Chapter 44 - After the game

“I think Duke made a mistake today, and any of us will accept punishment for doing the wrong thing!”, Lu Qiu Jian said slowly. The people in the country have ulterior motives to support that person, and more It’s because it’s not clear what the truth is. If you can follow this opportunity to spread it, it would be nice.

The reporters at the scene were very upset, and Clark quickly asked, “What is the wrong thing you said? Where did Duke annoy you today?”

“Duke is not annoyed by me, but all of us Chinese!” Lv Qiu Jian said with a serious expression, “This reporter, I just saw you interviewing outside the stadium, I think if you have a little common sense I’ll know what I’m talking about! If it’s a normal game, I wouldn’t play at all, or just wait for the score to be pulled off, but today I think it’s necessary to give Duke a long memory!”

Can be sent to this interview to understand the background of the matter. The reporters immediately understood the meaning of Lu Qiu Jian, not only expressing condolences to the Duke Blue Devils lying down.

Seeing that Duke’s students also gathered around, Lu Qiu Jian took the opportunity to popularize knowledge about the off-site issue, and emphasized Duke’s disgraceful role in this incident, although the newspaper It may be because of political correctness that his evaluation of this incident may be erased, but the mouths of so many people on the scene cannot be blocked!

At the end of the interview, Duke’s miserable defeats were published in the newspapers the next day, “A small flag caused Duke’s biggest defeat in 20 years”, “Flags angered the Chinese star, super three pairs destroyed Duke” The particularly exaggerated title attracted the attention of countless fans.

On the Internet, there are more posts on this matter, Huo Fei and others have compiled a series of materials and posted them on the Internet, so that the people of the United States have some understanding of the background of this incident; of course, they are a bit overwhelmed. Of Hollywood stars took the opportunity to express their support for hype, but it did not attract much attention.

Coach K was particularly angry about the stupid behavior of the school. He worked hard to prepare for such a long time. He also wanted to lead Duke to hit the championship again. How can he know that the players have not been formally started yet? It was defeated; he also thought that Duke and Princeton had no entanglement in the past, why the other party would be so cruel to himself, and now I realized that it was all because of the stupid practices of the school!

After the start of the regular season, Duke players who were completely defeated by Lv Qiujian were ravaged by strong teams such as North Carolina, Wake Forest and Maryland. Not only did they fail to qualify from the championship, they even invited the committee because they This year's poor performance did not send an invitation to Duke.

This caused strong protests from Duke students and fans. The school leaders who had allowed those people to conduct demonstrations on campus and hinted that the security guards were ignored were stepped down. Duke apologized for this by issuing a public statement.

After receiving Huo Fei's e-mail, Sports Weekly quickly verified and immediately arranged its reporters to rush to Princeton for interviews. Fortunately, due to Yao Ming, there were many reporters in Sports Weekly who were stationed in the country , So the second day Lu Qiujian returned to the school, the reporter came to the door.

"Hello, this is Feng Hongqi, a reporter from" Sports Weekly ". May I delay you a little time?" A middle-aged uncle blocked Lu Qiujian at the entrance of the teaching building.

"Oh, I've read your article, and it's very good. I only have one article in a month or two. Is it too slow?" Lu Qiujian looked at his watch. "I'm going to the library to read a book later, we Just talk while eating! "

"Not slow! I posted another today!", Feng Hongqi mumbled, but the other party agreed to be interviewed, with a few words in mind, and quickly said, "Then disturb, I invite you for dinner Okay! What are your favorite restaurants nearby? "

"Just eat whatever you want! I'm catching an article recently, the time is relatively tight, I'm sorry!", Lv Qiujian took him to a nearby coffee shop, just ordered something and started the interview.

"The readers are more concerned about your personal situation, can you give us a brief introduction?" Indeed, compared to other stars of hope, Lu Qiujian seems to pop out of the stone. They haven't found it for a long time. His profile.

“There is nothing to introduce. I am a student of the Department of Mathematics of Beijing Normal University. I exchanged for Princeton to study this year. Because my roommate is a member of the Tigers, he was introduced to the school team!” Coffee said.

Asked some questions such as where is his hometown and likes that star. Feng Hongqi began to cut to the point, “Can you talk about the game with Duke?”

“Before the coach kept me as a secret weapon and wanted to start at the beginning of the regular season, but I couldn’t help it when I saw that scene outside the Duke Stadium that day. Of course I think any one is a bit patriotic Chinese people will be angry when they see this scene! “, Lu Qiujian said,” So I strongly requested to play Fortunately, Coach Thompson agreed to my request, so there was the next game. ! “

Hey, this is a good news point! Although I have read this report from the news of my counterparts in the United States, it makes him feel particularly relieved to hear it with his own ears. There are few opportunities for such a bright and serious face.

“We all know that Duke’s point guards Du Hong and Ewing are popular figures in this year’s draft. Since you can knock them off on both offense and defense, it proves that you have the strength to enter the NBA. Then you have Never thought of participating in the draft this year? “, Feng Hongqi asked the readers the most concerns.

“Not yet. I just want to finish reading the book before I talk! I have achieved satisfactory results in the NCAA with Princeton while studying this year. I will return to Beijing Normal University to complete my graduation thesis next year. As for the future, I will say it later!” ‘S answer, no other basketball teenager heard the NBA so excited.

Interviewed for a while, Lv Qiujian resigned and left; Feng Hongqi sorted out the interview records and sent it back to China.

Because of Yao Ming, the domestic enthusiasm for basketball is particularly high. At first glance, there is a talented young man doing such awesome things in the United States. The fans suddenly fry. Some shouted for Duke to be relieved, some analyzed the glorious prospects of cooperation between Lu Qiujian and Yao Ming from a technical perspective, and some could not wait to press the title of No. 1 next year on the head of Lu Qiujian, but suffered a satire from professionals. , There is a little emperor in the top pick can still be someone else’s turn?

Everyone seems to take Lu Qiujian into the NBA, and even join the national team as a matter of course.
