Chapter 60 - NBA eyes

“Does Dartmouth’s organizational guard study politics?” Spencer asked Lu Qiujian, who was reading “Clash of Civilizations and the Reconstruction of the World Order”.

“Uh huh.”, Lu Qiujian nodded gently and said correctly, “Their guard, Steve Callaghan, is a junior in political science and has completed a thesis on the strategic adjustment of the United States after 9/11.”

“You don’t have to worry about them at all!”, Patrice reached out and grabbed his book, but was slightly let go by Lu Qiujian. He slapped on the back of the chair in a depressive manner, “Last year there were 14 games, poor Dartmouth Great Green only won the Cornell Reds and the Columbia Masters at home. We can win even if you don’t play! “

“It’s always right to be prepared enough!” In both games last year, Princeton beat their opponents by double-digit points. This year their quality of players is even worse, and there is still no way to change themselves in Ivy League. The bottom fate of the league.

This is also the consequence of Dartmouth’s unique concept of running a school. Although this school established in 1769 is one of the oldest universities in the United States, it has been unwilling to expand its scale. The total number of students enrolled each year is only higher than that of Princeton. It should be less, plus basketball scholarships are never issued, so it is reasonable to find no good seedlings.

This time, the Dartmouth Green team came to fight in Princeton, so the Tigers players were free from the boat; after simple tactical guidance, the players wore traditional orange jerseys to line up for the show.

Perhaps the relationship between Duke and Harvard was defeated. Even now, during the Christmas holiday, the basketball court is still full of fans who cheer for the Tigers; of course, there are some people who are not just watching the ball.

“Hey, Kevin, are you here too?” While the Spurs scout Kevin Pritchard was checking the Tigers’ names against the numbers one by one, someone patted him on the shoulder.

“Long! Did you fancy that player?”, Kevin recognized that the person in front of him was the Spurs core player Duncan’s agent Ron Babbie, and he was also the Bruce Bowen who just joined the Spurs last year. ‘S agent, Bowen was able to join the Spurs, and Popovich read the scout report he provided. The relationship between the two was fairly harmonious.

“Who else?” Long exaggerated his mouth wide open, “Who else is eligible to join the NBA?”

“That big guy is also good! If you train well, you might become a good blue-collar!” The work between the two was useless, and Kevin Shun pointed at Patrice.

“How many dollars can he bring me?” Long is also the No. 1 agent in the NBA. If he is an ordinary blue-collar, it is not worth his time to watch the ball on the spot. “Now the agent in the whole country. They are all jealous of Yao ’s agent Zhang. It ’s too wasteful for China to occupy such a huge market! ”

“Then you must hurry!” Kevin smiled and pointed to the other corner, “Look at who it is?”

“I knew there was definitely more than me as an agent here, Robbie Pelinka! That bitch!”, Long-Babi stared fiercely and scolded, “Isn’t it enough that he has Kobe!” “

“He has Kobe, you also have Tim!” Kevin smiled slightly. He was also not easy on his side. He had discovered the ball sent by the Nuggets, Heat and other teams with poor records some time ago. Explored.

This year’s Spurs experienced a run-in at the beginning of the season, and a new system led by Duncan, Parker and Ginobili gradually took shape, and the whole team held a force to send Robinson’s last season a big gift. Getting a good pick after the season is not so easy.

The referee whistled and the game officially started. Patrice easily shot the basketball in the hands of the center of the big green team who was not more than two meters tall. Lu Qiujian quickly pushed through the basket to the ball. To the periphery, Spencer made an open shot and the Princeton Tigers opened the record.

Is faster than Tony, breaks through without losing to Manu, and the vision of the pass is even wider. Kevin Pritchard gave Lu Qiu 32 praises in his heart.

“He just dunked on the scum little forward of the big green team!” Ron Babbie shook his head in dissatisfaction. If a player doesn’t know how to please the audience, the sponsors like to see everything. Those are dunks flying around, but no one is willing to pay for the pass unless you are white chocolate.

“In addition to the small forward in front of him, he also has a shooting guard behind him. If you want to dunk, you will be disturbed! Passing the open teammates is the best choice!”, Perhaps under the influence of Popovich What Kevin valued more was the teamwork ability of the players.

Long pouted and said nothing. This is also a point of great resentment. Duncan and Kobe are comparable in strength, but the ability to absorb gold is incomparable. Isn’t this because Duncan is too focused on the team?

At the same time, in a villa in San Antonio, Spurs coach Greg Popovich is staring at assistant coach Carlesimo who keeps debugging TV, “I said you can’t find that  quickly ‘S live channel? “

“Greg, it’s good! Now it’s just the regular season, no one will pay attention to the Ivy League game!”, Carlesimo muttered and quickly pressed the remote control, “And Kevin has gone, we just need to wait for him Is just fine! “

“What do the coaches need to do if you can see the report With the efforts of Carlesimo, the game between Princeton and Dartmouth finally appeared on the screen.

“There are not many young players who are so focused on defense now!”, Popovich watched the screen with standard defensive moves staring at Steve Callaghan’s Lu Qiujian.

I do n’t know what Lu Qiujian said, but Callahan was a little stunned. After a steal, Lu Qiujian dodged a dribble behind to avoid the big green team defense player and quickly went down to the opponents basket. Slam dunk, today’s game pressure is too small, he has no motivation to come.

“Beautiful pass!”, Popovich began to imagine the scene of Lu Qiujian’s passing and Duncan slam dunk. The next performance of Lu Qiujian was to let his adrenaline secrete too much. Splitting the ball, Lv Qiujian put the Tigers players on the field tightly into a whole.

“This is the player I want! This is the player I want!”, Repeated twice in a row, Popovich suddenly looked back and looked at Carlesimo, “You said we will start from now on Is it too late to rotten? “
