

D. Hero 571

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 571

“Great prophecy?”

In the distance, Ulysses, a half-step S-class powerhouse, sat leisurely on a coconut tree. Once the * are cut together, the coconut is removed from the pineapple cover, and the drink will rise up happily.

His eyes were suspicious, and he seemed unsure.

“The Great Prophecy?” The wise lady, who spread her wings and floated beside the coconut tree, looked a bit dazed, “I really haven’t heard of Lam.”

Not only she, but also the bright Son who was floating beside him, was dull, saying that he had not heard of the so-called Great Prophecy.

Ulysses cut a few more coconuts and gave them to the Son and Daughter, with a slightly dignified expression: “You haven’t heard of it and it’s normal, because the Great Prophecy hasn’t appeared in decades. The American Mayan survivors are proficient in astronomy, calendar, and prophecy. Among them, the powerful sacrifice, mastering a divine spell that can be transformed from the sky, is the great prophecy! “

Mayan survivors?

This well-known race, the bright sons and virgins are thunderous. This race is not only mysterious, but also extremely strange. There are countless legends about them, and the most famous of course is the doomsday prophecy.

To this end, it also extends the famous Hollywood blockbuster “2012”, as well as countless novels, literary and artistic works, even cults.

But the problem is that December 21, 2012 did not enter the end of the world.

It was not until this time that the Mayan patriarchs came out to make a statement that there is no end-time prophecy in the Mayan prophecy. The so-called December 21, 2012, was the beginning of the fifth solar age in the Mayan calendar, toward renewal and entering a new civilization.

New civilization?

Ordinary people don’t know much about this so-called new civilization. However, some superpowers and a few high-end figures who understand the truth of the earth’s development are secretly guessing. This so-called fifth era should be the era in which mankind has really begun to develop civilization.

Not to mention gossip.

The bright lady said suddenly: “Uncle Ulysses, you said that the veil is a Mayan survivor? And also mastered the big prophecy?”

Paladin Ulysses nodded and said, “I just said that it is possible. I haven’t seen the Great Prophecy in person. But I know that the Great Prophecy is a mysterious magic technique, which is extremely difficult to master, and the conditions of the operation. It’s also very complicated and difficult. If this veil girl so easily performs big prophecy, just to earn some US dollars. It is conceivable how powerful she is. I am afraid that this youth conference will be unpredictable. “

“Women’s Super League, I always feel that the atmosphere is a little weird, and my heart is beating very fast, it seems a bit ominous.” As the same Husky-like Walton, his eyes fluctuated, “Otherwise, let’s not fight first?”

“If you say no, don’t hit?” The blonde girl twitched her hair and hummed, “Last time I was on a mission in Europe, you gave me a stumbling block. This time I finally caught the chance , How can I let it go easily? “

After this remark, continue to squat in the sea and starfish, the dark son of the octopus will tears will fall, what is this called? Earlier he thought he had offended the female Super League. The real reason was that Walton had grievances with the female Super League before.

It’s no wonder that the Women’s Super League will treat him so fiercely that he will not keep his face. People want to use him as bait to catch the big fish Walton.

“Blood Wolf God, can’t you counsel at a critical moment?” Hundreds of onlookers, many people shouted, “We all spend a lot of money to buy you to win, you must not live up to our trust what.”

“Blood Wolf is so big, you have at least 80% of the winning side of the Super League, what is there to look forward to?”

“Blood wolves are big, but the Dark Council is a big unit. You don’t have a big problem losing it, but if you want to counsel, your reputation will be completely destroyed.”

The sound of shouting blood wolves was fighting louder and louder.

The blood wolf Walton’s eyes also dignified, the situation has shown that he has been put on the fire, it is no longer impossible to fight. The current Dark Council President, but His Royal Highness Prince Rose, once she was informed that he had lost face, I am afraid that he would not be able to turn back to ask for benefits.

“Now that’s the case, come on.” The blood wolf Walton stood up slowly, the Husky’s wolf body twisted, and the bones crackled.

The muscles were torn and twisted, forming an upright half-wolf and half-man form.

At this time, Walton’s image is completely different from before. Its height is three or four meters, its thick upper limb muscles are bulging, and its sharp claws are about a foot long. Like a sharp blade.

It is covered with thick hair, green eyes, and fangs protruding like a sickle. All around, exuding a rich * and dark breath.

“Women’s Super League, this is what you asked for. You can’t participate in the youth conference, don’t blame me.” Blood Wolf Walton, at this moment has shown the strongest fighting state.

“Let’s try it.” The blonde girl squeezed her lips with a sensational feeling, kicked her feet, and suddenly rushed towards Walton like a speeding cheetah.

She was extremely fast, and the afterimages from the looting were like ghosts, almost invisible. At a speed of just a few tens of meters, the body is stretched like a long bow, and the fist smashes down like a heavy shell.

“It’s fast.” On the International Space Station, Wang Yan’s pupils shrank slightly, and a ray of dignity was added to his eyes.

The several cameras on the drone are high-speed portable cameras that the chick Emmet chose. When the power is fully on, even the image of the ejection of the bore can be clearly captured.

Walton’s muscles bulged around him instantly, and a powerful dark force lingered on him like a black flame from hell.

He crossed his arms in front of his chest, dark energy was highly condensed, forming a qualitative and invisible shield.

The powder fist and the shield collided violently, and the instantaneous impact force was more powerful than a large truck driving at high speed.

boom!

‘The amount of shock wave is spherical, and it spreads out in all directions. The sand and gravel are shaken everywhere. Some of the onlookers who got close were caught off by the energy shock wave.

“Wow!”

Walton’s feet plunged into the sand and pulled out a few tens of meters before stopping. Wherever he passed, the ground was plowed out with two long ravines.

After a blow, the women’s Super League didn’t stop, and the speed jumped a few points again, catching up with it, punching and punching.

As a long-famous half-step S-class powerhouse, Walton was naturally unwilling to be outdone, dodge the defense, and was smart and meticulous. Despite being in a disadvantageous position for the time being, it has never been formed into a repressive situation.

“It’s true that it’s a female superhero. It’s too fast, and its power is too fierce.” On the International Space Station, those scientists are going crazy.

In the giant display, several screens are divided, and the main screen is used to live broadcast the current battle situation. The auxiliary picture is used to play back the slow motion of the two men fighting.

Scientists used to look at Hollywood movies at most, although the scene was hot enough to cause a huge sense of destruction. But if you want to wear it, the movie is just a movie after all, it is all fake.

And now the live broadcast is not only hotter than Hollywood movies, but that's all true. The thought of this is extremely exciting.

"The instant burst speed reached 170 meters per second!" Wang Yan stroked his chin and looked at the data displayed on the screen in surprise. This burst speed is almost the same as teleport.

And this is the initial speed. If you give her a few seconds to sprint, I am afraid she can easily break the sound barrier.

In the half-step S class, this is the fastest speed that Wang Yan has ever seen.

Amy, the chick, is worthy of the technical control of the spirit system. The drone he designed even has a combat data analysis system. It seems that the guy is not capable of fighting, and the playable technology is still quite good.

"The explosive power of the women's casual punch has reached 50,000 kilograms, which is 50 tons of punching power!" Wang Yan looked at the continuously appearing data and felt a little drunk. Wang Yan can do 50,000 kilograms, but he must go all out after accumulating energy.

But the female Super Fist data burst, and still reached 60,000 to 70,000 kg. She is really a humanoid female Tyrannosaurus, no, to be more precise than Tyrannosaurus.

With her fighting power, she can shoot Tyrannosaurus with a slap.

What struck Wang Yan the most was that all the explosive power of the female super team came from the physical power of the body. She didn't have too many fancy fighting skills, but just ordinary punches and feet.

"Huh ~" Wang Yan took a sip of beer and exclaimed, "Taking a star is really a wonderful flower in the evolution of cosmic species. The physical strength of the body can be so strong."

Compared with the women's Super League, Walton's data is very consistent with the status of a half-step S-class strongman. The instantaneous eruption speed is 130 meters, and the explosive force of ordinary attacks is between 30,000 and 40,000 kg.

But even so, Walton, with his excellent fighting skills, only fell a bit.

"Drink!" In the camera, the women's super girl suddenly grabbed Walton's thigh and spun her body around, throwing Walton out like throwing a hammer.

"Coax!"

Walton's huge body fell into the sea, stirring up the sky.

"No? Is this too fake?"

"Cheating must be cheating."

After the crowds were shocked, they protested with their fists and shouts. They all bought Walton to win. In this way, wouldn't it be too much loss?

Suddenly, there was a wave of waves in the sea, and the sea water swirled to form a vortex. In the vortex, Walton's grisly body rose to the surface and grinned: "Women's Super League, are your abilities limited to this? If so, I advise you to surrender."

"Wow!"

A column of water infested with dark energy was spinning violently, drawing a huge arc in the air, slamming into the female superhero like a dragon.

...

...

The Women's Super League jumped back suddenly, a black water column blasted on the sand, and a crater tens of meters deep was directly ejected. The sea of water flying all over the place was splashed in the sand, and the rapids converged into a deep pool.

At the same time, Walton burst into an impulse, rushing towards the women's Super League like a mountain. Indistinctly, the dark energy of his whole body converged into a phantom of a * giant wolf, powerful and very powerful.

"Here comes, the blood wolf's most famous blood wolf kill appears." Amy, the little chick, mobilized several drones to monitor the battle in all directions.

The UAV comes with a system that analyzes various battle situations and accurate data in real time. With such perfect equipment, it can be seen that the little chick Amy, this time is prepared.

He roared and shouted excitedly in the communication system, "This is the famous move of the blood wolf Walton. How many famous strongmen once kneeled under this move, including a half-step S-class strongman. "

At the International Space Station, Wang Yan 's spirit also concentrated, and he carefully understood the move of the blood wolf Walton. He has more than doubled both in speed and strength.

And in the air, full of strangling power like a vortex. Once the less powerful superpowers are involved, they will be directly crushed by the violent energy.

Onlookers were already shocked by the battle scene of two half-step S-class strongmen, and they were backed away a few hundred meters away. They shouted excitedly, cheering for Walton.

"A strong breath!"

In the distance, the suspended light maiden said in amazement, "The blood wolf Walton is really strong, I feel I can't stop this trick at all."

“Well, if I were about the same age, I would definitely crush the blood wolf.” The Son of Light, with his hands on his back, said a little bit dissatisfied.

“boom!”

On the battlefield in the distance, Walton’s killing trick really hit the hurriedly defensive female superhero.

The women’s super team flew out hundreds of meters like a shell, rolled over and over, broke a lot of coconut trees, and finally penetrated the airport’s command tower and fell on the apron.

At this time, her image is no longer beautiful, but she looks very embarrassed. All over the body were wounds cut by the vortex of * energy, charming blonde hair was also cut several strands, his face was pale, and there was blood at the corners of his mouth.

“The women’s super league is in great trouble.” The Bright Lady said with a sigh. “Although her physique and other comprehensive qualities are very powerful, she ultimately lacks systematic combat inheritance and the combat mode is too simple. Press, it is very likely to be overturned by the enemy. “

“That’s not necessarily the case.” Paladin Ulysses sipping coconut juice leisurely, squinting into the distance, sitting cross-legged and resting her veil on her eyes, “If she really casts the legendary big prophecy Technique, then the event will not be so simple. “

“Slap!”

The blood wolf Walton landed lightly on the airport runway. The huge wolf claw grabbed the female superhero and dragged her off the ground. The gruesome wolf head showed an evil smile: “Female Super League, it looks like you can’t do it anymore. It’s better, just surrender.”

“Humph!”

The female super girl’s eyes were cold and she responded strongly: “For us to take the stars, surrender is absolutely impossible.” After all, she punched Walton with a fist, fierce and fierce.

“Stupid perseverance.” Walton blocked her with a backhand and then punched her on the belly.

boom!

The female supergirl was beaten and flew out.

Walton chased up like a maggot, and said with a smile: “The same half-step S-class strongman, your combat experience is too tender.”

After hurting the women’s Super League by a big move, Walton has firmly grasped the advantage in his hands. With his rich combat experience, once the advantage is determined, it will hardly give the enemy a chance to overturn.

Under the fierce battle between the two in the air, Walton repeatedly succeeded and expanded their advantages a little bit. Just over half a minute later, Walton tore the female belly of the Super League with one claw, and then kicked out again, blasting her into the sea.

“Oh, my God, Walton is great.”

“Blood wolves are very powerful.”

The superpowers onlookers all cheered, and it seems that the result of the battle is moving in the direction they want to see. Although the person of Walton is not good at criticism, but his strength is still a bar.

Although many people sympathize with women’s super leagues, who can afford money? The vast majority of people are very sensible to buy a blood wolf to win, and only a very few people have chosen to bet on a female superhero, hoping that a miracle can happen.

But reality is reality, and miracles are called miracles because of their low probability of occurrence.

The few people who have bought the women’s super-win now want to cry without tears. They shouldn’t buy the women’s super-win because they sell well. Besides, the odds of the women’s super are not very high.

“Oh, it’s time to end the fight.” The blood wolf Walton descended from the sky, his feet stomped on the rolling sea, and said coldly, “Female Super, I said before, you can’t participate in the youth conference next, Don’t complain about me. “

During the speech, Walton’s body was filled with majestic momentum, and the dark energy was tumbling like black flames, and a * giant wolf was condensed behind him.

“It started, and the blood wolf used another trick.” Amy the chick screamed on the channel. “It seems that he wants to end this. The female super dangerous.”

“Damn, that beast is really mean and cunning.” A scientist from the United States threw a fist in anger.

“In terms of heart, the blood wolf Walton did not use any tricks, but was fighting in an upright manner.” Among the scientists on the scene, the only Frenchman said fairly.

“Alas, the world of superpowers is cruel, and strength is strength.” Another scientist shook his head. “Absolutely, he will not win the battle because he looks beautiful.”

On the beach in front of the villa area, there were also scenes of disturbance.

A few Dongying Yin Yang teachers smiled and said, “Veiled woman, get your money ready, don’t cry when you pay.”

“Oh, she lost at least about two billion US dollars.” An African native wizard, Yingying Ying said, “My one put 20 million US dollars, I can win 16 million, I can give Our tribe has improved the living environment. “

But the veil girl, sitting cross-legged still, closed her eyes and nourished her mind, who didn’t take care of anything.

“Blood wolves are so big, don’t bother, kill the female superhero.”

Similar requests sounded one after another.

As if hearing the crowd's cry, the blood wolf roared, the momentum soared to the extreme, and rushed to the sea: "Female Super, go home and practice combat skills."

The imaginary giant wolf phantom dared fiercely and fiercely to the sea.

Even in the heyday of the female Super League, it is not easy to resist Walton's big move. Not to mention that she was injured many times and her body was already very weak.

Just under the spotlight, the giant wolf phantom almost flew into the sea.

Suddenly, an incredible thing happened.

"Wow!"

A bald head was drilled out of the sea. His head was shiny and scalded, and he also burned two rows of round scars.

This is clearly a monk.

He wiped the sea water on the face of the national character, and said with a laugh: "It's finished, the monk's underwater swimming ... Huh? I'll go, Walton, are you crazy?"

During the speech, he suddenly changed color, and punched the giant wolf phantom with a backhand punch.

His punch was magnificent, and the golden energy was condensed into a fist shadow, the momentum was like a row of mountains and seas.

"boom!"

The fist shadow collided with the giant wolf, and the energy shock wave actually exploded a giant tornado. Wow lala, rolled back the female super team, monk, and blood wolf Walton back to the airport runway.

Some fish, shrimps and crabs were covered with blood mold today and landed on the airport runway.

"Six not ring!"

The killing trick was broken. Walton looked at the monk angrily and angrily, scolding: "What are you doing to destroy the fair fight between me and the women's Super League?"

"Fight?" Liu Bujie monk looked abusive, and in turn scolded, "Walton, I just swam in a breathless breath, this is just getting on the water. You have a big trick on my face, I can't resist What? Why, when my monk is bullying. "

Walton's face was green with anger. What a * is this? Forget it, now and Liuliu don't stop counting ...

He hasn't finished thinking yet ...

The female superhero who just fell to the ground caught the opportunity and suddenly jumped up. Backhand squeezed the wolf claws, volley twisted his waist, and turned the blood wolf Walton into the sky.

"I'm going to go, isn't it?" Walton was careless, since he was dumped out, his heart was suddenly cold, "Oh, it's too careless."

She grabbed the dominant female super body and slammed it on the ground.

boom!

The airport runway was stomped by a crater with a radius of more than ten meters, and the crack spread to hundreds of meters away.

"Oh God, we finally built the airport runway." The vice president of the Super League who couldn't stop the fight at all, patted his forehead and wept without tears.

The battle between these two half-step S-class powerhouses is so devastating. In a short period of engagement, it has already swept through a hurricane.

But at this time, the women's super team rushed into the sky through the reaction force and punched on the belly of the blood wolf Walton. The force of terror smashed him into the sky.

The women's super team is also catching up, striking Walton with a punch.

In just a few seconds, Walton seemed to be hit by a violent wind and a shower, beaten one after another, howling continuously. How fierce the strength of the women's Super League, even Walton's defensive force, was beaten with blood, and several bones were broken.

"boom!"

Walton was kicked again, hitting the airport runway like a meteorite and exploding a huge crater. Poor Walton, lying in the pit and humming: "Six not to ring, you pit me !?"

"It's none of my business, I'm just passing by." Liu Bujie looked innocent, "You keep going, keep fighting."

Keep hitting your sister. Walton is crying, not fighting now, but being beaten, okay?

"Isn't it?" The onlookers were stunned by this scene, how could a good and domineering battle become like this in a blink of an eye?

Only Wang Yan and Paladin Ulysses focused their attention on the veiled woman. Both eyes had only one meaning. Hiss, he did n't look away just now.

...

...

Great prophecy.

This is really a very strange magic.

Through the drone lens, Wang Yan stared at the veiled woman. At this time, she was still sitting cross-legged, keeping her eyes closed, as if everything that had happened had nothing to do with her.

The sudden appearance of the six-monk monk seems to be an accident indeed. But Wang Yan knew that this should be the effect of the Great Prophecy. To a certain extent, it can interfere with the operation mode of future events.

So powerful, so weird.

In Wang Yan's mind, this veiled girl who looks low-key and unsurprising has been regarded as the most dangerous opponent.

"It's really interesting." Paladin Ulysses also withdrew her eyes from her, snorted coconut juice, and smiled. "It seems that this youth meeting is more interesting than I thought."

"Boom!"

The female superhero fell from the sky, bent her knees and hit Walton's back waist, making a dull knock and a cracking bone.

"Ah ~" Poor blood wolf Walton screamed sternly. The back of the head and legs were arched, and his eyes were bursting, describing the tragic.

"His ~"

The onlookers all took a breath of air, tragic, it was really tragic. This crit, I think it hurts.

"Amitabha."

Liu Bujie didn't take a few steps, he saw this scene, the monk's robe was slightly lifted by the impact of the airflow, and there was some sweat on the shiny thief's head, and he was very sympathetic to Wolf Wolf I really did n't mean it. "

Walton's painful face was gritty, and his fangs were all exposed, and his heart was even more broken when he heard this. Comrade, with your sister? My blood wolf, Walton's majestic man, when have you been with your six filthy filthy monks?

It hurts, it hurts too much.

Super Girl, are you too cruel this time?

This is a man's waist. How dare you hit such an important part in such an important part?

"Click click!"

The women's super girl knelt on one knee against Walton's waist and reached out with both hands, locking his two arms in the opposite direction and breaking back fiercely. There was another series of bone cracking sounds, accompanied by Walton's sour and painful cry.

How does this look like doing some health care projects?

Paladin Ulysses also stopped drinking coconut juice and twitched his mouth to watch this scene. To be honest, in these two minutes, he still sympathized with Walton.

This action is too humiliating for men.

"Pervert, just hit me very cool, the arrogance is also arrogant." The female super girl said with a sneer, "Call you arrogant, call you cow again."

satyr? Walton faced grievances in pain. Although my blood wolf Wolf is not a good person, but it is never disgusting. But now people are under their knees and have to bow their heads, "Women's Super League, I'm wrong. I admit, is it not enough to admit defeat?" He estimated that by stretching her down, his wolf bone would be broken.

"Wow ~"

The people around were struck by lightning.

No, just surrender? The blood wolf is so big that we still boast you to the sky. As a man, can you be a bit persistent? Anyway, they also struggle to resist.

The most important thing is, what do you do with your money if you admit defeat?

"No, this girl hasn't gotten enough." The female super girl gritted her teeth and slammed the blood wolf Walton's waist with her knees. "Just you hit me just now, but it's very cool. My girl's hair style is all right. You are scrapped. "

Walton's eyes are black, can't admit defeat? Super girl, are you trying to * me? It hurts, it really hurts. In desperation, Walton can only raise his head to Liu Wujie for help: "Monk, help me talk."

Liu Bujie was originally prepared to stay away from this place of right and wrong, and Wen Yan stopped and touched his smooth head inexplicably, saying, "Old Wolf, are you begging me?"

"Yes, I beg you, can you please help me?" Walton felt that his waist and back bones would be shattered by the super-violent power of the female superhero.

"Amitabha." Liu Bujie sternly proclaimed the Buddha's slogan, "Comrade Women's Super League, forgiving others and forgiving others. Since Comrade Lao Lang has already confessed, it is better to look on the face of the young monk, this matter will stop here. Right. "

The female super girl sneered at Walton and said with a sneer: "Yes, look at the face of the six-monk monk, this girl will let you go." Then, she jumped from Walton.

"call!"

Walton turned over with relief, his limbs spread out, and took a few breaths and said: “Female Super League, this time I was unlucky, I admit defeat. After the Youth Conference officially begins, we two will come back in full force. A show. “

“Snapped!”

The female super-bright came out with a makeup box, began to push her blond hair, put on her makeup, and said lazily: “I will accompany you at any time.” Then, she squinted and said to Liu Bujie, “Monk, do you want it?” Live in this villa? I’ll let you. “

“Amitabha, Shanzaishanzai.” Liu Bujie proclaimed the Buddha’s name, and the national character face said very calmly, “The merits and demerits are false, and it doesn’t matter where the little monk lives. But in this villa, the little monk advises the female super comrade not to be sharp Bilu, let others be more secure. “ “Great monk, who do you think I should give better? The little German of the Dark Union of North America? Or the Paladin Ulysses of the Light Holy See?” The female superintendent was persuaded. In fact, she felt that she lived in Villa One. , I can’t bear it.

Without talking about others, these six monks are not in front of her. I am afraid that she was not an opponent in her heyday.

“The little monk felt that the * was very suitable to live in Villa No. 1.” Liu Bujie looked at the veiled girl far away and waved at her with a smile.

she was?

The women’s super team and Walton were stunned.

The veiled woman has stood up and is now cheerfully distributing bets to the masses who buy women’s super wins. No wonder she laughed happily, and in just a short while, she won a dozen or two billion dollars.

The winners laughed, but the losers were there to beat their chests and slap their feet, whispering and scolding Walton for nothing. In the case of taking the advantage, he would lose his vigilance because of the unexpected situation, and was defeated by the women’s super team. He lost so miserably.

If you change to Walton’s heyday, it is estimated that not many dare to scold him. But now Walton is so miserable, it is impossible to stand up and beat people. What’s more, with so many losers standing together, Walton’s strength is so strong that he doesn’t dare to do whatever he wants.

“Sister, this is my bet voucher.” The Russian man, who was as strong as a bear and with a giant sword in his back, said in a frantic voice, “According to the bet agreed in advance, you have to give me 20 million dollars. . “

The veil looked at the sturdy bear man and smiled and said, “You have good luck. The courage is also big enough to dare to bet on women to win.” Then, she transferred the account to the strong bear man .

“Oh, sister, are you teasing me? Where am I so courageous?” The strong bear man scratched his head and said with a smile, “I just watched you preaching how powerful the blood wolf Walton was, and the result came to an end. You actually held a gambling house as a bookmaker. At this time, many people are full of confidence in Walton to buy him to win. But I think about it, if so, you do n’t want to lose a lot of money, sister? I think, sister You are not a fool. How could you lose so much for nothing? “

When the words of the Russian strongman came out, those around me who bought Walton under the bewitching win, immediately thumped their chests and feet, annoyed. People who open a gambling game must have a certain degree of certainty before opening it. How can they be so easily fooled?

Everyone only knew that they were very impulsive at the time, and felt that buying Walton won, they could easily make money, and even bought without thinking. Woo, it’s not as smart as this muscle-bearing bear.

The veil girl chuckled and said, “It seems that you are not only clever, but also very strong in spirit.” During the speech, Chuanyin said, “I will give you five million dollars more, which is regarded as a sealing fee.”

She also thought of the previous scene now. While she was constantly bewitched by the crowd, the strong bear man had been surrounded by her fartly and acted very excitedly.

She didn’t pay attention at that time, maybe because there were too many people who needed to pay attention. And this Russian bear bear’s appearance is too deceptive.

“Thank you elder sister.” The strong bear man smiled with joy, rubbing his hands and said, “You can rest assured that I am a tight-lipped person.”

Obviously, the veiled woman is not simply relying on words in the process of bewitching.

Many people lost money, and the scene was a bit chaotic.

A thin man in tights wandered the crowd. He smiled insignificantly, and the targets were all female superpowers who were pretty but average in strength.

Ten fingers flew over them at sensitive points like fish. By the time they reacted in horror, the wretched man had disappeared like a horror, and the goal was directed at the next object.

His body is extremely nimble, and he walks in the crowd, as if he is traveling in a no-man’s land. Soon, a dozen girls were poisoned by his salty pigs.

It’s just that no one can find his existence. It was really among the hundreds of flowers, and the leaves didn’t stick to them. Just when he had a lot of fun and self-satisfaction, the salty pig hand habitually touched the veiled female, and the change became abrupt.

Under the veil of the veil, the corner of her mouth slightly sneered, and her eyes glanced at the wretched man lightly. An invisible spiritual wave quietly enveloped the wretched male.

The frivolous man’s movements became stiff, as if he had been frozen on the spot. The next second later, he laughed indifferently, and looked at the strong bear man with a wretched look, “Handsome, I like your one, come and play.”

Then, the frivolous man stepped on the catwalk and walked swayingly, and the posture of his posture was as coquettish as he wanted.

“Hey, don’t mess up.” The strong bear’s face changed greatly, and he hurriedly backed away, but he was hugged by the wretched male.

The picture was so drunk that it made people dare not look straight at it.

At the International Space Station, Wang Yan also felt a little drunk, and couldn’t cry with a smile on his forehead. This youth conference is really “a lot of talent.”

...

The veiled female suspected of being a Mayan survivor has unfathomable strength, so I don’t need to mention it. In fact, as far as Wang Yan is concerned, the sullen man seems to have a certain origin.

When he burst out to hug a strong bear man, the burst speed given by the drone actually reached 130 meters per second. Wang Yan was also shocked by the data, and it seemed that he burst at a sudden speed, which was not much different from this data.

There was also the strong bear man, who changed three movements in a row at the moment when the wretched male flew over. Although he was eventually hugged by the wretched man, he also showed a keenness that was completely incompatible with the strong bear man’s physique.

“Huh, looking at the world, it’s really brilliant, lying tiger and hiding dragon.” Wang Yan said with a slight emotion.

It’s just that the strong bear man doesn’t have Wang Yan’s feelings of emotion, his beard and dregs face flushed red. His eyes were filled with horror and inexplicable, “Hey, you, don’t touch it.” For a time, his tears were about to fall.

Where does he look like a bit of a mighty man? Clearly like a tragic little daughter-in-law who was successfully ambushed by a wretched man.

The picture was really terrible, and Amy, a little chick, was particularly keen on this picture. He specially mobilized five drones to shoot in 360 degrees without dead angles.

“I can’t take it anymore.” After being molested for dozens of seconds, the strong bear man slammed open and pulled out the giant sword behind him.

Snapped!

The wretched man was shot like a tennis ball and flew out. He fell to a tens of meters away before landing. He rolled on the ground for several weeks, staring blankly around him, his face dumbfounded: “What’s wrong? What happened?”

A super-powerful woman cried out: “It must have been the one who knocked me out just now.”

The rest of the women who had been molested by oil were also lifted up one after another: “He is so intractable, not who else is he? Sisters, beat him!”

More than a dozen super-looking women who were pretty good, rushed forward like a wolf, powdered fists and showed their legs, and slammed into the wicked men like raindrops.

The staff of the Global Super League hurriedly stepped forward to maintain order so as not to kill the wretched man.

At this moment, the Super League and others looked at the scene just now.

“Villa One gave it to me, I have no opinion.” The female super girl felt the mysterious veil of the veil girl, just a glance, she charmed the wretched man with her mental strength and controlled him to do some unthinkable things.

This veil is not simple, nor is it easy to mess with.

“It turns out to be her !?” The little chick Amy went through a database comparison and finally determined the identity of the veiled woman. She sent a message to Wang Yan in the International Space Station. “This woman is suspected of being a Mayan survivor. Various casinos in the United States have made huge profits, and have twice vacated the lottery prize pool. The gambling technique used is suspected to be the legendary big prophecy. Later we sent a master to negotiate with her and gave her a lot Benefits, but forbids her to step into the territory of the United States. “

Wang Yan fainted, gambling? Great prophecy?

This Mayan survivor, really strange enough, even used big prophecy to gamble everywhere, but also used to buy lottery tickets? To what extent does this desire for money come to such a thing?

And Wang Yan also read the top-secret information, knowing that the Maya clan is not an earthman. The calendar they use is extremely long, far exceeding the beginning of human civilization on earth.

How annoying is an alien gambling on earth with big prophecy?

At the same time, the Paladin Ulysses led the Bright Son and the Virgin. He said lazily: “Villa No. 1 was given to the Mayan survivors. I have no opinion. However, I want a second on behalf of the Light Holy See Villa No. Women’s Super League, Six Rings, Walton, do you have any comments? “

Although he asked three people in this sentence.

However, his eyes have always been on Liu Bujie. It seems that apart from Liu Bujie, the opinions of the other two are not important.

Liu Bujie touched his bald head and said with a serious face: “Amitabha, Comrade Ulysses, I haven’t seen you for a long time. Our National African Affairs Bureau and Guangming Holy See are global friendly cooperation units. If you choose Villa No. 2, how can the monks have opinions However, since you asked for a villa for the Holy Son and the Virgin. As a member of the State African Affairs Bureau, the little monk also wants a villa for our family members of the State African Affairs Bureau. So, the little monk needs a villa No. 3. No matter who it is If you are not convinced, you can find a monk to come to theory. “

“I want the number four.” The women’s superwoman said first, “We also have some girls in the Super Shield Bureau who want to live with me.”

“Forget it, then I’ll take Villa No. 5.” Walton lying on the ground said hardly. “I had an account before the parliament president, our dark son can not care, but The Dark Lady must be taken care of. Brothers and sisters, everyone is old acquaintances, do n’t embarrass me.

The top five villas have been divided up in your words and in my sentence.

This is also due to strength and power, even though some of the onlookers are not convinced. But neither the combat power nor the affiliated forces can compare with those on the field.

This is the case in the world, where the big fist and big arm speak loudly.

A turbulent dispute over the first few villas came to an end, and it was basically over. No one expected that the one who would get the most benefit in the end was actually the veiled woman who was not astonishing in temperament.

A web conference held in a mysterious server is in full swing.

It is currently the president of the Global Super League who is sitting at the table temporarily, and he keeps cracking words: “This is the case now. The purpose of our Global Super League to hold this youth conference is for the future of the earth. Hope They have made progress through exchanges and exchanges with each other, and they have been able to discover some outstanding young talents. They are cultivating resources and cultivating them well, hoping to add a few more S-level pillars to the earth in the future. “

After the chairman of the Super League finished his speech, many representatives of the forces applauded and gave thumbs up.

But Yan Zun and others did not answer positively.

The most boring one is the hacker Xiao Shen. At first, he saw a group of second uncles having a fun meeting here, and it was quite interesting.

But the more I heard, the more I felt that these people were not saved, what aliens are about to invade, and the earth has encountered an unprecedented crisis. Divide various war zones, global unified command and the like.

What it said is true.

What other global superpower youth conference ...

Xiao Shen was also drunk, and he was almost bored until he quit.

“Ding Dong!”

The server system reminded that the Dongying Super Self-Defense Force requested to join and attached a message. Boss, I was wrong. The earth is in crisis. Don't leave us behind.

“Cough!” Yan Zun, who was sitting at the poker table, happily refused, then coughed twice and said, “President, the purpose of the Youth Conference is good. But the rewards you give are just average, and There are few total reward pools, so many young talents are not enough. Young talents must be nurtured, and they are the real future of our planet. “

The president of the Super League heard the tears, and the tears were about to fall. Is this normal? That is to say, the level of your respected adults is too high, don't regard resources as resources.

But he did n't dare to say this, he could only say with a smile: “Master Yan Zun, it's not our Super League stingy. You also know that our Super League is just a nominally loose organization, and giving so many resources is also the limit. It 's better. If you feel less, it 's better to call on everyone to help. ”

“Well, you have something to say.” Yan Zun said, “According to the truth, our National African Bureau should support the Global Super League. It's just that our National African Bureau has created a weak foundation, and it has recently been connected with FBG. It 's too big. So, who, who, who, by the way, Indian Elementary School III, are n't you known as the number one power in Asia? Just add one more according to the resource list of the Super League. “

“Benefit !?” The ID nicknamed Indian Elementary School III almost jumped up, but at the last moment, he still refrained, crying and said, “Boss Yan, not a descendant of our gods. Just now our domestic There are also many young talents, and the landlord's family has no food left. “

“Add a blue diamond to you.” Yan Zun said lazily.

Indian Elementary School 3 made a surprise expression: “Yan Zun, are you serious? Are you willing to accept us as the sixth blue diamond?”

“Whether you want it or not, I can find someone else.” Yan Zun's attitude is very cold. Blue diamonds are here, do you want it or not.

“No, no, we are willing and willing to join the ranks of glorious blue diamonds.” During the talk, the waist plate of Indian Elementary School III seemed to be much stronger. “Even if we smash the pot and sell iron, we must contribute to the strength of young talents around the world.”

“Okay, okay, I appreciate your great selfless spirit, please applaud.” Yan Zun took the lead to applaud personally. In the warm applause, Yan Zun handed a blue diamond to Indian Elementary School.

The system prompts that Indian Elementary School 3 has become a distinguished blue diamond user.

“Ordinary resources are quite sufficient.” Prince Rose said, “But the baby rewarded by the first name is a bit low, I suggest a better one.”

When Prince Rose talked, it naturally attracted approval.

But the question is, who will come out on top? According to the specifications of this youth meeting and the vision of Prince Rose and others, ordinary baby certainly can't take it.

Everyone, look at me, I look at you, and no one stands up and speaks.

At this moment, the system reminded me again that the Dongying Super Self-Defense Force requested to join the room and added a post: "Boss, let me join the meeting. I promise to be obedient and let us do anything."

This time, Yan Zun did not rush to kick him out. Instead, he exchanged private chat expressions with Pope Guang, James Shield, and Prince Rose.

Finally, several blue diamonds agreed to join the Dongying Super Self-Defense Force.

...

...

"Ding Dong!"

Dongying Super Self-Defense Force joined the room.

"Hello brothers and sisters, I'm back again." The Eastern Guard made a waved expression, and then said respectfully, "Thank you Yan Zun, Prince, Secretary James, and the Pope for agreeing to our return to the organization."

"Hey, I agreed just now, why don't you thank me?" "Indian Primary Three", who had just been promoted to a distinguished Blue Diamond user, gave a puffy expression, as if to show off his Blue Diamond identity.

"Expand, expand the game." The Eastern Guards apologized quickly. "Congratulations on the promotion of the Lord and Brother Blue Diamond to the Lord. It is really enviable. Unfortunately, this conference system has not developed the red envelope function for the time being, otherwise I should really send you red envelopes. "

"Cough, this conference system is used for serious meetings. What do you mean by sending red envelopes?" Yan Zun seriously criticized, "Xiaodong, your thoughts are not serious, you have to."

The rest also agreed with Master Yan Zun's words.

"Yes, Master Yan Zun is right to criticize." The Eastern Guard hurriedly admitted honestly. "I will definitely sum up my mistakes and actively correct them."

Xiao Shen, a hacker hidden in the conference system, laughed. Although it is clear that this group of middle-aged uncles are playing by themselves, the feeling of "Master Yan Zun" Zhenger hitting Dong Ying's representative is still quite cool.

You get a meeting in the landlord's room, it's serious. When people ask for a red envelope, they are not serious and serious. I really want to know the psychological shadow area of the Dongying Self-Defense Force.

Xiao Shen couldn't help but give a compliment to the superb acting skills of the second uncle.

"The red envelope is free." Pope Guangming said lightly. "The main reward for the champion of this youth conference has not yet been found. I heard that you have a lot of rich treasures in the East, so come out with a decent baby."

Isn't it?

The Dongzi team was dumbfounded. Will this time be a contribution?

What is the identity of the bright pope, and what can he ask for, can it be sent by gadgets?

For a time, the Dongzi team froze for more than ten seconds and then nothing happened.

"If you don't want to, just kick it out." Prince Rose said lightly. "If no one comes out, we will have a baby in the dark council."

"Xiaodong, aren't you? Haven't you always been claimed to be the strongest in Asia?" The third grader of the Indian Elementary School yelled and mocked, "How come this is the critical moment? Our great descendants of the gods, but a big one Pen resources. "

"No, no, we are willing to come out, we are willing to come out." Dongzi team said quickly, "We have a pheasant sword in our treasury, which has been inherited for hundreds of years, and it can be called a national treasure."

"Isn't it? With your flaming pheasant sword, dare to think of it as a national treasure?" Indian Elementary School III began to dismantle and said, "According to your standards, there are too many national treasures in our organization of descendants of gods."

"Not sincere enough, kicked." The chairman of the Super League said directly, "I actually heard that your ancient Yin Yang Shi An ~ Bei Qingming once killed a nine-tailed demon fox, and the crystal core is still sealed. It 's better to use it as a top prize. "

"You want jade algae and soul jade !?" The Dongzi team shuddered and cried. "This can't be impossible. It's a treasure sealed by Qingminggong, the mythical figure of the Yin-Yang Road myth in Dongying. When leaving, leave a last word, no one is allowed to move the jade algae. "

Jade algae soul jade?

This time, even Yan Zun was moved. Before Yuzao, Yan Zun naturally heard the name for a long time. In the Linghu family, there are also detailed records of this woman.

There are many legends about her, and some even think that she is Daji. After the Shang Dynasty's demise, she fled to Dongying in a fake death.

But Yan Zun knew that she was not her own.

In fact, long after Daji's demise, Yuzao was just born. In the records of the Linghu family, her real name is Linghu jade algae, which means jade ornament hanging on the crown of the emperor.

This character actually has some roots in Chunyang, not to mention relatives. At the beginning, she practiced Dacheng to become Jiuwei Tianhu, and when she met Lu Zu, she tried her best to find a way.

As a result, Lu Zu battled her and cut her eight tails.

Cultivating for the plunge, in order to avoid the vendetta, she secretly boarded the ship of Dongying's embassy to the Tang Dynasty and traveled to Dongying. Afterwards, she secretly recuperated and rested in Dongying, and her strength continued to recover. Then she hooked up with the emperor Toba and tried to learn that Su Daji had subverted Dongying and took control of the entire Dongying country.

In the end, he was exposed by a generation of mythical Yin-Yang Shian ~ Bei Qingming, and he led the army to slay and encircle it.

However, there are rumors that Yu Zaoqian has something to do with his life.

Just about this, Yan Zun could not be sure. The reason he wentssip about Yuzao's origin is also because his daughter-in-law is also related to the Linghu family.

There are more than one Jiuwei Tianhu in history. But each one has set off a great storm.

Regarding this, Yan Zun also felt that he was under great pressure. There is a wife of Jiuwei Tianhu class, really uneasy.

"Xiaodong, isn't it a crystal nucleus?" Yin Guo Xiaosan persuaded, "Give it and give it, as for that An ~ Bei Qingming said, it's almost a thousand years, he can still get from the coffin Jump out of here and beat you. "

The idiom for the tiger seems to have been invented for people like the Indian Elementary School. I was pitted with a lot of resources, and naturally I didn't want others to be better off. I pulled a few victims and had a more balanced mental capacity.

The Association of Southeast Asian Nations also said: "Aren't you a national superpower organization? The Yin Yang Road is just a member of your organization. Shouldn't you promote dedication?"

The forces of non-blue diamonds one by one began to stir.

A few blue diamond forces, but they put on a high cold appearance, you give it if you like it, not give it away. Anyway, this was used as a prize for the youth conference, but it is not income from home?

Finally, the Dongzi team couldn't resist the pressure and said helplessly: "After our research and decision, in order to encourage the enthusiasm of the young talents, we are willing to contribute the jade algae soul jade. Can you also get a blue diamond treatment? "

"Yes." Yan Zun made a direct decision, and quickly rushed a blue diamond for the Dongzi team. "You incidentally took the pheasant sword."

Ding Dong!

The system prompts, congratulations to Dongying Super Self-Defense Force for being promoted to the honorable blue diamond user.

“Wow ~”

All the medium and small forces cried out, did this really promote Blue Diamond? In this conference room, Blue Diamond is a representative of distinguished status.

For a time, the Dongzi team was a bit ignorant. I originally thought it was only mentioned with hope, and it is estimated that I could finally agree to give an alternate blue diamond. But I didn't expect that Master Yan Zun gave face, so he rushed the blue diamond without saying anything.

“Yan, Lord Yan Zun.” Dongzi team issued a crying expression one after another, “Woo, expand the face, I am too excited. From now on, we only look forward to Yan Zun. No problem. No less. “

The hacker Xiao Shen lurking aside, his mouth twitched so painfully. This TM is also amused, and a blue diamond user can be so excited.

And this is still an inexplicable room, the landlord's room concentrated in the second uncle! Come and come, kneel and lick one for your little Shen Ye, who will punch you a few more drills.

The second uncle in this group really has no cure.

Indian Elementary School III is also forced, can a jade algae soul jade be able to punch blue diamond? Although the stuff is very precious, the total value of a large amount of their resources is far more than this jade algae. Even if the fire pheasant sword is added, it must be a short distance.

“Who else wants blue diamonds?” Yan Zun said, “You can get a blue diamond by contributing a standard resource to the youth conference. If there are not many places, you will have no chance if you miss it.”

This server suddenly boiled.

If only a few major organizations are blue diamonds, they step on their heads and they recognize it. But now even the Indian Elementary School 3, Dongzi team stepped on their heads.

Can this be tolerated?

Those weak forces forget it.

Some are already very strong, except for the top spine, they are almost as good as the first-class forces of the National African Bureau.

“Master Yan Zun, we have a resource, and we will charge one for us.” The Polar Bear Secret Service Director said with a smile.

The president of the Global Bauhinia Banshee Alliance said: “Brother Yan Zun, we have half of the resources, plus three holy weapons, and give a punch to the punch.”

The President of the European Union Super League said: “Master Yan Zun, we are old friends. Supporting the development of young talents around the world is also our unshirkable responsibility.”

Ding Dong!

The system prompts, congratulations to the director of the Polar Bear Secret Service, the president of the Global Bauhinia League, and the president of the European Union Super League have become distinguished blue diamond users.

“Okay, the resources are enough, now decided not to increase the number of Blue Diamond users.” Yan Zun said with a solemn voice,

This is good!

Several new blue diamond users are very happy. Although the price paid is not small, it is at least on par with the top global forces. It is also strictly separated from those cat-and-dog-like hanging forces.

Blue Diamond, that is a symbol of identity.

They looked at the shiny blue diamonds in front of their names, and felt that they were speaking differently.

The rest of the forces, although envious of jealousy and hatred, know that they cannot afford that resource. Even if it barely came out, it would have to borrow money to survive.

Those new blue diamond users are immersed in the happiness of walking to the peak of life, staring at the characters who had to look up from the top, and looking down at the crowds with no money and power.

This feeling is really good and very cool. This blue diamond is worth it. In the future, if you do n’t like it, you can directly propose kicking.

suddenly.

The system prompt sounds again.

Ding Dong!

The system prompts, congratulations to Yan Zun, Prince Rose, Pope Bright, and Director James of the Super Shield Bureau, who have become the supreme gold diamond users.

This system prompts.

Everyone was stunned.

...

...

at the same time.

The war that the world's major organizations have jointly defeated FBG has come to an end.

The Huaxia Middle East Super Special Joint Attack Team launched a surprise attack on a FBG secret research institute hidden in the mountains of Palestine, two kilometers underground.

After a fierce assault, only the remaining FBG members were blocked in the deepest storage room of the institute, unable to shrink, intending to take the last stroke.

"What should I do now, grown up? That woman is terrible, I, we, let's surrender!" Said a slender young man in medical protective clothing half-squatting under the round window of the protective door, said in panic.

In front of him, the middle-aged man, who was called the director, was also squatting under the window at the same time, with a pair of hateful eyes, protruding outward.

"This * woman!" He scolded resentfully in his heart.

Just fifteen minutes ago, he first saw this oriental woman wearing a black tight leather jacket, with a beautiful figure and beautiful appearance, and was secretly glad to have fun for a long research and development career.

But I never imagined that it was this woman, and in just ten minutes, this huge research institute, as well as as many as two hundred guards and research creatures, were all destroyed!

In front of me, this woman with an angel-like look is simply a demon! No, she is more horrible than demons and more poisonous than vipers!

If he didn't see it with his own eyes, he didn't believe it was even true. At the thought of this, there was another pain in his heart. His business achievements of more than ten years said that it would be no more.

After a short pondering, he finally spoke and sneered and said, "Oh, surrender? How dare you surrender to her?"

When the words came out, only 27 people left behind him looked at each other, unable to speak.

"Hum, I don't want to die later, I will rush out! Laozi is an A + strongman, you 3 are all A-level gene warriors, plus 24 B-level and C-level gene warrior elites, but she is still alone. Woman? "The middle-aged man, known as the director, had a low, hoarse voice, and glanced behind him while speaking.

With the look in his eyes, the body of the 27 people behind him could not help but the original courage lost somehow recovered.

"Listen to me, as long as I get rid of the woman, the dozens of secret agents behind her can't help us!" He withdrew his fierce eyes, reached out from the lockbox beside him, and took out a production Precision metal jar, then open the safety valve on the side of the jar, carefully loosen the loose lid, and took a deep breath, Xiao Xiao said with eyes, “If you add this to our latest research results, maybe you will kill them all. possible.”

“The director is right! Our dignified FBG Middle East branch has been rooted in the Middle East for decades. When have you been afraid of a woman?”

“We rush out with you!”

After hearing these words and seeing the pot of potions, dozens of FBG members behind him suddenly came to their minds, and all of them tightened their nerves, all the research materials and results were fixed, and a pair was ready to rush out to fight at any time. Life posture.

Contrary to the highly tense atmosphere in the storage room, outside the storage room, the hall is spacious and bright. Wu Ya Ange is wearing a tight leather coat, enchanting and charming, with her hands around her chest, sitting on a Taishi chair comfortably with Erlang legs.

Arthropod-shaped black tails were dragged casually behind him, with a mysterious black breath all around him, a slight smile on the corner of his mouth, staring playfully at the door of the storage room.

“Report, sir! Reporter, my subordinates have finally caught up with you.” A fully-armed super joint commando squad leader, with dozens of equally breathless players, ran from the passage behind Uya Ange Over here.

“Those surviving FBG members have been detained centrally, the data is being collected, and the rest of the team ...” The captain who was originally reporting, when he turned around in Uya Ange, saw the * in a daze.

His eyes are full of admiration and yearning. The woman chief from the China National African Affairs Bureau is so beautiful. Not only that, but the body and strength of the gods, they can easily complete the original dangerous missions. It’s amazing.

“It’s too slow.” Uya Ange didn’t care about the reaction of these players, but gave them a casual look.

“Yes, I’m sorry!” When he found himself rude, the team leader immediately apologized seriously, and then handed a loudspeaker to Wuya Ange.

When Wuya Ange took over the megaphone, he bowed his head respectfully, but his heart was pounding wildly. The chief executive in front of the goddess is like a poisonous thorny plant with beautiful flowers blooming on the edge of the cliff.

This fatal beauty made him awed by fear and excitement.

“The people inside listen to me, you are surrounded ...”

Wuya Ange shouted lazily at the sound of the loudspeaker, approaching step by step, enchanting in a pose with endless danger. She seemed like a poisonous scorpion wandering in the dark jungle, and could launch a deadly attack at any time.

“Ding Dong!”

Suddenly, a slight cue sound passed into Wuya Ange's ear.

Her pair of star eyes slowly moved down, pulled out her mobile phone from her pocket with one hand to open WeChat, and the corner of her mouth could not help raising slightly.

"Is the Global Youth Superpowers Conference? Ha ha, my sister will of course go." Wu Yaan Ge smiled playfully and quickly pressed the reply message.

This time it has been two months since I performed my mission abroad. Youth Conference? Ha ha, I will surprise you.

Wuya Ange smiled, edited the message, and happily pressed the send button ...

"What? Failed to send? What a broken signal!" Fang Cai's smile suddenly turned into frost.

"Sir, this is located two kilometers underground. Sometimes there is no signal. It is a coincidence to receive the information." The captain on the side heard it and reminded in a small voice.

"This signal is terrible!" Wu Yaan's eyebrows frowned slightly, and picked up the loudspeaker to increase the volume and yelled across the face. "The people inside listen, this is the last announcement, the old lady is in a hurry ..."

"Also, what is your wifi password?"

puff!

As soon as the words came out, the captain standing by the side almost slammed his head on the floor. I thought, Sister Goddess! Are we fighting? Fight!

"boom!"

There was a loud noise, and the team leader was still in a trance. The heavy protection door of the storage room in front of which the anti-tank gun could not be broken, was slammed from the inside, and the ground shook.

"You witch, it's so deceiving! Really when we are afraid of you?" With this thick roar, an extremely strong, three-meter-high humanoid rhinoceros took a heavy step and walked behind the destroyed protective door. Came out.

He tossed the empty metal jar aside, and a pair of red and brutal beast pupils stared closely at Uya Ange. This new type of violent pharmacy not only allows users to increase their strength and violent personality, but also reduces the side effects of mental loss and collapse after use.

He didn't believe it, and now he can't fight a night witch! The key is tolerable. If you don't fight hard, do you really call us terrorists?

"Roar!"

As he roared, behind him, in the dust-filled storage room, 27 genetically modified warriors who were also injected with new violent medicaments showed their beasts, glared at the manic scarlet eyes, and roared to the opposite side.

The brutal momentum, along with the smoke and sound waves, rushed towards Uya Ange and the dozen special attackers behind her.

A drop of cold sweat slipped from the captain's forehead, and his hand holding the gun unconsciously shook.

He has never met such a violent and brutal mutant, and at such a close distance, he even feels like a trembling beast, which will be swallowed by the hunter at any time.

You must ask for support!

He was about to call for help, and Wuya Ange in front suddenly interrupted by raising his hand backwards.

"Go out, five minutes, no, come back to clean the scene after two minutes." Wuya Ange Yun said lightly, and then took a soft step towards 28 FBG mutants who took the violent agent.

"Let's go together, my sister in a hurry." Uyaan smiled fascinatingly, hooked his fingers at the beasts, and a child's arm was thick and dark black articulated tail in the speech, slowly rising from behind her Her eyes also grew colder.

"Death! Roar!"

The war broke out in an instant, and the team leader took the team members to run in the channel, and the roots of the cold hairs stood upside down.

Things were just as he expected. A cry of pain and pain began to sound gradually behind him. The originally silent underground research institute seemed to instantly become a slaughterhouse of beasts.

terrible! It's terrible! This legendary witch is really amazing. Fortunately, he is not the enemy of his team, otherwise the process is estimated to be more terrible than death.

After a violent and ruthless killing, Uya Ange's slightly petite body cast a huge shadow, and his eyes were very cold and vicious. Several surviving FBG gene mutation warriors, even under the action of violent medicaments, also collapsed in spirit and collapsed in will. They knelt on the ground and begged for surrender.

"Snapped!"

The flexible scorpion tail stung into the hearts of those mutants like a viper. With a violent toxin injection, within a second, a B-class mutant warrior turned black and his whole body was stiff and died.

"Demon, we fight with you." The surviving mutant warrior threw himself up in a terrified fear.

After a few seconds.

The secret agents who came in to clean the battlefield covered their mouths one after another, and almost vomited after retching. This scene is really miserable.

“Giggle ~” Uya Ange smiled charmingly in the sky like a demon and poisonous magic flower blooming in hell. In the eyes, there was a cold and inspiring dark light vaguely, “Xiao Yan, I will not fall behind. No matter what Shushan descendants, Holy See! I will never lose to you.”

...

...

On the expansive blue sea, several turquoise islands dotted between them, and in the lingering space, there were some flawless white clouds like cotton candy.

A group of white seabirds soared in flocks, making troubles, and sometimes they got into the water to catch a fish, and life was easy and comfortable.

In this sea area where few people dabble in, everything is so clean, pure and natural as if it were paradise on earth.

It is now.

A luxury cruise ship came slowly, and it entered a small strait between two small island groups. The turbulent water waves surged to both sides. Wave after wave, continually patting the coastline.

This large cruise ship is white all over, showing a perfect streamline. Above the cockpit is a huge open platform. The platform is not only equipped with a huge barbecue grill, but also has a swimming pool of hundreds of square meters.

The most enviable, jealous and hateful thing is that there are dozens of beautiful and graceful and charming women in swimwear all around and in the swimming pool. They are playing and playing.

Next to the barbecue, there is a reclining chair that is extremely comfortable. A 20-year-old young man in sunshine, wearing a vest and beach pants, wearing a pair of sunglasses, laid on it leisurely.

Next to him, he sat on his knees, a charming and beautiful oriental beauty in a bathing suit. She picked the roasted garlic lobster vermicelli, gently picked it up with her hand, and put it carefully into his mouth.

“Zhang Lang, how does it taste?” The oriental beauty blinked her eyes, hoping.

“Good, delicious.” The young man praised, “Fresh and delicious, cool!”

“Zhang Lang likes it.” After being praised, the Oriental beauty showed the happiest expression in the world and was overjoyed. “Zhang Lang, try this freshly awakened wine. This red wine is our family’s European wine Zhuang has produced it for more than 60 years. “

With that said, she picked up a glass of red wine and carefully leaned over to the young man’s mouth.

The young man took a sip of mellowness, aftertaste, and praised: “Mellow and mellow, the entrance is cool, beautiful, beautiful. Caier, with you, my life has a color.”

“Zhang Lang ~” The oriental beauty’s cheeks were flushed, and the watery eyes were full of happiness, the wonderful waves circulated, and the voice was soft and soft, “After meeting you, I only know who is waiting for the millennium.”

The four-eyed affectionate model, as if there was no one else in the world except the other party.

“Caier ~ My baby ~”

“Zhang Lang ~ My heart ~”

“Kakaka ~ I can’t take it anymore.” On the deck not far away, a clean and refreshing young Buddhist monk cried out in desperation.

He desperately wiped the goose bumps on his body, shivering and complaining: “Zhang Weidao, Bao Cai’er, you two are still endless? Although the poor monk is a monk, but also human, can you not be so abused? You two The actions and dialogues are more * and nauseous than the soap opera at eight o’clock in the evening. I’m going crazy! “

The sunny young man and the oriental beauty are, of course, Zhang Weidao and Bao Caier, who are in the midst of adultery and passion.

“Four not to abstain.” On the other side, near the railing, came a whispered voice from the hair, “You, you can hold on to the present, it’s really amazing. Brother, brother and I, I hung up long ago . “

A man with a burly figure, pulled on the side of the ship, spit weakly towards the sea.

“Jealousy, jealousy. From the eyes of you two, I can see the full of jealousy.” Zhang Weidao took off his sunglasses, and his face was arrogant, “You are jealous of my sincere and great relationship with Cai’er. . “

“Zhang Lang, don’t pay attention to the monk. The monks are all holding back for a long time, and all of them are psychopaths. The most unrecognizable true feelings are on earth.” Bao Caier’s black long straight hair, and the charming eyes are not angry. No more than one glance. Turning around and hooking Zhang Weidao’s arm again, he said greasily, “Zhang Lang, the scenery here is so good, how about we take a group photo, how about sending a circle of friends?”

“Caier’s proposal is really good.”

Zhang Weidao embraced Bao Caier’s fragrant shoulders, and his face was full of flooded cyclamate. He took out his phone, opened the beauty app, selected the angle, and set the posture of the soul.

“Zhang Lang Zhang Lang, choose this one, you are the most handsome one.”

“Cai’er, although every one of you is beautiful, you look better at that one.”

“Zhang Lang, you’re so handsome, Cai’er doesn’t matter.”

“Cai’er, you are so good ~”

“Zhang Lang, you are really good ~”

After a lot of nauseous dialogues, a circle of friends was distributed with pictures, and a text description was also attached, “The Pacific Island is so beautiful. It is really great to come here to participate in the youth meeting.”

Soon, the circle of friends of the two was full of various praises, various comments of “envy, jealousy and hatred”.

Especially in Bao Cai’er’s circle of friends, even Yan Zun had a compliment, and praised: “Lang Cai female appearance, congratulations.”

“Caier, you must be happy.” This is Linghu Yaofei’s comment.

“Zan Zan Zhan.” Han Hongbo, director general of the National African Affairs Bureau, also sent a blessing by the way.

It’s just Zhang Weidao’s circle of friends.

“You are abusing a dog!”

“Where is this girl? Without introducing her sister to me, I will die to show you.”

The two began to flood with cyclamate and sent back messages.

Sibujie also took out his mobile phone and began to spurt in Zhang Weidao’s circle of friends: “The poor monk regrets, regrets taking the boat with the couple of men and women to participate in the youth conference. I was tortured, I was going to jump. Swim past. “

Si Wujie said, clenched his teeth and jumped forward, leaping into the sea with extreme determination.

“Little monk, come back to this king.”

Bao Cai’er smiled at the corner of his mouth, grabbing with a bare hand, a light blue force condensed into claws, caught Sibujie, and captured him back, throwing him on the deck.

“Oh, what are you doing, Bao Cai’er? Woo, you guys are so badly abused, can’t people walk?” Sibujie lay on the deck with a grieving expression.

If he had beaten this demon girl, he would have already demolished the demon. To his sorrow, this demon girl is a generation of demon kings who can stab him with one finger.

“Okay, you monk, don’t you twitch.” Bao Cai’er smiled fascinatingly, “It’s because you are Zhang Lang’s good brother, this Wang’s little girl chooses one for you.”

“puff!”

Sibujie almost spurted blood from his old mouth, widening his innocent eyes: “Little monk is a monk.”

“Monk, what’s the matter with the monk? This year, there are many more monks who are so happy,” Bao Caier said with a wink.

“That’s what it is.” Zhang Weidao said, despising his shoulders, and said despisingly, “Again, your Ban Ruo Temple hasn’t been promiscuous ~ monk, your brothers are not abstaining from the six, it’s just that they don’t call it Monk, brother, I advise you to change the law earlier, called Wu Wu Jie, and add the abstinence to it. “

“But, those are all banshees.” Sibuyu turned to look at the Yingyingyanyan who were playing in the pool.

Those Yingyingyanyan felt the four eyes, and smiled like flowers, throwing all kinds of charming eyes and blowing kisses.

Four do not abstain from heartbeat acceleration, the will gradually collapsed. He swallowed secretly and said, “I, I am a monk.”

“What’s wrong with the banshee, do you despise our demon clan?” Bao Cai’er’s eyes glared. “You Banruo Temple also signed the principle of peaceful coexistence of shemales. Could you still want to play racism?”

“How dare you dare.” Sibuyu hurriedly smiled and shook hands, joking, who dare to discriminate against the demon on this ship full of banshees?

I am afraid that in less than ten seconds, these wolf-like enchantresses will be able to swallow him clean.

“Brother, it’s not that I’m bewitching. In fact, before I met Cai’er, I felt that life was like this.” Zhang Weidao stepped forward, patted his shoulders, and said with a frown, “Until and Cai’er fell in love, only to know that there was another way of life in life, a brand new world, and this was completely unfolded in front of my eyes. So, I am so grateful to Comrade Lao Wang, everything is the blessing of Lao Wang! “

Speaking of the last, there was a divine light in his eyes, which was obviously full of happiness for his new world.

“Brother Wei Dao, don’t seduce me, I’m just a young monk.” Si Wujie’s eyes were full of anticipation, his expression was full of struggle, and he landed pitifully on the side of the boat.

“Wei Dao, he doesn’t want it, I want it.” Shen Tu Tianlu, who had been playing a dead pig and vomited, could suddenly feel refreshed, and his arm with a golden yellow skin grabbed Zhang Weidao’s arm.

“This guy doesn’t work, I can’t push my sisters into the fire pit.” Bao Cai’er’s eyes flicked and she refused.

“Uhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhseng Shen Tu Tianlu, with a miserable look, turned and pulled tragically to the side of the ship,” Demon King, you hurt my self-esteem too much. This place can’t bear it anymore, I want to swim over. “

Having said that, he jumped forward, his posture extremely ecstatic.

Thinking, then the demon king will capture him back?

Unexpectedly, Bao Caier hugged his hands and turned directly away. Duo Shen Shen Tu Tianlu had no desire to glance at all.

“Pooh ~”

Shen Tu Tian Lu was planted directly into the sea, because he was too heavy, he was extremely difficult to float on the water, crying: “Sister Cai’er help, I can’t swim.”

“Giggle ~ This guy is so stupid. How dare he learn to be a pure young monk jumping into the sea?”

“That’s right, he doesn’t sprinkle urine and take photos. People like small fresh meat ~”

“It would be nice if the Son of Flame liked me.”

“Don’t you dream, can the Son of Flame look at you? Or choose other people at the Youth Conference.”

A group of Yingyingyanyan who had been swimming in the swimming pool ran to the side of the ship to watch Shen Tutian Road’s struggle in the sea.

Suddenly, in the next scene, the group of Yingyingyanyan suddenly exclaimed, all the flowers lost their colors, and their eyes were full of surprise and joy.

...

...

The girls exclaimed, and also alarmed Zhang Weidao and Si Bujie.

Even though everyone likes to joke together, they are brothers who play well. They can read Shen Tu Tianlu’s jokes, but they will never ignore him in danger.

Even if there is a deep-sea beast with extraordinary strength, they will jump straight to do nothing.

Unexpectedly, when they crossed the side of the ship and prepared to support Shen Tu Tianlu unconditionally, the two were as rigid as a sculpture on the spot, their expressions sluggish, and the corners of their mouths twitched.

I saw that Shen Tutian Road released a big move in a hurry, and dozens of metal tentacles flew all over the body, some hooked the guardrail, and some hooked the cable rack.

The remaining tentacles waved desperately.

Not to mention that no deep-sea behemoth appeared, even if a deep-sea behemoth really appeared, he would be scared to death by his demon-like image. In the distance, a group of pure white seabirds were passing by. Unexpectedly, I saw this scene. Then, in a scream, I turned around and ran away. I disappeared in a few blinks, leaving only a feather. The wind drifted slowly.

“Slap!”

Several long and thick tentacles entangled the railing of the ship, and Shen Tutianlu contracted the tentacles weakly, slowly rising upwards.

“Wow ~ god, it’s terrible.”

The Yingying Yanyans in swimsuits screamed and screamed. Covering his eyes pretendingly, but spreading his fingers into a big gap, staring at those magical tentacles intently.

“Ah ~ this guy is done.”

Zhang Weidao and Si Wujie glanced at each other, and then put Shen Tu Tianlu back on the boat.

“Snapped!”

Shen Tu Tianlu lay on the deck with a butt, moaning weakly: “This baby is scared to death. This baby is too heavy to swim.”

“Well ~” He said only half of the words, but he could see the girls in swimsuits with extremely hot bodies gathered around them. Suddenly, he was startled and shut his mouth in a hurry.

“What’s the matter with these tentacles?”

“Um ~ so scary, so evil.”

“Gosh, he is really a monster, there are so many tentacles.”

“These tentacles are so disgusting.”

This disgusting sentence, like a bullet, hit the heart of Shen Tu Tianlu mercilessly.

Pain, shame, low self-esteem, and feelings that life is better than death hit the heart of Shen Tu Tianlu one after another.

Since this journey, he has worked very hard to restrain his body from revealing himself, just to fear scaring the girls on this luxury cruise ship. Unexpectedly, at this last moment, the result fell short.

At this moment, he seemed to return to the scene of the SAFE dinner. That night, the auditorium was very beautiful and the lights were brilliant, but his heart was cold and dark.

The blame of the old king not only forced his tentacles out, but also deliberately discredited his image in the direction of evil. As a result, he was despised by countless sisters.

Those fierce eyes and those disgusting words cut his heart apart.

I also wanted to take advantage of the banquet of the National African Affairs Bureau to show a good performance, so as to find a girlfriend. But after that time, he almost lost his heart. Too shameful, too inferior.

And now, it was almost a replica of that dinner, and he was even more embarrassed and more embarrassing. Because besides Zhang Weidao and Sibujie, they are all girls ~~

“Wei Dao, do not quit, you save me ...” Shen Tu Tianlu turned back and scorned in anger, only half of the words were spoken, his expression froze. Because he saw the person who caught his legs, not Zhang Weidao and Si Wujie, but two enchanting and glamorous girls in bikinis.

“Hey, what are you doing to find death?” The two girls said with a scornful expression.

“Looking for death? Ha ha, like my sling ~ Silk Youth, what can you do without looking for death?” Shen Tu Tianlu said with a miserable expression, and said inexorably, “The girls look down on me, dislike me, disgust me .. In my life, I am destined to be a single dog who has been desolate. Even so, I might as well die early and be born early. “

“You said you don’t have a girlfriend yet?” Both girls grabbed his two feet and looked at each other. They all saw a look in the other person’s eyes.

“Who would like to be my girlfriend like someone like me?” Shen Tu Tianlu said sadly, “You don’t persuade me anymore, I know that even if you want to persuade me to live, you just want one more to make fun of Yes ... “

“I am willing to be your girlfriend.”

“I am willing to be your girlfriend.”

The two enchanting and beautiful girls shouted this sentence almost simultaneously. Then they looked at each other, seemingly feeling the hostility of each other.

Shen Tutian was shocked and looked back at the two of them in disbelief, said pitifully: “You, what are you talking about?”

The two girls turned around and gave him a beautiful smile: “We are willing to be your girlfriend.”

“Gosh, this, isn’t this true?” Shen Tu Tianlu suddenly seemed to be hit in the head by a big prize, his face shocked, questioned, and panicked.

“Tianlu, don’t do this.” Zhang Weidao and Si Wujie both approached and persuaded, “You calm down, die can’t solve the problem.”

Shen Tu Tianlu backtracked back to the deck, grabbed Zhang Weidao and Si Bujie excitedly and said, “Brother, have you heard? They, they said they would be my girlfriend.”

Alas ~

The two looked at Shen Tu Tianlu sympathetically, patting him on the left and right, saying, “Tianlu, you have to calm down. They just advised you to come back and don’t want you to die, it’s all fake.”

“It doesn’t matter if it’s fake.” Shen Tu Tianlu hoped, as if he had returned to blood, and said excitedly, “As long as one day, no, one hour, no, not even one minute. In short, someone wants to be my girl Just friends. “

Alas ~

Zhang Weidao and Si Bujie’s eyes are full of pity, Tianlu this guy is really pitiful.

“Are you willing to be my girlfriend?” Shen Tu Tianlu looked back, staring at the two of them, “I know, they are all fake. But, can you pretend to be true, just one minute, one minute.”

The two girls were scared.

At this moment, a group of young girls in the rear came up: “If they don’t want it, we will. Tianlu, I’ll be your girlfriend.”

“No no no, Tianlu, more suitable for you.”

“What’s your bite? Tianlu, you touch, touch my heartbeat, I beat it so well. I think, I’m deeply in love with you.”

“You foxes and foxes, all get away for Miss Ben. We have already confessed to Tianlu. Tianlu, my Langjun.” Then, the two previous sisters lay in Shen Tutian Lu’s arms are as soft as bones, and his eyes are full of tenderness. He is very tender and gentle, “Tianlu, what a minute, ten minutes? I am willing and willing to be your woman. I will be sincere to you all my life.”

“Tianlu, when people saw you for the first time, a heart was already hanging on you.”

“Tianlu, come, I will feed you grapes.”

“Tianlu, you are my careful liver, let the little white-faced son of flames go to hell.”

...

...

Zhang Weidao and Si Wujie watched this scene silly. What is the situation? Even if they want to act and save the next Shentu Tianlu, they do n’t have to act so far?

Moreover, it doesn’t seem to be acting? Every one of this group of goblins is not a wait-and-see person, how can such a kind-hearted person be?

I don’t know when Bao Caier stood beside Zhang Weidao, staring at Shen Tu Tianlu faintly, and murmured: “Damn Wang Yan, there is such a top-notch man on hand, why didn’t I introduce it to the old lady earlier.”

“boom!”

This remark was like a thunder, which blew into Zhang Weidao’s head. He looked at Bao Cai’er in horror.

“Oh, Zhang Lang, the concubine is joking with you. Although the Shen Tu Tianlu is indeed a rare man in the world, can the concubine be the kind of person who thinks differently and moves towards three or four?" In Zhang Weidao's arms, he said affectionately, "The concubine will follow you forever, and I will never dislike you."

Do not! meeting! Fuck! abandoned!

These words seem to have explained the problem very well.

For a time, Zhang Weidao felt a little like tears, "What's so good about Shentu Tianlu? These Yingyingyanyan are so rare, he can't grow!"

"But it's because he can't grow up ~" Bao Cai'er's eyes, gleaming slightly, swallowed. "You don't see those goblins, you're about to swallow him even with the belt bone."

"Cai'er, I said it's not long, it's not long." Zhang Weidao's face was dumbfounded.

"Zhang Lang, I also said that he is not good, not bad." Bao Caier sighed aloud.

"I don't understand, the little monk is ignorant." Si Bujie was also dull, looking at Shen Tu Tianlu, who was trapped in the bikini girl group and was competing to please. He suddenly felt that his worldview and outlook on life would collapse. Said dumbly, "I remember those girls in our National African Bureau, but they all dislike Shen Tu Tianlu. How can they become a savoury snack in their eyes. It feels better than Lao Wang. Comrades will also attract bees and butterflies! "

"Huh, what do the little girls of the National African Bureau understand?" Bao Cai'er grumbled and bit her lip, as if she was feeling that she was not in time.

"Wei Dao, four do not quit. I really feel too happy." Shen Tu Tianlu, buried in the sea of Roushan, finally struggled to get a head, and smiled happily at Zhang Weidao, "As you said before, I now know that there is another kind of living method in life, a brand new world, which is completely unfolded in front of my eyes. Wow ha ~"

Zhang Weidao and Si Bujie are both struck by thunder and stunned. What's wrong with this world? It's really shameful not to want it.

...

As young talents from all walks of life gathered from all over the world to small islands in the Pacific.

At the same time the other side of the earth.

In the North Indian Ocean basin, close to the high seas of the Comoros Islands, a specially modified giant ocean-going freighter is floating quietly on the sea.

This new-type cargo ship with a total length of 458 meters and a net weight tonnage of 560,000 tons, after a series of camouflage treatments, looks like it has weathered the wind and rain. Although the exterior looks old and vicissitudes, its interior has actually been converted into one by the FBG organization, equipped with the secret base of the world's top equipment.

After the FBG main base was destroyed and the main leaders were either dead or captured, the FBG branch organizations in various places have long been disintegrated, and their own affairs have been separated.

Here FBG Somali branch opened the base to the high seas for the first time, in order to avoid the pursuit of the international superpower organization.

So far, the plan has been successful. There is nothing unusual about the secret base here. They think that maybe after the limelight passes, they can still return to Somalia and continue to dominate the side.

Of course, daily patrols are still essential.

A dark-skinned, native-born black Somali member is holding an old AK47 and walking slowly on the deck.

The sun at noon was very fierce, and sweat continued to overflow along his black skin, falling, and overflowing again. In his arms, the barrel was hot, and he was constantly adjusting the position. In this sea area close to the equator, every day patrol is like tormenting on the iron plate, and he has no choice.

Suddenly, a clear breeze came from above his head, making him tremble with a comfortable heart. Looking up, some small ice crystals began to drift down.

Is it snowing? How can this be? This is Africa!

The black man was shocked. The snow only on TV actually fell on top of his head. He swore that his grandma had never seen such a spectacle!

He couldn't help himself at the moment, shouting at his companions to see the spectacle, who unexpectedly heard a burst of wind breaking sound in the sky, a giant ice block with a length of two meters, like a meteor, fell to him. Come to the head of the companion.

“boom!”

Except for his feet, the rest of his companions instantly spread to no trace, and the long ice cubes were inserted diagonally on the thick deck like a sword.

Kacha ~ The ice was thick with white mist, spreading on the deck, and the place passed until it rattled, and the steel cracked.

The speed of fear reached the head of the black man's head. He sat on the ground with a frightened butt, roaring silently, and a shuttle of AK47 was shot in his hand.

AK47 has always been famous for its powerful firepower. The distance between the two is only more than ten meters. A shuttle bullet passed, and there was no trace left on the ice cube. How hard is such ice!

After a few seconds, the black man was shaken, and got up and walked carefully two steps forward, came to the ice to take a closer look.

In the translucent ice, there is a person! Still a gorgeous woman with an oriental look!

“It's so beautiful ...” Even with the ice, or even just a glance, he couldn't help but sigh in his heart, as well as the death of his companion.

The woman in the ice in front of her eyes, the black hair in white, the corners of her coat and hair are still in a flying posture, as if she was frozen in the air when she jumped down in the air.

Her eyes closed quietly, her figure was beautiful, her face was exquisite, and the breath from her whole body seemed to melt into this ice, as if it was her, and she was this cold ice.

But she is so beautiful.

The black man took a breath. He had never seen such a pure and noble woman. The star on TV was nothing more than mud on the ground.

Uncontrollably, he leaned forward again.

Unexpectedly, the woman in the ice suddenly opened her eyes, and a great force came straight into his heart.

“Well!” The black man was completely terrified, screaming for help in native language, and ran to the cabin like crazy, but he was hit by a big silver gun at the entrance of the cabin.

“It’s you black ~ The ghost is yelling?” A white man with a rude look, a brown beard and a dirty vest, with a cigar in his hand and a heavy Colt revolver in his hand, Pushed the black man out of the cabin.

The black man saw the man as if he had seen a ghost. After exiting, he immediately knelt to the ground and explained in panic: “Head, over there ...”

“boom!”

The white man knocked off half of his head with a shot, biting a cigar, and said vaguely: “I saw it.”

At this moment the ice cube made a “click” sound, and then quickly shattered, Huangfu Nanlian walked out slowly.

The slight chill caused her feet to quickly freeze into ice. A pair of ice-blue eyes swept left and right, and found that there were no fewer than fifty gangsters with live ammunition, all fierce and evil, like a big enemy.

They also guessed that some superpowers would find this place, but they didn’t expect to be a majestic woman.

“No one dared to spread wild on my site.” The white man drew a cigar and walked slowly through the crowd. He stopped ten meters in front of Nanlian and said, “It depends on how much you look, or you yourself Kneel down and beg me to accept you, or I will make a hole in you and send it down to feed the shark. “

Nan Lian’s brow furrowed, and a gust of cold quickly dissipated to the surroundings, and there was ice everywhere.

The white man quickly jumped back two steps and pulled out another heavy Colt, pointing his guns at Nanlian and growling, “Listen, my little beauty, I’m not kidding, I died under my gun. Powers are not rare. “

He bit the cigar he was holding, and the rune glory on the Colt revolver in his hand, including the bullets he used, were all special rune ammunition in the research institute, and they were extremely powerful for monsters and abilities. effect.

All over the world, it is not only the Huaxia country who is studying runes.

It's just that the stunning beauty in front of him looks soft and boneless, and is not as powerful as the powers he met before, but somehow he suddenly lost his heart.

His past experience told him that if he can solve the problem by deterrence and mouth, it is naturally better.

Although it is a pity for this rare beauty.

“Really? You can try it.” Nanlian’s eyes closed slightly, and the terrible cold formed a layer of ice-blue cyclones around her.

The surrounding temperature dropped rapidly, and even the hot sun above his head seemed to be no longer hot at the moment.

“Damn!” The white man sneered. He was an old fritter that should have dealt with the matter. Knowing the strength of his opponent, he quickly stepped back with his men for a few steps and kept his distance from the spreading coldness.

At the same time, the two guns in his hand were sharply aimed at Nan Lian’s key point. A pair of tiger and leopard-like eyes slowly contracted. It seemed that as long as the other party made any trace of action, he would pull the trigger in front of his finger mercilessly.

All the gangsters around the big man also held their breath at this moment, and the guns in their hands were all aimed at the dangerous woman in front of them.

The time on the deck seemed to stagnate at this moment, and the surrounding sparrows became silent. It seemed that as long as anyone made a fine needle-like movement, it could cause a large-scale exchange of fire.

The ice-blue vortex in the eyes of Huangfu Nanlian swirled violently.

“Boom!” A huge wave exploded on the sea.

...

...

The giant wave turned into a water dragon, rising continuously.

“This! This! A strong sense of power!”

Everyone’s heart was filled with extreme fear, and they all backed away.

At this moment, suddenly, a cheerful ringtone rang in the middle of the crowd.

“You are my little apple, how much I love you, not too much! The little red face warms my heart, and lights the fire of my life, fire and fire ...”

A cool breeze blew past, and the gangsters around looked a bit dull. What a familiar melody, the body could not help writhing. After only a few twists, they suddenly realized that the painting style seemed wrong.

Some uncomfortables glanced around and coughed a few times to conceal a series of embarrassment floating in their hearts.

“what?”

Nan Lian’s brows were slightly wrinkled. When performing her task, her mobile phone was always whitelisted before she could dial in. There are only a few important people in that white list.

She ignored all the enemies and took out her phone. After seeing the call information, she smiled at the corner of her mouth. Turn around and put a finger to those FBG remnants, shhh ~~~

FBG remnants seem to understand this international gesture. Deterred by the majesty of this superwoman, the white man, including the leader, couldn’t help but nodded honestly.

“Hey? Xiao Yan? How did you call?” The moment when Nan Lian connected the phone, her awe-inspiring momentum disappeared instantly, and the whole person seemed to become the girl next door in love in the blink of an eye. Everyone is gentle.

“Wow!”

The gigantic water column also poured into the sea in an instant, like a heavy rain.

“Why don’t you return to your WeChat, I’m not busy with the task to see.”

With double guns, the leader of the white man who is facing the enemy. He could understand Chinese language, and he was stunned and the smoke on his mouth fell off.

He wanted to remind him, was n’t that good? We are about to fight.

“Hehehe, how did you go up to the International Space Station? Me? After packing a bunch of little babies, I’m about to close the job.” After that, there was a series of sweet laughter.

Is this in love? Is this calling your boyfriend? Hey! Can you be professional? You are here! Can you not humiliate people like this?

Also, little babies, who is the little babies?

The white man on the side opened his eyes wide, and he felt that his mind had been seriously injured by crit.

“I have received the notice at the Youth Conference. I will definitely arrive on time and I will not miss it.” Nan Lian smiled and hung up the phone. The white man on the side was almost crying out of breath, and a group of gangsters were shocked. By the way, I haven’t recovered in a long time.

“Women, have you had enough trouble! Where should I be?”

The white man shouted loudly to vent his disappointment that had been ignored for a long time. The surrounding gangsters also rejuvenated in this roar, and aimed the gun at Nanlian again.

“Huh ... I wanted to spare you a life, but now I’m in a hurry. It’s up to you to see if I can survive.” Nan Lian exhaled, her eyes contracted, and the power that had previously dispersed began to begin with a kind of A more terrifying speed spread around.

The white man knew that the situation was not good, and he shouted, “Fire!” More than fifty people and more than fifty guns spewed out flames.

However, to their surprise, the bullet just came out of the barrel of the gun and was froze in the air by the icy blue cyclone that was blowing on its face, constantly falling to the ground.

“Hey, how is this possible?” The white man’s pupils dilated and turned to escape. Those are all powerful rune bullets!

Nan Lian did not catch up, but focused on the control of power. After counting the interest, she suddenly opened her eyes, and the power she accumulated also exploded at this moment.

“Legacy Ice Lotus!”

With her fist clenched, eight petal-shaped ice cubes with a width of dozens of meters suddenly rose from below sea level, engulfing the entire giant freighter!

Along with the rumbling sound, the entire ship, regardless of people or objects, was instantly frozen by the extremely cold ice, and lifted out of the water under the influence of the ice.

From a distance, it looks like a giant ice sculpture that stands above the ocean.

It wasn’t until then that the super joint commando submarine that was struggling toward the freighter had just appeared on the edge of the sea level.

Nan Lian was naturally reluctant to wait any longer. She raised her hand and turned on the earphones she wore. She said lightly: “Headquarters, the task has been completed. Let Peach write a report for me. I’m in a hurry now and take a step first.”

After speaking, it was like a shooting star, flying to the sky.

...

Almost at the same time.

In the quiet and deep universe, Wang Yan stared at the beautiful azure blue planet in front of him, quietly enchanted, with unspeakable emotion in his heart.

The distant sun was on her oblique side, projecting the constant light of Henggu, warm and dazzling. At the same time, this beautiful planet reflects a layer of water blue light. Let her be like a unique gemstone in the dark and infinite universe, crystal clear, beautiful and flawless.

Wang Yan believes that after gaining abilities, and after joining the National African Affairs Bureau, there have been countless treasures in the world, and then there is no beauty of a treasure that can be comparable to the earth in front of him.

Her flawless beauty, the mystery she contained, the vicissitudes she experienced, all intriguing, Wang Yan believes that everyone will feel emotion after witnessing all this, and there is no way to add.

“This is my home, such a beautiful world.”

Wang Yan put away the emotions in his heart, and the hammer in his hand could not help but speed up a bit, and the Lili slammed for a while, and increased the strength of the pure Yang real fire, until the abandoned satellite turned into a fiery red and soft scrap iron mass in front of him Kick it off with one foot and let it burn into the atmosphere.

It's another ten million dollars, easy to get.

However, there is a win-win situation between him and NASA. NASA needs to clean up the sky rubbish, but any plan is astronomical.

And Wang Yan, because there are a pair of demon wings that contain the law of space, can seize the opportunity to use space teleportation to pull in space junk.

Otherwise, the space debris that orbits at a speed of 7.9 kilometers per second, making it difficult to capture it in an instant.

And there are not many who can do this except Wang Yan below the S level. Therefore, the two parties naturally became excellent partners.

“Ziz ...” A voice call came from the space station. “Pharaoh, today's mission is completed. Our space station is about to enter the dark zone. Would you like to come in for a break, drink a little wine, and open a short barbecue party?”

The corner of Wang Yan's mouth is awkward, but are you scientists? Say a good scientific research career to benefit the world? Now I know drinking and eating meat.

But he didn't want to think about it himself. These scientists seem to be the disaster he caused. If he hadn't brought wine and barbecue with him, how could these scientists have fallen so fast?

Now NASA has complained to Wang Yan many times. Because of him, those scientists are now protesting that NASA will develop and provide space version of beer and fresh barbecue boxes.

“Play with yourself, I still have some things.” Wang Yan pressed the communicator in his ear and turned to wave to the space station. I have to admit that the group of scientists is still very interesting, at least, they are sincere enough, and there is no such thing as a bit of bitterness.

“Okay, now the Pacific Ocean region of the earth is about to enter the night, Pharaoh good night.”

Turning off the communication system, Wang Yan wrapped himself in bubbles and sighed for a long time.

Previously through the drone of the little chick, I learned about the scale of this youth conference in advance. Although it has long been expected that this youth conference, the difficulty and scale will far exceed any previous one.

But the endless powerhouses still put a lot of pressure on Wang Yan. The Paladin Ulysses of the Light Holy See, the brothers of the four monks and the six monks, the female super of the Midi Super Shield, the werewolf of the Dark Council Walton, and the mysterious Mayan girl

Each of them is the best among A-level strongmen, and I'm afraid it's not far from S-level.

In addition, these have only come, have you come yet? Also keep a low profile, ready to play pigs and eat tiger land?

The original goal was to be the first, so it seems that no one can't get even the top three.

Wang Yan adjusted his breath, closed his eyes, and the surrounding silence was silent. The sunlight on his side began to be slowly shaded by the earth. As night came, he was in such a quiet and dark environment, feeling a calmness like never before.

For the past few months, Wang Yan has been practicing quietly. In this space, in fact, he never slacked off practice. And traveling in space can also broaden your horizons and enhance your mood.

Every time he is in this quiet and empty space, his mind seems to be more and more calm.

The accumulation is almost over.

He thought about it and asked the heart lotus platform to fly out of his palm and instantly bloomed into a golden lotus with a width of tens of meters on the satellite orbit.

The shining light of the lotus, like a bright nebula in the night sky, deeply attracted Wang Yan's eyes.

Ask Xinliantai!

This is the spoils he obtained from the remains of the Buddha Kingdom on Gongga Mountain, which was specially used to cleanse the heart and enhance the soul of the treasure. At the same time it harvested, there are some excellent Tan Tan fruit.

Those good-for-nothing Buddha fruits left three for Wuya Ange, Nanlian, and Sun Miaomiao, and the rest was consumed by themselves. Coupled with the massive consumption of some cultivation resources, his progress over the past few months is still very huge.

But no matter how great the progress is, if you can't keep up with your mental state, not only can you break through the difficulties, but you can easily get caught in the magic and lose your ability to control your strength.

Although Wang Yan looked at this questioning lotus platform, he felt conflicted, and always felt that his scalp was tingling, magnifying the taste of the demon ten times and one hundred times, which was really sour.

No matter what, Shuang Shuang returns to Shuang Shuang, some things should be done. At the most, go back and pull a few brothers, and enjoy the taste of inquisitiveness.

At the thought of this, his heart was much balanced.
