Chapter 1351 As Expected Of The Boy Rong Rong Had Taken A Fancy To!

Wang Ling hadn't expected that his "Bachelor's Curse" would actually take on such a form.

Gu Shunzhi was sent flying.

At that moment, Wang Ling only felt that all of his movements seemed to slow down.

Then, Gu Shunzhi fell into the water with a 360-degree rotation, causing a huge splash..

For a moment, the scene in the lover's Hall became chaotic. Liu Qingyi didn't know why she had thought or acted in such a way that didn't match her intentions at all.

Countless gazes were cast at the chaotic scene.

Liu Qingyi covered her face and quickly fled the scene.

"What do we do now?" Fang Xing was speechless.

"I'll go take a look..."

"What about Gu Shunzhi?"

"I'll have to trouble brother Fang to keep an eye on him for me. I'll get even with him when I Get Back!"

"Okay." Fang Xing nodded.

Wang Zhen reckoned that Gu Shunzhi had most likely done something to let Liu Qingyi down.

Otherwise, why would Liu Qingyi fly into a rage on the spot and fly into such a rage in front of everyone?

Without any time to think, he directly put down the work he was doing and directly chased after her.

At the same time, Wang Zhen was also thinking about what kind of grudge had happened between Liu Qingyi and Gu Shunzhi..

He remembered what Liu Qingyi had just shouted.

Two-timing?

What did that mean..

Was there really a relationship between Gu Shunzhi and her?

In the end, Liu Qingyi found out about it?

Wang Zhen was furious.

A dignified keeper of order!

How could he do such a ridiculous thing!

..

When Gu Shunzhi got up from the water, the curator of the aquarium also heard the news and rushed over.

The curator was calculating the damage.

This broken glass wall needed to be replaced.

This piece of glass alone was worth 500,000 yuan..

In addition, there were five sea lions that had fainted from fright while floating on the water... This spiritual compensation was also needed.

If they were frightened during mating, it was very likely that this batch of sea lions would have sexual dysfunction!

Under the premise of one-on-one mating, why would five sea lions possibly have a mental disorder?

The answer was very simple..

Because among them, three sea lions chose to have a meeting together.

“Hey, the rehabilitation fee is a lot of money!”

At that moment, the curator with a goatee looked at this scene with a worried expression.

He was holding a calculator in his hand and calculating the losses.

At that moment, Wang Ling stepped forward and patted the curator on the shoulder.

Wang Ling hadn't expected things to go this far..

Wang Ling felt that Gu Shunzhi shouldn't be the only one to bear the cost of the losses.

This wasn't a small sum, and with Wang Ling's limited pocket money, he definitely couldn't afford it.

However, he could still make an equivalent exchange.

The goateed aquarium director felt someone tap him on the shoulder, and when he turned around, he saw Wang Ling's figure.

It was that director Wang from the group's announcement earlier!

The aquarium director immediately reacted.

Although he hadn't seen Wang Ling before...

When Wang Ling entered the aquarium, his phone had also received a notification from the group.

Although there were a lot of people in the venue today, Wang Ling was the most senior customer who could enter through the VIP entrance.

In addition, he had this VIP location map in his hand.

This instantly locked down the aquarium curator's identity.

Wang Ling made a gesture of silence, then looked at the mess in front of him.

He then handed a talisman to the aquarium director.

This was a death substitution talisman drawn for Lotus Sun by the Heavenly Dao of survival.

Wang Ling still had about sixty thousand more in his drawer..

This talisman wasn't valuable in Wang Ling's hands, but it was priceless on the outside.

The aquarium director was quite knowledgeable.

He carefully analyzed this talisman.

Very quickly, he recognized that the talisman in his hand might be the legendary "Death substitution talisman"..

Each talisman was worth hundreds of millions!

Not to mention compensation for losses.

He could even build a new aquarium on the side..

“Director Wang, Wait...”

The aquarium director hurriedly chased after him and led Wang Ling to a secluded spot, he respectfully whispered to Wang Ling, “If these people are familiar with director Wang, we won’t pursue the matter of compensation. Director Wang’s death substitution talisman is priceless. I’m flattered; I really can’t afford it.”

Wang Ling shook his head.

He was the cause of this matter, so it was only right to compensate him for the loss.

Moreover, the death substitution talisman wasn’t worth much in his hands to begin with; as long as he didn’t have to hand over crispy noodle snacks, everything would be fine.

The curator didn’t dare accept Wang Ling’s money, mainly because he was afraid of being blamed by the higher-ups.

But now that he saw how resolute “Chief Wang” was, he hesitated for a moment.

“Why don’t you accept it first, and then ask the higher-ups to send it back?” The curator thought to himself.

This was probably the best way to deal with this at the moment.

..

..

On the other side, Old Master Sun was extremely moved when he heard what had happened in the aquarium.

Wang Ling and Wang Zhen were classmates to begin with.

Therefore, grandfather Sun didn't find it strange that he had helped Wang Ling.

In fact, grandfather Sun didn't care at all about what had happened to Liu Qingyi and the others.

All his attention was on Wang Ling.

"As expected of classmate Wang Ling!" Grandfather Sun was so excited that he smacked the table, and it was hard to tell whether he was happy or not.

"Didn't he just help his classmate lose money..." on the side, Jiang Xiaoche wiped his sweat.

"What do you know! Classmate Wang Ling actually risked his life for the sake of a few classmates' emotional disputes in the aquarium... he's so loyal; he has the style of this old man when he was young."

After Grandpa Sun said this, he flashed his phone. "Do you know what this is?"

This was a picture of a talisman taken by the aquarium curator.

As he didn't know how to deal with the Death Substitution Talisman, the curator immediately sent it to Grandpa Sun after taking the picture.

"This seems to be... a death substitution talisman?"

When Jiang Xiaoche saw the picture, he was also shocked. "This kid, how can he have this..."

The Death Substitution Talisman was famous in the expensive industry.

Moreover, some people couldn't buy such life-saving items even if they spent money!

Because there were very few people who could draw such talismans!

The number of death substitution talismans currently circulating outside was pitifully small.

"This death substitution talisman can not be drawn by ordinary people. Given student Wang Ling's family background, this old man deduced that this talisman should be student Wang Ling's family heirloom... I didn't expect that student Wang would actually use death substitution talismans to compensate for the loss of the venue for the other students. What a silly child..."

"He should know that he's already a senior VIP of our group, so he totally doesn't have to waste this money," Jiang Xiaoche said with a frown.

"That's the problem. Student Wang deliberately left this death scapegoat talisman because he didn't want to owe our group a favor. Given the value of this death scapegoat talisman, student Wang is enough to become our VIP user. "This shows that student Wang is still a person who understands the ways of the world!"

At this moment, grandpa sun sighed, "And look at the photos taken by the curator... This scapegoat talisman is clean and tidy, as good as new. It's just like a newly drawn one..."

Grandpa Sun didn't continue.

It was impossible to easily draw a super talisman like the scapegoat talisman.

In most cases, the death substitution talisman was drawn by a high-level almighty who knew that his life was coming to an end and that he wouldn't be able to break through.

Then, these death substitution talismans could be passed on to his disciples and grand-disciples to save their lives at critical moments.

Therefore, the death substitution talisman was also known as a "Thing of the end," and it was extremely valuable.

What shocked grandfather Sun was that.

Wang Ling had actually been able to preserve his family heirloom as if it were a newly painted one..

Grandfather Sun was even more delighted by such love and treasure.

As expected of the boy his precious Lotus Sun had taken a fancy to... he was indeed extraordinary

Chapter 1352 Lotus Sun's Apprenticeship

Liu Qingyi left the stadium as if she was fleeing.

She had never expected things to turn out this way.

The "Sweet and sour carp plan" had failed.

And she had lost so much face in front of Wang Zhen..

The woman felt ashamed and indignant.

After leaving the stadium, she immediately stepped on her flying sword and sped off in the direction of the sea.

Right now, Liu Qingyi felt that she needed to find a place to calm down.

Earth wasn't a divine domain, so there was no divine sea.

The coast of Songhai city could barely be considered a suitable place.

Wang Zhen was extremely worried. He hurriedly took out his spirit sword and chased after Liu Qingyi's aura.

His flying speed was extremely fast, and he attracted the traffic police who were patrolling in the air halfway.

“Comrade in front, please stop. You’re speeding!”The police officer followed closely behind Wang Zhen on his sword.

However, Wang Zhen’s speed was really too fast..

There was no way for him to track him.

In the end, he could only take a photo of Wang Zhen and use big data to search for information.

When he found out that Wang Zhen was a student of No. 60 High School, the police officer had a puzzled expression on his face.

Could a foundation establishment stage sword racing speed be this fast these days?

It was too dangerous!

However, considering that Wang Zhen was a student, the air traffic police officer did not issue a huge ticket in the end. Instead, he issued a warning letter to No. 60 High School.

After No. 60 high school resumed school next Monday, criticism and education against Wang Zhen would definitely be unavoidable.

..

Liu Qingyi came to the seaside and did not wait for her to calm down.

Unexpectedly, a familiar voice came from far behind. “Qingyi!”

It was Wang Zhen’s voice..

Was this guy here to make a fool of her.

Liu Qingyi bit her lip and immediately prepared to go into the sea.

As an opponent, a woman didn't want Wang Zhen to make a fool of her.

From Afar, when Wang Zhen saw Liu Qingyi preparing to go into the sea, all the hairs on his body stood up nervously. "Qingyi! No!"

He didn't have time to think and sped up a bit.

But when he arrived, Wang Zhen discovered a serious problem..

He couldn't Stop!

Then, Bang! A muffled sound rang out!

Liu Qingyi felt a human figure smash into her spine at an extremely fast speed.

It actually directly pulled her into a ball and started to roll forward at an extremely fast speed.

Biu ~ Biu ~ Biu ~

Because Wang Zhen's angle of entry was too tricky, after he and Liu Qingyi collided into each other, the two of them directly drifted in the sea. It was unknown how many ripples they had created before there was a "Splash", they sank into the sea together.

After coming out of the water, Wang Zhen brought Liu Qingyi back to the shore in the position of a princess carrying her.

Wang Zhen put Liu Qingyi down, and she felt a sharp pain in her back. "Hiss... slow down!"

"Ah! Sorry, is it very painful?" Wang Zhen's heart ached.

"You Idiot! You're so Rash..."

Liu Qingyi wanted to blame him, but seeing Wang Zhen's worried expression, her voice gradually faded away.

"I thought you were going to commit suicide."

Wang Zhen touched the back of his head, his expression a little awkward.

"Who would commit suicide over something like this? And this isn't the divine sea. Can the sea water from Earth drown US cultivators from the Divine Domain?" Liu Qingyi didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

"What do you mean by this? isn't Gu Shunzhi your boyfriend? He's two-timing and he hurt you!" Wang Zhen's expression couldn't contain his anger. "Don't worry. When I go back, I'll definitely beat him up!"

"Beat him up? He's a keeper of order. You want to beat him up with your head?" Liu Qingyi didn't directly expose the truth. Seeing Wang Zhen's interesting reaction, she almost subconsciously followed his words and asked.

"Then I'll Go Beg Ling Zhenren! There's always a way to deal with scum! Even if I have to kneel down to Ling Zhenren, I want him to lend me a hand!" Wang Zhen said with a serious expression.

It was said that men had gold under their knees.

If he hadn't been trapped on earth, given Wang Zhen's temper, he would never have knelt down to anyone.

Now, Wang Zhen's temper had indeed changed a lot, and he had become humble.

Moreover, the person kneeling down was Ling Zhenren, so there was nothing to be afraid of.

"PFFT! Are You... worried about me?"

She had thought that Wang Zhen was here to make fun of her, but she hadn't expected that this idiot was actually really worried about her.

“I just don’t like it. Two-timing! Why aren’t you angry at all?”Wang Zhen was stubborn.

“Because I was the one who hired Gu Shunzhi to act.”

At this point, Liu Qingyi finally told the truth. “Actually, those words and that slap weren’t my original intention. At that time, I seemed to have lost control, as if I was possessed.”

“So the reason you ran away was...”

“Idiot! I thought you were chasing after me to make fun of me,”Liu Qingyi said.

She reached out and wrapped her arms around Wang Zhen’s neck, pulling his face down a little.

At this time, his clothes were already soaked in seawater, and there was sand stuck to his body.

For a moment, the scenery was beautiful.

Even under the sound of the waves crashing against the shore, Wang Zhen could still clearly hear his own heartbeat.

This kind of heart-throbbing feeling caused both of them to fall into a daze.

Then, Wang Zhen cupped Liu Qingyi’s cheek and kissed her.

Everything was already in silence..

In the distance.

When Gu Shunzhi saw this scene, he felt that the tide had already turned.

These two had gotten together..

Then he would probably no longer exist.

Gu Shunzhi had even prepared himself for the worst case scenario of disappearing.

But the strange thing was that.

His body hadn't disappeared.

Gu Shunzhi was sure that he hadn't mistaken his mother for someone else.

The Liu Qingyi in front of him was definitely his real mother..

So what was going on now?

Gu Shunzhi frowned.

Probably the only person who could give him an answer now.

Was Ling Zhenren.

..

..

Wang Zhen took Liu Qingyi to the hospital.

After confirming that the impact just now hadn't affected her.

They then returned to the cadre's apartment.

In the elevator, their fingers were clasped tightly together.

“I told you it would be fine. This little impact can’t hurt me.”

Liu Qingyi said, “See, you wasted your money, right? Your Heart Hurts, right?”

“I’m not that stingy. Anyway, there’s no harm in an inspection. At least we know that your body is tough.”

Wang Zhen smiled and whispered into her ear, “Maybe in the future, the impact will be even more intense...”

“You’re such an adult, you’re not serious!” Liu Qingyi’s face turned red.

One had to know that Wang Zhen had already been given a speeding ticket today!

Ding!

At that moment, the elevator door slowly opened. Liu Qingyi saw many employees in Huaguo water curtain group uniforms moving things into the house under the guidance of an old auntie.

“You bought something online?” Wang Zhen was puzzled.

“No... I didn’t buy it...” Liu Qingyi shook her head.

At that moment, the old Auntie who was in charge of the scene walked over and bowed to Liu Qingyi with a smile. “Hello, Miss Liu. I’m Miss Lotus Sun’s head maid, Qiu Shuyun. Everyone calls me Auntie Qiu.”

“Hello, Aunt Qiu!”

Liu Qingyi nodded. “So, what’s the situation now?”

“This is the gift Miss Lotus Sun ordered us to send over,” Aunt Qiu said with a smile.

“The gift...”Liu Qingyi was shocked.

“Miss Lotus Sun already knew everything over the phone. Miss also said that master Liu has deep connections and that there are too many things for her to learn.”

”...”

“From now on, our miss’s happiness will depend on master Liu!”

”...”

Chapter 1353 Gu Shunzhi’s Secret

Wang Ling had expected Gu Shunzhi to beg him.

After all, if it hadn’t been for the fact that he was helpless, it would have been impossible for him to agree to the condition of being his mother’s fake boyfriend..

Wang Zhen and Liu Qing were in love, and Wang Ling calculated their relationship.

This was a happy ending.

In other words, there was actually no possibility of a subsequent breakup.

Under these circumstances, there was a big question as to why Gu Shunzhi could continue to exist..

He had transmigrated from the future, and his original goal had been to prevent Wang Zhen and Liu Qingyi from falling in love. In the end, things had turned out differently.

“I actually didn’t expect them to progress so quickly. After all, there’s still some time before my father returns from his trip to Star River. My parents got together after he returned from his trip to Star River.”

In Wang Ling’s bedroom, Gu Shunzhi knelt in front of Wang Ling and sighed. “Zhenren, I can only rely on you now!”

”...”

“And today, I was slapped by my mother. I suspect that someone cast a curse on me... if it’s convenient for Zhenren, could you also help me investigate?”

”...”Wang Ling’s expression was a little hesitant.

After all, he was the main culprit behind the whole play.

His initial goal had been to test the “Bachelor’s Curse”and give the whole thing a good job, but he hadn’t expected that he would accidentally overdo it.

Moreover, the “Memory loss”restriction hadn’t been activated.

It was very likely that Gu Shunzhi and Liu Qingyi weren’t a real couple.

Wang Ling’s original goal in leaving behind the “Memory loss”mechanism was to separate the couple.

Now, not only had Liu Qingyi and Wang Zhen not been separated because of the “Single curse”, but they were still together.

Thus, the mechanism of memory loss didn’t work normally.

Seeing Wang Ling’s hesitant expression, Gu Shunzhi thought that it was because he had asked for too many things, which made Wang Ling unhappy.

Thus, he hurriedly changed his words. “My matter is more important... If Ling Zhenren finds it troublesome about the person who cast the curse, then forget it; I can investigate it myself. I’ll definitely make this person come out personally to apologize!”

”...”

Wang Ling didn't doubt Gu Shunzhi's investigative ability as a "Keeper of order."

But he had to put this matter behind him as soon as possible.

Fortunately, he had been prepared.

Just as Gu Shunzhi was speaking, a tree branch quietly stretched out from the bathroom in Wang Ling's bedroom..

Smack!

A blunt blow to the back of Gu Shunzhi's head.

"As expected of the real person, the physical amnesia spell succeeded!"

This was a talking branch, and after confirming that Gu Shunzhi had fainted, it burst into laughter like a copper bell.

Wang Ling had long since anticipated that Gu Shunzhi would come, so he permanently strengthened one of the branches of the Cosmic God tree for the use of the "Physical amnesia spell".

Why was it permanently strengthened?

Wang Ling felt that he might need to use Miss Yu in the future..

The physical amnesia book was very simple; Wang Ling could do it himself, but he wasn't sure if he could do it himself, and it was very likely that the head would be smacked away.

The reason why he had set his eyes on the cosmic god tree was also because the cosmic god tree, in conjunction with Lord Ma, could now extend its branches wherever it wanted to go.

This way, it would be much more convenient for Wang Ling to use the physical amnesia spell.

As long as his heart calls the tree of the universe, an enhanced branch will instantly appear in the back of the head of the subject to memory loss for a strike.

And most importantly, because of the strength of Miss Yu control is extremely good.

Not only will there be no aftereffects,.

The tree spirit on the branches can also penetrate into the cerebral cortex, so that those who were whipped awake will have a refreshing effect!

After about ten seconds, Gu Shunzhi woke up, and his complexion was clearly much better than before he had come to the Wang family's small villa.

Gu Shunzhi didn't know what had happened just now.

It was as if he had just been in a daze.

After regaining consciousness, he saw Wang Ling seriously helping him sort out the timeline.

"Ling Zhenren is such a good person!"

Gu Shunzhi sighed in his heart.

Wang Ling:"..."

..

According to the clues provided by Gu Shunzhi, his father, Gu Cheng, had only met Liu Qingyi after returning from a trip.

Moreover, their relationship quickly heated up, and they soon gave birth to him.

When Gu Cheng had come to God realm to propose marriage to the Liu family, it had been recorded in the history of God realm.

After the marriage between the two families, the Liu family's status among God's domain's ten great families could be said to have risen rapidly. Very quickly, they rose to third place, poking the bottom eye of the Zhou family, which was originally ranked third.

In order to prove that what he said was true, Gu Shunzhi even showed a lot of photo evidence.

The woman in the photo that looked extremely flirtatious was indeed Liu Qingyi herself.

On that day, after the two of them got married, it was rumored that Wang Zhen had been so disheartened that he had never returned to the divine realm..

At first glance, this scene sounded like it was true, but Wang Ling had a feeling that there might be more to it.

“My Lord! My Lord! I have something to say!”

At that moment, the book of Sage Immortal's voice rang out.

The last time Wang Ling had casually stuffed the book of Sage Immortal into Lord Ma's mouth, it seemed that he had already thoroughly reflected on his actions.

However, death was an exoneration, and Wang Ling had never given up on the idea of giving the book of Sage immortal away.

“Is this Lord Sage Book...”Gu Shunzhi turned around and bowed.

“According to the timeline, I already have a reasonable answer,”said the book of Sage Immortal.

He planned to tell the whole story in exchange for a chance to redeem himself.

“Lord holy book already has an answer?”Gu Shunzhi was stunned.

“That’s right.”

Book of Sage immortal said, “Everyone thought that Wang Zhen left God’s domain because he lost Liu Qingyi and was disheartened. He never came back. “Then, is there another possibility? That is, Wang Zhen eloped with the real Miss Liu.”

“The real Miss Liu?”

Gu Shunzhi was so shocked that the corner of his mouth twitched.

After all this time, it turned out to be a F * * King Fake?

“Impossible! I definitely didn’t mistake my mother!”Gu Shunzhi retorted. “I used the tracking privilege of the keeper of order to secretly mark my mother’s soul. Then, I traced it here. I Won’t make a mistake.”

“You didn’t make a mistake. “But you also have to remember that if you mark an object that originated from the original body... Then when you track it, your mark will fall back to the original body before the mark is formed.”

Although the words of the book of Sage immortal were very difficult to pronounce, gu shunzhi seemed to have understood what was going on. “The Lord holy book means...”

“From the beginning, your father liked Miss Liu’s shadow. And your mother was also Miss Liu’s shadow. “However, during this period of time, Miss Liu’s shadow has yet to awaken. “Therefore, the mark you made in the future will eventually return to Miss Liu’s original body.”

“So that’s how it is...”Gu Shunzhi fell into deep thought.

“The accuracy of this deduction is as high as 78% .”

After saying this, book of Sage immortal sighed. “If my master wasn’t a single dog and hadn’t influenced some of my emotional judgments, the accuracy would have been even higher.”

Wang Ling:”?”

Chapter 1354 Old Man Sun’s Self-Orientation

Gu Shunzhi did not expect the truth to be like this.

He was actually the child of Liu Qingyi’s shadow..

After hearing this result, Gu Shunzhi’s mood immediately became complicated.

Even if the shadow had awakened its intelligence, it was still an object formed by the main body. Since it was such a main body, then in fact, Liu Qingyi’s shadow could also be called Liu Qingyi’s “Daughter.”.

Under this layer of relationship, the relationship between him and Liu Qingyi’s main body seemed to become even more complicated.

Previously, Gu Shunzhi had always called Liu Qingyi’s main body “Mom.”.

But in reality, he should have called her “Grandma”? ?

“You seem to be in a very complicated mood.”

At that moment, book of Sage immortal said, “But it’s not that I can’t understand this. After all, my mom suddenly became my grandma, so there’s always a sense of difference. You’d better be more open-minded. Having an old man in your family is like having a treasure.”

Gu Shunzhi:”...”

Wang Ling:”...”

..

..

When Gu Shunzhi arrived at the entrance of the cadre's apartment that day, he found Liu Qingyi holding Wang Zhen's arm, chatting and laughing as they waited at the elevator door.

The two of them were dressed lightly, and they looked as if they were about to go out, interacting intimately.

Gu Shunzhi wanted to say something, but hesitated.

The main thing was that he didn't know which of the two terms to call her was better.

"Hey, I already know brother Gu, so don't be sad." At that moment, Wang Zhen looked up at Gu Shunzhi and patted his shoulder sympathetically.

Although Gu Shunzhi was a keeper of order, he didn't put on any airs when they lived together in the Wei family, so Wang Zhen and Gu Shunzhi were brothers.

But now, Gu Shunzhi stared at the "Grandfather" who called him "Brother" in front of him, and his feelings became even more complicated.

"What do you know?"

"Qingyi said that you have a serious Oedipal complex," Wang Zhen said.

"..."

"Don't worry. Since I'm together with Qingyi, I'll definitely keep this a secret. 'I won't tell anyone,'" Wang Zhen said. "It's normal for a member of the order to be a little eccentric because of the pressure. 'I've heard my father say something even weirder before.'"

"? ? ?"

"There's a person of order who's been single for a long time. He even looks at shadows and has pretty features. He actually has a desire for a woman's Shadow!"

”...”

Gu Shunzhi didn't want to continue discussing this topic. He quickly changed the topic. "Where are you guys going now?"

"It's like this. I, Qingyi, have discussed it. I plan to go out and look at houses and move out."

"You guys are rich?"

"Qingyi is now Miss Lotus Sun's Master! Miss Sun said that as long as it's a property owned by Huaguo Water Curtain Group, you can just tell her directly what you like."

"Then... I wish you guys happiness," Gu Shunzhi said.

Then, he walked to his bedroom without looking back.

Logically speaking, he shouldn't be so depressed.

Since he knew that his mother wasn't Liu Qingyi herself, he should be happy.

But too much had happened today, and the amount of information was too much..

For a moment, Gu Shunzhi felt like he had indigestion.

"What's wrong with him?"

Wang Zhen was a little puzzled by Gu Shunzhi's reaction.

"The three of us are from Asgard, but we left just like that. Isn't it bad to leave him here?" Liu Qingyi said worriedly.

"That's true. Then why don't we just find him another roommate?" Wang Zhen said.

“You mean... Zhao Qingxian?”

“Anyway, we’ve moved out now, and we’re already together, so there’s nothing to be afraid of.”

Wang Zhen suddenly hugged Liu Qingyi, he circled her like a giant wolf dog. “This fatty has never been a rule-abiding person in God’s domain. Old Gu is at least a keeper of order. Under the nose of a keeper of order, I believe Zhao Qingxian won’t be too rash.”

“Mm, you’re right.”Liu Qingyi nodded.

“And I remember that the Zhao family also runs a beast workshop in God’s domain! They can also help Wei Zhi! At the very least, it’s much better than the two of us!”Wang Zhen said with a smile.

“Then where is Zhao Qingxian Now?”

“I asked around before. Because he’s an illegal household, his behavior is suspicious. He’s still in the detention center.”

“Okay! I’ll call Rongrong later and ask her to arrange for Zhao Qingxian to be brought here.”

“What do you want to Eat Tonight? Western or Chinese?”Wang Zhen asked.

“Anything!”Liu Qingyi smiled.

“Then... barbecue?”

“It’s too oily. Do you have anything else?”

“Hot Pot?”

“It’s so boring to eat hot pot. It’s full of sauce.”

“Then tell me...”

“Anything!”

” ...”

..

Thursday, December 3rd.

This was the day Lotus Sun was officially discharged from the hospital.

At Lotus Sun’s request, the old man had chosen to keep a low profile. He didn’t make a big deal out of it, nor did he get a bunch of media reporters to specially hold a press conference or anything like that.

After this incident, the old man truly felt that his precious granddaughter seemed to have become much more mature.

She had become more steady in her work.

“It’s said that student Wang Ling likes to keep a low profile. I’m afraid that Rong Rong has also been influenced by student Wang Ling.”In the car, grandfather Sun was actually very gratified in his heart.

Everyone had their youth.

Under the basic conditions of being in love, one’s behavior would also align with the person they liked, and then some changes would occur.

For example, if a person who didn’t do well in school fell in love with a straight-a student, then perhaps they would become much more diligent in their studies.

It was also a knowledge of being in a relationship to try to keep pace with the person they liked.

Thus, grandfather sun was very clear about his position in Lotus Sun's pursuit of Wang Ling.

He could only be a long-distance support and couldn't interfere too much.

Furthermore, he couldn't use his own group's financial power and influence to disrupt student Wang Ling's life!

This would not only cause trouble for Wang Ling, but would also hinder his precious granddaughter's plan!

"Good luck, Lotus!" Grandfather Sun couldn't help cheering in his heart as he watched the girl walk into the villa.

"Master, where are we going now?"

"To the war sect. I have an appointment with director Zhuo."

"Okay." The driver nodded, stepped on the accelerator, and sped off.

..

Back in her bedroom, Lotus Sun saw that all the furniture that had been burned by the "Grand sacrificial spell" had been restored. Just like before she left, they were all newly bought.

Aunt Qiu knew that Lotus Sun had been discharged from the hospital today, so she ordered the exact same furniture in advance and had someone come to her house overnight to finish the installation.

"Thank you, Aunt Qiu." Lotus sun smiled politely at Aunt Qiu.

"Miss, you're too kind. This is what I'm supposed to do. I still have other things to do. If miss needs anything else, just call out."

"Okay."

Lotus sun nodded.

She saw Aunt Qiu leave respectfully and close the door.

She couldn't wait to turn on her computer.

There were too many things recorded on the cloud drive.

The girl had only read less than 10% of it in the hospital.

And now.

Those memories, in her soul state.

She had personally recorded on the "Little Notebook".

In an instant, all of them were released..

Chapter 1355 Odd Zhuo's Identity Was Exposed?

Lotus Sun connected her laptop to the printer and printed out all the sketches she had drawn.

In just a few minutes, Wang Ling's face from all angles covered her desk.

"I actually drew so many... student Wang Ling's sketches..."the girl blushed and buried her face in the pile of paper.

Although these were all Wang Ling's sketches, none of them were complete.

This was because Lotus sun had learned about the "Great shield spell"from Odd Zhuo when she had been in the Buddha's golden lotus earlier.

Once the protective mechanism was activated, her sketches would turn into a pile of mosaics.

So in order to prevent this from happening,.

Lotus Sun didn't finish her sketches.

Student Wang Ling, who had an ellipsis on his face, was also very cute!

The girl flipped through the sketches and saw a few of them that she had highlighted.

She remembered now!

She had drawn them on top of the heavens, Palm Cliff!

In addition to the accompanying pictures, Lotus Sun had also written her own words: "On this day, I was brought to Earth one second later by a groundhog, but I didn't feel the slightest bit afraid, because I believe that student Wang Ling will definitely come to save me!"

"Don't be afraid..."

"I'm Coming..."

"Classmate Wang Ling, the message you left me in the shadow, these are probably two sentences that I will never forget."

"Then, you broke free from all the shadows and appeared in my world like light..."

..

"What I wrote was too mushy..." the girl's face was flushed as she read the words on the accompanying picture.

She simply couldn't believe that she would actually write something like this.

She couldn't bear to read any longer, but her curiosity kept driving her to read the messages left behind.

"Senior Odd Zhuo... he actually called me mistress..."

That was when she had returned to the battle sect after being rescued from the groundhog by Wang Ling.

Odd Zhuo pounced on her like a pear blossom in the rain and loudly called her "Mistress" in front of everyone.

This incredible scene appeared in her mind as her memories kept coming back to her.

In an instant, two streams of hot steam gushed out of her ears on the spot.

"I have to cool you down! Otherwise, it'll be dangerous." Sun Ying 'er appeared and sat obediently on the soft edge of the bed, swinging her slender legs.

Steam was released from her ears.

This was the effect of the 'Cooling Spell', and Sun Ying 'ER was responsible for implementing it based on the situation.

"Lower the temperature..."

"Your temperature is too high right now! A Girl in love needs to keep her head cool at all times in order to win in the end, right?"

Sun Ying 'er giggled. "That stinky Wang Ying wants me to protect you! So sometimes, I'll take some necessary measures."

"You still want to protect me? Don't you get bullied by Wang Ying all the time?" Lotus Sun also laughed.

“Bullied? No Way! I’ll definitely turn over a new leaf and fight him to the end!”Sun Ying ‘ER said resolutely.

But speaking up to this point, she suddenly felt that her body was indeed a little uncomfortable..

It was all because Wang Ying’s “Planet Wall Knock”yesterday was too strong!

“You’re not feeling well? Do you want me to give you a massage?”

“That’s great! Rong Rong is the best! Mua!”

Sun Ying ‘er hurriedly pounced over and kissed Lotus Sun on the cheek. “It’s all this damn Wang Ying’s fault! 406 times! It was executed in one night! My Back Hurts!”

Lotus Sun:”...”

Sun Ying ‘er: “Hey! Rong Rong! Why Is Your Face Red Again? Hey! Eat My Cooling Spell!”

..

On the other side, in the war sect, Old Master Sun and Odd Zhuo had arranged to meet in the Zhenzun Grand Hall.

After exchanging pleasantries, the two of them took their seats.

A war sect disciple came to serve tea, and after that, he tactfully retreated and closed the door.

He made sure that no one disturbed him in the grand hall.

“Director Zhuo, this old man came here today for one thing. I’m a straightforward person, and I’m not one to beat around the bush, so I hope that director Zhuo can be honest with me.”

Grandfather Sun smiled. "As for the benefits, director Zhuo will definitely be one of them. "I know that the myriad schools alliance is about to nominate a candidate for the new alliance head. If director Zhuo doesn't hide anything, this old man will do everything in my power to get votes for him."

Odd Zhuo smiled. "Mr. Sun, you're too kind. Sugar-coated bullets won't work on me. I want to hear Mr. Sun's question first. If it involves a friend's secret, I naturally won't reveal a single word."

"As expected, President Zhuo is a loyal person."Grandfather Sun nodded.

His words just now had only been a probe, and Odd Zhuo had indeed not disappointed him.

In fact, whether or not he had gotten the answer he wanted from Odd Zhuo this time, grandfather Sun would still help him with canvassing votes.

He knew that Odd Zhuo had also played a big role in Lotus Sun's matter this time.

There was no way he, Sun Yiyuan, wouldn't return this favor.

"Don't worry, director Zhuo, what this old man wants to discuss this time is definitely not the secret of director Zhuo's friend. It's director Zhuo's own secret,"grandfather Sun said with a smile.

Odd Zhuo's expression froze slightly at these words..

His secret was nothing more than his relationship with Wang Ling.

Could it be that it had already been exposed?

That shouldn't be the case!

Odd Zhuo frowned. "So what do you want to ask, Mr. Sun?"

“Director Zhuo was able to rise to the position of director general in such a short period of time, and has made many outstanding contributions. He is deeply loved by Secretary Sun of the Alliance of ten thousand schools... and this old man is actually here to inquire about classmate Wang Ling.”

Grandfather sun: “So, this old man needs to confirm that the relationship between director Zhuo and classmate Wang Ling isn’t as simple as it looks.”

Odd Zhuo’s expression darkened. “Student Wang Ling and I are just normal seniors and juniors. We’re the same as student Lotus Sun.”

“Not necessarily, director Zhuo.”

At that moment., grandfather Sun chuckled. “Since this old man is visiting today, I must have come prepared. I never fight unprepared. I’m sure that director Zhuo’s relationship with student Wang Ling is definitely not as simple as it looks.”

Odd Zhuo: “I don’t know where Mr. Sun got this information from...”

“It’s just the result of my meticulous analysis combined with the information I got.”

Hearing this, Old Man Sun chuckled. “So, director Zhuo, just admit it.”

Odd Zhuo pretended not to know. “Admit what?”

Old Man Sun: “You! You’re student Wang Ling’s master! Am I right?”

Odd Zhuo

Chapter 1356 Perfect Avoidance Of All Correct Answers

Odd Zhuo felt that this might be the biggest wok he had ever taken on in his life.

It could only be said that old man sun was indeed Old Man Sun.

This ability to avoid correct answers..

So you were the legendary “Takeshi Maori Kogoro”!

At least Kogoro had been right before, but Odd Zhuo found grandfather Sun’s magic to be that he always seemed to be able to perfectly avoid all the correct answers.

“I didn’t expect to be discovered in the end...”

At that moment, Odd Zhuo cupped his chin with his fingers, leaned forward and rested his elbows on his knees, pretending to be deep in thought.

It was impossible for him not to admit it now.

Although this pot was enormous, he could only take the blame now.

“Director Zhuo admitted it in the end.” Old Man Sun looked as if he had the overall situation under control. He had absolute confidence that the main reason Odd Zhuo had admitted it was because he had enough evidence on hand.

“I wonder how Mr. Sun found out about this?” Odd Zhuo was very curious about this.

“You and student Wang have known each other for a very long time, perhaps before No. 60 high school’s first spirit sword exchange meet. I even specifically asked Rongrong about what happened on the day of the Spirit Sword Exchange meet.”

Grandfather Sun began to make his brilliant deduction. “Rongrong said that in your solo spirit sword performance, you chose student Wang’s peach wood sword at first sight. This is actually a subconscious psychological move, which means that the relationship between the two of you is no small matter.”

Odd Zhuo: “Is there any other evidence...”

“Of course there is.”

Grandfather Sun nodded. “Director Zhuo defeated the demon king sky-swallowing toad back then, and now that Toad has been turned into a dog. No. 60 high school has so many students, so why does this dog have to be raised in student Wang Ling's Home? It's very clear that this is your first gift to student Wang Ling."

"..."

"This toad is a demon king, but you were the one who defeated it back then, director Zhuo, so it definitely listens to you. You put it in student Wang Ling's home to actually protect him."

Old Master Sun Chuckled. "This kind of master's care for his disciple is a little too obvious."

Hearing this, the corners of Odd Zhuo's mouth twitched.

"Mr. Sun is really wise... and courageous at the same time!"

"Of course, there's also decisive evidence in the end, which is director Zhuo's close visit to student Wang Ling's home."

"Mr. Sun is following me?" Odd Zhuo frowned.

"It's not exactly stalking, but it's just some technical means."

Grandfather sun said nonchalantly, "The Director General's Medal pinned on director Zhuo's chest actually has a location function. In the past, your medal location frequently appeared in student Wang Ling's home. I'm afraid this has already surpassed the relationship between an ordinary senior and a junior, right?"

Hearing this, Odd Zhuo couldn't help clapping. "As expected of Mr. Sun, your reasoning ability is far beyond my reach..."

"It's all trivial tricks. The reason I'm able to sit in this position is also because of my extraordinary reasoning ability." When grandfather Sun said this, he couldn't help sighing.

He used to make pills, but now he played with stocks.

Pills were considered a physical industry, and now there were fully automated production machines. Other than rare pills, most of the pills could be fully automated through the machine. There was not much manual skill involved.

Therefore, after a long time, Sun Yiyuan began to learn to analyze stocks.

The stock market was still exciting!

Every time he made a sound analysis, Huaguo water curtain group had earned quite a bit of money through its stock operations in the past few years.

“Director Zhuo, if you’re interested, you can go and listen to my stock lessons. Of course, these are top-secret lessons within the group.”

“Grandfather Sun also knows stocks?”

“It’s just some trivial analysis. The person who specifically manipulates it is still Jiang Xiaoche, the secretary beside me whom Director Zhuo met earlier.”

Odd Zhuo:”...”

Although Odd Zhuo wasn’t 100% sure yet.

He could roughly guess that this Jiang Xiaoche had most likely bought it in reverse according to grandfather Sun’s words!

In this regard, Odd Zhuo couldn’t help sighing in his heart.

It really wasn’t easy for Huaguo water curtain group to be so big..

He smiled bitterly. “Mr. Sun came to me today to confirm his identity, but he wants to ask about my disciple... son.”

Odd Zhuo braced himself to say this.

At the same time, he groaned and shouted in his heart a thousand times, hoping that Wang Ling wouldn't blame him. "Master! This disciple really didn't mean to take advantage of you! Your father-in-law came to investigate! This disciple has to take the blame!"

Sun Yiyuan was delighted when he heard this.

He had long known that Odd Zhuo was a decent person.

It was precisely for this reason that secretary sun liked him so much.

In fact, Sun Yiyuan felt that even if he didn't help Odd Zhuo pull this vote, Odd Zhuo would one day be able to sit on the number one seat in the alliance with his own ability.

"I knew it; director Zhuo is a smart person."

Old Man Sun was overjoyed. "What this old man wants to ask isn't a big deal... I just want to ask about student Wang Ling's interests or his family's interests."

"Crispy noodle snacks," odd Zhuo said.

"What?" Sun Yiyuan thought he had heard wrong.

"It's just a small snack..."

"So that's how it is."

Old Man Sun Sighed. "No wonder when student Wang went to the hospital to see my Rongrong's life earlier, he didn't even take a look at those high-end snacks I had people prepare."

Odd Zhuo smiled. "But ordinary crispy noodle snacks are already very difficult for my disciple to take notice of now."

“That’s easy. I can find someone to order them personally. Get the best pastry chef in the world to make them right away!”

“Mr. Sun is really generous, but if he really does this, my disciple might be disgusted...”

“I know.”

Grandfather Sun said, “Student Wang just likes to keep a low profile. I’ll get the noodle chef to appear by his side without anyone noticing.”

Odd Zhuo:”...”

Sun Yiyuan: “Then, what do student Wang’s parents like?”

Odd Zhuo: “My Disciple’s father is an online novelist.”

“Oh! I know that! A monthly ticket! A recommendation ticket! A Tip!”

Grandfather Sun was excited. “What’s his pen name? I can arrange it for him right now!”

“His pen name is Wang Situ.”

“So Wang situ is him...”Old Master Sun was startled.

With his relationship with the head of state, he naturally knew that the head of state had been chasing after a novel written by a person called Wang Situ.

But Sun Yiyuan hadn’t expected this world to be so small.

This Wang Situ was actually classmate Wang Ling’s father..

Chapter 1357 Zhao Qingxian’s Wishful Thinking

Odd Zhuo hadn’t expected Grandpa Sun to be so attentive to his master’s matters.

But after talking to him, he felt that there was actually no need to be too wary of Sun Yiyuan.

Grandpa Sun was indeed a “Reasoning genius”, but he was also a person who knew how to take care of others’ feelings.

It was precisely because he knew his master’s low-key personality that he specially made an appointment with him to ask him about the situation.

Otherwise, with grandfather Sun’s temper, he would have already carried big and small bags to visit his “In-laws”.

Strategy was a long-term plan. Emotional matters needed to be slowly cultivated. Grandfather Sun understood these principles.

The more he wished for his precious granddaughter to truly be happy, the more he couldn’t.

The more he couldn’t use money and sugar-coated cannonballs to try to buy off other people’s feelings.

This was an impolite act, but it was also a form of disrespect to others.

“Thank you, director Zhuo, this old man’s trip today wasn’t in vain! I understand everything!”

Before he left, grandfather Sun bowed respectfully to Odd Zhuo. “Director Zhuo, please rest assured that heaven knows what happened today! I’ll keep everything to myself!”

“Mr. Sun, you’re too kind.” Odd Zhuo smiled and cupped his fists in return.

Old Man Sun laughed heartily and shouted, “Good fortune!” Then he flicked his sleeves and left.

Looking at Old Man Sun’s receding figure, Odd Zhuo also let out a long sigh of relief.

“Brother Ling, are you sure you won’t be angry...”

Grenade-throwing senior immortal walked out of his office; he had been eavesdropping on them for a long time.

“As long as there’s crispy noodle snacks, everything can be discussed. Mr. Sun is a sensible person, so he should have some tricks up his sleeve...”odd zhuo rubbed his chin.

Actually, he didn’t dare guarantee that something magical would happen in the future..

..

On the other side, at Songhai city’s first military hospital.

After being locked up for a few days, Lotus Sun had arranged for Zhao Qingxian to be released on bail and admitted to the hospital for a checkup.

Earth was too dangerous.

He had only just arrived here and had been charged with the crime of “Forcibly molesting a man”without doing anything.

How tragic was that.

“Mr. Zhao, because we haven’t been able to find any information about your identity so far, you are still under our strict surveillance.”

In front of the bed, a police officer said with a serious expression, “After all the checks are done, you will be restricted to our specific apartment and will be supervised by a special supervisor.”

Zhao qingxian said, “Then when can I get rid of the suspicion...”

“That’s hard to say.”

The police officer spread his hands and said. He stared at Zhao Qingxian and said, “Behave yourself. A doctor will come to examine you later.”

He was not worried that Zhao Qingxian would run away because Zhao Qingxian had an anklet version of the spirit-binding lock on his feet. Under the situation where most of his spiritual power was restricted, Zhao Qingxian had no way to go.

Zhao Qingxian had no choice but to lie down obediently.

The police officers had only taken two steps when Zhao Qingxian saw a seriously ill patient covered in bandages being pushed to the bed next to him by a female nurse.

This person was none other than fan Xing..

After many surgeries in the hospital, Fan Xing’s recovery was relatively good, but there was still a long time before he fully recovered.

Of course, even if fan xing fully recovered afterwards... for Fan Xing, he was destined to have no happiness in his life.

“Bro? Bro?”Zhao Qingxian tried to talk to Fan Xing.

It was not because he was bored, but because he felt that he had found an opportunity from fan Xing.

Now, he was inexplicably monitored by the police and charged with a crime he did not commit. Under the premise of such a serious crime, his plans on Earth would be greatly hindered!

In addition, the spirit shackles on his feet had suppressed most of his spiritual power... it wouldn’t be easy for him to escape.

However, he was still a cultivator of the divine realm.

Even if he had two spirit shackles on his anklet, he could still use some small spells.

Now, although fan Xing's body was damaged and his mind wasn't clear, Zhao Qingxian found a glimmer of a chance.

"I can only try... the temporary soul exchange spell!"

Zhao Qingxian immediately had his own plan.

This spell was actually a simplified version of the possession spell.

When it was used on people who weren't clear-headed, the success rate would be greatly increased.

Once it was successfully used, the effect of the soul exchange would be achieved in 72 hours.

So, it didn't matter even if he wasn't satisfied with his body.

After 72 hours, the body would be swapped back.

This was a simple body exchange game!

Zhao Qingxian used a simple spell to make a judgment. He believed that fan Xing was not a completely incapacitated person. It was just that his depression prevented him from moving.

As for the specific situation, he only needed to wait for the Soul Exchange to be completed before he personally appraised it.

He still had some pills in his hands, which should be able to help fan xing quickly recover from the injuries on his body..

These were the life-saving fellows he had brought from the divine realm. The effects were definitely not comparable to the goods on earth!

This was not the first time he had the thought of leaving this fat body!

Because Zhao Qingxian's gradual "Moon half-yi Shen Gong Li" had allowed him to consume a large amount of sugar since he was young.

This caused Zhao Qingxian's body to expand unusually, and it had already reached a point where it could not be controlled and restrained.

The rules of the divine realm were strict. Zhao Qingxian had never dared to have the thought of possessing someone. Now, on Earth, he had found an opportunity.

Moreover, Fan Xing's facial features were still okay.

If he used this face to seduce Liu Qingyi, Zhao Qingxian felt that not only could he hide his identity, but it would also greatly increase his chances of success.

"Brother... I'm Sorry!" Zhao Qingxian thought about it.

In the end, he finally made up his mind to make a move on fan Xing!

Fan Xing saw Zhao Qingxian extend his demonic claws at him.

His first reaction was naturally to struggle.

However, it was already too late. In an instant, a bright light erupted from the top of their heads.

The Soul Exchange had been completed!

Fan Xing's soul returned to Zhao Qingxian's body. At this moment, his hand was still resting on fan Xing's body.

The young police officer turned pale with fright after entering the door. He quickly pulled Zhao Qingxian away. "You pervert... I knew you wouldn't even let a man off!"

At this moment, the reaction of being switched into Zhao Qingxian's body felt very wronged.

He couldn't speak at all because Zhao Qingxian had cast a silencing spell on him before the soul exchange, causing fan xing to be unable to speak for a short period of time.

"I succeeded! At this moment, Zhao Qingxian succeeded in snatching fan Xing's body.

However, after a simple visit, the smile on Zhao Qingxian's face gradually froze..

F * ck!

This man actually didn't have an egg!

He was at a loss this time!

Chapter 1358 Golden Lamp Monk's Visit

The reason why the Zhao family was able to gain a foothold in the divine realm and rank in the top ten.

In reality, it was also due to the various strange techniques that the Zhao family had mastered.

To put it bluntly, it was because their imagination was too big, causing all sorts of strange and strange knowledge to increase.

Then, based on the foundation of the Heavenly Dao, they developed some strange and strange spells..

Some of these spells were very powerful, but some were also very useless.

After many years of experiments, the head of the Zhao family naturally had countless "Strange spells" in his hands.

And although Zhao Qingxian was his legitimate son.

But because he was ignorant and incompetent, although he inherited a lot of things from him, most of them were actually two knives.

At this time, Zhao Qingxian, who had transferred his soul into fan Xing's body, was somewhat at a loss when faced with the situation in front of him.

Fan Xing's facial features had passed the test.

But as a man...

He lacked "Important equipment."

It was still not enough.

However, after the temporary soul-changing spell was activated, it could not be used again. It could only be used after the spell's duration had expired..

Zhao Qingxian, on the other hand, could not wait any longer.

He pulled out the various infusion tubes on his body and picked up the storage ring on the ground.

This ring was also deliberately left in a corner by Zhao Qingxian before the exchange of bodies. Although he had exchanged bodies, the soul in fan Xing's body was still Zhao Qingxian.

Therefore, it was a piece of cake to open the storage ring.

Zhao qingxian took out a "Heaven origin heart returning pill" that was worth one billion immortal gold.

He sneered, "A mere miscellaneous cultivator from Earth, you're really lucky..."

He threw the pill into his stomach, and a warm spiritual energy flowed out of his blood vessels, nourishing his entire body and repairing his damaged body.

Zhao Qingxian could clearly feel that his body's condition was improving.

This was the life-saving medicine he had brought from the divine realm. He had brought a total of six pills. As long as he was not killed in one hit, and he was still breathing, this pill would be able to hang his life back..

Although fan Xing's body was in a rather terrible condition, with all the bones and meridians in his body broken.

Although he had already finished reconnecting, this kind of injury had to be recovered. With the current level of spiritual medicine on Earth, even if he used the best medicinal ingredients to nourish himself daily.

Without two years of recuperation, it was absolutely impossible for him to recover to the level of a normal person.

But now, Zhao Qingxian's pill had healed his injury in an instant.

The medicinal efficacy was still being absorbed, but Zhao Qingxian could already feel that he had regained the ability to move.

Then, he pulled open his pants to take a look, and the expression on his face was still a little disappointed. "Even this kind of divine medicine is unable to regenerate organs..."

However, Zhao Qingxian had mastered many strange techniques, so it wasn't completely impossible to repair them.

"It seems that I have to make a deal with the river god."

He thought of a secret technique. Although it was risky, he could give it a try.

After all, this body was not his now.

If it really didn't work, he would wait until the time limit was over before choosing another person to exchange the body..

..

On the other side, at the entrance of Lotus Sun's villa, a handsome monk was visiting the place by the huge fountain.

Facing the monk who had suddenly appeared in front of her, Auntie Qiu, who was cleaning in front of the door, bowed very politely and smiled. "Master, if you are here to collect karma, please follow me."

"As expected of Miss Lotus Sun's subordinate."

Monk Jin Deng saluted. He had always been polite to cultured people.

"Master, Do You Know My Lady?"

"This penniless monk's dharma name is Jin Deng. I would like you to inform me that I have something important to discuss with Miss Sun."

So she was a friend of Miss Sun.

Qiu Shuyun was secretly amazed at how many friends her lady had.

"Please Wait a moment, master." Aunt Qiu nodded.

Then, she immediately walked to the door, raised the internal phone at the door and began to confirm the situation with Lotus Sun.

In less than half a minute, Aunt Qiu received a definite answer. She strolled to the front of the monk and welcomed him in.

..

Aunt Qiu brought the monk directly into Lotus Sun's room.

In the room, the young girl sat upright on the sofa. Two maids were placing vegetarian pastries and tea on the coffee table.

Their movements were swift and quick. In a short while, they had finished preparing all the things for the reception.

“You may leave. Don’t let anyone in until I call you,” Lotus Sun ordered.

“Yes.”

The two maids bowed and quickly left.

When there were no outsiders in the room, Monk said, “As always, Miss Sun is thoughtful and considerate. Seeing that Miss Sun’s complexion has returned to normal, this penniless monk is much more relieved.”

“Master, please take a seat.”

Lotus Sun maintained a smile the whole time. “I’m safe and sound this time. I’m grateful for everything you’ve done for me, Master! I’ll definitely repay you in the future!”

“What I’ve done is insignificant. If you want to thank me, Miss Sun, you have to thank Ling Zhenren.” The monk smiled. “I’m a monk and don’t ask for anything in return. I didn’t come here to ask Miss Sun for a gift in return.”

“May I ask what’s the matter, master?” Lotus Sun asked.

“This penniless monk came here to ask what kind of magic tool Miss Sun Wants.”

“Magic Tool?”

“Miss Sun, have you forgotten? You’re the champion of the face-pinching competition of the battle sect. You’re the first person to Pinch Ling Zhenren’s face.” As soon as the monk finished speaking, two streams of steam whizzed out of the girl’s ears like a long dragon.

But very quickly, the girl's rapidly rising temperature returned to calmness under the effect of the spell.

Sun Ying 'er appeared from her shadow state and transformed into a physical body. She suddenly appeared beside the girl, she lay sprawled on the girl's knees. "Monk Jin Deng, I think you should just buy Rong Rong an electric fan! That way, I won't have to cast a cooling spell on her every day!"

"Ying 'er... Don't be rude!" Sun Ying 'ER's outspoken personality had been giving Lotus Sun a headache.

"In front of this penniless monk, there's no need to pay so much attention to etiquette." The monk smiled.

He sized up Sun Ying 'er from head to toe.

If it wasn't for the difference in hair color and personality...

When the two sat side by side, the monk felt as if he was looking at a pair of twins.

"Miss Sun, you can have any kind of magical artifact you want. This penniless monk can do most of them." At this moment, Monk glanced at Lotus Sun. "How about this, this penniless monk can provide you with a few directions."

"Directions?"

"Yes." Monk nodded. "Magical artifacts can be classified into three types according to their functions. Offensive type, defensive type, and auxiliary type. And this penniless monk has just calculated that Miss Sun might need to use auxiliary magic artifacts."

"What do you mean, master?" Lotus Sun asked curiously.

"Isn't Miss Ying 'er suffering from low back pain? This penniless monk can create a magic artifact to alleviate that pain," Monk said.

“But Ying ‘ER’s low back pain was caused by Wang Ying’s ‘Planet Wall Knock Technique’.”

“Miss Sun’s body may have been cleansed by this penniless monk, but that doesn’t mean that she can do as she pleases.”

The monk said seriously, “Then Miss Sun, are you so sure that you won’t feel pain in the future...”

Lotus Sun:”?”

Chapter 1359 Super Sword Spirit Container

It could only be said that monks were indeed monks.

The profound meaning in monks’ words was indeed something that ordinary people couldn’t understand. Lotus Sun felt that if even monks were profound these days, no one else would have anything to do with it.

“Miss Sun’s face is actually so red...”

The monk felt that the girl might have thought of something strange.

He could actually read minds, but he felt that he had to give the girl in front of him enough respect.

It was impolite to read minds at will.

But this also directly led to the fact that when the monk faced Lotus Sun, he couldn’t really understand her true thoughts.

He could only rely on guessing to solve the problem.

“What this penniless monk means is that after this incident, Miss Sun will forcefully learn how to protect herself. Actually, this penniless monk’s auxiliary magical artifact isn’t specifically aimed at the waist. Other parts can also be alleviated,”said monk.

“From what I see, Lotus doesn’t seem to like this very much! Isn’t the best protection to attack? Monk, why don’t you help Lotus upgrade her spirit sword?” At this time, Sun Ying ‘er proposed a new idea.

“Upgrade the Spirit Sword?” Monk nodded.

This was a good choice.

“Master, this is my sword.”

The next moment, Lotus Sun opened her hand, and an azure-blue spiritual light gushed out from her palm.

She summoned Ao Hai.

After the last battle at Nine Dragons Mountain, Lotus Sun’s Ao Hai female team suffered heavy losses. Although the group had already spent a lot of money on cloning, it would still take a long time to recover to the original 48 ao hai.

“Using the technology of cloning spirit swords to achieve sword spirit linkage on the basis of the main body...”

Monk immediately saw through the secret hidden in AOHAİ’s body.

Doing so could indeed greatly increase combat strength, but at the same time, it would also create a huge incubator for the girl’s body.

Controlling so many spirit swords would greatly test the spirit and mental power of the original owner of the Spirit Sword.

It was like a computer running multiple programs at the same time having an overheated reaction. Over time, it might even cause irreversible damage to the body.

“Miss Sun, it’s better not to use the clone sword to link up with the sword spirit in the future... This penniless monk has a better idea,” said the monk at this time.

Although the girl's body had been blessed by him, and although the technique of using the sword spirit to link up was not life-threatening, the monk did not want the girl to use such a painful method in order to increase her combat strength.

"Master, do you have any better suggestions?" Lotus Sun asked curiously.

"I can modify Ao Hai's main body and turn it into a huge sword spirit container. I can let Ao Hai continuously copy and clone itself in the container. In this way, it's actually equivalent to achieving the effect of sword spirit linkage!"

The monk said, "This penniless monk even thought that this was the ultimate evolutionary version! As long as the transformation was successful! Miss Lotus Sun's Olympian Sea would never be destroyed. As long as she controlled a sword, she would be able to summon hundreds of millions of Olympian seas to fight..."

"It can be done like this?" Lotus Sun covered her mouth in surprise.

She knew how powerful monk was, so she naturally had no doubt that Monk could do all of this.

"These Olympian seas that are constantly duplicating in the container can also be combined to increase combat strength. "As long as there are enough copies and clones, in theory, Miss Sun's combat strength can grow infinitely..."

The monk smiled. "Although Miss Sun is only at the foundation establishment level, as long as she has this sword, this penniless monk can't guarantee that she can defeat 99% of the people on Earth."

"Then the remaining 1% , is it master and student Wang Ling?" Lotus Sun smiled.

"Han must have brought us along, but there might be other experts."

The monk nodded and replied, "But there are still two things that we need to upgrade Olympian Sea."

"What are they?"

“I Need Miss Ying ‘ER to provide me with a split law formula,”the monk said.

The idea of upgrading Olympian Sea to a super container for sword spirit for Lotus Sun was also a crazy idea that the monk had come up with based on Sun Ying ‘ER’s Shadow Dao ability.

But after all, this matter involved Sun Ying ‘er’s law secrets, so the monk had thought that Sun Ying ‘er wouldn’t say it out loud so easily.

In the end, the white-haired girl in front of him was much more straightforward than the monk had imagined. “That’s easy. Rong Rong and I are one entity. Helping Rong Rong is also helping me.”

“That’s good.”

The monk nodded. “As for the second thing, it’s the Heavenly Dao Rubik’s cube that I, Ling Zhenren, and I obtained when we went to raze the unspeakable land a while ago. Since Miss Ying ‘ER has agreed to hand over the Rubik’s Cube, then this matter is settled.”

“But that’s student Wang Ling’s item, right?”

Lotus sun frowned. “Isn’t it a bad idea to ask for it like this?”

“Ling Zhenren won’t refuse.”

The monk said confidently, “The Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube is indeed precious, but in Ling Zhenren’s eyes, it’s actually worthless.”

At this point, monk Jin Deng’s words suddenly paused, and he suddenly turned his gaze to the young girl. “Compared to the Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube, Ling Zhenren actually knows very well in his heart that he has something more precious...”

“Master, what are you talking about...”Lotus Sun was a little embarrassed again.

“Miss Sun, there’s no need to be embarrassed. This penniless monk thinks that Ling Zhenren will have an Epiphany one day. You just need to be more patient.”

“Aren’t you a monk? Why do you look like you understand?”

At that moment, Sun Ying ‘er went up to her and couldn’t help asking.

“Miss Ying ‘er, there’s something you don’t know. This penniless monk was once an emperor. There are three thousand beauties in the harem, so of course I understand.”

“Master was also an Emperor?” Lotus Sun was stunned.

“There’s nothing else. It’s just that my back hurts.”

” ... ”

..

On the other side, Zhao Qingxian borrowed fan Xing’s body.

He grabbed a jar of specimens from the bio-dissection room in the hospital and quickly left the hospital.

Of course, his priority was to solve his own flaws.

Zhao Qingxian found the nearest river to Songhai city’s first military hospital. As soon as he reached the river, he couldn’t wait to start casting spells.

He was ready to summon the Heavenly Dao River God.

This was how ordinary cultivators in the divine realm conducted “Equal exchange”.

And under normal circumstances, the Heavenly Dao River God would do it for them.

Not everyone had the right to directly meet the Heavenly Dao Little Golden Man and have a fair and equal exchange.

In fact, when it was called “Equal Exchange”, only the Heavenly Dao Little Golden Man was truly equivalent.

Compared to the Golden Man of the Heavenly Dao, most cultivators of the divine realm wouldn’t be able to gain anything from the river god of the Heavenly Dao..

But now, Zhao Qingxian had no other way.

“River God! River God! Please listen to my summons!”

In front of the river, Zhao Qingxian formed a hand seal and chanted.

Hua!

On the calm river surface, a slender figure soared into the sky along with the sound.

A handsome young man with a hairpin and phoenix-like eyes and long hair appeared in front of Zhao Qingxian.

Drops of water slid down from the young man’s well-proportioned muscles, giving off an intoxicating water light..

The supreme aura of the Heavenly Dao’s law surged all over his body, and the moment he opened his mouth, Zhao Qingxian was completely awake. “Young Zhao Qingxian, are you throwing this golden elephant egg or this silver elephant egg?”

“Elephant? ? ?”

Zhao Qingxian was shocked.

The specimen he stole, wasn’t it human?

Chapter 1360 Another Supreme Sage Of Buddhism?

Why would there be a specimen of an elephant in the hospital..

Zhao Qingxian's face darkened. In the next moment, he began to struggle.

At this time, if he didn't choose anything, then the Golden Egg and the silver egg would be his.

But the problem was, if these two things were hanging down there, how could he walk!

Even if he could walk, it would be easy to pull them off!

For a moment, Zhao Qingxian was caught in a dilemma.

Because if he chose to lie or choose not to accept, he would be severely punished by the river god.

Therefore, Zhao Qingxian sighed and had to tell the truth, "River God, these are not mine... my original intention was..."

"You don't have to explain."

The Handsome River God with Phoenix eyes had already seen through Zhao Qingxian's heart.

With a cold expression, he threw the golden egg and silver egg into the river and then looked at Zhao Qingxian with the aura of a boss, "You know the rules, right?"

"Tianyuan Heart returning pill!"

Zhao Qingxian gritted his teeth and took out two pills without hesitation, "These are my tributes to River God!"

"Two in exchange for two? Ha, you know your place."

River God raised his finger, he took the two pills away. “According to the law of equivalent exchange, the parts you lost are actually irreversible. Therefore, when I return the things to you, another part of your body will disappear at random. “But don’t worry, the parts that disappear won’t affect your life.”

“This...”

Zhao Qingxian didn’t expect that he would be in such a situation after losing two pills.

He wanted to ask the river god to return the pills to him, but the river god’s expression quickly turned cold. “HMM? Do you want to go back on Your Words? The consequences of going back on your words are very serious.”

“I...”

Zhao Qingxian knew that he had no other choice. “Alright then! I only have one request. I hope that Lord River God won’t make me bald... It Won’t be a problem for me to lose a finger or something in the other parts.”

“You’re quite open-minded.”

River God chuckled. “However, according to the principle of equal exchange, the parts that disappear are random. Even I can’t control them. You Can Count on your own luck.”

As soon as he finished speaking, the aura on river god’s body instantly shifted to the side.

A wondrous feeling of the supremacy of the Great Dao emanated from his body.

It was extremely mysterious, the gates of mystery..

All sorts of illusions were born in this place..

Feeling the power of the Heavenly Dao River God up close, Zhao Qingxian felt that the entire world seemed to have calmed down at this moment.

In fact, every transaction with the Heavenly Dao River God was also a great opportunity to feel the Heavenly Dao laws up close.

However, this feeling was too short-lived, and it always gave people a feeling of wanting more.

“The transaction is completed.”

After about ten seconds, River God opened his Phoenix eyes again.

Zhao qingxian asked, “Did it work?”

River God nodded. “It worked.”

Zhao Qingxian pulled open his pants excitedly to take a look.

The next moment, he was like a bolt of lightning, shocked beyond words by the scene before him.
“River God! ! !”

River God raised his eyebrows. “What’s the matter?”

Zhao qingxian roared, “You put the eggs back and took away my fried dough sticks! ! ! What’s the use of that! ! !”

River God smiled. “From now on, you’ll be the new, leftover egg old man.”

With that, he turned into a pool of water and melted into the river, leaving Zhao Qingxian alone on the river bank in the wind.

“Why, why am I so unlucky after coming to earth...”

After an unknown amount of time, Zhao Qingxian hugged his head and squatted down by the river bank.

The expression on his face was very painful, full of the mental breakdown of an adult.

All of this was just as the monk had said in the beginning.

As a cultivator of the divine realm, the current divine realm was too comfortable. In order to make the cultivation path of the younger generation more stable, the elders had laid out all kinds of paths in advance for the younger generation of the family.

They were afraid that the juniors of their families would fall down on the path.

The overly comfortable life also made these cultivators who had walked out of the divine realm become mentally weak

Wang Zhen and Liu Qingyi had suffered losses before.

Fortunately, their growth was also very fast.

The tempering on earth made their minds more resolute, their spirits more tenacious, and they were more tactful in handling matters..

These improvements were not what Zhao Qingxian had at the moment.

“Is it painful?”

At this moment, a figure appeared behind Zhao Qingxian.

This person wore a black cloak and had a neat black buzz cut. He had sword-like eyebrows and starry eyes, as if he was a man from a manga.

Zhao Qingxian did not know this man.

But this man seemed to know him, and seemed to know everything about him.

The man stretched out his hand, and Zhao Qingxian was stunned when he saw the hand that was as white as jade and had clear bones.

He couldn't imagine that a man's hand could be so delicate.

The man stretched out his finger and gently tapped on his forehead.

In the next moment, Zhao Qingxian suddenly felt that his missing part had returned..

"This..."he was very surprised.

"But it's just an illusion."The man smiled.

"Senior!"Zhao Qingxian knelt down

"You're welcome."

The man helped Zhao Qingxian up and said gently, "My name is Yang Shuangji. You can call me Mr. Shuangji."

"Mr. Shuangji..."

Zhao Qingxian thought about the name carefully. At the same time, he looked very surprised. "I don't know Mr. Shuangji at all. I wonder why Mr. Shuangji would help me?"

"Life is hard. It's nothing."The man named Shuangji smiled.

At this moment, Zhao Qingxian noticed that there was a string of Buddha beads hanging around the man's neck. Each bead was the size of a walnut. This made Zhao Qingxian feel like he had seen them before.

It was because of the patterns on the beads that Zhao Qingxian felt like he had seen them somewhere before.

“You defied the heavens, do you know your sin...”

At this moment, a solemn voice sounded from the originally calm river surface like the illusory sound of the Great Dao.

Zhao Qingxian felt an ear-piercing sensation. Just as he was about to kneel on the ground, Mr. Shuangji next to him tapped lightly on his ear and easily dissipated this power.

The handsome Tiandao River God who had disappeared earlier reappeared and used his phoenix eyes to stare at the man who had suddenly appeared before him.

Clearly, he was very dissatisfied with this Mister Shuangji’s meddling.

“If you have the ability, then you can defy the heavens. I wonder, what crime have I committed?” This Mister Shuangji took a step forward, his body surrounded by golden light.

“The most holy of Buddhist Studies?” The Heavenly Dao River God was extremely astonished.

“Lord River God, step back. You are absolutely no match for me.”

Yang Shuangji blocked in front of Zhao Qingxian. “I have a predestined relationship with this person, so I will definitely protect him.”

“You have broken the laws of the Heavenly Dao. As the river god, how can I forgive you...” the phoenix-eyed river god was furious. His voice was indifferent and contained a powerful might.

In the next moment, the surface of the river began to boil. The laws of the Great Dao interweaved and began to spread out.

“You overestimate yourself...” Yang Shuangji shook his head.

Chi!

He pressed his palms together, and a Golden Buddhist light shot out from his hands.

Before the river god could get angry, it pierced through the phoenix-eyed river god's skull.

The Buddhist light rammed into the river god's body, and with an astonishing amount of energy, the Heavenly Dao River God was shattered on the spot and instantly evaporated..
