

D. Hero 321

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 321

Wang Yan was too lazy to take care of these two goods, and turned to say: “Miao Miao, I will introduce you first. This is Liu Lang, who is regarded as the descendant of Xuanyin’s corpse-making.”

Xuanyin corpse? Sun Youmiao suddenly disgusted him. His father died in the hands of a corpse boy, and the corpse boy is the vein of Xuanyin’s corpse refining. She refers to Plants vs. Zombies to improve her plant abilities, perhaps because she hates zombies.

“Miao Miao.” Wuya Ange got up and gave her a soft hug, “Welcome to Huahai City, if you have any difficulties in the future, despite talking to your aunt.”

“Aunt Ange.” Sun Youmiao nodded gratefully.

“An Ge, this is Sun Shumiao, the daughter of Brother Sun Shu?” Nan Lian also came generously and said softly, “It’s a beautiful girl.”

“Miao Miao, Sister An Ge and Sister Nan Lian have made outstanding achievements in this national war.” Wang Yan said, “It’s a revenge for Brother Sun Shu.”

In this national war, Sun Shu’s name was spread all over the world. All people in the superpower world know this name, because of him, it caused a chaos in the superpower world that swept the world. FBG has suffered unprecedentedly because of this, the loss is extremely heavy.

“Aunt Ange, Aunt Nanlian, thank you very much.” Sun Youmiao’s eyes were reddish and she choked.

“Okay, okay, things are over.” An Ge said softly, “The meals are going to be cold. Let’s eat first.”

Subsequently, a group of people gathered around the dining table and happily ate a meal.

In the afternoon, Wang Yan placed a room for Sun Youmiao on the second floor. Don't look that she didn't seem to bring any salute, in fact, she inherited her father's storage bracelet. Although it is just the one-cubic standard type, the storage bracelet itself is very expensive, and many new B-level masters may not have it.

Subsequently, a group of six people arrived at the unit. After some simple procedures, Sun Youmiao officially became a member of the East China Branch.

In a huge training room.

Liu Lang took out one of his armored corpses like a pendulum. The armored corpse was strong and the muscles were like iron. Obviously it was a tank-like puppet corpse. However, it is impossible for him to sacrifice the puppet corpse of this level because of his cultivation level of less than D level. The answer is obvious.

"Pharaoh, my puppet corpse is powerful?" Liu Lang patted the armor of the armored corpse, hehe said, "My armored corpse is very qualified, and it is possible to be promoted to class B in the future. I have used it to overcome There are several D-class colleagues in the unit. "

Wang Yan glanced at it, and said lightly: "It can be crushed with just one finger." For him, not to mention the iron armor, even the bronze armor and silver armor have been killed a lot. This is the difference in strength. This iron armor is in his eyes, just like the ants.

"Lao Wang, don't you brag about it?" Liu Lang glared angrily. "I know that you are definitely stronger than me, but it is only a few months before I entered the National African Bureau. You poked me. Look ... "

Wang Yan is speechless. This guy has been in the newcomer training for the last month, and the information is relatively blocked.

Let him know, what is meant by someone outside, there are mountains outside.

Wang Yan's eyes were sullen, and the breath of a domain-level strongman was thinned out. The temperature in the entire training room was increased by several degrees in an instant. With a finger, the volley point out, and a scorching vigour spins violently.

The strong armored corpse was bombarded in the chest with his fingers, and flew out. His back hit the wall, and the wall cracked slightly. The poor armored corpse fell to the ground and moved a few times before barely struggling to get up.

This is the result of Wang Yan's mercy, otherwise an iron corpse in this area really can't stop him from hitting it.

Guan Nuo, Liu Lang, Sun Youmiao were shocked. A few of them knew that Wang Yan was very strong, but this is also a bit exaggerated, right? Liu Lang, in particular, looked pale, and the pressure from Wang Yan's breath just now gave him a strong sense of fear.

Guan Nuo's eyes were also full of shock. Recently, she let Dachai's father who was at the helm came out, and spent a lot of money to find a lightning-savvy psionist to teach for a period of time. She worked hard to practice, and finally broke through to the C level. I was still somewhat proud of myself, but in the face of Wang Yan's finger, it shattered a little pride she had formed. Even if the thunder and lightning master is the opponent of Wang Yan, right?

Sun Youmiao was more shocked, but more excited. Uncle really is the strongest, so powerful, his eyes were a little more adored, and his small face flushed a little.

Only Nanlian and Wuya Ange are used to it. The three have been practicing together for a month. Learn from each other time after time, and make progress time after time. Only they know how terrible Wang Yan's fighting power is and how fast he progresses.

It takes two people to join forces in order to press him slightly.

However, it was Wang Yan's rapid progress that stimulated their competitive heart. The two of them don't want to be left behind by Wang Yan from far behind, and they can only look up at him above him for a lifetime. For various reasons, coupled with extremely abundant resources, the progress of the two of them is also very rapid.

"Brother Lang, I want you to know that there are many strong players in this world. You are still a newcomer, and you just smashed yourself with just a few D-level superpowers." Wang Yan said seriously, "The further you go, the deeper you understand this world, the more you feel your insignificance. Do n't think I 'm very powerful right now, but when you meet a true top powerhouse, you 're definitely no better than your D-class zombies, and you can only lose Even worse. You will soon go out to perform tasks, do n't care, because the real world is not a game world, and anything can happen. "

"Okay, I understand. Pharaoh." Although Liu Lang sometimes got a little harder, he was also a smart man. Seriously nodded and said, "I will definitely work hard and strive to reach your current state as soon as possible."

Wang Yan nodded and said nothing more. This situation of Liu Lang is a common problem of most superpowers. Regardless of whether it is cultivation awakening or natural awakening, from an ordinary person to a powerful being in a short time, self-confidence will swell uncontrollably.

In fact, Wang Yan was also like this at first, and the experienced bursting bear also strictly persuaded Wang Yan.

"Liu Lang, Guan Nuo, Miao Miao, the three of you should all be potential superpowers." Wang Yan sat on the ground and said directly, "I don't have much to say for the usual. It was just this time that the National African Affairs Bureau and FBG had a battle. Although we took advantage of all the advantages, won beautifully, and gained many benefits, we did not uproot FBG after all. Now FBG is obviously admonishing, but I'm definitely not going to give up in private. In the next few years, it is likely that small actions will continue in private and more hidden. I can't control the country's overall situation, but I do n't want some people around to have trouble. "

"Xiao Yan was right." Nan Lian said with agreement. "Since you have become a member of the National African Bureau, unless you are willing to eat in the unit all day and wait for death. Otherwise, you will encounter various dangers sooner or later. The best way to deal with the danger is not by others, but by your own strength. Guannuo, I'm so happy that you finally figured it out, put away your playfulness and put in practice. "

"Do n't forget that although the SAARC usually has lax management and the superpowers are relatively free." Wu Ya Ange also added, "But in the face of a national war, the SAARC can force members to join the army and go to the front. Those who eat and die all day are the real life of nine deaths. "

"Uncle, Aunt Nanlian, Aunt Ange, and Miao Miao will definitely practice and improve themselves." Sun Youmiao nodded firmly and said, "If the FBG people don't come to trouble me, I will trouble them." "

“Very good, Miao Miao, you have this kind of consciousness, it is really best.” Wang Yan smiled and said, “This is to gather everyone in the training room, I want everyone to see Miao Miao’s self-developed combat skills. . Miao Miao, let everyone have a look. “

“Well.” Sun Youmiao nodded obediently.

Then she moved a large flower pot filled with nutrient soil.

She planted a pea seed, pinched it, and the magic happened.

In just a few seconds, the pea seedlings broke out of the ground and quickly grew into a “pea shooter.”

This pea shooter planted in a large flower pot is stronger than the one she grew out of the palm of her hand and is more than one meter tall.

this is?

Several women were shocked, and everyone had heard of it even if they had never played that game. And the pea shooter that Sun Youmiao spawned is almost exactly the same as the original game, full of a cute and lovely atmosphere.

After a whispering chatter. Wang Yan said: “It doesn’t matter what appearance looks like, try its power, Miao Miao, let it fire a shot at me.”

“Uncle?” Sun Youmiao blinked and seemed hesitant.

“Relax, a small thing that can’t even reach the E-level, it’s impossible to hurt me.” Wang Yan handed an encouraging look.

Sun Youmiao then drove the communication of the “pea shooter”, and the “cannon” of the little thing contracted and swelled for a while. After a second, “snap” and a burst of air burst.

A green pea shot at Wang Yan at a very fast speed, almost 30 to 40 kilometers per hour.

Wang Yan kept it in his palm.

“Slap!” Peas exploded in his palm.

Then he frowned and said, “The power is much smaller than I thought. This kind of power may not even kill a chicken. Miao Miao, are you looking at the appearance and shaping in the alternation culture of generations? ? “

“Well ~ Hmm.” Sun Youmiao’s little face suddenly turned red.

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 322

But Wang Yan also understands that, little girl, surely the first one is the exquisite appearance. This pea shooter is weak to weak, but the potential is unlimited. If she continues to develop on this path, it is really possible to create a unique ability path in the future.

“Interesting.” Uya Ange smiled and said, “I have seen him use plant life abilities while fighting side by side with Sun Shu in the past, but most of them play on the spot without much creativity. Miao Miao if you If you can develop it further, you can really find a new way to fight. “

“As long as the pea shooter grows, can he survive forever?” Nan Lian said with surprise. “If this thing becomes very strong in the future, and if a large area is planted, the power is really endless.”

“That’s why I called you to see it together.” Wang Yan said rightly, “Brother Sun Shu used the plant life power to improve his personal combat power. Now, it seems that the direction of development is far from Miaomiao is a strong set. The domestication and genetic changes of plants are very fast, and the ability of Miaomiao can not only accelerate the evolution of plants, but also guide plants to evolve in specific directions. I personally think that this is An amazing ability. “

“If it is used to transform food crops, wouldn’t it be developed?” Liu Lang’s brains are also very quick to earn. “If Miaomiao can cultivate high-yield rice, beauty and beauty fruits, it can really change all humans. Destiny. “

“No, no.” Sun Youmiao blushed and said, “I used my power to forcibly change the plant life of the evolution process. The seeds produced will not take root and sprout with ordinary planting techniques, and must be urged by the plant life power. If you send it, it will grow and develop. “

The crowd pondered for a while.

“This situation is also normal. Miaomiao’s plant life ability indirectly interferes with the laws of heaven and earth, forcing plants to mutate and evolve.” Wang Yan thought for a while and said, “In this case, it is reasonable to not plant on a large scale. Thing. “

“It’s true, otherwise Miaomiao’s abilities are too unnatural.” Nan Lian also spit out, “but it can’t be planted on a large scale. Small-scale planting is possible with her abilities. Think about it.” See, if you can cultivate some fruits like Lingguo and Lingmi on a small scale. Will the superpowered people improve their physical fitness for a long time? “

“If this can really be done, Miaomiao is a strategic treasure of the National African Affairs Bureau.” Wuya Ange also said in amazement, “This is more important than the birth of an S-class strongman. “

Wang Yan smiled and said: “Now it is only our own guess. No one has traveled this road. Miao Miao needs to continue to explore. So, don’t report to the leader now. Wait for her to be in a certain place. After making some breakthroughs in the field, we will report to Director Feng. Of course, now everyone must keep strict confidentiality. “

“Uncle, I will work hard.” As soon as he heard his ability was useful, Sun Youmiao’s excited little face turned red.

“Guan Nuo, try your latest progress.” Nan Lian’s body was covered with an ice fog, and his left hand turned into an ice shield.

“Good.” Guan Nuo also wanted to try the gap between the C-level promotion and the B-level powerhouse.

She pulled her hands together, crackled, and pulled out an arc. The electromagnetic force overflowed, and her short hair stood up one by one. No wonder she likes to keep her short hair. In the case of a lot of electromagnetic overflow, if she has long hair, she will not be a demon?

“Sister Nanlian is careful. The new moves I researched are very powerful.” Guan Nuo reminded him, and his palms merged together, forming a concentrated lightning ball in the palm of his hand.

“Wow ~” Under the action of electric energy, the lightning ball galloped away and hit Nanlian’s ice shield. boom! With a loud bang, the lightning ball burst apart, and the plasma spread in all directions. Even the air in the entire training room was faintly sloppy.

However, it was this mighty trick, Nanlian’s ice shield was only slightly scratched, and she did not force her to retreat even half a step.

Guan Nuo was shocked. In her imagination, she was far from Nan Lian’s opponent. But this lightning ball can at least explode her ice shield, forcing her to take two steps? Unexpectedly, the gap between the two parties was so big.

In fact, this is Guan Nuo thinking, Nan Lian used a lot of ice pith to wash the pith, and the control of the force of ice has long been different from the ordinary B level that has just been promoted. And recently, he has always spent a lot of resources on special training with Wang Yan, and his strength can be described as rapid progress.

A large number of B-level inner-dan essences are not smashed in vain, nor is Wang Yan’s god-level physique.

Now, even if she fights with Xiao Yanzun at the dinner at that time, I am afraid that she can achieve the same level.

“Not bad,” Nan Lian praised her rarely. “You play this lightning ball empty-handed, catching up with the full blow of ordinary C + superpowers. But your weakness is also obvious. Down should be more work on agile movement. Thunderbolt abilities have always been very fast, you should not weaken the name of the thunderbolt. “

“This storage bracelet will be given to you.” Wang Yan thought about it and returned the storage bracelet to the bureau, that is, several hundred points of merit. I’m used to seeing thousands and thousands of meritorious service points, and this little meritorious value really can’t be ignored. It might as well give Guan Nuo to help her a journey.

As for Liu Lang and Sun Youmiao, they already have it.

Guan Nuo happily took the storage bracelet, looked left and right, and couldn't put it down. This baby needs 500 points of merit. It is not easy for most C-level superpowers to save 500 points of merit. They will not be exchanged for storage bracelets.

“Guan Nuo, in the past two years, you can find Liu Lang, Xiong Xiong, and several other excellent young people in the East China Branch to form a team and brush tasks.” Nan Lian said, “We have to retreat and practice recently, it is difficult to bring You guys are on duty. “

“Sister Nanlian, don't worry, I will work hard.” Guan Nuo put the storage bracelet on his wrist and said excitedly, “We strive to catch up with your sequence early, and everyone will brush the copy together in the future.”

After handling these trivial matters, Wang Yan and others continued to enter the state of cultivation. However, after that, he brought Sun Youmiao, not that Wang Yan was partial to Liu Lang and Guan Nuo. In fact, he has also experimented, but it is a pity that his god-level physique has no effect on Liu Lang. No, to be exact, it is a counterproductive effect.

Under the influence of Wang Yan's pure and pure atmosphere, Liu Lang collapsed directly, so these two goods can only be excluded. As for Guannuo, she is a thunderbolt ability and the most powerful force. The breath conflict with Wang Yan is more intense, and the problem of practicing together is very big.

Out of this situation, Wang Yan also tried it out. Called some people whom the East China Branch knew to practice together and tested the results. Burst bears, leg brothers and all men were excluded. In the end, the test yielded a result. Men are extremely repellent to pure yang.

It's the same reason to think about it. Most men's physique is positive, and the same  repels this is the law of heaven. As for some males whose physique is also negative, the feminine characteristics of this male will be more obvious. So even if Wang Yan thinks about it, he can't bring a personal demon into cultivation?

What's more, the amount of pure Yang's breath he dissipated is also limited, and it is already very good for a few people to practice.

In fact, even if it is a woman, many people cannot practice with Wang Yan. Like Guannuo, those with positive energies can never be cultivated together, nor can many other messy abilities. In the East China Branch, you can get help from Wang Yan, that is, talk about two or three of them, including a female water ability person named Tan Zhenshui, who was seen at the banquet of the National African Bureau Little woman.

However, Wang Yan is just an experiment, and she did not intend to ask her to practice together. The pure pure Yang flavor is limited. She's not too familiar with her ... It's a colleague relationship that is too ordinary to be ordinary.

It is Sun Youmiao, who is extremely adaptable to Wang Yan's pure Yang atmosphere, and the utilization efficiency is even stronger than that of Nan Lian and An Ge.

Sun Youmiao's only shortcoming is to practice exercises. In fact, she didn't do any exercises at all ...

Plant life power is probably a variant of wood power. Therefore, Wang Yan used the authority of the official hall level to search for several wood-based exercises from the treasure trove of the State African Bureau. These exercises are all treasures collected by the State Administration of African Affairs. After practicing, they can enter the A-level master.

This made Wang Yan a big head. These garbages are really inferior to his pure Yang Shengong, and they all have a book that claims to be invincible after being refined. Moreover, the exchange price of each book is around tens of thousands of merits. Fortunately, it can be dismantled and sold layer by layer. The first layer usually only has ten merit points. But even so, it is pitting.

In fact, Wang Yan was wrong. "Pure Yang Divine Skills", this is the world's top-level cultivation method, can reach the SS level directly after practicing to the full level. In the world, it can count the exercises comparable to it, with one hand. Each one is a top-secret material that the top large-scale forces have not passed on. Only a few core members are qualified to practice this level of practice.

Uncle Pao's ability to pass the pure Yang Divine Skill to Wang Yan is already the greatest legacy.

In fact, not to mention pure Yang Divine Skills, even the exercises that can be practiced to the S level are still the secret of a great force. Even if you go to a teacher to learn art, people will not tell you, that is for the core members. It can be seen from this that the A-level cheats are indeed not a big deal.

Wang Yan said that those A-level cheats are rubbish, purely because the starting point is too high, and standing without talking back pain.

In this case, Wang Yan called Uncle Gun's phone.

"Stinky boy, the teacher does not want to hear from you." Uncle Cannon's voice sounded a bit vicissitudes and grievances.

But then, there was a cheer from the master lady: "Cao Dagong, how did you talk to Xiao Yan? You are such a big person, how come you don't even know how to be a teacher?"

The little sister also said on the side: "That's just, how good is Xiao Yan's apprentice. Husband brother, if you say this to him, people will be angry."

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 323

"Uh ... baby apprentice, Xiao Yan, what's the matter of looking for a teacher?" Uncle Cannon's voice on the end of the phone softened a lot, full of warm care.

After hearing this, Wang Yan could completely imagine Uncle Gun's expression. Sure enough, being a man must clear the situation and know who is the boss in the family and who is the one who really decides.

Otherwise, once you stand in the wrong team, you will fall into a point of nowhere.

Wang Yan quickly reported the situation of Sun Youmiao and Uncle Gun, and then added: "Uncle Gun, that Sun Youmiao is the daughter of the martyr Sun Shu. He sacrificed his life for our National Bureau of African Affairs, and he had to give his descendants to come. Do you want to compensate? Otherwise, you can just throw away a wooden cheats that can be trained to SS level. "

"puff!"

Uncle Gun spouted an old blood on the phone and said helplessly: “Good apprentice, do you think the SS-level cheats are cabbages on the street? Just pick and choose? Don’t say SS-level, even S-level It’s hard to find. “

“Uncle Cannon, aren’t you?” Wang Yan said with a shocked expression, “We are so rich in the intangible cultural heritage of China, can’t we find an S-class inheritance of the wood department?”

“Of course there are inheritances.” Uncle Pao took a deep breath and said, “I remember Changchun Valley is the S-level inheritance of the wood system, but they have never closed their doors, just asking for longevity regardless of life. Let’s talk about their valley owner himself I have n’t practiced to the S level yet, the blame is now being cut and cut seriously, so there is a lot of natural energy between the wood and the world. By the way, their valley owner is protesting at the headquarters of the State African Bureau ... Would you like me to contact me? , Let the seedlings worship under the gate of Changchun Valley? “

Wang Yanhanran, is there such a school? What kind of wood-based exercises is that? It depends on absorbing the energy dissipated by trees to practice? No wonder he refused to be born and like to live in seclusion in the deep forest.

Besides, what did the Shanghai National African Bureau protest? The SAA doesn’t care about cutting down trees ... it must be the Forestry Bureau.

If so, this inheritance is not learnable. Sun Youmiao is going to study and live in a big city. It is not a matter of digging deep into the old forest all day long.

Furthermore, if you only ask for longevity regardless of your life, you will be too selfish and selfish. He doesn’t want Sun Youmiao to become the kind of person who arrogantly seeks longevity.

Wang Yan sighed and said, “That Changchun Valley is boring.”

“Oh, you didn’t choose them right.” Uncle Cannon responded with a smile. “The so-called Changchun Kung Fu is to take away the essence of plants and trees to moisturize your own cells and slow down your metabolism. The combat effectiveness of that kung fu is just a scum. There are two advantages. Living long, people are not easy to grow old. “

Without fighting power, what is the difference between living long and a turtle? Wang Yan was determined to rule out that inheritance.

“Uncle Gun, are there any other S-level exercises inherited?” Wang Yan has already retired, and the SS-level is not extravagant, so first ask for an S-level.

“It’s gone.” Uncle Pao replied, “There have been in history, but because of the havoc and changes, there are few domestic S-level exercises, and only the Changchun Valley family specializes in wood.”

At this time, the little teacher said on the phone: “Xiao Yan, I heard that there is a heritage that seems to be very suitable for your little girlfriend.”

Little girlfriend? What a joke.

It’s just that the exercises are ahead, and Wang Yan has no time to explain. He quickly asked, “Little Master, speed.”

“The inheritance is relatively unpopular. You may not have heard of it. It’s called the Druid. Two thousand years ago, the Druid sect once flourished in Europe, but it was later exterminated as a heretic by the Bright Church.” Said, “But in recent years, it seems to have revived again.”

Uh, Druid? Druid?

Madam Xiao, are you teasing me? Xiaode is so famous, how come I have never heard of it? Wang Yan’s eyes widened and said, “Little Dirty, Druid is good. Not only does he understand spells, he can also fight against milk, he is an all-rounder.”

“Aren’t you famous? This sect was destroyed by the Bright Holy See very early. But the druid is very powerful. It is indeed quite powerful.” The little teacher is also slightly surprised. Ordinary people should not know the druid long ago. She also understood that period of history because of the history of the blood race.

In fact, the druid is so famous that it must be given by the game company. Otherwise, under the blockade of the news of the Bright Holy See, if you do n’t go deep into the history, few people will know the Druid.

Wang Yan 's little teacher is an advanced blood race. There are many entertainments for eating, drinking, and playing. How can you have time to play games?

However, Wang Yan was very thrilled with the druid. The earliest druid refers to the forest goddess, and later refers to the sacrifice of the natural sect. But no matter what, this should be a very powerful inheritance.

“Little Sister, can we get Xiaode’s inheritance?” Wang Yan asked with concern, no matter how good the inheritance is, if he can’t get it, it’s a futile effort.

“Information shows that now in Europe and North America, the Druid sect is beginning to flourish again,” said the little teacher. “Our dark council has also sent people to contact them, and they have joined the dark council to deal with the light church. The Druid sect does not give a face. The intention is to be neutral between the light church and the dark council. Ha ha ... “

What does hehe mean?

Wang Yan asked with concern: “Young Master, if you want to get the Druid heritage, will you not want Miao Miao to join the Druid sect?”

“Of course not.” The little teacher said with a sneer on the phone, “Since they don’t give face, they chant. A resurgent sect still dares to be so aggressive, it is really unclear the situation. What is the Druid inheritance? Yes, the young lady is responsible for snatching it for you, and will not lose your little girlfriend. “

Hiss ~

Wang Yan took a breath of air, and the temperament of the little maid was too pretentious? It 's not good to grab people 's heritage.

“Sisi ~~ It’s not good to do this.” Uncle Gun was rushing to grab the phone over the phone. “The New Druid sect always upholds the responsibility of loving nature and maintaining the earth’s environment. Even the Holy See, It does n’t mean to kill people again. Furthermore, the inheritance of the New Druid sect is not perfect, and many key inheritances are missing. Even if it is obtained, what is the difference with some A-level inheritances? “

After a pause, Uncle Gun said over the phone: “Xiao Yan, the druid inheritance is indeed good. They are also studying plant life energy, which is more suitable for your little girlfriend than ordinary wood-based exercises.”

Not a little girlfriend ...

“As I mentioned it, I remembered it. In fact, there is a complete inheritance of the Druid in the Bright Holy See.” Uncle Gun said.

“Guangming Holy See?” Wang Yan’s eyes lit up, which is highly likely. After all, it was for granted that the Bright Holy See destroyed the sect of others and collected the complete inheritance of others as loot.

Therefore, Wang Yan said excitedly: “Uncle Pao, you were a guest in the Holy Land of Sanctuary some time ago, you should be familiar with the Pope’s crown? Or else, you old man came forward and talked to the Pope’s crown, we want How about a complete druid inheritance? Uncle Cannon, Miao Miao is the daughter of the Martyrs, you can’t afford to be busy. “

“Talk about your head.” Uncle Gun said angrily on the other end of the phone. “I originally stayed well in the Holy Land. Once you sold out, things went wrong, and I was blown out of the Holy Land by the Pope. You said Where can I go back to talk about this? This matter, you can solve it yourself, as a teacher can’t help you. “

“Cao Cannon, how did you talk to Xiao Yan?” The concubine Linghu Yaofei began to hold her back, and her voice was cold and angry, “Don’t pour dirty water on Xiao Yan all day long. You do it yourself What a good thing, why was it popped away by the pope, you know it yourself. “

After scolding Uncle Pao, Princess Linghu Yao took the phone and said softly to Wang Yan: “Xiao Yan, your master is now in conflict with the Holy See. Everyone is on the head of the fire, he will only help more and more. Busy. So, let your young girlfriend practice other inheritances first. After a year and a half, both sides calm down and talk about this matter again. “

Master Master said so, of course Wang Yan could only listen, nodded and said: “Sister Master, this matter is actually not in a hurry. You are clever and wise and well-informed, please help recommend a class A heritage.”

As for the words of the little girlfriend, Wang Yan is too lazy to vomit.

Linghu Yaofei thought about it and said, “I know all those A-level wood heritages, but they don’t seem to be suitable for your young girlfriend. It’s still the best for” Changchun Xian Jue “, it’s cultivated Spirituality is pure and pure, and has the least characteristics. It will not be too troublesome to repair the Druid inheritance. Then, the teacher will call Changchun Valley and give you the master outline of the exercises and the fine outline of the first four layers. go with.”

Wang Yan was a little shocked. The sister-in-law prepared a phone call to make people obediently pass on the inheritance? Although it is only half, it is estimated that people in Changchun Valley will not be willing?

Thinking about it, he raised this worry on the phone.

Then Linghu Yaofei sneered: “Refused? Ha ha ...”

Wang Yan’s heart shook, and the grandmother’s huh, he seemed murderous.

“The people in the Changchun Valley, the old lady has long been dissatisfied, and only knows to seek longevity all day long. Even the country is at the forefront, and they don’t care about the national catastrophe.” Linghu Yaofei showed a hint of lethality. The hard work of the non-bureau has protected the land of China and it has indirectly protected the Changchun Valley. They will not help to contribute, so the protection fee is always required? Xiao Yan, do n’t worry, if they refuse, the old lady will commit suicide. Go and get the complete “Changchun Fairy Tale”. “

For a time, Linghu Yaofei’s anger was spread from the phone to Wang Yan.

Wang Yan took a breath of air. It seemed that the two teachers and sisters were really domineering, and the temper was very explosive. There is an old lady who is unhappy and will destroy your posture.

The little teacher is powerful and the master is powerful! Sure enough, the team of teachers and ladies stood right.

But this master lady really can do it. Think about it, an original S-class inheritance sect, and even no S-class people in the end, it really seems to be nothing good.

This is different from the mysterious corpse of the corpses. Although the corpse of the corpses is a sect on the surface, it has always been desperate to fight against external humiliation. The old golden corpses battled the battlefield, and the brothers of the corpses were displaced. And Changchun Valley, hasn't asked the world forever, shrinking to practice in the deep forest and old forest?

Moreover, the momentum seems to be very weak. In order to cut things down, he even went to the headquarters of the National African Bureau to protest. This temper makes people speechless ...

“Yao Fei, although Changchun Valley is boring, it has never been evil. Everyone is a Chinese compatriot. This inheritance is always unreasonable.” Uncle Gun said carefully and laughed, “Others will say that our Yanzun couple is bullying. To bully the small. It is better to let Miao Miao hang the name of a disciple so that everyone can pass the face. “

“Cao Cannon, if you maintain Changchun Valley in this way, wouldn't you have hooked up with a certain female disciple in a certain Changchun Valley?” Linghu Yaofei's voice revealed doubts and dissatisfaction, “The old lady heard that those in Changchun Valley Sisters, because of the cultivation method, they look very tender and tender. “

“This is not firm. I don't have any feelings for Changchun Valley.” Uncle Cannon's voice was powerful and straightforward, but he was not at all guilty.

“Well, I believe you once. In short, you can let the old lady discover what is wrong, don't blame the old lady for being cruel, and make you inhumane forever.” Linghu Yaofei's voice was full of sadness.

“No, no, my heart can be seen in the sky and the sun and the moon.”

Wang Yan deliberately pretended to be silly on the phone and asked, “Master, what is inhumane?”

“Fuck you stupid boy ~ Oh, right, I'm wrong, maiden, lighter, lighter.” Uncle Gun's voice sounded miserable, and then said softly and caringly, “Good apprentice, nothing is a teacher It 's time to listen to the teachings of the teacher and the mother. When the teacher is not by your side, remember to work hard ... toot ~ “

Wang Yan hung up with a cry of laughter, and then entered the training session. As the practice time increases, the higher the level of promotion, the more Wang Yan feels insignificant.

Especially last time, when flying in the sky over the South China Sea, with the wings of the bat king, it could only fly to half the height of the stratosphere. This makes him feel that human beings are weak in front of nature like a baby who is wailing.

A few days later, Director Feng sent a jade slip to him. This contains the general outline of “Changchun Fairy Tale” and the first four layers of cultivation methods. It is an immortal tactic, but in fact this practice has only seven levels, and if you practice to the top, you can become a terrestrial god.

As for the completion of the first four levels of cultivation, that is, the way to reach the top of the B level. Moreover, Changchun Valley seemed to be very upset by the “coercion” of accepting the named disciple. The elder who sent the cheats didn’t even see the so-called named disciple Sun Xiaomiao at first sight.

And this jade slip is a one-time consumption item, that is, it can only be passed to one person.

But this is also just right. Wang Yan didn’t want Sun Youmiao to be involved with them, so as not to be brainwashed. Wang Yan used this jade slip as a compensation for Sun Youmiao from the State African Bureau.

With “Changchun Xian Jue”, Sun Youmiao can finally practice systematically. The first four layers of exercises are enough for her to use for years.

In this way, day after day, month after month.

Time hastily passed by half a year.

The season of Huahai City has entered the hot summer. Unconsciously, Wang Yan has been in the National African Affairs Bureau for a full year.

Especially in the past six months, with many resources, he has been semi-closed to practice.

In fact, after that national war, FBG was honest on the surface. The world of superpowers seems to have entered a delicate state. Everyone seems to have converged their teeth, and entered the stage of humiliation.

In China, the country is also calm, and only a few small fish and shrimp jump out to make waves.

Over the past six months, dozens of abnormal events have occurred in East China. This data has dropped by about 30% year-on-year, and most of them are E-level and D-level pediatric events.

Unusual events that can reach C-level difficulty are only three. Several young C-class superpowers in the East China Branch wanted to be positive and broke their heads. The previous commitment to the task was not too focused, not only grabbed five or six D-level tasks, but also actively participated in two C-level tasks, and the gains are not small.

After repeated experience, she has matured a lot.

Liu Lang was also fooling around and participated in many tasks. With two powerful armored corps, he can fight and resist, and he can also support him remotely, which is very popular among the younger generation.

With his own efforts, he is actively climbing to the C-level superpowers. And it seems that it won't take long, there will be a chance to advance to the C level.

In fact, it is not difficult for a superpower to advance to C level. Under normal circumstances, any superpower will have a chance to advance to C level. What's more, Liu Lang's backstage is tough and resourceful.

It is difficult for a superpower to advance to a B level at a C level. This is a huge watershed, and countless people have no chance to cross it in their lifetime.

In fact, this kind of task rhythm is the normal state of the SAFE. There are so many abnormal incidents all over the country. Only occasionally do some special events continue to erupt, and that is usually accompanied by some major events.

Nowadays, all powers of various countries are superbly dormant. What should everyone do, the world is naturally peaceful.

Therefore, in the past six months, Wang Yan and others did not make any assignments. As a B-level master, especially in the absence of resources, it is naturally impossible to rob low-level tasks with a group of C-level superpowers.

Otherwise, do n't say that C-level colleagues will not agree, even Director Feng will not agree.

This day.

Wang Yan came back from the State African Bureau and took a shower.

It was mid-summer, and there was a chattering cicada outside. He wore a T-shirt and big pants with his gloves, basking in the sun on the balcony, reading and absorbing knowledge.

Compared to half a year ago, the corners on Wang Yan's face seemed rounded. The original sharp eyes also became glorious and restrained, and did not seem to have the temperament of a master, just like a handsome and handsome guy.

In addition, Wang Yan's family has changed a lot since half a year ago.

At that time, there were some potted climbing plants in the house, but they were all used for embellishment. But now, the home is a plant kingdom, no, to be exact, a monster kingdom.

For example, the wicker chair where Wang Yan lay half-read is really a "wicker" chair. Two thick vines are hung on the top of the balcony with an expansion screw hook, and a hanging chair made of vines is hanging underneath.

Unlike ordinary wicker chairs, it is alive. The cane is green and thick, and the leaves are thick and lush. Not only does it compile itself, it can also adjust its posture at any time according to the needs of its owner.

Sitting on it is also very comfortable. The coolness of the plants keeps getting into the body, which makes people extremely cool.

And it's a little smart, and can do some simple interactions. For example, Wang Yan holding a glass of beer in his hand is definitely inconvenient. It can stick out a vine rhizome to help you hold the beer glass.

You can even communicate with it mentally and let it feed you a beer.

Such wonderfully clever vines are of course Sun Xiaomiao's masterpieces. This little girl is extremely talented in the creativity of plant life abilities. In fact, the entire vine, that is, a main stem, spreads at home.

This replaces the function of many furniture at home, such as a wardrobe, what clothes do you want to wear, as long as it communicates with it mentally, it will help you with vine tentacles.

Clothes can be thrown away at home, and vine tentacles will help put away the clothes and wash them in the washing machine.

So, at home, this green vine is already like an all-round housekeeper, and handles a lot of things easily. And its main rhizome is far from the Xianghu Lake downstairs.

In addition to vines, there are various plants in the house. Many flowers that do not bloom in summer grow very vigorously at home, which is really beautiful.

Especially the two peony flowers with one person tall, full bloom, one red and one white, the intoxicating fragrance makes people feel relaxed and happy.

Everyone in Luocheng loves peonies, and Sun Youmiao is no exception since childhood. These two peonies are the best peonies that Sun Youmiao spent a lot of money in her hometown. They are over a hundred years old, and they have some spirituality. After Sun Young seedlings are continuously irrigated with plant life abilities, they are extremely extraordinary, with thick rhizomes, leaves carved like tourmaline, and each petal is carved like white jade or ruby, crystal clear and very beautiful.

It is extremely rare that Sun seedlings did not use abilities to modify their genetic nature, but only moisturize and cultivate them. In her words, she wanted to train two peony fairies to be maids for her uncle. They can help their uncle do the laundry and cook, waiting for life.

The child is filial.

It's a pity that it's hard to know how many times it is more difficult to become a vegetative creature than a flesh and blood life. Even if Miao Miao accelerated their growth by a large margin, it took not a few hundred years for Kung Fu to become an adult.

By the time these two peony maids were born, I am afraid they would have been a loess. But then again, Chunyang has a certain connection with Peony Fairy.

Although Lu Zu's three plays with white peonies are mythological stories, who can be sure what the real thing is like?

There was a sound of key opening outside the door.

Wang Yan does not have to look back, he knows who is back.

“Uncle ~” Sun Youmiao came back from the house and was so hot and sweaty that she directed the vine to grab a drink and sat next to Wang Yan, fanning the wind and said, “Uncle, I want your sweet and sour tonight dinner Mandarin fish. I am used to the dishes made by my uncle, and the food in the restaurant outside is not tasty at all.

If it were really the 18th National Women's Congress change, it took only half a year for Kung Fu to change Sun Xiaomiao. Compared to the slightly thin body half a year ago, it is now a big girl with water spirits.

Uncle Pao said that “Changchun Xian Jue” can moisturize the skin and prolong life. This effect is indeed very powerful. With its own strength and evolution, and the particularity of the Changchun Immortal Formula, this grandmother’s skin has turned her skin white and rosy like a peach, delicate and tender, and can be broken by blowing.

For men, this undoubtedly has a very fatal appeal.

At this point, Sister Nanlian and Sister An Ge were slightly jealous. If it’s not that the attributes of the exercises are different, they really want to practice “Changchun Xian Jue”. Of course, it’s not that they are not beautiful, just that as women, they have a natural and persistent pursuit of more beauty.

Wang Yan closed the book and smiled and said, “You girl, if you want to eat, why don’t you find so many excuses? At your age, you should go to school and have fun with your classmates and friends. If you have a decent male student, you can try to fall in love. When you get old, you will find that you have experienced a lot of things you should have experienced in your life. You have never experienced it and regret it. “

Wang Yan is the kind of person who has to go through experience, whether it is a success or a failure. Study at the time of learning, play at the time of playing, and fall in love when youth is in love. These are precious life experiences, and sweet and sour memories in later life.

Don’t get married and have children, only to find that you are not crazy for love and rebellious. At that time, if you want to go crazy, the price you pay is unimaginable.

The various experiences from the beginning of love affair to the present make Wang Yan feel that he has matured a lot, and he seems to have an illusion like the next world.

“Uncle ~ You are also a handsome young guy. In the eyes of Aunt Nanlian and Aunt Ange, are you still a little fresh meat, can we not be so old-fashioned and heavy-weight?” Sun Youmiao is a lot more cheerful and lively than he was at the beginning. He smiled and said, “If there are male gods who are as handsome, cool and meaningful as uncles in my classmates and friends, I would n’t mind having a relationship. The key is not there ~ Otherwise, I ’ll finish the youth The transformation of the astringent girl. “

“Snapped!”

Wang Yan angrily rewarded her with a chestnut, got up and walked to the kitchen and said: “You heard this from An Ge, and she will say that you are not learning well at a young age, so you are just making a fuss.”

“Uncle, you’re too polite to say this.” Sun Youmiao followed with a hippie smile, learning Ange’s words, “You little hooves, young, but learn to seduce men? Don’t mess with this Grandma, I will push you back to your hometown of Luocheng to farm. “

Wang Yan smiled and said with a smile: “This dead girl, but learns a lot.” Watching Sun Youmiao is more and more cheerful, and getting along with everyone is getting more and more integrated, obviously coming out of the psychological shadow. Therefore, he is still very happy to be an uncle.

But the girls are more cheerful, and they will become more eccentric, and everyone will often play together.

As Wang Yan’s mental strength moved, the vine felt what he meant. Downstairs by the Xianghu Lake, a tentacle reached into the lake and stirred. In a few moments, a huge hairy crab got out of the water, and two mighty big pliers caught a big mandarin fish weighing three to four pounds.

The vine was also honest, and caught the big mandarin fish and slid it all the way up into the kitchen on the fifth floor. Flicking, the strong mandarin fish was jumping in the pool constantly.

Everything is fully automated.

The hairy crab is of course the one raised by Wang Yan. As a kind of animal, the river crab can grow up to this point is also very difficult. Wang Yan also wanted to see where its growth limit lies.

Therefore, from time to time, Wang Yan also fed some diluted Nedan essence to it. No, this hairy crab is now another round, the armor is as bright as iron, and the pliers are majestic.

At the same time, Wang Yan’s brother Li Hualong also sent people to send some fresh lake specialty lake fresh from time to time. They are all kinds of larger fish, shrimp and crab in the lake.

When you want to eat, just grab an order.

It's just that there are more and more fish in this fragrant lake. It has attracted the attention of some people, and occasionally there will be a few fishing. Even afterwards, it spread more and more, and some people even came to catch the fish.

Wang Yan didn't care about it, but did the hairy crabs care? For it, this Xianghu is its site. Everything that enters the lake is the private property of its mighty general.

It doesn't matter if the owner wants to eat, the pair of pliers is served. But those cats and dogs who steal chickens and dogs want to take advantage? You are the decoration of this mighty general. For fishing, inline short line.

Those who put the net, drag directly into the water, let the hairy crab harem girls collectively serve with large pliers.

After a few troubles, the outside world rumored that there was a monster in this Xianghu Lake. The community security no matter what, the police station received a report, but only came to wander around. Over time, it was really letting the fishing net go, and it didn't dare to make it. It doesn't matter if the residents in the community play by the lake, as long as they don't go to the lake to catch aquatic products, they can watch the big fish jumping around at will.

The lake is rich in fish and shrimps, and the egrets have increased. In addition to a little egret with a wingspan of 30 to 40 centimeters, there are several great egrets with a wingspan of one meter standing in the lake. House prices in this community have climbed a little bit.

Putting aside the gossip, Wang Yan picked up the mandarin fish in a sophisticated manner. Busy in the kitchen, not only can satisfy the pursuit of food, but also self-cultivation, enriching the fun of life. Otherwise, if you are blindly practicing, what are you going to do in the city? Find a retreat in an old forest in the mountains early.

Whether it's Lu Zu's experience, or Uncle Gun's words and lessons, it's definitely a stupid thing to avoid the world.

So Wang Yan not only pursues the pleasures of life, but also goes out to sing and sing with colleagues, eat snacks, and even play mahjong. Even Lu Lu Lu, who hasn't played for a long time, was picked up by him and started again. As a result, in the Lu Lu Lu world, an immortal legend was left.

In the process of Wang Yan picking up the fish, Sun Youmiao also helped her with her sleeves. She mainly made some fruits and vegetables. Don't underestimate these fruits and vegetables, but they are all good things she made in the plantation field that her unit opened for her. For example, these tomatoes are the same size as small watermelons, with thin skin and juicy, sweet and sour.

For example, each of these cucumbers has Wang Yan's arm thickness. But after taking a bite, it was crispy and tender, such as eating fairy fruits.

Therefore, the fruits and vegetables she cultivated are very popular in the unit, and the most indispensable unit of the National African Bureau is the local tyrant. So this little Nizi's pockets also swelled up more and more. It is a pity that these fruits and vegetables must be planted and raised by her own hands, and continuously irrigated with plant life abilities, the output is very limited.

But precisely because of limited production, prices have been rising, and sold to a price that ordinary people can't talk about.

Moreover, she also has an in-depth understanding of plant genes through her talents for abilities. A rice variety was developed by self-cultivation, because it is not a variety that is caused by the ability to induce gene mutation, but an excellent seed that has been selected by artificial natural. This kind of rice is not magical, it is simply full of grains, easy to grow, and less dependent on nitrogen fertilizer.

But even so, this is the super news of the grain industry. Once invested in the grain market, it is a good thing for the country and the people. In fact, many people do not know that many grains and vegetables in our country are controlled by foreign companies.

This is equivalent to pinching your lifeline in the hands of others. One day when you are unhappy, you will not be able to buy seeds.

So naturally, Sun Youmiao has changed from an ordinary power to a strategic power. The people take food as the sky, even if they can increase the grain yield by 1%, it is a great achievement.

From this, the seed breeding task of Miao Miao and her little aunt was identified as completing an A-level task, and the merits were earned.

This makes Wang Yan feel a little jealous. If he was awakened by the plant life power, he wouldn't have to work so hard everywhere. It's really not easy to earn some merit for combat abilities.

There were fish, meat and vegetables, and soon a table was filled.

Nan Lian and Wu Ya Ange went upstairs to eat rice on time.

The four people gathered around a table, sipped some wine, and began to enjoy life. As for Guan Nuo and Liu Lang, they seem to be running out of their busy tasks again, just to save two sets of tableware.

Almost at the same time.

At the top of the snowy mountain that hasn't changed for years.

A quaint courtyard blessed by a large formation and invisible to ordinary people.

It looks like a big squirrel, and the meticulously dressed Daxueshan Marten King is carrying a one-handed scolding a plush little ferret: "Cough, you little conscience. Grandpa more than six months ago Sniping FBG, a fierce battle with the Sirius Sirius, after both defeats, the injury has not yet healed, you really have the heart to throw the grandfather home, and run to accompany your little love? If you want to go, you have to let the grandfather Let's go after your injury is over? "

"Squeaky." The little ferret's eyes were extremely agile, and a series of squeaky squeaks were sounded, and gestures were made. It seems to be saying, Grandpa, you lie, your injuries will be cured tomorrow morning. If Xiaoxue wouldn't go back, the eldest brother would be buried by the fox elves and girls.

"Cough cough." Daxueshan sable king's lie was pierced, and his old face could not help but faintly red. "Grandpa, this is also for your own good, since the ancient demon clan and humans have not ended well."

"Squeak ~" Little Ferret glanced at his eyes and quickly gave an example.

“Yao Fei was also fooled by the guy.” Wang Diao said with a beard, “Furthermore, your little one hasn’t even been transformed ...”

“puff!”

A white light flashed over the little ferret, and the image began to change.

“What !?” Daxueshan Diaowang’s eyes burst into shock, and he said in surprise, “You turned out, right or wrong, this is ... you stole the forbidden fruit of Houshan?”

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 326

Under the horrified eyes of the Great Snow Mountain Ferret King, the image of Little Ferret is constantly changing. The fluffy claws lost their hair and turned into a pair of fat and white arms. The back two legs are turning into human girl’s legs at a speed visible to the naked eye.

Soon, she was transformed, from a little ferret to a little girl.

The little girl’s face was plump and tender, her eyebrows were curvy, and her eyelashes were long. A pair of  eyes are moist and moist, and blinking is very beautiful and cute. But her ears were still pointed, and a long, fluffy tail grew behind her ass.

“Squeaky.” The little girl obviously couldn’t speak people yet, and at the beginning it was crisp squeaky. But her eyes were extremely vivid, and she nodded shyly.

“Crack!” Daxueshan sable king patted his forehead and sighed, “I’ve been in Daxueshan for a long time, and it has always been extremely difficult to transform. Grandpa changed it from you to a forbidden fruit in the light of the Holy See for you I want to wait for you to take it when you are three hundred years old. You are good, you are just over one hundred years old, you can’t wait to eat the forbidden fruit. “

The blood vessels of the family of the Diaowang in Daxueshan are very old and powerful, and live a thousand or two thousand young and relaxed. But the power of blood vessels also imprisoned their ability to transform. Their so-called three hundred years old, which is equivalent to the sixteen or seventeen years of humanity.

Converted in this way, now the little ferret is only about the same age as the human five or six year old girl. Of course, Xiao Xue has lived for more than a hundred years, and his IQ has at least the appearance of a human teenager.

“Squeak ~” The little girl sat on the ground in a shameless manner and responded with a few expressions. The general idea is that when Miss Ben reaches 300 years old, the daylily is cold. The eldest brother had already given the group of Yingying Yanyan’s demon girls, and they gnawed no scum left. Xiaoxue steals the ban fruit and transforms it to protect the rights and interests of the big house from infringement.

The advantages of big rooms? Haha, she doesn’t look at herself. How do you protect the rights and interests of the big house with the appearance of the five or six-year-old fat Dudu Xiaomeng girl?

“Forget it, since you have eaten the forbidden fruit, it doesn’t make sense to blame you anymore.” Daxueshan Diaowang said with a long sigh, “but you need to be mentally prepared. After you take the forbidden fruit, your body grows Big speed will become slower. Without five or six hundred years, you would like to grow into a slim and big girl. Although human beings cultivate fast and have unlimited potential, life expectancy is always a limitation. When they reach the level of land fairy, they can live two hundred Years are considered longevity. I’m afraid that the stink boy can’t wait for the day you grow up. “

“Squeak ~” The little girl’s eyes dizzy and she was trembling, apparently not thinking about it.

“It doesn’t matter,” said the majestic snorting king of Daxue Mountain. “Since the granddaughter of this king has fallen in love with the stinky boy, regardless of whether it’s out of time, let’s handle this family matter first. Xiaoxue, do you want it? ? “

“Squeak ~” The little girl nodded quickly like a peck of rice.

Wang Yan, who is still in Huahai City, was expected to be forced to marry a little girl. After dinner, he and the unit’s Hupeng dog friends went out to eat supper, drink and sing a K and went home.

Then the custom sacrificed some artifact warhammer.

This artifact warhammer, after seven months of Wang Yan's warm cultivation sacrifice, the color has obviously changed. It looks crimson in appearance, but it is as gentle and delicate as ruby. Indistinctly, there was a burst of flame-like light.

He grabbed the warhammer and gently slammed it upwards. The red warhammer weighing 300 kilograms flew to a height of more than two meters, and then slowly fell like a soft feather.

Wang Yan slammed the hammer handle, a sense of blood connected to the body from the Warhammer. Indistinctly, Wang Yan can feel the energy rhythm like the heart beat inside it.

He injects a pure yang of true energy, and there is a trace of joy and excitement in the Warhammer, and then it flames up.

Wang Yan waved it with a hammer, light as nothing. The warhammer roared in the air, drawing an arc of flame, and the space was smashed and distorted by that barbaric power.

This is the result of Wang Yan's seven months of using Warhammer as a natal flying hammer sacrifice. The absolute quality of the Warhammer has not changed, but the relative quality is getting lighter. Holding it in your hand, it's almost as if it's weightless now.

I believe it will not be long before it will be suspended in the air by itself.

Although it cannot be used as a flying hammer for the time being, the power in Wang Yan's hands has multiplied. With almost no weight, Wang Yan waved faster and consumed less. Relatively, the power is stronger.

Another night of sacrifice.

At eight o'clock in the morning, Wang Yan got up and washed up.

Today, I do n't plan to go to the unit training room with Nan Lian and An Ge. After these seven months of intensive hard work, the resources on hand of the three have already been consumed. And Wang Yan has already practiced to a seemingly a bottleneck, and cultivation is stuck in the peak state of the fourth floor of the pure Yang Divine Skill.

According to the research of modern cultivation theory, Wang Yan's current strength belongs to B + level. If he wants to make a breakthrough, he must comprehend the power of the law of heaven. But understanding this kind of thing is the most mysterious and mysterious thing.

Everyone's perception is different, and everyone's experience is different. Therefore, even in the cheats of pure Yang Shen Gong, there is no clear step-by-step procedure on how to understand the laws of heaven and earth.

The power of the heaven and earth law is different from the realm. The so-called realm is just a simple use of the heaven and earth law. The true laws of heaven and earth represent the most basic principles of the universe's operation.

Calling Uncle Gun for advice, Uncle Gun's suggestion for this is to go out and walk more, accumulate more life, and feel the world more, maybe one day you will be enlightened. Of course, because he is practicing the fire department, he may feel inspired in more places related to flames.

This made Wang Yan speechless. Fortunately, he also knew that comprehending the laws of heaven and earth was a huge level, only to know that this was not the intentional embarrassment of Uncle Cannon. This level, the past is the sea and the sky, the past is not the mediocrity of a lifetime.

The difficulty of comprehending it is ten times more difficult than comprehension. Even since ancient times, many people have been stuck at this level and cannot get in.

And the predecessors could not say more, because they said more, for fear of misleading. Once it is led astray, the trouble becomes great.

Isn't it just more experience? Isn't it just a lot of insights into life? Since it's purely fortune, Wang Yan decided to take a trip to go.

This trip has been discussed with Nanlian and Ange last night. The three separated, and each realized their own world. Because everyone has different attributes, the perception of heaven and earth is also very different. Walking together will instead form mutual interference.

Of course, Nanlian and Ange have not yet reached the B + level. Therefore, they are traveling while practicing, without delay. This is not their poor qualifications. In fact, it was only afterwards that

Wang Yan really understood that they were not only of poor qualifications but also extremely excellent.

The reason is simple. The two of them are not pure human beings, but a combination of alien life and human beings. The majority of life on earth has a natural life expectancy far greater than that of humans. For example, blood race, demon race and so on. The lifespan of a blood race is generally between two and three hundred years old. When it is about one hundred years old, it is still a young age. If he can be promoted to B level at that time, it is already considered very qualified.

The demon race is even more outrageous. A demon has been lucky to live for hundreds of years, and can be promoted to B level slowly. The way they practice and evolve is completely different from humans.

The bloodline gives them a long life and special strength, and also restrains their speed of becoming stronger. This is probably a balance law of the universe, heaven and earth. Humans are very weak and have a short life span, but their reproduction ability, potential, and evolution are the fastest.

Wang Yan casually brought several clothes and put them in the storage bracelet. By the way, he left a letter to Sun Youmiao, and did not say goodbye to her, but was afraid that she would follow. It doesn't matter if she follows Wang Yan, but the General Administration will definitely want him immediately.

Just kidding, who dares to take a national treasure all over the world to sway? To be honest, in the words of Director General Han, he would rather his old man die than Sun Youmiao. This girl's power is really useful, but it is a legendary strategic power.

Wang Yan flew down from the balcony, a pair of bat king wings raised high, and fluttered straight into the sky. Straight all the way to tens of thousands of meters, the body entered the stratosphere.

Huahai City is in the midsummer, and the surface temperature has reached the point of extreme heat under the dual action of the global warming trend and the heat island effect. In this high altitude of 10,000 meters above sea level, the temperature dropped to minus 50 degrees Celsius.

A thin layer of white frost had covered Wang Yan's wings. His pure yang turned around, and the scorching breath melted the frost, evaporating a white mist.

He took out his super phone, dialed Uncle Gun's phone, and smiled and said, "Uncle Gun, I went out to hang out for a while, looking for opportunities to comprehend the laws of heaven."

“Well, that’s good. It’s not too deliberate to comprehend the laws of heaven and earth. Follow your heart, follow your heart, and try to get as close as possible to nature.” Uncle Cannon responded with a smile.

The master lady Linghu Yaofei said aside: “Xiao Yan, remember to come back before the end of the year. This year your uncle Pao has passed his 90th birthday, and his family will get together to eat noodles.”

Ninety years old, Wang Yan’s mouth twitched slightly. When I think of Uncle Gun’s slightly vicissuous middle-aged uncle, I always feel a sense of disobedience. Unexpectedly, Uncle Gun is ninety years old.

However, it is normal to think about it. Uncle Pao experienced the devil’s slaughter in Tucheng when he was young. At that time, he was rescued by the teacher and became a heir to Chunyang.

“What’s so good about life at ninety?” Uncle Cannon mumbled.

“Cao Cannon, the old lady is reminding you, let me stop a lot when I am old.”

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 327

It started again.

Wang Yan chuckled and hung up. To say that this super phone is easy to use, resistant to high temperatures and low temperatures. Not dependent on base stations, global satellite communications.

His bat king’s wings fluttered and flew towards the South China Sea like a galloping bird.

Now Wang Yan has reached the B + level, pure Yang is full of energy. When flying, if the speed of the burst comes, it can reach three or four hundred kilometers in a short time. But if you want to cruise a long distance, it is most cost-effective to maintain a speed of 200 kilometers per hour.

In this way, his consumption is slightly greater than the recovery, which can support the long flight path.

In the stratosphere above 10,000 meters, the air flow is stable. Although the air is thin but very clean, the sky is as pure as sapphire and the sun is golden. Below is the atmospheric troposphere, where clouds and fog are constantly changing.

In the case of high visibility, you can see the sea, land and mountains. Wang Yan 's vision is extraordinary, even if it is 10,000 meters away, he can easily see the fishing boats on the sea and the cars on the road network in the mountains and rivers.

But at this height, those cars are as young as ants. Even those houses are like toys built from matchboxes.

Viewing things from different angles will have different results. Overlooking the earth, mountains, and sea, there is a different sense of magnificence.

Wang Yan's flight took off from sunset to sunset.

In the evening, some exhausted Wang Yan landed in the city and found a hotel to rest for one night, then went straight to the South China Sea the next day. By the afternoon, he had fallen outside the door of a yacht club in the South China Sea.

When I came to the South China Sea, it was for Wang Yan's luxury yacht. At the beginning, the young teacher gave Wang Yan a luxury yacht, which had already stopped at the yacht dock in the South China Sea two months ago.

It was just that when Wang Yan was in the final stage of cultivation, he had no time to review his yacht.

After expressing his intention, the general manager of the yacht club immediately trot all the way to the door and bowed to Wang Yan: "Mr. Wang, our club finally hopes you come." Then he saw that there was no car beside him, thinking Wang Yan came by taxi, and hurriedly said, "Mr. Wang, as long as you give us a message, you can send a team to serve you 24 hours."

The reason for being so polite is simple. Wang Yan owns the latest yacht worth hundreds of millions of yuan. The annual crew cost plus berthing and maintenance costs are tens of millions. This class of yachts has already ranked among the most expensive in China. And this mysterious Mr. Wang hasn't even seen this yacht in two months.

This means that Mr. Wang did not attach great importance to this yacht. More representative of his net worth, has reached an incredible level.

In fact, the club misunderstood. Although Wang Yan's net worth is not cheap today, he is still close to the real rich. The cash on the book is only over one billion yuan, and it is not a real local tyrant. This money is much worse than a set of equipment on him.

Not to mention, his nine cubic storage bracelets are slightly more valuable than this yacht. His fire unicorn armguards can't be bought outside even for one billion yuan. As for the artifact-level warhammer gradually moving towards the flying hammer, it cannot be measured by money.

The mysterious piece of meteorite that made hammers and bicycles was originally contested by some of the world's top experts. If it weren't for the clever uncle of the gun, how could it be achieved?

If all of these are counted, Wang Yan is truly an invisible rich man.

"It's okay, I just walk away and relax." Wang Yan said politely, "This time I want to drive out and feel the atmosphere of the sea and the sky."

The general manager accompanied him with a smile and led Wang Yan all the way: "Mr. Wang, your boat stopped at our club. It really adds to our club. Not only is it luxurious, but it is also the most top-of-the-line contemporary yacht. Three-body style Structure, large-area solar absorption panels, and huge sails. Not only makes the yacht's endurance strong enough to be outrageous, but also promotes the concept of green environmental protection. Unlike super-yachts worth US $ 200 million to US $ 300 million in foreign countries, only one fuel Can make a middle-class family go bankrupt. "

After learning that Wang Yan had no intention of sitting in the club, the general manager enthusiastically took him directly to the pier and sent someone to notify the crew to come.

The crew members were hired by the younger sisters for him. Usually, except for maintenance, they were not allowed to stay on board. Only when the owner of the ship boarded the ship can he follow the boarding and listen to the dispatch of the owner.

It was the first time Wang Yan saw his yacht on the ship's dock. It is black and white and has a three-body structure. It is about seventy to eighty meters long. Because it is a three-body structure, the width has reached more than 30 meters. Like a big bird lying on the sea, it is full of science fiction in the future.

The curved hull structure is completely constructed of black solar panels. This is not a common solar panel, but the most advanced and strong material type solar panel. Its thickness is very thin and light, but its defense is comparable to a few centimeters of steel plate.

Under the global energy crisis, mankind has made great progress in the field of new energy. Solar energy, as an inexhaustible source of clean energy, can naturally arouse popularity.

The application of nanometer solar energy with an area of up to nearly 2,000 square meters is enough to maintain all the daily energy consumption on the yacht, and a large part can be used as ship propulsion energy. Even in sunny conditions, solar energy can already meet the needs of yacht-driven sailing.

At the same time, this yacht also has a sail system. Sailing combined with solar power can almost meet 90% of the daily needs of yachts. As for chemical energy, it is only used as a backup for occasional needs.

In this sense, this yacht is a model of modern technology and environmental protection. In other words, the use of clean energy is the future trend.

The boat is very beautiful and environmentally friendly. Wang Yan is very satisfied with it.

At this moment, the crew standing by in the club arrived. To Wang Yan's surprise, the five crew members were all women ...

Or blonde hair, or chestnut hair. But each one is very beautiful, with fair skin, tall figure, and wearing a tight uniform!

The general manager of the club and the surrounding security guards looked a little demented. But after Wang Yan froze for a while, he saw through their essence. Even in the sun, they still exude a slightly cold atmosphere, and mixed with a touch of * smell.

Bloodlines!

The five girls are all blood races.

The blond girl with the tallest figure is the most scented in the blood. If divided according to her strength, she should have reached C + level.

Wang Yan only knew that the young lady had arranged the crew for herself, but she didn't expect her old man to arrange five Shui Lingling blood clan sisters directly.

There were many people outside, and with full stomach questions, Wang Yan decided to go on board first.

Boarded the ship and entered the bridge ship.

Before Wang Yan had time to appreciate the sense of sci-fi layout in this bridge ship, all five blood-race girls knelt down on one knee and shouted together, "See Your Highness."

Your Highness?

Wang Yan frowned, and he was not the rookie who had just awakened. Of course, it is clear that the blood race is an ancient race, they have a very harsh and strict hierarchy, the title of His Royal Highness is not casual.

As the Duke of the Blood Race, the little maid can only be called the Lord. They call themselves His Royal Highness, which is already equivalent to the honorary title of the prince.

Wang Yan didn't know yet that the young teacher had been promoted to His Royal Highness Prince.

Wang Yan was looking at them, and they were also looking at Wang Yan secretly.

The name headed by Natasha is a core member of an advanced vampire family. Now being assigned to serve this “His Royal Highness” naturally has a sense of disgust and curiosity. What is disgusting is that Tangtang’s higher blood race was actually appointed as a Chinese crew member, and had to be on call 24 hours a day, and must not refuse any request from His Highness.

What does this mean? This represents her Natasha, who has been regarded as the maid’s maid.

But at the same time, he was curious about the “His Royal Highness”. What kind of person is it that can make the grown-up members of the contemporary dark council and the members of the female blood tribute adore the idol His Highness Prince Rose personally order the designation? Want to come, it must be an extraordinary person.

His Royal Highness, who has been thinking about Zhao Simu for several months, now finally appears in front of them. But Natasha felt surprised and disappointed. Surprisingly, this owner is very young and handsome, and can be called the best among men. But it is disappointing that this master does not seem to reveal the slightest strongman’s breath, is it just an ordinary person of extraordinary origin?

The remaining few, similar to her, are all female members of the high vampire family. They are still very satisfied with the appearance of their master, no way, the blood is basically the most loyal appearance member. When they look handsome and beautiful, they can get some of their friendliness.

“You all get up.” Wang Yan waved his hand slightly frowning.

When I was about to give the young lady a call, the youngest lady took the first call and blamed slightly: “Xiao Yan, do you dislike the gift sent by the young lady? It’s been two months. Go see your yacht. “

It seems that when he learned that he was coming, someone had already reported to the young lady in advance.

Wang Yan smiled hurriedly and said: “Little Madam, I have been retreating and practicing for a while. I don’t want to come out to breathe as soon as this cultivation is over. I can’t wait to see this yacht immediately. Little Madam, I am so satisfied with this yacht Now, I want to use it to travel around the world. “

These remarks made Prince Rose a lot of joy, charming smile: “You are satisfied. Just right, those five blood girl is for you as a personal maid, you can order them to do whatever you want to do Thing. Tell you a secret, but they are the elders of the higher blood family carefully selected by the little teachers and mothers. They are all virgins. “

Wang Yan, a drop of cold sweat, is this what the elders said?

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 328

“Little Sister, don’t you need it?” Wang Yan said with a bitter smile. “You are old and don’t understand my situation. Isn’t this hurting me?” Traveling with five blood-beauty beauties, what a journey and Feeling?

Furthermore, Nan Lian and An Ge are not vegetarian. As soon as the three of the front feet were trained separately, the five blood clan maids were immediately acquired on the back feet ... Is this still a problem?

“Xiao Yan, do you despise them for throwing you away? This is looking down on our blood race.” Prince Rose said sneeringly on the phone.

“Little Sister, you really have a big misunderstanding.” Wang Yan said with a smile, “You said, they are all high blood people, and they are usually girls with a good life. You let them come to be my maid and call me I can’t afford it with a sire. “

“What can’t afford it?” Prince Rose’s tone said with pride, “Your little sister-in-law is now the President of the Dark Council, and among the most powerful people in the world, your sister-in-law can be ranked in the top five at least. Your teacher Zun is also the world’s strongest person. In his capacity, even the President of the United States would not dare to make a meeting with him. Moreover, it is difficult for you, Zun Zun and the two sisters, to give birth to him. So, do n’t you It seems that your master is usually giggling, but actually treats you as a treasure. Whether it is your current identity or future achievements, it is much more noble than those messy princes and princesses. It is also a matter of course to call your highness . “

Wang Yan touched his nose, and his heart moved for a while. Uncle Cannon’s love and expectation for himself, how could he not feel it? Just the thought of Uncle Cannon had no heirs, which made him a little sighed.

“Xiao Yan, fortunately there is you.” Prince Rose said with a smile, “Actually, no matter whether Sister Yao is concubine or me, I just treat you as the closest person. The character of your uncle’s temper is not He spoiled you, but he couldn’t stop us two from spoiling you. “

Wang Yan suddenly thought of a word called maternal love. For a time, his heart was filled with emotion. Just still hesitantly said: “Little Master, you actually know some of my situations, you have to practice to the seventh floor ... you put so many beautiful women around me, it is too much test of my willpower.”

“Cough, I certainly understand your situation. That’s what happened to your uncle Gun at that time ...” Prince Rose smiled happily while covering her mouth. “But that’s how it can give you more motivation.” Come on, try to practice as soon as possible to S level, preferably SS level. “

Wang Yan’s mouth twitched, and repaired to SS level as soon as possible? Our little teacher really dare to talk. After the practice of Chunyang’s pulse reaches the top of the ninth level, it can reach SS level. But in fact not every successor of pure Yang can train to SS level.

This is like the “Great Light” can be cultivated to the SS level, but the SS level that the Holy See has historically produced is so few.

Under normal circumstances, any SS-level person can walk sideways in the world. As long as it is not going in the direction of a global public enemy, the general SS-level strongmen are like invincible emperors. Only the guys like the World Demon King who are going to obliterate humans and engage in the demon clan to dominate the world will provoke outrage and be sealed together.

“All right, your little maid is very busy, this matter is so settled. Unless you look down on my blood, just drive them away.” Prince Rose made a final decision on the phone. After a pause, he said, “Xiao Yan, the blood class is very strict. Of course, I do n’t dare to violate their orders. But if you really want to get their allegiance and loyalty, it ’s best to show your strength. In this world, any Race is essentially weak and strong, and worships the strong. These little girls from the higher blood family are always somewhat arrogant. “

After that, Prince Rose ’s phone hung up.

Wang Yan put down the phone speechlessly and glanced at them. The conversation with the young lady just now is all Chinese. Looking at the five of them with blank faces, they are obviously very new to Huaxia.

Fortunately, Wang Yan also took the time to learn some English. With strong memory, he learned quickly. There is no big obstacle to communicate with people normally in English. After glancing at them, they said, "I probably already understand the situation. Please introduce yourself."

"My name is Natasha von Dracula." The blond blood-sister girl headed slightly bowed, with a hint of pride in her eyes, "It is from the noble Dracula family, and is the same as His Royal Highness Prince Rose family."

Wang Yan was amazed. Did the young teacher advance to the prince? In this way, she just said that she became the president of the Dark Council, isn't she kidding me? Anyway, this is a good thing.

The other four also introduced themselves.

"My name is Wang Yan, you don't need to call my Highness in the future." Wang Yan said to them far away, "I recently need to take a casual tour, the first destination is this coordinate." Said, he gave a coordinate .

This location is a coordinate in the South China Sea near Vietnam, where he found the shipwreck last time. Since I was caught by the little teacher last time, I didn't have time to dig the sunken ship. Now anyway, it 's also a casual travel. Of course, the first stop is to get out of the sunken ship and see if there is any treasure?

"Your Highness Wang Yan. It is the order of Prince Rose to serve you as your master." Natasha said palely. "Don't dare to violate her orders. Please stop embarrassing us."

Wang Yan didn't care about this matter anymore, let them set sail first.

The ship was driven by them from Europe, and it was still very safe to hand them over.

Soon, this yacht, temporarily named "Love and Rose", slowly left the dock and set off for the sea. In a few moments, the marina was no longer visible. Today's weather is fine, there are no clouds, and the wind is beautiful. The yacht galloped on the vast ocean, smooth and fast. Because the sun is abundant, even sails are not needed.

The three-body structure, like an airplane on the water, makes it as light as a swallow.

“Natasha, I am a little curious about the heritage and structure of the blood, can you tell me something?” After some simple exchanges, everyone had become familiar with it, and Wang Yan asked casually.

“Yes, Your Highness.” Natasha handed the rudder to another blood maid, and reverently replied, “First of all, a mature high blood family can apply for family territory from the Family Presbyterian Association. After approval and approval, and in possession of the territory In the case of a family, it is possible to establish a family. For a family, the most important thing is a descendant. The development of a descendant is to select high-quality human goals and then to carry out the initial support ceremony. “

“I have heard it for the first time.” Wang Yan nodded curiously, “Transform the essence of human life through the way of blood-sucking. This is often done in blood movies and TV series.” In this world, if you want to be right The ranking of alien popularity is undoubtedly ranked among the blood races.

They are powerful, mysterious, dangerous, handsome or beautiful in appearance, and have serious narcissistic tendencies.

“Some similar to those in the film and television works, but it is a sacred thing for the blood clan to perform the first support ceremony. For the family’s reproduction and prosperity, only the patriarch is qualified to perform the first support ceremony, and will carefully select new members of the future family Select carefully, several times of evaluation. “Natasha said lightly,” Anyone who passed the sacred first embrace ceremony, will automatically become a higher blood family, and write into the blood genealogy. Then live, cultivate and fight under the commander of the patriarch. If Once you reach A level, you are eligible to build a new family. “

“Only A-level?” Wang Yan’s face was slightly surprised, “How many families are there in the current blood family?” A-level, known as the guru in the Eastern world, means that it is qualified to open the school. In the West, because of the * of the Holy See, it is called the Holy Power. It means that if you are a member of the Department of Light, you are eligible to stay in the Holy Land.

It is precisely because of the different customs of the East and West, as well as the customs around the world. Globally, there are more than a dozen descriptions of A-levels, which are extremely confusing.

The Global Federation of Superpowers now ranks the powers of superpowers in alphabetical order. Setting this standard will allow the world 's superpowers to have clear boundaries.

Wang Yan thought that if the blood clan needs to reach the A level to establish a family, it shows that the blood clan's overall strength should not be underestimated.

Natasha hesitated, but this is the secret of the blood. But when she thought of Prince Rose 's order, she honestly replied: "Bloods are mainly distributed in Europe, North America, and Oceania. There are currently seven high blood families in Europe, three families in North America, and one family in Oceania. We are all high-blood families from Europe and have a strong family heritage. It is not comparable to the upstarts in North America and Oceania. "

Eleven families in the world? It is very powerful. And there are a few, still S blood family.

No wonder that the blood race can withstand the encirclement and suppression of the Holy See, and it has been prospering and prospering, and the background cannot be underestimated. And Natasha's words seem to look down on those North American families. Haha, indeed. The history there is relatively short, and most of the time is in the wild and backward stage.

For a long-lived species such as the blood race, one to two hundred years is too short. At first, North America was an immigrant continent, and only some adventurers or people who could not stay in their hometowns would emigrate to North America. Those high-blood races who went to North America to establish a family are probably members of blood races that are not mixed in Europe.

Suddenly, Wang Yan thought of a problem. Just asked: "Natasha, if you can increase your family members when you first embrace it, then why don't the blood clan first embrace humans as much as possible? If you multiply quickly, the Bright Holy See can't beat you?"

Natasha said helplessly: "The first embrace of the blood tribe is a very sacred ritual. Every time the first embrace, the patriarch will have a huge consumption, and it will affect the future strength. So there are also some blood tribes who have reached the A level. Willing to go out and build a family. So the number of higher blood groups is relatively rare, but we will increase the overall fighting power of blood groups by adding lower blood groups. "

Natasha continued: “Lower blood races are divided into blood servants and blood slaves. Each higher blood race will cultivate a group of blood servants. That blood servant can help the higher blood races in all aspects, serving life, fighting, training Blood slaves, hunting, etc. Although cultivating blood servants is not expensive, it requires a little blood family origin, so only a few can be cultivated. Blood slaves are pure blood suppliers and cannon fodder. In fact, for higher blood races Blood slaves are not members of the blood family at all. “

Wang Yan finally understood the blood structure and reproduction mechanism. No wonder, the little teacher said that it is difficult for her to give birth to the offspring. Although the blood race is pinned to human development, it is not the reproduction of the family through the intersection of the sexes. As for the master lady Linghu Yaofei, it should be the legendary blood of the nine-tailed fox, and it is not difficult to reproduce the descendants of the human uncle Cannon.

The earth is really a colorful world. If you are not lucky enough to step into the superpower world, it is estimated that you will not be able to touch the true face of this world in this life. Even if I heard it occasionally, it would only be regarded as an anecdote. The fate of this life is to work honestly, get married and have children, and then live in old age.

Wang Yan looked through the porthole directly in front of the bridge and looked at the endless sea of blue waves. Now that we have stepped into this colorful world, we must live a wonderful life. Like Uncle Cannon, we step into the peak of the world step by step and smile and overlook the whole world.

The South China Sea is in a subtropical region, and the climate has been strange and unpredictable since ancient times.

Several blood maids, busy in the bridge, raised the mechanical mast and stretched the sail.

“Wow!”

A strong wind was encircled by the sails, and the cloud-white sails swelled and filled instantly. Wang Yan’s “Love and Rose” yacht tilted slightly at about fifteen degrees. There seems to be a huge force acting on the yacht. In an instant, the speed of the yacht soared upwards.

“Slap!” The front of the three-piece yacht lifted slightly, splitting the waves and galloping forward.

Sailing, this ancient source of power for ships, has not only failed in the modern era in which science and technology is prevalent, but has regained its glory again. The volume of this yacht was placed in ancient times, it can be regarded as a huge ship. Dozens of sailors risked their lives to work together to control the ups and downs of sails.

On the “Love and Rose”, as long as electronic equipment is used in the bridge, the mast sail can be controlled remotely and freely. The computer can also continuously collect wind direction and wind data, and fine-tune the sail angle to obtain the best driving force.

The mast under the modern top technology uses carbonized polymer materials, which has the characteristics of high temperature resistance, low temperature resistance, sturdiness, lightness and so on. The material used for sails is also ultra-high molecular weight polyethylene fiber, which is light and durable.

The application of these new materials on the yacht makes the ancient sail show modern charm.

Soon, the speed of the yacht “Love and Rose” reached 40 knots. This is already extremely fast in ships. A few chasing seagulls were thrown far away in a moment and disappeared.

The yacht ran through the thorns and sailed towards the destination.

By the next morning, the yacht had successfully arrived in the sea where Wang Yan discovered the sunken ship. This speed, although much slower than his own flight. However, if you fly all the way, you will not only be tired, but you can't save time to do other things.

Today is another sunny day with calm waves and abundant sunshine.

With the smog everywhere in the country, the clear blue sky of the South China Sea is already a paradise on earth. A group of dolphins are playing and looming on the sea. The frightened flock of flying fish jumped out of the water, gliding like a bird tens of meters away.

“His Royal Highness, do you really not need our protection? Sonar shows that the sea floor here is two hundred or tens of meters deep.” Natasha twitched her eyebrows and swept her eyes on Wang Yan. Wang Yan, wearing a tight wetsuit, fully showed his figure. The muscle lines are smooth and natural, and the eight abdominal muscles are sharp and angular.

It can be said that his figure is already perfect.

Several other blood-race maids have also hung their eyes on Wang Yan, and there are some wonderful waves in his eyes. All of them were secretly secret, this lord not only looked handsome, but also had such a good figure. Unfortunately, there seems to be no strong breath from him.

As expected, the blood race is the core member of the Appearance Association, as in the legend.

“No, you guys are waiting for me on the ship.” Wang Yan smiled lightly. This Natasha is the strongest among the five blood maids, but it is only C + level. With her physique strength, she dives to a depth of a few hundred meters and can move freely. What kind of protection?

Wang Yan only brought a small tank of compressed oxygen. Just a dive fell into the water and began to go downstream. Last time, the speed of the dive was accelerated by the 300-kilogram warhammer, but the warhammer has been refined into a life-bearing flying hammer, and the relative quality is already as light as Hongyu.

Under the influence of the density of the sea water, the Warhammer will only bring buoyancy to itself.

Anyway, don't worry, swim slowly.

Fifty meters, one hundred meters.

As Wang Yan dived deeper and deeper, the surrounding light was dim and the water pressure increased to ten standard atmospheres. Even if an ordinary person dives to this depth in full armor, within a minute, a lot of inert gas will be squeezed into his body, his hands and feet will be numb, his consciousness will be scattered, and all kinds of fatal hallucinations will appear.

But Wang Yan is now a B + character, and his physical strength has far exceeded the last visit. This little pressure makes it hard to bother him.

Soon, Wang Yan dived into the seabed, under the influence of a deep sea flashlight. Within a few moments, he found the huge submarine coral reef group at that time. After seven or eight months of absence, this reef group seems to have no change. On the rough reef, various kinds of corals are magnificent and colorful.

Most corals are living corals, clusters of corals are covered with coral polyps, they extend their tentacles like sea anemones, filtering and swallowing organic debris and plankton in the ocean. As the ocean currents fluctuate, they sway with the waves, as beautiful as flowers in the depths of the sea.

The environment here is very clean with less pollution and the seafood tastes pretty good. When Wang Yan swam all the way to the center of the reef group, he caught some big lobsters, big crabs, pippi shrimps and the like. Throw it into the storage bracelet, it is much better than chilled. I do n't know if it 's because of the lack of humans, seafood is much larger than other places.

The further you go to the center of the reef, the larger the lobster crab. Wang Yan even grabbed an oversized lobster that weighed seven or eight kilograms and was giant. At the bottom of the sea, it is very powerful, but unfortunately met Wang Yan. This big lobster harvested. If it is sold to a restaurant, it is estimated that 10,000 or 20,000 yuan is indispensable. Take it home and give your parents a try. The seafood used in the family's New Year's Day last time was caught here, and relatives and friends were amazed.

I do n't know if it 's an illusion. The more Wang Yan goes deeper into the seabed reef group, the more he feels that these marine creatures are getting bigger.

In order to chase the octopus last time, Wang Yan swam too fast, but did not pay attention to this situation. Now it seems that this group of reefs may not be easy.

There are many strange phenomena on the earth that science cannot explain. There are countless more secrets that have never been discovered. Humans claim to be the rulers of the earth, but the places they have actually explored are still limited. Occupying 70% of the earth 's surface area, the ocean is mysterious and vast. The underwater world is still a forbidden place for humans to explore.

In addition, there is a more mysterious underground world, which is also a place where humans are rarely able to get involved. With some shallow karst caves, the world view of scientists has been subverted again and again.

Human cognition and exploration of their own planet are still at a very preliminary stage. The more you understand, the more you will find your ignorance, and the more you will feel awe of heaven and earth naturally.

Wang Yan took a deep breath of oxygen and became alert in his heart. Focusing on himself, the spiritual power spreads in all directions. The density of seawater and the high intensity of water pressure severely restrict the spread of mental energy. But even so, any slight fluctuations within a dozen meters of the radius can't escape his investigation.

Swing of coral insects, water flow when fish swim. There are even some crustaceans that are hiding in the rocks of the reefs and are enjoying the food. Any small fluctuations will be captured by mental power and faithfully mapped into Wang Yan's mind.

Soon, Wang Yan caught some strange things.

A huge mollusk creature, hiding in a reef cave more than ten meters away, it was motionless and seemed to be sleeping. But Wang Yan noticed from the slight contraction of his tentacle muscles that he was in a state of latent hunting, and the target was probably himself.

Octopus is a very intelligent creature. It not only has amazing memory, but also is very good at learning evolution. It even uses tools.

Creatures with strong memories naturally naturally remember hatred. Wang Yan, a "familiar" humanoid, has hurt it, and it is only natural for it to take revenge.

Wang Yan pretended to swim past if nothing happened, as expected, it was two or three meters away.

It moved!

Several strong and powerful tentacles shot like Jinya. Wrapped Wang Yan's waist, legs, and left hand respectively. Its wrist and foot strength is very strong, and the dense suction cup is very strong, and it is firmly attached to Wang Yan.

On the other side, the few remaining wrists and feet climbed on the rough reef, and dragged Wang Yan to him by friction.

This octopus is huge, and the power exerted on its territory is terrifying. Wang Yan seems to be dragged by it with difficulty. But would Wang Yan, who had already been prepared, suffer? With his right hand on the storage bracelet, a steel fishing thorn about three or four meters in length appeared in his hand.

This huge fishing thorn, as well as a few barbarian barbs, can kill even whales.

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 330

Taking advantage of the momentum of being dragged over by it, Wang Yan aimed at its main body, pierced unkindly, and plunged deeply into the body of the huge octopus.

Under the pain, the giant octopus struggled hard. But the more it struggles, the stronger the barbs are, and the deeper the thorns, causing it tremendous pain. Lots of ink squirted desperately, and within a short period of ten or more seconds, it dyed a dark area within a few tens of meters.

A flame rose from Wang Yan's body, and the power of the pure fire was revealed at this moment. Even in the underwater world where oxygen is scarce and filled with seawater, the pure sun fire is still an overbearing expulsion of deep sea water with great pressure. The scorching temperature caused the surrounding seawater to boil, and a stream of bubbles kept rising.

Under Wang Yan's deliberate control, the steel fishing thorn in his hand was like a red iron rod. In just a few seconds, the inside of the octopus' head is cooked. But its tentacles are still swaying in a strong and powerful way. This is where octopuses differ from other creatures. It has three hearts and two memory systems.

Even if the head is dead, the body is not dead.

Wang Yan pulled out a knife from the storage bracelet and cut off his wrists and feet one by one. It wasn't until the wrists gradually lost power that Wang Yan put them in the storage bracelet.

This is the limitation of the application of the storage bracelet. The secondary space it supports and restrains is relatively fragile. It doesn't matter if you throw in some lobster crabs, they can't be destroyed, and they will die soon. But if the vitality creatures are directly collected, their powerful destructive power can break the secondary space wall.

Once that happens, the internal space of Wang Yan's storage bracelet will crumble, and the things he treasures in the storage bracelet will explode. This situation is obviously not what he wants to see. Moreover, his storage bracelet has a storage space of up to nine cubic meters, which is already the best.

Similar to this level of storage bracelets, the exchange price in the unit's treasure trove starts at 5,000 points of merit.

So Wang Yan would rather slow down and insure. In this way, it took him more than ten minutes to completely get rid of the giant octopus, disassemble it and put it in the storage bracelet. This octopus is superb. Last time, the small tentacles made Wang Yan eat it several times. The taste was delicious and chewy.

This time Wang Yan came on the surface of a shipwreck, but it may not have the driving force for this giant octopus to be delicious. This octopus is huge, estimated to be seven or eight hundred kilograms, enough to eat for a while.

Next, Wang Yan carried a fishing spear and swam all the way to the shipwreck.

This shipwreck has been very old, and the wood is almost rotten. Fortunately, the reef group supported it, so that it barely had a rough outline.

Wang Yan took a breath of oxygen and was just about to swim into the silhouette of the sunken ship to explore the treasure.

Suddenly, his scalp numb, a dangerous feeling spread to his heart.

Scientists have done a lot of experiments. The instinctive reaction of humans to a sense of danger is far faster than the reaction of thinking. Driven by a dangerous instinctive reaction, Wang Yan quickly swam upwards and instantly rushed out several meters. With full of mental power, he sensed a huge tentacle, passing under his body and curling up empty.

“His ~”

Wang Yan took a breath.

Through the “capturing observation” of mental power, the tentacles are long and thick, and the connected body is hidden in a huge reef cave under the shipwreck. Just the tip of the iceberg of Wang Yan's body is already a behemoth.

Compared with the giant octopus, the word “giant” is not at all comparable to it. The small one is like a dwarf.

“Snapped!”

A crumbling reef was caught in its wrists and feet, and it was instantly squeezed and exploded, making it so powerful that it was outrageous.

Wang Yan kicked his legs and rushed towards the water without hesitation. He dives quickly, and for someone with a weaker physique to dive so fast, it is purely self-seeking.

At this time, another giant brachiopod quickly attacked, the tentacles like prehistoric monsters, it is not difficult to imagine the huge size of the octopus. Under the law of nature, the stronger the quality of its own creatures, the stronger its strength will be. And this is the site of the monster octopus, Wang Yan feels that it is difficult to win it.

Facing the attacking giant wrist, Wang Yan carried the fishing thorn, and plunged it into his wrist.

With pain, the wrist and foot quickly retracted. At the same time, there was a violent shaking in the reef group below. The small creatures in the reef group were so scared that they shivered and did not dare to move.

Feeling the huge danger of pressure, Wang Yan dived a bit faster. Intuition tells him that the octopus sea monster must not be low in intelligence, and has become accustomed to rampage. It is impossible to retaliate after catching up with a big loss. The underwater world is its home field, but it is not tolerated on the sea.

“Wow!”

Like a flying fish that escaped life, Wang Yan instantly leaped out of the water, and the wings of the Bat King splayed violently. With a fierce fan, he ran straight into the air dozens of meters high. Almost at the same time, the wrists and feet of the giant octopus pierced the water and shot Wang Yan away with lightning.

“Hoo! It’s so dangling.”

Wang Yan, who had successfully escaped from Shanghai, was relieved. If it is entangled in it underwater, I'm afraid the trouble will be greater. But above the sea, it's different. Facing the gigantic brachiopod, Wang Yan was not afraid at all.

Fire Qilin armguards spread quickly on his arms, and the majestic pure Yang real fire power filled his body. With a bluff in the right hand, a huge flame hand appeared out of thin air, grabbing the middle of the arm and foot. The blazing flame power burned its original white arms and feet and became red.

A huge wave exploded on the sea, and the octopus burst out of the sea with pain. It wasn't until this time that Wang Yan really saw how big it was.

The round head has a diameter of more than ten meters. Each wrist that extends outwards is definitely more than 100 meters long. It floats on the sea, dancing tentacles angrily to Wang Yan, majestic like a prehistoric wild beast.

This terrible sea monster, in fact, even if it was thrown into the era of prehistoric monsters rampant, it is also a terrible overlord-level creature.

Above the sea, Wang Yan moved freely, while continuing to control the flame hand to grab it with a wrist and foot. Bian Tengnuo flashed, avoiding other arms and legs like a wild dance. At the same time, he kept controlling the flame, condensed a blade of flame, and walked toward it far away.

Those flames hit its body, leaving scars, which aroused the anger of this overlord-level octopus, and the attack became even crazier.

Today, this situation is deliberately done by Wang Yan. While arousing its ferocity, it cannot be frightened at once. If this octopus sea monster is frightened, maybe it will escape. When the time comes to kill it, it will be extremely difficult. The underwater world is, after all, its territory.

“A big octopus monster, um, that's His Royal Highness !?” Moored on the yacht “Love and Rose” a few hundred meters away, a few bored, discussing the bloodline maids of His Royal Highness Wang Yan, suddenly found This scene exclaimed.

Never seen such a huge octopus monster, only in some ancient nautical literature have heard of this marine monster. Some huge octopuses can even drag ships off the sea.

But they were even more surprised by His Highness Wang Yan.

They were still discussing just now, His Royal Highness Wang Yan has the ability to dive into such deep waters, obviously not ordinary people. But in him, he couldn't smell the strong man's breath, and he didn't even smell a bit. This made them wonder and discuss and bet on the true strength of His Highness Wang Yan.

Knowing that His Royal Highness was just twenty-three years old, some people guessed that he was C-level, and some guessed that he was C + -level. Only Natasha vaguely felt that His Royal Highness should have B-level. But when all the blood-servant maids saw him flying in the sky and "fighting" with the giant octopus monster, they realized that they all looked down on His Highness Wang Yan.

The breath of the strong man he showed, and the breath of terrifying flame power on his body, all showed that he was already a B-level. And I am afraid that even if it is within the B level, it is also a very top-notch existence.

Several maid-servants had shocked expressions and looked at each other. It seems that the strength of His Highness Wang Yan far exceeds their imagination. The feeling of admiring awe suddenly emerged.

"Go help," Natasha commanded, shocked. "Activate the hidden whaling gun."

Even Wang Yan didn't know that this yacht still harbors a whaling gun. In fact, many rich people like to pursue fresh excitement. This yacht that can cruise to the corners of most of the world's waters. It is normal to hide a whaling gun.

Following the actions of several blood-race maids, the yacht "Love and Rose" quickly approached the octopus sea monster, and then a beautiful flick of the tail directed the whaling gun at the tail to the octopus sea monster. The opponent's goal is large, and hitting is obviously not a difficult task.

"boom!"

With a loud noise, a huge fishing thorn spewed out of the gun.

A full six or seven meters long fishing thorn hit the octopus sea monster's head with precision. As the yacht galloped outwards, it grabbed the high-strength rope of the fishing thorn and quickly tightened it.

Under the pain, the octopus sea monster made a sharp high-frequency scream and then dived desperately.

But the fully-powered yacht drove forward steadily, dragging the octopus forward. The body of this octopus is extremely large. If you wrap it around your bottom reef, you may be able to drag the yacht into the water. But it is a pity that it is suspended in the sea now, unable to borrow like duckweed.

At least seven to eight tons of body, but was dragged away by the yacht.

“Good job.” Wang Yan applauded in amazement, just thinking about how to clean up this octopus monster.

While Wang Yan was about to go to the water to clean it up, Skyrim suddenly heard a majestic breath, galloping like a shooting star.
