Chapter 1311 Groundhog Confusion

Why was the gray fog creature a groundhog..

At this moment, the expression on survival heavenly axiom's face could not be described as uninteresting.

After all, the gray fog creature had always been a mysterious existence in the eyes of their heavenly axiom, and the strength heavenly axiom even called it a mysterious power hidden under the gray fog.

Its claws, which were known to be indestructible, made the golden men of the Heavenly Dao feel fear in their hearts.

Take the heavenly axiom of survival as an example. He had imagined the appearance of the gray fog creature countless times..

It was Daofather King's Divine Beast!

No matter what, it had to be at least the size of a planet in its complete form!

Its every move was filled with a terrifying power that could destroy planets. Its feet were on the nine dragons coffin, its body was covered in star clothes, and its hands were like primal blades, capable of destroying all living things in the world..

But now, this whole persona is falling apart.

Groundhog..

Why is the mysterious gray fog creature such a retard-looking creature with a penchant for "Ahhhhh!?"!

At this moment, knowing the truth of the survival of the heavenly axiom has an impulse to flip the table.

Research on radiation sickness

However, considering that this was Wang Ling's home, the Heavenly Dao of survival still refrained from this suicidal idea of his.

Because this table had also been enchanted, he couldn't afford to provoke it at all. Furthermore, the Enchanted Monsters of the Wang family were very united, and if he were to casually flip the table, he would probably be hung up and beaten.

He didn't want to be teleported to Lord Ma's internal space to eat SH * t with the Cosmic God Tree..

"Divine Beasts are born from the chaos, but why is it a Groundhog?"The Heavenly Dao of Survival's face was full of confusion; he felt like he had discovered a huge secret, and he was in a bad mood.

"The reason is very simple. It's possible that he's not a groundhog at all, but a divine beast that looks very similar to a groundhog. It's not impossible."

At this moment, Book of Sage Immortal once again cut in and said, "There are all kinds of strange divine beasts born from the chaos. Many people think that the bigger the Beast, the more powerful it is, but that's not the case."

"What do you mean? Make it clearer,"loopy toad asked.

"According to the data we obtained from the big data, the strength of a divine beast is determined by the amount of chaotic Qi in its body. The more chaotic Qi there is, the stronger it will be.

"Therefore, many people pursue large divine beasts and think that the bigger the beast, the more chaotic Qi there will be in its body."

The book of Sage immortal said, "In fact, the theory of body size is a complete misconception. The smaller the divine beast born from a chaotic egg, the more valuable it is, and the more powerful it is. "So, this gray fog creature that looks like a groundhog is actually a very rare divine beast that looks like a groundhog."

“No nesting!”

The corners of loopy Toad’s eyes twitched. “In any case, it doesn’t look any different from a groundhog. I think we’ll just call it a groundhog.”

“I really didn’t expect it to be like this.” The Heavenly Dao of survival was endlessly amazed; he felt that his knowledge had increased.

On this side, he had obtained the answer to the true appearance of the gray fog creature.

At the same time, it also meant that the other Heavenly Dao also knew.

The Heavenly Dao shared information with each other; there were no secrets.

“Actually, I still don’t understand one thing. Since your three Thousand Heavenly Dao can’t stand this groundhog any longer, why aren’t they compatible? Can’t we just get rid of it as soon as possible?” Loopy toad asked. In fact, this was also a question Wang Ling wanted to ask, when it came to “Merging with the Heavenly Dao,” Survival Heavenly Dao couldn’t help sighing.

Survival Heavenly Dao: “Back then, Dao ancestor Wang divided us into 3,000 parts to limit our power. At the same time, he set up a restriction on merging with the Heavenly Dao. Although we can merge, there’s a limit to the number... at most, we can only complete one hundred heavenly dao combinations.”

Loopy toad: “A Hundred Heavenly Dao fusion, what level is that?”

Survival heavenly dao: “A slap from Ling Zhenren won’t kill you.”

Wang Ling and loopy toad:” ...”

Survival Heavenly Dao: “Three Thousand Heavenly Dao fusion, it’s been a long time since something like this has happened. It’s nothing more than a fantasy for us. And this restriction is very strange. Even Ling Zhenren won’t be able to remove it so easily.”

Indeed.

Wang Ling nodded secretly.

In theory, his Wang Tong could remove all restrictions, curses, unclean objects, and so on..

However, for the time being, Wang Ling hadn't discovered the existence of the restriction on the Heavenly Dao of survival.

However, Wang Ling felt that it wasn't that he couldn't solve it, but that he hadn't yet thoroughly examined this "Problem" left behind by Dao ancestor Wang.

To remove the restriction was actually the same as doing a math problem -- you needed to understand the type of problem and apply the right medicine to the problem.

And sometimes, you even needed to reverse-engineer the entire calculation process.

So as long as you could find the specific way in which Dao ancestor Wang had set up the restriction back then, it would be very easy to reverse-engineer it.

Those complicated restrictions couldn't simply be completed with a simple incantation and a step-by-step array.

Wang Ling discovered that dao ancestor Wang was a "Restriction maniac" who liked to lock up others' permissions.

For example, Dao ancestor Wang had left another question for the "Restriction" that allowed one to enter an unspeakable place.

"Ling Zhenren, how do you plan to attack this gray fog creature?" The Heavenly Dao of survival asked.

This question was actually very vague.

Because of his understanding of Wang Ling, the Heavenly Dao of survival now had a bit of an understanding of Wang Ling's style. He wouldn't shoot first.

And that was indeed the case.

Even if Wang Ling had agreed to the bronze cat's request and planned to attack the gray fog creature, he still needed to make a move. And now, he still needed a condition.

"There will be an opportunity soon," Wang Ling said faintly to the Heavenly Dao of survival.

He had a premonition.

He had a premonition that this groundhog would soon cause trouble in Heavenly Court.

And as it turned out, Wang Ling's premonition was accurate.

With the arrival of an uninvited guest in Heavenly Court, all the Heavenly Dao little golden men fell into panic.

The gray fog creature appeared in the Heavenly Dao Committee's meeting hall.

He held strength Heavenly Dao's neck with his sharp claws, and his words were filled with one of the most unquestionable threats. "If you don't change the white list, I'll kill you."

As expected, the gray fog creature had come to heavenly court to cause trouble just as Wang Ling had thought.

He had threatened Heavenly Dao with his death and asked Heavenly Dao to add the names of the heads of the Wu, Li, and Sheng families to the white list.

The remaining Heavenly Dao Masters in Heavenly Court felt deeply helpless at this request.

Strength Heavenly Dao's forehead was covered in sweat. "You should know that we don't have the right to decide on the white list... all the users on the white list are automatically selected after meeting the requirements of the Dao ancestor..."

"I don't care. All you have to do is think of a way." The gray fog creature continued to threaten them with his claws.

"Then just kill me." The Tiandao refused to comply.

"? ? ?" The gray fog creature was rather stunned. He didn't know why.

He felt as though something was off with the Tiandao today. He wasn't as afraid of him as he had been in the past.

"Are you sure you want to talk to me like that?" The gray fog creature sneered.

In the end, the heavenly axiom of power stared at him in a neither servile nor overbearing manner. "Give up! You Stupid Groundhog!"

"What did you call me? ? ?"

The gray fog creature was shocked.

He had been hiding in the gray fog for so long!

How could anyone know what he looked like? !

Ahhhhh!

-- what the hell is going on? !

The gray-fog creature's heart roared.

Chapter 1312 Lord Gray Fog

There was always a great worry in the Earth.

Not only was his name uncouth, even his appearance was exactly the same as a groundhog.

This led to the earth being always very self-abased.

Until he learned to use the power of chaos in his body to merge with the gray fog in the air and hide his true body. Only then did he slowly regain his confidence.

That's right, buried in the ground.

That was the true name that the gray fog creature loathed.

Now, he had given himself a new name: Lord Gray Fog.

Back then, Daofather King had casually given him three names. Burying him in the ground was already considered good.

Originally, the DAOFATHER had planned to ask him to bury him in the ground, or to bury him in the ground... but he had been resolutely rejected by the gray fog creature.

He felt that his name should be more domineering!

However, the Daofather didn't seem to think so.

After Daofather Wang had given birth to him, he had received Daofather Wang's favor in the Earth.

He had originally thought that he was a battle-type divine beast.

However, it seemed that Daofather Wang had only treated him as a mascot for fun when he was bored.

He had even launched a series of "Pig-raising" plans aimed at him!

When he was just born, he was less than ten pounds.

With daofather King's hard work, he raised him to five tons alive.

Therefore, the gray fog creature had another nickname at that time: tons, tons, tons..

Ask yourself!

Was there any divine beast in this world that was more miserable than him!

As a divine beast that looked 99.99% similar to a groundhog, the Groundhog felt extremely painful.

All of this changed after Daofather Wang entered the cycle of reincarnation.

Using the gray fog that hid his identity, the groundhog began to set up a path for himself to become a fierce person.

He wasn't willing to be an ordinary "Groundhog" anymore!

Therefore, he changed his name and began to become a mysterious creature hidden in the gray fog... "Lord Gray Fog"!

For thousands of years, the Groundhog had tried hard to subvert his pet's persona, portraying himself as a mysterious and brutal creature wrapped in gray fog.

He had wreaked havoc in the heavenly court, and even harassed the abandoned land of the gods several times, leaving a deep impression on the green tong cat and the heavenly axiom.

And after the heavenly axiom metal humanoid kept changing, the "Mystery" he created became more and more ridiculous, describing him as more and more terrifying.

After countless years, the groundhog... Oh No, it was Gray Fog Lord!

He finally changed his appearance and got rid of his identity as a pet divine beast!

Now, the power of the heavenly axiom had exposed his true appearance, which he couldn't accept no matter what!

“Who is it! who leaked his true appearance!” Gray Fog Lord was furious.

He had the intention to kill, and he wanted to destroy all the heavenly axiom metal humanoids who knew his true appearance!

However, at the critical moment, Lord Gray fog still maintained his calm.

He had endured for so many years. He had finally changed his appearance and hid the ugly appearance of his groundhog... Just a little longer.., it wasn't too late to ask these Heavenly Dao who was the mastermind behind exposing his identity.

“Hehe, it's me who's too violent. This is indeed ungentlemanly.”

Thinking up to this point, Lord Gray fog withdrew the claws on strength Tiandao's neck. At the same time, he thickened the density of the gray fog.

He was putting pressure on the surrounding Tiandao.

“How about this? We can discuss the matter of the white list of the three divine realm family heads.”

At this moment.., lord Gray Fog, who was hidden under the mysterious gray fog, smiled faintly. “I only need everyone to tell me, who exactly is supporting you? If I know the answer today, I'll let it go. Otherwise, I'll make heaven restless today.”

As soon as he said this, the Heavenly Dao masters were rendered speechless.

Wasn't it obvious who was backing them up..

You're a divine beast next to Dao ancestor Wang, don't you have a C number?

You even went to the abandoned land of the gods to fish out the three masters of the divine territory..

Logically speaking, it was impossible for them not to know of Wang Ling's existence!

Of course, the Heavenly Dao of power suddenly understood.

Because of the existence of the "Great Shield spell," the six dao gods who had been crushed to death still didn't know Ling Zhenren's true identity..

Most importantly, these six people had died too quickly!

In fact, Lord Gray fog hadn't seen how these six people had died at all!

"It seems that this groundhog still doesn't know the truth."

In the spiritual space, the Power Heavenly Dao couldn't help laughing at this moment. "And this guy has a criminal record to begin with..."

"He just wants to cause trouble." The Space Heavenly Dao didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

In the past, the Groundhog had actually forcefully gone to the abandoned land of gods to "Protect" people and then led his underlings to cause trouble everywhere.

He relied on his own strength to think that he could disrupt the forsaken land of the gods.

He made the heavenly axiom obey his orders obediently.

Therefore, he developed this arrogant personality.

To the groundhog, it didn't matter at all how these people entered the forsaken land of the gods.

Because as the "Boss," he had the ability to fish out all the people who entered.

But this time, the groundhog didn't expect that the luxury titanic cruise ship he was piloting... was about to hit a huge iceberg!

"How about it? Everyone? Do you want to talk about it?" Power Heavenly Dao was actually still hesitating.

"This is a good opportunity." Time Heavenly Dao smiled at this time. "Ling Zhenren is actually waiting for us to betray him... as far as I know, that Green Tung cat in the abandoned land of the gods just made a deal with Ling Zhenren, but Ling Zhenren doesn't have a reason to make a move yet."

"What do you mean?"

"It's not enough just to say it; we have to provoke this groundhog. Ling Zhenren will have a reason to deal with him if he makes a fuss."

"Understood."

In the spiritual space, the host Heavenly Dao and the others came up with a plan.

Thus, they instantly understood the plan of how to deal with this "Groundhog" in front of them.

"Lord gray fog, calm down. It's not that we don't want to say it, but if we do... sigh..." strength Heavenly Dao said in a worried tone.

"Afraid of what?"

The Groundhog was puzzled.

“That senior isn’t easy to deal with...”strength Heavenly Dao said.

Of course, he had said it on purpose.

Their current goal was to incite this groundhog to take the initiative to hit Wang Ling.

“HM? In this world, apart from the monk on Earth, who else could be my match? Of course! If it hadn’t been for the restrictions left behind by the Dao ancestor on Earth, which had caused my strength to suffer, and the monk had run into me elsewhere... he would have died as well!”

The groundhog was very unconvinced and put his hands on his waist. “Tell me! Who Is this person? I’ll destroy him!”

“Senior, you can kill him? That would truly be a great deed for the Heavenly Court. I believe that when the Daofather hears this, he will also feel gratified!”The Heavenly Dao of strength said.

“It’s just killing a person. If It’s a true expert, I’ll kill every single one of them for free!”The groundhog laughed coldly. His claws couldn’t wait to kill the person the Heavenly Dao of strength was talking about.

He actually dared expose his identity..

He wanted to dig out this person’s eyes and heart!

Then, he would trap this person in his black fog for eternity and make him Lord Gray Fog’s slave!

Wang Ling:”?”

Chapter 1313 Wang Nuan’s Self-Defense Mechanism

This was a typical case of blood being spilled because of low self-esteem.

In this age of face-based, even godly beasts could feel low self-esteem, let alone human cultivators.

According to the scientific statistics of the cultivation world, under the condition that their lifespan was the same, a good-looking person's lifetime income would be 18% higher than that of an average-looking person..

Lord Gray fog had been maintaining his savage persona for many years, but he had never expected that his persona would be completely destroyed by Wang Tong.

Heh!

He wouldn't take revenge!

He swore that he wouldn't be a beast!

In the gray fog, the groundhog said, "I still need your help on this matter. I need you to lure him out from Earth."

He had already thought of a way to torture Wang Ling..

But if he chose to attack on Earth, the restrictions left behind by the Dao ancestor would affect his strength to a certain extent.

So the Groundhog decided to fight in a place other than Earth.

Only then would his strength be completely displayed.

"Senior, you must be joking. How can we possibly draw the attention of that person on earth... Senior's methods are all-powerful. As long as you launch an attack in Earth's direction, I believe that person on Earth will definitely react quickly,"said the Heavenly Dao of strength.

"So that's how it is."

Lord Gray fog nodded.

He had also been enlightened by the Heavenly Dao of Strength's words.

It was all because of the restrictive spells set up by the Daofather on Earth that he had been unable to unleash his full power on Earth.

In that case, all he had to do was wipe out the entire earth! Wouldn't that problem no longer exist? !

At this moment, the Groundhog was overjoyed.

He regretted that he hadn't thought of this idea earlier!

As long as Earth disappeared!

Then the last place in the universe that could restrict his strength would disappear completely.

At that time, he would be able to do whatever he wanted!

"I'll do it now!"The groundhog was excited.

His figure swiftly disappeared into the gray fog.

The gray fog seeped into space and formed a torrent that quickly brought him to the moon and looked at Earth from afar.

Then, he raised his claws and condensed the power of chaos from the gray fog.

The wisps of chaotic power condensed into a purplish-black magic ball from the tip of his claws.

However, it was only the size of an egg.

Yet, it contained astonishing power.

When the ball of chaos was formed, the ground on the Moon's surface collapsed in large chunks. The ball of Chaos's explosive pressure caused the ground where the groundhog was standing to sink deep into the ground!

Boom!

In an instant, a deep pit with a radius of over a thousand miles was formed!

The Moon.

This was the best sniping position, and also the best cannon for firing the ball of Chaos!

Because of the existence of the moon, this provided the groundhog with tremendous recoil support!

This magic ball was not the full strength of Gray Fog Lord. The concentration of chaos power in his body was 35% , surpassing the average godly beast by 30% .

And this was also the main reason why the Groundhog had always been doing whatever he wanted, disregarding others.

The chaos magic ball in his hand had only condensed 5% of its power. But if it was shot out, it would reach the core of the Earth, and it would be enough to detonate the earth.

“Farewell, Earth.”

The groundhog sneered.

He stretched out his hand and pointed! Another loud roar!

At the tip of his claw, the egg-sized ball of Chaos was instantly released!

The huge recoil caused the moon under the groundhog's feet to shift back hundreds of meters.

The earth was about to disappear.

Once the forbidden area that could control him disappeared, no one could control him anymore!

The Groundhog stood on the moon, admiring his masterpiece from afar.

After the ball of chaos was launched, it was heading towards Earth at the speed of light!

-- art is an explosion!

To be able to witness the destruction of this azure blue planet with one's own eyes.

Such a scene would definitely be beautiful!

If this move was successful, perhaps only two people could survive on this earth.

One was that Monk.

And the other was that detestable fellow who had found out his true identity!

Even if these two people didn't die,.

They would definitely be heavily injured under the impact of the chaos magic ball.

If he could take the opportunity to get rid of these two people, hehehehe... in this universe, no one would be able to restrain him!

However, what the Gray Fog Lord didn't expect was that.

Just as the chaos magic ball was about to approach Earth.

A terrible change suddenly occurred!

“What’s going on?”The Groundhog felt strange.

Because he felt a sudden surge of inexplicable tremendous pressure on his body!

And very soon, he sensed where this strange place came from.

“Shadow?”The Groundhog was shocked!

He was surprised to find that the huge shadow on the dark side of the Moon, for some reason, seemed to be endowed with a huge spirituality and gathered toward his feet!

These shadows flowed like a tide from the dark side of the moon to his feet, and then continued to gather, forming a powerful quagmire! It grabbed him firmly!

Then, they filled his body!

“Shadow binding spell?”Faced with such a sudden situation, the groundhog was shocked beyond words.

Not to mention ordinary shadow binding spell, even the great shadow spell of Heavenly Dao did not have such an ability!

It could actually mobilize the shadows on the back of the moon to bind him in a short instant!

These shadows crawled to his feet and then wrapped themselves around his claws, forcefully controlling him to interrupt the “Chaos magic ball”that was about to detonate the earth!

This was the first time he had encountered such a situation.

“Could it be that this is also a power of the Great Dao? An existence that stands side by side with the Heavenly Dao?”Soon, he thought of a possibility.

This was the only explanation that could explain why there was an ability that could instantly mobilize the power of the shadows on the back of the Moon.

At this moment, the Groundhog opened up its gray fog!

Such an unexpected situation caught him off guard, but it was still impossible to restrain him.

Although it was not easy to break free from the shackles of the shadows, this was mainly because it was the first time the groundhog had encountered such a great power. It was due to the unfamiliar situation.

Soon, he controlled the gray fog around him to tear apart the shadows under his feet and wrapped around his body. He broke free from the shackles and quickly left the moon.

The moment he left...

The shadows that surged up from the back of the moon instantly receded and returned to their original positions.

Although this was the first time they had come into contact with the power of the Great Dao...

The Groundhog was now certain based on his intuition.

This power of the Great Dao was emitted from Earth.

“Other than the monk and that peeping dog, are there other experts?”

The groundhog stared in the direction of earth and found it interesting.

“That’s my sister.”

At that moment, a cold voice transmission rang out from the Groundhog's soul.

A youth appeared behind him.

Dressed in red and white casual sportswear, he had one hand in his trouser pocket and was staring at him.

In fact, the moment the Groundhog's chaotic magic ball was shot out,

Wang Ling had already planned to make his move.

But he hadn't expected that.

Perhaps it was because he felt that Earth was under threat.

This had actually activated Wang Nuan's self-defense mechanism!

This girl was clearly still in her stomach, but she could actually control the shadow on the entire dark side of the Moon.

Then, she would forcibly use the shadow to control the groundhog to interrupt the chaotic magic ball.

She was indeed his sister!

Nuan was awesome!

Chapter 1314 Father Wang Also Wants To Get Pregnant

In the Wang family's small villa, mother Wang, who was knitting a sweater, suddenly felt a bout of abdominal pain.

Putting down her tools, she grabbed father Wang's hand. "It suddenly hurts..."

“It can’t be that it’s going to be born, right?”

Father Wang was nervous. Seeing mother Wang’s forehead perspire from the pain, he felt a pang of heartache. “Let’s go to the hospital!”

But very quickly, mother Wang shook her head. “No need.”

The pain came and went quickly. Mother Wang had already recovered, and her amniotic fluid hadn’t broken yet... Overall, it wasn’t a big deal.

Usually, there would be such a sudden pain, but this time, it seemed especially painful.

“It must be Ah Nuan being mischievous again.” Father Wang stroked mother Wang’s belly and couldn’t help laughing. “Ah Nuan, you have to be obedient. I Can’t take it if you’re so mischievous.”

“I think Ah Nuan must be acting this way because of something important,” mother Wang said with a smile.

A loving expression appeared on her face. “And I’ve noticed that my body gets better every time I get out of pain. Have you noticed that I’ve been feeling much stronger recently, and the fine lines on my face are fewer!”

“Much stronger...” father Wang was taken aback.

Could This pregnancy also have an awakening effect?

Father Wang felt that this was a little “Strange”... but he quickly reacted.

“It can’t be...” father Wang muttered silently.

“It can’t be what?” Mother Wang asked.

“Darling, wait for me!”

Father Wang immediately ran back to the study on the second floor and took off a device that looked like a blood pressure machine. He then put a bandage on mother Wang's head.

"This is?"

"A realm test device... anything below the nascent soul stage can be tested with this device," father Wang said.

As a muggle couple who had been in the body refining stage all year round, father Wang had actually thought about when he would enter the path of cultivation, so every day he hoped that he would be able to "Awaken."

There was one thing that needed to be emphasized here.

Father Wang hoped that he would awaken.

He didn't want to rely on Wang Ling's strength.

Soon, the results of the realm test were out.

Father Wang stared at the results on the dashboard and sucked in a cold breath.

"What's going on?" Mother Wang was confused.

"Son's mother... You've Built Your Foundation!" Father Wang was completely stunned.

"I... I've Built My Foundation?" Mother Wang was also shocked.

Their spirit roots were so useless that they could actually build a foundation..

"No Wonder I said that my body has been getting better and better recently."

Mother Wang rubbed her belly and didn't know whether to laugh or cry. "But it wasn't like this when I was carrying the Ling Ling."

"Daughters and Sons are different. The son is construction bank, and the daughter is China Merchants Bank... I've brought the spiritual energy of Heaven and earth to you and built a foundation."

Father Wang stared at the instrument panel and felt a wave of envy in his heart.

A moment later, he looked at mother Wang very seriously. "Tell me, can I have one too?"

Mother Wang:"..."

..

In space, near the Moon, Wang Ling and Lord Gray fog were facing each other.

To be honest, Lord Gray fog's real body was even smaller than Wang Ling had imagined, but the density of its body was indeed astonishing.

Its small body weighed a lot.

And it was obvious that it was no longer five tons.

It had been a long time since Daoist ancestor Wang had thrown food at it back then. Although the Groundhog said that it hated being treated like a pet, with all kinds of delicacies thrown at it by Daoist ancestor Wang, its body had long been transformed into a complete foodie.

In addition to causing trouble in various places over the years,.

The most the groundhog had done was eat, eat, and eat.

That had led to its astonishing weight. (just like you, who had been fattening up at home during the epidemic.)

“Your eyes are very interesting. You can actually see through my chaotic gray fog.” At that moment, Lord Gray Fog was staring at Wang Ling, admiring his pair of King’s pupils.

Red Eyes.

When the power of his eyes circulated, his entire pupils would be dyed golden and turn into lotus petals that would spread out.

Wang Ling’s Eye Power had only been unlocked by less than 5% , but Lord Gray fog already felt a strange pressure.

After all, even the golden lamp monk’s “Swastika” eye.

He wasn’t afraid at all.

Apart from Dao ancestor Wang, there really weren’t many people who could give him pressure from his gaze.

“I can clearly sense that you are definitely not Lord Dao ancestor’s reincarnation... who exactly are you?” The groundhog stared at Wang Ling, curious about his identity.

Wang Ling’s ears had already grown calloused from listening to these lines.

Why did everyone ask him who he was, where he came from, and who he was before they fought..

He didn’t even know who he was!

Forget it, it was better to settle the battle in front of him as soon as possible..

Wang Ling reckoned that the green tong cat in the Forsaken Land of the gods was probably watching this battle as well.

The Green Tong cat was already impatient with the matter of teaching the groundhog a lesson.

So he had to finish the agreement with the Green Tong Cat as soon as possible.

This way, Lotus Sun would have another layer of protection.

Buzz!

There was a muffled sound.

In the space of the universe, Wang Ling disappeared into thin air!

“Shrinking the ground into an inch, huh...”

Lord Gray fog reacted quickly, and he immediately increased the density of the chaotic gray fog to surround himself.

The chaotic gray fog Daoist robe formed by the chaotic gray fog was a natural weapon to reduce injuries, as long as the chaotic gray fog existed! He had confidence in the battle situation!

As long as he could flexibly use this ability, lord gray fog was even confident that he would be able to fight the entire time without any injuries!

This was Wang Ling’s palm strike without any modifications.

It wasn’t flashy at all; it was just a simple hand knife attack.

“You want to hurt me with this kind of ordinary attack?” Lord Gray fog sneered in his heart.

Hiding in the chaotic gray fog, he closed his eyes and didn’t care at all about which direction Wang Ling would attack from; he was confident that he wouldn’t be hurt by Wang Ling.

But in the next moment, a blood-curdling scream was heard.

It was a very standard groundhog-like scream.

“Ahhhhhhh!”

Wang Ling’s hand knife accurately pierced through the chaotic gray fog and landed on Lord Gray Fog’s spine.

In an instant, the groundhog was like a meteor falling from the sky, smashing into the surface of the moon and leaving a deep pit..

“It can actually break through the chaotic gray fog...”

The groundhog spat out a small mouthful of blood and crawled out of the pit.

Was it not killed by another attack

Wang Ling raised his eyebrows.

But this was also within Wang Ling’s expectations.

After all, this was the Divine Beast Under Dao ancestor Wang’s care. If he killed it in one strike, how shameful would dao ancestor Wang Be?

Most importantly, the Groundhog thought that he had been injured because Wang Ling’s hand knife had broken through his “Chaotic gray fog”.

But in fact, Wang Ling hadn’t.

The chaotic gray fog around Lord Gray fog had indeed played a “Damage reduction”role.

And there was no other fancy reason why he had been injured.

It was purely because of Wang Ling’s hand knife.

The damage was simply too high.

“I’m getting serious, human!” At that moment, Lord Gray fog crawled out of the pit and wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth.

He once again increased the density of the chaotic gray fog.

At the same time, he stretched out his sharp claws, which he claimed to be able to crush everything!

Boom!

The groundhog stomped hard on the ground and suddenly shot out from the surface of the Moon!

In the end, three seconds later..

Another standard groundhog-like scream was heard. “Ahhhhh!”

A second deep pit appeared next to the pit that had just been formed

“Are you still alive?”

At that moment, Wang Ling stared at the two deep pits on the moon’s surface with smoke coming out of his palms.

This groundhog.

It wasn’t strong.

Its blood was really thick..

Chapter 1315 Rat Crossing The Street

It could only be said that lord gray fog’s chaotic gray fog was indeed very fierce.

If it was reflected in a more intuitive way, although Wang Ling's one-hit hand knife could cause explosive damage output, as long as lord gray fog had this chaotic gray fog, it could reduce damage by up to 75% .

This was also the main reason why Lord Gray fog was able to stand up again after being hit by Wang Ling twice in a row.

It was injured, but not seriously injured, and its injuries were far from fatal.

What surprised Wang Ling even more was this.

In addition to being able to reduce damage, this chaotic gray fog also had the ability to heal itself, and this type of self-healing could ignore the effects of "Serious injuries."

The last person who had been extremely confident in his "Self-healing" ability was president Bai.

Unfortunately, President Bai hadn't expected that every ordinary attack from Wang Ling would have a "Serious injury" effect.

As a result, he hadn't had time to recover from the damage and had died..

And now, the Groundhog had fully demonstrated the professional courtesy that a qualified meat shield should possess.

He wasn't even afraid of being seriously injured!

Even if he was beaten to death, as long as he had the chaotic gray fog, he would be able to come back to life!

He was indeed a difficult guy to deal with!

In the universe, Wang Ling gazed at Lord Gray Fog, who had crawled out of the second pit, and was also thinking of countermeasures.

If he wanted to kill this groundhog, he had to think of a way to peel off this layer of chaotic gray fog.

But judging from the current results, Wang Ling hadn't thought of a suitable solution.

Because this chaotic gray fog seemed to have fused with the groundhog!

It had become an inseparable existence!

“Because it has been hidden in the gray fog for too long, does the gray fog think of itself as an organ on this groundhog?” Wang Ling guessed in his heart.

On the other side, Lord Gray Fog, who had climbed out of the second deep pit, was very depressed.

The second slap to the face had come too suddenly.

He had even suspected that he had taken the wrong script.

As the number one divine beast under Daofather Wang, he had never encountered such a situation where he had to take a beating on his own.

Even the golden lamp monk had never taken such a huge advantage from him!

Rumble..

The surface of the Moon shook violently.

Lord Gray fog scuttled up again and aimed his sharp claws in Wang Ling's direction.

“Again?” Wang Ling didn't believe that this groundhog would do the same thing again.

At such a distance, no matter how fast the groundhog was, he could immediately swat it back like a fly.

A third deep hole might soon appear on the surface of the Moon.

When Lord Gray fog flew into the air, his sharp claws directly tore open a space, and then his body turned into light particles that quickly disappeared into thin air!

Had he disappeared midway?

No..

Wang Ling realized that this groundhog really wanted to enter his mental space.

It really was an omnipotent claw.

It could even tear through the barrier to his mental space.

This was Wang Ling's mistake.

He hadn't expected the groundhog to have this ability.

It had caused him to be careless for a moment.

But even if it entered his mental space, what could it do

In Wang Ling's opinion, this groundhog was simply courting death.

A normal cultivator's spiritual space was very narrow.

It was needless to say that the spiritual space of a powerful cultivator was wide.

Take the monk for example.

The monk's spiritual world was roughly on the same level as the Solar System.

But Wang Ling's spiritual space..

After Lord Gray fog entered, he felt like he was completely dumbfounded.

Because he realized that he had just escaped from one real universe and entered another spiritual universe..

F * * K!

This was a F * * King mental space owned by a human!

“Are you ready to die?”A cold voice rang out from Wang Ling's mental space.

It was as if the voice was the main body of this universe.

It was overlapping and carried a terrifying echo that was like a prehistoric death knell.

It came surging in from all directions.

A familiar white-haired figure appeared, formed from countless specks of light.

As usual, he appeared like a god descending from the heavens.

In front of Lord Gray Fog, Wang Ying revealed himself, his gaze domineering and unexcelled.

“You are... This person’s shadow?” Lord Gray FOG’s expression was gloomy.

He felt it.

The Aura on this person was the same as the large shadow that had risen from the dark side of the Moon.

It was the power of the same Great Dao.

The Groundhog was shocked.

Although it had only been a short while, he could feel that the shadow in front of him was extremely strong.

His body was a mixture of the real and the virtual, as if he had merged into the spiritual world that was constructed from the Sea of stars.

His pair of cold eyes that were like obsidian were extremely sharp. Even without the support of the king’s pupil, he could still bring about a great sense of awe.

The Groundhog’s body flashed with Gray Light, once again increasing the protection ability of the gray fog of Chaos!

Now, the gray fog of chaos had already increased the damage reduction effect to 50% , completely enveloping him from top to bottom.

The Groundhog had never thought that he would one day increase the gray fog of chaos to 50% .

That was because there was only so much chaos energy in his body.

50% of the chaos gray fog meant that the vast majority of the chaos energy in his body had been allocated to this chaos gray fog.

The damage reduction effect had increased, but at the same time, his power damage would also be weakened due to the distribution of the chaos energy in his body.

“You rely on this layer of gray clothes to do whatever you want?” Wang Ying’s gaze grew colder and colder.

Under such a threatening gaze, lord gray fog could no longer endure it. “Don’t be too arrogant! When the Daofather gave birth to me, you weren’t even deoxyribonuclease!”

The Groundhog made its move. With the support of the gray fog, it stretched out its sharp claws and clawed out!

The void in front of him distorted, and an invisible wave of chaos spread out, wanting to trap Wang Ying within.

At the same time, the gray mist around his body turned into wings at this moment, turning him into a flying groundhog!

The divine wings flapped, and with a wave, the ground shrank into an inch!

Countless stars were swept into the storm, and then torn into powder by the strong wind.

The groundhog flapped its wings and stretched out its claws, trying to tear Wang Ying’s body apart.

Wang Ying was too lazy to dodge.

When the claws hit his brain, they directly passed through his body.

They did not cause any harm to him.

“What a stupid groundhog. It actually used such a heavy hand on the shadow.” Wang Ying’s eyes were cold.

He had already seen through all of this.

The chaotic gray fog was indeed the key.

Moreover, the chaotic gray fog itself was actually somewhat similar to him.

It was also something that was “Void” and had no physical form.

In that case, as long as he could break this chaotic gray fog, this groundhog would be very easy to deal with.

“You actually chose to come to Wang Ling’s mental space. You’re really courting death.” At that moment, Wang Ying had already thought of a way to break the chaotic gray fog.

He stared at the terrified groundhog in front of him and gave it a “Nuclear-friendly look.”

Chapter 1316 Brother And Sister Mixed Doubles

The next moment.

Wang Ling’s mental space emitted a massive fluctuation!

Wang Ying disintegrated his body into a black hole and devoured the Groundhog!

This was a shadow howl!

But it was even more massive than when Wang Ying had attacked the phantom spirit the last time.

Endless darkness surrounded him from every corner of the mental space.

The gray fog lord quickly flapped his wings to retreat. He could sense the terrifying energy generated in the surrounding space.

In that instant, all the hair on his body stood on end. He did not even think about flapping his wings that were formed from the chaos gray fog to escape into the distance.

At the instant he escaped.

A terrifying shadow rope came from a tricky angle and struck his afterimage, exploding with terrifying energy fluctuations.

“Since you’ve entered this place, there’s no way I’ll let you escape.” Wang Ying’s expression was calm, as if he was talking about something very ordinary.

He controlled countless shadows to chase after him.

The instant these shadows pounced over, they transformed into a myriad of forms, forming all sorts of Shadow Beasts.

Those Shadow Lions, Shadow Dragons, Shadow Crows... They covered the sky and earth as they rushed forward, trampling the space, shaking the void in front of them until it collapsed..

Lord Gray fog had never thought that he would one day become a street rat that would be beaten everywhere.

He threw his head back and roared, “Ahhhhhh!”

Following this authentic groundhog roar, he knew that the situation in front of him could not be decided by himself. He could only fight!

As the number one divine beast under the Daofather!

He did not want to be in such a sorry state and let a shadow be so arrogant in front of him!

The groundhog thought of a way to survive. In the next moment, the glow around his body increased explosively, increasing the density of the gray fog to the highest 75% !

With the strongest damage reduction shield, he charged at Wang Ying without caring about anything else!

“Die here.” Wang Ying extended his hand, controlling the shadow howl to engulf the gray fog lord that was charging at him.

In the end, he suddenly squeezed his hand.

All the black shadows were instantly wrapped up, and in the end, they continued to compress, forming a shadow ball the size of a basketball.

Lord Gray fog was trapped in the shadow ball, bearing the impact of the shadow.

Every second he stayed in the shadow ball was equivalent to taking a hit from Wang Ling’s palm.

Under normal circumstances, the moment he was wrapped up, there shouldn’t be any signs of life.

After all, there were very few people in the world who could withstand the might of Wang Ling’s palm.

But what surprised Wang Ying was that the Groundhog was actually still alive.

“The chaotic gray fog is actually so powerful...” Wang Ying was slightly surprised.

Three seconds later, a corner of his shadow ball protruded.

It was visible to the naked eye.

This corner actually became higher and higher!

Chi!

Another second later.

The groundhog successfully broke out of the Shadow Ball’s restraints with a bruised face.

His entire body was covered in blood. It was obvious that his injuries were not light.

However, this time.

He still survived..

Wang Ying exclaimed in his heart.

This 75% damage reduction of the chaos gray fog was indeed terrifying.

It was actually able to let the Groundhog break out of the Shadow Sphere formed by Shadow Howl alive.

Although he was beaten black and blue all over his body.

But to be able to come out alive was already very impressive.

“You guys trapped me here, what kind of ability is that... if you have the ability, then go out and fight!” Lord Gray fog roared!

Wang Ying rubbed his ears.

This groundhog had clearly come in on its own, but in the end, it had turned the blame onto him and Wang Ling.

“This is a trick of the donkey; even if you go out, it’s useless.” Wang Ying shook his head.

It was true that the Groundhog wasn’t dead.

But Wang Ying had already achieved his goal.

In the shadow ball, the Groundhog had used up most of its chaotic power in order to escape, which had greatly weakened the defense of the layer of chaotic gray fog on its body.

There was no longer a 75% reduction.

Even if the Groundhog went all out, it would only be able to produce a 20% reduction.

Whether it was Wang Ying or Wang Ling, as long as they fought a little more seriously, this groundhog would immediately turn to dust.

In the next moment, Wang Ying raised his hand.

He was already ready to give the groundhog a final blow.

“Just you wait!” Lord Gray fog roared loudly.

He was afraid that Wang Ying would let out another Shadow Howl.

So he used his sharp claws to dig a tunnel again and escape from Wang Ling’s mental space!

“He’s leaving just like that?”

Wang Ying laughed in his heart.

“Why didn’t you kill him?” Wang Ling asked.

He knew that Wang Ying had always been a decisive person.

Thus, the two of them had a simple exchange.

“He’s just a stupid groundhog. I think it might be useful to keep him.”

“But I’ve already promised Qing Tong Cat.”

“Don’t worry, he won’t die so easily.”

“So that’s how it is...”Wang Ling suddenly understood.

In the real universe, the Groundhog had successfully escaped.

He had wanted to avoid a direct collision with Wang Ling, but instead had snuck into his mental space and directly destroyed it.

Who would have thought that he would destroy a loneliness..

There was a great Buddha waiting for him in this mental space!

Lord Gray fog felt a deep sense of helplessness at such a miserable scene.

He had no choice but to retreat!

But what the Groundhog didn’t expect was that.

What awaited him.

Was Wang Ling’s serious palm strike, which he had been accumulating power for a long time!

“Are you finally willing to come out?”Wang Ling’s voice was cold and indifferent.

The groundhog shuddered at the sound of this devil-like voice.

Boom!

Wang Ling raised his hand, and his palm landed on the Groundhog's back, creating an unprecedentedly powerful fluctuation!

There was no extra movement! His palm struck out! Heavenly Dao runes filled the sky!

The space shattered layer by layer, bringing with it the destructive power of the Golden Man!

The groundhog was directly struck from the front of the Moon and pierced through the shadow on the back of the Moon!

Whoosh!

Lord Gray fog spat out a mouthful of blood and cried out in pain.

His face was twisted.

Everything was as Wang Ying had said.

After being surrounded by the shadow sphere, the chaotic gray fog on his body was already extremely weak!

He couldn't bear such a surging palm force anymore!

Wang Ling's palm strike.

The Groundhog's body was pierced from the front to the back of the Moon. Under this astonishing destructive force, his entire body was shattered into pieces.

Finally, there was a bang!

Lord Gray Fog's body disintegrated and exploded on the spot, turning into dust!

"He's finally dead."

Including the damage in his mental space,.

The Groundhog had taken seven slaps from him in total.

In Wang Ling's opinion, this was already an excellent result.

However, he didn't leave just like that.

Because Wang Ying's words had just reminded him.

As the number one divine beast under Dao ancestor Wang, the groundhog.

And since its strength had surpassed Dao God's, it definitely had some special privileges.

And sure enough, everything was within his expectations.

Wang Ling saw that Lord Gray Fog, who had been killed on the dark side of the moon by him,.

Was actually gathering bit by bit at a speed visible to the naked eye.

The groundhog also had the privilege of resurrecting in the Forsaken Land of the gods.

Moreover, this should be a free resurrection without the Green Tong Cat's permission.

From this point, it could be imagined how much Daofather Wang doted on the groundhog.

The Green Tong cat hated this groundhog to the bone. No matter how much cultivation this groundhog sacrificed, it wouldn't be able to let him go.

But Wang Ling judged that.

There was a limit to the number of times this kind of free resurrection could take place.

It was impossible to resurrect indefinitely.

“Hahaha! Didn’t expect it, did you? I’m Back!”

On the dark side of the Moon, the newly resurrected Groundhog was abnormally arrogant!

He was resurrected in full condition, and even the chaotic gray fog on his body had returned to its original state!

He stared at Wang Ling, stretched out his sharp claws, and howled at the sky. “You Screen Dog, it won’t be that easy to kill me!”

As soon as he finished speaking!

The Shadow on the dark side of the Moon once again erupted violently!

The terrifying shadow gathered into a vortex that spiraled under the groundhog’s feet.

That terrifying power was like a bottomless black hole that devoured it, drowning his body along his feet!

“Nuan...”

Wang Ling looked in the direction of Earth, and his heart was moved.

He already understood what he meant.

It was Wang Nuan who wanted to cooperate with him.

Let’s play a mixed doubles match between brother and sister.

Chapter 1317 Controlled Wang Nuan

Wang Ling didn't know why a good groundhog wanted to court death.

What's more, he was shocked to discover that his unborn sister seemed to have a "Brother fetish" attribute.

After all, Nuan went berserk after hearing the Groundhog's clamor.

At that moment, Wang Ling's heart was abnormally melancholic.

Before and after Brother Control Wang Xiaoer, after Brother Control Wang Nuan..

Their old Wang family's DNA was really magical!

..

To be able to cause the shadow riot on the dark side of the moon from such a far distance...

Only the founder of Shadow Dao could operate it so skillfully.

Although Wang Ling had learned Shadow Dao, it was true that he wasn't as proficient as his sister.

After all, this was something Nuan had learned in her mother's womb, and there were still many new functions that had yet to be released.

Wang Ling had only learned a rough outline, and was far from reaching the essence of it.

Learning the Great Dao and completely fusing them together were two different things.

His sister was very strong!

This made Wang Ling feel happy in his heart!

When Wang Nuan grew up, he might not lack opponents to practice with!

The groundhog was still struggling with all its might.

It was completely bound by Shadow Dao and tied up on the back of the Moon, unable to move.

“You siblings are really...”

Before he could say the word shameless, the groundhog’s mouth was immediately sealed by a shadow!

“Nuan has good control.” Wang Ling gave Wang Nuan a high evaluation of her control.

Even though this sister of his hadn’t been born yet, she was clearly a natural-born combat talent!

At that moment, Wang Ling felt the tacit understanding between the siblings.

Nuan was control.

He was output!

It was really too convenient to coordinate!

Now that the Groundhog had been resurrected in its full condition, Wang Ling knew that he definitely wouldn’t be able to finish it off with a normal palm strike.

Furthermore, the chaotic gray fog on the other party’s body had already recovered to its peak.

Thus, he had to continuously strike it before it could die.

Thus, in all sorts of situations.

Wang Ling began to accumulate power.

Because the groundhog had already been controlled by Wang Nuan, this gave Wang Ling a lot of time.

Buzz!

About ten seconds later, a red light surged out of Wang Ling's palm and then covered the entire palm.

God-destroying strike.

In order to ensure that he could kill this groundhog, this was the first time Wang Ling had displayed such a palm technique.

This was the power of a palm strike condensed from three thousand Great Dao!

When Wang Ling condensed it, the space around him shattered, and countless bolts of lightning of divine punishment exploded wildly in the surroundings.

“Not good...”at this moment, the Groundhog felt his scalp go numb!

This palm strike was extremely powerful!

Even if he had the protection of the chaotic gray fog, he might not be able to survive it!

He had to think of a way to break free!

At that moment, the Groundhog racked its brain trying to think of a way to break free from the shadow's imprisonment.

But at that moment, he heard faint cries coming from the universe.

Wang Ling gathered his strength as he looked for the source of the cries.

At first, he thought it was the groundhog crying.

But it wasn't.

In the end, he found out that the owner of the cry was actually the spirit of the Moon.

The spirit of the Moon wept in pain and was extremely afraid. "Ling Zhenren, I already have a lot of holes on the surface... just now, I even got a through and through injury. This groundhog is gone, and so am I!"

"..."

Hearing this, Wang Ling was slightly startled.

This was his mistake.

He had even forgotten about the spirit of the planet..

Thus, Wang Ling raised his left hand again and casually pointed in the direction of the Moon.

The entire moon lit up with a "Buzz"and suddenly turned into a huge red moon!

The spirit of the moon: "Ling Zhenren, what is this?"

This was the "Permanent illumination spell".

Wang Ling used this spell to strengthen the moon and turn it into a "Super Moon"!

Considering that he might have to drag some difficult enemies out of earth to fight later, Wang Ling felt that the surface of the Moon seemed quite suitable!

So he used a permanent enchantment spell on the Moon!

It made the surface of the moon firm so that it wouldn't be easily destroyed by his palm power..

Of course.

Bad things could still be destroyed!

But since it had already been enchanted,.

He could just repair it later when he cleaned up the battlefield.

Although it had already been "Strengthened"by Wang Ling,.

The Moon Spirit stared at Wang Ling, still feeling a little apprehensive.

Rumble!

Wang Ling's palm, "God-destroying strike", accurately struck the back of the Moon!

Before the Groundhog could cry out in alarm, the Moon Spirit had already cried out in alarm.

Lord Gray fog was furious. "Why the hell are you shouting so loudly!"

The moon spirit: "Even if I don't break, it still hurts when it hits me!"

The huge palm print covered an area of tens of thousands of hectares! Even the palm lines on the palm were magnified infinitely in an instant, and the overwhelming destructive power swept toward the back of the Moon!

The Groundhog was once again smashed to smithereens..

Under Wang Nuan's powerful control, he couldn't break free at all!

At the same time, inside the Buddha's Golden Lotus.

The young girl saw the world-shaking battle near the Moon through the battle sect's satellite.

"Student Wang Ling is still amazing." Lotus sun was extremely surprised.

Although she couldn't understand the atmosphere at the scene, just from the picture, it was clear that the Groundhog wasn't an easy enemy to deal with.

"I heard that this groundhog is a divine beast, stronger than any cultivator on earth except master," Odd Zhuo said.

"What about senior golden lamp?" Lotus Sun asked.

"It's said to be a draw."

Odd Zhuo smiled. "But once master's Little Sister Is Born, I'm afraid there will be one more person on earth that this groundhog can't beat."

"I've heard about it before, classmate Wang Ling's little sister!" Lotus Sun said with a smile. "I have a little sister too!" But actually, my little sister isn't blood-related. She's the only one who doesn't know. I've been thinking whether or not I should tell her the truth."

"Whether or not they're blood-related, as long as their relationship is good enough, they'll still be good sisters. Junior Sister Lotus Sun is so smart, she'll definitely find a good way to deal with it," Odd Zhuo said.

"Mm, I will."

Lotus sun nodded, and then suddenly asked, “Oh, that’s right, senior Zhuo! What do you think sister Wang Nuan will like?”

Odd Zhuo thought for a moment and quickly raised his head. “Frozen dumplings?”

“Frozen dumplings?”

Lotus sun was very surprised by this answer.

“Are you sure it’s not a frozen dumpling filled with crispy noodles?”

“Yes, it’s just an ordinary frozen dumpling...”

Odd Zhuo couldn’t help laughing. “Junior Lotus Sun should know better than me what girls like.”

Lotus Sun shook her head firmly. “Old Wang’s DNA is too magical; I really can’t figure it out...”

Odd Zhuo:” ...”

At this moment, Odd Zhuo laughed evilly in his heart.

There was a saying: what bicycle do you want!

He felt that.

Junior Sister Lotus Sun could send him there..

Chapter 1318 The Groundhog’s Survival On Earth

Send the groundhog to its death once again.

Wang Ling stared at the huge palm print on the Moon’s surface, a little embarrassed.

Although the moon had already been “Strengthened” by him, the destructive power of the god-destroying strike was incomparably great, and the surface was still badly damaged.

The Groundhog was dead.

The Moon Spirit had also been slapped by Wang Ling, and he felt very wronged. “WUUUUUU. Ling Zhenren, can you fix me...”

Wang Ling nodded his head with certainty.

The Moon’s surface was originally full of potholes, and now that it had been damaged by the battle, it looked even more bumpy and miserable.

There was no other way.

Wang Ling raised his hand and prepared to cast a Heavenly Dao spell on the Moon’s surface to repair it.

But the moon spirit always had an ominous premonition. “Wait! Ling Zhenren! Which Heavenly Dao spell... Do you use?”

Which spell?

Of course, it was the “Great repair spell” combined with the legendary “Great skin-peeling spell”!

The great repair spell was first used to maintain the whole moon, and then the skin was peeled to remove the bumpy parts on the Moon’s surface, but the principle of the great peeling spell was a bit like peeling an apple until the moon’s surface became smooth.

When the Moon Spirit heard this, the whole ball was in a terrible state. “Don’t... Ling Zhenren, you just have to fill in the deep potholes on the surface. I don’t think there’s a need to rub the skin...”

Was there really no need?

Wang Ling confirmed.

“No Need!”The Moon Spirit was resolute.

A faint look of disappointment appeared on Wang Ling’s face.

It was only then that he realized in surprise.

The story books from when he was young about “Sister Moon”were all lies!

This moon spirit was a serious “Straight man”!

Only a straight man wouldn’t care about his potholed face at all!

Then, Wang Ling’s fingertip lit up.

The light from the “Great repair spell”shone down, and all the palm prints and deep pits on the Moon’s surface from the previous battle were restored to their original state.

“This feels so good! What kind of spell is this? This feels so good!”The Moon Spirit, shrouded in the light of the great repair spell, cried out in a strange voice.

Halfway through the repair, Wang Ling’s expression suddenly changed.

He felt that he wouldn’t be mistaken.

This was indeed the Groundhog’s aura..

“It can actually be resurrected without any cost?”Wang Ling felt that it was inconceivable.

But this time, the groundhog seemed to have taken a little longer.

And the place it was resurrected wasn't where it had died before.

It was in the direction of Earth!

Wang Ling quickly turned his gaze over.

This groundhog had actually gone to earth?

But wasn't there a restriction left behind by the Dao ancestor on earth..

Wang Ling was puzzled.

He didn't know what the Groundhog was trying to do.

But in fact, it would make things difficult for him.

That was because he couldn't directly touch the earth like he did with the Moon Spirit.

Most importantly, if he wanted to kill the groundhog, he had to increase the damage to the level of a palm strike like the "God-destroying strike".

It would be fine if he slapped the moon, but if he slapped the earth... He was afraid that a group of innocent cultivators would suffer as well.

He had to think of a way to move this troublesome groundhog somewhere else!

There was no time to think.

Wang Ling's figure flashed, and he disappeared in front of the Moon Spirit.

The moon spirit felt wronged.

He hadn't finished enjoying himself yet!

"This damned groundhog... Don't let me get a chance to take revenge!"The Moon Spirit said angrily to himself.

Only the person in question could experience the pain and anger of being interrupted in the midst of the exhilarating process!

At this moment, Lord Gray fog appeared on Earth in full health.

This was truly a move he had no choice but to make.

He didn't want to be controlled the moment he was resurrected, and then sent straight into the forsaken land of the gods after a series of violent beatings..

The power the Daofather had given him to resurrect in full health was indeed not unlimited.

And the number of times he had left wasn't much.

Although there was a restriction left behind by the Daofather on Earth, it would limit most of his strength.

But it was also because of this restriction that as long as he was on Earth, the heavenly axiom wouldn't be able to track his location.

This restriction was a double-edged sword.

When he appeared on Earth, it could produce a resonance like the heavenly axiom's signal blocker.

Thus, although hiding on Earth would limit his strength,

Earth was actually a good place to hide.

In short, that terrifying youth from Earth.

If he fought in a normal way, he definitely wouldn't be able to beat him.

The damage was too high.

Even his chaotic gray fog couldn't withstand it.

Thus, the incomparably clever gray fog Lord had a plan.

Although he couldn't kill Wang Ling,

If he could find Wang Ling's weak point.

For example, he could kidnap something important to him and threaten him!

Then he could make this screen dog commit suicide in front of him!

Then he could also win!

This method might be a little sinister and vicious.

But as the saying went, there was no shortage of deception in war!

As for the target, Lord Gray fog had already thought it through.

When they had fought in space earlier...

Lord Gray fog had actually always noticed that a secret satellite from Earth was watching his fight with Wang Ling from a distance.

It didn't take a genius to know that the girl who had spied on them through the satellite must have been a very important person.

At that time, Lord Gray fog had already groped his spiritual sense over.

And at that moment.

He was already in the war sect.

Because he was moving too fast, almost no one had noticed his existence.

The groundhog quickly locked onto Lotus Sun's position.

"Hehe, it's actually underground?" After confirming her position, he was overjoyed.

Underground was his home ground!

..

In the war sect's underground retreat cellar.

The girl was seriously thinking about "Bribery"!

She did have her own experience in bribing her younger sister.

When she was young, Lotus Sun had given many gifts to her younger sister.

In order to build a good relationship with Sun Yu.

But most things that girls liked were different.

Under normal circumstances, in a family.

Whether brother, sister, or brother, they could all find common ground in what they liked.

“Junior Sister Lotus Sun doesn’t seem to have such a sad expression on her face.”

Odd Zhuo couldn’t help laughing in his heart when he saw that the girl was thinking hard about what gift to give him.

“First impressions are very important!”

Lotus Sun said with a serious expression, “But there’s no rush. When I come back to life, I’ll have a long time to go on a field trip!”

This set of rules for increasing favorability.

Apart from her repeated failures with Wang Ling, she was very confident in the others!

With a little investigation, she would always know what little sister Wang Nuan liked!

“Don’t you have the slightest doubt that Shifu really won’t be able to save you?” Odd Zhuo asked curiously.

“No.”

The girl smiled faintly and answered without hesitation.

From the moment she had clearly sensed Wang Ling's true strength.

Lotus sun already understood.

Perhaps there was really nothing in this world that student Wang Ling couldn't achieve!

The only person who could save her was probably student Wang Ling!

But at that moment.

Odd Zhuo suddenly felt something strange above his head. "Senior Heavenly Dao of death, something seems to be wrong?"

"HM? Is There?"

Because the Heavenly Dao signal jammer had been activated.

The Heavenly Dao of death had no way of predicting that danger had already arrived.

In the blink of an eye!

A sharp claw had already pierced through the ceiling.

Then, the figure swiftly jumped out of the hole, picked up the Buddha Golden Lotus, and ran!

Chapter 1319 Heavenly Dao Signal Blocking

Lord Gray Fog's speed was extremely fast.

Digging the ground was his specialty.

His claws could even break through the mental space barrier, let alone this measly soil?

Carrying the Buddha's Golden Lotus, Lord Gray fog retreated at high speed.

He quickly dug a tunnel and escaped to a place called the top of the sky in an instant.

Then, he aimed his claws at the void.

A trace of chaotic power surged out from the tip of his claws, warped space-time, and quickly broke through the spatial wall!

With the Golden Buddha Lotus in tow, he took one step and drilled in!

Everything happened too suddenly, and lord gray fog, who had suddenly barged into the underground isolation chamber, quickly disappeared with the Golden Buddha Lotus on the spot. Odd Zhuo and the Heavenly Dao of death didn't have time to react.

“This is the groundhog that Ling Zhenren was dealing with...”the heavenly dao of death frowned.

“Senior didn't seem to sense anything unusual?”

“There's no mistake. It must have been his appearance that caused the restrictions on earth to resonate, causing the Heavenly Dao's signal to be blocked.”The Heavenly Dao of death hadn't expected this to happen.

In fact, he wasn't the only one; even crispy noodles dao monarch hadn't been able to react.

The “Real clone”was also a Heavenly Dao spell.

“Too crafty, he actually used the restriction left behind by the Dao ancestor in the opposite direction.”The Heavenly Dao of death blamed himself.

At that moment, Wang Ling appeared.

Because of the “Heavenly Dao signal blocking”.

The Groundhog’s aura soon disappeared from Earth.

In the end, Wang Ling was still a step too late in tracking it.

With the other party’s Heavenly Dao signal blocked, using Heavenly Dao magic to track it was no longer practical.

Even the monk’s Golden Lotus Buddha was a manifestation of the Heavenly Dao.

So the chances of the monk locating the Golden Lotus Buddha were very slim.

Wang Ling frowned.

He had to think of another way to find Lotus Sun as soon as possible.

“Master, what should we do now?” Odd Zhuo was very anxious.

It was his duty to protect the young girl.

But he hadn’t expected this cunning groundhog to take advantage of a loophole!

Wang Ling’s gaze was fixed on the spot where Lotus Sun had disappeared, and he carefully observed the two holes in the cellar as he injected his eye power into them.

His gaze quickly darted through the passage..

But this groundhog was very cunning.

It had used the power of space movement many times during its escape.

As a result, these tunnels became a maze-like existence.

There was actually nothing in Wang Ling's line of sight.

He couldn't find any trace of the groundhog or Golden Lotus.

But it wasn't as if there weren't any clues.

In the many tunnels that lord gray fog had dug up, Wang Ling found the afterimage of the Buddha's Golden Lotus!

"Is it a Nuan's clue?"

Wang Ling immediately understood.

In the split second that the Groundhog had swept away the Buddha's golden lotus and fled,

Wang Nuan had used the power of her Shadow Dao to capture the shadow of the Buddha's Golden Lotus!

If he hadn't learned Shadow Dao a long time ago, he would never have been so sensitive to an afterimage.

Nuan had made another great contribution!

Lord Gray fog thought that he had used the restriction left behind by the Dao ancestor in the opposite direction, triggering the Heavenly Dao signal blocking mechanism, which made it impossible for Wang Ling to track him.

But this groundhog had never expected that.

The ability to master the Great Dao.

Wasn't just the Heavenly Dao..

..

After the space jump, Lord Gray fog landed on the same spot as before.

But the girl still felt that the space they were in now was different from before.

“What did you do?” Lotus Sun asked from the Buddha's Golden Lotus.

To be honest, the aura emitted by this groundhog made her feel a complete sense of oppression.

If it weren't for the Buddha's golden lotus protecting her, Lotus Sun felt that she might not have been able to withstand such an oppressive aura.

“Your tone is neither servile nor overbearing. Aren't you the least bit afraid?”

Lord Gray fog held the Buddha's golden lotus with his claws and sneered.

“There's nothing to be afraid of in the first place.”

Lotus Sun said, “I believe that classmate Wang Ling will come to save me.”

“It's impossible for him to find you.”

Lord Gray fog clicked his tongue and shook his head at the young girl. “It looks like you haven't realized the seriousness of the problem.”

“Then what exactly is senior trying to say?” Lotus Sun asked politely with a slight frown.

“To be honest, I did want to capture you as a hostage in the beginning and then coerce that peeping dog into submission. But from the moment I captured you, I changed my mind.”

The groundhog laughed sinisterly. “You’re a child of the Void, right?” “Furthermore, because you’ve been resurrected too many times, you’ve triggered the Dao ancestor’s restrictions, causing your sense of existence to gradually disappear. “That’s why the monk created such a golden lotus and sealed your soul inside.”

Upon hearing this, the girl was slightly startled.

“I was right?”

Lord Gray fog chuckled. “This monk’s golden lotus has condensed his cultivation base of a hundred lifetimes. “It can indeed be used to delay the dao ancestor’s resurrection restriction so that your presence won’t be diminished for the time being. “As for them, they just need to find a way to truly resurrect you as soon as possible so that you can return to your physical body. “The resurrection restriction won’t continue to be triggered.”

“Then, what else does senior know?” Lotus Sun asked.

“I also know that the resurrection restriction has actually been activated since the moment I caught you!”

Lord gray fog said, “Back then, in order to restrict my ability, the Dao ancestor forbade me from coming to Earth to cause trouble. As long as I’m on Earth, all kinds of restrictions will be strengthened, including this resurrection restriction!”

“Because of my existence, this resurrection restriction has also been affected by my resonance and has become stronger. The monk’s golden lotus is no longer effective.”

“You mean that my sense of existence will continue to disappear, right?” Lotus Sun asked.

“Yes.”

Lord Gray fog sighed. “When your sense of existence completely disappears, everyone on Earth who knows you will forget you! “As long as I carry you around, I will also be influenced by you, and those who know me will forget me at the same time!”

“I understand, senior. You’re afraid of being beaten by classmate Wang Ling, afraid that he’ll catch up to you!”The young girl couldn’t help laughing.

“Shut up!”

Gray fog lord sneered. “Are you still pretending to be calm up to now? You really are a stubborn duck!”

As if it had been poked by Lotus Sun, the Groundhog began to ramble on about the situation in front of the young girl.

It wanted the girl to see reality clearly.

“When your sense of existence completely disappears, you will cease to exist at all! When that time comes, you will be even more miserable alive than dead! Do you still think that Kid will come and save you?”

Lord gray fog said, “And haven’t you noticed? I took you and jumped through space.”

“The Earth in a second?”

“You can actually see it?”? That’s right! This is Earth one second later! In other words, the space that kid is currently in is still one second away from us. “Space is different, and your sense of existence has completely disappeared. Even if you scream your lungs out, no one will come to save you!”

After Gray Fog Lord finished speaking, he wanted to open his mouth and laugh, but the more he thought about it, the more he felt that something was wrong.

Something was not right!

This girl was not particularly strong..

How could she see through his spatial jump?

At that moment, the Groundhog found a blind spot!

Chapter 1320 Summit Of The Heavens, Palm Cliff

Wang Ling's figure disappeared along with him in the underground secluded cultivation cellar.

Odd Zhuo suddenly felt dizzy from the divine pool. "No... Why does my brain suddenly hurt so much!"

Even Death Heavenly Dao reacted the same way, and the two of them fell to the ground with their backs against each other.

However, the headache symptoms quickly disappeared.

The two of them slumped to the ground.

Questions kept popping up in their minds.

Why were they here?

What were they doing?

"Senior heavenly axiom of Death?"

"HMM?"

"Do you feel like we've forgotten something..."

"I do." Heavenly axiom of death nodded.

He crossed his arms and sat cross-legged on the ground, deep in thought, but couldn't remember exactly what he had forgotten.

Odd Zhuo carefully observed his surroundings.

Because he had lost a part of his memory, many things couldn't be linked together.

He didn't even know why he had appeared in this war sect's seclusion cellar.

"Why is there such a big hole in the ceiling?"

"Who could have stabbed it?"

"Such a big hole... who would stab it for no reason! And there's one in the sky and one on the ground!"

"Didn't Ling Zhenren just leave? It could have been him," said Heavenly Dao of death.

"That's true."

Odd Zhuo nodded. "That makes sense! My Master is big everywhere, so it's not strange for him to poke such a big hole."

Death Heavenly Dao: "What do you mean..."

Odd Zhuo: "I said my master has a big fist."

Death Heavenly Dao: "..."

Emmm..

The scene was taken advantage of for a long time.

Odd Zhuo and Death Heavenly Dao thought it over and over again, but in the end, they still felt that their memories couldn't be linked together.

It was as if they had forgotten something together, or in other words, someone.

“Let's go out and take a look; maybe we'll remember it soon. Besides, master was in such a hurry just now; I think something must have happened. Let's go see if we can help!” Odd Zhuo stood up at that moment.

He stretched out his hand and said, “Sword, come!”

An emerald-green crystal bamboo sword was summoned and transformed into a stream of light that fell into Odd Zhuo's hand.

The moment he held the sword.

Odd Zhuo felt an electric current coursing through his entire body!

“Yu, do you want to say something to me?” Odd Zhuo asked as he picked up the second-best sword in the world.

A string of words gradually appeared on Yu's body. “Fate will tell you that the moment you see this string of words, you'll regain your lost memories.”

In an instant!

Waves of information instantly surged into Odd Zhuo's mind from the “Future”!

“So that's how it is!” It was only for an instant that odd zhuo understood.

“What did you think of?”

The Heavenly Dao of death asked, still scratching his head.

“I thought of something I forgot.” Odd Zhuo smiled foolishly, as happy as a child.

He actually had a lot of things to do now.

So in order to remind himself at all times,

Odd Zhuo used the power of the “Precognition” to back up all the things he had to do on his sword spirit to prevent himself from forgetting.

The words that had manifested on the “Precognition” earlier had been carved by Odd Zhuo in advance.

As long as he saw this string of words, he would be able to recall the specified memory!

The resurrection restriction would weaken the girl’s sense of presence and make everyone around her forget about her.

That was right!

But the Groundhog had miscalculated in the end.

The sword spirit..

Wasn’t human!

..

On the other side, a second later on Earth, in the direction of the summit of the heavens.

In front of the Palm Cliff.

This was the most famous tourist spot in the summit of the heavens.

In front of the cliff was a vast ocean, and the horizon and the sunrise could be seen.

The crack in front of the cliff was very strange. It was a five-fingered mark in the shape of five curved waves.

It was rumored that the ocean in front of the Palm Cliff was created by a palm strike from a mighty figure.

At this moment, the gray fog lord was still wondering how the girl could see through his space jump.

“How do you know?”

His eyes were serious as he stared at the girl in the Buddha’s Golden Lotus.

She was a foundation establishment cultivator.

It was impossible for her to use the power to see through space.

More importantly, Lord Gray fog had noticed that lotus sun had been unusually calm and collected ever since she had been kidnapped by him.

Although the girl’s body couldn’t help but tremble because of the aura emanating from him.

But she didn’t show the slightest fear.

“It’s impossible... you’re not a true child of the void yet! Even though you have tremendous potential! “But as long as you don’t return to the Void, you won’t be able to obtain the void world’s tremendous power!” Lord Gray Fog’s mind was constantly pondering. “So, it’s impossible for you to see through my spatial jump!”

“Senior, haven’t you noticed yet?”

At this moment, Lotus Sun sat upright in the Buddha's golden lotus and asked calmly.

She raised her glowing eyes and looked somewhere.

It wasn't until this moment that the groundhog realized in astonishment.

The shadow of the Buddha's Golden Lotus was actually an afterimage..

Although the shadow of the Golden Lotus was incomplete, under the illumination of the light.

At this moment, the Golden Lotus's shadow was stretched out very long.

And on this afterimage, three lines of words were carved.

This was a note that the young girl was extremely familiar with.

Although it was short, it gave her a great sense of security.

The Groundhog's eyes twitched as he looked in disbelief at the information transmitted from the shadow..

He had no idea when it was.

These three lines of words were actually carved on the afterimage of the Buddha's Golden Lotus!

The first line was:

[Earth one second later]

So someone had sent this girl a message!

At this moment, after discovering the truth, the Groundhog was extremely afraid.

His forehead was already beginning to sweat uncontrollably.

Then, he continued reading along the first line.

The second line was:

[don't be afraid]

Don't be afraid?

Was she telling the young girl not to be afraid?

No wonder this girl had been so calm from start to finish..

Finally, the third line was:.

And the third line was the one that frightened the groundhog the most:

[I'm Coming]

“Who's coming...”

At this moment, the sweat on the Groundhog's body could already be gathered into a small river at his feet.

This was the Earth one second later!

And he had also been affected by lotus sun's “Vanishing presence” radiation.

Logically speaking, no one should remember them anymore!

According to the Groundhog's plan!

As long as he continued to hide with the girl on Earth one second later!

It wouldn't be long before he could travel back as he pleased.

He would transform into a terrifying mysterious gray fog creature!

"Impossible! No one can discover this place! No one!"

The groundhog roared.

At that moment, a fourth line of words appeared on the afterimage of the Buddha's Golden Lotus.

It was the same beautiful thin golden body that Wang Ling had written.

The fourth line of words:

[I'll kill you again]

When the groundhog saw this, he was so scared that his soul had already left his body!

He stretched out his claws and tried to escape!

Since Earth wouldn't be able to do it in a second! Then he would delay it for a few more seconds!

He didn't believe that Wang Ling could find him!

When he waved his claws in the air!

The space jump happened again!

“I did it!” At that moment, the groundhog heaved a long sigh of relief.

But when he calmed down, he realized that there was something wrong with the surrounding environment..

This wasn't the peak of Heaven he was at all!

“Don't waste your energy, I already predicted that you could jump.”

At that moment, Wang Ling appeared behind him and stared at him as he said telepathically.

“I understand... you set up a space trap and reversed time... As long as I jump, I'll go back in time...” Gray Fog Lord broke out in cold sweat. “But the time you changed isn't right... I don't look like Earth a second ago.”

Wang Ling shrugged.

Of course, this wasn't the earth from a second ago.

Because from the start, he had no intention of correcting the time.

After all, this was still within the range of the Earth.

Whether it was the earth from a second ago or the earth from a second later...

It wasn't good to make a move.

So Wang Ling reset the time by a hundred million points.

“This is the earth from four billion years ago.”

At this moment, Wang Ling stared at the Groundhog in front of him and stretched his neck.

“Four billion years ago...”the Groundhog’s astonishment couldn’t be described with words.

“God-destroying strike...”

Wang Ling didn’t say anything unnecessary.

Another palm strike landed on the groundhog.

In front of him, the originally flat ground was instantly struck out of the ground by Wang Ling’s palm strike!

The surging tide continued to gather, forming a vast ocean!

Four billion years later..

This place had become one of the most famous tourist attractions on Earth -- the summit of the heavens, Palm Cliff.
