Chapter 90 - Before the game

Lu Qiujian finished talking with Stella in the corridor, and finally persuaded her not to come to the scene to watch the ball. When she was planning to go back to rest, she found that Coach Thompson's room was still lit; is it too nervous to play tomorrow? ? He thought about pushing the door in and saw coach Thompson watching the video of Syracuse University intently.

“Actually, their tactics are not perfect!” Lu Qiujian said aloud, sitting down beside him.

“Yes, the so-called Syracuse joint defense is just a variant of the 2-3 joint defense, as long as we have another mid-shooting big man and a guard who is good at three-point shooting can be cracked!” Coach Thompson scratched his head, “but We have no way to stop their offense! And Oklahoma State University relied on the outside line to lead Syracuse University by more than 20 points in the 32-to-16 game. Syracuse changed the score after changing to an adult mark in the second half. Come back! What if they change? “

“We can't stop Anthony, and they can't stop me! At that time, it depends on who has a higher hit rate!” Lu Qiujian said confidently, “their two defenders are too slow, Ca n't keep up with me; although Warwick is fast and jumps high, spring people like him are more prone to eating fake moves. I do n't dare to move if I make two fouls! “

Lu Qiujian pointed to Syracuse University center Craig Foss on the screen and said, “Although their insiders are tall, neither the offensive ability nor the rebounding ability is outstanding! We can try to beat Patrice! When defending, be careful not to let Anthony and Warwick easily rush to the rebound ... “

The two discussed for more than an hour, only to get a rough idea of tomorrow's tactics, did some targeted training in the field adaptation training the next day, and then quietly waited for the game to start.

After entering the quarterfinals, there was an additional press conference before the game. Coach Thompson appeared with Patrice and Gardson in front of the reporters; the reporters quickly asked, “Mr. Coach, why did Lu Qiujian not attend the release?” meeting!”

“He is going to do his homework!” Thompson shrugged his shoulders. Lu Qiujian didn't like this kind of occasion, so he was the only one who resisted the thunder. “You know, Lu is not only a good player, but also a talented mathematician, The NCAA competition has already delayed him too much research time. He is currently revising a paper; he asked me to say sorry! “

Homework! Well, this reason is very good and very powerful. The reporters were depressed and did not know what to say. The questions they had prepared were all directed against Lu Qiujuan. Now the protagonist becomes tasteless without this drama; several reporters asked Coach Thompson's outlook on the game was met by him in the official language, but Patrice was full of fighting spirit and expressed his confidence in winning the game.

The game is about to officially start, because Albany is not too far from Princeton, the students of Princeton have come to make a special trip, and here has almost become the home of the Tigers! So the Tigers players received a warm welcome when they played, especially Lu Qiujuan, who received more cheers than Anthony.

Ok? Where is Natalie? She said she would come to see the ball! As soon as he entered the stadium, Lu Qiujuan began to look around, “Black, Xiao Lu!” Suddenly a thick and low voice came from behind him.

“Wang Nima! ... Oh, good brother Yao!” As soon as I looked back, I saw the familiar big man, greeted him with a stern expression face, and Lu Qiujuan hurried over. “How did you come today?”

“I played a game nearby, I have heard of you for a long time, this time I just had the opportunity to cheer you up! Play well, win and I invite you to dinner!” Yao Ming patted Lu Qiujuan on the shoulder.

“OK! But can't we eat Modu cuisine?”, Lu Qiujuan joked easily, not seeing a little pre-competition tension.

“Which team do you want to go to in the draft? Or come to the Rockets!” Yao Ming entangled enthusiastically, “We will definitely get good results by the time we go inside and out!”

What should I do if I went to Mr. Fu, Lv Qiujuan smiled and looked at the reporters around, “It's inconvenient to say now, let's talk privately after the game!”

“Yao! I'm sorry, can you tell me and my elementary school brother two words!” At this time, a tall white man wearing a straight suit came over and extended his right hand to Lu Qiujuan, “Hello, I'm Bill- Bradley, your senior! A special trip to cheer for you! “

This guy was the main force that led the Tigers to the final four, and left a total of 1253 points, 29.83 points per game, 87.4% free throw percentage and many other Ivy League records. Of course, the free throw percentage record it has been broken by Lu Qiujiang; after graduating from the Knicks, he won two championships, retired to politics, and lost to Gore in the competition for presidential candidates in the previous two years.

“Thank you! I will lead the team to victory in this game!” Lu Qiujiang smiled after shaking hands.

Bradley also wanted to say something. At this time, acquaintance reporters such as Feng Hongqi and Li Xiao gathered together. asked aloud, “Xiao Lu, can you give us an exclusive interview after the game?”

“Wait after all the games are over!”, Lu Qiujiang responded loudly, he could not care much about the sports reporters of the United States, but the domestic reputation still needs to be brushed!

“Sorry, I’m going to prepare for the game!” Seeing that people tend to gather more and more, Lu Qiujiang quickly apologized and walked into the court to start shooting practice.

Coach Thompson was talking to Syracuse University coach Jim Bauham. This is also a legend. When he was 32 years old in 1976, he became the head coach of Syracuse University and has been coaching until today.

In 1987 Syracuse reached the NCAA finals under his command. They played Indiana University led by legendary coach Bob Knight in the New Orleans Super Stadium. Syracuse still leads Indiana University by 2 points 10 seconds before the end of the game. And Syracuse has possession of the ball, the Indiana team fouled, Syracuse received a 1 + 1 free throw opportunity. Syracuse’s best player Derek Coleman (the popular champion) stood at the free throw line. As long as he can make two free throws, Indiana has no chance. But he missed the first goal and was rebounded by Indiana University. After the timeout, Indiana University won the three-point lore.

After the game, Knight said to him, “I know you will return to this place!” Coincidentally, this year’s final venue is New Orleans again, with talented players like Anthony under his banner, he is very confident in New Orleans Make up for the regret and lead Syracuse to win the championship, but will Lu Qiujiang make him wish?
