

D. Hero 371

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 371

However, Wang Yan did not talk about the possibility of the existence of the creature of the virtual world spider. Since awakening the power, I have seen all kinds of strange things. If there is a virtual spider that can shuttle back and forth between four-dimensional space and three-dimensional space, although it cannot be understood, it is not impossible.

“Hey, why don’t you ask where did this spider come from?” After seeing Wang Yan’s face change slightly, the Queen of Spiders was indifferent, and she was a little unhappy.

It’s like having a great new toy, you have to show off and make people wonder.

“Well, where did you come from this spider?” Wang Yan asked in coordination. However, his spiritual power has spread out in all directions, covering a dozen square meters.

In this case, if there is any wind and grass, he can’t escape his perception.

“Last year when I was on a mission, I met a thief.” The Queen of Spiders said with a satisfied smile. “He is not strong, but he has super powers to travel through the virtual world. One. He can access most of the hidden treasures in the world. In fact, if it ’s not my layout and caught him with a cobweb, he is likely to be free for a lifetime. Unfortunately, he fell into my hands and I let him I ca n’t survive, I ca n’t die. In the end, I gave birth to a nest of imaginary spiders, and finally survived the one. Ha ha, the one you just met. “

Wang Yan heard a bit of cold hair, and could imagine the miserable process that the thief encountered.

In the distance, Zhang Weidao was also worried. If it was not Wang Yan’s bailout, perhaps he would also give birth to a nest of spider babies for the Queen Spider.

“Are you deliberately intimidating me?” Wang Yan sneered. “If you rely on this virtual world spider, I advise you to surrender early.”

“I’m not intimidating you, I just want to tell you a fact.” The Queen of Spiders smiled wickedly, “If it weren’t for you, I might have a powerful baby spider with a congenital pattern, maybe it will one day As I was promoted to the S rank. Unfortunately, all of this was destroyed by you. So, sooner or later, the King of Flame, Yan Yan, I will get this account from you. There is no congenital dart spider baby, one more flame The baby king is also good. “

“Oh, have you finished?” Wang Yan smiled disapprovingly, “I’ll start playing after I finish talking.”

As soon as Wang Yan’s words fell, his wings slammed. The figure turned into a meteor, looting towards the Queen of Spiders, and a blazing flame was burning on the natal hammer, and the flames were as strong as the fire god.

Even the entire sky was burning, and the clouds were glowing red.

“As long as you kill you, there are no more spider babies.” Wang Yan burst into a scream, thundered like a thunder, and smashed it down with a hammer.

Domineering, power, as if even the mountains can collapse.

The queen of the perfect body in the distance, Tong Xiaoqing’s hands clasped together, prayed silently for Wang Yan: “The handsome brother, handsome, must win.”

“Flame King, huh, huh. Want to play beheading tactics!” The Queen Spider was giggling, and a piece of silk twitched, and her delicate torso in tight leather flew upwards. Her hands turned into two sharp blades and greeted them without fear. “Do you think I am good at fighting with baby spiders?”

The Queen of Spiders violently swept out a residual image. Between the two blades waving, the sky was full of sharp blades.

“Dang Dang Dang!”

In a series of clashes, the Queen of Spiders was slightly inferior in melee. But she was as sensitive as the Queen of Blades, with a strong posture and amazing fighting power. And every part of her body seemed to turn into a blade, or a spike, and it was unprepared to attack, making people unpredictable.

But Wang Yan was better than Queen Spider in her close combat. He burned a blazing flame all over his body, igniting the entire sky, not only strongly suppressing the sharpness of the Queen of Spiders, but also making the spider silk that the Queen of Spiders is best at useless,

As a result, even though the Queen of Spiders had a close fight, she was still not Wang Yan's opponent. In the face of the explosive power of Wang Yan's melee, she might not be able to hold on for even a minute.

Suddenly, she screamed sharply.

At the same time, two sharp howlings came together not far away, and the two ferocious large spiders quickly cut into the battlefield under the ripples of the silk.

The one on the left is brownish-yellow, and the spider carapace is covered with heavy rock armor. Obviously, this is a spider with earth abilities. It continuously emits yellow light outwards, as if solidifying the surrounding space.

Wang Yan felt that within a few hundred meters, the gravity of the earth seemed to be more than ten times greater, and the wings of the bat king could not move, and was dragged to the ground fiercely.

The spider on the right is small and gem-like in azure blue. It is decorated with mysterious and mysterious runes. As soon as it appeared, it stimulated a force field of blue color, and the surrounding air fluctuated like a ripple.

The air on the islands of Nanyang is actually very humid. Under the force field of the azure blue field, the surrounding air instantly solidified, and the water vapor condensed into ice and snow, falling down in a flutter.

Obviously, this azure drifting spider has ice-like abilities. In addition to the previous imaginary spider, the Queen of Spiders possesses it and can command three powerful and talented spiders.

As soon as the ice spider's ability field came out, Wang Yan's sky-wide flame momentum was also suppressed and no longer so domineering.

It's no wonder that the Queen of Spiders is full of confidence and thinks that even if she encounters a corpse, there is a certain victory. She is also confident of Wang Yan who seems to restrain her.

Such a situation is that Wang Yan alone has to face three powerful spiders, and the Queen of Spiders who is not weak in melee.

The face of the members of the National African Affairs Bureau is all at a loss. The poisonous widow Yuan Rourou stomped and said, "This spider queen is not only cunning, she hides so deeply. Those three spiders that master the field of abilities, no matter which one has absolute B-level strength, Wang Yan's little handsome trouble. Big. "

Gao Mingyue's brow furrowed. Mistakes are definitely misuses.

I originally thought that both Wang Yan and A-level masters can carry it for a while, and when facing the B-level strongman, they are already fearless. Unexpectedly, the queen of spiders was much stronger than expected. According to the terrifying combat power of Queen Spider now, and some weaker A-level masters, you can fight well.

Zhang Weidao's face was very depressed. He originally thought that as long as he played well, he could still win the Queen of Spiders. But the real fighting power revealed by the other party made him feel despair.

Strong!

The Queen of Spiders is really too strong. In his life, the difficulty of scrubbing and being humiliated by eggs is as great as ever. This makes Zhang Weidao very depressed, Queen Spider, you obviously have the strength to crush me Zhang Weidao, why do you still have to use a plan?

Wang Yan was entangled with fire all over his body, wielding a warhammer, fighting hard for the three, the ice, the earth spider, and the spider queen. The war between the two sides is so lively. But everyone knows that there is also an imaginary spider that can shuttle between four-dimensional space and three-dimensional space, staring at the side.

Mi Di Chao shield over there.

Everyone is the old god, holding his hands to watch the show. Even August had a must-win smile on his lips, and the old  said in the comment: "I have to admit that the flame king Wang Yan has a very powerful combat power. I can't understand the laws of heaven yet. With this terrible fighting power, it is a little better than me at the time. Unfortunately, he met the Queen of Spiders. “

“The empress is mighty, the empress is domineering.” Little chick Amy and Rock Johnson, waving their fists, shouted slogans for the queen spider.

As teammates, they knew the terrible Queen of Spiders. In the younger generation, although the Queen of Spiders is temporarily behind the Golden Lion Sword. But everyone knows that it will be a matter of time before the Queen of Spiders equals or surpasses the Golden Lion Sword in combat effectiveness.

Even August, felt the strong pressure from the Queen of Spiders. Although she has not yet broken through to level A for the time being, yet she has realized the power of the law of heaven and has stepped into level A in half steps.

Today, she only needs to precipitate one. The faster is the near future, and the slower is two years. If she can breed three powerful A-level spiders, how many people will be her opponents within A-level?

“Giggle ~” Queen Spider and Han Bing, two spiders from the Earth Department joined forces, which is equivalent to Wang Yan fighting each other. She laughed like a demon rampantly, “Little handsome boy, the Queen advises you to surrender.”

As she smiled and talked, a silent imaginary spider shot again.

The space seems to ripple a little undetectable ripple. The half-empty spider crawled out of the space silently. Its cold eyes stared at Wang Yan's back, one mouth, and a spitting “black” energy ball spit out.

Wang Yan has been paying attention to the ghost spider in the ghost world. After capturing this point, Shennian returned with a fire unicorn shield.

The fire was overflowing, and Wang Yan stepped back several steps.

However, his expression was excited. Standing on the spot, he smiled and said: “Queen Spider, I admit that Wang Yan, I really underestimated you. But a pity!”

“Wang Yan, don’t pretend.” The Queen of Spiders was a little surprised to see him under such limits, and could also block the sneak attack of the Virtual Spider. But he raised his eyebrows in disbelief and said, “Give me a shot for the Queen, and spare your life, just when you preview the next time I spawn.”

“Unfortunately, you chose the wrong battlefield.” Wang Yan laughed and wiped a trace of blood from the corner of his mouth. He smiled happily and confidently.

Choose the wrong battlefield?

The members of the Super Shield Board were stunned. Is there anything wrong with this battlefield?

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 372

Not only the people of the Midi Super Shield Bureau were surprised, but even the teammates of the Huaxia Guofei Bureau, while worrying about Wang Yan, were also inexplicable. This battlefield is very common, just a fruit tree plantation.

Not to mention that Wang Yan does not understand the powers of the plant system, even if he understands, this piece of fruit tree that has been destroyed so badly can’t help him much. What’s more, countless potholes, ravines, and even many volcanic rocks under humus have been bombarded on the ground.

Volcanic rock?

Gao Mingyue’s eyes twitched slightly and seemed to think of something. But she did not dare to be completely sure, because she had never heard of it, and someone could do that kind of thing.

The queen of spiders, Arenia, also had a slight burst in her heart, and she felt a strange feeling. In her feelings, Wang Yan is not as unpretentious as a self-esteeming man. He is so confident, I am afraid it will really depend on it.

However, the Queen of Spiders is very confident in her own strength. The little rule of heaven that she learned was called the law of reproduction. Through her talents and breeding rules, the offspring of the babies born from spiders have great fighting power and great potential.

In particular, the three carefully selected power spiders are the best. Strong combat strength and advanced field. In the future, she is confident that she will gradually raise them to A level.

The earth power spider is covered with hard rock armor. After the field is fully opened, it forms a circle of ten times the gravity field with a radius of 100 meters. Any creature entering this field of gravity will be suppressed by ten times the standard gravity.

Ordinary people will be pressed * the ground under ten times the gravity, and their consciousness will be confused. Only some well-trained pilots and astronauts can barely resist ten times the gravity. But even so, they can only lie still, keeping their consciousness undisturbed.

As a B + superpower, Wang Yan's physical fitness is extremely powerful. But even so, in the field of ten times the gravity, the action also suffered huge obstacles, slow speed, not jumping high, greatly affected the combat effectiveness.

And this spider of earth power also possesses great talent spell power. The "stone claw cage" can stick out stalagmite claws on the ground to suppress the enemy's actions. And sharply stabbing can effectively kill the enemy.

Another ice-spirited spider can reach a temperature of minus seven or eighty degrees in its ice field, allowing the water to freeze instantly. People with slightly weaker strength will quickly freeze into ice blocks in the ice field and scream. Even a slightly capable superpower will freeze all over, greatly reducing or even losing combat effectiveness.

Although it is impossible to kill Wang Yan in this ice field, it can greatly suppress Wang Yan's flame power within the range, which is also indirectly weakening Wang Yan's combat power.

What's more, this ice spider also has a combat talent spell. Its "Ice Breath" can instantly create a piece of ice mist with a temperature as low as minus 100 degrees. This terrible ice mist, even if Wang Yan was enveloped in front for a few seconds, would be frozen into a popsicle.

As for that one, the imaginary spider that can shuttle between 4D space and 3D space is the queen spider's sweetheart. Its assassination and life-saving means are very powerful. Even if the A-level strongman is stared at by it, it will be very headache.

Because even a strong A-class, it is impossible to stay alert at all times, he will rest, sleep, and even do other things. If you guard against an imaginary spider all day long and do n't know where and when to jump out and harass, you will be tortured to a mental breakdown sooner or later. But if you do n't take precautions, you might be attacked and killed.

The most shameless thing is that the virtual world spider can quickly shuttle through the space to the other side after a hit. Then even the A-class strong people have to go all out to break the space. When it shuttles, it is like a fish crossing the water surface.

Queen of Spider's elite ability spider, one is stronger than one, one is more perverted, which also gives her strong self-confidence. Although she may feel that Wang Yan has the bottom card, she smiles without fear and says, "Handsome Wang Yan, don't just play with your mouth there. If you can't perform to your satisfaction, I might catch you immediately. Go back and become a member of my harem group. "

"Haha!" Wang Yan's bat king wings have been put away for a while, and he stepped on a cracked volcanic rock. A glance at the earth power spider, the gravitational field that it exudes, dragged him firmly to the ground, and it was difficult to fly freely with the bat king wings.

And once caught by its gravity field, it is difficult to escape from its gravity field. Just because people are in this gravity field, their body weight has increased tenfold. The speed of action slowed down significantly, and the earth-powered spider was able to move freely, and was more agile. As long as it kept walking, it could always lock people in the area of gravity.

But at this moment, Wang Yan's eyes were very indifferent, grasping the natal warhammer tightly, and feeling the connection between it and his increasingly fused blood. At the same time, Wang Yan slowly closed his eyes.

The domain of the Fire King begins!

His huge spiritual power can even feel the flame elements in the air cheering and praying to him.

Many people think that the earth is a spherical body made of soil, water, rocks and other substances. In reality, however, the structure of the earth is extremely complicated. The ground on which humans live is called the crust surface.

The average thickness of the crust is 17 kilometers. It sounds very thick, but if the earth's crust is thinner than the skin of an apple compared to the radius of six thousand hundreds of kilometers of the earth. We humans are like living on the surface of an apple's skin. More than 99% of the earth has not been explored.

But even so, humans think they are already the master of the earth. Sounds ridiculous. The development of civilization and some small achievements in science and technology have caused many people to lose their minds and give rise to the illusion of domination.

Seventeen kilometers of the earth's crust is just the average thickness. Like the Qinghai-Tibet Plateau, the crust is very thick. And this area of the South Ocean is a thin crust. As for this volcano that has been silent for more than two hundred years, it also means that the crust has been poked out of the hole.

Even in the gaps in the crust, more magma like capillaries remains.

Wang Yan has already felt that there is a crack in the crust less than one kilometer below the orchard, which is filled with hot volcanic magma. Under the action of the flame monarch field, Wang Yan's spiritual power came into contact with magma.

I felt the relatively quiet and silent magma, and I happily cheered. They moved instinctively upwards, as if to go to the Fire King to worship.

Just at this moment, they tore the crust and moved upwards for more than ten meters. Subsequent magma, along with the "capillaries", continued to surge. At this moment, even the ground shuddered undetectably.

The pure yang true energy in Wang Yan's body was urged to the extreme, holding the natal warhammer tightly in his hand, feeling its resonance with his own soul, and compressing the power of pure yang true fire as much as possible. A trace of energy dissipated and fluctuated, forming a thin layer of flame on the surface of the Warhammer.

Inexplicable and inexplicable, a crackling sound came from Wang Yan's body, and his body exploded. His hair was dyed crimson, and his muscles were about to burst and burst, even the blue muscles on his neck exploded.

On the invisible chest of Wang Yan, the mark of flame was hot. As if there was an invisible ripple wave, with it as the center, it spread out in all directions.

Wang Yan's right hand was suddenly opened, and his life hammer was raised high.

"Don't he think !?" The Queen Spider's face changed slightly, vaguely guessed, and hurriedly communicated the spirit spider with mental strength.

Above the head of Wang Yan, the imaginary spider broke through the space barrier and got into the space. The hollow straw-like mouthpiece squeezed and expanded, ejecting a tangible and colorless dark energy ball.

The dark energy sphere, although the name has the word "dark", is not observable by the eyes. Not only can it not be seen by the eye, it can't even be observed by X-ray, infrared, ultraviolet and so on.

It can only "see" its position by moving through the space and squeezing the air to form the air ripples. Or you can use your mental power to "snoop" into the dark energy ball and confirm its shape.

Therefore, not only do the ghosts of the imaginary world appear to haunt, but even the attack methods are very subtle and strange.

Its dark matter ball, annihilating and exploding is very powerful. Wang Yan just suffered from it just now. But now, Wang Yan ignores it. Instead, he ran out of energy and hit the ground with a hammer.

"Boom!"

With a dull heavy hammering, a violent explosion blew up. The shock wave was mixed with gravel and spread like ripples in all directions. The dark matter ball was intercepted by the shock wave and exploded in mid-air.

The two shock waves collided with each other, forming a chain explosion. The surrounding space was constantly twisted and pulled in a violent explosion, creating a vortex of air.

Under a violent shock wave, the imaginary spider was shocked and flew out of a hundred meters, swaying into the imaginary space.

At the same time, the ground of the volcanic rock hit by Wang Yan's heavy hammer cracked like spiderwebs around, squeezing out a gully. The cracks in the volcanic rock continue to tear deep into the ground, tens of meters to hundreds of meters.

The magma that has accumulated a lot of power underground is also struggling to squeeze upward, and the huge force tears the rock out of a crack. The ground shook violently.

When the gap between the two sides is connected, the power of the magma is like an explosive cracking, and it is blasted upwards. The earth was torn open, and the carbon dioxide buried in the ground for many years turned into billowing smoke into the sky, like a black dragon with open teeth and claws.

Volcano eruption!

Wang Yan's hammer actually triggered a volcanic eruption!

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 373

“How can it be!?”

Although Gao Mingyue vaguely speculated, he did not expect that Wang Yan could really do this step.

Even if this is an active volcano that hasn't erupted for only two or three hundred years, he can't break the ground with a hammer, causing a volcanic eruption. Subconsciously, Gao Mingyue picked up Tong Xiaoqing, stepped on the flying sword and hid far into the sky.

The men and horses of the Midi Chaodun Bureau and the China National Non-Affair Bureau all evaded in their own ways. However, everyone's face was full of shock and disbelief. Of course, the FBG strengthener who has been neglected and can only honestly hide on the sidelines to watch the drama quickly withdraws.

The volcano erupted.

This is the real power of heaven and earth!

Everyone's heart is full of horror. The horror of Wang Yan is also the horror of the power of heaven and earth.

The earth shivered violently.

The torn crater, like a prehistoric monster, roared deafeningly. In the thick smoke, huge rocks, like light glass beads, were thrown into the air.

The hot and dark red magma completely torn apart the earth's * and sprayed into the sky as much as possible. Brilliant like fireworks, irresistibly domineering.

Thick carbon dioxide smoke rolled in the sky, the earth was trembling violently, and the surrounding air was filled with hot flame elements.

This is the power of nature, the roar of the earth.

The Queen Spider's face was pale and her delicate body was trembling slightly. She is the most shocked of all people. That guy could actually do this. Faced with the panic and invincible prestige of heaven and earth, she passed a trace of panic and fear in her eyes.

Except for the spider that had long hid in the sea of dark matter in the virtual world, the other two spiders performed even worse. Their eyes showed a humanized color of fear. Put it away honestly.

At this time, Wang Yan was already in a state of transformation. His height is more than two meters, and his body muscles are cast like fine iron, full of endless explosive power. His hair showed a crimson color, and it fluttered upside down, like a burning flame.

His eyes were also red, burning like flames. Apart from the blazing heat, there was endless indifference, which was daunting. A glance at the Queen Spider, without any emotions and feelings, is like looking at an insignificant animal.

Right near him, the melt with a temperature of more than a thousand degrees is erupting unscrupulously. However, as if the magma had life, it bypassed Wang Yan automatically. The intense flame elements converged into a flame and began to gather around Wang Yan.

They were dancing and dancing like soldiers met their king.

Wang Yan waved his hand, and a layer of magma enveloped the layers of flames, blasting at the earth power spider. The red magma rolled in the air, shrieking sharply, like a living dragon.

Wang Yan hates the earth power spider. Its gravity field is like a magnet, binding him firmly to the earth.

boom!

The earth magic spider was blasted out, and the rock armor on the body was peeling off continuously, revealing the real gray spider.

Another ice spider is even worse. Surrounded by a strong flame, it curled up its body, posing a slaughterless look. As for the imaginary spider, after escaping, how dare not show up.

“Can he still control the magma and flames in the eruption?”

The Queen of Spiders was shocked again, which was unimaginable and reasonable. The magma and flames seem like living creatures, which is completely out of common sense in physics!

Choosing the wrong battlefield, it turned out to be the wrong battlefield.

Seeing a series of magma, it was swirling and rushing towards her, and the flames around her had surrounded her like an army of flames. The huge rocks that were sprayed into the air were hitting the ground like meteorites, and there was a rumble of crits.

And Wang Yan, surrounded by magma and flames, fanned the wings of Bat King slowly. His sturdy face, without a slight expression on his face, seemed indifferent like a flaming king standing high above.

At this moment, he really shows the dominance of the king, the king of flames, dominates the flames.

He was encroaching on the majestic volcanic eruption and pressed away to the Queen of Spiders.

In front of a guy who manipulated the power of the volcano, the Queen of Spiders felt so powerless to deal with. Despite all her unwillingness, she lost her fighting spirit at this moment.

“I surrender!”

The Queen Spider was pale, she gritted her teeth and said the words aloud.

“Humph!” Wang Yan seemed to grunt reluctantly, slowly converging the breath of flame. The two sides are just opponents, not endless enemies.

As if the anger of Wang Yan disappeared, the momentum of the volcanic eruption actually slowed down.

The carbon dioxide thick smoke and the molten slurry stopped slowly, and the molten slurry flowing on the ground gradually solidified into volcanic rock under contact with the air.

Wang Yan’s domineering and powerful image was also restored to the normal state, and his feet were slightly staggered and almost fell to the ground. Whether it was the hammer that burst out all the power just now, or the use of the domain of the flame king, the manipulation of natural magma and flames, let him consume a lot of power.

A pair of bright and shiny wings fluttered, and the Bright Saint Girl fell beside him. Supported his arm, pinched his fingertips and burst into a white vortex of energy, swirling into the body of Wang Yan.

Wang Yan only felt a pure, clear, warm breath swimming in the body. The tears and injuries of the five internal organs and the internal organs healed quickly under the blessing of the divine light power. Almost exhausted physical energy and energy, gradually nourished by the power of light, gradually recovered.

Wang Yan 's image has returned to normal, and he is grateful and said: "His Royal Highness, thank you for your treatment." I have to admit that the light of the Holy See can develop so well in this world. It is not unreasonable for the power and prestige to be deeply rooted.

Because of this milk power, it will also be widely welcomed by all major abilities. Wang Yan believes that if he and the Bright Lady form a team to kill the enemy, the combat effectiveness and endurance will be at least tripled.

The Bright Lady swept the mess around her, and she didn't think that after Wang Yan exploded out all her strength, she could trigger a volcanic eruption and reverse the whole unfavorable situation. He immediately raised his eyebrows and said, "Congratulations, Your Excellency Wang Yan. In your fight with the Queen of Spiders, the Queen of Spiders surrendered voluntarily. So you won this match,"

Wang Yan took a long look at the seemingly unwilling Queen of Spiders, and smiled easily: "This is to thank the Queen Spider for giving me up." I also felt a little emotion in my heart. Sure enough, I cannot underestimate the heroes of the world. A game that I thought I would win, it was so difficult in the end.

If it's not relying on the domain of the Fire King, maybe this scene will have to be planted on the spot. Each of the three spiders of the Queen of Spiders is extraordinary. Especially the virtual world spider, which can move between the four-dimensional world and the three-dimensional world, is really invincible.

Thinking of this, Wang Yan also arched his hand and said, "Your Excellency Arenia, your tactical combat power is really an eye-opener for me. Today, Wang Yan, thanks to the power of the volcano, luckily won your honour. In my heart, I certainly refused to accept it. It would be better to go back and have a chance, wait for everyone to be promoted to A level, and then have a good fight. "

Wang Yan's words made the Queen of Spiders feel more comfortable, and a smile appeared on Qiao's face: "Since I awakened the power, I lost for the first time to people of the same rank. Although you used the power of the volcano, it belongs to your domain and is one of your abilities. I didn't lose it. I have a feeling that the power of the laws of heaven and earth that you comprehend will also be very powerful. I look forward to our post-A level Fight, but I will definitely not fight you on the edge of the volcano, because it is pure looking for abuse. "

During the talk, the volcanic ash sprayed into the air began to land on the ground one after another. These mineral-laden volcanic ash will bring excellent advantages to the plantation industry.

The rest of the teammates and the men and women of the Super Shield Bureau each fell under various energy shields.

"Pharaoh, I will say you did it." Zhang Weidao threw a rune, forming a translucent energy shield, which resisted the ashes of the volcano, and said with excitement, "You can even trigger a volcanic eruption. Extraordinary. I will add a piece of information to your intelligence in the future-do not fight Wang Yan on the edge of the volcano. "

Gao Mingyue was also inexplicably inexplicable. It was unimaginable to control the power of the volcano. She just thought about her position just now. Even if she was fighting with Wang Yan, I am afraid it would be a situation of losing more than winning.

"Congratulations, Lord Mingyue." Auguste, the golden lion sword, looked at Wang Yan very worriedly. Although he was reluctant, he still said according to the previous agreement, "The perfect body queen belongs to you, but I hope you are expensive Fang can give us a little bit of her genes to satisfy our hungry researchers. You can rest assured that our Super Shield will pay a price, not just want. "

"On this point, I have to respect Tong Xiaoqing's choice." Gao Mingyue said indifferently, "Although we have a genetic research team in the China National African Affairs Bureau, but any of our research will obtain the consent of the researcher."

"That's of course, our country is also very human rights-conscious. If you don't ask for the researcher's consent, then there is no difference from FBG." August nodded and expressed his understanding.

At this moment, a playful laughter came from afar: "August, Gao Mingyue. You have decided to leave the perfect body queen without permission. Have you asked us about FBG?"

Under the branches, Gao Mingyue and August's faces changed together.

FBG?

In addition to these Thai and Thai reinforcements, there are FBG members? How dare they dare to violate the WEFA ban?

Everyone looked in the direction of the sound source, and saw a man in a black robe, who stepped in from afar. Every step he took seemed to distort the space, appearing tens of meters away.

In just a few seconds, he appeared out of thin air, standing indifferently out of thin air.

He was not very old, he looked like he was 30 or 40 years old, his cheekbones were prominent, and his face was as pale as a dead person. His hair was pale and white, but he was very clean and neatly spread around his shoulders.

"It turned out to be you!" Auguste's face showed a trace of fear, and said with some exasperation, "Sharuman, how dare you appear here?"

The man in black robe, known as Sharuman, sneered humorously and said, "August, is this Liulidao opened by your house? Huh, this seat naturally comes when you want, and just leaves . "

Sharuman?

Gao Mingyue and Wang Yan and others, slightly lagging behind each other, looked at each other and remembered who this person was.

Dark mentor Sharuman was a terrible dark magician decades ago. His name is in the Nordic generation, and it used to stop children from crying at night. Because he has done countless things to study dark magic.

There was no European Union at that time, so that the Holy See ruled him as an evil heretic and sent a verdict to kill him by the Paladin.

Sometimes, those who are ruled as evil heretics by the Light Holy See are not necessarily true evil heretics. But Sharuman was a demon who could stand on a cross and grill a hundred times, and it was difficult to forgive sins.

Unfortunately, Sharuman's guy is very cunning, and he is also a pinnacle of dark magic practice. Like a loach, he escaped from the encirclement and suppression of the Paladin, and in the process, he made more angry and resentful acts.

Later, the Bright Holy See became angry. Directly dispatched an S-level adjudicating paladin, and proficient elite holy knights suppressed him. Just when everyone thought the dark mentor Sharuman was in a disaster.

He suddenly disappeared from the world.

The S-level paladin has searched him for three years all over the world, and he has not been seen, so he can only regret to give up.

Until ten years ago, Dark Tutor Sharuman appeared again. This time, he became stronger. And also joined the mysterious organization FBG at that time, became a core member of FBG-one of the twelve apostles.

Each of the Twelve Apostles of FBG is A-level combat power, and it is a powerful force that FBG cannot ignore.

Under the support of FBG, the dark mentor Sharuman is rampant. The craziest one was once, in order to study stronger dark magic, he sacrificed tens of thousands of blood and tried to communicate with the dark abyss.

In this regard, the Guangming Holy See again attacked and suppressed. It is a pity that under the protection of FBG, he repeatedly escaped his life. Afterwards, he has converged a little bit, and has hardly appeared in public in the past decade.

“Saruman, you violated the WEFA ban and appeared on Liuli Island openly.” The bright maiden’s face was even more gloomy, and he said angrily, “Are you ready to start a new round of war? Well, I am afraid that even FBG can’t keep it now you.”

Compared with others, the Light Lady is more familiar with the dark mentor Sharuman. No way, this evil black magician is still hanging on the wanted list of heretics in the Light Holy See.

And his position is very high, fully ranked ninth.

Ranked ninth in the wanted black list with an A-level strength. This shows how much the Light Holy See attached to this dark mentor, Sharuman.

“Hey, Her Royal Highness is here too.” Facing the Bright Holy Virgin, the dark mentor Sharuman showed a look of not being able to enter, and said with a weird smile, “What if the violation of the prohibition is not sanctified?” Your Highness wants to eat me? “

The bright sage girl’s face was angry, her lips moved slightly, and she said to Gao Mingyue and Wang Yan: “Your Excellency Mingyue, Your Excellency Wang Yan. I hope the two of you can help out and suppress this arrogant evil heresy. You can rest assured, wanted the black list The reward for the ninth place is amazing. I do n’t want to give it to you at all. “

Bright Saint Maiden’s own combat capability is definitely not bad, but she is better at all kinds of blessings. Moreover, the dark mentor was able to spend a lot of time under the enlightenment of the light church, and it was definitely not a fuel-efficient lamp.

It’s no wonder that the Bright Lady had to ask Gao Mingyue and Wang Yan for help of the Holy See.

Wang Yan sighed, took out an inner pill essence, and injected himself into the body. Feeling the essence of Neidan boiling in the blood and quickly replenishing his energy, Wang Yan sighed and said to the two women, “His Royal Highness is a little restless, I think it ’s better to discuss it first, how to save your life. . “

“Bao Ming?” Bright Saint Maiden and Gao Mingyue, their respective faces slightly awe-inspiring.

“You can look at the signal of the satellite phone.” Wang Yan sighed and said, “The situation is now very obvious. The other party knows that we have so many masters, and dare to come out with arrogance and block the satellite signal. . This only represents one thing ... “

Wang Yan did not say it clearly, but the meaning was already very clear. Sharuman, the dark mentor, was ready to wipe out everyone.

“How is it possible?” The Bright Saint whispered, but she was as clever as her, and immediately thought that Wang Yan’s inference was very likely to be established. Take out the satellite phone and see, the signal is completely shielded. For a time, her eyes were a little awe-inspiring.

Not only was Wang Yan aware of this, the Super Shield Bureau also found something wrong, and they talked with each other.

“Haha ~” The dark mentor Sharuman laughed jokingly. “It’s worthy of the” elite “of the Super Shield Bureau and the National African Bureau. Is the response still slower? Yes, as you think, this seat The reason to dare to come is to prepare you to be swept away. As long as you are all dead on this Liuli Island, who knows that we FBG will do it? Hahaha ~ “

A series of rampant laughter made the shocked person’s scalp numb.

“It’s up to you !?” Auguste, the golden lion sword, pulled out his alloy sword. His blond hair fluttered and proudly said, “When I was promoted to A grade three years ago, the shame you left me with this life Unforgettable. Dark tutor Sharuman, today I will return all the humiliation to you one by one. “

“Hey, August, you want to fight this battle, you are still far away.” Dark tutor Shaluman, disdainful to August, waved and said, “You still with me Slave, practice it right. “ servant?

Everyone was stunned, and the space behind Sharuman was slightly distorted. A tall and thin bald man showed his figure out of thin air. He is a typical appearance of the Indian Aryan race. The forehead is also inlaid with a red gemstone, like the third eye.

“Emperor Shitian!”

Everyone whispered together! Watching this scene in disbelief, Emperor Shitian is the top young talent in India, and he is also among the top ten outstanding youths in the world. But is it such a proud person that he will become a servant of Sharuman?

No, his eyes showed a slight scarlet evil color, as if controlled by some evil dark spell.

Emperor Shitian's scarlet evil eyes swept the circle of people, and finally his eyes fell on Wang Yan. His body trembled all at once, and an invincible hatred erupted in his eyes.

"Master Sharuman, I want to kill him." Emperor Shi Tianfang's teeth were staring at Wang Yan with hate. Obviously, even if his mind was controlled, his hatred for Wang Yan remained undiminished.

"Since it is your request, then I will satisfy you once." The dark mentor Sharuman smiled strangely and looked at Wang Yan. "Fire King Wang Yan, I have read your information. But you I am more powerful than the intelligence shows. The battle between you and the Queen of Spiders just now controlled the volcanic eruption. Hey, I just do n't know if you have the strength to do it again. "

Wang Yan just injected the essence of Nei Dan just now, the strength in the body is recovering, but it is obviously impossible to restore to the heyday. But his face was very indifferent, and said aloud: "Can you come again, you can come and try."

"Hey, boy Wang Yan, you're quite arrogant. You were still in your mother's womb when you were in this position." Sharuman seemed to stare at Wang Yan with interest, "However, the most appreciate the extraordinary potential Young man. If you are willing to surrender to me, I will save you a life. "

Wang Yan glanced at Emperor Shi Tian, but answered very seriously, "I can take refuge in you."

"Wang Yan!" Both Gao Mingyue and the Bright Saint Maiden changed their faces, staring at him with a cold face. How can this guy be so unruly.

Sharuman was stunned for a moment, he just talked casually. Never thought about it, Wang Yan would actually agree. Has the shame and morality of the young people of this year disappeared?

Of course, willing to surrender is a good thing. Whether it is true surrender or false surrender. He has a way to make him the most loyal servant. Sharuman said with a happy face: "I appreciate the smart young man like you in clear form. You can rest assured that I will not use dark magic to control your heart, at most. Just put a ban on you. After mixing with this seat, there will always be your early days. "

Wang Yan smiled and said, "However, Emperor Shitian and I don't share a deep hatred. Before I surrender to you, you should kill him first."

Sharuman's face was stagnant, and his eyes were full of violent anger, and he was shaking with anger and said, "Don't be stupid, do you dare to play this seat?"

"Yes, you're playing with you." Wang Yan looked innocent and admitted honestly, "Just because you grow up like this, and you want to be the boss of Wang Yan? You don't * your urine and look in the mirror. How many times have I lost it? "

"Poof!" Yuan Rourou, the highly toxic widow on the side, was amused, and the stinky boy was also very malicious. The enemy is also a human, do n't be so abused?

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 375

"You ..." Sharuman, the dark mentor, turned pale, and the muscles on his face kept twitching, grinning, "Okay, good. Your courage is beyond my expectations, I will let you know, What is despair. This seat will use dark magic to corrode your body. Take your soul out and use the fire of darkness to torture you for a hundred years or a thousand years. "

As his words fell, a breath filled with evil and darkness filled the space. Because of the volcanic eruption just now, and the elements of flames that were full of excitement, under the impact of the abrupt waves of evil energy, the smoke disappeared.

As soon as Sharuman's dark realm unfolded, even the color of the sky became dim, and a large amount of dark and evil breath enveloped everyone.

Regarding Sharuman's violent intimidation, Wang Yan felt nothing. Things have reached this level, is it possible to please Sharuman, and can he really enlarge his family? At this time, whether it is life or death, only speak with strength.

After successfully inspiring Sharuman's anger, Wang Yan directly said to the Bright Maiden and Gao Mingyue: "Do it!"

No matter what kind of confident Sharuman holds, Wang Yan doesn't want to start after the opponent shows the cards. The rhythm and initiative of the battle must be in your hands. It is best to accidentally wound Sharuman, or even kill him.

Take advantage of the enemy's pretensions, be sure to start strong!

Wang Yan's wings of a bat king swooped violently, rushing towards Shaluman like a gallop.

At the same time, the Bright Lady and Gao Mingyue also cooperated. I saw a wing of the Holy Light of the Holy Maiden, followed by Wang Yan, and his right hand was held in the void, with an extra-white and ancient scepter.

"The God of Light is above. Give you faithful believers the invincible power." Her voice exploded in the air like a rune, and the holy glory shone through the sky.

A magical thing happened. In the haunting holy light, there seemed to be a ghost of the light * in the sky. He wore a golden sacred armor and a pair of golden sacred wings on his back. With a wave of his hand, a sacred white light was sprayed, and Wang Yan was shrouded in.

"Daguangming Shengdian" is the foundation of the light of the Holy See. It is also one of the most top-level cultivation methods in the world. Unlike the "Pure Yang Divine Skills" that Wang Yan learned, "The Great Light of the Holy Book" is all-encompassing. There are powerful enemies of killing enemies, there are also methods of refining the flesh to inspire divine fighting spirit, and there are auxiliary divine acts that bless the world and save life.

Because of her identity, the Bright Saint Maid has several killing enemies, but it is her duty to master auxiliary assists.

This kind of “God’s grace” came out, and it was really the scorching holy light, and the weather was numerous. The phantom of the light * summoned out also contains a sense of dignity, which makes people want to bear a desire to worship.

With the blessing of holy white light, Wang Yan only felt a sacred and endless power pouring out of his body. Each muscle fiber has become tougher, stronger, and full of powerful force.

The explosion of power has given Wang Yan a illusion that the world is invincible, God blocks the gods, and the Buddha blocks the Buddha. With his right hand, he picked up the natal warhammer and slammed it away with a hammer. A burst of flame power sprayed out of the body. It was powerful, as if the entire sky was lit.

Of course, because this divine art consumes a lot of power. After using this trick, the Lady of Light apparently paled a lot.

“Damn!”

Sharuman’s appearance is not over yet, he is brewing momentum. He did not expect that the other party suddenly started. Damn, this is not logical, should n’t we just slap each other and fight again?

I’m not ready yet!

“Emperor Shitian!” Sharuman growled.

Emperor Shi Tian behind him, immediately began operations. The crystal on his forehead erupted into a brilliant light, and his ten long slender fins flew over and out, and instantly formed a golden seal, blasting to Wang Yan.

“Destroy the Magic Seal!” Emperor Shitian yelled and snarled, “Wang Yan, you will die for me.”

In his life, he has always been the best among his peers, and he will be admired and respected no matter where he goes. He had never had that kind of loss, that kind of shame. Therefore, even if the mind is controlled by dark magic. Subconsciously, the hatred towards Wang Yan has not been reduced, but strengthened a lot.

“Break me!”

As if Wang Yan had expected a roadblock, he had no fear in the face of the attack by Emperor Shitian, who had up to A-level strength. The mortal warhammer filled with layers of flames greeted us.

A hammer and a stamp struck together.

Emperor Shitian’s magic seal was exploded by Wang Yan, and the golden fragments of energy turned into a burst of shock waves. And the spiritual power closely linked with the magic seal has also been hit by counterattack.

He realized that the sea was shocked by a wave of anti-bite energy, holding his head loudly and screaming tragically, with blood spewing out of his mouth.

In this world, Taoism, magic, Dharma, or divine and evil techniques, etc. It’s just that the name and expression are not the same, but in the most basic nature, it’s just the same. All use their own power to drive certain types of heaven and earth laws to achieve the corresponding spell effects.

The spiritual power is a very important part in the construction of spells. There are many types of spells, not to say that a spell is thrown out, even if it is done. After that, it takes mental power to continue the spell effect and actively play a role.

This is also the case, you can see that many spells are very powerful to use. However, once broken, the caster is often repulsed. Obviously, Emperor Shitian was met with backlash.

However, despite Wang Yan ’s blessing from the Highness of the Holy Lady, Emperor Shitian is finally a Class A strong man. After this hammer broke the “Magic Seal”, he was not so good.

Under the violent impact, the blood in his body surged like a tide. The internal organs boiled like a river and a sea, the throat was sweet, and there was a spit of blood. The whole person rolled over in the air.

However, Wang Yan's opportunity for knowing love is rare. Under the blessing of "the grace of God is coming", his fighting power has been abruptly raised. The wings shuddered, stabilizing the body in just one second, and gritted their teeth to kill Emperor Shitian again.

That's right, it is to kill Emperor Shitian.

The reason is very simple, his goal is actually Emperor Shitian from beginning to end.

As for Sharuman, someone will naturally deal with it.

The majestic "God of Grace" admiration, and Wang Yan's exaggerated and overbearing performance, firmly attracted everyone, including Sharuman's attention and hatred.

at the same time.

Gao Mingyue stepped on the Yuefei Feijian, like a swimming fish walking in the air, she was fast and concealed. Through the fighting momentum between Wang Yan and Emperor Shitian, she pointed out a pinch, invited Yuejian to tear the space, and severely cut to Sharuman.

This small tactic was a tactic that Wang Yan set quickly and communicated briefly when he provoked Saruman. When preparing to take advantage of Sharuman's appearance, it is best to wipe him out in one fell swoop. Wang Yan didn't have much interest in Sharuman's confident source. At the worst, let him pay a price.

As expected, tactical execution has been quite effective.

Until Gao Mingyue cut off with a sword, a few seconds later. Sharuman, who was attracted by his attention and hatred, reacted. His face changed rapidly, and his hands twitched out a magic weapon.

It was a voodoo doll-like little puppet magic weapon. The magic weapon exuded a strong black power and instantly supported a black energy shield in front of him. It was full of evil and dark energy. The black mist swelled, as if there was an innocent soul screaming in it. It makes people shudder and fear.

Evil spirit curse!

This is a dark magic weapon elaborately refined by Sharuman. In order to sacrifice that dark magic weapon, he used evil and horrible means to kill many innocent people who do not know. Every innocent person who was sacrificed by blood was tortured to resentment by terrible means.

The greater the resentment, the greater the power brought to the magic weapon after being sacrificed into the magic weapon.

And what is extremely scary is that as long as more resentful spirits are added, the power of the magic weapon will continue to increase. At the beginning, Sharuman repeatedly escaped the chase of the Light Holy See by evil spirits blaming this filthy magic weapon.

Gao Mingyue's Invited Moon Sword, a sword cut on the black shield condensed by the magic weapon.

Invited Moon Sword burst into bright white cracked light, and the black shield shattered at once. With such a strong impact, even the space showed a crack, almost breaking.

Under the intense shock wave, Sharuman's body swayed, as if distorting the space, appearing tens of meters away.

The arrogant Sharuman blew out a blood, his face pale and terrified.

“Alas!” Wang Yan glanced at this scene in the corner of his eyes, and could not help but sigh. The plan is beautiful, but the reality is very skinny. This Sharuman's ability to escape exceeded his estimate.

Fortunately, the plan also had a successful side, and that Sharuman gave Gao Mingyue a hard blow, and the injuries would not be shallow. Shushan Feijianliu has always been known as the world of superpowers for its lethal power.

Sharuman's expression was extremely cruel: "Vile, shameless. This seat wants you all to die! Come out, my partner, my friend!"

As his words fell, Shaluman once again inspired him to spend countless hours and energy, even at the curse of the magic weapon evil spirits who were hunted down by the Light Holy See.

The power in the evil spirit's grudge was excited, and a black energy vortex covering a few tens of meters was formed in an instant. The vortex of energy seemed to tear the space, revealing an endless void of dark matter.

A huge devil claw flew out of the sea of dark matter in the virtual world, and met the invitation to the sword again. At the same time, a rampant demonic laughter sounded: "Sharuman, you are so wasteful, you are so embarrassed by a group of human juniors."

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 376

Gao Mingyue cut through the dark mentor Sharuman's defense with one sword, without any hesitation, after catching up one after another, he cut out the second sword. What sighed in her heart was that Sharuman unleashed his card without hesitation.

He controlled the evil spells of evil spirits in the dark magic weapon, which caused the world to change, and the violent dark energy vortex shattered the space barrier.

Gao Mingyue's body trembled, and he was palpitating. In the endless sea of dark energy, there is still a powerful monster. It hasn't revealed its true body yet. With that huge claw alone, a strong sense of oppression has developed.

The devil's claws flew out of the dark energy sea, torn the broken space barrier, and grabbed the invited moon sword directly.

Inviting Yuejian to shine like a bright moonlight, struggling. But he was caught by that huge claw, and he couldn't get rid of it.

“How is it possible?” Gao Mingyue’s pretty appearance changed, and her eyes showed shock. Her invitation to the Moon Sword can break the golden mountain, and the power is very great, when the power is exerted to the extreme. Even a small warship can be cut in two.

That devil’s claw was so terrible that it could directly capture the invited moon sword.

“The * of light is above, give me the holy light, and destroy the evil monster.” The light maiden chanted, and the scepter burst into a holy, bright white light. They converged into a thick barrel of light, tearing the space. , Slammed into that huge claw.

The light of judgment!

This is one of the famous killing tricks of the Guangming Holy See. From ancient times to now, I do not know how many evils have been wiped out under the light of judgment.

Like “Pure Yang Divine Skill”, “Great Light” is also a powerful method that can restrain evil spirits in the world.

The beam of light is extremely fast and instantly hits the devil’s claw.

“boom!”

Under the light particles, the huge devil’s claw was blasted into a big hole, so hurt that the arrogant monster made an angry roar.

At the same time, Yueyuejian finally broke free. Gao Mingyue pinched the sword tactics and invited Yuejian to sing like a luan phoenix, exuding the moonlight’s clear light, turning into layers of sword shadows, and slashing towards the devil’s claw.

The sword is spirited, and the moon sword will also be angry. This cut is more powerful than usual.

“Uh!”

The sharp and inviting Moon Sword, slashing the huge devil claw like a mountain.

In the roar of the monster, the huge devil claws that were repeatedly created finally could no longer be condensed and formed, the dark energy burst and dissipated, and the devil claw of Nuo Da turned into nothing.

“Junior! You are too rampant.” In the black vortex, a shadow of a dozen meters high is enough to show it, and it roared in extreme anger. “This king will imprison all your souls and torture them for a thousand years. Years, let you live forever in the sinking and suffering. “

Furious, it punched * the nearly broken space barrier. There was a turbulence in the space, as if there were countless cobweb-like cracks.

“This is !?” Auguste, the golden lion sword, was also very ugly. He has always been an extremely confident person. He is also confident about this task of Liulidao. However, I didn’t expect to break through his estimates again and again during the mission.

First, they were defeated in the hands of the National African Bureau, betting on the ownership of the “perfect body queen”. Then he was blocked by the dark mentor Shaluman, threatening to eliminate them all. Under a series of dazzling changes, Sharuman summoned such a monster.

“This is-Abyss Demon!”

August’s pupils contracted, and he could hardly believe his eyes. But that figure, although it has not completely broken the space barrier, appeared in front of everyone. But Auguste’s excellent eyesight has clearly seen its image.

A pair of huge demon wings with a wingspan of eight or nine meters are covered in black scale armor, and a pair of curved devil horns grow on the grim head.

These detailed features are all in perfect agreement with the image of the abyss demon seen by Auguste from the data.

“How is it possible !?” Auguste was so shocked that the abyss demon hadn’t appeared on the earth for thousands of years.

“The God of Light is above, it is an abyss demon, and it is also a lord-level abyss demon!” The light maiden’s face also changed rapidly, and shouted, “Let’s work together before it comes.”

There are many records of abyssal demons in the books of the Holy See. As one of the eternal enemies of the God of Light, the Abyss Demon is undoubtedly a very powerful evil race. Once each abyss demon reaches adulthood, it can reach A-level combat power.

Only the S-level combat power will be called the abyss lord.

If expected, this abyss lord must have at least S-level combat power. Once it comes, the consequences are unbearable.

With the call of the Holy Virgin, all those who could do it immediately went all out.

The poisonous widow Yuan Rourou waved her arms repeatedly, the whole body was covered with green mist, and she was continuously condensed into green balls. The green ball slammed into the black vortex, bursting with a thick poisonous fog.

Rock Johnson stepped on the ground, and the volcanic rock was like a living creature, covering his body, forming a thick armor. Almost in a flash, he turned into a rock giant like five or six meters high.

With palms on the ground, a few tons of rock was picked up lightly, and with a roar, the rock hit the black vortex.

The Queen of Spiders didn't do anything, but her virtual spider hidden in the endless virtual realm crawled silently to the abyss lord in the virtual realm, preparing for a sneak attack and giving it a fatal blow.

After being spawned, Zhang Weidao, who was in a "post-partum state of weakness", also spelled it out and gritted his teeth and pulled out a blue jade rune. There were countless mysterious mysterious runes engraved on the jade rune and vaguely distributed. With extremely powerful power.

He was awe-inspiring. When the jade symbol flew to the black vortex, he pinched his fingers and said in his mouth: "Hurry like a decree, the sky descends on the thunder, help me cut the demon and destroy the devil." For the abyss demon, Zhang Weidao actually it is also very familiar on the sky. In their Tianyi records, this kind of monster is called "outer domain demon", which means that it comes from outside the earth and has a very powerful demon.

In Tianyidao's records, this extraterrestrial demon is terrible and powerful. Once it appears, it is a world-wide catastrophe. The reason is terrible, because with his current strength of Zhang Weidao, even an ordinary adult abyss demon can't do it, let alone the extraordinarily powerful Demon King.

The language of Eastern and Western civilizations is different, and this kind of evil demon from different places is called differently. But one thing is the same, that is to say that the Four Devils are far away are terrible and terrible. Once they appear, they are very likely to face the danger of world destruction.

Zhang Weidao's jade symbol "Heavenly Thunder" is one of the life-saving symbols of Tianyi's young patriarch, and its power is very powerful. Even the A-level strongman who wants to make a hard connection must carefully weigh it.

"Lightning Spear!"

The thunderstorm girl also participated in the action, like the female version of the Titan, with lightning all over her body. In his right hand, he grabbed a lightning spear and slammed it out.

The old predecessors of the National African Affairs Bureau are still unable to calm down when facing the extraterrestrial demon king. In his corpse coffin, between the corpses, a body covered in golden armor and a corpse with a golden spear will appear out of thin air.

Jin Jia's body will be extraordinary, and his mental strength swept the spot. However, when Jin Jia's body would see the scene in front of him, as a long time of cultivation, and his extraordinary intelligence, he couldn't help but take a breath.

Sect Master, do not take you to play like this. When playing a little chat in front, don't let this seat come out to play pretense. Now there is an extraterrestrial demon king, who wants to make this seat up hard?

The nagging nagging in his heart, but the golden armor will still kill him with a long gun.

In addition, as the captain of Midi, August also clasped the alloy sword with both hands. The tall sword cut across, and the brilliant fighting turned into a ten-meter-long sword.

“Earthmen cheer!” The two B + monsters controlled by the little chick Amy were all beheaded by the corpses and turned into crystal nuclei. Looking left and right, helplessly, I had to shout a slogan.

For a time, all masters except Wang Yan and Amy, the chick, shot together.

In the sky, all kinds of light shine brightly. The crackling sound was deafening, and the shock waves were in a chain reaction, tearing all the space.

The poor abyss demon lord, struggling across half a body, was collectively bombarded. However, after all, it is a lord-level abyss demon, with a black shield propped on his body, and a bone spear spear was drawn from behind, and a spear swept out.

Boom!

In the violent explosion and impact, everything quickly disappeared.

The black vortex has been completely broken, and the shield on the demon lord has also burst, and his strong body has a few more fierce wounds. Even so, it has resisted the siege of many masters, and it has suddenly crossed the space barrier and came to this world.

Everyone’s complexion became very poor. Almost all of them shot together, and even failed to destroy the demon lord, and after paying some damage to it, they forcibly broke through to the earth.

At the same time, in the hands of the demon lord, he also caught a translucent spider, which is the queen of spiders. The abyss lord, who is more than ten meters tall, bite and eat the spider, and said with a terrible grin: “Shiver, ants. The terrifying demon has come to your world, Well !?”

Only half of his rampant laughter came to an abrupt halt, and the majestic momentum seemed to be suppressed by something, eliminating a lot.

“Damn Gaia will, dare to suppress the king with the power of the law.” The abyss lord laughed angrily. “But even if Gaia will suppress, you, the trash, are not the opponent of the king.”

“Great demon lord.” Sharuman’s face was a bit bad because he was too much, but his eyes were full of excitement and excitement. “According to our agreement, the souls of these young talents on earth are all It 's yours. But please be gentle when you start, we FBG still need their DNA to study the secret of eternal life. “

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 377

When the demon lord just wanted to speak.

“boom!”

On the side of Wang Yan, he finally hit Emperor Shitian with a hammer, and the powerful impact force smashed him to the ground, and his body hit a crater on the ground. Emperor Shitian's chest had all broken bones, and his internal organs were completely broken.

Lying in that crater, it was already out of breath and out of breath. His injury was so serious that even if the fairy came, he could not be saved. But even so, Wang Yan held his right hand and blasted the flame of encountering the pure sun, igniting Emperor Shitian and burning it to ashes.

The top master of the young generation in India, the top ten outstanding young people in the world, so screaming. In the end, even the screams failed to stay.

Wang Yan wiped the blood from the corners of his mouth without any joy on his face. The reason why he was able to kill Emperor Shitian was because the fighting power of the opponent had not yet returned to its peak state. Secondly, it is the result of the great increase of one's fighting power by the “Sacred Grace” of the Bright Lady.

Wang Yan also lived up to the expectations, recruited all the hardships, replaced injuries with injuries, and desperately killed Emperor Shitian. But what worries him even more is the demon lord. According to legend, the demon lord is S-level combat power, and it usually has a bunch of extraordinary strength.

The demon lord did not feel anything about Emperor Shitian's death. He glanced at Wang Yan slightly with surprise, and said with a smile: “You little human, it is a bit powerful. Obviously there is only the realm of the domain level, and even the rules of heaven are not comprehended. But it can be so short under the grace of God. Within a time, kill a holy domain-level strongman. This powerful combat power is rare even in our abyss world. Ha ha, I do n't know if you are interested in becoming a slave to this king, this king can be with you Under the witness of the rules of the abyss, signing a soul contract guarantees your benefits. “

This demon lord, speaks English very badly. It is obviously a premeditated plan to come to earth to make waves.

“Hehe.” Wang Yan smiled calmly and said, “Is the Demon Lord of the Abyss right? I guess you are just an S-level legendary strongman. I want to accept me as a servant. I am afraid that I still have some qualifications.”

“The legendary strongman only?” The demon lord said with a smile and angrily, “Yes, this king is a legendary strongman. Why, on your earth, are legendary strongmen worthless? Tell you the truth, this king The age of is replaced by the age of the earth. It is only two hundred and fifty years old. It is hailed as one of the most promising abyssal demons. Is it embarrassing to follow this king? “

Wang Yan’s eyes narrowed, and he immediately showed a disdainful look: “Sure enough, as I expected, but that’s all. I’m not afraid to tell you the truth, I am twenty-three years old this year, and my cultivation has only been just one year. You Do you think there is comparability between us? “

When he said this, not only the demon lord was taken aback. The people of Midi Chaodu Bureau also heard a little stunned. Admit it, maybe someone in this world awakens, because of the special ability, the strength will soar suddenly.

But Wang Yan is obviously the kind of strong man who is promoted step by step. But did he practice for just one year? Is this too exaggerated! ? Especially the golden lion sword Auguste, he prides himself on being a peerless genius, and is very proud of it. But he felt like a peerless idiot compared with Wang Yan.

The demon lord’s brows jumped, his fangs were exposed. Then he smiled and said, “Okay, okay, I admit that you are a great genius. Unfortunately, no genius has grown up, it’s just garbage. Since you can’t surrender, let this king clean up the future of our abyss obstacle.”

The demon lord’s huge body straddled a step, and in a short time, its figure had completely disappeared. Time is just a moment. The space behind Wang Yan was slightly twisted and rippling, the body of the demon lord was revealed, and the huge bone spear poked away.

The abyss family, it is said that the abyss world in which they live is a world of broken space. Their space is very messy, and they are also divided into layers, even connected to the violent endless virtual world.

Therefore, the abyss demons with authentic bloodline have a very deep understanding of the law of space. Distorting the space to make a teleportation attack and escape is commonplace for them.

“Wang Yan be careful.”

Gao Mingyue’s pretty face changed slightly, and when she reminded her, she invited Yuejian to cut it out without hesitation, turned into a sword rainbow, and severely cut off to the demon lord.

Wang Yan turned back in an instant and wanted to hide. The bones of the whole body crackled for a while, and a hammer hit the demon lord.

“clang!”

In a heavy symphony of gold and iron, the violent impact shocked Wang Yan’s internal organs, turning like a meteor, slamming down to the ground.

After one shot blasted off Wang Yan, it still had a spare backhand to block Gao Mingyue’s invitation to Moon Sword.

“Everyone goes together, otherwise no one can escape.” Auguste, the golden lion sword, growled angrily, his blond hair flying all over the sky. The alloy sword exploded with splendor, and the sword was cut to the demon lord.

The rest of them followed up and launched a siege on the demon lord.

Auguste was right. No one could escape without killing the demon lord. Its spatial teleportation ability is too powerful.

At the same time, Wang Yan hit the back of the crater fiercely. The newly solidified volcanic rock was smashed by his back and the ground was cracked. Wang Yan’s face was pale, and his mouth spouted blood.

Straight inwardly, the power of this demon lord is terrible. If it were n't for the grand maiden of the Bright Lady, "The Coming of the Divine Grace" was still working, maybe he would have to kill him just now.

The battlefields not far away, the men and women of the China National African Affairs Bureau and the Midi Super Shield Bureau, put aside all stereotypes and have been fully united. All kinds of abilities, light, flying all over the sky.

However, the demon lord, himself a S-level legendary strongman, although he was injured, although he was suppressed by Gaia's will. But the S level is always the S level. In every move, the great Tianwei was wrapped around him.

Even if it is not as good as the fighting power of the heyday, it is at least an S-.

boom!

Rock Johnson took the lead and the whole body of volcanic rock armor was detonated, flying to Wang Yan like a dead dog.

Fortunately, he is of extraordinary physique. Although he was not injured, he still waved a hand to say hello to Wang Yan, and said with a smile: "Wang Yan, are you okay? That demon lord is too powerful to fight.

Immediately afterwards, the Queen of Spiders was smashed and flew over. I wonder if the demon lord intentionally, she also fell nearby. Her chestnut hair was messy, her tight leather jacket had a lot of cracks, and she was embarrassed by a strange sense of sex.

"Damn, my three baby spiders are all dead." The Queen Spider was pale with anger, and her whole body was shaking. It happened to see Rock Johnson again, peeping at her naked body ~ exposed. She made her frown, "Johnson, our earth-powered spider baby is dead, go back and give birth to another one."

"puff!"

Despite being in extreme danger, Wang Yan couldn't help but spit out blood again. It's no wonder that before seeing that soil-powered spider, it turned out to be really rock-strong.

Johnson's "body" shuddered, and his eyes showed fear. Obviously, the previous experience of giving birth to the Queen of Spiders was too tragic and terrible.

"My dear, don't you worry, don't you?" The Queen of Spiders sneered slyly, "It's not a person, and is eligible to have a baby with me. Many people don't even want this Queen even if they think. Wang Yan, you What spitting blood? Ha ha, as long as you are willing to nod, the queen is willing to give up other harems for you, and concentrate on letting you give birth to a spider baby for the queen alone. "

Despite the serious injury, Wang Yan still shook his head like a rattle, thanking Min Min, "I am really touched by Her Majesty the Queen. I am really moved. But your harem members are still reserved for other men in need." "

While talking, Zhang Weidao rolled down in front of everyone. I wanted to pretend to be dead. When I heard it, I was still talking about the baby spider. He gritted his teeth and crawled to kill the demon lord.

In just a few words, the B-level superpower has been swept out of the battlefield by the autumn wind.

And under the deliberate control of the demon lord, all fell to Wang Yan.

Obviously, he was preparing to bring everyone together and look back to extract souls one by one. According to legend, every abyss demon not only masters the laws of space, but also plays a role in mastering the soul.

Or stealing or cheating or snatching souls as if they were the sole purpose of their existence.

"Pharaoh, you want to find a way to spread it." Zhang Weidao was blasted back by the demon lord again, lying on the ground like a dead dog, and said with a griety face, "If you continue, we will wipe out the whole army. . "

“Damn demon lord, because of his high level, he is too arrogant.” Yuan Rourou said lying on the ground, spitting blood and anger, “If the old lady is also an S-class, you will kill it a hundred times a hundred times . “

“How can I do anything?” Wang Yan said with a sad face, but said helplessly, “All the signals are blocked. I want to make a phone call for help.” In fact, things have reached this point, even if you call for reinforcements. That’s too late.

At this moment, Tong Xiaoqing ran up to Wang Yan by the skirt, and her eyes looked at Wang Yan, full of “civility”, and said with a milky voice: “Wang Yan, my child, Hurry, jump from here. “

“Child?” Wang Yan’s expression was slightly stunned. This little Loli still called her handsome big brother before. What is this scenario? Is it crazy or a ghost? Moreover, she let herself jump into the crater that was beaten by herself.

But then, Xiao Loli again said something that made Wang Yan spur blood again.

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 378

“Wang Yan, don’t hesitate, I’m your mother.” Little Loli’s eyes flashed with kindness, and she stretched out her fat and small hands, and gently touched Wang Yan’s forehead. “Child, your I’ve seen everything in my eyes. You’ve done a good job. “

Wang Yan’s eyes widened, and there was blood on the corners of his mouth. A glance at the 8- or 9-year-old “mother” looked at the crater that hadn’t solidified and the magma was still surging tens of meters below. How to look and how to feel full of violations. The corners of his mouth twitched and said, “Damn Sharuman, it’s so heartbroken. It’s actually using evil dark magic to control such a lovely little loli. Go to your mother ~”

“despair!”

Only half of Wang Yan’s swearing was said, and he was hit on the forehead by “Tong Xiaoqing”. Her eyes slightly reproved and said: “Good boys are not allowed to swear. Wang Yan, my child, obviously you misunderstood my identity. In fact, I am really your mother, or all life on earth is me Child. I’m the Gaia consciousness in your mouth ... “

“Guy, Gaia consciousness !?”

Wang Yan stared dumbfounded, staring at Tong Xiaoqing’s “little loli”, and his heart was full of waves. Is this true or false? Wang Yan also knows that the earth may have Gaia consciousness, but never heard that Gaia consciousness will be attached to a person, and then communicate with people.

If she is truly Gaia conscious, she is not incomprehensible if she claims to be her own mother. Uh, huh, because another name for Gaia consciousness is Mother Earth, or Mother Earth ...

Wang Yan’s heart is pumping, is this challenging his imagination? I used to joke that we want to protect Mother Earth or something. I also told the monster that everyone is a child of Mother Earth ...

Unexpectedly, Mother Earth really appeared in front of herself, and attached to a little girl.

The rest were stunned and speechless. Gaia consciousness has always been an unproven hypothesis in the scientific community. With today’s technology becoming more and more advanced, scientists more and more think that the earth is a huge organism life, “she” will be sick, “she” will heal naturally, “she” will be angry, “she” will also promote life Evolution.

Some scientists even suggested that Gaia consciousness is a sign of the survival of a planet. Just like Mars in our house next to the earth, there is a silence, and even the earth’s center has been silent, indicating that the Gaia consciousness of Mars has died.

For the superpowers, Gaia consciousness has long been a secret. Some very powerful superpowers have more or less contacted Gaia consciousness. However, it seems that I have not heard that Gaia consciousness will be attached to a person and communicate directly with people.

“Tong Xiaoqing, this child, her mental strength is very strong and pure. If not, I can’t influence her to communicate with you.” Tong Xiaoqing blinked and said kindly, “Boy, it’s reasonable for me to doubt you. After all, there is a dark magician who is good at mind control. So, you think about how I can prove myself. “

Listening to her saying this, Wang Yan believed a bit. But under that crater is boiling magma, at least a few thousand Baidu's high temperature. Wang Yanmao hastily jumped in, perhaps supporting it for a while in the magma, but what if it was brought to the mantle by the tumbling magma?

The hot plume under the crater is not fixed. They will continue to roll over and over, and may even roll back to the deep center of the earth. On this point, Wang Yan knows his strength very well. He does n't need to be involved in the core of the earth at all. Even if it is pressed into the depths of tens of kilometers, the huge pressure will squeeze him into a patty.

Of course, before being squeezed into meat patties, Wang Yan had long been unable to resist the huge amount of heat and was baked into coke.

Prove she is Gaia conscious? As soon as Wang Yan turned his head, he asked a question and said, "Please use one sentence to evaluate my master's true personality." Wang Yan's information about the master is relatively confidential.

The outside world basically didn't know that his master was the famous Yan Zun. Take a step back, even if you know it is Yan Zun. Well, Yan Zun's personality in the outside world is actually very different from his own.

Wang Yan vaguely heard that Gaia consciousness will pay attention to a relatively strong existence. The master, his old man, is a pure earth man, and he has already practiced to the SS level. So for Gaia consciousness, he is his best child, how could he not pay attention?

Therefore, unless someone is very familiar with Yan Zun, it is impossible to know his true evil shameless character.

"This question is better." Tong Xiaoqing's mouth twitched a smile, and said in a voice that only Wang Yan could hear, "He is a child I am proud of, the most powerful little guy in the world, but also a cunning bad boy. . Wang Yan, it 's too late, please jump, I will protect you. "

"Cunning bad boy?" Wang Yan's mouth twitched. This evaluation is very strange. I have to admit that this evaluation is very true. Sure enough, people can't do bad things, otherwise you will know what you know, as well as Mother Earth.

Then Wang Yan rolled over, looked at the magma boiling under the crater, gritted his teeth, and jumped deep down. Isn't it just to jump the crater, I just jumped. After proving that she is truly Gaia conscious, Wang Yan has no psychological burden.

and many more!

She forgot, what did Mother Earth make her jump to the crater?

sweat! During the fall of Wang Yan, a drop of cold sweat. Bless? Poor self, won't you be fooled by the mother earth?

“Pooh!”

Wang Yan was like a stone, falling into boiling magma.

At the same time, Tong Xiaoqing, who also claimed to be the mother of the earth just now, closed his eyes and fell to the ground. Yuan Rourou waited for the rest of the people to react, and hugged Tong Xiaoqing anxiously and asked anxiously, “Mother Earth, what did you and Wang Yan just say? Let him jump down.”

Tong Xiaoqing woke up quietly, blinking and blinking her eyes, and said innocently: “Ah, is the handsome big brother swollen?”

Yuan Rourou and others fainted, Mother Earth, are you fooling?

It is said that Wang Yan was fooled into the magma, and the expected burning sensation did not come. Instead, it was like falling into the sea, and the warmth around him wrapped him tightly. For a time, Wang Yan's consciousness was blurred.

This feeling seems to be nestled in the arms of my mother when I was a child, warm, safe and carefree. It seems that all the troubles have disappeared at this instant.

In the tired and injured body, a wave of heat kept pouring into the body. Where he was injured, the cells grew rapidly and the wound healed. The force consumed by successive battles is constantly recovering.

His spiritual power continues to spread and explore in the magma.

It was at this time. A vast, majestic, and endlessly silent meaning poured into Wang Yan's mind like a tide.

Let him suddenly be in a vague and disorderly void. Because of darkness, he couldn't see. Because of the silence, he could not hear. Only the most instinctive feeling can be used to perceive what is happening around.

The mysterious energies that cannot be touched unfolded violently.

With the waves of frantic and disordered "Big Wave Vortex", Wang Yan felt his consciousness, sometimes being thrown up high and sometimes sinking quickly. I am like an ant who unfortunately fell into the screaming ocean, small and helpless, and will be crushed into powder at any time.

At first it was endless fear, inner agitation, and then gradually adapted to let it go.

Time has completely lost its meaning.

Wang Yan did not know how long he had stayed in this endless horrible void.

Maybe a second, maybe a century, maybe a hundred thousand years, a million years ... even eternity.

Suddenly, at a certain moment.

A little light appeared in his "vision".

In the endless years, Wang Yan fell silent to a rock-like heart, and trembling at once. There has never been such a longing and hope for that little light like now.

The faint light like fireflies gave him hope and ignited the warmth in his heart. He was moved to tears. Although at this moment, he did not know whether he would cry.

Under his “gaze”, or under his heart.

The light became brighter and warmed up.

Years have no meaning here.

The light gradually turned into a red fireball. With it as the center, a vortex that flows slowly is formed. The amount of mysterious violent violence before was drawn in along the vortex, constantly swallowed by the fireball.

The fireball is getting bigger and bigger, which brings strong shock to Wang Yan, but also brings order to this disorderly void.

The dust collided with each other, gradually condensing into a mass.

One star after another was born in constant collision, lingering around this increasingly huge, fiery ball of fire constantly spinning.

Order, in endless chaos, is established a little bit, or broken, and then established.

The violent change is so tragic that time has gradually made sense.

Chaos gradually disappeared, and order gradually prevailed.

One of the stars, the temperature is gradually cooling, the ocean is gradually appearing, and the sky is gradually forming. A faint and undetectable rhythm of life made Wang Yan, who eternally paid attention to it, stir a ripple in his mind.

Slowly, Wang Yan opened his eyes.

Two lines of tears hung on my cheeks, not knowing when. But his double pupils seemed to be deep and silent after many years of baptism.

If someone looks at his eyes at this time, he will unconsciously fall into the eternal vortex and merge into the endless vastness.

All that Wang Yan experienced just now is the process of the birth of the solar system and the process of life on earth. In the process, the world was filled with flames, heat, and collisions.

He understood that the flames are not only for destruction, but also for creating the world.

Wang Yan only felt that he had realized it, and realized the essence of the law of flame heaven. It turned out that the mother of the earth did not fool herself, but really blessed him.

At this moment, he cleared one of the most important thresholds on the road to A-level promotion and reached a half-step A-level!

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 379

“Boy, you finally understand the true meaning of flames.” Earth mother Gaia consciously sounded silently in Wang Yan’s mind. But at this time, it was no longer the babble of Tong Xiaoqing. It is full of tenderness, warmth, and kindness of mature women.

“Thank you Mother Earth for helping me understand the laws of the heavens and the flames.” Wang Yan’s heart is vast, and the original flame is the fire of creation and the fire of civilization. If there is no flame in the heart of the earth and the volcano no longer erupts, the mother earth will really die. As soon as the mother of the earth dies, the earth will usher in the end time, and all life will die one by one.

With this enlightenment, Wang Yan has a clear direction for the future path of the flame king. At the same time, she is also full of gratitude and respect for the mother earth, she is so vast and great.

It’s no longer easy to joke about Mother Earth.

“You are an excellent child and make me proud.” Mother Earth said, “Child, as you see. The abyss demon world is about to come again. I need your ability to protect the earth and guard the earth.”

“Earth is the home where I live and support me. Guarding the earth and protecting you, of course, is my duty.” Wang Yan replied without hesitation. “However, I don’t know much about the abyss demons. Are they aliens? ? “

“Yes, they are indeed aliens. The world of abyss demons is very far away from us.” Mother Earth explained, “In modern scientific terms, the abyss demon world is about 40,000 light-years away from us. “

“hiss?”

Despite being in a world of consciousness, Wang Yan took a breath of air, more than 40,000 light years. As we all know, the Milky Way is a disk-shaped spiral galaxy with a diameter of about one hundred thousand light years. With a diameter of 40,000 light-years, it is almost halfway across the galaxy.

“Isn’t it? I know that the abyssal demon’s space law ability is very strong, but I want to cross 40,000 light years at once, is it a bit exaggerated?” Wang Yan is a little difficult to understand. Strength or technology is definitely far above the earth.

The level of civilization between the two sides is too different, how to fight this?

“My child, you have a misunderstanding in concept.” The mother earth’s soft and loving voice sounded directly in Wang Yan’s mind, “40,000 light-years refers to the distance in three-dimensional space. From From the perspective of four-dimensional space, our earth world is about to overlap with the abyss world. “

Overlapping in four dimensions?

Wang Yan has been studying a lot recently. Although he didn’t go to the four-dimensional space to take a look, he suddenly understood what Mother Earth said. To make an analogy, if we regard a piece of white paper as a two-dimensional space, we see a two-dimensional space as a plane in a three-dimensional space.

If you draw two points farther away from the white paper, assuming that the distance between the two points is thirty centimeters, then it can be understood that to go to that point from this point, you need to go through a distance of thirty centimeters.

But if we twist and fold the white paper representing the two-dimensional space, there are countless ways to overlap these two points, and the distance becomes zero.

And the three-dimensional space we are in can also be twisted and folded.

A stronger ability, or a master of space-like talents, can fold the local space to form a teleportation effect.

Even some talented abilities can twist space to form space folds, and people hide in space folds as if they disappeared out of thin air.

Therefore, Wang Yan would say that space is like a bitch, as long as you have the capital, you can play around with it.

Wang Yan understood that from a three-dimensional perspective, the earth and the abyssal world are still far away. But if you look at it from a higher latitude, the three-dimensional world operates in another way. The point of the earth, and the point of the abyss world, are slowly approaching in some magical way.

“Everything in the universe operates in a certain pattern. Even when our solar system was just born and the world was chaotic, every particle of dust would obey the power of the laws of heaven and earth during operation.” Mother Earth continued, “In the four-dimensional world, A small part of our three-dimensional world itself. Most of it consists of dark energy and dark matter, which can be called the sea of dark energy. But neither dark energy nor dark matter will emit light, nor will it reflect light, it looks like nothingness. One piece, therefore, a superpower who can perceive four-dimensional space will call it a virtual world. “

After a pause, Mother Earth again said: “The virtual world also has the law of operation of the virtual world. The virtual world is very vast, and the earth world is not even a grain of sand in it. Under normal circumstances, the earth world wants to overlap with other worlds. The probability is that it tends to be infinitesimally small. That is to say, there is a high probability that the earth will not overlap with other worlds during the period from birth to destruction. “

“You mean that we overlap with the abyssal world in four-dimensional space, is not an accident?” Wang Yan asked slightly surprised.

“The space of the abyss world is fragmented.” Mother Earth explained, “There are many places in the three-dimensional space where they live directly connected to the virtual world. Do you know why they call their world the abyss world? Because in their eyes Here, the endless virtual world bordering them is the so-called endless abyss. “

Wang Yan understood at once that the name of the abyss world came from. Think about it, but it’s quite vivid. The endless dark matter and dark energy sea looks like an endless abyss.

“Because the race of the abyssal demons is in contact with the virtual realm all the time, their understanding and attainment of the virtual realm is far beyond the humanity of our earth.” Mother Earth sighed and said, “Because of survival The harsh environment has caused the abyss demons to be not only powerful, but also very cruel and aggressive. After they have mastered the four-dimensional space, that is, the operation law of the virtual world, they will try to search for other civilizations in the universe. Once you capture the location, you will try to change the trajectory of the abyss world, approach that civilized world, and conquer, plunder, and enslave. “

“We have also been in contact with the abyssal world before, and have there been wars?” Wang Yan really understands what is going on in the abyssal world, but there is information about the abyssal demons on the earth, and the mother earth is so familiar with the abyssal world. Both sides This is definitely not the first time I have come into contact.

“Yes, we have had three contacts with the abyssal world.” Mother Earth sighed and said, “The first time was probably five thousand years ago. The second time was two thousand years ago. The third time It was five hundred years ago, and now is the fourth time. The first three times, the abyssal world passed by us, and every time we paid a huge price, we repelled their aggression. “

Wang Yan noticed that the time was shorter than once. It seems that the Devil of the Abyss is constantly adjusting the trajectory of the abyss world in the virtual world, and it is the heart of my earth that will not die.

“This time, I was more worried.” Mother Earth said worriedly. “After three failures, the abyssal world is becoming more familiar with us. This time it will come back, it must be a sure win. Children, you must be good this time. Work hard. “

“This, Mother Earth. I have just realized a trace of the law of heaven, which is a half-step A-level.” Wang Yan said slightly, “let alone let me fight the abyss world, I even fight with an ordinary abyss demon It ’s hard. “

“Child, don’t worry too much.” Mother Earth said comfortingly, “The abyss world is just getting closer to us now, and the distance between the two worlds completely overlaps. It may take five years. In the process, if we are here If no one concludes a soul contract with the other party and provides teleportation coordinates, it is difficult for the other party to invade the earth directly. “

Five years? Wang Yan breathed a sigh of air and secretly said it was okay. It has only been a year since I have practiced myself, and I have already half-stepped A-level. If you work harder, and the mother of the earth opens the back door more, five years later, it may be S-level.

And this is not because I am fighting alone. There are so many colleagues of the National African Affairs Bureau, as well as Uncle Cannon, two sisters and so on. Especially Uncle Cannon, but that is the SS-level strongman, if you go all out, the abyss demon lord does not know how many ways he can stop him? There is also the Midi Super Shield Bureau. Although you belong to different organizations, if you are faced with the destruction of the earth, you can certainly work together.

“It is imperative to take this demon lord first.” Mother Earth said, “The young people on Liuli Island will have unlimited growth in the future. If the soul is taken away by this demon lord, we will lose a fight against the abyss. The power of the world. “

An injured S-class demon lord, Wang Yan always feels a little pitted if he wants to deal with it.

“You can rest assured that it is a road invasion. I have suppressed it with the power of the law of heaven.” Mother Earth said softly and encouragingly, “Children, go fight. For the earth, for all mankind, and for me. Child, I will be with you and always protect you. “

Fool? Okay, I admit it is blessing.

At this moment, Wang Yan seemed to be full of fighting spirit, and the whole person was a little emotional. Have the opportunity to kill a demon lord, just the materials on it, can sell a lot of money, right?

Almost at the same time.

The battle on the ground has completely divided the outcome.

A group of young people who claim to be the most promising people on the planet lie in the crater, each of them injured. Auguste, Gao Mingyue, Bright Virgin, as well as Corpses and Golden Armored Corpses.

Of course, the last one is to catch the little tail of youth and pretend to be a bad old man of young people.

Although defeated, the eyes of Auguste and others were full of unwillingness. They tried their best, they were desperate. But in the end, it suffered a fiasco.

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 380

“Ha ha!”

The demon lord, who was more than ten meters tall, stepped on the ground, looked down at a large group of young people, and sneered with a stern face, said: “Earth, fear, tremble. I will take out all your souls, Become a stepping stone to my path to deity. “

Despite the victory, the demon lord was not hurt. One of the wings was almost chopped off the roots, and fell down obliquely. There are also many fatal wounds on its body.

But the demon lord’s physique is too strong, and those fatal injuries are still not enough to kill it.

“My ally, my friend, you are really a powerful demon lord.” Dark Tutor Sharuman, who had not participated in the battle before. Because not only was he injured before, but he also desperately opened the space channel and led the demon lord into the earth, and his weakness was not suitable for fighting anymore.

However, Sharuman can command those remaining FBG strengthening people’s brigades. The remaining more than one hundred reinforcements, under his unified command, surrounded the young people of the National African Bureau and the Super Shield Bureau.

Those large-caliber modern weapons are usually not in the eyes of the young talents of these days. But now everyone has been seriously injured, these weapons have become fatal killers.

Moreover, these strengthened people are not bad in strength, and many ants can kill the elephant.

“Saruman, you can rest assured.” The demon lord glanced coldly at Saruman and said, “The reputation of our abyss demon family is indeed not good, but we are also the most contract-oriented races in the universe. We both use souls Vowed to sign a contract of equal allies. If I want to deal with you, my soul will be hit hard, or even die directly. Sharuman, I also advise you to put away those careful thoughts. Although you are not an abyss demon family, but Once a contract is concluded with us, once the contract is violated, the king can dispose of your soul at will. “

“Oh, the great demon lord.” The dark mentor Sharuman laughed loudly. “We are the strongest ally. I am with you, but I have learned a lot of dark magic. I am grateful that you are too late. How can you break the contract?” What about? “

During the speech, Sharuman gave up the idea of commanding the reinforcement team to attack “ally”. Let ’s not talk about whether we can win or not. Even if this “Demon Lord” is really killed, his soul may really burst.

Sharuman, who has studied dark magic in depth, knows that the law of the soul is one of the most mysterious and incomprehensible laws in the universe, and it may not be able to understand one of the ten thousand in a lifetime. Without complete assurance, would the cunning Sharuman easily tear up the contract?

“Very good, wise choice. I have to admit, your plan this time is very good. The quality of these young people is very good, I believe that their souls will also be very delicious.” The demon lord smiled and smiled deeply. A glance at Saruman said, “According to our agreement, I have accepted all these human souls, and the rest of your body belongs to you. Moreover, after our abyss world comes to earth, this king will be responsible for demonizing your body , So that your physical fitness and life expectancy have increased significantly. “

“Then thank you Lord Lord.” Sharumanpi said with a smile.

“Sharuman, you signed a soul contract with the demon, and this life will not end well.” The bright Saint Lady’s ragged clothes, her fair skin, covered with black air, is obviously in a certain abyss. Very toxic, coughing staring at Sharuman repeatedly.

It was this evil poison from the abyss that suppressed the light and divine power in her body, making her weak and unable to commit suicide.

Abyssal demons have many ways to lure other species to sell their souls, but the essential “reward” is nothing more than the most basic temptations. For example, wealth, love ~ desire, power, strength, or longevity.

But the Bright Lady was not joking, and she really betrayed her soul, and those who were with demons, never had a good ending.

Sharuman turned evil and stared at the Bright Lady with a smile: “Dear Your Highness, do n’t say I ’m not cooperating with demons, your bright Holy See will let me go. Please rest assured, your life I can’t see my bad ending. “

“Yeah, you are a human being, and you are actually a demon.” Gao Mingyue yelled past and said disdainfully. “You are also trying to sell the whole humanity to the abyss demon. You are extremely selfish and mad.”

Sharuman sticks out his tongue, licks the saliva on his face, and grins wickedly: “Mr. Moon, thank you for your praise and affirmation to me. In return for you, after you have contributed your soul. I will Give you the power to walk with black magic, and then, this seat will definitely enjoy your body. Jie Jie, think about it, make this seat excited and trembling. You are the proud daughter of the human body, the body But like a bitch, it becomes my Sharuman’s toy. “

The extremely evil words made Gao Mingyue and the Bright Saint Maiden tremble, as if wrapped in an invisible poisonous snake.

“This seat loves your eyes.” Sharuman laughed excitedly, raising his hand, using the power of dark magic to grab a black magic hand, grabbing the neck of the light lady, and holding her a little. He picked up, “If it weren’t for the virgin soul, it would be more useful for Lord Lord. I really want to play with the divine light virgin first. Now, it’s time to contribute your soul.”

Sharuman’s finger held arouse a wicked black breath and touched the forehead of the Bright Lady.

“Stop it!” Zhang Weidao, August and others roared angrily. Filled with indignation, struggling to get up, dragging the disabled body up and trying to stop it.

“Bang, bang!”

Several fortified men blocked it and smashed them to the ground with a gun handle. Then kick them with their boots. In the mouth, he scolded: “At this point, do you still think you are the arrogant of heaven? Fool, garbage.”

“Stop!” Shouted the eyes of the bright virgin, “stop beating them again.”

“Ji ~” Sharuman said with a smile on his face, “His Royal Highness, at this point of the matter, let’s worry about yourself.” With a fingertip, the black evil gradually infiltrated her forehead.

“Call it, call it.” Sharuman laughed, “This is one of my favorite steps. I like to hear people screaming and see their desperate expressions. Hahaha ~”

Everyone on the scene showed an expression of anger and unwillingness, struggling to get up, but they were knocked down to the ground one by one by the reinforcement.

At this moment, a flame burst into the crater that had been neglected. The flames were mixed with heat waves and hurried to a height of tens of meters, blooming like a firework.

The flame spreads out along the air and spreads across the sky like a burning cloud of fire.

“What’s the situation?” The fortified people who were beating Zhang Weidao and others were startled and looked at the crater. I was puzzled, could it be that the volcano erupted again?

At this moment, they saw the gorgeous burning flame and walked out of a person. The man was holding a flame shield in his left hand and a flame-burning warhammer in his right hand. He stepped on the flame and descended from the sky like a * of fire.

His feet slammed on the ground, and a burst of flame spewed out of his body, meandering, like a flaming flame dragon. Wherever he passed, the air was scorchingly radiating waves of distorted heat.

One of the flames flashed over a heavily armed squad leader, and the hot flame instantly ignited him.

The fortified person is burning, screaming, running and rolling. But the flames clung to him like maggots. The bullets in the firearms were also unbearably hot and banged in succession, and the firearms were broken into pieces.

In just a few seconds, a captain of the fortified team that had reached D-level was screaming in a scream. After the flames subsided, only one burnt coke body remained on the ground.

While killing the captain of this fortified person, the remaining smart flames were not idle. They swam frantically, igniting every fortified person nearby. And they seem to be under the control of Wang Yan, while igniting those strengthening people, they will also consciously avoid themselves.

The fortified people screamed to escape, but they couldn't escape the flame at all, and without exception, they were caught up in flames and burned.

In a short period of time, it seems that many people are still in shock, a dozen fortified people turned into coke.

“Wang Yan!”

Sharuman stopped the movement of absorbing the soul of the light maiden, frowning and looking at the “God of Fire”. Just now, Wang Yan jumped into the volcano pit, everyone saw it.

I thought he had fallen for so long, I am afraid that he has died in the magma in the volcanic crater. But he didn't expect that he was not only alive, but also a look of strength recovery and a great increase in strength.

Wang Yan at this moment has indeed changed from before. The skin seemed to be covered with a faint glow, and the dark eyes were full of deepness. Compared to when he was the strongest, he still had to count on the higher level.

Obviously, this is his epiphany in the magma in the crater, and the effect of accepting the flame to wash the pulp and cut the hair. The mother of the earth flicked him into the crater, but it was more than just helping him to perceive the laws of the heavenly path of the flame system.

“Wang Yan, it’s great that you didn’t die.” Yuan Rourou, who described the miserable, woke up after a little stunned and cried out in surprise.

“Wang Yan.” There was also a trace of hope and joy in the desperate eyes of the bright Saint. But immediately, she thought of something, her face changed greatly, “Wang Yan, don’t worry about us, run, run away!”
