

Daddy CEO 331

Chapter 331 Returning To The Set

The night was already late when they finished wrestling in bed; Ran Xueyi was also very tired and slightly regretted provoking Song Yu Han too much while knowing she still had somewhere to go the next morning.

Fortunately, Song Yu Han had been gentle with her this time and didn't try out other positions like last time. He treated her like a precious jade he was afraid of breaking and rained kisses filled with tenderness all over her body.

Even though her legs were still a bit painful, the pain wondrously disappeared after he kissed her. So, Ran Xueyi did not complain to him.

In a blink of an eye, morning has arrived.

Ran Xueyi received a call from Director Xiao asking her when she'll come to the filming set. Thinking that filming time was truly pushed back this time, she positively told him that she'll come around the set that morning.

Song Yu Han also heard of this and dutifully served her with warm meals for her to eat before she went to work.

As for Xiao Zhanzhan, he was woken up from his dream and only found out that Ran Xueyi was already leaving.

After living closely as three family members, Xiao Zhanzhan became even more clingy this time, very unlike how he was when they were living in Ren Country. Suddenly, he couldn't take having Ran Xueyi leave him and his daddy all alone at home. And with Ran Xueyi's schedule, it might take a while for her to return.

"Mommy, can't you stay a little more with us?" Xiao Zhanzhan couldn't help tug on his mother's pants and raised his head as he blinked those adorable eyes at her.

Ran Xueyi felt her heart being struck by fluffy clouds. She swept her son's feet off the ground and hugged him while rubbing her cheeks against his.

"Mommy also doesn't want to go but I have to go to work or else people will get angry at me." Ran Xueyi did not lie when she said there will be people who will be angry at her. Even though she was the biggest investor of the film, she was still the female lead star and couldn't shirk from her responsibility just because of that.

Besides, due to the prolonged break after Steffanie's case, the filming for the female lead role was pushed back a little bit too long and she would feel even guiltier wasting the production crews' time.

Hearing that some people would be angry at his mother, Xiao Zhanzhan's face went from white to red. He was scared that these people would bully his mother and he was even more furious that they dared to bully her!

"Mommy! Zhanzhan wants to go too!"

If he went with his mommy, no one would be angry at her, right?

After all, he's going to defend and protect her from all the villains!

Ran Xueyi and Song Yu Han did not expect the development of this discussion to turn into Xiao Zhanzhan wanting to go with her.

The two looked at each other in silence for a moment before they couldn't take it any longer. The smiles on the tip of their lips finally turned into laughter, ringing out inside the house, making the huge house a bit livelier.

Xiao Zhanzhan did not know what was so funny with what he said and looked at his mommy and daddy with an expression full of question marks.

Song Yu Han reached his hand out and gently patted Xiao Zhanzhan's hair. His eyes were filled with smiles, a rare sight he showed to other people, except that he showed it several times now when he's with them.

After reaching a consensus that Song Yu Han had to take Xiao Zhanzhan with him to work, Ran Xueyi drove away from their home and stopped at the hotel where Adelle was staying.

Adelle walked up to the side of the car and said, "Have you eaten already?"

"Yes. My hubby cooked for me."

Intrigued by her words, Adelle was curious: "He knows how to cook?"

After seeing Ran Xueyi nod without a hint of lies in her eyes, Adelle turned silent for a moment. Finally, she raised both her thumbs and exclaimed, "Boss is really amazing! He's even talented in cooking!"

Where can you find a man who is rich and a boss, and who has the time to cook? All CEO's in reality wouldn't even have the time to eat their meals in time. But Big Boss Song Yu Han did not only eat his meals on time but also learned how to cook!

This was a man worthy to drool at.

Ahem, Adelle returned to her senses. Although she was tempted to look for a man who can also cook like the Big Boss, Adelle knew that she really couldn't drool at the Big Boss. Not only was he a cold-hearted and scary man, Ran Xueyi was even more frightening than him!

Who would dare think about something about the Big Boss?

"Did Director Xiao tell you anything else when he called you?"

Hearing Ran Xueyi asking her, Adelle quickly answered, "Director Xiao warned that there are several paparazzis, fans, and town's people still camping outside of the filming set. They seemed to be waiting for your return."

Ran Xueyi nodded, affirming this information.

Initially, Ran Xueyi thought that Director Xiao exaggerated his words when he said there were several paparazzis, fans, and town's people. A few days had already passed since the news broke out and it was Monday, there was a small chance that many people would camp out for her outside the set.

But she was wrong.

When Ran Xueyi drove the car to the set's parking lot, she saw from the car's windshield that in front of the building, numerous people were on standby.

... no matter how it looked, it was definitely not just a number of people.

This was a crowd!

"You wait here," Adelle also did not expect this. For God's sake, do these people don't have any work or school to go to? It was Monday, what were they doing here?

The crowd varied in ages. Adelle even saw an old man with a cane standing next to an elementary student, who was wearing his backpack and uniform.

Adelle quickly took out her phone and called Director Xiao for help.

Hearing that they had arrived already, Director Xiao also did not delay and sent help.

Chapter 332 Shen Yi: Is That Man Really Just An Assistant?

As soon as Director Xiao came out of the building, the crowds moved altogether to glance at him. When they saw it was a man and he was with four other burly men, they no longer looked at him and waited for somebody to come in or out of the entrance.

The paparazzis, however, felt that something was wrong with Director Xiao's tense expression. What's even more mystifying was that there were men flanking his directions as if they were guarding him. These men were definitely bodyguards hired by Director Xiao!

But why did he hire them and for whom?

When these thoughts came around their minds, the paparazzis who were used to seeing celebrities being guarded by these types of burly men, had their radars going haywire.

As soon as they saw Director Xiao rushing to the parking lot, they tugged the cameras hanging around their necks and came hurrying behind him.

Director Xiao was in such a rush that he did not take notice of the paparazzis following him. However, the bodyguards on each side noticed this and raised their vigilance to the highest degree. Two of them decided to stop and stop the paparazzis from going forward while the other two still followed Director Xiao.

p Finally, Director Xiao reached the parking lot and saw the familiar nanny van that Ran Xueyi used. When he reached the car, he saw Adelle stepping out of it and he quickly greeted her.

Adelle smiled back at him. "Good morning, Director Xiao."

Ran Xueyi was glad that there really was no one aside from Director Xiao and the bodyguards. She also stepped down and said, "Let's quickly go inside."

...

"Is Ran Xueyi really coming back today?" Inside the set, one production crew couldn't contain his excitement.

The other crew nodded. "I personally heard Director Xiao say that Ran Xueyi will return to film today. I even saw him rushing outside. She must be outside now!"

"That's great! We can finally finish wrapping up quickly!"

One thing that the production crew liked about working with Ran Xueyi was that they don't need to waste a lot of their time repeating the same scene over and over again. Ran Xueyi finished all her scenes in one take and if not for her co-stars or extras' mistake, they might have finished quicker!

But they stopped complaining already when they compared it to how other celebrities filmed their scenes. They are already grateful enough that they could finish a scene with Ran Xueyi faster than staying in the set filming one scene for the entire day.

"This time, we should make sure to protect her lest another Steffanie comes out to ruin our film's success!"

The production crew ultimately agreed on this idea.

After safely entering the filming set without being followed and pestered by the paparazzis, Ran Xueyi and her group finally started to work on the scenes she left behind unfinished.

The production crew was even more sensible to not ask any questions to her and avoided the topic or any mentions of Steffanie and Shi Lian; they didn't want to ruin her mood or the film's mood.

Minutes after Ran Xueyi was warmly welcomed back to the set by everyone, she told Director Xiao to go over her scenes.

Director Xiao, "Warm up first while the props crew will arrange the set for your scene."

Ran Xueyi did not refuse and went to sit on one side with Adelle next to her, reading her schedule.

"After filming the rest of your scenes, there will be a conference arranged by Senior Wu for you to answer the questions of your fans."

"After the conference, there will be a magazine photoshoot for Chica Magazine. Next, you will have a contract signing for Chantel as their new brand spokesperson."

"On Sunday, a variety show you suggested to appear in...."

Ran Xueyi listened to Adelle for a while and said, "You handle it. I'll just follow you."

Soon, the props crew finally finished the preparation needed for the next scene. Ran Xueyi was called over by Director Xiao and discussed the scenes with her before sending her away to stand in her position.

Director Xiao: "3, 2, 1... Action!"

After finishing up all her scenes for the day, Ran Xueyi's energy was quickly drained. She relaxed a bit too much these past several days with Song Yu Han and Xiao Zhanzhan, that she no longer felt acting as enjoyable as playing with her husband and son.

The good thing about filming was that she was still reminded of her dreams of achieving the highest award achieved by anyone; the Triple Crown Award.

It was a prestigious award presented only after a decade. Triple Crown Award have the harshest and most difficult requirements for an actor and actress to complete. One of the requirements was that one must be an all-rounder in the acting industry. Not many actors and actresses could easily achieve this since most would stick with one or two genres according to the limits of their acting skills.

One actress or actor who usually played in romantic dramas and films couldn't possibly adjust to acting in comedy or action films. The transition and adjustments needed for an actor to achieve in acting in a different genre was higher than one would think.

This was the reason why Ran Xueyi didn't throw out any scripts handed to her. She would carefully pick out what was more challenging than the other, and more reasonable and note-worthy.

And another requirement was that one must be nominated or win an award internationally. Only a number of actors and actresses were nominated. As for winning an award... Well, a few have done it a few years ago.

However, Ran Xueyi already achieved that just recently. This won her a spot to win the Triple Crown Award.

Around 6pm, Ran Xueyi finished all her scenes that day. Everyone in the production crew was so excited and elated because they could go home early for the first time.

Shen Yi, as the male lead of the TV drama, came forward and said, "It seems that my whole existence has become useless now that you're here."

"Brother Shen shouldn't say that. I'm grateful that you're here when I wasn't." Ran Xueyi replied. She remembered what Adelle told her a few days ago. Shen Yi was the only one who confront Steffanie about the video. She wondered why he stepped in.

But seeing him up close, Ran Xueyi found out that Shen Yi was more pleasant to play a role with than other actors. At least, he wasn't prejudiced and selfish.

Seeing her looking at him for a long time, Shen Yi felt slightly embarrassed. Scratching his head, he suddenly thought of what happened several days ago.

"What happened before... I'm really sorry. I should have told you about Steffanie's behavior and tendency to use violence." Besides that, there was also the fact that he tried to rope Ran Xueyi into his side because his sponsor told him to. Thinking of his actions during that party, Shen Yi was extremely ashamed of himself. "Anyway, it's good that you safely got out of that mess."

"Thank you Brother Shen for your words. There's no need to say sorry. You didn't do anything wrong." Ran Xueyi smiled at him.

Shen Yi was mesmerized by her smile and heard his heart skip a beat.

Suddenly, he couldn't stop his mouth from saying, "That man at the part last time... Is he really just your assistant?"

Chapter 333 Shen Yi's True Intention

Ran Xueyi was surprised for a moment when she heard his question. For a moment, she didn't know how to react, not because the question was difficult, rather it was because she had to take a pause and try to remember what he was talking about.

...ah, that party!

Exactly three seconds later, Ran Xueyi finally remembered. It was the party where Song Yu Han first appeared and introduced himself as her assistant manager.

At that time, Shen Yi offered to take her home since Adelle wasn't by her side when Song Yu Han suddenly came and stopped him.

Shen Yi repeated his question: "That man is really your assistant, right?"

"Why is Brother Shen asking me this? Are you interested in being a part of my team of managers?" Ran Xueyi asked a question instead of answering him. She didn't know Shen Yi's intention of asking her this so she wanted to hear his response first.

Shen Yi knew that Ran Xueyi had misunderstood his question and quickly assured her, "No one put me into this to ask you. I'm merely curious... That man is too outstanding and handsome to be an assistant. I know you're amazing and talented, but I just couldn't make sense of it."

The man he met that night was extremely handsome. He was probably the most gorgeous man Shen Yi had laid his eyes on, and as a straight man, he couldn't just understand why would that man take the position of an assistant manager rather than aiming higher? For example, a model, an actor, or there are other jobs he could have taken.

Yet, he chose to become Ran Xueyi's assistant manager.

On the other hand, if that man was really Ran Xueyi's assistant manager, why was he not beside her? What kind of assistant manager actually leaves his artist's side and does not appear next to her when the manager was not present?

"My company is looking for models, so I thought maybe he can..." Shen Yi really has no other intentions towards Ran Xueyi. The truth was that the company he was signed under was really looking for new models.

Ran Xueyi slightly relaxed her vigilance against Shen Yi, but she was still cautious when it came to a topic involving Song Yu Han.

Ran Xueyi smiled at him and finally replied after some thought, "He's really my assistant manager. Actually, he came to the set once but Brother Shen wasn't here. As for whether he wants to become a model or not... Brother Shen can ask him."

"Oh, really? Then, can you give me his number?" Shen Yi lowered his head as he reached to take out the phone from his pocket. But when he raised his hand, Ran Xueyi, who should have been standing in front of him, was already gone.

Shen Yi: "..."

You could have just said you didn't want to give me his number. Why make a fool out of me?

Shen Yi's heart broke. It seems that his company wouldn't be able to sign a new model who could possibly take over the world.

The coldness in White City was not comparable to the capital. It was extremely cold that one needed to cover themselves with a blanket and thick coats to get by.

Upon leaving the building using the backdoor where no fans and paparazzis waiting, Ran Xueyi was covered by Adelle with three layers of thick blankets.

Adelle was most afraid of Ran Xueyi catching a cold and get scolded by the Big Boss.

"I saw Shen Yi approaching you earlier. What did he tell you?"

Ran Xueyi leaned to her seat and in an expressionless manner, she said, "Trying to poach my assistant manager to become a model."

"Assistant manager? Do you even have... Oh, right. You have one." Adelle almost forgot about this matter. She couldn't help but laugh when she realized who Ran Xueyi was talking about and said, "Shen Yi's working hard for his company, he's even doing the job of the scouting team in his company."

Ran Xueyi nodded as she reminded her, "When he approaches you and asks you the same, just tell him you don't have Song Yu Han's number."

"He still wants his number?" Adelle was surprised and laughed again. "I think he might need to surrender his president's head before he could get his number."

Was it so easy to get the number of the owner of SH Group?

After driving for almost twenty minutes, Adelle was about to inform Ran Xueyi that they had arrived when she saw two figures standing in front of the hotel entrance.

Wasn't that Ran Yue?

Who's that old lady beside her?

"What's wrong?" Ran Xueyi perceived her manager's strangeness and saw that they already stopped in front of the hotel.

Adelle did not know whether she should mention Ran Yue to Ran Xueyi. But the position where Ran Yue and that old lady was standing was at the entrance so there was no reason for her to hide this.

"Isn't that Ran Yue?" Adelle pointed at them.

Ran Xueyi followed and really saw Ran Yue standing at the entrance. Her eyes were dull, at first, but when her sight fell on the figure next to her, a cold glint appeared inside her eyes.

"Turn the car around. Let's not stay at this hotel tonight."

After hearing Ran Xueyi's words, Adelle quickly turned the car and left the hotel.

Do you want me to book a flight to the capital?"

Ran Xueyi shook her head, "I'm afraid it's too late to book a flight. Besides, I have to be at the set at 7am tomorrow."

"Then, I'll book a hotel room for us to stay in for the night." Adelle parked the car on the side of the road and looked for a suitable and safe hotel for them to stay in. After getting two of them their rooms, Adelle turned her attention back to Ran Xueyi and asked, "Ran Yue... Is she perhaps waiting for you at the entrance? But who's the old lady next to her?"

Ran Xueyi looked outside and after a moment, she softly said, "Who knows."

Chapter 334 Li Jing's Plan Backfired On Her

This was the first time that Ran Xueyi saw her mother after three years. Even though it was just a quick glance, Ran Xueyi was extremely shocked at what she saw.

Her mother, Li Jing, was most proud of her beauty and armed herself with it. In City A, her mother was coveted by many young masters many years ago before she got married to Ran Mo Zheng. Not only because she had a beautiful face and seductive figure, but it was also because she was smart enough to latch her hands on the most eligible man in the city, Ran Mo Zheng.

Many women were devastated when they heard that Li Jing was marrying Ran Mo Zheng, but they could only give up, and Li Jing successfully entered the Ran family.

p For more than two decades, Li Jing held onto the title of Ran family's madam. But despite the pressure from different prestigious families and mockery that she constantly received because she came from the middle-class, Li Jing did not show any weakness.

On the contrary, she became more blooming and beautiful like a ripe apple.

However, that night, the ripeness of the apple that many coveted was now rotten.

Li Jing's appearance was completely different from the last time Ran Xueyi met her.

Unkempt, inelegant, and face riddled by wrinkles. She looked twice her age now.

It was not surprising that even Adelle would call her mother, who was still in her mid forties, to be an old lady because of her appearance.

And although Ran Xueyi wanted to keep the past locked away inside a pandora box, never to be opened, she couldn't help but wonder what had happened?

But then again, it was just her curiosity.

At first, Adelle thought that Ran Xueyi knew that old woman because of her sudden change in expression when her eyes fell on her. But hearing from her lips that she didn't know who it was, Adelle no longer questioned her about this.

Adelle sent Ran Xueyi to her new room after filling up the form at the reception desk. "Call me if anything happens. I'll come to your room at 6:30 to give you your breakfast."

"I know, thank you." Ran Xueyi closed the door behind her.

At the previous hotel.

Ran Yue was still standing at the entrance with her mother. It was humiliating for her to stand there, but her mother insisted that they wait there for Ran Xueyi to arrive.

Earlier, they had asked the receptionist if Ran Xueyi had returned to her room. When they recognized that Ran Yue was in the same group with Ran Xueyi, they told her that she still hasn't come back.

But Ran Yue had already called someone at the set, asking if Ran Xueyi left the place already, and they also said that she had already left early.

Then, where was she?

"Don't you have her number? Why don't you call her?" Li Jing was also freezing from the cold, but she was the one who insisted on staying outside to wait for Ran Xueyi.

Of course, they could have stayed inside the lobby where there were many people lounging and waiting there, but she was afraid that Ran Xueyi would humiliate them in front of many people like three years ago.

At least, if they're outside the entrance, not many people would wait and stand there since it was too cold. A perfect location for them to talk to Ran Xueyi without worrying about getting the attention of others.

Unfortunately, Li Jing's plan backfired on her.

She didn't think that even if there was no one outside to see them, Ran Xueyi might not want to see them at all.

That was what exactly happened.

Ran Yue rubbed her freezing hands against her arms, trying to warm her body but was still unsuccessful. She could only bitterly answer, "Ran Xueyi blocked my phone number and we're not friends in the messaging app. She also has the list of actors' and actresses' numbers from Director Xiao so she blocked my new number."

"My number can't call her either. She blocked mine too." Li Jing's tone was slightly disgruntled. What kind of daughter actually blocks their mother's number? Even if things went south in their familial relationship, it has been three years!

Can't she at least forget about the past and forgive already?

Ran Yue breathed helplessly. She had other thoughts from her mother and knew that it was unsurprising for Ran Xueyi to block their numbers. After all, it was them who betrayed her first and not Ran Xueyi.

"We're just going to freeze ourselves to death by staying here, mother. Why don't we come to my room first and rise up early tomorrow and see if Ran Xueyi comes out?" Honestly, Ran Yue had a feeling that Ran Xueyi wouldn't appear at the hotel tomorrow, but she didn't dare stay outside any longer.

Li Jing was hesitating a bit to get inside the hotel but when the wind blew strongly and chilled her heart, she reluctantly nodded her head.

The two ran inside the hotel, looking extremely foolish standing outside for so long. The receptionist was just one call away to call the police and an ambulance, fearing that they would freeze to death.

When working, time seemed to pass on quickly in a blink of an eye. Song Yu Han did not even notice that it was already past 10 in the evening.

After taking Xiao Zhanzhan to his office, Song Yu Han did not come outside only because his work was stacked a bit too high. So, in the end, he didn't get to tour his own son around the company.

Even Guo Yun, who wanted to play with his newly acquired little brother, was so tired after working so late.

The only one who was not tired at all was Xiao Zhanzhan.

After playing games inside his daddy's office the entire day, he finally fell asleep and used his daddy's lap as pillows.

Turning in his sleep, Xiao Zhanzhan held tightly on his daddy's arm and murmured in a low voice.

Song Yu Han lowered his head to look at his son and sighed. He carried the little boy in his embrace and stepped into the connecting room which he used as his sleeping quarters when he had to stay up late at the office.

After he had just put Xiao Zhanzhan on the bed, the phone in his pocket vibrated.

Song Yu Han first covered Xiao Zhanzhan with a blanket before answering the call without looking at the recipient, "Have you finished your scenes?"

The dark clouds hovering around her heart melted as soon as she heard Song Yu Han's voice. Ran Xueyi softly replied, "Yes, I finished them already. I'm now inside my room. How's Xiao Zhanzhan? Did he make a lot of trouble at the company?"

Song Yu Han sat down on the chair next to the floor-to-ceiling window, and looked outside the rainbow-lit city outside before looking back at the small figure on the bed. "No, he was very obedient with me. I just placed him in bed. Do you want to see him?"

Ran Xueyi wanted to say yes, but she didn't want to wake her son up.

"No, let him rest. He must have played himself to sleep."

Ran Xueyi looked at the ceiling and missed hugging Song Yu Han and Xiao Zhanzhan; to her, they were the other two halves of her soul.

Chapter 335 To See Her Daughter

The next day, Ran Xueyi still didn't return to the hotel.

Li Jing was starting to lose hope and get mad at Ran Xueyi. What kind of woman wouldn't return to her hotel?

"Tell me, is your sister dating someone now?" Li Qing questioned.

Ran Yue looked at her mother for a moment before saying, "Ran Xueyi has been staying abroad for three years, how am I supposed to know what she does?"

Li Jing believed her daughter's words. Ran Xueyi's life these past three years has been kept hidden from them and only revealed to them when she returned to the country, after all.

However, things can't continue this way. Li Jing knew that the more time passes, the more Ran Mo Zheng and his mistress, Ning Qing, gained what they wanted. And as much as she hated begging, if it will give her the satisfaction of seeing Ran Mo Zheng and Ning Qing on their knees together with those two bastards, Li Jing was willing to act and become the mother that Ran Xueyi never had.

Wasn't that what Ran Xueyi was missing in her life? A motherly figure?

Ran Yue did not know what her mother was planning when she received a message from Manager Zhang. She looked at her wristwatch and knew that she could no longer stay there.

"Mother, I still have to go to work later. Just stay inside my room and wait for me to arrive." Ran Yue reminded her mother.

Before leaving the hotel, Ran Yue turned to her mother to say, "Call me if you need anything. As for the matter with my father... I think it's better if you don't mention it to Ran Xueyi."

Knowing her, Ran Xueyi wouldn't even blink an eye when she hears that her parents were getting divorced.

After giving her mother one last glance, Ran Yue finally left the hotel.

But what Ran Yue did not know was that after she left, Li Jing quickly waved a taxi and followed her daughter's car to the filming set.

Li Jing brought up Ran Yue and knew her daughter very well. She could tell the hesitation and reluctance that she showed when she mentioned meeting with Ran Xueyi.

Nevertheless, whether Ran Yue was willing or not to meet up with Ran Xueyi was not something she should be thinking about right now. Li Jing has to solve her problem with RAn Mo Zheng and his mistress!

"Ma'am, the car in front of us stopped." The taxi driver brought Li Jing back to her senses.

Li Jing quickly reached for her wallet and gave the driver the money, then she stepped out of the car and went to the entrance of the building.

The building was four-storey and newly-painted. From the looks of it, it was developed by a film corporation. In front of the building were several people blocked by the metal bar fence, and by the entrance, two burly men in black T-shirts stood erect like two pillars. Even Li Jing was slightly afraid of approaching the guards.

But for the sake of her purpose today, Li Jing inhaled cold wind to encourage herself to come forward and talk to the guards.

As expected, when Li Jing came forward, the eyes of the guards went directly on her figure. They still stood in the same position but the aura around them changed instantly. It gave the image of them tackling anybody who braved to force their way inside.

Li Jing was a member of the High Society for a very long time now. If she couldn't even handle two guards, would she still call herself 'Li Jing'?

Li Jing quickly put on a smile and raised both her hands, showing a harmless pose to lower the guards' vigilance towards her. When she was just three feet away from them, she quickly started her plan.

"This... You two hardworking guards, have you seen my daughter?" Li Jing inquired. "I'm the mother of Ran Yue, she's an actress who's playing a role in the film inside. She left her script at home and as a mother, I'm worried that she might be scolded by the director and lose her job."

One of the guards finally relaxed a bit when he heard the name of the actress. He was given the list of cast members in the film and clearly remembered that Ran Yue's name was one of them.

The guard then said, "Ma'am, you can't enter inside. The building is strictly being guarded now. If you want, you can hand me the script and I will make sure that Miss Ran Yue will get the script."

Li Jing's smile paused. Give him what? The script was just an excuse to get inside!

Li Jing: "That is..."

The guard saw her frown and asked, "Is there something wrong?"

Once again, the guard raised his vigilance and glared at Li Jing.

Li Jing was scared to death when the two guards looked at her as if she was nothing but a dwarf in their eyes whom they could tackle and throw outside.

Despite the risk of being thrown out, Li Jing still took two steps forward and whispered to the ear of the guard. She lowered his voice as she said, "Actually, I don't have the script with me.... Wait! Don't get me wrong. I'm really here to see my daughter..."

"You've heard of what happened a few days ago, right? Ran Xueyi... is my daughter." After saying this, Li Jing showed a sad expression and tears welled up in her eyes. She continued to speak, "To tell the truth, my daughter hasn't talked to me for the past three years because of a conflict in our family. When I found out about what happened to her, I was so worried and came here to wait for her at the hotel but they told me that she already left and came here."

"Can you two good men be the reason that our family can be one again and let me see my daughter?" Li Jing did not spare at twisting lies and turning them into truths to get what she wanted.
