

Daddy CEO 341

Chapter 341 Tearful Confession

Ran Xueyi's consciousness was eaten away by darkness. When she woke up again, she was inside a room she was familiar with; it was the room she and Song Yu Han shared at home.

The warm and cozy white painted walls and ceiling, the chandelier with the intricate patterns she asked for the artisan to create was fully lit above. On the other hand, the softness and fluffiness of the bed underneath her slightly numb and weary body were like clouds to save her from her fall, making Ran Xueyi's eyelids feel a bit heavy.

She wanted to sleep again.

"You're awake." Just then, a voice that sounded like a hot and delicious chocolate sounded to her side.

Ran Xueyi slightly turned her head to the direction of the voice and saw an extremely handsome man sitting beside the bed while holding her hand.

She felt hand squeeze her own.

"Are you feeling alright? Do you want me to get the doctor for you?" Song Yu Han asked and reached towards the small table where a tray of water and glass cups were placed on top.

He placed the glass of water next to her lips and waited for her to take a sip, "Wet your lips first before speaking."

They had a family doctor? Why hadn't she heard of this? She mused to herself.

Ran Xueyi weakly took a small sip from the glass and heard him continue speaking.

"I had the family doctor come and check your condition. He said that though the amount of chloroform you inhaled wasn't great, it was still dangerous and harmful to the body."

"He praised you for your quick reaction of holding your breath and avoiding inhaling a bit more of the dangerous gas. He also reminded for me to take care of you."

Ran Xueyi finally recovered her voice and said to Song Yu Han, "He's the only one who praised me? What about you, Hubby?"

Ran Xueyi weakly squeezed his hand and blinked her eyes framed by full black lashes.

Song Yu Han stared at those beautiful eyes, slightly distracted, before he said in an indifferent tone, "What do you think?"

It was a mysterious but meaningful question. Others might not know or understand it, but Ran Xueyi knew that, at this moment, Song Yu Han was really angry. He was just not showing it because she was currently recovering and weak.

This time, it wasn't faked nor planned out like what happened during the incident with Steffanie. What happened was an unexpected accident with a crazy fan who followed her around.

Song Yu Han's emotions were naturally more erratic right now. Ran Xueyi was hurt by someone when he was not around. Again.

Ran Xueyi knew her wrongs and sincerely said, "I won't do it again, Hubby. If I happened to be alone, I'll go straight back to my hotel room or at home! I won't let anyone take advantage of me and catch me off guard again!"

--Pa.

A finger flick answered her.

Ran Xueyi hurried to rub her forehead and stared at Song Yu Han aggrievedly.

Song Yu Han stared into her eyes and said, "Silly, you're not supposed to let this happen again."

Next time, who knows what kind of situation would arise? No matter how prepared a person was, an unexpected situation will still bring you closer to danger.

Song Yu Han was already used to these type of dangers so his reaction was also highly advanced. He won't even blink an eye when someone points a gun or shoots a gun at him.

But, what about Ran Xueyi? Song Yu Han has confidence in her strengths and knew she can take care of herself. But there were too many things she still hasn't experienced. Her reaction couldn't be the same as his.

And neither does Song Yu Han want her to experience or have that kind of trained reaction that he possessed.

Ran Xueyi should shine like a diamond, no, the brightest star in front of everyone. She's a celebrity that everyone should look up to. Not someone targetted by dangerous people and have to wary about everything and everyone.

If only he could do whatever he wanted, Song Yu Han would put Ran Xueyi under high safekeeping. But he knew that Ran Xueyi would never allow that.

Ran Xueyi knew him well the most and also understood what was currently going on in his mind.

She took his hand and grasped it inside her both hands, gently kissing his knuckles and assured him, "I was really caught off guard that time. Next time, no, there will be no next like you said. I won't let this happen to me again."

"Actually, I was a bit loss and at the same time, I was too happy. I was planning to send a pic of the view I saw from White City to both you and Xiao Zhanzhan when it happened. But before that... I met with my mother," Ran Xueyi confessed.

"I hadn't seen her for three years and do you even know what the first thing she said to me after seeing each other? She claimed to be my mother while demanding me to help them fix their family issues."

"For once, in my entire life, they included me in their so-called family..." Ran Xueyi cried her tears bitterly. "...But it's too late."

Even though Ran Xueyi never cared about the family who abandoned her and treated her like a trash they can throw away, recycle, and take back, it was still too difficult to forget what they had done to her. It was too painful to forget.

She didn't have Song Yu Han by her side and she was afraid to disturb him in his work and meetings, which he had pushed back and rescheduled several times just to spend time with her and Xiao Zhanzhan. So, she didn't tell him about it.

But it ended up with her getting lost in her own thoughts and resulting to this accident.

Song Yu Han let Ran Xueyi cry as much as she wants. He carefully carried her and placed her on his lap while his arms encircled around her figure.

He carefully and gently caressed her as he said, "It's not too late. You still have me and Xiao Zhanzhan. We will always be your family."

While comforting her, a hint of chilling frost flashed into his eyes.

The people who hurt Ran Xueyi must pay back for what they had done.

Song Yu Han tried so hard to hold back, but now, he could no longer take it.

He needs to vent his anger into something...

Chapter 342 Xiao Zhanzhan Wants To Play!

Song Yu Han was very gentle with Ran Xueyi. He patiently waited for her to finish crying and fall asleep.

After seeing Ran Xueyi's eyes were closed, Song Yu Han phoned Guo Yun and told him to check what the Ran family was doing right now.

Hearing his question, Guo Yun immediately reported, "President Ran is currently having dinner with his mistress and her children. Mrs. Ran is now sent to the Ran family's second mansion and is being kept in tight security under your orders."

"We had the internet signal and phone signal cut off from the second mansion so that she cannot contact anybody else."

Song Yu Han glanced at Ran Xueyi and placed his hand on her pale cheeks. He coldly ordered him, "Cut the electricity and water as well. Make sure that she does not get any help from anybody."

Guo Yun was confused. He didn't know why Big Boss suddenly wanted to cut the electricity and water supply.

The Ran Family's second mansion was located two streets away from the main mansion. It was currently empty but maintained its cleanliness with the help of the maids and servants hired by Ran Mo Zheng.

However, upon hearing that Li Jing was staying inside the second mansion, Ran Mo Zheng decided to have all the maids and servants exit the mansion.

Right now, Li Jing was completely alone inside the house, and with the water and electricity supply cut off, it will be quite difficult for her to live there without anyone's help.

Song Yu Han stroked Ran Xueyi's face and placed a kiss on her forehead.

Guo Yun heard the sound of a kiss and blushed profusely: "..."

Big Boss, you're still on the phone with me! Can't you at least have some shame?

Unfortunately, he could only feign ignorance and continued his report, "I will order the men to cut off the electricity and water supply. Sir, do you still want to sign the proposed deal with the Ran Group?"

Song Yu Han, "No. Throw the deal to the trash can and announce that YH Group will never collaborate in any deal with the Ran Corporation."

Initially, Song Yu Han wanted to sign the collaboration deal with the Ran Corporation in order to set the stage for Ran Xueyi's future. But when he found out what happened to Ran Xueyi and it was all because of the family issues of the Ran family, he decided not to help the Ran Corporation anymore.

Rather than signing a collaboration deal with them now, Song Yu Han will wait for Ran Xueyi to take over the Ran Corporation and then help set the stage for her.

By then, none of the Ran family could ever involve themselves with Ran Xueyi anymore.

...

After resting for a day, Ran Xueyi woke up to someone singing beside her while a hand was petting her hair.

"Twinkle, twinkle, Little shtar..."

"How I wonder what chu are..."

"Up above the world, so high!"

"Like a diamond in the shky."

Twinkle, twinkle, Little shtar."

"How I wonder what chu are."

"Up above the world sho high,"

"Like a diamond in the shky."

"Twinkle, twinkle, Little shtar--"

"Ah, Mommy woke up!" Xiao Zhanzhan stopped rubbing her head and placed his head on her chest.

He blinked his eyes and said, "Mommy, Zhanzhan learned to sing Twinkle twinkie little star! A'Yu taught me how to sing it."

Ran Xueyi melted from this and pinched his soft cheeks like cotton candy, "That's great! Xiao Zhanzhan is amazing!"

"But Daddy knows how to sing?"

Xiao Zhanzhan nodded: "En! When you didn't come home, he sang it for me to sleep. Mommy should hear A'Yu sing too!"

Ran Xueyi felt that she needed Song Yu Han to show his talent in singing to her. After marrying him, this was the first time she heard that he could sing.

"But, didn't I tell you to call him Daddy?" Ran Xueyi reminded her son.

Xiao Zhanzhan tilted his head and said, "A'Yu is daddy. Daddy is A'Yu."

Truth to be told, Xiao Zhanzhan liked calling Song Yu Han 'A'Yu' because the first time they met, it was raining. He got lost in the backyard of their own home and saw a man standing there and asked him if he was lost.

(Yu = meaning 'Rain')

Since then, Xiao Zhanzhan called the man he met that day 'Yu' not knowing that it was also Song Yu Han's name.

But Xiao Zhanzhan did not tell his mother about this. He felt that this was something he and A'Yu can only share with each other. Of course, if his mother asked him, Xiao Zhanzhan would immediately confessed to her.

But she did not ask. She only told him to call A'Yu daddy.

Seeing that her son was not going to tell her anymore than just that, Ran Xueyi sighed helplessly in time to see Song Yu Han coming out of the bathroom wrapped in a bathrobe.

Xiao Zhanzhan jumped from the bed and ran towards his father. He ran so quickly that he crashed into Song Yu Han's legs.

Afraid that he would hurt himself, Song Yu Han caught him and carried him into his embrace.

Xiao Zhanzhan happily hooked his arms around his father's neck and excitedly said, "A'Yu, A'Yu! Mommy's awake, can we go out and play now?"

Song Yu Han saw the smile on his son's face and couldn't help pinch his cheeks, "Where does Xiao Zhanzhan want to go?"

Xiao Zhanzhan thought for a moment and said, "The horsey!"

Ran Xueyi raised an eyebrow, "Horsey?"

Song Yu Han explained, "He saw an advertisement from the TV where children played at an amusement park. The children were riding on that horse ride."

"Are you feeling well now?" Song Yu Han carried his son and made his way to the bed. He checked on Ran Xueyi's temperature and sighed when it didn't seem like she caught a cold. "You don't have a fever, but if you're still dizzy, we can go to the amusement park later."

Ran Xueyi felt extremely good after a day's sleep. She didn't want to worry them anymore and delay Xiao Zhanzhan's time to play, so she agreed to go with them.

Chapter 343 Exchanging Seats

Ran Xueyi especially dressed her son today. She made sure that the three of them would pair each other's attire. And despite Song Yu Han and Xiao Zhanzhan's similar reaction towards the white T-shirts that she dug up from one of her suitcases, they could only go along with her wishes.

Guo Yun, who was tasked to drive the family of three drove the car to the villa, and paused at the entrance as the door was wide open, revealing the three people of different sizes standing there, obviously waiting for him.

He was slightly speechless when he saw the words written on the front of the T-shirts, but one glance from the Big Boss was enough for him to shut his mouth off.

"Before heading to the amusement park, do you want to eat first? There's a popular restaurant, just a few minutes walk to the amusement park." Guo Yun first suggested the idea since it was already 11 in the morning.

Ran Xueyi didn't see the point of rejection and said, "Let's go there then."

Once the car started and drove almost thirty minutes to their destination, Ran Xueyi saw the restaurant and could see that it was indeed a nice place to eat just from its appearance.

The restaurant didn't look like the modern restaurant or the traditional and pre-historic restaurant that they usually go to. Instead, it looked like somebody's home that was slightly renovated and used as a temporary restaurant.

The front of the restaurant was open. There were numerous pots of plants outside and inside the restaurant and one could tell at a glance that the owner was very fond of plants and flowers with the actual owner walking outside of the restaurant to water the plants.

Ran Xueyi took a moment to take in this mystifying scene in front of her. How can she describe this place? It was too... casual. Too homely and relaxed.

Even though Ran Xueyi was definitely not picky where she would eat and was even more comfortable with eating comfort food, she honestly couldn't trust the restaurant's hygiene like this. Not only that, she had to worry about Xiao Zhanzhan the most right now.

Was it really alright to let her son eat there?

This was also Song Yu Han's worries when he saw the restaurant. He didn't say anything but sent a glance at Guo Yun.

Seeing their silent reaction, Guo Yun knew that they were being skeptical about the restaurant. He quickly said, "Boss and Madam doesn't have to worry about the restaurant's taste and hygiene. I was here last time with my mother. Actually, she was the one who introduced this place to me while scolding me to get married early!"

"You can not trust me, but always trust my mother when it comes to hygiene!"

Guo Yun was not ashamed to say this.

Song Yu Han's eyes fell towards the restaurant again and sighed. "Let's go."

He knew who Guo Yun's mother was. She was a head chef of a reputed restaurant and owned several restaurants around the world. One thing she's definitely good at and obsessed with other than making food was the cleanliness of the things around her.

Ran Xueyi no longer hesitated and woke up Xiao Zhanzhan, who fell asleep during the long drive on her lap.

Xiao Zhanzhan rubbed his eyes and looked around him, "We're here?"

His voice was so soft and sweet, Ran Xueyi couldn't help but regret waking him up.

Ah, her son is so cute!

"Yes, we're here, baby. Do you want mommy to carry you?" Ran Xueyi was about to hook her arm around his tiny figure when Song Yu Han stopped him.

Song Yu Han pulled Xiao Zhanzhan and carried him in his embrace, "Don't forget you just recovered. Leave carrying Xiao Zhanzhan to me."

Ran Xueyi did not stop him from taking up the task of carrying their son and followed Guo Yun inside the restaurant.

Although it was time for lunch to arrive and there should be people there to eat, but surprisingly, the place was empty.

"So empty?" Ran Xueyi commented.

Guo Yun replied, "Although it's like this, don't underestimate the taste buds of my mother!"

"You mentioned we should trust your mother, but what does this have anything to do with her?"

Song Yu Han answered it for her, "Guo Yun's mother is Guo Sharron. A chef you must have heard of at least once."

Suddenly, Ran Xueyi had an epiphany. "That Sharron Guo? The renowned Chinese Chef? The Golden Master Chef host?"

The Golden Master Chef was a competitive show between amateur chefs aiming to be popular and professional chefs and tutored by master chefs all around the world. Among the master chef chosen to be one of the five judges, Sharron Guo was the head chef and host of the reality show.

The cooking reality show was very popular to mothers and foodie fans not only because they could learn and see new delicious recipes from the show; they could also see the beautiful Sharron Guo roast the amateur chefs into shape and become a disciplined professional chef. The way she tutored the chefs was so terrifying and fascinating. Sharron Guo was not afraid of anyone's feelings and just served reality and facts.

Ran Xueyi also learned how to cook from watching Sharron Guo's videos. And in just two years, Ran Xueyi was now able to proudly say that no kitchen will be endangered and explode under her hands.

"I never thought that I'd be in the presence of the Military... Ahem, Golden Master Chef Sharon's son." Ran Xueyi stared at Guo Yun in a new light before asking, "Then, does that mean... Guo Yun also knows how to cook?"

Guo Yun waved his hand and immediately said no: "My mother is the only in our entire family who knows how to cook. Actually, Grandfather is still angry at her for quitting the military and chasing after her dreams of being a chef."

He suddenly whispered, "Well... I also secretly call my mom Angry Military Chef. I pity all the chefs who were under her once. They seemed more like a soldier than a chef. I even saw one of them declaring he'd rather serve in the military!"

Ran Xueyi was between crying and laughing when she heard this. It seems that she was not the only one who noticed this.

The two continued to talk and took their seats at a table next to a wall. The sitting arrangement was in this order; Ran Xueyi, Xiao Zhanzhan, Song Yu Han, and Guo Yun. The table was circular so both Ran Xueyi and Guo Yun could still sit next to continue their conversations.

Song Yu Han and Xiao Zhanzhan sat together and saw the two laugh while gossiping before looking at each other.

Finally, Song Yu Han stared at Ran Xueyi and faked a cough to catch her attention.

However, Ran Xueyi was so happy to meet her indirect master's son so she didn't hear it and continued to talk about Sharron Guo with Guo Yun.

Song Yu Han frowned a bit more when the two started to whisper amongst themselves. When he could not take it any longer, he lowered his head and met his son's eyes.

Xiao Zhanzhan, as young as he was, did not understand his father's meaningful gaze.

The father and son stared at each other for a long time before Song Yu Han gave up trying to send silent signals to him. He then quietly instructed his son to do a few things.

Ran Xueyi did not know what the two were planning and happily chatted with Guo Yun about his mother. Just then, Xiao Zhanzhan walked to her and placed his tiny hand on her leg.

"What is it, baby?"

Xiao Zhanzhan pointed his finger and said, "Mommy, I want to sit close to Yun-ge. Mommy can sit next to A'Yu."

Ran Xueyi looked at her son before raising her head to look at Song Yu Han. Obviously, she could tell who made Xiao Zhanzhan do this.

Song Yu Han feigned innocence and said, "Come, love. Don't disturb our son's brotherhood."

Brotherhood, my foot. It was so obvious you're jealous and using our son as an excuse!

Although Ran Xueyi was slightly annoyed and also found his childishness adorable, she still exchanged seats with Xiao Zhanzhan.

After exchanging seats, Ran Xueyi pinched his thigh under the table and deliberately smiled at him, "You want to sit next to me so much that you're using our son?"

"Do you know how to be ashamed?"

Song Yu Han also smiled, "I can be more shameless than this if you want."

Ran Xueyi felt a hand make its way to her thigh. She glared at him and quietly hissed, "You dare?"

Thankfully, before anything could happen, the owner of the restaurant and the only person there made his way to them to take their orders.

After ordering, they waited several minutes before the food was served. As Guo Yun had previously said, the food was beyond delicious! It was magical. One taste and it was so refreshing and rejuvenating. Ran Xueyi took pictures of the food and planned to post some of it to her social media page.

After they filled their stomach with tasty food, everyone left the restaurant and headed towards the amusement park.

Chapter 344 Going To Moonlight Entertainment

The amusement park was surprisingly empty when they got there.

"Did you rent the whole park just for us?" Ran Xueyi turned her head to look at Song Yu Han.

Song Yu Han slowly nodded and said, "For your safety and Xiao Zhanzhan's enjoyment, I decided to close the amusement park."

"You don't really have to do that. I can just wear a mask and we can spend each other's time like everyone else..." Ran Xueyi took a pause when she realized something and quickly asked, "Did you just say close? You... you own this place?"

Song Yu Han's warm eyes fell on her and he nodded once again.

This time, Ran Xueyi was half-surprised. She knew the man she married was wealthier than most, but she never thought that he could own the renowned Enchanted World! It was the world's most popular amusement park and from what she heard, it was coveted by many investors but the president rejected all of them; simply telling them that he didn't need their money for redevelopment and expansion!

Alas, now thinking about it, Ran Xueyi never showed interest in what Song Yu Han owned and did in the past, but now, she was intrigued by how many companies he currently owns!

Seeing her eyes shining like stars while staring at him, Song Yu Han couldn't help but think that she was simply adorable.

Patting her head with his hand, Song Yu Han told her, "I'll make a list of companies I own. That way, you can boast whenever you want if someone asks about who your husband is."

Ran Xueyi was ashamed and quickly waved her hand, "No, no... I better not do that. I'd feel responsible for breaking so many hearts."

With a man like this who is too handsome, sexy, and wealthy while still young; the perfect husband style, Ran Xueyi expected that once people find out that she's married to Song Yu Han, she'd be cursed at a lot.

Well... that's one thing to worry about, but Ran Xueyi didn't care much about this either.

She married the man she was interested in and fell in love with him not for his money.

After walking for a while around the amusement park, the trio also rode a few rides. The Viking's falling ship was the most exciting for Ran Xueyi and Xiao Zhanzhan. As for Song Yu Han, he liked the Ferris Wheel a lot because they could rest while watching the beautiful scenery around them.

Guo Yun, as the driver and also the bulb there, decided not to disturb the family bonding of the three and operated the rides. Thankfully, before today's event, he trained himself on how to operate the rides under an expert. He mostly stayed in the back while the three people enjoyed themselves.

Finally, they went to the Carousel and had Xiao Zhanzhan mount a horse while Song Yu Han watched over him.

Ran Xueyi also rode one of the horses and took many pictures of Song Yu Han and Xiao Zhanzhan.

Soon, the time to leave the park arrived.

"Can't we stay here?" Suddenly, Xiao Zhanzhan said this and didn't want to walk forward anymore.

He raised his head up and looked at his parents. He had ridden tons of rides inside the amusement park, but he was still not tired.

This was the first time he felt attached to a place, and it was the place where he and his parents finally got to bond together. He really liked the amusement park so much that he even ended up saying, "Mommy, why can't we live here?"

Ran Xueyi felt sad for Xiao Zhanzhan when she heard this. She knew her son the most and realized that he must have felt lonely for a while now.

She crouched down to the ground and explained, "Of course, we can live here if our baby wants to. But this place is where every kid and their parents have fun and make memories. Our home is still the best since we're the only ones who are living there, right?"

Xiao Zhanzhan lowered his head, feeling slightly disappointed. But unlike other kids, he never threw a tantrum and cried until he got what he wanted. Ran Xueyi's heart broke when she saw him like this.

She turned to Song Yu Han and then an idea entered her mind.

Ran Xueyi: "How about this? Whenever Xiao Zhanzhan wants to come here, mommy and daddy will definitely find time to come and take you here with us!"

Xiao Zhanzhan's mood finally brightened up, "Really?"

"We promise you!" Ran Xueyi turned to Song Yu Han, who also nodded his head.

...

After two days of rest, Ran Xueyi restored all her energy and returned to the drama team to continue filming her scenes.

After working hard to finish all her main scenes, she only needs to repeat some supplementary scenes that need retouching.

As soon as she arrived at the set, Director Xiao waved for her to come to him.

Ran Xueyi made her way to him and greeted, "Good morning, Director Xiao."

Director Xiao greeted her before informing Ran Xueyi of the team's schedule tomorrow, "The live interview for the drama is going to happen tomorrow. The location changed to Moonlight Entertainment. We will shoot the livestream in one of their studios."

Moonlight Entertainment? Isn't that one of Song Yu Han's companies?

Ran Xueyi was slightly dumbfounded. Last night, Song Yu Han gave her the list of his companies he owned. She was surprised at how long the list was, but she was too tired to memorize them so she only glanced at it once.

However, one particular company stuck in her mind.

It was Moonlight Entertainment. It was one of the Big Four entertainment companies in the country. It was also the fastest entertainment company to rise and take over and replace one of the previous Big Four entertainment companies in the country.

Director Xiao did not notice Ran Xueyi's reaction and continued explaining the schedule, "At around 8 o'clock in the morning, the team will head over to the main branch of Moonlight Entertainment. You have to be there before 8."

Then, he leaned forward and whispered to her ears, "I'm just saying this because you're now the investor of the drama, but I can help you meet Director Fan and recommend you to her film."

Ran Xueyi understood his good intentions and thanked him, "Thank you, Director Xiao. If you can do that, then I won't be polite and look forward to meeting Director Fan."

Chapter 345 Here To Announce Their Relationship?

The next day, Ran Xueyi woke up and changed her clothes quickly before heading to the capital where the main branch of Moonlight Entertainment was located.

Upon arriving, Adelle walked together with Ran Xueyi as they entered the tall building.

Shen Yi saw them and greeted them.

"Aren't you nervous?"

His sudden question surprised Ran Xueyi and she had to ask him, "Are you?"

Shen Yi nodded, "In the past, I tried auditioning here but ultimately failed. I did my best to become an actor signed in this company, but the difficulty for the audition was too hard."

Ran Xueyi raised her eyebrows and joked, "Was it that hard? Or perhaps, you're too lazy to do the audition and sleep in?"

Shen Yi was embarrassed and defended himself, "Hey, don't say that! It's true that I always end up being late, but I wasn't joking when I said it was too difficult to enter this place."

Ran Xueyi became intrigued. Just how difficult was it to enter Moonlight, the company Song Yu Han built?

"Just look at how many artists are signed under this company. It's not even fifty people! When all other companies have over a hundred or even a few hundreds of artists signed under them, Moonlight is the only company with less than fifty celebrities!"

Ran Xueyi also couldn't help but be impressed. Actually, her company, Chestnut, has lesser celebrities, but Moonlight Entertainment was one of the Big Four and was established ten years ago.

Ten years ago, Song Yu Han was only 18 years old when he started Moonlight Entertainment. He hadn't even gone to college at that time!

"And the craziest thing is that the owner of the company never showed his face to anybody! No one has seen him ever making his appearance. Not even during the company's annual shows and parties!" Shen Yi raved about this over and over again. He couldn't help but swoon a little bit and added, "If only I could get to meet the owner of the company, I would really worship the ground he walks on. It must be made of gold!"

Ran Xueyi couldn't help but feel extremely pleased hearing somebody praising Song Yu Han.

Director Xiao walked in and saw them at this moment then said, "Get ready, we're almost up."

"Are we the only ones who will be interviewed?" Ran Xueyi asked, seeing that none of the other artists playing the other roles in the drama was there.

Director Xiao replied, "Yes. Jia Yi went to her hometown because her grandmother died. Ran Yue's manager notified me last night that she had a fever and is resting today. The others can't appear in the interview. You should know why already."

Ran Xueyi got what Director Xiao meant and looked at Shen Yi.

Shen Yi was also looking at her and couldn't help but sigh.

In this industry, if you don't weigh enough to be included in the other events that the production team arranged, that could only mean that you're not worthy enough to stand on the same stage as the big celebrities.

Ran Xueyi and Shen Yi were both A-list stars and naturally, they could be invited and offered to an event. The second and lower tier stars were only second choice or substitute if the A-lists couldn't make it. As for the rest, they won't even be informed of these events.

It was just one of the dark sides of the entertainment industry. There was no use in complaining when it has always been like this since this industry was established.

Ran Xueyi and Shen Yi didn't make any comment about this matter. They got ready for the livestream show and read the questionnaire that was handed out to them beforehand.

Interviews and livestream shows will never give you impromptu questions. It was always either scripted or given away before the actual shooting.

The reason for that was to prepare the celebrities and have them formulate their answers so they can answer quickly when they're asked. Of course, occasionally, they would also be asked with questions outside the questionnaires, but none were extremely difficult to answer or else, the interview and show will be blamed by the artist's company instead.

The All-Stars Showbiz is a unique show. It doesn't undergo the same process as other and most shows because they are filmed in real time.

There will be no edits and cuts that didn't make it on the episode. Every viewer could see the raw and full video. They can also comment on their own questions and are selected by the reporter to ask the stars.

When Ran Xueyi and Shen Yi entered, the reporter introduced them excitedly: "Welcome God Shen Yi and Miss Ran Xueyi to the All-Stars Showbiz! How are the two of you feeling at the moment? Is there anything you'd like to say to the viewers and your fans before we start reading the questions?"

The flashlights lit up and descended on both Shen Yi and Ran Xueyi's figure. The director behind the monitor constantly gave orders to the camera men, who also followed his direction.

At this moment, Ran Xueyi glanced at the big screen showing the real time comments and also their faces on the screen, and was amused.

On the screen, comments were going crazy.

[WAAH!! Why is Ran Xueyi so pretty?!!]

[I was worried that something happened to your face, but thankfully, you're still as beautiful!]

[Why are they together? Don't tell me, they're here to announce their relationship?]

This comment attracted many of Shen Yi's fans. They quickly went to debunk this idea.

[Don't talk. Don't talk! My Shen Yi is still single, what are you talking about relationships?!]

[God Shen Yi will never date someone like Ran Xueyi, a retired actress making a comeback!]

Ran Xueyi's fans didn't hold back and also fought against them.

[Ha! As if our Goddess Xueyi would even want your Shen Yi! She already received two awards abroad, who are you calling retired?!]

[Goddess Xueyi!!!]

[God Shen Yi!!!]

At this point, the reporter and director couldn't let this fan battle continue on like this. They invited the two celebrities not to have a fan war but to promote their new drama!

But still, it was great that due to their fans, the show became top 1 that day.

Shen Yi said calmly, "Hello, everyone. I am Shen Yi... Let's have a good time on today's show!"

He handed the microphone to Ran Xueyi.

Ran Xueyi took the microphone and said with a smile, "Hi, everybody! I am Ran Xueyi. Let's all have fun today!"

After their greetings, the reporters finally felt relieved when the fans behaved a bit slightly. He could now ask the question cards in his hand.
