

《Do angels exist》

11 Too good for me

He told me , " let's live like husband and wife now." I hesitated and bite my lips . He laughed and said , " Don't worry , I won't eat you . " I agreed and he hugged me tightly, I couldn't breath and patted his shoulder he released me . We went home and he was just too happy . I slept early cause I was extremely tired but he was working in the study . I didn't notice when he came . The next morning I woke up he was holding me in his arms , he was sleeping maybe he came late . I couldn't move he holding me tightly so I decided to sleep again , I didn't wanted to disturb him . He kissed softly on my forehead and said good morning and told me to get ready . I changed but he left so I went downstairs and I was shocked. Junnaid was making breakfast , I didn't expected such rich person to cook by himself but his cooking is really good . If I had to cook I would have burnt the food . He dropped me at college and even came to pick me . He hugs me a lot it makes me feel warm . He is just too good for me . But today I met Aisha at college and she told me that dad and mom want to call me and Junnaid for dinner . I told Junnaid about it he said he would think about it. What did he mean by that ?