Chapter 110 - airport

New York Airport, in addition to the Princeton classmates such as Patrice and Alfors who came to see Lu Qiu off, Yangyang also made a special trip.

Talked for a while, and it was almost time to go through the security check. Patrice pulled Alfors and others aside wisely, leaving room for both of them to speak alone.

“You really can’t come back this time?” Yang Yang’s eyes were foggy. He felt sad for a moment when he thought that he might never see him again in the future.

“If something happens, it will probably come over in a short time, but it should be impossible to continue to study or work here!”, Lu Qiujian honestly replied, leaving her with no fluke.

“Hey, your men always make themselves so hard!”, Obviously you can stay here to live a relaxed and comfortable life, why should you go back to China!

“Oh, we men work hard, you can live a leisurely life!”, They are always older than Qian, they have much better conditions in that year, not to mention that the next ten years will be a period of development of China, where is the opportunity than There are many more countries in the United States.

“Okay! I wish you a safe journey, and work well and everything goes well when you go back!” Yang Yang raised his chin and opened his arms slightly, seeming to want to hug him, but lacking the courage!

“Well, thank you, and I wish you a successful study in the United States, find a job where you can live longer and get less promotion!” Lv Qiujian knew that if she responded a little, she would fall into her arms, but still pretend not to understand, Lifting his wrist and looking at his watch, “Time is up, I should go through the security check. After a while I will let Patrice take you back!”

Patrice bought a new car with the money earned by Zhan Lvqiujian, and planned to cross the United States during the summer vacation. The preparations are now almost done. The only regret is that he shouted on the school BBS. I haven’t found a sister paper willing to walk with him for several days.

After embracing these students who came to see him off, they entrusted Yang Yang to Patrice. Lu Qiujian waved into the security channel and gradually disappeared into the crowd; then Yang Yang's tears finally couldn't help but flow down.

After going through the security check, I came to the first-class lounge and took out the book from my backpack to look over; this time I went back, although I gave away many things that were not used, I still have a lot of luggage, but fortunately, it is not bad now , It took a little money to do the consignment.

After about five or six minutes, the phone in the pocket rang, glanced at the caller ID and pressed the answer button, "Hey, Yangyang, have you got in the car?"

"Not yet, I just forgot to say a few words to you just now, think about it or say it now, lest you have no courage to call you again!", Yangyang seems to have made a lot of determination .

Lu Qiujian had a headache for a while, and Stella was only bored with each other, and Natalie also had a short encounter. He knew that if he left, it would not cause them too much trouble; but Yangyang would not It's the same, this child has never been in love before seeing it, and is full of longing for love. A little careless relationship with her will cause very serious consequences.

"Oh, I'm going to board the plane right now! What can I say after I return to my country!", Cope with the past first, and after this urge has passed, she might not even call herself?

But he obviously underestimated Yang Yang's courage, "I'll say a few words, don't delay your boarding the plane!", Laughter came from the end of the phone, "I said that I have returned home in two years, if I can't find the right Are you willing to help with your work? "

"Huh? You don't plan to stay here anymore?" Lü Qiujian couldn't help but be surprised when she remembered her longing for the life of the United States when she met on the plane.

"Yeah, think about it, or better at home. I now want to boil pork slices, spicy chicken, hot and sour potato shreds in stagnant water ...! I have a headache when I think of eating bread for life!", Hey, all said This peace of mind is my hometown. For a woman, is there anything more reassuring than a favorite male? If you don't plan to come back, I will chase you back to China! Yang Yang shook his fist hard.

Lu Qiujian didn't know what to say for a while, and directly refused to be too indifferent. If he promised, she was afraid that she would give birth to other ideas; he was hesitant and Yang Yang said again, "Okay, please go on the plane, don't delay Alright! Patrice also called me over there! Bye! Bye bye after returning home! "

Hearing the beep on the phone, Lv Qiujian shook his head and put the phone back in his pocket; Yang Yang also patted his chest and sighed for a long time, turning back and leaning against the plane on the tarmac outside the glass window to smile .

Entered the plane through the VIP channel and sat down in the first class. He nodded slightly and said hello to the person in the next seat. Lu Qiu saw the book and sat down in his seat.

After a while, the plane slowly began to slide, then slowly accelerated, and finally rushed into the sky, looking at the gradually decreasing New York City outside the window. This year 's gains are not great, but it is still far from his plan. Not enough! I wonder if the work after returning home will be smooth?

Just when he was thinking about the country There are many people in the country thinking about him too, "Professor Nan, thank you! I didn't expect Princeton to use this trick, it really made me a little caught off guard! "

"Haha, Professor Zhang, this is a rare opportunity!" The laughter gloating over the phone, "You think about it, how many people have the opportunity to award an undergraduate degree to a doctoral student in Princeton? Let's get ahead! "

"Don't tell you! I'm going to prepare, you remember the flight number?", Even the trouble is a pleasant trouble! Professor Zhang hung up the phone and looked at the watch. It was more than ten hours before Lu Qiujian arrived in Beijing.

"Xiao Liu, come in and down!", He called his assistant, "Go to prepare the best car in the department, I will use it in the evening! By the way, go to the school's hotel to book a room, the best, to In the name of our department! There are also students looking for Xiao Lu to ask, to see what he likes to eat, find a suitable restaurant to book a private room! "

"Eh, the car is ready! Master Qiao washed it early in the morning, and I also arranged a van to follow, even if there is no more luggage on Lv's side!" Xiao Liu took out his notebook and wrote down while reporting "I will go to the hotel immediately. I have all the contact information of his dormitory classmates. I promise to ask!" Fortunately, I have enough work preparation, otherwise this will be the holiday to the students who find him!

“Well, you are getting more and more careful! You must have a car running Li!” Professor Zhang nodded in satisfaction, and felt a bit regretful.
