Chapter 74 - fall! fall! fall!

“Have all been thrown away?”, Knight stared at the traders under his eyes with red eyes. It had been an hour since he had read the article. Luther Technology had not responded. There must be The big problem.

“Yes, we dumped all the stocks of Luther Technology Company in half an hour, which resulted in a loss of millions of dollars!”, The trader replied somewhat unwillingly!

“It’s only a million dollars!”, Knight breathed a long sigh of relief. “If you wait for the afternoon to go far beyond this loss, you go back to work and I will give you a bonus!”

“Why are you still falling! Shouldn’t we try to throw them away, Hansen?” Billy calculated silently in his heart. It was the hesitation just now that the number of stocks he owned shrank again. One hundred thousand dollars.

“Let’s wait and see, Luther Technology must have action!”, Hansen desperately pressed F5, and he could not see any statement from Luther Technology Company popping up, even the sandwich on hand could not take a bite. .

“It’s time to eat, Mark, what do you want to eat? How about a French meal?” Jason next door is now in a spirited look.

“That’s great. Can you give me a red wine tongue? Of course, it would be better if you were willing to call me a chick!” Mark also seemed to see that a huge commission was about to fly into his pocket, Can’t help but make a joke.

“No no no! I won’t meet your requirement now!” Jason shook his finger. “If you are overworked and shake your hands, I will lose money!”

Soon, the luxurious meal ordered by Jason was delivered. While tasting the craftsmanship of the top chefs, everyone stared at the flashing information on each screen; suddenly Mark put down his knife and fork and threw it in front of the computer. The latest statement! “

The crowd immediately gathered around, and Mark read out the statement aloud, "Luther Technology said that Professor Cooper's article is purely slandering, and Luther Technology has never fabricated any data; the company has sent it to Professor Cooper and Fortune. Lawyer's letter asking them to immediately apologize and compensate Luther Technology for the loss!"

"Haha, see if you don't, Luther Technology really has action!" Hansen shouted at the table, and with the release of this statement, Luther Technology's stock rose slightly, "Go up, go up, A little more!" Hanson and Billy shouted while staring at the curve on the screen.

"There is only an empty statement throughout the article, a reputation for a little bit of solid data support! Luther Technology is just doing the final struggle!", Lv Qiujian and Jason had expected this situation, and they have done a good job accordingly. The preparations are not tense at all.

An hour later, a well-known accounting firm fired two senior employees. It was found that these two employees happened to be the accountants who were responsible for the service of Luther Technology Company. If it was not that they did what they should not do. So, the timing of the expulsion is too coincidental? As soon as the news came out, Luther Technology's stock fell again.

When the news appeared on the webpage, Hanson and Billy's trading room was wailing; Lu Qiujian and Jason were thunderous; the wall between them showed a huge difference between the two sides of the sky.

"It's almost time to repurchase now? In my experience, the price of this stock has already reached the bottom of my sister's bottom!", Mark asked happily while looking at the declining line.

"No, it's not time yet!" Lu Qiujian and Jason spoke at the same time, and finally Jason explained, "Do you think that the expulsion of the accountant is the last action? There will be more exciting news! Luther remembers that there is still a lot of room for stock prices to fall!"

"There will be new news coming soon?", Mark secretly prayed for his friends in the heart, I hope they have all thrown away this stock now.

"Hansen, I just told you to throw away and you don't throw it! Now even if you want to throw it away, you can't find anyone to take the order! It's your fault!" Two old friends shouted loudly in the trading room next door Quarrel.

“You also agreed just now! And when Luther Technology issued a statement, you said you have to wait!” Billy retorted loudly, and the two quarreled and leaned back on the chair for a while, “What should I do now?” do?”

“Today’s trading time is approaching, let’s see if Luther Technology will take the guard at the end!” Hansen said with last hope. As a result, a big buyer suddenly shot at the market at four o’clock in the afternoon. The price of the stock was raised by three points, and the two hesitated and missed the opportunity.

“Maybe it will continue to rise after opening tomorrow!”, The two comforted each other.

“Mark, let’s go, we invite you to eat a big meal! This time it’s time to change the Italian food!” Jason and Lu Qiujian were not affected by this wave of increase.

Continued to return to the trading room the next day, the stock of Luther Technology showed a continued upward trend as soon as the market opened. It has not been long before Hansen and Billy are happy, there is a heavy news burst. Out-the three major appraisal agencies lowered the credit rating of Luther Technology Company at the same time, and the downward trend of the stock can no longer be stopped.

“Fall! Fall! Fall!” In the dismal New York Stock Exchange, only Lu Qiujian’s trading room was glowing red, and Jason and Mark looked at the changing numbers on the display and shouted loudly. .

“Uh, Lu, are we not kind enough to do this?”, The simple Patrice couldn’t help asking.

“Is it our fault? Luther Technology made a fake account, and we only exposed this fact! Luther Technology made the mistake instead of us!”, Lu Qiujian shrugged, okay, I I used this news to make a profit from it, but even if I did n’t do it, it would be cheaper for others. In any case, those who are unresponsive will suffer losses, so why should I sit and watch the money slip away from my eyes?

“It has been too long to come out, and I should go back to school!” He took his coat from the hanger. “The next thing will be handed over to you. Repurchase according to the formula I gave you. Should not What an accident! “

“No problem! The income will hit your account on time!” Jason rubbed his hands excitedly. If he can complete the operation according to the ideal state, it will bring them tens of millions of dollars of income!

After playing the Dartmouth green team in the end, he will face Harvard again. I wonder if Natalie will come?
