

Daddy CEO 401

Chapter 401 "He Told Me To Kill Him... So, I Did."

Song Yu Han never intended to spare Qing Li's life in exchange for the details and information of the patrons and wealthy people who were involved in this sickening game. He could get them if he wanted even if Qing Li didn't give it to him. Song Yu Han was only trying to lessen the effort and time it'll take him since he's already in that place.

Qing Li, however, flinched when he heard his words. Previously, he thought the man behind him had come after him because he was pulled into the game, but it turns out that he has an extra hidden agenda.

But despite knowing that, Qing Li refused to give away the patrons and investors of the Harvest. It was a game created for the people who are on top of the society. A past time for them to relieve the stress after the world has gone further away from its former beauty. They are only trying to bring back the beauty of life. The live hunting and games of survival, these are only one of the many games that they played during the Harvest. And the people who were pulled and dragged into playing it will eventually fight for the reward even if they were initially forced to do it.

Qing Li has been the Host for only a few years. However, the thirst and thrill he felt watching all kinds of people succumb to the primal nature of humanity and fall to a pile of shit like pigs, could never be compared to anything else in this world!

Was it wrong for them, the true humans, to target these fake humans? Don't they, the people, who made the world and economy still rotate, deserve a break from all of these?

Qing Li snickered as he said, "Kill me... You will never get what you want!"

Ha, this person must have a relative who fell to their hands and have come for revenge.

It's too bad that I, Qing Li, isn't afraid!

With him showing such confidence and fearlessness, this man should be in despair after not getting what he wanted from him.

Serves you right!

-Bang!

As soon as his thoughts conjured with pure evilness, Qing Li, who was certain that the man behind wouldn't shoot after weighing the scales, still didn't know how he fell.

The only thing he knew was that the moment his lips started to curl up into a sneer, a bullet had already been lodged to his skull passing through the bones into his brain and drilling another hole to the other side before embedding into the wall.

It didn't even take a moment's hesitation for Song Yu Han to pull the trigger. He had never hesitate nor showed mercy to anybody who tried to go against him or think they could best him.

"You... you... why did you kill him?" One of the people inside the room couldn't stop stuttering, his body soaked in cold sweat.

Stepping over Qing Li's body, Song Yu Han looked at him with dull eyes, looking as if he was gazing at dirt, and said, "He told me to kill him... So, I did."

Nobody could argue with him since they a heard Mr. Qing saying those words exactly. However, this only turned their hearts colder as they knew that the man before their eyes couldn't be offended!

However, now that their head figure was forced to topple on the ground, the minions could only scatter around to flee.

The guns in their possession was useless to that man. Not because he was immortal. It was because they knew that they couldn't even stand a chance against him.

Three people, looked at each other, and darted for the door, their only escape outside. However, a buller slashed through the air before they could reach it.

"I never allowed anyone to leave." Song Yu Han languidly walked towards the door, blocking it as if he was the owner of the villa, trying to eliminate the trespassers instead of him being the trespasser.

The men was speechless and was helpless. In this situation, shouldn't there be a silent truce now that their leader is dead?

But a truce was never part of Song Yu Han's dictionary. Not in a situation where he could just take everything he wanted there for granted.

3 minutes later.

With the signal transmission and service returned after he messed with the jammer, Song Yu Han contacted Guo Yun without interruption.

As soon as the call connected, Song Yu Han said, "Get a helicopter to the location I will send to you. Have the city police also bring their forces and report an abduction incident...."

Guo Yun, who answered the phone while playing games with Little Zhanzhan: "Uh... Boss, did something happen? Are you sure you want me to call the police?"

Guo Yun was merely asking this because he was completely stunned and confused. He could understand if the Big Boss wanted a helicopter, he could get that. But police officers and report an abduction case? Wouldn't that hinder the Madam's job?

Upon his assistant's unintentional reminder, Song Yu Han realized he couldn't get the police or the city mayor involved in this matter.

A huge fanfair of police officers driving towards this place will only attract the reporters who are waiting for hot scoops to broadcast. Song Yu Han wouldn't allow himself to hinder Ran Xueyi and taint her reputation. Even if she was not at fault and a victim of this incident, the media will still be able to stain a person's life with a single news.

Besides, Song Yu Han doubted those people who was involved in this twisted game would allow this incident to see the light of day.

In addition, he still has an unfinished business to complete.

Looking at the flash drive that he got from one of Qing Li's minion before killing them, Song Yu Han was already satisfied with getting the information he wanted.

Now, he needed to light up big fireworks for everyone to see.

Chapter 402 Ten Seconds Late

Ran Xueyi was worried that Song Yu Han wouldn't be able to finish setting up his plans. However, her worries were unfounded as the ground underneath their feet shook and debris and dust fell into the air.

Covering her mouth and nose, Ran Xueyi guessed that Song Yu Han had successfully set explosives in the villa. With everybody distracted, the intense fight finally ceased.

The guards surrounding also had confused and alarmed expressions on their faces. What was happening?

"Hey, call the monitoring team and ask them what's happening. Is there an earthquake?"

The guard who looked like the team leader of this group hollered at the other guard on his left, who brought out a walkie-talkie from his breast pocket. However, even after talking to the walkie-talkie, no response was heard nor was it transmitted.

The leader's face instantly darkened. Then, he whipped his head to look at the three females in front of him. He said accusingly, "You... What the hell did you do?"

The leader finally guessed that what was happening in the villa had something to do with them. There was no way that they did not do something! But he wondered how they did it? Could it be that before they were surrounded, they had already infiltrated into the monitoring room?

Impossible! Mr. Qing was inside with all the remaining guards who had real guns in their possession. There was no way these females could come out alive if they dared to do it.

Then...

The leader perceived something in his mind and quickly ordered, "Get them! Capture them and make sure that they won't be able to run away. Something's happening and they're certainly connected to it."

At his order, the guards grew vigilant and tense. Their initial confusion were gone as they approached them.

Adelle and Xuan Yi was so scared and hid behind Ran Xueyi, the only person who could fight and go against these burly, scary men!

"Xueyi..."

"Ran Xueyi..."

The two grabbed onto Ran Xueyi as if they were in the middle of the sea with a single wooden log to stay afloat. Ran Xueyi sneaked a glance at them and sighed in her heart. Next time, she'll sign up Adelle to a Taekwondo training program and let her know how to fight. As her manager, Adelle cannot only know how to manage her schedule and resources, she must also know how to protect both of them.

When the guards were getting closer and closer, with some of them holding their taser guns, Ran Xueyi felt pressured. Even with her martial arts, she won't be able to take down several men by herself much less men with guns.

Just when they were in a disadvantageous position, two successive loud bangs was suddenly heard, stirring everybody's heart to jump and their eardrums to ring.

Ran Xueyi didn't know where it came from, but after seeing the guard who stood very closely towards her and the one who was beside him, keeling over to the ground, she didn't even think about it and grabbed Adelle and Xuan Yi to the side, far away from the group of guards, to where it was much safer.

"Kyaa!!"

"Oh God, forgive me! I don't want to die!"

Adelle and Xuan Yi were like two geese, fleeing from a chaotic environment, quacking and exercising their vocal chords.

As for Ran Xueyi, she was calmer and a tad different from how they reacted. Well, having visited the Underworld, she was able to experience a similar event, but at that time, it was Jian Yiling, who was protecting her.

"Why are you running that way! That's the direction of the gun!" Xuan Yi almost lost her mind after realizing that instead of escaping from that place, Ran Xueyi actually ran towards where the live rounds of guns were being shot.

Ran Xueyi didn't have time to explain as she was only thinking of reaching her destination.

Once she crossed the space and reached where the gun was being shot, Ran Xueyi immediately saw who was shooting the gun and rejoiced.

As expected, it was no one other than Song Yu Han!

"Miss me already?" Song Yu Han still had the same teasing smile before he left her side. "You can't wait to jump into my embrace so you even dare jump into the range of my shots?"

Of course, Song Yu Han masterfully avoided Ran Xueyi and the other two. Even though he was stunned with shock and surprise when he saw Ran Xueyi running towards him, he quickly changed his trajectory so they wouldn't be hit by a bullet.

Song Yu Han: "Hey, I was just teasing you. You don't have to—..."

But before he could continue his words, her lips came crashing into him in hot waves of pleasure plunging down to his core.

However, it was different for Adelle and Xuan Yi, who was gawking at the two kissing while the finger curled around the trigger continued to pull and the most surprising thing was that every pull and bullet hit the target as if the gun had its own eyes..

Within mere minute, the team of guards that surrounded and intimidated them fell to the ground as if they were marionettes whose strings were magically cut.

Ran Xueyi pulled away slightly, but did not unwind her arms that were curled around his waist. "You're ten seconds late," she admonished him.

Crinkling his eyes, Song Yu Han didn't deny it, "Yes, it took me longer to find where they hid the explosives."

Song Yu Han gladly explained to her, "They probably used this villa to hide their stash of drugs and weapons for trades, but couldn't bring them out in time because of the event today."

Upon hearing this, Adelle's face was white as a sheet of A4 bond paper. Drugs... Weapons... Just what kind of universe was she pulled in today?

Ran Xueyi also became thoughtful and looked at Song Yu Han to confirm her suspicions. A single nod was enough to confirm it.

This place, no, this entire event has something to do with the Underworld.

Chapter 403 The Way Out

The Underworld was a dangerous place for ordinary people to roam around. Though it was not unheard of, still, Adelle and Xuan Yi were not the type of people who were suited to be in that world.

Ran Xueyi considered their situation and didn't want to give them more shock. Hence, she decided to stop this topic from being talked about for now.

"Let's go."

Song Yu Han pulled Ran Xueyi to his chest with a hand wrapped around the back of her waist while the other hand held a gun.

While walking, Ran Xueyi noticed a fire alarm attached to the wall. Under Song Yu Han's raised brows and understanding, she broke through the thin protective glass and pressed the alarm.

Soon, a loud, piercing, and blaring sound of alarm echoed throughout the entire villa, startling those who were resting, sleeping, and even those who were in the restroom.

"What's going on?"

"A fire?"

"Where is Mr. Qing? How could a fire happen in the villa?"

Those who were most affected by the fire alarm were the guests who were gathered and invited to have fun there. With the sudden interruption of the alarm, they had to temporarily stop their activities and go to a safer place. Their lives were far more important than the fun they will receive there, after all.

"Why did you press the alarm? You should have just let these people die in this place!" Xuan Yi remembered that she almost fell in the hands of one of the masked guests and her hatred towards them shot to the galaxy.

Adelle, however, answered her question and said, "Are you stupid? Naturally, Ran Xueyi also hated them and wanted them to die inside this place. However, it's not the same towards the actors, models, and idols, who came together with us in this villa. Don't forget, they're also forced to come and participate in this sick game for the wealthy."

If it hadn't been Adelle's reminder, Xuan Yi would have definitely forgotten about the others who came with them.

"Well... maybe we can leave one behind with these people? You know... Lin Hua..." Under the strange gazes she received as she continued to talk, Xuan Yi's voice finally stopped and she looked away in a fluster.

Ran Xueyi wanted to laugh. She had heard of the matter with Xuan Yi and Lin Hua. According to the sources they received, Xuan Yi was engaged to young master Lin, who was Lin Hua's second paternal cousin. Lin Hua and young master Lin have been childhood friends, however, it seems that there were slightly deeper feelings involved between them.

Xuan Yi, who found out about her fiancée's attraction towards his cousin and Lin Hua also seemed to reciprocate the same feelings, could not allow them to be together.

It may sound like Xuan Yi was trying to break up a couple from being together, but in truth, Xuan Yi was the one who was forced into this engagement since it involves both the Lin and Xuan family. She didn't even have feelings for young master Lin. And she couldn't allow this marriage to fall through. She couldn't even allow her family to find out about the two's attraction towards each other. Hence, she warned Lin Hua to stay away from young master Lin.

Finally, the four came out to the front yard where there were already some people escaping. Some of them barely wore any clothes on their body to cover their privates while some were fully clothed, but looked extremely haggard.

Ran Xueyi saw the celebrities and models who came with them. They were shivering and traumatized. Who could have known that a simple event gathering would end up with them being humiliated and stripped of their dignities?

It was disheartening to look at, but the only thing Ran Xueyi could do now is to find a way to get out of this place before the police or the media could find out about it.

As people kept coming out of the entrance in different states of mind and clothes, the villa was slowly being engulfed in fire. Glasses from the windows were breaking from the extreme heat and black smoke was rising and pouring out of the holes to mix in the clean air outside.

It was madness. From the very start, everything that happened to them was filled with madness and chaos. If they hadn't come out of that place, the three days they would be kept inside the villa like caged birds and domestic animals to be trained and insulted, would be a trigger for them to either surrender to their miserable fates or just let go.

At the thought of being saved and escaping from the hell they were put through, the celebrities and models who initially thought they had to beg and crawl under the feet of these masked guests, finally cried and howled their agonies and sufferings.

Some of them even raised their hands to the masked guests and beat them up until their heads were the same size as a pig's head.

Turning her eyes away from the commotion occurring around her, Ran Xueyi looked ahead at the burning villa and sighed.

Several years ago, those who were dragged with her to that isolated island would have been saved from experiencing the worst. Unfortunately, nobody was able to stand up against the people who held them captive on that island.

"I promise you, I will make them pay for what suffering you've been through in the past."

Song Yu Han spoke these words with deep hidden meanings. It was not just those bastards who dragged Ran Xueyi to that isolated island, who will pay greatly. The Song, Yang, and even the Ran family, will have to be ready and wash their necks for what he will do to them.

There was no need to hesitate anymore.

Ran Xueyi should live her life peacefully and in the light. He will handle all the darkness and dangerous things for their entire family.

Chapter 404 Xie Xing's Resolve

"Did the city send us a helicopter to get us out of here?" Someone suddenly asked amidst the chaos.

People barely hear anything in the loud whooshing sound so they didn't hear him. However, as soon as the helicopter got closer, they zealously glanced at it, wishing they could hop in it and get out of this hellish place.

But as soon as the helicopter landed on the ground, the door slid open, and two armed men in suits soon came out of it. When they saw the guns that were inserted on their belts when the wind lifted their suit jackets, they immediately ducked their heads and no longer looked at their direction, and fear immediately entered their hearts.

Could they be another guard sent to detain them in that place?

"Boss, Madam." Guo Yun approached Song Yu Han and Ran Xueyi and greeted them first. "What happened here?" He cast a long glance around the place and frowned when he saw the people who were in different states of clothes, some of them were even naked with only their knickers on.

After receiving Song Yu Han's call, Guo Yun didn't waste any time to have a helicopter sent to the hotel's rooftop before he himself hopped in together with another guard who knew how to operate it and flew it up to the sky. However, due to Song Yu Han's lack of explanation, Guo Yun was unable to grasp the entire situation and blindly went to the location that was being shown in the GPS tracking device.

But who would have thought that the moment they were around the area, a huge black smoke was rising up into the sky, halting his heart beat for fear that he had come too late. Fortunately, nothing bad happened to the big boss and madam.

However... What kind of situation was this?

"We'll talk about what happened when we're inside the helicopter. Let's go." Sadly, Song Yu Han didn't want to explain when they were surrounded by people and the mess of a villa behind them.

Knowing his boss's clean freakiness in some situations, Guo Yun also didn't delay and had the group enter the helicopter one by one.

"Do you want to come with us?" Before climbing on the helicopter, Ran Xueyi turned her head and asked Xuan Yi.

Xuan Yi shook her head, "No, I'll just wait for my agent to come and pick me up." Since the transmission service was no longer jammed, she called her agent to come to their location. Similar to her, the others also called their company for help to get out of that place.

"Alright, let's meet next time." Ran Xueyi didn't want to end their meeting with this event. Xuan Yi was surprisingly different from the people she met in the entertainment circle.

When Adelle's turn was up, Guo Yun frowned when he saw the gash on her knee and asked, "What happened to your knee?"

"It's nothing. I just tripped on the way to escape here." Adelle also just noticed the pain after they left the villa. However, it was not that serious so she didn't bother with it.

Guo Yun didn't speak. He kneeled on one knee and took out a handkerchief from his breast pocket before wrapping it around her knee. Adelle didn't think that Guo Yun would do that and wanted to evade his hands, but it was already too late.

"Clean it when we arrive at the hotel. We can't have it infected with bacteria."

Adelle frowned, "It's not even an open wound, why would it be infected?"

However, Guo Yun didn't answer as he returned to sit in front of the helicopter together with the other guard. Adelle could only glance at his back before climbing onto the helicopter.

On the other hand, Ran Xueyi was feeling strange at the interaction between the two and shot them a knowing gaze. When Song Yu Han saw her attention was directed elsewhere, he couldn't help but ask, "What is it?"

"Do you think... Secretary Guo has a crush on someone?"

Song Yu Han glanced at his assistant and raised an eyebrow, "Him?"

Ran Xueyi nodded.

"Who knows..." Song Yu Han shrugged then suddenly asked, "Why are you suddenly asking? Could it be that I'm not enough?"

"No, whatever you're thinking it's not the case." Ran Xueyi immediately shot down the notion of her asking because she was interested in Guo Yun. What's wrong with her husband, seriously? Suddenly eating vinegar without any reason.

As the helicopter was raised in the air, the people below had their attention fixed at it and the people who climbed on it.

They were glad that the people who arrived in that helicopter was not someone working under the same people who abducted and held them captive in that place. However, they couldn't wipe away the disbelief that washed over them.

Because it turns out that Ran Xueyi was such a wealthy person to even be able to ask a helicopter to pick her and her team up. They couldn't help but be envious of her.

However, they could only complain inwardly and forget about this after thinking of their current situation.

While everyone was waiting for their agents to come and pick them up, Xie Xing, who finally got out of Kevin Gong's trap, arrived in the villa with several police officers.

Knowing that the people in there were all people with identities in the entertainment circle, he did his best to not allow any media or reporters get to that place, blocking them before they could get a wind of what happened there. Protecting everybody's peace of mind and safety was the only thing he could do after letting such an event happen while he was the Director of CK show.

Such a blunder will forever be a stain in his name. But Xie Xing didn't care if it ruined his reputation, what he wanted now is to keep these people safe and sound. As for Kevin Gong and whoever was behind him, Xie Xing swore to chase them and bring them to the light.

Chapter 405 After The Incident

As Ran Xueyi had expected, the event that took place in that villa was never reported. There was no news of it being leaked nor were any rumors of the sudden disappearance of the celebrities that went to the CK show were released. Weibo and other media platform was completely quiet as if there was nothing wrong that has happened.

As for the other celebrities who were traumatized and victimized by the events on that day, they were even more silent and acted as if they were turtles hiding in their shells.

Adelle had been waiting for two days ever since that horrible experience happened for anyone to speak up, but surprisingly, even Ran Xueyi remained silent and spent those two days with her family as if nothing happened.

Seeing the deep frown creasing on her forehead, Guo Yun walked to sit beside her and handed to her a warm cup of coffee he had just bought outside of the hotel.

"Why do you look as if you want to beat someone up?"

Adelle heard him before she noticed his presence beside her.

She didn't even turn her head and said, "Because that's exactly what I planned to do."

Ever since that day, Adelle woke up with her back soaked with cold sweat. The nightmare of being taken to one of those rooms in that corridor as guards prevented them from escaping constantly appeared in her dreams.

Because of that, she couldn't sleep properly. The only thing that could calm her nerves and chase away the nightmares was to beat someone up. However, her job as a manager didn't allow her to do that.

"I never thought that the entertainment industry could be so dangerous. I thought we would only care about our artist and their resources. Turns out, we also have to look out for other situations like this." Adelle released a sigh. "What's even more frustrating was that even though something like this happened to us, no one will know about it."

Hadn't it been because of Song Yu Han and Ran Xueyi's initiative to act, they would have been in a dire situation. Adelle couldn't help but wish that the Big Boss would stay as her junior assistant so that whenever there's a dangerous situation, he would be there to save them!

Guo Yun stared at her for a moment in silence before he set the cup of coffee he was holding in his hand on the coffee table in front of him. He also didn't forget to grab Adelle's share and grabbed her hand.

Under Adelle's widened eyes, Guo Yun dragged her out of the room with a mysterious smile. Even when she asked him where he's taking her, his lips were tight shut as if it had been stapled together.

In the end, she could only follow him.

When the door closed behind them, two figures emerged from the other room and a voice said, "See, I think your secretary is interested in my manager."

It was Ran Xueyi and Song Yu Han, who had been hiding when they saw Adelle and Guo Yun sitting together. It wasn't intentional. Ran Xueyi was going to call Adelle to talk to her about what happened and tell her not to worry about it and forget about what happened as it was for the best. However, Guo Yun's sudden appearance beat her to it and she could only watch the two from the room.

Song Yu Han looked down at her and saw the light of interest and curiosity in her eyes, and thought it was adorable. He wrapped his arm around her shoulder and placed his chin on top of her head and said, "Eavesdropping in another couple's conversation is a BIG NO, don't you know that, Mrs. Song?"

Ran Xueyi rolled her eyes: "They're not a couple yet. And I wasn't eavesdropping! Guo Yun got to Adelle first!"

Song Yu Han nodded pacifyingly, "Yes, yes... What Mrs. Song said is right. However, why do you sound like you're someone who has a crush on somebody that just got a new lover?"

Ran Xueyi: "... That's not it... It's just that my manager is about to be snatched from my side. Why wouldn't I worry?"

"By the way, when is your senior coming to apologize for what happened? I heard he conducted a purging in CK show's main branch office. I do hope he didn't forget he still owes you an apology for letting this happen." Song Yu Han quickly changed the topic.

Ran Xueyi remembered the message she received from Xie Xing this morning and replied, "Brother Xie said he'll come later to see me."

"Tell him to come to our room."

Ran Xueyi was surprised. "Are you sure?"

Song Yu Han didn't care if she met another man in their room?

"Yes, I'd also like to meet my wife's senior and be properly introduced as your husband."

"Ah, no wonder you kindly suggested meeting in the room." Ran Xueyi laughed. It didn't concern her that one more person will know of her relationship with Song Yu Han. Actually, she already planned for them to meet each other before going back to Hua Country. Unfortunately, the event three days ago prevented it from happening.

Right at this moment, a small figure suddenly jumped and hugged Song Yu Han's leg. When he looked down, it was the little version of him, staring back at him with doe eyes.

"Are you and Mommy playing huggy?" Little Zhanzhan blinked his eyes adorably.

Song Yu Han let go of Ran Xueyi to carry his little son and kissed him on the cheeks, "Yes, do you want to play with daddy and mommy today?"

Little Zhanzhan: "Yes!"

It had been a while since the three were able to play peacefully without any interruptions. Song Yu Han wanted to spoil their son for a bit longer before sending him to school.

Ran Xueyi had raised the idea of sending Little Zhanzhan to school. For his age, he was a little too intelligent. And as much as she wanted to keep Little Zhanzhan to her side, he needed to socialize and befriend other kids. With him being around older people, it would only delay Little Zhanzhan's youthful experiences.
