Chapter 1301 Had A New Problem

The head of the Zhao family had abandoned his “80th generation cultivation” and was freed from the Forsaken Land of the gods.

The first thing he had to do was to personally prepare a gift and pay a visit to apologize to the Liu family.

He was originally a person who had been incited. He had trusted the evil of the head of the Sheng family so easily that he had made an unwise move to besiege the Liu family.

It was not easy for him to put down his pride and personally go to the city gate to apologize in front of all the Liu family disciples and citizens.

The Master of the Liu family was not a narrow-minded person. Naturally, he sent Liu Chengru out to accept the apology.

After delivering the gifts and apologizing, the master of the Zhao family stood at the gate of Liu City and did not leave for a long time.

Liu Chengru could roughly guess what the Master of the Zhao family was thinking. “Master of the Zhao family, do you want to ask me about that senior on Earth...”

Zhao liegang suddenly raised his head and bowed. “That’s right! I don’t know...”

“The head of the Zhao family is a dao god, so he should be able to sense that that senior specially set up a restriction to block the tracking. Thus, I don’t know much about that senior’s information.”

Liu Chengru smiled. “However, my head’s eldest daughter, Liu Qingyi, is currently studying by this senior’s side. If the head wants to know more, he’ll have to depend on his own abilities.”

“Thank you for your guidance.”

The Zhao family head once again bowed.

One had to say that the Zhao family head's train of thought was actually very clear.

This time, he was really clear-headed and understood the logic of heaven beyond the heavens.

When he was in the abandoned land of the gods, he had already thought very thoroughly. Instead of struggling to bargain with the abandoned pillar of the gods,.

It was better to come out earlier and befriend that senior on Earth. That was the most important thing.

With that senior's divine ability, if he could befriend him, wouldn't he be able to do whatever he wanted in the future?

In comparison, his cultivation of the eightieth generation was really nothing.

Thus, the head of the Zhao family, who had left the forsaken land of the gods, began to prepare a plan to send his own son to Earth to study..

In addition, he was also thinking about how to befriend Wang Ling.

Although he couldn't figure out Wang Ling's name and exactly where he lived at the moment, he could still figure out Liu Qingyi's whereabouts.

Finding Liu Qingyi first was the first step of the entire plan.

In the Zhao family's forbidden area, Zhao ganglie summoned his eldest son, Zhao Qingxian.

Zhao Qingxian was a little chubby, but his strength was actually far inferior to Wang Zhen and Liu Qingyi.

In a word, this was the legendary foolish son of a landlord.

The head of the Zhao family actually had a lot to worry about when he sent Zhao Qingxian out... but he thought that if he followed that senior on Earth, his disappointing son's interest would also improve.

Before he left, the head of the Zhao family gave a lot of instructions.

"After you arrive on Earth, first find Liu Qingyi according to the low value that your father gave you. Remember, you must be polite! Understand!"

"Liu Qingyi?"

Zhao Qingxian scratched his head. "Isn't this the young miss of the Liu Family?"

After saying that, Zhao Qingxian stretched out his hand. "Give me the thing."

"What Thing?" The head of the Zhao family was puzzled.

"It's a betrothal gift! That Liu family's eldest daughter, I've also fancied her for a long time!" Zhao Qingxian said righteously.

"Who asked you to go down to the lower realm to betrothal! I'm asking you to get a clue from Liu Qingyi about that senior on Earth, and then you'll think of a way to be on good terms with that senior! Do You Hear Me? !"

"My father is a Dao god, why would I want to be on good terms with people on Earth..." Zhao Qingxian didn't understand.

Actually, he didn't care about the Zhao family's family head's previous battle.

And Zhao Ganglie didn't plan to tell him.

He wanted to tell his own son that his father had just been crushed to death by a senior on earth..

He simply couldn't say those words!

“Anyway, remember what your father instructed you to do! be polite! Get close to Liu Qingyi and get in touch with that senior on Earth! As for how to deal with it, it’s up to you.”

“Where’s the money? Even if you want to make friends with her, you have to spend money.”

“After you go to the lower realm, your father will prepare it for you.”

“Sure. After I pack up my things, I’ll set off immediately.”

Zhao Qingxian nodded and then bowed to Zhao ganglie. “Then my son will leave first.”

“En... Get lost.”

Zhao ganglie snorted.

He didn’t know why he felt a little worried..

Leaving the forbidden land of his clan.

Zhao Qingxian let out a long sigh of relief.

He had long had thoughts about Liu Qingyi.

This time, coming to Earth in person was truly a great opportunity!

..

On the other side, within the war sect, opinions no longer focused on the matters in the god domain.

Currently, there were still five dao gods trapped in the abandoned land of the gods.

Although everyone wanted to know what would happen next, they had more urgent matters to deal with at the moment.

Guo Ping was ordered to come here. As the diplomatic ambassador of Shendao planet, they discussed and formulated the plan to upgrade Earth.

In terms of time, everyone's opinions were more unified.

Because they had to implement it as soon as possible.

So it was directly set for Tuesday, December 1st.

The problem was the location.

This was a huge impact on earth caused by all the spirits of the planets in the Milky Way galaxy condensing the power of Chaos.

Guo Ping gave it a simple name -- Chaos Tribulation Cannon!

If Earth could survive this cannon attack, it would be considered a successful upgrade.

However, it was obviously safer to do it in a place with few people around.

It was difficult for Earth's cultivators to accept the pressure of the power of chaos, and even radiation could hurt innocent people.

So the location of the monk's "Chaos Egg" primer became a problem.

"What about the boundless sea?" Grenade-throwing senior immortal asked.

"There's no one here, but there are a large number of sea creatures under the surface of the sea. This radiation can spread into the deep sea, and even if we successfully transcend the tribulation, there might be a terrifying scene of corpses floating ten thousand miles away." Guo Ping shook his head.

Then he turned his gaze to the girl in the Buddha's Golden Lotus. "Miss Lotus Sun, what do you think?"

To put it bluntly, this Earth's upgrade was all because of Lotus Sun.

Guo Ping really wanted to hear Miss Sun's opinion.

"Can I say it too?" Lotus Sun was a little surprised.

From the very beginning, the girl had come with a learning attitude, and everyone present had a higher realm than her.

"Of course. Ling Zhenren specially planned this whole situation for this matter, so of course you can express your opinion," said Guo Ping.

Hearing this, Lotus Sun's small face turned red, and she directly turned into a steam maid.

"Dead bone desert... What do you think?" In the end, Lotus Sun said what she thought.

She felt that this should be a very logical answer.

It was just that she didn't know why no one on the scene had said it..

As soon as she said it, everyone around her nodded one after another.

"Good Idea! This desert of bones is uninhabited, and that's where the heavenly e-bomb experiment was conducted." Guo Ping nodded like a chicken pecking at rice.

"True venerate. Lord Realm King, let's settle it here!"

At this time, the monk stood up and looked at true venerate Dūlie and Lady Ah Juan.

Everyone around also stood up.

“As expected of Miss Lotus Sun’s idea! I second the motion!”

“I second that!”

“I second that too!”

And so, the matter of choosing a place was decided just like that!

It was approved by all votes!

”...”

But the girl kept feeling as if she had been played..

At this moment, the monk couldn’t help but laugh.

He thought to himself that Guo Ping was truly a shrewd person.

Actually, everyone present was a cultivator with profound cultivation and had a certain level of vision. How could they be so conflicted about the matter of choosing a place.

So all of this was really just a show.

Everyone could tell that after this incident was over,.

The young girl would probably become one of the core members here.

And getting Lotus Sun to express her opinion was also a way to let the young girl integrate into the environment as soon as possible.

Even if she was at the foundation establishment stage.

What was there to feel inferior about.

Behind you.

There was still Ling Zhenren!

Chapter 1302 The Ancient Metal Man With An Indomitable Will!

The discussion on the Earth's upgrade plan for December 1st came to an end amid the joyous laughter of the people from the battle sect.

"Seniors, fellow Daoists from the battle sect, please wait. I'll report this matter to the higher-ups as soon as possible. Please rest assured." In front of the Battle Sect's Mountain Gate, Guo Ping turned around and bowed to everyone.

"Thank you for your trouble, academician Guo." Grenade-throwing senior immortal returned the bow.

Then, everyone watched as Guo Ping turned into a streak of light and left in a small immortal boat.

The energy source for this small immortal boat was still Wang Ling's hair; it was energy-saving, emission-reducing, and super environmentally friendly.

After confirming the location, the monk, grenade-throwing senior immortal, and Miss Scroll's next plan was to set up a primer in this dead bone desert.

They had to think of a way to set up a device to guide the "Chaotic Tribulation Cannon" to the head of Hun Dun.

This device had been completed by the monk in 3908.

He had drawn up the blueprint in 3906.

Then he had spent another life trying to see if his idea was feasible.

In the end, the device was completed in 3909.

It was just that the layout was a little complicated.

Because the device was all in pieces, he needed people.

Grenade-throwing senior immortal and Miss Ah Juan could help him with this.

The remaining people, such as Fang Xing, Crispy Noodles Dao monarch, immortal zhenyuan, and a few juniors from God Domain.

Were divided into two groups.

One group was responsible for guarding the war sect.

The other group was responsible for alerting the area around the dead bone desert and marking out the boundary.

To ensure that on the day Earth leveled up.

No fish escaped the net and mistakenly entered the core area that was about to receive the direct impact of the Chaos Tribulation Cannon.

Before setting up the device, the monk gave a handle to odd zhuo. “Master, this is...”

“The external control device of the Buddha’s Golden Lotus.”

The monk smiled and said, “This penniless monk has seen you holding the Golden Lotus all this time, and you look quite tired.”

A few minutes later, the Heavenly Dao of death used the high sacrifice spell to burn the handle to Lotus Sun.

Lotus Sun had gained the ability to control the Golden Lotus Buddha.

It was very interesting, just like controlling a small aircraft.

Moreover, the handle had an invisibility mode, which could make the entire Golden Lotus Buddha disappear instantly in the air.

“Senior golden lamp is really a genius!” Lotus sun marveled at the monk’s power.

She quickly mastered the control skills of the handle and piloted the Buddha’s Golden Lotus to complete all kinds of difficult flying movements.

“This is so much fun!” This kind of fun wasn’t very common for Lotus Sun.

As the future successor of the group, Lotus Sun was usually followed by a group of bodyguards wherever she went.

Huaguo water curtain group would always leave matters like setting up a flying machine to someone else.

Lotus sun usually couldn’t touch the joystick.

After she was tired of playing, Lotus Sun steered the Golden Lotus Buddha and steadily stopped in front of Odd Zhuo. “Senior Odd Zhuo, Can I... Go Somewhere?”

“For safety’s sake, junior sister Lotus Sun, don’t run around on your own. If you want to go somewhere, senior and Senior Heavenly Dao of death will accompany you,” Odd Zhuo replied with a nod.

“I want to go back to the hospital to see grandfather,” Lotus Sun said.

Odd Zhuo nodded. “But Mr. Sun doesn’t know about master, so I hope that junior sister Lotus Sun will be a little careful when she sees Mr. Sun.”

“Don’t worry, senior Odd Zhuo,” Lotus Sun promised with a smile on her face.

..

At the first military hospital, the Poor Old Man Sun still hadn’t given up on his plan to organize an expert consultation to save his granddaughter.

When Odd Zhuo and the others rushed to the hospital to see grandfather Sun again.

Lotus Sun, who was following behind Odd Zhuo in the Golden Lotus Buddha, could clearly feel that her grandfather had become much older.

Even the hair on his temples had turned even paler..

Odd Zhuo also saw this scene and was very puzzled, so he asked Lotus Sun in a very low voice in his mental space, “Junior Sister Lotus Sun, I don’t know if I should ask you something.”

“Senior, please speak...”

“As far as I know, Mr. Sun’s hair should be a wig... why does it turn white as well...”

“Grandpa is wearing a bionic black-tech wig cover, which automatically adjusts hair color according to mood,” Lotus Sun answered truthfully.

Odd Zhuo came to a sudden realization.

It had to be said that grandfather Sun’s current condition was indeed a little pitiful.

He didn’t know that the young girl’s soul had already been sealed in the Buddha’s Golden Lotus.

“Mr. Sun...”in the ward, Odd Zhuo took a step forward and wanted to comfort grandfather Sun.

“There’s no need to comfort me. It’s been hard on you all these days.”

Grandfather Sun Sighed. “My granddaughter is also lucky to have a large group of friends like you care about her... Oh, right, why isn’t that Golden Lamp master here? I heard that master came to the hospital earlier and used magic power to seal my granddaughter’s physical body so that it wouldn’t be destroyed. I should thank him.”

“This is just a delaying tactic. Master is saying goodbye temporarily because he’s still looking for a way to save junior sister Lotus Sun.”

Odd Zhuo answered truthfully.

He looked at the Haggard old man in front of him.

He thought of another question he had always wanted to ask grandfather Sun in person.

He just didn’t know if it was appropriate to ask now.

So he was still hesitating.

“If director Zhuo has anything to say, just say it.”Sun Yiyuan seemed to have read Odd Zhuo’s mind.

At this point in time, he already regarded Odd Zhuo as one of his own.

“I want to ask Mr. Sun, who exactly was the fortune-teller who read Miss Sun’s fortune back then?”

“It’s not that I don’t want to say it, but I can’t remember it myself.”

Old Yue Zi himself also felt that this was very strange.

He frowned. “This person seems to have always been in my mind, but it doesn’t seem to be...”

Odd Zhuo frowned slightly.

As expected.

Everything was just as his master had described.

Earlier, his master had used his king’s eye to peep at the Fortune-teller’s appearance in Old Master Sun’s memory, but as a result, his vision had been completely dark.

It was obvious that someone had taken the first step to cover up that memory.

And the culprit was probably another hidden expert on earth.

And it was highly likely that his strength wouldn’t lose to Jin Deng’s.

For a moment, the scene fell into a brief silence..

Lotus Sun steered the Golden Lotus Buddha and steadily stopped behind grandfather Sun, her heart filled with mixed feelings.

At that moment, the familiar and heavy sound of chains came from the corridor again.

“The ancient golden men are here again?”

Odd Zhuo was greatly alarmed and immediately became extremely vigilant.

“Senior Heavenly Dao of death, what the hell is going on? Junior Sister Lotus Sun’s soul has been sealed in the Buddha’s Golden Lotus by master, so they shouldn’t be able to locate her soul anymore!” Odd Zhuo was puzzled.

Heavenly Dao of death quickly came to a conclusion. “It’s not for her soul!”

Odd Zhuo was puzzled. “What do you mean?”

Heavenly Dao of death frowned. “It’s for her body...”

Odd Zhuo was shocked. “Isn’t this Heavenly Dao supposed to have no desires? ! Why is it still coveting my junior sister Lotus Sun’s body? !”

Chapter 1303 How Fierce Is The Body Of Kaiguang

Sun Yiyuan wasn’t sure what had happened.

He couldn’t see the ancient golden man, nor could he see its hook.

He could only sense that Odd Zhuo and the young man in overalls next to him seemed unusually nervous.

“Mr. Sun, an unknown creature has come to steal Miss Sun’s body...”

Odd Zhuo didn’t mention the Heavenly Dao, but used the concept of “Unknown creature”to explain to Sun Yiyuan.

An unknown creature?

Sun Yiyuan was stupefied.

His granddaughter’s charm was indeed extraordinary..

It didn’t matter whether she was human or not these days, it was simply ridiculous that she would crave for a body.

“Director Zhuo, what should I do? !”He immediately went up to protect Lotus Sun’s body.

A true immortal's body was no match for an ancient golden man, so there was no point even if he rushed forward.

When the familiar hook entered through the door, the Heavenly Dao of death almost instinctively took out the book of death and clamped the hook.

However, it was beyond his expectations.

This time, the book of Death actually didn't work at all!

It didn't trigger the mechanism of death upon contact!

"What's Going On!" Odd Zhuo was extremely surprised.

"There's only one possibility..." the Heavenly Dao of death furrowed his brows.

The Book of death couldn't be ineffective for no reason. If it didn't work at all, it could only prove one thing.

That was that the ancient golden man outside the door might be of the same bloodline as him!

In other words, this might be his ancestor!

Although it was a defective product that had been abandoned by Daofather king, it was undoubtedly of the same origin as him!

The current Heavenly Dao Golden Man had been evolved from the little golden man that Daofather King had experienced countless failed versions of in the unspeakable land.

As for why he wanted to seize Lotus Sun's body.

The Heavenly Dao of death had probably thought of a possibility.

The ancient heavenly axiom had previously attempted to seduce Lotus Sun's soul with the sole purpose of using her identity as the child of the Void to break through the seal of the unspeakable land.

And now, Lotus Sun's soul had already been protected by the Buddha's Golden Lotus.

In the absence of a soul...

Snatching the body became a secondary option.

Using the body and spells to duplicate the soul.

Creating a new lotus sun..

This operation was obviously much more complicated.

But the other party was, after all, the ancient heavenly axiom, so it wouldn't be difficult to carry out such a plan.

"Reshaping... a new me?" Hearing the heavenly axiom of Death's guess, the girl in the Golden Lotus fell silent.

"After reshaping the soul, is there really such an operation?"

"Yes, there is, but this operation is very uncomfortable, isn't it?"

The heavenly axiom of death said, "This ancient gold man is a defective product. They may not be able to achieve a 100% restoration. That is to say, if they really created another Miss Sun's soul, there may be a big difference in personality between them and the original body! "And..."

"And what..."

"Once the new soul is created, the old one will directly disappear."

“How can that be!” Odd Zhuo cried out in alarm.

“Of course we can’t let this happen!” Heavenly Dao of death said.

If Lotus Sun’s physical body was taken away in broad daylight..

As the Main Heavenly Dao emissary, he would probably be done for!

At that time, it wouldn’t be as simple as being held by Jingke’s neck and being interrogated!

Lotus sun was very anxious. “Senior! What should we do now?”

The Heavenly Dao of death said, “Don’t Panic! This physical body has been opened by a master before! Their hook might be able to reach in, but it might not be useful!”

As he spoke, he tried his best to block the hook’s attack.

This time, the ancient golden men had clearly come prepared. Not only had they invited their “Ancestors” from the same origin as him, but there seemed to be quite a number of them as well!

The golden hooks passed through the door walls of the special care ward. Since the death letter didn’t work, Death Heavenly Dao had no choice but to engage in hand-to-hand combat!

An Euler and a chain sent these hooks back flat!

Odd Zhuo tried to summon the “Advance” to fight.

Since the end of the last big battle with the foundation.

Wang Ling had already given this “Advance” to Odd Zhuo as his personal sword.

The “Advance” was still being maintained in Fatty Luo’s hardware store.

But after all, he had signed a new contract with Odd Zhuo, so if he wanted to use it, he could just use the “Sword!” One time!

However, an unexpected situation happened again at this moment.

Odd Zhuo repeatedly stretched out his hand.

Sometimes he raised his hand above his head, and sometimes he spread his arms to the left and right like a ROC spreading its wings..

He thought that the posture he was summoning wasn’t right, so he changed all kinds of “Sword” positions.

In the end, there wasn’t the slightest movement.

“Senior Heavenly Dao of death, why can’t I Summon My Sword? is my posture wrong? !” Odd Zhuo asked in the spirit space.

“Clearly not! This batch of ancient golden men came prepared! I’m afraid some sort of barrier has already been set up in the hospital to block your summoning signal!” Heavenly Dao of Death’s temples were dripping with sweat.

This wave of ancient golden men was coming menacingly, and he felt that he couldn’t hold on any longer!

Although Sun Yiyuan didn’t know what exactly Odd Zhuo and that young man in overalls were doing,.

In his eyes, the two of them were fighting with the air..

It looked a little silly.

But he knew very well that something big had definitely happened!

Although he couldn't see the ancient gold man's existence,.

As a true immortal, he could still smell that dangerous smell!

Golden Jade heaven-shaking staff!

Grandpa Sun took out his ancestral magic artifact.

However, he soon found something strange.

For some reason, he felt that something was wrong with his golden jade heaven-shaking staff..

It felt as if he had lost his spiritual energy.

"I didn't expect them to use such a method..."the Heavenly Dao of death was amazed.

This was a typical hibernation state of artifact spirits!

The enchantment set up by the ancient gold statues could not only effectively block the summoning signal of the magic artifact, but also make all the artifact spirits in the area of the enchantment fall into a deep sleep!

This was also the legendary "Artifact spirit hibernation"!

In this state, the magic artifact would lose the support of the Artifact Spirit's power, greatly reducing its power! It would also enter a "Fragile"state!

If the artifact spirit was in hibernation, forcibly using the magic artifact would very likely cause the entire magic artifact to be destroyed!

"What should we do..."the Heavenly Dao of death felt that the situation was already getting more and more dangerous.

Not only was Odd Zhuo unable to summon his sword, but his magic artifact was also in a state of complete failure. It would be very difficult for him to break out!

He was already unable to divert his attention just by holding on to the hooks of more than a dozen ancient golden men!

Although Odd Zhuo could see these golden men, it was clear that their combat strength was insufficient!

Even if he activated thirty-three small paths of vital qi, it was still not enough!

“Senior! Shifu has already noticed the situation here! But we can’t do anything yet; we have to think of a way to lure these golden men out!” Odd Zhuo said at this moment.

He had heard Wang Ling’s voice transmission.

This hospital wasn’t like God realm’s spirit sea; it was a densely populated area, and there were also many doctors and patients in the hospital.

If they directly attacked here, the whole building would probably collapse directly..

So they had to think of a way to break out first!

“What do we do, Senior!” Odd Zhuo was also anxious.

If this went on, they would soon be taken down!

An ancient golden figure had already poked its head out of the wall, intending to directly rob it.

It was at this moment that the girl inside the Golden Lotus made a shocking decision.

Lotus sun: “Senior Heavenly Dao of Death! You can use my body to kill your way out!”

Heavenly Dao of death: “This...”

Lotus sun: “It’s fine! It’s better than letting them take it away!”

With the current crisis, they couldn’t care less.

The girl’s suggestion was indeed an idea.

Odd Zhuo strode forward and opened the hatch of the medical pod.

Sun Yiyuan was already stunned. “Director Zhuo, what are you...”

“The situation is critical, I’ll explain it to Mr. Sun later!”

” ...”

“Sorry, Junior Sister Lotus Sun!”

Odd Zhuo cast a “Steel transformation spell” on Lotus Sun’s body, causing her soft body to stiffen!

Ha!

Immediately after, he grabbed the girl’s feet and slashed at the ancient golden figure in front of him, who was about to break through the ward wall and snatch her body!

After being strengthened by the monk’s light-opening spell, the power of the girl’s body was astonishing.

Lotus Sun’s body and part of her head collided with the ancient Golden Figure’s Head!

Boom!

The ancient golden figure, which was about to break through, was smashed into pieces like a watermelon on the spot.

“Junior Sister Lotus Sun! You’re too strong!” Odd Zhuo was stunned.

“It’s... It’s good that you can be of use...”

Inside the Golden Lotus, Lotus Sun looked at the unusual sand sculpture in front of her with mixed feelings.

Buzz..

At that moment, powerful spirit energy flowed through the girl’s body from head to toe!

The Buddha’s golden light that had been blessed by the light-opening spell on the girl’s body shone through the blue and white striped hospital gown..

For a moment, it actually made those ancient golden men stop and fall into a daze.

They had never thought that there would be such a thing.

“Good Chance!” Heavenly Dao of death roared at this moment.

He took the girl’s body from Odd Zhuo and used her leg as the hilt of his sword with one hand, officially starting his counter-attack..

In the end, he successfully killed his way out of the hospital!

Outside the hospital, the ancient golden men continued to chase after the girl’s body, like a group of out-of-control zombies that kept pouring out of the hospital.

Odd Zhuo was amazed at the number of these gold men.

There were actually over a hundred of them..

It was indeed a premeditated action!

“Master, you can clear the area now!” Odd Zhuo shouted at this moment.

Outside the hospital, Wang Ling had been waiting for a long time.

When he saw these crazy ancient gold men come out of the hospital together, he directly aimed his king’s eye at the sky!

In an instant!

Dark clouds covered the sky!

A huge dragon-like pillar instantly descended and exploded on the spot! It swept in all directions!

It cleared out the hundreds of crazy ancient gold statues with a single click!

Chapter 1304 Collective Amnesia?

Sunday, November 29th.

Songhai city’s first military hospital.

On that day, everyone felt as if they had intermittent amnesia..

The lightning of the god of Heavenly Punishment Lightning summoned by Wang Tong also contained the effect of the “50% Great Amnesia Spell.”.

And it was because of this that.

Those who had witnessed the scene of Heavenly Dao of death and Odd Zhuo killing their way out of the hospital with the girl’s body in his hand.

All of them had lost this part of their memories.

Of course, the Lightning didn't necessarily reach all of them.

There were always people in blind spots where the lightning couldn't reach them.

Under such circumstances, Odd Zhuo and Heavenly Dao of death had no choice but to split up again.

They cast a "Physical amnesia spell" on those whose memories hadn't been erased.

Odd Zhuo and Heavenly Dao of death reacted quickly.

The last person to be cast a "Physical amnesia spell" was grandfather sun..

When grandfather Sun opened his eyes in a daze, the expression on his face was clearly a little panicked.

"Sneak Attack! Someone sneak attacked me!"

Grandfather Sun cried out in alarm, but everything in front of him was as calm as usual.

Lotus Sun's body was still lying quietly in the medical pod.

And he was still holding his granddaughter's hand tightly, feeling the warmth coming from it.

"Mr. Sun, don't panic. Everything is normal," odd zhuo consoled as he stood on the side.

He looked at the red mark on the back of Sun Yiyuan's neck and tried his best to remain calm..

"Senior, didn't you hit him a little too hard..."

Odd Zhuo asked in the spiritual space.

Death Heavenly Dao: “There’s nothing I can do. Mr. Sun was the last one to be sentenced. It was a little too long ago, so we can’t guarantee the effects of the physical amnesia spell. So to be on the safe side, we had to hit him harder.”

Odd Zhuo and Lotus Sun:”...”

“What the Hell Happened to me just now?”Old Man Sun still felt that his memories were a little disconnected.

And the key thing was that his head hurt!

It was as if he had suffered a million-ton blow..

“It’s nothing. Mr. Sun was holding junior sister Lotus Sun’s hand the whole time, and then he seemed to have fallen asleep because he was too tired and sad recently,”Odd Zhuo said in all seriousness.

“So I fell asleep...”

Grandpa Sun smiled wryly. “I’m sorry for making a fool of myself.”

“What are you talking about, grandfather Sun?”

Odd Zhuo said, “Excuse me, is there anything uncomfortable?”

Grandfather Sun shook his head. “It’s not particularly uncomfortable, but I seemed to have a very strange dream when I was taking a nap...”

Odd Zhuo: “Strange Dream?”

Grandfather sun: “I dreamed that my neck seemed to have been crushed by an earth-moving truck.”

Lotus Sun, Odd Zhuo and Death Heavens:”...”

After the ancient golden men had attacked Lotus Sun’s body...

Odd Zhuo quickly got in touch with Zhan Zong and discussed with grandfather Sun about starting to move her body.

As long as it was beneficial for protecting his granddaughter, grandfather sun naturally wouldn’t refuse.

What’s more, Huaguo Water Curtain Group and Zhan Zong were already strategic partners!

With crispy noodles dao monarch standing guard on Battle Sect’s side, Lotus Sun’s physical body would definitely be very safe there.

In addition, Miss Bai Qiao was there.

Under such heavy protection, it would be impossible for the ancient golden men to take down battle sect.

Furthermore, the number of ancient golden men who had fled from unspeakable places was very limited.

More than a hundred of them had already been wiped out by Wang Ling with a single click.

It was impossible for them to gather so many people in a short time.

Of course, regarding the disturbance over the body snatching in the hospital just now..

Wang Ling had a nagging feeling that something wasn’t right.

“Ling Zhenren, what are you thinking?”The Heavenly Dao of survival leisurely drew the death substitution talisman.

Even though Lotus Sun's soul was already protected by the Golden Lotus,.

He still didn't stop what he was doing.

There was always a chance.

What if the Golden Lotus was accidentally destroyed?

Then this death substitution talisman would actually be a safety net.

It was just that there was no need to be in such a hurry to draw it now.

At that moment, Wang Ling was indeed thinking about the ancient golden figures.

That had suddenly appeared.

Like the zombies in the movie "Busan Walk" that had frantically appeared.

He felt that this operation was probably not as simple as it looked.

"Do you suspect that someone is behind this..."

Loopy toad asked as it delivered talisman paper to the Heavenly Dao of survival.

It didn't have the ability to read Wang Ling's mind.

But it had lived with Wang Ling for so long.

Loopy toad could now guess this man's thoughts just by tacit understanding.

Seeing that Wang Ling didn't deny it, the Heavenly Dao of survival was quite surprised. "Brother Dog, you're amazing, you can even Guess This!"

“No, no...”loopy toad was very modest.

In fact, when the Heavenly Dao of survival said this, it was actually very sad in its heart!

It wasn't easy to be a heavenly dao these days either!

It wasn't even as F * * King Good as a dog..

As loopy toad had said, Wang Ling indeed had someone he suspected.

But he didn't have any direct evidence.

Even if he wanted to interrogate them, he had to have a good reason to make them speechless before attacking them.

Wang Ling had two people he suspected at the moment.

The first was the master of the Void.

The Master of the Void had always wanted Lotus Sun to return to the void as a citizen of the void.

He had also arrogantly left a prophecy earlier.

It was said that no matter what the end result was, Lotus Sun would always go to the void world..

Thus, the Master of the Void had the motive to steal Lotus Sun's body.

Moreover, with the master of the Void's ability, although he couldn't completely break the seal on the unspeakable land, it shouldn't be difficult for him to tear open a small opening..

He could perfectly make use of the ancient golden men that had fled and continue to find the “Child of the Void”for himself.

And the second person that Wang Ling suspected was...

Was the fortune teller who had predicted Lotus Sun's "Yin-yang death tribulation" in the beginning.

But this person's identity was a mystery.

Even Wang Ling hadn't come to a definite conclusion yet.

He even suspected that...

This person might be Dao Ancestor Wang.

..

At that moment, in the void world.

The slumbering lord of the Void sneezed fiercely.

"Someone must be talking about the great lord behind his back again... by the way, has the great lord really torn open the seal of the unspeakable land..." The Hollow Spirit's inquiring voice came from the side.

The Void Lord fell silent for a long time in response to this question.

He was caught in a dilemma.

If the answer was no...

It seemed that this would affect his prestige to a certain extent.

After all...

The great void Lord should be omnipotent.

But if the answer was..

His life might be in danger.

Most importantly, he didn't have the ability to break the seal on the unspeakable land in the first place..

The void master himself was trembling in fear at Wang Ling's "Throwing a bucket of shit".

So after some consideration...

In the end, the Void Master chose to live.

"Of course... This king didn't do it..."

Some of the void spirits couldn't help feeling a little disappointed when they heard this.

Some of them were intrigued. "Then who exactly broke the seal..."

"It was an accident... an accident that no one expected..."

The Void Master's faint reply came from the void world.

Chapter 1305 The Plan To Transfer Lotus Sun's Body

With grandfather Sun's permission, the plan to transfer Lotus Sun's body was carried out by Odd Zhuo and the Heavenly Dao of death.

The whole plan was divided into two parts.

First: create a fake body to hide in the medical bay.

Second: transfer the girl's real naked body to the war sect and let crispy noodles dao monarch and immortal zhenyuan watch her 24 hours a day.

In the intensive care unit, all surveillance equipment was turned off during the transfer of the body.

Odd Zhuo and Heavenly Dao of death waited for a while, and then a huge cardboard box was accurately sent here with a golden light falling from the sky.

“Senior Odd Zhuo, what's this Golden Light?”The girl didn't understand.

“This is Lord Ma. It used to be the toilet in master's bedroom, but Master called and turned it into a spirit. He's very strong. He's a courier for the Wang family's small villa.”

“Student Wang Ling is really amazing...”lotus sun suddenly understood.

Ever since she had gotten to know Wang Ling better,.

She had thought that no matter what she saw or heard now, she wouldn't be too surprised.

It wasn't until the cardboard box in front of her was opened that the young girl decided to take back what she had said..

Inside the cardboard box was a fake body that had been custom-made to her scale.

It was said to be fake, but in fact, it didn't look fake at all.

The craftsmanship of this fake body could be said to be heaven-defying.

It was as if its facial expression and expression were real, and even its eyelashes and pores were perfectly restored.

“Boss Luo's craftsmanship is really getting better and better.”Odd Zhuo marveled at Fatty Luo's methods.

“Who’s boss Luo?”

“He’s the owner of a magic tool shop called Fatty Luo hardware. I can take junior sister Lotus Sun to see it later.”

Odd Zhuo said, “This simulated body is a project that boss Luo has been researching recently.”

Yes, Fatty Luo had actually been researching projects related to simulated bodies.

In the beginning, this research project was all about jingke.

As a fanatic fan of jingke, Fatty Luo first started with his limbs to produce Jingke’s robotic arms... at night, he would use them to sleep on his head. It was said that they also had the effect of preventing falling pillows and relaxing the muscles and blood circulation.

En..

At first glance, this research from the upper region sounded a little perverted and perverted.

But who would have thought that Fatty Luo’s research would ultimately come in handy.

Now that Fatty Luo’s simulation skills were constantly improving, replicating an entire human body was no longer a problem for him.

“This skill is indeed very high...”

Inside the Buddha’s Golden Lotus, Lotus Sun looked at this simulated body and really felt like she was looking in a mirror.

“I heard boss Luo say that this body was made according to junior sister Lotus Sun’s body’s proportions. All the details were restored one-to-one, and it was no different from a real body, including the hair on every part of the body and so on.”

“The... hair on the whole body?” When Lotus Sun heard this, she felt goosebumps all over her body.

“Don’t misunderstand, junior sister Lotus Sun. Boss Luo’s artificial body manufacturing technology can already achieve AI intelligent production. There’s no manual process throughout, which fully protects the privacy of the customers.”

Odd Zhuo said, “Of course, if it had been two months ago, that might not have been the case... I remember two months ago, if you wanted to restore the hair details, boss Luo inserted the hair on the artificial body one by one.”

“So... so perverted...”

Hearing this, the corners of the mouths of the sun grandparents and grandchildren couldn’t help twitching.

“But as I said, this method is indeed very high. It’s almost as if the fake is the real thing,” Heavenly Dao of death said at this moment.

It wasn’t easy to get praise from Heavenly Dao.

Although Fatty Luo’s fake body production technique had grown up under the accumulation of countless “Perverse acts,” it was still recognized by most of the people present because of its unparalleled production level.

Even Heavenly Dao of death praised him, so it was easy to imagine just how excellent this fake body was.

He swapped the fake body in the hospital gown with the real one.

The first thing was already done.

Heavenly Dao of Death saw Odd Zhuo holding a remote control in his hand and asked curiously, “What’s this remote control?”

“Don’t girls like to Be Pretty? Boss Luo specially customized a few sets of clothes for junior sister Lotus Sun’s fake body.”

In addition to the hospital gown, Fatty Luo had designed a total of two other sets of clothes for cross-dressing.

“Clothes? What kind of clothes?” Lotus Sun asked.

“The blue and white striped hospital gown that Lotus Sun’s fake body is wearing is made of a special material. In fact, it can be quickly reassembled according to requirements. You can easily complete the cross-dressing by pressing the remote control.”

Odd Zhuo smiled. “But this design knowledge boss Luo gave me is actually not useful at all.”

“Then can we see what kind of clothes they are?” Lotus Sun was very curious.

“Of course we can, but does junior sister Lotus Sun really want to see them...” Odd Zhuo asked.

Lotus Sun instantly had a bad feeling.

“You can’t design clothes that are very revealing, right...”

“Not really. There’s one revealing and one not revealing. Which one does junior Lotus Sun want to see?”

“Then... then it’s better not to reveal...”

Lotus Sun felt a little embarrassed in front of so many people.

“Are you sure?” Odd Zhuo asked with a smile on his face.

“Yes... I’m sure...”

“Okay.” Odd Zhuo nodded.

The clothes that were more “Revealing” were size 2, while Fatty Luo’s design was a swimsuit.

As for “Not revealing”, it was number 3.

Odd Zhuo quickly switched to number 3!

Buzz!

As the girl’s body glowed with multicolored light, the hospital gown quickly began to change..

When she saw number 3.

The girl’s face turned completely red and burned to her ears.

She understood the logic!

But why..

Number three was wearing a wedding dress! ! !

She felt as if she had been tricked by Odd Zhuo!

..

..

In the war sect’s true venerate hall, Immortal Zhenyuan and crispy noodles dao monarch were waiting to welcome Lotus Sun’s real body.

While waiting, the two had a brief conversation.

“I didn’t expect this ancient golden man to be so rampant,” immortal Zhenyuan said.

“They’re just grasshoppers after autumn. They won’t be jumping around for long.” Crispy Noodles Dao monarch smiled.

“But I still don’t understand one thing.” Immortal Zhenyuan said in puzzlement, “Since these ancient goldmen need to borrow the power of the children of the Void to completely break through the seal of the unspeakable place, why are they only looking at Miss Sun? “I remember that there should be two children of the Void.”

Crispy Noodles Dao monarch cupped his chin, after some careful thought, he said, “Miss Lotus Sun already has an aura of the void emanating from her body, which is the same as those void spirits. The ancient goldmen are relatively easier to distinguish. “But the second child of the void, although Little Lord Ling has already locked onto the area, is still well hidden.”

“Is it deliberately hidden?”

“I think it’s intentional. There might be an unspeakable conspiracy behind this.”

Crispy noodles dao monarch said, “But I think we’ll have an answer very soon. The three people from the celestial domain have already gone to capture him.”

Chapter 1306 Status-1

On the other side, Gu Shunzhi, Wang Zhen, and Liu Qingyi were sent on a mission to capture the second child of the Void.

Since their identities could not be confirmed, the three of them decided to capture all the suspected objects and observe them.

Once these suspected objects began to emit the smell of void creatures,.

Then the identity of the child of the void would be completely confirmed.

According to the results of the book of Sage Immortal’s deduction,.

In the end, the suspects were Jiang Xiaoche and Yi Zhiyang.

One was grandfather Sun's personal secretary.

The other was sword Saint Yi Jianchuan's foster son.

Since it wasn't clear which of the two was the child of the Void, grenade-throwing senior immortal's suggestion was to catch them both.

And the kind that wouldn't give them away.

Because no matter which one of them disappeared, it might cause unnecessary trouble.

"Lord Ma has already been docked, and the fake bodies of Yi Zhiyang and Jiang Xiaoche are ready. Once we kidnap them, we'll just replace them with fake bodies." Gu Shunzhi told Wang Zhen and Liu Qingyi about the next part of the plan.

"I've seen the fake bodies, but these two are alive. What's the use of just changing bodies?" Wang Zhen asked.

"These two fake bodies are more advanced and can be manipulated. There are special actors behind the scenes, and it's said that they are specially selected actors from the war sect."

Gu Shunzhi said, "Do you know those virtual streamers who change their faces with two-dimensional AI on the Internet?"

"OH ~ ~ you mean that!"

Wang Zhen and Liu Qingyi came to a sudden realization.

They had all seen similar live broadcasts before, and even live broadcasts of accidents.

This was a technology that could completely change a real person into a two-dimensional virtual live streamer.

It could find someone to draw out the person they wanted.

Then, they only needed the real person to perform at the back.

During the live broadcast process, all the sounds and expressions would be captured by the AI and then fed back to the virtual live streamer that had been set up.

However, when this technology was first developed, there would often be “Rollover” accidents.

For example, if you were watching a two-dimensional virtual cute girl dancing in the live broadcast room with great interest.

Suddenly, the live broadcast room paused.

The real behind-the-scenes host who was hiding under this virtual software would be revealed in an instant.

It could be a middle-aged woman.

It could also be a fat otaku with acne all over his face and a big belly..

“I didn’t expect Fatty Luo to actually incorporate this kind of technology into his own body simulation technology... What a pity he’s a pervert!” After listening to Gu Shunzhi’s introduction, Wang Zhen’s face was full of surprise.

Gu Shunzhi nodded in response. “Boss Luo is indeed a rare talent, but what a pity he’s a pervert!”

“Unfortunately, he’s a pervert. has this phrase become a suffix to describe boss Luo?”

Hearing the conversation between the two men, Liu Qingyi took the initiative to speak up for Fatty Luo. “Boss Luo, what a good man! He’s quick-witted and quick-witted. How can you say that about him! Unfortunately, he’s a pervert!”

Wang Zhen and Gu Shunzhi:”...”

..

The first person to be kidnapped was Yi Zhiyang.

It was relatively easy to tie up Yi Zhiyang.

That was because ever since the nine dragon mountain physical skill competition, Yi Zhiyang had remained in a state of autism, unable to snap out of it.

He was still lying in the hospital, and apart from receiving IV fluids and receiving regular counseling from a psychologist, he had nothing else to do every day.

Therefore, the battle grandmaster who was in charge of docking was also easy to act out.

Acting with facial paralysis was the least challenging.

Gu Shunzhi and the other two quickly cut through the mess and tied Yi Zhiyang up.

Then, they cooperated with Lord Ma and placed the simulated Yi Zhiyang on the hospital bed.

And the remaining one was also the most troublesome one..

Because unlike Yi Zhiyang’s situation, Jiang Xiaoche was, after all, a person who could move, and he was very vigilant.

There were also men in black accompanying him at all times.

Therefore, they had to find the time when Jiang Xiaoche was alone.

Gu Shunzhi, Wang Zhen, and Liu Qingyi disguised themselves as employees of Huaguo Water Curtain Group.

They wore employee uniforms and waited for an entire afternoon before they found a chance for Jiang Xiaoche to go to the bathroom alone.

“The time has come. I’ll leave this matter to you,”gu Shunzhi said to Wang Zhen.

“Why me...”

“I’m thinking about you.”

Gu Shunzhi earnestly said, “In the end, we’re all working for Ling Zhenren. You have to show more of yourself in order to win Ling Zhenren’s favor, understand?”

“That’s right!”

Liu Qingyi smiled evilly. “Senior GU was the commander of this operation, and that place is the men’s room. You Can’t possibly expect me to go alone, can you? !”

Calling her “Senior gu”made Gu Shunzhi feel extremely complicated..

After Liu Qingyi said this, Wang Zhen rolled his eyes.

What the hell was going on with you breaking and entering the room when your father usually went to the bathroom? !

Now he thought of himself as a girl..

But in the end, Wang Zhen gritted his teeth. “I’ll Go!”

Of the three people from God domain, Wang Zhen felt that his status was indeed the lowest.

Wang Zhen had even given his online ID the following name: Humble Wang Zhen, living on Earth.

These three short words fully expressed Wang Zhen's current state of life.

He felt that what Gu Shunzhi said actually made a lot of sense.

As the saying went, "Long live bitter cultivation!" It was better to hug Wang Ling's thigh tightly..

If he put in more effort to curry favor with Ling Zhenren, his status might really get lower and lower!

..

Outside the men's room were a few bodyguards in black.

Wang Zhen couldn't directly break through the front door, so he could only think of a way to find a hidden position and flash past the wall.

Wang Zhen knew a lot of heavenly dao spells, but most of them were learned by Wang Zhen through quick cultivation.

So most of them were second-hand.

For example, he wasn't very stable with this "Big Flash".

Wang Zhen just hoped that he wouldn't appear in any strange position..

Inside the toilet, Jiang Xiaoche was facing the urinal.

He had just unzipped his pants, and before he could take it out, a hand reached out from the urinal and grabbed his hand. "Brother... calm down! Don't Pee!"

Wang Zhen sighed.

Sure enough, he still flashed to a strange position..

That's right, he flashed into the urinal.

What was worse was that Jiang Xiaoche was about to pull out his own faucet and point it at him.

Wang Zhen made a prompt decision and reached out to stop Jiang Xiaoche's action.

Oh My God!

Jiang Xiaoche was frightened on the spot, and all parts of his body went soft from fear

A person had suddenly jumped out of the urinal, and the degree of fear was no different from a chastity child climbing out of a television.

But he didn't have time to cry out.

Bang!

Wang Zhen hit Jiang Xiaoche with his hand knife and knocked him unconscious.

Although it hadn't been a good start, it had been a close shave.

Wang Zhen wiped the sweat off his forehead.

He was about to wait for Lord Ma to teleport.

But then he suddenly saw a silver vortex start to gather in front of his eyes..

"This is?" Wang Zhen was puzzled.

Lord Ma's teleportation had always been a golden beam of light. When had he modified the teleportation special effect? !

He was just in the middle of his surprise.

A fat man slammed heavily onto the bathroom tile.

This Fat Man was foaming at the mouth. It seemed that the "Speed" of the teleportation was too fast, causing him to get carsick.

"Bro?" Wang Zhen walked over in bewilderment.

Then, he saw the person's trademark chubby face.

"F * * K... Isn't that Zhao Qingxian from the Zhao family? !"

Wang Zhen recognized the person at a glance!

Why wasn't this guy staying in God's domain? What was he doing on earth..

..

A few minutes later, the bodyguard at the door heard a strange sound coming from the toilet and hurriedly broke in.

Wang Zhen had already completed his mission and walked out from the side as if nothing had happened.

The switch had been completed.

The person in the toilet was the fake Jiang Xiaoche. His real body had already been knocked out and Lord Ma had sent him to meet the battle sect.

“What’s going on? Why are you making such a big commotion by kidnapping someone? Can you do it?”Liu Qingyi was shocked by the scene in front of her, and her face was full of confusion. She didn’t know what had happened in the toilet just now.

“I saw Zhao Qingxian!”Wang Zhen said in a low voice.

“Zhao Qingxian? It’s the one from the Zhao family...”

Liu Qingyi was shocked. “What is he doing on Earth!”

She recalled the terrifying scene when she was chased by this young master of the Zhao family back in the divine realm.

Wang Zhen looked at Liu Qingyi’s panicked expression and smiled. “Could he be here to look for you?”

“Look... Look for me for what? ! It’s impossible for me to like her! Even if I do... I definitely can’t like him!”

“Like who?”

” ...”

Liu Qingyi was silent for a moment, then her face turned red. She quickly changed the topic. “Then, how is he now?”

“I beat him up. I think we should just ignore him.”

“You actually beat him up...”Liu Qingyi instantly laughed.

It turned out that those strange sounds in the bathroom were Wang Zhen’s hitting voice!

“Who else can I hit if not Him?”Wang Zhen chuckled.

Even if it wasn't for Liu Qingyi, he had to do it for himself!

Among the people from God Domain, his status was the lowest to begin with.

If there was another Zhao Qingxian who liked to flatter ling zhenren, he would flatter ling zhenren in all sorts of ways

Wouldn't his status go down another notch?

HMPH!

He absolutely couldn't let this happen!

Chapter 1307 Little Wang Ling

Splash!

A basin of cold water splashed on Zhao Qingxian's body.

He woke up from his coma and felt an incomparable pain in his skull.

The cold water seeped into his wound, causing Zhao Qingxian to Grimace in pain as he cried out in alarm.

Zhao Qingxian snapped out of his daze and realized that he was handcuffed.

The two police officers in charge of interrogating him were facing him.

The situation didn't seem right..

He remembered that he had lost consciousness during the process of teleportation after he was connected to the teleportation array in the divine realm... this might be the "Carsick" phenomenon caused by the teleportation speed being too fast.

But the problem was, how did he get all these injuries

And why did he appear in this police station?

Zhao Qingxian could not understand these things at all.

“This is earth, right...” Zhao Qingxian stared at the two police officers in front of him and asked with a serious expression.

The police officer was stunned, one of the police officers stared at Zhao Qingxian speechlessly. “Although you were beaten up like an alien, it’s useless to pretend to be an alien here, understand? “Right now, we are establishing diplomatic relations with Planet Shendao, and all aliens have information files. “So, tell us the truth about your crime, or else you will suffer.”

“The truth about your crime...”

The corner of Zhao Qingxian’s mouth twitched, and he wanted to cry, but no tears came out.

He had just arrived on Earth, so how did he become a criminal suspect..

“You’ve made a big mistake! ! !”

The police officer looked at Zhao Qingxian very seriously. “Do you know, you beat yourself up like an alien and then hide in the toilet to scare people. It’s very shameful! Very, very shameful!”

“What?” Zhao Qingxian was confused.

“The secretary general of Huaguo Water Curtain Group, Jiang Xiaoche, was scared to the point that he was unconscious! The situation is much more serious than you think!”

Zhao Qingxian didn’t know whether to laugh or cry. “Officer... I understand the logic! But who do you think would be so bored that they beat themselves up like pigs to scare others...”

“That’s hard to say. Maybe there really is such a boring person.”

The police officer chuckled. “We have already tested the scene and there are no traces of a third person, so we made such a conclusion. and... We have reason to doubt your orientation!”

Zhao Qingxian:”? ? ?”

The police officer: “According to the statement provided by the security personnel at the scene, when they found you, Your Hand had already reached into secretary Jiang’s crotch!”

Zhao Qingxian:”? ? ?”

“So we based the facts on the basic reconstruction of the scene.”

The police officer twirled the pen in his hand and told him his reasoning.

“First, you coveted secretary Jiang for a long time, so you beat yourself up like a pig and hid in the toilet to scare secretary Jiang. You tried to scare secretary Jiang until he fainted, then you tried to plot against him.”

”...”

“Second, because Secretary Jiang was scared, he accidentally bumped into your head, causing you to fall to the ground at the same time. Then, the security guards at the scene rushed into the toilet and happened to see your hand...”

With that, the police officer was filled with righteous indignation and slammed the table heavily.

He thought of the incident in room n not long ago, and the anger on his face was even more obvious!

These people who could not control their own desires should get lost and be severely punished by the heavenly axiom!

At the same time, he also felt sorry for Secretary Jiang, who had yet to recover from his shock.

When going out, no matter if it was a girl or a boy, they had to protect themselves!

How could this secretary-general go crazy just because he said so..

..

In the true venerable hall of the fighting sect, as the second kidnapped Jiang Xiaoche was teleported here by Lord Ma, the whole swap plan was successfully carried out.

When Jiang Xiaoche was sent here, he was in a coma. In a very strange posture, he was sent here with his buttocks sticking out.

“They do things very neatly.”Crispy Noodles Dao monarch smiled slightly and took the initiative to step forward and flip Jiang Xiaoche over.

Then, he found that Jiang Xiaoche’s zipper was wide open, and there was an unknown liquid oozing out..

This scene forced crispy noodles dao monarch to quickly withdraw his hand and wasn’t going to touch Jiang Xiaoche again.

As Wang Ling’s “Real clone,”crispy noodles dao monarch also had his own distinct personality traits.

For example: Mysophobia.

In the case of eating crispy noodles, Wang Ling didn’t mind grabbing the crumbs in the bag with his bare hands, which caused his fingers to be covered in seasoning powder.

Crispy Noodles Dao monarch, on the other hand, was different. He had to wear gloves or use a spell to guide the crumbs into his mouth..

If he directly grabbed them, he wouldn’t be able to accept it psychologically at all.

“Let me do it.” Immortal Zhenyuan saw this and took the initiative to step forward to help crispy noodles dao monarch out of his predicament.

He couldn’t help but laugh when he saw crispy noodles dao monarch condensing the water in the air to wash his hands. “Senior crispy noodles dao monarch’s mysophobia is a bit strong. Is it really that exaggerated?”

Crispy Noodles Dao monarch shook his head. “I feel like I’m not clean after touching him!”

” ... ”

..

At the same time, in Room 328 of the battle sect’s underground retreat cellar. Odd Zhuo, Heavenly Dao of death and Lotus Sun were here under the protection of the battle sect.

The battle sect’s underground retreat cellar was designed for all disciples who needed to go into seclusion. There were a total of 3,000 secret rooms.

In a while, Jiang Xiaoche and Yi Zhiyang would also be sent to separate secret rooms here for protection.

These two people were like ticking time bombs.

One of them could awaken as a child of the void at any time, so the task of monitoring these two people was indeed a long and arduous one.

But with crispy noodles dao monarch and immortal zhenyuan, the two war sect generals, guarding this place, they believed that even if they ran into trouble, they would be able to solve it easily.

In Secret Room 328, Lotus Sun looked at the feedback coming from Zhenzhen Palace Hall and was slightly startled. “Senior Odd Zhuo, I didn’t think that big brother Jiang might be a child of the Void...”

Odd Zhuo: “Are you surprised?”

“No.”

Lotus Sun shook her head. “Actually, I’m even more surprised that there’s someone in the hall who looks so much like student Wang Ling.”

“Are you talking about crispy noodles dao monarch?”

“Is this senior called Crispy Noodles Dao monarch?”

The girl was stunned. “I told you it wasn’t student Wang Ling... Student Wang Ling never talks so much in one chapter in a row!”

Odd Zhuo smiled. “That was Shifu’s real clone to begin with, and it was split from his original body. You can think of it as Shifu’s ‘son,’ which is little Wang Ling? So of course it’s like him!”

Little Wang Ling..

The girl seemed to have thought of something, and her face turned red.

“Then what exactly is a real clone?” Lotus Sun asked.

“When an ordinary clone receives a heavy blow, it usually immediately dissipates and doesn’t possess intelligence. Instead, it acts according to the original body’s instructions. “But a real clone is different. Not only does it have a long-lasting combat ability, but it also has a self-awareness,” odd zhuo replied briefly.

“Thank you, senior, I roughly understand.”

Lotus sun nodded. She looked at crispy noodles dao monarch on the screen and was a little absent-minded.

This was a very wonderful feeling

Chapter 1308 The One Who Came To The Forsaken Land Of The Gods

The forsaken land of the gods had gone through countless bargaining.

Now, only the Wu family head, the Li family head, and the Sheng family head were left.

“A cultivation level of 300 lifetimes...”the Wu family head wanted to cry but had no tears.

He did not know if it was because the pillar spirit did not like him.

The price of his resurrection had already been raised to 300 lifetimes..

The Wu Family Head’s heart was on the verge of collapse. The price of 300 lifetimes was no different from directly choosing to reincarnate.

However, the Wu family head did not dare to ask or say anything because with the divine pillar spirit’s temper, he would probably be punished for another 30 years if he asked.

“I think I should just die.”The Wu family head gave up resisting. He sat cross-legged on the ground, filled with regret.

If he had known this would happen, he would have accepted the punishment of the first 100 lifetimes earlier. Otherwise, he would not have come to this point.

“I think we can still save him.”The head of the Li family was sweating.

His punishment was not much better than the head of the Wu family. The more punishment he received, the more punishment he received. It had already piled up to 200 lifetimes.

The head of the Sheng family was even more miserable. Because he was the main instigator of the battle, he was sentenced to 500 lifetimes.

In other words, the three of them added together. They had to pay 1,000 lifetimes of cultivation... in order to get out of this abandoned land of the gods!

In short, regardless of whether they could get out or not... the head of the Sheng family had to write the word 'miserable' on his forehead.

"There must be another way!" The head of the Li family gritted his teeth and refused to give up.

He prayed devoutly, hoping that someone would descend from the sky to save them.

The three family heads knew very well that if they chose to be reincarnated again.

Their Wu, Li, and Sheng families would quickly fall apart in the very short time in the future after losing the Dao Divinity.

"It seems that the three family heads are in distress."

An ethereal voice came from the abandoned land of the gods.

This voice could not be distinguished from its location. It seemed to come from an extremely far distance, but it also seemed to be close at hand.

Soon after, the owner of the voice appeared. They could only see a faint outline that was definitely not a human figure.

"This is..."

The three family heads were extremely shocked. They could not believe that they could actually see other creatures in this abandoned land of the gods.

Moreover, they could be sure that this creature was definitely not a dead soul or something similar. It was fundamentally different from them.

This mystical creature was enveloped by a thick layer of gray fog. It was exuding a divine aura, and its entire body was exuding a mysterious feeling.

Even though they did not know the origin of this gray fog creature. Based on his intuition, the Li family head felt that they might be saved!

“May I ask if you can save me?”The Li family head revealed a look of desire.

“Saving you is easy.”

The gray fog creature laughed. “I can resurrect you without expending any cultivation.”

As soon as it finished speaking, the pillar spirit in the abandoned land of gods finally could not help but speak.

“Shut up... you shouldn’t be here...”

The abandoned pillar of gods trembled slightly, as if it was very angry at the appearance of the gray fog creature.

Boom!

The entire God forsaken land began to riot. The originally peaceful space began to tremble violently. Countless black lotus flowers that were condensed with powerful spiritual energy bloomed from the cracked ground.

The black lotuses were astonishingly powerful and exuded incredible divine power. The heads of the Wu, Li, and Sheng families were surrounded by the black lotuses.

At the same time, countless vines evolved from the cracks in the cracked ground and coiled toward their feet.

These black lotuses were like landmines in the eyes of the three of them. Just one of them contained enough power to destroy their souls.

However, at this moment, the mysterious creature in the gray fog spoke again.

He was in the Forsaken Land of the gods, but he did not put the pillar spirit in his eyes at all.

“I advise you to stop... you know, exploding these black lotuses will not benefit anyone,” said the gray fog creature.

This was definitely not a discussion tone, but an unquestionable command tone.

For a very long time, the pillar spirit did not speak.

It was obvious that it was wary of the creature in the gray fog, but it also knew that this was the forsaken land of the gods!

This was not the first time the gray fog creature had challenged the Pillar Spirit’s authority.

Therefore, this time, the Pillar Spirit did not plan to endure any longer.

“Then let’s perish together.”

The pillar spirit’s voice was cold, it decided to face the creature in the gray fog head-on.

It controlled the black lotuses on the ground, and the black lotuses exploded with blazing light on the spot!

No!

At this moment, the souls of the three great clan leaders were trembling!

They had no doubt that these black lotuses would quickly explode in the next second and completely destroy their souls!

However, what they had never imagined was that the power of this gray fog creature had far surpassed their imaginations.

This was a battle that had exceeded their imaginations.

The three clan leaders couldn't help but begin to wonder if there were other realms between Dao gods and daofathers..

Whether it was the power of the pillar spirit or the power of the gray fog creature, both were far beyond their imaginations.

“You finally can't take it anymore... you want to detonate the Black Lotus? How can I let you have your way...”the creature in the gray fog laughed lightly.

He seemed to have expected such an outcome.

In the next moment, the layer of mysterious gray fog surrounding the gray fog creature suddenly spread out and covered the sky and earth, enveloping the entire abandoned land of gods!

The gray fog was like the claws and teeth of a Taotie, devouring the Black Lotus on the ground and the accompanying black vines!

In the blink of an eye, the terrifying black lotus that was created by the furious pillar spirit didn't even have time to complete the explosion before it disappeared.

“You are only something that was created by the Dao ancestor. You are no match for me...”

In the next moment, the gray fog that covered the entire abandoned god land gathered once again.

The outline of the gray fog creature also appeared beside the abandoned pillar of the gods. It extended its claws and pressed them against the abandoned pillar of the gods.

It was clearly a caress, but it was actually a threat.

“You rely on your authority to do whatever you want. You will eventually receive a backlash...”the spirit of the divine pillar was helpless.

It had never thought that it would encounter such a hooligan and detestable fellow! He had overstepped his authority and repeatedly interfered in the affairs of the abandoned land of the gods!

“It’s too boring to live. I have to find something interesting, don’t I...”

The creature in the gray fog loosened its claws and laughed once more. “I’m just joking with you. I don’t really want to kill you. The dao ancestor didn’t leave many enlightening toys. I have to keep you all for fun.”

“What exactly do you want to do...”the divine column spirit still didn’t quite understand why the gray fog creature was willing to lend a helping hand to save the heads of the three great families.

“I don’t want to do anything.”

The gray fog creature spread its claws and looked at the three family heads in front of it. “I just think that their greed is very interesting. How about it, give me some face?”

“You Are...”the divine column spirit said through gritted teeth.

It originally wanted to say, “You are courting death.”.

However, when the words reached its mouth, it was too lazy to continue.

This was because it knew that it and the creature in the gray fog could not make sense of it.

“Bring the three of them and SCRAM!”

This was the last sentence that the divine pillar spirit said to the gray fog creature.

“It’s just a toy that has been enlightened. Its temper isn’t small.”The gray fog creature chuckled.

At the next moment.

He opened the gray fog and swept away the souls of the three family heads, disappearing into the abandoned land of the gods together..

Chapter 1309 Negotiations With The Bronze Cat

The abandoned land of the gods fell into silence once again after the last three family heads left.

The appearance of the gray fog creature made the divine pillar spirit feel helpless.

It was unable to resist the gray fog creature, and it could not refute what the gray fog creature said.

An enlightened toy..

The divine pillar spirit was extremely helpless.

For a long time, the gray fog creature had interfered with the god's punishment in the abandoned land of the gods more than once or twice.

The column spirit had been enduring and restraining its temper.

But this time.

Its patience had reached its limit.

Although it had let the gray fog creature take away the three family heads, this was only a delaying tactic.

“Even if I have to pay the price this time... I will definitely let you receive your punishment...”the column spirit's voice reverberated in the abandoned land of the gods.

If there was one person in this world who could teach the gray fog creature a lesson..

Then, the abandoned pillar of the gods could only think of one person.

However, summoning that person's soul to the abandoned land of the gods was extremely dangerous.

If it was even the slightest bit careless, it would suffer a backlash.

However, in order to punish the gray fog creature...

And at the same time, in order for Daofather Wang's path of cultivation to be passed down for a longer period of time.

The pillar spirit knew very well that this gray fog creature had already reached the point where it couldn't be eliminated.

Therefore, even if there was a risk,.

It would still have to go against the heavens..

In the next moment, the pillar spirit condensed its spirit and began to use the entire abandoned land of the gods to carry out the summoning ritual.

A total of 6,000 lifetimes of cultivation strength... this was all the cultivation strength that the abandoned pillar of the gods had collected through the god's punishment up until now.

Now, the god-forsaken pillar had spared no effort to throw it in and directly sacrifice it! Just to obtain enough power to summon a person's soul!

..

Wang Ling opened his eyes.

He found that he had been summoned to a dark and claustrophobic space.

What greeted him was a huge altar.

“The god-forsaken place, huh.” Wang Ling immediately figured out what kind of place he had come to.

When the golden lamp monk had been live streaming in the war sect true venerate hall earlier, he had also learned of the existence of such a place through a screen.

But Wang Ling hadn’t expected that.

He would actually be summoned here.

He had clearly been in the Wang family’s small villa earlier.

In the blink of an eye, Wang Ling felt his soul tremble slightly, and then his soul was summoned here.

“It must have cost a huge price...”

Wang Ling was very clear.

There was no one in this world who could summon him.

Unless they had paid an immeasurable price.

Wang Ling stared at the altar in front of him, very clear as to who had done this.

The divine column spirit had the ability to punish all the souls in the cultivation world, and this ability could even directly transcend the Heavenly Dao.

Therefore, there was absolutely no other person besides the pillar spirit who could do it.

“What do you want from me?” At that moment, Wang Ling took a step forward.

Wang Tong saw clearly what the pillar spirit really looked like.

It was a bronze-colored cat with strange runes carved all over its body.

The pillar spirit hid at the top of the God forsaken pillar and gently licked its cat paws. “I wouldn’t want to trouble Ling Zhenren if I didn’t have to.”

“You know me?”

“I’ve heard of you,” said the pillar spirit of the god-forsaken pillar.

The main thing was that it could clearly know the true cause of death of every person who had been sent to the god-forsaken land.

It was also because of the sight of the six great dao gods being crushed to death by Wang Ling that the god-forsaken pillar was even more certain of Wang Ling’s strength.

Before this, although the pillar spirit knew of Wang Ling’s existence, it didn’t really know his true strength.

“A creature in the gray fog?” Wang Ling asked telepathically at this moment.

He used the retroactive power of his king’s eye to reverse everything that had just happened in the abandoned land of gods.

At the same time, he also saw clearly the non-human creature that had appeared in the abandoned land of gods, wrapped in a thick layer of gray fog.

This gray fog creature was insufferably arrogant.

It completely ignored the pillar spirit’s authority.

It had used an extremely arrogant attitude to take away the heads of the Wu, Li and Sheng families and verbally humiliate the pillar spirit.

At this moment, Wang Ling saw everything through the rewind of his king's eye.

"I'm sure Zhenren also saw how arrogant this guy in the gray fog is."

The bronze cat looked at Wang Ling and said earnestly, "If we don't stop him and teach him a lesson, the cultivation world will definitely fall into chaos... don't worry, Zhenren, I won't ask you to do it for nothing."

"?" Wang Ling was curious; he didn't know what the bronze cat could offer as a trade.

Now, Wang Ling knew that his horizons had already grown.

Ordinary crispy noodle snacks were no longer enough for him.

Unless it was a limited edition special crispy noodle snack that he had never eaten before..

And he couldn't just give away one bag!

At least one box!

"I know, Ling Zhenren is rescuing a girl."

The bronze cat, the pillar spirit of the forsaken land of gods, said, "That girl is indeed a child of the void, and the entire void is looking forward to her return... Once that girl's soul falls into the hands of the void, it'll be too late."

In exchange for teaching the gray fog creature a lesson.., at that moment, the bronze cat said, "This forsaken land of gods is originally only at the Dao God level. If Ling Zhenren agrees to my request, I can make an exception and have that girl's name appear on my list."

Hearing this, Wang Ling raised his eyebrows.

He had already understood what the bronze cat meant.

The abandoned pillar of the gods itself had the power to control the soul beyond the limits of the Heavenly Dao.

If the abandoned land of the gods appeared and detained Lotus Sun's soul before it was threatened, it would undoubtedly add another layer of insurance.

Wang Ling thought that this was a reasonable exchange.

After all, the girl was only at the foundation establishment stage.

But now, she could get the privilege of being a dao god.

But Wang Ling still didn't directly agree.

This was a negotiation.

Especially since the other side had taken the initiative to negotiate, he had the upper hand.

As long as he wasn't in a hurry to agree, the other side would definitely continue to increase the bargaining chip.

This was a method Wang Ling had learned from father Wang. When lie Mengmeng had come to urge him to write, father Wang had often used this trick to "Trick" many novels into recommending them..

Everything went as Wang Ling had expected.

After a few minutes of silence, the bronze cat indeed increased the "Bargaining chip."

"How about this, Zhenren, I can open up another special privilege to allow Miss Lotus Sun to leave the forsaken land of the gods without expending any cultivation and directly liberate her."

”...”Wang Ling was silent.

“In addition, I’m also responsible for protecting this girl’s safety... as long as she’s within the Forsaken Land of the gods, I’ll take action against anyone who trespasses here, even void creatures.”

”...”Wang Ling was silent.

“And a box of limited-edition crispy noodle snacks...”

“Deal.”

Wang Ling agreed.

Hearing this, the bronze cat couldn’t help heaving a sigh of relief.

As an existence that could generally control a cultivator’s soul, the bronze cat had never imagined that it would actually one day ask a youth on Earth for help.

The bronze cat thought it was God.

But it wasn’t until it knew Wang Ling that it clearly realized its mistake.

It realized that it didn’t have the qualifications to be God.

And Wang Ling might be an existence even more powerful than God.

God might have called jobs away because he wanted to play on his phone

God might have called Kobe away because he wanted to play basketball

But God couldn’t have called Wang Ling away because he wanted to be beaten

Chapter 1310 Humble Heavenly Dao

Wang Ling snapped out of his daze and his soul returned to his body.

It seemed like a long time to talk to the bronze cat in the Forsaken Land of the gods, but in fact, it had only lasted for an instant.

In front of him, the Heavenly Dao of survival and loopy toad in human form were still producing death substitution talismans on the assembly line. This was the second insurance policy that Wang Ling had given Lotus Sun after she had obtained the Buddha Golden Lotus.

As for the Bronze Cat's promise in the Forsaken Land of the gods, it was the third one.

He didn't believe that with this triple insurance policy, who else could take the young girl's soul away..

"What did you see?" Loopy toad saw that Wang Ling seemed to be stunned for a moment and quickly asked.

Usually, Wang Ling's attention was relatively focused because he had to study hard. Things like going AWOL in class wouldn't happen to Wang Ling, who loved to study.

So if he was in a daze, there was only one situation, and that was when his primordial spirit left his body.

After living with Wang Ling for so long, loopy toad thought that this level of understanding was already completely basic.

"Living creatures in the gray fog," Wang Ling said.

What?

Loopy toad didn't understand.

However, when Survival Heavenly Dao, who was writing a death substitution talisman, heard these words, his hands suddenly stopped moving.

His eyes were filled with disbelief. “How did Zhenren Know...”

“What exactly are the creatures in this gray fog?” Loopy toad asked.

“This is taboo; you can’t say it...” Survival Heavenly Dao’s body trembled.

“Taboo?” Loopy toad smiled. “How many slaps can this taboo be worth to my little Lord Ling?”

When the Heavenly Dao of survival heard this, he was instantly stunned.

He really didn’t know how to answer this question..

Although he had never seen the powerful Heavenly Dao of survival of this gray fog creature before,.

However, from the word of mouth of the golden men in the heavenly court, he roughly knew that this gray fog creature was at least as powerful as a monk.

For a long time, the Heavenly Dao of survival was lost in thought. He didn’t know how Wang Ling had found out about the existence of this gray fog creature.

But on second thought, the Heavenly Dao of survival.

He felt that it wouldn’t hurt to say it out loud.

This gray fog creature was indeed terrifying, and was considered taboo by the heavenly court.

But the problem was that he was in Ling Zhenren’s home right now! What place in the world was safer than Ling Zhenren’s Home?

And since Ling Zhenren had said something about the gray fog creature, it meant that Ling Zhenren was probably already prepared.

So when he thought about it this way, the Heavenly Dao of survival felt that it wouldn't matter even if he said it.

"This is a taboo existence... it caused a huge ruckus in the heavenly court a long time ago..."the Heavenly Dao of survival said with fear in his eyes.

"Caused a ruckus in the Heavenly Court? Is this person related to Dao ancestor Wang?"Loopy toad asked.

It had to be said that this question hit the nail on the head.

Naturally, those who could wreak havoc in the heavenly court these days weren't easy to deal with. To give an inappropriate example, this was just like those people who owed money and refused to pay it back... they were basically all uncles.

"I've never seen this gray fog creature before. It's said that it's a divine beast that Dao ancestor Wang keeps in captivity. No one has ever seen what it looks like; all they know is that it has a pair of invincible claws,"said the Heavenly Dao of survival.

"Then which are you more afraid of, being held by Lord Jingke's neck or being held by this gray fog creature's claws?"Loopy toad asked.

The corners of Heavenly Dao of survival's mouth twitched at this soul's question.

This was an absolute question..

It was simply the same as the question of who your girlfriend and your mother would save first when they fell into the water; whichever side they chose would cost them their lives!

Heavenly Dao of survival was really too lowly!

There was a hint of despair in the heavenly axiom of survival's eyes. "I beg the perfected one's forgiveness for this question... I really don't know how to answer it... However, this gray fog creature is indeed terrifying. Perhaps this will be the most powerful opponent that the perfected one will encounter.”

When the heavenly axiom of survival said this, he also imagined a very low probability in his heart.

In any case, there were demons on both sides right now..

Why not let the Demons fight each other? If they died together, wouldn't they finally be able to restore peace to the Heavenly Court? !

”...”Wang Ling read the Heavenly Dao of Survival's mind and remained silent in his heart.

He didn't know when, but his impression of the Heavenly Dao had also turned into a “Demon”?

Wang Ling didn't understand.

It was just that he had put Jingke on the Heavenly Dao of Death's neck the last time and interrogated him for a while.

Had he become a devil just like that?

Moreover, he had only been a little anxious at the time, and hadn't really thought of killing the Heavenly Dao of death.

At this moment, Wang Ling was reflecting.

He was such an amiable person.

He had obediently followed the Heavenly Dao's rules and regulations.

If he really had any requests, he had paid the price!

Don't treat the village chief as a cadre! Expired crispy noodle snacks were also good food, weren't they? !

He wouldn't be willing to give them to an ordinary person!

But this group of Heavenly Dao actually looked at him in this way, and he was so tactless... he deserved it for not appearing in the first season of the animation! HMPH!

"What's Ling Zhenren Thinking?"The Heavenly Dao of survival asked weakly when he saw that Wang Ling was once again in a daze (fan) .

In fact, he was a little afraid that he had really offended Wang Ling.

But Wang Ling was a generous person; he wouldn't mind so many things.

And in order to get rid of his "Devil"impression in the eyes of the Heavenly Dao,.

Wang Ling decided to go with the flow and do a good deed for the little golden men of the Heavenly Dao.

"Has anyone seen the appearance of the gray fog creature?"At this moment, Wang Ling asked telepathically.

He looked at Survival Heavenly Dao, trying hard to maintain an amiable appearance.

This stiff smile made Survival Heavenly Dao shudder. "Zhenren, you'd better stop laughing... it's so scary..."you laugh like you're crying..

In the end, Survival Heavenly Dao didn't have the guts to say these extra quotes.

Wang Ling didn't care at all and continued to ask telepathically, "Then, do you want to see it?"

Survival Heavenly Dao was instantly stunned. "What are you looking at? That creature in the gray fog?"

“Yes.” Wang Ling nodded,

as soon as he finished speaking.

Survival Heavenly Dao looked extremely surprised.

Since ancient times, the creature in the gray fog had always been extremely mysterious, and no one had ever seen its true appearance. This was definitely not just talk.

At the same time.

The pressure brought by the mysterious feeling hidden in the depths of the gray fog also made everyone who knew about the existence of the creature in the gray fog shudder in fear.

The fear of the unknown always existed.

What Wang Ling was doing now was to help Heavenly Dao first get rid of the fear of the creature in the gray fog.

“Zhenren... this...”

“My Little Master is asking you. Do you want to see it or not? Don’t talk so much nonsense.” Loopy toad rolled its eyes.

The Heavenly Dao of survival gritted his teeth. At that moment, he seemed to have made up his mind. “I want to see it!”

“Okay.”

Wang Ling nodded.

He opened his king’s eye and looked around the universe.

When the power of the king's eye seeped into every corner of the universe, Wang Ling finally caught sight of the creature hidden in the gray fog.

Under the power of the King's eye, the gray fog surrounding the gray fog creature was clearly all gone..

Wang Ling projected the fog creature's body into the void in his bedroom.

Through the mist.

The Way of the living has finally seen the face of this gray fog creature.

"This is..."the survival of the heavenly way pale with fright.

He had no idea.

It was supposed to be a high-end, upper-class gray fog creature.

His true form is actually..

Groundhog..
