Chapter 1181 No Holidays On New Year's Eve (1)

Wang Ling felt uneasy at everyone's concern, and the strength of the fan club that Xia Ming had set up was also beyond his expectations. Wang Ling hadn't expected that he would really become a group pet mascot in everyone's eyes, the kind that looked very weak and needed constant protection..

As the leader of Wang Ling's fan club, student Xia Ming took on the big responsibility of interviewing everyone about why Wang Ling had aroused the desire to be protected in such a short period of time.

"Why do you think student Wang Ling Needs Protection?" Xia Ming conducted a random interview in the camp, and the interview data this time would allow him to better fulfill his role as the group leader.

Nan Yixiu, who was the first to be questioned, had a surprised expression on his face. "Mascots don't need to be protected as flower vases, do you want mascots to lead the Charge?"

Nan Yixiu had only decided to join the group after Wang Ling had brought Wang Zhen back... As far as he knew, Wang Ling was the weakest person in the entire No. 60 High School, which was why he had been treated as the school's mascot. But after Wang Zhen had gone missing, this weakest mascot had actually gone out to look for Wang Zhen and had even brought him back.

This made Nan Yixiu, the captain of South Sea Sky, feel ashamed.

So after careful consideration, nan Yixiu excitedly grabbed Xia Ming's hand and made the following comment. "As a mascot, student Wang Ling is really very courageous!"

Very courageous.

Xia Ming really approved of this point. When he and Wang Ling had a conflict back then, he had challenged Wang Ling in front of so many people for Lotus Sun! In the end, not only did Wang Ling not back down, he even took the initiative to accept the challenge after school.

He was indeed a very courageous person.

Apart from Nan Yixiu, everyone else also gave their own answers to the question of why Wang Ling needed protection.

Xia Ming: “As Wang Ling’s closest classmates, why did you join the fan club?”

Super Chen: “Wang Ling! The main reason I joined the fan club was because you promised to copy my homework every day as long as I joined the school.”

Xia Ming: “Can you not be so honest? ? ?”

Super Chen sighed helplessly. “I had no choice. When I copied Wang Ling’s homework before, he was always half-wrong. What could I do... four out of ten questions wrong, and he always passed with a passing mark. I don’t even know how Wang Ling did it!”

Hero Guo had a deep understanding of Super Chen’s answer. Wang Ling was amazing in both exams and homework... for example, hero Guo really couldn’t figure out why Wang Ling could accurately cross the line every time he took an exam. This was simply not something an ordinary person could do.

“So, the reason you joined the fan club was just to better... copy homework?” Xia Ming wasn’t ashamed of this kind of opportunistic behavior.

Below was what the girls thought of Wang Ling, which was also what Xia Ming paid the most attention to.

“Student Lotus Sun, May I ask why do you think student Wang Ling can inspire a strong desire to protect others?” Among the girls, the first person Xia Ming asked was Lotus Sun, as the “Target of contention” that he and Wang Ling had shared back then (at least in Xia Ming’s opinion), Xia Ming cared very much about Lotus Sun’s true thoughts.

In the face of the interview, Lotus Sun’s expression was especially relaxed. “I just... I just think classmate Wang Ling is very cute!”

”...” Xia Ming instantly felt as if he had taken a ten thousand critical hits.

Cute..

Was that a word to describe boys? !

Xia Ming suddenly felt a little “Sour”. This wasn’t just an era of scientific cultivation; it was also an era of rampant lemon people, the Lemon People Army they formed would use all sorts of methods to break the bottom line and make personal attacks and all sorts of sarcastic remarks.

Xia Ming really wanted to ask, was he not cute? However, in the face of certain defeat, Xia Ming felt that he had no chance of winning at all... because even from a boy’s point of view, he had to admit that Wang Ling was indeed a little interesting.

However, as a normal boy, Xia Ming didn’t think too much of Wang Ling; right now, he was full of admiration for him.

“Student Wang Ling is cute, but is everyone protecting him just because he’s cute?”As the leader of the fan club, Xia Ming wanted to dig deeper. Compared to Wang Ling’s cuteness, he actually admired Wang Ling’s personality more.

Lotus sun: “Isn’t cuteness enough? There are too few cute boys these days. Look at student Wang Ling’s dead fish eyes; they’re round and cute. Look at your eyelids again. Every time I see you, I feel like you’re still asleep.”

Xia Ming:”? ? ?”

At this moment., li You Yue, who was on the side, also interrupted. “Also, have you noticed that student Wang Ling is particularly passionate about crispy noodle snacks? Based on our family’s many years of experience with gourmet food, his passion for eating a type of snack shows that this person is more monogamous, and is usually the ideal type for boyfriends!”

“Moreover, a snack like crispy noodle snacks can also be used to draw cards. If a man is so interested in drawing cards, that means he’s saving money. “Moreover, crispy noodles’s lottery is most likely to collect cards. This also symbolizes a kind of perseverance. “If you win the lottery, it also represents luck.”

At the end of the day, Li You Yue and Lotus sun high-fived and said almost in unison, “Who doesn’t want a cute, dedicated, persistent, and Lucky Boyfriend These Days?”

Xia Ming felt like he had received a ten-thousand-ton blow at this point of the interview..

F * ck! He couldn't do this interview anymore!

..

On the other side, Wang Zhen and the others had already successfully entered the Stalactite Cave.

Wang Zhen's man of bondage had tightly bound seven doors, because seven doors had already been controlled. Their third brother, nine door-knocker, was not blessed by the power of the curse.

“I will never betray my brothers. Even if you use all kinds of torture on me, I will not say a word!”Because of Wang Zhen's shadow-binding man, the possibility of seven door-knocker committing suicide to continue the curse was eliminated.

Door-breaker Qilang was a person who wasn't afraid of death, because he knew that his death would make his third brother stronger.

“It doesn't matter if you don't want to say it. Our goal wasn't to target you in the first place.”Wang Zhen smiled. He had seen this method of grafting soul power through a curse countless times in God's domain, a method like door-breaker qilang was completely not enough.

The combined combat strength of these three brothers was only an appetizer. Wang Zhen was really looking forward to a real battle.

As a combat race born in God's domain, if a battle couldn't threaten life at all...

Then, what was the point?

Chapter 1182 No Holidays On New Year's Eve (2)

The stalactite cave guarded by Old Huang was divided into five districts. After clearing out the two brothers, Wang Zhen, Little Silver, and loopy toad, they smoothly entered the stalactite cave inside. The cave was very humid, water droplets continuously dripped down from the stone pillars above.

The water droplets exploded on loopy toad's green hair, and the icy cold air seeped into its body, causing all of its hair to stand on end. This stalactite cave had thousands of years of history, and there were stalactites everywhere in the cave, exuding an immortal aura.

Some looked like jade dragon teeth hanging from the ceiling to the ground, and some looked like clouds and rain hanging in the sky. The white waves were torrential and couldn't help being amazed.

Although this kind of place was beautiful, it couldn't be lived in for a long time. The cold air from the thousand-year-old stalactite cave would fill one's entire body with yin qi. Unless one used extreme yang-type cultivation methods to help, one would definitely get all kinds of wet illnesses here in the long run.

"I took a look at elder Huang from afar before. What elder Huang cultivates is definitely not an extreme yang-type cultivation method." After going deep into the Stalactite Cave, Wang Zhen's suspicion of elder Huang couldn't help but deepen.

Wang Zhen had been lucky enough to see a so-called extreme yang cultivation method that allowed him to infuse the power of the Sun into his body through the form of a Qi method. In the end, he could perfectly fuse the sun with the spirit qi and freely control it.

When the technique was activated, it would combine the power of the Sun, Spirit Qi, and Blood Qi. The three different types of qi-jin would intertwine tightly like a twist. When the final punch was thrown out., the fist would emit a dazzling light that was as bright as the sun.

Such a technique was called "Sun Wave". Wang Zhen had only seen it once in his lifetime, and the Fist Master who had comprehended it was in the divine realm.

His name was Apollo. He was a fair and strong man who liked to smear olive oil all over his body. After cultivating "Sun Wave", his entire body shone with golden light, his entire body emitted a golden aura.

However, there was no war in God's domain now. Although Apollo, who had cultivated "Sun Wave", was indeed very strong, because there was no war., now, he was a traffic policeman on night duty in God's domain, responsible for maintaining order at night.

“Don’t you have higher-end jobs in God’s Domain?”

“Yes. Apollo also has a part-time job of sharing power chargers. I’ll introduce you to each other when I have the chance.”

”...”

Back to the main topic, Wang Zhen’s question was about elder Huang’s real identity. It was simply unrealistic to live in this extreme yin place for a long time without a extreme yang technique..

Little Silver and loopy toad also had incredulous expressions on their faces when they heard this news in the chat channel.

“You’re saying that Old Huang in the command center is... Fake?”

“It’s just my current guess, because there’s no concrete evidence. Since the other party can do such a perfect disguise and even deceive president qi, one of the ten generals, they must have their own unique methods.”

Wang Zhen felt that the matter behind the scenes was definitely not so simple. There must be some little-known secret that elder Huang was President Qi’s master. The master and Disciple knew everything. If this was a fake elder Huang, with President Qi’s ability, it was impossible that he wouldn’t have noticed it at all.

The more he investigated this matter, the more Wang Zhen felt that there was something mysterious and evil behind the whole thing. A mysterious and unfathomable person behind the scenes who hadn’t shown up yet., a fake old Huang who even president qi, his own disciple, couldn’t tell the difference between real and fake..

Just how many more hidden tricks did the other party have?

Using his perception to probe the entire stalactite cave, Wang Zhen suddenly felt his mind greatly shaken.

In the fourth and fifth regions of the Stalactite Cave, he could clearly sense that his perception had been blocked by a mysterious and unfathomable force. His mind and consciousness instantly sank into pitch-black darkness, and in an instant.., he couldn't see anything at all.

..

"I didn't expect you guys to actually make it this far. My Lord didn't believe me when I said that the three men in the door style brothers were trash." A familiar voice came from the darkness. It was a feminine female voice with a hint of viciousness in it.

Loopy toad controlled its dog fur, and a bright green light burst out from its head, instantly lighting up the area in front of it... This was a new ability loopy toad had obtained after evolving into human form, it could turn up the brightness of its fluorescent dog fur in dog form and then cast it in this form.

Little Silver was very shocked by this new ability, because it was his first time seeing it..

Since when had there been green hair in the Super League?

Loopy toad: "Ever since I evolved into human form, my new ability is still being developed step by step, and there are still a lot of things you don't know, so don't be too surprised; these are all basic operations."

Little Silver and Wang Zhen:"..."

Under the illumination of loopy Toad's green light, everyone could finally see clearly what the person in the darkness looked like.

It was a woman with an excellent figure. Her long hair was flowing, her eyes were slender, and her nose was straight. She wore a black-and-red corset, and her face was covered in thick makeup.

Loopy toad felt that this person looked a little familiar when it first saw her.

However, when its gaze moved to the woman's chest, loopy toad couldn't take its eyes off her instantly. "This is... This is 36D!"

Why was this size so familiar? It wasn't because loopy toad had become interested in human women. The main reason was that this 36D had an indissoluble bond..

"Shadow Stream." Loopy toad stared at the woman in front of it as it made its own guess, and at the same time, its eyes were full of vigilance.

The Master of Shadow Stream should have already been captured, and had been locked up by Warden Liang in Songhai City's first prison on high alert. Logically speaking, it shouldn't have been possible for him to appear here.

Moreover, the Sisters of Shadow Stream had previously broken out of prison, which had caused Liang Yuchang to raise the level of their imprisonment to the highest level within the scope of the crime. It was only second to the Mahjong Trio.

"That's right, I'm Shadow Stream." What surprised loopy toad was that the woman in front of it had actually quickly admitted her identity.

The corners of her mouth parted, she smiled sinisterly. "When I woke up, I knew that Shadow Stream had already disappeared. Those two sisters were indeed trash. They had destroyed the foundation I had left behind. Shadow stream was supposed to be the most powerful assassin organization in the world... who would have thought that they would be defeated by my two disciples in the end."

"Jiang Liuying, Jiang Liuyue... are they both your disciples?" Loopy toad suddenly understood and felt that all the clues were instantly clear.

"Is all of this still important?"

The woman smiled. "The shadow stream of the past no longer exists... Now, it's a new beginning."

She took a step forward and immediately took out a sharp dagger from her slender thigh. "I'm not the Master of Shadow Stream, but the ancestor of shadow stream. The legendary third epic-level assassin on the assassin list..."

Chapter 1183 Shadow Stream's Ancestor

The legendary third epic-level killer... the founder of Shadow Stream, Jiang Yingyue. Killer class name: Shadow Stream's ancestor.

In terms of combat strength, back when Jiang Yingyue was at her peak, she could be said to be on par with gorgeous itinerant and Daoist Taotie. But their masters weren't the same person.

It was just that loopy toad hadn't expected that the legendary Shadow Stream's ancestor, Jiang Yingyue, who had already retired from the world of martial arts, had actually already died... if she hadn't stood here as a resurrected person this time.., until now, Jiang Yingyue's disappearance was probably still an unsolved mystery in the world of assassins.

But loopy toad was deeply curious as to how Jiang Liuyue had died. In comparison, Wang Zhen and Little Silver weren't interested in Jiang Liuyue's identity, but he and shadow stream could be considered to have had an ill-fated relationship..

"Naturally, I failed to challenge the Ghost Axe Spirit Mother," Jiang Yingyue said casually, as if losing to the Ghost Axe Spirit mother was nothing out of the ordinary.

"You've seen the Ghost Axe Spirit Mother?" Loopy toad was stunned.

"Of course I have, and I fought her, even though I lost miserably. In the end, I died because of my heavy injuries, but the fight I had with her... I can still remember it clearly," said Jiang Yingyue. "Now that I have a chance to start over, if I see her again, I'll definitely take away her title as the ancestor of the world of killers with my own hands..."

"Not only have I seen her, I've even fought her..." loopy toad was even more astonished, because it was one of the few people who knew the true identity of the ghost-axe spirit mother... like mother Wang, a true housewife, if it ran into a lunatic like Jiang Yingyue on the way, how could it have any room to fight back?

Loopy toad felt that there was something fishy about this.

Although mother Wang was the real ghost-axe spirit mother, her identity had been formed by various coincidences and coincidences, in fact, over the years, even mother Wang herself had almost forgotten that she had once had a pen name like "Ghost Axe Spirit Mother."

She didn't even know that she had trained two people with the outline of a lost novel

An epic-level killer..

"I've seen Ghost Axe Spirit mother before." Loopy toad looked up at this moment. It was very patient and wasn't in a hurry to make a move; it just wanted to test whether the person Jiang Yingyue had seen was actually mother Wang.

"She's the most special woman I've ever seen. She's elegant, intelligent, and loves life. She's definitely a good example of a good wife and a good mother..." Jiang Yingyue didn't feel the slightest bit of regret for losing to Ghost Axe Spirit mother back then.

Sometimes, there really wasn't much to complain about when one's skills weren't up to par.

When loopy toad heard Jiang Yingyue's adjectives, at first glance, it felt that they were indeed used to describe mother Wang. When she had still used the pen name "Ghost Axe Spirit Mother," mother Wang had indeed been an intelligent and elegant female writer. After giving birth to Wang Ling, she had turned into a good wife and mother

Thus, when loopy toad heard Jiang Yingyue's descriptions, it felt that the image of mother Wang in its mind had started to blur.

Was mother Wang really a big shot?

In an instant, loopy toad felt its whole body go into a mess. He had lived in the Wang family's small villa for so many days and had never noticed anything unusual about mother Wang. She really was just a housewife who followed the rules and followed the rules... but from the looks of Jiang Yueying's situation..., there were indeed signs of a fight between the two of them.

Jiang Yingyue scanned loopy toad from head to toe. The first thing she did after her resurrection was to understand Shadow Stream's development in recent years, in the end, when she learned from the news that Shadow Stream had failed to attack No. 60 high school until their entire organization had been wiped out... in a month's time, the organization she had painstakingly planned had instantly fallen apart, and Jiang Yingyue's heart had instantly broken down.

After some investigation, Jiang Yingyue learned that the key reason for Shadow Stream's failure was that they had been too indecisive and lacked a certain amount of combat experience.

Thus, Jiang Yingyue specially formulated a new plan! It was called -- “360 ways to revive Shadow Stream”! In it, she meticulously laid out the grand blueprint for Shadow Stream’s future development and organized the people who needed revenge.

Loopy toad was shockingly on Jiang Yingyue’s revenge list.

“In my revenge plan, I remember a green-furred dog...”at that moment, Jiang Yingyue’s gaze was fixed on loopy toad, and her slender eyes narrowed into slits, revealing a hint of craftiness.

It could only be said that the shadow stream ancestor was worthy of being called the shadow stream ancestor. Even though loopy toad had successfully cultivated into a human form, she could still see at a glance that loopy Toad’s real body was actually a green-furred Akita dog.

There were many Akita dogs who had awakened their intelligence these days, but how many could be green-furred?

Jiang Yueying instantly saw through loopy Toad’s true identity. She wasn’t using any ocular power or magic treasure to identify it, but purely relying on her own combat experience as the shadow stream ancestor.

Her strength wasn’t inferior to that of gorgeous itinerant and Daoist Taotie to begin with.

However, Jiang Yueying still found loopy Toad’s appearance a little unbelievable. “I didn’t find you, but you actually saw ghost-axe spirit mother, and... you actually survived after seeing her?”

“Ghost-axe spirit mother signed a life-and-death contract with me before she fought me. If she died in the fight, no one is allowed to cause trouble for anyone... She told me that anyone who saw her real body would die without a doubt.”After Jiang Yueying said this, she looked at loopy toad with an even stranger expression, “You actually saw Ghost Axe Spirit mother and survived?”

Loopy toad:”? ? ?”

He wasn’t!

He wasn't!

During the time he had been living in the Wang family's small villa, he had been seeing mother Wang every day... mother Wang hadn't said that she would kill him just because she saw her real face!

At this moment, loopy toad could clearly sense that there was probably some very deep misunderstanding..

And it was clear that this misunderstanding couldn't be explained in words for a short while.

When Jiang Yueying had lost to the ghost-axe spirit mother, her greatest hope after her resurrection was that she could summarize her previous failure and fight the ghost-axe spirit mother again.

But now, in Jiang Yueying's opinion, this wish couldn't be fully realized.

The Ghost-axe spirit mother said that anyone who had seen her in person would die... if this dog had seen the ghost-axe spirit mother and survived, didn't that mean. This green-furred dog had killed the ghost-axe spirit mother?

After sorting out her thoughts, Jiang Yueying looked at loopy toad again, and at the same time, her expression became a little gloomier. "You killed the Ghost-axe Spirit Mother?"

Loopy toad:"?"

Jiang yueying: "Since you killed the ghost-axe spirit mother, it means that your strength is above that of the ghost-axe spirit mother... Then, as long as this venerable self kills you, it will prove that this venerable self is the number one ancestor of the world of Killers!"

"I think there might be some misunderstanding here..."loopy toad hurriedly tried to dissuade him. It wasn't that he was afraid; he just felt that things hadn't been completely clarified yet.

But how could Jiang Yueying give it a chance?

In the next moment, the woman in front of loopy toad formed a hand seal, and her entire body split into dozens of shadows that surrounded loopy toad!

Multiple doppelgangers!

Loopy Toad's gaze suddenly became alert.

This woman wasn't joking... She was serious!

Chapter 1184 Loopy Toad's Shadow Image

Multiple doppelgangers instantly separated the battlefield, separating little silver and Wang Zhen. In an instant, smoke rose from the battlefield. Jiang Yingyue's craftiness was beyond imagination; this wasn't a simple doppelganger spell, but a self-destruct doppelganger spell, once a doppelganger was exposed to external forces, it would immediately explode.

The explosive power of one shadow doppelganger was equivalent to ten C-4 bombs.

If so many shadow clones exploded at the same time, at such a close distance and without adequate protection, anyone below the soul formation stage would definitely be severely injured! The blast range of such a bomb was also very wide. At that time, the entire stalactite cave would be razed to the ground, and everything within a five-kilometer radius would be affected.

Although Wang Zhen and little silver felt that such a bomb wouldn't kill them, once it exploded, it would definitely have a great impact on the ecology of the nine dragons mountain area.

Most importantly, this stalactite cave was also very close to the heavenly pulse main valve..

The consequences of the explosion were unimaginable.

The heavenly pulse main valve was nearby, and Wang Zhen had thought that the other party wouldn't be so serious, but reality proved that Jiang Yingyue's madness was no less than the three men at the door.

She didn't care about the problems with the heavenly pulse main valve at all. Instead, she put all her efforts into the battle in front of her.

The main reason the people behind the scenes had resurrected so many people was to buy time. Therefore, the victory or defeat of this battle was meaningless in Wang Zhen's eyes.

However, this was a battle that couldn't be avoided. If they couldn't get rid of Jiang Yingyue, they wouldn't be able to advance any further.

As the third assassin on the epic-level killer list, Jiang Yingyue was most familiar with the ability to "Explode." The so-called explosion was art, the destructive power of a close-range explosion was self-evident... as a person who could be considered an expert in explosives, Jiang Ying Yue was especially confident in her own ability.

Especially after she successfully activated 'Shadow Path', she had the ability to plant a bomb through shadows!

-- shadow explosion fairy!

This was the name of her shadow image.

"The person who resurrected me gave me a very powerful strength. My shadow image can plant any shadow that comes into contact with a bomb. Do you think you have any chance of defeating me?" Jiang Ying Yue revealed a sly smile, she was confident that her current strength would not be able to defeat a green-furred dog. The addition of the power of shadow image gave Jiang Ying Yue a lot of confidence.

This was a power that Jiang Ying Yue had never seen before, but it could increase her overall strength by several times in a short period of time. If she had such an ability back then, when the ghost axe spirit mother met her, the result would have been 100% that she would have exploded to death.

But now, the ghost axe spirit mother had already been killed by the green-furred dog in front of her... then, as long as she killed this dog, she would still be able to prove her status as the ancestor of the world of assassins!

Thinking of this, Jiang Ying Yue's eyes started to become excited. Her shadow image was of a young girl with a scholarly aura. She was wearing a Lolita's dazzling purple gown, and at the same time, she was holding an umbrella with a time scale.

This was shadow explosion fairy's true form. As long as it was covered by the umbrella in her hand, her shadow would immediately be fitted with a time bomb.

This was a very tricky shadow image ability; at least in loopy Toad's opinion, it was far more powerful than the three men guarding the door.

"With my shadow explosion fairy here, you have no chance of winning at all..." Jiang Yingyue raised her hand and began to control shadow explosion fairy to capture loopy Toad's shadow image. During the confrontation, loopy Toad's figure could only jump around, for a moment, the situation seemed to be completely under Jiang Yingyue's control.

"No! We have to think of a way! If this goes on, loopy Toad's shadow will be caught sooner or later!" Little Silver wasn't optimistic about the situation in front of him. Shadow explosion fairy moved very fast, far faster than he had imagined. Once caught, death was only a countdown.

Loopy toad had yet to truly step into the realm of a holy beast. Its self-healing ability was far inferior to that of a holy beast. Once it was blown to pieces, unless Ling Zhenren personally took action, there was absolutely no chance of it being restored.

"Wait a little longer." Compared to little silver, Wang Zhen appeared much calmer. He had seen too many battles like this. It was impossible to determine victory or defeat in all battles until the very last moment. Loopy toad seemed to be at a disadvantage, but in fact, Wang Zhen could tell that it was looking for the right way to deal with it.

"Do you think you still have a chance of winning... Even the ghost axe spirit mother from back then is nothing to me now, let alone a mere green-furred dog like you?" Jiang Yingyue's smile was extremely confident, she controlled her shadow to launch an unbridled attack on loopy toad. Although loopy toad was constantly dodging, in Jiang Yingyue's eyes, this was nothing more than a last resort.

Because these millennial stalactites in the stalactite cave had absorbed natural spirit energy, the environment here had a natural fluorescent effect. Any living creature that set foot in this place would inevitably be illuminated with a shadow!

In other words, this was the best place for Jiang Yingyue to attack! As long as she could project a shadow, it would always be her advantage!

“Ghost Axe Spirit Mother... isn’t someone you can shake,”loopy toad said earnestly to Jiang Yingyue. Mother Wang’s status in the Wang family was beyond imagination. If Jiang Yingyue really didn’t have the guts to lay a hand on her... let alone father Wang, Wang Ling would personally go out and skin her alive!

So loopy toad had felt that there was something fishy about this from the start.

It felt that the ghost-axe spirit mother that Jiang Yingyue had met might not have been mother Wang herself. Nowadays, there were plenty of charlatans pretending to be pop stars in the pugilistic world, so it was very likely that they had met a charlatan.

To say the least, if the person they had met was really mother Wang, and she had actually been conserving her strength as a ghost-axe spirit mother all along, loopy toad felt that it was impossible for little master Wang Ling to not have noticed it at all.

Thus, in summary, the chances of Jiang Yingyue encountering a fake mother Wang back then might have been higher.

But now, it was clear that no matter what explanation loopy toad gave, Jiang Yingyue wouldn’t listen. She was eager for revenge, and had been looking forward to a second battle with the Ghost Axe Spirit mother ever since she had been resurrected..

When she had mistakenly thought that the legendary world ancestor of killers, “Ghost Axe Spirit Mother,”had died at her hands, her long-accumulated impulse, which she had suppressed for a long time, had finally exploded, she had completely vented her anger on loopy toad.

“If you don’t come to your senses, then I’ll have no choice but to use my methods...”loopy toad sighed. He hadn’t wanted to reveal his shadow image ability before meeting the person behind the scenes, but now it seemed that.., jiang Yingyue’s shadow image was indeed too troublesome.

The ability to plant a bomb on the shadow the moment it was touched was truly heaven-defying

Helpless, loopy toad had no choice but to send out its own shadow image for a shadow duel.

Its shadow image was called: Gou’s fortress!

It was the ability to instantly form a defensive barrier and turn its own shadow into a castle! A mere bomb! An Indestructible Castle!

Loopy toad was absolutely confident that it could win this round!

As Wang Ling's dog, it absolutely couldn't lose face!

Chapter 1185 Ghost Axe Spirit Mother Becomes A Swindler?

The huge shadow image took on the form of a steel toad, its entire body made of copper walls and iron walls, and its size could be controlled by loopy toad on its own. Because it was fighting in the Stalactite Cave, loopy toad had shrunk the size of the fort as much as possible, but it still looked shocking.

This was a mobile fort that was indestructible and had fierce firepower. There were dozens of different caliber cannons on its back alone! These cannons were all energy-storing in nature, and required a certain amount of spirit energy to store the cannonballs.

Loopy toad hadn't summoned its shadow image before, and the main reason was to store spirit energy. It had been storing spirit energy for its shadow image, and now it was finally useful.

The instant the toad fort appeared, its entire body immediately emitted a dazzling light that scattered all the shadows nearby! -- all of this was within loopy Toad's calculations.

Jiang Yingyue's shadow image ability was a shadow bomb, which could be implanted by touching shadows. Although this ability was troublesome, if it could freely manipulate the light effects of the fort., loopy toad would be able to accurately control its shadow to stay by its feet all the time, instead of forming a long strip and shooting it out.

"You can try whether my fortress spirit energy cannon is faster or your Shadow Bomb Can Touch Me First!" At this moment, loopy toad was maintaining a very long distance from Jiang Yingyue, and its shadow image had both advantages in terms of defense and range.

Even if Jiang Yingyue wanted to use the clone technique here to self-destruct, loopy toad could instantly swallow Wang Zhen and little silver into its impregnable fortress.

The bomb might be powerful, but it was still within the defensive range of his fortress. Even if he was injured, as long as little silver gave him a few drops of holy beast blood, he would be able to instantly heal himself.

“You want to use artillery on me in this terrain? I’m afraid it’s not good for you.” Jiang Yingyue frowned slightly; the green-furred dog in front of her was more difficult to deal with than she had imagined.

What was even more surprising to Jiang Yingyue was that loopy toad actually also possessed the power of Shadow Dao..

The situation became more and more interesting to Jiang Yingyue.

“I can use up to thirty types of artillery shells, so I naturally have specialized artillery shells for this narrow terrain.” Loopy toad didn’t want to explain too much; in his opinion, victory and defeat in this battle were already decided.

His “Annihilation shells” had the ability to automatically track and wouldn’t cause a big explosion when they touched objects that needed to be destroyed. Instead, they would produce a strong acid that could instantly dissolve a person into a pool of acid.

But to be honest, loopy toad didn’t want to directly kill Jiang Yingyue..

Loopy toad didn’t think that mother Wang’s mystery had yet been completely solved. If it killed Jiang Yingyue here, it was likely that this matter would become an unsolved mystery in the future without any evidence!

The most likely guess at the moment was that someone was currently using mother Wang’s identity as a ghost axe spirit mother to “Swagger around and deceive” people... and Jiang Yingyue was one of the victims who had been deceived among the vast number of killers.

“It looks like you haven’t made up your mind to kill me yet; this is a big taboo in battle.” At this moment, Jiang Yingyue laughed wickedly as the corners of her mouth curled up, revealing a mouthful of snow-white teeth, a few streaks of red appeared on her rather sickly expression.

In the next moment, her body moved swiftly. Loopy toad would never forget this scene; it was a desperate gesture of giving up everything.

As the legendary third epic-level assassin on the killer list, Jiang Yingyue's ability to seize opportunities was far superior to the twin sisters from Shadow Stream. She was ruthless and decisive, and didn't hesitate in the slightest.

"Nine thunder strikes!"

She threw the dagger in her hand over and swiftly formed a seal in the air in the span of a few seconds!

In an instant, the lightning from the dagger surged in all directions, and thunder rumbled and shook the eardrums!

All of this happened in the blink of an eye!

"It's just a small trick." Loopy toad controlled the fortress to assume a defensive stance; this dagger hadn't penetrated loopy Toad's solid armor.

Nine strikes of wind and thunder wasn't a very high-level assassination spell. Most importantly, loopy toad had also discovered that the quality of the dagger used by Jiang Yingyue was also very poor; not only had it not even penetrated the walls of his fortress, but it had also broken, it actually broke at the outermost layer of the fortress's defensive light membrane.

"You should have noticed it by now. Not Bad, this is indeed a very ordinary dagger, and it hasn't even been sharpened. "But as long as it can achieve its effect, even an ordinary dagger is very deadly." Jiang Yingyue chuckled, she walked toward loopy toad step by step, as if she wasn't afraid of loopy Toad's artillery threat at all.

"You..." it wasn't until this moment that loopy toad finally seemed to realize the crux of the problem!

From the very beginning, Jiang Yingyue's nine kills of wind and thunder hadn't been there to kill him! In fact, Jiang Yingyue hadn't even planned on using this move to kill him!

She was using the high-frequency lightning formed by the nine kills of wind and thunder to find an angle and thus control the shadow under his feet to grow longer!

This time was perhaps less than three seconds, but she had unknowingly entered Jiang Ying Yue's range!

Therefore, from the very beginning, her opponent's goal was not to use the nine slashes of wind and thunder to kill her, but to use the lightning to touch his shadow and set up a bomb!

"Have you finally discovered it?"

Jiang Ying Yue revealed a smile. "I'm a dead person. It's not a loss for me to trade one for another. You've already lost."

Jiang Yingyue was very confident in the power of the Shadow Bomb's explosion. Even if the steel fortress was impregnable, if the shadow bomb was detonated from the inside, no matter how strong the external defense was, it would be of no use.

"This is a time bomb. In one minute, you'll be reduced to ashes. So, do you have any last words?" Jiang Yingyue asked.

"I do have one last question." Loopy Toad's voice was unexpectedly calm. "What I want to know is, did ghost axe spirit mother receive any benefits when she agreed to fight you back then?"

"Benefits?"

Jiang Yingyue smiled. "She's the ancestor of the world of assassins, the senior of all of us. Isn't it reasonable to give her some tuition fees before the fight?"

"So, you gave her money?" The corners of loopy Toad's mouth twitched.

"The life and death contract says that as long as I can survive the duel with her, all the abilities I comprehended during the duel can be used by me. Although it's a pity that I'll die in battle later, I don't regret it."

"Then how much is the tuition fee..."

“Not much, it’s only 100 million yuan per fight. I thought I wouldn’t die and even got a membership card, so I could fight once for 50 million yuan.”

Jiang Yingyue counted with her fingers. “I remember... I seem to have charged one billion at that time?”

“You actually charged it...”loopy toad, Wang Zhen, and little silver were all shocked.

They were now certain that this ghost axe spirit mother who had been begging for help everywhere was 100% a liar!

Chapter 1186 You’ve Been Tricked!

By now, everything had been clarified.

Given mother Wang’s character, she definitely wouldn’t do something like swindle, so someone must have been pretending to be the ghost axe spirit mother. But only Jiang Yingyue knew who this person was and what he looked like.

Loopy toad hadn’t expected that after accepting little master Ling’s “Main Mission”to annihilate the people behind the scenes, they would unintentionally take on a new side mission: find the swindler who had always assumed the identity of the Ghost Axe Spirit Mother, swindler who had been swindling people everywhere while pretending to be her identity..

This matter concerned mother Wang’s reputation, and from the way this imposter had acted so far, it seemed that he had a certain understanding of her.

If in the end the other party decided to retire successfully and shift all the “Sins”onto mother Wang, a weak body tempering cultivator like her would definitely be in trouble.

So in summary, loopy toad felt that Jiang Yingyue couldn’t die... at the very least, before they found the person pretending to be mother Wang, Jiang Yingyue’s knowledge of the imposter was probably the best clue they could get at the moment!

“Your eyes seem to want to fight back? But you don’t have a chance anymore.”Jiang Yingyue stared at loopy toad; her shadow bomb was already in its final countdown.

Once the last ten seconds passed, it would immediately explode.

Using a low-level assassination spell like wind and thunder nine kills to confuse one's line of sight was actually to use this short lightning flash to quickly adjust the position of the shadow and then set up the bomb.

This kind of attack, which was a combination of illusion and reality, was one of the highest realms in battle. This kind of battle strategy was often not performed on the spot, but was a height that could only be achieved after a long period of experience.

But at this moment.., loopy toad laughed coldly. "Your battle level is indeed very high. Without hundreds of thousands of battle experiences, it's indeed very difficult to reach this level. But this king wants to say that although battle strategy is important, it's even more important to be able to predict the enemy's next move."

"You still have three seconds left..."Jiang Yingyue sighed in her heart. She hadn't thought that the green-furred dog in front of her would actually be in the mood to commentate at this time.

Could it be that this was to prove the law that the commentator wouldn't die in battle?

She counted down in her heart, as if she could already see the green-furred dog being blown into pieces by the bomb. Although the shadow bomb was just a shadow, and wouldn't cause any damage to the surrounding environment, once the shadow was shattered, the original body would immediately be torn into pieces.

This was the terrifying part of her shadow bomb.

It could take a person's life without making a sound!

Three... two... one..

The countdown ended and Jiang Ying Yue turned around. A true expert would never face an explosion head-on.

However, after taking a few steps, she realized that something was not right... the familiar sound of the explosion did not come. The green-furred dog in human form and his companions were also alive and well, they hadn't been blown to pieces like she had imagined.

“Impossible!” Jiang Yingyue turned around, and it wasn’t until then that she realized she had been tricked!

Loopy toad, which had been in human form, had suddenly transformed into dog form, and it was like a green lightning bolt that was rapidly attacking behind her.

Jiang Yingyue wasn’t sure what had happened, but when she saw a huge phantom demon king appear behind loopy toad, she immediately felt her vision go black! All of a sudden, she couldn’t see anything!

This was the sky-swallowing toad clan’s “Swallowing and spitting technique,” a space that could swallow everything into its mouth! Shadow bombs were suddenly terrifying and could be placed in the shadows. But if it was in an absolutely dark and enclosed space, and there were no shadows to be seen. The Shadow Bomb’s ability was almost like a decoration.

Jiang Yingyue was swallowed into the space, and she struggled in the darkness. This space was even bigger than she had imagined, and there wasn’t any echo when she shouted.

“Useless junior... you’ve entered this king’s space, and you still want to escape?” Loopy toad sneered. Little Master Ling had already reinforced its dog form’s swallowing technique. Now that the space for this swallowing spell was extremely wide and the surroundings were impregnable, once Jiang Yingyue was imprisoned in it, there was absolutely no way to break out of it.

The only thing that loopy toad had to pay attention to was that it had to ensure that not a single bit of light could enter the internal space and give Jiang Yingyue the chance to use any shadow bombs.

It had long since anticipated that with Jiang Yingyue’s conceited personality, she definitely wouldn’t watch the bomb explode when it exploded... many experts had the habit of turning back without even looking at the explosion.

Thus, loopy toad instantly seized this opportunity and directly found an opportunity to pounce on Jiang Yingyue, turning the situation around and turning it into a victory.

“You’re not a simple dog...” Jiang Yingyue was trapped in the space. After struggling and realizing that she couldn’t escape, she gave up resisting and decided to save her strength to look for another opportunity.

“This king is after all a demon king of the demon race. Now that I’ve turned from a good person to a good person and received guidance, I’m even more powerful than before.”

“Demon King...”Jiang Yingyue was utterly astonished. To be honest, the Spirit Qi on loopy Toad’s body was too clean! She didn’t feel the demon king’s Demon Qi on loopy toad at all.

At that moment, she felt as if she had been swallowed into a man-made black hole. It was so dark that there wasn’t a speck of light, and the light effect created by spells would immediately be completely absorbed by this space, the difference in time wasn’t more than a few microseconds... no matter what, Jiang Yingyue wouldn’t be able to set up a bomb to blow up this space.

“I still have one more question.”Although she had temporarily failed, Jiang Yingyue was still unconvinced. “How... Did You Dodge My Shadow Bomb?”

“Junior, your idea is suddenly very good. However, you don’t seem to have discovered the fatal flaw of the Shadow Bomb,”loopy toad replied patiently.

“Fatal Flaw?”

“You can turn the shadow you touch into a bomb, but this kind of bomb has its limitations... If the shadow changes during this time, your bomb will lose its effectiveness,”loopy toad said. “What You Touch is my human-shaped shadow, and after I turn into a dog. The shadow will immediately be different, and your shadow bomb will lose its effectiveness as a result. That’s why it won’t cause any harm to me, and there won’t be any explosion like I imagined.”

“Reset...”Jiang Yingyue hadn’t expected such a thing to happen.

“That’s right! You’ve been tricked!”

“But how did you know about this?”Jiang Yingyue found it unbelievable.

“Sometimes battle strategies are important, but any strategy is useless against gamblers... This king bets that your bomb won’t work on me after I change into a shadow! So this battle is my victory!”Loopy toad said with a confident smile.

Chapter 1187 Numerous Demon Shadows

Jiang Yingyue had never thought that she would actually lose to an enemy she didn't want to lose to in such a way. In the completely enclosed space, there wasn't a single bit of light that could penetrate through, and the slippery and sticky space spirit liquid under her feet cast a thick layer of haze over Jiang Yingyue's mind.

"This king took you down, and you seem very unwilling?" After swallowing Jiang Yingyue, loopy toad was also paying close attention to Jiang Yingyue's reaction at all times. It had no doubt that the other party was plotting a plan to escape from the space.

What it needed to do now was to be on high alert and not let Jiang Yingyue find any opportunity.

"How many experts are there in this stalactite cave?" Loopy toad turned back into human form and asked Jiang Liuying about the situation.

His special space had been personally arranged by Wang Ling and was isolated from all external information, making it no different from a small black hole. Being imprisoned in his heart was equivalent to being completely cut off from the outside world and entering another dimension, loopy Toad's voice could only be heard.

"Do you think I'm a person who would betray others?"

"You don't have to say anything about the person behind the scenes; you just have to provide information about the others. I need to know their abilities. We can research our own methods to defeat the enemy," loopy Toad said.

"So, what's the difference between this and collaborating with the enemy?" Jiang Yingyue sneered.

"You really want to rely on the person who helped you resurrect? That's a rebellious disciple who defies the Heavenly Dao. Sooner or later, he will be punished by the heavens." Loopy toad calmly analyzed Jiang Yingyue. "You'll be absolutely safe here. Even if the person behind the scenes is punished by the Heavenly Dao in the end... all the resurrected people will disappear. As long as you stay here, you'll be able to keep your life. And I'll agree to one other condition."

As the saying goes, knowing yourself and your enemy is invincible. Loopy toad still didn't know how many enemies there were in the other side's camp. Loopy toad felt that this was an excellent opportunity to rope in Jiang Yingyue at this time, moreover, he had a trump card that Jiang Yingyue couldn't refuse.

“I’ve also seen the world; ordinary conditions are useless against me.” In space, Jiang Yingyue gently rotated the handle of the umbrella and opened it. She crossed her legs and gently raised her buttocks to sit on the surface of the umbrella, and her entire body floated up, she left the ground.

“If I say that the Ghost Axe Spirit Mother you saw is fake, can you believe me?” Loopy toad continued at this moment.

“Fake? That’s impossible! She’s so strong! And she’s so intellectual and elegant...”

“As you said, she’s an intellectual and elegant woman. Do you think such a person would be obsessed with material things? Would she be obsessed with money?”

These words made Jiang Yingyue sink into deep thought. In fact... this matter was indeed a little strange. Collecting tuition fees wasn’t in line with the Ghost Axe Spirit Mother’s character.

This was the person she worshipped the most in her life. If the enemy she was facing after paying so much tuition fees was still a fake, it would be a regret for the rest of her life.

“What kind of person is the real Ghost Axe Spirit Mother?”

“She’s a stronger existence than the fake you’ve seen. She’s a person with a strong heart,” loopy toad said.

On the other side, Jiang Yingyue thought hard for a moment. “Do you dare swear on everything you say?”

“The Big Heart Demon Oath isn’t reliable. If you think this king is lying to you, this king can swear on it.”

“Forget it. There’s no need to go through so much trouble. I can trust you this time, but I’m only responsible for providing information on my abilities.” Jiang Yingyue took a deep breath and gave her final answer.

She didn’t care at all about what the person behind the scenes had planned to resurrect her.

But seeing ghost axe spirit mother was indeed what Jiang Yingyue wanted to do the most at the moment.

Her heart told herself that if she couldn't see her dream idol, even if she was given another chance to live, it would only be a pity.

After successfully entering the second section of the Stalactite Cave, the humidity in the cave was even heavier, and the walls were covered with all kinds of mushrooms. These mushrooms were colorful and gave off a faint fluorescent glow, and one look at them was enough to tell that they were highly toxic and inedible.

Wang Zhen found an old four-legged cauldron. The surface of the cauldron had been affected by the humidity in the stalactite cave and had become Rusty.

Opening the cauldron, Wang Zhen reached out and touched the embers inside. He put two fingers together in front of his nose and sniffed. "This cauldron was last used a month ago."

"You can smell that?" Little Silver was surprised by Wang Zhen's sense of smell in the chat channel. Logically speaking, this should be loopy Toad's job.

"Wang Zhen is right." Loopy toad also smelled it. "This pill is a wet poison clear pill refined from fluorescent mushrooms nearby, which can be used to relieve the moisture in the body."

From the clues they had gathered so far, old Huang was actually a very particular person. Cultivators, especially older cultivators, were very afraid of moisture entering their bodies, and the moisture in the cultivation world was extraordinary, once the moisture in the body became too heavy, it would cause the meridians to freeze and affect the output of spirit qi.

Elder Huang had been stationed in this stalactite cave on nine dragons mountain all year round, so he naturally knew how to use the natural resources here to detoxify the moisture. This was a very particular old man.

"After living here for a long time, this level of moisture should be expelled at least once a week..." Wang Zhen frowned. The last time this pill furnace had been used was a month ago, in other words, it was possible that the real old Huang had been switched out a month ago.

Thinking about it carefully, Wang Zhen suddenly felt extremely scared. If Old Huang had been switched out a month ago, it was very likely that the real old Huang had been switched out a month ago. Then the enemy would most likely be working together from the inside... In other words, it was very likely that their current actions were within the enemy's control!

Because of his battle experience in God's domain, Wang Zhen suddenly had a bad feeling.

"Can you feel it?" In space, Jiang Yingyue sighed softly. "I feel that the three of you might not even be able to pass zone two."

The "Resurrects" arranged in the Stalactite Cave were ranked according to their overall combat strength. The later the resurrected were, the stronger they would be. It didn't mean anything if they were the only one to be eliminated.

In fact, in terms of realm and strength, Jiang Ying Yue was ranked in the top three of the resurrects. However, if she added the power of Shadow Path, the rank would be reset.

Some of the shadow images were so disgusting that even Jiang Ying Yue couldn't stand it anymore. Her shadow bomb seemed to be abnormal, but it had a fatal weakness that could be reset easily and had a short range. Once it was seen through, it would be very easy to deal with.

"It's coming." At this moment, in the closed space, Jiang Yingyue opened her slender eyes. She felt a familiar aura.

"Who is it?"

"The person ranked seventh among the resurrected: Li Huanran. His shadow phase is called shadow multiple."

"Shadow multiple?"

"It's very dangerous. Be careful."

Chapter 1188 Li Huanran

"Are there too many shadows..."

“An ability that can implant shadows into one’s mind and turn them into a psychological shadow,” Jiang Yingyue replied.

She had fought Li Huanran before, so she clearly understood how tricky this ability was.

The ability to implant all the shadows in one’s sight into one’s heart, thus forming a fear of the surrounding environment. It was a powerful mental interference type of shadow.

This kind of fear went deep into one’s heart and bone marrow, making it impossible for a person to escape in a short period of time... even if one used any calming Heavenly Dao spell, it wouldn’t be of any use.

A mental control type of shadow image? It did sound very powerful.

Hearing Jiang Yingyue’s description, loopy toad raised its eyebrows slightly. This was the first time it had seen this type of shadow image, and it was of great value for its investigation. This time, the three of them had been instructed by Wang Ling to take care of the mastermind behind the scenes, but in the process, they could also conveniently gather more information about shadow path.

At that moment, the sound of footsteps came from the Dark Stalactite Cave, and a young man with long black hair slowly strolled out. He was dressed in a black tight-fitting suit, the dark red waistband accentuated the young man’s slender figure.

Loopy toad felt that the name Li Huanran was a little familiar, as if it had heard it somewhere before.

“He’s the son of the boxing master Li Xiaokai, who has already passed away,” little silver said. In addition to the vicious criminals who might come back to life in the dark net, there was actually a decent list, these were the righteous cultivators who had died in the past due to various unexpected reasons.

As the son of master Li Xiaokai, Li Huanran was also on this list.

Since the famous martial artist Li Xiaokai died after breaking the “Void Gate” at his birthday party, his son, Li Huanran, had been looking for a way to find master Li Xiaokai, in the end, he had lost his life.

“Li Huanran had always believed that his father hadn’t died, but that he was trapped in the world of the Void Gate and couldn’t come back. That’s why he did his best to open the Void Gate again and save master Li.” Little Silver had done his homework on that period of history, because he was studying and writing novels with Father Wang, he needed to gather all kinds of character materials, so he had a photographic memory of the materials he had read.

These materials were all ready-made, so they were better than some lazy pigeon writers who used the excuse of going out to get materials as an excuse to keep writing pigeon novels.

“Then it seems that Li Huanran failed.”

“That’s true. It’s said that Li Huanran failed to break through the void gate by force, and his body was corroded by void spirit energy. When he found it, only half of his palm was left.”

At this point, the crowd fell silent. Wang Zhen felt that he had underestimated the scheming behind-the-scenes people. Not only had they resurrected those villains, but some decent experts had also been resurrected to make use of them.

“Li Huanran is the son of master Li Xiaokai. He has described justice all his life, but did you see the look in his eyes? Right now, he’s losing control.” Little Silver watched Li Huanran slowly walk over from afar, Li Huanran’s eyes were absent-minded. He was in a state of deep control, and there was no luster in his pupils.

The son of the famous martial artist Master Li Xiaokai, now that he had been resurrected and possessed a powerful Shadow Dao ability, the degree of difficulty was self-evident. At the critical moment, although Li Huanran had once been a positive figure, if he had become an enemy... then the task before Wang Zhen now was still to fight!

Li Huanran didn’t say a word. He had already chosen a target based on his own judgment, and finally focused his gaze on Wang Zhen.

“You choose me to be your opponent?” Wang Zhen took the initiative to step forward. He could already feel the hostility and killing intent in Li Huanran’s eyes.

Wang Zhen took a stance and exhaled like an orchid. If it was a physical technique match, he felt that he might not necessarily be Li Huanran’s opponent. In fact, he had often fought with Gu

Shunzhi in God's domain, even though he had lost every time, but he had also summed up a lot of experience.

Although Li Huanran was in a controlled state, the occupational habits that he had built up over the years had practically formed a occupational habit the moment he saw Wang Zhen take a stance.

His footsteps shook, and he took a step back as if he were lifting weights lightly. His body was as light as if it had no bones. Then, he spread open the five fingers of his hands, and the force of Qi lingered on his fingertips, actually emitting a dragon's roar.

"This is the Dragon Fist that made master Li Xiaokai famous in the past," little silver explained from the side.

"Dragon Fist, Huh?" Wang Zhen's expression was particularly serious.

Wang Zhen didn't know how much of an advantage he would have in a fist fight with Li Huanran, but judging from his shadow image ability, rather than comparing Shadow Dao ability with Li Huanran, it seemed better to use a fist fight to determine the winner.

This was Wang Zhen's battle strategy. He hoped to find Li Huanran's weakness during a fist fight.

The next moment, Li Huanran flashed on the ground and disappeared in front of Wang Zhen in an instant.

"So Fast!" Wang Zhen held all the muscles in his body and tried to use his physical strength to block, but Li Huanran moved extremely fast. His hand turned into a dragon and grabbed at Wang Zhen's back, he directly tore off a layer of skin on Wang Zhen's back along with No. 60 High School's School uniform! This was the "Claw" technique of the Dragon Fist, and the power of this claw was shocking.

Since Wang Zhen had received all sorts of beatings since he was young, the injuries caused by this claw didn't cause him much pain.

He had used his physical strength to block Li Huanran's attack, just to see how much strength Li Huanran had. As it turned out, Li Huanran did live up to his reputation as master Li Xiaokai's son. Not only was his attack extremely fast, but it was also very fierce!

Of course, the most important point was that Wang Zhen found that Li Huanran's insight was extremely strong!

The moment he attacked, he had noticed that Li Huanran was planning to use his physical strength to block the Dragon Fist, so he had switched to the dragon fist's "Claw" technique midway through his attack, increasing the damage by changing the pressure in contact!

"As expected of the son of a martial artist." Wang Zhen wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth. Not only had the Dragon Fist's claw attack ripped off a piece of his skin, but it had also sent qi energy into his body, jolting his internal organs. However, this level of internal injury wasn't a big deal to Wang Zhen. Because of his constitution, Wang Zhen would spit out as much blood as he suffered internal injuries, and after vomiting blood, his body could recover on its own in an extremely short amount of time.

This recovery mechanism included creating new blood, repairing internal and external injuries, remodeling cells, repairing internal organs, and all kinds of bone fractures..

In other words, internal injuries weren't a problem for Wang Zhen at all. As long as he could spit out blood, it wouldn't be a problem.

After all, Gu Shunzhi had punched him once... and he had vomited three liters of blood on the spot..

In comparison, although Li Huanran's attack was very strong in Wang Zhen's eyes, it was still far from being enough.

..

Chapter 1189 That Slap

The power of the blood coagulation recovery technique was self-evident. This was one of Wang Zhen's greatest assets in the martial arts world, it was also a key skill used to measure the strength of the enemy -- because he could judge how strong the enemy was based on the amount of blood he spat out.

Even if Li Huanran had only used less than 20% of his power in that attack, it would still be much lighter than when Gu Shunzhi had hit him. Wang Zhen even felt that any slap from his parents would have been heavier than Li Huanran's.

Even so, as the son of the famous pugilist Li Xiaokai, Li Huanran's strength was lacking, but his techniques were still useful.

Even so, Wang Zhen didn't relax in the slightest when he saw Li Huanran's expression. He was testing Li Huanran, and Li Huanran informed me that he was testing me as well. In a match, one could often see the difference between the two in the first round.

Even though he knew there was a difference between him and Li Huanran, Li Huanran's expression didn't change at all. This was the scariest thing.

Was there still a hidden ability..

Wang Zhen narrowed his eyes slightly. He saw that the Qi in Li Huanran's body was condensing. As an outstanding martial artist, he could mix the Qi and blood in his body with the spiritual energy to stimulate the blood circulation and break through acupoints to achieve a breakthrough.

Was it similar to the Tiangang martial art? Wang Zhen thought of the Martial God's move in God's domain, which was also a spell that increased his strength by stimulating acupoints.

However, this method of increasing his combat strength by stimulating acupoints usually caused great damage to his body..

"This is the 'Polar Fist Path'!" Little Silver said at this moment. According to the information he had obtained, in order to open the Void Gate and find his father, Li Huanran had used this move to increase his combat strength in order to ensure that he had sufficient strength.

"Back then, in order to open the Void Gate, Li Huanran opened the highest level of the 12th level of the Polar Fist Dao. This is also the reason why even if Li Huanran succeeded in opening the Void Gate, he wouldn't be able to be saved..." little silver said. The highest level of the 12th level of the Polar Fist Dao attacked all the acupoints and meridians in his body, bringing a tremendous amount of combat power to his body in a short period of time. It was tantamount to igniting his own body.

Every minute and every second would bring a great burning pain.

At this time, Li Huanran had already finished gathering his qi. This process seemed very long, but in fact, in the blink of an eye, Wang Zhen could clearly feel that Li Huanran's aura had become stronger.

Three spirit patterns appeared on his face, which was the sign of the opening of the ultimate fist technique. The spirit patterns would appear directly on his face in this form.

The three spiritual patterns were the third level of the Polar Fist Way... This was not Li Huanran's full strength, so it was far from life-threatening at the moment.

The body would only feel pain when it reached at least level 10.

At level 11, the burning sensation would increase, but it was not at the end of the road. However, if it was maintained for too long, one would die.

At level 12, this was a situation where one's combat power was fully unleashed, and there was no way to take it back. The maximum duration was five minutes, and death was certain.

Only three levels..

Wang Zhen felt that he was still being looked down upon. Li Huanran didn't seem to put him in his eyes at all.

"Is it because I still have the power of Shadow Dao, so I'm confident that I can definitely beat me." Wang Zhen laughed self-mockingly in his heart. He saw the conceited look in Li Huanran's eyes, it was the same look he had when he had fought Wang Ling for the first time. It was filled with confidence and even conceit. However, the biggest reason why cultivation had become the goal of so many people was because of the unknown.

The path of cultivation filled with all kinds of unknown was the core reason why so many cultivators would pursue the Heavenly Dao tirelessly..

"If you look down on me, something big will happen." Wang Zhen warned Li Huanran, but unfortunately, he didn't listen to Wang Zhen.

He moved into his battle stance, and as he opened and closed his fists, Wang Zhen saw countless black shadows pour into Li Huanran's fists.

“You’re finally using the power of your shadow.” Loopy toad saw a huge demon shadow appear behind Li Huanran. It looked like a western demon with long, pointed palms.

This scene made Jiang Yingyue sigh slightly. She had personally witnessed the power of multiple demon shadows. Every punch that Li Huanran threw next would inject the power of two shadows into a person’s soul like a syringe, thus, a person’s soul would completely lose its defense.

If they continued to use close combat at this time, they would fall into Li Huanran’s trap. However, to Jiang Yingyue’s surprise, Wang Zhen’s side actually braced themselves to fight Li Huanran head-on!

“Is he crazy?”

In loopy Toad’s internal space, Jiang Yingyue saw what was happening outside through loopy Toad’s spirit sharing spell.

Not only did Wang Zhen not choose to dodge, but he braced himself to charge forward... in Jiang Yingyue’s eyes, this was simply courting death.

“The demon Shadow’s heavy mental suppression is definitely not a joke!” Jiang Yingyue still felt that Wang Zhen’s decision was inconceivable.

..

A few seconds later, Li Huanran and Wang Zhen’s fists collided. Their speed was equally swift and fierce, so fast that it was impossible to catch their eyes. The Flying Fist Shadows instantly turned into countless large snakes that collided together.

The violent collision caused the entire stalactite cave to shake, and countless broken rocks fell from the top of the cave, the pyramid-shaped stalactites were instantly shattered by the force generated by the friction between the two as they approached the battle zone!

“We’ve already lost...” Jiang Yingyue shook her head repeatedly. The two exchanged hundreds of punches in a second at this rate, Wang Zhen had also suffered hundreds of shadows from the demon shadow... This had already reached the limit of a normal person. No matter how big a normal person’s heart was, it was impossible for them to withstand such tremendous mental pressure.

However, something unexpected happened in the end..

Under Li Huanran's heavy attacks, Wang Zhen didn't show the slightest fear on his face. He faced Li Huanran's fists one after another, his rhythm was appropriate, and his breathing was steady, he didn't seem to feel any fear at all.

"Impossible! No one can maintain this state of mind under the weight of the demon shadow..." Jiang Yingyue remembered when she had fought with Li Huanran earlier, it had only been a few dozen punches, but she already felt a strong sense of guilt and an impulse to die!

"In fact, it doesn't matter who attacks. Whether it's Wang Zhen, this king or Yin Zhenren, the three of us won't Feel Afraid,"loopy toad said.

"Why?"Jiang Yingyue didn't understand.

"It's a secret."Loopy toad kept them guessing.

Wang Ling was behind the three of them..

In terms of power, who else in this universe could be stronger than Wang Ling?

Only those who had fought with Wang Ling would know.

Ling Zhenren's slap was the biggest psychological trauma.

In comparison, there were so many shadows, but they were nothing..

Chapter 1190 Hexagonal Warrior

As an outstanding human shield warrior, Wang Zhen's talent in martial arts was naturally self-evident. Although he wasn't as capable as Gu Shunzhi, he had fought Gu Shunzhi so many times in God Domain, even if he followed Gu Shunzhi's example, he would still be able to learn a few moves. In addition to the fact that he had been beaten up since he was young, Wang Zhen wouldn't have been afraid of this "Devil's Shadow"mind control even if he hadn't met Wang Ling

His ability to bear the psychological trauma was far beyond what ordinary people could compare with. This was basically what his father and mother had taught Wang Zhen since he was a child in the “Husband and wife mixed doubles.” Normal people couldn’t imitate it, and it wasn’t advisable for parents to use this “Domestic violence” method to train their children in order to strengthen their mental resilience

Wang Zhen was feasible. On one hand, it was because of his constitution, and on the other hand, the brain circuits of his real parents were different from those of ordinary people. If this had happened on Earth, they would definitely have been sentenced according to the “Domestic Violence Law”!

“He’s actually stronger than I imagined.” Jiang Yingyue felt a little dumbfounded. Wang Zhen’s strength was beyond his imagination, and such mental resilience was really rare. If there was an attribute panel.., at the very least, it would be a 3A panel with strength, speed, and mental strength.

“I didn’t expect that such a person would actually appear on earth not long after I died...” in loopy Toad’s independent space, Jiang Yingyue sighed.

Loopy toad smiled in its heart at these words.

Wang Zhen was indeed very strong, but after all, he was from God realm, and the combat strength of the people in God realm couldn’t compare to that of Earth. If it hadn’t been for the fact that most of his strength had been sealed by the Heavenly Dao, Li Huanran wouldn’t have been able to withstand even one punch from Wang Zhen. Although the current Wang Zhen had been blessed with the power of Shadow Dao, his overall combat strength was still a little weaker than when he had been at his peak.

So it was indeed nothing to be surprised about Wang Zhen’s strength.

Loopy toad felt that the main reason why Jiang Yingyue was so surprised was that she had probably never seen a real hexagonal warrior before..

Of course, the so-called hexagons were just a metaphor.

Wang Ling was powerful enough to support any shape.

He could even perfectly support a forty-eight-sided warrior..

At this moment, the battle continued.

When Li Huanran saw that his “Demon shadow barrage” had no effect on Wang Zhen, a puzzled expression clearly appeared on his face.

It had to be known that the mental suppression effect of his Shadow Dao Power had never failed like this before.

Li Huanran thought that it was because his attacks weren’t fierce enough, so he expanded the power of his “Extreme Fist Dao” to the sixth stage! His strength had become even greater than before. Every punch made Wang Zhen spit out a large mouthful of blood.

However, as a meat shield warrior, Wang Zhen’s ability to withstand pressure was truly astonishing.

The blood coagulation recovery technique helped him immediately heal his injuries while he was being hit. The sixth level of the path of extreme fist was still far from the goal of “Vomiting three liters of blood,” and it hadn’t reached Wang Zhen’s bottom line at all.

But at the same time, Wang Zhen was also thinking of a way. He didn’t want Li Huanran to continue stacking up the power of the path of extreme fist, because if this continued, it would be obvious that Li Huanran would only end up dead.

In Wang Zhen’s opinion, Li Huanran was probably just like Jiang Yingyue, whom loopy toad had taken back, a little friend that he could pull into his camp.

The way to end this battle was very simple; all he needed to do was help Li Huanran get rid of the shackles of mind control. As long as Li Huanran wasn’t controlled, as the son of master Li Xiaokai and an absolutely positive figure in the cultivation world, he would never help the people behind the scenes continue to do evil things.

But how to get Li Huanran to pull himself together was a very big problem.

“On the surface, Li Huanran is under a very strong mind control spell, and it’s very likely that he was also under the same spell as the resurrection spell, so Li Huanran was already under control the moment he was resurrected.”Loopy toad gazed at the battle in front of it, it analyzed the situation in its mind space.

“Is there a way to break it?”Little Silver asked.

“Under normal circumstances, there are three ways to break this powerful mind control spell

“First, use physical attacks to forcibly break the other party out of the mind control state. However, this method doesn’t seem to be feasible at the moment. Wang Zhen and Li Huanran have been fighting for so long, but Li Huanran is still unmoved. “This method of leaving physical means is ineffective; we have to use a stronger method.”

“The second method is to directly find the person who cast the mind control spell on him and defeat him, then we can come into contact with the control spell.”Loopy toad knew that there was no difference between saying this and not saying it, their purpose in coming to this stalactite cave was to track down the identity of the person behind the scenes and gather more evidence of “Old Huang being switched.”.

Thus, after eliminating the two options mentioned above, there was only the third method of relying on magic to intervene.

But the problem was that all three of them seemed to be melee fighters. Loopy toad was barely half a tank, and it wasn’t easy to remove this level of mind control spell. It needed a more powerful mind control spell to cover Li Huanran’s control spell!

But who among them knew about mind control spells?

This wasn’t something that could be controlled by PUA..

“As long as you complete the cover, will that be enough?”Wang Zhen asked at this moment.

“In theory, it’s indeed possible.”Loopy toad nodded. “As long as the mind control spell you cast is in an absolute advantage... and you ensure that it’s stronger than the mind control spell used to control Li Huanran, you can achieve the cover.”

“Then I can try.”At this moment, Wang Zhen’s expression turned serious again.

“You actually know mind control spells? Aren’t you a meat shield warrior?” Loopy toad and little silver were extremely surprised.

“It’s not that I know... It’s that my shadow image has this ability.”

“So the man who is tied up isn’t just able to control his body?”

“As long as I want to, I can also control my mind...” Wang Zhen’s current idea was actually very simple. He wanted to use the shadow image effect of the man who was tied up to cover up Li Huanran’s mind control spell, then, he would cancel his shadow image effect, and Li Huanran would become a normal person again.

Loopy toad and Little Silver immediately agreed with this idea.

If they could pull these “Resurrects” into their team one by one, they would have a greater chance of finding the person behind the scenes... even if Jiang Yingyue didn’t want to say it, Li Huanran was a decent person, once his mind returned to normal, he absolutely wouldn’t hide any information.

At this thought, Wang Zhen felt that there was no time to lose.

He controlled his “Man of bondage” to charge at Li Huanran!

Just as Wang Zhen had said, in addition to the physical confinement effect, the bound man also had the power of mind control

Once the bound man was bound, the bound man would immediately turn into a masochist
