Chapter 39 - break out

“Today, Duke did something that I hate very much!”, Lu Qiuqian said solemnly, “I want to teach Duke a memorable lesson! Coach, please  on stage!”

Today is the last day of the preseason. Duke University’s home stadium, Cameron, is full of seats. The Duke fans who were wearing the traditional blue jerseys laughed and smiled easily. The Princeton Tigers had no way to cause any trouble for the Blue Devils.

“Johnny, how does it feel to be back here?”, On the commentary table, Mike Brin, the famous commentator of msg TV, looked at his new partner. The TV station today invited John, who led Duke University to runner-up in 86. Dawkins, he was also the best player in the country that year.

“It feels good!”, Dawkins replied while waving to the fans, his nba journey was not smooth, and he didn’t save much money, hoping to get a commentary contract through this opportunity.

“Let’s talk about your predictions for this game!” Mike Brin frowned slightly. The Blue Devils players had already warmed up on the court. How come the Tigers haven’t come out yet.

“The Tigers are not worth mentioning other than Patrice, especially their point guard, it is simply impossible to be Du Hong’s opponent, I hope he will not lose his love for basketball after the game!”, John Ny Dawkins’ commentary won praise from the audience.

After a while, the Tigers finally played. After the warm-up, the players on both sides stood on both sides of the middle circle. “Let us look at the starting lineup of the two teams! The five players who started the game at Duke University are center Shaflick- Randolph, power forward Shelton Williams, small forward Deng Tai-Jones, shooting guard jj Redick and point guard Daniel Ewing, Du Hong didn’t play at all, it seems that coach K seems to want Let him rest! “Brin casually reported Duke’s presence without looking at the list.

“It would be superfluous to ask me to play such a luxurious lineup on the Tigers!”, Johnny Dawkins said generously, “Our second team is enough to deal with them!”

“Princeton’s starting line seems to have changed. Center Gardson, power forward Patrice, small forward Mick and shooting guard Will are the same as the previous few games, but the point guard has been replaced by Lu Qiuqian.” Brin read the name awkwardly, and then quickly opened his profile, “This player played an average of five minutes per game in the previous game, scoring two assists, 1.2 points and 0.8 rebounds!”

“Haha, it seems that Thompson wanted to protect his point guard, so I replaced this substitute!”, And heard this data Dawkins laughed again.

“The game begins! Patrice and Randolph stand in the middle circle to jump the ball, the referee throws the ball into the air, Patrice defeats Randolph and puts the ball into Lu’s hand, Lu takes the ball to break through!”, Brin’s voice sounded like a machine gun, “gets-(into the inside)! -It, and -a-(2 + 1).” Two consecutive Brin’s signature commentary phrases.

At this time, Dawkins watched Lv Qiujian hanging on the basket already speechless. Just less than five seconds after the opening, Lv Qiujian broke through Ewing’s defense and scored inside to buckle on Williams’ head. He caught one and caused his foul.

“We need to re-examine this player!”, Brin said in a solemn tone, “Lv Qiujian, a Chinese, is nineteen years old this year. He studied at Beijing Normal University Exchange Road Princeton. He is six feet one inch tall. Looking at his speed and bouncing is very good, this must be the secret weapon prepared by coach Thompson! Ha, it seems that this year Pennsylvania will want to appear from Ivy is not so easy! “

“That was just the beginning of the game, Duke’s boys hadn’t focused on it!”, Dawkins said uncomfortably. “Wait, Jones will fight back soon!” Duhon was not on the court. Dengtai-Jones became the main point of attack.

“What! What is he going to do!” Seeing Lu Qiujian’s action on the free throw line, Brin yelled in surprise again. In his long commentary career, he has never seen anyone take such a free throw in the official game. .

I saw that after receiving the basketball from the referee, Lu Qiujian pulled his headband down to cover his eyes and then aimed at the basket. This slightly provocative action caused a boo by the audience.

“I bet he can’t score this ball!”, Dawkins saw his mother team was humiliated, and immediately lost the neutral position of the speaker.

Before pulling down the headband, Lu Qiujian had accurately measured the distance of the rim, lifted the ball, pressed the wrist, and swiped, scoring the hollow.

“If O’Neill sees this scene he will be jealous of death!” Brin made a joke. “It seems that this game is not what we expected. Will Lu continue to surprise us? Let us wait and see!”

“Pretty ball!” Brin’s voice became louder again. “Lv took Ewing’s basketball as easily as picking an apple in his orchard. Duke was in trouble. Their backcourt defense was empty!”

Lu Qiuqian dribbled the ball outside the three-point line. In front of him was only Randolph who was in the penalty area. He did not wait for his teammates to land and jumped high outside the three-point line. He just raised his arm and did not return his head when he shot towards his own half. In the curse of Duke fans, basketball once again hollowed into the net.

“What-a-play-by-lv (beautiful shot)!” Brin praised again, “Duke finally passed the halftime through the pass, let’s see Duke’s first attack, Ray Dick passed the ball to Jones, Jones flicked away Mick easily, there was an empty basket under the basket, and Jones scored the basket jumped high to prepare for a slam dunk! “

With a loud bang, Dengtai-Jones was sturdily put on a big hat, and the basketball was directly fanned to the audience, “-by-lv, oh, it’s him again, he could do everything!”, Brin was very glad that he had come to Duke today. He vaguely felt that Lu Qiuqian’s performance might have just begun!

Duke continued to attack after serving the ball. After several passes, Redick missed an outside shot and Patrice squeezed Williams to get the rebound.

“Give me the ball!” Lv Qiuqian took the ball and moved forward quickly. When Duke quickly retreated, he slowed down. By using Gardson’s pick-and-roll to throw away Ewing’s defense and hit the basket again, it was high. Gao Yueqi.

“Don’t think about it!” Randolph and Williams, who had already prepared, leapt at the same time. Lv Qiuqian smiled and threw the basketball from Williams’s armpit. With a bang, Patrice, who was unmarked The basket is successful.

“Beep!”, The referee stopped the game, and the coach K was forced to call a timeout when the game was less than a minute away. At this time, the score on the field was 0: 8, and Duke was behind.
