

Daddy CEO 176

Chapter 176 Slyly Kicking And Pulling Other People's Hair

While she was surprised that Song Yu Han personally came here to deal with these corrupt and greedy people, she greatly praised and admired him because apart from him venturing out to the world of business, he actually knows a lot more than she thought about how the entertainment circle worked.

If she hadn't met him before and heard him talk in front of her like this, she would have probably thought of him as someone who had experience in films and shows.

Song Yu Han felt her bright eyes staring at him and he couldn't help but slightly raise the corners of his lips.

It seems to him that his wife was impressed by him.

Director Zheng and Producer Luo did not see the subtle exchange between the two as they were too focused on themselves.

Director Zheng, especially, was angry because his job was taken away from him, he wanted to protest and complain since everything that happened before until now was all because of Gu Jiao. However, in front of Song Yu Han, even if he told him the truth and what transpired these past few days, Song Yu Han would never show any compassion and forgive him.

So, Director Zheng kept his mouth shut and lowered his head, deeply ashamed of what he had done.

What went wrong? He was still doing a good job as a director and was even expecting the drama he was planning to direct till the end to become a success. But because he was bewitched into meeting Gu Jiao on that night and something happened between them, everything that he planned and thought he would achieve through this film crumbled away.

Director Zheng gripped his fist tightly until it turned white then, he released the breath he was holding before he turned towards the door to leave.

Two people already left the room, both held a very important position in making a film. But neither was able to keep their position in front of the man who had more authority than anyone inside that room.

Seeing them leave one by one, Gu Jiao and Albert already knew that something was very wrong with what's happening. Director Zheng and Scriptwriter Chun, who told them that they would do everything they told them to do, were gone!

Chief Producer Li spoke at this time and glanced at Producer Luo, who didn't want to meet his eyes out of embarrassment that he was feeling this entire time.

"President Song, may I speak to my apprentice?" He then added, "I know that what he did was wrong and he let this happen. But I hope you would give me some face in front of my student and let me give a suitable punishment for him?"

Song Yu Han nodded.

Chief Producer Luo sighed deeply before calling Producer Luo to follow him outside.

Producer Luo felt his heart thud hearing this, but he didn't say a word to disagree with his teacher and obediently followed him outside.

After they left, only four people were inside the room.

Gu Jiao glanced at her agent, making eye signals at him and asking him what to do now. Albert shook his head, not knowing what to do after the display of dominance and authority that the man called President Song did just now.

Even Albert, after seeing these scenes unfold before him, couldn't help but feel afraid. Chief Producer Li didn't even say a word and let the man decide the fate of others, when was it his turn to think that he could make a move and go against him?

Not getting any reaction from her agent, Gu Jiao felt that Albert was useless! Why did he have to feel fear in front of this handsome man? So what if he had some power over Chief Producer Li? Does he have any chance to stand up against the man supporting her?

He's just another young master who thinks that the world is his to rule while he depended on his parents' wealth. There's nothing to worry about him at all!

Gu Jiao stepped forward and stared at Song Yu Han. She accused righteously, "The world must have gone crazy. How can anyone just do whatever they want? Do you think you're the only one who has money and invested in this film?"

As she said this, she remembered that her patron told her this morning that she could do whatever she wanted. He even told her that he would pay for everything!

"Tell me, how much you invested in this film. I'll return it to you now." Gu Jiao loudly said and even puffed her chest as if she was proud of herself for standing up against such a handsome man.

Too bad, he was blind and he didn't know what's good for him.

Ran Xueyi saw how Gu Jiao was trying to get closer to Song Yu Han.

Her eyebrows twisted into a frown and before anyone could react, the moment Gu Jiao stood in front of her to get closer to Song Yu Han, Ran Xueyi raised her foot and placed it on the ground. Gu Jiao kept her eyes on the man standing before her and did not see Ran Xueyi's feet kicking her ankle.

Gu Jiao couldn't quickly react to this kick and fell unceremoniously on the ground while screaming in pain.

"Ah!"

Ran Xueyi blinked her eyes innocently and looked down at Gu Jiao, who fell loudly to the ground, and expressed her concerns. "Miss Gu, there's no need to kneel down before me if you want to apologize for what you've done."

Hearing her say this, Gu Jiao's face turned red and she was seething in anger. She stood up, but probably because the kick from earlier was too powerful, she lost her balance and fell once again.

But this time, she reacted very quickly and when she saw herself falling down, Gu Jiao instantly thought of pulling Ran Xueyi together with her to the ground.

Ran Xueyi's lips turned upward as she read her intention and did not evade. But before Gu Jiao's hand could even touch her dress, she grabbed the latter by the hair and the next moment, a piercing and painful scream rang inside the room.

"Ahhh! Let go! Let go of my hair!"

Gu Jiao continued to scream while feeling her scalp burning from it being pulled.

Ran Xueyi gasped and let go after giving the other another pull by the hair.

She said both in fear and concern for the other: "Miss Gu, are you alright?"

Gu Jiao gritted her teeth as she glared at Ran Xueyi with red eyes. "You! You dare pull my hair?!"

Ran Xueyi shrugged and said, "What do you mean? I dare pull your hair? I don't just dare... I really did pull your hair."

Gu Jiao never met someone who could shamelessly admit the truth in front of everyone. Supposedly, if someone else did this, they would do anything to act innocent and pure while denying what they did.

However, Ran Xueyi did not only admit it, she even made sure that her words were clearly heard by everyone.

This did not only shock Zhao Fei, Feng Huai, and Albert, even Song Yu Han, was surprised by what she did.

It was the first time that Song Yu Han saw the cunning side of Ran Xueyi. But it was not the first time he saw her attack someone who dared to pull any tricks on her. The first should be that time when he saw her punching Yang Baihua inside the emergency stairs. However, he wasn't standing so close at that time and only vaguely saw her raise her fist towards him.

This time, he really wanted to clap his hands and give her a reward kiss on the cheeks.

After a few seconds, Albert finally reacted and took Gu Jiao away from Ran Xueyi. When he felt Ran Xueyi's eyes landing on him, he couldn't help but flinch.

He remembered that many people in the star circle said that Ran Xueyi was very gentle and kind, who couldn't even raise her hand to swipe an ant that fell on her lap. Then, why is it that the female star before him was very different from what everyone told him about?

There was no gentleness or kindness, he could only see a wild, fierce, and vicious woman!

Gu Jiao was still not reconciled and wanted to grab at Ran Xueyi. However, Albert, fearing that his artist would end up being beaten up by Ran Xueyi, used his force to hold her down.

"Let go of me, Albert! What are you doing? Let me go!" Gu Jiao screamed without grace, completely forgetting about her idol image.

Albert could only hold her tightly and told her, "Gu Jiao, that's enough. We shouldn't make a loud commotion here. Do you want other people to come here and see you like this?"

"I don't care! I want to rip her face into pieces!"

"Enough, let's go home now!"

Albert pulled her towards the door, wanting nothing else in this world but to leave and never come back.

He kept pulling Gu Jiao out the door and was just about to leave. Unexpectedly, before he could even take a step out of the room, Song Yu Han's voice once again fell.

"Wait..."

Albert did not want to wait, but as if there was something telling him that if he dared to make a stop, he would be pushed into a deeper hell, he ultimately stopped his action of stepping forward. As for Gu Jiao, her complexion was unsightly.

"Mr. Fang, please inform your president that in the coming days, my legal team will come for a visit. The penalty for breaching the contract should be paid in full." Song Yu Han glanced sideways at him and added, "Tell him another thing for me..."

"If he can't handle his company and control his artists well... I don't mind doing it for him."

Chapter 177 Adulterous Woman (1)

Albert Fang's heart took a hard leap inside his chest. He severely nodded his head before he took Gu Jiao away from there. And despite being reluctant to leave after what happened just now, Gu Jiao knew that she couldn't stay there any longer.

What that man called President Song said just now was too obvious and she could clearly hear the blatant threat in his voice.

"Brother Albert, who exactly is that man?" Gu Jiao asked soon after they returned to her room.

Albert shook his head before taking a deep breath. "I don't know him that much. I only heard of him from the president once. However, I can tell you that that man is a dangerous person whom you can afford to offend."

Gu Jiao was dissatisfied with his answer. "Isn't President Tzongshi also very powerful? Why should I be afraid of offending him? He's just another wealthy young master, right?"

Another wealthy young master? Albert scoffed at this. If that man was just another wealthy young master who sucked up to his parents to get more money from them, then he doesn't know what the real wealthy young masters who relied on their parents' wealth would think?

"Don't say anymore, Brother Albert. I know that he's someone I cannot offend, but who said that I can just let go of that slut Ran Xueyi?" Gu Jiao gritted her teeth. She could still remember how the other person grabbed and pulled her hair until her scalp felt like it was burning. "I will never forgive her for what she did to me! Brother Albert, please help me get revenge!"

Albert stared at her silently for a few seconds. He also felt that what Ran Xueyi did to his artist was a bit too much. She was just an actress who lost her popularity and was planning to make a comeback after six years while on the other hand, Gu Jiao was a recently popular idol singer and new actress. If other people were to find out that Gu Jiao was bullied and forced to get out of a drama crew, who knew if Gu Jiao could hold on to her career in a few years?

He couldn't let that happen either. He should do something about this and not let them take all the losses to their side.

After thinking for a while, Albert finally acquiesced to her and said, "I know. I'll call the PR team on our side and use some water army to humiliate Ran Xueyi." Before Gu Jiao could sigh in relief after hearing his words, Albert continued to warn her, "As for you, take this opportunity to lay low for now and I will find a new project for you to work on."

Gu Jiao had no qualms about this and directly agreed, her eyes were burning bright with anger as she looked out of the window.

'Ran Xueyi, don't think I'm done with you!'

That evening, a lot of things happened. Two important people in the drama crew were fired and Producer Luo was stripped off his identity as Chief Producer Li's student as well as the producer of the film.

As for Gu Jiao and Cheng Han, who used underhanded means to delete, add and modify the script was also fired by Chief Producer Luo. They talked with their respective agency and legal team regarding their actions that led to them breaching their contracts. As for the crews who were involved in many other shady businesses in the past and present, they were sent to the police station to be investigated.

This action was too huge to be ignored by the press. The moment they picked up on these events, more and more people came to join and catch this hot issue and spread it on several news broadcasts and platforms.

Many passersby did not know what happened until these were spread about everywhere. The moment they found out that some of the crews were involved in dr*gs and other shameless stuff like sharing and threatening people with their private photos, people were too enraged and requested the government to take actions.

It was unknown whether the government officials heard the pleas and demands of the people, but not even several hours later, they posted a statement pertaining to this article. In their post, it was said that they already took action after a concerned citizen reported the shady business some people were doing. These people were sent to prison to be investigated furtherly and will be locked away if proven that they really did these things.

After receiving this statement from them, the passersby and netizens who was watching finally released a sigh and thanked the government for their quick actions while cursing out these corrupted people who ruin people's lives for their own benefit and entertainment.

Because of how many people were discussing this event and with the involvement of the police officials and government, the topic was pushed to the top trending list for an entire day.

Taking advantage of this hot issue, Brilliant Media made a wrong move. Just a few minutes before the Silver City's mayor's official page released his statement concerning this matter, they released a statement.

,m [@Brilliant Media: We are making an unfortunate announcement. Our artist Gu Jiao's contract with the drama crew <A Thousand Lotus> has been terminated. The reason for the termination of the contract will not be released and explained in detail due to both parties' agreement. We apologize to all the fans and everyone who has been looking forward to Gu Jiao's participation. We are also thankful for all of the fans' dedication to support our artist.]

Soon after this statement was released by Gu Jiao's company, her fans went crazy.

--What the heck is the crew doing? Why the hell did you terminate my Goddess Gu's contract?!

--Why the hell did they have to terminate the contract? Our Goddess Gu didn't do anything wrong! It was the crew who produced corrupt people! #Demandinganswers #JusticeforGuJiao

--Ahhh, F*ck!!! This is so unfair. Our Goddess didn't do anything wrong!

--Hey, why is everyone making a ruckus? Can't you see that Goddess Gu got lucky due to this that she doesn't have to be in that corrupt drama?

--Upstairs is right. What I can see from this is that Goddess Gu made the right decision.

--I don't care! They should still tell us what reason they have to terminate the contract! I even bought a VIP ticket to the support club!

More and More fans came forward to demand justice and answers from both Brilliant Media and the drama crew of <A Thousand Lotus. They were quite ferocious in their comments that the latest post in the drama's official page was filled with Gu Jiao's fans' comments.

Gu Jiao saw that the situation was very ideal for her since many of her fans defended her. She stayed true to her words and remained lowkey this time. She didn't post or use her water army to spread rumors.

However, at this crucial moment, she made an inevitable mistake.

She liked a comment made by one of her fans.

--Gu Jiao is innocent. Why terminate her contract but not terminate other people's contract too? Isn't this a bit too crooked? I bet 10,000 yuan that someone is bullying Goddess Gu.

Chapter 178 Adulterous Woman (2)

Gu Jiao wasn't thinking too deeply when she liked this comment. She was just pleased by what the fan just said and directly pressed liked, forgetting that she was using her official account and not her sockpuppet account. By the time she realized this, it was already a few seconds later, and she retracted her like.

However, some of her fans already saw this since they followed her and the notification that Gu Jiao's official account liked one of the comments appeared in their phones. When they saw that she retracted her like immediately after, their suspicions and doubts were fueled by this.

They all thought that the company noticed her action and took the phone away from Gu Jiao and they retracted her like from her fan's comment.

Her fans were incensed by this and went to Brilliant Media's official fanpage and flamed it. Their unfair treatment towards their Goddess Gu was too much. They even allowed somebody else to bully her and take her freedom from using her own Weibo account.

Gu Jiao, who was panicking at first when she realized that she liked that comment using her real account, saw the wind blowing towards her in a positive way. She felt that this was great and she relaxed instantly.

Last night, she was forced to resign from her role as the second female lead from the drama. She couldn't believe it at first, but the president personally called her that night and told her not to do anything foolish and let the company do something about this matter.

And so, she waited for what they had prepared.

But instead of feeling thankful for what they had done, Gu Jiao was disappointed and extremely dissatisfied with it.

Why didn't they do anything about Ran Xueyi? She was the reason why her scalp was still hurting and her knees were all bruised up!

Albert and the company didn't know what she did at this point. They were very busy trying to cover up the things they did for the past few days and making sure that Gu Jiao's image as a gentle and adorable idol remained.

And by the time they realized what she did, another post from a verified and hugely followed entertainment account was released that same day.

[Entertainment Circle's Big Sister: I can't take this anymore. After everything that happened today, I can't hold back from saying what needs to be said. I heard this through a grapevine that an actress with the surname Gu was the woman in those scandal photos that appeared a day ago! Can you believe it? I can't too, but I hear that the proof is too pure and strong for it to be false! Not only that, the aforementioned actress has been in an ambiguous relationship with another man. As for who... I can't say the name, but he's an older man who's already married and has children as old as the actress!

The photos, which were widely spread last time, were also another one of her affairs. This time, however, was not with that older man, but instead, with the director of the film she's supposedly participating in!

You should look at these photos before you call me a liar!]

This long post with several photos attached in it was filled with passion. The account Entertainment Circle's Big Sister was a verified account and has been sharing valid and truthful stories. And because it has been trusted by many because of the 80% true stories and 20% half-truths that the big sister account released every time, no one dared to say that she's a liar.

However, netizens and passersby still have to judge for themselves whether this story was true or not.

The photos attached to the account's post were taken from different angles. Each photo's quality was very high-definition. The woman inside the photo appeared several times and in each photo, there were different men together with her.

The woman was either holding a man's arm in an intimate way and kissing the other's face with a blush on her cheeks. The last two photos were the previous photos shared on the platform.

It was Gu Jiao and Director Zheng's photo.

However, these photos never clearly painted the men's face. Every face except for Gu Jiao's were either blurred out or covered with an emoji pack of an animal.

Nevertheless, the point that this post was aiming at was seen by everyone.

Gu Jiao, who was deemed as an innocent victim, was definitely not as pure as everyone thought she was!

She was a sl*t that seduces older men into her bed!

Gu Jiao was still relaxing in her bed while thinking that she succeeded in painting the crew and Ran Xueyi in a negative filter.

Suddenly, the door was kicked open and Gu Jiao, who was grinning from ear to ear, was extremely shocked at Albert's stormy and ugly expression.

"GU JIAO!!!"

...

Ran Xueyi was greatly amused by the post of Entertainment Circle's Big Sister. She was very straightforward and honorable in her way of sharing stories.

Zhao Fei watched her smile and was infected by it and also smiled. "Ran Xueyi, you're too brilliant! Gu Jiao thought that she succeeded after liking and unliking her fan's comment. But what she didn't expect was that you would ruthlessly slap her face with this!

Ran Xueyi took the compliment very easily, "Thank you, Sister Zhao. You also did great in reaching out to this big sister account."

It was Zhao Fei who knew Entertainment Circle's Big Sister. She said that she could make use of this opportunity to use the big sister account's influence to share the dirty material about Gu Jiao.

The big sister entertainment account also didn't disappoint them and posted the photos very quickly.

Zhao Fei was about to open her mouth to say something, but suddenly, Ran Xueyi's phone rang.

Ran Xueyi looked down at her phone and saw the caller ID registered as YH and immediately picked it up right in front of Zhao Fei. "Hubby."

Zhao Fei was struck speechless at her words and instantly knew who called her. Not intending to interrupt, she left the room after mouthing off at Ran Xueyi that she should be more cautious.

Thankfully, Feng Huai was running an errand and didn't hear her words.

After Zhao Fei left, Ran Xueyi heard a deep chuckle from the other end of the phone. "Is your manager together with you right now?"

Ran Xueyi replied, "Nope, she left as soon as she heard me call you hubby."

Song Yu Han's lips curved up and asked, "You already told her about us?"

"Yeah, I don't think there's any reason to hide it from her."

Song Yu Han was pleased by her words, but he still couldn't help but worry. "Do you trust her? What if she uses this against you and spreads a rumor that you're already married?"

Ran Xueyi didn't think it like that so she answered honestly, "I trust her. But it doesn't matter if she spread it. Sooner or later, many people will learn about us. It doesn't matter to me."

"But won't this harm your career?" Song Yu Han knew that Ran Xueyi wanted to return to her job as an actress and also excel in it by taking back her previous glory and maybe surpass it.

He didn't want to hinder her career and dreams. That's why he asked.

Ran Xueyi also knew this. A hint of tenderness and affection flashed through her eyes as she spoke very clearly, "That won't ever happen."

Chapter 179 Each Other's Solace

Song Yu Han didn't expect her to say this. Warmth filled his chest, and it was too bad that he couldn't come to her side and hug her in his arms.

After dealing with the people who made a mess out of the film he had invested in, he couldn't stay in that room and interact with Ran Xueyi as he pleased. He was worried that if he did that, he wouldn't be able to hold himself any longer and make their relationship public.

But the circumstances they were currently in were not appropriate. If people were to find out that he and Ran Xueyi were married, people will forget about that and point their fingers at Ran Xueyi and call her many filthy names and think of her as someone who's mooching off of his money and power to elevate herself from her dying career.

He didn't want that to happen.

Song Yu Han would rather choose to keep their marriage a secret than let anyone mock and insult Ran Xueyi. It was true that he has the money and power to censor and take down these posts and people from calling her out, but Song Yu Han was only a human, and his control over the world isn't omnipotent.

Moreover, he couldn't allow other people, especially, people who are eyeing him to show his weakness, use this opportunity to target Ran Xueyi.

Thus, he made a decision to not reveal anything about their relationship to anyone for now until he could completely crush his enemies.

Ran Xueyi did not hear any reply from him for a while and she got worried.

"Yu Han?"

Song Yu Han snapped out of his thoughts and spoke, "En?"

"Were you spacing out just now?" Ran Xueyi laughed. "Are you that happy to hear me say those words?"

Song Yu Han's eyes had a trace of endearment. "En, I can barely hold myself from going over to your side."

Ran Xueyi looked outside her window and told him, "What's holding you back then?"

Song Yu Han: "...Nothing."

Ran Xueyi smiled, "I'll be waiting for you here in my room."

Song Yu Han sighed as he hung up. He decided already to be careful during this period and protect Ran Xueyi at all cost, but here he was, he couldn't keep himself from going to her room after hearing her voice.

Her voice was gentle, soft, and had a faint huskiness in it. It was mellow and melodic to his ears.

No other voice could ever give him this instant effect of being comforted and pleased to death. The thought of it disappearing worried and terrified him the most and he would do everything he could to let this voice and the person who owned it remain to his side forever.

Ran Xueyi stared at her phone for a while. She was feeling giddy and excited to see Song Yu Han again and jump into his embrace again.

During this whole time in Silver City, she couldn't help but have many fears.

Despite showing a tough and brave front before other people's, Ran Xueyi knew inside herself that the fear of failure and being unable to defend herself was still branded in her heart.

Maybe due to the many years of trying to meet her family's expectations and not wanting to fail her own dreams and plans anymore, Ran Xueyi was initially reluctant to do anything.

Thankfully, she was no longer alone this time. She had someone who would support her in her plans and dream together with her.

While waiting for Song Yu Han to come, Ran Xueyi looked at herself in the mirror and made sure that she looked nothing out of ordinary. It would be a shame if she appeared in front of her husband with a haggard face.

'Knock, knock.'

Hearing the sound of knocking, Ran Xueyi excitedly went to get the door and open it while thinking that it was Song Yu Han.

But when she saw who was standing before her door, she couldn't help but frown.

"Producer Luo, what are you doing here?"

Producer Luo's eyes were stunned when he saw her eyes shining brightly when she first opened the door. He could tell that she wasn't happy to see him there. However, he couldn't bear the guilt he was feeling and shamelessly stood in front of her.

"Miss Ran, can we talk?"

Ran Xueyi stared at him and secretly glanced around to see if he brought someone with him. She could still remember that one time with Director Zheng who also came to her room.

Under her dark and suspicious eyes, Producer Luo spoke and said, "I didn't come with anyone. Actually, I'm already resigned to my fate to leave the crew. I can still be a producer in my future projects, but I seem to hesitate to do it."

Ran Xueyi tilted her head and raised her eyebrow. "There's really no need for Producer Luo to come here and tell me all these."

That's right. Why did he have to come here and tell her these?

Producer Luo shook his head and looked into her eyes as he ashamedly and sincerely spoke, "I came here to say sorry. I didn't listen to you and didn't meet your expectations. I am deeply ashamed of myself."

Ran Xueyi thought that he was wrong. It was true that he didn't listen to her, but he didn't owe her an apology because she won't accept it no matter what. She won't forgive anybody who wronged herself and so, there was no need for them to come and apologize to her.

As for any expectation for him... Ran Xueyi thought that Producer Luo was very wrong.

From the very beginning, she never had any expectations for Producer Luo to act differently. To be honest, whether he sided with her or not was all within her plans and she never hoped for anything to happen. Producer Luo was just another pawn she wanted to acquire. Not getting this 'pawn' was alright since it was useless if it couldn't be used to kill an opponent.

Why have expectations of someone who doesn't have the will and determination to fight?

Previously, Producer Luo already witnessed the crew's lack of sense of responsibility and amongst others, Director Zheng's lack of leadership, but still allowed and ignored it while thinking of scolding them once or twice before letting the matter go.

All in all, he did nothing to resolve the problem before it arises. Producer Luo was extremely useless despite his title and position as the producer.

At this moment, the elevator opened on that floor and because the elevator was at the end of the corridor and right across the walkway, Song Yu Han, who stepped out of it, could see very clearly where Producer Luo was standing.

His eyes darkened instantly, and his steps became quicker as he strode forward to them.

Because there wasn't anyone in that place, and Producer Luo was standing in the corridor, his voice was clearly heard by him.

Song Yu Han couldn't help but stare sharply at Producer Luo.

Producer Luo did not know that a big tiger was eyeing him right this moment and he was about to continue his words when he heard another man's voice coming from his blindside.

"What are you doing here, Producer Luo?"

Chapter 180 Punishment Kiss

Producer Luo's eyes widened the moment he saw the man standing before him. This man was the person who brutally dealt with them without even changing his expression.

Under the lights in the corridor, the man's figure looked even taller and imposing. If Producer Luo met him walking in the middle of the streets and passed by him, he would probably think of him as someone who came from a royal family from a foreign country.

The overpowering aura oozing out of his body was too difficult to ignore. Especially that pair of peach blossom eyes that seemed to look through a person's soul and know exactly what is inside your mind. Producer Luo found those eyes scary and disturbing to look at.

Producer Luo remembered what his teacher, or former teacher Li told him earlier. Chief Producer Li told him that it was fortunate that the man allowed his teacher to take him away, or else, things couldn't have been as simple as having his position as the producer for this film taken away from him.

Perhaps, if he had stayed there and waited for this man to tell him what his outcome would turn out to be, Producer Luo would not have any face to show to the public and never step foot in the producer circle forever.

As for whether the end result Producer Luo got was not that bad, only he knew the true meaning of being unable to call himself as Chief Producer Li's student anymore. It was the harshest result he could get out of this situation.

"I... I came here to talk with Miss Ran. I hope she can forgive me for not helping her even though I have the power to help her out of this situation, but I still let it happen anyway." As he spoke,

Producer Luo's head lowered even more and his eyes were moving around as if he wanted to disappear right there and then.

Ran Xueyi stared at Producer Luo and found it funny. When he sided with Director Zheng and Gu Jiao, he also apologized, but still allowed others to do bad and even had the intention of joining them to do the same thing. And now, he was asking for forgiveness from her after he regretted his actions.

Honestly, Ran Xueyi was too lazy to even proceed and continue to stand there.

"If Producer Luo is done saying what he want to say. Can I go back inside my room?" Ran Xueyi asked without responding to his previous words.

Producer Luo: "..."

Obviously, Ran Xueyi did not want to forgive him or listen to his words at all.

The feeling of shame and guilt intensified, but Producer Luo knew that he couldn't force the other person to forgive him. Besides, she was only right to blame him since he let things progress into such an ugly situation where everyone banded together to take her out of the crew. They were even willing to accuse her of defamation and threatening them using the black material that spread about Director Zheng and Gu Jiao.

"I see... Then... I should go now," said Producer Luo as he was about to step away from the front door of Ran Xueyi's room when he remembered something and glanced to his side. "Is President Song's room on this floor too?"

Song Yu Han was about to answer, but he was interrupted by Ran Xueyi, who said, "No... President Song came to see me."

Producer Luo: "..."

Inside the hallway, one man trembled as he stared at the two people before him in disbelief. His eyes ran over them a few times before settling to look at Ran Xueyi, who just said something that seemed to be nonsense, but also made a lot of sense.

"You...you two are..." Producer Luo couldn't say the word nor did his mouth allow him to say it.

He could only continue stuttering and murmuring under his breath.

Song Yu Han smiled at her honesty and statement. He was surprised, but he was also pleased by it. He walked over to where she stood and reached out to put an arm around her waist, pulling her closely to him.

His voice did not contain the coldness it previously had and instead, a gentle tone calmly said, "Producer Luo's thoughts are right... We are a couple."

Producer Luo stared in shock at the two and did not know how to start. Then several seconds later, he ran away and never looked back.

But, of course, before he could lengthen the distance between them, he heard a warning from Song Yu Han.

"Producer Luo should be smarter now on what he can say and what he cannot say, right?"

Producer Luo didn't respond, he just nodded without looking at him for fear that he would be pulled inside that room and killed for knowing a secret he never wanted to hear in this lifetime!

Why was he so unlucky? He lost his apprenticeship from his teacher, got his producer position taken from him, and now, he had to hear somebody flaunting their relationship in front of him.

To make matters worse, he had already offended the couple that day.

Honestly, he didn't want to eat this dog food, but he could only reluctantly and unwillingly take it while also taking that man's warning seriously.

After seeing Producer Luo's cowardly escape, Ran Xueyi couldn't stop herself from giggling. It was a bit funny, but admirable.

"Let's go in?" she said and led Song Yu Han inside her room.

She turned her back to him and was about to walk deeper into the room when she felt a hand grabbing her hand and pulling her back. When Ran Xueyi reacted, her back had already made contact with the door and a pair of lips was against her lips.

"Nnggh!"

Ran Xueyi was startled by this kiss.

She wanted to push since it was a bit uncomfortable doing this with her back against the hard surface of the door, but as if he could see through her mind, Song Yu Han cushioned her back with his arm and put a hand at the back of her head.

With a hand on her lower back and back of her head, Song Yu Han opened his lips and deepened the kiss. He parted his lips so he could let his tongue explore the insides of her mouth, taking the sweet flavor of her taste and letting her also grow accustomed to his sudden advances.

After only a few seconds of this, he already sensed that Ran Xueyi was replying to his kisses and his tongue delved deeper into her mouth. Ran Xueyi moaned subconsciously as she moved her tongue to meet his, and they fought for dominance.

But at the moment that Ran Xueyi licked his lips, Song Yu Han pulled away and leaned against her forehead, looking intently at her eyes.

"Are you very close with Producer Luo?"

Ran Xueyi was already dazed by his rough kisses, but at his abrupt question, she became more confused.

She blinked her eyes. "Huh?"

"Producer Luo came to you to apologize. You two seem very close."

Ran Xueyi stared at him for a few seconds. Then she said, "No, we're not close... But shouldn't it be natural for me to be in close contact with my coworkers since I'm an actress?"

Technically, this was the truth. As an actress, Ran Xueyi had an obligation to follow the script she was handed with and play the character very well. There were several married actresses and actors who still continued playing a character who was intimate with another character who was also played by another actor or actress.

Whether it was a normal kissing scene or a bed scene, these artists had to play it very seriously and professionally.

However, Ran Xueyi never planned to do this in her new career. Yes, she's an actress and she has obligations to her job, but at the same time, she also committed herself to Song Yu Han as his wife.

Why must she put a strain in their relationship when she could avoid it?

Thus, Ran Xueyi decided to use a substitute when the time comes.

Song Yu Han did not know what she was thinking right at this moment. After hearing her words, the coldness in his eyes returned. There was a storm brewing within him and Song Yu Han wished to unleash it.

Ran Xueyi was feeling uneasy under his gaze and she planned to slip away.

Before she could try to leave, a hand suddenly blocked her against the wall.

Song Yu Han icily said, "What did you say?"

Ran Xueyi shrank in a corner.

Guiltily, she honestly said, "I... I was just teasing you."

"You... don't look at me like that..."

Song Yu Han: "Like what?"

"Like... like you're about to eat me...ngh!"

Her lips was sealed shut with his mouth, his tongue pushed open through her teeth, invading her mouth again. It was an intense kiss, without any mercy.

Ran Xueyi's head was turning blank at how long he was kissing her, he kept on stealing her breath away.

Song Yu Han didn't let her go until her lips became completely numb and red.

Then, he smirked wickedly as his tongue seductively licked his lips as though he had just taken a taste of a sweet, juicy, and ripe fruit in front of him.

Then, she heard him say, "You guessed it right."

"I want to eat you... alive."