

D. Hero 271

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 271

A cargo ship galloping through the clear sea in Hainan.

In the bridge.

The captain of this “cargo ship” Louis, one of FBG’s directors Randy, and an elderly man in a wheelchair with gray hair and gray hair and a weak body were gathered.

The old man seemed to have fallen ill, but his eyes were filled with an unquestionable majesty.

Behind the old man stood two figures of bodyguards. The one on the left is wearing a black suit and is burly, and the muscular muscles are almost going to split the suit. However, his eyes are endlessly indifferent, as if there is nothing in this world that can arouse his interest.

The one on the right, with blond hair shawl, Jianmei eyebrows and sturdy body, wearing a loose sportswear. From the appearance, it is a typical European beautiful man.

There was a hint of cynicism in the corner of his mouth, leaning lazily on the cabin, as if indifferent to anything.

FBG’s director-level character Randy, with brown hair cuddled backwards meticulously, wore a gentleman-like white suit with a cane in his hand. At this time, his face said solemnly: “Mr. Edward, the headquarters sent a message that our destination Nanyang Island is being attacked by the China National African Affairs Bureau. I am afraid that this matter will be delayed.”

The old man surnamed Edward, with a pale face, said lightly: “Mr. Randy, this is the explanation you gave me? Your company told me that I have found a suitable heart and can carry out a heart transplant for me. But now , But told me that the China National African Affairs Bureau is attacking your base? “

Randy's cold sweat dripped from his forehead to the old man in front of him. But it is not a simple character. If you want to find the 100 most powerful people in Europe, he is definitely in the top 10.

It stands to reason that it is the easiest thing for someone like him to find a heart for transplantation. Because the lowest condition for heart transplantation is blood type matching. Even modern medical science has developed artificial hearts that can be used initially.

But the problem is that this old Edwardian man is very repulsive to other hearts. He has undergone several heart transplant operations, and each heart has been used for less than half a year.

For a slightly more ordinary person, this situation is already too dead to die. But he was struggling to survive, his heart rejected, then another one. The body can't bear it, and the top priests of the Holy See help him perform magical maintenance.

But in this case, re-support is also limited. His body has gradually become immune to the Holy See's magic, and his condition is at most supporting another heart transplant.

If he chooses the wrong heart again this time, his glorious life will be declared over.

But at this time, FBG took the initiative to find the door and found the reason after analyzing his genetic structure. It turns out that the old man is not human, no, not exactly human.

Many people do not understand that in the long evolutionary history of humans, in the process of evolution from African gorillas to humans, humans were not the only human species. It's just that human ancestor Homo sapiens won in the final evolution and unified the human species.

There is a humanoid species called Neanderthals. They are very similar to Homo sapiens, but they are definitely two different species. The difference is not the difference between Africans and Asians. It is probably the difference between a lion and a tiger that are the same cat species.

Think about the differences, although they are all cats. But a lion is a lion, a tiger is a tiger, definitely two different species. Humans and Neanderthals are also two different species.

Just as a lion and a tiger are hybrids, a lion and a tiger may be born.

Homo sapiens, the direct ancestors of mankind, will share some history with Neanderthals on this planet. Although this kind of hybridization mostly ends in failure, the chance of success is very low.

But even if the odds are low, just like the lions and tigers, there is always the possibility of success.

In this way, the Neanderthals have long disappeared from the evolutionary history. But part of their gene sequence is still hidden in part of the human gene sequence. Perhaps this part of the gene is always in a deep sleep. Maybe some people will show up.

But some Neanderthals have extremely low odds of dominance, and it is difficult to judge their appearance. According to FBG's probability calculations, probably less than 10,000 people worldwide may have this dominant gene.

Ten thousand people, it sounds like a lot. But compared to a population of more than 700 million people, this is like a drop in the ocean. What's more, most of these 10,000 people don't even know their chromosomes, and some Neanderthal special genes are dominant.

Even if most people have gone to the hospital for a blood test, there will not be a blood test that will verify the special genetic dominance of Neanderthals? In fact, even if the hospital wants to verify, the hospital has no skill.

The transplanted heart of the old Edward has always been rejected, precisely because of the dominant Neanderthal chromosome. In terms of subtle and essential differences, Elder Edward inherited more Neanderthals. At the genetic level, he is a Neanderthal ... This is an extremely rare alternative ancestor phenomenon.

In a sense, he is also a kind of awakening ...

It is no wonder that it will be as repellent as the human heart. In theory, it is possible to transplant the heart of a lion into a tiger, but the possibility of rejection will be great.

Some people say that Edward can find a blood relative's heart for transplantation, but the fact that even a blood relative does not mean that the blood relative will definitely return to him like him. And Edward has really done this. The heart in his body is one of his immediate descendants. But this heart can't persevere.

The problem for Elder Edward is not heart transplant surgery, but to find another Neanderthal heart for transplantation.

Compared with FBG, whose genetic research is extremely in-depth, after verifying this problem. It was found that there is a pig's gene sequence in the database, which is very similar to Edward. It is also a special gene that was returned to Neanderthals.

The man's heart was taken off according to the company's instructions and soaked in the nutrient solution.

Obviously, that was Edward's last chance. The life span of the last month allowed him to find another matching heart, which was extremely slim.

Randy thought about it, and said with a bitter smile: "Mr. Edward, the headquarters is now busy responding to the attack by the China National African Affairs Bureau, the pressure of public opinion, and seeking the support of allies. Moreover, even if the headquarters immediately sends experts to the island of Nanyang It's too late. The current headquarters hopes that Mr. Edward can come back to the headquarters with us, and ask our gene therapist to suppress the heart's rejection and repair the chromosome telomeres."

"I don't want to listen to nonsense, according to your plan, how long can I live?" Edward asked with his eyes half closed.

"Half, half a year." Randy explained tremblingly, "Half a year is the current technological state of the gene, as long as our technology has a breakthrough, or find the next suitable ..."

"Enough!" Edward interrupted sharply. "Half a year, it is not enough for your technical breakthrough and not enough to find the next target. Moreover, you are in a state of war. Continue to the island of Nanyang."

"But ..." Randy swallowed and said, "The National African Bureau is attacking."

"Nanyang Island is just a small stronghold for you. FBG will not overflow its talents to send a few B-level strongmen to station on that island." The old Edward's eyes flashed sternly.

“Yes, three C-class superpowers.” Randy said with a bright eye.

“So, it is very likely that the National African Affairs Bureau will send one, up to two B-level strongmen to lead the team to attack the island of Nanyang.” Edward launched his life-long trickery and calculated quickly, “Two B-level The strong have been extremely insured, and it is impossible for the SAFE to send more than two, or even higher-level experts. “

“It makes sense,” Randy said excitedly. “If the other party has only two B-level strongmen, and I add Mr. Edward’s two bodyguards, it’s three B-level strongmen. Plus a few of me Effectively, some battles are fought. “

“Mr. Randy, please order to rush to the Nanyang Island quickly.” Edward Laomu said with deep calculation, “According to the traditional style of China, it is impossible for them to kill non-combat researchers on the island. I am afraid they will blow up yours. Research institute. Mr. Randy, as long as this heart transplant is successful, I will use all my relationships to exert political and economic pressure on China. “

“Go ahead at full speed and immediately go to the island of Nanyang.” Randy ordered with great enthusiasm. He felt like he had picked up a big ingot and was lucky.

This time, we must kill the people of the National African Bureau. No, no, it is better to capture them in one fell swoop, so that we can make a big contribution to the company. When the time comes, hehe ...

...

While Randy and Edward calculated Wang Yan and others.

Wang Yan and the team members also started to calculate the cargo ship that had not yet entered the harbor, because according to various clues, that ship was loaded with at least one hundred pigs.

In FBG’s eyes, those are pigs. But Wang Yan is also a college student with formal education who grew up under the Red Banner. Although in school, he was addicted to games and spent a lot of time and energy in enjoying love.

But this does not prevent him from forming a personality with no deviation in the general direction.

If you leave now, the fate of hundreds of living creatures who have been kidnapped by the pit is very likely to be miserable.

I can't do this kind of thing because I love my heart,

...

...

“The Ninth National War Team called the nest.” Wang Yan started calling to the submarine. “The Ninth Team asked to change the mission process, hoping that the nest would cooperate.”

Submarine communication technology has always been a major constraint. In order to keep in touch with the team, the submarine has been suspended in the shallow surface of the sea, and the signal receiver on the periscope protruding from the sea is used to keep the communication smooth.

After contacting the submarine, Wang Yan talked about the current situation and requested to change the task process.

After hesitating for half a minute there, General Chen said: “The ninth squad, the command given to us by the headquarters, is to pick you up to complete the mission. We do not have detailed information about the firepower configuration on that carrier. The fighters acted without authorization. , I am afraid there will be a great risk. “

“General Chen, I understand that you, as a soldier, have the difficulty of being a soldier.” Wang Yan said politely, “But our National African Bureau has a different scope of responsibilities and different concepts. You are obedient to obey orders. But we are Focus on protecting the safety of the country and the people, and have greater autonomy. According to my previous understanding, there will be about 100 people in each live experiment, and the proportion of Chinese citizens or Chinese is 15-20% About. Moreover, it is usually a supervisor-level person who escorts the test subjects. The strength is about B-level. We are fully capable of suppressing our opponents. Please let General Chen stand on a humanitarian standpoint and cooperate with our actions. “

General Chen was silent for a while and said, “Team Nine, how do you want us to cooperate?”

“First, it is still mainly to complete the mission of the National African Affairs Bureau. I will send two team members to use the small boat on the island to **** dozens of researchers and several survivors to enter our submarine. We need our submarine to Surface in a short time. “Wang Yan said methodically.” Second, I am more worried that the other side’s transport ship will immediately retreat after receiving the news of the attack. I need to determine the other side’s position. According to the previous information, the other side Not far from the island of Nanyang. We have enough strength to suppress each other, and you do n’t need your hands to use submarines. “

“Okay.” General Chen Shen said, “Ten minutes later, we will surface at the meeting point and open the entrance and exit doors for five minutes. As for the position of the transport ship, wait a moment.”

“Thank you, General Chen.” Wang Yan said gratefully. He knew that General Chen would also take a great risk for this. Under normal circumstances, the submarine will never surface during the mission, which means the possibility of exposure.

Afterwards, Wang Yan ordered: “Miao Hong, Huo Lanlan, you two escorted those researchers into the submarine to stand by. If they did not cooperate in dragging, I will allow you to kill the monkey.”

For these researchers, Wang Yan doesn’t have any favors at all. If not for the sake of the overall situation, Wang Yan wanted them to be destroyed together with this stronghold.

Using a medium-sized yacht on the dock, Miao Hong and Huo Lanlan moved quickly, escorting the researchers and several survivors away. There were no moths out this time, and the researchers were honest.

At this moment, Wang Yan’s communicator rang. General Chen ’s voice said: “The nest called the ninth squad. We have searched for the target. It is 100 meters long and is located 13 nautical miles southeast of you. It is approaching you quickly at 25 knots. It is expected Arrival time, half an hour. “

At the end, there was a trace of concern in General Chen 's tone, saying: "The speed at which the cargo ship drove to that speed is already the limit. Team 9, please reconsider your combat plan. In addition, I received a message from the headquarters, Nanyang. China 's naval base has already taken action, dispatching several warships and two F15 fighter jets. It is expected that the combat opportunity will reach the Nanyang Island within 13 minutes. "

Wang Yan's face was cold, and the other cargo ship apparently received the news, but he dared to rush at full speed, obviously confident in himself. This shows that the combat effectiveness of that ship may exceed the previous estimate.

But this is not the deadliest. Two F15 combat opportunities arrived here in 13 minutes, so they are very likely to pose a threat to the 094 submarine.

"Damn Nanyang monkey, as obedient as a dog." Wang Yan scolded fiercely. To say that this small island stronghold of FBG has no half-cent relationship with the Nanyang Kingdom, and it is not believed that he killed Wang Yan.

Obviously, those soldiers have the characteristics of the indigenous people of Nanyang.

There are also F15 fighters, and Wang Yan also scolded a few words in his heart. That was the deployment of Midi to the South China Sea of China. It deliberately increased the strength of the Nanyang nation 's fleet and fighters to control China 's control of the South China Sea.

"General Chen, I hope to act according to the original plan." Wang Yan said with a chill in his face. "The cargo ship dared to do so. It is very confident and reliable. But we also have our confidence."

"But the F15 fighter ..." General Chen was most worried about that. Indeed, the 094 submarine was loaded with twelve JL-2 submarine-launched missiles. But that thing is an intercontinental missile, not a plane. You can launch it to the Americas, but you can't hit the plane.

The submarine can also fire torpedoes, but the torpedoes cannot fly up to fight.

Fighters have absolute control over submarines floating on the sea. The best way is to dive deep into the ground. The submarine is like an invisible assassin, and half of the skill is lost when found.

"General Chen, those two F15s will be dealt with by us." Wang Yan's eyes were full of strong fighting intent. Is n't it just two fighters? ?

“What? You deal with it, what do you use to deal with it?” Major General Chen is also considered to be a high-ranking army. He is well-informed and knows the power of superpowers.

But he had never seen a truly powerful superpower show off, and naturally felt extremely shocked. These superpowers can even fly planes!

“You don’t care how we deal with it.” Wang Yan said confidently. “We will intercept the two F15s halfway and have a chance to hit our submarine.”

The value of a nuclear submarine is much more than that of F15. If there is damage, even if the two F15s are knocked down, they can’t make up for the loss. Moreover, there are so many military compatriots on our nuclear submarine.

After a few seconds of breathless silence, Chen Chen said: “Okay, I believe you once. But if our submarine is exposed to the attack range of the fighter, I will dive into the deep water. In addition, those researchers let them stay on the yacht first, and we won’t surface until you finish the plane.”

After Major General Chen reported the two planes again, Wang Yan looked at the remaining three team members and smiled and said, “You are afraid of flying planes?”

“I’m not afraid, I’m afraid of Zhu Xixi.” He burst out laughing, and he seemed to laugh a little.

Even Shen Tu Tian Lu laughed strangely.

“Explode the bear, you dare to tease the old lady. I was offended. Be careful to touch your room at night and give you a castration.” Zhu Xixi, who is good at ghost assassination, is obviously not an easy generation.

But it’s normal to think about it. Everyone is an adult in their 20s or 30s. Modern social information is so developed and open, where there are still a few women who can’t say anything when they hear the tease.

“Okay, let’s hurry up.” Wang Yan led everyone into a small yacht more than ten meters long. After starting, he drove in the direction of the aircraft and assigned tasks while saying, “Zhu Xixi,

Because of your lack of long-range attack power, you will open the ship in a moment. And use ordinary assault rifles to continuously create the illusion of attack, the purpose is to contain the attention of the other party. Once the other party attacks the yacht, I hope you jump out with the fastest speed and strength ferry.”

Using an assault rifle to hit a plane is purely nonsense, it is just lara hatred.

“I understand, my task is cannon fodder.” Zhu Xixi looked miserable, and said with a bitter grudge, “Boss Wang Yan, you are also fierce enough. There is only one girl left in our team, you still pull out When cannon fodder. “

“Don’t make trouble, I believe in your life-saving ability.” Wang Yan said calmly, “I believe you can escape even if you are attacked positively by a rocket to the ground.”

“Okay, okay, who made me have no long-range attack ability.” Zhu Xixi said with fate and complaint, “Who called our captain, who looks so handsome, even if someone is asked to die, they are willing. But, Captain, can. You ca n’t give a sweet kiss to motivate your morale before you die.

“I will give you one when I come back alive, and I will give you a hug.”

“Great, I will definitely survive.” Zhu Xixi’s face smirked.

“Unfortunately, the deputy captain will also give you a kiss of inspiration.” Shen Tu Tianlu said solemnly, “You can fight with confidence.”

“Get away! Vice captain, Master.”

...

A few minutes later, a small yacht was full of horsepower, bumping across the blue sea.

Wang Yan fanned the wings of the Bat King and soared in the air. His weapons and equipment are all in place. This time challenge the fighter, all the reliance is on his rune super sniper.

A 50mm rune sniper bomb, according to Wang Yan 's test results, it is more than enough to crash a plane with one shot, the problem is only to hit.

In addition to Wang Yan, Shen Tu Tianlu and Bing Xiong also formed another group of firepower.

Shen Tu Tianlu was fully metallized. He opened a pair of large metal-colored wings on his back. The shape is very sci-fi and pulling style. If it weren't for his personal ride on his back, it would be handsome.

That's right, he rode a man on his back, so the metal face was full of faint colors.

Captain Wang Yan's order, he could not beat him, so he had to act honestly as a flying mount. In fact, if you ride a **** your back, such as Zhu Xixi, it would be a happy thing.

“Brother Shen Tu, please change two stirrups and let me trample on.” For the first time, Bao Xiong took a flying mount, his face full of **** beard felt the sea breeze, and said excitedly and nervously, Otherwise, when I turn on the Vulcan cannon, the recoil is too great and I will throw it out. “

Stirrups are yours.

Shen Tu Tian Lu was hanging from the air.

...

...

Shen Tu Tianlu's metal face was full of depression. Lao Tzu is a flying mount for you. You have to make two stirrups for you to step on your feet. It's really unbearable.

“Brother, are you okay?” Bao Xiong patted his back, comforting and said, “I know I have wronged you, but everything is for the national war. Well, after I go back, I invite you to Huahai City, the most famous I’ll cover all the costs of playing.”

The most famous venue in Huahai?

Shentu Tianlu’s eyes turned green all at once. Huahai City is an international metropolis, and the venue there must be fun. Although Shen Tu Tianlu has been to any place in his life, this does not prevent him from being full of YY-style ideas. The more he thinks, the more excited he is, shaking and saying, “Brother, you are familiar there ? “ “Familiar, very familiar, the boss and I are good buddies.” Bing Xiong said sincerely.

Then, Shen Tu Tianlu immediately extracted a part of the metal from his body and turned into a pair of shiny stirrups, and took the initiative to put the feet of the burst bear into it. He turned back and said flatteredly, “Brother, don’t you feel comfortable stepping on it? Would you like to wrap your knees together? This day is windy and the sea surface is heavy with moisture. I’m afraid your joints will get cold and hurt.”

This product is really forgiving to go to the most famous venue in Huahai City, and it doesn’t even need arts. With the horrible physique of the explosive bear, he was naked. His body was thrown into the North Pole for a week, and he would not get arthritis. Maybe someone will have fun with those polar bears.

“Okay, don’t bother you two.” Wang Yan couldn’t stand it anymore, and said through the communication headset, “The Wolf Nest sent a message that the other party is less than ten kilometers away from us, and we are ambushing in this direction.”

...

At the same time, the two fighters were flying at a speed of two hundred meters from the sea. Both pilots wear anti-stress flight suits and fully enclosed flight helmets.

“Haiying One calls Haiying Two.”

“Haiying II received it.”

“Twenty kilometers away from the target island, pay attention to the alert and search for all suspicious targets.”

“Sea Eagle II understands.”

“Haiying 1, a small yacht appeared on the sea, it was attacking us, I suspect that the target fled the boat after the island.”

“We cooperated with each other and killed with a cannon for a round.”

“Sea Eagle II understands.”

It is normal to attack without missiles. It is just a civilian yacht. It is too wasteful to attack with missiles. What's more, there are battles behind.

Two cool-looking fighters pulled off two arcs in the air, and each of them dived down in the roar of the engine.

“Da da da!”

Machine gun shells blasted the yacht like raindrops.

Because the cannonballs travel extremely fast, far exceeding the speed of sound. Gunshots are often heard after the target is hit. Many people who are directly hit often do not hear the sound of machine guns until they die.

Therefore, this high-speed machine gun is often called silent death.

But Zhu Xixi is not so stupid. When he saw the two fighters draw an arc, the moment they dived, they jumped into the sea directly. She kicked on the side of the ship and flew out dozens of meters in an instant before planting it into the sea.

“Da da da!”

The 20mm cannon bullet easily penetrates the deck and bottom of the civilian yacht and tears open a big hole. After directly hitting a large number of bullets, the yacht disintegrated.

“Huh! Nice job.” The two fighter pilots encouraged each other.

But this is just a small civilian yacht, crushing it is as simple as crushing an ant. This excitement only lasted for a short while.

“Huh? What’s this?” Haiying II found UFOs on the airborne radar, and the parameters displayed on the head-up display were a bit strange. Say it’s a fighter, and it’s too small. Say it’s a seabird. It’s too big. Is it some kind of drone?

boom!

A deafening impact sounded.

Haiying 2 seemed to be hit by something moving at high speed, tumbling up and down like a broken kite. The second driver only felt that his body began to roll and spin continuously.

Snapped!

There was a crackling sound of metal breaking.

The wing on the side of the Sea Eagle 2 broke. It was like a fallen leaf in a gust of wind, twirling wildly. In just a few seconds, it disintegrated in the air. The debris of the plane crashed into the sea in a parabolic shape.

The end of Haiying One is not much better.

Under the bombardment of a 25mm Vulcan cannon, it responded extremely quickly, and made various evasive movements. It can be seen that the pilot of Haiying One, even if he is not an ace pilot, is also a first-class elite pilot.

But he avoided most of the bullets that burst the bear, but he couldn't escape Shen Tu Tianlu ambush. Shen Tu Tianlu used metal abilities to the extreme, extending a metal tentacle about a few hundred meters long.

“boom!”

The metal tentacles pierced the cockpit as the plane flew by, pierced into the pilot's body like a skewer, and shattered his heart.

“puff!”

The pilot's eyes glared dry, and he didn't even know what was killed. The plane lost control and rolled into the sea. Under the strong impact, the fighter plane was smashed to pieces.

Wang Yan stood empty in the air, the Batwing wings slowly fanned, and the rune super-sniff was put away coldly.

Modern aircraft tanks are of course easy to deal with ordinary people. But when the superpower level reaches the domain level, it is completely different. B-level superpowers have very strong physical qualities, no matter what weapons they use, they can exert more powerful power than ordinary people.

Two fighters worth tens of millions of dollars were declared destroyed in just a few seconds.

“Cool!”

Bursting bear riding Shentu Tianlu, also excited and bloody. Fighter, I just killed two fighters.

...

“Team 9 calls Wolf Nest.” Wang Yan, who experienced the DF-15 bombing, did not feel much about it. Two fragile fighters, it is not difficult for B-class strongmen to destroy them as long as they have the right weapons.

Almost instantly, General Chen connected the communication, his voice trembling and shocked: “Team Nine, did you really do it?” Before the call, the two planes disappeared from the radar screen.

“Yes, it has been confirmed that the two fighter jets have crashed.” Wang Yan said quietly, “Please ask General Chen to surface immediately to receive researchers and survivors. Members of our team have arrived at the scheduled location.”

“Okay, okay.” General Chen’s voice was slightly agitated, and his attitude towards Wang Yan also changed. “What do we need to do with the transport ship next?”

In the military system, at his level, the state’s organization of superpowers is no longer a secret. But before that, he still had some doubts about the combat effectiveness of the superpowers.

However, Wang Yan’s performance subverted his perception. That was two F-15s from Midi. Although they were not Midi’s most advanced fighters, they were destroyed in every minute and second, which is really incredible.

From this perspective, the deterrent effect of superpowers on nuclear submarines is also great.

“No,” Wang Yan said politely, “General Chen, you still have the priority to ensure your safety. Nuclear submarines are an important strategic equipment of our country and can’t afford to lose.”

Wang Yan is right in saying this. The biggest advantage of a nuclear submarine is the haunting and the twelve round 2 intercontinental missiles mounted on it. Its most important role is deterrence, equivalent to a sword of Damocles hanging over the enemy’s head.

Warn anyone not to act rashly and not to challenge the bottom line of the Chinese nation. Nuclear missiles are powerful, but they cannot be used easily.

“Okay, you must be careful with the ninth squad.” General Chen also knew that he could not do much, so he said politely. The 094 nuclear submarine intercontinental missile cannot be used, only torpedoes can be used.

But they do n’t need torpedoes to bomb enemy ships.

After Wang Yan finished the call, he fluttered his wings and flew to the sea. Huge waves are rippling on the sea. As the so-called three-foot wave without wind, the sea is always full of excitement because of the tide.

“Boss Wang Yan, here is here.” Zhu Xixi in a tight suit was pushed up and down by the waves on the sea, waving his hand desperately. “I saw that just now. Boss Wang Yan was really handsome. “

Wang Yan flew in the face of the waves, grabbed her hand, and picked up the wet woman from the sea, and said with a smile: “Fortunately, you attracted the attention of the enemy aircraft, we can easily get it, hard work you Now. “

Zhu Xixi twisted her waist and made a difficult gymnastic exercise with ease. Her legs were wrapped around Wang Yan’s waist and her arms were hung around his neck: “Boss Wang Yan, it doesn’t matter if you work hard, but you say A good motivating kiss is not bad. “

This action, this posture. Uh.....

Wang Yan is also a little drunk.

But now that he had said it, Wang Yan would not be dismissed and kissed her on the cheek with a smile.

“Click!”

Under Wang Yan’s stunned eyes, Zhu Xixi drew back the hand hooked behind his neck, and the thief raised Yang’s waterproof phone with a smile. “This picture is so handsome. I returned to my circle of friends and envy the women who died. Comrades. “

“It’s still like this ...” Wang Yan couldn’t help crying and laughing. The woman deserved to be a superpower of the type of ghost and assassin, and his hands and feet were too fast.

“Boss Wang Yan, don’t be angry.” Zhu Xixi said with a grin, “You are a big star and take a photo with female fans. When I am old, I can also take out the photos and look back and remember. Thinking back then, I also had a leg with the male god. “

Wang Yan drops a cold sweat, which one has had a leg with you?

...

...

On the pier of the island of Nanyang.

The clear waves beat the shore and set off a wave of white snow.

A group of seabirds are flying back and forth in the shallow sea not far away, preying on their delicious food.

A medium-sized cargo ship, coming by the wind and waves, slowly docked at the pier.

But it is strange that no one on the cargo ship came down.

“Boss, what should I do?” Shen Tu Tianlu, who was lying on the side, whispered with a communicator, “Shall we kill?”

Wang Yan’s voice was a little pondered: “Wait first, see who is suffocating.” In his opinion, since the other party knew that this Nanyang island had been captured by the China National Security Bureau, he dared to come to the fire. First, there must be something to rely on, and second, there must be a purpose that must come.

As expected, the medium-sized cargo ship moved in just one minute.

A group of heavily armed soldiers escorted dozens of captives to the side of the ship, drinking them side by side on the side rail of the ship. Judging from the facial features and skin color, this group of dozens of men and women are mostly East Asian faces. I believe there must be Chinese among them, and there are still a lot of them.

Among the soldiers, two other photographers are shooting this scene. Obviously, the other party's layout is aimed at the China National African Bureau.

At the same time, the sound of a Chinese person in a round shape was heard in the loudspeaker on the ship: "Comrades of the China National African Affairs Bureau, I am a guest of FBG. I have no intention to intervene in the dispute between you and FBG. . As long as I promised me a small request, all the 100 living people on this ship were unconditionally transferred to the Chinese authorities. "

Wang Yan's face was slightly cold, and he had not ambushed the transport ship on the sea before, because the fighting between the B-level superpowers was too powerful, and it was easy to blast and sink the ship.

It is these poor living creatures who are worried about.

Did n't expect to underestimate the other party 's shamelessness, and even use these living bodies to threaten themselves directly to achieve the other party 's purpose?

"Wow!"

The Wings of the Bat King raised high, and Wang Yan's arms were covered with fire unicorn armguards. He flew over the cargo ship diagonally and hovered in the air. His eyes were majestic, and he said aloud majestically, "Is FBG's VIP, right? Do you think my China National Bureau of African Affairs is a soft persimmon that you just want to pinch? Give you a chance to surrender immediately, otherwise this Nanyang island Is your place of burial. "

The last sentence was uttered with a powerful force.

The sound wave was like a huge wave sweeping towards the transport ship. Those civilians and soldiers, seemingly deterred, stepped back and fell to the ground. All looked at the sky with incredible eyes.

Is this guy still human? Not only can he fly in mid-air, but the momentum is so amazing.

At this time, Wang Yan did not have any fear of this transport ship. Because he is almost certain that the other party does not have an A-level guru. The reason is not difficult to guess. If the other party has an A-level guru, you can swipe up with the guru's prestige directly. Why do you have such a shameless human shield?

As far as Wang Yan's personal strength is concerned, even if he has not yet realized the domain, he dares to carry the domain-level strongman. Now he has truly entered the field level, regardless of physical fitness or strength, have crossed the gap and reached a higher level.

Now I dare not say that there are no opponents in the B-level, but the B-level strongman who is waiting for leisure may really only give him food.

In fact, even if there are A-level powerhouses, Wang Yan is not afraid now. I don't dare to say that I can win each other, but as long as I want to hold him back, I don't have much problem. The location of one of the two S-level great gods at the headquarters is only a thousand kilometers away. If you use a shuttle-like spirit to kill here, it will only take a quarter of an hour.

After the other party was silent for a few seconds, the person with Chinese accent continued to express the tone of others: "Young man, I admit that you are strong, and I also recognize that the China National African Affairs Bureau is very strong. I am just a dying year and want to live Only the poor old man, and he does not want to be an enemy of the China National African Bureau. It is better to listen to my proposal before deciding what to do next. "

Then the voice said the request.

He asked the underground laboratory, a nutritional support container numbered HT48 heart, and released several researchers who are proficient in heart transplant surgery to help him complete a heart transplant operation.

"Young man, my little request does not harm the interests of China." The other party continued to communicate through a megaphone through a puppet proficient in Chinese. "On the contrary, I will bring benefits to China. Great interests. The political and economic forces under my control can bring a boost to the prosperity and development of the Chinese nation. "

After Wang Yan finished listening to him, Ling Kong emptied and laughed: "It sounds like you are a very powerful person. The ants are still very greedy, let alone a big man like you who is powerful and powerful. You want Live, I understand. "

“Thank you ...”

“Don’t be thankful.” Wang Yan interrupted him with a stern drink, and Shen Sheng said, “I understand that you ask for life. But in order to ask for life, you don’t care about the lives of others, and even deprive other people’s lives for yourself. Life extension. Just at this point, I can’t let you succeed. I give you a chance, you and your people can drive a yacht away, do n’t interfere in the war between our National African Bureau and FBG. “

After the other party was silent for a few seconds, the response was much tougher: “Young man, I advise you. Don’t think that with a little strength, you boast of being a justice warrior. The man is dead, leaving only a heart That ’s it. Do you want to fight against me for the sake of a dead person? Think about it, there are still a hundred living bodies on this ship. Are you ready to care about their life and death? ”

Wang Yan looked indifferent and didn’t speak.

Elder Edward thought that Wang Yan was weighing the pros and cons, and could not wait to bewitched and said: “I have also been young and blooded. But I advise you to weigh the gains and losses. The man is dead, and your approach is not in the least. Significance. Give me that heart, you will be the one hundred living creatures to make contributions. In addition, I can promise to donate 5 billion euros to the Chinese authorities, donate 1 billion euros to you and your team. Do n’t be too busy to refuse , I contacted the leader of your National African Affairs Bureau through a friend relationship. What can he tell you? “

A total of 6 billion euros, this guy is really rich. Rao is Wang Yan, who is quite emotional. It seems that the other party is not small. In this kind of national war, can he still contact the leadership of the National African Affairs Bureau?

Within a few seconds, Wang Yan’s super phone shook slightly. This telephone is the most advanced satellite telephone of the National African Bureau, and can receive satellite signals all over the world.

When I picked it up, it was actually a call from Director Han. Brows could not help but frown, it seems that the whole world is the same. When I read some urban novels in the past, I always wrote that some policemen met the people who had a great future while performing their official duties, and then they received a call from the leader to close the team.

Is it possible that there is this tradition in the National African Bureau?

If that's the case, Director General Han's ferocious words at the meeting were farts, and the SAFE would not wait.

"Director General Han." When Wang Yan answered the phone, his voice was a little cold.

"Comrade Xiaowang, there seems to be some emotion in your tone?" Director General Han seems to be in a good mood for no reason.

"General Director Han, do you have any orders?" Wang Yan said lightly.

"Xiao Yan, did you get in the Edward family?" Director General Shen Sheng asked, "Can you tell me about the situation?"

Wang Yan also knew that it was not time for emotions, and he quickly told the story on the phone.

After a few seconds of silence, Director Han said, "The Edward family is a long-established family in Europe that has existed for nearly a thousand years, and its power is deeply rooted in Europe. He passed the O League Superpower Federation and asked for our love from the National African Bureau. He said that as long as you open your eyes and close your eyes, he will be willing to give us the most sincere friendship of China. "

Wang Yan said with a long sigh in his heart, and said in a cold voice: "Director General Han, I will follow your instructions to do things."

"Instruction? Why should I give you instructions?" Director Han said with a smile. "Jinglue's brother and I founded the National African Affairs Bureau together with me. Do you know why?"

"It is to protect the safety of the personal property of the country and the people." Wang Yan said hesitantly.

"Yes, this is one point." Director General Han did not sell the key, but said in a solemn voice, "But the more important point is-dignity."

“Dignity?” Wang Yan was a little surprised. What is the relationship between the National African Bureau and dignity?

“Xiao Yan, you have not experienced the end of the Qing Dynasty and the beginning of the Republic of China, nor have you experienced all kinds of national disasters, and you do n’t understand the word dignity.” Director General Han said on the phone, “Imagine if our National African Bureau is only soft Persimmon, not strong enough. Old Edward will talk to you, a young man with good strength, so well and arrogantly? There is no SAA, no strong army. In the face of the powers, we have no power to speak, and no power to choose . “

“So, Director General Han, what should I do?” Wang Yan understood the foundation of the SAFE. That is to support a backbone for the country and the nation.

“Xiao Yan, it’s not that I told you what to do.” Director Han’s voice was a little harsh, “but you should decide how to do it yourself. Just remember, no matter what you decide, it represents the National African Affairs Bureau, and Think about the consequences. You are the backbone of our National African Bureau, and the future belongs to you. “

“Yes, Director Han, I understand.” Wang Yan was filled with an impulse to release, after hanging up the phone. His eyes were filled with bright, sharp colors, “Edward, right? I’ve listened to the leader’s words. Now, I have two options for you.”

“Young man, you say it. I don’t mind leaving my heart away.” Old Edward said with a firm voice.

“Or, get out immediately.” Wang Yan’s voice exploded on the sea like thunder.

“Or, this island is your burial place. Squad 9, get started !!!”

Wow ~ A huge wave hit the coast and stirred up high waves.

...

...

“what!?”

In the transport bridge and ship, his face has always been dignified, and the old Edward's face has changed suddenly. Obviously, Wang Yan's decision and answer were beyond his expectations.

The cheek fluttering and twitching constantly, murmured, “How dare he, how dare.”

Almost at the same time, the ninth team under the command of Wang Yan moved.

“Wow!”

In the water below the cargo ship, a monster with metal wings sprang out of the sea at a rapid speed. His speed was so extreme that, in just a moment, he drove over the side of the ship.

The cold metallic eyes swept away, and the dozens of civilian hostages lined up in a row suddenly seemed to be stared at by the wild beasts, so terrified that their legs were trembling.

“hiss!”

His metal wings were twisted instantly, like liquid metal transformed into dozens of evil tentacles.

“Golden Serpent Dances.”

The metal tentacles danced frantically, and walked away one by one.

Puff Puff Puff ~

The metal tentacles easily pierced the chests of the heavily armed soldiers, scarlet blood splattered.

The pierced soldiers all had bursts of eyes, and their expressions were full of terror. Monster, where is this monster coming from? Before they could react, they were picked into the air by metal tentacles.

The painful excitement, survival instinct. The soldiers, who were still holding the assault rifle in their hands, frantically fired bullets at the metal monster. gun! Soldiers are the most trusted and depended partners, they instinctively want to rely on partners to save themselves.

咄咄 咄 ~

The scorching warhead hit the metal monster with a muffled sound as if it had hit the mud. The warhead fell into the body of the metal monster, just stirred up a circle of metal ripples, and instantly turned into a delicious nourishment for the metal monster.

“monster!”

“How can it be!?”

In one scream after another, the soldiers flew into the sea like broken dolls, on the pier. All kinds of death, miserable and inexplicable.

...

At the same time, Zhu Xixi shot.

Her figure flickered and appeared on the deck of the cargo ship like a ghost. Although she is a C-level superpower, she is a terrible killer. The speed erupts, compared to ordinary B-class strongmen.

The delicate body turned into a faint shadow, and a long shadow swept out instantly, and the blood splattered everywhere he passed. The elite soldiers, without even seeing the enemy, had their throats cut or their hearts pierced.

At the same time that Zhu Xixi was showing great femininity, two icy men in black suits rushed towards her quickly. They ran and ran down, leaning down with their hands and feet on the ground.

Their bodies swelled, their shirts and suits burst into muscles with their muscles and hairs, their facial features twisted their teeth and their fangs stretched. In a blink of an eye, the two men in suits turned into two giant wolves. They had huge bodies, claws and fangs.

They cooperated from left to right and launched a joint strangulation to Zhu Xixi. Werewolf, this dark creature originated in Europe. There are no special abilities, but after turning into giant wolves, their power and speed become extremely scary.

The werewolf that Wang Yan hammered last time was only a D-class werewolf. And these two, the momentum is obviously stronger, the brutal strength is revealed in the strong body.

Ordinary lions may be difficult to resist them for a second or two, and they will be torn into pieces.

Zhu Xixi's beautiful eyes sighed slightly, but there was no fear in the look. The body flicked and turned into a void.

“Hi!”

The two werewolves flashed over the residual image in an instant, and their claws and fangs were all empty.

...

“Humph!”

Bridge ship.

A man in sportswear and a sword-browed blond shawl sneered and said, “Mr. Randy, your FBG garbage is really useless. It seems that we are still asked to come out ...”

Before I finished, I saw through the porthole of the bridge ship that a fire was falling like a meteorite. Dragging the long flame tail, he slanted straight down.

In a blink of an eye, the meteorite hit the porthole.

“boom!”

The glass shattered and turned into a liquid at a high temperature, turning into a stream of fire and splashing around.

At this critical moment, a man in a black suit straddled a step and stood in front of Edward, swelled with an invisible energy all over his body. The flashes hit the energy, like they hit an invisible wall, and they fell one after another.

Randy FBG’s supervisor, the gentleman’s walking stick, easily blocked the flying fire.

As for the blond man in sportswear, he was immobile. But when those flashovers hit him, they changed their directions strangely, and flew across his body in an arc and flew to the rear.

The three of them, while blocking these flashes, were very easy to block, but their expressions were more solemn.

The reason is simple. This so-called meteorite is not a real meteorite at all, but a person.

He squatted on the ground and stood up slowly. It is a handsome and handsome oriental face, looking very young. However, the momentum exuded from him was terrifying and powerful.

He wore a pair of gilt red arms, and a pair of bat king wings with his back raised high. The whole body haunted the blazing flames, his eyes cold and sharp, and swept the audience coldly.

There are three B-level strongmen on the scene, each of which is a hero of the dragon. However, in the face of his eyes passing by, there was a trace of panic in his heart.

Years of experience turned into intuition to tell them that this young man is probably not very simple, and has a profound sense of danger.

“Below is one of FBG’s supervisors, Randy.” Randy, who combs her hair meticulously, said in a standard English. “We have three B-class strongmen here. Do you have this confidence? One enemy and three? “

“Young man, I advise you to be more rational and give up those unrealistic hypocrisy sense of justice.” Edward came out from behind the bodyguard and said with a gloomy face, “I will introduce to you, this is Jerry the Fire Knight, This is Earth Knight Sean, who is the domain-level guardian knight of our Edward family. Our Edward family has an ancient heritage, and there are four A-level sanctuary strongmen in the family. If you retire now, our previous agreement is still valid. “

In the Chinese civilization, the strong at the A level is called the master. In the European department, people at the A level have been called saint domain strongmen since ancient times.

Nowadays, cultural civilizations continue to collide and blend with each other all over the world. In order to facilitate communication with each other, the World Federation of Superpowers uses the English alphabetic symbols ABCDEF to divide the power level of superpowers.

Class A is basically the top superpower in the world. Every A-level can be worth an army. They are powerful and respectable. In some organizations and countries, Class A is a strategic weapon.

If you think about it, the huge East China branch is guarded by an A-level powerhouse, and it has always been easy to get out of the task.

This shows that the A-level guru is rare and precious. The Edward family has four A-levels. It is also evident from this that the background of this Edwardian family is very domineering.

No wonder, FBG will spare no effort to win over the Edward family.

But old Edward’s intimidation and temptation did not touch Wang Yan’s nerves at all. His eyes glanced at FBG director Randy and Edward family guardian knight Jerry and Sean, and looked indifferent: “Are you going to come one by one, or are you going together?”

Now Wang Yan has also studied English in his spare time. Because there is a foundation for learning English from a young age, coupled with the continuous evolution of the body, neurons are also involved in the evolution, and the number is greater and the health is stronger.

The ability of memory, understanding, etc. has been significantly improved. Learning English has become very simple and effective. At his current level, everyday conversation is almost over.

“Arrogant!”

Jerry in the blonde cape, his face seemed to be irritated, “What are you doing? Also worthy ...”

Before he had finished speaking, Edward stopped him. Old Edward waved his hand and said, “In this case, Jerry, Sean, Randy, you go together. Kill him.”

The strong bear-like earth knight Sean stomped under his feet, and a wave of force rushed towards Wang Yan.

Jerry, the fiery knight of the blonde shawl, burned a blazing flame all over her body. I do not know when there was an additional two-handed flame sword in his hand, and he burned to the flame with a fiery flame.

As for Nalandi, drawing a gentleman’s cane, a long sword with a wide finger appeared in his hand. His wrist shook, pulling out the sky sword flower, and overwhelmed Wang Yan.

The three major B-level strongmen shot at the same time, blocking all of Wang Yan’s retreat for a while.

...

Shen Tu Tian Lu was like a monster covered with metal tentacles. After killing the soldiers, he trapped the civilian hostages and quickly sent them off the cargo ship.

Being a tentacle monster has such advantages. At the same time, he can do many things with great efficiency.

After he was sent down, he was handed over to Xiong Xiong, Huo Lanlan, and Miao Hong for protection.

At the same time, this seemingly ordinary cargo ship also showed his extraordinary. A seven-member squad composed solely of superpowers grabbed the ship and went after the civilians.

And Zhu Xixi, still entangled with the two C-class werewolves. Even though her strength is not weak, she still has the upper hand with one enemy and two, which is already remarkable.

It's really not a matter of a moment and a half to want to clean them up.

...

boom!

The top of the cargo ship bridge ship was blasted.

Wrapped in layers of flames, Wang Yan went straight into the sky. At the same time, three extraordinary figures immediately flew out. They can't let Wang Yan fly into the air, otherwise they without flying wings will find it difficult to win.

There was a trace of blood hanging on the corner of Wang Yan's mouth. Rao is his extraordinary strength, but also suffered a small loss. But this loss is not in vain.

Now, it's the chance to get back the profit.

"Click!"

Wang Yan swept back in the air, and I don't know when, there was an extra rune in his hand. The muzzle of the black hole was as cold as a sickle of death.

...

...

The fastest chaser is Jerry, the fiery knight. His attack power and speed are very powerful. He hit the attack just now, he served as the main attacker. Suddenly he saw a black hole pointed at him, and he felt an instinctive sense of danger in his heart.

It is worthy of being a B-level strongman. He can make incredible movements and reactions even in a thousand shots, dragging the fire light laterally, holding his hands, and the red ring on his finger burst out a fire shield.

“boom!”

There was a deafening gunshot.

The rune super sniper bullets slammed into the blaze shield at a rapid speed. The powerful impact caused the blaze shield to burst and the flame fragments exploded like fireworks. The bullet remained unrelenting and struck Jerry, the fiery knight.

As a B-level powerhouse, the fiery knight's body is undoubtedly extremely tough. Ordinary small-caliber bullets can't even penetrate his skin, and only assault rifle bullets can hurt him slightly.

But the power of Rune Super Sniper is so horrible. Even if more than half of the impact force is offset by the firelight shield, it will instantly smash his muscles and bones. The blood mixed with bones and flesh fragments flew across the sky.

After being interrupted, the remaining half of the arm fell down with the Fire Knight.

One shot, just one shot, this fiery knight also killed half of his life without dying.

The remaining two B-level strongmen, their expressions were stern. The man is still in mid-air and hastily supported the strongest protection.

Earth Knight Sean's skeleton crackled, and he put on him a thick European-style ancient armor like Yue, the armor was earthy yellow, and the surface was covered with a thin layer of light.

Although wearing a knight's armor will cause him to slow down. But in order to save lives, it is absolutely necessary to do so. As an earth knight, although his physical defense is much higher than that of the fiery knight, he has no assurance that he can withstand such a terrible gun.

Randy, the director of FBG, has also undergone tremendous changes.

He was originally a gentleman. His muscles were constantly twisted and expanded, and pieces of copper-sized scales appeared on his body. On the forehead, a curved horn also grew, and a pair of demonic membrane wings grew on the back.

Almost in the blink of an eye, a handsome middle-aged European man turned into a demon-like monster with strong muscular, blue-faced fangs, long horns and membrane wings.

He is nearly three meters tall.

The handsome dress has disappeared, replaced by muscles covered with iron. Randy's bones became very thick, and his muscles bulged up.

The skin is very thick and thick, and the surface is covered with huge thick and uneven scales. The thick claws are as sharp as a dagger of Sen Han.

“Oh!”

After the transformation, Randy seemed to have become extremely irritable, and the volley emptied and whined.

His cry was extremely violent and low, as fierce as a wild beast, the air was trembling, and a ripple was visible to the naked eye.

Rao was so powerful that Wang Yan was so shocked that the tympanic membrane in his ear was trembling, bulging, and his head fainted. I can't help but talk secretly, what kind of species is this guy? It looks like an ancient monster, and it is like the demons from **** in the film and television works.

FBG is worthy of the genetic technology at the forefront of human organization, and it can create such a powerful and scary monster. It's no wonder that the whole world is afraid of FBG.

Imagine if FBG could mass-produce Class B monster soldiers, who else would be its opponent? Not to mention the A-level guru, even the S-level land fairies will be beaten down by the army.

However, it is clear that the current FBG is impossible to achieve this level, otherwise FBG is in the hands of the world.

On this point, Wang Yan was indeed right.

In fact, FBG is extremely difficult to create a demon monster like Randy. Not to mention all kinds of huge consumption, the conditions and success rate of the test products are also astonishingly low.

It took a lot of manpower and material resources, and FBG created a dozen B-level demon monsters, each of which is an extremely valuable resource of FBG.

For Wang Yan, he was surprised. But this demon monster is dead, which is only B + level, and it is a little difficult to threaten itself. Immediately without saying a word, he raised his rune and slammed and fired again.

The heavy recoil caused him to fly three or four meters diagonally.

“Uh!”

Randy’s incarnation of the demon monster flicked, and the bullet flew across it, blasting into the sea, but only stirred a wave.

Backhand raised again, Rune Chao slammed towards Earth Knight Sean.

The Earth Knight was not in a hurry, his hands propped up in front of him, and a thick earthy atmosphere resembling Yue gathered before his death, laying a heavy wall of gas. The gas wall is extremely dignified, just like substance.

“Boom!”

The super-sniper bullets exploded three air walls one after another, and finally ran out of kinetic energy, hitting the heavy armor of the earth knight, stinging and being rebounded. But the Earth Knight had no flying spirits, and his bouncing power had been exhausted, and he was falling towards the pier.

Alas ~

Wang Yan sighed softly.

The runes are really powerful, and they are also very threatening to the B-level powerhouse. However, if it is used for frontal combat, and the opponent is already prepared, as a B-level strongman, he still has the ability to judge and avoid in advance, or find a way to prevent it.

It is worthy of being a B-level strongman, and each of them is not a leisurely generation.

After three rounds of bullets went down, Rune Chaozi's energy slot and magazine were empty, and Wang Yan easily put Rune Chaozi into the storage bracelet. His gaze narrowed slightly, a warhammer was added to his hands, and his wings were rising to prepare to chase after the earth knight.

If he falls off the dock, he may threaten the hostages and his own C-level superpowers.

But before Wang Yan took any action, dozens of metal tentacles were stretched out of the cargo ship, and he rolled over to the earth knight, accompanied by a sound like Hong Zhong: "Boss, you hit two B Level monster is hard enough. This earth knight will leave it to me to play. Hahaha ~ "

Shen Tu Tianlu was embarrassed to grab the girls' blame, but after the rescue of the hostages, it was also boring anyway, and it was always possible to rob the boss's blame.

Rumble!

Shen Tu Tian Lu and Earth Knight Sean battled together on the pier. The concrete continued to burst, smoky and fierce.

Wang Yan didn't care about the looting of monsters in Shen Tu Tianlu. He solved the B-level demon monster in front of him. His wings fluttered, his figure swayed, and he waved the flame warhammer to the demon Randy.

The Warhammer is filled with hot flames, wrapped in the sound of rumbling wind and thunder.

With that hammer, the momentum rose to the extreme. As if Taishan was in front of him, he was able to blow it up with a blow.

The devil Randy's eyes burst into a brutal and ferocious breath, and greeted Wang Yan without fear. The huge claws shot, and the claw shadows layered, tearing the air sharply, seemingly tearing the space.

One claw and one hammer collided.

A wave of energy fluctuated and waved away in all directions.

The demon Randy was shocked and flew out for more than ten meters, a black blood spilled from the corner of his mouth, and one of his claws was broken. It was hurt, but it was even more violent. After roaring, it rushed up again.

"It's a good one. I'm going to try it. You can catch me a few hammers." Wang Yan's eyes also shimmered with excitement, waving the warhammer to welcome him. The power of this demon monster exceeded his estimate and aroused the passionate fighting in his heart.

One person and one demon are constantly fighting over the sea.

Flames fluttered through the sky. Such scenes are more shocking than Hollywood blockbuster special effects, especially true.

The group of civilian hostages guarded behind the pier were shocked. It turns out that there are so many characters and things that challenge their imagination in this world.

A group of monster-like monsters are constantly hitting the front. Most of them are E-level D-level, and two of them have reached C-level. From this we can see how thick FBG is.

There is so much fighting power on a small transport ship.

"Suddenly!"

Exploding bear held his right arm with his left hand and continued to shoot and bombard. The 25mm machine shell shredded the body of a low-level werewolf. Occasionally there was a leaky net, he punched out.

With an impact force of up to seven or eight thousand kilograms, the ordinary demon wolf can't resist it.

Huo Lanlan's performance is also very good, she used the soil power to put a thick layer of stone armor on herself. Purely in terms of strength and defense, I am afraid that no one within the C level can dominate it.

The only weakness is probably the slower speed, and she is also afraid of the air. But as long as she stepped on the ground with her feet, she seemed to be able to absorb endless power, and she could play all kinds of gods through the earth.

Miao Hong's performance is also extremely stunning. As a nurse, she certainly has no melee ability. However, it is very evil to manipulate the grubs to fight. The worms one by one tear the flesh and blood of the demon wolves, devour their blood and brain, and finally come out.

Not only can kill the enemy, but also allows her grubs to continuously absorb nutrients and become more powerful.

Above the sea.

In just a few rounds, the demon Randy couldn't hold on.

"Boom! Click!"

The bones of his arms cracked with a blow, and even the internal organs were trembling. The body keeps flying backwards, which makes the devil Randy's heart furious, is this kid a monster? He is clearly a domain-level powerhouse. Why does it feel like he is fighting a half-step A-level man?

For a long time, the demon Randy was very satisfied with the powerful power of his demon body. Think that this body is the future direction of human evolution. But now, it just wants to escape, far away.

With a backward trend, it tried to plunge into the sea.

“Oh, want to run?” A fearful voice rang in his ears, “Late, let me keep my life obediently.”

...

...

The devil Randy was horrified.

The next moment, he felt his body burning. The flames, like the tarsal maggots, firmly attached to it. The thick scale armor kept cracking and cracking in the flames.

“boom!”

A hammer hit his head, the demon-like hard head was exploded, and his brain overflowed.

It fell into the sea, the flames on it never blew out, and the sea water boiled endlessly. As for the demon Randy, he is dead. The huge body as high as three meters gradually sank to the bottom of the sea. The body and limbs are constantly twitching, but this is just the natural reaction of nerve endings.

The fire knight who was knocked off a hand by Wang Yan at the earliest time and fell into the sea was finally able to endure pain and get out of the water. When I first wanted to go to support, I saw this terrifying scene, and I was so scared that I couldn't hold my soul. How could this be possible? The devilish breath of the demon Randy showed him even a little bit afraid. Unexpectedly, he was hit by the young man.

At this moment, Wang Yan, who had just exploded the demon Randy, glanced at him, then smiled at him.

Jerry, the fiery knight, was shuddered suddenly, and even his soul shivered a few times. A hurried man hurried into the sea. There is only one thought in my mind, that is to escape, escape, escape.

As a B-level strongman, his status is very respectable, no matter where he goes, it will be respectable. There are a lot of lives you can enjoy, and dying here is too worthless.

However, before he swam out more than a dozen meters, he heard a pouting sound from the rear, apparently the terrible enemy came after him. This made his heart wow cool to the extreme. Desperately, the speed increased a lot again.

Wang Yan did not expect that the so-called guardian knight would run so fast. But since both sides are already enemies, how could Wang Yan easily let him go? Furthermore, this is also considered to be part of the national war, and the merit of solving a B-level strongman is not low.

The two of them chased and fled, and they soon reached more than a thousand meters away and a hundred meters deep.

Wang Yan chased behind him, grabbed his blond hair, dragged it back, his arms bent around his neck, and slammed hard.

Although the fiery knight Jerry had protected his neck with one arm in time, his strength was not as good as that of Wang Yan, especially after being injured. As Wang Yan tightened him like a python.

Click, the skeleton of the fiery knight burst, and then the throat was tightened and pinched, the cervical vertebrae cracked, and the most important nervous system and blood vessels of the body were pinched.

At this time Jerry, in fact, his brain is still alive, but he has lost control of the part below the neck, and can't even feel the pain. His eyes burst out, revealing an expression of terrified terror.

If you change to an ordinary person, you will die after a few seconds.

It is a pity that he is a B-level strongman, whose physical qualities far exceed those of ordinary people countless times, and lack of blood transmission, he is still alive. If he was sent to the most advanced hospital for emergency treatment, he might still be alive.

Unfortunately, in this environment, where is there such an opportunity?

As Wang Yan dragged him out of the sea, a Class B blaze knight was utterly killed.

Carrying his body, Wang Yan flew into the air, his eyes squinting around, and the situation in each battlefield was clear at a glance.

Zhu Xixi dealt with two C-class werewolves alone, and the battle is over. She struggled to get injured, first killed a werewolf, and then settled on the last one.

Now the remaining part has been cut and bruised with blood by her dagger. She tried to escape several times, but was intercepted by her ghostly body. It seemed that the result was already doomed.

Wang Yan has never helped her, but also wants her to accumulate more combat experience. The evolution of superpowers is really about talent and resources. But there is one thing that cannot be ignored.

That is fighting. The more you linger on the line of life and death, and the more you accumulate fighting experience, the more you will be able to stimulate the body's active evolution.

The explosion of the bear, Miao Hong, and Huo Lanlan's battle has also entered the final stage. Although the three of them were very embarrassed in the end, they persevered and resisted the magic wolf's counterattack.

In the same way, Wang Yan didn't care about them, let them work hard, and hoped that the National African Bureau would add a few B-level strongmen as soon as possible. He understands that being strong in one person does not mean that the country is strong. Only the endless masters of the Chinese state can make the National African Affairs Bureau stand upright and support the backbone of the Chinese nation.

As for the battle between Shen Tu Tian Lu and Earth Knight Sean, it seems that they are playing quite well. The battle of Shentu Tianlu was very strange and difficult to prevent. However, the defense of the Earth Knight is extremely powerful, like a towering fortress.

Shen Tu Tianlu wanted to conquer this fort, and there was still a grind. Therefore, Wang Yan shouted: "Members of the ninth squad. You solve your opponents quickly, and then go to help the metal monsters. There are not too many opportunities to brush residual blood B-level bosses, both merit and loot Score.”

As soon as Wang Yan said this, the three women and one man were all excited, and they all accelerated the final battle.

“Boss, don’t take you to bully people like this.” Shen Tu Tianlu growled and said, “I can do it, give me ten minutes and I can kill him.”

“Ten minutes is too long.” Wang Yan shook his head and said, “It doesn’t matter if you don’t want them to help, I can do it myself.”

“Don’t, boss, you still have a break.” Shen Tutian said in tears while fighting, “You are going to do it, it is estimated that most of the merits will be robbed by you. Still they come, I can at least divide half.”

Wang Yan smiled, too lazy to care about that second thing. A foot pad flew into the bridge ship. At this time, the bridge ship was a mess. Only Captain Louis and the old man Edward remained.

In just a few minutes, old Edward seemed to be much weaker, and his heart seemed to stop suddenly. Obviously, things have made him despair today. Sometimes the patient is like this. Once desperate, the spirit will soon be removed.

Seeing Wang Yan, the old Edward’s eyes showed a grudge and jealousy, and said hoarsely: “Young man, you will pay for your choice. Our Edward family will never let you go. “

“I don’t believe it.” Wang Yan said lightly.

“What?” Old Edward’s eyes showed a trace of suspense and shock.

“As the head of a family, you have to cooperate with the infamous FBG and make many benefits and promises in order to prolong your life, and you have promised many benefits and promises.” Wang Yan shrugged indifferently, “I believe your family’s The heirs of the ranks have hated you for a long time, not only refused to die, but also brought the family to the abyss. If you die, the heirs under you will be too happy to be happy. How can there be empty and unsatisfactory Matter, fight against China National Bureau of African Affairs? “

Old Edward's face suddenly turned pale. He was just unknowingly in the game, and he was stunned by his life. What can Wang Yan say, with his life experience and wisdom in his life, how can he not understand it, or not? "

"They will fight to maintain the dignity and honor of the Edward family." Old Edward, Selenei said. Maybe, just want to give yourself a last hope.

"Maybe, but I think the possibility of pretending is too high." Wang Yan shrugged his shoulders and smiled easily. "We are not strong vegetarians in the China National Bureau of State Affairs, and there are many great countries. There are S-level land fairies. Several A-levels in your family area, coming to our country to make trouble is just to find a way to die. I do n't think the next patriarch will be bored to avenge you for your family 's safety.

"You ... me, I curse you, curse, curse you for not being good, for dying." Old Edward suffocated his heart and couldn't breathe. The grudging eyes fixed on Wang Yan. It was this young man who deprived himself of the hope of living.

His face was getting bluer and bluer, and he could still hold on for another month. He couldn't support it anymore, and he fell to the ground in pain and whimpered.

Regarding the curse of old Edward, Wang Yan didn't pay any attention to it.

This old guy can do everything to survive. If he was allowed to continue his life extension, he might do something more extinct. His death, to some extent, can reduce the scourge of others, naturally he died early and healed.

As for the captain Louis, Wang Yan asked the bomb on the ship by means of forcing questions. He was escorted to easily crack the bombs used to die together.

However, this Louis, who is an employee of FBG itself, has done some inhuman things, whether indirect or direct. Wang Yan didn't plan to let him go, he tied him up and took it back to China.

This is a slight delay.

The battlefield outside is finally over.

Earth Knight Sean was blown off his head during the siege.

Wang Yan immediately directed the men to clean up their spoils and brought the civilian hostages back to the transport ship. Then bewitched several crew members, let them drive this transport ship, and slowly left the port.

After driving out seven or eight hundred meters, there was a bang.

The research institute below the Nanyang Island was blown to pieces and destroyed with the villa area above.

...

Almost at the same time.

In the FBG headquarters, a young boss-like character in a suit and leather clothes saw this scene through the remaining monitors on the island and spurted blood directly. The China National African Affairs Bureau is too cruel.

He picked up the phone angrily, dialed a character, and said in a respectful and polite voice: "Hour Excellency Duke of Roses, are you still playing in Southeast Asia? There is one thing I want to inform you about."

"You have nothing to do with the battle of the China National African Affairs Bureau," said a lazy voice across from the other side. "You are not lobbying me here."

"You will be interested in this matter that I want to report." The young man in a suit and leather jacket smiled indifferently on his lips. "This time the National African Bureau attacked our Nanyang island. A young man used Star Meteor Warhammer, and a pair of Fire Unicorn Armguards."

"What !?" A quick whisper came across the opposite side.

...

...

“Are you possibly mistaken?” His Excellency the Duke of Roses opposite, his voice seemed a little excited.

“I dare to lie to anyone, or to you, Lord Duke of Roses.” The man in the suit looked somber, but said politely in his mouth, “We have many cameras on the island of Nanyang. Although many of them have been destroyed, there are still some hidden cameras that have taken some pictures. I can send these videos to you immediately. “

“No, I forgive you for not fooling me in this kind of thing.” The voice of the Duke of Rose suddenly became indifferent. “Give me specific coordinates. The Duke is expected to arrive within half an hour.”

“Your Excellency, this ...” The man in a suit deliberately murmured weakly, “We have suffered too much this time. Can you catch the remaining people alive? Our company is willing to pay you a huge sum of money. . “

The men in suits understand that these young people have extraordinary strengths and are obviously the elites cultivated by the National African Affairs Bureau. This kind of young man, maybe the future will be the pillar of China, and his life is very valuable.

If you have several hostages in hand, you will have the opportunity to negotiate with the National African Bureau.

The sudden outbreak of the National African Affairs Bureau has caused FBG to suffer unprecedented shocks and losses. Now, as the CEO, in just one hour, he has already lost his head.

“Huh.” Duke Rose sneered over the phone, “Although the information you give is very important, but you want to order me to do things for you, huh, Simons, I’m afraid you think too much. I don’t want your coordinates, big deal. You can always find it by searching. “

“My Excellency the Duke of Roses, how dare I order you to do things?” Simmons hurriedly said with a respectful attitude. “This time the China National African Affairs Bureau is too much. I don’t want to continue to pick things, I just want to make peace. .. I just beg you to hand over to our company. You think about it, the man and you hate so much, but his whereabouts are simply top secret information, and no one has the ability to go to China to find him. The young man is obviously He has a great relationship with that person, as long as he catches him, maybe he can be forced to go abroad. “

After two seconds of hesitation, the Duke of Rose said with a sneer: “The coordinates report, the rest, see the result of that thing and my personal mood.”

“Yes, yes, yes!” FBG’s CEO Simmons quickly nodded and said three yes, “Your Excellency, everything is centered on your will.”

...

China South China Sea.

In this sea of disputes.

A transport ship gallops in the blue waters like a wind and waves.

On the deck, several young people from all over the country were celebrating with a bottle of wine alone. According to everyone’s physique, this little wine can only help and delight, and it will not be like the thunder, the three bottle caps will be drunk darkly.

“Boss Wang Yan, it’s cool to work with you.” Zhu Xixi was torn open by the werewolf, but she simply bandaged her. Although her face was pale, she raised her glass and said boldly, “Come, pity I respect you and have a chance to return to work with you. “

“Don’t be busy, please.” Wang Yan, as the captain, has a heavy responsibility and is more cautious. After a brief tasting, he said, “After waiting for the base to return to the base, after it is really safe, I will accompany everyone to have a good drink.”

All the people present were also performing the national war mission for the first time. The whole process seems to be calm, but in fact there are many variables and excitement. When this slackened off, there would be some waves.

“Boss, you don’t pay attention.” Shen Tu Tianlu said with a smile around Wang Yan’s shoulders, “The care is all on the girls, but the brothers are casually left aside. I don’t care, you will give me back Buy a few tons of rare metals, please give me a good time. “

Thin your sister.

Wang Yan glared at him angrily.

Are you stupid and sweet?

How many tons of rare metals? Do n’t you know the price of rare metals? Some rare metals are more expensive than gold.

“Brother Xiong, did you agree to go to the most famous venue in Huahai City?” Wang Yan said with a look of contempt. “Otherwise, I will give you a less famous venue?”

“Don’t do it.” Shen Tu Tianlu screamed and got up. “It’s done, boss, why do you love to go, don’t disturb my happy life.”

Then this kind of remarks sparked a strict condemnation of the girls present.

“Don’t be blind.” Shen Tu Tianlu dried up a bottle of wine and said with a grievance, “Who are willing to fall in love with my brother, I swear not to go to the night show all my life.”

“cut!”

Three sisters were present, Qiqi raised his **** to him.

“That’s it.” Shen Tu Tianlu groaned, “You sisters, don’t even look at the brothers one by one, but also despise the brothers to play in the most famous venue. It’s unreasonable. You think Everyone is like Wang Yan ’s boss. He hooks his fingers, and there are countless girls crying and crying for marriage. You do n’t understand the pain of hanging silk. “

In the case of a group of people in a mess, it will be half an hour before it will sail into the undisputed territorial waters.

Once there, it is truly safe. The country has already arranged a fleet to roam on the edge of the territorial waters, and it is ready to meet the team members who have completed national war missions abroad.

However at this time

A sci-fi aircraft flew across the sky.

It wasn't until it reached the sky that the rumbling aircraft engine sounded in everyone's ears.

From this perspective, this is a very advanced aircraft that exceeds the speed of sound many times. From its subsequent performance, it also confirmed this scene. It took only a few seconds for the plane to reach a standstill.

It is like a legendary UFO, just suspended in the sky above the cargo ship.

The ninth squad led by Wang Yan jumped up for the first time, staring at the plane closely. Their respective expressions are like adversaries.

Everyone knows that this is an aircraft that has never appeared in the media or on the market, and its performance is very advanced. All countries that are good at high technology do not include China.

At least, everyone knows that this is definitely not a plane of China.

“Woo ~~~”

The plane kept the same speed as the cargo ship, the two were relatively still, and the cabin slowly opened. From high altitude, two European men in black slowly floated down.

Look at the clothes they wear, just like the legendary bodyguards.

And the breath of the two of them made everyone, including Wang Yan, feel a deep sense of suffocation. Dangerous and powerful, it seems to be like a mountain, which makes people hold high mountains.

With Wang Yan's current strength, even a half-step A-level master such as Lei Hong can't give himself such a feeling.

So obviously, these two men wearing black super glasses and dressed as bodyguards should be A-level guru-level characters. This makes the hearts of everyone even more shocking.

Any A-level guru is worthy of respect by anyone. Even in a country like Hua Xianguo, where a superpower is like a cloud, an A-level powerhouse has the power to obtain the respect he deserves at all times. Even if some suggestions are made like the state, they will be considered seriously.

A-level guru is called the pillar of the country. One can imagine the importance of an A-level guru.

However, these two A-level masters were dressed as bodyguards. So who are the people they protect?

Wang Yan also squeezed his heartbeat, his eyes fixed, but he didn't say a word.

An A-level guru, Wang Yan may be able to lead the team with a hard hand, and reach out to the masters of the National African Bureau to assist. However, the two A-level masters prevented Wang Yan from giving birth to a little resistance.

The strength of both sides is in a crushing pattern, and indiscriminate speech and resistance will only bring disaster.

The members of the team stood behind Wang Yan one after another.

At this moment, another person floated down on the plane hovering in the air. To be precise, a woman floated down. More precisely, it was a very beautiful woman floating down.

She is a classical European beauty, wearing a flower hat and fair skin like snow. A pair of wonderful eyes, deep and like a vast starry sky. Although she didn't speak, she could feel a heart-warming and charming from her form.

She also had the feeling of seeing me still pitiful, delicate and weak, as if weak and could not help the wind, and gave birth to an urge to protect her.

She slowly floated in front of Wang Yan and others, her deep eyes swept around, and finally landed on Wang Yan.

She looks very delicate, but Wang Yan does not dare to underestimate her. Anyone who can afford two A-level guru to be a bodyguard is an extremely scary character.

Edward's status was high enough before, but he can only use two B-class strongmen as bodyguards.

Although the Edward family claims to have four A-level gurus, it is definitely the pillar of the family and belongs to the first-class worship in the family. Even the head of the family will respect the people and discuss everything.

Taking the A-level Grandmaster casually as a bodyguard to support the scene, Edward definitely instructed him not to move.

But the two A-level masters were very respectful of the woman, and were in awe.

What's more, the woman's body falling from the plane was natural, without a trace of smoke. Obviously, she is a peerless master.

"You." The woman gave Wang Yan a few deep glances and said slowly in round Chinese words, "What's your name?"

Wang Yan felt a grief, according to the number of gifts, politely arched his hands and said: "Return to the senior, the junior surnamed Wang, a single name Yan."

In this world, strength is respected. In a situation where the strength is obviously far inferior to that of a person, a look of coquettishness, it is purely mentally disabled and finds itself dead.

"Wang Yan?" The woman said coldly. "What is your relationship with Cao Jinglue?"

Wang Yan was shocked, Cao Jinglue? Uh, wait, it 's Uncle Gun ...

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 279

Life is at stake.

At this moment, Wang Yan turned a lot of thoughts, and his brain quickly turned up. Although the woman only said a few words, the exposed information was already huge.

First of all, the woman knew Uncle Gun, and suspected that she was related to Uncle Gun. Then there are only two possibilities. First, she is the enemy of Uncle Gun. Second, she is the old man of Uncle Gun.

Why would she suspect that she has something to do with Uncle Cannon? Well, it should be over the jetty of Nanyang Island, with some hidden cameras left uncleaned. The Nanyang Island is the base of FBG, which shows that even if this woman is not a FBG, it should have a strong relationship with FBG.

Her strength is very strong, at least an A-level guru, and her status is very respectable. It was about an hour and a half after she arrived from the news, and according to the estimated speed of her plane, it would be about 2,000 to 5,000 kilometers.

Then the question is coming. Such a highly respected master only suspects that he is related to Uncle Gun, so he does not hesitate to ask himself about his relationship with Uncle Gun. That shows that the woman and Uncle Gun are deeply involved.

There are two kinds of problems, one is that she hates Uncle Gun, but she has no chance to kill him, so she is ready to kill herself to vent her hatred. The second kind is that she loves Uncle Gun. Once she heard something related to Uncle Gun, she couldn't help but run.

and many more!

She asked her name.

If she and Qiushu have a common hatred, as long as you are sure whether she is an apprentice of Qiushu, you can directly kidnap or kill. Why bother asking for a name?

It even said that she didn't need to confirm at all, as long as she suspected that she was related to Uncle Cannon, she could do it. Believe that you are a small B-level superpower, and she will not be ignored by her.

So Wang Yan inferred that this foreign girl who was so beautiful as if she didn't eat human fireworks was likely to have a deep emotional relationship with Uncle Cannon. Yeah, that's right, it's clear to think about Uncle Gun's theory of picking girls. Without so much practice, where is such a strong conclusion?

In this pondering period, Wang Yan completed his deduction. Immediately, his face was serious, and he said respectfully, "His old man is my esteemed master." In the heart, the woman's facial features were extremely delicate and delicate, and her skin was pale and weak. According to Uncle Gun's character, most of them couldn't bear to hate her.

If it is Uncle Cannon's old lover, will he love his house and Wuwu to himself? What to send money to send resources to send equipment? At first glance, this woman is a man of high weight, rich and powerful.

So, take a gamble. Wang Yan secretly made up his mind.

As expected, Wang Yan admitted. Her face was slightly pale, and there was a faint blush. The deep eyes narrowed slightly, as if caught in memories.

Wang Yan breathed a sigh of relief, and was a bit dark. Uncle Cannon deserves to be Uncle Cannon, all the girls have gone abroad. It's really worthy of the backbone of the Chinese nation, but it's bullish enough.

Next, she should check with her about Uncle Cannon's situation? After being satisfied, I loved the house and Wuxia, and gave myself some gifts for this younger generation as a gift of gifts and lucky money.

I'm not too demanding. What a dozens of cubic storage bracelets, one magic weapon, no no, two treasures. Renminbi, no no, people must use the euro, and it is enough to just give yourself billions.

“It turns out that you are really a disciple of Jinglue. In this vein, he has high demands for accepting disciples. No wonder you are young and you have achieved this. Jinglue, must you be very satisfied with you?” Perhaps it was because the emotions were too excited, and he took out a handkerchief and coughed two times with his cherry mouth, and stared at Wang Yan with eyes as deep as the starry sky.

Wang Yan also had a little excitement under his heart. It seemed that he was really right. The relationship between this woman and Uncle Gun was very deep.

You look at her eyes, her face changes, she looks really excited. In addition, she had a strategy. That intimacy is really nauseating. However, in Wang Yan’s opinion, the more intimate they are, the better their relationship is, the better.

Only in this way can she love the house and love it more, and put a lot of pocket money into herself. Wang Yan pretended to be humbly and said, “Fortunately, it’s okay, it’s all up to the Master’s care. He still loves me very much.”

“It’s good to hurt you, and it’s easy to take an apprentice, of course, it will hurt.” The woman nodded gently, her cheeks slightly fainted with a smile.

She just gave a simple smile, which made Wang Yan and others have a very amazing feeling, like a red rose in a flash, blooming gorgeously and glamorously.

You’re welcome, come on, although there’s any love coming to me, give me a little more greetings, Wang Yan’s heart is a little happy cry. I didn’t expect that the task of the national war was completed very smoothly, and I can go home and get some great benefits.

“Since he hurts you so much. You said, if I killed you.” The woman’s charming eyes showed a bit of coldness that hated him, “He must be very sad, right?”

“what!?”

When Wang Yan was struck by thunder, he was dumbfounded on the spot.

Isn't that right? Shouldn't it be said that since your teacher loves you, then I also love you, let's say, how much pocket money do you want?

What is the situation now?

Killed! ?

For a time, Wang Yan was falling into the ice cellar, cooling from head to heel. While the scalp was numb, he opened his mouth and said, "Aren't you mistaken? I'm Cao Jingluo's apprentice."

"It was Cao Jingluo's apprentice." The woman's eyes exploded with a thick murderous slash, and her slim and jade hand waved.

Wang Yan's heart was cold and cold, and when it was over, the judgment was wrong. This woman is not her own, but the enemy. Uncle Pao, what the **** did his old man do? Annoying people want to beat his apprentice to death?

Being an apprentice of Uncle Cannon is really stressful in life.

One of the A-class bodyguards moved.

He simply took a step forward, but seemed to cross the space instantly, and appeared in front of Wang Yan without fireworks. A punch, a simple punch.

Suddenly, Wang Yan felt a **** breath of corpses looming over him, and the powerful sense of oppression gave him a suffocating feeling. This guy who seems to be a bodyguard is definitely not a simple thing, and he has some lives in his hands.

That extremely simple punch seems to have reached the level of simplification, pointing directly to the essence of the avenue. His spirit and spirit and heaven and earth blended together incomparably.

"Uh!"

Wang Yan crossed his hands, and the Fire Qilin armguards propped up a thick and dignified flame shield. It has a dignified breath, burning with layers of flame. It can be seen from this that after being promoted to the B level, Wang Yan's control of the Huo Qilin armguards has reached a new level. Compared with the previous C-level, more than one-time improvement.

“boom!”

A punch hit the flame shield.

If you slow down ten thousand times, you can clearly see his fist touching the flame shield, the shield gradually cracks, turning into pieces, splashing around.

A wave of energy blasted away in all directions around the bombardment point.

“puff!”

Wang Yan's internal organs were tumbling, and he couldn't help but spit out blood from his sweet throat. He stepped back seven or eight steps, his arms were trembling and numb.

So strong!

This casual punch has such a terrifying power that it is worthy of being an A-level guru.

It's also because Wang Yan is now a B-level domain-level strongman, otherwise he will take the punch, even if he doesn't die for half his life.

“Pharaoh!”

The explosive bear roared, picked up the machine gun on his arm, and directed it at the “suddenly” A-class bodyguard. The 25MM machine-gun shells formed a metal storm, which was like a violent storm. Even a heavy-armored tank, Blast Bear is confident to tear it apart.

The A-class bodyguard didn't even look at the bursting bear, but just stretched out a hand casually and propped up a translucent shield.

“Bee!”

The 25MM bullet hit the shield, as if pinched by an invisible hand, hovering densely in mid-air.

A drop of cold sweat dripped from everyone's forehead.

Horrible, this A-class bodyguard is really terrible. Without accident, he could clean up the entire ninth squad by himself. Except for Wang Yan and Shen Tu Tianlu, two B-level domain powerhouses who can withstand one or two, the rest of the people are probably part of the spike.

The A-class bodyguard waved casually.

Dozens of 25MM warheads flew back like a shower, preparing to kill the explosive bear. In his eyes, every C-class superpower is no different from an ant, and it is a worm that can be pinched to death.

Wang Yan couldn't help but was cold.

However, Shen Tu Tianlu was moved, his body swayed in front of the bursting bear. Dozens of 25MM warheads bombarded him, and they didn't get into it. Although Shen Tu Tianlu has the ability to devour a warhead, the power of the A-level master's easy blow is so powerful.

Even Shen Tutian Road weighed a few hundred kilograms, but was shocked to take five or six steps backwards. His body was like a honeycomb with dozens of dense holes.

Fortunately, Shen Tu Tianlu's body had been semi-metallized. Although the bullets entered his body, he could not hurt him. The surface of the body flows like liquid metal, smoothing those wounds.

"Huh, weird metal power? Something interesting." The woman glanced at him lightly, and said with a little appreciation in her expression, "The young people of the National African Affairs Bureau are quite united."

"Brother Shen Tu, thank you for your life-saving grace." Bao Xiong said with a pale face, with a lingering fear.

“My brother, don’t need too much nonsense.” Shen Tu Tianlu waved his hands and said indifferently, “What’s more, you promised me to go to the best night show in Huahai City. If you die, I will ... Um!”

A cold chill enveloped everyone in the audience.

I saw that the woman’s face was covered with frost, and she said coldly: “Black Er, throw these two disgusting things into the sea to feed the fish.”

...

...

Wang Yan is also fascinated by this. Shen Tu Tian Lu, you two can’t move at all, it’s best to go to the night show? Can you take care of the occasion? Really, if you don’t do it, you won’t die.

Black 2 is obviously another A-class bodyguard.

He was wearing black super sunglasses and nodded slightly. Taking a step, his hands grabbed Shen Tu Tian Lu and Bing Xiong.

“Wait!” Wang Yan hurriedly drank, “I have something to say.”

Hei Er stopped his movement and looked back at the noble woman.

The delicate color on the woman’s face has disappeared, her expression frosty, and she glanced lightly at Wang Yan and said, “Before you die, do you still have something to say?”

Well.....

It seems that this woman is very serious about her own killing. What kind of angry things did Uncle Cannon and his elderly do? The pit is really a pit. I always feel that my apprentice will be killed sooner or later.

But as early as just now, Wang Yan has secretly released a distress signal.

This is a distress signal for every squad that performs a mission. It can be activated when it encounters a crisis that it can never resist. At that time, there will be its own S-class land fairy, rushed over with the fastest shuttle Lingbao.

The thing to do now is to be able to delay the time.

“Senior, if you want to kill me, just kill, but please don’t hurt my brothers and sisters.” Wang Yan arched his hand and sighed, “First, they are innocently implicated, and second, they It ’s just a group of ants for you. ”

“Do I need you to teach me?” The woman glanced coldly at Wang Yan.

Wang Yan only felt that he was being stared at by an extremely fierce beast, the cold hair exploded, and the tail vertebrae became cold. But when things got to this point, I had to hold on, and I arched my hands and said: “I dare not teach the senior to do things, but the senior has enmity with my master. If I want to take revenge, I take it for granted. Do n’t worry about those innocent people like you. “

Wang Yan also sighed in his heart. If it was not for these teammates, he would either run away or desperately. but now.....

Alas, in the final analysis, he is still not strong enough.

“Okay, since you are willing to catch your hand, then I will let them go.” The woman said coldly. “From now on, you are my captive. Get on my plane yourself.”

“No, boss Wang Yan.” Zhu Xixi cried and said, “If you come out together, you must go back together.”

“Boss Wang Yan, we fight with them.” Miao Hong’s eyes also burst with a vicious eruption, Gu Gu ready to break out at any time.

“Boss, Miao Hong is right.” Huo Lanlan also waved his fist, “Fight, it’s death or life and life.”

“Enough!” Wang Yan wiped the corner of his mouth and said angrily, “Whether you are the captain or I am the captain? Just leave me alone, this is an order. I was just captured, not dead. Yes. I believe the National African Affairs Bureau will negotiate with this lady to rescue me. “

Are you kidding me? What do you want to fight with others? The two A-class bodyguards alone could easily wipe out the ninth team. Not to mention the mysterious and powerful woman, although she did not show her true strength. But Wang Yan believes that her strength is probably far above the two black bodyguards.

After Wang Yan finished his speech, Zhu Xixi and others were silent. Indeed, now desperate to fight with people, undoubtedly hit eggs with other people’s stones. Even if the regiment is gone, there is nothing to be done.

“Okay, everyone don’t be sad.” Wang Yan smiled lightly. “This time it’s my family’s personal grievance, and everyone involved, don’t worry too much. If I die, I believe the National African Bureau will not Be willing to take it easy. “

Everyone nodded their heads together, and everyone believed in the attitude of the leaders of the National African Affairs Bureau. Sun Shu of the Central China Branch died, and the National African Bureau launched a national war without hesitation.

At least this mysterious woman wants to kill Wang Yan, she will have some fear in her heart. What about S-Class? Our National African Bureau is not without S-class.

Wang Yan shrugged and the Bat King wings spread out. He flicked his wings gently and flew towards the mysterious woman’s car.

Without these teammates, Wang Yan won’t be able to do anything.

“Looking at you for being loyal, I will spare them once.” The mysterious woman carried her hands on the plane with a slow attitude.

Two A-class bodyguards, one left and one right, pushed Wang Yan into the plane hovering in mid-air.

As soon as he entered the plane, Wang Yan felt the real difference of this plane.

In the middle is a circular living room of tens of square meters with sofas, cinema, bar counter, fish tank, bonsai, and even a piano. The ground is covered with red cashmere carpets, and it is soft and comfortable to step on it after taking off your shoes.

If you do not come in from the outside, you can't imagine that this is the inside of an aircraft, you can only think of it as a luxurious parlor.

Wang Yan has also taken the Gulfstream G550, which is the predecessor of Gao Chengzong. The decoration is also very luxurious, but compared with the plane cabin of this mysterious woman, it is more than one step away.

Various potted plants are lush and vigorous. Clusters of colorful roses, or buds to be placed, or blooming. In the huge circular fish tank, several electric eels more than two meters long are swimming freely. They are graceful and vigorous, and they are obviously very healthy.

“Sit.” The mysterious woman floated up on the sofa, lying on her back in a flamboyant gesture, pointing to the sofa opposite.

Wang Yan honestly sat barefoot on the soft sofa, sitting in front of him, not squinting. He is now at the domain level, and his body has become more and more crystal clear in the evolution of time and time again.

The variety of bacteria on the body, whether harmful or probiotic, has been significantly reduced. Every cell is healthy and strong, and the metabolism is obviously many times slower than ordinary people.

This caused him to have no smelly feet even if he took off his shoes, at least not to be embarrassing and tiresome.

Two Class A bodyguards entered the front cockpit without squinting.

Today, only Wang Yan and this mysterious woman are in this beautiful cabin reception room. Wang Yan didn't look at her in the eyes, but he was thinking about it secretly. After the plane left here, would he bomb the plane and escape into the sea?

These people are strong and strong, but they may not have the ability to chase themselves in the vast sea.

"I advise you to be honest." The mysterious woman's posture became a bit lazy, and the tone said softly. "My plane is extremely expensive, and the core engine and shield generator are the only treasures in the world. . If you dare to break it, I will peel off your skin and give it to Cao Jinglue. "

A moment in Wang Yan's heart, Hu Lai's thought was temporarily put away.

The plane shuddered slightly, and then moved at a rapid speed. But in the living room of Wang Yan, he could not hear any noise. Obviously the sound insulation effect was very good.

The mysterious woman curled up comfortably on the sofa, taking a glass of red wine and enjoying it.

After five minutes, she was not seen talking.

Wang Yan coughed softly and whispered: "Senior, what will you do with me?"

The mysterious woman Slender Slim Jade squeezed the wine glass in her hand and swept Wang Yan lightly and said, "Naturally it took you home."

Take it home? Wang Yan shuddered in his heart, and the secret passage was a bit bad. Could it be that the mysterious woman looks handsome and wants to be taken back to be imprisoned? Then all kinds of humiliation, all kinds of abuse?

"I will slowly dump you eight pieces and send them to Cao Jinglue piece by piece." The mysterious woman sneered and said, "Let him taste the heartache and let him live forever in discomfort."

A chill, from Wang Yan's tail vertebrae straight to the back of the head. No way? This is too abnormal. Uncle Gun, Uncle Gun, what's wrong with you girl? It will cause people to retaliate in this way! ?

At this moment, the telephone ringing in the conference room sounded.

The mysterious woman took the call and said lightly, "Simons, what's the matter?"

...

FBG headquarters, a luxurious office.

Simmons pulled off his tie, even though it was still a flattering smiley face across the phone: "Your Excellency, the coordinates I provided are correct?"

"Well." A casual answer came from the end of the phone. "It's quite accurate. I took that person and my apprentice. This time, I owe you a favor."

Simmons smiled and smiled happily. He had long heard that the Duke of Roses and the man of China had a big hatred. He once gave out cruel words and wanted to smash the corpse into pieces.

Now that she has ***** the apprentice, there must be coercion. By that time, the hatred of the entire China National Bureau of State and African Affairs was attracted to the Duke of Roses.

FBG can breathe at least, and then try to shrink the front to stabilize the position.

"The Lord Duke, the other members of the National Bureau of African Affairs, can you give it to me?" Simmons said carefully, "You can rest assured that I will make up ..."

"I left the rest," the Duke of Roses said lazily.

"What ...?" Simmons' breathing was tense, and he pressed his shame angrily, "You didn't promise me, would you help my company catch those people?"

“When did I agree? I said, it depends on my personal mood.” Duke Rose sneered, “My mood is very bad, Simmons, don’t recruit me.”

Dududu ~

Simmons’ face turned blue when he heard a busy tone over the phone. Suddenly shattered the phone and scolded: “*****, *****! Duke Rose, you remember this time, you wait for me.” But now he, still I dare not provoke the Duke of Roses.

Aircraft cabin in the luxurious reception room.

“That matter is resolved.” The Duke of Rose drank half a glass of red wine and glanced coldly at Wang Yan. “Now, it’s time to talk about things between us.”
