Chapter 27 - Off-field action

“And Ed-Persia!” Coach Thompson ignored everyone’s expectations and read Ed’s name, “Okay, boys, do you want to tame these wild horses?”

“Oh! No!”, Including Ed himself, five starters wailed at the same time, “Coach, you have to see how many games we lose to be happy?”

“Are you sure you are doing your best every minute on the court?” Coach Thompson’s tone became severe. “As long as you stand on the basketball court, you must devote all your energy to the game. Instead of praying for a savior on the bench! Now, let me all play! “

Patrice clenched his fist first, and then slowly let go, urgently said, “Yes, the coach is right, now we are five of us on the court, let us tear this mustang!”, He shook his right hand Stretched out into the middle of the crowd and shouted, “Who are we ?!”

“Tiger!”, “Tiger!”, Slapped one by one, shouted the name of the Princeton tiger, “One two three! Guys! Come on! Tear the Mustang!”

“What are they shouting?”, Broncos center Anthony Kane looked at the Tigers rest area and casually asked the point guard Robbie Krum around him.

“Probably called their team name?” Robbie poked his ear. “What is the name of their team? Hello Kitty?”

“Hahaha! Yes, that’s the name!”, The rest area of the Broncos made a laugh.

“Hey, kitten.” In the mid-circle arc, Anthony looked at Patrice who was about to jump with him. “You still go to the masquerade with your hostess, this is not the place you came!”

Patrice looked up at Anthony, who was two inches above him, clenched his fists, the referee whistled, tossed the basketball high, Anthony bounced, and hit Patrice in the air; damn, this Did the guy tie the lead under the jersey? Why is it so strong!

Basketball was put into Ed by Patrice. Riding the Broncos did not stand up, Patrice scored the first goal in a single shot; seeing a good start, coach Thompson turned around and looked at Lu Qiu Jian, “Lu, What is your opinion about my arrangement? “

“You are the coach, you have the final say!” You can’t even sit here, it’s boring. Would you like to bring this book next time? Lu Qiu Jian thought wildly.

“Lv, do you know the NCAA game system?”, Explained to coach Thompson without waiting for Lu Qiu Jian to answer, “We begin joint training before November every year, and then start to compete with opponents from other leagues in mid-to-late November Pre-season games; pre-season wins and losses are not counted in the team’s performance, but if they play well, there is still hope that if they do n’t win the league championship, they will be selected by the organizing committee for the knock-out list! But if we can beat There is no reason why these opponents cannot beat Harvard? Do you understand what I mean? “

“You mean that the opponents in the preseason are stronger than the opponents in the Ivy League, so it is better to fight for the championship of the Ivy League than to compete with them.” Lu Qiu Jian read his Meaning, you still have to keep yourself as a secret weapon!

“Yes, the recommended quota depends not only on the team’s record this year, but also on the team’s history. If a famous basketball school like Duke accidentally lost the championship in the regular season, there is hope to enter the knockout through the recommendation. For Princeton There is no such good treatment! So we still have to focus on the regular season! “Coach Thompson was not dissatisfied when he saw Lu Qiu Jian’s tone.

“I see, let’s direct the game!” After Thompson turned around, the ludicrous Lu Qiu Jian began to look at the situation on the ground.

After the Broncos have adapted to the Tigers’ three-axe, they have begun to gradually take the initiative on the field. Although the names of Western Michigan University and the University of Michigan are similar, they are a heaven and an underground in basketball, but the Western Michigan University is in the basketball scholarship review. It’s not as harsh as Princeton, so there are still some second- and third-rate high school geniuses.

And Princeton, these talented students are presumed, the youngsters of the Broncos may not be as good as their brains, but the physical conditions are far superior to them. Except for Patrice, everyone else is at a disadvantage in physical confrontation.

“Pass! Pass! Don’t panic, shoot decisively when catching the ball!” Thompson shouted dumb, but the difference between the two teams was slowly widening.

“Pause!” Seeing that the point difference was approaching double digits, the unbearable coach Thompson shouted a pause.

“Ray, you will play for Mick in a moment. When Ed gives the ball to Patrice in high position, you will look for opportunities to cut in from both ribs. Will you help Leyla open, Patrice if If the opponent is tightly defended, you will score, if you are sure you will play alone, but the action must be decisive ... “Coach Thompson drew a few offensive lines on the tactical board,” So, this, there is this, Did you understand? “

“Understood!” Although the physical condition could not keep up, Princeton’s many years of tradition and the IQ of these players made them quickly understand the tactical intentions of Coach Thompson and narrowed the point difference to three points at the end of the first half. .

“Well done!” Thompson gave the players a high-five and greeted them back to the locker room.

The fierce competition in the first half consumed too much physical strength of these players. Looking at them all gasping, Lu Qiujian not only shook his head, but in the second half, it might be difficult to maintain the rhythm just now.

Taking advantage of Thompson ’s second-half tactics, he walked to Patrice when the players began to rest. “Anthony made five choices to break from the right in the first half of the singles and twice on the left. One shot, three shots on the right side; three shots when defending; he used to jump into the air first and then make moves. “

Said he paused, and waited until Patrice had digested the data before saying, “Now do you understand how to deal with him?”

Before Patrice reacted, he turned to Ed. “Ed, Robbie will sink his left shoulder slightly when deciding to break through. When deciding to shoot, he will directly move forward and then withdraw. At the same time, he made three Make a 3-pointer from the field ... “

“Gardson, your opponent ...”

“Lei, the kid you are playing with ...”

“Will, that guy ...”

Thompson and Blake grew their mouths as if this kid had never seen the statistics, how did he remember so much data?
