erniu, you are now a registered public official in the country. Your private life is so unchecked, and the impact is too bad.”

Wang Erniu’s face was flushed and he didn’t know how to answer it.

“Scoot, you don’t have to spray people with blood.” Zhang Mei, who came from the institute, wanted to be more knowledgeable. Two steps forward angrily said, “Which law stipulates that a man can only talk about one girlfriend? Even if the law stipulates that only one can be talked about, Dongmei is his girlfriend. Can we be his ordinary friends? “

“That is to say, we are ordinary friends and you have to manage !?” The other two also helped to support.

Hairy legs suffocated a mouthful of old blood and almost died. A man had four girlfriends at the same time. It was ridiculous enough. The four girlfriends who are still born are still fighting so hard to protect him. They are willing to serve together. Everyone is human, why is there such a big gap?

“Can ordinary friends call her husband?” The hair on the forehead of the SCUD has been sweating constantly.

“Shall we help him nickname her husband?” The nurse beauty glared at Scud, and said softly, “You can call him husband if you want.”

The hairy legs were so dangling that they didn't faint.

“Okay, okay, everyone is a colleague in the future. We have to love each other and choose each other for unity.” Zhao Xiu said gently in a round face, “But Comrade Erniu, you really have to pay attention to the impact. You are now Public officials must lead by example, especially in public places, they must actively maintain the image of public officials. Oh, I forgot to introduce myself, my name is Zhao Xiu, the director of the logistics department. , Errands. “

“Director Zhao.”

Several women, at this time, greeted Director Zhao with dignity and dexterity.

Wang Erniu also sweated nervously and said, “Director Zhao, I must pay attention.”

“Sisters, everyone will pay attention in the future. Husbands will take turns picking up and going to work every day. Don't engage in such a big show.” Zhao Dongmei ordered that the other three girls obediently obeyed. At the same time, she sneered and looked at the Scud and said, “Especially don't grab the handle for some hypocritical villains, and if you complain everywhere, her husband is not a good person in the unit.”

Several women cast contemptuous glances at SCUD at the same time.

“Her husband, don't be afraid. I know you are an honest person, and you are often bullied and silent.” Zhao Dongmei carried a briefcase in his hand and took out a bento box from the trunk to carry him, “But if there are some things you can't stand, just discuss with us. It's really not possible. I'll go directly to the leader of your unit and respond. “

The hairy legs are crying, why? Why the power of my Scud awakening just runs fast, not a dream reality. Even if it's an advanced hypnosis, it's a good girl. Suddenly he saw Wang Yan's car with sharp eyes, he was sneaking to start the car, when he was about to run to the underground garage. Scud greeted immediately: “Xiao Yan, what a coincidence? Are you coming to work today?”

Wang Yan's back was cold, and he was about to collapse the two goods with one shot.

But at this time, he had to park the car on the side and got out of the car with a smile. Say hello: "Today is so lively? Comrade Erniu, welcome you to join the SAA."

All eyes, all focused on Wang Yan's eyes.

Wang Erniu was terrified and his pupils contracted, and he subconsciously took two steps backwards. What happened that day is still fresh in his memory. This handsome and sunny man is more terrifying than the devil and more indifferent than the * of death. It was him who strangled himself to death.

And he kept tempting himself to betray his four wives, which was really bad to the bones.

As for the four women, they looked at Wang Yan fiercely, and it was good not to rush up and strip him alive.

"Cough!" Zhao Xiu couldn't see. He coughed twice and reminded, "Actually a few of you, you have to thank Wang Yan for it. If it wasn't for him in the report, he helped Erniu say a lot of good things, and asked the director to An opportunity for Wang Erniu to atone for his crimes. Do you think that Director Feng would so easily agree to let Wang Erniu join the National African Affairs Bureau and use the merits to forgive your criminal facts? "

What Director Zhao said was to let the four women slightly reduce their hostility. His image of the wicked and the bad guys had already penetrated their memories.

"Her husband, you must be good in the unit. If they bully you too much, we will not do the big thing." Zhao Dongmei whirled Wang Erniu's face in distress. "It will be fine to go to jail by then." , Let 's just shoot. All of us are with you. "

"No, no. I will do it well. I don't want you ..." Wang Erniu said halfway, peeking at Wang Yan, shrinking his neck with a spit. Obviously, Wang Yan is still full of fear.

Wang Yan didn't care, just smiled at him.

What he thought he did was worthy of the question that day. If Wang Erniu is not pushed to the extreme, how can he see his true nature? If a man who encounters death threats and will abandon the woman who has died to his death, how dare he put him into the SAFE?

Wang Yan did not take long to join the SAFE, but deep down, he already regarded the SAFE as his home. Proposed to Director Feng to guarantee Wang Erniu to come in. The first is to see that his ability is definitely very useful to the National African Affairs Bureau. Second, there is also some admiration for him at the last minute, lethal to maintain the quality of his woman.

As for how they view themselves, it is not important at all.

When Wang Yan was about to enter the unit.

With a hum, a sports car roared from far away, and it sprinted to the door of the unit in a short while.

It was a white Maserati cabriolet with two magnificent women sitting in the car. Especially the woman in the driver's seat, with a gorgeous face and a pair of sunglasses, her long black hair flying backwards. Upon seeing Wang Yan, a rare smile appeared on the corner of her mouth.

After jumping off the car and picking up something in the back seat, he walked across the catwalk.

Unlike the usual OL dress, today Nanlian wore a cardigan white shirt, the knot of the shirt was tied by her, revealing a half-feeling ~ abdomen, and a black skirt tightly wrapped her , perfect and refined. The two slender white and tender * s are a bit stronger than the top Wei Mi models.

Her appearance instantly covered up all the light on the scene.

Scud, Zhao Xiu, rubbed their eyes and looked at her in disbelief.

The change is too big!

Where is this famous ice queen? She is just a * ~ a sense of angels, even if they are the top models in the world, their figure will be a little worse than her. What's more, she is a domain-level powerhouse, even if the aura inadvertently exudes, can it be compared to those female models like vases?

And she laughed.

To be honest, Zhao Xiu and her colleagues have never seen her laugh for years. It's cold all day long, don't let anyone enter.

Now her smile is like the warm sunshine on the snowy mountains of thousands of years, which makes people feel that they are so bright and beautiful.

The Scud looked straight, and the saliva came out unconsciously. However, he felt that it was early and hurriedly dried his saliva, so he dared not read it again. That's Nan Lian, the ice queen, if she gets caught in her ugly appearance. The consequences are definitely not optimistic.

As for the four girlfriends of Wang Erniu, they were also shocked by Nan Lian's appearance. The charm, temperament and demeanor displayed by this woman are the best among the best. I am afraid that even those superstars dressed up on the red carpet will feel ashamed.

Not to mention them.

Although the four of them are ordinary women, they can be regarded as having good looks and good temperament.

But compared with Nanlian, it is like fireflies and Haoyue in the sky.

This woman made them unable to even feel a trace of jealousy. Just guessing secretly, is she also a member of the National African Affairs Bureau? How can it be so beautiful? Brother Erniu won't be fascinated by her, will you add a sister to your family?

It turns out that they think too much.

In Nan Lian's eyes at this time, it seemed as if he could only accept Wang Yan. She walked in front of Wang Yan, kissed him generously, and then said with a smile: "Xiao Yan, I am back. This is a gift for you. See if you like it or not?"

Wang Yan was also somewhat ignorant by her kiss.

What is this situation? Remember the last time you kissed yourself, this time again? Sister Nanlian is not pro-addicted, right? And her dress today is very different from usual. Hot, sexy, passionate and generous!

Going to the beach for a holiday, has the style changed?

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 220

Wang Yan felt a faint, lotus-like fragrance, and burrowed into his nasal cavity, straight to the end. Promoted his heartbeat to accelerate, blood surging.

He took a quick and deep breath, before calming the disordered breath. After receiving the exquisitely packed gift box, he chuckled and said, "Sister Nanlian, you just go back, what else do you bring with you?" But in the speech room, I could not wait to open the gift.

Zhao Dongmei and four other women couldn't help looking at each other.

This beautiful and moving woman, as unattainable as a fairy in the sky, took the initiative to kiss that Wang Yan.

Even more shocking, Zhao Xiu and SCUD. In the past, Nanlian was always rigorous and cold in the unit. Taking Scud, for example, he would rather go to the night witch Wuya Ange rather than take the initiative to speak to Nanlian.

Now this ice queen, under the large crowd, took the initiative to kiss Wang Yan.

For a while, Scud rubbed his eyes, wondering if he was dreaming.

"This ..." Wang Yan opened the gift and found that it was actually a delicate thermos. Can't help but laugh, said, "Sister Nanlian, I like this gift very much. I will think of you every time I drink water in the future." Although the gift is not heavy, but Sister Nanlian came back with a mug It's really weird.

“Don’t pretend.” Nan Lian’s pretty eyes under the sunglasses gave him a glance. “Open it and see.”

Suddenly, Wang Yan, there is still something in it? I said, how could Nanlian bring back a thermos cup. Can’t help but screw up the cover, ridiculed and said, “Sister Nanlian, you are so far away that you won’t bring some seawater abroad. Let me try it? This is bullying me like I haven’t been abroad ... er ... What is it? “

As soon as he opened the thermos cup, Wang Yan felt a heat coming from the cup. Inside the sparkling silver thermos cup, a ball of red liquid converged into a round drop like a glass bead, swaying back and forth in the thermos cup.

magma? Not like.

If it is lava, the thermos has already been hot. And the color and purity are not very similar. This ball of red liquid rolled like an oval. The color is crimson like pigeon blood, pure to translucent. It feels like a liquid high-purity ruby. The color is pure, revealing an indescribable spirituality.

With Wang Yan’s surprise, Zhao Xiu and Scud also approached with curiosity. The SCUD didn’t recognize it, but Zhao Xiu’s complex face changed slightly, and he whispered, “Huh? It turned out to be a fire.”

Fire pulp?

Wang Yan was surprised, what is this stuff?

“It’s still Director Zhao who is well-informed.” Nan Lian said with a smile. “The Fire Essence is the legendary flame essence and a treasure of heaven and earth. For the super-cultivator of flames, it has some functions.”

“It’s more than a role. It’s very useful.” Zhao Xiu looked at the fire flame obsessively, his face full of envy, “This is a baby, such a fire flame will make many superpowers. Competing. In the treasure trove of our National African Bureau, the stored fire is very rare, worth 300 points per gram of merit. This group, at least more than 3 grams? “

“Sister Nan Lian, is this thing too expensive?” Wang Yan said stunnedly. I thought it was a fun little thing, but I didn’t expect this ignition point, but even a thousand merits. Converted into RMB, the value is at least hundreds of millions.

Nan Lian glared at him angrily: “What’s expensive or not? You just need me to give it to you. If it’s ice bone, I’ll refine it myself.”

“You can change it with the bureau.” Zhao Xiu Shun said, “I don’t charge you a commission in the bureau, and exchange you for the same amount of ice ... uh ... I remember there is no ice pith in the bureau.” The reason is very simple, he felt the chilling air from Nan Lian, the ice queen.

Nan Lian’s face was slightly cold, and she said indifferently: “Wang Yan, if you don’t like it, you can give it back to me.”

Wang Yan felt her displeasure and hurriedly embraced the thermos in her arms with a hippie smile: “Sister Nanlian, I certainly like such a good thing. You have to let me deflect twice, and act like you are. Not humble. Thank you, sister Nanlian. “

Nan Lian’s face was slightly slower, and he said: “The thermos can only be used for temporary storage. You’d better refine it and absorb it as soon as possible, so as not to let the essence of the flames pass too much. And this thing cannot be stored in the storage space.”

“Well, I will use it when I get to the bureau.” Wang Yan hurriedly put away the thermos, and it was strange. “Why can’t this thing be stored in the storage space? Is it still possible, or is it a living substance?”

“Xiao Yan, you have more time to read and study. You can’t rely on Yan value to eat all day.” Zhao Xiu said with envy and jealousy. “Flame is mostly found inside the magma, and it is detected according to its composition. Ninety is composed of organic substances, such as various amino acids and various proteins. But it is not just pure organic substances. It will continue to grow by absorbing flame energy. In a sense, It is also a kind of life. Someone tried to put it in the storage space, and it died three days later, and it crystallized, the effect was greatly reduced. The latest research shows that it is a combination of organic and inorganic life.

Wang Yan was surprised, there is such a magical life in this world? However, does this matter have anything to do with whether you read or not? From small to large textbooks, I have never taught that there is such a magical thing in the world.

Can't help but sigh with emotion: "Life is really colorful, I did not expect that there will be this magical substance in the hot magma."

"This is nothing, according to the latest research." Zhao Xiu explained, "Even when supernovas explode, organic matter will be born. They are like seeds of life, spreading to every corner of the universe, looking for the right The soil takes root and germinates, overcoming the environment and blooming the glory of life. "

Uh ... indeed much more reading.

"Then according to Director Zhao's statement." Wang Yan said slightly excitedly and curiously, "There must be extraterrestrial life in this world?"

"Almost all scientists have a common understanding that there will be extraterrestrial life in the vast universe." Zhao Xiu said, "The only problem is when we find them."

"Are there any Area 51 similar to the United States in the State Administration of African Affairs that has captured aliens?" Wang Yan was interested at once, "Can I apply to visit?"

"Don't make trouble. Next time you catch it, we will set up a special alien life research institute for you." Zhao Xiu said glaringly.

After unraveling some confusion, Wang Yan said to Nan Lian again: "Sister Nan Lian, you have worked hard. It must be very difficult to find this flame."

"It's not hard work, and I'm lucky," Nan Lian said indifferently. "The island where I and Guannuo are on vacation is exactly a private island in the Hawaiian Islands. Everyone knows that the Hawaiian Islands are located in The volcanic eruptions and molten gushes on the slurry column were commonplace. When Guan Nuo and I went fishing on the day, I saw magma pouring out of the sea near an island. I dived with the power, who knows I just picked up such a thing. Fortunately, I went fast, otherwise the new magma will definitely be wiped out. So, Xiao Yan, do n't have the psychological burden, I picked it up. "

"Hey, can you guys focus your attention on me?" Guan Nuo sat on the co-pilot, twitching his short hair and posing for a long time.

As a result, this group of people either focused their attention on Sister Nanlian or focused on the flame.

I couldn't hold it anymore. Guan Nuo pulled out the car key and jumped out of the car. He muttered and said: "Comrade Wang Yan, you have to thank me too. That day I proposed to Sister Nan Lian to go fishing. Otherwise, how can you benefit? "

"Guannuo?" Wang Yan was taken aback and said two steps backwards, hell, "When did you come?"

Guan Nuo heart twitched, tears fell. She apparently appeared with Sister Nan Lian, why is there no sense of camera? Everyone is a beauty, why should the treatment gap be so big?

"Haha, make you play, don't cry." Wang Yan smiled and gave her a hug, patting her back with both hands, "Welcome to come back on vacation."

Guan Nuo was hugged unexpectedly, his body shaking, his body flowing like a current. Two touches of blush, dyed her earlobe, her heart shy.

This guy is so bad that he wants to play hard, so he has to let the girl come together.

Woo ~

He's finished hugging, won't he take the opportunity to kiss?

Is Miss Ben refusing to welcome her, or is she refusing to welcome her?

Really, Miss Ben is still ...

"Sister Nanlian, the weather has been falling for a while, and it's windy outside. Let's go inside and make a cup of coffee and talk slowly. Let alone Hawaii, I haven't even been to Hainan Island, and tell me about interesting and fun things."

"Then the next vacation calls you to go together."

“Wow wow wow. Comrade Guan Nuo, please stop the car for me.”

The car key found by Land Rover flew into Guan Nuo’s hand.

Then a man and a woman walked side by side into the unit.

Guan Nuo squeezed the car key in his hand, and his face was ashamed, as if the hot magma met the seawater, it first solidified, and then became black and hard. A pair of beautiful big eyes, watery, all seemed to hear the heart, cracked into pieces.

“Miss Guan, you are welcome to come back.” The hairy legs hipped together and smiled, rubbing their hands wretchedly. “It’s cold outside, let’s go into the unit early for a cup of coffee. Speaking of it, I didn’t even go to Hainan ... “

Before the SCUD talk was finished, two car keys flew over and caught up quickly. Then I heard Guan Nuo’s cold voice: “I don’t like to drink coffee. And, you haven’t been to Hainan Island, what is Miss Guan Ben? Go and help Nanlian and Wang Yan’s cars.”

Then she spread her feet and quickly caught up: “You two go slower, wait for me, I will drink coffee too.”

The hairy legs touched their slightly bald heads, something was unclear. Miss Guan, do you like coffee and coffee? Still don’t like drinking coffee?
