Chapter 26 - Preseason opening

After this period of running-in, Patrice's high position should be played well. Through his points, small forward Ray Robbins and shooting guard Will Venable repeatedly found the defense of the Manhattan University Jewels. The loophole easily scored, but after the Jewels adapted to the Tigers' tactics, they strengthened their defense against Patrice, and the Tigers' scoring efficiency declined rapidly.

After 20 minutes of hard work in the first and second half, although Patrice scored eighteen points, eleven rebounds and five assists, the Princeton Tigers still lost by 75:68.

"As long as you play for five minutes, we will definitely win this game!" After taking the Gatorade delivered by Lv Qiujian, Patrice grumbled reluctantly.

"Okay, guys, you did a good job!" Coach Thompson patted his shoulders one by one to encourage them, "Come on, win the next game!"

"Why don't you let Lu play? If the warm-up game keeps failing, it will hurt the self-confidence of these children!", On the back bus, assistant coach Blake asked quietly.

"If our goal is only to pass the regular season, then I will definitely let him play!", Coach Thompson shook his finger, "But if you want these children to go further, you must strengthen other people's abilities! Basketball is after all The five-person sport, even Michael Jordan cannot lead the Wizards to the playoffs. I want to squeeze all their potential through these warm-up games! "

"But Michael is old. If he was five years ago, the Wizards will definitely be in the playoffs!" Black smiled. "But you are right, I think these guys are still very big. Potential can be tapped! "

The warm-up match could not be played, so Lu Qiujian put his energy into the team's practice, and when he played against Ed Poston, he became the poorest child of the entire Tigers. Lu Qiujian was on the offensive and defensive ends. The explosive body has no skin.

In this way, time slowly passed backwards. In the second warm-up game, through Spencer's buzzer, Princeton won a difficult victory. Patrice scored 24 points and 13 rebounds of luxury data became The key to the Tigers' victory.

“Lv!” As soon as he came to the classroom, Alfors greeted him, showing an attentive smile, as if looking forward to the flesh-and-blood puppies around Lv Qiu Jian.

“I have finished reading your article, and the thoughts of several parts are not very clear. I gave you a few directions. Which one is best?” Lv Qiu Jian handed over the printed version marked with comments. past.

“Thank you!” Alfoss grabbed the manuscript and couldn’t wait to turn it over. His eyebrows were slightly raised and sometimes stretched. When he saw the direction of modification that Lv Qiu Jian had marked him, he stood up excitedly. Gram, Fak! I never thought of this before! If you take this method, you can save at least two steps! “

‘S research is like groping under the fog of war when you hit the red police. You don’t know what you will encounter in front of you, whether it is a vast desert or a rich forest, a cruel enemy or a rich gold mine.

But there are always people with sharp eyes that can see through the misty front road, and can clearly point out that you will achieve good results if you work in that direction. Kepler discovered three laws of planetary motion from Tycho’s data, and Planck spied into the hall of quantum physics from thermal radiation.

It took two days to research what Lu Qiu Jian wrote for two hours, and Alfus found him with red eyes, “Lv, I finally figured out your thoughts, which is exactly what I thought before. Differently, if you follow the directions you give, it is totally subverting what I already have; but I have to say that your direction is far beyond my previous ideas! So I want to take your The name is written on the position of the first author! “

“Don’t say that, I just think that if you work in this direction, you seem to get something, but I don’t have any in-depth research on what you will get!”, Lu Qiu Jian politely said, “So the greatest credit for this paper is yours, If you feel overwhelmed, it is enough to leave me the position of the second author! “

“Every one of us knows the direction is the most important!”, Alfors shook his head with a wry smile, and his half-year effort was not comparable to the spirit of others. This IQ blow made him frustrated, Yes, you are the first author, I am the second author! “

Lu Qiujiang shrugged his shoulders. Isn't it irrational to give a gift to the door? In any case, the weight of the two articles is always heavier than the one. If it is only the first one, it can only prove his personal ability. The article can prove that he still has the ability to lead the team, which is what he values most!

In the third warm-up game, the Tigers trailed by 16 points before halftime. Patrice threw the towel on the ground in the locker room. After the second half of the game, every time he received the ball, he could not find it. At the meeting point, they will look at Lu Qiujiang. Unfortunately, coach Thompson never let Lu Qiujiang debut, and finally the Tigers lost more than 30 points.

In the fourth warm-up match, the Tigers lost another twelve points. After the end, Patrice covered his head with a towel and did not speak for a long time.

In the last game, Patrice seemed to vent all the anger accumulated in the previous games and completely exploded the opponent's center. Unfortunately, other teammates still could not provide him with more help. In the end, the Tigers lost for the fourth time.

"The warm-up match has four losses and one victory! The only opponent that won the game did not even win a ball in the regular season last season!" At Princeton's BBS, fans were pessimistic about the Tigers' performance this year, "We have this year There must be no way to enter the playoffs! "

"Playoffs? Come on, as long as I can win a Harvard game, I'm satisfied! But from the current state, no one can find a bargain at Harvard except for Patrice!" Match result.

In this way, in a gloomy mood, November arrived, Prince ushered in his first preseason game opponent-Western Michigan University Broncos!

"Okay, let me announce the starting lineup!" In the locker room, the well-dressed coach Thompson slowly read out the names, "Center Gardson, power forward Patrice, small forward Mick, shooting guard Will, as well as....."
