Chapter 83 - new Year

“Mom, good for the New Year! There is no way to go back this year, I can only call you on New Year’s greetings!” The mother’s cry came from the end of the phone, and Lu Qiujian quickly comforted, “Don’t cry! Now It ’s almost three months, and I can go back in four months! ... It ’s good. I plan to give a few Chinese professors a New Year in these two days ... and then make dumplings and watch the Spring Festival Gala with some international students. .. Do n’t keep thinking about saving money, my part-time job income is quite high, you can rest assured to spend it! ... I have just passed 20, you said this is too early? ... friend Call me out, I’ll hang up first! I wish you and your father good health and a happy new year ... “

It’s easy to cope with the house. Lu Qiujian breathed a sigh of relief; now, although he can’t return home, he can still call them, but what about his real parents? When can I see them again?

Slightly depressed Lu Qiujian came to the living room, opened the refrigerator and turned out the beer stored by Patrice, opened a jar and went to the balcony, drinking while watching the distant starry sky, when can he really go home!

Jingle Bell, when the homesickness was full, the phone rang, and Lu Qiujian picked it up without looking, “Hello?”

“What are you doing now?” A sweet female voice came across from him. This warm voice made Lu Qiujian feel a little better.

“Yangyang! Happy New Year!”, Lv Qiujian squeezed the empty beer cans into a ball and thrown them back. The beer cans fell into the trash basket impartially, a beautiful shot.

“Brother Lu, you are also good for the Chinese New Year. Are there any red envelopes?” Yang Yang gave a playful laugh.

“Oh, hey, how can I not let you scream! You must give you a big red envelope!”, What is she calling now? Are you homesick too?

Guessed that Yang Yang said, “No shame! Then I will go to Princeton to find you! You also promised to show me the cooking skills! Can your dormitory cook?”

“Isn’t this time a big party like Christmas?”, Since it is the New Year, you must drink alcohol. The nostalgia and loneliness after leaving home plus alcohol, this can easily lead to the overthrowing event! But now he has Stella to solve her needs, and Natalie can soothe each other’s hearts. For the time being, she doesn’t want to go further with her.

“Hey, it’s not fun to be together with them, I just want to find a place to keep quietly.” I don’t want to meet Natalie again at the big party, maybe I feel that my words are a bit ambiguous, Yangyang hurries Added, “I don’t mind if I go with my roommate? Isn’t it a big beauty too!”, Also stressed.

If you bring a girlfriend, do n’t expect any accidents? The first thing was the thesis, and then the game and the stock market were noisy. This time was indeed too busy. It seemed good to relax. Lu Qiuqian agreed happily.

Hung up the phone and went out to buy some gifts. Lv Qiuqian knocked Professor Nan’s room carrying something. Among the Chinese teachers in Princeton, Professor Nan was most familiar with him.

“Professor Nan is happy for the New Year, and I’ll give you a New Year!” As soon as the door opened, Lu Qiuqian punched his hands in fists.

“Oh ... Oh, you are also good for the Chinese New Year!” Professor Nan froze for a moment. After the reaction, he hurriedly touched the body in a hurry, and finally found Zhang twenty meters and stuffed it.

Retreated a little and made Lu Qiuqian accept it with a smile. After entering the room, he looked around. Professor Nan in the room was alone, and the atmosphere of the Chinese New Year was not seen.

“You are going to another place for the New Year? I didn’t delay your trip?”, Asked Lu Qiuqian.

“No, I’ll be alone. It’s just like packing it!” Professor Nan said with a smile, “How about you, how are you going? Going to meet those international students?”

“Two friends are coming from New York and say they are making dumplings at me!”, Lv Qiuqian moved, “Professor Nan, if you don’t think you abandon my craftsmanship, let’s go together? We haven’t done any cooking, Just need expert guidance like yours! “

“Hahahaha!” Professor Nan waved his hands again and again, “You can find the wrong person! The kitchen utensils in my house don’t have to move for half a month, let’s talk about the activities of your young people I will not blend in!”

Seeing that his attitude of rejection was not very firm, Lv Qiujian continued to joke to persuade, “That is also stronger than us! Would you not be too reluctant to send two red envelopes?”

“You kid!”, Professor Nan pointed at Lv Qiujian with a smile and scolded. He just refused because he was afraid that Lv Qiujian was a polite. Now he is really inviting to see him, so he was a little bit tempted. “Your dormitory is so small. , And the pots and pans are not suitable for Western style, simply come to me here! Although I do n’t cook much, the guys are all complete, and the seasonings are all genuine goods bought from Chinatown; we only Just go to the supermarket to buy some food! “

Came out of Professor Nan ’s house and on the way to the supermarket to buy things, Lu Qiujian told Yangyang that Yangyang did n’t show any displeasure.

At 7 pm in Beijing time, exactly at 6 am in the United States time, when the Spring Festival Gala was opening lively, Yang Yang and her classmates came to the door of Princeton, and Lu Qiujian, who had been waiting here, hurried up.

“Brother Lu, this is my roommate Xu Si; Xu Si, this is what I said Lu Qiujian!”, Yang Yang pulled the tall, beautiful woman beside her to her.

“Happy New Year, Brother Lu, give you trouble!”, Xu Si generously extended his hand.

“No trouble, but you started to work hard early in the morning!”, Lu Qiujian found two red envelopes from his arms and handed them over, “Happy New Year!”

“Thank you Brother Lu The two little girls cheered and took the past, led by Lu Qiujian to Professor Nan’s house, naturally two red envelopes were handed over.

“Thank you Uncle Nan!”, The two little girls can be similar to Lu Qiujian’s set, and they will give back the gift they prepared immediately after receiving the red envelope. Although it is not very expensive, it also makes Professor Nan particularly happy.

A group of people turned on the TV in the living room and watched the Spring Festival Gala while making dumplings, but it was also fun; Lu Qiujian's dumplings' craftsmanship was not as bad as he said, and the dumplings were thin and big belly. It was also very popular, so all three of them gave him the job of making dumplings.

After cooking, the two girls who had eaten western food for a long time were extremely excited. The one who ate it was called a fast, and even had a few more with Professor Nan; after eating dumplings, in the countdown sound, this year passed, new What will happen in a year?
