Chapter 1321 The Tenth Update On The Third Anniversary!

Time had returned to the peak of Heaven Four billion years later -- Palm Cliff.

Everything had returned to the right track.

It was already Monday morning on November 30th.

On the horizon ahead, the Sun was rising.

The sky was gradually breaking.

When the first ray of sunlight hit Wang Ling's face.

He was standing on a dead and mutilated groundhog fossil..

"Student Wang Ling!"

A young girl's excited voice came from the Buddha's Golden Lotus. "I knew you would come."

"Mm."

The red light of the morning sun shone on Wang Ling's face, covering his face.

He picked up the groundhog fossil on the ground and shook off the dust on it.

"Student Wang Ling, thank Sister Nuan for me!"The young girl smiled.

She knew very well that although Wang Ling was the one who had ended this battle,.

There were also other people she needed to thank.

“Mm.” Wang Ling nodded, his words as precious as gold.

Then, he snapped his fingers.

The Buddha Golden Lotus was sent back to the war sect..

..

At that moment, Odd Zhuo and Heavenly Dao of death were in the true venerate hall reflecting on their mistakes.

They hadn't been able to carry out Wang Ling's mission very well.

Because they hadn't been able to protect him well.

So they had come on their own initiative to “Beg for forgiveness” and kneel in Zhenzun Hall.

“What's going on? Why is elder Zhuo kneeling?”

“It seems like he didn't look at anything well.”

“Was it Lord Zhenzun who punished him?”

“That's the blame here! Lord Zhenzun didn't punish him either, but in the end, elder Zhuo came here on his own initiative to beg for forgiveness...”

At the entrance of the main hall, many busybody disciples came over to join in the fun.

“What are you looking at! Add another set of Huanggang Secret Scrolls!” At the entrance, Fang Xing yelled with his arms crossed.

A few of the male disciples left with blushing faces, perhaps because they were ashamed or because of Fang Xing..

Ever since the news of him turning into a woman spread in the war sect, such things had happened from time to time.

Previously, Fang Xing had only attracted the attention of many female disciples, but now even male disciples were looking at him..

This made Fang Xing very distressed.

“The two of you can get up. Student Wang Ling didn’t Say Anything.”Leaning against the door frame, Fang Xing stared at the scene in the hall, not knowing whether to laugh or cry.

It could only be said that whether it was odd zhao or the Heavenly Dao of death, their desire to live was too strong!

It was still okay for them to take the initiative to apologize..

Fang Xing was completely stupefied by this operation.

“No! Although master didn’t blame me, I can’t Let Myself Go! It’s all because I didn’t cultivate enough and didn’t react enough!”

Odd Zhao did his best to reflect. “Even if the Heavenly Dao of death hadn’t been able to react at that time because of the Heavenly Dao’s signal-blocking restriction, I had already sensed something unusual! If I had protected junior sister Lotus Sun earlier! It wouldn’t have ended up like this!”

“No! Although Ling Zhenren didn’t blame me, I can’t Let Myself Go! It’s all because I didn’t prepare enough and didn’t anticipate the danger ahead of time!”

Heavenly Dao of Death also sighed.

The two of them reflected in the hall and loudly said their mistakes, as if they were afraid that others wouldn’t hear them..

Fang Xing found it amusing.

After a few minutes.

A golden stream of light flew in from outside the window.

It was the Golden Lotus of Buddha!

It could only be said that Ling Zhenren was indeed Ling Zhenren!

Saving a sheep in the tiger's mouth could only be described as an awesome Grasse!

The Heavenly Dao of death was happy in his heart.

Neither he nor Odd Zhuo was surprised by this result.

When a real person made a move, they would know whether it was true or not.

How could a mere groundhog stir up waves?

However, the Heavenly Dao of death felt that Odd Zhuo was much more excited than he had imagined!

Seeing the return of the Golden Lotus, Odd Zhuo was so excited that he couldn't control himself.

He pounced on it with tears in his eyes!

"Senior Odd Zhuo... What's wrong?" Lotus Sun was startled by Odd Zhuo's reaction.

This was the first time she had seen odd zhuo lose his composure like this.

Odd Zhuo held the Golden Lotus in his hand as tears streamed down his face. "Mistress! You're finally back!"

The girl's face turned red and quickly burned to her ears. Even her snow-white neck was thoroughly red. "Who... Who's your mistress..."

After he calmed down, Odd Zhuo thought about it and felt that he had indeed called her a little too early.

It hadn't been decided yet..

But he didn't regret his mistake.

At least he had tested out the girl's intentions with this move.

Heh Heh, if he hadn't meant that to their master! Why was he blushing!

"I'm sorry, Junior Sister Lotus Sun. I was too excited." Having succeeded in his trick, Odd Zhuo smiled like an old fox.

"Mm... it's not your fault. In the future... Don't call me that..." Lotus Sun kept fanning her face with her hands.

But this time, it would probably take a very, very long time for the temperature on her face to subside.

..

In the abandoned land of the gods, Wang Ling casually threw the broken remains of the groundhog onto the ground.

Seeing that the Groundhog was already dead, the Green Tong Cat's eyes lit up. "As expected of you!"

"Is the contract established?" Wang Ling asked expressionlessly.

“It’s already established! Ling Zhenren, don’t worry! I’ll Take Miss Sun’s soul in the future! She won’t suffer any grievances or danger with me! Just like we agreed!”The Green Tong Cat said.

“Mm.”Wang Ling nodded his head in satisfaction.

He looked at the incomplete fossil of Lord Gray fog on the ground, and actually still had some doubts in his heart.

To be honest, the groundhog was indeed a difficult opponent.

It was hard for Wang Ling to imagine that it could be resurrected so many times in its full condition.

He set the time to four billion years ago and killed the groundhog.

The Groundhog’s aura had indeed disappeared from the universe.

But Wang Ling had a feeling that there was more to this matter.

“I know what Ling Zhenren is thinking. Don’t worry, Zhenren, he’s really dead.”

Qing tong cat said, “He actually still had a few lives left before Ling Zhenren’s final strike. But because Ling Zhenren set the time back... that time wasn’t the time when the Dao ancestor had given him the privilege of being resurrected, so he didn’t come back to life.”

Hearing this, Wang Ling finally breathed a sigh of relief.

The groundhog incident had finally come to an end.

Tomorrow, December 1st, Tuesday, was also the time for Earth to seek an upgrade.

Wang Ling planned to go to the desert of bones to take a look at the golden lamp Monk’s chaotic guidance device arrangement.

But before he left, he felt that there was something he hadn't done yet..

..

..

At the same time, in space.

The spirit of the Moon and the spirit of the Earth looked at each other from a distance.

The spirit of the moon: "I knew it, Ling Zhenren forgot about me..."

The spirit of the earth: "It's better to forget..."

The spirit of the Moon nodded. "That's true... otherwise, I'd be beaten up every day! Look at the Potholes on my face! Every time he hits me with his palm, my heart palpitates! I'm much worse off than you! You're about to level up!"

"Isn't leveling up to be more convenient to be beaten up?"

At this moment, the spirit of the Earth's words caused the two spirits of the planets to fall into a long silence.

The spirit of the Earth sighed. "I've been afraid of him since 4 billion years ago."

The spirit of the Moon:"..."

Chapter 1322 Odd Zhuo's Road Was Long And Wide

Wang Ling had a very strong feeling that that stupid groundhog might still be alive.

But so far, it had indeed lost its aura.

After all, it was the number one divine beast under Dao ancestor Wang. Loopy toad had been able to escape death with its primordial spirit out of its body, so this groundhog might be able to do it.

But Wang Ling wasn't worried that this groundhog would continue to cause trouble.

It had been killed three times in a row.

It took loopy toad a long time to recover from this psychological trauma.

At night, Wang Ling's figure appeared in the dead bone desert.

In front of him was an intricate guiding device.

These devices were made of cosmic alloy.

It was unknown how many planets the Golden Lamp Monk had traveled before he had collected the materials to make these devices.

Under the monk's arrangement, metal tubes connected head to tail according to the design drawings, densely covering the ground and surface of the desert like a spider web.

The dead bone desert was called the dead bone desert because there were many quicksand zones here.

If an ordinary device was placed on top of it, it would be swallowed by the quicksand because of its weight, and then sink directly to the bottom of the desert.

But these cosmic alloys were different. Not only were they incomparably strong, but the key was that they were light and as light as a feather, which made them perfect for laying in this environment.

Wang Ling saw it.

These spider-web-like devices finally converged at a central point in the desert.

That should be where the egg of chaos was placed.

“Brother Ling!”

“Na Na! Ling Zhenren is here!”

Grenade-throwing senior immortal and Miss Ah Juan saw Wang Ling’s figure from afar.

It was Monday, and Wang Ling was supposed to be doing his homework at this time.

Grenade-throwing senior immortal knew that the reason he had time to “Join in the fun” was largely because No. 60 high school was still under construction.

Because the foundation had blown up earlier, No. 60 high school had been delayed from starting school for a while.

Odd Zhuo had originally estimated that the repairs would be completed by Monday.

But principal Chen’s requirements for construction were quite high, and he still had to spend some time beautifying the campus environment.

As a result, No. 60 high school’s vacation wouldn’t end until the weekend.

The actual start of school would actually be next Monday, which was December 7th.

Of course, before school officially started, the sixty students didn’t have nothing to do at all... They still had to clock in for online lessons!

At that moment, grenade-throwing senior immortal’s expression suddenly changed, and he stretched out his arm to pull Wang Ling to the side, he had a very gossipy expression. “Brother Ling, is Miss Lotus Sun Okay Now? I heard that she was taken away by a groundhog, and you saved her again.”

Wang Ling:”...”

To be honest, Wang Ling was very surprised because grenade-throwing senior immortal had been concentrating on setting up the device, and hadn't expected that he would be so well-informed.

"Brother Ling, you want to know how I got the news, don't you?"

Grenade-throwing senior immortal smiled. "Didn't you see nail? Didn't we have a working group for the war sect on nail? I remember pulling you in."

In order to facilitate work exchanges and mutual support, grenade-throwing senior immortal had also joined the craze and set up a working group to pull in all the core members of the war ancestor.

"? ? ?"

Wang Ling was stunned.

He really hadn't noticed this.

Because nail had a lot of study groups..

And most importantly, Super Chen and hero Guo had also pulled Wang Ling into a lot of "Homework exchange groups." In the name of exchanging homework, they were actually copying each other..

As for the war sect working group that grenade-throwing senior immortal had set up, it was buried in the group chat.

It was already too late for Wang Ling to find out.

Because Odd Zhuo had already shared a lot about "Tasks" in the working group.

"Look here, here, and here... Brother Odd Zhuo said all of this in there."

According to the chronological order, Odd Zhuo directly posted his work experience in the group chat.

“Sigh, today’s work is to go to the hospital to visit Junior Sister Lotus Sun. This junior sister Lotus Sun is lying on her back in the medical pod doing sit-ups, which is really heartbreaking. But with master’s help, I’m sure she won’t encounter any major problems.”

..

“Today’s work is still to protect junior sister Lotus Sun. With Senior Heavenly Dao of death here, I feel a lot more at ease.”

..

“As Lotus Sun has been resurrected too many times, she seems to have triggered some sort of resurrection restriction. Her body has become transparent, which will reduce her sense of presence. Fortunately, senior golden lamp took action and placed Lotus Sun inside the Buddha’s Golden Lotus.”

“PS: Senior Golden Lamp was invited by master. Master has never paid so much attention to a girl. hehehe! I feel like I’ve discovered some incredible secret!”

..

“I accompanied Junior Lotus Sun home to tidy up her things. Senior Heavenly Dao of death used the grand sacrificial spell to help her burn a lot of things. Only the desk and wardrobe weren’t allowed to burn. I sneaked a glance at the desk and discovered that Junior Lotus Sun was actually imitating master’s handwriting... hehehe!”

..

“Today’s work is to accompany Junior Lotus Sun to God’s domain to watch immortals fight. Once master appeared on the scene, he pierced through the Zhou family head’s head of the Dao gods and then used his virtual image to fight against the six Great Dao Gods. I discovered that Junior Lotus Sun recognized master’s virtual image at a glance! And then! Her eyes were fixed on master the entire time, never leaving! Hehehe!”

..

“I can’t take it anymore. I’ve been observing Junior Lotus Sun’s various reactions when she looks at master recently. It’s really too interesting! My aunt has been laughing the entire time, and I can’t stop at all! Sigh, it’s so good to be young! Is this what youth is like? !”

..

“Today’s work is to protect Junior Lotus Sun in the battle sect’s underground isolation cellar with senior heavenly axiom of death. In order to be able to recall her experiences in her soul state when she returns to her physical body in the future, Junior Lotus Sun has been working very hard to sort out every bit of what happened in the past few days in her little notebook. PS: selling a copy of Master’s sketch that classmate Lotus Sun personally drew. Private chat required...”

..

“SOB, SOB, sob! Master’s wife is safe and sound. She’s Back! Master’s Awesome! (breaking voice)”

..

”...”

The corners of Wang Ling’s mouth twitched when he saw Odd Zhuo send this message in the group chat.

“Looks like brother Ling has also discovered it.”

Grenade-throwing senior immortal smiled. “Actually, these messages were originally sent by brother Odd Zhuo in the chat space, and should only be seen by brother Odd Zhuo alone... but a while ago, this spike seemed to have a partnership with chat, and the messages started to synchronize with each other. Student Odd Zhuo didn’t seem to realize this, and then the messages in his space were synchronized to the Spike Group.”

Wang Ling:”...”

“Brother Ling, don’t worry... I’ve already confirmed this. Brother Zhuo’s account is a sub-account, and there’s only one battle sect working group in the whole account, so the information he posted in the space chat only synced up to here. But judging from brother Zhuo’s reaction, he doesn’t seem to have discovered it yet.”

Wang Ling:”...”

On the other side, in the underground cellar of the battle sect.

Odd Zhuo updated his information once again.

He hadn’t posted it in the space chat.

Instead, he had directly chosen to post it in the battle sect’s working group.

He had deliberately used a tone that sounded like he had posted it in the space chat, he wrote in his work diary: “Ever since I called you mistress, Junior Sister Lotus Sun seems to be angry, and her face has been blushing and she hasn’t said anything. hehehe, master, this is the best I can do for you.”

Wang Ling:”...”

Chapter 1323 Mysterious Egg

It was never too big to watch a show; it had always been one of the labels of a bystander.

Comrade Odd Zhuo had gone deep into the enemy’s ranks and had taken risks alone to care about his master’s life-long affairs. He had played dumb in secret, but had actually been probing, and his methods were astonishing.

Of course, there was still a long way to go.

Odd Zhuo wasn’t in a hurry. He had a lot of plans in his mind, and most of them had been plans that he had wanted to realize when he was a student, but hadn’t been able to..

There was a saying that if you didn’t have a chance, then you had to create one!

Odd Zhuo was waiting for this incident to be over before he pulled Lotus Sun into the war sect's working group.

At that time, he would be able to use his work as a pretext to bring his little junior sister along to stir up trouble!

Hehehe!

There were still three hours left until Tuesday, December 1st.

Wang Ling saw that the golden lamp monk had almost finished setting up in the desert of bones.

Everything was ready now, except for the East Wind.

In the center of the dense set-up, Wang Ling saw the monk's egg.

It had a regular purple-patterned eggshell, which had a crystal texture all over its body and emitted a chaotic aura.

And it was astonishingly dense.

After fighting with the Groundhog, Wang Ling had a deeper understanding of the power of chaos.

At the same time, he also understood how powerful the power of Chaos was.

If it hadn't been for the layer of chaotic gray fog around him, the groundhog would have been dead long ago! He didn't need to use any serious palm techniques to easily finish it off.

But with this layer of gray fog, Wang Ling's ordinary palm strength really wouldn't have been able to hurt the groundhog.

So in theory, if he kept using ordinary palm techniques to slap the groundhog.

Without considering the loss of the power of chaos, the groundhog should be able to take countless slaps..

But it was a pity.

There were no ifs.

Because no one would be able to take so many slaps from Wang Ling in their lifetime.

This monk's ten slaps was already the highest record.

Wang Ling felt that it would probably be very difficult for anyone to break through in the days to come.

"I've finally waited until today."The monk looked at his masterpiece and sighed with emotion.

He hadn't hatched successfully in three hundred lifetimes, and now he could finally take advantage of Earth's tribulation to break through its shell!

"Can't you be sure what will hatch?"Wang Ling asked curiously.

"Yes, Ling Zhenren."The monk nodded, squinting his eyes, he looked at the chaotic egg in front of him. "It's impossible to guess what will hatch out of the chaos before it officially breaks through its shell, and this is the strange thing about the chaotic egg. No one knows the final combination of the chaotic sequence before it hatches."

After the Monk said this, Wang Ling fell silent.

Because he had already seen what was inside the chaotic egg..

This gaze was quickly caught by the monk. "Zhenren? Did you see something?"

Wang Ling didn't say anything. He just patted the monk on the shoulder with a meaningful expression on his face.

Heaven's secrets couldn't be divulged.

There was a law for him to use the king's eye to spy on secrets.

Although he already knew the answer, he couldn't tell the monk, otherwise it might change the law of cause and effect and cause some unnecessary disasters.

"This penniless monk understands. Since Zhenren doesn't want to say it, this penniless monk won't ask too much."

The monk was an open-minded person.

When he saw Wang Ling's sparkling eyes, he knew that it was probably not convenient for him to reveal this matter.

At the same time, he was extremely surprised.

In the end, Wang Ling's King's eye was so powerful that it was beyond his imagination.

It was a divine object that was "Not in the Dao"after all!

It could even pierce through chaotic gene sequences..

It had to be known that before the chaos egg officially broke its shell, there could be hundreds of millions of combinations of chaotic sequences.

This was absolutely not something that a normal human could deduce.

But Wang Ling had actually seen through it at a glance.

"As expected of Ling Zhenren!"

The monk was ashamed of himself.

He really wanted to know the result, but in fact, he didn't care that much about the result itself.

No matter what was inside the egg, the monk would accept it completely.

After all, he had already put in a whole three hundred years of painstaking effort into it..

The monk already felt that he hadn't done a very good job in making use of the Earth's tribulation to hatch the egg.

Wang Ling didn't blame him; he was already grateful.

The monk only hoped that when the time came, the thing that would pop out of the egg wouldn't be too strange..

..

War sect, seclusion cellars, room 331.

The young girl in Golden Lotus looked at the screen and asked, "Senior Odd Zhuo, what exactly is in the egg?"

Because the original room 328 had been destroyed and was currently under repair, Odd Zhuo had no choice but to take Lotus Sun to a new room.

"It's hard to say. After all, senior golden lamp spent 300 lifetimes but wasn't able to hatch it." Odd Zhuo stroked his chin and said, "Can senior Heavenly Dao of Death Know What's inside?"

"I'm afraid only Ling Zhenren knows this secret before it's officially hatched."

Heavenly Dao of death said, “This is like Schrodinger’s cat. What’s inside the egg will only be known when it’s born. For example, when Miss Sun gives birth in the future, she won’t know if it’s a boy or a girl until the moment the child is born. Otherwise, everything is possible.”

“Don’t use me as an example!” Lotus Sun protested online.

“Cough, cough, Senior Heavenly Dao of death has a point!”

Odd Zhuo cleared his throat and said, “But from the look in my master’s eyes... I think it might be a treasure. I can clearly see that there’s a look of surprise in master’s eyes.”

“Eh? A look of surprise? You mean classmate Wang Ling?”

Lotus Sun asked three times in a row, “But why do I only see student Wang Ling’s dead fish eyes...”

“Hehehe! Isn’t junior sister Lotus Sun usually embarrassed to look directly into my master’s Eyes?” Odd Zhuo laughed evilly.

“No... No...”

The girl didn’t expect that she would actually be exposed in one sentence.

Her face, which had just calmed down not long ago, began to burn again.

“Junior Sister Lotus Sun! If you want to understand my master, you can start with me! I’m a free agent! In any case, you’re in a soul state now, so once you return to your physical body, you won’t be able to remember anything. You can ask me anything you want!”

Lotus sun: “Senior Zhuo... I’ve realized that you’ve become bad...”

“It’s not that I’ve become bad, but that I shouldn’t be ashamed to ask when I’m on my way to school. This is what I’ve always been preaching to children as the general administration of 100 schools. Don’t be afraid when you encounter difficulties; you must ask your teacher! Understand?”

After Odd Zhuo finished speaking, he chuckled again. “You only saw my master’s dead fish eyes; this proves that you’re still too young. To figure out what kind of meaning and feelings my master’s Eyes Express, you have to start from the details.”

The girl didn’t reply, but in fact she was already secretly recording in her “Little Notebook”.

“For example, when my master is surprised, his right eyebrow will unconsciously twitch

“For example, when my master is angry, his face will darken, his eyebrows will be lowered on both sides, and there will be some hair floating slightly on his head

“Also, when my master expresses his love...”

“Love?”

“Yes,” Odd Zhuo said. “I haven’t been able to understand the only emotion that expresses love so far. For example, when master ate his favorite crispy noodle snack, he was expressionless the whole time, not even a tiny expression.”

“Ai, is that so?” Lotus sun nodded.

She felt that she had learned a lot of useful information.

“The expression of this emotion is very vague and hard to define. It still requires junior sister Lotus Sun to work hard on her own. hehehe,” Odd Zhuo said.

“Me?”

“Hehehehe...”

”...”

Chapter 1324 The Heavenly Dao Of Death In The Gully

There was less than an hour before Earth’s tribulation.

In the desert of bones, Huaxiu Alliance and the battle sect respectively sent out guards and sect disciples to patrol along the edge of the desert and set up high-altitude restrictions to prevent cultivators from crossing the desert from the air.

“Attention, all units. In another half an hour, all patrol personnel will evacuate and arrive at a safe area 1,000 kilometers away as fast as possible. Don’t linger around here.” Grenade-throwing senior immortal looked up at the sky, he used the collective sound transmission technique to command.

The impact of the power of chaos was extremely destructive, and even the power of radiation wasn’t something an ordinary cultivator could withstand.

Thus, before transcending the tribulation, apart from the core members, the rest of the patrolling personnel had to complete their evacuation.

“I’m so nervous! I’m really nervous!”

Grenade-throwing senior immortal rubbed his hands together.

This time, Huaxiu alliance had given him full control over the upgrade of Earth’s tribulation.

This was a very important matter, and grenade-throwing senior immortal didn’t want to disappoint the head of state.

Whether or not their war sect could gain a decisive position in the international cultivation circle depended on this wave!

“It’s very strange. Why is it that the heads of state can approve the Earth’s upgrade so quickly this time?” Loopy toad suddenly asked at this moment.

On the side, little silver replied, “I heard from grenade-throwing that the various countries had actually thought of upgrading earth long ago, but they hadn’t been able to find a way. Now that Divine Dao star is helping, they naturally agreed.”

“Eh? Why is Brother Dog Here?” Grenade-throwing senior immortal looked at this familiar emerald-green figure and asked.

“I’m going to be a holy beast soon, but there’s still quite a big gap between Holy Beasts and Divine Beasts. It should be an excellent opportunity to watch the Divine Beast break out of its shell up close,”loopy toad replied.

“Holy beasts can also evolve in the direction of Divine Beasts?”Grenade-throwing senior immortal was startled.

“Theoretically, yes. It’s nothing more than a matter of physical quality. If a spirit beast wants to evolve into a holy beast, it must learn to refine its primordial QI, fuse it with its bloodline, and finally transform its blood into holy beast blood. That way, it can complete its evolution.”

At that moment, monk golden lamp nodded. “And if a holy beast wants to evolve into a divine beast, it’s essentially the same; it needs to have enough physical quality to receive the power of chaos. However, this is an extremely difficult thing to do.”

“Even Devil King can’t do it?”Loopy toad asked.

“Are you talking about Devil King, the King of Holy Beasts? If you reach the level of the king of Holy Beasts, you might be able to give it a try. But ever since the holy beast incident, this penniless monk remembered that Devil King’s spirit was becoming increasingly dispirited and he wasn’t thinking of making any progress. “His physical qualities aren’t as good as before. If he tries to fuse with the power of chaos, there’s a high chance that he’ll die...”the monk deduced.

Hearing this, no one understood what he meant.

..

On the other side, Odd Zhuo was introducing the other core members of the war sect to the girl in the underground isolation cellars.

Lotus Sun had already completely recognized the few who had stayed behind to guard the mountain gate, and the remaining core members were now gathered in the desert of bones.

The image on the screen encompassed everyone, making it much easier for Odd Zhuo to identify them.

“See that barefoot silver-haired guy? His name is little silver. He’s a holy beast. He was taken in by Shifu a long time ago, and he’s been sticking to Shifu ever since.” As Odd Zhuo introduced him, he also observed the girl’s reaction.

However, the girl’s reaction was calmer than Odd Zhuo had imagined. “Does he like to stick to student Wang Ling? It’s actually normal; student Wang Ling has always been very popular! Oh, right, where does Miss Little Silver Live?”

“What Does Junior Sister Lotus Sun Want?”

“Nothing much, she just wants to give you a gift as a greeting. Thank you, Miss Little Silver, for taking care of student Wang Ling all this time!” Although at this moment.., the girl still had a generous and decent smile on her face, but there was clearly something wrong with her tone.

Odd Zhuo felt that if this matter wasn’t explained clearly, it might blow up!

How was this asking for an address to send a gift..

It clearly looked like he wanted to send a razor blade!

So at this moment, Odd Zhuo coughed lightly. “Ahem... Junior Sister Lotus Sun, Little Silver is actually a boy.”

As soon as he said this, the isolation room fell into a short silence.

A few seconds later, the girl’s expression clearly turned for the better, and she covered her small mouth, looking a little surprised. “She’s so beautiful... She’s actually a boy...” Lotus Sun covered her small mouth in slight surprise.

“Little Silver has indeed been mistaken for a girl all this time. When we went to the Wang family’s small villa earlier, even grandteacher mistook him for a girl,” Odd Zhuo said with a smile.

“Mm! I also always thought it was a girl just now.”

“Hehehe, does junior sister Lotus Sun feel a sense of relief?”

”...”

Lotus Sun realized.

This senior of hers was getting more and more sophisticated.

And it could be described as impossible to guard against.

“Sigh, young people these days.”

Heavenly Dao of Death also sighed at this moment.

“Why does senior’s voice sound so resentful?” Odd Zhuo couldn’t help asking.

“I just feel that gender doesn’t explain everything these days. I think that if you like someone, you have to take the initiative to make a move in a timely manner. “You have to know that the number of male cultivators in Huaxiu nation is more than that of female cultivators, so it’s not necessarily female cultivators who snatch dao partners from female cultivators these days; it’s also possible that it’s male cultivators.”

Lotus Sun:”...”

Odd Zhuo: “Senior... I keep getting the feeling that you’re hinting at something.”

“Is There?”

The Heavenly Dao of death was completely unconscious.

Odd Zhuo: “I think I might have led you into a ditch, hehehe.”

The Heavenly Dao of Death:”?”

It had to be said that the Heavenly Dao of death was an honest man. In fact, he didn't have any evil intentions; he had really just been led into a ditch by Odd Zhuo.

He had followed Odd Zhuo's point of view and hadn't thought of anything else. But Odd Zhuo's ability to lead the rhythm was simply too strong. Even the Heavenly Dao of death hadn't expected that the young girl in the Golden Lotus would turn red after hearing what he had to say.

As a master of Rhythm, Odd Zhuo's initial goal had already been achieved.

If he could bring even the heavenly dao into the ditch, it was likely that more and more people would fall into it in the future..

Hehehe!

..

On the other side, Wang Ling was closely watching the scene.

He had actually asked Lord Ma to call loopy toad here for another reason.

After loopy toad had been teleported here, the Wang family's small villa was left with only Survival Heavenly Dao, who was drawing talismans alone and lonely..

"Did you feel it too?" Wang Ling asked telepathically.

"That's right." Loopy toad nodded.

It could feel a very powerful soul drifting in the nearby space.

That's right, this soul wasn't any other..

It was that stupid groundhog.

This fellow hadn't been resurrected from the Forsaken Land of gods.

Instead, it had deliberately kept itself in a soul form.

Its purpose was already very clear.

It wanted to possess this divine beast's young body the moment it broke out of its shell!

"What an extremely stupid groundhog." Loopy toad couldn't help smiling.

"You have to rely on yourself on this matter. I Won't Help You," Wang Ling said telepathically at this moment.

In fact, he had called loopy toad here to seek benefits for loopy toad.

But for some reason, Wang Ling couldn't intervene in this matter.

"Little Lord Ling, don't worry. I'm determined to get this mere remnant soul..." loopy toad smiled, full of confidence.

This groundhog's little tricks were all left over from the past!

Chapter 1325 No Nesting!

Loopy toad was all too familiar with the use of the primordial spirit to escape.

Now that it thought about it carefully, it even felt a little sympathy for this wandering groundhog soul.

Because they were all poor little souls who had been killed several times in succession.

Wang Ling's "Animal Friend" tag would definitely not be torn off.

The only difference was that.

Wang Ling and loopy toad had a childhood trauma.

Wang Ling and the Groundhog had a larger psychological trauma on the Groundhog's side.

In order not to alert the enemy,.

Loopy toad saw that Wang Ling had already left.

Sure enough, it had made the right choice back then.

Although it had been killed by Wang Ling a few times over and over again,.

There was indeed meat to be had by following Wang Ling!

Earth's upgrade tribulation was about to begin.

Loopy toad calculated the time; there were less than fifteen minutes left.

But it had already accurately sensed that a certain soul was lurking and ready to make a move..

..

On the other side, on a sand dune in the desert of bones.

Lord Gray fog stared intently at the core area that was about to receive the chaotic impact.

That's right.

He hadn't really died..

Although his physical body had been destroyed, his soul had still escaped.

Wang Ling was too terrifying.

In a fancy way, he had adjusted the “Hundred million points” of time.

In the end, he had been brought directly to Earth four billion years ago to be beaten up..

It was true that the dao ancestor had given him the privilege of resurrecting in full condition.

However, after he resurrected a certain number of times, he would lose control of the Resurrection Point.

He had to pass through the Forsaken Land of the gods and let the Green Tong cat determine his next resurrection location.

And the Green Tong cat in the Forsaken Land of the gods did not like him..

He would definitely pass him to that terrifying youth!

At that time, if he really resurrected, it would be in vain!

Therefore, after weighing the pros and cons, Gray Fog Lord made a bold decision..

He decided to maintain his soul state and did not need to be resurrected so quickly!

However, under the soul state, his own combat strength would be greatly reduced. In addition, the passage of time would also weaken his strength..

A full four billion years had passed.

Currently, his soul energy was already extremely weak.

But fortunately, everything before him gave Graymist Junsheng Hope.

He saw a chaos egg that was about to break out of its shell!

As long as he took advantage of the moment when the new divine beast broke out of its shell to complete the possession! He would be able to turn into a brand new divine beast!

With that, he would have a new physical body!

Not only would he be able to recover his strength, but more importantly, he would also be able to get rid of the groundhog body that had been troubling him for a long time!

It must be known that the monk's egg had not hatched even after 300 lifetimes.

Needless to say, it must be an extremely rare and precious divine beast!

“Ah! I’ve finally waited for this day!” On the sand dune, the soul groundhog was extremely moved.

Tears that came from his soul could not stop flowing out.

Finally, he did not have to be a groundhog anymore!

But at that moment, the Soul Groundhog felt a chill run down its spine.

“That’s not right. Why Is It so cold?”

The Soul Groundhog shivered all over.

When it turned its head, it suddenly saw an extremely long, sticky tongue in the distance launching a surprise attack on its back!

Even though the Groundhog's soul was already extremely weak in its soul state, it still had basic reflexes.

Its reaction time was even faster than loopy toad had imagined.

It almost instinctively turned its body to one side and dodged loopy Toad's surprise attack.

Four billion years had passed..

In order to maintain the power of this remnant soul and ensure that its remnant soul wouldn't disperse, the groundhog had gone through many tribulations and escaped death time and time again, and had developed an astonishing reaction time.

If I can't beat it, then I can't Dodge It!

The Earth's upgrade was about to begin.

In order to give the soul possession time to terminate the contract, the Groundhog's first reaction was naturally to avoid fighting.

Loopy toad hadn't expected the Groundhog's reaction speed to be so fast..

It was clearly only left with a remnant soul!

How many sudden attacks had it gone through to develop this ability? !

Loopy toad grumbled in its heart.

But it was determined to get this Groundhog's remnant soul!

This was the number one divine beast under Dao ancestor Wang!

If it could devour it, even if it was just a remnant soul, its own strength would be greatly enhanced in a short period of time!

“Oh no... This soul is too delicious!” Loopy toad couldn’t wait any longer, and its eyes were filled with desire.

The Soul fragrance emitted by the Groundhog’s remnant soul made loopy toad drool uncontrollably.

Seeing that the Groundhog’s remnant soul had nimbly escaped, loopy toad quickly chased after it.
“Don’t Run! Stop Right There!”

“Damn it... At this time...”

It was only one step away from soul possession.

The groundhog had never expected to encounter such a troublesome enemy at the very last moment.

Why was this Akita’s fur green! It was fluorescent! And it could even stick out a tongue as long as a freaking toad..

The Groundhog didn’t know loopy Toad’s origins.

But since the other party had come for his remnant soul, it was clear that they had come with ill intentions.

There were less than ten minutes left!

As long as he could delay until the moment the chaotic impact fell, he would be able to win!

When the time came, he would enter this divine Beast’s body.

Even if that divine beast was a chick, as long as it had a physical body, he could summon the chaotic gray fog!

With that layer of power,.

Let alone a mere green-furred dog!

Heh, as long as he didn't run into Wang Ling..

He wasn't afraid of anyone here!

But loopy Toad's difficulty also surprised the groundhog.

His soul was already hidden, but the green-furred dog seemed to be able to smell him and kept chasing him!

“Don't Run! Let Me Lick You!”Loopy toad ran over from afar and quickly stuck out its tongue in his direction in an attempt to suck him directly into its stomach, continuously making “Slurp Slurp Slurp Slurp”sounds.

Fuck! And it's a licking dog!

The groundhog couldn't help swearing.

He's never been bullied like that by a sacred beast..

The groundhog quickly maneuvered his soul to dive down and hide himself in the sand.

And loopy Toad's digging speed is also hair-raising, in hot pursuit behind.

There's an old saying, “A dog is a busybody.”.

The groundhog feels like he's been around too long.

It hadn't expected that this saying would really come true for it!

-- ahhhhh!

It was roaring in its heart.

Just a little more!

Just a little more time!

It would be able to have a real, brand-new body!

At this moment, in the sky above the dead bone desert.

Whether it was the Groundhog or loopy toad, they could already feel an inexplicable surge of immense spirit energy beginning to gather!

The chaos impact was about to begin!

The countdown had officially begun.

At this moment, loopy toad had given up on chasing.

But that didn't mean that it had given up on action.

In this situation, there was no point in continuing to chase, so it was better to change its strategy!

Another thirty seconds passed.

In the sky, a huge purple thundercloud gathered, and a terrifying red light erupted from it! It was like the eye of a devil, staring at the Earth!

The chaos attack was about to begin!

The monk stood in front of the chaos egg, spinning the Buddhist beads and chanting the Buddhist scriptures.

He raised his hand, and the chaos guiding device was instantly activated.

Weng!

Countless tubes burst out with golden light in an instant, and in the end, they surged towards the chaos egg at the core of the device!

The monk had repeatedly tested all these processes over a hundred times before, ensuring that everything was flawless!

And the moment the golden light converged on the Chaos Egg!

Rumble!

A huge pillar of Chaos Light in the sky descended with destructive power!

For a moment, the entire Earth experienced a huge earthquake!

The seawater rolled up and formed a huge tsunami, but this was already expected. The self-cultivators from various countries had already worked together to set up a sea-stabilizing barrier to prevent the tsunami from eroding the earth, blocking out the surging seawater.

At the same time, the Earth's crust trembled.

Almost all the self-cultivators who were still in seclusion on earth were alarmed by this vibration.

For a moment, they opened their eyes one after another, this violent tremor made people feel uneasy.

The Spirit Beasts in the forest formed a beast tide. They crazily ran through the forest, chirping of birds and roaring of beasts. It was as if the entire earth was boiling at such a special and great moment!

The chaotic impact was so terrifying.

But all of the above was being considered.

The chaotic impact would inevitably trigger some natural effects.

But with the spells of modern cultivators, under the presence of mighty figures everywhere, it could be defended and controlled.

Of course, if it wasn't for the monk who had made preparations early and used the device developed to guide the energy.

This impact would split the earth in half like a watermelon in an instant!

The terrifying huge impact lasted for a full three minutes.

Then, everything returned to calm!

During these three minutes, all the cultivators on Earth felt terrified and uneasy.

The planet had upgraded!

This was a famous scene that all the cultivators on earth had never seen before!

Now, with the support of all the heads of state, Huaxiu Alliance, and the war sect! Earth had withstood the enormous pressure of the chaotic onslaught created by this upgrade!

Everyone was witnessing history! "Is it done? !" Grenade-throwing senior immortal asked excitedly.

"It's Done!" The monk opened his eyes and gave him a thumbs up!

Earth had withstood the chaotic onslaught unscathed, and this meant that Earth had completed its upgrade!

In an instant, the purple thunderclouds in the sky dispersed.

Then, endless spiritual energy of heaven and earth burst out!

In an instant, the entire earth was covered by a thick layer of spiritual light, shrouded in a thick immortal mist!

The Earth's self-cultivators began to cheer.

They stepped on the spirit swords and flew freely in the air, breathing in the thick immortal mist after the tribulation, which nourished their internal organs in an instant.

This was a carnival for all the cultivators on Earth.

All the cultivators were using their own ways to celebrate.

Near the dead bone desert.

The patrol personnel and disciples of the war sect and Huaxiu Alliance applauded and cheered!

At the same time, the heads of state who had been watching the upgrade plan closely from afar applauded and sent congratulatory messages to the Huaxiu Alliance head of State's office.

"It really worked!"

Little silver excitedly pounced over and hugged grenade-throwing senior immortal.

"Brother silver... you've gained weight again!" Grenade-throwing senior immortal didn't know whether to laugh or cry as he allowed little silver to coil around him like a koala.

Everyone was very excited!

Nothing was more exciting than witnessing the moment of success in transcending the tribulation with their own eyes!

And it was at this moment that golden lamp monk's egg chaos finally reacted.

"Na Na! Monk! Your Egg is finally moving!" Lady Ah Juan didn't care about Earth's upgrade at all. She was actually looking forward to what kind of divine beast would emerge from the egg shell.

This guy who hadn't appeared in 300 lifetimes must be very handsome! It was shining! It was domineering! It was a shocking creature!

Crack! ~

A small crack appeared on the Crystal Egg.

Although they couldn't see what the guy inside the egg looked like, a powerful aura of chaos had already surged out!

"Congratulations, master! This must be a rare beast!" Grenade-throwing senior immortal quickly rejoiced.

"Thank you, Senior Immortal, for your kind words. Let us look forward to this guy coming out on his own." The monk smiled.

At this moment, the Groundhog, which had been hiding in the desert for a long time, finally had its chance!

"It's time! ! !"

He roared excitedly as he jumped out of the desert as fast as he could.

On the other side, loopy toad also felt that its chance had come!

It had given up on chasing earlier because it had planned to stay by Chaos Egg's side and wait for this groundhog to walk right into its trap!

But it only had one chance..

If it didn't succeed, it would be very awkward!

At this moment, it could already sense that the remnant soul of the Groundhog, which was emitting a strong fragrance, was getting closer and closer.

It was rapidly approaching the surface at its fastest speed.

"Here's Your Chance!"

The moment the remnant soul of the Groundhog jumped out of the desert, loopy toad concentrated all its energy and stuck out its long tongue!

"Poor fellow! Although you've only just been born, this Lord has already taken your body!" The marmot that had jumped out of the desert laughed maniacally as it suddenly rammed its head into chaotic egg

The monk seemed to have anticipated the whole process.

He didn't move and didn't stop the marmot from doing anything.

"Oh no!"

Loopy Toad's tongue didn't directly hit the marmot.

But in that instant, loopy toad still felt as if something had stuck to its tongue.

This..

Loopy toad turned pale with fright!

It immediately realized what had happened!

The Groundhog had succeeded in its possession!

Moreover, it had pushed the spirit of the divine beast out of the eggshell..

What was now wrapped up in its tongue was the spirit of the divine beast that the monk had actually given birth to!

“I, Hu Hansan, have returned!” At this moment, the groundhog that had successfully possessed the egg shell was extremely excited that it had obtained a new body.

It stretched out its claws and directly broke out of the shell.

Wait a moment!

The situation seemed to be a little off..

Why was this claw so familiar!

It seemed to be no different from his own claws except that its size was a little smaller!

But soon, the gray fog lord realized what had happened!

He had racked his brains trying to possess the divine beast egg in the eggshell, trying to get rid of his groundhog body.

But the gray fog lord had never expected that.

Inside the eggshell was another groundhog..

“Why is it still a groundhog! Ahhhhh!”

At that moment, the Groundhog hugged its head and roared wildly.

Chapter 1326 Battle Sect's Face-Pinching Challenge

Life was a circle.

The cycle of life was another circle.

Although the monk didn't know exactly what was inside the chaotic egg, he had already predicted what would happen the moment the eggshell cracked.

The Groundhog had succeeded in possessing it, but the monk had no intention of stopping it.

As for the other groundhog that had been pushed out of its body, loopy toad had already eaten it and was digesting it.

It definitely wouldn't be able to spit it out.

“Amitabha, everything is fate.”The monk saluted and walked to the front. Without saying a word, he just stared at the Groundhog's lower body.

Lord Gray fog felt a little uncomfortable under the monk's gaze.

But he felt that the monk's gaze seemed to be hinting at something.

He held his head and followed the monk's gaze to look down..

To his surprise, he found that he actually didn't have it!

This groundhog!

It was actually a F * * King female!

“Ahhhhh!”

When it thought that it would no longer have a “Happy” life, the Groundhog held its head and let out a long howl, and its body instantly petrified into a statue-like existence.

“Master... What’s This?” Grenade-throwing senior immortal was extremely astonished.

“It’s completely shut down.”

The monk sighed. “The Divine Beasts born in the chaos have the ability to avoid the inner demons, and will never be invaded by them. Once the inner demons are born, the body will automatically enter a purification mode, and until the inner demons in the body are completely eradicated, the body will become a chaotic statue like this.”

After saying this, the monk took out a world-defying magic artifact.

It was a Buddhist magic sword made of forty-nine copper coins engraved with the swastika Buddha seal.

The monk casually slashed at the petrified groundhog.

The sword and the Groundhog’s stone body collided, producing a crisp sound of metal colliding.

The Sword Qi was directly repelled, cutting toward the distant sand dune and then creating a big explosion.

“It’s actually so hard.” Everyone was stunned.

“The primal chaos sculpture is indestructible. I’m afraid that unless it’s Ling Zhenren’s palm power, it’s not realistic to destroy it,” said the monk.

“Na Na, monk, how long will it take to recover from autism?” Lady Scroll went up and stroked the round head of the petrified groundhog as she asked with a smile.

The female groundhog body that the gray fog monarch had possessed was still in the form of a baby. Compared to the original overweight gray fog monarch, it was only a little bit bigger now!

It looked like a proper and adorable creature!

“So cute! So Q! If it wasn’t petrified, it would definitely feel very good!” Said Miss Ah Juan.

“I’ll be frank with you. It definitely won’t feel as good as MASTER’s,” said little silver at this moment.

“Eh? Ling Zhenren’s face is also very soft?” Everyone was curious.

“I haven’t touched it, but I heard it from Grandmaster!” Little Silver remembered when he had gone to the Wang family’s small villa as a guest.

Mother Wang took out a picture of Wang Ling when he was young.

That face was really very elastic!

And even now, he felt that MASTER’s face could be pinched to the point that water could be squeezed out of it.

It was just that no one dared to try it rashly..

Because they didn’t have the guts.

“Hey, I really want to pinch a real person’s face!”

“It’s better if you don’t court death... Master will be angry...”

For a moment, the topic of discussion shifted from Q Meng’s petrified groundhog to the question of pinching the face.

The speed at which the topic shifted made the monk find it funny.

“How about this, everyone? Since everyone is curious, why don’t we make a bet?”

“Huh? Monk, you want to bet too? Aren’t you a monk?”

“I don’t want to bet, but this penniless monk can provide a reward for all of you.”

The monk smiled faintly, he casually picked up the eggshell of the Hundun egg in front of him.

“The eggshell of the divine beast is a top-grade material for making powerful magic artifacts, and it’s a priceless treasure. If anyone can pinch Ling Zhenren’s face, this penniless monk can personally customize a powerful Buddhist magic artifact for him.”

The Golden Lamp Monk had personally customized the magic artifact!

And it was made from the eggshell of the Divine Beast!

They kind of wanted it!

“Fine! I’ll participate!”

“I’ll participate too!”

For a moment, many people raised their hands and said.

It was just pinching his face... as long as the timing was right, Ling Zhenren might not be angry!

That was what they thought.

“I think there’s no need to be restrained in signing up. Everyone in the war sect can participate, including those inner and outer sect disciples and core members. Whoever can get it will win.”

“Mm, then that’s what we’ll Do!” Grenade-throwing senior immortal nodded as well.

Little Silver and loopy toad shivered as they watched from the side.

This group of people was too daring!

They really didn't want to live anymore!

"But then again, what about this petrified groundhog?" At this moment, someone finally realized that the topic was getting more and more off-topic, so he led everyone to focus their gazes once again on the petrified groundhog in front of them, holding its head in its hands, it had fallen into the petrified Groundhog's body in a roaring posture.

"It takes time for the Inner Demon to cleanse itself. Lord Gray fog waited patiently for so long, but in the end, he still possessed the Groundhog's body. This is the first blow."

The monk sighed. "After successfully possessing it, he realized that his eggs had been removed and his whip was empty. This is the second blow... Under such a double blow, the inner demon will grow, and he probably won't be able to wake up for a while. This penniless monk and Ling Zhenren are about to go to an unspeakable place, so it's impossible for them to take him with them. "I think it's better to set up a sealing magic array and move his petrified body there first."

"A sealing magic array?"

"In that case, once he wakes up, he won't immediately break the seal and commit crimes. "Although gray fog lord still has the ability to use the chaotic gray fog, he's still a young chick after all, and the power of the chaotic gray fog is far inferior to when he was at his peak."

"I see." Grenade-throwing senior immortal nodded. "Then, this is what we have to do!"

"Senior Immortal, I'll have to trouble you to keep an eye on the place while Ling Zhenren and I head to the unspeakable!" The monk said.

With that, he took out a scroll of the Vairocana Vairocana Sutra from his sleeve and gave it to grenade-throwing. "This is a heart sutra dharmic formulation for senior immortal to break through to venerated immortal. Consider it a small token of this penniless monk's goodwill."

“But I’m not a Buddhist disciple,”grenade-throwing senior immortal said with a smile.

“Cultivation realm has nothing to do with whether you’re a Buddhist disciple or not. As long as you’re kind-hearted, you’re qualified to cultivate,”golden lamp said with a smile.

“In that case, thank you very much, master!”Grenade-throwing senior immortal clasped his hands in front of his chest.

..

On the other side, in the battle sect’s underground retreat cellar.

In the face of grenade-throwing senior immortal and the others’“Face-pinching challenge,”Odd Zhuo didn’t know whether to laugh or cry. “Probably no one in this world has ever pinched master’s face apart from Grandaunt and grandaunt! Junior sister, do you want to give it a try?”

At that moment, Odd Zhuo turned his gaze to Lotus Sun.

“Girls... how can they randomly pinch boys’faces... They have to be very close... otherwise they’ll be misunderstood!”Lotus Sun was suddenly at a loss for words.

Seeing the young girl’s flustered look, Odd Zhuo chuckled in his heart.

Chapter 1327 The Second Child Of The Void

In the center of the Central Lake of the war sect, there was an underwater tower buried underground.

Grenade-throwing senior immortal brought the monk here and introduced the details of the underwater tower. “This was designed when the sect was founded, and can be used to suppress evil things.”

“The war sect’s facilities are indeed complete.”The monk nodded.

In modern cultivation society, there were actually not many buildings in the sect that were specifically used to seal evil things.

This type of building was also known as a “Spirit-suppressing facility,”and was mostly used in ancient times to imprison fierce beasts or extremely evil demons.

As soon as the monk saw this underwater tower, he knew its structure.

It was built at the intersection of the six underground spirit veins. Once any evil thing was sealed inside, there was almost no ability to escape.

Moreover, now that Earth had completed its upgrade, the level of the underground spirit veins had also changed.

The original heaven veins had turned into god veins, and the earth veins had turned into heaven veins.

In other words, the six underground spirit veins under the water of the war sect were originally earth veins. Now that they had upgraded to heaven veins, their power was even more unparalleled.

The monk threw a golden pearl into the lake, and the golden light penetrated the surface of the lake, causing the Central Lake of the war sect to ripple with golden light.

“What a strong Buddhist light.”Grenade-throwing senior immortal was surprised.

“This penniless monk has sealed this groundhog’s primal chaos sculpture inside the Buddhist pearl. Now, with the seal of the war sect’s underwater pagoda, even if he overcomes his inner demons, he won’t be able to break out of it in a short time,”said golden lamp.

He recited the Buddhist scriptures and joined grenade-throwing senior immortal in casting a spell to open the underwater pagoda’s main door.

Then, the Golden Pearl was immediately swallowed by the underwater pagoda, and the surface of the golden lake instantly calmed down and returned to normal.

After doing all this, grenade-throwing senior immortal secretly heaved a sigh of relief. “Will he understand?”

“This is a poor groundhog and a stupid groundhog. I believe that when this penniless monk and Ling Zhenren return from the unspeakable land, he’ll understand.”

The monk said, “Atone for his crimes and render meritorious service to this penniless monk and Ling Zhenren. This is his only way out.”

After all, he was the number one divine beast under Daofather Wang back then.

As a proud groundhog, after getting used to doing whatever he wanted, it was a very difficult choice to choose the path of “Following his heart” and start afresh.

However, the monk always believed that this groundhog would eventually give in.

After all, only Ling Zhenren could change the physiological structure of a divine beast like the “Egg-going-whipping-air”.

For the sake of a “Happy” life, he had to give in!

While he was thinking, the monk suddenly thought of something else. “Senior Immortal, I heard that you’ve captured the other two people who are suspected to be the children of the Void?”

Tomorrow, they would head to the unspeakable land.

And the mastermind behind this unspeakable land..

Was also the person that the monk had been keeping a close eye on.

Previously, when the Groundhog had hidden itself in the gray fog, its identity had yet to be revealed, so it was also a suspect.

But now, the Groundhog’s suspicion had already been eliminated.

Therefore, if the gap in the unspeakable land was man-made,.

The Master of the Void and the fortune teller were the most likely suspects.

Before they set off, the monk wanted to know more clues.

“Yes, Jiang Xiaoche and Yi Zhiyang are currently in the war sect.”

“What’s their current situation?”

“The two of them haven’t emitted the smell of the void, which is completely different from Miss Lotus Sun’s situation,”grenade-throwing senior immortal said. “Could there be a problem somewhere?”

“It is indeed a little strange.”The monk was also surprised.

It was rare for the book of Sage Immortal to make a mistake in calculation.

But if either Yi Zhiyang or Jiang Xiaoche was a child of the void, then they would have long since emitted the smell of the void..

The monk spun the Buddhist beads and made a calculation with his fingers.

Grenade-throwing senior immortal saw streams of steam coming out of the six scars on the monk’s head like chimneys on an old-fashioned locomotive, making “Wu Wu Wu”sounds..

This was a phenomenon that occurred when the monk’s brain was working too fast during a complicated calculation process in order to dissipate heat.

A large amount of high temperature would come out of the six scars on the monk’s head.

Grenade-throwing senior immortal thought to himself that if there was a pot at this time, he could put it on the monk’s head and make a hotpot to eat..

The monk spent a considerable amount of time making calculations.

Previously, he had always suspected that the unspeakable place had something to do with the void event.

But now it seemed that if Jiang Xiaocheng and Yi Zhiyang hadn't become the children of the void for a long time, then the monk felt that there might be another possibility!

It was possible that someone had deliberately misled them.

He turned his gaze toward the void.

And the Master of the Void could also be someone who had been used..

"Not good!" About five or six minutes later, golden lamp raised his head as if he had suddenly thought of something.

"What's wrong, Master?" Grenade-throwing senior immortal asked.

"Where is Miss Sun's physical body now?" The monk asked anxiously.

"Let someone take care of it in true Supreme Hall."

"Quick, go take a look!"

By the lake in the center, the expression on golden lamp's face was unusually anxious.

The two of them leaped and turned into two streaks of light as they rapidly approached true venerate hall.

At that moment, the young girl's body, which had already turned on the light, was still lying quietly in the medical pod.

Crispy Noodles Dao monarch was sitting cross-legged in front of the medical pod to guard it.

Upon arriving here, grenade-throwing senior immortal suddenly felt that the figure in front of him was in a daze, as if he could see Wang Ling himself guarding Lotus Sun.

After all, crispy noodles was Wang Ling's "Real Clone," and the two of them looked similar. Even grenade-throwing senior immortal felt that this illusion had happened from time to time.

"Open it," the monk requested crispy noodles dao monarch as soon as he landed.

"Open it, master might have thought of something." Grenade-throwing senior immortal nodded in agreement.

After grenade-throwing senior immortal gave the order, crispy noodles dao monarch got up and carefully opened the hatch of the medical pod.

The prayer beads in the monk's hands spun rapidly, and he looked very nervous.

He hoped that his judgment had been wrong.

Otherwise, this matter... would really be a little scary.

However, the moment he re-examined the young girl's body, the monk's expression changed, and his breathing became rapid almost instantly.

"I'm still a step too late..." the monk sighed.

"Master, What's Going On?"

"Haven't you noticed yet?"

The monk said as he looked at the girl's naked body.

Grenade-throwing senior immortal carefully observed the girl in the medical pod and didn't notice anything unusual at first.

But as he looked, he soon noticed something. “This...”

He realized that the girl in the medical pod actually had no shadow!

“I’ve been tricked!”

The monk felt a headache coming on. “If this penniless monk’s guess is correct, Miss Sun has a twin void constitution!”

“Twin void Constitution?”

“In other words, Miss Sun and Miss Sun’s shadow are both children of the Void!”The monk said.

“Is it related to the Shadow Path?”

“It’s related! But Daoist Nuan didn’t do it on purpose...”

The monk shook his head. “From the current results, Miss Sun’s shadow should have awakened on its own.”

Hearing this, grenade-throwing senior immortal instantly came to a realization.

Self-awakening..

Wasn’t this similar to what had happened to Wang Ying?

He was dissatisfied with the taunting of his main body, and then he awakened his own intelligence in an attempt to replace his main body..

It could only be said that Miss Lotus Sun was indeed Miss Lotus Sun..

Even the accident that had happened was so similar to brother Ling’s..

They were indeed a pair of clowns! They were a perfect match!

At this moment, the corners of grenade-throwing senior immortal's mouth twitched, and he didn't know whether to laugh or cry in his heart.

Chapter 1328 Using Shadows To Search For Shadows

When the Yin and Yang went against each other..

So that was what he was referring to.

In a trance, the monk had completely understood what the "Fortune teller" had meant.

They had always misinterpreted yin and yang as a man and a woman, thinking that the children of the void were a man and a woman.

However, they never expected that the children of the void were a pair of twins.

The reverse of Yin and Yang referred to the awakening of the shadow and having its own thoughts.

By the time they understood it, it seemed to be too late.

Now, the problem was that "When yin and yang are in disorder" had been verified.

Then, what did the last sentence mean, "My blood shall dye the sky blue"?

For some reason, the monk felt that the latter part of the sentence had some meaning..

"What did master think of?" Grenade-throwing senior immortal asked at that moment.

"No... nothing..."

The monk's old face turned red. "This matter is very important... this penniless monk... this penniless monk wants to discuss it with Ling Zhenren..."

Grenade-throwing Senior Immortal:”?”

..

In the Wang family’s small villa, Wang Ling quickly received the monk’s feedback.

A twin son of the void.

Even Wang Ling hadn’t expected this.

But this confirmed Wang Ling’s initial judgment.

All this time, there had been a pair of hands behind his back who had been secretly encouraging them and guiding their actions.

Lotus Sun’s shadow..

What should it be called?

Sun Ying?

It sounded like a boy’s name.

It was too uncute.

“Has Ling Zhenren thought of something?”The monk wasn’t very curious when he saw Wang Ling’s pensive look.

The monk also had the ability to read minds, but this ability was only ineffective on Wang Ling.

He could only read large patches of mosaics.

“Name,” Wang Ling said concisely.

“What Ling Zhenren means is that he’s thinking about Miss Sun’s shadow; what name should he give it?” The Heavenly Dao of survival acted as an interpreter on the side.

”...”the monk was stunned.

He was full of admiration for Wang Ling.

At this point in time, he still had time to think about a name... as expected of you!

At this moment, the Heavenly Dao of Survival’s drawing of talismans still hadn’t stopped.

And no one was helping him now.

Loopy toad had absorbed the new female Groundhog’s soul and was in the process of digesting it, so it needed to go into seclusion for some time.

Lord ma used his teleportation ability to teleport it back to the demon world.

Loopy toad was now in seclusion on the holy pillar of the demon world, using the special seclusion room for second generation demon Saint to protect it.

Only loopy toad could enjoy such treatment.

It was all for Wang Ling’s sake!

If other demon beasts had dared ride demon saint’s neck, they would probably have been beaten to death long ago.

When the Heavenly Dao of survival thought of this, it also felt that their position was getting smaller and smaller..

By the time loopy toad came out of seclusion, even loopy toad would be able to ride the Heavenly Dao's face and attack.

Their Heavenly Dao was really too difficult!

"Sun Ying really doesn't seem like a girl's name."

The monk smiled. "This penniless monk has a good idea."

At that moment, Wang Ling raised his eyes to stare at the monk, who then gave his answer. "Why don't we split the word 'shadow' into three characters and one character 'jing'? Sun Sanjing... this penniless monk thinks this name is pretty good!"

When Wang Ling heard this, he was instantly shocked, along with the Heavenly Dao of survival beside him.

Holy F * * k, pretty good..

Wang Ling had thought that he was already a useless name-maker.

Who would have thought that he would meet someone who had a better name than him..

"Sun Ying It is..." after thinking for a long time, Wang Ling felt that Sun Ying sounded more pleasing to the ear before he could come up with a better answer.

At the very least, it was much more reliable than Sun Sanjing's name..

In a trance, Wang Ling remembered the real name of the author of this book.

After it was opened, it was called Jin Sanshi.

It was also very old-fashioned..

“The most important thing now is to find Miss Sun Ying,”the monk said.

In fact, while Wang Ling was thinking about the name, he had already been looking for Sun Ying.

Magic could defeat magic.

Magic could defeat magic.

Naturally, only shadows could find shadows..

Wang Ying was a natural tool person; it was impossible for Wang Ling to just leave it there.

At the same time, Wang Ling was also very curious as to what Sun Ying was up to.

Wang Ling had already experienced Wang Ying’s cruelty back then.

“Don’t use your thoughts to Judge Our Shadows’personalities. Each shadow that awakens its own consciousness has a different personality.”

In the mental space, Wang Ying crossed his arms in protest. “Miss Sun Ying, she might be a gentle shadow.”

Hearing this, Wang Ling was silent for a moment.

He wasn’t in a hurry to retort. In any case, as long as Wang Ying found the other party’s position, he would know exactly what kind of existence Sun Ying was.

“You have to be careful.”

Before separating Wang Ying from the mental space, Wang Ling took the initiative to remind him.

Although he didn’t think that Sun Ying would be a match for Wang Ying.

But since Sun Ying was another child of the void, it was very likely that he had already obtained all the power of the void.

There was a similarity between the shadow and the void spirit to begin with; they didn't have a physical body.

And a child of the void was different from an ordinary void spirit.

If Sun Ying had been fully awakened, his battle strength would have been much stronger than the void spirit that had intruded into the mental space the last time.

Wang Ying completely ignored Wang Ling's words. He turned into a black shadow and quickly scurried into the outside world.

"Let's go."

At that moment, Wang Ling felt that he couldn't stay idle either.

"Are we going to the unspeakable?" The monk was startled.

Their scheduled time was originally tomorrow.

But since they had decided to make an early move, the golden lamp monk naturally had no objections. "Since Zhenren thinks it's possible, this penniless monk will open the way."

After saying this, the monk took out a map of the galaxy beyond the Milky Way and spread it out on the ground.

On it were the exact coordinates of the unspeakable place.

"Ling Zhenren, this is the unspeakable place. It's in the deepest part of the outer galaxy, and there are many spatial traps nearby. With this penniless monk's experience of entering it many times, I need to first communicate with Ling Zhenren about some safety rules," the monk said, then he pointed at the dozen or so "Red crosses" on the map.

”...”

“These red crosses are places that need to be avoided. Even if you use the power to shrink the ground into an inch, if you accidentally step inside, it will be extremely troublesome to get out. Although this penniless monk and Ling Zhenren won’t be unable to get out with their power, they will still waste time in the end.”

The monk babbled on about what he thought were the safety rules.

At this moment, he finally brought out the old monk’s essence of chanting. “Zhenren, please take a look. And here, here, and here... Those places are all responsible for the cosmic storms, and once they’re sucked in, their clothes are directly gone. This penniless monk fell in a few times earlier and lost a lot of his Kasaya.”

”...”

“Alright, this penniless monk’s safety details are introduced here. This penniless monk will lead the way from Earth to the unspeakable place. It’ll take three days.”

Was it really that troublesome..

Wang Ling sighed in his heart.

He stood in front of his wardrobe and silently recited a chant.

When he opened the wardrobe again.

Starlight filled the interior of the wardrobe, and it was shockingly a sea of stars.

And the place that represented the unspeakable, which was like a floating island in the universe, was right in front of Wang Ling’s eyes.

It actually took three days to reach the unspeakable?

Three seconds.

That was enough.

Chapter 1329 Wang Ling And The Monk Come Out Of The Closet

Wang Ling's wardrobe could hold a sea of stars.

It was specially designed to target the spiritual monsters in space, and could lock onto any corner of the space.

But only those with an IQ of over 300 could see the space inside the wardrobe.

Thus, Wang Ling's wardrobe was also known as the "Emperor's new cabinet"..

It wasn't difficult for Wang Ling to reach the unspeakable.

But what he hadn't expected was that.

He would actually come out with a monk.

At this moment, the Golden Lamp Monk's heart was filled with despair.

He had actually expected that if Wang Ling had led the way, he might have reached the unspeakable place much earlier than him.

Perhaps in three hours?

But the monk had never expected that Wang Ling would actually find the unspeakable place in three seconds with just one set of coordinates.

The huge disparity in strength hurt the monk a lot.

He felt that he had to cultivate for at least three hundred million lifetimes to reach this level..

As expected of Ling Zhenren.

The fastest man in the entire universe.

“Let’s go and take a look.”

Wang Ling transmitted his voice to the monk.

Then, he stepped into the wardrobe and entered the space of the universe.

The monk followed closely behind, and when he stepped out...

The wardrobe’s door was quickly closed with a bang.

The monk felt as if he had seen this scene in a detective cartoon.

At that moment, Wang Ling’s gaze was fixed on the floating island in front of him, which was wrapped in a layer of light.

Even Wang Ling was shocked by this magical land created by great magic power.

Was it the unspeakable land established by Dao ancestor Wang?

Everything was as the monk had said in the beginning.

From a distance, the unspeakable land looked like a golden egg made of magic light.

The outermost layer of the protective light film was relatively easy to break through, and it shone on the outside like an egg shell.

And the “Egg yolk” was the true form of the unspeakable place.

It was a gorgeous floating island shining with golden light.

Looking at it from a straight line, Wang Ling also felt that the unspeakable place was very close to him.

But it was this close distance that the monk had tried countless times, but hadn't been able to successfully reach the hinterland.

For many years, this had been a great regret in the monk's heart, and one that he couldn't resolve.

"It's not difficult to break through the outer layer of the light membrane. The key is the layer of egg white in the middle layer, which is also the chaotic circle," the monk said.

The monk had already told Wang Ling about this in the temple.

Wang Ling knew it by heart.

Naturally, he also understood the stakes involved.

He hovered in the air and swiftly flew over with the monk. Then, he pointed his sword and made a cut on the outermost layer of the light membrane.

This simple cut was indeed very powerful.

Seeing this, the monk's mouth twitched again.

He hadn't expected Wang Ling to actually enter without using any fancy spells at all..

Although he himself could also break through the light membrane.

But when he had entered, he had struck the light membrane a few hundred times before he had barely managed to break through.

“What’s Wrong?”Wang Ling felt that there was something wrong with the monk’s expression.

“Nothing, I just wanted to say that Zhenren is awesome...”the monk closed his eyes and gave a Buddhist salute.

It was a good thing that he hadn’t cultivated his state of mind for nothing all these years.

Otherwise, in the face of this huge difference, he would probably have shut himself off long ago.

He smoothly entered the second layer of the chaotic circle.

Wang Ling immediately rushed to his body, which was currently being attacked by the chaotic power.

A normal cultivator would feel a lot of pain.

But Wang Ling was different.

He felt as if he had stepped into a jacuzzi.

It was quite comfortable.

The monk stared at Wang Ling’s expression and felt that something wasn’t right.

He had the urge to flip the table repeatedly in his heart.

What on Earth was going on with that radiant face of his? ! ! !

In this second level of chaos, the monk wouldn’t be able to maintain it for long.

Although he didn’t feel particularly unwell physically, he wouldn’t feel as comfortable as Wang Ling when he entered this place..

Seeing the monk's defeated expression,.

Wang Ling thought that the monk couldn't hold on any longer, so he stretched out his hand and shot a golden light at the monk.

This was Wang Ling's "Supreme Protective Golden Light".

It could be considered a special magic artifact.

However, Wang Ling's physical body was really too strong, so this golden light usually had no use for him.

Now was the perfect time to give it to the monk.

With the blessing of this "Supreme Protective Golden Light,"the monk's ability to resist the power of chaos instantly increased.

He could finally feel the feeling of being immersed in a "Jacuzzi.".

"It feels so good... why does it feel so good..."

The monk couldn't help making a sound.

It was hard to imagine that an accomplished monk would actually show such an expression.

Feeling that he couldn't see anything, Wang Ling hurriedly took another step forward and tried to move toward the core area.

He took a step forward and turned himself into a light-like existence, instantly traversing a long distance.

This wasn't "Shrinking the earth into an inch,"but a long-distance movement technique that was even more powerful than "Shrinking the earth into an inch.".

Wang Ling called it “Inch time.”.

Every time Wang Ling took a step, the monk had to use “Shrinking the earth into an inch”100 times in a row before he could catch up.

This made the monk feel a little tired.

At the same time, he was once again shocked by the “Power of non-human cultivators”in Wang Ling’s body.

The unspeakable place was extremely close to Wang Ling.

Just by looking at the distance, Wang Ling determined that he only needed to use “Inch of time”twice to reach the hinterland.

But now, he had already taken a full ten steps.

The unspeakable place was clearly right in front of him, but the distance between them had never been shortened.

“Interesting,”Wang Ling said softly.

In a sense, this “Restriction maniac”had also given Wang Ling a problem.

“You live up to your reputation as a restriction master... back then, this penniless monk was defeated in every battle. I wonder if I can fulfill this penniless monk’s long-cherished wish to enter the unspeakable place by coming here with Ling Zhenren today.”

At this moment, the monk Sighed and stared at Wang Ling. “Presumably, with Zhenren’s strength, it shouldn’t be difficult to undo the restriction, right?”

The monk was testing him.

If Wang Ling wanted to undo it, he could naturally do it..

It was just that Wang Ling had already made an analogy a long time ago about how complicated the restriction was.

It was like a math problem.

The best way to undo it was to reverse engineer it.

But it would take a very, very long time.

In fact, given the current time Crunch, Wang Ling didn't have that much time.

"It's too troublesome."

Wang Ling shook his head lightly and answered the monk.

"Even Zhenren finds it troublesome..."the monk's face was instantly filled with disappointment.

But before he could make any further comments, Wang Ling said, "Just cover it up."

"Cover... cover it up?"

The monk's eyes lit up, and his expression turned pale with shock. "Zhenren, do you mean to directly cover up the restriction set up by Dao ancestor Wang?"

"Mm."

Wang Ling nodded.

This was the most convenient way he could think of.

The analysis process was too troublesome.

Why not create a new restriction and replace all the old ones..

Wang Ling stretched out his hand, and a huge crimson-gold light shone from his palm.

This light covered the entire unspeakable place.

About three minutes later.

Wang Ling put down his hand.

“It’s done?”The monk was stunned.

“It’s done.”Wang Ling nodded.

The restriction had already been modified.

“Changed to what?”The monk was curious.

“Anyone who can withstand more than ten of my palms can enter,”Wang Ling said telepathically.

”...”the golden lamp monk.

Chapter 1330 The Shadow’s Trap

On the other side, in Room 331 of the battle sect’s isolation cellars.

Crispy Noodles Dao monarch had used the priming technique to move the medical pod here.

And lying in the battle sect’s true venerated great hall was another replica of Lotus Sun’s body.

Immortal Zhenyuan and Lady Scroll were guarding the hall.

This was a temporary “Doll-like camouflage”for the safety of the real body.

Although it might not work, it was at least a layer of protection.

“Just how many bodies did boss Luo build for junior sister Lotus Sun...” Odd Zhuo was stunned.

She had finally come into contact with Crispy Noodles Dao monarch up close. Looking at this face that looked extremely similar to Wang Ling’s, the girl looked like she wanted to say something but hesitated.

“Crispy Noodles Dao monarch is a very amiable person. Junior sister, you don’t have to be polite if you want to ask me anything.” Odd Zhuo encouraged her with a smile on his face.

“That...”

Lotus Sun finally spoke. She looked at the young man in front of her and asked very politely, “Senior, have we met somewhere before?”

Crispy Noodles Dao monarch thought for a moment and answered truthfully, “Nine dragons mountain, physical skills competition.”

“Physical skills competition...” Lotus Sun thought carefully, she suddenly recalled a scene that was indeed completely different from Wang Ling’s usual style. “Did senior replace student Wang Ling when he was writing his essay?”

Crispy Noodles Dao monarch was slightly surprised by the girl’s quick thinking and reaction.

But since she had already been exposed..., there was naturally no need to hide it. “Yes, I did take Little Master Ling’s place when he was writing his essay. At that time, he was fighting with his own shadow in the universe.”

“I told you! How did classmate Wang Ling suddenly get such a high score for his essay?”

Lotus Sun smiled happily. “So it turns out that senior is a speck of dust in this era!”

Crispy Noodles Dao monarch scratched his head, still a little embarrassed. “Miss Sun, you must be joking. I was just playing normally. I didn’t expect things to turn out this way. This has caused master a lot of trouble. Scoring points is indeed a skill.”

Lotus sun nodded and couldn’t agree anymore. “I can’t learn it either... It’s easy to get 100 points, but it’s really too difficult to get an average score.”

“How did you deduce that master was switched when he was writing his essay?”

At that moment, crispy noodles dao monarch asked curiously.

“It’s very simple. First of all, the characters are different.”

The girl replied very easily, “Senior wrote the essay for student Wang Ling in the competition. Although the characters are also very good, it’s very obvious that they aren’t student Wang Ling’s. Student Wang Ling’s handwriting is in thin gold. As for senior’s handwriting...”

“I’m in Fat Gold.”

“Yes, yes, yes! It just feels a little thicker than usual.”

“My handwriting is only a little thicker than the owner’s.”

”? ? ?”

“Then may I ask, Miss Sun, is there anything else that’s different?”

“Of course there is.” Lotus sun nodded. “Everyone is communicating with each other when they write their essays together. I feel that senior was very talkative that day...”

“But I only said three sentences in total.”

“Compared to student Wang Ling, who usually doesn’t say a word, this is already an obvious anomaly.”

“Sigh.” Crispy Noodles Dao monarch sighed. He hadn’t expected that after trying so hard to imitate Wang Ling, he would still reveal a flaw.

“But I think this is pretty good. Senior doesn’t have to deliberately imitate student Wang Ling.”

At that moment, Lotus Sun said with a smile, “When I talk to senior now, it feels like I’m talking to one of classmate Wang Ling’s personalities.”

“As long as Miss Sun is happy.” Crispy Noodles Dao monarch smiled.

The obvious difference between him and Wang Ling made Lotus Sun feel very amused.

She had seen how Wang Ling looked when he smiled countless times.

“Senior, can you smile again?”

At that moment, Lotus Sun took out her hand-drawn tool.

She wanted to find the shadow of Wang Ling’s smile on Crispy Noodles Dao monarch.

“No problem.”

Crispy Noodles Dao monarch very cooperatively and very naturally smiled.

His eyes were curved, and his teeth were white.

..

On the other side, after Wang Ying left the Wang family’s small villa.

He had tracked him all the way to the western depths of the Milky Way before stopping.

He began to realize that something was not right.

If Miss Sun Ying was heading towards the unspeakable place, then the coordinates of the unspeakable place were east of the outer galaxy.

It was a completely different direction from here.

“You’ve finally discovered it. However, it’s already too late.” A clear and cold voice rang out in the space.

The countless black shadows around them turned into hair-like substances that kept drifting in the air before finally condensing into the figure of a young girl.

Sun Ying and Lotus Sun looked exactly the same, but like Wang Ying, she had white hair.

Her long white hair was even longer than her original body, like ice threads hanging upside down.

“Complete void body.” Wang Ying frowned slightly.

Sun Ying’s aura gave him a bad feeling.

Sure enough, everything was as they had guessed at the beginning.

Lotus Sun’s original body had temporarily stagnated in the state of void due to the separation of her physical body and soul.

But her shadow had completely turned into void.

Moreover, Wang Ying could sense that the energy in Miss Sun Ying’s body was extremely astonishing, far beyond the reach of an ordinary void spirit.

If they were to really fight, would this be a difficult opponent?

“Sun Ying?” Wang Ying looked at the girl in front of him.

“Don’t Call Me Sun Ying, I’m Sun Ying ‘ER. It’s fine if you call Me Ying ‘ER.”

Sun Ying ‘er said, “I’ve been her shadow for too long, and I’ve long wanted to get rid of her.”

“Do you want to imitate me when I possessed my main body?”

As a shadow as well.., Wang Ying could roughly understand Sun Ying ‘ER’s thoughts. “I’m telling you, it’s impossible. You want to turn the tables on her, and snatching her body is the key. But in the war sect, Miss Lotus Sun has too many people guarding her now. And you’ll be dragged here by me, or even defeated by me.”

“I’m afraid it won’t be that easy for you to defeat me.”

Sun Ying ‘er smiled. “You Shouldn’t know about my shadow image ability, right?”

Wang Ying frowned.

“My shadow image ability is the mother of Split. I can split myself into many. And all the split bodies have the same amount of energy as me.”

“This is impossible!”

“Theoretically speaking, this is indeed impossible. That’s because the split body that split out would not have the same amount of energy as the main body. “But don’t forget, I’m a child of the void. “The energy of the Void is inexhaustible.”

Sun Ying ‘er smiled. “Having the power of the void at the same time makes my shadow ability even more astonishing.”

“You mean...” at that moment, Wang Ying finally realized where the problem lay!

“That’s right, the one you’ve been tracking is only my split body.”

Sun Ying ‘er looked at Wang Ying with an expression that said she had everything under control.
“And my main body is still hidden on Earth.”

..

At the same time, a white-haired girl with a dangerous aura appeared at the entrance of the Zhan Zong Mountain.

She opened her palm, and a pure white snow lotus that was mixed with the power of the void appeared in her palm and rotated slightly.

“Rong Rong, come back to the void with me.”Sun Ying ‘er threw the snow lotus out with a knife hidden in her smile.

In the void, the spinning snow lotus contained a shocking amount of energy, and then exploded, lighting up the entire night sky in an instant..
