

D. Hero 841

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 841

“Although the Son of Flame is powerful, my Scud is not a vegetarian.” The Scud’s eyes grunted, and the cowhide said coquettishly, “I think when the Son of Flame first entered the SAFE, your uncle Scud covered it.”

Obviously, because there were too many onlookers around, and the SCUD was too proud, he didn’t find Wang Yan watching from behind the crowd.

“Wow, Uncle Legs is great.” The spirited girl admires the little star.

The SCUD seemed to enjoy the feeling of being admired, and patted the magic + 1 Li Ning shoes on his feet proudly. He changed the subject and said: “Look at my shoes, it looks like Li Ning shoes on the surface, but it is actually used. A pair of Li Ning shoes blessed with extremely precious enchanted scrolls, if they are worn by ordinary people, they can also pass Bolt. “

As soon as this statement came out, boys and girls admired him a lot, really worthy of being a B-level domain strongman, he could enchant Li Ning shoes with an enchanting scroll casually. As for the enchanted scroll, it is a valuable item on the tall.

“Brother Leg.” Wang Yan couldn’t stand it anymore, and said hello to everyone, “Is the matter resolved in the morning?”

“puff!”

Scud’s complexion suddenly became very beautiful, grinning, and finally caught a chance to pretend to be forced, but in the end, Comrade Pharaoh looked at the joke in the crowd. He hurriedly frowned at him, then patted his chest and said, “Don’t you worry about me doing things? The troubled druids have stopped, and they dare not make trouble again.”

Get.

Continue to install it?

Forget it, who called him Leg Brother?

“That’s good.” Wang Yan smiled and then said to the bear, “Brother, I just signed a new guy here, please take care of me. Wenzhuo, come and call Brother Xiong Brother, they are old people of the National African Affairs Bureau, and they know more than me. “

Tan Wenzhuo’s new arrival was first frightened by Wang Yan’s fierce fighting stance. Now he is honestly honest. Quickly stepped forward and nodded, saluting: “Brother Xiong, Brother Li, please take care of me in the future.”

“You can rest assured that you will follow your brother in the future to ensure that the future is unlimited.” A scrupulous predecessor looked at Tan Wenzhuo’s shoulders. “We need money and money, and we need girlfriends and girlfriends.”

“Thank you Brother Li.” Tan Wenzhuo said gratefully, “I have been short of money recently, and my total assets are less than 500 million.”

puff!

The SCUD almost sputtered to death with old blood, lack of money? Five hundred million? Is your kid kidding me? The hairy legs always felt a sigh of resentment held in his chest, a little overwhelmed.

He gritted his teeth and said, “You’re fine, kid, have you saved so many assets before entering the SAFE? Ha ha, in order to celebrate the joining of new colleagues, tonight, Brother Li invites you to the best place in Huahai City. Hi boy, you are blessed, there are so many beautiful girls in that field. “

As soon as this remark came out, Tan Wenzhuo’s face was a little embarrassed: “Brother Leg, it’s not that I don’t give face. I promised my girlfriend not to go to those dirty places.”

“Girlfriend? Do you already have a girlfriend?” The hairy legs are like a arrow in the chest, and it is painful. He is almost forty years old, and he doesn’t know what his girlfriend is like. But how old is this kid? I already have a girlfriend, it seems to be average, how come I have a girlfriend?

“Yes, I have a girlfriend.” Tan Wenzhuo looked at Scud with a surprised look. Isn’t it normal to have a girlfriend?

The cheeks of Scud straightened, Qiang Yanhuan smiled and said: “Yes, since you have a girlfriend in charge, I will not bring you down. Go back to dinner and bring it out, let the brothers see you.”

“Yes, Xiaoli Xiaohui Xiaorui, they will be very happy.” Tan Wenzhuo nodded seriously.

“Wait, what does your little Li Xiaohui Xiaorui mean? Your girlfriend’s name seems strange.” The hairy legs looked pale, and there was an ominous premonition.

“It’s Xiaoli, Xiaohui, and Xiaorui. These are all normal names.” Tan Wenzhuo is a little baffled. Where are my girlfriends’ names strange?

“Puff puff!”

The SCUD felt there were tens of thousands of arrows, which were heavily inserted into his chest, causing him to suffer 100,000 injuries. It turned out that it wasn’t that their girlfriends had strange names, but they really had three girlfriends.

The hair of the Scud was spurting blood, and this dog abuse was so cruel and cruel. Everyone is human and everyone is a superpower. Why should the gap be so big?

This newcomer has not only girlfriends, but also three girlfriends.

Abuse, really dog abuse.

“Brother Tan, you are amazing.” The teenager who professed to be “The King of Power” said in worship, “You have three girlfriends, but I only have two.”

“Two or two?”

Puff Puff Puff ~

The SCUD was hit again and again by heart. Did the little hairy kid under 20 years old have two girlfriends?

Here, this is the rhythm to kill single dogs.

“Boy, you have to work hard and learn more from the seniors.” Tan Wenzhuo said, patting his shoulder with a heavy heart. “Which of the urban genre novels, which hero is not a confidant all over the world. Football team. It seems that our road is still far away. “

“I don’t want to talk about girlfriends anymore. They are so troublesome.” “Li Wang” embraced his hands and said impatiently.

On the side of the hairy legs, my heart was bleeding, and tears were swallowed into my stomach. All of you handsome guys who eat more and eat more should all go to the gallows. In our country, there are already more men and fewer women, but they dare to eat more and occupy more.

“Brother Leg, you are so strong, there must be a lot of girlfriends?” “Li Wang” looked at the Scud with some admiration.

“Slap ~”

The SCUD couldn’t bear it anymore, and one of them rewarded them with a burst of chestnut, and snarled righteously: “What girlfriend is a woman? As superpowers, we should think about how to become stronger and protect our country. How old are you Gently, addicted to beauty all day long, what kind of system? The newcomer training officially started, each of you will first come to 10,000 push-ups. “

what?

The two Mengxin were scared out of their wits.

Wang Yan looked at the hairy legs and abused Xinxin with great interest, then patted the shoulders of Xiong Xiong and said, “Go back and have a chance to introduce a girlfriend to Brother Leg. If you go on like this, he will suffocate.”

“I think it’s better to wait for the technology to develop further. With the combination of artificial intelligence and inflatable dolls, the brothers have more money to buy him a more reliable one.”
Bao Xiong said playfully.

“This is also true.” Wang Yan thought of the Rune Technology Research Institute, maybe there will be products to meet the needs of the SCUD.

When thinking of the Rune Science and Technology Research Institute, Wang Yan remembered two months ago.

At that time, Wang Yan just returned to the National African Affairs Bureau after attending the Youth Congress. When he happened to meet Wang Erniu, who had fantasy reality, he thought of a hacker Xiao Shen on hand.

At that time, there was a sudden whimsy to see if they could fuse the two abilities together to create a virtual reality scene similar to the light test.

If you can really create that kind of trial scenario, it will be extremely beneficial to the members of the National Bureau of African Affairs.

However, Xiao Shen said at the time that it was theoretically feasible, but it was not yet possible in terms of hardware. As a result, Wang Yan gritted his teeth and contacted Yun Zhiyun’s director. Fortunately, Director Yun was very interested in this proposal, so he agreed to set up this project, and their unit would provide rune computers.

Thinking of this, Wang Yan called Xiao Shen and called Xiao Shen. Xiao Shen said that the project had progressed, but it was stuck at an important level. Wang Yan needed to see and come up with an idea.

Wang Yan hesitated for a while and felt that idleness was also idle, so he prepared to go to the Rune Science and Technology Research Institute.

“Brother Xiong, I’m going to the Rune Research Institute to play. Do you want to go together?”
Wang Yan was a little afraid of Yunda.

When he mentioned the Rune Research Institute, his face suddenly became pale and white:
“Pharaoh, you should spare me. Rourou knows that I used to sell something to the Institute, if I dare to go again To ensure that you ca n’t live to the next chapter. “

Wang Yan’s mouth twitched, and I remembered that Brother Xiong had no money and no equipment. It seemed that he did some exaggerated activities. Pulling him now is probably harder than killing him.

“Brother, can you go to the Rune Research Institute?” Wang Yan asked casually.

“Don’t go, don’t go, I won’t die in that place.” The hairy legs are tormenting the new one. When Wang Yan said, his sweat pores were all scared. Obviously, that place also left him a deep psychological shadow.

However, to deal with Scud, Wang Yan still has some ways. He smiled and said: “Brother Leg, Rune Technology researches all new projects that can solve your girlfriend’s problems.”

“Uh!”

In just an instant, the SCUD appeared in front of Wang Yan like lightning, and said righteously, “Lao Wang, you are my best brother. Even if it is the sword and the fire, my SCUD will be nothing. “When I was talking, I also patted my breasts, so I was in a posture like Bo Yuntian.

Next, the responsibility of educating newcomers will be handed over to the bear.

Driving in a car, Wang Yan rushed to the Rune Science and Technology Research Institute with SCUD.

It was a huge underground fortification. Under the guidance of a zombie with yellow paper on his head, Wang Yan and SCUD went directly to the laboratory.

The director of Yunda, who hasn’t seen for many months, is still wearing a white coat and looks cold, looking at Wang Yan with great interest and saying, “Son of Flame, you seem to be more handsome. Do n’t think about my proposal? I can guarantee that with my wisdom and your beauty, we can definitely cultivate the best offspring ever. ”

Wang Yan trembled all over, and hurriedly shook his head into a rattle: “Director Yunda, I have a girlfriend. Or, how about your brother?”

Suddenly, the Scud was very happy. Pharaoh is such a good brother.

“SCUD?” Yun Zhi swept the SCUD coldly. “This man is ranked 3.5 billion after my spouse selection list.”

“puff!”

Scud’s heart was stabbed hard, and the world is 3.5 billion men. Wouldn’t it be said that it is only after the men of the world have died that they get his turn?

Destiny, do you want to fool people like this?

The heart of Scud is full of sorrow and melancholy.

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 842

“Brother, don’t be discouraged.” Wang Yan felt sympathetic when he saw him, patting him on the shoulder and comforting, “As long as you persevere and persevere, sooner or later, there will be girls blind, no, I appreciate you.” “

“Ah ~ I’m already disappointed with human beings.” Scud said sadly. “Director Yun, have you made any breakthrough in the direction of the rune puppet? I can use all of my property to personally order a well-behaved.” “

“There is no breakthrough for the time being. You can customize a few dolls for online use.” Yun Zhi looked at him expressionlessly. It was obvious that she was not joking, but was seriously making suggestions.

“I’ve bought several for a long time ... er ... hehe.” Said Scud with an embarrassed expression. “Technology level is too low, it doesn’t mean much.”

Wang Yan is speechless, you really bought Legs. It doesn't make much sense, you still bought several ...

“Well, I heard that Xiao Shen has made some achievements in the field of artificial intelligence.” Yun Zhi thought seriously. “You can consider customizing one. Although it is not as good as real artificial intelligence, it can still be done by being obedient. . “

“Really? Where is Xiao Shen?” The hairy face of Scud was full of excitement. “As long as it is stronger than Serui, my requirement for cleverness is far lower than being obedient.”

Seeing that they were talking more and more seriously, Wang Yan hurriedly stopped and said: “You talk about this matter in private and slowly, Director Yun, please show me our VR project first.”

“Strictly speaking, our project is not VR, but AR, that is, augmented reality.” Yun Zhi corrected Wang Yan, and then led them to a huge laboratory.

That laboratory is as big as a football field, as if it were in a globe. The spheres are covered with bumps, and each bump is covered with mysterious rune structures.

In the entire laboratory, at least dozens of researchers are working, including the soul hacker Xiao Shen, and the fantasy reality superpower Wang Erniu.

In the past, there was also a professional hacker called Xiaohei in the National African Bureau, but that guy was a purely technical control, and there was no real superpower. What's more, Xiaohei's two goods partners did a bad thing with Liu Lang, and stolen Shen Mengting's body from the bureau of the State African Bureau, which is still in the punishment stage.

“Brother Wang.” The hacker Xiao Shen waved happily when he saw Wang Yan. Speaking of which, Wang Yan led his way in life, and took him to the Youth Conference to watch the game with the frustration.

As a result, Xiao Shen's worship of Wang Yan is like a surging river, endless.

“Little Shen Na, what's the situation now.” Wang Yan asked with concern.

“The progress is not bad. I completely digitized the illusion products produced by Er Niu’s dream reality, and then performed calculations through the rune computer, adding simple artificial intelligence.” Xiao Tao said endlessly, “We have already achieved our The initial idea. “

“Then try it quickly.” Wang Yan didn’t understand the technology at all. He only knew that the light test of the light church was very good. He wanted to simulate it as much as possible.

However, the light test is a product of God, and even the Holy See does not know how it was generated, and the energy consumed for each start is astronomical, enough to make the Pope hurt.

If the National African Affairs Bureau can really create a game similar to the light trial, and the energy consumption is not high, everyone will greatly increase the progress of cultivation, and it will be easier to fight the abyssal devil in the future.

Wang Erniu also saw Wang Yan, but he was still quite worried about Wang Yan. He dared not come to speak, but dared to say hello from afar.

Fortunately, Xiao Shen was very fast, directing the staff to quickly enter the subject.

“Cappa!”

The convex points on the spherical sky in the laboratory are all lit, and a beam of light illuminates down, condensing a human figure in the center of the field.

It was a voluptuous figure with a hint of evil beauty in the corner of her mouth.

“puff!”

When Wang Yan saw this beautiful woman, she almost spit out old blood. Isn’t this Queen Arenia the Spider? Then, Wang Yan looked at the hacker Xiao Shen with a very strange look, boy, your taste seems very special.

Xiao Shen didn’t pay attention to Wang Yan’s eyes. All his attention was focused on Queen Spider, and his eyes were full of excitement: “Brother Wang Yan, this is our initial achievement. I heard that you are more familiar with Queen Spider, and Say hello. “

“Hi, Queen Spider.” Wang Yan was also quite curious and stepped forward to say, “How is it going?”

“Son of Flame.” “The Queen of Spiders” made a series of evil laughs, “Let’s learn from each other.” Then, she said, two giant spiders appeared in front of her.

The two spiders iced and fired, spitting flames and ice blades to kill Wang Yan.

With a single blow, Wang Yan released a fire dragon, and the scorching flame instantly burned the two spiders to black, and the dead could not die anymore.

“Son of flames, you are so powerful, the Lun family confessed.” The Queen Spider made a look of willingness to fall.

“This, this is too weak?” Wang Yan was a little speechless.

“Son of Flame, you have won the Lun family, and the Lun family can handle it for you.” The Queen Spider stepped forward step by step, seductive, and said with a wink, “The Lun family is going to live with you child.”

“puff!”

Wang Yan almost spit out old blood and glared, “Wait, this rhythm is not right. Are you making a game of battle, or a game of work?”

“Ha, experimental works, experimental works, the official version will not come out like this.” Xiao Shen said with a laugh, “We are studying the various possibilities of the reward mechanism after the victory.”

bonus system.

The muscles on Wang Yan’s face twitched straight. How does this reward mechanism look like the rhythm of a Gongkou game? This group of guys tossed this thing for so long?

I really don't take taxpayer's money as money.

"This kind of reward mechanism is good, it's just a masterpiece." The hairy legs on the side looked straight and rubbed their hands in excitement. "Pharaoh, let me play two. I usually see the Queen of Spiders dare not do it. Such a thing. "

Wang Yan kicked him off angrily, and then stared at Xiao Shen: "First, remove the messy reward mechanism, otherwise wait for harmony. Second, your Queen of Spiders is too weak. Right. Now that Arenia is a class A strongman, even if I want to deal with her, I have to spend some effort. "

"Brother Wang Yan, we emulated this spider queen from the battle video." Xiao Shen said weakly. "We don't understand her real parameters at all, and we have only been able to simulate B at present through various experiments. The level of the field, it is ignorant of the law. We need a lot of data ~ "

"Where does the data come from?" Wang Yan frowned.

"You need to enter it yourself, and then continue to improve your personal database." Xiao Shen said, "Brother Wang Yan, are you interested in entering and trying?"

Wang Yan was a bit interested, but let Scud try first.

The SCUD began to accept parameter input with great interest, but it did not need to be too complicated process, as long as the SCUD showed itself on the proving ground. The circular dome of the entire laboratory will continuously record his data.

I have to admit that Leg Brother is much stronger than it was then. Especially after he hooked up with the Tianshan assassin, he broke through the bottleneck and realized the B-level speed field. Once the speed field is launched, purely in terms of speed, it is not much more than an ordinary A-level strongman.

In this process, Wang Erniu helped the laboratory's supercomputer system to carry out dream reality together. After more than half an hour, Wang Erniu was tired and lying on the ground. Fortunately, the entry process was basically completed.

After some debugging by Xiao Shen, a fantasy reality projection of a SCUD appeared in the laboratory. His looks and vulgar temperament are almost indistinguishable from SCUD.

“It’s too powerful. It still has a pulse, heartbeat, and body temperature.” Hairy legs touched his avatar in amazement, looking terrified.

To be honest, Wang Yan was also very shocked. Although I’ve seen Wang Erniu’s dreamy reality ability so long ago, the wolf he simulated had a body temperature, smell and touch almost the same as the real wolf.

However, due to his strength, he must continue to increase his mental strength to maintain the dream reality.

However, after leveraging the power of science and technology, his dream reality ability finally has the potential to shine.

“Uh!”

The atmosphere in the entire laboratory changed again, and the surrounding environment became a scorching desert. The Scud avatar jumped up and down in the desert, showing its strength.

“Brother Leg, you should fight as many avatars as possible, so that you can constantly improve the data parameters of your avatar and make him more real.” Xiao Shen suggested.

Of course, Scud was full of enthusiasm, and began to use a variety of tedious tactics and avatar battles. Obviously, the avatar data at the beginning was not perfect enough, and the head was harvested by Scud three or two times.

However, as time passed, the avatar’s behavior logic and fighting style became more and more like SCUD. From one minute to five minutes. Finally, after fierce fighting with Scud in the desert for more than ten minutes, no one could help each other.

By this time, this incarnation was close to the real SCUD, especially those tricks that were called trivial, and they were really alive and well. Even, the sense of explosion in the speed field is simulated ten to ten.

“Interesting, so interesting. I feel that if I experience more battles like this, my combat effectiveness will continue to increase.” Scud turned his dagger around in his hands, “Xiao Shen, are you stronger? , Pretty girl, I’m asking for welfare. “

Between the eyebrows, full of indescribable vulgarity.

Obviously, these two products are really playing the simulated battle system as a virtual reality ergonomic game.

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 843

“No, it’s just a template for everyone. They are all empty shelves like the Queen of Spiders.” Xiao Shen shook his head helplessly, his eyes lit up suddenly, “Yes, if you need, I can put your legs on you All parameter data is added to a female character. “

“Wow wow wow, just that Dongying girl Huaying Ying is good.” The hairy legs are salivating and cheerful, “The girl’s figure is really good.”

Wang Yan drops a cold sweat, do you guys dare to be bored?

In this world where you will be harmonious when you hold hands together, is it really okay to be so afraid of death?

Xiao Shen is also a superb otaku, far more powerful than SCUD in terms of brain holes. Soon the Hua Muying’s body template was transferred out, and then various power speed parameters were given to the SCUD.

A female ninja dressed in Dongying’s traditional costume appeared in front of everyone. Under the veil of looming veil, there was a trace of fatal uniform temptation.

“In this way, I am more motivated to practice.” Scud whispered in excitement and threw up, two or three points faster than before, carrying a dagger and fighting with Huamuying.

Wang Yan looked at Yun Zhi beside him embarrassingly and said, “Sorry, our colleagues are a bit embarrassing.”

“It’s normal.” Yun Zhi held on to the black-framed glasses frame and said calmly, “Chasing mating ~ matching rights, propagating and spreading its own genes is the genetic instinct of every normal male. Females, however, value their offspring more Survivability, such as strength, appearance, wisdom, and even social wealth and power. Wang Yan, if you dislike trouble, our children can be raised by me, and you can never worry about it. “

“...” Wang Yan regretted that she had raised her topic. What should I never worry about? Is there more to worry about?

Wait, when was my mind already thinking about raising children with Yunzhi?

For a time, Wang Yan felt a bit creepy, and shook his head desperately, telling himself that he must leave Yun Zhizhi a little further, otherwise she would be gradually infested by her thoughts.

“Ji-Ji-Ji.” The hairy legs made a series of wretched grin. Under the stimulation of some “reward mechanism”, his combat effectiveness broke through some limits, and a dagger was danced like mercury to the ground, and the shadows overlapped.

Hiss ~

The inconvenience of Dongying’s traditional kimono in battle is manifested. In just a short time, he has been torn apart by a dagger with a dozen mouths, Miao Manjiao’s body is springing out, and his tender skin is looming.

“Xiao Shen, can you change Hua Muying’s strength parameters?” Wang Yan was a bit overwhelming and secretly voiced.

“OK.” Xiao Shen made a gesture to Wang Yan, and then quickly adjusted the parameters such as strength and speed.

“Uh!”

The attack speed of Hua Muying's short blade suddenly increased a large amount, and the blade drew a white line.

Feeling cold, Scud hurriedly resisted again and again, violently rushing backwards. But "Huamuying" was faster than him. He rushed into Scud's arms like a cheating cheetah, and the dagger slammed into his heart.

"puff!"

A lot of "blood" was sprayed on the chest of the SCUD. Of course, those are simulated special effects, not that the SCUD is really spraying blood. It is impossible for this projection of fantasy reality to really hurt people.

"Your Excellency is still weak, you need to make persistent efforts." Hua Muying put away the Ninja short blade, glanced at Scud lightly, "You are defeated."

"I'll just go for it." Scud watched the heart spurting blood foolishly. "How's Ni'er so much at once?"

Wang Yan didn't take care of him, just thought with his chin and said: "Little Shen Na, we can make physical collision with virtual characters, but virtual characters can't make collision with us. Such fighting exercises are very humid and bright. The realism in the trial varies greatly. "

This kind of fight, if everyone is playing spell attack, or relying on agile speed to eat, see whoever hits will be able to win or lose. But if two power-type people fight and the power and strength collide with each other, there will be no realism.

"Brother Wang Yan, this is also the bottleneck I told you." Xiao Shen said helplessly, "If we can control the virtual characters to fight, we can slowly accumulate real physical collisions, power shocks and other factors. But A virtual character is playing against real people, and physical collision is really impossible. "

Of course, it can't be solved. If it can be done, does it mean that the virtual character has become a real person? And still a character who can fight and kill.

"So, our alternative is to connect the helmet with nerves, so that people can immerse themselves in virtual characters and then play against each other." Although Wang Erniu was afraid of Wang Yan, he came over and added instructions, "If we can achieve a percentage A hundred immersions, then you can simulate the battle to the maximum extent. "

"Unfortunately, our current neural connection technology is still very elementary." Xiao Shen sighed. "Otherwise, you can use neural connection technology to directly compete in the virtual network server without having to spend a lot of money to build AR. Laboratory. "

Nervous connection?

Wang Yan thought about it while touching his chin, and suddenly his eyes lit up: "It's a coincidence, I just recruited a new person today, and I'm good at consciousness into the doppelganger."

"Avatar of consciousness." Yun Zhi on the side showed interested eyes. "This ability is relatively rare. Wang Yan, you let him come and try, maybe you can solve a big problem for us."

Wang Yan also attached great importance to this fantasy and realistic fighting system. He immediately contacted Burst Bear and asked him to send Tan Wenzhuo over.

During this process, Wang Yan also experimented with body data entry. It is a pity that the data entered is at most the level of the B-level peak, and the simulation of the law of flame is even more flawed.

The created virtual characters can now be eliminated with a half-step S-level Wang Yan.

Seeing that Wang Erniu was half exhausted and almost collapsed, Wang Yan knew that things should not be too anxious. Now the power level of Wang Erniu is still weak, and the whole system is relatively elementary, and it will be much better slowly.

After a while, the explosive bear sent Tan Wenzhuo over. The explosive bear didn't even enter the door, so he just ran away for reasons. It is conceivable that Bingxiong was terrified of this Rune Technology Research Institute.

Tan Wenzhuo came over with some trembling: "Boss, I'm here."

He seemed to have some ominous premonitions. The bear that was so powerful before was frightened when he heard the Rune Science and Technology Research Institute, and he looked at him with pity and sympathy.

“Wen Zhuo.” Wang Yan patted his shoulder enthusiastically and said, “Come, let me introduce you to some colleagues. This is Xiao Shen. He is a soul hacker. He is proficient in computer technology. This is Wang Er. Niu, good at dream reality. This is the director of Yun Zhiyun and the director of our national scientific research unit. “

After everyone exchanged a few words, Wang Yan cut into the topic and explained the current research project to him.

“Huh? Virtual real game? Good stuff, good stuff.” Tan Wenzhuo is a modern young man, and the game is not less played, and the online novels are not less read. For those virtual games that are really realistic, they are naturally very interested.

“This project needs to borrow your abilities.” Wang Yan went straight to the theme, “If you can make a contribution in this project, I can apply to the director to reward you with a thousand merit points.”

“It is an honour that everything is up to you, Boss.” Tan Wenzhuo said with bright eyes.

“Director Yun, you will be handed over to you.” Wang Yan said.

“Okay.” Director Yun looked at Tan Wenzhuo with great interest.

Tan Wenzhuo was seen as creepy, and the ominous hunch that had just been suppressed was spontaneously born. This big beauty looks sloppy, won't he do anything bad about himself?

ten minutes later.

Tan Wenzhuo, whose limbs were fixed by super alloy, was slowly being fed into a large machine on the crawler. It was a bit like doing MRI in the hospital, but it looked more strange.

Tan Wenzhuo's eyes were full of uneasiness, struggling to cry and said: “Boss, let's say we don't dissect.”

His tears were about to fall. He had just signed the contract and entered the unit. Before he could enjoy the collective warmth, he was called to be a mouse. Especially the big beauty named Yun Zhi, with a cold expression, was full of suppressed and excited eyes, as if he could see him completely.

Tan Wenzhuo was grateful that he had nothing to hide, as if he could not hide the pores on his body.

“Uh ...” Wang Yan was also speechless, looking at Yun Zhi and said, “Director Yun, there is no need to play so big? Wen Zhuo is our colleague ...”

“You don’t worry, he won’t hurt him.” Yun Zhizheng said, “I will analyze the signals of his brain activity when he uses the avatar. I won’t really dissect him.”

“Wen Zhuo.” Wang Yan said comfortingly, “You also heard the words of Director Yun? As a compensation, I will give you three C + grade inner pill essence, which is just suitable for your current strength.”

“Neidan Essence?” Tan Wenzhuo also heard Xiong Xiong say before, that is an extremely precious cultivation resource, which must be exchanged for merit. He gritted his teeth and said, “Come on, if there is any trick, Tan Wenzhuo fights.”

“Very good, I appreciate your enthusiasm, as long as you are willing to cooperate, how much is the essence of Neidan.” Yun Zhi licked her lips excitedly, “Wang Yan, you can go out.”

...

Two hours later, Tan Wenzhuo was wearing a coat, and his face was extremely pale, leaning against the wall inexorably, holding a pile of C + grade inner dan essence.

As soon as he saw Wang Yan, Tan Wenzhuo couldn’t stop the tears from falling down: “Boss, take me out of this place. Horrible, that woman is terrible. Woo ~”

Wang Yan looked at him sympathetically, and he couldn’t help scalp numbness. What did Yunda do to him inhumanly? Looking at the pile of inner dan essence in his hand, it is inferred based on what you get.

Uh.....

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 844

Time passed by in a hurry, and another half a month passed by.

Spring has arrived completely.

In the Xianghu Community where Wang Yan lives, various plants are recovering quickly, and they are full of vitality.

“Uncle Wang ~”

Early in the morning, Wang Yan saw Wen Ruhan’s mother and daughter walking by the lake. Wen Ruhan was like the young and tender young woman when she saw it three years ago. The Nuan Nuan girl has grown up a lot and is playing with penguins.

That penguin is, of course, the emperor penguin Wang Yan brought back from Antarctica.

After some conditioning of the essence of Neidan, it has a very strong physique, and it is very powerful when walking on the road. Moreover, it has adapted to the climate of Huahai City. Ang Ang called to flee into the Xianghu Lake for fishing and eating.

However, it has a deep relationship with Nuan Nuan and is not willing to separate. Wang Yan simply let Nuan Nuan nurture it.

“Warm warm early, Miss Wen early.” Wang Yan stopped running and greeted with a smile.

“Uncle hugs.” Nuan Nuan likes Wang Yan very much, running on his calves and plunging into Wang Yan’s arms.

Wang Yan also likes her a lot. She hugged her and said, “Yo, Xiao Nuan Nuan grew up and weighed a lot. Have you been studying at school recently?”

“Fuck!”

Nuan Nuan kissed Wang Yan secretly and said with a grin, “Warm Nuan is very good, the teacher praises Nuan Nuan. Uncle, today Sunday, but my mother will talk to customers. Otherwise, Uncle, take me out Play it. “

“Nuan Nuan, don’t make trouble with your uncle.” Wen Ruhan hurried forward to stop and said, “Uncle is very busy at work.”

“It’s okay.” Wang Yan smiled indifferently, “Miss Wen, please go to work. Today I was just idle, and I took her to the zoo to play.” Wang Yan now knows that Wen Ruhan actually has a status Not low, is an executive of a multinational company.

However, this is also normal. Anyone who can live in the high-level Xianghu community jumps from high to low.

Wen Ruhan hesitated and said: “Then trouble you, I will invite you to dinner.” She and her daughter live together, and Nuan Nuan is her lifeblood. She is willing to give up on Sunday to accompany her daughter and also go to talk with the client. I am afraid it is really a very important client.

“Everyone is a neighbor, and it should be helpful to each other, there is no need to be polite.” Wang Yan said with a smile.

When we arrived at the underground garage together and watched Wen Ruhan drove an Audi A6 with a steady personality, he got warm and got on his Land Rover.

Drive all the way to the suburbs.

It was a vast area with lakes and plants. Originally according to the city government’s plan, a huge wetland park will be built to improve the environment of Huahai City.

But Wang Yan wants to apply for a piece of land to be used as a druid habitat. Director Feng easily asked for this land and put it under the ownership of the National African Bureau. It can also be seen from this how high the status of the National African Affairs Bureau is in the China system.

“Uncle, look, it’s a group of egrets.” Nuan Nuan pointed happily at the lake, a group of flying white birds.

“Yes, the environment here is pretty good.” Wang Yan also smiled. In the past two years, the environment has improved slightly. There is also an egret in the Xianghu Community where Wang Yan’s family lives.

However, the whole environment of the country is still not optimistic, and I hope these druids can come up with some famous mirrors.

Squeak!

Wang Yan parked the car by the lake.

A group of plain-dressed Druids are having a meeting by the lake, discussing something. Two of them were surrounded in the middle, the two elders who were clearly the highest, St. Helen Tree Demon, and St. Kell Oak.

Both of them at this time are in human form. St. Helen is a beauty like a tree elf. Her skin is tender, her body is decorated with leaves and flowers, and there is a vibrant and charming atmosphere all over her body.

Saint Kyle was an old man with white beards, and his skin was as dry as bark.

In the absence of the full version of “Life Grace”, the two elders can still practice to the legendary level, which shows that their qualifications and perceptions are extraordinary. Before Sun Youmiao did not appear, the entire Druid sect was dominated by their will.

Of course, now with Sun Youmiao, they surrounded Sun Youmiao in the middle.

“Son of Flame.” The elders of Druid greeted Wang Yan one after another.

“Uncle ~” Sun Youmiao ran along the way, holding Wang Yan’s arm and said, “Fortunately, you are here, otherwise I will be bored to death in the meeting. Yo, Nuan Nuan also came, good, give my sister one.”

Nuan Nuan rushed into Sun Youmiao’s arms and kissed her sweetly. She still likes the younger sister very much, and her body exudes a natural breath of plant life energy, which is particularly attractive.

“Elder St. Helen and St. Kyle, this place is hundreds of kilometers away, are you still satisfied?” Wang Yan said politely.

“Satisfied, we are very satisfied.” Saint Kyle smiled, the wrinkles on his face squeezed together.

“Well, the pollution in the air, water quality, and the land is quite serious, which is much worse than our previous habitat.” St. Helen, who is a beautiful woman, is honest.

Their previous habitat was in North America and Canada. The area is vast and sparsely populated, and the environment is clean. After the Druid’s own maintenance, the environment naturally has no need to say.

“Elder St. Helen, it is already the limit to find such an open space near Huahai City.” Wang Yan shrugged helplessly.

“Come on slowly, at least there is a little leader here, no longer worry about being surrounded by the Holy See.” St. Helen nodded and said.

In fact, the Druid is also reluctant to mix with the North American Dark Alliance. Not many of the North American Dark Alliance’s churches are good things. It’s just that I didn’t follow the North American Dark Union before, and there was no place for them to mix.

The China National African Affairs Bureau is different. They have an excellent relationship with the Bright Holy See, and they even helped the young master get the “Grace of Life” from the Holy See. As long as you follow in the footsteps of the little leader and the National African Bureau, you will no longer have to worry about a group of trial knights coming to the door.

“The problem now is to plant the seeds of the tree of life, and the elders have some disputes over the location.” Saint Kyle said helplessly, “Is there any good advice for His Highness, the Son of Fire?”

“You just planted it.” Wang Yan pointed to his feet and said, “I think it’s good here.” Wang Yan is a little speechless. These Druid’s slow-tempered characters seem to be in no hurry. Some simple things, they even Will study for many years.

“Plant here?” The elders of Druid looked at Wang Yan one after another. How important is the planting of the tree of life, how can it be so hasty.

“Just plant here. I have to go to school tomorrow.” Sun Youmiao was also annoyed by their meeting. The jade hand turned over, and there was a fist-sized seed in his hand. The seed was black and unremarkable. , But it contains the majestic power of life.

Not waiting for the elders to object, she directly inserted the seeds of the tree of life into the ground, stomped her feet and tamped them, pinched her fingers, and a green breath full of vitality penetrated into the ground.

A magical thing happened. The young shoots of the tree of life broke the seeds, pushed up the soil at a speed visible to the naked eye, and grew vigorously upward. It produces rhizomes, happily absorbing nutrients from the earth, and quickly grows into a small sapling two to three meters high.

Although the sapling is small, it exudes pure and flawless life energy, and is irradiated by the life energy. Some weeds grow vigorously around, and some wildflowers bloom with beautiful flowers and bones.

Some bugs were also attracted, crawling around in the grass and rolling around.

“Wow, it’s amazing, Nuan Nuan likes to see Miao Miao’s sister become magic.” Nuan Nuan girl’s eyes lit up in excitement, desperately clapping the little palm. At Wang Yan’s house, she often sees Sun seedlings cultivating plants in this way.

As the tree of life was planted, the elders no longer disputed. It is unanimously expressed that the species here looks pretty good, but it is a kind of easy-going appearance.

It is no wonder that the very powerful Druid veins would be completely wiped out by the Holy See.

After the tree of life was planted, the elders of the druids also began to take action, preparing to make this place an ideal habitat. Seeds were sprinkled on the ground, and under the natural power of the Druid, seeds came out of the ground.

They are not as powerful and pure as Sun Youmiao at the level of life's natural energy, but they are already one of the masters of planting.

Sun Youmiao, however, is a full-time catalytic tree of life. After a series of tricks, the tree of life, which draws pure life energy, began to skyrocket. After an hour or two, Sun Youmiao's life force was exhausted.

But the tree of life at this time has grown to a height of five or six meters, and the canopy has a diameter of six or seven meters. Pure life energy radiates hundreds of meters in a circle.

Under the shroud of the tree of life, the air can't find any impurities in the air cleanly, and every time I breathe, I feel very sweet and comfortable.

In this environment, even Wang Yan felt refreshed and comfortable. Long-term survival in this environment will even increase the lifespan.

No wonder St. Helen complained about the bad environment here.

"It's amazing." Nuan Nuan happily rolled on the grass-scented ground and had a great time playing with a bunny attracted by the energy of life, "Don't run, hurry up and warm play."

Some elders of Druid also like Nuan Nuan very much. Elder Silver Wolf tentatively turned into a "husky" and Nuan Nuan playing, and when mixed, let her ride on the back and run wildly.

"Son of Flame." Elder St. Kell came to Wang Yan to discuss, "Warm Nuan, this child has a decent natural affinity. Can she let her join our Druid sect and become a great Druid? ? "

"Warm warm?" Wang Yan was slightly stunned.

“Yes, in fact, I also want to discuss this matter with His Highness the Son of Flame.” Saint Kyle said softly, “With the little master, our Druid ushered in a historical turning point. But our denominations There are too few people who can truly be called a druid. There are less than a hundred people. I hope that Your Highness will allow us to recruit some seeds and expand our scale. “

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 845

Not everyone in this world is like Wang Yan, who belongs to the natural awakening. There are still some people who have trained through some kind of inheritance system and have abilities after hard training.

However, the natural awakener often has potential in the direction of awakening, because his bloodline represents the potential in this area.

Like Wang Yan, he is awakened by the fire department’s abilities, so when practicing the inheritance of the fire department, he will do more with less.

Of course, not everyone can generate abilities through inheritance training, or even if it does, the potential is very low. This is related to qualification issues.

In selecting the “seeds”, the Druids must have their own set of screening methods to select children who are more suitable for the inheritance of the Druids. Otherwise, resources will be wasted.

As a legendary strongman, Saint Kyle can value warmth, which shows that the child’s natural talent is still very potential.

Wang Yan still has some good feelings for Druids. These people are not too keen on fighting and like to live in harmony with nature. If the number of druids is larger, it is quite good for the entire China country.

He thought about it for a while and said, “Warm things, I have to ask her mother for permission. As for the Druid sect who wants to take root in China, I must communicate with the head office to see the head office. Only the meaning can be answered. “

“Then please, His Highness, Son of Flame, be bothered.” St. Kyle said gratefully. “I have lived for three hundred years. The biggest wish is to see our Druidism can regain its glory, please.”

“On this point, I will definitely fight for it.” Wang Yan answered seriously, “Yes, I will let Miaomiao go to register a biological company, specialize in cultivating all kinds of seeds, and undertake greening projects, Elder St. Kell, I hope you can divide half of your staff to engage in greening work. “

Druid is so magical that Wang Yan will naturally make the most of it.

“Your Highness please rest assured.” St. Kell quickly agreed, “Spring is the season of growth of all things. We will use this spring to greatly improve the air quality environment of Huahai City.”

As an old monster who has lived for three hundred years, Saint Kyle ’s wisdom is also not to be underestimated. The Son of Flame has an aloof status in the China Super League. As long as he is not doing anything wrong, normal suggestions will be passed by the top.

And in the future, the son of flame will inevitably lead the entire Chinese super energy world, taking the place of Yan Zun. Establishing a good relationship with him early is crucial to the survival environment of the Druid sect.

Wang Yan nodded in satisfaction.

At this moment, Wang Yan answered the phone, it was Shen Mengting who called him, hoping to meet him at a restaurant on the Huangpu River.

There is nothing left and right, and I feel a little tired after playing with Nuan Nuan.

Wang Yan said goodbye to the druids, without disturbing their enthusiasm for building a “homeland”, and drove all the way to the riverside hotel.

It was a very elegant hotel. Wang Yan, who had Miao and Miao in his hand, walked in, still attracted some attention. Who made Wang Yan look handsome in the sun, but unfortunately, he was young There is already such a beautiful daughter.

In a hidden corner, Wang Yan saw Shen Mengting, who was dressed casually. She was wearing a peaked cap and sunglasses and was drinking a cup of coffee leisurely. Opposite her, there was a man sitting.

That man is the new colleague Tan Wenzhuo who Wang Yan personally recruited.

Tan Wenzhuo's face was a little pale, and he kept wiping with cold sweat, cautiously pleasing to say: "Mr. Shen, 200 million cash is already the limit I can come up with, you see that I am very sincere to compensate, don't leave me Take care of this little person. "

Shen Mengting glanced at him lightly through his sunglasses and said, "Little people? Ha ha, our Shen Group lost as much as 800 million directly, and indirectly lost billions. You want to use 200 million to wipe out this matter, I am afraid you ca n't do it. . "

Tan Wenzhuo's face was sad, and his tears were about to fall. If the victim's forgiveness cannot be obtained, his troubles are still great.

"General Shen, Wenzhuo, are you busy?"

Wang Yan sat down holding Nuan Nuan and helped her order a steak. The child had been playing for a long time, and his belly was already hungry.

"Boss Wang Yan, this, is this your girl?" Tan Wenzhuo looked at the cute and beautiful little loli in surprise, she and Wang Yan were very intimate.

Even Shen Mengting was staring at Nuan Nuan, frowning slightly, not knowing what she was thinking.

"I think so." Wang Yan scraped her little nose intimately and said, "Unfortunately, such a cute little loli is not my daughter, but the child of my neighbor Wen Jie."

Inexplicably, Shen Mengting seemed to breathe a sigh of relief, his slightly frowned brow stretched out.

"Uncle, you can marry my mother." Nuan Nuan took Wang Yan's arm and said with a small mouth, "In this case, Nuan Nuan is the uncle's daughter, Nuan Nuan likes to play with his uncle. . "

This little girl is a big kid.

Shen Mengting's brow furrowed again, seeming inexplicably anxious.

Wang Yan was also a little embarrassed. She hurriedly grabbed a piece of snack in her small mouth, and then changed the subject and said: "Mr. Shen, I have to ask Wen Zhuo for that matter. Let him take out billions for a while, Surely it can't be done. Why not write an IOU first and pay it back slowly?"

Shen Mengting hesitated slightly and then said lightly: "Yes, I will give Wang Yan a face. Even if you owe me one billion, it will be paid off in three years."

One billion.

Tan Wenzhuo's face flicked, and his meat hurt. He struggled for two years before saving up to 500 million net worth. This is a good thing. In three years, we have to compensate one billion people.

The Zhao Group of that dog day has now left them completely clean.

"Wen Zhuo, don't be discouraged." Wang Yan smiled and patted his shoulder. "It's not difficult to make a billion with your ability. Your talent is excellent, and you have been C + for a few years. Work hard to awaken the field early, when the time comes to strengthen your Godzilla avatar, just dig some treasure in the sea."

The sea is a magical place. I do n't know how many treasures are buried in the ancient and modern times. And Tan Wenzhuo's Godzilla avatar is a super weapon for digging a sunken ship. I really need to work hard. It is not difficult to make a billion in three years.

If you are lucky, if you can find some rare ore veins and find ways to mine, you will make a lot of money.

In fact, Wang Yan can do it in the deep sea. But he is now wealthy and has hundreds of billions of dollars in assets, so he doesn't need to do those hardships.

His goal is the legendary sea of stars.

Tan Wenzhuo turned anxious and gritted his teeth, signing a bill of one billion for Shen Mengting.

“Mr. Shen, your company has been in trouble this time. Are there any financial problems?” At this moment, all the steaks ordered had arrived. Wang Yan asked with concern while eating.

“Slightly a little trouble.” Shen Mengting said elegantly while eating steak. “But the key is to obtain the understanding of the key business unit. This time I have caused a lot of drag on the other party.” Added with great interest, “Why, do you want to invest in my Shen Group?”

“It doesn’t matter if you invest in shares or not, if Mr. Shen has a shortage of funds, although you can speak.” Wang Yan said sincerely. In his heart, it was also a little strange. When Shen Mengting was a blood angel before, the two had a death match.

As a result, she is now reborn as a zombie, but instead feels that she is much closer. In Wang Yan’s heart, General vaguely felt a little sorry for her and owed her.

“How much is it?” Shen Mengting stopped for a meal and gently wiped the corner of her mouth. There is an indescribable elegance in graceful manners.

If it was not known in advance that she was a zombie, ordinary people would only think that she was a stunning beauty, and she could not tell the difference.

“Any number is fine.” Wang Yan answered seriously.

“Well, you give me ten billion dollars.” Shen Mengting said lightly.

“Okay, you give me an account, I will transfer it to you.” Wang Yan responded lightly.

“puff!”

Tan Wenzhuo, who was eating a steak in anguish, almost spurted his blood. Brother and sister, are you kidding me? In the first two years, he made hundreds of millions of dollars by virtue of his powers, and he felt that he was quite good.

But these two, when they say 10 billion US dollars, can they not be so easy? It's like not talking about $ 10 billion, but about $ 100.

"Brother, anyway, you are also a national cadre. If you don't move, it will be 10 billion US dollars. Will it be a bit bad?" Tan Wenzhuo said carefully.

"Wang Yan, it seems that your little brother doesn't know you well." Shen Mengting glanced coldly at him.

"Hehe." Wang Yan patted him on the shoulder and said, "Wen Zhuo, with the African-American Bureau, the future is bigger than you think. You will do it well in the future, and you will have a chance to make money. I think you are good."

The money is for Wang Yan's share, which is a figure, more than 10 billion and less than 10 billion US dollars. I really don't feel much.

It's a dog.

Tan Wenzhuo's eyes were red. He knew that following the country's abilities was so developed, the ghosts were alone, and they had been secretly earning a little bit of profit. They also caused a big disaster.

At this moment, Meimei's warm little girl eating tender steak, her eyes cast into the distance, said in surprise: "Uncle, look, it's mother."

mom?

Wang Yan followed her gaze, and sure enough, she was on the other side of the restaurant. Wen Ruhan is eating, but sitting opposite her is a blond, handsome and handsome foreign man.

The foreign man's every move, exuding the charm of a gentleman, chatting and laughing. But Wen Ru Han is a bit cautious, it seems that he is not very used to this kind of scene.

Well?

Is it important to meet this foreign man today?

Blind date? appointment?

Wang Yan secretly thought, was this Miss Wen planning to find a foreign father for Nuan Nuan?
Hey, something is wrong!

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 846

Wang Yan frowned slightly.

He is now a half-step S-class strongman, and his mental strength is also very strong.

Even if the foreign man hides very well, Wang Yan still smells a touch of blood from him. Well, that breath seems to be the breath of blood.

Wang Yan has a deep relationship with the blood clan. The little prince Rose Duke is a direct descendant of Dracula, the top strong among the blood clan. His five close-knit maids are also noble ladies of the blood race.

Even the Dark Virgin was later transformed into a blood race by the little teacher.

Today Wang Yan knows that the origin of the blood race is not from the earth, but a pan-cosmic race. From the root, the root of the blood is a parasitic blood virus. Through the spread of infections, ethnic groups continue to spread throughout the universe.

In theory, any race with blood can be transformed into a blood race.

Even the angelic family can't escape the magic palm.

According to legend, there are twelve archangels under the command of the ***** of light, each of which is a famous demigod. But one of the archangels named Miriam was transformed into a blood clan by a holy clan in the blood clan and became a blood angel.

Under the suppression of the Bright Holy See for many years, the blood angel almost disappeared on the earth. Shen Mengting was transformed into a blood angel due to yin and yang, and was finally killed by Wang Yan.

But now Shen Mengting has been transformed into a zombie by the Jiuyin Xuan Corps Dafa sacrifice. In theory, she should belong to a pinnacle golden armor general. Now what kind of species is she, even Wang Yan can't tell.

But Wang Yan can now be very clear that the foreign man who is eating with Wen Ruhan is a blood race, and he should still be a blood count and a B-level strongman.

Don't underestimate a blood Count. On the territory controlled by the Blood Clan, the territory of a Blood Count is usually a city, and he is the king of the underground world.

So, does Wen Ruhan know that he is a blood race, or does he not? Wang Yan couldn't help frowning and thinking. Do you want to eavesdrop on their conversation?

“Mom ~”

Not waiting for further investigation by Wang Yan, the Nuan Nuan girl jumped from her chair and happily ran towards Wen Ruhan.

Afraid of her accident, Wang Yan hurried to keep up.

“Nuan Nuan? Why are you here?” Wen Ruhan's pretty eyes were a little surprised, but he was still busy holding Nuan Nu.

“Miss Wen, what a coincidence.” Wang Yan hurried to her and said with a smile, “You are also eating here? I happened to have dinner with friends.” During the speech, Wang Yan also signaled to Tan Wenzhuo a bit.

Wen Ruhan slightly relaxed his expression, and whispered a little embarrassedly: "I'm here with customers."

"Hello, this gentleman." The foreign man stood up and gracefully extended his hand to Wang Yan. "My name is Paul Edward, from the United States. I am very happy to meet you."

"Hello, hello. My name is Wang Yan, and I am very happy to meet you." Wang Yan narrowed his eyes and shook hands with him. This Paul Edward was disguised very well, but Wang Yan still sharply captured a trace of hostility and contempt in his eyes.

"If Mr. Wang doesn't mind, let's have a meal together." Paul Edward invited gentlemanly, and said a bit of Huaxia.

"Is this inappropriate?" Wang Yan hesitated slightly.

Paul Edward said with a smile: "There is nothing inappropriate. Mr. Wang and Miss Wen are friends, and naturally they are my friends."

"Xiao Yan, if you like, just accompany me." Wen Ruhan looked at Wang Yan with some begging.

"Okay." Wang Yan greeted Shen Mengting from afar, and then sat down. Nuan Nuan is also very happy, sitting next to her mother, looking at Paul with a little hostility.

"Xiao Yan, Mr. Edward is the heir of a large consortium from the United States." Wen Ruhan once again introduced in depth, "This time I invited him to Huahai City, hoping to make a deal with him."

This sentence sounds like an introduction, and it seems to be secretly explaining to Wang Yan.

As soon as this remark came out, even her own cheeks were faintly red, and she was a little confused. Why did she care so much about Wang Yan's view of herself? Is it ...

She quickly put aside her misunderstandings and introduced: "Mr. Edward, this Wang Yan is my friend and works in a state unit."

The word friend is obviously somewhat ambiguous. From the introduction of the two, Wen Ruhan obviously wants to get closer to Wang Yan.

“Mr. Edward is really young.” Wang Yan smiled and complimented.

“Where and where, Mr. Wang is also a rare young talent.” Edward’s eyes narrowed slightly, and the hostility towards Wang Yan was obviously even more serious. He slowly stood up and said, “I’m going to the bathroom, and I’ll lose my company first.”

After Edward left.

Wen Ruhan let out a sigh of relief and whispered to Wang Yan with a little blush: “Xiao Yan, you listen to me to explain this matter. I admit that I have something to hide from you, but it is absolutely not malicious.”

“Sister Ru Han, it’s okay, I know you are suffering.” Wang Yan smiled and said he didn’t care.

Wen Ruhan felt soothing, and said: “In fact, I am not a senior executive of a multinational group, but a large director of a multinational group, and the head of China Business. I’m sorry, I have been hiding You matter. “

“Big director?” Wang Yan pretended to slightly slap, “It turns out that sister Ru Han is still a super rich and disrespectful.” Most of the people who can be called multinational groups are not small units. Wen Ruhan claimed to be a big director, and adding a big word would certainly not be small.

“Xiao Yan, it’s not what you imagined.” Wen Ruhan was anxious, blushing softly.

“Okay, okay, I’m not kidding. I know Sister Ru Han, a single woman with a young child, will always be alert to outsiders. It’s reasonable and reasonable.” Wang Yan said that he understood it very well, and he didn’t feel a little blamed. meaning.

“Huh ~” Wen Ru Han Jiao gasped, and the mustard in her heart finally dissipated. “Yeah, your character is really good, very sunny and healthy, don’t care about anything.”

Her words, if listened to the gang of villains at the youth conference, it is estimated that even the teeth would be shocked. Just kidding, the character of Son of Flame is good? Very sunny and healthy? Don't care about anything?

"Sister Ru Han means, I have to worry about it?" Wang Yan deliberately pretended to be very hurt, and said, "Goddess Hao, how do you want to compensate my injured heart?"

As soon as this remark came out, Wang Yan secretly said that it wasn't it?

Sure enough, Wen Ruhan blushed slightly and gave Wang Yan a look with his teeth bitten: "The child is here, what are you talking about?"

"Mom, it's okay to be warm." The little girl blinked her watery eyes and said with a milky voice, "I didn't see and heard what people would do." Then she lay on the table and covered her ear.

Uh.....

This little thing is really clever, and I don't know where I learned it from. Now the children are all very precocious, this child is only in the first grade.

Only in this way, the two adults were embarrassed by her.

Wen Ruhan looked at her daughter, and looked at Wang Yan, biting her shell teeth and whispering, "Not much to say, I'll cook for you a big meal."

"Yes, that's the way to go." Wang Yan nodded with a smile.

In the distance, Shen Mengting was eating the steak bit by bit, as if he was "fighting" with the steak, but her eyes under the sunglasses were still hanging on Wang Yan's side.

In fact, Shen Mengting was still quite convinced of Wang Yan, and in a blink of an eye, he was so speculative with the other party, blushing and blushing in a few words.

"Boss really deserves to be the boss." Tan Wenzhuo admired even more. There was a beautiful woman like Mr. Shen in front of him. He had the courage and ability to pick up other girls.

Although he has three girlfriends, none of them can match President Shen, or the young woman in the distance. Temperament and appearance are far from the same level.

Boss Wang Yan, domineering!

“What light do you put in your eyes?” Shen Mengting put a knife and fork on the tender and juicy steak and asked Tan Wenzhuo coldly.

Tan Wenzhuo had a chill in his head, and his tail vertebrae had a creepy feeling. He panicked and said, “Mr. Shen, what are you talking about?”

“Do you admire Wang Yan?” Shen Mengting smiled coldly, his eyes sharp as a sword.

“No, there is nothing wrong.” Tan Wenzhuo deserved to have three girlfriends’ little love sage, and quickly shook his head into a rattle. “For Wang Yan’s behavior, I firmly despise it and deeply despise it.”

“Despise? Ha ha, why did I hear that you have three girlfriends? Huh, Yiqiu raccoon dog.” Shen Mengting drank the ice water and said indifferently, “Look back at your debt, write 200 million more.”

what?

Tan Wenzhuo’s face was dumbfounded, and he almost burst into tears. This is Wang Yan’s elder sister, what’s the matter with Xiaotan? This is simply a fire at the city gate and pond fish, which is really miserable by Wang Yan’s boss.

You said you can’t tease your sisters one by one? After a while, this one, after a while, I feel better, but my brother.

In fact, just earlier.

A lighter-sized fireman followed Paul flexibly outside the house. This is the technique of Wang Yan's flame avatar. The tricks learned from Uncle Cannon, although they have not yet achieved cultivation, have been able to use them skillfully.

He certainly did not go to the bathroom, but took the opportunity to make a phone call, the content of which was spoken in English.

Fortunately, Wang Yan's current English proficiency is not low, and he was able to appease Wen Ruhan while continuing to eavesdrop.

"Williams." Paul said solemnly. "Don't you say that Wen Ruhan doesn't have a boyfriend? Why is there a handsome white face beside her?"

"Okay, I'll try again. If it doesn't work, I don't have much time to waste, so I'll be hard." Paul's eyes showed a trace of vigilance. "Hua Xianguo is a place that hides the dragon and lies the tiger. After a long time, I am afraid Will get in trouble. "

"Sister Ruhan, do you know someone named Williams?" Wang Yan asked casually at the dining table, his eyes narrowed slightly.

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 847

"Williams?" Wen Ruhan's expression was stagnant and he looked at Wang Yan in disbelief. "Xiao Yan, how do you know Williams?"

"Sister Ruhan, how do I know you don't care first?" Wang Yan showed a sincere expression. "We have been neighbors for almost three years. You should know that I won't harm you."

Although Wen Ruhan was suspicious, he still adhered to his consistent trust in Wang Yan, frowning and said: "Williams is my husband and my alumni at Stanford, and he is also the best friend. When he inherited his family business, Invite me and Mr. Williams to create the future together. With the sincere cooperation of everyone, the group has developed vigorously in just a few years. Although it has not reached the position of the world's top 500, it has been inferior in total assets. The future is even brighter. "

Her face was pale, as if remembering some unpleasant past, her voice was low: "At our most glorious time, the husband died in an accident. According to the will, half of the husband's shares were given to me, Half of it was given to the daughter. The daughter's shares were held by me before she was a teenager. In these years, I have been in charge of domestic business while taking care of my daughter, and Williams is in charge of foreign business. "

"It turns out that way." Wang Yan nodded slightly in a thoughtful way. When she talked about Williams, the tone seemed a little unpleasant. Obviously, there seemed to be some unhappiness between her and that partner Williams.

Just when Wen Ruhan couldn't hold back and wanted to ask questions. That Paul Edward came back with a smile on his face. At the dining table, he was still talking and laughing, as if nothing had happened.

I have to admit that, on the surface, Paul Edward is a very charming and gentleman. At the same time, the control is not weak, and the conversation can be easily controlled in the hands.

The most important thing is that he continues to please the warm girl, humorous, and outstanding in appearance. Deliberately, Nuan Nuan's guard against him also greatly reduced.

"Miss Wen, if you have the opportunity, can you take me to play in China." Paul said with a smile on his face, "We can bring a cute little princess Nuan Nuan, she is just a little angel, I like it too much She is. "

Suddenly, Nuan Nuan shook his head violently and said: "I don't want to go out to play, I want to play with my uncle. Uncle can take me to ride a big dog, take me to ride a big eagle." Then, she took Wen Ruhan's hand, " "Naive" said, "Mom, let's play with uncle."

Wen Ruhan's soft eyes looked at Wang Yan and said, "Wow, as long as Uncle Wang is free, we will play together."

"what!?"

Paul Edward's expression was stagnant. With his ability to sharpen in the thousands of flowers, how could he not see the closeness of Wen Ruhan's mother and daughter to Wang Yan. This was the first time he felt a strong sense of frustration in front of a woman.

Damn little white face, this **** neighbor.

Although Edward hated to strangle Wang Yan as a hindrance at this moment, he still filled with a sincere smile: “Wang, I really envy you, and the Nuan Nuan Princess really likes you.”

“Where and where, Nuan Nuan likes you very much.” Wang Yan said lightly.

“Uncle is the most handsome, and Nuan Nuan likes his uncle the most.” Nuan Nuan ran over and plunged into Wang Yan’s arms, looking happy.

“Cough, Mr. Edward.” Wen Ruhan coughed twice, his expression slightly solemn. “Is our agreement, can we formally sign a contract? Don’t worry about the money, I have already raised enough Dollars. “

Edward blinked a few times and smiled: “Of course, I came to China to sign this equity transfer agreement with Miss Wen. With this share, Miss Wen will definitely win.”

Wen Ruhan heard the words and breathed a sigh of relief, his expression relaxed: “Thank you Mr. Edward for your help. Ruhan will remember this kindness.”

“Before I came, I had commissioned a lawyer to prepare the electronic version of the contract.” Edward smiled. “But my contract was placed on my yacht. We can discuss the details of the contract while swimming in the Huangpu River. “

This! ?

Wen Ruhan hesitated and looked at Wang Yan. The meaning in his eyes was very clear. He was soliciting the meaning of Wang Yan.

Seeing this scene, Edward’s eyelids jumped straight, this **** little white face, it was really annoying. If it wasn’t for him to cross the bar, why bother to get Wenru?

It was this scene that made Edward more determined to implement the second plan. The China State Administration for National and African Affairs is very powerful. If you let them know that they have sneaked in, it may cause trouble.

In just a moment, Wang Yan also turned a few bends in his heart.

This matter is already obvious, that Edward should be a member of the Williams gang, and he is now counting the money. Of course, Wang Yan can now choose to expose his conspiracy.

But let's not say that, in the absence of evidence, it is difficult for Wen Ruhan to trust himself by force. What's more, debunking his actions on the spot does not help Wen Ruhan's current predicament.

Rather than this, it is better to count.

Suddenly, Wang Yan had thoughts and said, holding Nuan Nuan: "Sister Ru Han, if you have business, you can go busy. This afternoon, it is better for me to take care of Nuan Nuan."

Wen Ruhan's expression slightly relaxed, if Wang Yan objected on the spot, she would be caught in a dilemma. Although she did not like Edward, the key shares he held were too important.

"Xiao Yan, then trouble you." Wen Ruhan's eyes were full of gratitude, and turned to Nuan Nuan again, "Nuan Nuan should be a little more obedient and listen to your uncle."

"Got it, Mom." Nuan Nuan snuggled in Wang Yan's arms and waved sweetly. "Mom doesn't have to worry about Nuan Nuan. Uncle will take care of Nuan Nuan."

This little girl's mouth is really sweet.

Just after Wen Ruhan and Edward left, Shen Mengting suddenly appeared beside Wang Yan with a cold expression: "Wang Yan, do you know who Wen Ruhan is? She is the chairman of Winbond Group. It is also one of the most important customers of our Shen Group in China. "

"Winbond Group?" Wang Yan was slightly stunned. He had heard of this group, and he was very famous, especially in the field of electronic products. There are several electronic products that are sold all over the world.

“Yes, this time we have a shipping crisis, half of the goods are products of Winbond Group.” Shen Mengting said coldly, “Winbond has a huge production base in Kunshui around Huahai City, and Su City has products. Exported to all parts of the world, it is a veritable predator. It is estimated that the valuation of the equity held by Wen Ruhan is not less than 20 billion US dollars. Wang Yan, do you really need to explain? “

“Twenty billion dollars?” Wang Yan was a little speechless. “Sister Ru Han is so rich? I can’t really see it. She drives an Audi A6.”

Today, Wang Yan is indeed more rich than her, but those are all profits made by the high priest Rebecca. If he earns it by himself, if he wants to earn 20 billion US dollars, I do n’t know if he can earn the year of the monkey.

Shen Mengting gave him a surprised look. Does this guy really know it or not? But she quickly ignored the idea and frowned slightly, saying: “I hadn’t listened to your conversation just because of privacy issues. But I smelled the breath of the foreign man. Well, it should be a blood count. Don’t tell me , You are not aware of it. “

“Oh, of course I can see that.” Wang Yan smiled confidently. “Not much to say, my yacht just stopped at the nearby dock. I will take you to play.”

yacht?

Shen Mengting was slightly stunned. Does this guy have any idea?

“Yacht, wow wow wow, I like the yacht the most. I had already booked a boat, but it’s a pity ...” Tan Wenzhuo followed up fartly, and when he talked back, his eyes were full of gloom.

“Bang, that’s great.” Nuannuan had no intention of thinking, and smiled more beautifully than flowers.

...

Half an hour later, Jiang Zhong.

A white yacht sailed in the river. In the yacht living room, Edward handed over a glass of red wine and smiled like a gentleman: “Miss Wen, I wish you a happy cooperation.”

Wen Ruhan hesitated slightly, but took it over and smiled, “Happy cooperation.”

Edward’s heart was slightly proud, and without that nasty China Elementary School white face blocking things, things were much easier to handle.

Next, it’s time to show your fangs, Miss Wen, don’t blame me.

But I saw a more dazzling three-body yacht outside the porthole walking side by side, eh? Is there such a luxury yacht full of science fiction in this river? Hua Xia Guo really rose, and there are so many rich people.

However, this is not the time to envy others’ yachts.

“Snapped!”

Edward flicked his finger, and a few blond men and women followed the door. Subsequently, the electric curtains blocked all the portholes, and the entire living room was slightly dim.

Wen Ruhan’s face changed slightly, and he asked, “What does Mr. Edward mean?”

“Haha.” Edward gave a gentleman’s salute and said with a smile, “Miss Wenru Han, re-introduction, my name is Paul Edward, from the Edward family of the United States. Some things you don’t understand, our Edward family is a history A long blood family. “

Between his speeches, he raised his head, the skin on his handsome face turned pale, his eyes were red, and two sharp fangs grew out of the corners of his mouth. That look is both grim and evil.

The blood races are all appearance associations, and no blood race will cultivate some unsightly descendants because it is a shame.

Bloodlines! ?

“Snapped!”

The wine glass fell to the ground in his hand. Wen Ruhan was taken aback. He took two steps backwards and covered his mouth and said, “What! How is this possible !?”

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 848

In recent years, the name Vampire has been popular all over the world for various types of European and American blood races. In fact, this is the blood family celebrities helping to promote the nobility and charm of the blood family to the world.

For the blood race, Wen Ruhan is naturally not too strange.

It’s just that she didn’t expect that there are really vampires in reality, and she still appeared alive in front of her.

“Miss Wen is surprised?” Paul elegantly squeezed the glass of red wine and smiled evilly. “Did my presence subvert your worldview?”

Wen Ruhan paled slightly, took a few deep breaths to calm down his heartbeat, and said with a deep voice: “It’s really beyond my expectations. It seems that this is the game you and Williams designed for me.”

“Haha.” Paul laughed. “Miss Wen is really clever. As early as three years ago, Williams admired our noble blood and tried his best to join our Edward family and became a noble blood. And he Of course, the entire Winbond Group can contribute. “

Under the brainwashing of a large number of blood tribes and dramas, a large number of young people worshipping blood tribes have emerged in this world. They want to become blood tribes to obtain longevity and beauty.

It is by this opportunity that the blood tribes of North America have flourished over the years, and most of them have a posture beyond Europe, where the blood tribes originated.

You should know that the blood races that followed the new immigrants to the New World and were either expelled by their families or those who could not mix themselves in Europe before going to the New World to try their luck.

Just as the new immigrants overthrew the sovereignty of the suzerain, North American blood races have also been separated from the Dark Council and have become a major force in the North American Dark League.

“Ridiculous,” Wen Ruhan said with a look of anger, “Williams has only 23% of the shares of Winbond Group. Why should we give Winbond to your blood race.”

She finally understood.

Over the past two years, Williams has changed a lot, with small movements, and has always wanted to sit in the position of chairman. At first I thought that his ambition was vigorous and his desires were full of desire. But it was really unexpected, it turned out that he turned into a blood.

“Yes, it’s really ridiculous.” Paul nodded in agreement, “Miss Wen’s total shareholding in the Winbond Group has reached 41%, and as long as 10% of the shares are held together, he can occupy an absolute dominant position “Speaking, he spoke, and said with a smile,” Originally, Williams and I just wanted to achieve a win-win situation by marrying you. But Miss Wen seems to have a boyfriend, hehe ... “

Wen Ruhan is really shocked and angry. You are competing for you in the mall, even if she loses. Unexpectedly, Williams had come up with such a mean method. It was just the three words of the boyfriend that made her look like Wang Yan.

The tall, handsome and sunny young man.

At this moment, she had never hoped that Wang Yan could be by her side, giving her support and confidence.

No, no, although Wang Yan is very good, in this case, he will only put him in danger.

For a time, in her heart, it was really a mess, and Pitt teeth bit his lips and said angrily: “Paul, I admit defeat, I am willing to sell all the shares to you at a discount, and I will withdraw from the Winbond Group.”

As soon as this remark came out, she was heartbroken. But there is also a sense of relief, and since then, she can grow up with her daughter. And Wang Yan, if, for example, then, then ...

“Exit?” Paul was drinking red wine, his eyes filled with teasing colors, “Dear Miss Wen, things have already developed to this point, my fangs have been exposed. You even thought about it, and retreated?”

“You!” Wen Ruhan’s complexion faded, and he stared at Paul angrily.

Paul stepped towards Wen Ru step by step, like a tiger teasing his prey, watching her panic, really enjoyed it. He stretched out his fangs and said evilly, “Dear Miss Wen, don’t you want to live forever? Don’t you want your beauty to be permanent?”

Wen Ruhan was furious and stepped back a little: “No, I just want to grow up with my daughter.”

“Hey, unfortunately this is not a multiple choice question.” Paul grinned a little, “From today, you have to abandon the identity of humanity and become a member of our glorious and noble blood. Now you will resist, but wait for you to become After the blood race, you can experience the happiness. “

Wen Ruhan sat down on the sofa, retreating irrevocably, and his heart was mournful. It was over. Is it really over? Warmth appeared in her mind, and Wang Yan appeared.

Just as Paul was excited to prepare to pounce on, puncturing her throat with sharp fangs.

Suddenly, a sudden voice sounded.

“Hey, your wine doesn’t taste like that. The heritage of Rice Country Winery is not as good as Europe.”

what?

Paul and Wen Ruhan had different expressions and looked at them together.

Not far away, Wang Yan in casual clothes didn't know when to sit on the sofa, tilting his lazy Erlang legs, and when he had a glass of red wine in his hand, he still had some disgusting expressions in his eyes.

“Wang Yan!”

Wen Ruhan covered her mouth in surprise, how is this possible? Although she also had some fantasies, the sunny and handsome Wang Yan would appear like a protagonist in a TV series at the juncture of crisis and save her from fire and water.

However, after all, fantasy is just fantasy. With her age and experience, how can she not be clear that it is just a random story written by a screenwriter and novelist, satisfying people's YY desires.

Reality is reality after all, how can there be so many stories of heroes saving the beauty?

Paul was more surprised than Wen Ruhan, there were many of his men on this yacht. There are several D-class barons and two C-level viscounts. How did this guy named Wang Yan get to his yacht silently and did not alarm anyone?

His expression was fierce: “How did you get up?”

“I also have a yacht. I just toured the scenery with warmth just now.” Wang Yan said innocently. “Just seeing your boat, I came up to ask for a drink. Mr. Edward, drink you a drink, you As for the angry teeth, are they showing? “

Paul was frightened, and no one could guess that Wang Yan 's guy should not be an ordinary person, Shen Sheng said angrily: “It turns out that the three-body yacht was yours just now. You have been aware of it and you are staring at me. Cunning Chinese people. “

“Hey, Mr. Edward, look at what you said.” Wang Yan said with dissatisfaction. “This is on the site of our China country. I drove around the yacht and it was also hindering you? Hey, you still We thought that our country of Huaxia was the Manchu government of a hundred years ago. There are concessions around here, and we Huaxia people are not allowed to enter. “

Paul angrily took a few deep breaths and said, “I looked down on you. You are not an ordinary person.”

“Wang Yan, you ...” Wen Ruhan also calmed down the waves of emotions and said hurriedly, “This Paul is a vampire, you must pay attention.” After all, she is also a woman with rich experience, although shocked Wang Yan seems to be not simple, but I don’t want him to get into trouble because he doesn’t know the enemy.

“Sister Ru Han, you can rest assured.” Wang Yan handed her a confident look and said with a smile, “But it’s just a few vampires. On our territory in China, we can’t turn the sky.”

“Everything !?”

Paul Edward has always been very satisfied with his bloodline identity and very proud. In his eyes, mortals are just food containers and inferior creatures. This Wang Yan dared to despise the blood clan so much, and immediately aroused his anger, and sneered again and again: “Very well, you succeeded in angering me. I know that you may have some skills, but you don’t know a blood clan at all. Earl’s power and terror. “

Between his speeches, a strong breath filled him. This breath, however, was confined to the yacht and did not spread outward.

Obviously, there are some special devices on his yacht that can shield the breath and the signal.

The horrible **** smell permeated the interior of the yacht.

Wen Ruhan felt an unprecedented sense of fear in her heart. Paul felt like she met a tiger in the wilderness. No, he was more terrifying and dangerous than the tiger.

“Xiao Yan, you’re running, don’t worry about me.” Her face was pale and her teeth clenched her lips. “Hurry up and call the police when you go out.” She has checked the phone and the signal has been completely blocked.

“Run? Hey, where can he run?” Paul released the powerful breath of the predator and looked at Wang Yan playfully, “You should be a young man with a little ability, think he can save the heroes. Unfortunately, You are too young to understand the power of our blood family. Boy, I will bite your throat and taste your blood. “

“Mr. Edward, are you going to transform me into a blood race?” Wang Yan asked with a calm expression of drinking red wine.

“Transform blood, hey, you think too much, we have strict requirements and restrictions on blood, and you are only worthy to become our noble blood blood slaves, food containers.” Paul grinning, stepping towards Wang Yan step by step Go, “tremble, regret, stupid and arrogant mortal. I will let you see the power and fear of a blood Count ...”

“Paul, don’t hurt him. I am willing to be a member of the blood family, and the Winbond Group will be incorporated into the name of your family.” Wen Ruhan rushed up in surprise, blocking Wang Yan.

Suddenly, a few powerful **** breaths rose unabashedly.

The blond men and women of Paul retreated into the cabin living room in horror. Their eyes were horrified and awed.

“How is it possible? Those breaths ...” Paul’s **** pupils squeezed, staring at the door, those breaths were the breath of blood races, and each of them was of Earl rank.

Two of them are almost equal to him, while the other two are even stronger than him.

The four enchanting beauties of the blood race penetrated coldly.

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 849

Each of the four blood race beauties is a curvaceous beauty. If you go to a movie, it will definitely cause an explosive topic. Not only the figure and appearance, but also the temperament.

Their manners are impeccable, their skin is snow-free and flawless, and their temperament is like a noble lady passed down for generations.

In fact, they are themselves noble ladies with noble identities, family heritage, and even everyone has their own territory.

It's no wonder that the maid that Wang Xiaoyan personally selected for Wang Yan is a casually crooked melon? Each one has a very good background and qualifications. Even Natasha, headed, is a direct descendant of the Dracula family.

Among the blood races, the concept of hierarchy is very clear. The upper blood group often has absolute crushing power to the lower blood group. At the same level, it is often based on the richness of the blood vessels to distinguish between the upper and the lower.

Those of Paul's men are only the existence of D-class C-class, and they are not of noble bloodline origin. In the face of these four, regardless of temperament or momentum, the extremely powerful blood-race women were all so frightened that they shivered and could not resist any thoughts.

Paul Edward was also shocked to the extreme. When he reached the blood of the Earl level, he usually did not wander around and spent most of his time in his own territory. Paul himself also has a territory, where he is the king.

But why do these four distinguished blood counts appear here? Do they smell the benefits and want to share a piece of soup?

"I am Paul of the Edwardian family." Paul was shocked and said with a solemn expression, "Welcome distinguished ladies to come, dare to ask which family are you from?"

"Edward's family?" One of the blood maids said to the other maid with some surprise, "Jasmine, he turned out to be a member of your family."

Jasmine pouted, and said disdainfully: "We Edwards family, and there is no one named Paul, should be a descendant of the family scum who was exiled to the New World."

Jasmine is a side branch of the current Edward blood family. The original position in the Edward family is very general, but since being appointed as the maid of Wang Yan by Prince Rose, her status in the family has risen.

Especially in the past two months, even the patriarch of the Edwardian family has personally called Jasmine, his attitude and Yan Yuese are full of care, and they have been allocated to the site of two rich cities in their branch, one of which has become Jasmine. · Von Edward's fief.

Obviously, this is not only her merits to be promoted to the B-level Earl, but because she is the personal maid of the Son of Flame.

Prime Minister Menzi Qipinguan, as a close-knit maid of the Son of Flame, Jasmine's status is naturally extraordinary.

Jasmine raised her head proudly and looked at Paul grimly: "It is indeed a descendant of the exiles, and his fangs are exposed, and it is really embarrassing." It looked like the eyes of the city's poor relatives.

Paul was frightened and frightened. The woman turned out to be Miss Qianjin from the main family. Although the other party showed disdain to him, his attitude was more awesome.

"It turned out to be Miss Jasmine." Paul said respectfully. "I don't know Miss Jasmine and all the ladies are here. Paul has lost his way and forgive sins."

Miss Jasmine is the young lady of the Edwardian family. I will not mention it for the time being. The remaining three temperaments and demeanor are not inferior to Miss Jasmine. There are even two breaths, still above Miss Jasmine, should have reached the B + level.

As the so-called people divide into groups, things gather together. The few who were able to walk side by side with Miss Jasmine were obviously also noble ladies from various blood clan families.

It should be these young ladies who came to China to play in a group. They accidentally discovered the whereabouts of the blood race, and came over to see if they were curious.

Yes, it must be.

Paul's tense mood was slightly relaxed, a group of distinguished ladies, still very fool. Flatter and flatter, make them feel happy, and give them some benefits, you can completely solve the problem.

Maybe, you can also take this opportunity to climb into the big families, with a promising future.

A bad thing instantly becomes a good thing. This made Paul feel complacent, and his heart was a little hot.

“You’re quite acquainted.” A blood-servant maid said with a lip, “Honestly, what bad thing are you guys going to do here?”

“It’s just a little thing.” Paul Edward said with a smile. “This mortal is ignorant. I’m going to convert her into a blood descent and let her transfer all of her shares to me. Since several ladies are there, Paul never Swallow alone, and each of you will share 5% of your shares. “

Taking out 20% of the shares in one go is already an astronomical figure. However, he believes that the patriarch will never blame him. He can restore the relationship with the main family again, and make more powerful blood family families, which will have great benefits for the development of the entire North American Edward family.

Wen Ruhan aside, his face paler. Originally thought that there were four saviors, but unexpectedly, four Paul’s blood siblings came. It’s really leaking in the night, and the snow is worse.

She looked at Wang Yan, and she felt a little weird in her heart. This guy has arrived at such a time, but it is still so calm? Why don’t you take the opportunity to run early?

“Sister Ru Han, don’t worry.” Wang Yan smiled easily. “This is our China country. I don’t believe it. A blood family can turn upside down.”

Not one, but several good ones? Wen Ruhan stared at him faintly and whispered softly, “You, I really don’t know what to say about you. I know, maybe there will be strong people in our country to deal with the blood, but they can’t be saved from far Fire. Forget it, it ’s all life, and I wo n’t say you anymore. ”

Anyway, Wang Yanken rescued her regardless of the danger, she was very moved.

In recent years, to say that she has not touched Wang Yan’s heart, that is absolutely false. Just because of her identity and because of having a daughter, she knew it would be difficult for her and Wang Yan to develop.

This growing goodwill has been buried deep in her heart. Being able to be a neighbor with Wang Yan and being able to get along so lightly, she was already satisfied.

In the current monstrous crisis, Wang Yan desperately rescued her as if he had cut a hole in her sealed heart. The accumulated emotions that had been suppressed for several years flowed out of my heart.

“Xiao Yan.”

Suddenly, Wen Ruhan grabbed Wang Yan’s hand, his face flushed slightly, and he gritted his teeth and said, “Actually, I have always been very fond of you.”

what! ?

This time it is Wang Yan’s turn to be calm.

Isn’t it!

Is Ru Han confessing to him? ?

Suddenly this situation happened, something Wang Yan didn’t expect, and for a time he was a little confused. Wen Ruhan has always been very reserved, even if Wang Yan knows that she has a good opinion of herself, and she never seldom reveals, but just gets along with him lightly.

To be honest, Wang Yan also likes her. She is gentle and restrained, delicate and feminine, and she has a charm of oriental traditional women. It’s very easy to get along with her without any trouble.

However, with such a piercing confession, Wang Yan was really shocked.

“Xiao Yan, I know this will scare you.” Wen Ruhan’s eyes were a little confused, “But, I don’t say it now, I’m afraid I won’t have a chance to say it in the future. If I can, I would rather be so quiet Quietly when you are a neighbor. “

In fact, her heart is also extremely complicated. Over the years, Wang Yan’s neighbor, like the rain and silence, gradually entered her life and knocked her heart a little.

But without this crisis, she would only bury that feeling forever.

“...” Paul Edward was a little annoyed, this woman would soon become his blood, and now even confessed to a man. This is really a strong humiliation for him.

Just want to go up and teach the mortal stinky boy hard.

Jasmine and others suddenly stopped calling him: “Paul, don’t move, continue watching the movie. Hee hee, it’s interesting!”

Paul’s cheeks twitched a few times. Although he felt a little embarrassed, he could only obey. Not to mention that he wanted to stagnate the noble families of Miss Qianjin. Even in terms of strength, he is far from an opponent.

If the four are together, he and his men can be killed easily.

“Oh, some ladies are so good.” Paul laughed a few times and flattered the voice back. In my heart, I muttered secretly, these young ladies who do not eat human fireworks are really simple, boring, and will like this kind of bride.

Where could poor Paul expect, Jasmine, they did not want to watch the show at all, but thought about their master wholeheartedly. They have been serving their masters for two years, and they have never seen a serious woman.

This human woman is very nice, has a gentle temperament, and looks outstanding, so that she can open up the master’s mind well, lest he has always been like an elm pimple, there are so many beautiful maids who do not know about it.

Maybe after the master eats the marrow and knows it, it will be their turn.

If Paul knew what they were thinking about, they would spit out an old blood and swear, this is too TM pit?

“Xiao Yan, don’t talk.” Wen Ru Han bit his lip and bit his lip, leaned over, and his jade lips directly met Wang Yan’s lips. With this kiss, her closed emotion was like a flood that broke out of the embankment, pouring out suddenly.

Well!

Wang Yan’s eyes widened, but he never expected that things would evolve to this step. Sister Ru Han, who has always been emotionally depressed, will kiss him!

Wen Ruhan’s unique little body ~ woman’s sweet breath makes him drunk and his consciousness faltered.

The sweet taste penetrated into his mouth.

boom!

Wang Yan’s consciousness was blurred for a while.

...

The Domestic Hero - Chapter 850

“Sister Ru Han.” Wang Yan struggled slightly, although she enjoyed her kisses, but always felt that this was not good, and some of them calculated her meaning.

This time, it wasn’t Wang Yan’s deliberate pretense.

It’s just that under the large crowd, he is not good at that Paul Edward. And if it were not for Paul to show his true face and communicate with Wen Ruhan by way of explanation, the difficulty would not be a bit of a star.

But I never expected that things would develop to this point.

And he is not easy to push hard, afraid of hurting Wen Ruhan's soul.

"Xiaoyan, don't talk." Wen Ruhan kissed Wang Yan greedily and whispered. The tip of the tongue was a bit rusty at first, but it felt like it didn't take long. The emotions and desires that have been suppressed for years seem to be completely vented at this moment.

She knew that once she missed this one, she would never have another chance. This kiss is a catharsis and a parting.

After a long while, Paul Edward finally couldn't eat a bit. The dog and the man kissed him incessantly in front of him. He had already decided to transform Wen Ruhan into a blood race, and naturally regarded her as a ban.

There are usually three situations when a blood family transforms an object.

The first is to continue the blood descendants and create family members. Such objects will be regarded as family members, sons and daughters.

The second is the transformation of the subject into a blood partner.

The third kind is hardly a transformation, but a blood slave, a slave and a food container for mobile and obedient.

He feels that Wen Ruhan's qualifications are very good, and his temperament is also good, but he is going to transform her into a companion blood member. After she became a blood clan, she could only depend on him to survive, and there were ways to make her honest and obedient.

"Have you done?" Paul, who was more annoyed, could not help but release a powerful momentum, oppressing Wen Ruhan and Wang Yan.

Wen Ruhan knew that the catastrophe was coming, and he let go of Wang Yan helplessly. There was no regret in his eyes. Some were just reluctant. He whispered, "Xiao Yan, if I knew that there would be today, I would definitely not miss these. year."

"Sister Ru Han, actually I ..." Wang Yan was also kissed by her with some confusion, in order not to misunderstand her, he was going to explain today's situation.

“Don’t say it.” Wen Ruhan covered his lips with some cold jade hands and sighed, “Xiao Yan, I know what you are going to say. This kiss doesn’t mean anything, just thank you for your constant care. In the past few years, my life has been relatively flat, but I am very happy, which is enough. Xiao Yan, no more talking! I will deal with this matter.” His face gradually turned pale.

Waiting for Wang Yan to speak, Wen Ruhan stood up and looked at Paul Edward with no fear in his eyes, saying, “Mr. Edward, I know your intention and purpose. I agree to let you be transformed into a blood race, but there is a prerequisite. . .”

Paul Edward is first happy. If Wen Ruhan is willing to cooperate, the transformation effect will be better and the **** between blood lines will be deeper. But in the second half of the sentence, he frowned and said: “Miss Wen is willing to become a blood family, that is the best. But this kid named Wang can not let him go, otherwise he will report to the State Administration of African Affairs.”

“As long as Mr. Edward is willing to let it go, I am willing to persuade him ...” Wen Ruhan pressed against Edward, Shen Sheng said, “If Mr. Edward does not agree, I would rather choose to die together. I forgot to tell Mr. one thing, I stand After making a will, as long as something goes wrong, all my shares will be donated to the country. “

“Sister Ruhan ...” Wang Yan touched his nose helplessly, we really don’t need that.

But before Wang Yan’s words were finished, Wen Ruhan glanced back at him: “Xiao Yan, I said, I will handle this matter.”

“Okay, I promise.” Paul Edward’s eyelids jumped straight, staring at Wang Yan fiercely, “Miss Wen, I promised to spare this kid. But we have to wait until we reach the United States before letting go of him. “

“No, let it go now.”

“Now let me feel insecure, the National African Affairs Bureau is too powerful.”

Wang Yan could n’t help it anymore. He stood up and grabbed Wen Ruhan ’s arm and pulled it behind him: “Sister Ruhan, I know you do n’t want to implicate me. But, this matter really makes me solve it. Only low-level vampires, I shot dozens of them in minutes. “

Low-level vampire? Dozens of others were shot in minutes.

Paul's face suddenly became very ugly, and he smiled angrily: "Well, Wen Ruhan, it's not that I don't give face, but this kid is looking for his own death. The Earl stands here, you come to shoot me.

"Xiao Yan, don't be impulsive ..." Wen Ruhan thought Wang Yan was bloody, and his expression was anxious.

"Jasmine, a few of you." To be honest, Wang Yan was too lazy to start fighting with this level of blood, but just said lightly, "solve this matter quickly." At the youth conference, his opponents are already half Step S-level strong.

In fact, even the Dark Son of the Dark Council, Wang Yan is too lazy to work with him.

Today, he is already a half-step S-class strongman, and then bullies a small B-class blood, and it will really make people laugh. Just pulling out a pet and a maid can solve this problem.

"Hee hee." Jasmine and other maids laughed.

"Master, don't worry. For such an interesting thing, you won't let us play for a little longer." A maid said quietly.

the host! ?

At this moment, Paul's face became extremely brilliant, both shocked and unbelievable.

A count of ***** clan, called a human master?

What is this situation?

At the same time, Wen Ruhan was also shocked, his expression somewhat inexplicable.

“Yeah yeah, the enemies that the host encountered before were too powerful, and we couldn’t help. We can’t help them now. There is only a stupid rookie coming to your door, you can’t let us enjoy more for a while.”

Jasmine von Edward also said coquettishly on the side, “Master, can’t you let us have a good time?”

Play, still play?

Wang Yan stared at him, which almost killed Sister Ru Han.

“Okay, okay, even if it’s cheap, this stupid rookie.” Several blood maids seemed to have a bad face when they saw Wang Yan, and hurriedly stepped forward, one helping to beat the leg and the other to pinch the shoulder.

There are two more, from the storage space, they took out some fine wine and food, and began to wait for Wang Yan to eat and drink: “Master, listen to you just abandoning the red wine heritage of Miguo Winery, why not try our own winery Brewed red wine. “ “Master, these fresh roasted venison are hunted from the slavery’s territory. The meat is fresh and delicious, and it is absolutely natural and pollution-free food.

Several maids, you please me one word to please Wang Yan, there is no point in the blood count.

Paul Edward was dumbfounded by this, is this, is this teasing me? Today is the date, no, definitely not April Fools’ Day.

But, what is going on?

A few blood Counts, even a bit of a master of a human, completely subverted Paul’s three views as a noble blood.

Wen Ruhan even covered her small mouth and looked at this scene in surprise. This kind of scene also subverted her three views. Those who are high above all, so that all the women of Paul’s blood family must be wooed, are they Wang Yan? And still the role of maid?

“Mo, Miss Jasmine, this, what’s going on?”

A cold sweat dropped from Paul’s forehead, and he felt something was wrong. In the world of superpowers that ordinary people can’t reach, the strong are always respected. If that Wang Yan is really strong to a certain degree, or his identity is noble to a certain degree, it can indeed make several Earl-level blood races willingly surrender.

But how much of this strength and identity is there in the world?

“Humph.” Jasmine stared at Paul sarcastically and sneered. “Stupid Migu, you’re so blind, you don’t even know who my owner is.”

Europeans, especially the European nobility, have always believed that the people of the United States are rude and unworthy of being called aristocrats. Even if they are very developed and rich now, in the eyes of many distinguished Europeans, they are nothing more than upstarts.

This concept is especially prevalent among bloodlines that focus on lineage. At that time, only those blood races that could not be mixed would go to the New World to make a living.

In fact, this concept is also shared by the blood nations of the United States. They are now far stronger than before, with a strong ethnic group and a few top strongmen. For those blood relatives in Europe, there is a mentality that wants to show off their power, and there is also a longing for wanting to be recognized by the other party.

After all, the blood races in Europe are the nobles that have been inherited for hundreds of years, even thousands of years.

“You, who are you.” Paul is going crazy. What’s wrong with China? It is so unfathomable to run a young man casually, is it so bad?

Not only Paul, but Wen Ruhan’s heart was also turbulent, and shocked by Wang Yan’s curiosity. All along, she only knew that Wang Yan was a civil servant, working in a special unit in the country.

As a neighbor, she never thought that Wang Yan would deceive herself.

But the current situation shows that Wang Yan's identity seems far from being as simple as he thought.

"Idiot, our host is ..." Jasmine looked proud, but when he was about to speak, his face suddenly changed slightly, and he looked at the door of the living room respectfully.

The rest of the maids also dropped their joking faces, their expressions awkward and frightened.

"Humph!"

There was a soft hum.

I saw a woman with a wonderful figure in the doorway, her long chestnut hair sprinkled like a waterfall on her shoulders, and her skin was as soft and delicate as sheep fat white jade. More importantly, she inadvertently exudes a dignified temperament of the superior.

Paul's pupils shrunk, and he looked at the gorgeous woman at the door with surprise.

The other party did not converge on the blood of his blood. The breath was so powerful and terrifying that Paul felt like facing the powerful patriarch and could not bear the slightest resistance.

This is the upper blood!

"Blood Marquis!" Paul almost burst his eyes.
