

Daddy CEO 486

Chapter 486 A Chameleon In Disguise

"What do you mean?" Ran Xueyi was slightly perplexed when she heard what Adelle told her after she was done filming one of her scenes.

Adelle repeated the conversation she overheard between Shi Yun and his manager and was slightly thirsty after talking too long.

Guo Yun shot her a look and took a cup of water from the water dispenser that was near them, handing it to her and watching her drink all of it.

When Adelle was finished retelling what she came across near the canteen, she eagerly looked at Ran Xueyi, who sighed and smiled at her.

Ran Xueyi knew that what happened to Shi Yun and his manager must have bothered Adelle's righteousness but some things can't be rushed so she could only say, "Shi Yun's matter is something we can't interfere. But since he's a part of this film crew, he is naturally under our care so nothing will happen to him. So, don't worry too much. His manager won't take him anywhere unless Director Daren throws him out."

The possibility of Daren Wang throwing out Shi Yun was slim but not impossible. At worst, he might reduce him to become an extra if his acting skill was not satisfactory according to his role.

Adelle still wanted to say something but Ran Xueyi's words were not wrong. Shi Yun was not part of Chestnut nor he wasn't the only one who was suffering from this type of circumstances. Some have already fallen into the abyss of despair through force and some willingly jumped down the cliff of greediness and success.

Ran Xueyi knew what she was feeling but there really was nothing she could do. Even though prostituting oneself to gain benefits in the entertainment world was not rare, it is something that will never stop unless the demand for it vanishes, which had almost 0 percent of it happening.

"It's not that I can't do anything about Shi Yun's situation. However, I need him to voluntarily look for my help. That's when I can fully support him," added Ran Xueyi.

Adelle thought about it and nodded, "I'll find a time for you two to talk."

Ran Xueyi hummed a response when she saw Guo Yun's expression that was slowly darkening. But it quickly disappeared just as it appeared when he noticed her looking at him, giving her a warm and gentle smile.

Heh, she found a Chameleon in disguise.

Adelle seemed to realize that she brooded over this matter for long and returned to her manager mode, excusing herself to deal with Ran Xueyi's contracts and scripts.

Finally alone with Guo Yun, Ran Xueyi tilted her head with an amused smile as she stared at him, "Are you worried someone's going to steal her away?"

"I don't know what you are talking about?" Guo Yun was a little bit nervous.

Ran Xueyi didn't expose him since he was still trying to hide the truth from him when she had already discovered everything from a long time ago as she aimlessly spoke about Adelle.

"Adelle is a good manager, pretty, and has a good figure." Ran Xueyi swished the straw in her fruit drink. "But she's a little bit innocent and dense at times. Even though she's older than me, I'm worried that a bad person would end up taking her from me."

The first part, Guo Yun secretly nodded in his heart. When he heard the last part of her words, he was feeling a little bit of anger when he imagined some man taking Adelle away.

Ran Xueyi still acted as if she didn't see the way his eyes glinted dangerously and sighed, "I know Adelle has been feeling somewhat lonely when she moved in with me. But if she really likes someone and is willing to be with them then I will fully give them my blessing."

"Ah, now thinking about it... Shi Yun looked pretty good and his figure seemed great too. I wonder if Adelle will also find him attractive when she comes looking for him later?" Ran Xueyi worriedly bit her lips and added, "What should I do if they ended up developing feelings for each other? A heroine saving a distressed gentleman. I guess I don't see any problem if Adelle ended up liking him."

Bang!

The door in the dressing room was suddenly closed with a loud noise. The person who was standing across from her was long gone before Ran Xueyi could react.

In the end, Ran Xueyi let a peal of laughter out of her lips as she inwardly cheered Guo Yun on his venture to get Adelle.

But her entertainment soon turned into misery because not even two minutes after Guo Yun left, Song Yu Han entered and looked at her intently.

She didn't know what the treacherous secretary told her husband but she knew that it must be something that wasn't good just by looking at Song Yu Han's face.

Moving with grace as he walked towards her before leaning forward, trapping her with his thick arms in her seat, Song Yu Han grinned darkly and asked, "Wife, is it true that you found someone attractive and good looking. Of course, I know my wife won't say these things about a man other than me, her husband... But I still want you to say it."

Guo Yun, you pitted me!

Ran Xueyi inwardly panicked and nervously laughed, "Did I say that? I don't think I said that..."

Song Yu Han: "Really?"

Ran Xueyi: "...Yes."

"That's a relief," replied Song Yu Han as he kept their current position. He looked down on her lips and leaned forward to land a gentle kiss on it, "Reward for being honest."

Ran Xueyi shivered: "...R-reward? Would you punish me if I lied to you?"

Song Yu Han raised an eyebrow and continued to smile at her, "What do you think?"

"Naturally, I would have to punish you if you lied. Otherwise, you won't be reminded that the only man you can call handsome and attractive is me."

Ran Xueyi: "..."

...

Ran Xueyi returned to the set over ten minutes later.

Under Daren Wang's suspicious glare, she moved to prepare herself for her next scene.

Who knows when the young director suddenly appeared beside her and she heard him say, "Stop reading the script. Wipe that smudge on the corner of your lips and button up your shirt."

Ran Xueyi paused and slowly moved her head to look at him.

Daren Wang: "What?"

She didn't respond to him as she took a mirror to look at herself. Daren Wang did not lie to her. There really was a tiny smudge of her lipstick on the corner of her lips. It was not obvious but if someone stood close and took a closer look at her face, they would notice it.

Ran Xueyi fearfully no longer inspected what happened under her shirt as she religiously buttoned herself up while thinking of how to tell Song Yu Han not to come to her dressing room for the time being because every time he comes around, they would end up doing something.

Daren Wang clicked his tongue disapprovingly before snorting impatiently, "Tell me honestly, are you two still in your honeymoon phase?"

Ran Xueyi could not conjure a reply as she turned red from the embarrassment of being discovered by someone who was a few years younger than her. Especially someone whom she never thought would find out about her relationship with Song Yu Han.

"Get ready for the next scene!" Assistant Director Qing called for everyone's attention.

It took Ran Xueyi only a few seconds to calm herself down and remove all unnecessary emotions as she embodied the role of Crystal, a blind young woman.

As the day quickly passed, the intense and full shooting that day finally ended.

As the main crew gathered in the center to discuss if they should add some more scenes when Assistant Director Qing suddenly said, "Let's talk about this after taking one day's break. It's been weeks since we started filming without a stop. It won't be a good thing if we continue on like this."

Ran Xueyi, Song Yu Han, Daren Wang, Tie Lin, and surprisingly, Shi Yun, who only arrived that day, gathered around for a short meeting.

When they heard Assistant Director Qing's words, they couldn't help but agree with him. Daren Wang also nodded his head in approval thinking that everyone really needed a rest before the final shooting.

So, he agreed without another word.

Seeing that nobody disagreed with him, Assistant Director Qing sighed in relief before he went to say, "There's a banquet dedicated to the Old Director Sun. Not a lot of people are invited since it's a private banquet but as his best friend, I can extend this invitation to everyone." He turned to look at them one by one and asked, "What do you think?"

Ran Xueyi knew who Old Director Sun was as she worked with him in the past. She also received an invitation from him but she didn't respond to it yet because she was filming.

Now that Assistant Director Qing brought it up, she didn't reject it and said, "I'll go to the banquet. I'm also one of the student's who learned a lot from Director Sun so I should attend."

Assistant Director Qing happily nodded his head and waited for everyone's decision.

Since someone had already agreed to go, no one else rejected and said they would also go.

Feeling excited, Assistant Director Qing was glad to know that someone like Song Yu Han also agreed to go since he's a man that was renowned for ruthlessly rejecting any type of parties and banquets.

Chapter 487 Little Revelation

The banquet that was to be held the next day was for the Old Director Sun Qing, who was retiring from being a director. Since he had been a director for over 50 years and had been entitled as the Father of Directors in the country, many A-listers actors and actresses and wealthy people will surely attend it.

As one of the actresses who have been taught by him and worked with him in a few films, Ran Xueyi naturally was invited.

Song Yu Han also got invited, but his invitation was more special and important since he is a man that couldn't be offended. Unfortunately, Old Director Sun's family thought that he wouldn't come so they had little expectations from him.

But they did not know that they were in for a big surprise that night.

Ran Xueyi wore a black silk dress with a low cut in the back, showcasing her fair and supple skin on her back; the skirt flowed like a river as her slender and long legs were vaguely shaped but induced a silent temptation.

Her hair was coiled into a bun and inserted with crystals that glittered under the light while her wrists was decorated with a thick diamond bracelet from a well-known jewelry brand from Italy that was worth over 3 million dollars.

The bracelet was given to her by Song Yu Han when they were getting ready, surprising Ran Xueyi. She initially wanted to refuse since it was so beautiful and expensive but Song Yu Han told her that she can repay him with a kiss.

As for Song Yu Han, he wore a semi military suit that fitted his body so well that everywhere he went, heads would twist and turn.

He embodied the Alpha image that many women fantasize about and with the added red sash and chain across his chest, Song Yu Han perfected a majestic image of a charming prince.

Adelle looked at the two of them as they waited for the car to be ready and said, "Be honest with me, are you trying to steal the show from the Old Director?"

With how grandly they dressed, it was not impossible that all the guests in the banquet would be distracted and have their attention directed towards Ran Xueyi and Song Yu Han.

Ran Xueyi chuckled softly and said, "Don't worry, we don't have any intention of stealing the spotlight from Director Sun. We're going to the banquet ahead of time."

She knew that they were slightly overly dressed. She didn't want to embarrass Old Director Sun and become the center of attraction so Ran Xueyi told her to come to the venue ahead of the scheduled time.

In that way, they will be the first people to arrive and less attention will be placed on them.

Guo Yun entered the villa and saw that everyone was ready, "The car's ready. Let's go."

With that, the five of them entered the Rolls Royce.

This was not the first time Little Zhanzhan was brought to a party by his mother, but this was the first time he could go to a gathering with his father. So, he was extremely excited.

The little boy kept fidgeting and looked towards the window, wishing that the car could fly through space and arrive quicker to their direction.

Seeing him like this, Ran Xueyi patted his head and said, "Baby, are you okay? Are you feeling nervous?"

Little Zhanzhan thought for a brief moment before nodding, then shaking his head, "I'm not sure."

Song Yu Han saw the two interacting and joined in, "When we enter the party, I'll carry you in my arms so you don't have to feel nervous."

Little Zhanzhan wanted to refuse but thinking about the numerous people he would encounter, he reluctantly nodded his head. He actually wanted his mommy to hold his hand but he didn't want to mess with her dress.

Soon, they arrived at the airport and saw four people standing in the open field.

The banquet was located in the capital and since they were in Paradise City, they had to book a flight to the capital. But thanks to Song Yu Han, who offered his private jet, everyone could use it to go to the capital.

Daren Wang, Tie Lin, Shi Yun, and Qing Luo had been waiting for them. Seeing them getting out of the car, they can finally release the breath they are holding.

But they were shocked to see a little copy of Song Yu Han tottering behind Song Yu Han. Then, they saw Ran Xueyi holding the little boy's hand.

At first, they thought they were seeing things, but the closer they got to where they were standing, they could no longer deny the fact that the little boy was not an illusion.

Moreover, they could even hear him call Ran Xueyi 'Mommy.'

Shi Yun and Tie Lin were astounded but they could only stiffly glance at each other before awkwardly smiling at each other. They also watched the viral video of Ran Xueyi arriving on the red carpet with Song Yu Han at the Night Gala. However, at that time, they could only think inwardly that the two really matched each other so well.

Sadly, they already heard that Ran Xueyi was married to a mysterious man and Song Yu Han was a close acquaintance. So, they could only shake their heads in dismay while thinking that it was too bad that they weren't married to each other.

But looking at the little boy who looked 7 points similar to Song Yu Han's face and 3 points similar to Ran Xueyi... No one could deny that he was their child.

Just what is going on!

On the other hand, Qing Luo was stiffly looking at the trio as they got closer and closer. He never expected this kind of scenario. To think that Ran Xueyi's relationship with Song Yu Han was not exactly like how it looks... It really shocked him.

Qing Luo stuttered: "You...You two..."

Ran Xueyi smiled shyly and confessed, "We are married." She paused and brought Little Zhanzhan to the front as she added, "And this is our son."

Qing Luo swayed as his sights blackened for a brief moment. When he recovered, he squeezed out to say, "How is that possible? Mr. Song said in the interview that he knew who your husband was--!"

Qing Luo couldn't finish his words as he remembered the words that Song Yu Han said in the interview word for word...

["I can only tell you that we are so much alike. Both personality and physically..."]

Personality and physically...

No way...

Qing Luo was in disbelief. Those words that Song Yu Han said in the interview were so ambiguous that nobody dared to claim that he was actually pointing at himself. After all, the idea that he was Ran Xueyi's husband was something that nobody could think of!

Song Yu Han was the young master of the Song family, the owner of YH Group, and has the backing of the Lu family... His background was too high and grand that many women would crawl under his feet just to have him. But he was so cold and indifferent that many actresses and models could only dream of getting their hands on him.

Even if they actually swallowed the guts of a Lion, they would never dare claim to be his wife!

Yet, Ran Xueyi did not only take the title as his wife, but also gave birth to his son!

Actually, Qing Luo was not looking down on Ran Xueyi. It was true that compared to Song Yu Han's mighty background, she was a bit too mediocre. Aside from her peerless beauty and being a skillful actress, no one would actually imagine that she would become his wife. He was just too shocked to accept this fact.

Thinking about those times he had seen them together, Qing Luo was no longer curious why they were so intimate with each other.

Thankfully, he didn't offend either of them.

Secretly wiping his sweat, Qing Luo sighed in his heart.

Little Zhanzhan was uncomfortable seeing these strangers in front of him. He squeezed Ran Xueyi's hand tightly and wanted to hide behind her.

But then, his eyes landed on one of the strangers and his eyes lit up. He suddenly called out, "You're Brother Peacock's friend!"

Daren Wang was startled by the little guy. But a few seconds later, he replied softly, "You're right. I'm Brother Peacock's friend."

He almost choked at the end of his words. Xian Yue changed his hair color as soon as they returned to their dormitory after he was called Peacock by this little boy. He cried and swore that he would never dye his hair again.

Little Zhanzhan did not know the little episode after he called Xian Yue 'Peacock'. He was just fascinated to see someone who had that kind hair color.

He slowly stepped forward towards Brother Peacock's friend since he felt that he was not a stranger anymore to him, but just as he stepped two steps forward, a hand suddenly dragged him back.

Guo Yun sternly glared at him and said, "Behave and stay here with Brother Yun!"

Tsk... If I don't keep my eyes on you, you'll have a basket of new brothers!

Chapter 488 Mentor And Student

Little Zhanzhan pouted but didn't voice out his complaint. He happily hugged Guo Yun's neck and glanced over at Brother Peacock's friend before waving his hand.

Seeing this, Guo Yun gritted his teeth and secretly turned his body so that the little boy won't have to see Daren Wang in his line of sight.

Ever since he started to stay beside Little Zhanzhan and get along with him, Guo Yun began to establish some sort of overprotectiveness to the point that it was almost similar to being possessive.

This little guy was his boss' son but he felt that he was way too cute and adorable to be Song Yu Han's, the renowned Death Bringer, son. However, reality was such an unpredictable thing that Guo Yun could only bitterly accept it.

But even if this was the case, Guo Yun wanted to keep Little Zhanzhan by his side for as long as he could. The title 'Brother' should also belong only to him. Thus, he was green with jealousy and anger when he heard Little Zhanzhan calling other people 'Brother'.

Ha... he really needs to talk to this little guy and tell him that. Or else, his position in his heart might turn into jeopardy.

Guo Yun seemed to feel like a wife in an ancient era seeing her husband favoring his concubines.

Ran Xueyi did not know what Guo Yun was thinking in his heart but seeing the two getting along so well, she was glad to see it. But if Song Yu Han could hear what his secretary was thinking, he might choke on his blood and beat this guy up.

Recovering quickly from the sudden revelation that unfolded in front of their eyes would be impossible. But everyone was sensible enough to not show it on their faces and boarded the luxurious private airplane that Song Yu Han allowed them to freeload.

The interior of the private airplane was not as big as a normal airplane boarded by hundreds of passengers. However, the space was still large enough for tens of people to lay on the floor without hindering the pathway. There was even a small room that had a bed that could let three people sleep on it. As for the necessities... down from the refrigerator that was full of beverages of every kind to the kitchen wares, everyone could see that this was no ordinary private airplane.

The lounge area where they first rested when they came up inside the airplane was completed with luxurious and expensive furniture and cinematic TV.

If they didn't know that this was an airplane, they would think that they entered a presidential suite instead!

It would take them three hours to arrive at the capital so Ran Xueyi let Little Zhanzhan explore the airplane first. However, this was also her first time being in this plane too so she couldn't help but fidget around and touch some things.

Song Yu Han also did not keep them waiting as he told them how to use some of the things there. Actually, he just recently bought this private plane because he wanted his family to use it whenever they traveled somewhere far.

Initially, he had a few private jets and airplanes but because he seldom used them, almost all of them were plain-looking and simple. But after thinking that Ran Xueyi had to fly to different cities according to the places where she had to film, he didn't want her to suffer using normal airplanes and bought a new private plane and renovated the interior.

But honestly, he only learned how to use some of the things inside the plane just recently so he was a little bit nervous.

Thankfully, Ran Xueyi did not ask anything that was too hard and complex for him to answer so he happily became his wife and son's tour guide. As for the others... they can just sit there and be jealous of his treatment towards his family.

Because they were already dressed for the banquet, nobody really made a big movement. After exploring around the plane, they went back to sit on the sofas and were served some food that was already made by a chef.

After three hours, they finally arrived in the capital.

Usually, one would feel tired and tired all over after a three-hour flight, but their group looked as if they just came out of their boudoir, very relaxed and content.

Even those who drove their expensive cars to the venue of the banquet looked slightly weary from their journey. Yet, Ran Xueyi's group was the only one that caught the attention of the people who arrived early.

Three people stood by the entrance of the banquet hall. Old Director Sun, his wife, and his son. They were tonight's hosts so they warmly welcomed and greeted everyone who entered the entrance.

However, because it was too early, the people who arrived were those who wanted to curry favor with Old Director Sun and the Sun family. So, Old Director Sun and his wife were not so enthusiastic when greeting them but still showed a warm and gentle smile on their faces.

Old Director Sun knew that these people only wanted to rub on him because of the benefits he could give to them so he was slightly not happy to stand in the entrance. However, since he had already agreed to his wife's suggestion to greet all the guests, he could only swallow his complaints.

At this moment, two cars parked in front of the entrance. Each car opened their doors and several people who wore splendid attires came out. Their looks were even more brilliant than the meticulously decorated event hall.

Seeing this, both Old Director Sun and his wife were surprised. They looked at each other and saw the confusion in their eyes. They didn't recognize them at first, but their son had already stepped forward to greet the guests. Of course, he did not forget to drag his father and mother behind him.

Old Director Sun was slightly weirded out by his son's behavior but just as he was going to tell him to stop pulling him, he heard his son greet the people first, "Greetings to Young Master Song, Miss Ran, Director Qing."

He greeted the notable guests first since he recognized them. Afterwards, he also greeted the other guests who he could not recognize.

Suddenly, Old Director Sun and his wife's heart leaped.

Young Master Song?!

They were extremely shocked and looked at their son as if he had gone crazy. How could you not tell us before greeting them! Do you want to give them both a heart attack!

Although they didn't have the chance to meet Song Yu Han before, they had heard of his name long ago. They knew that he was a respectable young man who took the country by a storm. The Song family was not only his backing so many influential families dared not to offend him.

Naturally, the Sun family, a middle-class family in the capital, will not show any arrogance towards this young master.

Still, Old Director Sun and his wife could not help but feel like the Buddha's son stood before them.

But they recovered quickly and politely greeted Song Yu Han.

Song Yu Han nodded his head as well. Even if his position in the society was obviously higher than anyone in this banquet, he still had to respect the elders. Besides, Old Director Sun was Ran Xueyi's mentor so he didn't want to cause them any trouble.

After greeting each other, Ran Xueyi's turn finally came up and she smiled at the old couple, who was slightly dazed, "Teacher Sun, Auntie Xu... did you forget about me already?"

Old Director Sun and Xu Hua naturally did not forget about her. They were just momentarily taken by surprise by Song Yu Han's appearance, and his presence was a bit too dazzling that they immediately put her to the side.

Old Director Sun narrowed his eyes at Ran Xueyi and scolded her, "Little girl, is that how you should greet your mentor?"

Ran Xueyi was already used to Old Director Sun's personality so she played along and shrugged, "You forgot about me as soon as you see this handsome guy. As your student, I feel ashamed and dare not greet you."

Xu Hua and Old Director Sun's eyes bulged out when they heard her calling Song Yu Han a 'handsome guy'. They didn't want her to offend someone she shouldn't offend, so they wanted to pull her to their side and tell her not to speak more.

Towards Ran Xueyi, the old couple had good feelings for her. They treated her as their daughter that was not related to them by blood despite their initial status of being mentor and student.

The two knew Ran Xueyi's standing in her real family so they became more protective of her. Unfortunately, she no longer contacted them for five years. But their feelings towards her never changed. Hence, when they saw her doing well, they decided to not contact her first and wait for a good opportunity to meet again.

Old Director Sun's retirement banquet was this 'opportunity'.

But they never thought that on their first meeting after five years, Ran Xueyi would still be so daring to offend a tall golden tree!

Chapter 489 Turning Back The Time

Old Director Sun wanted to pull Ran Xueyi to his side. Not because he wanted to scold her in front of everyone else, but because he was afraid that a certain someone would dare to humiliate her instead.

But even a few seconds later, Song Yu Han did not rebuke Ran Xueyi's words. Rather than that, Old Director Sun and his wife saw Song Yu Han glancing at Ran Xueyi with extreme indulgence.

παπα-ñovê|·cóm This somewhat confused them but they couldn't point out where they should be confused at.

In the end, the hosts had to bring the guests inside. The party had yet to begin so Old Director Sun called his daughter to replace them to greet the incoming guests and bring Ran Xueyi's group to the second floor where the hosts could rest any time during the party.

Once separated from the public's eyes, Old Director Sun politely greeted Song Yu Han again. On the other hand, his wife asked Ran Xueyi how she was doing and if she was doing alright in the entertainment industry.

As veterans of the filmmaking industry, the old couple knew just how hard it is for a retired actress to come back to the spotlight. Although there were still some glory and fame left from the past, it shouldn't compare to the present personalities and celebrities that were rising quickly.

Ran Xueyi knew their concerns for her so she obediently listened and answered Aunt Xu's questions.

After ten minutes, the old couple also dragged the other members of the group to their discussion.

At this time, Old Director Sun seemed to remember something and asked, "When you arrive, did you all come from the same place?"

Two cars pulled up at the entrance and the group entered one after another. Though it was strange to see a group of people arriving, not many assumed that they all came from the same place. Rather, they thought that they could have arrived at the same time.

At the old director's question, Qing Luo smilingly replied, "That's right, Senior Sun."

Old Director Sun was shocked but he carefully looked at these people before he realized that they didn't act unfamiliar with each other. Instead, they harmonized with each other as if they weren't strangers who met today.

Qing Luo understood the expression on Old Director Sun's face and explained the situation.

Old Director Sun then understood what exactly happened to them. But his shock was not because they ended up working together but Song Yu Han. How is it possible that an extremely enigmatic and wealthy man like him would think of entering the entertainment industry as an actor?

There were naturally some wealthy young masters and misses who entered the entertainment industry. Some paid their way into the circle and some hid their wealthy backgrounds. But to think that the chairman of YH Group and young master of the Song family joined in the trend... this was a nuclear bomb nobody expected!

It was also precisely because of this that even after they returned to the banquet hall, Old Director Sun dazedly greeted his incoming guests with lukewarm air.

Ran Xueyi glanced over at her mentor and innocently smiled at Aunt Xu, who sighed helplessly at her husband.

He was the star of the event yet here he was, he couldn't even keep his image together.

But it was not his fault.

Ran Xueyi also did not hide her relationship with Song Yu Han from her mentor and Aunt Xu. Aunt Xu was only momentarily shocked but she guessed it already since Song Yu Han looked at Ran Xueyi with a pampering behaviour that was unique to a man who was in love with a woman.

Unfortunately, Old Director Sun was struck with shock and couldn't recover quickly.

The purpose of attending the party was not only to congratulate her mentor's retirement but also to reveal to them that she was married and started a family. They were her parents when her real parents diverted their attention to her younger sister and doing their own things. When she lacked warmth and parental affection, they showered her with theirs and treated her like a family.

Unfortunately, Ran Xueyi was still an idiot who desired to be loved by her real family and, she ruthlessly lost contact with them.

When thinking about the past, Ran Xueyi greatly regretted the actions and decisions she took before.

It was a good thing that Old Director Sun and Aunt Xu knew her well and understood what she was feeling thus, did not harbour any hard feelings towards Ran Xueyi. The only thing they regretted a lot was that they were unable to take her away from the people who hurt her and also missed the chance to protect her when she needed it the most.

Thankfully, all was not lost. Ran Xueyi previously hesitated to meet them because she was too embarrassed to face them. It was all her fault that they lost contact with each other no matter what angle you look at it.

True, she was an idiot who listened to the words of the Ran family and Yang Baihua. She let them manipulate her by using her desire of belonging and wanting a complete family. However, it was also an unexcusable thing for her to turn her back to her mentors.

Song Yu Hwn walked to stand beside her and held her hand in his hand before asking, "What are you thinking so deeply about?"

Ran Xueyi blinked and looked around. When she saw no one looking at them, she sighed and said, "I'm thinking about how stupid I was in the past." Without waiting for him to refute her words, she continued to say, "I already know that my real parents would never place their love and adoration on me as soon as my grandfather introduced me to the Ran family elders and shareholders. However, I thought that for as long as I did better in my talent in acting and other skills, they would realize that they were lucky to have a daughter like me."

"With this kind of obsessive desire to make my parents look at me, I found Old Director Sun who became my mentor as I started my career in acting. He and Auntie Xu took turns in taking care of me, treating me like their own daughter. When I stayed with them, my parents didn't even realize I no longer stayed at our home. But even then, I still crave what other children have."

Ran Xueyi's eyes turned slightly red as she continued, "I received what I lack from my grandparents and my mentors. But I chose to blind myself to satisfy my cravings. In the end, I ultimately ruined my relationship with my mentor and lost contact with them. If I could, I wish to turn back time and then, correct my wrongs."

Song Yu Han listened to her very patiently. His hand massaged hers gently and when he heard the last sentence, he narrowed his eyes and said in a low voice, "Turning back the time... Will you even meet me then?"

If that really happened and Ran Xueyu went back to the past, she might really not meet Song Yu Han.

It was no wonder Song Yu Han was slightly angry at her when he asked this question to her. Even Ran Xueyi would be upset if she heard this from Song Yu Han.

Knowing her mistake, Ran Xueyi grabbed his hand and looked into his eyes, "Husband, don't be angry. I was wrong."

Even though Song Yu Han still wanted to tease her by pretending to be angered by her words, he really could not keep a straight face when faced with Ran Xueyi's coquettish acts and adorable face.

In the end, he sighed and flicked his finger on her forehead, "Since you know you're wrong, you should also know that when we return, I, as your husband, can punish you, right?"

Naturally, the punishment was not a normal punishment.

Ran Xueyi's face reddened and did not want to look at him anymore. How can he easily throw these words at her in public?

Even though she enjoyed their shared moments in their bedroom and liked to do that deed, Ran Xueyi couldn't keep a straight face when he blatantly seduced her in public!

Standing a few feet away from the flirty couple, Daren Wang rolled his eyes and complained in his heart.

These two can't even see that a lot of single dogs were already full of eating their dog food!

As a single dog himself, Daren Wang threw a sorrowful look at the half-eaten drumstick on his plate.

He suddenly missed his brothers at the dormitory. At least, they can understand the troubles of a single dog.

"Brother Peacock's friend... why aren't you eating?"

Daren Wang suddenly heard a soft and cute voice below. He looked down and almost jumped in fright.

Ran Xueyi and Song Yu Han's son stood next to his legs, looking up at him with a pair of adorable eyes.

Chapter 490 A New Little Brother?

Where the hell did this little brother come from? Wasn't he tied to that big man who looked like a good old soldier from the military? Daren Wang grumbled inwardly as he looked down at Little Zhanzhan.

He calmed his heart for a second before he set his plate down on a nearby table and said, "Little Guy, your mommy and daddy are over there."

Meaning, leave me to my food!

Little Zhanzhan obviously didn't catch his meaning and replied, "I know. I'm not blind so I can see them standing there."

Hmm.. very smart...

Daren Wang slapped himself. No, don't praise him! You need to drive him away lest that secretary comes glaring at him again! Besides, he didn't want to receive the end of the line of Song Yu Han's eyes, which he had been subtly sending at him.

Song Yu Han might have been very sneaky, ahem, obscure about it, but Daren Wang was oversensitive with people's actions more than anyone else. So, it was pretty obvious that Song Yu Han had his guard up like a vicious cat looking after his kitten and see if anyone dares to touch his son so he can brandish his claws at them.

As much as that scene was too comical, Daren Wang did not want to experience it at all! He still wanted his life, and he still wanted to keep his dignity as a man and not run away with his tail tucked between his feet.

Coughing gently, Daren Wang said, "Then, why are you not going there? They might be looking for you."

Little Zhanzhan frowned, "But I want to stay here with yo --"

Before the little boy could complete his sentence, a hand suddenly covered his mouth, making him swallow the last word that he wanted to say.

Little Zhanzhan didn't like being touched by other people he didn't consider part of his family. Strangers, friends, and whatnot are not allowed to touch him. That is one of his number one principle and rule.

That's why, when Daren Wang touched him, Little Zhanzhan shuddered and glared at him. But then, the initial disgust that he should feel did not happen. The sensation as if some spiders were crawling on his skin weren't felt. What's going on?

His mommy told him that he was like this because he's still young and it's good to stay away from strangers who could do harm to him. She also took him to a doctor, but what was said between Ran Xueyi and the doctor was not shared with him. But Little Zhanzhan didn't take his condition to heart. It was better like this anyway.

There was even a fragrant scent of milk coming from the hand that covered his mouth...

Little Zhanzhan was extremely confused and did not know how to react.

At this moment, Daren Wang was even more scared upon realizing what he had just done. Looking at his own hand covering the little boy's lips, he wondered if he could still get out of this place without his hand being sliced.

Actually, his imagination was too creative. No one would cut off his hands, but Daren Wang liked to imagine the worst kind of situation due to his occupation as a director and scriptwriter. As a scriptwriter, he learned to think of different paths that a character he created would take, including the worst possible scenarios.

Thus, this made him horribly afraid to mingle with other people outside of his social circle or, in this case, his dormitory friends and roommates.

Daren Wang quickly took his hand back as if he was scalded and glanced worriedly at the boy, who looked a little bit dazed.

He tentatively stepped forward and asked, "Little bro... are you alright? I didn't hurt you, right?"

Little Zhanzhan first wanted to pretend to cry and then ask why Brother Peacock's friend's hand smelled good. But before he could put his body into action, Brother Peacock's friend actually beat him up to it.

He actually teared up before him, a child.

Daren Wang was just too scared to even care about his current image. Being surrounded by a lot of unknown people in an unfamiliar place and possibly end up in an unfavourable and miserable state, Daren Wang was too pitiful.

Little Zhanzhan never met anyone who could cry so easily. He, a child, didn't even cry, yet this big man actually did?

He watched his mommy cry and other actors cry in the TV screen so Little Zhanzhan knew which was real or not. At this point, he could tell that the big man's tears were real...

"What's going on here?"

At this time, Ran Xueyi noticed the movement on their side and went over to check.

Even though she let her son wander about, she never really took her eyes off him, so Ran Xueyi quickly noticed that something was wrong.

Song Yu Han also came over to their side, worried about their son.

Daren Wang was so afraid that he did not know where his eloquence had gone when Little Zhanzhan opened his mouth to speak.

Little Zhanzhan: "Mommy, he suddenly cried. I think the food he ate is too spicy."

When he talked to the big man, he was still eating his food before setting it down. It must be the food that made him cry, Little Zhanzhan thought to himself.

Ran Xueyi swept her eyes on the plate that was near Daren Wang and saw that there doesn't seem to be any spicy food mixed there. So, where the hell did this spiciness that brought him to tears come from?

Daren Wang hastily waved his hand at her, gesturing some sort of signals. Others might not know, but as someone who worked with directors who constantly used body signs and language, Ran Xueyi knew that her son was mistaken.

Feeling slightly awkward, Ran Xueyi said, "Hubby, can you take Zhanzhan and get me a plate of some cake?"

Song Yu Han looked at her before hooking his lips upward and said, "Alright, love. Be right back."

He took his son and left just like that.

When they were about several steps away from Ran Xueyi and were out of earshot, Little Zhanzhan scratched his nails on his father's neck, making Song Yu Han look down at him in askance.

Little Zhanzhan blinked and whispered to his father, "A'Yu, I think I found a new little brother."

Song Yu Han: "...Shouldn't it be big brother?"

And when did I and your mother give birth to another son? Song Yu Han did not know whether to laugh or cry at his son's thoughts.

Little Zhanzhan hurriedly shook his head to say, "What big brother? He's such a crybaby. He cried before I could, so he's definitely the little brother."

Song Yu Han: "..."