

Daddy CEO 126

Chapter 126 Out In The Open

Everything was done so quickly that no one was able to react to it. Ran Yue and Yang Baihua's expressions twisted as they couldn't comprehend how did Ran Xueyi get their recording? They were certainly alone in that hospital room... Then, just how the hell did she do it?!

Ran Yue bit her lips as she stared in disbelief at Ran Xueyi.

"You..."

Ran Yue couldn't finish her words as Ran Xueyi continued.

"Tell me... have you been messing around with other girls while you're engaged with me?" Ran Xueyi questioned Yang Baihua. Her tears continued to flow down her cheeks as she continued, "I trusted you, Yang Baihua! I gave you my heart and believed that we would be a happy married couple. I even surrendered my career because you said you wanted my undivided attention!"

"I only agreed to do that back then because you said you would cancel our engagement if I didn't do that." Ran Xueyi's voice broke. "If I had known you would be a traitor and betray me like this... I would rather die single than be with a man like you!"

Ran Xueyi raised her head and her eyes were bloodshot. She hadn't wiped the tears from her cheeks as she shook her head. "You could have done anything to hurt me... But you just had to strip my pride off of me."

Yang Baihua didn't think that Ran Xueyi would say all these in front of such a huge crowd. Not to mention the people who were already physically present in the party, several cameramen were on the corner, capturing this very moment and letting every one of the viewers hear and watch her question him.

How humiliating was this?

"Ran Xueyi, you're slandering me!" Yang Baihua couldn't think of anything else to say after what she said.

It was true that he cheated on Ran Xueyi countless times and even did some humiliating things to her and manipulated her life. But Yang Baihua didn't want to admit it. For him, admitting that he had done something wrong, was very unlike him. He grew up in a wealthy family who treated him like a prince. Was it wrong for him to also act like one and never apologize for the things that he had done in his life?

Of course not!

"Stop trying to ruin me because of your insecurities!" Yang Baihua angrily pointed his finger at her. Pushing all the blame to Ran Xueyi and her lack of self-confidence.

Ran Xueyi coldly laughed inside her heart. Yang Baihua really lost his mind. Even after everything everyone heard from that audio, he had the audacity to deny her accusations.

Ran Xueyi didn't reply to him from speaking, because she knew that the more agitated and frustrated Yang Baihua became, the more he would slip and make mistakes.

As expected, Yang Baihua's words soon turned ugly as he said, "You say that you'd rather die than be with me... Then, who do you think can endure a stupid woman like you? Do you even know how much I hated it when I heard about our engagement? If only I wasn't forced by my family to accept our engagement then, I would have already married the woman I love!"

"Moreover, even your family-"

"Yang Baihua!" Ran Yue interrupted him. She feared that the moment he finished those words he wanted to say, the Ran family would be ruined!

She looked around her and saw the judging eyes that the people who came to celebrate her birthday turned into something sinister and full of hostility. Ran Yue knew that they hadn't found out that she was the woman in the audio, but she wouldn't wait for them to realize it either!

"Let's not talk here. Let's go inside and not let people watch us any longer," Ran Yue urgently said as she tried to pull Yang Baihua out of the hall while sending a signal to her mother to drag Ran Xueyi as well.

At first, everyone thought that Ran Xueyi would definitely not agree to that and continue, but instead, they saw her being pulled behind the door.

Finally, the door closed behind them. No one could tell what would happen next and no one knew whether the party should still continue.

Ran Mo Zheng, who was left in the middle of the hall, stunned and shocked at the sudden progression of the events, could only turn his back to the crowd and did not dare look anyone in their eyes. How humiliating! Just utterly humiliating!

Chang Ya and Chang Xin saw Ran Xueyi being pulled into a door and they turned to look at each other. They have a tacit understanding between each other with just a mere glance and without speaking a word, the two moved forward and also entered the room.

Inside the room.

Ran Xueyi's expression was too calm and indifferent. It was completely different from her previous tear-stricken and crying face. She no longer looked pitiful as she faced mother, Ran Yue and Yang Baihua. Rather, Ran Xueyi's face was expressionless and her eyes were staring at them as though she was staring at a couple of flies.

"Ran Xueyi! If you don't apologize to your sister and Yang Baihua, believe me, I will drag you outside and let everyone see how I will punish you!" Mother Ran stepped towards her and raised her hands as though she was about to slap her face.

Ran Yue gleefully watched on the side and was expecting Ran Xueyi's face to be slapped by their mother. She hated that she couldn't do that in front of everyone back in the hall after what Ran Xueyi did during her birthday party. But watching Ran Xueyi being scolded and beaten by their parents was also very satisfying.

Yang Baihua also couldn't wait to see it.

But before Mother Ran's hand could even touch her, Ran Xueyi already grabbed her wrist and pushed it away.

Ran Xueyi condescendingly looked at her mother who had just tried to slap her. Her heart was already numb and cold. "If you want to slap me... you can try. But before you do that, I think you might want to think twice after watching this."

Mother Ran scoffed and was about to reply, but Ran Xueyi already pulled up her phone and played the video. Mother Ran was still doubtful and expressing her suspicion, but the video already played before her eyes.

It was the video that Ran Xueyi got from the audio she collected last time. When Ran Xueyi bought the device, she didn't know that it had a cam recorder function. She only found out about it after she tried to figure out how the device worked.

Thankfully, she found out about it and it didn't go to waste. Now, she didn't only have an audio recorder that she could use, she also had the video to show to others and completely ruin Ran Yue and Yang Baihua.

Mother Ran was stunned and speechless. She couldn't speak for a long time. She turned to look at her daughter, who looked away and didn't dare look her straight in the eye then, also turned to look at Yang Baihua.

Their faces were filled with too many emotions that Mother Ran couldn't keep up. Nevertheless, she knew too well that the two were guilty as charged and really did the unspeakable.

"You..." Mother couldn't continue as Yang Baihua moved.

After watching the video, Yang Baihua sprung up to action and rushed forward, intending to take the phone from Ran Xueyi's hand. No matter what happens, he couldn't allow her to let anyone else see that video!

But who knew that the moment he got close to Ran Xueyi, someone had already kicked him from behind.

When Yang Baihua turned to face the person who kicked, he saw Chang Xin looking at him as if he would beat him to death if he dared to move a single muscle.

"Yang Baihua, do you believe that I would beat you up until you can see red?" Chang Xin coldly stared at him.

Yang Baihua gulped.

Though Chang Xin was younger than him by several years, Yang Baihua still felt fear towards this young man. Plus, Chang Xin was a lot taller than him.

"Xiao Xin, what are you doing here? Take your younger sister and get out of here. You two don't have to be here." Mother Ran still has some sense inside her brain. If she let the twins find out about their family matter and it was spread around in the whole Ran family and relatives, they wouldn't spend any effort to come to their house and destroy everything!

"There's no need for you to worry, Auntie. What you're afraid of... I'm sure we already know what it is." Chang Ya told her as she stepped forward.

Mother Ran stared at the twin and couldn't speak. It was already too late to say anything else.

Ran Xueyi, on the other hand, stared at the twins and was thankful for their support. But she will finish what she started.

"Do you still want to slap me, mother?" Ran Xueyi suddenly asked, paused for a second, before adding as she turned her face to the side, "Here, you can slap me. But be careful, cause the moment you touch me, this video will be spread around the whole country."

Chapter 127 "Don't Forget. You Murdered Her."

"I dare you to say that to your mother again!" Ran Mo Zheng bellowed as soon as he entered the room. His face was extremely red and he could already feel his blood pressure rising. "I thought you returned and attended the party because you've become sensible. It seems I was wrong! You still cause trouble wherever you go!"

"Honey, don't raise your voice too loudly. There are still people outside the hall and your illness might act up again." Mother Ran approached her husband and patted him on the back. Then, she looked at Ran Xueyi and said, "And you... you don't have to apologize to me. Just give me the original copy of that audio and video you have in your phone and I'll forgive you."

Ran Xueyi's eyes widened before she almost couldn't stop her laugh from coming out of her mouth. "Are you still daydreaming? Sorry, although you're my elder and my mother... I don't think you have any right to demand anything from me."

Hearing her response, Ran Mo Zheng was clearly upset and he glared at her as he pointed his finger at her. "You ungrateful child! We raised you in this house for so many years and yet, you can't even allow this simple request from your mother? Aren't you going to apologize to her? Isn't her demand only appropriate since she gave birth to you?"

Ran Mo Zheng didn't know why his wife wanted the audio file from Ran Xueyi. He was actually surprised that there was also a video. Unfortunately, he wasn't here when Ran Xueyi played the video, or else, he wouldn't be standing in front of her, but he would faint at the first sight of who was inside the video file.

In response to his words, Ran Xueyi raised an amused eyebrow before she slowly said, "You say I'm ungrateful? Why don't you speak for yourself? Have you ever said thank you to me for what I have done for this family? And why should I apologize to anyone? I have never done anything wrong that needs me to apologize to anyone."

"Are you perhaps talking about what happened outside?" Ran Xueyi sighed. "I can apologize."

Ran Yue and Yang Baihua's eyes lit up. Even Mother Ran was beaming when they heard her. It seems that before her father, Ran Xueyi still couldn't win against him.

,m Sadly, before their egos could even inflate like a huge hot air balloon, Ran Xueyi's next words stumped them out of their voices.

"Of course, an apology is only needed to be given to those who are affected because of what happened. After all, we wasted everyone's time." Ran Xueyi fixed and straightened her hair and stared at everyone before she said, "Alright, let's go out everyone."

Ran Yue was clueless as to what she wanted to do so she asked, "What are you planning to do now? Are you planning to release the video and let everyone watch it?"

She was scared shitless at the idea. There were more than a hundred people in the hall plus the entire party was being recorded live and many people were watching. If Ran Xueyi went out right now and let everyone watch it... there was really no need for her to wait for tomorrow's headlines to be reported because the moment everyone saw the video, she would never have any place in the entertainment circle anymore!

"Where are you going? Don't you dare leave this room!" Ran Yue demanded as she saw Ran Xueyi take a step towards the door.

"Where do you think? To apologize," said Ran Xueyi while beaming at her. "Father and Mother dearest begged me... As their daughter, isn't it only natural that I follow my parents' words?"

"Ran Yue, the more you grow older, the more your head can't seem to keep up with me. Are you really alright?"

Ran Xueyi expressed her concern for her younger sister, but her eyes were extremely dark and empty. When that pair of eyes landed on her, Ran Yue had the extreme urge to step back and run away.

Ran Xueyi saw her reaction and felt funny inside. At this moment, Ran Yue looked like a bunny who couldn't wait to hide away in its burrow.

Somehow, she couldn't help but have the desire to tease this scaredy cat and dull-headed sister of hers.

"Ah, that's right..." Ran Xueyi's eyes lit up as if she just thought of a brilliant idea. The people outside this room seem to be quite interested to see a show... Why don't I let them see a good one as compensation for wasting their time?"

"Isn't that a genius idea, mother?"

Mother Ran's heart took another leap. Since when has Ran Xueyi learned how to be this vicious? Where did she get this maliciousness that they never saw her show to them? Is this even the daughter that she thought was sensible and was easy to control?

With only her words, Ran Xueyi was able to use their words against them. If it were the previous Ran Xueyi they knew, she would never treat them like this. On the contrary, Ran Xueyi would even willingly give up and break any evidence left behind without another word. She would listen to every word they say even if she knew that it would make her look miserable.

"Don't stare at me like that, mother." Ran Xueyi suddenly said as though she could guess what was inside her mother's thoughts. A cruel and indifferent smile was on her lips. "No matter where you look and how long you look at me, you won't find that easily bullied and controlled daughter named Ran Xueyi in the past."

She let her eyes roam at everyone while saying, "Don't forget. You murdered her the moment you lied to her."

"For now, I will be leaving this house. Being in the same place and breathing the same air you all breathe makes me want to vomit," she continued her steps and headed towards the door. But she stopped just when her hands hovered above the door knob. "I forgot to mention... From now on, you all don't have to pretend as if we're a big, happy family. You all can try your hardest to scheme and deal with me."

She turned around one last time and smirked. "But I cannot guarantee you will be able to win nor survive."

Then, without waiting for them, Ran Xueyi had already pulled open the door, leaving the people who cheated her out of her life and made her live a miserable life in a doll house, stunned and dazed at her brilliance and the halo surrounding her.

Seeing the door finally shut close, everyone seemed to have woken up from their shock and started to panic. They let Ran Xueyi out of the room without a fight. Who knows if she really did play the video in front of everyone in the party.

Ran Yue couldn't let her do that. She moved her numbed feet towards the door, wanting to pull Ran Xueyi back inside and keep her detained in the house for as long as possible. However, before she could even reach the door, Chang Ya and Chang Xin blocked her.

"You two! Get out of my way!" Ran Yue tried to push them away, but who knew that the two who wouldn't even budge. "I said get away!"

"I don't want to," said Chang Ya while she put her hand on her hips. Then, she turned to her brother and complained, "Brother, my legs are numb. They're hard as a rock. I don't think anyone can move me from this spot."

Chang Xin knew what his sister was playing and also played along with her.

Patting her head, he dotingly said, "Alright... You can stand there for as long as you want. Big brother is here to protect you."

As if to prove that he would protect his sister from anyone who dared to come and take her away from where she stood, Chang Ya stepped in front of her and blocked anyone from advancing forward.

Ran Mo Zheng and Lu Jing knew that this young boy was young, but he was also the captain of the national karate club of their school. He wasn't only adverse with martial arts and other vigorous activities, he also excelled and took several black belts and trophies from different competitions around the country at a very young age.

Would they even dare fight this overprotective twin brother?

The three looked at Yang Baihua. He was their only hope. However, Yang Baihua looked away and acted as if he didn't sense their gaze.

Forget about it... even Yang Baihua stood no chance to compete against Chang Ya.

The twin successfully blocked the bunch of clowns bouncing around the place and wanted to chase after their big sister Ran Xueyi. Though, there was no need to since Ran Xueyi already stepped into the crowd and walked away from the party the moment they recovered from their shock.

Chapter 128 After Party

After leaving the party, Ran Xueyi stood at the front entrance and flashed a smile at the butler who she met earlier that day. Just in time, her phone chimed and when she looked down at it, she saw a message from Song Yu Han. He told her that he was on his way and waited for him for a few seconds.

Ran Xueyi raised an eyebrow, surprised that he had forgotten about his business meeting and turned the car around to pick her up. She was filled with warmth by his gentle and caring gesture and sent him a reply.

Not long after she sent this, the same car that she got off from just earlier stopped in front of the front entrance. Ran Xueyi had expected Song Yu Han to wait for her to get inside the car, but who could have thought that he'd instead get out of the car and walk towards her.

"Why did you come out?" ran Xueyi was shocked at his action.

Song Yu Han ignored her question and walked in front of her And carefully eyed her. He didn't answer her until he was done checking her well-being and making sure that she wasn't hurt in any way.

He had full trust and confidence in what she had planned to do at the party and he would support her every action without question. However, he still couldn't help but feel worried that something might happen to her after she was done.

Earlier, if not because he had a deep trust on her plans and on Ran Xueyi, he wouldn't let her go alone to the party no matter what she said. But seeing Ran Xueyi looking so focused and determined to do what she had to do, Song Yu Han had to let her go.

In truth, Song Yu Han had Special Assistant Guo stop the car right at the front of the Ran Family's gate and never left nor went to his business meeting. He had waited on her until she was done.

Thankfully, Special Assistant Guo mentioned that the party was on Livestream and he could watch the whole event live without any fillers.

"I watched the livestream video..." Song Yu Han began as he was finally relieved that nothing happened to her. "I saw you being pulled inside a room. I was worried that they might have done something to you and had my assistant immediately turn the car back."

No wonder he looked distressed when he stepped down the car just now. Song Yu Han always had this regal and kingly vibe in him that would always make people want to bow their heads before him. But at this very moment, the man that was so gorgeous he resembled the devil himself, no longer has that aura around him.

It wasn't that Song Yu Han didn't look kingly or regal anymore, the vibe he was giving her was one filled with unconcealed concern for her and something more sinister.

What Ran Xueyi did not know was that there was only a thin thread making up the restraints that Song Yu Han had put onto himself. If she wasn't alright, who know what he'll do to everyone who attended this party especially, to the Ran and Yang family.

Thinking that he might do something really bad without any regard to anything else because of her, Ran Xueyi put her hand on his arm and said while smiling, "I'm alright. Don't you know me already? I won't let anyone hurt me anymore so, you don't have to worry."

Song Yu Han stared at her for a long moment. When he saw that she wasn't lying, he finally pulled her into his arms for a hug.

"I know... I'm just making sure that my dear wife is alright."

Ran Xueyi was even more shocked at this moment. They already agreed to not reveal their relationship to anyone for now. At least, not until she was able to recover her past glamor and status that would be acceptable to the eyes of the public. Not that Ran Xueyi was embarrassed or unwilling to reveal her marriage with Song Yu Han to the world. It's just that she didn't want her husband to be looked down on by other people who already disdained him for what happened in his past.

Sensing that there were still people standing outside and staring at them, Ran Xueyi pulled away from his embrace and quickly took his hand and pulled him inside the backseat of the car and closed the door before anyone could recognize him.

At the same time as Ran Xueyi closed the door, more people came out of the entrance to see where the main lead of the show had gone. Unfortunately, the moment their feet stepped out of the door, they could only see a multi-million dollar car parked in front of them, they could only sigh in disappointment. They missed the goddess that descended from the heavens to bring down the hammer of justice. They all thought that Ran Xueyi had run off somewhere before anyone else could get there.

At this moment, no one associated Ran Xueyi with the expensive car in front of them. They already assumed that Ran Xueyi didn't have any involvement with that car and it must belong to someone influential and powerful.

,m "Where did she go?"

"I don't believe she disappeared so quickly! Those people didn't deserve her love at all!"

"I never thought that something like that actually happened to her! She's so pitiful."

Most of the people were genuinely showing their concern for Ran Xueyi after seeing her cry in front of everyone.

But it was also inevitable for some people to harbor negative feelings towards someone who got the crowd's sympathy and affection.

"Why did she have to leave? I don't believe a thing she says. There must be a reason why she was cheated on by her fiancé."

"That's right. She must have done something bad. The young master from the Yang Family is such a noble person. Why would he do something like that?"

Who knew that Chang Ya would come out at the time and heard what was said about her big sister. She sent a deadly glare at the person who mindlessly said this.

She scoffed and disdainfully smirked. "Hmph! What noble person? That young master you like so much is full of crap that I can even smell him from miles away!"

"Ah! This place smells like sewer! I can no longer stay here. Brother, let's go home!" Chang Ya dragged her older brother from there and also got inside their car.

Those who wanted to get connected with the twin's parents could only watch them go away and glare at the people who stupidly ran their mouths off and made their only tie to the artistic couple away.

Inside the hall, the people who were too shocked and still couldn't completely comprehend what had just happened looked at each other before awkwardly looking away. The Yang family members were also extremely humiliated at what happened and slowly disappeared from everyone's eyes, fearing that their guilt would show on their faces.

"What's happening? I thought Yang Baihua was careful when he's together with Song Qian? Shouldn't they find out that someone had a recording of them together?" Mother Yang asked, lowering her voice, scared that someone could hear her.

Father Yang also didn't know why this happened. Yang Baihua and Song Qian have been very careful when they're together. Aside from the people who already knew about their relationship, they never let anyone know about it, much less let a paparazzi take a picture or video of them together. Then, where did Ran Xueyi get the audio file she released today?

But no matter where she obtained it, there was no way of denying that one of the voices belonged to their son.

"We need to talk to Ran Mo Zheng. We need to discuss what to do about this." Father Yang told Mother Yang as they headed to meet the other party involved in this issue. Now that the cat is out of the bag, they will need to think of what to do next.

The plan to force Ran Xueyi to marry their son was also an impossible dream now. However, the Yang family cannot back down now. If they can't take the older sister... Isn't there still a younger sister?

Ran Xueyi didn't know that the Yang family was slowly changing their minds and taking an alternative plan. Ran Yue, who was also now being targeted by them, didn't know that she was slowly being pulled into a bigger mess after what happened to them.

On the way home, Ran Xueyi leaned her head against Song Yu Han's shoulder while he put his hand around her waist, half hugging her in the backseat. Their hands were interlocked as they enjoyed each other's company in silence.

But little did they know, a was feeling extremely awkward in the driver's seat.

Special Assistant Guo, the light bulb who was sitting in the driver's seat: "..."

He unwillingly succumbed to his fate as the nation's third wheeler.

Chapter 129 Weibo Storm

The next few hours after the party was cut from the livestream, the fans who came to watch Ran Yue's birthday party and passersby who came to witness the lavish spending of the rich, were all silent. They came to the livestream platform to watch the actress celebrate her birthday, so how did they end up having a free slot in watching a drama?

The comments on the livestream were dead and no one commented for a few seconds. It was only after a full minute before the surge of comments filled the screens and the comment box with different reactions.

[What the heck! Is this true? This isn't a lie, right?]

[Oh my God! I'm going to faint! This is too much for me! I didn't know that this kind of thing can also happen in real life!]

[Sh*t! I forgot to bring my popcorn. Did anybody bring popcorn? I think I need it to watch this live.]

[Wuwuwu... I need tissues... somebody toss me a tissue! I never cried even during my grandfather's funeral. But my eyes are already hurting because I can't squeeze any more tears from it. Wuwuwu]

Most comments were like this, but there were also some who deeply invested themselves in the events that took place on the livestream, quickly digesting and separating the information they got.

[Did I hear it right? The woman who we all thought was a goddess who descended on Earth is actually a real goddess named Ran Xueyi? Anybody noticed this? I think I'm having hallucinations. Please, somebody confirm this!]

[F*ck! So, it wasn't only me who heard it? That goddess is really Ran Xueyi? shookt.jpg]

[What BS... I never thought this actually happened to her. I thought she disappeared five years ago because she no longer wanted to act again. Didn't Ran Yue also say that her older sister hated acting and no longer wanted to act again?]

Once the last comment was posted and seen by thousands of people in the live comment, many more people commented and voiced out their doubts.

During the past five years after Ran Xueyi pulled out of the spotlight and withdrew from the entertainment circle, more people came forward and asked why she did that even after she announced that she was going to take a break. It was too sudden and since Ran Yue appeared out of nowhere after her older sister's disappearance, she became the target of Ran Xueyi's fans and they continued to ask her about the reason why Ran Xueyi left the entertainment industry.

Ran Yue usually evaded this question, but subtly, she made it look like Ran Xueyi hated her fans and her acting career. There were still articles released in the past talking about this and it also contained some reliable sources saying that Ran Yue really did mention that Ran Xueyi had told her that she hated the entertainment industry, evoking some of Ran Xueyi's fans to turn their backs and hate their goddess.

But after watching the livestream, everyone was stunned and didn't know what to say. Some of Ran Yue's fans were previously Ran Xueyi's fans. They were the ones who turned their backs on their goddess in favor of the newcomer actress who they didn't know stole Ran Xueyi's career.

Some Ran Yue fan's turned down this detail and accused those who discussed it as being two-faced and trying to harm their idol Ran Yue's face. However, no one listened to them and completely ignored their nonsense. While some fans of Ran Yue were silent and didn't say anything, feeling that something was off especially, in that audio recording they had just heard. They also didn't want to be stepped and beaten black and blue by Ran Xueyi's fans.

Following this topic, some user accounts famous for sharing melons on the app shared this and also voiced out their opinions. They didn't forget to attach the articles and videos of Ran Yue subtly trying to taint Ran Xueyi's image in front of her fans.

Ran Xueyi's fans didn't know what happened, but they soon knew about it after one passerby tagged a friend who was also coincidentally a crazy fan of Ran Xueyi.

[@passerby 123: Hey, look at this. I just watched something really amazing! I think I can skip this year's Film Festival since I don't know if any of the movies that will show up there could contend against this. Attached: Ran Yue's bombed party video.]

The friend clicked on it and nonchalantly watched it. She wasn't interested in Ran Yue and was only going to watch it for her friend's sake. However, the moment Ran Xueyi walked in front of the camera, the crazy fan inside her soul soon took over her body and she screamed inside her house, scaring the hell out of her family members, who thought she saw a ghost inside her room.

This crazy fan of Ran Xueyi soon shared this to a group chat where Ran Xueyi fans all gathered and waited to dry out in the drought. Once she shared it, the fans weren't online since they were suffering from drought and lack of content from their goddess, Ran Xueyi, for the past five years.

It took almost thirty minutes for someone to pop into the group chat and see the shared video. Soon, many more saw and watched it. Gradually, the dead and dried fans of Ran Xueyi soon felt their blood heating up as they geared up to register their accounts and microblogs to support Ran Xueyi.

Soon, the fight between Ran Xueyi and Ran Yue's fans exploded on Weibo, taking the top 4 trending list. Many were surprised to see the two names beside each other and several were curious about it and also followed the trending topic.

An hour later, Ran Xueyi's fans dominated the page and Ran Yue's fans couldn't win against the intensity of these thirsty fans that they all got buried and couldn't resurface any longer.

Chapter 130 Today's Friends, Tomorrow's Enemies

At this moment, Ran Yue was already panicking after the bomb that Ran Xueyi dropped during her birthday party. She didn't even get to receive and open her gifts because the guests already left before the gift giving event happened. Not only that, she had to flinch and jump in fright whenever she heard the sound of her phone ringing constantly without stopping.

Manager Zhang has been calling her since earlier, but she didn't know how to answer. What was she going to tell him? There's also Golden Stage Century, the agency she was signed with this year after she canceled her contract with her previous H&R Studio. They must be dying to reach her and get her to explain what had happened.

Besides, Ran Yue could lie to everybody about the audio file, but not to Manager Zhang. That man knew her too well and knew that she was the one in the record with Yang Baihua. Moreover, it won't be long before her fans become suspicious and find out about it as well.

"What am I going to do, Mother?" Ran Yue cried. "I didn't know this would happen. If I knew, I wouldn't have done that!"

"You really think that's the only mistake you made?" Father Ran glared at his daughter and pointed a finger to her. "You're such a good daughter yet you tried to seduce the man your older sister is about to marry! Do you even know what you did?"

Mother Ran froze. She was about to comfort and reassure Ran Yue again, but hearing her husband's words, she forced the urge down and also scolded her. "That's right, Yue'er. Why did you do it?"

Ran Yue lowered her face and didn't answer. She couldn't tell them that she always liked Yang Baihua ever since she met him five years ago.

Seeing her lack of response and tears, Mother Ran's heart ached for her youngest daughter and could no longer stay angry. She shot Father Ran a glare before patting Ran Yue's shoulders.

"Don't worry, me and your father aren't angry at you because of what happened. The one we're angry at is none other than that useless boy Yang Baihua! How could he try to seduce our good daughter? If he didn't do that, why would you even fall for his useless charms! Besides, isn't Ran Xueyi the one who ruined everything? She even ruined your party!"

Just thinking about it, Mother Ran felt that her blood pressure was rising. Her head was about to explode from anger at the thought that Ran Xueyi made them lose face!

"Lu Jing!"

A thunderous voice came into the room accompanied by the sound of the door being pushed open and hitting the wall behind it. A few people entered the room the Ran family was in, pulling in Yang Baihua, who was going to escape from the place out of shame and anger.

The Yang family gathered to discuss the situation with the Ran family. Instead, they witnessed these three people trying to pass the blame on their good son!

"I dare you call my son useless again with your mouth and I'll rip it!" Mother Yang loved Yang Baihua to her bones, how could she let just anybody speak bad of him?

However, Mother Ran unexpectedly didn't back down from the challenge. She raised her chin and proudly said, "Am I wrong? Your son is such a wastrel and doesn't do any work. Has he ever accomplished anything that my daughters achieved in their life? He only knows how to seduce women and sleep around!"

Mother Yang was enraged by this and was about to come forward and slap that dirty mouth from speaking ill about her son. Seemingly reading her thoughts, Father Yang quickly looped his arms around her and pulled her arm, stopping her from advancing forward.

But even if Father Yang stopped her from stepping forward, he didn't have enough hands to cover his wife's mouth. And so, Mother Yang continued her verbal assault.

Mother Yang scoffed disdainfully and indignantly said, "Ha! Why does my son need to work when he has parents who can give him what he wants? We have enough money for three more generations to spend without worrying about their future. What's so wrong about my son using our money?"

"You must be proud of your daughters though... They're both pretty, but have no brains! They all fell for my son's useless charms. It's unfortunate that Ran Xueyi no longer likes my son and broke off from their engagement. But I can't say the same for your youngest daughter!"

"Speaking of which... I am even amazed that Ran Yue was the girl in that audio! How despicable! She actually wanted my son who was engaged to Ran Xueyi. Tsk, I am really amazed at how proud you are of your daughter!"

After speaking so much and so eloquently, Mother Yang took a deep breath to steady herself. Her eyes were filled with haughtiness as she looked at Ran Yue and the pair of Mother and Father Ran who was standing beside their daughter.

Ran Yue couldn't speak. She never thought anyone could speak so badly of her character like this. Mother Yang was even more ruthless than her anti-fans who beat her up in their comments.

Glancing at Yang Baihua, who was forcibly pulled back into the room, she saw him expressionlessly stare at her as if the thing that happened between them was nothing but an illusion she made in her daydreams.

It's all wrong... Everything was going so wrong and far from her expectations.

Mother Ran and Father Ran were also rendered speechless. What could they say to a parent who was proud of themselves for spoiling their child rotten because they had money? Even they couldn't boldly say that in public. Moreover, what Mother Yang said was all true even if they wanted to deny it.

The two families that were once living in peace and harmony were slowly breaking apart and drifting away. As the saying goes... Friends of today may be enemies' tomorrow.