

Daddy CEO 246

Chapter 246 "Agree To Her Offer" *

"Relax a little bit, Xueyi..."

"But it hurts..."

"I know... bear with it for a second... Don't squeeze around me so tightly."

Ran Xueyi blushed when she heard him whisper against her ear. She could feel every inch of him going deeper inside her. The hot and lengthy something that was connected to his body seemed to twitch even more inside her. With every push, her moist walls would squeeze in reply.

Thankfully, it wasn't as painful as she thought. There was an uncomfortable feeling, but no pain was felt.

"Just a little more..." He whispered and lowered his head to take a bit of her shoulder.

The morning light coming from the sun outside had already risen up, shining down the ground with its glory. But the two figures in bed didn't care. They were too preoccupied with the feeling of the hot flesh against flesh.

"Ah!"

"Fuck!"

Song Yu Han swung his hips once more. This time, however, he aimed deeply inside her and almost to the point that she could feel the engorged head hitting something inside her core. At that moment, stars danced around her eyes and her lips were apart as she took a breathless gasp.

A painful groan came out of his mouth as he felt the muscles around his length squeeze down around him as if it was a snake trapping its prey with its body. So good... It was too good. He could just stay like this forever and do this thing with her until he passes out.

It felt like thousands of little mouths were trying to suck him in, massaging, and pulling him deeper. Song Yu Han couldn't even fight back when he felt this sensation around his length. As expected, the more she squeezed him, the more frantic and harder he went. In and out, in and out. He continued doing this for several minutes that felt like eternity.

Ran Xueyi shook her head as tears spilled down her eyes. It was too intense... Waves after waves of hot and searing pleasure continued to form inside her. It was too good and drove her crazy. Despite feeling scared and intimidated when she saw his size, she still couldn't stop herself from getting lost in a hurricane of pleasure.

"Ah, ha, ha... ah! Yu Han... Yu Han!"

"Xueyi... I feel so good," Song Yu Han mumbled dazedly as he leaned his forehead against hers. He furrowed his brows as if bearing pain and grasped her legs to spread them wider for better access.

"Me--me too...ha..."

Whenever he thrust his length deep inside her, he would methodically hit that spot that made her see stars. Several times, he would give her shallow thrusts before sinking deeply inside.

Soon, a tingling sensation traveled across their bodies. It was a sensation that signaled that they were close to their climax.

Song Yu Han paused for a second before renewing his movements, pistoning faster and ravenously raining kisses around her arms, neck, chest, and lips. Finally, he groaned loudly as he reached his peak.

"Fuck..."

He gasped and muttered, pressing his forehead against her sweaty skin.

Ran Xueyi felt delicious warm liquid spilling inside her and couldn't help but squeeze around him again. It took them for a while to catch their breaths and calm down the beating of their hearts.

...

It was during the afternoon when Ran Xueyi opened her eyes again. She expected her wrists to be still tied to the bed, but when she moved her arm, she was relieved that it was no longer the case.

Looking down at the red mark left behind by the leather rubbing against her skin, she thought that maybe they should do this type of play once in a while. There are also some other plays she wanted to try as well.

"How are you feeling?"

Song Yu Han walked into the room with a tray of tasty food. As if her stomach had an antenna attached to it, it quickly made a sound as soon as he stood closer to her.

Ran Xueyi ashamedly smiled after her stomach made a protest.

Fortunately, Song Yu Han didn't tease her and gestured for her to eat with him. He didn't eat that much though. After he took a few bites, he stepped inside the bathroom and took an ointment for bruises. He sat beside her and grabbed one of her wrists before gently applying the ointment on her skin.

Seeing the glaring red marks on her pale skin, Song Yu Han was upset. He heard that the leather handcuff he bought wouldn't leave any long-lasting marks, but why was there still some marks on her?

"It's not as painful as you think it is. It's just a bit sore."

"But the marks..."

"It'll fade away in a few days. I can just hide it by wearing longer sleeves or use a makeup product to cover it." Ran Xueyi wasn't too worried compared to him. It would have been better if others could see the marks he left her, but since it would only cause a lot of trouble, she could only reluctantly cover it up.

After their intimate moments, the previous grievances and misunderstandings were left behind. They no longer cared about it and only wanted to face the future together.

At the end of that month, Jian Yiling, who said that she would wait for Ran Xueyi's answer, called her.

Jian Yiling said, "Have you thought deeply into it yet?"

She was talking about her plan to leave.

Ran Xueyi glanced at Song Yu Han, who was sitting beside her and looking at the document in his hands. Perceiving her gaze, Song Yu Han raised his head and met her eyes.

'What's wrong?' was what he was asking through his eyes.

Ran Xueyi mouthed to him that her friend called her. Song Yu Han already knew who Jian Yiling was after explaining what happened to her to Song Yu Han. Though Jian Yiling was still shrouded with secrets, she was the only friend that Ran Xueyi really trusts.

Ran Xueyi wanted to apologize to Jian Yiling and tell her that she changed her mind. Since Song Yu Han already found out her plans and knew about her child, she could no longer leave the country. She already knew that he wouldn't allow her to leave.

However, as she was about to tell this to her dear friend, unexpectedly, Song Yu Han said, "Agree to her offer."

"What?" Ran Xueyi was shocked.

Song Yu Han said, "I've thought about it... I think you're right. It is better if you stay out of the country for a while."

"What's the reason?" Ran Xueyi wanted to know. Last time, he disagreed and was angered by the fact she planned to leave the country. Now, he wanted her to leave?

"Don't think too much into it..." Song Yu Han sighed and lowered his chin on her shoulder while hugging her from behind. "Special Assistant Guo just reported to me earlier this morning that one of the enemies who wanted to bring me down has arrived in this country. Not only that, there are still some others who have started to move."

Ran Xueyi was silent and listened to him continue, "I don't want a repeat of your accident to happen again. I can't bear that to happen to you and our child. Currently, people have already heard rumors about me courting someone in the country. They still don't know about your identity. But it won't be long before they find out and by then... they would use every trick just to target you in order to bring me down."

It would have been better if Song Yu Han was an ordinary man, who didn't have several enemies who wanted to kill him. He could live a peaceful life with Ran Xueyi without worrying about others attacking them. Unfortunately, he was too outstanding and powerful that many people have already thought of him as an eyesore that would disrupt the balance of their world.

They fear his growth and what he could do in the future. Thus, it was better if they cut him off before he could become somebody great that they could no longer control and stop him.

It was alright if he was the only one who would be brought down. Song Yu Han did not believe that he would stay in power forever anyway. However, the thought that Ran Xueyi and their child would be put into danger because of him scared him. He didn't want anything to happen to them.

But he could at least do something to protect them for now.

Ran Xueyi didn't know what was going on. However, she could understand the meaning of his words. The Flower Country was no longer safe for her and their child to stay there.

Before, she was scared of people that would target her. But compared to now, the enemies seemed to have multiplied.

However, that wasn't what worried and made her sad the most.

Song Yu Han... What kind of world has he been living in all this time? Since when and how long has been living like this?

Chapter 247 A New Goal To Take The World (1)

Later that day, Song Yu Han and Ran Xueyi agreed on the plan to have her leave the country for the time being. Though there were not any changes from her previous plans, this time, however, Song Yu Han was an accomplice and agreed with it.

After discussing what they should do, Ran Xueyi called Jian Yiling again, who was wondering why the call was suddenly hung up.

Earlier, when she called Ran Xueyi, Jian Yiling didn't hear her answer to her question. She feared that the man she called husband would do something harmful to her since she secretly planned her departure from him. Thus, later that day, she missed calling her friend several times.

Thankfully, Ran Xueyi called soon after or else, Jian Yiling would have to call some people to track and find her.

Ran Xueyi said as soon as the call connected: "I will leave the Flower Country as planned."

Jian Yiling was not surprised since she knew how determined Ran Xueyi was when she put her mind into something. "What about your husband? Does he know you plan to leave and knows about your child?"

Ran Xueyi gave her an affirmed reply and said, "He returned a few days ago. I already told him everything and he also agreed for me to do as I planned."

This time, Jian Yiling was surprised. No husband would willingly let their wives go especially when they found out that his wife planned to leave without telling him anything. Jian Yiling was still worried that because of this event, this would put a strain on the couple's relationship and persuaded Ran Xueyi to talk to Song Yu Han.

Hearing her anxious tone, Ran Xueyi did not know whether to laugh or cry. She directly said, 'Don't worry. He's really willing. He even booked my plane tickets for me.'

After a few minutes of reassuring her overly worried best friend, Ran Xueyi finally convinced Jian Yiling that Song Yu Han was in cahoots to her plans. Jian Yiling believed her words and also told her that she will wait for her at the airport in Ren Country.

...

The next day, Ran Xueyi woke up late again.

Song Yu Han, who said that he will let her leave the country as she had planned previously, didn't let her go to bed peacefully. These previous nights, the two of them ended up tossing and rolling in bed as if there was no tomorrow. He just won't let her be in bed.

Every morning, she would wake up dazed and slightly weak after a night of intense activity. Following that, she would experience morning sickness and felt even more disgusted to smell or even see the sight of the food she used to eat before. Not only that, even the smell of her favorite perfume became an unseemingly stench that she ended up throwing all her perfumes out of the villa.

Song Yu Han could only watch her do this and even helped her discard everything that she was sensitive with. He took great care of her and treated her like a baby. He stuck to her side and won't even let her go inside the restroom alone!

One time, she had to go and take a bath. Song Yu Han followed her like a puppy wagging its tail and offered to wash her body for her.

Of course, Ran Xueyi refused since she wasn't incapable of doing such things by herself!

Unfortunately, Song Yu Han reasoned out to her, "You're going to leave soon... Why won't you let me do this for you before you leave?"

He said these to her with a gentle look on his face, making her feel guilty.

In the end, Ran Xueyi let him do whatever he wanted to do. Let him treat her like a baby if that's what he wanted!

Days passed and Zhao Fei, who found Ran Xueyi's inactivity came over to the villa. When she saw Ran Xueyi being cuddled in Song Yu Han's arms, she was once more fed with dog food so early in the morning.

Coughing to cover her awkwardness, Zhao Fei approached the two and sat across them. Earlier that day, she received a call from Ran Xueyi telling her there was an urgent matter for them to discuss.

Thus, she hurried over.

Zhao Fei ignored the two being sweet with each other and asked straight to the point, "You called me over for an important matter. What is it?"

"Sister Zhao... How long have we been together?" Ran Xueyi did not directly answer her.

Zhao Fei raised a brow and replied, "Not too long...A few months."

"How would you evaluate me?" Ran Xueyi continued to ask.

"You're a talented actress. You have all the basics and even have one thing that most actors would love to have. You have the talent to get into your character's roles easily. Not only that, you're also very serious in your work and would do anything to finish what work you're currently working on," Zhao Fei thoughtfully answered. "However, this isn't enough for you to reach the peak you have once in the past. You still need to act more and do more work so you can get back some of your previous popularity."

Ran Xueyi nodded her head. She agreed and also thought that she may have the skill to act, but having only skills won't let her last in the entertainment industry. She needed to accept more work and let everyone recognize her name.

However, in today's entertainment circle, there were too many new stars emerging and more old stars retiring and being buried by these new stars.

It was needless to say how Ran Xueyi would fare if she was compared to the new stars who are raised to the highest spot. She had been offline for six years, who would remember someone clearly from the past?

The only way for Ran Xueyi to beat everyone and take the top spot as an actress was not to gain her popularity from before. It was to surpass it and everyone else.

"But why are you asking this?" Zhao Fei furrowed her brows in a concerning manner.

Ran Xueyi said, "Because I don't think I can gain anything by staying in this country."

Chapter 248 A New Goal To Take The World (2)

"What do you mean?" Zhao Fei was even more confused.

"How many stars that have contended with me in the past were left? How many stars have retired and how many of the people that were once at the peak stayed in their spots? How long did they hold the first spot?" Ran Xueyi said these in one breath.

Zhao Fei shook her head, "None... none of those you've worked with were able to take the first spot of Throne of Stars."

Throne of Stars was the official stars ranking. It was not only made for fans to vote but also a stringent and legit ranking voted by prominent figures in the entertainment industry. They counted how many works an actor has done in that year, the awards they got, the achievements they received, their acting talent and skills were also highly and intensely evaluated, and lastly, how popular an actor has been in that year.

The officials who were given the role to rank these stars naturally have to look deeply into the actors' activity. They needed to know how clean their records were.

Zhao Fei added, "Not even the new stars who were able to grab a seat on the ranking could stay there for long. The recent Throne of Stars first spot holder, Xie Chi, might not even hold onto his seat this year."

That's how difficult it was to be in the Throne of Stars ranking.

"Do you think I'll be able to get a seat there?" Ran Xueyi asked.

Zhao Fei honestly didn't think so, "No... At your level... I honestly don't think so."

As soon as she said these, she felt the temperature in the living room plummeting to the lowest and she shivered. She felt a pair of eyes gazing darkly at her and she immediately said, "Of course, that doesn't mean you'll never get there! I trust your skills so I bet you will be able to enter the ranking!"

The coldness of the room returned to its normal temperature. Zhao Fei silently sighed and patted her heart.

Ran Xueyi laughed when she heard her retracting her words. However, she didn't agree with her. She said, "You don't have to lie to me, Sister Zhao. I know that even if I continuously act and accept scripts for several years, I might never get to the ranking."

"But you'll still be able to get your previous fame from before!"

Ran Xueyi smiled, "But that's not what I want... My goal isn't just to get back my previous fame and honor. I want to be at the top and take the first spot of the Throne of Stars. I also want to be recognized by the world. Won't you help me get what I want?"

Song Yu Han looked down at the small figure sitting on his lap and wrapped in his arms. A feeling of being proud was felt in his heart.

Zhao Fei stared at her in shock. However, no matter how many times she stared at Ran Xueyi, the latter looked extremely serious when she said these words. The fire burning in her eyes was almost visible and brightly shone. She was determined to achieve what she wanted.

If others said these words in front of her, Zhao Fei would only scoff and turn away to leave. Taking the first spot of the Throne of Stars was almost impossible to achieve by anyone. The chance was as slim as 1 to a million. As for taking the world's entertainment industry and becoming number one in it... Even if one has seven lifetimes, they would never even get it!

However, Ran Xueyi declared that she would do it and wanted Zhao Fei to help her...

Zhao Fei was slightly anxious... How could Ran Xueyi be so brave? She wanted to take the world in her hands? That wasn't the main question. It was whether she would be able to take it.

Ran Xueyi seemed to know what she was thinking and boldly said, "I know I'm being too abrupt. However, I won't change my mind... Actually, I already booked my plane ticket abroad."

"What?!" This was news to Zhao Fei. "Why didn't you tell me? What are you planning to do by going abroad?"

Ran Xueyi replied with a smile, "To take on the world's entertainment industry." She took a pause before continuing, "Now, my question is... Are you going with me?"

...

When Zhao Fei left the villa, she was still lost in her thoughts. Ran Xueyi's words were truly shocking and she still hasn't recovered from this shocking news.

She tried to convince Ran Xueyi not to leave since she could still accept other scripts and other offers. However, no matter what she said, Ran Xueyi was not swayed and didn't give up.

Now, Zhao Fei was feeling conflicted. She knew Ran Xueyi could achieve a lot of achievement in her life being so talented and skilled, it was not a far-fetched dream... But to take the world... Zhao Fei thought that it wouldn't be so easy.

As for Ran Xueyi's last question... Zhao Fei already gave her answer to that.

Though she was now Ran Xueyi's agent and manager, Zhao Fei has other duties as well. She was a wife and also currently managing other stars. She couldn't leave the country so willfully. Her contract with Ran Xueyi was only for two years. After that two years, they would have to consider signing again to work together or separate.

But Zhao Fei didn't want to let this golden goose run away. So, she decided to wait for Ran Xueyi to return to the country and continue being her agent.

She will help Ran Xueyi in another form. She would make sure that when Ran Xueyi returns, she would have a place in the country's entertainment circle.

Looking outside through the glass windows, Ran Xueyi watched Zhao Fei's car leave the residential area. She thought that Zhao Fei would go with her, but thinking about it, her decision was truly sudden.

However, she couldn't wait for the other to think it through and make a decision. She had to leave earlier so she could return faster.

Two years... Just two years was not enough to prepare herself. However, no matter how challenging her path would become, Ran Xueyi wanted to cross it and get to the end.

Song Yu Han walked to her side with a cup of milk in his hand and said, "You can have the world... but I can only have you, okay?"

Ran Xueyi smiled and gave him a peck on the lips. She said, "I know."

Chapter 249 Farewell And A New Beginning

The day of departure has arrived.

Many people were walking around the airport, holding their suitcases and travel bags. Some planned to leave and return early, some came from another place after leaving the airplane, and some planned to leave the country for a long time and return only for a bit.

Ran Xueyi was the latter. She will leave for a while. Nobody knows when she will return but if things went as she had planned, she might return after two years.

Because it was a sudden trip abroad, aside from Song Yu Han, Zhao Fei, Wu Qi, and Feng Huai, who was the last to know about her leaving, nobody else knew about this since it was a bit too sudden.

Zhao Fei hugged Ran Xueyi and said, "Take care of yourself. I will prepare everything here so you can have a smooth return."

"That's right, Sister Ran. Make sure to take care of yourself. We won't be able to see you while you're out there, but don't forget about us when you finally become too popular all right?" Feng Huai rubbed the corners of his eyes, which were currently red after shedding some tears.

Ran Xueyi patted his head and told him not to worry, "I will not forget you. When I return, I will buy you some things you can play with!"

"Sister Ran, I'm not a dog!" Feng Huai pouted his lips and grumbled. Of course, he knew that Ran Xueyi was only messing with her so he could stop crying but being treated like a child or a pet with his owner leaving and promising to buy toys for him, Feng Huai still felt a bit wronged.

Ran Xueyi and Zhao Fei turned their heads to look at each other before laughing together.

After greeting the two, Ran Xueyi faced Wu Qi, who was standing on the side and watched them silently.

"I will leave for a while... I will have to trouble Uncle Wu to take care of Chestnut while I'm away," said Ran Xueyi to the older man.

Since she had to leave, Chestnut's President office would be empty for a while as well. Only Wu Qi would be left behind to take care of the matters there. Unlike when she's there, where she could help him manage and solve some situation they encountered, this time, Wu Qi, who has little knowledge about the entertainment world, had to take the responsibility to take care of Chestnut.

Naturally, it was not only taking care of the company... It was also to make sure that the growth of the company will continue.

Wu Qi nodded his head at her, "Madam can call me anytime if you encountered any problem while staying abroad. I may not be there, but I know some people who can come to you and help you immediately."

Ran Xueyi felt warmed when she heard that. This older man still wanted to take care of her even when she's abroad.

Soon, farewells were said to the three and they immediately had to leave since they had other matters to do. These matters were unknown but it should be connected to the words they had just said to Ran Xueyi.

Watching them leave, Ran Xueyi felt surging emotions inside her. The sadness of parting with the people who believed in her made her feel uneasy and want to tear up.

"You can trust what Wu Qi said to you. Even though you will live abroad for a while, there are people who will take care of your things and help you. Those people are working under me and have my trust in them."

Song Yu Han untied the scarf around his neck and put it around her. Though it wasn't winter in Flower Country, the place where Ran Xueyi would be living from now on was very cold. Summer was never hot there and instead, it was colder than early winter here.

"I heard it's cold there. Wear your coats properly and try not to get sick." He held her by the waist and put his lips against her forehead. "I will finish everything here and go to your side soon. So, wait for me..."

Ran Xueyi nodded her head and closed her eyes as she wrapped in his warm embrace. The feeling of his arms hugging her... it will probably be awhile before she could feel it again.

And she was right to think so...

The two shared several minutes hugging each other before Ran Xueyi walked inside the plane that would take her to Ren Country.

"All passengers, please take your seats and wear your seatbelts. Turn all of your mobiles and electronic devices. For a smooth departure, we want you to refrain from standing as the plane will leave now."

Hearing the voice of the flight attendant making announcements, Ran Xueyi could no longer hold back her tears. Tears after tears rushed down her cheeks as soon as she realized that it would probably take a while for her to see Song Yu Han again.

With her head facing the window, looking outside to see a shadow of his figure, Ran Xueyi was disappointed that she couldn't see him for the last time.

And just as she thought that Song Yu Han had already left as soon as she entered the plane, she saw a black car parked across the fence.

Song Yu Han stood and looked at the plane for a while. He didn't know where Ran Xueyi would be seated, but he still stared as if it didn't matter where she was, he could still see her and watch over her.

p Ran Xueyi forced a weak smile on her face and waved her hand to him, however, the plane had already started to move forward and lift its huge body in the air. She didn't know if he saw her wave at him, but it would be better if he didn't. Letting Song Yu Han see her being reluctant to leave would only make things worse.

She spent years inside that country, but only mere short months did she feel so happy and reluctant to leave.

Within those months, Ran Xueyi found out about her family's schemes, met Song Yu Han, and started her own career once again.

She even had a child now growing inside her womb.

Unfortunately, the world was still against her even though she just wanted to start over again. That is why... Ran Xueyi will do everything to take down the world and let no one underestimate her again.

Days passed by soon turned into months to years. The world continued to rotate and grow even more developed as time passed slowly.

It was already almost three years since she had left the country. It was not a smooth and easy journey being a stranger and outsider inside Ren Country, but now she feels much more free than when she was in Flower Country.

Ran Xueyi watched as the petals fell to the ground from the tree across the window to her room. A cluster of pink flower petals formed underneath the tall tree.

As she watched the tree swaying with the wind and more flower petals fell like snow, knocking sound was heard from the closed door.

-Knock, knock.

"Ran Xueyi, are you inside?"

Hearing Jian Yiling's voice from outside, Ran Xueyi briefly told her to come in. Perhaps because of the voices that sounded inside the room, a small figure in the bed, stirred uncomfortably.

When Ran Xueyi swept her gaze towards the figure, she became afraid that she would wake him.

As soon as Jian Yiling opened the door and entered the room, she saw Ran Xueyi standing next to the bed with a finger on her lips, gesturing for her to lower her voice, as if she was afraid of waking a sleeping dragon in the bed. Of course, there was no dragon in bed, but the figure could induce a sound like a dragon's roar.

Jian Yiling even shivered thinking of those days whenever she heard the small child's screams and cries. There were several times when she had to be sleep deprived because of the noise. Though every room was soundproofed, nothing seemed to be able to stop the noise from traveling across and shaking the whole manor.

"I say... I am known for being not afraid of anything. But when it comes to your son, I feel like I will soon celebrate my 100th birthday because of him," Jian Yiling approached the bed where the two were and said these words in a low voice, still scared to wake the little one.

Ran Xueyi could only laugh.

These past few years, Ran Xueyi and Jian Yiling have been together. Most of the time, it was Jian Yiling who was willing to take care of her. And when she finally gave birth eight months after she left Flower Country, Jian Yiling took care of both mother and son.

Looking at the small figure sleeping in the bed, Ran Xueyi's eyes became softer and she reached her hand to move the stray hair that fell on the small child's face.

The small child seemed to recognize his mother's touch and a smile appeared on his lips.

"Tsk, how can someone be so adorable while sleeping?" Jian Yiling mumbled and reached her finger to pinch the small one's cheek. She never liked children, but towards this small child, she somehow made an exception towards him.

Ran Xueyi, who saw her best friend complaining but still treated her son gently, also smiled.

Chapter 250 She Will Wait

"What are you going to do now?" Jian Yiling took a seat on the chair near the bed.

Ran Xueyi didn't take away her gaze from her son's adorable and small face, but she still gave her best friend an answer. "I don't know..."

"What do you mean you don't know? What did your husband say?"

Ran Xueyi shook her head.

In the past two years she stayed in Ren Country, she and Song Yu Han remained in constant contact with each other. Neither wanted to keep distance and wanted to continue their relationship albeit being far away from each other.

However, this half year that passed, Song Yu Han's communication with her was almost nonexistent with him not replying to her messages nor answering her calls. Eventually, she was also preoccupied with her shooting and couldn't check whether he replied or called her.

Ran Xueyi had full trust in Song Yu Han and didn't think too much into it. What worried her the most was that something big and difficult happened to him and thus, he was unable to contact her.

"Let's talk about this later." Ran Xueyi brushed off the topic and headed to another matter to talk about. "I heard that you're going to meet the president of Alecan Group? Isn't that man known for being a casanova?"

Hearing this, Jian Yiling's expression changed.

She scoffed and shrugged, "I also heard this. Erik Alecan has too many mistresses by his side. I heard that he still keeps other women and sleeps with them outside of his mansion. Heck, I bet he could fill the river with all the tears and bodies of these women he ended up hooking up with."

Jian Yiling saw the little one in the bed move slightly and lowered her voice, "But that's not the point. I need to meet him because his father's condition isn't going very well. As the only child of the Alecan Group, Erik will inevitably become the heir and leader of the group."

Ran Xueyi turned silent while Jian Yiling showed a disgusted expression on her face.

When Ran Xueyi started to live in Ren Country, the mystery that shrouded around Jian Yiling was soon exposed. Jian Yiling wasn't living a very peaceful life either. However, unlike Ran Xueyi, who lived inside the gilded cage that her parents created for her and had to work her way up but still failed to protect the people important to her, Jian Yiling grew up stronger than anybody. She was not only trained to be ruthless and merciless, she was a leader of an underground organization that many feared.

Basically, she came from the Underworld, a place where all bigshots wanted to enter but it wasn't easy to get inside it. It was a world deemed unruly and no laws restrained anybody.

Jian Yiling's disappearance in the past was also connected to this so Ran Xueyi's guilt for blocking her as friends minimized a bit. Her conscience for leaving her best friend behind and blocking her contact due to Yang Baihua and Ran Yue's words ate her heart away, chipping away a part of her and wanted to live in pain for losing such a great friend. However, now that she found out that it wasn't because of her that Jian Yiling disappeared, she somewhat felt a bit at ease

Ran Xueyi still blamed herself for doing that to the friend who has been there for her, but she couldn't live in the past forever. This time, she wanted to help her friend.

"Should I go in your stead?" Ran Xueyi asked.

Jian Yiling laughed and waved her hand to gesture that it was not needed. "If you go, Erik will only go more unruly than he already did. With your beautiful face, no man could possibly refuse and let you go. And once he finds out that you're also an international award-winning actress, I bet Erik would go crazy and do something dangerous to you."

Ran Xueyi also thought about it. Erik could truly do some tricks. If not, how could he possibly get so many women to sleep with? He probably used dr*gs and other tricks to make them willing to follow him. Naturally, he also has money and the looks to grab any women he wanted, but not every women were stupid enough to get involved with Erik Alecan, a man who would torture his women.

There were several revolting rumors surrounding him and everyone in Ren Country heard about it a long time ago. However, the Alecan family has a considerable amount of influence there and so, nobody said anything.

Ran Xueyi said, "But I still want to go... With the two of us, I can worry less for you. I also don't think Erik could be so brazen enough that he would do anything to any of us while in that party. Besides, I could snoop around while using my identity as an actress."

Jian Yiling tapped the table with the tip of her finger for a few seconds, seemingly thinking deeply before she nodded.

Having Ran Xueyi by her side was certainly a good choice. The two of them could work together again like before and gain more benefit by doing it together.

"Alright, but be careful. I don't want anything to happen to you before you return to Flower Country. I don't want that man to come and demand my life for yours," Jian Yiling seriously said this. The two of them knew exactly who she was talking about.

Ran Xueyi fell silent again upon hearing the last bit of her words. Song Yu Han, where could he be now? What was he doing? And why did he not contact her for half a year? Ran Xueyi didn't dwell into her thoughts anymore, fearing that she would think of something horrible and make her only worry to death.

That man told her to wait and so, she will wait.

But if he still doesn't show up, she naturally won't wait and look for him.