Chapter 95 - Eat Natalie

Led the fish-meat team to the semi-finals and won the final championship. When people looked forward to his NBA career, he chose not to participate in the draft and declared that he wanted to be a scientist more than the star himself! Lv Qiujian has provided a large number of gimmicks enough to detonate sales to major media.

After the press conference, the reporters rushed back to catch the manuscript with the fastest speed. They also boarded the bus and prepared to return to the hotel.

“Are you really not going to the NBA?”, Patrice looked at him a little tangled. Others came around curiously. Of course, these guys have not bad academic performance, they can understand the unique charm of science. Lu Qiujian’s decision was surprised at the beginning, but it is reasonable to think about it carefully.

“No, I prefer math to basketball!” Lu Qiujian heard the regret in Patrice’s tone and turned his head to ask, “Why, do you want to go to the NBA? Based on your performance this year, participate The odds of being drafted are quite high! “

“Well, an agent is already contacting me!”, Patrice did not deny this. “I was still thinking about waiting for you to make a decision. If I can join the same team as you, I might use it.” Within a few years we will have a chance to win the championship! “

“Unfortunately you don’t plan to go to the NBA anymore!”, Patrice sighed. “In this case, I will continue to study. I will go back to my country after graduation. In the future, if you have time, remember to come to the Congo and play with me! “

Well, this is also a good guy! In terms of strength, he is also a second-round pick. The salary of 1.8 million is naturally not in his eyes, and there is not much hope of winning a championship. No matter whether it is money or honor, there is no way to meet his needs. It’s reasonable for this guy to choose not to participate in the draft like Lu Qiujian.

“Then it’s done! I’ll check it out when I have time!” Well, there are still some good things in this country. I guess I can use it in the future. Maybe I will go to his hometown in the future.

Back at the hotel, the exhausted players returned to their rooms for a rest. Lv Qiujian looked at the back door without a reporter. They quickly changed their clothes and slipped out. Today, Natalie has been cheering for him in the stands. Seeing is really inappropriate.

“Hey, Nat! Where are you now?”, While Lu Qiujian paid attention to the surroundings, she talked to Natalie. Fortunately, the hotel she stayed in was not far from Lu Qiujian. Face.

“Congratulations on winning the championship!”, The petite Natalie flew into his arms at once, after several fierce competitions, she also saw some passion.

“Is this a prize for the champion?” Lu Qiujian gently wrapped her waist. Now that there are not many people in this street, he is not afraid of being seen. He lowers his head and gently touches her forehead. “But don’t you think this reward is not enough?”

“What else do you want?” Natalie asked, biting her lip and looking directly at his aggressive eyes. There was no panic in her eyes, but there was a taste of eagerness to try!

“I still want this!”, Lu Qiujian reached out her right hand and stroked her forehead. Natalie closed her eyes cleverly, tipped her toes and pouted her lips to welcome her ...

“Hey, it’s me. I won’t be back at night. If the coach asked you to tell him ... I know, it won’t delay tomorrow’s plane! ... En, thank you!”, Patrice Was awakened from a sleep by a rapid phone call.

“Hello, don’t hang up! FXXK! Why is it so fast!”, Depressed Patrice threw the phone down on the bed. I haven’t asked if there are other girls in the wood. Can I share one? ! Mom, every time you put your sister alone, I can only watch TV hard! It ’s too unfair!

Early the next morning, Natalie was taken to the taxi to the airport, and Lu Qiujian returned to the hotel refreshingly, without taking Patrice’s endless questioning, packed his luggage, and boarded with his teammates and coaches On the return flight.

The players had not awakened from the excitement after winning the championship yesterday. They all pulled their teammates with red eyes and laughed loudly, even Coach Thompson couldn’t help laughing.

Because of Princeton ’s outstanding performance this year, he has received many NCAA traditional strong invitations, even George Town University who has trained superstars such as Patrick Ewing, Arenzo Mourning and Allen Iverson has sent him Invitation card! The salary given was several times that of Princeton.

Of course he would not miss this opportunity. Although Princeton 's achievements this year are outstanding, Lu Qiujian will leave next year. The school will not provide basketball scholarships to attract those high school geniuses. It can be expected that Princeton may not even be able to enter the championship next year.

Georgetown University 's marvel team is different. That 's the NCAA 's tycoon. In history, it has become the regular season champion of the Great East League seven times, broke into the tournament six times, and reached the semi-finals four times; in Patrick in 1984. -Ewing led to the finals and won the championship, is a make up for the regret of Jordan 's lore two years ago.

Coach Thompson can also be regarded as entering the mainstream circle from the edge of the NCAA. After Lu Qiujian decided not to participate in the NCAA, he can be said to be the most successful person in this competition!

Arrived at New York Airport, the school bus has been waiting there, after more than an hour, the bus transported them back to Princeton.

The famous Fitz Randolph gate in the center of the campus was wide open, and Shirley Tillman came back ahead of time and personally led the team at the door to welcome their return. The students gathered, the waving flags, and the young and beautiful women, if not If the door is really narrow, everything is so beautiful.

“Are we ... really going to walk in through that door?”, Patrice, who was not afraid of the sky, was also hesitant to see the Fitz Randolph door.

The Fitz Randolph door will only be opened before 1970 when important people visit or graduates leave the school. After the collective of the graduation class in 1970 asked the school committee to open the door forever, a legend was born. It is said that after admission to graduation In the middle of four years, any student who walks through this door will not be able to get a job.

“Let's go! Even if you can't pass the exam, President Tillman will allow you to graduate in this championship!” Coach Thompson took the lead.

“Lv! You are awesome!” When President Lu Qiu got off the train, President Tillman gave a warm hug. Wenneng cracked Poincaré’s conjecture. Wu Neng won the NCAA championship. This is what every university dreams of!

Coach, I want to write Lifan! ! !
