The Domestic Hero - Chapter 481

“Uncle Cannon?”

Wang Yan looked at it, it was the information that jumped out on his WeChat account. WeChat on the PAD has always been automatically logged in. And his PAD is also a special version, which can connect to the communication satellite within the State African Bureau without WIFI.

Just now Wang Yan wanted to locate the current latitude and longitude, so he linked the global satellite communication system.

Don't think that Wang Yan is now crouched on a worn-out satellite, and can no longer receive satellite communication signals.

In fact, most communication satellites are geostationary satellites. Their height is about 36,000 kilometers. They rotate with the earth and are relatively stationary.

Wang Yan is now at an altitude of about two hundred kilometers. The height of the synchronous communication satellite is many times higher than Wang Yan's current height.

Ha ha!

Wang Yan called back directly to a video request.

Then the other party instantly connected, and Uncle Gun's face wearing a bronze mask appeared on the PAD. In order to communicate successfully with Uncle Gun, Wang Yan specially stirred up an energy shield, then opened the oxygen cylinder, and hissed his energy shield with oxygen.

Replacing air with oxygen can also form a medium and transmit sound waves. This is the same principle as the astronaut's transparent helmet.

Wang Yan took a sip of intoxicating oxygen and felt very comfortable. He smiled and said hello: “Uncle Gun.”

Uncle Gun’s eyes narrowed, he took off his mask, hummed his chin slightly, and said, “Stinky boy, do you still have a face and video call for the teacher?”

“Hey, Uncle Gun, have you misunderstood me?” Wang Yan held his chin inexplicably, “I have always been respectful and admiring to Uncle Gun, admiring and looking up.”

“It’s also respectful and loved, hum.” Uncle Gun’s face was green with anger, and his brows jumped, “I see, you just want to toss me to death, mad.”

Wang Yan hadn’t answered yet. A handsome middle-aged man with a handsome face in his face squeezed over the screen. He gave thumbs up to Wang Yan: “Xiao Yan, the emperor thinks you are doing well. Like His old shameless things should be learned. “

This middle-aged man is naturally under the legendary pope’s crown.

“Xiao Feifei, the deity is educating apprentices, what are you blind to compare?” Cao Jing was slightly angry, and he had the momentum to fight with his sleeves up.

“Lao Cao, the emperor is telling the truth. If you don’t agree, let’s do it.” The Pope Guangming also rolled up his suit sleeves, and he looked aggressive.

Upon seeing this, Wang Yan coughed twice and reminded him, “Uncle Cannon, under the Pope’s crown, can we have something to say? Everyone is very busy. The long-term occupation of satellite traffic resources is also a waste of taxpayer’s property. Do you want to talk about business at a speed? “

“Yes, just talk about the business.” Uncle Gun glanced angrily. “Just talk about you, how is your brain growing up, and you have even recruited your master’s mother? She was killed for Shihao Xuan. You This behavior is light in ancient times called the killing master, and eviction from the master is light. “

“Uncle Gun, I’m doing it for you too.” Wang Yan moved his spirits, suspended the wine bottle and hooked over, drinking leisurely and said.

“puff!”

Uncle Cannon almost died with a spit of blood. Your front foot was just pitted as a teacher. How dare you say that it is for the sake of the teacher? Now let him explain that he is still drinking. He rolled his eyes and wanted to cry without tears. He was so blind that he accepted such a baby apprentice.

“Uncle Cannon, as the saying goes, paper can’t cover the fire.” Wang Yan said calmly while drinking, “The longer this energy savings, the greater the power of the explosion. Xiao Yan is also worried for you, I took the initiative to call the maid to solve the problem. Besides, Uncle Cannon, you taught me the bubble girl, but it was wonderful, and I admired it. It is such a small scene, you should not control it too much. Relax. “

Little scene? Don’t control too easily?

Uncle Cannon’s tears were about to fall. It was a nightmare to think about the scene that day. I thought he was so enraged that he was surrounded by two women and had a double fight. It would be okay to say that after the fight, Linghu Yaofei went back to Huaxia, and went to Huahai City to buy a house to live in. She made a clear decision to separate.

And Daier was not easy to provoke, and in a rage, she returned to the Sanctuary of Light.

Well, all of this is given by my baby apprentice.

But to this day, Uncle Cannon is also motivated by this. He replied sharply: “Xiao Yan, where are you now? Uncle Cannon misses you so much.”

“I, huh, huh, just travel upside down to increase knowledge and knowledge.” Wang Yan said with a light smile on his face. “Now, I’m sailing in the sea. I’m going to catch a few fish to grill and eat Uncle, I’ll post two for you. “

I bother!

Uncle Cannon stared at him, okay, you Xiaoyan, she was just talking nonsense with her eyes open.

Go boating in the sea!

Which ship in the world can raft out 7.9 kilometers per second?

In his command room, Uncle Gun glanced helplessly at the large screen, above which was a map of the world. In the Indian Ocean east of Africa, there was a spot of light along the equator, which was traveling at 7.9 kilometers per second from the west Fly to the east.

For a time, Uncle Gun was also a little drunk.

Can this apprentice be more wonderful? He could even think of this method. I'm too brave, so I'm not afraid of being killed by orbiting satellites.

“Okay, then you can go boating slowly, there are still some chores to deal with for the division.” Uncle Pao finished talking and hung up the communication.

“Haha, goodbye Uncle Gun.” Wang Yan waved goodbye.

Subsequently, Wang Yan took the PAD and began to calculate the path this time. Wang Yan was not nervous about Uncle Cannon's whereabouts. Now I am still on the satellite, galloping at a speed of 7.9 kilometers per second.

Unless Uncle Cannon invites an S-level strongman, otherwise he can't help him.

In fact, both Uncle Gun and Wang Yan knew that if they wanted to come out with S-level strongmen. Then representing the invisible contest between the master and the disciple, Uncle Gun lost. If you really want to get there, Wang Yan will be happy to be caught back by the S-class strongman, so even if you lose, you will be honored.

As a result, Wang Yan had nothing to worry about.

According to GPS calculations, Wang Yan determined that he was on the equator, about 50 degrees east longitude. At the same time, the coordinates of Huahai City, the final destination of this trip, are 31 degrees north latitude and 121 degrees east longitude.

If Wang Yan wants to take the next satellite free ride, he should take a satellite that can pass through 121 degrees east longitude vertically.

Wang Yan held his chin and thought carefully.

“If I take a polar satellite at about 121 degrees east longitude, then it needs to cross the South Pole and go to the other side of the South Pole. There is ... well, about 59 degrees west longitude, through South America, the Atlantic Ocean, Bermuda ... until The Arctic circled back to the east longitude and sailed to about 31 degrees north latitude. “

“The entire voyage distance is about 34,000 kilometers, which takes about 71 minutes.”

After two full minutes, Wang Yan’s eyes lit up: “Yes, I forgot to calculate the rotation of the earth. The rotation of the earth from west to east is 15 degrees per hour, which is about 17.8 degrees in 71 minutes. This shows that if I was in Take the satellite to Antarctica at 121 degrees east longitude, and after 71 minutes, I will land at ... Um ~ 31 degrees north latitude and around 103 degrees east longitude. That place is ... Um, near Chengdu, Sichuan Province, China! “

“Chengdu is not close to Huahai City. Uncle Gun will definitely prepare a big meal for himself along the way.” Wang Yan pondered, “So, I must take a satellite flight around 139 degrees east longitude of the equator. This offsets the earth After the rotation, it can just fall near Huahai City. “

Wang Yan calculated it again and again, and felt that there was nothing wrong, so he settled down.

The latitude and longitude are now-equatorial zero degrees, 56 degrees east longitude, 138 degrees east longitude from the transfer point, and 82 degrees distance, the straight-line distance is 9100 kilometers. Judging from the current speed, there are still about 19 minutes to arrive.

Of course, it is not that Wang Yan has to change planes at 138 degrees east longitude. In fact, as long as he is in a nearby location, he can get on.

After calculating all this, Wang Yan sat cross-legged on the scrapped satellite and meditated with interest-adjustment. The satellite was pulled for the first time just now, because the business is unskilled, and the intermediate process consumes too much power.

Time, one minute and one second passed.

In the 18th minute, Wang Yan opened his eyes, and the whole person seemed calm. Holding a telescope, constantly searching for the direction of north latitude.

To say that there is a lot of space junk now, a few tens of kilometers away, a piece of things is rushing at a rapid speed. After just two or three seconds, Wang Yan saw it clearly, that is a piece of carrier rocket.

It's just that it is too small, and Wang Yan is afraid that it cannot provide enough carrying power.

After staggering this piece, there was another black dot in front of Wang Yan's eyes. Judging roughly from the orbit, it is two or three kilometers higher than the scrapped satellite.

The speed on both sides was extremely fast. After a second or two, Wang Yan was very pleased that it was a medium-sized polar satellite, and then he did not hesitate to kick the scrapped satellite under his feet.

With the kickback force, Wang Yan flew upward at an oblique speed.

Then look at the opportunity and flutter a wing.

In the next moment, Wang Yan emerged from the distorted space, his hands hooked the solar panel on the polar satellite. The sudden hook made the satellite weighing one or two tons rotate in a circle.

It took Wang Yan and twirled waltz in the space where the air was so thin that it was almost zero.

Wang Yan was sullen, his arms swelled to the extreme, and countless muscle fibers were almost torn, almost thrown out by centrifugal force. Fortunately, he hurriedly stirred up pure Yang Qi and pushed in the opposite direction, which made this satellite that he was * obediently obedient.

“Haha ~” Wang Yan was in a good mood, and patted this newly captured polar satellite lightly, thinking to himself, “Baby, you are such an unruly martial horse.”

If this polar satellite is alive, it will definitely scold Wang Yan for a meal: “Miss Ben travels well all the time. You don’t know where the rogue gangsters who came out have hardened me, don’t you let people resist and resist?”

In any case, Wang Yan is still very satisfied with being able to catch this polar satellite, which is much better than the old one that has been scrapped and scrapped.

Its figure is very slim, full of the latest sense of technology. The two pairs of solar panel wings are also brand-new, and the whole body is full of beautiful luster. There is no wound after being hit by space debris.

Its sensitive self-checking ability, after discovering the “struggle” just now, slightly yawed some tracks. The tiny propeller behind the pretty buttocks, spraying flames, began to self-adjust its orbit.

This kind of feeling is like a girl who has just been finished by a rogue, finishing her clothes in tears.

“Made in France, Karina.” Wang Yan saw the mark on her and couldn’t help but think with a smile. “It really is a national product that treats stealing love as a romance. No wonder this polar satellite is designed to be pretty.”

Since this well-behaved satellite would automatically adjust the yaw orbit, Wang Yan was too lazy to worry. Checked through GPS, the current position is 2 degrees south latitude and 137 degrees east longitude.

Well, the situation is perfect. After about 70 minutes, Wang Yan will fall at 31 degrees north latitude and around 119 degrees east longitude. Well, it is probably near Wuxi, Jiangsu, very close to Huahai City. At that time, as long as you adjust your posture a little in the air, you can easily return to Huahai City.

“It’s so cool.” Wang Yan felt very satisfied with his series of adventurous actions, leaning comfortably on the camera barrel of the polar satellite “Karina”, looking at a beautiful view below.

Near the equator, there is plenty of sunshine, usually less clouds and less fog, and visibility is extremely high.

Wang Yan is more than two hundred kilometers away and still sees the scenery below clearly. It was a large island, azure blue sea. This neighborhood should be Indonesia and New Guinea.

It is a pity that no satellites flying directly in the direction of the North Pole were found, otherwise it would be home within a dozen minutes. But then again, although the distance from the South Pole to the North Pole is very far, it is not an interesting experience.

Wang Yan has lived for so long, but he has never really seen the North and South Pole.

And the scenery on this road is quite pleasant. From a low track of two hundred kilometers, Wang Yan feels completely different from the whole world. Below is a large area of azure blue sea, a huge continent appeared faintly.

“Well ~ That’s the mainland of Australia, which is part of Oceania. Of the seven continents in the world, the smallest one.” Wang Yan looked at Oceania with great interest, and its land was a large yellow.

The most famous here is, of course, the kangaroo. It is said that Australia is a country that occupies a continent with a total area of 7.6 million square kilometers, but the total population is only 20 million, which is less than the population of Huahai City or the Imperial Capital.

Together with the satellite “Karina”, Wang Yan flew along the coast of Australia from the edge of the mainland. Although “Karina” was dominated by a gangster, she still faithfully fulfilled her mission. On the near-Earth track, she took all the photos she could take.

Because the speed of Wang Yan and “Karina” is extremely fast, passing through Australia, it is only a small twenty minutes. Immediately afterwards, there was a wide sea. On the opposite side of the sea, a white continent was faintly seen.

Antarctica!

It was the first time that Wang Yan saw Antarctica in real sense. When he and Karina both swept over Antarctica together, he felt a surge of heart. Below, there is a white snow and ice.

But he did know that although Antarctica was cold, it was not lifeless. There are countless penguins, seals, various birds, and aquatic animals. In the warmer period of the earth, Antarctica will also be a lush and vibrant world.

“Unfortunately, I can’t see the penguins this time.” Wang Yan felt a bit of caressing “Karina” ‘s body, and was very sorry. “There is no way to catch the two penguins to go home to raise. It’s big. “

“However, I have been to Antarctica, haven’t I?” Wang Yan smiled indifferently, taking photos with DSLRs. Let’s leave a shadow first, and then come back and look at it after finishing this crop.

Anyway, taking a polar satellite from Huahai City, which is tens of minutes of effort.

Even Wang Yan didn’t realize that he had unknowingly used satellites and the like as a regular means of transportation. If you let those satellite designers know, it is estimated that they will spit blood three times, and point to Wang Yan’s nose to ask clearly, brother, will our family launch satellites in the future, do you want to reserve a first-class seat for you?

Wang Yan is admiring the magnificent scenery from the top, and he is filled with emotion in his heart. It is really good to be a superpower. He can do many things that ordinary people can’t do.

Almost at the same time.

Uncle Cannon ’s air command.

The guards here are strict and the most advanced electronic devices are used everywhere.

Wearing a mask on Uncle Cannon’s face, he sat on the chair with extraordinary momentum.

On the large display in front of him, it showed a calm middle-aged foreign man.

The man on the display, although few people in the world know him. However, his power and real influence are among the best in the world.

That is the Director of the Super Shield Bureau of the United States, James. The Super Shield Bureau in his hand is of extraordinary strength and talent, and belongs to the world's super first-class superpower organization.

The Super Shield Bureau was established early, and it had its prototype as early as World War II.

I have to admit that under the premise of abandoning the SS-level strong man, Uncle Gun, the China National African Bureau is still worse than it.

But in the future, this is not necessarily the case. China has a great advantage in the population base. With the gradual adequacy of national power, the awakening rate and growth rate are gradually showing power in the younger generation.

This topic is not mentioned for the moment.

Secretary James nodded politely to Uncle Pao and said, "Yen Zun, we are ready now, but do you really want to do this?"

"Director James, although this is an exercise, it is also an identification of our global cooperation system." Uncle Cannon said solemnly, "please cooperate, you can rest assured, this time is my order, once something happens, you do n't need to go beyond the shield to bear the responsibility."

James nodded helplessly, "Okay, okay, anyway, that polar satellite is not our country." He turned back and ordered, "Implement the plan and start."

...

Just when he ordered it, suspended on a giant "space carrier" hundreds of kilometers above the South American continent, a rocket missile exploded on the deck. It dragged a long flame tail and quickly disappeared into sight in.

Because the launch point is almost in a vacuum.

In the absence of air friction, the speed of rocket missiles exploded geometrically and quickly reached an orbital speed of 7.9 kilometers per second.

...

“Cool!”

Wang Yan hugged the antenna on the satellite “Karina” and passed happily across the south pole. He stared at the extreme point below, and his heart was filled with emotion: “This is a historic process.”

In the past, Karina’s flight direction was to fly south, but after flying past the South Pole, she was already flying north. It now officially cuts into the Western Hemisphere, and the longitude has also changed from about 133 degrees east longitude to about 47 degrees west longitude.

But in fact, these geographical changes have nothing to do with “Karina”, she just goes around the North and South Pole day after day, and has to turn more than 15 times a day ...

After the South Pole, Wang Yan’s excitement dropped slightly from the highest point. Next, it will take a long journey to reach Huahai City in about 40 minutes.

“It’s a pity that Penguins are.” Wang Yan sighed in his heart. He used to be very interested in Emperor Penguins when watching the recording channel.

After two or three minutes, Wang Yan’s heart tightened suddenly, passing a warning sign. He hurriedly looked up and looked around, but there was a flash of fire flashing directly in front of the flight.

“not good!”

Wang Yan suddenly felt goose bumps all over his body, and a strong sense of crisis flashed through his heart. Almost purely instinctive, Wang Yan raised the wings of the devil for the first time.

Between wings waving.

He twisted the space, and the next moment, he appeared two or three hundred meters away.

Almost at the same time, a silent explosion shone on the whole sky, the shock wave wrapped in various debris, and the heavenly girl burst into Wang Yan like a flower. There is no sound from the explosion because there is no air to transmit sound waves.

But in Wang Yan's mind, there was a violent explosion.

Shock waves are coming fast.

Wang Yan, two hundred and two meters away, only had the time to provide the simplest protection, and was flew out by the shock wave.

He was sprayed with blood in his mouth, and he rolled down in a parabola from the air.

"Uncle Cannon, isn't it? A polar satellite in a gallop, you have the ability to fight down? Is this also ruthless?" Wang Yan shouted in his heart, but rushed down uncontrollably.

Because Wang Yan still carries inertial speed, although because of the recoil force and other reasons, it can no longer reach the orbital speed. But this is the most dangerous. Because it fell too fast into the dense atmosphere, the only thing that ended up was burning to ashes in friction with the air.

Wang Yan couldn't care about the turbulent internal organs, and he hurriedly stirred up the pure Yang Qi to fight the falling speed of about six or seven kilometers per second. Fortunately, he was responsive and handled properly.

Under a series of self-help actions, Wang Yan blasted into an iceberg at a speed of more than 100 meters per second.

boom!

The iceberg cracked, and he was fainted in consciousness, almost comatose. After a few minutes, several penguin screams rang in his ears.

Wang Yan looked up, and suddenly felt dizzy. A large group of emperor penguins surrounded him, blinking and watching him with curious eyes.

“Uh ...” For a time, Wang Yan couldn’t help crying or laughing. I just wanted to adopt two emperor penguins. Unexpectedly, most of his wishes came true and was surrounded by a large group of emperor penguins.

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 483

A group of tall, strong, and mighty emperor penguins surrounded Wang Yan, and they were all curious about this human who fell from the sky. From time to time, they used their wings to pull Wang Yan, and they yelled to communicate with each other.

Perhaps he was considered cold, and several emperor penguins approached Wang Yan, helping him warm with his body temperature.

Their hair is very smooth, especially the hair on the abdomen is very delicate and extremely warm. Wang Yan’s body temperature rose quickly, and the whole body felt warm, and he couldn’t help but feel good about this group of cute penguins.

These emperor penguins, who looked awkward in action, were much more adorable than the hairy crab he kept. The dead crab either eats or dries every day, and also sees the wind and rudder, sees the benefits and forgets the righteousness.

Wang Yan groaned ~ He groaned for a while, and inspected his condition inwardly. Fortunately, the internal organs were only slightly displaced, and there was no serious injury. The brain was a little dizzy because of the shock wave before.

In addition, when falling, Wang Yan exhausted a lot of energy to resist the excessively fast falling speed. At this time, he felt a bit off and felt pain when he moved.

This time it was too dangerous. If it wasn't for quick response, it would be directly drawn to the face by a rocket missile. And when it falls, if it is not his cleverness, it will continue to slow down in time, and it will be dangerous in the dense atmosphere.

call!

At least there was no serious injury, Wang Yan pulled a corner of his mouth, and Uncle Gun was also ruthless. That's a brand new polar satellite. How much is it worth hundreds of millions of dollars?

Feelings are not from your own family, don't feel distressed ...

However, Wang Yan also has to admit that Uncle Pao has actually shown mercy to his men. That rocket missile is only fast, and the equivalent weight does not seem to be high. It should be an air-to-air missile.

Otherwise, the explosive power is far more than that.

It seems that Uncle Cannon is trying to force himself to get off the satellite.

Wang Yan hehe ...

At this moment, a group of penguins suddenly shouted loudly, they moved their fat buttocks, lined up a passage, and seemed to welcome someone in the way.

Wang Yan looked up and saw a woman wearing a thick down jacket with a mask on her face came over. Her eyes are clear and her pupils are black, but she is not sure she is Asian.

She squatted down, opened Wang Yan's eyelids with her fingers, and then breathed a sigh of relief, saying in English: "It seems that your consciousness is still sober, can you understand me?"

Wang Yan nodded, but inexplicably: "How could there be a woman? Er ... how can there be a woman in Antarctica?" In Wang Yan's view, in this desolate Antarctica, the chance of a group of female seals is far more than a woman.

“Hua Xia?” The woman’s eyes flashed a little strange, and she said directly in standard Hua Xia. “What’s so strange about a woman in Antarctica? This is the South Shetland Islands. Many scientific research stations are nearby. The Great Wall Station Have you never heard of it? By the way, are you a member of the national expedition team or a private expedition team? What happened, how could it be hurt like this? “

A series of questions popped out of her mouth.

“Lao Cao, the emperor thinks that being your apprentice is really a matter of life and suffering. Are you not afraid of his accident?”

In the air headquarters, the Pope of Light took a bottle of fine wine, and said with emotion: “If you do n’t want this apprentice, then give it to me. If he is willing to renovate the Holy Book of Light, the next Pope I can let him be. “

“Go!” Uncle Gun snatched the wine and poured himself a drink. “You too underestimate Xiao Yan. You haven’t suffered enough from him? My Xiao Yan is wonderful, the surface looks sunny and handsome. , Honest duty. But once in the fighting state, it is like opening a hang. His first fight, I still remember it fresh. He was just an ordinary person just awakened at the time, when two super When the capable teammates were kneeling down, he actually killed a C-class peak demon fox with wisdom and strange tactics ... “

In fact, it was at that time that Cao Cannon observed all things in secret, and was really determined to take Wang Yan as an apprentice.

First of all, the character is good, and secondly, once Wang Yan fought, he was calm and resourceful. This kind of apprentice is much stronger than those who only rely on their own strength and go silly.

Of course, the so-called composure and calmness and resourcefulness were also the ideas of Uncle Cannon at the time.

He is usually quite proud of the cleverness of his apprentice. For example, Wang Yan’s various performances in the trial of light finally shocked the light of the Holy See, which made Uncle Cannon’s hair silky into the bone marrow.

It was only when Uncle Cannon and Wang Yan's opponents realized that this taste was uncomfortable.

"That stupid kid's tactics are really cunning and inferior, and there is no bottom line." Uncle Cannon drank angrily. "In short, this time I did not behave as a master. How can I maintain Shiwei in the future, and how to teach students?" Others, it's called calm and calm, and there are a lot of tricks. In response to this, he turned into a cunning and obscene, no bottom line.

Shiwei?

Pope Bright looked at him sideways. Have you ever had such a tall thing? Haha ...

He took a sip of wine in full leisurely, and said: "I think Xiao Yan has a clear and active mind and a big tactical brain hole. By the way, what will you do next, send a master to encircle Antarctica?"

"You just have to wait and see. In short, this time I have to revive Shi Wei. Cao Jingluo will let the stinky boy know what to call  or old spicy."

...

"Wang Wang!"

Seven or eight sled dogs happily pulled the sled and ran their legs on the thick snow.

Wang Yan lay on the sleigh, and with the undulations of the ice edge, he bumped slightly. Not long ago, he just rode a satellite with a speed of more than 20,000 kilometers per hour, but now he rides on a sleigh with a speed of more than ten kilometers per hour. He suddenly felt the ups and downs of his life.

"Miss Wu, would it be a bit cruel for you to let a group of dogs run us? Is the capital of the Great Wall Station in our country so tight, there is no transportation like snowmobiles?" Wang Yan held in his arms A fluffy little penguin, only twenty to thirty centimeters long.

After a brief exchange just now, Wang Yan already knew that her name was Wu Manman, a native of Wuxi, Jiangsu. She is a biologist at the Great Wall Station, an Antarctic research station. Her current research direction is the impact of global warming on the Antarctic ecosystem.

As for the little penguin in Wang Yan's arms, his parents had just died in the fall disaster. As we all know, emperor penguins are monogamous and usually only hatch one egg.

Without parental care, the chances of these two little penguins surviving are almost zero.

As the perpetrator, Wang Yan felt that he had an obligation to shoulder this responsibility, so he took it back.

Wu Manman is a typical Jiangnan water woman. She glared at Wang Yan softly and said, "In a polar environment, sled dogs are the best friends of mankind. They are much more reliable than those cold instruments. By the way, you was it the plane crash just now, why did I not observe the process of the plane crash?"

While talking, her communicator rang, and she looked down at the communicator, frowning and said: "There is news that the polar satellite 'Karina', which has been running for less than three months, hit a piece of space junk, unfortunately crashed. What a pity, 'Karina' is a very advanced satellite ..."

Wang Yan also mourned for three seconds in silence for that satellite. A beautiful satellite was unfortunately blown up. Uncle Cannon is too cruel. He can do everything in order to attack him. It is really heartbroken.

"Now there is so much space junk, the probability of satellites being hit is getting higher and higher." Wang Yan echoed casually.

"It's not that, with more space debris, more and more satellite traffic accidents." Wu Manman also replied casually, "The last time a satellite of our country was hit by a rocket engine above the polar region. Although all countries are calling to clean up space debris, but no one really takes the bleeding to do things. Hey, don't feed it some messy things ..."

She said only half of what she said, but she saw that Wang Yan was feeding the little penguin and hurriedly stopped: "It is very weak now, and his mood is very bad. We have to get some krill paste for them."

“You can rest assured that my nutrients have a good effect.” Wang Yan fed it, of course, the diluted low-grade inner pill essence.

The effect was very good. After a few seconds, the little guy was full of energy, rubbing Wang Yan’s hand with his pointed beak, and looked very intimate. Obviously, it is small, but instinctively knows that Wang Yan is feeding it good food.

“Your little thing, it’s really greedy. Okay, now you are young and can only eat a little.” Wang Yan flicked his head with a smile, “When you grow up, I will give you Feed more. “

Wu Manman is a little strange. Little penguins are generally afraid of being born. What is the elixir? How could he reinvigorate the little penguin so quickly? When she just wanted to say something, the communicator rang again.

She looked down. After two seconds, her eyes were dull, her face suddenly became pale, and she looked up at Wang Yan secretly.

“What’s wrong, is your body uncomfortable?” Wang Yan teased the little penguin and asked with concern, “Would you like a sip of my elixir? The effect is good.” He raised the bottle in his hand.

“No, no more.” Wu Manman barely squeezed a smile. “It’s just a cold wind that makes me feel a little uncomfortable. I’m used to it.” During the speech, she glanced at the communicator again. , Yes.

It was a wanted order, saying that there was a violent gangster who fled to the South Shetland Islands after being pursued. Warn all staff in Antarctica, once found, immediately reply to the report.

That’s right, the face on the wanted order is exactly like the guy in front of him who is teasing the little penguin.

...

God!

Wu Manman's brain thundered.

Wanted criminal, extremely fierce! These words repeatedly roared in her mind. Wu Manman didn't expect that when she was doing research outdoors, she heard a strange noise to save people, but she actually saved a bad person? What did this guy do, but was hunted down to Antarctica?

kill? robbery? Strong ~ violent?

Wu Manman thought more and more, his legs were soft. After hesitating a little, she decided to reply to the news and report the wanted criminal.

Just as she pinched her finger, ready to press down. Suddenly there was a flower in front of me, and the communicator in his hand disappeared. Then he looked at the "wanted criminal" in horror, playing with her communicator.

With an evil smile on his lips, Wang Yan scratched his hair and said, "This hand-painted photo, I don't know who made it? I didn't catch my handsome charm. Miss Wu, what do you think?"

"Yes, yes." Wu Manman's face was pale, his teeth trembling and nodded in agreement. There is only one thought in my heart that is constantly echoing, and it's over, and now I've encountered a change ~ * ~ devil.

If Wang Yan would read mind surgery, he would surely die of old blood. Girl, from what point do you see that brother is dysfunctional ~? Even if it is a wanted order, did you write this one?

Wang Yan hugged the little penguin and smiled at her "friendly": "You can rest assured that even if I am a really wanted criminal, it will not hurt the life-saving benefactor."

"Yes, yes, thank you." Wu Manman smiled reluctantly. But he was whispering in his heart, what is even a wanted criminal? You are clearly a wanted criminal.

...

After more than half an hour.

Wu Manman panicked and unsteadily drove the dog sled back to the famous Great Wall Station. At this time, Wang Yan had a pair of sunglasses on his nose, and his scarf covered his nose.

“Manman is back?” A middle-aged uncle wearing glasses greeted.

“Master Li.” Wu Manman glanced at Wang Yan secretly, and said with a strong pressure, “This is Mr. Park, a newcomer from South Korea. He came to my house as a guest.”

Wang Yan greeted him in a timely manner and said, “Anyase.”

“Uh ... hello hello.” Stationmaster Li glanced at Wang Yan and said to Wu Manman in Chinese language helplessly, “Manman, it doesn’t matter if you make friends. But you have to pay attention, Korean men don’t It must be as good as in a TV series. “

“Thank you, Master Li, for your concern.” Wu Manman smiled embarrassedly and led Wang Yan inside.

“Wait!” Li said.

“Master Li, what’s the matter?” Wu Manman’s heartbeat was extremely rapid. At this time, he was really afraid that Wang Yan’s wanted criminal’s identity would be exposed. Maybe he would be mad and would endanger others.

“Recently, pay attention to safety. There is news that a wanted criminal has entered Antarctica.” Stationmaster Li said seriously, “It is better not to go out alone. It is said that the wanted criminal is very dangerous.”

“Well, I know, Master Li.” Wu Manman’s tears were about to fall. Antarctica is so big, how can I be so unlucky? Just asked me to meet.

After saying goodbye.

Wang Yan and Wu Manman entered a small suite of hers together.

Outside is a world of ice and snow, but the room inside the Great Wall Station is warm like spring. Wang Yan took off the jacket and hung it on Wu Manman's hand. He held the little penguin and looked in her room: "Do you like watching Korean dramas?"

Wu Manman is like a disturbed young daughter-in-law. She puts her clothes on and says weakly: "Here, there is less recreation in Antarctica. Just watch the TV series. Sir, you answered, I agreed. As long as I obey obediently, it won't hurt others. "

"Yes. Even if it's a wanted criminal, I'm principled." Wang Yan lay comfortably on her couch and smiled at her, "Now, do you know what to do?" He said suddenly Frowning said, "It's so hot in the house, what are you doing in a down jacket?"

He also felt a bit dark, and he didn't expect to play a wanted criminal, which was quite enjoyable. But this woman is really timid and funny.

"Ah !?" Wu Manman was startled, looking at him biting his lip. Struggling inwardly, finally, she began to take off her clothes, and said with a red face, "You, you must speak and count." But she was thinking in her mind, forget it, at least this wanted criminal looks good too Very handsome, more handsome than the leading actors in Korean dramas.

"Hey. What are you doing undressing?" Wang Yan was startled.

"No, not you let me ..."

"I asked you to take off your coat. Are you afraid of the heat?" Wang Yan said with a look of irrelevance. "I'm a wanted criminal, not a cowboy who runs to Antarctica to deliver food. Go and make a coffee , I'm so exhausted today. "

Wu Manman was so ashamed to find a hole in the hole and hurried to make coffee.

However, Wang Yan picked up her laptop and began to search the current location, and then began to find a way to escape the next wave. If he takes a satellite again, he will definitely be taken care of. He is not sure whether he can escape the next wave of attacks.

“Take a boat? Take a plane? No way ...” Wang Yan shook his head. How could such a traditional means of transportation escape the search line of Uncle Cannon? And their speed is too slow.

After thinking about it, Wang Yan couldn't think of a good way for a while, and his brain was a little bloated. Take a break first, and think again.

Then he just flipped out a Korean drama in her laptop and saw that the Korean drama had a big brain hole, which might inspire inspiration.

“How can you infringe on me ...” Wu Manman came out with a cup of coffee and closed his mouth honestly before saying the word privacy. This guy is a wanted criminal. Isn't talking about privacy with the wanted criminal playing the piano with cattle?

Wang Yan took the coffee and watched Korean drama on the sofa while drinking. After watching it for a while, I have to admit that this Korean drama can be sold well. That is YY, to meet the various fantasy needs of women hanging ~ silk.

It's just that Wang Yan, a big man, looks a little creepy. Especially the protagonist, since he is such a powerful alien, he did nothing but turned around a woman with many problems all day long.

Wang Yan compared the women she knew, Wu Ya An Ge, Nan Lian, Gao Ming Yue, Lu Lu, which one is not much stronger than her?

and many more?

Alien! ?

Wang Yan's eyes lit up and turned to Wu Manman, who was carefully watching, said: “Do we have spaceships in Antarctica? I mean real spaceships, spacecrafts that can fly into space.”

“No ...” Wu Manman was taken aback. What did the wanted criminal want to do?

“Isn’t it so backward?” Wang Yan frowned, “I thought that as a tall scientific research station, there should be some special secrets that are unknown to outsiders.”

“Well ~ The Antarctic scientific research station is just a place to study some Antarctic ecology ...” Wu Manman said pitifully, her eyes suddenly lighted up, “Yes, there is a spaceship above.”

“Upper?” Wang Yan’s face was slightly puzzled.

“No, it’s not a spaceship, just, it’s a space station.” Wu Manman stuttered. “International space station, the space station often exchanges information with our scientific research station.” She was also a little dizzy, saying international What is the space station doing? It is about 400 kilometers high from the ground.

International Space Station?

Wang Yan’s eyes lit up, and he had some ideas in his heart.

He dared not continue to take the satellite because he was afraid that Uncle Cannon would continue to use rocket missiles, but it would be different if he could take the International Space Station. The International Space Station is a huge project, and the United States and Russia have already smashed it. I do n’t know how much money it is.

Wang Yan also thought about the rocket missile before. It should have been launched from the direction of South America. Technology in some countries in South America is relatively weak, and the chance of hitting a satellite is very low.

Well, the missile was most likely issued by the Americans.

The Americans may not care about a French satellite or even one of their own satellites, but can you say that he does not care about the International Space Station? Even if Uncle Cannon’s face is big, can’t he hit the International Space Station?

Wang Yan hurriedly turned off the noisy Korean drama and searched the International Space Station. Hmm ~ The orbit is a bit strange, about 45 degrees from the equator.

“Girl, can you count where you are on the International Space Station?” Wang Yan waved to her and said, “My math is not very good.”

Although Wu Manman is a biologist and likes to watch Korean dramas, he is also a decent doctor after all.

...

After half an hour.

Dennis ended his busy day's work and floated to the dome of the International Space Station. Here is equivalent to the side of a ship, you can see the beauty outside. Every astronaut in the space station likes to stay here for a while, looking at the beautiful earth 400 kilometers away, and missing his family by the way.

Missing family members in the dome of the International Space Station is not something everyone can experience.

At this point, the space station had just moved away from the dark zone and ushered in a short dawn. While passing by the Drake Strait, Dennis saw a person climbing on the transparent dome, a person without any protective equipment.

In fact, not only did he not wear equipment, he also held a trembling little penguin in his arms, which was still a young emperor penguin.

Dennis was stunned.

How can this be? This is not scientific!

Could it be that I have been on the space station for too long and have hallucinations? Dennis rubbed his eyes hard and found that the man in his hallucination was still there.

He smiled at himself, then knocked down the porthole with two clicks and said something with an exaggerated mouth shape.

From the perspective of his mouth opening, Dennis is a sentence in English: “Brother, please open the door.”

“Excuse me to open a door?”

Dennis banged this sentence loudly in his head, his eyes dazed, and he passed away.

There was a roar in his heart. Are you kidding me?

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 485

Dennis was ignorant, but Wang Yan was not. He flew all the way to a height of 400 kilometers, and was almost hit by space debris in the middle, but he wasn't just hitting a ride outside the space station.

By the way, he has to bring a weak orphan penguin, this trip is not easy.

This time I was lucky, I just happened to bump past the International Space Station near the Drake Passage. And fortunately, this time around the International Space Station, it also included the vicinity of Huahai City.

This is an extremely rare opportunity. In order to seize the opportunity, Wang Yan hurriedly drank the coffee and was not happy to continue to harass Wu Manman as a wanted criminal. Of course, before leaving, Wang Yan still gave her a bottle of diluted inner pill essence as a thank you.

Wang Yan was not afraid of her disbelief and lost the precious essence of Neidan.

Because he left a legend of Superman flying to the Great Wall Station.

Before switching to it, Wang Yan would also worry about the appearance rate of superpowers in front of ordinary people. But now, Uncle Gun has bombarded his satellites with missiles. How many scruples does he have?

Wang Yan sincerely added more plugs to him, anyway, Uncle Gun will send someone to Antarctica to wipe his ass.

After leaving the Great Wall Station in Antarctica, Wang Yan rushed to the point where the International Space Station passed by with the fastest speed. Then, like a gourd, it was pulled directly onto the International Space Station.

For the first time, Wang Yan felt very difficult. But many things will get used to doing and doing. And the space station is so big, it is more difficult to pick up. Wang Yan easily captured it and obtained an inertial speed of 7.9 kilometers per second from it.

I heard that the International Space Station is very interesting, he wanted to go in for tourism, and by the way added some blockage to the government of the United States. Don't talk to Wang Yan about nonsense like international influence. The rocket missile that bombarded his little "Karina" before was 90% likely to be launched by the United States.

Space is unexpectedly beautiful.

Even though Wang Yan had seen such pictures on TV before, the feeling of being on the scene was different after all.

Wang Yan felt the little things in his arms trembling with fear. He took out a can of oxygen and continued to rush some oxygen into the almost transparent energy shield, comforting him, "Little guy, do n't be afraid, everything is mine What. "

Then, he looked at the nearly half of the earth with emotion and said, "Hello, earth!"

The entire International Space Station is linked to the Houston Command Center 24 hours.

Wang Yan's move actually caused an uproar in the Houston Command Center in an instant. The camera on the International Space Station has been aimed at Wang Yan and the little penguin who has been in space for the first time.

"God, is this world crazy?" In front of a large display in the Houston Command Center in the United States, many people burst out a series of horrified calls.

"How did this man go to the International Space Station?"

“Let’s first ask how he can stay in 400 kilometers of space without wearing equipment, and he is not squeezed to death by strong internal pressure.”

“God, did the aliens invade?”

“Penguin, that penguin I dare to guarantee by personality, is a cub of an emperor penguin.” In the large display, a close-up shot of the cute little penguin was also given. The penguin cubs are a little ugly, and their eyes are ignorant.

While the Houston Command Center was in chaos, the International Space Station was upset. In the monitoring room, several Americans, a Frenchman, and three or four Russians all gathered together, staring at Wang Yan, who was stuck to the dome of the observation window.

Most of them have carried out extravehicular tasks, but each time they had to be tied up, and then they went out carefully and fully armed. The person in front of him, dressed very casually, didn’t feel like being exposed to space, but generally relaxed in his back garden pool.

God, this is in space.

Space is quiet, beautiful and magnificent. But it is also an extremely dangerous place. Human beings are landmark creatures, which evolved at the bottom of the atmosphere. When you go to space, it’s like throwing a fish on the shore and exposing it to the sun, full of life and death crisis.

“Brothers, I bet this guy is definitely not human. He must be an alien in human skin or a demon.”

“What about that penguin?”

“It must have been kidnapped by him. Poor little penguin actually fell into the hands of a terrible alien.”

“Maybe a superhuman being exposed to strong solar winds and genetic mutations?”

“Dude, do you watch more” Fantastic Four “?”

...

Listening to the comments of these people, you can see that they are ordinary people, and have not really contacted the superpowers. In fact, in the superpower world, it seems that there are powerful superpowers everywhere.

But this is actually an illusion. This is like a billionaire, the people he communicates with, and the people he usually collaborates with will appear many successful local tyrants. This does not mean that the local tyrants are already everywhere.

This is because he is in a class and social circles are all clusters.

The same is true of superpowers. Compared with the entire seven billion ordinary people, superpowers are only a few, and their identity is mysterious and unknown.

This world is the world of ordinary people.

But the superpower is in the dark, guarding the world and guiding the direction of the world pattern. The speed at which the superpowers get information is very fast, and the response is also the most sensitive.

Therefore, the incident of Wang Yan breaking the rules and knocking on the door outside the International Space Station has been passed to the Super Shield of the United States in a very short time.

A giant space carrier, like an island, floats tens of kilometers above the Atlantic Ocean in central South America.

In a suit, the unsmiling Secretary James's face is a bit irony.

He stared angrily at Wang Yan and the penguin in the monitor and said angrily: "Absurd, really absurd. This kid is too ignorant of the rules, so dare to appear so grandly outside the International Space Station. He knows how to do it, Involving countless ordinary people? I can guarantee that the President already knows the news now. "

Director James was angry, and some assistants and secretaries around him were silent.

Wang Yan, who is very selective among the younger generation of the China National African Affairs Bureau, is actually no stranger to the Super League. About his information files, there is a thick pile in the Super Shield. But from this perspective, Wang Yan seems to be more handsome than in the photos.

Especially his posture lying on the dome, it really sells ~ soul.

“Secretary, what should I do now? Should we send someone to pull him down?” An assistant, carefully proposed, “I heard that Wang Yan is an A-level strength, we can arrange an S-level strongman to go up. “

As a world-class superpower organization, the Super Shield will certainly not lack S-level powerhouses.

“Pull it down? Are you kidding me.” Secretary James’s face turned black. “I’m probably a little bit of this kid’s personality. I often don’t play cards according to common sense. Annoyed him, how to blow up the International Space Station. Do? Do you know how much the International Space Station is worth? It is 150 billion US dollars, not 1500 yuan! “

“So, let’s close the connection between the space station and the Houston command center first?” Someone said another idea.

“What’s the use of closure now? Send a secret team to control the Houston command center and make sure everyone signs a confidentiality treaty. God, there are too many people in the Houston center, this mess is really big enough.” Secretary James sighed bitterly. Endlessly, “Also, give me the connection with Yan Zun immediately. He let me launch a rocket to bomb the” Karina “satellite. The director doesn’t care, this pot must be carried by him.”

...

“puff!”

Uncle Gun’s command center.

When Uncle Gun saw the video of Wang Yan holding a little penguin and lying on the dome of the International Space Station, a sip of old wine was sprayed out. Just over ten minutes ago, he had just learned of the broken things at the Great Wall Station, and then had to send someone to wipe Wang Yan's ass.

Now it's okay, this kid just finished making trouble at the Great Wall Station, and ran to the International Space Station to cause trouble again. This is really daring.

"When the emperor withdrew it before he let him take over the pope ..." The light pope's pupils also squeezed twice, and he drank a bite of wine in the corner of his mouth. "If you know him where the great light father lives, maybe he also Will rush to travel and travel. "

"Yen Zun, I can't bear this pot." Secretary James's voice sounded, "Can you let your baby apprentice come down first, do we have something to say? I don't want to retire early."

"James, do you think he will listen to me now? I come forward and it will only make things worse." Uncle Cannon said with a trance in his eyes. "Otherwise, you communicate with him first, let's calm down the matter first. . "

"Yen Zun, you pit me!"

...

A few minutes later, the hatch of the International Space Station opened. Wang Yan hugged the little penguin and watched a guy in a space suit greet him. Through the transparent helmet, you can see that this person is Dennis who had contact with Wang Yan before.

Wang Yan waved to him friendlyly and said, "Brother, thank you for opening the door. My little penguin can't eat the environment outside."

"Angang!"

The little penguin yelled twice, flapping its wings, suspending and spinning, maybe this is the first penguin to "fly" in history.

Dennis was also drunk. He took out his laptop computer for video calling with his family and gave it to Wang Yan. Right now the screen shows James, the Super Shield Director.

His face was majestic, but he said politely to Wang Yan: “Xiao Wang, you and I are also old friends who have been dealing with each other for a long time. I will apologize to you for the previous” Karina “. Otherwise , You come down from the space station first, I will take you to have fun in the country. “

“It turned out that Karina had you blown up?” Wang Yan’s expression “suddenly realized”, and then he turned, saying, “Very well, I’m still worried that I can’t find the victim. Let’s say, how much are you going to lose?”

“Loose money?”

James’s face is green, and “Karina” is not yours. Why should I lose money?

...

...

This kind of humiliation, according to Secretary James’s usual petty temper, may have already shaken his hands. But this matter is too much trouble now, even the president called just now and asked what happened.

Once this matter is not handled properly, it will cause a lot of losses for the time being, not to mention it. It is estimated that his director has also done a good job.

Therefore, Director James reluctantly pulled out a kind smile and said, “You little king, I did admit that I had made the previous job. You can rest assured that we will definitely compensate you accordingly. Only a penguin was released ... No, it was from the space station first, we are all civilized people, why can’t we communicate well? Come and come, Arenia, August, you come and tell old friends. “

James quickly hurled the next task to others. Otherwise, he was really afraid that if he communicated with Wang Yan again, he would run away.

In the laptop display, a handsome blond man with an alloy sword in his back appeared. He smiled and said hello to Wang Yan in Chinese language: “Wang Yan, I haven’t seen you for several months. I heard that you have been promoted to A grade, congratulations.”

“Yo, old Olympics, when did you learn this Chinese language? It’s quite ridiculous.” Wang Yan also greeted with a smile, “I haven’t seen you for a long time, and I am handsome again.”

Old Olympics?

The golden lion sword Auguste’s face is slightly black, can you have a good name in your mouth? But at this time, he was shouldering the important task assigned by Secretary James. Even if he was wronged, he could only swallow it abruptly. He smiled and said, “How handsome you are? I learn Chinese and I want to learn Chinese. Traditional culture can better communicate with China’s brothers and sisters. By the way, how did you run up the International Space Station? When it passes by the United States, you will come down and I will take you around. “

“Old Olympics, it’s not that I don’t give face. You don’t know my bitterness these days. If I don’t complete the task of the master, my end will be very miserable.” Wang Yan said with a bitter face. “Forget it, I’ll go to the country to play with you when I’m busy.”

“Well, Arenya, don’t you miss Wang Yan too?” Auguste saw that Wang Yan was not going in and could only move the rescuers.

In the display, the queen of spiders Arenia was replaced. She flicked her chestnut hair and charmingly threw a wink at Wang Yan, saying in Huaxia: “Handsome Wang Yan, I have n’t seen you for a long time. Didn’t miss me? “

“Oh, do you all learn Chinese language quite popular now?” Wang Yan echoed with a smile, “but to be honest, I really miss everyone.”

“I now find that there are quite a few handsome Chinese men in China, such as handsome Zhang Xiao, handsome Wang, and handsome Lei.” The Queen of Spiders giggled and smiled. “Learning Chinese well, maybe you can find a Chinese husband.” . Handsome Wang, are you interested in a foreign marriage. “

“This ... haha, when you come back to China to play, I will introduce some new colleagues to you.” Wang Yan was dripping with cold sweat and was insensitive to her words. Just kidding, this terrifying Queen of Spiders, if you were with her, the taste would be too heavy.

“That’s the way to go. Otherwise, you will first get off the space station from near the United States, and I will show you some girls from the Super Shield.” Queen Ariana, the spider queen, continued to seduce, “What type do you want?” Yes, pure, charming, mature ... “

“Your Super Shield is really talented.” Wang Yan smiled, showing a “quite interested” look, and said regretfully, “Unfortunately, I’m too busy working these days, waiting for me to finish this. For a while, you must entertain me well. “

Super Shield Bureau Command.

Queen Spider was temporarily disconnected, and August and the two looked at Secretary James helplessly and said: “Sir Secretary, we are not willing to help you. Wang Yan, this guy, looks simple on the surface, but actually Chicken thief, the chance of trying to deceive him is very low. “

“What should I do? I just bombarded him with missiles, and he must have hated me.” Director James said with a bitter face. “I guess, he will definitely not give up.”

...

“Hello everyone.” Wang Yan hugged the little penguin and floated into the International Space Station. Said to the people standing at the door, “I admire you scientists most. I remember when I was young, the teacher asked me what career I want to be when I grow up? Then I said to be a scientist and an astronaut. Idol. “

Indeed, scientists who can work on the International Space Station are top experts in related fields.

They can now understand that this guy who knocked on the door outside the space station is not an alien, but a standard human. It’s just that this human being is a little special, just like the Fantastic Four, it has very powerful superpowers.

Scientists, of course, are a group of curious babies who are very curious and very heavy. They dragged Wang Yan to them with great interest and started to ask questions.

“Who are you and the Fantastic Four?”

“Uh ... that’s the characters in the movie, it’s not easy to compare.” Wang Yan said helplessly. “But you have a lot of powerful characters in the Super Shield of the United States. For example, the golden lion sword Augusto I talked to just now. Sister, his strength is not bad, just worse than me. “ at the same time.

In the headquarters of the Super Shield Bureau, Wang Yan ’s contact with scientists is being broadcast live on the monitor.

“Poof!” Auguste spewed out his old blood directly, and his face was a bit irony. “Why did he say that? Even if he was promoted to A level, would he think he must be better than me?”

Auguste had an impulse and wanted to rush to compete with those two goods. Why should I say that? Why?

What is even more dizzying is Secretary James. Why should these two guys help the Super Shield to propagate? Feelings don’t need him to wipe the ass, it doesn’t matter. For a time, Secretary James felt that he would be killed by Yan Zun’s master and apprentice sooner or later.

“Xiaowang Xiaowang, if you are also exposed to the solar wind, will we become as powerful as the Fantastic Four?”

“Hey, everyone is a scientist. To believe in science, you can’t mess up.” Wang Yan was also shocked by these crazy scientists and hurriedly persuaded, “It is well known that most mutations in gene mutations are harmful. Do n’t take risks, mutation. “

Wang Yan understands why the scientists in these space stations are so interested in the Fantastic Four. It seems that I remember the four heroes in the film and television works, which were also attacked by the solar storm on the space station, and then the gene mutation became the superpower.

“Alas, you are right, what a pity.” Scientists said sadly, “We also want to be able to move outside without wearing a space suit, just like you.”

“Don’t worry, everyone, the scientific development is fast now.” Wang Yan’s “kindly” comfort said, “As far as I know, your country has now reached a very high level in the results of genetic research, and has recently obtained A lot of relevant information. Maybe in another ten or twenty years, you will be able to receive the injection of genetic drugs under the premise of safety and become a superpower. “

“Really? This is really good. I will send an email to the president and queue up in advance to apply ...”

At the same time, there was chaos in the Houston Command Center, and they all shouted that they would also email the President ...

...

Director James placed a cigar in a melancholy expression, with a somewhat irresistible look on his face. Hang, can this kid be more pitted? Some of the secrets of our Super Shield Bureau were also shaken out by him in public.

What makes him most helpless is that this Wang Yan is not even a person who is beyond the shield, and does not have to be bound by the secrecy regulations.

“Jingle Bell”

Secretary James’s phone rang and picked it up, and it turned out to be the president. He reluctantly answered the phone and said, “Your Excellency, you can fire me, this job cannot be done!”

...

Two minutes later, the scientist Dennis took a laptop and flew over again and said: “Mr. Wang, Mr. Wang. Our Excellency President wants to have a video call with you.”

“president?”

Wang Yan narrowed his eyes and glanced at the notebook. Well, it really is the President of the United States. Then, Wang Yan waved his hand and said in English: “Your Excellency, it is really an honor for me to have a video call with you.”

“Hello, Mr. Wang Yan.” President Rice said kindly, “Have you had fun on the International Space Station?”

“Not bad, the scientists are very friendly.” Wang Yan nodded and said, “My penguin also thinks it is good here, there is air, you can float back and forth.”

“Oh, just be happy.” The President of the United States said with a smile, “If there is anything that is not well received, please tell me.”

“The hospitality is very good. They just invited me to taste space food.” Wang Yan also said with a smile. “So, I also invited them to drink some wine. But to say the question, there are indeed some.” Why did you, the Super Shield Bureau, launch rocket missiles to blow me? If I were not clever, I ran fast, and if I was hit in the front, I would be seriously injured without dying. “

Will you be seriously injured without dying? The President of the United States is also a drop of cold sweat, this guy is definitely a little monster. When he just wanted to speak, Wang Yan suddenly said with a straight face: “His Excellency, I am a member of the China National African Affairs Bureau. Do you want to provoke our National African Affairs Bureau? Do you want to cause war between the two countries? ? “ war! ?

Suddenly, the President of the United States was a little ignorant.

At the same time, James of the Super Shield and the gun uncle in the air command center were also dumbfounded.

Especially Uncle Cannon, with a forehead on his forehead, he could n’t help but say, “This stink boy is absolutely sincere. He just broke the jar anyway, it ’s not too big a problem.”

“This, Uncle Gun. You apologize to Wang Yan for compensation.” Pope Guangming also said with a hard face, “Fight him down again, and the Third World War is about to erupt.”

...

...

“I apologize to him?” Uncle Gun stared at his eyes, “I said Xiao Feifei, is your brain trapped by the door? I am his master, I apologize to him? Again, you didn’t see him How did it deal with me this time? I do n’t think it would be possible for Yao Fei to forgive me without a decade or eight years. In short, this time I have to cheer myself up. ”

“Then I don’t care. The President of the United States has always been famous for its strength. This is the character of the president determined by their country’s genes.” Pope Guang coughed twice and warned with a straight voice.

“It’s okay, just let that kid suffer a little bit.” Uncle Cannon said indifferently. “Let the kid stir it up twice. It’s not good. I’ll let Lao Han come forward.”

The analysis of the Pope Guangming was good. The President of the United States smiled away and said seriously: “Wang Yan, we do n’t mean to provoke the China National Bureau of African Affairs. I apologize to you for the missile bombardment. But our people in the United States respect freedom Not afraid of war. “

“Yo, that means I can also use that missile to bombard you, and then you apologize?” Wang Yan was also quite strong, snorting with dissatisfaction.

“Boy, don’t be irritating, that your master Yan Zun let me bomb, what is the test of the unified command system of the Global Alliance.” In the same channel, Director James couldn’t help but interject.

“Sir, is it reasonable to speak?” Wang Yanheng said with a glance, “I was bombed, not you, okay? Or, you stand on the satellite and let me blow, we two This is even. “

Secretary James's face is black, can I be the same as your little monster?

“However, I am not an unreasonable person.” After Wang Yan became strong, the words turned, “Since things have already happened, it doesn't make much sense to investigate more. But is reasonable compensation always necessary?”

President Mi's face soothed, and said with a smile: “This thing is a loophole in our command system, and we don't want to blame more. So, we compensate you for 10 million US dollars, and we should be surprised.”

“Your Excellency President, are you kidding me? The United States is the most powerful country in the world, and it is thicker than my thighs if it is pulled down. It is too much for ten million dollars, is it too much?” Wang Yan said.

The scientists on the side were dumbfounded. They had seen bold people, but not bold people who threatened the President of the United States. And obviously the President is going to lose money to him, he is still too little?

“Xiao Wang, this is the case. Every penny in our country is transparent.” The President of the United States said helplessly, “This money can only be paid out of the foreign remuneration of the Super Shield Bureau, so, Looking back, I will make a budget to clean up the space debris, and I will do the work for you. “

“Yes, this is good.” The eyes of the scientists lit up, and they all agreed. “There is too much space junk. We live in space and feel very dangerous. I don't know when a large chunk of junk will suddenly pop up. Wear a pair of space stations. This is good, this is good. “

Wang Yan fainted, what good? Obviously it was a compensation, but it became a project contract. And in theory, it is still a garbage cleaner ... this President of the United States is really worried.

“Xiao Wang, the president is right, our accounts are very transparent. If the compensation is too high for you, I am afraid that the parliament will be in trouble.” James said huh, “You know, The world can do more of your work. So, let 's first give you a prepayment of 50 million US dollars. We will calculate the remuneration according to the workload. You can rest assured that the custody will not lose you. “

In the eyes that many scientists were looking forward to, Wang Yan touched his nose and said helplessly: "I have done it, just as I have contributed to all mankind. But if this price does not satisfy me, don't Blame me for accounting after autumn. "

In fact, to put it bluntly, Wang Yan is just trying to make trouble, to wake up the opposite party, lest they think they are bullying. The main purpose is to return to Huahai City early to complete the mission of Uncle Cannon.

To be honest, it has been a long time to go abroad this time. The scenery outside is beautiful, but still comfortable at home. And it's been a long time since he was separated from his parents. He also wanted to go back and see it soon.

Since the President of the United States and the Director of the Super Shield Bureau have bowed their heads again and again, Wang Yan does not want to worry about this matter any more.

"Xiao Wang, thank you, we will be much safer in space in the future."

"Xiao Wang, you are welcome to come to the International Space Station at any time."

Most of the scientists in the space station are people with simple and distinct personalities who are dedicated to research. They really thank Wang Yan very much. Start dragging Wang Yan to experience all kinds of interesting life in space.

Almost at the same time.

The President of the United States and the Director of the Super Shield Bureau talked to each other.

"Actually, this guy has a good personality."

"Your Excellency President, I think many scientists do not exclude superpowers. Now that the earth is in crisis, I personally suggest that some superpowers with good personality can try to join the space exploration mission. I believe you have seen it, Superpowers are many times stronger than ordinary people in performing space missions. "

“It is true. Superpowers, like us, belong to human beings on the earth. I will communicate with NASA and start a journey to Mars as soon as possible. The parts that are still lacking in technology will be made up by superpowers.”

“Yes, Your Excellency, I will arrange the personnel for this mission as soon as possible.”

...

The International Space Station orbits the earth in more than 90 minutes. Although its orbit is fixed, because of the rotation of the earth, it will pass through most places on the earth. This time, it happened to pass by the Huahai City.

In fact, this opportunity happens almost every day, because the International Space Station orbits the earth more than fifteen times a day ...

Therefore, Wang Yan will soon leave the space station.

Amidst the reluctance of scientists, Wang Yan waved goodbye to them and promised to come and visit them whenever he was free. Then he held the penguin and swept down from the 400-kilometer space.

This is an extremely dangerous journey.

Wang Yan must slow down step by step, because his inertial speed in space now reaches 7.9 kilometers per second. This is a normal speed in space, and it looks like it is still in mid-air. However, only when you really cut into the dense atmosphere, you will find how terrible this speed is.

If it is a meteorite, it will burn and melt in the atmosphere. If it is a scrapped satellite, it will be destroyed by the atmosphere.

Even Wang Yan 's strength, daring to be planted directly into the atmosphere at a speed of 7.9 kilometers per second, is only a dead end. And in Wang Yan's arms, he also held a weak little penguin.

Fortunately, all of this went smoothly. Wang Yan decelerated smoothly and entered the familiar troposphere smoothly. His speed was very stable, and even the little penguin just opened his eyes and looked at everything curiously.

“Huangpu River!”

Wang Yan saw the huge and famous river from afar, and after turning a bend in the troposphere, gliding like a big bird. Soon, he landed with great precision to his home, Xianghu District.

Today’s weather is already winter.

In less than a month, it will usher in the next new year.

For a time, Wang Yan also felt a little bit of emotion. This trip was long enough, and it almost swept the entire earth in a circle.

As soon as he arrived at the Xianghu Community, Wang Yan felt at home.

After all, this was the first house in his life, and lived for a year and a half.

The cold wind is a little rusty, and most of the plants in the community have faded out of the green, and it seems a bit desolate. The little penguin brought back by Wang Yan seems to be somewhat hot, and his face is listless.

“You little thing, it seems that you really have to put you into the freezer.” Wang Yan smiled and flicked his head, and then walked home with it.

But Wang Yan hadn’t walked a few steps yet, but a woman who sprang out a short distance pulled it aside into the woods.

“Sister Wen !?” Wang Yan’s reaction naturally recognized her in the first time. It is the neighbor who lives in a building next to her, Miss Wenru Hanwen.

“Xiao Yan, where have you been this time?” Wen Ruohan dressed very casually, carrying a fruit bag, apparently just returned from shopping outside, and her face was a little serious.

“The unit sent me to travel abroad for a period of time and just came back.” Wang Yan asked, slightly surprised, “Sister Wen, what happened?”

“From yesterday, I found some suspicious people in black appeared near your house.” Wen Ruhan frowned, “I was surprised at the time, but I didn’t think much about it. But I just came back from buying fruit and happened to see It’s up to you. I’m afraid ... “

Man in black?

Wang Yan enveloped a dozen buildings nearby, and as expected, there were some suspicious people lurking near his house.

“Xiao Yan, if you have any trouble, you can go to my house to hide.” Wen Ruohan’s face was pale and hesitantly said.

“Oh, no need. It is some colleagues of my unit. They are here to protect me.” Wang Yan comforted and said, “My work is special, and the unit cares about my safety.”

Wen Ruohan blinked his eyes twice, seeming to be unbelievable.

It was at this time.

Pappa ~

A few crisp applause sounded.

“Comrade Lao Wang, as soon as you come back, a beautiful neighbor will report to you, and it is really charming.” A woman wearing a classical sword costume with a ponytail on her head stepped out from the corner, There was a smile on the corner of my mouth, “It’s time to settle the bill between us.”

“Gao Mingyue!” Wang Yanwei stunned for a moment, a hint of wry smile appeared on his lips, “Since you have all appeared, I believe Lulu is not far away.”

Sure enough, the voice of the bright Saint Lulu sounded cold behind Wang Yan: “Wang Yan, I did not expect that we would meet so soon.”

Wang Yan smiled bitterly in his heart, Uncle Gun, this should be the last meal you prepared for me.

...

...

“These two are ...?” The young woman Wen Ruhan next door frowned softly, suspicious, and looked at Gao Mingyue and Lulu that appeared suddenly.

In front of her, her face is soft and silky, her eyes are clear and clear, and she is a typical beauty of China. In a costume, not only does she not have the sense of a half silk COSPLAY, but gives her a bit of heroic demeanor, floating like a fairy temperament.

The one behind was blond, with skin like snow, and his body seemed to be hazy with looming holy glory. In a simple casual outfit, she couldn't hide her classical goddess Fan Er as if she didn't eat human fireworks.

There is no doubt that these two women who seem to be somewhat hostile to Wang Yan have extraordinary temperament and no one million.

“Cough.” Wang Yan hugged the little penguin and smiled twice, and then explained, “Sister Wen, let me introduce you. This is Gao Mingyue. Not only does she have a family history, she is also a master of a key university. And , She is also a colleague of our unit Northwest Branch. “

After a pause, he introduced again: “This foreign beauty is Lulu, the representative of our unit's overseas partner. She has a kind personality and strong working ability.”, “Mingyue, Lulu, this is Sister Wenru Hanwen is my neighbor in Xianghu Community. She has been taking care of her for more than a year. “

“Miss Gao, hello Miss Lulu.” Wen Ruhan is a young woman of extremely high quality. She greeted the two beauties gently and politely. “My name is Wen Ruhan and I am Wang Yan’s neighbor.”

“Sister Wen is good.” Gao Mingyue and Lulu, now despite wanting to press Wang Yan on the ground, beat hard. However, he still showed his excellent quality and greeted him politely.

Women often have a keen sense of smell, especially a beautiful young woman such as Wen Ruhan who lives alone with her daughter. If she does not have the keen insight and action ability, she will be swallowed by the wolves.

Therefore, only through such a short contact. Wen Ruhan can see that the two beauties are women of a high level of identity, and there seems to be a little bit of anger with Wang Yan, but even if there is anger, they still maintain a good female education image.

It can be seen that this resentment is mostly related to feelings. And most of it was wrong with Wang Yan. She didn’t want to be involved in this kind of thing.

From this, just a moment, Wen Ruhan smiled and nodded and said: “Miss Gao, Miss Lulu. You talk slowly, my daughter is still waiting for me to go back at home.” Said, she carried Carrying the fruit bag in his hand, Wen Wan smiled and walked away to his home.

Wang Yan touched his nose, Wen Ruhan didn’t say hello to herself, okay, I guess she thought she was a scumbag in her heart?

“Sister Wen, please wait a moment.” Wang Yan exclaimed.

“Mr. Wang, do you have anything else?” Wen Ruhan asked politely, and there was already a sense of caution and distance in his words.

“Uh ... Sister Wen, this is the case.” Wang Yan said with a bitter smile, “I believe you can see it, I can’t avoid being beaten today, but this child is innocent. This little guy troubles you to take care of it first For a moment, it is not suitable for the environment. If you have ice cubes in your house, let it cool down a little. “

“This is ...” Wen Ruhan Xiu Mei frowned, she thought Wang Yan was hugging a little goose at first, but now it seems that this is not the case.

“Poof!”

The bright Saint Lulu was also teased by Wang Yan, and her clear eyes were not angry enough to pass: “I heard that you went to Antarctica for a walk, but there is no need to bring a penguin back to raise it? “” There was also a slight convulsion in my heart. Wang Yan, this guy, was always able to do all kinds of unexpected things.

“Alas, I accidentally killed the little guy’s parents. If I leave it in Antarctica, it will definitely die. Other penguins are not very good at taking care of other children.” Wang Yan looked helpless and sent the little penguin to Wen Ruhan I handed it over, “Sister Wen, please take care of you for a while. You can let Nuan Nuan play with it for a while, and I will go back and pick it up after I beat it.”

“Qi, Penguin!” Wen Ruhan also fainted slightly, just looking at this little thing just like a little penguin, but he did not dare to be sure in that respect. This guy Wang Yan was on a business trip, and he even brought penguins home?

Also, the psychological preparation for this guy to be beaten is calm enough. Ok, okay, Wen Ruhan twitched her mouth slightly to reach out.

“Angang!”

Unexpectedly, the little penguin called twice, spread a pair of fluffy wings and hugged Wang Yan without letting go, and moved stupidly and bluntly, glancing at Wang Yan’s eyes pitifully. Obviously, it has become dependent on Wang Yan because he is not willing to leave Wang Yan because of the fear of the strange environment.

“Little guy, don’t pretend to be pitiful. I’m not abandoning you, I will pick it up later.” Wang Yan rubbed his head gently and said, “Good, obedient. No, you can’t Stay here. Otherwise, what should you do if these two sisters are involved? You are so weak, pitiful ~ “ “Humph!” Gao Mingyue rolled his eyes at Wang Yan angrily, as if to say that they were peerless witch heads. However, Wang Yan is right, everyone is very strong, and once you start, you will not be afraid of this little thing.

After some entanglement, the little penguin finally fell into Wen Ruhan's arms. But its watery eyes kept looking at Wang Yan. That kind of look is like a little poor child who will be abandoned by his father and given away.

"This, Sister Mingyue. This little penguin is so pitiful, otherwise, we will wait for him to settle the penguin, and then beat him." Saint Lulu was soft-hearted, and seemed to be unbearable to see this scene.

Gao Mingyue raised his eyebrows slightly, and hesitated and said, "Well, this little penguin doesn't look very well, let him put it in first."

The two women had already agreed before they came. The hands-on action that began when they met each other, beat him up ~~~~~ I didn't expect that it would be a mess for a little penguin.

"Then, go to my house." Wen Ruhan gave them a strange look. The relationship between them and Wang Yan seemed to be different from what he thought. Therefore, she hesitated and said, "Your home has been empty for a few days, and there must be nothing to eat in the refrigerator."

"Why is that so embarrassing?" Wang Yan said, as if he was really hungry. The hospitable scientists used to invite him to eat space meals. The nutrition is enough, but the taste is not complimentable, and they are not full.

"It's okay, we are neighbors and should take care of each other." Wen Ruohan said softly and gently, "Moreover, Nuan Nuan must like penguins very much, she will be very happy. Miss Gao, Miss Lulu, also welcome you Go to my house as a guest. "

Ok!

Now that everything has been said, Gao Mingyue and Saint Lulu looked at each other and agreed.

A group of people quickly arrived at Wen Ruhan's house.

The layout of her family is similar to that of Wang Yan, but the decoration and layout are more warm and delicate. The whole house is clean and clean, full of warmth and little fun.

“Handsome handsome uncle ~” When the little girl Nuan Nuan saw Wang Yan, she trot all the way into his arms, her eyes wide, filled with happiness and happiness, her voice was sweet and a little bitter said, “Warm It ’s been a long time since I ’ve seen you, I thought you should n’t be warm. ”

“Oh, uncle doesn’t want anyone to be warm,” Wang Yan said with a smile and rubbed her hair. “Have you been obedient lately, did you listen to the teacher in the kindergarten?”

“Nuan Nuan is the most obedient, and today the teacher praises Nuan Nuan. Uncle ~ do you miss me and my mother?”

“Nuan Nuan, Uncle just came back from a business trip, a little tired, don’t bother him more.” Wen Ruohan’s face flushed slightly, and she glanced at Wang Yan with a slightly excited voice. Come back a small animal. “

“Antarctic? What kind of animal? Whale? Walrus?” Nuan Nuan’s eyes lit up immediately, struggling to get out of Wang Yan’s arms and ran towards his mother.

There is a drop of cold sweat on Wang Yan. Are the whales and walruses small animals?

“Wow ~ it’s a little penguin.” Nuan Nuan was suddenly attracted, and cried with excitement.

Next, Wen Ruohan hosted Gao Mingyue and Lulu. Wang Yan and Nuan Nuan set up a little penguin together and used some ice cubes in the refrigerator to build a nest on the balcony. As a result, the surrounding temperature made it adapt.

Wang Yan then fed it a few drops of diluted Nedan essence, and the little guy’s spirit suddenly shook again.

After playing for a while, Wen Ruohan called for dinner.

“Xiao Yan, Miss Mingyue, Miss Lulu. The weather is colder, so let’s get together and get a clear soup hot pot.” Wen Ruohan entertained with virtue.

Everyone gathered around the table together and started to eat hot soup pot, although the taste is very light, but it has a different taste.

...

at the same time.

In the command center.

Uncle Cannon smiled and said, "Xiao Fei, a little bit. Lulu and Mingyue have already found Wang Yan? Ha ha, when I think of that scene, I can't help but feel excited. I am very excited."

"Cao Jinglue, you have such a bad idea, you can come up with it?" Pope Guangming sighed, "That's your apprentice, you really pushed him into the fire pit."

"I pushed him? Hehe, I just let him taste it. Why is it unreasonable when a woman is angry." Uncle Cannon said with a smirk, "Yes, he seemed to watch me live at that time, right? I Did n't they send someone to squat? Ask them to send the video signal to me and look at it. I have to see for myself, how miserable he is. "

"You're so funny. Sure enough, it's not that a family doesn't enter a family." Pope Guangming shook his head and expressed helplessness.

Soon, the signal came in.

It should be a drone in aerial photography, and Wang Yan and others were photographed from the balcony.

Then Uncle Gun's proud expression gradually solidified. His eyes were rounded, and he was about to spit blood: "Isn't it? It's not a good thing to say good, is it good to be beaten to death?"

Even the Pope of Light was dumbfounded: "No? The kid is too big ... can this kind of thing be settled?"

...

...

Uncle Cannon's incredible, full of incredible colors. Because the picture he saw was completely different from what he had imagined. In his imagination, Gao Mingyue and Lulu should be a big move and then a big move towards Wang Yanfang.

He was beaten with a swollen nose and blue face, embarrassed, and even hit him to beg for mercy. It was like the last time he was beaten by Daier and Yaofei together.

For this plan, Uncle Pao also interviewed them and deliberately provoked the separation, making them even more angry.

Even Uncle Gun sent a large number of secret agents to monitor Wang Yan in order to achieve this goal. And maintain order at critical moments and deal with chaotic scenes.

However, everything is diametrically opposed to what he imagined.

Instead of being beaten, Wang Yan also happily ate hot pot with the two girls and a beautiful young woman. That happy look really made Uncle Cannon dull.

"It seems that your apprentice is more capable than you." Pope Guangming also said in amazement, "You young people are really amazing. They are different from our time."

...

Wang Yan has a good appetite, especially the vegetables selected by Wen Ru Han are all natural organic vegetables, without pesticide residues, and taste sweet. The only bad thing is that they have too little meat.

When eating, the food is not enough.

"Xiao Yan, I'm sorry." Wen Ruhan blushed slightly. "My home has fewer ingredients. So, I'll go to the supermarket at the door to buy some."

However, Wang Yan has a solution, and hurriedly said that it was not necessary. Then after he went out for a lap, he picked up a lot of ingredients.

For example, big lobsters weighing five or six pounds, big octopus whiskers, and scallops the size of a plate. Of course, there are some beef and red wine from Shun back in Italy.

Large storage space is self-willed.

By the way, he also caught a large black fish weighing several kilograms from the Xianghu Lake behind the house.

“Mingyue, you come to help chopping garlic.” Wang Yan ran into the kitchen familiarly and began to pick up various ingredients.

Gao Mingyue walked into the kitchen with a smile on her face, and when she was alone with Wang Yan, she whispered in a cold face: “Lao Wang, why do you let me chop garlic?”

“Because your sword skills are good.” Wang Yan smiled and said.

“You ...” Gao Mingyue looked angry, rumored, “Wang Yan, don’t think I let you spend more time, the account between us will be written off. Believe it or not ...”

“Okay, don’t be excited, I just made a little joke.” Wang Yan hurriedly raised his hand to surrender, and said with a laugh, “We are going to be a guest at everyone’s house, and everyone is busy for a long time. Are you always working? It’s rude. “

“I’ve eaten almost, you just have to eat it.” Gao Mingyue said with a sullen expression, “You have to eat it yourself.”

“It’s done, in front of the neighbors, hello, don’t you give me a face?” Wang Yan said bitterly, “If you and Lulu really want to take my dog’s life, you have to let me eat. Let’s eat first? “

“Huh, seeing that you still know the shame, I will let you get away for a while.” After Gao Mingyue gave him a glance, he began to peel the garlic and chop the garlic. While chopping, he also said,

“Comrade Lao Wang, I want to ask you, what kind of shameless things do you do, are you ashamed?”

So far, Gao Mingyue still feels anxious. What ecstasy did this guy pose at the time? Immediately melting her Gao Mingyue and Lulu moved, until after discovering the truth, it was simply hit by Wulei, and the whole world felt collapsed.

“Bullbull ~”

More and more annoying, Gao Mingyue chopped the kitchen knife so that the shadow of the knife kept rolling, and the garlic became garlic paste. It seemed as if those garlic heads were regarded as Wang Yan, the more cut and the cooler.

“His ~”

Wang Yan squinted her hands up and down, and the shadows of the blades were stacked one upon the other, and he felt a little chilly on the neck.

Very murderous!

Wang Yan swallowed, sighed various dishes, and sighed and said: “Actually, I also regret it. I really feel that it is really cruel to you.”

“You also know?” Gao Mingyue chopped the kitchen knife and glanced at him with a cold voice. “But you don’t come here too much. Don’t think that you have a serious confession, I will forgive you Now. “

“How can I expect you to forgive me, huh, the man-husband dare to dare to be a dare.” Wang Yan said with a chic expression, “When I finish this meal, let’s find a more remote place. Learn about listening to honors. “

“Okay, then trust you again.” Gao Mingyue stopped the knife and froze for two seconds before he echoed back. “I hope you will not let me and Lulu down again this time.”

The two were whispering, and Wang Yan quickly got some dishes right. Garlic scallops, garlic vermicelli lobster. As for the black fish fillets and octopus whiskers, they are used for shabu-shabu.

“Xiao Yan, it’s really hard for you. You come to my house and let you cook.” Wen Ruhan said in a gentle apologetic voice.

“Sister Wen, you are too polite, we are all old neighbors, not to mention thank you for keeping us for dinner this time.” Wang Yan smiled and put various ingredients on the table, and then sandwiched a piece of white and tender Lobster meat warmed and said, “Come here, baby eat more protein. You can rest assured that this lobster is from the clear sea, there is not much pollution, it belongs to the sashimi-grade lobster, don’t eat too much.”

“Wow, uncle is really delicious.” Nuan Nuan was eating beautifully, and a drop of olive oil dripped from the corner of his mouth.

“Little girl, is it good to be an uncle or a lobster?” Wang Yan took the paper towel and wiped the corner of her mouth gently for her.

“Lobster is good, so is uncle.” Nuan Nuan said with a happy face, “Uncle is not only handsome, but also a good man. When Nuan Nuan grows up, he can marry his uncle.”

“Pomp.” Saint Lulu smiled, and the little girl was really cute. However, it seems that Comrade Lao Wang is somewhat lethal to girls. Even a few-year-old girl shouted to marry him.

“Good boy, Nuan Nuan really speaks.” Wang Yan smiled contentedly and took a scallop for her. “This is uncle’s reward for you. You can grow up quickly after eating. Uncle is waiting for you with a bachelor.” “ “Comrade Lao Wang, don’t tease the little girl, she will take it seriously.” Gao Mingyue glared at him.

“Oh, you eat too, you eat too.” Wang Yan said with a smile, “These are all fished by myself, and the quality is guaranteed. If I don’t eat enough, I will go back and fish.”

Wen Ruhan took a sip and blushed with praise: “Xiao Yan, your ingredients and craftsmanship are not bad. I don’t know which girl will be lucky to marry you in the future.” During the talk, she secretly watched two A glance at the woman’s heart made her sad.

With her knowledge and wisdom, of course, I can see that these two girls are somewhat fond of Wang Yan. She also understands very well that such an excellent young man as Wang Yan is absolutely impossible with her.

As Wen Ruhan said, Gao Mingyue and Lulu glanced at each other as if they were thoughtful.

After this pass, it's getting early.

Nuan Nuan is still a child and needs plenty of sleep.

Therefore, after helping to clean up, Wang Yan left with two women.

Wen Ruhan sent them downstairs, and then pointedly said: "Xiao Yan, Sister Wen is coming from here and would like to remind you. If there is any problem between you and Miss Gao and Miss Lulu, I hope to solve it. There is nothing in this world that cannot be discussed. "

"Sister Wen, thank you for your reminder." Wang Yan said gratefully. "Come back, warm home alone, I'm not too relieved."

"Well, see you then." Wen Ruhan waved with a smile, "I have a great day today, Miss Gao, Miss Lulu, I hope you come to play often."

After saying goodbye to her.

Wang Yan took the two girls into the garage of his building, started the car, and started to drive outside.

"Lao Wang, where are you going to take us?"

After Yi Ruan and Wen Ruhan were separated, Gao Mingyue and Lulu's expressions became serious, and their faces became cold.

"Naturally it's debt repayment." Wang Yan smiled bitterly. "There are too many people in Huahai. It's always not good to fight outside. Go to the East China Branch of the National African Affairs Bureau. It's quieter there, and you are more upset. "

Wang Yan 's sincere "confessional" appearance provokes Gao Mingyue and Lu Xian to stare at each other. Is n't this guy playing real? Does he really have to fight back and fight with them?

But Wang Yan is too tricky. No matter what he said, they still put on a vigilant look.

Soon, Wang Yan drove to the East China Branch.

Then he familiarly took two girls to the underground facility and took the elevator. He met familiar people and greeted them warmly.

"Ding!"

The elevator door opens.

When the little rabbit sister sitting at the front desk saw Wang Yan, her eyes lit up and greeted her with a sweet voice: "Brother Wang Yan, are you back on a business trip? Well, these two are, Hello, Miss Mingyue, Hello Her Highness. "

Sister Bunny's expression suddenly became restrained.

"Sister Bunny, I just came back. When I am busy with this time, I invite you to sing K." Wang Yan said with a smile, "First help me arrange a large training room, I have some personal matters with them talk."

Under the arrangement of Sister Bunny.

Wang Yan quickly entered the training room with the two of them.

Then Wang Yan took off his coat, and then lay on his back on the ground, tilting his head and closing his eyes, and his aspirations were determined: "Come on, you go together, don't pity me."

Gao Mingyue and Lulu were dumbfounded, their respective faces flushed. His posture is really good enough ~ Soul, knowing that he is ready to forgive sins. Those who don't know, thought that the two of them were ready to take him. You glance at his expression ready to endure the burden and swallow all the grievances.

Not only that, the little girl Tongtong on the former Liuli Island pushed into the door and said: “Uncle Wang, sister Mingyue, are you back?” Then she froze, blinking blankly, and said blankly, “Uncle Wang, what are you doing lying on the ground in big letters?”

...

...

Uncle Wang ~ What are you doing lying on the ground in big letters?

Like a thunder, a huge tremor sounded in the ears of two women and one man.

Especially Gao Mingyue and Lulu, their faces suddenly blushed. They stared at Wang Yan with shame and anger, and they all blamed this guy, causing them to be embarrassed in front of Tong Xiaoqing.

You said that you Wang Yancheng sincerely wanted to apologize and apologize, sincerely can't do it?

This posture just now is too ridiculous ~ soul. Tong Xiaoqing portrayed it correctly, in large letters. This posture is really too frivolous.

“Oh, Tong Tong.” Wang Yan climbed up without blushing, and waved towards the little girl. “We haven't seen each other for a while. Are you still used to living here, happy?”

Tong Xiaoqing had a good impression of Wang Yan. This uncle Wang not only looked handsome, but also saved everyone at the last minute. So, she walked forward so sweetly and smiled happily: “It's very happy, Aunt Yuan and Uncle Xiong are very nice to me.”

Aunt Yuan? Uncle Xiong?

Wang Yan's face was slightly stunned.

At this moment, a charming voice sounded: "Yo, Comrade Xiao Wang is back. Could you please stay away from me as a damsel? Otherwise, don't blame the old lady for her mercy."

As the whispered voice fell, a voluptuous, charming and spicy woman walked in and turned her eyes to Wang Yan.

"Yo, Sister Yuan." Wang Yan said with a chuckle. "Aren't you from the Northwest Branch? How could it be in our East China Branch? By the way, which one is Uncle Xiong, don't introduce me?"

Yuan Rourou blushed, and Mei Mei stared at Wang Yan fiercely: "You dare to blindly compare and make fun of your old lady, don't blame your old lady for poisoning you."

"Oh, Xiao Yan, it's me." During the speech, a burly man with a height of more than two meters walked in. He scratched his head and smiled happily, "You can go on a business trip long enough this time. Our brothers haven't seen each other for a long time, so we should have a drink."

"Old bear, don't you promise me to lose weight and not drink?" Yuan Rourou stared at him with a fierce look. "Why, the old fault has been committed again?"

"Rou Rou, isn't this Xiao Yan's coming back. We are good brothers. Rarely get together, Rarely get together, Rou Rou, you have to open a mouth for me." Bong Xiong said with a smirk and begged for mercy. Drink a little, drink a little. "

"It's Brother Xiong, you." Wang Yan smirked. "Aunt Yuan, Uncle Xiong, it sounds like a good match. Ha ha, I have long seen that you two are not right, Gan Chai Lie ... Uh, huh, right or wrong, Lang is concubine and interested. In short, congratulations. "

Speaking of which, Wang Yan is really happy for them. Brother Xiong's rough appearance is actually a very delicate and gentle man. And Sister Yuan Rourou Yuan is also a bitter woman. Not only was he trafficked by traffickers, he also poisoned his former husband on the wedding night, and he was called a highly toxic widow. Although the surface seems extremely bohemian, the words are sharp and domineering, but in fact it is just a means to cover up her weak heart.

In fact, she needs a gentle and considerate man to take care of her most. Speaking of which, Brother Xiong really matches her.

“The dog’s mouth can’t spit out ivory.” Yuan Rourou gave Wang Yan a cute look and turned to stare at the bursting bear. “The old lady gave you a face in front of your brother. If you dare to drink more, carefully Your skin ... “

“Rest assured, Xiao Yan and I are old brothers, there is a decent, decent.” Explosive Xiong happily ran over and put Wang Yan on his shoulders, said, “Walk around, this is my old bear treat, call Some of our brothers are not drunk. “

“It’s time to give you blood.” Wang Yan is also happily playing the role of fox and dog. “In short, I am more expensive tonight. But Brother Xiong, you have always been bold and don’t care about this.”

Unexpectedly, Xiong Qian burst out laughing twice, and then looked at Yuan Rourou with embarrassment.

Yuan Rourou glanced at Wang Yan angrily, and then stuffed a card to burst the bear and said, “Although let him order, you can’t die if you drink.”

“OK, Brother Xiong, this daughter-in-law hasn’t even passed the door, even the financial power is gone?” Wang Yan laughed happily, “Well, no more jokes. Walk around, it’s been months. No drinking together. “

Then the two Hupeng dog friends began to walk out shoulder to shoulder.

Gao Mingyue and Lulu looked at each other. Because Wang Yan’s posture was so shameful, it was too imaginative, and when someone was intruded, it made their heart rate faster and more coy. They are still in shame, they haven’t recovered.

and many more!

The eyes of the two women were different, and they didn’t do any rogue things. How timid?

And the rhythm seems to be wrong. Apparently it was Comrade Lao Wang who was guilty of guilt, and then wept bitterly in a violent beat, reviewing his mistakes from the heart.

How the painting style changed in a blink of an eye.

Has it turned out that he and Hupeng dog friends have gone out for fun and enjoy life happily?

Is the pace of development of this matter too much?

“Wang Yan, you stop.” Gao Mingyue said, “You, you, just leave?”

Saint Lulu was on the side, and she repeatedly agreed, saying good guilt and asking for guilt, sincerely apologizing?

“Uh ... hehe, I almost forgot.” Wang Yan turned around, patting his head, apologizing.

I almost forgot?

Gao Mingyue had encountered this kind of thing for the first time since he was small, and was shocked by this sentence. Wasn't he saying that he was going to kill him? This is just a casual posture of shame?

Fortunately, this guy should have just been dazed for a while and knew that he had forgotten.

Gao Mingyue snorted, staring at Wang Yan with her arms around her.

“Mingyue, Lulu, it's okay for you to be idle anyway.” Wang Yan smiled enthusiastically. “Let's sing K together.”

It 's okay to be idle anyway.

Let's sing K together.

These words, like thunder and thunder, slammed into the minds of Gao Mingyue and Saint Lulu. They were so dumbfounded that they were out of focus.

They hurried back from the Inquisition, and the original intention was of course to snipe Wang Yan, giving him a very profound and memorable life lesson. Let him know that girls are not so bully.

It is just a step-by-step development of this state of affairs, and I do not know why it has developed to such a degree? Sing K, drink ...

“Wang Yan!”

Gao Mingyue’s pretty face shivered, her body shivered, and she said: “You forgot to promise us something?”

Unexpectedly, Wang Yan hadn’t had time to talk, Yuan Rourou twisted Liu Yao’s waist up, and with a happy smile, a pair of lotus arms had been put on the shoulders of the two women: “Mingyue, Lulu. You can do things like this at any time. “

Gao Mingyue and Lulu are stunned. What can they do when such a thing is called? What are we doing ...

“Sister is a few years older than you, and is here again. Sister tells you. To deal with this man, it is necessary to collect it, otherwise it is like a monkey off the chain-lawless.” Yuan Rourou is like a charming Young women generally begin to teach Yufu’s experience, “But at some critical moments, such as when his fox friends are together, they have to give some face. This tightening is all life experience. , Keep the man obedient and obedient. Walk around, sing K and drink together, sister and you slowly elaborate. “

Gao Mingyue and Saint Lulu were both dumbfounded. What’s this called?

But the two of them, like magic, walked with Yuan Rourou obediently.

Tong Xiaoqing stared at his eyes, but also Fartian Fartian followed.

“Tongtong, be good tonight, as soon as Aunt Rabbit brings you to bed.”

Then, the little girl was ruthlessly dumped.

...

After half an hour.

In a famous KTV, skinny legs as thin as a monkey are holding Mai and singing affectionately, “Every time my loved one appears ~ makes my heart broken every night.”

Then Wang Yan and Bing Xiong, and Brother Lang. Fisting and drinking.

And Yuan Rourou is pulling Gao Mingyue and Lulu happily, teaching the way of imperial husband.

Almost at the same time.

Uncle Cannon in the headquarters, said with an embarrassed face: “Now these young people, it’s too ridiculous. After serious things, they know that drinking and singing, life style is too chaotic.”

After waiting for a long time to see a good show, the bright Pope, drinking, looked at him lazily: “Don’t say that your life style seems serious.”

Uncle Cannon hummed dissatisfiedly: “I already expected Lulu and Mingyue to be unreliable. Fortunately, I have left a back hand. Saint Wright, Lei Bang, the little angel Babe, and the nun. That’s enough Xiaoyan’s stinky boy to drink a pot, to ensure nothing is wrong. Come, inform them, you can start.”

...

After two hours.

It’s still in that KTV.

Saint Child Wright took a bottle of Erguotou, drunkenly stepped on the sofa, passionately roared: “Where is the applause, let us jump.”

“I have a gold hoop stick, heh ha ha. I have a gold hoop stick, the benevolent is invincible, heh ha ha.” The legendary bitter monk Nini, carrying her big stick, holding the wheat, turning over and heading Sing K. Looking at the flushing of her wheat-colored skin, you know that her aunt and grandma drink too much.

“Next I have a song to sing with my best brother Wang Yan. Badboy, badboy ~” Lei Hong spread his wings and suspended magnificently in front of the TV.

“Yo yo ~ Chek is troublesome, the earth is so fun, I will never go back to heaven. Hey, hello, that Uncle Scud, give your aunt and grandma another one, a bottle of wine.”

Little babe, a baby bottle in her mouth. Drinking with a bottle, everyone is also drunk.

at the same time.

Uncle Cannon ’s headquarters.

Pope Guangming stared at the image with a dumbfounded face, then squinted at Uncle Cannon and said, “Cao Jinglue, is this what you call foolproof backhand?”
