Chapter 69 - open letter

Although Shirley Tillman is the second female principal in the history of the Ivy League, he is very reluctant to add a word “female” before the principal’s name; this gentle-faced old lady reminds a little rich After taking office, she did not disappoint her supporters. Through a series of policies, this old and conservative campus has a fresh atmosphere.

“Mary, how is today’s schedule arranged?” She came to her office early in the morning and asked while browsing the documents. This job, which is far more than the salary of the President of the United States, is not so easy, and has both administrative and academic duties. , Not only to form an effective administrative management team, but also to propose and supervise the budget of various major projects, it is said to also manage student affairs, coordinate public relations, shape the school image, and the most important fund-raising activities.

“Today is your meeting time with the Student Union; at noon will accompany Mr. Cosimo for lunch. Mr. Cosimo is an alumnus of level 76 and owns a company with a market value of more than three billion US dollars. Make a donation! “, Mary took out her notebook and read out today’s arrangement.

“What does Mr. Cosimo want to donate?” These old alumni are the most staunch supporters of Princeton’s growth and development, and it is necessary to be well received.

“Mr. Cosimo did not directly explain that from the previous contacts, it seems that Mr. Cosimo would be willing to obey the arrangements of the school!” This kind of donated talent is the favorite of major schools.

“What does this gentleman like to do when he is studying?” Tillman looked at the portraits of the principals on the wall. “That was a student from Robert’s time? I am grateful to this principal for opening the door of Princeton to girls!”, In her mouth, Robert is the sixteenth principal of Princeton, Robert Gohen. It was during his tenure that Princeton completed the coeducational change.

“Mr. Cosimo did not show his hobbies for social activities and sports while he was in school. It seems that he is the most lazy lying in the dormitory to rest!”, Mary said with a smile.

“Then let him donate a dormitory building!”, Tillman made a decisive decision, anyway, as the ratio of male to female students in the school changes, the girls’ dormitory is not enough.

“Okay!”, Mary quickly wrote down, “Yes, there is one more thing. Professors Wyeth and Griffith of the Department of Mathematics just called to say there are important things to meet with you. They Expected to arrive in ten minutes! “

“I haven’t seen Mr. Wyeth in a few weeks. Is his health okay? Take out the black tea that the other party gave me when I went to Cambridge last time. Professor Wyeth will like this!” Erman showed the delicateness unique to women.

Ten minutes later, the two professors were led in by Mary. Principal Tillman had already waited at the door, led them to the sofa and sat down, picked up the teapot and poured them freshly brewed black tea. This is full of praise.

Without saying a few words, Philip Griffith took out a document from his briefcase and handed it over, “Just yesterday, we encountered something very indignant, and we hope to get it on this matter. your support!”

Seeing the expression of both of them was very serious, Tillman took the document and immediately looked at it. I saw that it was clear that Lu Qiujian’s thesis was plagiarized. There was an open letter at the end of the document, which was densely packed. Is full of autographs from professors in the Mathematics Department!

Even Tilman, a student, does not understand the weight of this paper, but the signatures of dozens of highly respected professors are enough to make her value it! She said solemnly, “I will verify this matter immediately. If it is really as stated in the document, I and the board of directors will provide you with full support. I will also be the President of Princeton University to Science and Yale raises a solemn protest! Richard (Yale’s current Richard Levin) must give us an explanation! “

“Okay, Andrew and I are waiting for your news!”, Phillips and Wyeth got up to say goodbye, they knew that a qualified manager would not make a hasty decision because of someone’s words, but it looked like she was already It took seven or eight minutes to believe, and I believe it will not take long to verify this matter.

“Mary, I’m afraid we have to say sorry to Mr. Cosimo!”, Tillman rubbed his temples, such a big thing happened, it is estimated that he would not have time to lunch with guests at noon, “I remember Mike Mr. Laren seemed to be the teacher of Mr. Cosimo ’s department when he was 76, please trouble him to receive Mr. Cosimo on my behalf! “

Arranged other things. Tillman immediately launched an investigation. A few hours later, the feedback from various channels all proved that the documents submitted by Wyeth and Phillips were completely true.

“Poor Richard, he’s getting annoyed!”, Tilman seems to have seen his peers in a state of embarrassment under the censure of the media and the board of directors.

She took out the open letter from the bottom of the document, and signed her name, and then found the current directors of the school to sign one by one, and returned the open letter to Phillips in the afternoon.

Inside the headquarters of Science, the fax paper creaked, “Damn, can’t you come early!” The depressed clerk walked to the fax machine while looking at the clock that was about to go to work Qian casually picked up the newly received documents.

open letter? Protest against plagiarism by reviewers of Science? She was not scared by these dazzling characters. This kind of thing is much seen in “Science”. As one of the world’s largest scientific journals, “Science” has witnessed countless essays such as fraud and plagiarism. Behavior; the recent “Science” has just revoked eight papers published by a German physicist last year, because many of the data in the article were fabricated by the author.

Ok? Princeton? ! Seeing the signature at the end of the open letter, her expression suddenly became serious. The open letter was different from the open letter. If it was a protest in a university in Burkina Faso, she would probably throw the letter into the shredder without seeing it. But if it is Princeton, it is beyond her processing authority.

She didn’t care about leaving work soon, and quickly got up and ran to the editor’s office.

Then, the fax machine in the Yale University Mathematics Department and the Yale President ’s office also started to work, and at the same time, the phone on Richard Levine ’s desk rang at the same time! At a glance, he saw on the telegram that the call came from Shirley Tillman!
