Chapter 91 - 3 minutes rain

“You are a good player, but unfortunately your teammates are not worthy of you!” After the warm-up, Anthony came over to say hello. He glanced at Spencer and others and said, “I won this game!”

Mommy, also to provoke our internal relations? This child is not honest, Lu Qiu Jian did not take his words, said with a smile, “I heard that you plan to go to the draft next year? This is indeed a wise choice, because everyone knows that you can’t beat LeBron James. ! “

Paralysis, hitting face or face! Anthony slowed down for a long time, and said snortingly, “Then how can you rank?” After he finished speaking, Lu Qiu Jian returned to his own half in depression.

The game officially started. The Princeton Tigers’ lineup is center Garderson, power forward Patrice, small forward Spencer, shooting guard Will and point guard Lu Qiu Jian, and the Syracuse Oranges starter It’s center Krieg Foss, a soy sauce man; power forward Hakim Warwick, an excellent athletic springman; small forward Cameron Anthony, the NCAA’s hottest player this year, can win 22 points, 10 rebounds and 2 assists; shooting guard Keith Duane is the team’s spiritual leader; and against Lu Qiu Jian is the point guard Gray McNamara, his shooting and passing are still Yes, averaging 13.3 points and 4.4 assists per game.

Princeton wore a traditional orange jersey today, but Syracuse University was depressingly replaced with a white away jersey. This may be a good sign; at the beginning of the game, Patrice once again won the jump ball, the commentator and the fans. His eyes fell on Lu Qiu Jian, wanting to see how he organized his first attack.

“It’s too slow, your pace is too slow!”, Lu Qiu Jian sprayed **** on the posted McNamara while moving towards the top of the arc. Since the tournament began, his high-end **** has lost its effect In desperation, he had to give up this weapon and learn those old players to talk about the opponent’s flaws.

At this time, Patrice had mentioned the high position, and then he blocked Lu Qiu Jian to catch the empty and easily scored a three-pointer. When he had landed, Warwick, who was defending, had just drifted past him; I have to say this The bouncing ability of the guy is indeed exaggerated, but it is a step late.

For the Syracuse offense, McNamara seemed to be very afraid of Lu Qiu Jian’s defensive ability. He handed the ball to Anthony just after halftime. Anthony squeezed Spencer into the inside without much effort. Patrice made a field goal before making up the defense; the star of both sides also opened the first record for his team.

“Patrice!”, Lu Qiu Jian passed the ball to Patrice who responded to the high position, then flicked away McNamara with a speed, and ran to the left side of the 45-degree angle, Patrice immediately scored the ball. Out, Lu Qiu Jian lifted after receiving the ball and moved a step to the bottom corner to avoid Warwick’s defense. This was a steady shot and he shot again!

Warwick, who had been molested twice, was very depressed. After halftime, he beckoned to ask McNamara for the ball. After receiving the ball, he escaped Patrice’s defense and wandered in the air, using a difficult change for a layup. He scored two points, and that was his breath.

“Guess if I am a breakthrough or a pass this time?” Lu Qiu Jian drew the ball to the three-point line while paying attention to McNamara’s movements. Seeing that the distance between him and himself was slightly larger, regardless of just one step away from the three-point line, the ball was immediately collected and pulled out. The basketball crossed a beautiful arc and fell into the basket. The nets brushed out a beautiful wave; at the beginning of the game, Lu Qiu Jian had a three-point rain.

Toot, the referee suspended the game, and coach Bauham called a timeout less than three minutes from the start of the game, “Gray! What are you doing? How long did you let him score nine points!”

“His speed is too fast, I can’t keep up!” McNamara said dejectedly.

“Take it tight! Don’t leave him a space to shoot, let him in. There are Cameron and Hakeem to defend you!” Are other people’s shots so accurate?

The game restarted, the lineup of the two sides remained unchanged, but this time Anthony’s singles came out of the frame, Lu Qiu Jian slightly slowed down the speed of Warwick’s rebound and the rebound was caught by Patrice.

Ha, how come this time so close? Since you’re like this, I’m welcome. A change of hands quickly kicked off McNamara and reached the inside line. Anthony, Warwick and Foss moved their footsteps at the same time. The three raised their arms to form an iron cage, and they Qiu Jian was in the middle.

Do you think this is enough? Lv Qiujian turned around and leaned back against Anthony. His right hand flicked back. A juggling action passed the ball to the outside of Gardson. Gardson took this kind gift and unrestrainedly made a layup. succeed.

The game gradually fell into Princeton's pre-game plan, using Lu Qiujian's three-point and breakthrough and Patrice's high-level response to mess up Syracuse's defensive formation; even they can't stop Cameron- Anthony's offense, but he can still do a little bit of shooting!

In addition to the gap between the three-pointer and the two-pointer, the score slowly unconsciously opened; at the beginning, Coach Bauham did n't believe that the Tigers 'three-point shooting rate could remain so high, but until the game Towards the end of the first half, Lu Qiujian had already hit the eighth three point He regretted that he did not change his strategy in time.

However, it is too late to wait until the second half to change to adult mark, even if they change the speed and bounce of Warwick to defend Lu Qiujian, but already prepared Lu Qiujian repeatedly shakes him up, and then his own The body was attached to deceive free throws, and after practicing twice, Warwick's movements also flinched.

Defensive players did not dare to do their utmost, coupled with Patrice's high pick and roll, Lu Qiujian threw more than 20 three-pointers in the whole game, hitting 17 of them, hitting NCAA single-pointers The record has improved by two, while also breaking the NCAA's single-game scoring record this year.

Finally, the Princeton Tigers defeated Syracuse University with a 88:79 score and headed into the final semifinals under the big explosion of Lv Qiujian. The fans in the audience were full of joy!

Then the results of other games were gradually revealed. Perhaps it was stimulated by Lv Qiujian. Dwight Wade of Marquette University scored 32 points, 12 rebounds, and 12 assists. Lead the team to beat the top seed Kentucky to enter the semi-finals; the other two teams promoted are the Texas Longhorns and Kansas Jets.
