

THE DOMESTIC HERO

Chapter 7 - It's not easy to eat a full meal

...

Guru.

There was a cooing in his stomach, and Wang Yan remembered that he had only eaten half a watermelon from noon yesterday to now.

Resisting the strong smell of the kitchen, Wang Yan fried two poached eggs and laid a bowl of noodles. When food is in front of me, hunger seems to grow stronger.

Stomach acid in the stomach, stomach motility, the situation is very violent, as if hungry for several days without eating.

Laar!

Accompanied by intense noodles, less than a minute. No, exactly forty seconds at most, a full bowl of noodles and poached eggs all entered the belly.

Wang Yan was stunned by himself. After eating so many things, he only slightly relieved his hunger. The desire to eat ~ is still so violent.

And he could vaguely feel that his stomach was happily crawling and secreting a lot of stomach acid to digest food.

Have you not only evolved your senses and strength, but also your digestive abilities?

Hungry, so hungry.

If you go on like this, will you eat a big fat man with a few hundred pounds?

But so hungry, so hungry.

Wang Yan couldn't resist the torture of hunger, and laid down the remaining roll of noodles and cooked a wok. This is enough for a pot of noodles eaten by three or four strong men. After adjusting the flavor, it went into Wang Yan's stomach within three minutes.

"Finally I feel a bit full." Wang Yan leaned on the sofa, stroking his round belly with satisfaction. I opened the notebook I bought at home when I was in college and started to look up some information. What are the evolutionary variations?

The bloated stomach began to wriggle happily again.

ten minutes!

Wang Yan was shocked to find that he started to feel a little hungry again. The bulging belly has also flattened.

What level of digestion is this! Even if it is a pig, is it not so exaggerated? Is this an evolutionary side effect?

But think about it too, all aspects of your body have increased significantly, and cell tissue needs more nutrients and energy.

But with eight hundred dollars left in the pocket, how long will it take? The rent is about to expire. There are also three thousand dollars in debt, which must be paid back as soon as possible.

It seems that I have to find a way to make more money.

The job of a medical device company is a deliveryman. The job is more tiring than the courier brother, and he earns very little. It's really better to send it by courier.

Express delivery?

Wang Yan's eyes lit up, which was a good idea. Express delivery is now a popular industry, and every household is keen on online shopping. As long as you are willing to endure hardship, and now you have greatly improved your physical fitness, you should be able to earn a lot.

But the problem is that the remaining money may not be able to support the job change, and it will be the payday.

It seems that you have to find a part-time job with quick money, preferably a daily salary.

Wang Yan took up the notebook and started to log on the recruitment website of the same city, looking for the daily salary.

"Can you pit a little bit more?" Wang Yan twitched his face with convulsions, "The price is high, not the entertainment company's public relations, or the night manager."

Either there are some technical jobs, such as argon arc welding.

By the way, some urban novels on the Internet may give some suggestions. Wang Yan searched several popular novels and took a good look at the direction of the protagonist's start.

Looking at it, Wang Yan was speechless. The abilities acquired by those protagonists are very special. What can see through the perspective eyes of the jadeite rough stone, or can feel the breath of antiques, pick a leak or something. Either you can control the avatars and go to the sea to discover the sunken ship treasure.

There is even a game system directly, and you can draw a prize for any ability plus points.

There is really no market for a plug-in that comprehensively strengthens one's physical fitness. Is it possible to be a bodyguard? Find a beautiful president to protect yourself and fall in love?

But that's not enough for myself. The special forces graduates in this world have a grasp, and their professional knowledge and fighting ability are much stronger than themselves.

Relying on strength, daily wages, more money, not illegal.

Wang Yan thought about it and thought that it was the most realistic to only move bricks on the construction site. As for other high-end jobs that can be eaten by strength and speed, think and try slowly.

The most important thing right now is to earn some quick money first to pay off the debts and fill up your stomach.

“Guru!”

At the thought of eating, Wang Yan's stomach began to call again, that is an instinctive desire of the body for food and energy. Through hunger, people are forced to eat.

...

After a quarter of an hour, rent a chain fast food restaurant outside the community.

Wang Yan spent eleven pieces of five cents, ordered a small plate of farm fried meat, a bowl of tomato and egg soup, and a piece of rice, and began his legend of the * of food.

One of the biggest benefits of eating here-free rice!

Just a bite of chili, a spoonful of soup. A bowl of rice was easily eliminated.

When he went to add the fourth bowl of rice, a cute little girl next to him looked at Wang Yan and pulled the sleeve of the woman beside him: “Mom, you said that the children who can eat are good children. This uncle must be very good ~ let him be the father of the baby. “

The woman blushed and hurriedly covered the girl’s mouth. She said lowly: “Baby, don’t talk nonsense, your uncle will hate you.”

Uh.....

Wang Yan also blushed old, which is not good for hearing too much. Can only be regarded as not heard, continue to eat dumb.

The fifth bowl, the sixth bowl ... the ninth bowl!

All kinds of burglary talks around started to attack Wang Yan’s ears. What is the reincarnation of the pig bajie, the rebirth of the starving dead, what must have been deliberately hungry for a few days to come here to rub rice.

This bowl is too small, you need to get up and add food, every time you have to use a shovel to tighten it ...

Wang Yan has been tanned recently. Although his face is hot, he can still hide it. In order to fill up the belly, I can only bear it.

After the twentieth bowl of rice, the common rice bucket had bottomed out.

The people around him had already started not to eat, just watch him eat.

A girl waiter in uniform stood next to Wang Yan, pinching twenty yuan, and looked at him pitifully with a small half of the farm’s small stir-fried meat remaining, his body shaky, his eyes whispered, “Sir, Our store manager said she had asked for this meal. Please, please go tomorrow and eat at another house. Can I? Me, the rice we prepare every day, the rice is limited ... “

“This ...” Wang Yan felt that he couldn’t stay any longer. He ate the small stir-fried meat in two or two and finished the soup. “I’m full, so let’s go, let’s go.”

Wang Yan, who has n’t gotten his skin thicker than the city walls, was embarrassed to ask for money and went straight out.

“Mom, we don’t want this uncle to be a father anymore, our family will be poorly eaten ...” Mengwa little girl sighed and sighed.

“Baby, don’t talk nonsense!” The woman blushed and wanted to find a hole to hide in.

Dismissed by the little girl. Wang Yan stumbled and fled out of the fast food restaurant, feeling his belly. Well, although not full, it is estimated to be seven or eight. Because he felt the speed of digestion in his stomach, he began to slow down.

According to this way of eating, it is estimated that it will not be long before the city’s buffet, where free meals will be added to the blacklist.

It’s not money. If the wallet is bulging, no one will chase Aolong if he orders a table. He will only offer himself as a * of wealth.

Wang Yan looked up at the sky and let the sunlight shine on him.

His heart, like the August sun, was burning hot.

for sure!

You must have a full meal.
