Chapter 1371 Lotus Sun Testing The Sword!

It was indeed a big deal that the concentration of chaotic power had soared in the mountain of backtracking.

The Demon World's demon star was hidden, but it was actually not too far from Earth.

Once the chaotic power couldn't be suppressed and gushed out of the mystic realm, the demon star would explode.

With the blessing of the chaotic power, the explosive power of the demon star would permeate the entire Milky Way.

At this moment, Wang Ling was also reflecting.

If it hadn't been for the fact that he had set up a cultivation mystic realm to save time back then, even if the concentration of the power of chaos had reached 100% , it would still have been impossible to blow up his mystic realm.

But right now, regret was already useless.

The key was...

To find out why the concentration of the power of chaos had risen abnormally, and to save the situation.

Wang Ling actually had a rough idea of the phenomenon of the unusual surge.

It was that the Heavenly Dao Rubik's Cube created by Dao ancestor Wang back then wasn't just used as an external stabilizer in the core world..

It should also act as a counterweight to the concentration of space in the universe.

Now that the unspeakable place had disintegrated, one of the Heavenly Dao Rubik's Cubes had fused with Ao Hai.

In the absence of a balance, it was likely that this phenomenon of chaotic power going out of control would occur again in the future

First of all, in addition to the option of "Returning the Heavenly Dao Rubik's Cube," there was actually another option in front of Wang Ling.

That was to create a new "Heavenly Dao Rubik's Cube" to replace it.

But if one of them was replaced, then the remaining eight Heavenly Dao Rubik's cubes would have to be replaced as well.

There was no other way.

The Heavenly Dao Rubik's Cube he had created was too powerful.

It was possible that it was far more powerful than the original version created by Dao ancestor Wang.

If only one was created to replace the current loophole, there would still be no way to truly act as a counterbalance.

"Create... a Rubik's Cube?"

Jingke, who was next to the pillow, trembled slightly before transforming into human form.

He was also thinking about what Wang Ling was thinking about.

It wasn't difficult for Wang Ling to create a new Rubik's cube; he just needed the materials and a certain amount of time.

But the current situation was actually far more complicated than everyone had imagined.

It was impossible for a meticulous person like Dao ancestor Wang to forget how terrifying it would be if the Heavenly Dao Rubik's Cube couldn't be restrained and caused the abnormal imbalance in the concentration of the chaotic energy in the universe.

Thus, Wang Ling suspected that the remaining eight Heavenly Dao Rubik's cubes might use a "Revenge mechanism" at any time.

He would take back the one that had been combined with Ao Hai.

But he still didn't know what exactly the form of revenge would be.

"I'll have to trouble Bai Qiao to make a trip."

In front of the desk, Wang Ling cupped his chin as he thought carefully about countermeasures.

Right now, the most important thing was to solve the problem of the abnormal concentration of chaotic energy in the secret realm and help loopy toad successfully transcend the tribulation and complete its upgrade.

"Can't I go?" Jingke asked.

"Ao Hai doesn't have a scabbard spirit," Wang Ling replied.

Although it was short and to the point, Jingke understood.

Because ao hai didn't have a scabbard spirit.

Even if he went there personally, he wouldn't be able to complete the fusion.

But if Bai Qiao went, the situation would be completely different.

This decision.

Was actually helping Lotus Sun test her sword.

..

Bai Qiao put down her headphones in the Internet cafe of the battle sect.

She couldn't help feeling a little uncomfortable when she was interrupted in the middle of playing a game.

She scratched her hair. "So Annoying, can't I just play the game properly!"

However, she couldn't refuse to give face to Wang Ling.

Thus, Bai Qiao was quickly pushed to the front line under Lord Ma's teleportation light.

They had only just reached the entrance of the mystic realm at the "Mountain of backtracking."

The powerful power of chaos had already seeped out from inside, pressing down on Bai Qiao's dazed hair and causing it to dance wildly like a seaweed that was enduring a powerful storm, swaying in the wind..

"May I ask who you are?" Lotus Sun asked the girl who had suddenly appeared in front of her.

She saw that Bai Qiao was wearing a fire-breathing Dragon's one-piece pyjamas, and a large red earpiece hung around her neck. She looked very cute in the house.

"I'm your Lord's Woman," Bai Qiao replied.

Under her control, the hair on her head seemed to be turning on its own.

Seeing Lotus Sun's face darken, she knew that she had made a big joke, so she quickly changed her words. "Alright, I'm his scabbard. Your Lord asked me to help."

In the next second, Lotus Sun's face immediately returned to normal. "So You're Miss Bai Qiao!"

The speed of the change caught Bai Qiao off guard.

"You have white hair too. Is this author a white-haired freak?" Sun Ying 'er actually knew Bai Qiao's identity, however, this was the first time she met Bai Qiao. When she saw Bai Qiao's appearance, she couldn't help but feel a little surprised.

"Milk-riding Loli Maniac, dry-black and white-haired maniac. They're both Wenzhou authors. They're perfect for each other."

Bai Qiao shrugged nonchalantly and said with her usual venomous tongue, "Let's put the small talk aside. It's more important to settle the matter at hand first. Miss Sun, please follow me in."

"But senior golden lamp said it's very dangerous inside..."

"Don't worry, I'm here. I Can't hurt Miss Sun," Bai Qiao said confidently.

She added another protective golden light to Lotus Sun's body and then stepped into the secret realm.

And then.

With a plop.

She knelt down next to Shen Wuyue.

Shen Wuyue: "..."

Second generation demon Saint: "..."

Loopy toad: "..."

Golden Lantern monk: “Miss Bai Qiao, it’s not the new year yet, so there’s no need for such a big ceremony...”

“I didn’t expect the concentration of chaos inside to be so high...” Bai Qiao’s expression was a little awkward, but Lotus Sun, who was following behind her, wasn’t the least bit affected.

Her body, which had already been lit up, plus the golden light protection she had personally set up, as well as the sword qi protection of Ao Hai itself, allowed Lotus Sun to move freely even under such a strong concentration of chaos power.

Apart from feeling a slight lack of oxygen, she didn’t feel any other discomfort.

Bai Qiao dusted off the dust on her pajamas and stood up from the ground. “How’s the situation now?”

Golden lamp frowned. “It’s not optimistic. I’ve already hit the sky with my palm, trying to disintegrate this power of chaos. But with the power of my palm, I can’t eradicate it all at once. I can only try my best to control the concentration.”

Bai Qiao nodded. After understanding the situation, she turned her gaze to Lotus Sun. “Miss Sun, you can try your sword first. Swing it up to the sky and feel it.”

“Eh? Is that okay? Is it more important to control the situation first?” Lotus Sun was stunned.

Bai Qiao said expressionlessly, “The Mystic Realm Your Lord casually set up will only collapse when the concentration exceeds 65% . The current concentration is only 40% . There’s still time.”

Lotus Sun hadn’t expected Bai Qiao to let her in so that she could test her sword.

And the reason Bai Qiao had come here was because of student Wang Ling’s instructions.

So..

Was student Wang Ling giving her a chance to test her sword?

The girl's mood instantly brightened at this thought.

“Thank you, student Wang Ling, thank you, Miss Bai Qiao! Thank you, seniors! Then I won't stand on ceremony.”

Lotus Sun quickly unsheathed Ao Hai's sword, and a powerful sword Qi from the raging sea erupted from the body of Ao Hai's sword!

“Ha!”

Lotus Sun pointed her sword at the sky and slashed out!

Boom!

The sword light seeped out from the sharp edge of Ao Hai. At first, it was only a few inches long, but then it continued to expand as it charged toward the sky!

The sound of the tsunami reverberated like a Heavenly Dao Bell, and the terrifying sword pressure rushed toward the chaotic power that was constantly accumulating in the sky, causing the entire mystic realm to shine with dazzling light!

“A foundation establishment cultivator can actually slash out sword qi that is over ten thousand meters long...” at this moment, the second generation demon Saint and Shen Wuyue who were kneeling on the ground were already stunned.

Chapter 1372 Bai Qiao + Ao Hai

The lightning tribulation of the tribulation and the heavenly tribulation of the God's punishment were all created around the “Power of lightning”.

Lightning was one of the most terrifying powers in the world.

The lethality of the Lightning Tribulation and the heavenly tribulation would increase by tens of millions of times.

Chaos was a terrifying energy that originated from the birth of the universe.

For every 1% of the power of chaos that was fused with a world-defying magic tool, the power of the magic tool would increase by half.

Thunder and chaos.

Once the two were combined, they formed the Chaos Thunder.

The power of the Chaos Thunder could not be described with words.

However, the most terrifying scene before them was not the Chaos Thunder above the secret realm.

Instead, it was the scene of a young girl who was only at the foundation establishment stage fighting against the Chaos Thunder!

When the young girl drew her sword, her determined gaze moved people.

Even though her cultivation level was only in the foundation establishment stage, her face still revealed a strong confidence.

When she drew her sword and slashed forward, that seemingly skinny figure seemed to explode with all her strength at this moment. One sword could topple cities, and it was eye-catching.

Ao Hai stood out more than 10,000 meters of sword qi. The rolling sword intent of the angry sea whistled forward, showing the depth of the sea and the terrifying power that could swallow all things.

For a moment, the chaotic thunder clashed with Ao Hai's sword intent.

The two forces collided, causing the energy in the sky to explode and Sparks to fly in all directions.

The successive explosions illuminated the sky of the secret realm as if it was plated with a layer of Aurora. The rays of light were myriad and dazzling.

Buzz!

In the Void, ao hai revealed her figure.

She had already absorbed the power of the tens of thousands of splitting bodies of Ao Hai that had split out from the sword spirit space.

This caused Ao Hai's own body size to soar. She appeared in the mystic realm like a giant, towering over the heavens and earth and shaking the heavens!

The beautiful and moving skirt was also infinitely enlarged. When it swayed, it emitted a boundless smell of the sea.

"Water floods a golden mountain!" Ao hai shouted softly, her voice shaking the surroundings.

Her words followed the law, causing large amounts of scriptures to appear in the void immediately. They covered the sword Qi that charged towards the sky and suppressed the high concentration of Chaos Lightning together!

Second generation demon Saint and Shen Wuyue did not close their mouths from the beginning to the end.

Moreover, because the concentration of chaos power was too strong, they were still in a kneeling position -- they were really kneeling to watch!

The two forces collided, wearing each other down and restricting each other.

It lasted for a few minutes before the light in the sky dimmed.

Ohai's attack was considered a success, as it neutralized about 15% of the power of chaos.

A large amount of chaos was washed away, causing the density of the mystic realm to temporarily drop.

But this also exhausted all the power Ohai had accumulated.

It was impossible for such a powerful “City-toppling sword” to be used a second time in a short period of time.

In terms of power, after the sword had slashed down, it would take 12 hours to save up for a second attack.

But as long as Lotus Sun didn’t use up her savings, it could be stacked.

Ohai’s sword spirit space was a super container, and could be stacked up to the level of 10 city-toppling swords.

“The power is indeed powerful enough.” Monk sighed.

It was expected that Ohai’s sword hadn’t completely eradicated the power of chaos.

Lotus sun was indeed very strong now, but her battle prowess was still lower than Monk’s.

Monk’s palm couldn’t be eradicated, let alone Ohai’s strike.

“The sword test is over. Now, it’s our turn,” Bai Qiao said at this time.

“Understood.” Monk nodded. “Later, when Miss Bai Qiao and Ohai Fuse, this penniless monk will add Golden Buddhist light to your bodies. With all our strength, we’ll definitely be able to make it foolproof.”

“Miss Bai Qiao... is she going to merge with Ao Hai?” Lotus Sun was surprised.

“It’s a special case, so this is the only way.” Bai Qiao’s hair was spinning in a daze.

Then she transformed back into her scabbard form. “Miss Sun, you don’t have to be so polite. Use Me boldly!”

Lotus sun asked, “How do you want to do it?”

Bai Qiao said, “Insert Ao hai directly into my scabbard, and you’ll be able to complete the merging. Then, Miss Sun just needs to do what you did just now and slash again.”

“Okay!”

Lotus sun nodded.

She followed Bai Qiao’s instructions and inserted ao hai into the scabbard of the Peach Wood Sword.

Bai Qiao and Ao Hai, the two combined!

In an instant, a powerful force overflowed from the Ao Hai in Lotus Sun’s hand!

Lotus sun discovered that the shape of the Ao hai in her hand had also changed. The originally blue and white sword body had now turned bright orange like an orange!

At the same time, the newly formed sword spirit officially appeared in front of everyone’s eyes.

It was a woman with blue hair and orange eyes who looked extremely elegant.

Her hair was tied up, and the hair on the white scabbard had turned into a hairpin that stuck into her tied-up hair.

The snow-white robe was gorgeous, and the long tail at the end was like a wave trailing behind it. It hung down like the Milky Way and was extremely beautiful.

The woman opened her beautiful Phoenix eyes. Her entire body was shining like a gem at the bottom of the sea. She had the temperament of an empress. She was like an ancient heaven’s favorite that made people submit to her.

“My name is White Sea,”the woman said.

Her sweet voice was like the sound of a conch, but it hid a shocking domineering aura. When she spoke, she actually had a feeling of ancient times.

Then, she turned her head to look at the sky that was being suppressed by a large amount of chaotic energy.

Bai Hai did not make a move, but the monk could already feel the terrifying battle strength that was emitting from Bai Hai's body. "As expected of Miss Bai Qiao..."

He sighed in his heart.

This combination had directly increased Bai Hai's battle strength by another order of magnitude from its original foundation!

This was a shocking increase.

However, to be on the safe side, the monk did not hesitate to open his swastika eye and cast a layer of Golden Buddhist light on Bai Hai's body!

In an instant, Bai Hai's body was covered in a layer of golden light, as if he was wearing a layer of golden armor, which made the aura emanating from his body even more powerful!

And because of this layer of Golden Buddhist light, Lotus Sun's city-toppling sword, which had taken her 12 hours to accumulate, was instantly recharged by the monk's energy supply.

"Miss Sun, the time has come!" At this moment, the monk commanded.

"Yes, Senior!"

Lotus Sun responded to the monk's words. She withstood the almost boiling power of chaos in the sky and slashed toward the sky again! She brandished her city-toppling sword!

The snow-white Sword Qi was like a wave at this moment, charging toward the sky for the second time!

The dense power of chaos collided with the white wave sword qi, causing the sword wave to boil, and the dense steam kept rolling along with the energy.

This sword Qi was a million meters long!

The Heaven and earth that spanned across the entire secret realm was like a watermelon knife that split the sky into two in an instant!

The overwhelming power filled the entire sky, quickly engulfing all the power of chaos in the sky at a suffocating speed..

A few seconds later, the dense power of chaos in the secret realm disappeared, and the chaotic lightning that had fused with the Thunder Tribulation also dissipated.

The warm sunlight shone down on everyone's faces in the Azure Sky.

The pressure that had dissipated blew across everyone's faces along with an endless breeze.

They had been so nervous that they had almost collapsed.

At this moment, tangerine's momentum was great.

"Thank you for your hard work."

Bai Hai turned around and smiled at Lotus Sun.

Then, her body turned into light particles and dissipated into the ten thousand rays of warm sunlight..

Chapter 1373 Wang Ling's Composition

This was a perfect combination overall.

But because it was the first time they had combined, Bai Hai's formation time was limited. After Qingcheng's sword slashed down, his body couldn't help dissipating.

Bai Qiao reappeared, and beads of sweat covered her forehead as she panted.

It was too tiring to combine with Ao Hai.

Because she was almost the main part of Ohai's Combat Power, Ohai's Combat Power had greatly increased from its original foundation.

In comparison, Bai Qiao found it easier to merge with Jingke.

At the very least, Jingke's combat power was on-line.

After the sword was inserted and merged into one.

Bai Qiao basically didn't need to move on her own.

That was the difference.

"Senior Bai Qiao, are you okay?" Lotus Sun hurriedly stepped forward to help Bai Qiao up. She felt Bai Qiao's body sway and almost fall down.

"Don't worry about me..." Bai Qiao's voice was soft. As a veteran otaku who was focused on playing games, she didn't like others touching her body when she was in her human form.

"Ah! Sorry!" Lotus Sun quickly let go of her hand.

"Don't think that just because my Lord Ling helped you, you can do whatever you want..."

Bai Qiao's face turned red. For some reason, Lotus Sun's greeting just now made her face burn.
"I'm going back to play games!"

Her voice sounded a little hurried, and almost as if she was fleeing, she turned into a brown spiritual light and left the place.

“Senior Bai Qiao... does she hate me?” Lotus Sun looked a little confused.

“I don’t think so! It’s all Rong Rong’s fault for being too charming!” Sun Ying ‘er giggled.

A sudden change ended just like that, and everyone let out a long sigh of relief.

Just a little more, and the Earth would have been destroyed again..

Fortunately, this crisis didn’t happen in the end, thanks to everyone’s concerted efforts.

Loopy toad shook the dog fur on its body and jumped out of the pit.

It had almost thought it was going to die!

In the end, it hadn’t expected it to successfully survive again.

“Dog, Live!” Loopy toad climbed out of the pit and couldn’t help sighing as it looked at the blue sky in the secret realm.

HM... There seemed to be something wrong with the idiom “Dogs should live.”.

But it didn’t matter.

Loopy toad felt that this idiom was tailor-made for it!

“Loopy toad! The dog fur on your body seems to be Greener!” Lotus Sun ran over to pinch loopy Toad’s face and found that loopy Toad’s dog head was still as soft and elastic as usual.

“Lotus Sun, you’re too gentle!”

Sun Ying ‘er chuckled and directly touched it. “Watch me rub the dog head in anger!”

This touch was so tempting that even monk Jin Deng couldn't help reaching out to rub it as well.
"This penniless monk is coming too! Rub the dog head in anger!"

Loopy toad let everyone ravage it without any resistance.

This time, it could survive.

Indeed, it owed everyone here a favor, except for Shen Wuyue and second generation demon saint who were kneeling.

"Thank you, Student Lotus Sun, thank you for your help." Loopy toad wagged its tail and sincerely expressed its gratitude to everyone here.

"You should thank student Wang Ling," Lotus Sun said with a smile.

"I've already decided that I'll Be Little Lord Ling's dog for the rest of my life," loopy Toad said with a determined look in its eyes.

With a smile on her face, lotus sun rubbed her face as she asked, "But why does it feel like there's no difference after you become a divine beast? It's just that your dog fur is greener than before."

"That's just on the surface. Almsgiver toad's combat strength has indeed improved by leaps and bounds. It's no longer the same as it was in the past."

As the monk spoke, he immediately turned his gaze to second generation demon Saint and Shen Wuyue. "Now, almsgiver toad can hang them up and beat them up."

"Loopy toad is so strong!" Lotus Sun praised.

Shen Wuyue:"..."

Second generation demon Saint:"..."

Golden lamp monk: “By the way, why are you two still kneeling?”

Shen Wuyue and second generation demon Saint wanted to cry but had no tears.

They had been kneeling for too long.

Their legs were numb!

..

After the matter of the mountain of backtrack was settled, Wang Ling heaved a long sigh of relief in front of the study table in his bedroom.

The disappearance of the chaotic phenomenon and loopy toad’s successful tribulation and entry into the ranks of Divine Beasts was a good thing, but Wang Ling knew that things were far from over.

He had a hunch that the remaining eight Rubik’s cubes would definitely try to find a way to retrieve the one that had fused with Ao Hai’s body in order to balance it out.

Thus, this matter still needed to be considered in the long run.

Wang Ling had originally wanted to call grenade-throwing senior immortal to discuss this matter.

But right now, the trouble he was facing didn’t stop there.

The Chinese teacher, Guan Ziqian, called.

Wang Ling knew through the phone that this was definitely not a good thing.

It was most likely because of the essay competition.

He had finished writing the essay yesterday and submitted it.

But he hadn't expected that before submitting the essay for publication, all the Chinese teachers in each school would review the content to ensure that there wasn't any sensitive content.

Then, teacher Guan had her eye on his essay, "Single Dog."

Wang Ling's idea for this essay was very simple.

But he felt that it completely met the criteria and the meaning of the essay.

Looking at teacher Guan's blinking cell phone number, Wang Ling thought carefully for a moment and felt that there was nothing wrong with what he had written.

After being stunned for a few seconds, Wang Ling picked up the phone.

On the other end of the line, Guan Ziqian seemed a little angry. "Wang Ling, you really are just brushing me off again! This essay of yours... What on Earth is going on? The teachers in the language group in my office and I were all stunned!"

Wang Ling was silent for a moment and didn't say anything.

"Teenage emotions are always poetry... didn't you ever think to thank you for what happened between you and classmate Lotus Sun? Thinking about what happened to you at the Xiao family courtyard fireworks display, I feel that you can totally write flowers!"

Teacher Guan tried her best to provide Wang Ling with ideas. "Alright, even if you don't write about what happened with classmate Lotus Sun and decide to use 'single dog' as the theme, then you should start with the loneliness of youth!"

Hearing this, Wang Ling sighed in his heart.

The Loneliness of youth..

There seemed to be no one more lonely than him in this world.

Perhaps he had realized that his tone was more intense, on the other end of the phone, teacher Guan sighed in disappointment. “Wang Ling, perhaps teacher’s tone is a little harsh. Teacher apologizes to you. But I also hope that you can understand teacher’s good intentions. “It’s impossible for a person who can write an essay like ‘a Speck of dust in the era’ to come up with such a manuscript.”

” ... ”

Wang Ling wanted to cry but had no tears.

The main thing was that he really hadn’t written that thing!

“I know that student Wang Ling has always been a low-key person. Maybe you don’t want to get a place at all. But you’re a seeded contestant that the teacher in our school’s language group forced on you. “Even if you don’t want to write well, Wang Ling, you still have to fill up the essay paper, Right?”

Teacher Guan said earnestly, “The rule for an essay is indeed that it should be written in less than eight hundred words. “Actually, your essay isn’t too off-topic. Actually... There are a lot of things you can write on the topic of being single.”

“Mm...”

Teacher Guan: “Then, you F * * King wrote the word ‘wang’ in your entire essay. Adding up the title, there are four words in total!”

” ... ”

“Student Wang Ling! Aren’t you being a little too perfunctory!”

” ... ”

Chapter 1374 Wang Ling Was Going To Be Famous Again

Writing an essay wasn’t difficult for Wang Ling, but it was difficult to score points.

This was the most difficult score of all the “Test questions” that Wang Ling had come across so far.

Because of his understanding of words, it was impossible to know what kind of score the teacher reading the essay would give you.

Wang Ling remembered that one year in the college entrance examination, an article ended with: “Now, it’s long dead, but there’s still a strange light in its eyes.”

The teacher who had written the question wanted the students to understand the meaning of this sentence.

In the end, even the original author of this article didn’t know what meaning he had..

In the end, at teacher Guan’s request, Wang Ling had no choice but to rewrite the composition.

“Wang Ling, take a look. Can You Hand in your essay on Saturday?”Teacher Guan asked.

The submission entrance would be closed at midnight on Sunday.

If Wang Ling couldn’t hand in his essay by then, No. 60 high school would have wasted a spot.

“I’ll try my best.”Wang Ling sighed and replied helplessly.

“Okay, then I’ll delete your essay from Backstage.”Teacher Guan nodded happily.

Wang Ling was just about to hang up when Guan Ziqian suddenly let out a weird “Aiya!”On the other end of the phone.

Wang Ling:”?”

Guan Ziqian: “Oh No! I seem to have pressed submit...”

Wang Ling:”...”

Teacher Guan hugged her head and felt a little mad. “Holy shit! This essay review background is simply poisonous! Why did I press the submit button on the side? !”

The thought of a four-word essay about to appear in the eyes of Chinese language teaching experts all over the country made teacher Guan feel despair.

“So this is what it feels like to look up at the starry sky and See It All Black...”teacher Guan instantly felt despair.

Moreover, Guan Ziqian also believed that Wang Ling’s essay was very likely to be the lowest score in the essay competition that No. 60 high school had ever participated in.

It was also the first zero-point essay..

There would definitely be no outstanding teacher of the Year award!

Guan Ziqian couldn’t help tears rolling down his cheeks.

..

The call ended, and Wang Ling felt that he had indeed let teacher Guan down a little.

The main thing was that he really hadn’t expected that there would actually only be one spot in the composition competition this time.

In the past, each school had at least three spots in each competition.

Teacher Guan had pushed hard in the language group, convinced all the big teachers and engaged in a war of words. In the end, he had forced the language teachers of No. 60 high school to bet everything on him..

If he didn’t get a place this time, Wang Ling felt that he might have caused teacher Guan to lose his position as the head of the language group’s teaching and research group.

It was really a bit difficult to handle!

How about he rewrite it and then ask Wang Ming to hack into the background and replace the composition?

At that moment, Wang Ling had already come up with this idea.

Now it seemed that this was the only way.

He was about to call Wang Ming, but grenade-throwing senior immortal suddenly sent him a text message. "Brother Ling! The matter in the demon world has been settled. Congratulations to brother dog for successfully transcending the Tribulation and becoming a divine beast! But I think it's necessary to hold a meeting to discuss the abnormal concentration of chaos this time. What do you think?"

"Mm." Wang Ling replied with one word.

About the phenomenon of the abnormal concentration of chaos.

Wang Ling felt that his deduction probably wouldn't be wrong.

It was definitely related to the lack of the Heavenly Dao Rubik's Cube.

Even if grenade-throwing senior immortal didn't come looking for him, he also wanted grenade-throwing senior immortal to start collecting materials related to the production of the New Heavenly Dao Rubik's Cube.

When the time came, he could just use the meeting to explain what he needed.

Currently, the war sect had a vast network of people, especially those on other planets. This was a condition that no sect on earth had.

As long as the war sect made an appearance, God Domain and Divine Dao star would give them face and help.

If anyone wasn't convinced, they could come and challenge the war sect.

But the result was 100% that they would die after trying..

“Oh, that's right, brother Ling, there's actually one more thing.”

Grenade-throwing senior immortal typed: “I just saw that there's a national essay contest submission. There's a single dog's essay... I think this handwriting looks a little like yours.”

Wang Ling:”...”

The essays uploaded to the essay platform were all scanned by hand into pictures and imported.

For a Chinese teacher, an excellent essay was actually just as important as its neat handwriting and literary talent.

As the saying went, the handwriting was like the person; a beautiful hand of good handwriting was definitely a plus.

But Wang Ling was still surprised that grenade-throwing senior immortal could recognize his notes from just “Four words.”.

For the sake of fairness, the compositions submitted backstage were all anonymous.

Until the final results were out, none of the main evaluation teachers in charge of scoring would know who the author of the composition was.

“If Brother Ling doesn't deny it, then it looks like you really wrote this essay!”

Grenade-throwing senior immortal said, “I wasn't sure before, so I sent it to Miss Lotus Sun, who had been deliberately copying your handwriting. In the end, she could tell at a glance that it was you who wrote it.”

Wang Ling:”...”

Grenade-throwing senior immortal smiled. “Actually, I’m one of the main evaluation judges for this competition’s essay.”

Wang Ling was stunned.”?”

“This competition has selected a total of six main judges and a team of 100 experts for joint evaluation. However, the ones in charge of scoring are the main judges. The team of experts is just for bragging about the composition.”

Grenade-throwing senior immortal said, “Apart from me, the other five main judges are brother Odd Zhuo, Mr. Sun Yiyuan, president Qi of the Academy of Magic Treasure Science, Secretary Sun of the Alliance of ten thousand schools, and Wang Jiao.”

“Wang Jiao?”The corners of Wang Ling’s mouth twitched.

There were still a few Wang Jiao in this world..

Grenade-throwing senior immortal: “Brother Ling, don’t doubt your ears. This last judge is brother Ling’s father.”

”...”

For some reason, Wang Ling suddenly felt like he had been appointed by the emperor.

..

On the other side, Wang Ling’s essay entitled “Single Dog”was also quickly included in the background information of the main expert this time.

Grenade-throwing senior immortal had almost already arranged a good relationship with him..

Among all the main reviewers.

The person who reacted the most emotionally was naturally grandfather sun. His face was flushed red as he stared at the four-word composition and applauded it. “Good! Student Wang Ling’s composition... well written!”

“Grandfather, calm down...”Jiang Xiaocheng couldn’t stand it any longer, and his mouth felt like it was full of lemons.

“Look at this! Student Wang Ling’s writing is so good! It’s a very standard thin golden body! How could he have reached this level without more than ten years of effort?”

“But old master... Student Wang is only sixteen...”

“So what if he’s sixteen? You Don’t allow him to write at one year old?”

” ... ”

“Look, although student Wang Ling’s composition only has the word Wang throughout, I think what he’s expressing is that the great way is the simplest. and haven’t you noticed that student Wang Ling’s composition actually has a sound!”

” ... ”

Chapter 1375 Old Master Sun’s Fan Filter

Although he was excited, after old master sun calmed down, he could still sense Wang Ling’s intentions from Wang Ling’s essay, “The Great Way is the simplest”.

This was a national competition, and while this essay was creative, the risks were too great.

Moreover, given student Wang Ling’s personality, it wasn’t his character to participate in the National Essay Competition.

It was very likely that the school’s language teacher had pushed him out.

So was it possible that student Wang Ling hadn’t wanted to win the prize in the first place?

Grandfather Sun frowned. “Little Che, do you think student Wang Ling didn’t want to win the championship at all?”

Jiang little che carefully tried to figure out what grandfather Sun meant. The old man’s current “Fan filter” was too strong, and he knew that he had to adjust his attitude toward Wang Ling as soon as possible.

Even if he wasn’t satisfied with Wang Ling, he still had to go along with the old man’s wishes in front of grandfather Sun. Otherwise, it would be too late by the time grandfather Sun felt that he was an eyesore.

“I’m afraid so, Old Master.” Jiang Xiaocheng nodded regretfully, and then began to observe Old Master Sun’s reaction.

“As expected...”

Sun Yiyuan first showed a regretful expression, and then let out a long sigh. “But this essay is really well written!”

Jiang Xiaocheng: “...”

To be honest, if Sun Yiyuan didn’t have a shred of rationality left in him, he would have directly given Wang Ling a full score of 60 on this essay!

But in order to take care of Wang Ling’s feelings at the same time,.

In the end, grandfather Sun didn’t give the essay a specific score.

Instead, he submitted the essay directly to the “New Concept Creative Library.”.

The reward system for this national competition was actually very rich.

For essays that broke through the style of the essay for the examination, they could be selected for the “New Concept Essay Award” without the score for the essay for the examination.

This award wasn't a champion award, so it didn't attract much attention, but it was also a national award. Grandfather Sun felt that with this award, Wang Ling would be enough to give his Chinese teacher an explanation.

Sun Yiyuan's idea was the same as the others, plus grenade-throwing senior immortal and Odd Zhuo were pulling some strings behind the scenes.

There was almost no doubt that Wang Ling's "Single Dog" essay would win the New Concept Essay Award.

Sun Yiyuan used his mobile phone to take a picture of Wang Ling's essay. Although this essay only had four words, the more he looked at these beautiful words, the more he liked them.

"Do you know student Wang Ling's Chinese teacher's name?" Sun Yiyuan asked.

"Guan Ziqian," Jiang Xiaoche quickly replied.

"Very good." Sun Yiyuan nodded. "Later, inform principal Chen and give teacher Guan a commendation order."

"Commendation... Order?"

"To be able to teach such an outstanding student Wang Ling, teacher Guan must also be an outstanding person!"

Grandfather Sun stared unblinkingly at the photo taken on his phone, deeply intoxicated.

Jiang Xiaoche: "..."

"Wonderful, wonderful! This word is wonderful! Xiaoche, go and print this picture, I want to frame it for my collection."

Grandfather sun said, "In the future, when Huaguo Water Curtain Group recruits new employees, give me ten points on the comprehensive evaluation of anyone who can write good-looking, thin-gold fonts."

”...”

At that moment, Jiang Xiaoche’s expression was very complicated.

He didn’t know what kind of demonic spell Wang Ling had used on grandfather Sun.

The old man, who had always been calm and collected, actually had such a thick fan filter!

When Wang Ling had gone to the aquarium earlier, Jiang Xiaoche had secretly planned to trip him up, but he hadn’t been able to find a good opportunity all this time.

But now, he felt that he couldn’t take it anymore.

He had to expose Wang Ling’s “Nature”!

Let grandfather Sun See who was the most suitable person for Lotus Sun!

..

The whole plan was divided into two parts.

Jiang Xiaoche would start with Wang Ling and Lotus Sun respectively.

He would expose Wang Ling’s “Nature”and increase Lotus Sun’s favorable impression of him!

Huaguo Water Curtain Group’s backend AI intelligent system, “Wukong,”had created very good conditions for Jiang Xiaoche to carry out his plan. This intelligent system was originally used to calculate large amounts of customer data.

It was similar to the “Guess you like”function that some shopping platforms developed by capturing the focus of customers when they browsed the goods.

As for Wukong system, it could automatically push various pills produced by Huaguo water curtain group to potential customers according to their browsing needs.

But now, Jiang Xiaoche planned to use Wukong system to do something else.

-LSB- dead fish eyes] , [apathy] , [oil bottle] IroniHan Han han] , [likes to steal other people's women] ..

Jiang Xiaoche entered all the tags he could think of regarding Wang Ling into the Wukong system.

Soon, the system's electronic voice prompted, "Dear Mr. Jiang, xiaokong has recommended a local girl from Songhai City to you. Please refer to her."

According to the system's conjecture, this girl was 87% compatible with Wang Ling, and was the type that Wang Ling might like!

"It worked!" Jiang Xiaoche was secretly delighted.

He opened up the girl's profile.

The Girl in the photo had short, fresh hair, and her skin was as white as jade. She was adorable.

She looked very young, but in fact, she was an experienced professional wine escort expert!

She was especially there to serve those shop owners in the hotel!

"Interesting. I didn't expect student Wang Ling to actually like such a flirtatious type."

Jiang Xiaoche nodded his head in satisfaction.

Then, he swiftly followed the information provided by the system.

He gave this girl a call.

Jiang Xiaoche: “Hello, is this Miss Su Yu? I want to ask you something.”

“It’s nothing serious, I just want you to help me flirt with a boy... what? Don’t Sell Your Body for entertainment? No! I don’t need you to sell your body...”

“Do you understand the boyfriend loyalty test?”

“Yes! It’s just a Test!”

“The pay is very high! I hope you’ll consider it!”

..

So that night, Wang Ling suddenly received a very strange friend message.

It was a girl whom Wang Ling didn’t know at all.

The friend request column said: “Student Wang Ling! I’m in trouble, Please add me, I have something urgent to tell you!”

” ... ”

Wang Ling stared at this girl’s profile picture for a few seconds.

He searched his memory and confirmed that this person wasn’t from No. 60 high school or anyone he had ever come into contact with.

But the other party actually called him student Wang Ling.

Could it be from another school?

No..

It might even be a leak of information.

Jiang Xiaoche's calculations were very good, but he hadn't calculated that Wang Ling actually didn't have the habit of adding strangers.

He didn't even bother to add this girl to ask what was going on.

Then, he blacklisted this "Strange Girl"..

If you are in trouble, go to the police!

Why..

And delay his online class!

Chapter 1376 He Had Hooked Himself

Su Yu hadn't expected to be blacklisted just like that.

Student Wang was indeed a cautious person, and was even more difficult to deal with than Su Yu had imagined.

"Sister? Are you unhappy about something?"

Su Xiao was in the middle of an online class at the dining table. When he saw his sister's sad face, he couldn't help asking.

"Go back to your class."

Su Yu gently berated him.

Wang Ling..

Su Yu wasn't actually unfamiliar with this name.

Su Yu had even met Wang Ling before, but Wang Ling himself might not have known about it.

When No. 60 high school had been involved in the “Shuigou sect incident,” the school had requested the parents of the students to personally pick up their children, and it was during this time that Su Yu had met Wang Ling.

Her brother had said that although student Wang Ling looked cold on the outside, he was actually a very good person.

He was also the mascot of their class, and on several occasions, he had represented the school and won glory for No. 60 High School.

Jiang Xiaoche had asked her to test a boy and had described him as heinous, and Su Yu hadn’t known who this boy was until she had received the information.

In the end, who would have thought that he was actually her brother Su Xiao’s classmate, Wang Ling..

At the thought of this, Su Yu felt her brain ache a little.

She had never even thought of “Flirting” with her brother’s classmate.

She had no intention of making things difficult for Wang Ling.

It was just that Jiang Xiaoche had offered her a very high salary.

If she could complete this task...

Su Yu could stay at home for the next few years and work as an escort that she hated.

Everything she did was for the sake of living.

She did it so that she and her brother could live a better life.

..

On Jiang Xiaoche's end, about an hour later, he received a reply from Su Yu: "I used 36 accounts to add, but they were all blocked. I don't have any accounts anymore."

Jiang Xiaoche was shocked. He stared at Su Yu's message with an incredulous expression. "Not one? Is He that upright? Why Don't I believe him? !"

After all, Wang Ling was only sixteen years old.

And Jiang Xiaoche had been through this before. It was common for youngsters at this age to be full of vigor.

It was also the age at which it was easiest to face all kinds of temptations.

"I have screenshots here. I've already said the hard and soft things about asking for friends. Now I really have no choice [sweat] ,"Su Yu typed.

Jiang Xiaoche: "Don't worry, I'll pay for the reward."

"That's good."

Su Yu nodded; she didn't know who this mysterious boss was.

He had actually paid such a huge price to give Wang Ling this so-called "Test."

But Su Yu had a hunch that this person might be related to Lotus Sun in some way, and might also be a suitor for classmate Lotus Sun?

Or..

At this thought, Su Yu couldn't help asking, "Excuse me, are you Miss Lotus Sun herself?"

Jiang Xiaoche: "I'm not..."

Staring at her phone, Su Yu chuckled. Generally speaking, those who were in a hurry to deny it were most likely to do so.

She had long heard of some campus scandals between Lotus Sun and Wang Ling..

But she hadn't expected that Lotus Sun would actually care so much about Wang Ling.

She had even specially used a voice changer to disguise herself as a boy, and had somehow found her for the job of testing Wang Ling.

Su Yu felt that she had definitely guessed right, and her burning desire to gossip forced her to tell the truth. "There's no need to be embarrassed, classmate Lotus Sun!"

Jiang Xiaoche:"..."

Su Yu: "I actually understand very well when it comes to testing one's character. Given your family background, it's only right for you to be a little more cautious. In my experience, classmate Wang is a very pragmatic, very honest, and very dedicated person; he's the type who won't be easily tempted! "You can be at ease and marry him!"

PA!

After hearing this, Jiang Xiaoche was so angry that he smashed his phone.

..

The mission to send Su Yu over for the test had failed, but Jiang Xiaoche still didn't give up.

He felt that something must have gone wrong.

After paying Su Yu as promised, Jiang Xiaoche still planned to continue working on Wang Ling.

In fact, he had gotten some inspiration from Su Yu.

The Wukong system's AI matching function was the most suitable match for the information he had entered about Wang Ling.

But for the labels he had entered earlier: [dead fish eyes] , [apathy] , [oil bottle] , [Iron Han Han] , [likes to snatch other people's women] ..

Some of them were Jiang Xiaoche's own stereotypical impression of Wang Ling, while some were just labels he had randomly added out of jealousy, which wasn't actually objective and fair.

In the case of unfairness, the girl he had matched was naturally out of alignment.

"Sigh..."

Jiang Xiaoche sighed.

He had discovered his mistake.

Fortunately, this discovery was still timely.

Then, he kept reminding himself in his mind.

He had to put down his prejudice, be objective and fair, and write Wang Ling's shining points on the tag..

Only in this way could he match the girl more accurately through the big database.

He braced himself and deleted the tags he had randomly added. Then, he started to look at the old man and Su Yu's analysis, he re-entered some tags: dead fish eyes, cold on the outside but hot on the inside, sultry, pragmatic, honest, down-to-earth, monogamous, well-written, fair-skinned, and handsome..

As he entered the tags, Jiang Xiaoche felt like he was bleeding inside.

He felt like he was about to enter and exit an internal injury.

In order to trip up his love rival, he actually had to praise his love rival first..

This magical operation was something Jiang Xiaoche would never have thought would happen to him.

After a few minutes.

In front of the computer, Jiang Xiaoche wiped his sweat.

This time, the tag he entered was objective and fair enough.

There shouldn't be any more problems with Wukong's system.

Soon, the system's electronic voice came again. "Dear Mr. Jiang, xiaokong has recommended a local girl from Songhai City to you. Please refer to her."

This time, the system was as good as a match

Opening the girl's information, Jiang Xiaoche couldn't help rubbing his eyes.

He was sure that he hadn't seen wrongly.

Because the girl in the photo was actually somewhat similar to Lotus Sun..

But Jiang Xiaoche was very sure that this was definitely not lotus sun herself.

"So there's actually such a similar person in this world?" Jiang Xiaoche's eyes sparkled.

He didn't know what it felt like to fall in love at first sight.

But now, he was sure... that he had fallen in love with this girl!

Jiang Yingying!

What a good name!

Jiang Xiaoche repeated this girl's information.

Then, he quickly sent a friend request to this girl called Jiang Yingying. "Miss Sister, do you want to meet?!"

Three seconds later..

Jiang Xiaoche was directly blocked.

..

This scene also made Wang Ling, who was on the screen, sigh.

In the middle of the night, he had inexplicably received more than thirty explicit friend requests..

Wang Ling knew very well that someone must be playing tricks.

Then, he immediately deduced that it was Jiang Xiaoche who had been "Fishing."

It was a pity.

Some people had been fishing and had gotten themselves into it..

Chapter 1377 Old Thief Ku Xuan Gives Out Candy In The Middle Of The Night

Today, Jiang Xiaoche smashed two mobile phones.

The first time he smashed them, it was because Su Yu's words had provoked him.

The second time he smashed them, it was because he was rejected by Jiang Yingying.

This incident tells us a truth.

When Life is not good, you can have nothing, but you must have many mobile phones.

It was mainly for convenience.

Nokia was no longer useful in the cultivation world.

Unless Wang Ling had enlightened it.

Otherwise, any cultivator with a certain level of cultivation would be smashed to pieces..

Looking at the two scattered phones on the ground, Jiang Xiaoche took a deep breath.

He felt that he had already completely calmed down.

Furthermore, he knew how to deal with his relationship with Jiang Yingying, as well as his relationship with Lotus Sun.

Only a child could make a choice.

He wanted them all!

With this in mind, Jiang Xiaoche fished out a third mobile phone from his pocket and began his next plan.

He still had to continue the appointment with Jiang Yingying.

This was the first time he had seen a girl who looked so similar to Lotus Sun. It was a bit of a pity to let her go so easily.

As for Wang Ling...

As Su Yu's plan failed, Jiang Xiaoche knew that he probably wouldn't be able to shake this blockhead with a simple "Seduction spell."

He began to think about a good show.

Suppose he arranged for Wang Ling and Lotus Sun to be in the same place.

Then, the two of them would be in danger at the same time.

If he helped them then..

Wouldn't he be able to kill two birds with one stone?

Heh, it was just two foundation establishment stages.

It wasn't difficult for Jiang Xiaoche to create a fake crisis.

It was true that the hero saving the damsel in distress routine was old-fashioned.

But as the saying went, only a routine could win the hearts of the people!

Jiang Xiaoche had already thought of a time to make his move.

Next Monday, on the way home from the first day of school at No. 60 High School..

HMPH!

Wang Ling, if you have the ability, don't leave after school!

..

After returning from the Demon World with Lotus Sun and loopy toad, Monk had received a message from the war sect that grenade-throwing senior immortal wanted to discuss the collection of materials for the production of the new Rubik's Cube. As the most experienced person, monk golden lamp., had naturally become a ready-made consultant.

With the new Olympian Sea...

Lotus Sun had already seen the power of the city-toppling sword.

It was really impossible for Lotus Sun to imagine that such tremendous power could actually be unleashed from her thin and weak body.

When she unleashed the "City-toppling sword"...

Lotus Sun thought of Wang Ling.

The power contained in student Wang Ling's body was probably something that no one could imagine or compare to..

Lotus Sun knew very well.

The strength she currently possessed might only be a drop in the ocean compared to Wang Ling's.

However, without the monk's help, this was a standard of combat strength that she would never be able to achieve in her lifetime.

After witnessing the power of "City-toppling sword"...

The young girl felt a sense of mission and responsibility.

In addition, she began to understand Wang Ling's worries a little more clearly.

At this thought, she frowned slightly and couldn't help sighing in front of the monk.

Lotus sun: "It's really a very vexing thing to be unable to restrain your strength. I hope that student Wang Ling can find a way to control your strength accurately as soon as possible."

Monk Jin Deng smiled. "I'll definitely find it."

"Thank you very much, senior!" Lotus Sun held Ao Hai and thanked him once again.

"You're too kind, Miss Sun, but this penniless monk would like to remind you of something. Please listen carefully, Miss Sun."

Monk smiled. "Although a'Hai's power is great, it can be controlled. Usually, miss sun can suppress most enemies with just her sword qi. Miss Sun's city-toppling sword is a great killer move at the current stage. You mustn't use it unless it's absolutely necessary."

Lotus sun: "I understand, senior. I will definitely use this power carefully!"

"Yes, a woman is as strong as a man. With Miss Sun's words, this penniless monk will be at ease." Monk nodded. He had finished what he needed to say.

His "Promise of the face-pinching competition" had been officially fulfilled, and it had come to an end.

"City-toppling sword" was Lotus Sun's current killer move.

In fact, if there were more than one core world in Ao Hai's body, this ultimate skill could be upgraded to another level.

And to build more than one core world into the spirit sword space, one needed to fuse more than one Rubik's cube..

To be able to obtain a Heavenly Dao Rubik's Cube and fuse it into Ao Hai was already not easy.

Monk didn't even dare to think about a multi-core spirit sword.

If Ao Hai had two cores, then he could unleash the power of "World-toppling sword".

Three cores would be able to do a "Tilting sword"..

But now, Lotus Sun was already satisfied with ao hai being a single core.

It had really risen to the level of three cores.

The monk felt that the spirit of Earth would probably go crazy.

Nowadays, a foundation establishment cultivator could use a "Tilting sword" to blow it up; just thinking about it was enough to make people collapse..

"Then Miss Sun, almsgiver toad and I will take our leave now. We still have to go to the war sect later."

"Okay, senior, please do as You Please!"

Lotus Sun held the ocean in her hand and bowed to the monk. Then, she turned her gaze to loopy toad and stroked its dog head. "Loopy toad, when you go back, you have to thank student Wang Ling on my behalf!"

Loopy toad replied, "Croak! I got it, send a message yourself! It's not a big deal!"

Lotus Sun's face turned red again. "I haven't thought of how to tell student Wang Ling yet! !"

Lotus Sun felt that loopy toad might find it very difficult to understand this kind of mood.

Lotus Sun herself couldn't tell exactly what she was feeling.

It was just that every time she sent a text, she would frantically struggle with her words, afraid that she would mention something embarrassing to Wang Ling..

In the end, after a few hours, she had repeatedly revised a very simple sentence hundreds of times, but in the end, she still hadn't sent it out... it was all stored in the draft box.

"Can you let me see your phone?" Loopy toad asked at this moment.

It knew that this was actually a very rude question.

"What are you going to do?" Lotus Sun asked.

"I just want to see what you've written, so I can better convey the message!" Loopy toad gave a kind smile.

"Okay then... but don't flip through it." Lotus Sun carefully handed the phone over.

Loopy toad stared at the phone and was startled by the number on the text storage box. "You actually called 218 times?"

"I... I really just didn't think of what to say..." lotus sun was also very helpless.

Just as she was about to take the phone back, she suddenly saw loopy toad actually press its dog paw on it.

"Loopy toad, what are you doing!" Lotus sun hurriedly snatched the phone back.

"Croak! It's nothing, I'm just helping you out."

At that moment, loopy Toad's expression was Sly and cunning.

Lotus Sun was anxious and her face was red. “Loopy toad! ! You... you... why did you send them all! ! ! !”

“If you don’t have the courage to send them, I’ll help you out. It’s not a big deal to send them all.”

With that, loopy toad casually said, “Monk, let’s Go!”

“Yes, almsgiver toad.”

The monk nodded. He held back his laughter and looked like he was watching the show.

..

A few seconds later, Wang Ling’s cell phone directly exploded..

Lotus Sun’s text messages came one after another.

“Wang Ling, this time... Thank you very much...”

“Student Wang Ling, I think I understand you a little now. You have such tremendous power; it must be very painful, right?”

“Student Wang Ling! Thank you for the Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube! OHAI has been upgraded! It’s very useful!”

“Wang Ling, I... Like You...”

Chapter 1378 Full Of Tiger And Wolf Words

More than 200 text messages poured into his mailbox, and Wang Ling almost thought that his phone was a ghost.

These were all messages from Lotus Sun.

Thank you... like..

Because the text messages jumped too often, Wang Ling roughly skimmed through a few keywords.

He guessed that Lotus Sun was probably thanking him for giving him the Heavenly Dao Rubik's Cube.

But in Wang Ling's eyes, there was really no need to thank this little thing.

To him, the Heavenly Dao Rubik's Cube was like a rubber he had casually picked up from the table next to him during an exam.

It wasn't anything valuable to begin with.

So should he reply?

Wang Ling wanted to reply with two words: It's fine.

The other party had already sent over two hundred messages, so it seemed a little rude to pretend that he hadn't seen them.

But when he put his finger on it...

Wang Ling hesitated again.

"..."

After repeatedly modifying two or three messages, Wang Ling stared at the ellipsis in the reply box and fell into deep thought.

"You also have this day?" Wang Ying smiled.

Then, he directly reached out and helped Wang Ling to press send.

”?”

Wang Ling stared at Wang Ying, unsure whether it was because he couldn't lift the knife or because Wang Ying had drifted away.

But since the text message had already been sent, he might as well take it as it came.

In any case, it was just a string of ellipses.

“Ling Ling, come here for a moment.”

At that moment, Wang Ling heard father Wang's call from inside the study.

He didn't think too much about it. He casually put his phone on the table and hurriedly walked over.

..

Because of loopy toad, the more than two hundred messages in the manuscript box were all poured out at once.

The young girl was both embarrassed and angry. Even after loopy toad and the monk had left, her body temperature still hadn't dropped.

She hugged the pillow and lay on the bed, burying her face deeply into it.

That was... more than two hundred messages..

There were still a lot of things she wanted to say, but didn't have the courage to say them.

But now, they were all sent out..

Student Wang Ling couldn't have seen them all, could he?

Lotus Sun was extremely nervous.

“Still no reply...”after a long while, Lotus Sun moved half of her face out of the pillow and stared at Sun Ying ‘er.

“No.”

Sun Ying ‘er gripped her phone and stared at the mailbox like a searchlight. She sighed. “Sigh, the two of you are really troublesome. If you want to see it, then look for yourself. You insist on me keeping an eye on it for you.”

“But what if... What if...”

“So Rongrong is afraid of being rejected? But I don’t think there’s a ‘what if’.”. Ling Zhenren had always been a blockhead; even if he saw it, he wouldn’t feel much. Rongrong’s text message confession was too pale! “You should just hug him and bite him!”Sun Ying ‘er chuckled.

“What are you talking about...”lotus sun buried her face again.

A few seconds passed.

Two “Ding Dong” sounds came from Lotus Sun’s phone.

“Reply, Lotus!”Sun Ying ‘er said excitedly. “There are actually two replies! ! ! !”

“Two replies?”Lotus Sun was surprised.

Student Wang Ling... When did he have so many words?

Sun Ying ‘er said, “The first one is an ellipsis.”

Lotus sun asked, “What about the second one?”

Sun Ying 'er: "The second one... he said that he likes you too!"

Hearing this, Lotus Sun should have been happy.

But it was a pity that with such a sharp contrast in the style of the text message, it didn't take a genius to know that this definitely wasn't student Wang Ling's handiwork.

Although Lotus Sun was looking forward to a reply, she was still a rational person.

She was worried that Wang Ling would be angry.

But reality proved that this worry was completely unnecessary.

"An ellipsis... as expected of classmate Wang Ling." Lotus Sun couldn't help laughing in her heart.

"Lotus, What's wrong? Ling Zhenren replied and likes you too..."

Sun Ying 'er felt that it was strange; she didn't think Lotus Sun was as happy as she looked.

"The first message was sent by classmate Wang Ling. The second message definitely wasn't sent by him," the young girl said calmly.

"It wasn't sent by Ling Zhenren?" Sun Ying 'er suddenly thought of something. "Could it be..."

There was only one person who could appear by Wang Ling's side at any time and who had a motive to commit the crime!

"It's director Ying," Lotus Sun said.

She could be sure of this guess.

“This guy is a pervert! He actually used someone else’s phone to send a text message! and he even flirted with you, Lotus Sun!”Sun Ying ‘er couldn’t take it any longer, for some reason, whenever the matter of Wang Ying was brought up, she became very excited and had the thought of resisting.

“Ying ‘er, don’t be rash.”Lotus Sun found it funny when she saw how angry Sun Ying ‘er was.

“It’s fine! The punishment should have been done long ago! Let’s see what other reasons he can find! HMPH!”Sun Ying ‘er wasn’t willing to be outdone.

”...”Lotus Sun.

Soon after, Sun Ying ‘ER also started to operate Lotus Sun’s phone.

Just like that, the two shadows used each other’s owners’phones to have the following conversation..

“Ah! Student Wang Ling! I’m really happy! Can you really date me!”

“That’s great, Lotus Sun. It looks like we really like each other! How about I come to your house now?”

“Come to my house... That’s not very good, is it? I’d better go to classmate Wang Ling’s house! I’ve admired classmate Wang Ling’s biceps for a long time!”

“Really? Then come, you can even touch them!”

“Really... classmate Wang Ling...”

“Sure! You can also touch my chest and abs... Miss Lotus Sun, you don’t have to be embarrassed. How about this, I’m a boy, so I’ve decided to take the initiative and come over for you to touch now.”

“You’re coming over right now? ? ?”Sun Ying ‘er was so shocked that she almost dropped her phone.

“Then we can go somewhere else.”

“Somewhere else?”

“Like the moon you’re familiar with.”

Wang Ying sneered and replied.

Realizing that her identity had been exposed, Sun Ying ‘er decided not to pretend anymore!

She was going to show her cards!

“Ugh! Wang Ying, you’re so perverted! Ling Zhenren isn’t making it up for you to play with Ling Zhenren’s phone like this!”Sun Ying ‘er typed rapidly with her slender fingers, venting her protest against Wang Ying.

“Heh, woman! Aren’t you still playing with Miss Lotus Sun’s phone?”Wang Ying chuckled.

“I Got Rong Rong’s permission!”Sun Ying ‘er said matter-of-factly

“Then Miss Sun taught you how to type these words? HM?”Wang Ying typed.

“I just wanted to test how perverted you are! You actually took the initiative to go to a girl’s house and let her touch you... I didn’t expect you to have this kind of attribute.”Sun Ying ‘er couldn’t take it anymore, she held the phone and laughed loudly.

Lotus Sun didn’t know what Sun Ying ‘er was laughing about.

She sat on the edge of the bed and watched Sun Ying ‘er hold the phone and lay on the sofa with her head up. She was laughing so hard that she was trembling.

However, the laughter didn’t last long.

Because in the next moment..

Sun Ying 'er was completely gone.

She was directly taken away by a black shadow.

It had happened in the blink of an eye.

By the time Lotus Sun reacted...

There was only one phone left on the sofa.

Sun Ying 'ER had left peacefully..

Chapter 1379 Sun Ying 'ER Who Had Been Played Badly

Father Wang called Wang Ling into the study. Wang Ling didn't need to read "Heart to heart" to know that Father Wang was definitely looking for him for an essay.

Sure enough, in the study, Wang Ling saw father Wang's computer screen, which had just been frozen in the background for the essay review.

"This Wang... was written by You?" Father Wang stared at Wang Ling with a funny expression on his face.

It was impossible for him not to recognize his own son.

Father Wang had been teaching Wang Ling's handwriting ever since he was young.

After all, Wang Ling had been able to hold a pen since he was born, and father Wang had always felt that good handwriting could affect a person's entire life.

Moreover, this was actually a way to train and control one's strength.

At the very least, Wang Ling was now confident in his ability to pinch the necessary strength.

The process of teaching writing wasn't easy, and father Wang still felt very bitter when he thought about it.

Even at one yuan per pen, those pens that had been broken by Wang Ling midway could still cover his writing fees for a few years..

"Little Thunder sent me a text message earlier asking me to take care of this composition. Actually, I saw it a long time ago,"father Wang said with a smile.

He lit a cigarette and took a deep breath. The smell of nicotine turned into a smoke dragon from father Wang's nose and mouth and was spat out.

Then, the smoke was sucked into Wang Ling's lungs, filtered into fresh oxygen, and flowed back into the study.

Although father Wang was smoking, the entire study didn't smell at all.

The Wang family's small villa didn't need to worry about PM2.5, so there was even less need to buy an air purifier.

Wang Ling was ready-made.

This was the benefit of raising a son.

"Don't be nervous. Now that the judges have discussed it, we're going to send this essay to the Creative Library. I voted against it. You should know the reason better than I do. After all, I'm still your father, so I still have to avoid suspicion."

"Mm."Wang Ling nodded.

"I haven't finished speaking,"father Wang said. "Although I voted against it, it's useless. According to the principle of the majority, your essay will still be sent in the end."

"..."Wang Ling.

“This is the final result of your essay. But I didn’t come to talk to you today just for the essay.”

Father Wang Thought for a moment, then raised his eyebrows.

He looked at Wang Ling with a profound gaze, and there was a hint of meaning in his eyes. “You, What About Your Miss Sun?”

”...”

Hearing this, Wang Ling was already sweating profusely.

“You’ve even seen a big scene like a planet explosion, and you’re actually nervous about something like this. As expected of you.”

Father Wang was amused. He pressed his cigarette butt into the ashtray and twisted it a few times.

His eyes sparkled, his tone was quite carefree. “The boys in our old Wang family have never been short of peach blossoms in their lives. “However, we have always been the more active party. There are all sorts of active skills when it comes to love. In the end, you didn’t inherit any of them and added all your skill points to the passive points.”

”...”

“Your personality is a little like your mother’s. “When your mother and I met, we were also the passive party. “But it wasn’t as serious as yours. “At least I managed to move her in the end by writing a song or a few poems.”

Father Wang sighed and said, “Unrequited love is always the most tiring. I think it’s really not easy for Miss Sun to fall in love with you...”

Speaking up to this point, father Wang paused. He was observing Wang Ling’s expression, and when he saw that he was still expressionless., then he said, “Actually, I also understand you. At this stage, you don’t have very good control over your power. If you associate with Miss Sun, you might hurt her. In this way, it’s unrealistic to create humans...”

”...”hearing this, the corners of Wang Ling’s eyes couldn’t help twitching.

He felt that Father Wang was getting more and more ridiculous!

“I’m just kidding.”Father Wang laughed heartily and patted Wang Ling on the shoulder. “Thank you, son.”

Wang Ling:”? ? ?”

“I’m going to add a wooden male supporting character like an emotional idiot in my next novel. You’ve provided me with very good material, and I’ve been observing your reaction just now. Not Bad, not bad! The material is a success!”

Father Wang praised him from the bottom of his heart. “It’s still better to raise a son. He can be an air purifier and a tool man.”

Wang Ling:”...”

Listen to him!

Was he speaking human language..

..

Saturday, December 5th.

Sun Ying ‘er had been tormented by Wang Ying the whole night last night, and she felt as if her waist was about to collapse.

It wasn’t until six in the morning that Wang Ying mercifully released her.

“Rong Rong...”

When Sun Ying 'er got home, she threw herself into Lotus Sun's soft embrace. "Wang Ying, this * *, he bullied me..."

She looked like she was in tears, as if she had been greatly wronged, but there wasn't a single tear on her face.

On the contrary, Lotus Sun felt that perhaps Ying 'er... was quite happy?

"Then should I send student Wang Ling a message?" Lotus Sun asked tentatively.

"No, no, no! How could ling Zhenren do anything to us? I don't think so!" Sun Ying 'er immediately raised her head.

"Why do I get the feeling that you're quite happy?" Lotus Sun couldn't help laughing.

"Who... Who's happy? ! You were grabbed by a hand and forced to touch your abs. Are you willing to do that? ! That's too much! Wang Ying is a natural super big!"

"Why do I feel like you didn't say everything?"

"Rongrong, did you just hear a Beep?"

"Yeah..."

"It's Wang Ying! He set up a keyword-blocking spell for me. As long as I say he is, it will become."

"I understand."

Lotus sun nodded and couldn't help laughing. "I think President Ying is quite good at playing."

Sun Ying 'er wanted to cry, but no tears came out. "He said that this spell would automatically count. He also set a new rule that would be punished according to the count in the future. Every time it was blocked, it had to be hit 50 times by the ball. This Wang Ying! Only he could come up with such an idea!”

“Stop talking, you’ve already said it seven times, it seems...”

“Isn’t that... 350 times...”

Sun Ying ‘ER gave up on resisting. “I’ll just chop off my waist and give it to him!”

Lotus Sun:”...”

“Sigh, there’s actually a reason why I’m feeling so uncomfortable.”

At this moment, sun Ying ‘er sighed. “It’s fine if Wang Ying is impudent towards me, but no one else saw me in such a sorry state... but last night, someone saw the scene of me being bumped into by him! And it was a girl! I also want to save face!”

“Girl? Which Girl?”

“It’s Miss Ah Juan! The one who used the cell phone membrane to block my ultimate move!”

“It’s her!” Lotus Sun also remembered. “But, wasn’t the location where director Ying took you to Qiu Dong in the deep west of the galaxy... How did Miss Ah Juan appear there?”

“I don’t know.”

Sun Ying ‘er shook her head and then said seriously, “I suspect that she’s jealous of me and wants to touch Wang Ying as well.”

Hearing this, lotus sun slowly sent out a”?”.

Was her shadow finally broken..

Chapter 1380 Out Of Control Shandao Star

Lotus Sun felt that perhaps even Sun Ying 'er herself hadn't expected that she actually had a good impression of Wang Ying.

And she even felt that it wasn't just Sun Ying 'er who felt the same way about Wang Ying 'er.

What Wang Ying had done to Sun Ying 'er now was like a boy who couldn't figure out his feelings when he was in school pulling the braids of a girl sitting in front of him.

The boys were used to playing pranks to attract the girl's attention.

So in a sense, Wang Ying's emotional expression couldn't be more than three years old. Although he was very proactive, it was clear that he hadn't figured out Sun Ying 'ER's true position in his heart.

Of course, that was only Lotus Sun's own understanding.

Although Lotus Sun had never personally seen what had happened between the two shadows, she had only heard it from Sun Ying 'er.

But deep down in her heart, Lotus Sun still felt a little envious.

Although Shadow's way of expressing his feelings at the age of three was a little childish, it couldn't Stop Ying from falling for it at the age of three!

It was better to express it than not to express it at all!

"Wang Ling, how much longer can I wait for You?" Lotus Sun smiled bitterly in her heart.

While she was thinking about it, Sun Ying 'ER's chattering voice was automatically cut off. When Lotus Sun came back to her senses, she could only hear Sun Ying 'ER's strong analysis, she asked her, "So, Lotus Sun, I think my analysis is correct. Miss Ah Juan must have a crush on Wang Ying!"

Lotus Sun couldn't help but laugh. She was quite angry when she heard this, but she didn't know why she could smell... a strong smell of jealousy?

“Miss Ah Juan is a good girl. She can’t have such thoughts. You’re thinking too much! She must have something else on her mind,” said Lotus Sun.

“Rong Rong! Why are you trying to turn the other way!”

Sun Ying ‘er was unhappy. “You can’t side with Miss Ah Juan just because she’s a determined member of the Ling Rong Gang!”

“What... What Ling Rong Gang?” Lotus Sun’s face turned red again.

“Oh my! Anyone with a discerning eye knows that almost all the members of the war sect are now members of the Ling Rong Gang! The whole world is assisting in the attack, and Miss Ah Juan is no exception! Hehe!” Sun Ying ‘ER’s eyes were full of cunning.

Lotus Sun was being ridiculed by her own shadow, and after holding it in for a long time, she finally chided shyly, “Take care... take care of your Wang Ying!”

While the two of them were discussing, Lotus Sun suddenly noticed that her nail suddenly vibrated.

She thought that she had delayed her homework for too long, so the teacher came to urge her to do her homework, but in the end, she found herself pulled into the -LSB- war sect core members working group] .

And the person pulling her was Odd Zhuo.

Odd Zhuo: “Welcome, Junior Sister Lotus Sun! From now on, we’re all family! [hug][hug]”

Grenade-throwing senior immortal: “Welcome, Miss Lotus Sun! [Rose]”

Fang xing: “Welcome.”

Crispy noodles dao monarch: “[grinning] I wanted to pull miss sun too, but because I was so busy with work, I kept forgetting. Director Zhuo is still the most considerate.”

Lotus sun: “Thank you, everyone! But is it appropriate for me to join like this?”

Golden lamp: “This penniless monk already knew that Miss Sun would join the group.”

Little silver: “Where’s MASTER? Why doesn’t he come out and say something?”

Grenade-throwing senior immortal: “Brother Ling is most likely peeking at the screen. Of course, there’s also a very small chance that he’s embarrassed to see Miss Sun.”

Loopy toad: “Come on. Is Lord Ling Shy? He’s like a block of wood. Can you imagine him hugging a pillow and squirming like a maggot on the bed?”

When the people chatting in front of the screen saw this, they couldn’t help hiss.

The scene was too beautiful for them to imagine.

And in the next moment, a system notification came: [member ‘Loopy toad’ has been silenced by the administrator, ‘Ling Zhenren’, for six hours.]

Everyone laughed bitterly in their hearts.

Ling Zhenren was indeed peeping at the screen!

Although loopy toad had been severely punished, what it had just said was indeed a bit excessive.

As a pet, how could it openly talk about its owner in the group?

Sure enough, after successfully advancing to a Divine Beast, loopy toad was still a little carried away.

Grenade-throwing senior immortal: “This time, I chose to hold a meeting in the group to discuss the collection of materials for the new Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube and the possible mechanism for revenge from the Old Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube. I’ve already discussed the collection of materials with senior golden lamp in private. I'll have to trouble senior golden lamp to take care of this."

Golden lamp nodded and typed, "This is a matter that concerns all the people in the world, and this penniless monk is duty-bound to do so."

Grenade-throwing senior immortal: "Then, Next, I'll make a one-click call and connect with Miss Ah Juan to make a temporary call with the members of our group. Miss Ah Juan, please say hello to everyone!"

"Na Na Na? Can You Hear Me?"

The familiar sound of an old suona rang out, and everyone couldn't help feeling incomparably familiar.

She hadn't really gone to explore the depths of the Milky Way last night because of Wang Ying; she really had something urgent to deal with.

If she hadn't been at her wit's end, ah Juan would never have chosen to ask Zhan Zong for help at this time.

The king of the world of God also cared about his face.

Although the god World and the Divine Dao star attached to it were currently in a cooperative relationship with war sect, Lady Ah Juan would never seek help from others unless it was absolutely necessary.

"So what exactly happened?" Grenade-throwing senior immortal asked.

"This incident happened quite suddenly. To put it simply, Divine Dao star is currently a little out of control," Lady Ah Juan said.

This matter gave her quite a headache. It was mainly because up until now, she, as a world monarch of the divine realm, hadn't been able to figure out what exactly had gone wrong, which was why Divine Dao Star had gone out of control.

Grenade-throwing senior immortal: “What exactly is the expression of being out of control?”

“Once, in order to expand Divine Dao star’s territory, star Lord made Divine Dao star absorb other planets and forcibly merge them.”

Miss AWU said, “It was like a big fish eating a small fish. After absorbing other planets, Divine Dao Star became bigger and bigger. It merged with thousands of different creatures from the universe and was ruled by the Divine Dragon Clan. “Everyone knows what happened later, and we were punished by Ling Zhenren...”

Grenade-throwing senior immortal nodded. “Everyone remembers this.”. “But as the king of the world of gods, Miss Ah Juan is indeed performing her duties very well, leading the development of Divine Dao Star and turning over a new leaf. “She has started to take peace as her own responsibility.”

“This is also a form of atonement, right? It’s precisely for this reason that I was chosen.”

Miss Ah Juan Sighed. “In the past, we were the ones who instructed Divine Dao Star to devour other planets. But now... Divine Dao star has started to devour other planets without any instructions at all! And the devouring speed is much faster than before! !”

“When did it start to go out of control?”

“Yesterday!”

Grenade-throwing senior immortal fell into deep thought at these words.

Because it just so happened that Ao Hai’s upgrade had been completed yesterday.

If he had guessed correctly,.

The phenomenon of Divine Dao star going out of control was probably closely related to the “Rubik’s Cube’s revenge.”.

Now, there was another problem.

If there was a connection between the two...

The existence of Divine Dao Star was actually very mysterious.

It was clearly an affiliated planet under the god World, but it could actually be related to the Heavenly Dao..

“Divine Dao Star wasn’t created by God, was it?”

Grenade-throwing senior immortal raised his head at this moment and boldly asked, “Miss Scroll, please tell me the truth.”

Miss Scroll was obviously silent for a moment.

Then, she replied, “Divine Dao star was actually a token of love given to Old God by Dao ancestor Wang back then...”
