Chapter 411 - Return home

After this period of time, Lu Qiujian had a general understanding of the group of people under his leadership, and some preliminary work could be carried out. Ma Yang and other theoretical assistants were responsible for helping him improve the details of the theory. In part, Li Yan is responsible for the pre-planning of the base, and others have their own arrangements.

In addition, because the base has not yet been built and the equipment is not in place, the theoretical verification is divided into two channels. On the one hand, the military supercomputer is used for simulation experiments. On the other hand, some qualified experiments are handed over to the east of Anhui Province. The project team does it.

The supercomputer simulation was carried out by Academician Shangyang with his three students, and East was handed over to Academician Liang Wenchao. The two of them have deep roots and lush foliage in China, and they are very handy in dealing with such things; Presumably this is the reason why Lu Qiujian arranged the two to be partners! After all, he had just returned from abroad, and he did not understand many situations. It is much better to have someone who knows the rules to help.

In the words of Liang Wenchao and Shang Yang, they are old and they can't do much creative work, but it's quite easy to help Lu Qiujian deal with these things. As long as the unit doing this line of business in the country, there are few own students? The teacher went to the office to do things, but he didn't hurry to deal with it.

This allows Lu Qiujian to save a lot of trouble, and can save the time to concentrate on the most critical constraints and ignition problems in controlled nuclear fusion. Only when these two problems are solved, can controlled nuclear fusion succeed. Hope.

Of course, this is a long-term job. It is reasonable to have no breakthroughs for many years. After three failed simulations of supercomputers, the time has come to the end of the Chinese New Year and the Chinese New Year is coming.

"Director Lu, see you next year!" After the last day of the shift, the members of the project department happily bid farewell to Lu Qiujian, and he even heard that Li Yan said that he would make dumplings for the New Year.

Lu Qiujiang's current position is the title of director of Xihe Planning Project Center. After so many days of adaptation, he has adapted to the title of Director Lu; he responded one by one with a smile. And send his New Year blessings, then Lu Qiujiang returned to the home of Beijing Normal University with the welfare issued by the unit, and finally can accompany his parents at home this year.

Had a discussion with Xia Xiao, and finally decided to go back to the northeast with Lu Qiujiang for the Chinese New Year before the third year. After that, he went to Xiangnan to pay his respects to Xia Xiao's parents.

So he made another big purchase in Beijing, with a large bag of gifts, a group of three people boarded a flight to Luqiujiang's hometown.

Why are there three people? Do n't get me wrong, it 's so fast to have children; this time, accompanied by Lu Qiujiang and Xia Xiao, there are also staff from related departments.

According to the truth, Lu Qiujiang has not yet reached the level of a bodyguard, but in view of his irreplaceable role in Xihe plan. Just in case, the relevant department also arranged a staff member for personal protection.

The staff named Bai Yaoran was carefully selected by Feng Hongqi. He has excellent skills and several people. He has performed many similar tasks and was the trump card of the department. Now he is sent out. Lu Qiujiang's attention.

Hey, I need a guard there! Lu Qiujiang vomited slightly, but then thought about it, such a person can save a lot of trouble around him. At least you do n't have to go to the game after you hit someone.

When waiting to get off the plane, Lu Qiujiang discovered the benefits of Bai Yaoran around him; he and Xia Xiao walked out of the passage, thinking about whether to take a taxi now, and Bai Yaoran said silently along the way, "Director, I transferred a car from the military area. Do you think I can drive you two to go home? "

This is the benefit of organization! There are still two or three hundred kilometers to go home by myself. It is definitely more convenient for someone to send a car to him! So they returned to Lu Qiujiang's home more than an hour earlier than originally planned. After returning home, the home was naturally lively.

After seeing family and friends at home, Lu Qiuqian finally had time to take a small outing to go shopping. "Take you to taste our local food today. This is a well-established brand that has been open for decades. The pot-cooked meat is an authentic one!"

The decoration of this well-established store is average, and there is no elegant room. The three of them sat down in the lobby, and Bai Yaoran looked like a careful study of the recipe. However, Yu Guang of the corner of the eye had swept all the people in and out of the lobby, and then he calmed down after confirming that there were no hidden dangers.

Everyone is a little awkward when they eat! Lv Qiuqian finished ordering and began to look around boredly, and soon a kid wearing waiter clothes in the corner caught his attention.

Saw that he was about sixteen or seventeen years old, except for a waiter's uniform. The other clothes are a bit worn, and the face is also a dish caused by long-term malnutrition. He is sitting on the small stool waiting for the call of the foreman; this is nothing particularly strange. To Lu Qiuqian, he was surprised to hold a copy The book of calculus is relished, and it is incompatible with the noisy atmosphere of the entire hotel Hey, what is the kid doing? Why are you still studying in the hotel? "Looking at the opportunity of another waiter serving food, Lu Qiuqian asked."

"You mean Xiaoyi! Hey, this child is very poor! He was originally studying in a middle school, but he had no money to pay for tuition at home, and he had a sister to support, so he had to drop out of school to work!" There was a trace of sympathy.

"Will this not delay work?" And now the shop is quite busy, other waiters are hurriedly serving food and collecting plates, but no one calls him to help.

"Originally, the boss didn't like reading books when he was at work. As a result, he helped the boss to check the bill last time and saved tens of thousands of losses for the boss, so the boss never said anything again! Since he came, the store The cost has dropped a lot, and the boss raised our salary as soon as we were happy. Everyone thought about his good. If he could help him, he would do more! "He said with a sigh," Hey, It 's not that this happened, Xiao Yi can also take a good school next year! "

"Oh, that's what it is!" Lu Qiuqian nodded thoughtfully, and he could learn to use it at a young age. Does it seem to be a doorway, "What is his name?"

Speaking of Lu Qiuqian's phone, he was also the school he attended. The math teacher who went to Stockholm last time taught there, thinking about him. If he really asked the waiter, he would help him. Just one!

Chapter 412 - Out-of-school youth

Zhang Yiyi, Lu Qiuqian asked his name clearly, then said to the waiter, “Brother, please call Xiao Zhang, I have something to ask him!”

Lu Qiuqian wanted to confirm whether the other party was really talented in mathematics, and whether he wanted to continue studying, if the other party did n’t want to study or did n’t have that talent, he did n’t have to worry about it, but listen to the name just now What the waiter said, this kid named Zhang Yiyi seems to have two brushes.

“You ... what are you going to do?” The waiter looked nervously at Bai Lao sitting upright. How does this person look like a man in the public door? Isn’t this a unit to investigate?

“Don’t be nervous, I’m doing business in a foreign country, and I’m only going home after the New Year! The child is very poor to hear what you said. I think if he really has the ability, I will sponsor him to continue reading!”

“OK! I’ll call you!” The young man was very enthusiastic. When he heard that his little brother had the hope of re-reading, he quickly walked to the corner and pulled up Zhang Yiyi’s whisper.

Zhang Yiyi looked at Lu Qiuqian in the direction he pointed. He looked at the inexplicable glory in his eyes, then dimmed again, and walked to Lu Qiuqian under the persuasion of the waiter.

“Sit!” Lu Qiuqian extended his right hand, “Come show me what book you read?”

“Thank you!” Zhang Yiyi seemed a little introverted, whispering a thank you, passed the book and sat across from Lu Qiuqian, lowering his head and not knowing what he was thinking,

Lu Qiuqian took over the book and turned it over. This is an introductory book on calculus. It is not very difficult, but it is already good for his age. Most people will not be exposed to this content until they are in college. .

And in this book, he can see the notes he made next to him. The practice questions at the end of each chapter also list more than one solution. It can be seen that he has done a lot of work.

Lu Qiuqian put up the book and put it on the table and pushed it to him, “How is it? Do you think the content above is difficult?”

“Fortunately, sometimes when you encounter problems, you will understand it more than once!” Zhang Yiyi whispered.

“Do you like math?” Lu Qiujian asked.

“Well, I’ve liked it since I was a child.” Zhang Yiyi’s words are still so simple.

“That line. I have a question for you to do. If you do it, I will sponsor you to continue reading so that you can continue to study mathematics. I will also bear the cost of living your sister; if you can’t do it “Lü Qiujian didn’t say what he couldn’t do, but it would be clearer than he didn’t need to guess!

Lu Qiujian didn’t use paper and pen to report a topic verbally, this is also to examine his memory and ability to grasp key points.

Zhang Yiyi didn’t agree, but when Lu Qiujian finished speaking, he drew a pen from his pocket and calculated it in the blank space of the book; Lu Qiujian swept his calculation process from time to time while drinking tea. Well, it seems clear.

As soon as two dishes came up, Zhang Yiyi handed over the calculation result, “Are you looking right?”

“Well, it’s not bad!” Lu Qiujian nodded slightly, and also felt a little strange in his heart. The child’s math skills are good. Ordinarily, the average school should not let such talents go, why not help him reduce tuition fees?

“Brother, do you see what you just said?” Seeing Zhang Yiyi said embarrassedly. The waiter who brought him over just now was a little anxious and couldn’t help asking.

“You can rest assured, I will promise to do what I promised!” Lu Qiujian said with a smile, “Xiao Zhang, what else do you have here, tidy up, say to the boss, I will take it after a while You go through the formalities! “

“Thank you!” Zhang Yiyi stood up excitedly, bowed and thanked, and trot all the way back. The waiter quickly followed.

Lv Qiujian picked up the mobile phone placed on the table and dialed the teacher's phone. "Hello, Mr. Wang Yes. I'm back. Are you at home? I want to go to you Happy New Year! ... Well, I do n't bring anything, I do n't bring anything ... Oh, you moved? Where is the new address? Good, I remember!"

After a little politeness. Lv Qiujian asked about Zhang Yiyi's situation, "Teacher, I am eating outside now. I encountered such a thing. There is a little waiter in this restaurant called Zhang Yiyi. It is said that he is a student of our school ..."

The two chatted for another five or six minutes before Lv Qiujian hung up the phone. Teacher Wang happened to know Zhang Yiyi too, and he knew his period clearly. Although Zhang Yiyi had some talents in mathematics, it was a pity that other subjects were not good. The current results are not good schools!

Plus he also brought a sister, even if the school reduced his tuition, there is no way to solve the problem of the sister, so he had to leave school.

Turned out to be partial! I said which school is willing to let go of such a good student? This is indeed a problem for the school. A moment means that you ca n't get into a good university, so the resources that the school is willing to provide him are limited, because Noda 's school will certainly not be the only one who has difficulties. The student with better overall performance will be treated better, not to mention that he will insist on dropping out!

This is what I think of Lu Qiujian The college entrance examination did prevent some special talents from continuing to study. If Zhang Yiyi could be given a chance, he would definitely not be worse than those of mathematics students, but according to his current However, there is no way to enter a good university.

If you are talented in the language, you can play tricks on the composition of the college entrance examination to attract media coverage to obtain a special recruitment quota; and partial subjects in mathematics and physics can also get one by participating in various competitions. Good rankings, thereby attracting special recruits from relevant schools.

According to Lu Qiujian's simple judgment just now, he believes that Zhang Yiyi has reached the level of being able to win prizes in domestic competitions. As for whether there will be higher development depends on his future efforts.

After the three had finished their meals, Zhang Yiyi also packed his things and walked to Lu Qiujian in the company of his boss; the boss seemed to like the child very much and came up to greet Lu Qiujian enthusiastically, “Thank you! For a while, I always told him to go back to study, and the tuition and the living expenses of her sister were borne by me. However, he said that it was already troublesome for me to work here, and I am embarrassed to add more trouble! Now Xiao Zhang is a noble person! “

After chatting for a long time, the boss didn't mean to let them go. Some words flashed between the words, seeming to worry about Lu Qiujian's identity. Finally, he couldn't help but ask, “Big brother, what are you doing? Sorry, Xiao Zhang is like my brother, and I do n't want him to have any problems! “

“Boss, don't worry, I know this gentleman!” Zhang Yiyi said.

Chapter 413 - Liang Xiao's job fair (17/22)

“Huh? Xiao Zhang, do you know this gentleman?” The boss looked at Zhang Yiyi in surprise. If he knew him, how could it be like this? The other party is afraid that he would have taken him back to school long ago?

“I know him, he doesn't know me!” Zhang Yiyi whispered, “The picture of him is hanging on the wall of our school!”

“Boss, look, since Xiao Zhang knows me, it proves that I am not a liar. You should be at ease now!” Lu Qiujian didn't dare to let Zhang Yiyi say his name. He knew that the people in his hometown were very enthusiastic. If they were to recognize themselves, they would be busy! So I plan to leave immediately!

“Let's go, Xiao Zhang, I've got a teacher from No. 1 Middle School, and I'll be late if I don't leave!” After he finished speaking, he quickly threw the money on the table and took Zhang Yiyi out of the restaurant.

“Hey! You helped Xiao Zhang so much, how can I collect your money!” When the boss chased out with the money that Lü Qiujian lost, they had already gotten into the car and ran away!

“Mr. Wang, your new house is pretty good!” As soon as he entered the house, Lu Qiujian looked at the decoration of Mr. Wang's house curiously. His old house, Lu Qiujian, had also been there, but it was much smaller than this one.

“Isn’t that your light?” Wang said with a smile. “Who made me lucky to be your math teacher and class teacher! In recent years, your reputation has become louder and louder, and the school has improved me.” The position, the salary has risen, and after living well, I changed the house! “

“That’s what you deserve. Since I was young, I’ve been with many teachers, and you are the most serious and responsible for your students!” Lu Qiuqian said sincerely, said to pull Zhang Yiyi to sit down, ” Teacher Wang, this is Xiao Zhang, who I told you on the phone. How do you solve his problem? “

After discussing with each other, Lu Qiuqian provided funds for their brothers and sisters. Teacher Wang ’s daughter happened to go to college, and there was a free room at home, so Zhang Yiyi ’s sister was taken care of at home, and Zhang Yiyi ’s problem was successfully resolved. .

Lou Qiuqian said to him before leaving. “I’ll mail you a few books back here. Since you are serious in partial subjects, you are now only one and a half years away from the college entrance examination. There is not much hope for completing other courses, so you should learn mathematics to the point! If you can win an award in the competition, I will try to find a school for you. “

In fact, as Lu Qiuqian’s current identity, even letting him enter Beijing Normal University is a matter of one sentence. The reason for this is that he didn’t want to let him relax.

“Thank you, Dr. Lu, I must work hard! By the time I will get a big prize back!” Zhang Yiyi, who was moved by tears, came out quickly and promised quickly.

Stayed in the northeast until the third day, the group of three again embarked on the journey to Xiangnan, and stayed in Xiangnan for three days, and the holiday was over. Lu Qiuqian returned to the capital again.

Briefly held a meeting at the project base. Discussing the work arrangement for the new year, the site selection of the research center in Chang’an has ended, and an old base deep in Taiyi Mountain was found from the military. It was the product of the construction of the third line in that year. It is not too far from Chang’an. There are highways exclusively for military use to enter and exit. The transportation is convenient and confidential. The base used for Xi and planning is no more suitable.

The preliminary work over there will probably be completed in more than half a year. So these people have only the last six months left in the capital, and half a year later they will go to the city that has carried China’s pride for thousands of years with Lu Qiuqian.

So the main work in the near future has become the planning of the research center, how should the functional division be divided? How should the equipment be placed? How to ensure that the research center is not interfered by outsiders, etc.

Of course, such a large research center will not be able to discuss the results overnight. Lu Qiujian just put forward a general direction, and the rest is led by the people led by Li Yan to improve.

Xi and the planned things had not been settled yet. Jingshi University called again. Professor Zhang asked to go back to the school to accept the appointment letter from the visiting professor of Jingshi University, so Lu Qiujian hurried back to the city.

Now the Beijing Normal University has been open for a few days. It can be seen from the advertisements for job interview trainings and various exam counseling classes that can be seen everywhere on campus that there are a group of people who will graduate from college and go to a cruel society.

“Graduate in half a year!” In the male dormitory of Beijing Normal University, Liang Xiao burst into wail, “How come life is so fast! I’m almost eighteen in a blink of an eye!”

“I said, aren’t you saying this sentence from freshman to senior?” His roommate can’t stand a big man who sells all day, and he is still a fat man close to two hundred pounds.

“Hey, when I think of adulthood, I have to bear the burden of supporting myself and my family. I don’t want to grow up! Ahhhhh!” The more he talked, the more he laughed!

“You won! I will go away! You stay in the dormitory and slowly howl!” The roommate raised his hand and surrendered, put on a piece of information and combed his hair to go out.

“Li Jin, where are you going!” Liang Xiao asked from the upper bunk and asked, “Could it be to go on a blind date? Isn’t it? You just hurried to marry you when you graduated?”

“Look at your sister’s relatives!” Li Jin couldn’t help but scolded, “Did you not read the notice? There is a job fair today, and I am about to graduate. Are you not planning for the future?”

“I’m worried about woolen yarn! What month is it now? It’s four months before graduation! What’s the problem? When I’m busy with work afterwards, I’m going to enjoy it now. I can sleep as much as I want. Life!” Liang Xiao looked lazy.

“You won, then you continue to lie down, I went out to find a job!” Li Jin said that he would push the door out.

“Wait a moment!” Liang Xiao got up from the bed and began to wear clothes. “Forget it, the network fee hasn’t been paid yet. I went out and paid the network fee. By the way, I went to the job fair with you!”

“Oh, aren’t you in a hurry?” Li Jin cast a disdainful look.

“Who said that I went to the job fair to find a job? Would n’t I go to see my sister? Since you all wear dog-like formal clothes, the girls in our school are not all dressed up in flowery branches. This must not be missed! “Because Liang Xiao laughed silly, I didn’t know the beautiful woman.

Since you do n’t go for an interview, you do n’t have to dress so formally, you do n’t need to bring your resume, Liang Xiao just hangs out and follows Li Jin out of the dormitory. What he does n’t know is that this decision will completely change his destiny!

Chapter 414 - Busy job fair

If you want to distinguish the quality of a school, you can see from the recruitment during the graduation season that the best schools are naturally full of excellent units. Most of the scum schools go to some small companies and small businesses; Jingcheng Normal University is in the normal school The category ranks first in the country, and the comprehensive ranking is often in the top 20, so most of them come from well-known units.

From the top 500 international companies to local giants, from career-loved parents to emerging industry leaders, a well-known unit has thrown all kinds of generous treatments to attract these elites who are about to step out of the campus and march towards society. —As a student of Beijing Normal University, the word elite is also worthy.

Li Jin has a straight suit, shiny shoes, meticulously combed hair, a beautifully decorated resume in his hand, and his bag is filled with various award certificates and skill certificates. He seriously looked at the company profile and the company hanging above the recruitment seat. Job requirements, trying to select a unit with promising development prospects and meeting his needs; he knows that the first platform for fresh graduates to enter the society is very important, and many students on the campus are of the same grade because of the first work unit. The decision to quickly widen the gap must be careful.

Liang Xiao and he happened to be two extremes. He wore a down jacket that he hadn't washed in a long time, and he held the belly of a middle-aged man. He ate nibbling pancakes while casually looking at the vast majority of freshmen. The name of the unit that I yearn for, and my mouth is still spitting, "Don't go to the headquarters of the central bank. I have to wear a suit and tie every day when I work at the bank. It looks like buying insurance. It is shameful and not shameful! It's not interesting, go in and tell the truth! Penguin reported that their bonuses are issued in Q coins and they have to be cashed out! Huawei's treatment is good, but the workload is scary, do n't die early in the year! I'm still waiting. With the money you gave me to get married ... "

Li Jin, who was so upset about it, couldn't stand it anymore. He could not stand it anymore. When he saw a unit that was okay, he quickly went to the queue. "Go ahead and see the situation first!"

"Youth News"! It's okay. Go check it out! Good luck, apply for a welcome treat! "Liang Xiao looked at the name of the unit, nodded and sent blessings, maybe he was the last sentence. The point of concern.

After Li Jin separates. Liang Xiao continued to hang around in the recruitment fair, but he did n't want to start looking for a job now. Second, he graduated in Chinese language and literature. His counterparts were not many, so he was not care. It's just to get around and listen to other people's interviews.

"Student, I'm really sorry, we only face students from Jingcheng Normal University and other 211 colleges in this recruitment! You should go to other recruitment seats to try it out!" The interviewer of a large company in front politely but firmly refused. A new school came to join the lively fresh graduates.

This gave Liang Xiao a hint of pride in his heart. It seems that his school is still very popular in the recruitment market

Chapter 415 - Turning point in life

In everyone's life, there are many turning points; the first big turning point comes from the college entrance examination, perhaps a mistake in the multiple choice question can make your life change dramatically, and the second turning point is the college graduation interview, one A rising platform will make you succeed, and a declining platform will make your second half of life full of ups and downs. www.xm

Many years later, when Liang Xiao recalled his choice at a classmate's party, it aroused countless emotions. At first, it was the wrong choice but it created the most enviable success of the class. Sometimes in life it is so wonderful; and Liang Xiao's envy for others, just said something lightly, as long as it stands on the tuiyue, even a pig can fly.

The reason for him to get into the air was just a sentence of the personnel cadre of this state-owned enterprise that seemed to be inconspicuous at first, and that sentence was not said to him.

I only heard that the cadre of the state-owned enterprise said to the classmate in front of him who had to give up this opportunity because of his girlfriend, "Student, I think career is the most critical thing for men! We are now in this position. Give full play to your professional skills, and more importantly, our company is currently in the ascending stage. Recently, the Xi has repeatedly emphasized the Xi and the plan. Do you know? ... Yes, it is the plan led by Dr. Lu Qiuqian! The products developed by the company are the necessities of the space exploration plan! It can be expected that with the development of the Xihe plan, our company will quickly show an upward posture, and you will usher in a rate of rise that far exceeds that of other students; by that time, I believe you and your girlfriend will be glad to meet us! "

However, it is a pity that the interviewed student is still not aware of his good intentions, and finally the idea of staying in the same city as his girlfriend prevailed. After some consideration, he rejected the company's invitation.

Liang smiled that the interview seat of this company was empty, and no one next to him had the intention of consulting, so he sat down.

The celebrity cadre heard the overwhelming creaking of the chair. The corners of his eyes can't help but draw, the master of the comparable company cafeteria is getting fat! I don't know how to eat it! But soon the desire to complete the recruitment task exceeded the curiosity about Liang Xiao's weight. He looked at Liang Xiao with a smile and asked. "Hello classmate, what major are you studying? Want to apply for that position in our company?"

"Oh. I heard you just said that your company's products can be used in Xihe plan? Can I ask what is the product?" Liang Xiao asked while looking up the promotional materials on the table.

"This classmate is very interested in Xihe plan?" The personnel lit up, and I didn't expect that he had not persuaded that person, but he attracted the fat man's attention ... Look at his figure, afraid Is there no girlfriend? It might be easier to take him to the company's location than the one just now.

“I met Dr. Lu last time, and I think that if Dr. Lu is present, the Xihe plan will definitely succeed!” It is a little exciting to think about being able to participate in such a big project!

Turned out to be convinced by Dr. Lu’s charm! Hearing this, the personnel had an idea in his heart, and he rallied to introduce his company to Liang Xiao. “We Changan Nonferrous Metals Corporation is a subsidiary of China National Nonferrous Mining Group, a state-owned enterprise. The products we develop currently have three main uses, one is the basic raw material for aerospace electronic products, and the other is a raw material for an important part of the nuclear reactor. , Also used in the field of low-temperature superconductors. “

“Not only is this the case in China, whether it’s Rice, Neon or Europe, but when it comes to the above three areas, we can’t do without the products developed by our company! Of course, at present, China has foreign and foreign production efficiency and product quality. There is a large gap. However, according to the head office, the demand for this product will rise linearly with the development of Xihe plan. Guo Guo will also allocate a large amount of funds for the research and development of new processes. I believe that there is It will not take long for you to join us and we will be able to catch up with and surpass our foreign counterparts! “The personnel said with emotion, as long as the plan is successfully implemented, it may take less than a few years. If you come here to recruit yourself, you can change to a better position. ?

Seeing Liang Xiao was quite emotional, and the personnel added another force, “It is said that after a while. Dr. Lu will take Xi and the core personnel of the plan to inspect our company, and then you may see him again! “

“It’s interesting!” Liang Xiao’s eyes widened. It seems to be muttering to himself, and it seems to be replying to personnel. He scanned the list of vacancies in Changan Nonferrous Metals Corporation and pointed to a position and asked, “What are your requirements for this position?”

Seeing Liang Xiao’s heart moved, the personnel spirit was refreshed, and finally I got one! But when he looked at Liang Xiaozhi’s position, he grabbed it again. “Internal journal editor? Are you sure you want to apply for this?” In his opinion, the internal journal editor is really not the company’s urgently needed talent! This time I came here mainly to recruit some R & D talents This position is just a matter of handwriting.

“Yeah, I am studying Chinese language and literature. Isn’t this just a professional counterpart!” Liang Xiao said, although I can’t personally participate in product development, it seems good to be a witness!

“Okay, let me tell you about the requirements of this position!” Hey, pick one and count it again. The personnel renewed their spirit and said, “This position we are recruiting is actually more than just editing an internal journal. It is also responsible for the cultural construction of the company. The company currently has a radio station, a website, and an internal journal. There is currently no dedicated person in charge. If you are willing to come, you will be responsible for these! “

“This determines that the person applying for this position must have excellent writing skills, Mandarin standards, and be able to use cameras, cameras, and other related software such as r, ps, rlr; of course, if you have a work, you can give We look better! “The personnel said the requirements of the position one by one.

Liang smiled and figured out that he would do it himself! He was born in Chinese language and literature. It was too easy for him to write a few articles. He did not take a lot of photos and photography. He was very skilled in both text editing and drawing software. This position is simply a measure for him. Made to measure!

After talking for more than ten minutes, Liang Xiao moved a laptop from the dormitory to display his works one by one, and quickly got the personnel; after the employment agreement was signed, he seemed to remember something and quickly asked, “Yes, our company What is the salary set for this position?

Chapter 416 - Huang Ziwei's call (18/22)

The personnel is really sweating, this fat man is so swollen so unreliable! It 's time to run! I quickly repeated the company's treatment, and finally apologized, saying, “The current conditions are indeed slightly different from other companies, but after the funds are in place, the company will expand and everything will be fine!”

Liang Xiao has forgotten, his basic expenses are enough, it is not possible to fill in some private work from the Internet, let me say that I am afraid of a bachelor! “So well, when will it be reported?”

“Of course, the sooner the better! But considering that you still have to graduate the defense, so we will arrange the reporting time in June, when the company will send someone to pick you up! Please keep in touch during this time, If you change the phone number, please inform the company in time! “The personnel explained in detail. Depends

Asked a few more details such as how to arrange food and accommodation. Liang Xiao sat down with satisfaction with the employment agreement to the dormitory. At this time, Li Jin had already rested in the dormitory. The interview should be good to see him with his red face.

“Yo, is this done?” Liang Xiao asked, throwing the agreement on the table.

“No, is it after the first test? There are retests the day after tomorrow, but I looked at the other people who had passed the first test, and I feel that the hope is still great!” Li Jinji said stubbornly.

“Nice, which unit?” Liang Xiao made the chair he bought and turned on the computer.

“Youth Newspaper!” Li Jin also looked at the employment agreement on Liang Xiao’s desk, not only surprised, “Don’t you say to wait for a job after graduation? How can this be done?”

“Well, if you see an interesting company, go and try it! If it doesn’t feel right, then change it again! I’m a sacrifice for the employment rate of our school!” Liang Xiao said casually.

“What unit?” Li Jin knows that although his roommate looks unreliable, his personal ability and vision are still outstanding, and the company that he can see is definitely not simple.

“Chang’an Non-Ferrous Metals Company!” Liang Xiao reported the name of his company, “I am applying for an editor of an internal journal, but when the time passes, I am estimated to be responsible for corporate culture construction?”

“Hey, how did you find such a company?” Li Jin not only felt unworthy for him, “The prospects for this position are very limited!” The editor of the company’s internal journal did not make much sense. This position is over twice, and unlike the newspaper office he applied for, he can still go up.

“Hey, you don’t know about this? This company is an important part of Xi and the plan. Maybe you will go to interview me at that time! You can rest assured. I will entertain you well by then!” Liang Xiao I don’t care.

As they started to discuss Liang Xiao’s work, Lu Qiujian received a call from an acquaintance here, “Hey, Dr. Lu, no, it’s time to call Professor Lu. Are you busy now?”

It seems that the news of accepting the position of visiting professor at Beijing Normal University has been spread. Lu Qiujian can judge the identity of the person from the sound without using electro-optics. Huang Ziwei of the Chinese Football Association is the one who ran to Europe and invited him to join the national football. Bit, “Fortunately, what’s the matter?”

“Professor Lu! I’m sorry to disturb you while you are busy.” Huang Ziwei first gave a polite and then explained his purpose. “Don’t you say that you will join the Olympic team before? I originally thought of you I ’m busy with my work, and I will disturb you again when I ’m training next year, but now the Olympic team has some problems, so I have to ask you for help! ”

Lu Qiuqian entered the Olympic team on the computer to search. He asked, “What happened? What do you want me to do?”

“A while ago, the Olympic team went to Europe to practice and caused trouble. Fans ’ratings on the Olympic team dropped instantly. Then, in the New Year’s Cup a few days ago, their performance was also very general, so the fans’ dissatisfaction increased. The pressure of the Football Association is also great, so now I want to see if you can participate in one or two training sessions recently to distract the attention of the fans! “Huang Ziwei asked carefully, if he had not dealt with Lu Qiuqian before, he I really dare not make this call.

At this time, Lv Qiuqian also found news of the National Olympics’ offense from the Internet. It turned out that it was a fight with a certain British team during the warm-up match in the UK some time ago. What is even more abominable is that they have even lost! Hey, what a shame! When we went to England to play games, no matter whether it was Terry, Gerrard or Henry and Giggs, the big guys dared not move their hands in front of him. Unexpectedly, these guys of the Olympic team can’t even do a second-level team.

“How? Let me teach them two tricks so that they will not lose again in the next fight?” Lu Qiuqian made a joke.

“Dare not dare!” This joke almost didn’t frighten Huang Ziwei. Will it still happen next time? I have used countless relationships myself to finally get the position of the national Olympic team leader. I also hope to go to the Olympic Games with Lv Qiuqian to get a political achievement. I do n’t want to be dropped in the middle of the game. The media has diverted attention from fighting events and late game losses, giving us a breathing chance! “

“We are currently negotiating the warm-up schedule for the national Olympic team and the domestic team. If you are willing to come, we will arrange the game in Beijing! You will not be delayed for a few days!” Huang Ziwei knows what Lu Qiuqian cares most quickly came up with his own plan.

Lv Qiuqian thought about it, he was not very worried about the men ’s basketball team. The men ’s basketball team already had the second-class level in the world. Coupled with a superstar like Yao Ming, it is not a problem to achieve good results in the Olympics. It ’s okay to practice; the Olympic team is different. The strength of these people is worrying. If you do n't get acquainted with it earlier, you will be embarrassed!

Think again that it was all preparatory work recently. He has already arranged the plan, he is not very busy, so he decided to agree, "Okay, you have arranged your time to my mailbox and have time to go in the next few days!"

"Just go, I will give you this!" Huang Ziwei promised in a hurry, "You can see that the time is not suitable, I can also negotiate with the leader to adjust the time, be sure not to delay your affairs!"

A week later, Lu Qiu built the morning shift and came out of the base, and got in a white car, "Go to Guoan Training Base!"

Bai Dao froze for a moment, he did not receive a similar notice? "Ministry of National Security or Beijing National Security Office?"

"No, it is the training base of the Guo'an Guoan Football Team!"

Chapter 417 - I want to be a ball tyrant

Outside the Beijing Guoan Training Base, Huang Ziwei and the Football Association leader Long Ge came to the entrance of the base early and looked at the intersection ahead from time to time.

"Big Brother, who are they waiting for? Are there any leaders coming to inspect today?" Lin Xiao, a freshman who just joined the Olympic team, quietly asked Big Brother Li.

"They are waiting for Lu Qiuqian!" Li Datou has been in the rivers and lakes for many years. The news is that newcomers like Lin Xiao don't know where to go. He already knew the reason why the Olympic team changed their plans and transferred to Beijing to warm up for training. His idea is quite complicated. He hopes that the arrival of Lv Qiuqian can greatly enhance the strength of the Olympic team and achieve good results in the Olympic Games; and because the arrival of Lv Qiuqian will inevitably affect the first person in his team Feel lost.

Fortunately for him, however, his position in the team is fairly stable, unlike the Lu province striker who lost the qualification to enter the Olympic team as an overage player with the entry of Lu Qiuqian.

But what should Lu Qiuqian do after entering the team? Did he bring his younger brother under his leadership or struggle with a group of people to fight against him? The second kind of thought was thrown aside in his heart. Neither Lu Qiujian could compete with him either in ball skills or background. Now the full-time deputy chairman of the Football Association and the leader of the National Olympic Team who are guarding outside the base illustrate Everything, let's be a little bit aware of the current affairs and mix with others!

“Xiaohuang, what level do you think the director of the Xi and Planning Center should be?” Long Ge asked slightly unwillingly. When he wanted to come, he said that he is a bureau-level cadre. Isn't it a bit to stay outside like this? * Copies?

“I am not very clear about the level of Chairman Long and the director of Xihe Planning Center, but it is said that Professor Lu will be elected as an academican of the two academies this year. The academican's words are deputy ministerial treatment!” Huang Ziwei concealed his disdain. Pretending to respectfully answer, since this Dragon Brother came up, the entire Chinese football has been smashed by him. Even the old Yuzi, who has been with the Football Association for many years, can't stand it anymore! Now Professor Lu has given face to help distract the attention of the media and fans, he is also thinking about his face. Isn't it shameless for the face?

“Deputy ministerial level!” Long Ge's tone was full of envy. He again calculated the age of Lv Qiujian, and suddenly gave birth to himself as a hurry to live to the dog, “Professor Lv is only twenty-four this year. Year old? Really young and promising! “

Can you compare with others? Huang Ziwei didn't know what to say, he secretly sighed, and kindly persuaded, “Chairman Long, Professor Lu often sees the elders. We are always right to be careful!”

Words can only say here, if you do n't know what to do, do n't drag me on! Thinking of this, Huang Ziwei couldn't help but secretly rejoice, but fortunately he didn't have much involvement with this one. The broken things he did had nothing to do with himself, even if he collapsed, he couldn't involve himself!

In the speaking room, an inconspicuous car slowly drove to the base of the base. Lu Qiujian opened the door and walked down. They quickly greeted him, “Professor Lu, welcome, welcome! Thank you for your participation in the country Olympic training. “

After shaking hands one by one, Huang Ziwei started to introduce them. “Professor Lu, this is our full-time vice-chairman Long Brother of our Football Association!”

Can't this be recognized? Thank God for thanking Long Brother, who believes in God and ghosts. I remember these two couplets clearly! Lv Qiujian endured the contempt in his heart, and his right hand broke away with him. While he was polite, he thought that if you are interesting, this period of time will converge. When the Olympics is over, the Football Association will find a leisure time. Do n't blame me if you have any ideas.

"Professor Lu, do you think we should go upstairs and take a break, I will introduce you to the situation of the Olympic team? Coach Dui is also waiting for you." Huang Ziwei's observation of Kung Fu was very sensible, and he saw Lu Qiuqian He didn't worry about playing round.

"Okay, let's go up first!" Lu Qiuqian nodded and responded. He knew that the reason why Duy didn't come to the door was just because of the coach's restraint, if he took the initiative to greet him. How to manage yourself in the future? For the head coach of the Olympic team, his favor is also limited.

The professional ability of this Duy coach will not be mentioned first. Other aspects are also a mess. Milu not only can bring the national team into the World Cup, but also has a sense of love for the girl, whoever has no benefit from him; but he dares to do what he dare not, so that he wants to learn The predecessor's girl was a mess.

When he arrived in the office, Dui, the coach of the Olympic team, was already waiting inside. When he saw everyone coming in, he quickly got up and met Lu Qiuqian for a moment. He refused to reach out first.

It 's still a face-saving guy, yeah, give you a face first, wait a while and watch it! Lv Qiuqian smiled and reached out, greeting in Spanish, "Coach Dui, hello!"

Dui once played in La Liga for a few years, and the Spanish language is more proficient. Hearing Lu Qiuqian greet himself in Spanish is not only bright, "Your Spanish is a true standard."

Give me a few days to learn Serbian, but you do n't have any great technology worth learning, so I 'm too lazy to spend time on it. After greeting, a few people sat down, and Dui eagerly Lu Qiuqian discussed his use of Lu Qiuqian.

"Lv I think your attacking ability and free kick are the most important chips for the Olympic team to win, so in my plan you will appear in the position of the full-back!" Dui can't wait to take Come out with your own plan.

"However, I didn't think so!" Lv Qiuqian frowned slightly and continued to refute in Spanish. "I played at Bayern forward because I have top players from Kahn, Lucio and other outstanding players The back line allows me to concentrate on the offense, but the Olympic team is different! I think I still play the midfielder position, first help the team stabilize the back line, then look for opportunities to attack better!

Duy's face was darkened, and he did not expect that there was a disagreement between him and Lu Qiujian during the first contact, so the two began a heated argument.

The poor translator sits behind and does n't know what to say. He is a Serbian translator, not good at Spanish! On the side, Huang Ziwei could understand a few words. After he figured out what Lu Qiujian said, he not only sucked, but this one seemed to be the ball tyrant!

Chapter 418 - I have the final say

Talked for a while, Duy left the meeting room on the pretext of arranging training, and Lu Qiujian and the coach of the National Olympics team met for the first time.

Huang Ziwei winked, and the interpreter hurried out. Only three of him, Long Ge and Lu Qiujian were left in the conference room. This was when he asked carefully, "Professor Lu, what's wrong?"

"Oh, maybe people think they have been the coach of the European Champions Cup, so I think I should listen to him unconditionally!" Lv Qiujian sneered, you were just an assistant coach, I also directed in the Champions League final The game! Originally, if communication was smooth, it wouldn't be impossible to get along well. Now, it seems that I am wishful thinking.

As soon as these words came out, Huang Ziwei's cold sweat came down. The number one star on the team and the head coach had an unpleasant meeting for the first time. How will they live in the future! Professor Lu, you are my dear brother! I used to rely on you to join the Olympic team, only to use this relationship to get this job, but don't pit me!

"What did you talk with Coach Dui just now?" Huang Ziwei asked. As soon as he came to Spanish, he only listened to it. Secondly, Long Brother hadn't figured out what happened, so he should let him You know?

"I just discussed my position with Coach Dui. Coach Dui thought I should focus more on offense, but I think that with the strength of our Olympic team, it is better to ensure that fewer goals are lost before seeking victory!" Lu Qiu Jian told the two of them the process just discussed.

Well, it really should be so. Huang Ziwei secretly agreed with Lu Qiujian's opinion; and Long Ge's eyes also began to turn. He was thinking that Du Yi always refused to accommodate himself in the employment of the Olympic team and let him earn less. How much is it! Now that Lu Qiujian joins the Olympic team, the Olympic team's achievements will surely usher in a breakthrough at the Olympic Games. So, can the price of the Olympic team be sold higher? From this perspective, is it inconvenient to keep such a person as the head coach of the Olympic team?

of course. Although he does n't know much about football, the official doorway is very clear. After a little thought, he got an idea, "Professor Lu, do you think this is the case? We arranged two warm-up matches this time, Coach Iraq's way to do it, another game to play according to your plan, the result of the two games is naturally understood!"

"This time, domestic clubs were chosen as warm-up opponents?" Lu Qiujian said after receiving an affirmative answer, "The strength of domestic clubs is relatively average, I am afraid nothing can be tested!"

"Kick two games first and see!" Long Brother made the decision. After he finished, he got up and prepared to go back to wonder what benefits he could get from this matter. Before leaving, he told him, "Xiaohuang, you can talk to Professor Lu more and introduce him to the situation of the Olympic team. I will arrange other things first. Work! Be sure to leave Professor Lu when the training is over. I will welcome Professor Lu to join the Olympic team for the banquet!"

"I still have to report to the leader at night, this will be free!" Lu Qiu Jiancai was interested in eating with him, and decisively rejected his proposal.

Brother Long just wanted to attack. But thinking of Lu Qiujian's identity and the unique temperament of the driver who drove today, he endured it and left the meeting room with a smile.

"Professor Lu, you are ..." Huang Ziwei saw no outsiders. Speak directly, "Why don't you tell your thoughts and see what can I do for you, brother?"

"I just want the national Olympic team to have a good result, our country's football can improve slightly. But now it seems that some people don't want me to be happy!" Lv Qiujian suffered from brain pain for a while, and the paralysis now seems to be It is even harder to develop Chinese football than to develop controlled nuclear fusion!

"Who said no!" Huang Ziwei slapped his thigh. "If it weren't for me, I would also be a fan. I also wanted to make our country's football develop better. I only got enough support to come to work in the Football Association! After I came in, I discovered that What's so special!"

The two of them scolded the Football Association for a while, and the relationship between them has improved a lot. Huang Ziwei was also free to speak. He patted his chest and said, "Professor Lu, what do you mean? Tell me if I can help my brother If it 's a busy place, I do n't want to tell you that I 'm still a little tricky! ”

“I don't care about anything else, I want one!” Lv Qiujian raised a finger and said one by one, “I want the Olympic team to do it! I'll say everything from selection to tactics.” Count! “

Huang Ziwei groaned in his heart, he really invited a grandfather! But when I think about it, he knows what the Olympic team is now. Others Lu Qiujian can replace Magath in Bayern to command the UEFA Champions League final and can defeat famous coaches such as Rijkaard. In that case, it was indeed unreasonable to let him listen to Duy in this case.

Reminiscent of Lu Qiujian's upper-level relationship, Huang Ziwei immediately had an idea. He straightened his waist and said positively, “So, what can I do!”

“I have heard some things about our brother Long. I don't care about the previous ones. He will not have to do it in the future! And now the head coach has changed too!” It's all a big deal when it's said.

Huang Ziwei also believes that Lu Qiujian has the ability to let Brother Long get out, but he still has some concerns about the second one, “Professor Lu, it's not good for you to drive away the head coach as soon as you come to the National Olympics team! Don't have time to host the daily training of the Olympic team? “

“It's okay. I will play these two games first. I am familiar with my teammates! I will not necessarily have time to participate in the next training session. At that time, you just can solve this problem!” As for the head coach, what do you think of our senior assistant coach of the national team? “

“High guidance?” Huang Ziwei nodded thoughtfully. This lady is also working in the Football Association. There are some internal relations. If you change to him, the resistance will be less.

“Well, it's him!” Among the head coaches of the national team, Lu Qiujian felt better about this one. “In addition, if necessary, I can invite a few assistant coaches from Bayern. In recent years The youth training in Germany is very good, and their coaching skills are not low! With them joining the Olympic team, our training level will definitely improve! “

Well, you can also find Ye Chu, let him use mathematical analysis to make some adjustments to the training of the Olympic team, can cultivate a few seedlings to come to the Olympic team even if they don't come to the Olympic team in vain!

Chapter 419 - Professional literacy (19/22)

Huang Ziwei has also contacted Gao Gui before, and he has a good impression on him. “However, Gao Gui just took office in the club. Now he is invited to serve as the coach of the Olympic team. I am afraid he can’t walk away?”

“It depends on his own measurement. You can contact him first and listen to what he means. If you can, the club and the Olympic team can also serve at the same time. The schedule of the two teams will not conflict. International football is not without precedents. Both Kevin Keegan and Sir Alex Ferguson used to be head coaches of the national team and the club at the same time! “Later, Hiddink also taught at Chelsea and the Russian national team.

“Furthermore, when I am familiar with the team members, I will help to develop a tactics and training plan, and high guidance will not be so busy!” Lu Qiujiang explained.

Huang Ziwei nodded and weighed the pros and cons of the coaching change, but he thought about it, Lu Qiujiang took more risks than he did! If the bad performance is the responsibility, it must be Lu Qiujiang who has caused such a big change. Since everyone is not afraid, it proves that he is very confident in the performance of the Olympic team. Think about what Lu Qiujiang once did, Huang Ziwei Suddenly I felt confident, “Then I will contact and contact Gao Mentor, if he is interested, let him come to Beijing to chat with us three!”

The three people chatted, and Lu Qiujiang keenly heard what he meant. Huang Ziwei was planning to get rid of Dragon Brother! So he cleared his throat and said, “Do you have any materials from Brother Long, give me a copy, if he still has any ideas!”

“Professor Lu, you don’t need this!” Huang Ziwei’s scalp tingled for a while, this man is too cruel! This is what I mean to kill Brother Long!

“Just in case he can’t see things clearly! It doesn’t necessarily work!” Lv Qiujiang said lightly, “Furthermore, even if you don’t give it to me, you can get it, just take some effort!” It was very easy for Lu Qiujiang to go to his house for a lap or to hack his computer.

Looking at Huang Ziwei’s support, Lu Qiujiang added another fire, “Do you think he will be grateful if you don’t take it out? What you are doing now makes him unhappy!”

Yeah, how can there be so many things on both sides of the world to bargain for money? I have offended Dragon Brother myself, and now if I have offended Lv Qiujiang again, there will be no drama! It's better to hold Lu Qiuqian's thigh tightly. When the Olympics team has achieved results in the Olympic Games, they will certainly be able to rise by one mile!

In fact, these things can be understood without much thought of Huang Ziwei. I just said that it was only a moment of no turning, and after making things straight, he immediately made a decision, "OK, I will send you the information at night!"

"Well, let's talk about the team now!" Lu Qiuqian nodded and responded. The upper level got the next step to understand the situation of the players.

"The team now has a total of 23 players. Of course, there will be five players to be brushed by the opening of the Olympic Games. The final Olympic team will consist of 18 players!" Huang Ziwei began to introduce the situation of the Olympic team. , "There are a total of three players in the team, including you, Li Datou and Zheng Zhi currently playing at British Charlton"

Hey, Brother Shao still missed this opportunity! Lu Qiuqian listened with emotion, but thought about it to understand the reason, Shao Jiayi somewhat overlapped with his role, plus Li Datou and Zheng Zhi in the back line and midfield are irreplaceable His role has become a matter of reason.

"Well. I probably know. The rest will be read during training!" After listening to Huang Ziwei's account, Lu Qiuqian got up and went to the training ground. "I'll go and say hello to them first. Please, give it to you! You can rest assured that you will never forget your credit as long as you get the results! "

Waiting for your sentence! Huang Zi was overjoyed and overjoyed. Fortunately, he didn't mean to refuse to lead and went to Europe. Now the years of hard work are finally gaining! In his view, with Lu Qiu built in, it is definitely not a problem for the Olympic team to qualify. Lu Qiuqian means that he will definitely mention Huang Ziwei's credit to him at that time, so his promotion after the Olympics is not something he can do!

"You can rest assured! I'll go outside the base to call Gao Gui soon, and you can rest assured of Long Ge's information!" He patted his chest to ensure that he even sent Lu Qiuqian to the training ground. .

See Lu Qiuqian coming over. Dui stopped the training and brought the players together. Fans and reporters on the sidelines suddenly rioted, the flashing lights kept on, and fans cried out in surprise.

The shouts were scattered at first, and later became uniform. More than a hundred people on the sidelines shouted Lu Qiujian's name in the hope that he could bring better results to the Olympic team.

Lu Qiujian beckoned to the sidelines, and then walked to the center of the stadium, he has now replaced the national Olympic team jersey in the locker room, the number is of course the number ten representing the core of the team.

If other people make this gesture, the veteran players of the Olympic team may be a little bit unconvinced, but when they think of the glory of the other three crowns and the glory of winning the Golden Globe, their careful thoughts will disappear. It is so much worse than others that even jealousy can't be jealous.

"Hello everyone, this is Lu Qiujian. From today on, I will wear the same shirt as everyone and prepare for next year's Olympics. I hope to work with you to achieve good results in next year's Olympics!" Lu Qiujian took the lead in simplicity Introduced himself.

Then Huang Ziwei came out to help Lu Qiujian to support the game. He looked at these players seriously and said, "Now the best player in the world has become your teammate. Such an opportunity may be your only time in your life! Seize this opportunity Train hard and work hard, don't do things that will make you regret it! "

After finishing his eyes, he glanced over the thorns in the team. They may have been suppressed by Lu Qiujian, and they all lowered their heads.

Then the training continued. Lu Qiujian went to the court to warm up first. The players on the court from time to time cast a curious look at him, wanting to see how the world's first star trained.

Lu Qiujian's training moves are extremely standard, and every action is meticulously completed, which makes the players on the field, the fan reporters on the sidelines, and the members of the coaching staff very heartbroken. It turns out that this is the professional quality of top stars! It is much better than the warm-ups of other people who fool around!

Chapter 420 - Midfielder core

In the following basic training, such as passing and receiving, Lu Qiujian once again demonstrated the skill level of the high number of people. No matter how bad the pass of the Olympic teammates, he can always stop the ball easily. In contrast, he The pass is just delivered to the position where the catcher is most used and comfortable.

This made the fans on the sidelines extremely enjoyable. Every time he touched the ball, he would cheer. He said that this time he did n't look at it in vain. It 's enough to pass and stop the ball to brag for a while. Now!

The warm-up was over, and finally it was the stage of group confrontation. Du Yi divided Lu Qiujian to the substitute side. As the name suggests, he can better see his strength. Of course, the position is still the frontier he said before.

Lv Qiujian frowned slightly, it seemed that the old man was a little stubborn! Maybe it's time to change! But now that he has planned it, he is too lazy to attack and follows the bench to the left side of the court.

"Lv ... Brother Lu, I will pass you the ball as soon as I get it!" The forward Lin Xiao who was standing next to him couldn't tell clearly.

"It's okay, you can do it by yourself if you have a chance! Pay attention to the running position, I will pass for you when you run to a good position!" Lu Qiujian patted him on the shoulder with encouragement.

This shot made Lin Xiao's nervous mood even more exciting. After receiving the ball, he directly opened a big foot to Lu Qiujian. Of course, he couldn't control his footwork under tension. This pass is not unexpected. Big.

I saw that Lu Qiujian accelerated to throw away the player who defended him. He jumped high and lifted his right foot like a taekwondo action to lighten the ball in the air. The football suddenly fell to his feet and fell to his feet. Lv Qiujian shouted while taking the ball to break through, "Lin Xiao, run forward at a forty-five degree angle!"

Lin Xiao conditioned to run forward according to Lu Qiujian 's words, and he appeared in front of him before he reached the ten-meter football. It was the position of his left foot that he was good at. Big brother who can't get rid of it.

"Hey, this is the ball! This pass! It's absolutely amazing!" Fans outside the court were hooked.

After Lin Xiao wiped it out, Li Datou's old problems with Chinese players again committed, and he took Lin Xiao handily. Lin Xiao, who was caught off guard, stumbled to the ground, and the head coach, who was the referee on the court, did not hesitate to throw a free kick, which once again caused a cheer from the fans outside the court.

“I can finally see Lu Qiujian’s free kick on the spot!” They quickly took out their mobile phones from their pockets to shoot, and the reporters hurriedly adjusted the guy to prepare to record this moment.

The original free kicker in the bench team even saw that he didn’t look at the penalty spot and ran to the penalty area to prepare for a point ... Amount. Not ready to interfere with the vision of the opponent’s goalkeeper! Everyone knows, does Lu Qiujian still need to grab a free kick? Especially in such a good location.

The substitutes such as Hao Junmin, Zhao Yiji and other free kick players also looked at Lu Qiujian without blinking, hoping to learn something from his footwork.

The referee’s whistle sounded, small steps forward, left foot standing behind the football. The right foot kicked violently. The football crossed a beautiful arc and hung upright in the upper right corner of the goal. The goalkeeper didn’t even make a response.

Is this going in? Fans on the side of the court blinked, and this was followed by a roar of cheers. Everyone or two hundred people just made a thousand people.

“This goal is so beautiful! Watching this National Olympic team play so well!” Seeing Lu Qiujian just made such a wonderful goal as soon as he played, the reporter outside the court couldn’t help saying.

“It’s not just scoring, you didn’t see the catch and pass he just made?” Another senior reporter couldn’t help but interject, “Lin Xiao’s pass is obviously bigger. If the average person is afraid, he can only watch The ball flew out of the field, and Lu Qiujian not only caught it. It was so easy! It is probably only a few people like Zidane, Ibrahimović, etc. who can look at the entire football with this hand! “

“And he thought of the line of the ball when he received the ball, and immediately commanded Lin Xiao to run after landing. Lin Xiao ran to the position and the ball arrived. It happened to be the left foot position that Lin Xiao was good at, and he avoided it. Li Xiaotou’s defensive line, Lin Xiao only needs to go forward to break into the restricted area, which I can do! “

“If this is given to you, Li Datou will definitely not pull you, he knows that you can’t shoot even if you pass!” A reporter joined the discussion, and he couldn’t help but tease the other party when he heard the last paragraph bragging , So outside the training field of the Olympic team. Rarely, there was an easy laugh.

The game continued, and Lu Qiujian's main attacking side quickly became a sieve. Dui continued to send troops to stop Lu Qiujian's attack. In less than 20 minutes, he continued to assist. Lin Xiao succeeded.

The game can no longer be played here. The spirit of the main team may be broken again, Dui quickly signaled the referee to terminate the game.

"Lv, you go to the main side this time!" Du Yi ordered people to take a vest that symbolizes the main status and handed it to Lv Qiujian. Since his condition did not decline because of a few months of rest, then it should be Start to cultivate a tacit understanding between him and other players.

"I want to try the position of the lower back this time!" Lu Qiujian once again emphasized his opinion Lu, you just performed well in the position of the wing forward. Why do you want to change the location? "Duy frowned.

Ha ha, in the future we will face players like Messi, Kaka, Ronaldinho, can I break through on the wing alone? I have the time to score a goal, I am afraid they have already let the goalkeeper of the Olympic team pick up the ball from the goal several times! First of all, it is reasonable to make sure that the back line is stable and then enter it! Lu Qiujian once again strengthened his determination to replace him.

"Don't you want to see my defensive strength?" Lv Qiujian changed the argument. This time Du Yi was not good and refused, so he adjusted the position of the main player on the field. Lv Qiujian stood in front of the back line.

"One foot, five meters to the left! Military and civilian, back three meters! Gorlinsman ..." Lu Qiujian stood at the back, his career was much wider than the side road, he paid attention to the attack of the substitute Route, while starting to direct his teammates to adjust the position.

Regardless of whether they were willing or not, these players did not dare to slap Lu Qiujian on the first day. They all ran along the route instructed by Lu Qiujian, and then they immediately found that the offensive line of the bench was completely blocked by themselves. Dead, easily grabbed the ball.

At this moment, Lu Qiujian didn't touch the ball with one foot, so he demonstrated his core ability in the midfield.
