Chapter 1241 The Bald Storm

The successful development of the ethereal detection reagent finally gave the people of war sect a glimmer of hope.

The war between them and the ethereal had already begun.

It was just that, unlike previous battles, the initial stage of this battle was a war without smoke.

Odd Zhuo's goal was also very clear.

One: they had to figure out who the ethereal was really looking for.

Two: they had to nip the virtual spirit in the bud before it could find a key figure and officially launch a void invasion.

"I'll take the reagent back," grandfather Sun said at that moment.

Huaguo water curtain group had many stores, which could allow immortal toya to rapidly produce the reagent in large quantities in a short period of time and ship it to its stores all over the country.

Sun Yiyuan had already thought that he could make all the stores under his industrial chain become invisible ghost monitoring points.

Using spell fusion detection reagents to carry out large-scale artificial rainfall was the worst plan.

Because it might have the risk of alerting the enemy.

Sun Yiyuan put on the wig again and tidied up his clothes.

He had never publicized the matter of his baldness, but this time the situation was special.

Since battle sect had already confirmed that he was an ally, making it public was actually a sign of trust.

“Then I’ll leave this matter to Mr. Sun.” Odd Zhuo, Immortal Zhenyuan, and Immortal Toya cupped their fists and bowed.

“We’ll get through this together.”

Sun Yiyuan’s expression was solemn as he cupped his fists in return.

Then, grandfather Sun left in a hurry with Immortal Toya. As the developer of the reagent, Immortal Toya had already been specially hired by Sun Yiyuan as the chief engineer.

Developing reagents and medicines was also a front-line job.

Compared to Immortal Toya, he was deeply proud.

Doctors were benevolent, alchemists were also medical workers, and Immortal Toya was naturally duty-bound.

Thus, early in the morning on November 26th.

With the cooperation of Zhan Zong and Huaguo water curtain group, the whole situation had basically been cleared up.

Although there were still a lot of doubts about the incident itself, the general direction had already been set.

In just a few short hours, immortal Toya had rapidly developed a reagent to detect virtual spirits.

This speed was jaw-dropping.

“The work on the reagent has already begun, but Mr. Keorn, we still have something we need your cooperation on.”

Not long after grandfather Sun and Immortal Toya left, Odd Zhuo turned his gaze to Keorn again.

Keorn was a smart man; he actually knew very well what Odd Zhuo wanted him to do.

To be honest, he hadn't been mentally prepared.

Keorn's mood now also seemed unusually conflicted and nervous, and Odd Zhuo's hand couldn't help trembling when he saw him light his cigarette.

"I'm not afraid, I'm just a little..."Keorn tried to explain.

"I understand."Odd Zhuo went forward and patted Keorn's thick shoulder.

Now, the heavy responsibility of revealing the truth fell on this man.

After finishing his cigarette, Keorn pressed the cigarette butt into the ashtray at the side and pressed it down hard. Then he took a deep breath and tried hard to calm himself down.

"Mr. Zhuo, I'm ready."Keoen stood up.

Odd Zhuo had already prepared a live broadcast room, and everything Keoen said next would be broadcast live on the Internet to all parts of the world.

In the information age, the power of the Internet to spread couldn't be underestimated. Once it formed the momentum of traffic piling up, it might be even more terrifying than a live television broadcast.

According to the plan, Keoen would split into two sections to reveal the whole story.

In the first section, they couldn't reveal the matter of the ethereal for the time being. They needed to fully run the detection reagent on the market to distinguish between friend and foe.

When the time was right, the second section would be the moment of truth disclosure.

Keoen would tell him everything the foundation had asked him to investigate in the past 20 years! This included the truth about the “Void invasion”!

Of course, in order to protect Keoen, Odd Zhuo would modestly protect Keoen’s identity during the first phase of the exposure, and would only report the first thing to the outside world as a research fellow at war sect.

..

Thus, in just the morning of that day, the video of war sect’s first phase of the report had spread like lightning across the entire Internet.

The head of the Network Information Department of Zhan Zong was Daoist Guang, and with the help of the biggest brother in the live streaming world, the speed at which it spread was simply shocking.

In the morning’s courseware, Wang Ling found that most people were discussing this matter.

The main reason was that Odd Zhuo had exaggerated this report in order to let the test reagent circulate and also to make sure that Xu Ling didn’t suspect anything..

At No. 60 High School alone, quite a number of students and teachers started to panic at their hairline.

After class, there was a long line at the entrance to both the men’s and women’s toilets.

It wasn’t to go to the toilet..

It was to look in the mirror.

“Is it true that the bald flu virus that battle ancestor mentioned is real? Is there a virus in this world that can make people go bald?”

In class, hero Guo stroked the hair on his head to confirm that his hair was still very healthy.

The person who was least worried about this matter was Super Chen, because he had a buzz cut to begin with.

To him.

Bald or not bald.

In fact, there wasn't much difference.

"F * ck! I saw someone on the Internet saying that he was already bald! He lost a lot of hair overnight and suspected that he might have gotten this bald virus!" At this time, someone exclaimed while swiping his phone.

"Where? Where? Let Me Take a look?"

Hearing this, everyone rushed over to watch the commotion.

This was just a screenshot of a conversation between the two; it was full of words, and there wasn't even a picture.

Wang Ling sighed with a lack of interest.

Right now, the matter of the "Bald virus" was already on the hot searches, and there were always people who liked to take advantage of this time to get some traffic.

The internet spread too quickly, and without a full understanding of the unknown, it was easy for people to listen to all kinds of rumors created by those interested people and marketing numbers that "Popped up" on the internet.

As it turned out, People's fear of baldness was even greater than their cough and fever.

After Odd Zhuo announced the news, Huaguo Water Curtain Group quickly set up inspection points across the country.

They even mobilized all their staff to carry out epidemic prevention work, set up inspection points in various public places, and coordinated with the hospital to quarantine suspected groups of people.

This reaction speed was already godly.

In fact, the vast majority of people didn't have the risk of baldness... all of this was just a pretense to identify an ethereal spirit.

Sitting in his seat, Wang Ling quietly watched the Battle Sect's performance.

On one side, someone was working hard.

On the other side, someone was stirring up rumors for the traffic.

In just a short morning, the market had already sold out of ginger and garlic... it was only because the marketing account had said that garlic and ginger could prevent hair loss..

"Wang Ling, I remember you have crispy noodle snacks with garlic puree flavor, don't you? Why Don't you contribute some?" At this moment, someone turned their gaze to Wang Ling and asked.

"..."

Wang Ling's heart was on the verge of collapse.

This person was thinking about fart food..

Chapter 1242 Line Up For Testing

Odd Zhuo's move could be described as unexpected and unexpected.

Apart from war sect and Huaguo Water Curtain Group, the other two forces that had fought for Keron earlier had also fallen into a temporary daze.

"Bald virus, what is this..." in the castle, Xubai had a vague feeling that there was something fishy about this, but he couldn't tell exactly what was wrong.

He asked the Void Master for instructions, and the master's answer was:.

He could use this matter as a cover to speed up the void invasion plan.

He could get more void spirits to join the operation to find the person they were looking for.

Void White, who was originally a human, had doubts about the void master for the first time, but he did not dare to disobey the Void Master's orders.

It was the Void Master who gave him everything.

Since he could give it to him, once he was unhappy, he would not take it back.

At this moment, Void White discovered for the first time the weakness of the void spirit as a high-level living being.

That was that they were used to living carefree lives in the void world. They had never experienced the deceit, lies, and deceit of the human world..

To put it bluntly, this group of void spirits, including the Void Lord, were a group of "Honest people"through and through.

Now, the Void Spirit could only pray that things could proceed according to the established plan. This so-called "Bald virus storm"must not be some sort of trick.

..

..

The Bald virus storm swept across the world in a short morning and became a hot topic among the people.

How to guard against such a terrible influenza virus suddenly became the focus of all cultivators' discussions.

Some experts said that washing hands and wearing a mask weren't enough, because this bald virus could be spread through contact, such as being stroked on the head by someone who had already been infected with the virus, it could also cause the scalp to lose its hair..

Wang Ling knew that this was, of course, unreliable nonsense.

But the problem was that there were people who actually believed this unreliable information.

Take No. 60 high school as an example. That afternoon, a group of epidemic prevention teams formed by the Cultivation Police Department and the local health department came to No. 60 High School and took away a few bald teachers for investigation.

Old Antique and the epidemic prevention staff in thick protective clothing repeatedly explained, "This brother, I really don't have a disease... I don't have much hair to begin with!"

In that short instant, old antique even had the urge to return to his true form as "Gorgeous itinerant".

In his gorgeous itinerant form, he had long, flowing hair that reached his waist..

This feeling of being misunderstood really made him feel very uncomfortable.

But the epidemic prevention personnel didn't listen to his explanation at all. They had been instructed to kill everything by mistake rather than let one go.

"Teacher, please cooperate with US first. We'll take you to the testing site later. If it's confirmed that there's no problem, you can leave on the same day. Now, please cooperate and get in the van..."

The epidemic prevention personnel's attitude was very firm.

Old Antique had no choice but to cooperate.

The trunk of the van had already been expanded.

When old antique entered, he found that the space had been divided into several individual areas.

This was a separate design to prevent cross-infection.

“Brothers, where did you all come from?” Through the transparent space wall, old antique tried to get close to the people next to him.

“Hey, I’m Shiroishi Xiu, a monk.”

“I’m Pipi Baldy, a short and bald author...”

” ...”

..

As suspected cases from all over the world were taken away for testing, the epidemic prevention work was carried out in an orderly manner.

This matter wasn’t over yet after old antique was taken away. Before school was over, everyone was notified to stay in school. It was said that there would be a school-wide screening.

Every student, teacher, and school staff had to be checked, and not a single one could escape.

And the inspection method was very simple.

It was to spray a test reagent on the top of the head.

As long as there was no large-scale hair loss, it proved that they weren’t infected with the “Virus,” and they could directly receive a free mask and go home.

To prevent cross-infection, the tests were carried out according to the units in the class. All the classes that had called their numbers would gather at the entrance of the stadium, where a temporary testing point had already been set up.

When it was No. 60 High's turn to wait on the field, Wang Ling blinked and stared at class two, where Fang Xing was.

So far, all the tests had been normal, and nothing abnormal had happened. As far as Wang Ling knew, there was still a very limited number of void spirit invasions, and it was a very small probability that someone from No. 60 high school would be invaded by the void.

The void spirit needed a host with a strong physique, and usually wouldn't keep an eye on foundation establishment students.

Up ahead, class two was being examined under the guidance of teacher Liu Ruoxu, the class teacher in charge.

This teacher Liu was a math teacher who had previously taken over Wang Ling's class and was proficient in calculations. He was an expert at the peak of the late golden core stage. To be able to become the class teacher in charge of the elite class proved that teacher Liu was indeed a capable person.

There were actually not many female teachers in the school who could make a name for themselves. Teacher Pan was one, and teacher Liu was another.

"Do you guys feel that the quality of teacher Liu's teaching has been getting better and better lately?"

"Don't mention it; old pan is having a headache over this,"hero Guo said. "Remember the test two days ago? Our class and class two took the joint exam, and in the end, our average score was ten points behind class two."

"Was it during the period of rest after the national competition?"Super Chen said.

"Yeah! Old Pan is furious! Even if we didn't take the exam, the difference between the others'scores and class two's average score of 10 points is also a bit unjustifiable... otherwise, Su Xiao would be at the front pulling the score, and the gap would probably be even greater."

Hero Guo sighed and said, “And it’s not only the written exam result that is bad, our class’s experimental results are also behind. To be able to use an induction furnace to make pills to blow up a furnace is also a talent... just adjust the formula according to the ratio and pour water into it, isn’t that enough?”

Hero Guo deliberately spoke in a very low voice when he said this, and only ridiculed Super Chen on the side. Although he was speaking the truth, if the other students heard it, it would easily affect the class’s unity.

According to Hero Guo, teacher Liu Ruoxu seemed to have been enlightened in teaching recently and had found a new teaching method, which allowed the students in class two to learn new knowledge faster.

Wang Ling’s class had been in the lead earlier, so this sudden backwardness naturally dealt a blow to teacher pan.

In just over ten minutes, Fang Xing’s class had been inspected under the leadership of Liu Ruoxu, the class teacher in charge of class two.

Before he left, Liu Ruoxu was stopped by an inspector. “Teacher, why don’t you take a test as well?”

“Sure.”Teacher Liu sat down very cooperatively.

The inspector applied a test spray on teacher Liu Ruoxu’s head.

Then, a scene that shocked everyone happened..

Teacher Liu Ruoxu, who originally had a head full of beautiful hair, suddenly had a drastic change in expression, as if she was in great pain! Her face began to become ferocious and distorted, and she couldn’t help but use her hands to scratch her scalp!

A large amount of hair fell off naturally or was torn off by her uncontrollably... in less than ten seconds, Liu Ruoxu Laoshi’s hair had completely fallen off!

“Quick! Control her!”

The epidemic prevention personnel and the surrounding students and teachers were shocked.

The frenzied Liu Ruoxu Laoshi had completely lost control!

Boom!

She stomped the ground fiercely, and her entire body flew out rapidly, smashing through the ceiling of the gymnasium.

A pair of red high-heeled shoes pierced deeply into the gymnasium floor like nails.

It looked like this hollow spirit wanted to escape.

But Wang Ling wouldn't let it get away so easily.

He would just use the great gravity spell.

Wang Ling immediately made up his mind. He wanted to use as gentle a spell as possible.

Without hurting teacher Liu's body, he wanted to keep him here.

But in the next moment, a huge light flashed across the horizon..

A meteorite fell from the distant starry sky! It was directly facing No. 60 high school's Gymnasium!

The corners of Wang Ling's eyes twitched. He had tried his best to control his strength, but it still seemed a little too strong..

Chapter 1243 The Strengthened Teacher Liu

Wang Ling had indeed held back when he had attacked.

He had used the condensed version of the Great Gravity Spell, which was only used against teacher Liu Ruoxu who had tried to escape.

This was a locking skill.

But Wang Ling hadn't expected that the condensed version would actually be able to trigger a meteorite in the universe.

He had really...

Only used a hundred million points of power.

But in the end, this was still his fault, and he had to think of a way to get rid of it.

Otherwise, when this meteorite fell, the huge explosion might level the entire No. 60 high school... No, the entire area.

But it was true that teacher Liu, who had been possessed by an ethereal spirit, had indeed become very strong.

The ethereal spirit had already perfectly combined with teacher Liu, and teacher Liu's main body had also received the blessing of the ethereal spirit.

For Wang Ling, this was an experiment.

Because he hadn't fought with the creatures on the other side of the Void Gate yet.

This was a good opportunity to test them out.

Buzz!

Under the influence of the great gravity spell, teacher Liu, who had wanted to escape the stadium, fell from the air and crashed heavily into the ground, creating a huge crater.

Her expression was ferocious and terrifying. With bloodshot eyes and silver-gray pupils, the virtual spirit had completely given up on hiding in teacher Liu's body.

Faced with the maddened teacher Liu, all the personnel of the testing station retreated one after another. A few security personnel rushed to the front to provide cover.

They had to ensure the safety of the remaining students

The loud noise coming from the gymnasium also caused many students to walk out of the classroom and stand in the corridor to watch through the windows.

Little Peanut was scared out of his wits. His entire body was trembling. "This... This is me going bald and becoming stronger?"

A few students from class two were also stunned. They all swore to the heavens.

"Teacher, I will never copy homework again! I will definitely listen to class well!"

"Wu Wu Wu teacher, I will never go to class to read novels again! I will delete 'The daily life of the Immortal King' Right Now! I will not read this stupid book anymore!"

They had never seen the crazy teacher Liu before, but the aura that teacher Liu emitted was indeed shocking.

This was no longer a power that an ordinary golden core stage teacher could unleash.

What surprised Wang Ling even more was that teacher Liu had actually crawled out of the hole on his own.

Being able to stand up under his condensed version of the Great Gravity Spell had given Wang Ling a clearer understanding of the power of the virtual spirit.

Wang Ling had forgotten about his palm. The Combat Power of the virtual spirit attached to teacher Liu's body was roughly a unit of two palms.

But he couldn't directly attack, because this body was still teacher Liu's. He had to think of a way to force the hollow spirit out of teacher Liu's body.

The great purification spell was ineffective, because the hollow spirit wasn't an evil spirit, fooling around, or even a poison virus. It was a complete high-level creature, and the power of the great purification spell couldn't affect teacher Liu's body.

In this situation, Wang Ling could only think of another way.

He looked up at the sky. The meteorite that had fallen under the great gravity spell had already moved at high speed.

On one side was teacher Liu, who had gone crazy after the hollow spirit had entered his body.

On the other side was the meteorite that was about to fall.

This situation was undoubtedly a disaster for Wang Ling. There were too many people and too many eyes, so he couldn't directly make a move; he could only secretly resolve this sudden crisis.

..

In the gymnasium, teacher Liu struggled to stand up from the ground under the effect of the great gravity spell. The power of the condensed version couldn't completely restrict teacher Liu's freedom, but if it was the full version.., it might trigger a new round of meteorite crisis.

Wang Ling sighed in his heart.

In this situation, he had to force out the ethereal spirit in teacher Liu's body and stop the meteorite from falling.

In Wang Ling's opinion, there was only one best way.

The next moment, Wang Ling turned his fingertips and strengthened teacher Liu's bald head.

“Look! It’s a Golden Legend!” There were people who cried out in alarm, and more than one person saw that the top of teacher Liu’s head was glowing!

This was the effect of Wang Ling’s strengthening!

The bright light was as dazzling as the sun that had just risen on the horizon, and people couldn’t help feeling a little dazzled.

Many people couldn’t help covering their eyes; they didn’t know exactly what had happened, but this light was really too dazzling!

Strengthening teacher Liu’s bald head was only the first step for Wang Ling.

Teacher Liu was probably already the most “Iron” woman in the entire universe.

The next step would be for Wang Ling to personally control teacher Liu to fight against the meteorite.

In the blink of an eye, teacher Liu’s entire body shot up into the sky like a rocket from the gymnasium!

With her dazzling bald head, she attacked the huge meteorite that was trying to pass through the atmosphere with an unstoppable momentum!

The virtual spirit in teacher Liu’s body realized that it was completely disobeying its commands and couldn’t help swearing!

Virtual Spirits didn’t know how to swear, but their learning ability was very strong. This was something that teacher Liu had inadvertently taught the virtual spirit in his body while reprimanding his students.

In the few seconds before he was about to hit the meteorite, fear arose in his heart. He didn't know that Wang Ling had already strengthened teacher Liu's bald head, so he couldn't make an accurate judgment of the current situation.

He had already been in teacher Liu's body for a long time, and it could be said that he had already reached the stage of perfect fusion. Once teacher Liu's body was injured, Xu Ling himself would also receive the same amount of damage!

He absolutely couldn't let this happen!

He still had to save his life to complete the mission given to him by the Master of the Void!

Thus, as he struggled internally and watched himself about to hit the meteorite, Xu Ling, who was in teacher Liu's body, finally gritted his teeth and gave up on teacher Liu!

In the next moment, along with a huge boom in the sky, the huge meteorite collided with teacher Liu, who had been shot out from the ground.

The meteorite had been hit by the strongest woman in the universe, and it had been smashed into smithereens in the atmosphere... before the shattered pieces of rock could fall to the ground, it had been burned to ashes.

Wang Ling controlled teacher Liu to land safely, while on the other side, he chose to release his primordial spirit to capture the ethereal spirit that had just broken free from teacher Liu's body.

The ethereal spirit had luckily escaped and was preparing to find a new host.

At that moment, he saw Wang Ling, who had his primordial spirit leave his body..

He was a very strong person!

The ethereal spirit was instantly excited!

To have grasped the primordial spirit leave his body at such a young age, his physical quality was definitely top-notch! This wasn't just a few trillion times stronger than the female teacher he had attached to earlier!

"Kid, you're unlucky to have met me!"

The virtual spirit let out an excited voice and directly plunged into Wang Ling's primordial spirit without a word!

At the same time, Wang Ling quickly retracted his primordial spirit.

His plan to use his primordial spirit as bait to capture the virtual spirit had succeeded perfectly.

Heh, this virtual spirit had met him.

He was unlucky..

Chapter 1244 Sea Of Stars

After entering Wang Ling's body, the virtual spirit's first step was to control his brain and seize the [mental space], then begin to devour Wang Ling's will.

Every human cultivator who had been invaded by the virtual spirit would face this step.

And this was one of the reasons why these human cultivators were so capricious and their temperaments changed so drastically.

The invasion had officially begun.

The spiritual space of ordinary humans was not considered large.

This was related to the level of a person's cultivation.

For example, the female teacher whose surname was Liu, her spiritual space was only the size of a rental house. In the eyes of the void spirit, it was so small that she could not even stretch her legs.

However, the advantage was that the spiritual space was small, so it was easier for him to control it... as long as it was not ridiculously large, it was generally not a problem.

Cultivators on Earth weren't ridiculously large either; a true immortal's spiritual space was only the size of ten football fields.

The virtual spirit confidently sneaked into Wang Ling's spiritual space..

Then, he was completely stunned by what he saw.

Because the spiritual space he saw was a sea of stars.

The sky was filled with stars and countless planets were rotating here, and they intersected with each other, exuding a dazzling brilliance that the virtual spirit couldn't see the end of at a glance.

This was... The Universe?

The Void Spirit was instantly scared out of his wits... how could a normal human cultivator's spiritual space be able to fit all the universes?

Wasn't this even more excessive than their great supreme void master?

No, he had to leave this place as soon as possible..

The void spirit realized that something wasn't right. He couldn't stay in this human youth's body any longer, and he had to return to the void as soon as possible to report this matter to the Void Master.

No one could have predicted that such a universe-level monster would actually hide in a harmless planet like earth..

But by then, it was already too late.

Because choosing to enter Wang Ling's body had been a wrong decision from the start.

This hollow spirit thought that he could still escape, but in fact, he himself had been locked in a human cage.

Wang Ling's body was like an iron wall of a cage, locking him inside!

"You can't escape." At that moment, a cold voice rang out from the universe. It wasn't just coming from any direction... it was as if it was the voice of the universe itself, and it tugged at the pulse of the universe, when it came out, the hollow spirit felt a tremendous pressure.

A white-haired youth condensed from endless light particles appeared here.

"You're not him... who exactly are you..." the ethereal spirit nervously looked at the youth in front of him. Although this youth looked exactly the same as the owner of the body outside, the ethereal spirit could still tell.., this wasn't the same person.

"I'm his Shadow." Wang Ying opened his eyes and replied indifferently.

"You Think You can destroy me?" The hollow spirit acted as if he did not see it. "Even if you have the ability to trap me here, you might not be able to kill me... you low-level creatures. You Don't know the meaning of life forms."

The hollow spirit smiled.

He did not have a physical body.

Like Light and wind, it was difficult to be captured, let alone be completely killed.

"Only magic can defeat magic. I'm sorry to tell you, I don't have a physical body either." Wang Ying smiled.

In the next moment, his body quickly disintegrated under the ethereal spirit's eyes!

In an instant, the black shadow pressed down, and the stars that were emitting brilliant light were enveloped by endless shadows!

Wang Ying disintegrated his body, forming a large-scale shadow howl that covered the sky and earth, as if it wanted to engulf the entire universe.

The vision in front of the ethereal spirit quickly dimmed. In an extremely short period of time, he was already engulfed by endless black shadows. He felt as if he had fallen into a black hole.

However, he was not afraid. He only felt that Wang Ying's actions were meaningless.

“So What?”The phantom spirit laughed.

“Nothing much, but this way, I can kill you,”Wang Ying said in the next moment. He dispelled Shadow Howl and looked at the phantom spirit that had been coated by his black shadow.

The Phantom Spirit indeed did not have a physical body, but now that it had been coated by Wang Ying, everything was different. The high-level life forms that they were proud of had been painted black by the shadow at that moment.

At that moment, Wang Ying could easily see the real appearance of the Phantom Spirit. They were like a silk ribbon that could be extended indefinitely, floating in the air. It had the feeling of a dove chocolate advertisement back then.

It was only then that the virtual spirit realized that his noble body had been “Defiled.”He became so angry that he was like a cat with bristles, even the shape of his body undulated up and down like sound waves. “What did you do to my body? !”

He roared as he charged at Wang Ying.

Wang Ying didn't care about a mere two palm-sized units of combat strength. Apart from the fact that he didn't have a king's eye, his combat strength was almost the same as Wang Ling's real body.

The hollow spirit in front of him could be easily dealt with with two slaps, but Wang Ying couldn't really kill it; the purpose of his coating was actually to warn the hollow spirit in front of him.

As long as it landed in this man's body, it didn't matter what stage of life it was in; it could still be killed and destroyed!

In the face of the hollow spirit's attack, Wang Ying calmly raised his hand and accurately struck the "Ribbon" flying toward him with 15% of his strength..

The Phantom Spirit immediately let out a pained cry, and at the same time, it spat out some black substance from its body.

Wang Ying deduced that it should be the Phantom Spirit's blood.

The Phantom Spirit's blood was originally colorless, but after being coated by his shadow, even its blood was dyed black.

"You are no longer a high-level form of life. You already have color and form, and you can even be hit by me."

Wang Ying looked at the hollow spirit. His expression did not seem like he was looking at a high-level life form.

It was a gaze that looked at trash.

"That slap just now, you should have felt the fear of death."

"Even if I let you return to the void now, your master will only think that you are a deviant and will mercilessly erase you."

Those two short sentences made the hollow spirit feel even more terrified.

He completely believed what Wang Ying said.

With his current ugly appearance, even if he returned, he would definitely be ostracized..

“I will give you a chance. Answer one question of mine. When the answer is over, I will remove the coating on your body and let you go back,”Wang Ying said to the hollow spirit.

The hollow spirit had no way out. “What do you want to ask...”

Wang Ying said, “What exactly are you looking for when you invaded earth?”

The Void Spirit fell silent.

He had thought it was some kind of question.

This matter had to be put on the surface sooner or later.

As long as it did not touch on the void Lord’s question, he could answer it.

“We’re looking for the key to the void door. Only the great void child is qualified to be this key,”said the Void Spirit.

“You can’t open the door on the other side? You actually need a key?”Wang Ying was puzzled.

The virtual spirit said, “We agreed that you would only ask one question!”

“Sorry, it’s My Fault.”

Wang Ying apologized.

The next moment, he raised his hand. “Then you can go to Hell.”

With that, Wang Ying waved his palm -- 200% power!

The huge palm force shook the space of the universe.

In an instant, the virtual spirit was completely disintegrated.

Chapter 1245 The Key To The Door Of The Void

“You’re quite ruthless.”

Wang Ling’s voice echoed in the vast spiritual space.

“I won’t allow anyone to defile this place.” Wang Ying’s voice was cold. He turned around, and his entire body turned into a black shadow that once again merged with Wang Ling’s spiritual space.

He was decisive in his killing.

In this aspect, Wang Ling felt that he was far inferior to Wang Ying.

Although Wang Ying was his shadow, his personality was very different from his.

Wang Ling had named the slap Wang Ying had given the hollow spirit “Six relatives don’t recognize the palm”.

He felt that.

This was very in line with Wang Ying’s personality.

If Wang Ling had acted, he might not have killed this hollow spirit.

Because Wang Ling didn’t care about a little bug, the blockade of the spiritual space actually gave Wang Ling very good conditions to play with this newly captured “Bug.”.

But unfortunately, the situation was urgent now, and Wang Ling didn’t have that much time left.

Although this hollow spirit had been killed by Wang Ying, at least Wang Ling had already obtained the reason why the hollow spirit had invaded Earth.

“To find the key?” Wang Ling stroked his chin as he thought carefully about what this hollow spirit had said.

No one had ever truly opened the void door, and since ancient times, anyone who crossed the line would die without a doubt.

Master Li Xiaokai and Li Huanran had even paid with their lives for this.

If the whole incident was linked together, Wang Ling felt that there might be such a possibility.

The void spirit might have already had thoughts about earth, but it was a pity that they themselves couldn’t open the void door.

Master Li Xiaokai had once forcefully broken through the void door and unintentionally opened a crack, which was in fact a signal for the invasion of the Void Spirit.

A portion of the void spirit flowed out of the crack.

But it was a pity that this small portion of the void spirit was far from enough to achieve the goal of invading Earth.

Thus, the hollow spirit had to find the so-called “Children of the Void” and use them as the key to completely open the void door.

Although these were only Wang Ling’s deductions.

But in general, Wang Ling felt that it was reasonable.

He edited this guess into words and sent it to Odd Zhuo, who would do the rest.

This virtual spirit claimed to be a high-level creature, but was destroyed by Wang Ying with two slaps... Wang Ling felt that the master behind this virtual spirit might not be that strong.

The incident with teacher Liu had caused quite a commotion at No. 60 high school. Fortunately, besides teacher Liu, No. 60 high school hadn't discovered anyone else who had been invaded by my virtual spirit.

By the time principal Chen arrived, teacher Liu was already under the control of the epidemic prevention personnel.

He wanted to go forward to check on teacher Liu's condition, but he was stopped by an epidemic prevention personnel. "Principal Chen, it's better if you don't look... you don't have much hair to begin with. If you were to get infected, that would be terrible."

"Why would you suddenly go Berserk?" Principal Chen couldn't understand.

"The reactions in other places are similar, but not as serious as teacher Liu's. It's said that the virus and the reagent have stimulated the human body to a certain degree, depending on everyone's level of acceptance," the staff member said.

"How many cases have been confirmed now?" Principal Chen asked with concern.

The epidemic prevention staff used the mind-transmitting spell to reply, "Currently, more than 1,200 cases have been confirmed in Songhai city, which is suspected to be 3,678 cases. Fortunately, there don't seem to be many cases in other places, and only our city is more serious."

This mind transmission spell was intercepted by Wang Ling.

Thus, on the way back to class, Wang Ling came up with a new idea.

According to the report from the epidemic prevention personnel just now, the number of virtual spirits invading Earth at this stage was still very limited, and most of them had gathered in Songhai city.

So did this mean that the virtual spirits had already locked onto the general range of the Void Child?

This legendary void child...

Might be in Songhai city.

..

“As expected of Shifu.”

Odd Zhuo soon received Wang Ling’s message.

He praised Wang Ling’s clear reasoning, but this reasoning still needed evidence to support it.

Those who had been detected had already been sent to quarantine at the first possible moment.

Teacher Liu’s incident had given odd Zhuo a great warning.

Immortal Zhenyuan and crispy noodles dao monarch had worked together to draw a “Sealing talisman”, and the moment someone was detected, they immediately sealed it.

Then, it was sent directly into the spatial isolation cage they had set up, directly blocking the possibility of these virtual spirits trying to jump out of their bodies to find a new host.

The situation seemed to be under control.

But Odd Zhuo knew very well that this battle had only just begun.

If they couldn’t find the child of the void first and let the hollow spirits find it first, once the void door opened, it would be a huge disaster for the entire earth.

Although they had found more than 1,200 cases now, this was definitely not the total number of hollow spirits. They were very good at learning, and after the first wave of trouble, they would definitely be on guard and wouldn’t be so easily deceived as they were now.

“What do you have to say about the sons of the Void?”said the bus to the first line of defense. Odd Zhuo asked Keron.

“I wasn’t the only investigator sent out to investigate, but now it looks like I may be the only one left... the foundation must have identified something. Unless we can find people directly from the foundation, organizing to find the children of the void now is like looking for a needle in a haystack,” says Cowan.

As he spoke, he glanced at Odd Zhuo’s phone a few times out of the corner of his eye..

He was amazed at the intelligence of the person who had sent odd zhuo the text message, caught the ethereal spirit with his bare hands, and even asked about the true purpose of the void invasion.

This was simply inconceivable to Keorn.

Who was this person?

Wasn’t he too strong..

“It looks like this matter is getting more and more troublesome, and we’ve already run into trouble.” At this moment, Odd Zhuo was driving as he looked in the rearview mirror behind their Wuling Hongguang van, a black sedan was following them closely.

Immortal Zhenyuan and crispy noodles dao monarch were at the front line at the moment, helping to suppress the virtual spirits. There were only two people in the car.

“The other side is very strong.” In the front passenger seat, Keorn sensed from afar. With just his and Odd Zhuo’s combat strength, he didn’t think they would be able to deal with the situation in front of them.

According to Keorn’s judgment, the people in the black sedan behind them were undoubtedly scavengers.

“It’s them! They’re here to take revenge for Snake!”

As soon as he said this, Odd Zhuo saw a black figure suddenly leap out of the skylight in the rear-view mirror.

The other party's jumping ability was astonishing, and it directly jumped above their van... then it stretched out its neck, half-sprawled on the windshield, and looked at them with its head hanging upside down!

What terrified Keron was...

This person was clearly not SNICK.

But he emitted the same smell as SNICK!

Chapter 1246 Ultimate Evolution!

With deep dark eye circles and sunken eye sockets, together with his red hair that hung down, snake lay on the windshield like a ghost.

The next moment, he reached out his hand, and his sharp fingernails directly pierced through the windshield!

The entire side of the reinforced glass shattered in an instant, turning into glass shards that scattered in the air! Then, they turned into light particles and quickly disappeared!

Odd Zhuo and Quinn reacted quickly. Almost at the same time as snake launched his attack, the two of them quickly unbuckled their seatbelts, opened the car door, and stepped on their spirit swords to leap out.

"Who exactly is this person..." Odd Zhuo stared at the young man in front of him, his eye-catching long fiery red hair hanging down to his waist.

His upper body was bare, revealing huge muscles and perfect muscle lines.

"It's Snick, yes... but this body is definitely not his." Keron frowned. The aura on the resurrected "Snick" was many times stronger than what Keron had previously known.

The fierce fight on the viaduct shocked countless cultivators nearby. Many people gave up their vehicles to ride their swords and left, and some passers-by also chose to call the police.

It was definitely a wise choice to retreat at this time, but Odd Zhuo didn't think there was much point in calling the police.

The Aura on snake's body was already different.

Even if the cultivation police department sent people over, they wouldn't be a match for him.

"Keron, have you heard of the Void?" At this moment, snake was standing on the roof of a car.

He stared at Keron and was incomparably enjoying this feeling.

Bang!

The sound of a gunshot rang out in the distance!

A sniper bullet made of powerful psionic power swiftly tore through the air and aimed at SNICK's head.

"Someone from the police station has arrived?" Odd Zhuo was startled; he hadn't expected the nearby area to react so quickly.

Faced with the speeding sniper bullet, Snick stood there motionlessly.

In fact, his gaze had already come into contact with the trajectory of the sniper rifle.

"Psionic bullet? Do you think you can hurt me?" Snick sneered.

The bullet accurately hit the space between his eyebrows. Then, like a clay ox entering the sea, it was swallowed into SNICK's body.

Void Devouring.

This was a new ability after he had become a higher-level life form.

As long as he wanted to, everything that wanted to pass through his body -- spells, hidden weapons, and all sorts of flying objects -- would be devoured by him and disintegrated completely.

Snake would never forget the scene when he had been pierced through the head by a “Needle” when he had become a human.

And now, he had become an ethereal.

These fanciful feints were meaningless to him.

“He has already become an ethereal...” Keron quickly realized what was happening in front of him.

As an investigator, he had secretly come into contact with those ethereal spirits. Although he was not 100% sure, Keron was sure that Snick was no longer a human.

“What’s so good about being a human? Keron, you will never understand the exhilaration of transcending the limits of life.”

Snick sneered. “You know, it feels really good not to be human! This might be the ultimate evolution of Life!”

As soon as he finished speaking, Snick rose high into the air and looked down at Odd Zhuo and Keron as if he were looking at two ants.

In an extremely short period of time, time seemed to have come to a standstill, and even the air stopped... an astonishing pressure erupted from Snick’s body.

With a loud noise, the bridge on the viaduct instantly broke, and cars sank into the ground like sand in the tide being swept into a mudflow.

“Is this the power of a void creature...”

Odd Zhuo and Keorn were both under tremendous pressure.

If it hadn't been for the long Johns on him, Odd Zhuo felt that he wouldn't have been able to withstand this kind of power at all!

This pressure was different from the spiritual pressure, but it was more terrifying than the spiritual pressure of Earth's cultivators. In that brief moment, Odd Zhuo even felt as if he had lost his mind.

"It's useless, a golden core and a false true immortal. They can't be my match." Snake was full of confidence.

He hovered in the air, his arrogant eyes full of contempt.

It was as if he was toying with two ants.

But it was a good thing that Odd Zhuo quickly activated "Thirty-three small paths of vital qi" at the critical moment.

This was the cultivation technique that Wang Ling had given him in chapter 679!

Odd Zhuo had always been painstakingly cultivating and constantly used thirty-three small paths of vital qi to accumulate spirit energy, and now it was finally put to great use at this moment!

"A cultivation technique to accumulate spirit energy?" Snake laughed. It wasn't that he hadn't seen this kind of cultivation method before. Usually, it was used to gamble one's life at a critical moment.

After all of it was unleashed, one's realm would increase by leaps and bounds in a short period of time.

However, Odd Zhuo was only at the golden core stage, and there was already a huge gap between them. Even if he unleashed it, what could he do?

Snick looked at Odd Zhuo with contempt. He wanted to see what exactly Odd Zhuo wanted to do.

“Open the floodgates!” Odd Zhuo shouted, and his aura began to rise! The spirit energy that he had normally accumulated in his golden core surged out like a tide!

It wasn't until this moment.

Only then did Keorn frown and sense that something wasn't right. “HM? Heavenly Dao Technique?”

He started to be surprised by odd zhuo's “Thirty-three small paths of vital qi”.

Ordinary spirit energy storage techniques could only store dreams of one realm at most, which meant that after Odd Zhuo erupted, he would at most grow to the battle strength of the nascent soul stage.

But this thirty-three small paths of vital qi in Odd Zhuo's body could store spirit energy of thirty-three realms at most!

In other words, Odd Zhuo's body contained thirty-three huge reservoirs of spirit energy!

Of course, with Odd Zhuo's usual savings and Wang Ling's constant reminders, his spirit energy storage pool had long reached saturation!

Odd Zhuo had never found a suitable opportunity to use it.

But now, the time was completely ripe!

“You're a Golden Core... you actually have a heavenly dao cultivation method?” Snake looked at Odd Zhuo in astonishment.

When he was still a human, he had also painstakingly pursued the Heavenly Dao, but he hadn't even touched the corner of the Heavenly Dao's sleeve!

He had once been an earth cultivator who had worked hard to cultivate in order to pursue the power of the Great Dao!

Snick laughed at himself in his heart.

It didn't matter to him at all whether he had the Heavenly Dao now. He had already become a higher-level life form!

Even if it was the Heavenly Dao!

He wouldn't put it in his eyes!

"Odd Zhuo... you gave me a good chance to prove myself."

Snake's gaze was fixed on Odd Zhuo, and he had a fierce look on his face. "I'll kill you with my own hands and hang your head high above the Void Gate... This will prove that I'm above the Heavenly Dao!"

Chapter 1247 The Growth Of A Remarkable Man

Although Snick and Kern weren't exactly familiar with each other.

But as colleagues who had worked together in the same unit, plus Kern had secretly investigated Snick's information.

He felt as if Snick had become a completely different person after he had transformed into an ethereal.

Snick became even more arrogant, and it could even be said that he became even more conceited.

"After completely becoming a virtual spirit, even his personality has changed..."

This was a new discovery by Keron, and he believed that this change in personality could be seen in two ways.

The first was the cultivators on earth who had been invaded by virtual spirits.

Because they had fused with the virtual spirits, even their personalities would be occupied by the virtual spirits under the premise that their mental space was controlled.

Their behavior patterns did not seem abnormal, but they were still quite different from usual.

No. 60 high school's teacher Liu was the best example.

And the second situation was the SNICK before them.

He had not been invaded by the virtual spirit. Instead, he had taken the initiative to accept the void, allowing himself to undergo a complete change from the soul, becoming the virtual spirit itself.

Although Keron had been investigating the virtual spirit all this time and had even quietly come into contact with it, this was indeed the first time.

This was indeed the first time he had fought with a virtual spirit.

As a false true immortal standing here, he could already feel immense pressure, let alone Odd Zhuo?

“Mr. Zhuo, what are our chances of winning...”

He instinctively wanted to persuade Odd Zhuo to retreat.

Judging from the astonishing pressure that Snick had brought, even with Odd Zhuo, who was at the golden core stage... it seemed that they wouldn't be able to completely turn the tide of the battle.

But at that moment, odd zhuo shouted loudly -- “Open the floodgates!”!

Keorn was completely stunned on the spot!

“Mr. Zhuo?” He turned around in disbelief and looked in astonishment at Odd Zhuo's live performance.

The power of Heavenly Dao..

At this point, Keorn was completely stunned.

The expression on his face was exactly the same as Snick's when he saw this scene.

It was simply inconceivable that a golden core cultivator could actually possess a heavenly dao technique.

The people of the war sect... were simply freaks!

Was this still a sect made up of people?

At this moment, Keorn's emotions were exceptionally complicated.

Excitement, astonishment, confusion..

All sorts of emotions were mixed together.

Although he already knew in his heart that Odd Zhuo wasn't a simple person.

But now, his impression of Odd Zhuo needed a major update.

..

A tremendous amount of spirit energy gushed out of Odd Zhuo's tiny golden core like a landslide, tsunami, or flood bursting a dam.

In a short period of time, Odd Zhuo's aura instantly exploded!

Odd Zhuo had only unsealed six of the thirty-three huge reservoirs, and had already achieved astonishing results.

The reservoirs were good, but they couldn't be completely unsealed at once.

Currently, six in one round was Odd Zhuo's limit.

He needed to wait for his body to get used to it before he could unseal the next round.

Unsealing six reservoirs would raise his realm, which was the realm of a false true immortal.

His current battle strength was no weaker than Keron's.

But it would probably still be a little difficult for the two of them to defeat snake.

“Miss Bai Qiao! If I die, no one will test the game for you in the future!”

At that moment, Odd Zhuo roared into the air, “If you don't attack now, when will you? !”

As soon as he finished speaking.

A Ray of brown light shot up into the sky from the horizon!

Then, it quickly turned into a shooting star as it sped toward Odd Zhuo.

The scabbard of the Peach Wood Sword.

In order to better protect Odd Zhuo earlier, Wang Ling had also added Odd Zhuo's name to the scabbard.

But Odd Zhuo had never dared to use it.

If it weren't for the critical situation at the moment, he wouldn't have dared disturb this otaku woman playing games in the sect.

It had to be said that Bai Qiao's reaction was very quick.

When she heard Odd Zhuo's call, she almost immediately pressed the "Pause" button on the game and flew to Odd Zhuo's palm at a speed faster than the speed of light.

"The scabbard of a Peach Wood Sword?" Snake laughed again.

He had never seen a person's weapon turn out to be a scabbard made of Peach Wood.

With a scabbard like this, he felt that he could turn into ashes with a single breath.

Snick had thought that odd zhuo would bring out something extraordinary.

But the outcome had disappointed him greatly.

"Odd Zhuo, your performance seems to have ended. It's my turn now."

In the air, Snick spread his arms, and Odd Zhuo could see an invisible energy mass seemingly gathering in his palm.

This was an extremely dense energy mass, and the moment snake condensed it.

The surrounding space couldn't withstand the pressure and began to tear.

This was a variation of void devouring; anyone who came into contact with the energy mass would instantly disappear!

Devoured by the Void!

So no matter what Odd Zhuo used, it was useless in Snake's eyes.

What's more, what he had just summoned was a scabbard that looked incomparably useless.

"Odd Zhuo! Crawl!"

Snake laughed loudly.

In the next moment, he pushed with both hands and actually took the initiative to stuff the void energy mass into the space fissure.

Before Odd Zhuo could react.

In the blink of an eye, the two energy masses surrounded odd zhuo from both sides, trapping him in the middle!

This was snake using the energy mass's special ability to swallow space, thus achieving an instant effect.

"This is bad!" On the side, Keron's expression changed drastically.

No matter how fast Odd Zhuo's reaction was, it was impossible for him to stop this encirclement.

In a moment of desperation, Keron circulated a spirit energy wave in his hand. He wanted to send odd zhuo flying!

To escape the encirclement of the energy mass!

However, Snick's target wasn't just Odd Zhuo.

"Keron, crawl for me too!" He sneered and used the same trick again.

Two more void energy spheres that could devour everything locked down Keoen's position.

In snake's eyes, this sentence was already a sure win.

His mission was actually to kill Keoen.

Odd Zhuo was just a freebie that he bought for free when he passed by.

He was the number one important figure in the battle sect.

By killing Odd Zhuo, he could prove that he was above the Heavenly Dao! And with this, he would challenge the entire battle sect!

He would avenge the humiliation of being stabbed to death by a flying needle in front of the battle sect's Mountain Gate!

But in the next moment, something unexpected happened.

Just as the two void energy spheres were about to collide.

Odd Zhuo and Quinn's positions suddenly shifted, instantly shifting several coordinates!

When the void energy spheres collided, there was a huge explosion, and two huge wormholes were blasted out.

Odd Zhuo let out a slight sigh of relief.

He had finally dodged this disaster.

Ever since he had noticed Snick's ability to devour the void, Odd Zhuo had been on full alert.

Thus, the moment SNICK condensed the energy mass...

Odd Zhuo was also ready at the same time!

He used the white scabbard to cut off a section of space in order to achieve the effect of space teleportation.

Now it was his turn to counterattack!

Odd Zhuo took a deep breath.

In the air, he quickly assumed the position of throwing a javelin and fiercely threw the white scabbard out of his hand!

This was a direct hit between SNICK's eyebrows!

"I can't fall in the same place, Odd Zhuo!"

Faced with this attack, Snick appeared to be full of confidence and laughed wildly.

The attack on his body had changed. Any matter that got close to his body would be completely devoured by the Void!

He even took the initiative to stretch out his head to welcome Bai Qiao's Attack!

He wanted to devour the entire scabbard!

And then at the next moment.

Following that, Puchi! A sound was heard.

Bai Qiao turned into a brown stream of light and pierced through SNICK's head once again.

Chapter 1248 Captain Lu

The familiar scene and the same way of death made Snick's eyes widen in disbelief.

"Impossible... I am the great citizen of the Void..."

Before the last moment, Snick used his last bit of strength to say his last words.

Then, a huge explosion occurred in the sky.

The space nearby was blasted apart, forming a huge wormhole.

This was an explosion that occurred after the hollow spirit died, and it was extremely powerful.

Earth cultivators, below true immortals, would undoubtedly die from this kind of impact.

Odd Zhuo and Quinn watched in horror.

This was another discovery directed at the hollow spirit.

A pure hollow spirit wouldn't explode after it died without a physical body.

But if a cultivator on earth who had been invaded by the hollow spirit died together with the hollow spirit, it would cause an explosion similar to the backlash from the void.

So if the hollow spirit was to be killed...

The safest way was to force the hollow spirit out of the human body before thinking of a way to kill it.

Odd Zhuo felt that it was necessary to give feedback to the front line on this issue.

If there was a virtual spirit who wanted to make a clean break, then those earth cultivators who had already been invaded would be natural time bombs.

“Does Mr. Keron have any impression of the person who was occupied by Snick?”

Odd Zhuo took out the notebook in the jacket jacket.

He used the image projection spell to project SNICK's appearance after he had changed his appearance onto the notebook.

Odd Zhuo was already very familiar with this image projection spell.

If it was someone with a lot of imagination, they could even use this spell to create comics, and it wouldn't be a dream at all!

They could go wherever they wanted!

"I didn't expect Snick to give up his human identity and become an ethereal."

Keorn sighed endlessly as he stared at Odd Zhuo's portrait, he briefly deduced SNICK's situation. "After his first death, he must have used some method to become an ethereal. Then he invaded this man's body. "This man... I seem to have seen him somewhere before, but I'm not too familiar with him."

"Is it possible that he's someone from Your Foundation?"

"I know most of my colleagues at the foundation, but I've never seen this person before."

Keron shook his head. "Unless..."

"Unless what?"

"Unless he's one of the seven ambassadors behind the Foundation."

"One of the seven ambassadors..." Odd Zhuo said in a low voice.

Indeed, this possibility couldn't be ruled out.

Even if the fact that Snick had become a virtual spirit was excluded, Odd Zhuo and Keron had to admit that the original owner that Snick had found was very strong!

This could be seen from the quality of his body.

Snick wasn't a randomly chosen invader.

There must be a mastermind behind all this.

At this moment, the space wormhole that had been blasted open in the sky was gradually shrinking.

The space fissure had a self-repairing mechanism, but this repair was very slow. It would take at least a day for a space wormhole like this to fully recover.

Odd Zhuo saw that the officers in the nearby area had already arrived on spirit swords and immortal remnants.

They needed to set up a cordon here and temporarily seal off the airspace in this area.

"Director Zhuo!"

Among the approaching cultivation patrol officers, a captain approached Odd Zhuo and respectfully bowed in front of him.

"I'm already disguised like this, how can you still recognize me?" Odd Zhuo was surprised.

"The main thing is that the criminal who blew himself up just now was shouting very loudly..."

"..."

Odd Zhuo smiled when he heard this. "I'm already wanted by the General Alliance; aren't you going to arrest me?"

"I wouldn't dare..." the captain shook his head. "From the beginning, I felt that there was some misunderstanding, or perhaps it was a trap. Director Zhuo has done a lot of meritorious service; how could he have killed Warden Liang?"

Odd Zhuo secretly heaved a sigh of relief at this little captain's words.

He felt that he was very lucky to have met someone who was reasonable.

If he had met some iron fool, this matter couldn't be resolved yet.

"I still need to go to the front line, so I'll have to trouble you to keep my matter a secret, brother." Odd Zhuo patted this little captain on the shoulder. "Oh, that's right, brother, What's Your Name?"

"I'm Lu Liang." The squad leader surnamed Lu saluted again.

Odd Zhuo nodded and cupped his fists with Ke'ao en. "Then I wish you, Captain Lu, good luck in the immortal realm!"

"Good luck in the immortal realm!" Captain Lu saluted back.

Because his appearance had already been exposed, before he left, Odd Zhuo changed his appearance once again.

His appearance was even uglier than that of Ku Xuan.

When he left, the squad leader called Lu Liang called out to Odd Zhuo again. "Director Zhuo, we found this. I wonder if it's something that director Zhuo abandoned."

Lu Liang handed it over.

It was a palm-sized pearl that gave off a brilliant light and had a round texture.

Odd Zhuo smelled it and was surprised that it actually smelled like snake.

"This might be the key to why snake can turn into an ethereal spirit." Keorn narrowed his eyes and transmitted his voice to Odd Zhuo.

Odd Zhuo took the Pearl and thanked this meticulous captain Lu once again.

Then, he and Keorn turned into two long rainbows and disappeared into the horizon.

Gazing at Odd Zhuo's departing figure, Lu Liang waved excitedly to say goodbye!

He had been Odd Zhuo's fan for a long time!

This feeling of seeing his idol made him feel as if he had instantly become the happiest person in the world!

"Captain Lu... the area has basically been locked down, and now it's time for the battle damage statistics."

"I'll handle this part," Lu Liang said with a nod.

There were some things that he felt it was better to do personally.

Many of the police officers in their area were Odd Zhuo's fans.

Who knew what outrageous things these people would do in order to protect Odd Zhuo..

But he was different.

He was a rational fan.

It would be a little too fake to completely cover things up.

Lu Liang had already thought of a very good way to cover up for Odd Zhuo while handling this matter seamlessly.

..

On the other side, on the way to the epidemic prevention station, Odd Zhuo received news from the war sect's intelligence department.

The result was just as Keorn had expected.

“Everything is as you thought.” Odd Zhuo frowned.

“Who exactly is this person?”

“The president of the Mixiu Nation’s Apollo Charity Association, Apollo Delman. And this person’s true identity is the sun position emissary among the foundation’s Seven Ambassadors.”

Now, Keorn finally remembered this person’s identity.

He sighed. “Apollo Delman... This is a person with a strong sense of justice. The Charity Association he founded spends a large amount of money every year to help people in distress. “He is indeed like the sun, emitting its own light and heat.”

In Keron’s view, Delman was a very low-key person. He gave in quietly, but rarely appeared in the news.

So Kern had been very vague about Dreyman’s face, but he was particularly familiar with the name.

Dreyman was one of his idols.

He was amazed at Dreyman’s character.

It was also Dreyman who told him.

True charity, in fact, even a packet of instant noodles can be made public.

Chapter 1249 The Center Of The Game

In the independent mental space of the foundation.

This time, the seven ambassadors were not completely gathered. There were only five people present.

“The Sun’s ambassador is dead. The Fool has betrayed us,”the judge said.

The former was an unshakable fact, while the latter had yet to find clear evidence.

However, he felt that the emissary of the position of the Fool had a strange behavior pattern.

Therefore, to be on the safe side, he took the initiative to “Kick the emissary of the position of the fool out of the group chat”in this spiritual space meeting.

“Who is he?”The Moon was curious.

No one knew each other’s identity.

Now that the emissary of the position of the Sun had died, the focus of everyone’s attention was not on how he died or what caused his death.

Instead, they were more concerned about his true identity.

This sounded somewhat ironic.

Xubai laughed coldly in his heart.

Humans were indeed a type of creature that was filled with curiosity and self-righteous.

However, announcing his identity now was indeed not a big deal.

He was not in a hurry to speak. Instead, he looked in the direction of the emissary of the position of the star and asked in return, “Xingxing, you have the ability to predict. Don’t you know the identity of the Sun?”

Xing Xing was silent.

He/she thought carefully for dozens of seconds before opening his mouth, “I watched the sky at night and saw the Stardust fall. I knew that the emissary of the sun was in danger, but I did not know his true identity.”

When he heard this, Xu Bai Po raised his eyebrows meaningfully.

He no longer hid it.

Xu Bai said, “The true identity of the emissary of the sun is Apollo Deliman.”

Everyone said, “It’s him.”

It was the same reaction as when Keron heard the name.

Everyone in the spiritual space, except xubai, was more or less surprised.

The emissary of the Moon position observed a moment of silence and made a prayer gesture. “He’s a good man.”

“We all know he’s a good man,” tank said at this moment.

To everyone’s surprise, he changed from his previous irritable attitude.

Instead, he spoke in an uncharacteristically gentle tone, “Although I have a disagreement with him, everyone can see what he and his people have done. We should avenge the sun! So now, we must know who killed him.”

At this time, Xu Bai, who was sitting in the judgment seat, knew that the meeting had finally come to the point.

He unceremoniously announced the man who had killed the sun.

Just by gently turning the magic ball in front of him, a holographic projection of the man immediately appeared in front of everyone's eyes.

"You all know this person, don't you?"

Xu Bai's voice was calm.

His goal of working together with tank to stir up the other people's emotions had already been achieved.

"It's actually him! Odd Zhuo!" Tank slammed the table angrily.

In fact, he had already known the answer last night.

But as an outstanding actor, tank had already given his life's worth of acting skills.

It could be said that he had done it to the best of his ability.

Everyone was surprised by tank's manic performance at this moment; they hadn't expected tank to have such a tender side to him.

"Dreyman has always been passionate about charity. He has devoted his life's work to helping people in suffering..."

At this point, the tank's voice sounded a little choked up.

This was a skill that he had spent an entire night honing.

Anyway, in this mental space, everyone was a dark shadow and their expressions could not be seen clearly.

Therefore, he just needed to focus his acting skills on the voice.

Xu Bai Heard Chariot's sobs and sighed in his heart.

He felt that chariot was the seedling of the overall champion of "Sound in the air".

"Everyone, we have to do something for the sun... we can't let the skeleton of this great benefactor be left in a foreign country forever like this."

Chariot stood up excitedly. "Kill Odd Zhuo! Avenge the Sun!"

The emissary from the Moon seat had always been very gentle, but she was most easily swayed by emotions.

As a nun sent by God to the mortal world, perhaps she shouldn't have such a strong desire for revenge.

But now, guided by Chariot's emotions, she also felt sorry for the dead Dreyman in her heart.

So very quickly, the emissary from the Moon seat also expressed her opinion. "This demon must be punished! God will definitely let him receive the punishment he deserves!"

She said it very implicitly, but in fact, she was already standing on the side of the chariot.

The situation was set.

This meeting was completely a war of denunciation for the emissary from the position of the Sun, Dreyman.

The perfect coordination between xubai and the chariot had almost stirred up the emotions of everyone here.

This was also the first time that everyone's voices were incomparably unified.

“Then, just as everyone voted, this foundation meeting has voted to decide [crusade against Odd Zhuo] . It’s unanimous!”In the judging seat, xubai, who had the overall situation in hand, dropped her hammer.

Everything was in his plan.

This included SNICK invading the body of the emissary of the sun position after becoming a virtual spirit.

This included SNICK’s plan to seek revenge on Odd Zhuo and Keorn after he had perfectly fused with his body.

Of course, it also included the fact that Snick had died in battle and that Odd Zhuo had picked up that void magic ball..

All of this was within White’s expectations.

“Now, there’s only one last step left before the battle.”

In the castle, Xubai was tasting the red soup.

He wanted to use the other members of the foundation to kill Odd Zhuo.

He wanted to turn Odd Zhuo, who had obtained the void magic ball, into a virtual spirit.

..

At the Epidemic Prevention Center station in the western suburbs of Songhai city.

The huge barrier was like a perfect eggshell, forming an impenetrable line of defense.

There was only one entrance to the entire barrier, and everyone who entered or exited had to be tested.

Inside the barrier, it was a temporary isolation hospital created by using the stellar transposition spell and the earthwork construction spell.

It could hold up to ten thousand people!

All the wards were independent spaces created by crispy noodles dao monarch and immortal zhenyuan.

Odd Zhuo and Quinn went through the tests. Once they entered the command center, Cailian Zhenren, who had been waiting outside the building for a long time, quickly approached them.

“This is bad.”Cailian Zhenren’s expression was a little unsightly.

“Tell me slowly what happened.”Odd Zhuo took Cailian Zhenren to a secret place.

“We just received news that senior immortal has been detained by the General Alliance,”Cailian Zhenren said.

Odd Zhuo frowned slightly at this news.

Currently, the war sect was allied with Huaguo Water Curtain Group and was completely on the head of state’s side.

So it was certain that the person who had detained grenade-throwing senior immortal was the second wave of forces in the General Alliance.

“Senior immortal won’t fall for it so easily. Maybe he’s thinking of a way to lure out the mastermind behind this second wave of forces...”Odd Zhuo’s mind spun rapidly; he felt that there was something fishy going on behind the scenes.

“Senior Immortal, you don’t have to worry for the time being. I have something that I Need Senior Immortal Toya to appraise.”

When Odd Zhuo said this, he took out the magic ball that Captain Lu Liang had picked up earlier.

“What’s This?”Cailian Zhenren was curious.

“The equipment that dropped after killing the ethereal spirit..

Chapter 1250 Conjecture About The Children Of The Void

Under the arrangements of Odd Zhuo and Sun Yiyuan, the operation to test the “Bald virus”was actually to investigate the void creatures lurking among Earth’s cultivators in Huaxiu Nation.

All over the country, the first line of defense against the epidemic had been formed, and Songhai City currently had the largest number of void spirits.

Wang Ling saw that the number of confirmed cases was still growing.

In the afternoon, it was clear that there were only over 1,200 cases, but in the evening, there was already a zero.

On the Internet, people were panicking about the new “Bald virus.”.

Wang Ling glanced at the class group and saw that Super Chen, hero Guo, and the others were openly discussing this matter.

There were no teachers in this group, and it was a group created by the students in the class themselves.

“I heard that our school is going to have a class tomorrow, but I don’t know if it’s true or not.”

“Don’t be happy too early, there’s no class suspension! Old Pan will definitely give us a bunch of homework!”

“Sigh, it’s better for the teacher to stay at home next. The masks are out of stock, and you can’t even buy them!”

“There are also some people who are secretly raising the price; how shameful! It’s one or two yuan more, but a few dozen yuan more is simply outrageous!”

..

There were definitely complaints.

After all, the appearance of the Bald virus had disrupted everyone's normal rhythm of life.

Although staying at home was indeed very comfortable for Wang Ling.

But this wasn't the peaceful life he wanted.

So Wang Ling had already intervened.

He hoped that this matter could be put behind him as soon as possible.

Based on the population of Songhai City, book of Sage immortal conservatively estimated that there were no less than 100,000 hollow spirits currently lurking in Songhai city.

And the reason why these hollow spirits had yet to cause a major riot was very simple.

They were looking for the son of the void.

Wang Ling didn't know what conditions he had to meet to become a child of the void.

But for now, this was the source of all the void spirits.

As long as the child of the Void wasn't discovered, these void creatures wouldn't make much of a move.

"Can you deduce the child of the Void?" Wang Ling stared at the tablet on the table.

So far, they had obtained data on two void creatures.

One was the one that Wang Ying had killed in Wang Ling's mental space.

The other was the one that Odd Zhuo had killed together with Bai Qiao.

Bai Qiao had already shared that memory with Jingke so that Wang Ling could use the book of Immortal Sage to calculate the data.

But it was clear that the data on the two void creatures.., was still a bit of a stretch for the book of Immortal Sage. "My lord, I can only try my best. This is the first time I know about the creatures at the Void Gate, so I don't know much."

"Okay." Wang Ling felt like laughing in his heart.

To be honest, it was very rare for him to see the book of Sage immortal suffer.

Among all the enlightened monsters, this ipad was the only one who felt that he was extremely intelligent. It often acted smart and even made decisions for him on its own.

Therefore, Wang Ling had already planned to send the book of Sage Immortal a long time ago. If it hadn't been for the invasion of the void this time, it would probably have been delivered by express delivery.

This time, the search time for the book of Sage Immortal was indeed quite long.

During this time, Wang Ling had also done a lot of extra work.

He had done a set of exercises for "Three five"

He had read the novel he was chasing and voted for a monthly recommendation ticket

He had used the small amount of pocket money that Father Wang had deducted from him to donate to a trusted charity..

“Reporting to my lord, I’ve basically finished searching. From the results so far, the void children that the hollow spirits were looking for were actually preparations for the invasion. There should be two true void children. “These two are the key to opening the Void Gate, and neither of them can be missing,”the book of Sage Immortal replied.

“What’s the purpose of the invasion...”Wang Ling asked telepathically.

These void spirits thought that they were superior to others, but they wanted to invade Earth. In Wang Ling’s eyes, this was an unimaginable thing.

“There’s a 37% chance that they want to occupy Earth.”

“There’s a 31% chance that they want to transform Earth into a void breeding ground for void creatures to be devoured by void spirits in batches.”

“There’s a 23% chance that they want to use earth as bait to disguise themselves as humans and lure other high-level creatures to attack Earth and then devour those high-level creatures to pursue higher forms of life.”

“Based on the memory retrieval of the two fallen spirits, the void creatures behind the door think that their current form is still not perfect, and they feel that they can go one step further and evolve upwards.”

“There’s a 9.9% chance that they want to attract the Heavenly Dao’s attention.”

“There’s less than 0.1% chance that they want to kill a short and skinny author.”

Wang Ling:”...”

Book of Sage immortal: “But no matter what their goal is, opening the void door is a crucial step they have to take because even the lord of the void doesn’t have the ability to break the door.”

“Doesn’t have the ability to break the door?”

Loopy toad, who had been lying on the ground the whole time, smiled. “Isn’t the world behind the door their home to them? Why would they dislike it if they stayed in their home?”

Book of Sage immortal: “The world behind the door is heaven for the ethereal spirit, but after staying in heaven for a long time, it will always feel tired and want to go out to seek new stimulation.”

“This is the same as students who are bored to death at home during the epidemic and are looking forward to the day when school starts.”

“At home, you have to abide by rules and regulations. Although you don’t have to worry about food and clothing, you have to be careful every day. At the same time, you have to always be careful not to talk back to your elders or anything like that... so when you go out, it’s also a way for the ethereal spirit to release itself.”

This reason sounded a little real to Wang Ling.

He felt that it was like a portrayal of reality..

Of course, everyone had different thoughts. Some people might want to take a few more days off, while others wanted to start school as soon as possible.

But no matter what they thought, everyone had the same thought -- they hoped that this undeserved disaster would pass as soon as possible and that everyone would be able to live a safe and healthy life.

Book of sage immortal: “To sum it up, according to the information we have so far,. There are currently six people who are most suitable to be chosen by the Void Spirit as the children of the void, and the probability of these people is almost 50-50... I still need more sample data from the void spirit to prove it.”

Then, Book of Sage Immortal gave the following four names.

Wang Ling had actually heard of a few of them.

“Gao Tianming, the captain of Demon Capturer No. 1 high school when our Lord participated in the Nine Dragon Mountain National Physical Skills Competition.”

“Jiang Xiaoche, Sun Yiyuan’s personal secretary at Huaguo Water Curtain Group.”

“Xiang Haitao, general manager of Songhai City Xiang family’s Waste Recycling Technology Co. Ltd. , Xiang Haihua’s eldest son, has a long-term relationship with Sun Yiyuan.”

“Yi Zhiyang, a new student at sword God Academy, is also the team leader of the Nine Dragon Mountain competition. He is the foster son of sword Saint Yi Jianchuan.”

“Are they all men?”Loopy toad found a key point.

Book of Sage immortal: “Although the information I have so far shows that the two sons of the void are most likely both men, the probability of one of them being a woman is indeed higher.”

“Who is it?”

Wang Ling asked telepathically.

Book of Sage Immortal: “Lotus Sun, the eldest granddaughter of Sun Yiyuan of Huaguo Water Curtain Group.”
