Chapter 1381 I'm Willing!

Hearing this, everyone couldn't help exclaiming in admiration.

He had actually given a planet as a token of love.

This was indeed in line with Dao ancestor Wang's style.

"Old God, are you referring to the previous king of the realm of gods?" Grenade-throwing senior immortal asked at this moment.

"Yes." Miss Ah Juan nodded, she repeatedly recalled many things. "But Old God has already ascended, and after that, the deity world has been without a master for a very long time. "It wasn't until recently that Old God's will chose me. "Then, I became the New World King of the deity world."

"I see." Everyone from the battle sect nodded.

"Then isn't the power transition mechanism also activated?" Sun Ying 'er interjected.

Sun Ying 'er was very familiar with this method because it was the same for the inheritance over in the void. The Old Void Master could pass on his power to the next generation.

And this method of inheritance was also known as the "Power transition mechanism". The advantage was that it could pass on 100% of the power of the previous generation to the next generation.

However, there was also an obvious flaw -- the inheritance time was too long.

So during this period, they had to stay put.

If they died during the process of inheritance, the previous generation would have to find a new successor, and the power that had already been transferred out would have been wasted and wouldn't be able to return to its original form..

“That’s right, so my power is still slowly being inherited! The more power I inherit, the more wings I have behind me,” Miss Awu said.

This was the main reason why she had tried so hard to curry favor with Wang Ling previously.

If she could cling to Ling Zhenren’s thigh before inheriting 100% of the old God’s power, she would be able to successfully complete the inheritance ceremony.

“Although I’ve become the new king of the god World, I still don’t know why the old God chose me.”

At that moment, Miss AWU sighed. “I’m still too young! Now that Divine Dao star has gone out of control, there’s nothing I Can Do!”

Grenade-throwing senior immortal basically understood the situation.

It was clearly not Miss Awu’s fault that Divine Dao Star had gone out of control.

After all, no one would have thought that after the unspeakable land was destroyed, the Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube would create a situation where the power of chaos in the universe would be out of balance.

And now that Divine Dao Star had started to devour other planets out of control, it was very likely that the Rubik’s Cube was also taking revenge.

Wang Ling quietly listened to the news in the group.

He already knew the reason why Divine Dao Star had gone out of control.

Since Divine Dao Star was in contact with Dao ancestor Wang, and Dao ancestor Wang had given this planet to the old God of the god world as a token of love back then... it was very likely that a Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube was also hidden on Divine Dao Star.

Wang Ling quickly sent this guess privately to grenade-throwing senior immortal.

The two of them almost thought the same thing.

Grenade-throwing senior immortal: “Brother Ling just sent me a private message and told me his opinion. He thinks that it’s very likely that there’s a Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube hidden on Divine Dao Star.”

Miss Scroll was startled. “What? Really?”

“To prevent Divine Dao star from going out of control, we must first find this Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube and suppress the Rubik’s Cube’s rampage.”

Grenade-throwing senior immortal said, “But brother Ling also said that it’s very easy to take out the Rubik’s Cube... but it’ll be more troublesome if we don’t destroy Divine Dao Star. The best way is to send people deep into Divine Dao Star to search for it. “But this matter is somewhat dangerous.”

At that moment, odd zhuo asked, “Then, what’s Master’s opinion?”

Crispy noodles dao monarch replied, “Lord Ling’s plan is to let loopy toad go. It has already become a divine beast, and this happens to be an experience.”

Little silver: “But! I want to go too!”

Crispy Noodles Dao monarch smiled. “Loopy toad still has half of the Divine Beast’s soul essence that hasn’t been absorbed. Your master wants you to enter the backtrack during this period of time and absorb the remaining soul essence. In this way, you can also enter the Divine Beast Sequence.”

At this moment, monk golden lamp asked, “Since there’s a risk, why don’t you let this penniless monk go with you?”

“Senior has the task of collecting materials for the new Rubik’s Cube, so there’s no need for senior to do anything like searching for the Rubik’s Cube. But brother Ling really wants to find another person to partner with Brother Dog, and the two of them can look out for each other.”

Grenade-throwing senior immortal asked, “Then, who’s willing to volunteer?”

“I’m willing.”

At that moment, a voice that had been silent for a long time rang out.

It was Lotus Sun’s voice that was as sweet as the echo of a clear spring.

“Eh? Miss Lotus Sun is going?” Ah Juan was surprised.

“When she saved me earlier, Miss Ah Juan didn’t care about her own safety and also put in a lot of effort. So I’m willing to give it a try.”

Lotus sun nodded and said, “With loopy toad, Ying ‘ER, and the upgraded ao hai, I’m very confident!”

On one hand, she wanted to return miss ah Juan’s favor.

On the other hand, this was indeed a rare experience.

“Since Miss Lotus Sun has volunteered, our battle sect will definitely do our best to help. This is indeed a rare opportunity to gain experience.”

Grenade-throwing senior immortal said, “But there’s only one day left until No. 60 high school resumes its studies. How about this, Miss Sun, go and look for it first. The deadline is the day of resumption of studies. If you don’t find anything before then, how about replacing someone else? This will also ensure Miss Sun’s safety.”

“I understand! I Won’t let you seniors down!” Lotus Sun’s voice sounded particularly confident in the group call.

Although it was true that she was currently the strongest foundation establishment cultivator on Earth.

But she also didn't want to be a foundation establishment cultivator forever.

Perhaps in terms of realm and strength, she would never be able to catch up to Wang Ling.

But Lotus Sun was willing to work hard to close the gap between them.

A healthy relationship would never cause a person to become dispirited or even regress.

Working hard to pursue and influence each other so that they would become more mature and better people than before was the right way to start a relationship.

Chasing Wang Ling was destined to be a long process.

But She.

Was willing to do it.

“Junior Sister Lotus Sun, your line is wrong!”

At that moment, Odd Zhuo's voice interrupted the girl's thoughts.

Lotus Sun was puzzled. “What's Wrong?”

“Hehehe! Shouldn't you have confessed before you set off? For example...”

Odd Zhuo smiled. He mimicked the girl's voice and deliberately made his voice very soft. He tried his best to imitate Lotus Sun's tone. “Classmate Wang Ling! When I come back, I'll Marry You!”

Lotus sun: “Senior Zhuo! ! This is a large group...”

Odd Zhuo completely ignored her, and immediately imitated Wang Ling's voice. “Classmate Lotus Sun, are you willing to marry me? !”

Then, Lotus Sun's voice rang out. "I'm Willing!"

"What's going on?"

Everyone in the group was dumbfounded.

Odd Zhuo: "This is a recording of Miss Sun agreeing to go on a mission earlier. I recorded it."

Lotus Sun: "..."

Grenade-throwing senior immortal: "Brother Zhuo... I'm very curious, why weren't you punished by Brother Ling?"

Odd Zhuo: "I know my master too well. It's time for him to eat crispy noodle snacks, so he won't look at the group. He left right after his private chat with Senior Immortal."

Everyone was astonished. "..."

It could only be said that Odd Zhuo was worthy of being Ling Zhenren's personal disciple.

A man who was able to probe wildly on the verge of death, but was completely fine..

He knew Wang Ling too well!

Then, Odd Zhuo became even bolder in the group chat.

He continued to use Wang Ling's voice and Lotus Sun's "I'm willing" recording to mercilessly tease his junior sister.

"Then, Student Lotus Sun, are you willing to follow me no matter what?"

"I'm Willing!"

..

“Then student Lotus Sun, are you willing to bear me monkeys in the future?”

“I’m Willing!”

”...”

Covering her face, lotus sun directly exited the call.

It was too difficult for her!

It was early in the morning when her shadow was ruined.

What she had said in the group chat had actually been recorded again, and senior Zhuo had ruined it!

Sure enough, there were holes everywhere when new people joined the group!

It looked like she had to be more careful when she spoke in the future.

What if she caused trouble for student Wang Ling? That wouldn’t be good..

Chapter 1382 Three Women In A Play

Teasing his junior sister and then observing Lotus Sun’s reaction was indeed very interesting to Odd Zhuo.

“Brother Zhuo, I think brother Ling will most likely punish you,”grenade-throwing senior immortal said with a bitter smile. He could only describe Odd Zhuo’s various actions in one word, which was “Gan”or “De”or “Piao”or “Liang”.

“Don’t worry, I’ll be fine.”

Odd Zhuo smiled like an old man.

He estimated that it was almost time, so he started to use his administrative authority to clear all the chat logs in the group.

He didn't even leave a backup of the group call, leaving no trace behind for Wang Ling.

At that moment, Wang Ling returned to the group and saw that it was empty. It was obvious that the meeting had ended, and he was bored to death, so he left behind a string of ellipses and slipped away again.

Odd Zhuo had indeed not been punished.

He had calculated all the time accurately..

"..."in front of the screen, all the core members of the battle sect were dumbfounded.

They hadn't expected such a thing to happen.

..

..

There wasn't much time left for Lotus Sun, so without further ado, she decided to quickly set off with Miss Scroll.

Before they left, Lotus Sun wrapped ao Hai's sword Qi around her body to prevent any accidents from happening.

Her cautious reaction amused Ah Juan. "Miss Sun, you don't have to be so nervous. Your body has already been blessed by the monk, so it won't be a problem for you to walk in space."

Ah Juan had already seen how powerful the monk's light-opening spell was. Even if it wasn't as powerful as Wang Ling's enlightenment spell, with the girl's current physical strength, it was still enough for her to move in space.

“Lord Realm King, you don’t have to call me Miss Sun. Just Call Me Rong Rong like Ying ‘Er.”

“Alright! That would be too polite. Then you can call me ah Juan!”

The two women looked at each other and smiled. Ah Juan then took out a dark blue dress.

“Rongrong, change into this dress!”

“This is?”

“A + 0 world-defying dress. It’s not something valuable anyway,” ah Juan said. “Although your body can withstand the pressure of space, your clothes can’t. It’s much more convenient with this world-defying magic dress.”

“Ah! This is too valuable!” Lotus sun was slightly surprised.

She was only at the foundation establishment stage, but she could actually use a world-defying magic weapon..

Her grandfather’s ancestral stick wasn’t up to this standard either!

“It’s fine. You’ve helped me a lot this time,” Ah Juan said.

“But it’s not done yet.” Lotus Sun was still a little embarrassed.

“Take it, there’s no need to be polite with me,” Ah Juan said with a smile.

In fact, in her opinion, Lotus Sun’s willingness to go was already halfway done..

This was a character that Ling Zhenren had tried his best to protect.

If she went, even if something went wrong in the end, would ling Zhenren still be able to hold back and not make a move?

As a young world monarch of the God realm, Ah Juan hated all of this to the core.

Besides, she was already a world monarch!

She could still afford such a small thing.

For upper-level cultivators.

World-level spiritual artifacts that didn't fuse with the power of Chaos were just like a toy. In fact, there wasn't much difference.

World-level spiritual artifacts that fused with the power of chaos were only valuable toys.

As for the "+ 0" that Ah Juan mentioned, it was actually a standard for judging the power of chaos of world-level spiritual artifacts.

With the 10% limit, for every 10% of the power of chaos that a world-defying magic artifact possessed, its level would be "+ 1."

The higher the number, the more valuable the world-defying magic artifact would be.

"Come, Rong Rong, let me help you change!"

Sun Ying 'er looked at the beautiful dark blue dress, and her face was filled with stars.

She did not need to change her clothes, because when Lotus Sun changed her clothes, her own clothes would also change.

But this change was only limited to changes in style, and the colors were still mainly black, white, and gray.

This was the pain of being a shadow.

The photos were like a portrait..

Therefore, learning to make fun of the pain was also a compulsory course for a qualified shadow.

This dress wasn't a long dress, and the hem was only above the knee. When Lotus Sun changed into the dress, she faced the fixed-fitting mirror in front of her and perfectly displayed her slender, white, and slender legs.

"Leg control benefits!" Sun Ying 'er praised from the side.

When she was helping Lotus Sun pull the zipper on the back of the dress, Sun Ying 'er gave a mischievous laugh and sneakily attacked Lotus Sun's chest muscles.

"What are you doing, Lotus!" Lotus Sun was a little embarrassed from being touched.

"Not bad, Lotus. It doesn't look big, but it actually feels pretty good." Sun Ying 'er was still not satisfied and chuckled. "I'm helping you get used to it in advance!"

"Get used to what... you're talking nonsense again!" Lotus Sun said in embarrassment and anger.

But very soon, Lotus Sun's emotions gradually calmed down.

Although Sun Ying 'er hadn't been by her side for long, Lotus Sun had already completely figured out her lively and mischievous personality.

It was completely different from her own style..

She couldn't punish Sun Ying 'ER's behavior, but as the master, Lotus Sun still had ways to deal with Sun Ying 'ER.

After changing into her dress, Lotus Sun looked at herself in the mirror and said casually, "Can't you be more dignified like me? You're so Naughty. Be careful, Ying will always find someone else."

When she said this, Sun Ying 'ER's face didn't show much of a reaction. "HMPH! That * * , look for whoever you want! I Don't Care!"

Although Sun Ying 'er said so, she was actually panicking in her heart.

She didn't know why she felt uncomfortable after hearing this. It was as if there was a stifling blood in her chest, and she couldn't let it out for a moment.

Sun Ying 'er felt that she seemed to have become a little abnormal.

That guy had clearly done so much to her..

But when she thought about how that guy would really ignore her in the future, she actually felt a sense of loss.

Then, Sun Ying 'er shut herself off at the speed of light. She transformed back into her shadow form and curled up under Lotus Sun..

"Ying 'er..."

Lotus Sun thought that Sun Ying 'er was quite interesting. She had been so easily frightened, which meant that she was still too naive.

It was no wonder that Wang Ying liked to "Bully"her so much.

"Then, Ah Juan, let's go,"Lotus Sun said as she held onto ao hai tightly, fully prepared.

The Heavenly Dao Rubik's Cube had the ability to sense each other, so lotus sun felt that it might not be difficult to find the Rubik's Cube.

With Ao Hai's body fused with a Heavenly Dao Rubik's Cube, the Sword Qi formed by Ao Hai was actually a natural radar!

“Mm! Let’s Go Now!” Ah Juan nodded.

“What about loopy toad?”

“It told me that Lord Ma will directly teleport it over. We’ll meet outside the main city area of the god World.” After Miss Ah Juan said this, Lotus Sun saw glowing flying feathers fluttering down from her room.

Immediately after, a teleportation magic ring appeared on the carpet in her bedroom.

“Let’s go,” said scroll.

At this moment, Lotus Sun noticed that scroll’s appearance seemed to have changed as well. “Why did you disguise yourself?”

“Hey, I’m the Realm King of the realm of God. Who On Divine Dao Star doesn’t know me? Those people have to kowtow three times when they see me. If I directly used my identity as the Realm King, I wouldn’t be able to stand the kowtowing all the way! “Moreover, it’s too high-profile, and it’s not good for Action!” Said scroll.

Chapter 1383 Tiankeng And The Second Rubik’s Cube

Because he had to hide his identity as the Realm King of the realm of gods, Ah Juan could not teleport in directly from the front.

She took Lotus Sun along a road leading to the main city.

This road was very wide, but it was not smooth. Mountains were piled up along the way, and the ancient trees of the Supreme Dao star that were 100 meters tall stood tall. Those branches blotted out the sky and covered the sun, giving off a primitive feeling.

Ah Juan summoned two huge rabbits as his mounts. Each of them was running on the road. The rabbits moved extremely fast, but they did not feel the slightest jolt while sitting on them.

These were the two old mounts that Ah Juan had carefully nurtured. The two rabbit ears on their heads would gently support their buttocks during the process of moving, so that when they landed, they would almost not feel the impact.

“Hey! That’s Great!”Sun Ying ‘er exclaimed at this time.

She had obviously shut herself up before she set off.

But it seemed that her ability to adjust her mood was very strong..

“What’s Great?”Lotus Sun asked.

“This rabbit can actually touch lotus’buttocks directly! I’m Sore!”Sun Ying ‘er said. “Lotus, imagine if what’s underneath isn’t the rabbit’s ears but Ling Zhenren’s...”

“Shut up...”

At this time, many figures appeared in front of them.

Lotus sun saw many lizard guards passing by.

These were all ordinary patrol guards on Divine Dao Star.

When they saw Ah Juan’s rabbit, these guards consciously moved to the side.

After Divine Dao Star went out of control, the Divine Dragon tribe organized a large number of guards.

They were responsible for organizing the alien creatures that were accidentally swallowed by Divine Dao Star.

They would temporarily gather somewhere to settle down.

“Previously, Divine Dao Star swallowed too many alien planets, resulting in the existence of all kinds of alien creatures and alien civilizations on Divine Dao Star. “Now that Divine Dao star has finally returned to normal, I didn’t expect to run into something out of control again.”

Ah Juan Sighed, and then she told Lotus Sun.

This rabbit was the exclusive mount of the nobles on Divine Dao Star, so the Divine Dragon clansmen had to avoid it.

“So Ah Juan, you’re a noble now?” Lotus Sun sat steadily on the rabbit and smiled.

“Na Na! Disguising is one thing, but I can’t go too far in disguising myself. If I really disguise myself as a commoner, it won’t be easy. When I run into trouble, I’ll have to reveal my identity as the Realm King. Won’t that be even more troublesome?”

Ah Juan stroked the Rabbit’s fur. “It’s much more convenient with the divine rabbits. They only appear in two places in the domain of God.”

“Which two places?”

“The buttocks of the nobles and the restaurants,” Ah Juan said. “The spicy rabbit heads are very delicious!”

“The restaurants, the restaurants...” Lotus Sun.

She felt that these rabbits were so pitiful.

“They’re all divine rabbits that have made mistakes or died. They actually wish they could be eaten.” Ah Juan smiled. “Being eaten by the gods can allow them to enter Samsara and reincarnate in advance.”

..

In front of the main city district, Lotus Sun saw that emerald green figure from afar.

Loopy toad had already been waiting there for a long time. Lord Ma’s teleportation was too precise, so loopy toad didn’t take too many detours. It had already arrived about fifteen minutes before Lotus Sun arrived.

“You came so fast, loopy toad!” Loopy toad jumped up and climbed onto the Divine Rabbit’s back.

Lotus Sun hugged loopy toad and couldn’t help rubbing her face.

“You guys came too slowly! So why didn’t you ask Lord Ma to send you here?” Loopy toad said.

“Ah Juan took me to see many of the sceneries of Divine Dao Star along the way, and I feel that this place is a bit like the prehistoric times in the books,” Lotus Sun replied. “Of course, it’s also possible that the author did it for the number of characters in the water.”

Loopy toad was enlightened by this revelation. “The main city district doesn’t look like it; it’s quite modern.”

“You’ve been here before?”

“I’ve never eaten pork before, and I’ve never seen a pig run before?” “Little Pig Ling and Miss Bai Qiao and the others came here before, and then Miss Bai Qiao integrated all the scenes here on Divine Dao star into her cultivation simulator,” loopy toad said.

When it came to the Cultivation Simulator, loopy toad heard that Bai Qiao was about to start the open beta, which would definitely be very popular.

Previously, it remembered that Wang Ling had set up a character named “Qin Zong” for it.

After the official open beta, this “Qin Zong” would appear as an NPC and serve as the game’s Easter egg.

After following Ah Juan into the main city district, Lotus Sun saw that there was a place for the divine dragon clansmen to receive them and stay. It was very similar to a black cab driver who would ask a foreigner if they wanted to take a taxi after arriving at a city bus stop.

However, these people from the Divine Dragon Tribe didn’t bother Lotus Sun and the others. The divine rabbit was the symbol of the aristocracy. The aristocrats in the main city area were either rich or noble. They were very tactful and knew that they couldn’t afford to offend them.

“Rumble!”

There was actually a rumbling sound in front of them, and even the earth was shaking. A team of black-armored guards riding several meters long ancient lizards passed by, as if they were dealing with an urgent matter.

“Everyone, get out of the way!”

These lizards were tall, fierce, and incomparably huge, but they moved extremely fast. They led this team of black-armored guards and quickly rushed forward.

“Well, it looks like something big has happened up ahead.” Ah Juan frowned.

The black-armored guards in the city center wouldn't be easily dispatched. These were all very powerful divine dragon clansmen. Once they gathered together, it meant that something big had happened that ordinary guards couldn't solve.

“I can feel the resonance,” Lotus Sun said at this moment.

From the moment she entered the heart of the city, she had felt that ao hai had been shaking slightly.

“There's already a resonance?” Juan was surprised.

Lotus sun nodded. She spread out Ao Hai's sword energy, and guided the Divine Rabbit under her seat in the direction of the resonance.

In the process of searching, Lotus Sun found that they had been following the black armor guards who had passed through the market in a hurry.

When they reached the place where the resonance was strongest, the black armor stopped, and so did the divine rabbit.

The three women were astonished by what they saw.

This was the location in front of the shrine in the heart of the city, where a huge sinkhole had actually appeared!

It had a radius of more than a thousand feet!

“There’s something strange about this sinkhole.” Loopy toad instinctively sensed the danger of this sinkhole.

“I’m afraid it has something to do with the Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube,” Lotus Sun said affirmatively.

She could sense that the sword qi emanating from her profound sea was being sucked into this sinkhole in front of her.

“What’s going on with this sinkhole?” Lady Scroll asked a black-armored man.

The black-armored man had been a little impatient, but when he saw the divine rabbit sitting under scroll, he answered honestly, “It sank suddenly, and the number of casualties isn’t low for the time being.”

His forehead was covered in cold sweat. Clearly, he did not know how to deal with the matter in front of him.

“En.”

Ah Juan nodded. “Na Na! I order you to immediately organize manpower. Seal the surrounding area and evacuate the area as soon as possible. Leave this place to us.”

Immediately, she turned her gaze to the sinkhole in front of her.

This sinkhole was very dangerous. It emitted an extremely terrifying aura of laws. The Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube was inside the sinkhole.

Although the cause of its formation was unknown.

But for now, they could only go down and find out for themselves.

“Rongrong, are you ready?” Juan asked at this time.

“No Problem!” Lotus Sun raised her spirits.

“Jump!” Then, Juan gave the order.

The divine rabbit they were sitting on jumped into the sinkhole without the slightest hesitation.

..

“F * CK, Captain! They really jumped... am I seeing things? ! And that human girl seems to be only at the Foundation Establishment Stage! How dare she jump?” One of the black-armored guards was stunned as he watched Lotus Sun jump down.

“Stop looking. According to the Lord’s orders, everyone organize an evacuation,” the captain of the black-armored guards said with a frown.

“But they are only nobles. They don’t seem to have the right to interfere with our actions...”

“Stupid! Didn’t you hear the ‘Na na’ of that curly-haired girl just now?”

The black-armored captain asked back, “On our Supreme Dao Star, how many old suona like this are there?”

“So it’s... The Realm King!”

The black-armored guards finally came to a realization.

However, they still couldn’t understand why the Realm King would bring a foundation establishment stage girl here..

What was the use of a foundation establishment stage? Coming here was courting death!

Chapter 1384 The Secret Chamber Of The Heavenly Dao Rubik's Cube

The sinkhole was very deep, and Lotus Sun used her sword energy to test it out.

The vertical distance at the bottom of the sinkhole was at least 20,000 meters.

While she was falling, she saw a few divine dragon clansmen clinging to the protruding rock wall and lying on the steep rock wall.

These were the people who had fallen into the sinkhole the moment it was formed.

And they had been lucky.

They had caught the protruding rock on the rock wall and had been spared.

There were probably even more people who had fallen directly into the ground.

“Ao Hai!” Lotus Sun couldn't bear it and called out to Ao Hai.

She used ao Hai's sword Qi to form a gentle sword flow, sending the desperate divine dragon clansmen who had been lying on the rock wall back to the ground one by one.

“I'm afraid there are at least tens of thousands of people who have been directly killed by the fall.” Loopy toad had only roughly sensed them.

In such a large and deep crater, there were countless souls floating nearby, and it could sense them very clearly.

As a professional who had relied on devouring souls to strengthen his body year-round, almost no one could compare to Wang Ling in terms of soul sensing ability.

“I will properly deal with these divine dragon clansmen who died in vain later. Rong Rong, don't Worry!” Ah Juan Sighed.

This was an undeserved disaster, and no one was willing to see such an outcome.

“Will they be resurrected?”

“This can be chosen according to their own wishes,” Ah Juan said. “Reincarnation and resurrection are both paths. But I think most divine dragon clansmen who died unexpectedly will choose to be reincarnated.”

“If they can live here in the heart of the city, they must be nobles, right?”

“This is the problem of cultural beliefs. The Divine Dragon clansmen have always believed that after reincarnation, their lives in the next life will be better,” scroll replied.

After about two minutes..., Lotus Sun suddenly felt that something was wrong. “Scroll, I’ve already measured the depth of this sinkhole with my sword energy. Logically speaking, we should be close to the ground, but why are we still falling?”

Something wasn’t right!

Ah Juan also found it strange. A string of prayer beads on her wrist was glowing. They were made from the bones of the Old Gods. Each bead was crystal clear, exuding a powerful divinity.

She separated one of them from the middle, and then suddenly shot toward the depths of the ground.

The powerful divine power poured into the spirit sea, bringing with it an unstoppable power that illuminated the abyss below.

Countless divine feathers fluttered down as they glittered with light.

Lotus Sun felt that the speed of their descent had suddenly slowed down a lot, and there was a force entrenched under the feet of the divine rabbit that gently lifted all of them up.

This was the divine cloud formed by the old divine perception pearl.

“What’s going on?” Lotus Sun didn’t understand.

“Haven’t you noticed? We’ve already entered the realm of the Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube. Or rather, we’re in the Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube now,” loopy Toad said patiently, its tone calm.

After all, this was the young girl’s first time on a mission, so it was normal for her to be lacking in experience in the face of all sorts of unexpected situations.

When cultivating, one had to be shameless enough to ask questions.

This was the same as studying.

But if the author’s writing was short, it was useless to urge her, because it might really be short.

Loopy Toad’s reminder could be said to have woken up the person in the dream.

Lotus Sun held the arcane sea and used it to sense the Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube again. However, she found that the sword Qi of the arcane sea was no longer in the same falling state as before, but was spreading out in all directions.

This was exactly what loopy toad had said.

They were inside the “Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube”!

Above the divine cloud, everyone stood there and looked around. It was pitch black nearby, and the only source of light was the glowing divine feathers that floated down.

Now, the divine feathers had become an excellent source of light.

“Fortunately, I have a lot of wings!” Ah Juan was actually a little proud of this scene.

Lotus Sun and loopy toad:”...”

“I remember the monk telling me that when they destroyed the unspeakable place, the Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube was a very small piece. It was easy to recover it. What’s going on now?” But the scene in front of him.., also puzzled Ah Juan.

“At that time, the Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube wasn’t missing, and it was still a complete nine pieces. Naturally, there were no riots because of the mutual checks and balances. But now, without the checks and balances, the other Rubik’s cubes have the possibility of going berserk at any time.”

Loopy toad guessed, “If I’m right, this is what little Lord Ling said, the Heavenly Dao secret room.”

“Ling Zhenren said that?”

“Before I came here, he gave me a brief introduction about the Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube. After all, Little Lord Ling was also trying to understand the structure of the new Rubik’s Cube. Now that we’ve been swallowed by the Rubik’s Cube, it’s the same as being trapped in a secret chamber.”

Loopy toad said, “The Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube has a total of 26 secret chambers. The 26 secret chambers are connected in series, but only one of them has a real exit. Mm... Little Lord Ling told me all this.”

After all, this mission had brought with it a new member who was on his first mission.

Before leaving, Wang Ling simply and roughly threw all his research notes on the Rubik’s Cube to loopy toad.

Loopy toad didn’t dare slack off and memorized everything it had seen.

It was just as grenade-throwing senior immortal had said.

This mission was indeed risky.

Understanding the Rubik’s Cube was also to ensure that the mission was flawless.

In addition to the information on the Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube in that research notebook,.

There was also Wang Ling's entrustment.

Although its Little Master Ling didn't talk much, it was indeed the first time that he had written so many things to take note of for this mission..

Loopy toad tilted its dog head slightly and used the light of the divine feathers to gaze at the young girl hugging it tightly.

Lotus Sun was nervous.

It could clearly sense it.

And the beginning of the mission was indeed not good for them.

But since it already had a full understanding of the Rubik's Cube's structure, loopy toad was confident that with its hint, it would eventually be able to successfully escape from the Secret Chamber of the Heavenly Dao Rubik's Cube and retrieve the second Rubik's Cube.

"Three elements to escape from the secret chamber: door, Clue, and key."

Loopy toad said concisely, "Since Divine Dao star is a token of love given to the old God by Dao ancestor Wang, the elements in the secret chamber must be related to their story."

"This is the abyss, what does the abyss represent?"

"The abyss usually indicates a dangerous situation. Doesn't that mean that the relationship between Dao ancestor Wang and the old God is very difficult?" Lotus Sun guessed.

"That might not be the case." Sun Ying 'er shook her head. "It might also mean the old God's mouth of the Abyss?"

"The... Mouth of the Abyss?" Lotus Sun was startled.

Then, she seemed to have thought of something shameful, and two balls of steam turned into long dragons and shot out of her ears.

“Na Na, has she always been like this...”

Ah Juan’s face twitched. What kind of vicious words were those! !

Lotus Sun facepalmed. “Ah Juan, I’m sorry.”

Ah Juan: “Ah! You’re indeed Rong Rong’s shadow. You’re indeed the complete opposite type...”

Lotus Sun was also helpless against Sun Ying ‘ER’s slanderous behavior.

But it had to be said that Sun Ying ‘ER’s words had given Lotus Sun some hints.

Since they had to crack the secret room, finding the door was the most important thing.

But now, they couldn’t see the door, so it was possible that the door had been hidden.

“I got it!”Thinking of this, Lotus Sun pulled out Ao Hai.

She held the hilt of her sword and suddenly threw it toward the bottomless abyss below.

At that moment, Ao Hai had turned into a spear-like existence, and the runic light on its body was faintly discernible, powerful and intimidating.

Then, everyone only heard a cracking sound, which sounded like glass breaking at the bottom of the abyss.

There was actually a hidden barrier there, which had been broken by Ao Hai!

Chapter 1385 How To Prove That Ku Xuan Didn’t Have Any Manuscripts

“Reincarnation ghost hits the wall... so that’s how it is!”Scroll instantly understood.

It wasn't that this abyss was a bottomless pit.

It was because of the "Reincarnation ghost hits the wall" restriction below, which forced them to fall from the top again when they fell in a certain direction, thus forming a perpetual motion.

After realizing this, Lotus Sun immediately took out her sword to break the restriction, freeing the hidden entrance.

The inside of Ao Hai's sword was fused with a Heavenly Dao Rubik's Cube!

Under the effect of the resonance power, Ao Hai was the perfect weapon to break the restriction!

"Let's Go!"

On the Divine Cloud, Scroll gave the order.

The two divine rabbits led everyone and jumped into the passage leading to the second secret chamber.

The moment they found the person to jump in, the entrance was immediately closed, and the seal was almost instantly completed.

When they came back to their senses, Lotus Sun and the others appeared in a cave.

"Lotus Sun, we did it!" Sun Ying'er was excited.

"This isn't enough; we can't just know how to get through the secret room."

Lotus Sun frowned and analyzed, "If it's really like Loopy Toad said, the 26 secret rooms are interconnected, and as long as we don't know which room the real exit is in, it won't matter even if we break through all the secret room's mechanisms."

"That's true." Loopy Toad nodded. "If we don't know which secret room the real exit is in, we'll just be doing nothing if we keep going."

“I think the clues to the exit must be related to the story of Dao ancestor Wang and Old God,” Lotus Sun said as she began to size up the environment of the second secret room. It was a very wide cave, but she could see the edge at a glance.

There were three lamps hanging on the stone wall near the cave.

“This is the eternal fire of the divine realm. It’s a wick made of the old God’s divine feathers. One can burn for thousands of years. “Even if it’s accidentally extinguished, it can automatically reignite within three seconds.” Ah Juan immediately recognized the origin of the wall lamp.

The structure of the entire cave wasn’t complicated.

On the rock wall, there were three paintings.

The paintings were glowing, as if they were fixed in mid-air, flowing with a mysterious power.

These three women represented three different ages.

The first chapter of the paintings depicted a child, about six years old.

She wore a red dress and a pair of black leather shoes. Her face was full of childishness, and when she smiled, her deep dimples made the girl look extremely cute.

The second painting was of a young girl in a red dress. Her skin was fair and her eyes were clear, giving off a beautiful feeling like one’s first love.

The third painting was of a kind-looking old lady sitting on a rocking chair. She was draped in a Burgundy blanket, and the painting showed a sense of the passage of time.

The three paintings appeared side by side, exuding a tremendous pressure..

“Who is the woman in the painting?” Lotus Sun asked curiously.

“There’s no mistake! This is the old God! She looks like the old God at three different ages!” Ah Juan looked at the paintings in front of him, and couldn’t help showing a surprised expression.

She was sure that she didn’t make a mistake. The paintings in these three paintings were indeed the old God.

The dimples were the best proof.

“Eh, the old God is really so beautiful!” Unexpectedly, ah Juan let out this sigh.

She had clearly been given power by the old God, but this reaction was like seeing the old God for the first time.

“Is this your first time seeing him?” Lotus Sun asked curiously.

“Yes. Very few people have seen the old God in his old age.”

Scroll said, “The old God I saw is already a skeleton. She has already transcended her physical body and become an ancient god.”

“Pink skeleton?” Loopy toad laughed in its heart.

It looked at the three paintings in the cave, it said, “These three paintings are all hand-drawn. Probably only dao ancestor Wang has seen the old God in three stages, right? Then, did Dao ancestor Wang know the old God when he was very young?”

“F * ck! So Daofather Wang is a copper-smelting warlock? !” Sun Ying ‘er was shocked.

“Don’t talk nonsense! You all saw it the other way around! Actually, according to the order of age, it should be from right to left... The Old God’s original appearance should be that old Grandma’s portrait!”

Ah Juan said, “The old God is called the old God because the old God looks very old at the beginning. She is rejuvenated and looks the other way around! “The younger she is, the older she is! “When I met the old God, she was an ancient god the size of a baby.”

“In other words, Daofather Wang doesn’t care if the old God is beautiful enough, right?” Lotus Sun was extremely envious.

This kind of love, which didn’t care about appearance but went back to the soul, was something that everyone was looking forward to.

Emotions were things that could span time.

Even if, at different times, they were missed enough.

There would come a day when this wave could be transmitted to the person they liked.

“The old God accompanied Daofather Wang for the rest of his life, but Daofather Wang’s lifespan was really too long. In addition, he had the constitution of a rejuvenated youth. This made it impossible for the old God to continue accompanying Daofather,” Ah Juan said with a sigh, she felt as if the topic was gradually becoming heavy.

“Daofather Wang must have other ways, right?” Lotus Sun asked.

“Perhaps. But choosing to leave is actually the old God’s own choice...” as a newly appointed King of the realm of gods, Ah Juan didn’t really know much about matters of the heart.

The Old God had only passed on his power to her, but not his love history..

And what Ah Juan knew now was all hearsay from the other gods.

If he hadn’t personally experienced the secret chamber of the Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube, he probably wouldn’t have been able to experience it until now.

The deep emotional bond between the old god and Dao ancestor Wang.

“These three paintings were all done by Dao ancestor Wang, right? It feels like there’s so much power in them!” Lotus Sun said with a frown.

At this moment, loopy toad suddenly smiled in its heart.

These three paintings might indeed have been Daofather Wang's careful work.

But when it came to energy, loopy toad was a little unconvinced..

The energy seeping out of the words on the test paper that Little Lord Ling had casually made was also very strong! It was just that ordinary cultivators' realms were too low to sense it.

As for the three paintings in front of her, the energy on them was astonishing. It was likely that Daofather Wang had deliberately exposed them.

It was like an oath of love.

Daofather Wang was using the three paintings to tell everyone that he and the old God had strong feelings for each other.

"I know how to pass this test." At this moment, Lotus Sun had an idea.

Three eternal lamps and three paintings of Daofather Wang.

This actually hinted at the password to pass the test.

"Scroll, ying-er, go to the other two lamps." Lotus Sun took the initiative and walked to the far right, in front of the lamp that was facing the old lady's painting, then she said, "After I blow it out, ying-er, blow the second lamp, and then scroll, blow the first lamp."

"The Order of rejuvenation? Got It!" Scroll nodded.

Because the wick of the eternal lamp would be reignited, it was extremely difficult for one person to do this.

As everyone knew.

A game like escape from the secret room.

This was a multi-player sport..

Not only could it improve the team's tacit understanding.

At the same time, it could also prove that Ku Xuan really did not have any manuscripts.

Chapter 1386 Identification

Using the three scrolls to extinguish the flame of the eternal lamp in order to unlock the passage to the next secret chamber.

The girl's intelligence was once again demonstrated in cracking the mechanism.

The level of cultivation sometimes had nothing to do with IQ.

Fools with high cultivation existed in the world of cultivation.

They only had special talent in cultivation.

When the three eternal lights were pressed at the same time...

The mechanism leading to the next secret room was triggered.

The three paintings in front of them glowed faintly in the dim cave, turning into three entrances.

"It looks like we'll have to carry out our tasks separately. According to the normal script, we'll find a meeting place later."

Loopy toad said, "I'll go to the middle entrance. Everyone should be careful, and be extra careful. What you see later may not be real."

"Is there an illusion?" Lotus Sun asked.

“Absolutely,” loopy toad said. “So the best question is to ask questions. If you can know something more private, it may be your real body.”

“Understood.”

Lotus sun and scroll both nodded.

Before they set off, scroll had temporarily stored the divine rabbit in his core world.

They had a clear division of labor, and then each entered the picture scroll in front of them.

This was truly a solo mission.

Without loopy toad and Scroll’s guidance, Lotus Sun didn’t know if she could do it.

But with Ying ‘er and Ao Hai around, Lotus Sun’s worried heart was slightly relieved.

The third secret room was completely different from the Abyss and cave ahead; it was a very bright place.

“Mirror Maze?” Lotus Sun found herself trapped at the entrance to a mirror maze.

The secret room she had already passed through couldn’t be turned back. She turned around and sure enough, the entrance to the scroll had already disappeared.

“I wonder what kind of secret room loopy toad and Ah Juan encountered...” lotus sun frowned, then mustered up her courage and walked forward.

She tried to use ao Hai’s sword Qi to cover the entire maze of mirrors to find the most suitable route.

In the end, perhaps because of the resonance of the Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube, ao Hai’s sword Qi was especially scattered here.

Thus, the plan to use the sword Qi to crack the maze failed.

Lotus Sun made a mark on the ground using Ao Hai. After walking a few rounds, she found that she had actually returned to her original position.

It wasn't just that.

Lotus Sun tried to use the sea of arcane to smash the mirror.

When the mirror broke, a ray of light would come out and bring her back to the entrance.

"It's no use walking aimlessly like this, Lotus Sun!" Ying 'ER said.

"Yes, I know."

Lotus sun nodded. "But what does the maze of mirrors here mean?"

The abysses and caves they had passed through before all had something to do with the story of Daofather King and the old God.

But the maze of mirrors in front of her left Lotus Sun completely clueless.

Perhaps if Miss Scroll was here, she might be able to connect the dots.

But now that scroll wasn't around, Lotus Sun couldn't listen to the old God's story through him.

"All the girls have their own mirrors, right? Maybe all these mirrors have something to do with the old God?" Said Sun Ying 'ER.

This gave Lotus Sun another hint.

She took the initiative to walk over to one of the mirrors, and then started to stare at herself in it.

Sun Ying 'er sighed. "Rongrong is so beautiful! And I think that even without makeup, she can still please Ling Zhenren."

"What does it have to do with classmate Wang Ling? You're talking nonsense again..." Lotus Sun was helpless.

But when she looked at the mirror, she did indeed discover something very strange. "Besides, Ying 'er, I actually didn't put on makeup today! But look at this mirror, doesn't it have its own beauty effect?"

"It has its own beauty effect?" Sun Ying 'er was stunned.

She carefully looked at the mirror and realized that this was indeed the case.

Skin-whitening wasn't a big deal anymore; even the shape of the face in the mirror had begun to turn sharp!

Then, Lotus Sun took another step forward.

She changed to another mirror, and found that the beauty effect of this mirror was even more extreme than before..

"I roughly know... how I got past this level!" Lotus Sun suddenly realized.

All the mirrors in this maze of mirrors had different beauty effects, mainly reflected in the whitening of the skin and the chin.

The sharper the chin, the deeper the position they were in, and also the only correct path.

After repeated comparisons, Lotus Sun finally found the last mirror.

"Lotus Sun, your chin is almost turning into an awl. You can use it to cut ice!" Sun Ying 'er stared at Lotus Sun in the mirror, whose face was twisted with beauty, and couldn't help laughing.

“This should be the exit to the maze.” Lotus Sun took a deep breath.

If she hadn't made a mistake, she would have been able to get out as long as she shattered the mirror!

“Ha!” Lotus Sun held back her energy and pulled out her ao hai, cutting the overly beautiful mirror in front of her in half.

This time, when the mirror broke, no light surged out and sent her back to the entrance.

In front of Lotus Sun's eyes, there was an old stone step that led to an ancient temple. The plants on both sides were deep, and dense ancient trees stood tall, their thick trunks crisscrossing the ground.

Behind the mirror was an unknown ancient jungle.

At first, Lotus Sun was a little hesitant.

But when she thought that loopy toad and Ah Juan might have already walked out of the secret chamber, she mustered up the courage to continue walking forward.

If nothing unexpected happened, they might reunite in this ancient forest.

The worn-out stone steps leading up to the mountain peak were engraved with complex ancient runes, giving off a natural pressure.

Although the young girl was only at the foundation establishment stage, she had the sword Qi of the Ao hai protecting her when she walked, so it was effortless for her.

When she reached the mountainside, Lotus Sun saw a familiar figure scuttling out from a small path ahead.

“Loopy toad!” Lotus Sun waved at it from a distance.

However, loopy Toad's gaze was especially vigilant as it hurriedly took a few steps back and looked at the young girl with hostility.

Lotus Sun immediately remembered what loopy toad had said earlier.

After they parted, they might see an illusion. In order to avoid being misled, they needed to ask each other questions to verify their identities.

"Let's ask each other questions!" Lotus Sun said.

"Okay."

Loopy toad nodded and accepted the suggestion.

"What do you like to eat the most? !" Lotus Sun asked first.

"Flies! Big Meat Flies!"

Loopy Toad's answer was very decisive, and it didn't hesitate at all.

Then it said, "Then it's my turn to ask!"

Before asking, loopy toad didn't forget to glare at Sun Ying 'er. "Don't interrupt the girl next to you! After she answers, I'll Test You Again!"

"Stop!" Sun Ying 'er stuck out her tongue.

Loopy toad took a deep breath, looked at Lotus Sun with a mischievous smile, and asked, "Tell me! Who Do you like the most? !"

"I..."

Lotus Sun's face instantly turned red.

“Don’t give me the runaround with your relatives!”

Loopy Toad’s expression was very serious. “It has to be a human! And it has to be a man! Tell me quickly!”

Lotus Sun:”...”

As it asked the question, it smiled evilly in its heart.

Heh..

How could this king not know that you were the real Lotus Sun.

Just by smelling you, you could actually tell who you really were!

But wouldn’t it be a pity not to tease this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity?

Chapter 1387 Sun Ying ‘ER’s Evaluation Of The Current Situation

“I...”

Lotus Sun hesitated for a long time, but couldn’t say it out loud.

Her face was already completely red, and she felt like a steam duck. “I, I like Grandpa the most...”

But unfortunately, loopy toad didn’t admit it. “Heh! I said, Don’t give me the runaround with relatives!”

The Aura of a divine beast was emitted, and the high density of spirit energy mixed with the power of chaos shook the Earth under its feet in an instant.

Sometimes, people wouldn’t look into their hearts without external pressure.

Seeing that loopy toad was really going to make a move, lotus sun became even more anxious.

The young girl stamped her feet anxiously. She didn't want to fight loopy toad, so she could only tell the truth.

She practically shouted out, "My favorite is student Wang Ling! !!"

In an instant, loopy toad retracted the aura it had released.

Mm..

Very good!

It nodded in satisfaction, then put away the cell phone hidden in its dog mouth and pressed the stop button.

"Loopy toad, you..." Lotus Sun was flustered when she realized that what she had just said had been secretly recorded.

"Don't worry, Miss Sun. This king has integrity, so I won't show it to anyone."

Loopy toad promised in front of Lotus Sun.

"Swear it!" Lotus Sun said anxiously, her face red.

"I swear! If this king dares to say anything about what happened today, this king will never be a human in this life!" Loopy toad said.

At first glance, this curse did sound vicious enough, but when she thought about it carefully, the young girl suddenly felt that she was at a disadvantage. "But you're not a human in the first place!"

"But this king also has a human form. Think about it, if I don't use a human form for the rest of my life, how much of a disadvantage would that be! ?"

Loopy toad sighed. "If I can't transform into a human form, then this king can't smoothly fall in love with the young lady of the human world. I Can't go out at night and do sports with many people and then have a son and a half.". This was equivalent to making this king swear that he would never have children again! Isn't this vicious?"

"Alright then..."

Lotus Sun was stunned by these words.

If she analyzed it this way, loopy Toad's curse was indeed vicious enough.

But she still felt that there was something strange about these words..

Sun Ying 'er knew that Lotus Sun had been tricked!

Sigh, her Rong Rong was still too young!

In order not to be tricked, Sun Ying 'er hurriedly sent a voice transmission to loopy toad. "Don't ask me too many questions! Ask a normal question! When we get back, I'll go to the Demon World and get you twenty sacks of meat flies!"

Loopy toad raised its dog eyebrows at these words, nodded its head slightly, and agreed to the content of this deal.

"Miss over there, please give a brief account of your current life situation,"loopy toad asked Sun Ying 'er.

Sun Ying 'er couldn't help tearing up at this question.

A brief account of the current situation in her life..

She felt like she had a lot to say.

But in the end, there was only one sentence left.

Her gaze had a “Sorrowful and tearful” feeling to it, and there was even a hint of sobbing in her voice as a tear slipped from the corner of her eye. “A woman in the day is a man at night...”

Lotus Sun and loopy toad:”...”

..

Behind Mingzheng, Lotus Sun and loopy toad went up the mountain.

In the dense forest in front of them, an ancient temple gradually appeared.

These bricks were made of the same material as the divine palace on Divine Dao Star, but they were clearly very old, and there was a faint aura of laws flowing on them.

The door of the temple was half-closed.

There were cracks on the door, as if it had been subjected to some violent impact.

The entire temple was covered in cobwebs and dust. At a glance, it was obvious that it had been abandoned for many years, and no one was interested.

“Where on earth did Ah Juan go?”

“On the way here, I observed that there was no other entrance except for a path halfway up the mountain. Maybe she’s still waiting for us in the secret room at the back.”

Loopy toad said, “She’s the king of the god world, so it’s unlikely that anything will go wrong.”. “Moreover, it’s obvious that the Heavenly Dao secret room here is the work of an old god. “She used the Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube to transform the Rubik’s Cube’s original rules of the secret room, turning it into her own secret room to record the past between her and Dao ancestor Wang.”

There were also many ways for couples to record their feelings.

Using a diary to record, keeping all the photos, giving gifts to each other, writing wishes on the old tree, tying the red rope together, and so on..

And this was the first time she had used a secret room to record like this.

“Ohai, please sweep this place.” Lotus Sun injected her spirit energy, and the Ohai in her hand immediately emitted a blue spiritual light, with Lotus Sun at the center.

This spirit light transformed into ripples that spread out from under Lotus Sun’s feet and instantly washed away all the dust in the temple.

The temple, which had been covered in dust, was now as clean as new in the blink of an eye.

“It actually has such an effect,” loopy toad exclaimed in its heart.

“Isn’t this a little overkill?” Lotus Sun was a little embarrassed.

“No... Miss Sun is indeed a talent. She was actually able to develop the wife attribute of a spirit sword, and looks like she’ll be a good wife and mother in the future,” loopy toad praised.

“Loopy toad! I noticed that after you became a divine beast, you’re a little light-headed!” Lotus sun crouched down and angrily rubbed loopy toad’s face. “Can’t you drink the same as before and be a little cuter!”

“This king is a divine beast now, and a divine beast should have a sub-child of a divine beast!” Loopy toad retorted.

“Quick, look over here!”

At this moment, Sun Ying ‘ER made a new discovery.

She saw two palm prints right in front of the ancient temple.

“What are these?”

Lotus sun stared at the palm prints and was very puzzled as to why they were formed.

On the contrary, it was Sun Ying 'er who looked very experienced. "Judging from the width of the palm prints, this should be a man's palm print. This man should be very tall, and the knuckles of the palm prints are very thin. This proves that this man's fat content is very low, and he should have an excellent figure! "He's a handsome man!"

"How do you know so much..."lotus sun was very surprised.

"Wow! I've been hit so many times by this Wang Ying, and now I've been hit by a wall!"

"..."

"It's obvious that this palm print was left behind by a wall, and it's likely that it was left behind when Daofather King hit the Old God,"Sun Ying 'er analyzed strongly. "As expected, this temple is related to the old God and Daofather King. Maybe Daofather King confessed his love to the old God Here!"

"But it's still not enough to know this information,"Lotus Sun said.

"Don't tell me I have to be hit by a wall to clear the level?"

Sun Ying 'er touched her chin, and her eyes lit up. She stared at Lotus Sun and smiled wickedly. "Lotus Sun! Please cooperate with me!"

"What are you doing?"

"Of course I'm hitting you with a wall! Don't worry, I've been hit by a wall so many times. I'm very experienced!"Sun Ying 'er chuckled.

With that, she grabbed Lotus Sun's wrist, raised it above her head, and slammed it against the wall.

But she didn't know why.

After Sun Ying 'er did this, she felt a chill run down her spine..

Something wasn't right?

Why was there Wang Ying's aura here!

Sun Ying 'er instantly panicked!

Chapter 1388 Old God's Altar

Wang Ying's aura was very strong, and loopy toad broke out in a cold sweat in an instant.

In fact, Wang Ying was the third safeguard in this operation.

Wang Ling had deliberately made this arrangement to ensure that this operation would be foolproof.

After receiving the order, Wang Ying blended into loopy Toad's shadow and sneaked in.

Moreover, he had concealed himself very well along the way.

Who would have thought that after seeing Sun Ying 'er knock on Lotus Sun's face, Wang Ying's mood would start to fluctuate slightly..

“Director Ying, you have to restrain yourself...”loopy Toad said telepathically. It was trying its best to comfort Wang Ying, hoping that he would calm down. “If you want to solve it, we can arrange it after we get out.”

These words finally calmed the restless Wang Ying once again.

He folded his arms and hid in loopy Toad's shadow, using loopy Toad's shadow as a cover as he quietly watched Sun Ying 'ER's various reactions and performances.

..

“Danger!”

At that moment, Sun Ying ‘er felt a huge “Danger” hanging over her head.

She sensed her surroundings again and realized that Wang Ying’s aura had actually disappeared again.

Was it an illusion?

Or was it because she had been hit by the wall too many times that the wall-banging had affected her mental state and caused her to misjudge her aura.

In any case, all in all, she had been ruined by Wang Ying, the Gorilla!

“Wuwuwu! Rongrong! I really want to be messed up by Wang Ying, the Gorilla!”

“You’ve finally noticed...”lotus sun sighed and patted Sun Ying ‘ER’s little head. “And what the hell is a Gorilla?”

“Anyway, when I say that his life will become a gorilla, I might as well just call him a gorilla!”Sun Ying ‘er said.

Lotus Sun:”...”

Actually, sometimes Lotus Sun felt that Wang Ying was also quite difficult.

Sun Ying ‘ER had a big mouth, which was completely different from her personality. It was purely a mouth full of words and a master of slander.

But the problem was that Ying ‘er was very cute.

She didn’t have the heart to let people really be ruthless.

Although Ying 'er complained to her every day about how Wang Ying had bullied her, Lotus Sun had never seen any external wounds on Sun Ying 'ER's body.

The facts proved that.

Wang Ying looked crazy, but he was actually a man who knew his limits.

“Rumble!”

At that moment, a tremor came from inside the ancient temple.

The wall with the mark of Dao ancestor Wang's palm suddenly caved in, and then separated to the left and right.

“It's really a trap! There's a hidden secret room inside!” Sun Ying-er cried out in alarm.

When the wall was opened, what greeted everyone's eyes was a top-secret altar hidden behind the wall!

“It's actually a square altar?” Loopy toad was also surprised.

Square altars were rare because most altars were fused with arrays, and most of the arrays were circular! But the altar in front of them used the four corners of the room as a fulcrum, directly framing the entire room inside the altar.

On the ground were mysterious ancient characters that Loopy toad couldn't understand.

Most of these mysterious ancient characters came from the God clan, and only a small number were written in Heavenly Dao. This proved that the person who had set up the altar was the old God himself.

“This is the old God's altar,” Loopy toad said.

Combining this with the scene in front of them, it wasn't difficult to deduce this conclusion.

Now, a new problem had arisen.

What was the old God's purpose in setting up this altar?

In the center of the altar, Lotus Sun found a very small coffin.

Lotus Sun took a step forward, narrowed her eyes, and examined it carefully. "This was... custom-made after the old God returned to his youth, right?"

"If it was just to make a coffin for yourself, why would you need to spend so much effort to build such an altar?" Loopy toad said.

Most places where an altar existed had a purpose behind it.

At the moment, they didn't have enough evidence, so for the time being, it wasn't enough to determine that this was the old God's scheme.

But based on experience and intuition, loopy toad felt that the existence of this altar was definitely not a good thing.

At that moment, a chilly wind gusted through the secret chamber with a bone-eroding chill. Accompanied by a woman's cries that came and went, the coffin in front of loopy toad opened with a Bang!

It was a baby's white bone, but it was missing a part of its right arm.

"Old God Bone?" Loopy Toad's expression was a little hesitant. "Why would a dead old God world king give off such a powerful baleful ghost aura?"

This sudden cold wind was filled with powerful pressure and energy, and it was also mixed with divine power. Although it was very faint, loopy toad could feel it.

Then, the altar shone, and a shadow with its eyes closed emerged from the center of the altar.

“Ah Juan? !”The sudden appearance of the shadow stunned everyone.

Lotus Sun was sure that she hadn't seen wrongly!

This was Miss Ah Juan's soul!

In the coffin, the remains in the form of the old God baby trembled slightly, and Ah Juan's soul merged with the remains and finally transformed into a little girl in a red dress and black leather shoes.

This was the form of an old God little girl. Everyone had seen it in the previous picture scroll!

“I've finally waited for this day.”

The little girl spoke, but her voice was extremely old. It was clearly not Ah Juan's voice.

“You're an old God?”Lotus Sun looked ahead warily. She found it hard to believe that Ah Juan had been killed after separating from them. “What have you done to Ah Juan? !”

“I've waited for so many years, but I haven't been able to choose the next successor to the realm of God, all for this day.”

The little girl said, “There's no more suitable candidate than Ah Juan. “She's an immortal soul. As long as she's old enough to merge with my baby remains, in theory, she can restore me to my sixteen or seventeen-year-old appearance and freeze my appearance forever.”

“But you seem to be a little impatient.”Loopy toad looked at the little girl in front of it.

The old God of the god World, the last king of the god world, had a very terrifying aura!

This was the first time loopy toad had sensed the aura of the ten-thousand-winged God!

It was indeed ridiculously strong!

“That’s right, Ah Juan is still too young. If she can grow into a mature woman, she might be what I want after merging with me.”The old God smiled.

“But, Daofather Wang doesn’t care about your looks! Not even your old age!”Lotus Sun said. She had envied this kind of love from the very beginning, and at the same time, admired Daofather Wang very much.

“He doesn’t mind, but I do.”

The old god said, “No woman can endure her old age. She can endure the pain of having to part with the person she loves after becoming a child...”

“But the Dao ancestor has a way!”Lotus Sun said.

“He has no way! Don’t think that you know everything! “A man’s words can never be trusted!”The Old God was very unhappy. “In order for the divine realm to become better, I can only sacrifice ah Juan. This is also something that can not be helped.”

“It’s just a pretentious statement.”Lotus sun frowned. “To think that Dao ancestor Wang would like you. Perhaps this is the greatest stain on his life.”

As she spoke, Lotus Sun gripped a’hai tightly, her body trembling with anger.

“What? You still want to fight me? A foundation establishment cultivator?”The old God smiled.

“Hand over miss a’Juan!”

In the next moment, she pulled a’hai out and pointed the tip of her sword at the old God. “Otherwise, even if you are a god, I won’t be polite!”

The sword aura that was mixed with the Rubik’s Cube of Heaven Dao and the power of chaos howled out!

It made the old God’s shoulder sink on the spot!

“Impossible...”

The old God raised his eyes, and the astonishment was written on his face.

Chapter 1389 Lotus Sun Killing God (Part One)

A normal foundation establishment cultivator would never be able to unleash such sword Qi.

The old God looked at the girl in front of him warily. She saw the shadow of the sword spirit hidden behind Lotus Sun.

After the upgrade, Ao Hai was dressed in a gorgeous dark blue evening gown. His sapphire-like eyes gave off a profound feeling of being at the bottom of the sea for thousands of miles. His silver-gray hair fell down, and his beautiful curls were like the waves of the sea.

Unintentionally, an invisible pressure was faintly discernible, mixed with Lotus Sun’s aura. At this moment, she was one with the sword, and there was no distinction between the two of them.

The connection between the Ao Hai and Lotus Sun was too deep. This was the spirit sword that Lotus Sun had used since she was young.

The long time they had spent together day and night, coupled with the gratitude that the Ao Hai had shown to the sword master after the upgrade, made the connection between the two even deeper, forming a passive version of “One with the sword.”

Lotus sun only needed to pull out the spirit sword, and Ohai’s aura would automatically merge with Lotus Sun’s.

The old God looked at this scene in surprise. At this moment, she finally knew what the problem was. “You actually merged one of the Heaven’s path Rubik’s cubes into your spirit sword?”

This operation directly scared the old God silly.

She knew how precious the “Heaven’s path Rubik’s Cube”was.

“What an audacious human!” On the altar, the little girl-shaped old God stood on a high platform, her body floating in the air, she looked down at Lotus Sun. “Do you know what will happen if the Rubik’s Cube loses its balance?”

In the next moment, a gorgeous golden halo lit up above her head, releasing an immortal aura.

This was the divine ring unique to the ten thousand winged God, and it possessed powerful divine power.

After the old man’s deductions and the memories in Ah Juan’s soul, he knew what had happened before he was officially resurrected.

The unspeakable land had been destroyed.

One of the nine Great Heavenly Dao Rubik’s cubes had been snatched away, and this had caused the other eight great Rubik’s cubes to go out of control at any moment.

And the one that Daofather Wang had given her back then had already gone out of control!

No wonder after she recovered, she vaguely felt that something was wrong on Divine Dao Star..

Everything made sense.

No Wonder Ah Juan had entered the secret chamber of the Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube so much earlier than she had guessed..

She hadn’t expected that it was because the Rubik’s Cube had gone out of balance that something had changed. Ah Juan had brought a foundation establishment human here to retrieve the Rubik’s Cube!

This action had disrupted the old god’s plan to absorb “Ah Juan’s immortal soul”.

In addition, she had long since been unable to suppress the impulse in her heart.

So even though she knew that the time was much earlier than estimated,.

The old God still chose to make a move and devour ah Juan's soul.

"We didn't know this would happen, so now we need to retrieve the Rubik's Cube one by one and replace it with a new one,"lotus sun replied.

"A new Rubik's Cube."

The old God smiled again. "You call me hypocritical, but you're even more hypocritical than I am. Back then, the Dao ancestor had spent God knows how many years creating a Rubik's Cube. Do you think this Heavenly Dao Rubik's Cube is made of clay? You can easily make it?"

The next moment!

There was a buzz!

The surrounding space collapsed, and the ten-thousand-winged divine ring above the old God's head exploded with a brilliant light!

Lotus Sun and loopy toad saw the space in front of them instantly change!

When they came back to their senses, they were shockingly in a bright world.

The divine cloud was entrenched beneath their feet, and runes swirled. The little girl-shaped old God sat cross-legged in front of them. She was as huge as a mountain, and she looked like a god that hadn't moved since ancient times, exuding a solemn aura.

If it hadn't been for the fact that her red dress and black leather shoes were too dramatic, this scene would indeed have made everyone pale.

"The core world..."loopy toad frowned.

This was clearly not an ordinary core world, because the energy flowing inside was too great!

“Don’t think that you’re the only one who has the Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube. I’ve long fused part of the love token given to me by the Dao ancestor into my core world.”

As the old God spoke, his ethereal voice came from all directions. “You’re just a foundation establishment cultivator. Even with the Spirit Sword in your hand, how much can you stir up?”

The little girl-shaped old God couldn’t help but laugh. It was a big taboo to be dragged into the core world during a battle. In the core world, the Master of the core world was the God Here!

Moreover, she was a god herself!

“With this finger of mine, you will be reduced to ashes. Do you have any last words?”The old God said in a deep voice. She sat cross-legged in this world that was full of light, and her powerful aura soared.

This was the first time Lotus Sun had faced a mountain-like opponent. The difference in size was so great that anyone would feel a shiver!

However, she remembered that when the gate between worlds had descended back then, Odd Zhuo had also faced such a mountain-like demon king..

Although Lotus Sun already knew that Odd Zhuo had won by lying down.

At that time, Odd Zhuo had still rushed forward without any regard for his own safety!

He had clearly known that there was a huge disparity in strength, but he had still done it without hesitation!

This was also why Wang Ling had chosen Odd Zhuo back then.

Not all weak people couldn’t become heroes.

As long as one’s heart was strong enough, no matter how weak they were, they would still be heroes!

At that moment.

Lotus Sun's thoughts were myriad.

The opinions of her predecessors, and now... The Power Wang Ling had given her!

It gave her great confidence at that moment.

The moment Lotus Sun held onto Ao Hai, she suddenly felt countless people behind her pushing her forward!

"It's not certain who will be turned into ashes!" The next moment, the girl used Ao Hai's sword Qi to rise from the ground.

Under Lotus Sun's feet, Ao Hai's sword Qi transformed into two jets, allowing the girl to fly freely in the air.

She aimed the edge of Ao Hai's sword at the huge old God in front of her, turning it into a brilliant blue meteor, and charged forward without caring about anything else!

"You overestimate yourself." The old God snorted and opened his divine eyes.

Two rays of light shot out of his pupils like a long dragon, merging in the air and forming a huge one. It crashed rapidly in Lotus Sun's direction, bursting out with boundless divine power.

This was the old god's "Boundless divine light"!

After fusing a portion of the power of the Heavenly Dao Rubik's Cube, this was equivalent to a strike from a Dao God!

"In the end, she's Dao ancestor Wang's old lover; she's indeed terrifying! Lotus Sun's strike is so powerful that she's probably no match for it!" Loopy toad was horrified, it looked up at this scene from below and assessed the battle situation at the same time.

When Lotus Sun had jumped up just now, it had already wrapped a portion of its chaotic power around Ao Hai's body in an attempt to secretly assist her in achieving a one-hit kill against the old God.

But now it seemed that the old God's power was too fierce, and his power alone was far from enough.

"No Rush." Wang Ying frowned.

He had come to ensure that the situation was absolutely safe.

His analysis of battle power was also more accurate.

Although Lotus Sun's attack wouldn't be able to kill the old God in one hit, it could still shatter this boundless divine light and return the favor to the old God.

Because the old God had been too arrogant, he hadn't used his full strength.

"Chi!"

Sure enough, everything was as Wang Ying had expected.

Lotus sun turned into a blue stream of light, like a sharp blade, and tore the old God's boundless divine light into pieces!

She was extremely fast, and still moving at high speed, she shot toward the old God!

The old God couldn't Dodge in time, and a piece of his scalp was directly cut off by Lotus Sun.

The cross-section was as smooth as a mirror, and it could even reflect light..

Chapter 1390 Lotus Sun Killing God (Part Two)

The situation was very balding. The top of the old God's head had been directly sliced off by Lotus Sun, forming a physical version of the Mediterranean Sea.

Moreover, Ao Hai had played a trick. She had covered her sword Qi with the power of the Dead Sea.

This was originally an ability similar to the "Serious injury effect", which could block recovery.

But now, with the sword qi cutting off the old god's scalp, the old god was unable to restore his hair in a short period of time.

He could only fight Lotus Sun with a bald patch.

Seeing a lock of his hair fall, the old man trembled with anger.

His mountain-like body shook violently in the core world, causing the whole world to rumble.

"I'll kill you..."

Angering divine face was naturally an extremely terrifying thing.

The old God condensed his body, and the expression on his face began to become serious. The ten-thousand-winged divine halo above her head charged at Lotus Sun with unparalleled divine might!

The old God spread his golden wings, emitting powerful divine power.

"Why isn't it ten-thousand wings?" Loopy toad was surprised.

"It's all one now. If you directly spread ten-thousand wings, the wings will be like a ship's sail. The air resistance is too great, and even the old God probably won't be able to fly," Wang Ying replied.

This answer was too scientific, and loopy toad was suddenly unable to refute it.

At that moment, the old god, whose scalp had been shaved off, was incomparably furious.

As the Golden Wings fluttered, Starlight was generated in the sky, and huge meteorites kept falling.

Lotus Sun held the profound sea in her hand, and boundless sword Qi swept across the sea, crushing the falling meteorites one by one.

“I want you to realize the reality that you’ll never be able to go against the gods.”

In the next moment, divine light burst out from the old God’s Red Robe. The starlight gathered under her feet, and the golden divine feathers that floated around her turned into a star carpet that was laid under her feet.

This was a kind of supernatural power. Indeed, only God could do it.

She walked on the red carpet without saying anything. However, divine light surged out from her pupils, and powerful fluctuations piled up inside.

“You will... fall in this river of stars.”

The next moment, the old God raised his hand, and with a flip of his hand, the star carpet beneath his feet was instantly flipped over, and countless stars poured down.

In a short instant, the entire core world was flooded with meteorites, and hundreds and thousands of stars appeared, raining down densely like hail.

“He actually turned a divine feather into a Meteor!” Loopy Toad’s eyes were filled with shock.

This change wasn’t an illusion, but a real change!

In theory, the will of a God could change everything.

A God was practically omnipotent!

Lotus SUN's expression was grim as she jumped onto a meteor and used the sword Qi of the Ao Hai to block it.

But the density of these meteorites was too high, and now they had no choice but to use their ultimate move to clear the area!

“City-toppling Sword!” Lotus sun pointed to the sky and unleashed her strongest sword technique!

A ten-thousand-meter-long sword Qi instantly formed under the old God's astonished gaze.

The raging sword intent, mixed with the echo of the Heavenly Dao Bell's tsunami, made the light of the entire core world even more dazzling!

Ao Hai's figure expanded explosively, like a female giant.

The power accumulated by tens of thousands of clones made Ao Hai's sword Qi truly turn into a vast sea that rushed forward against the river of stars pouring down!

“F * * K, this is actually a battle between foundation establishment cultivators!” Loopy toad was stupefied.

Previously, in the Cultivation Mystic Realm on the mountain of backtrack, it had been pressed under the ground the entire time and had almost become dried dog meat; it had no idea what was happening outside.

Now that it had witnessed this scene with its own eyes, its dog mouth was dislocated on the spot, unable to close.

“Rumble...”

The powerful city-toppling sword had used the power of the ocean to crush the river of stars, swallowing up the falling star and then shattering it into pieces in the ocean.

At this moment, the old God looked down with a complicated expression.

A foundation establishment cultivator actually had the ability to resist the power of a god... This was undoubtedly a provocation!

But the old God could also clearly sense the real combat power on Lotus Sun's body. This "City-toppling sword" had frightened her, and had actually caused her mind to fluctuate.

The Sword Qi of more than 10,000 meters had almost crushed the galaxy she had unleashed and cut it in half, neutralizing all of her divine power.

The old God flapped his golden wings and retreated rapidly. She crossed her arms and blocked at the front. The 10,000-meter sword Qi crashed toward the place where her arms had crossed, and the sword pulled the old God to the end of the core world, slamming him into the wall of nothingness.

This sword attack was too terrifying.

It almost pierced a hole in the core world, and pulled the Master of the core world out of the core world as well..

But the old God was an old God after all.

Her combat experience was far beyond Lotus Sun's.

For a foundation establishment cultivator to be able to unleash such a powerful sword attack, he must have accumulated strength in his spare time.

Therefore, she was certain that Lotus Sun wouldn't be able to continuously unleash such a powerful killing blow.

And in fact, that was indeed the case.

It would take 12 hours for Qingcheng to accumulate strength in one strike..

Lotus Sun could at most accumulate 10 strikes, but there wasn't much time between the last time she used it.

“I’m very curious. How many more strikes can you unleash?”The old God smiled. She knew that this was her chance.

“Rongrong! Retreat! This woman is going too far!”

Sun Ying ‘er realized that the situation was not good and quickly pulled Lotus Sun back.

She could feel the killing intent in God’s eyes and felt that the situation was not good. She immediately hugged lotus sun and sprinted 10,000 meters. She even used the shrinking ground technique to keep a distance from God.

“You want to leave?”

God shook his head slightly.

This was her core world. No one could escape.

She merely hooked her finger.

Sun Ying ‘er, who had slipped away a long time ago, was once again returned to a spot not far from the old God.

In the core world, the Master of the core world could limit the range of the battle and no one could escape.

“Give this thing to them.”At this moment, Wang Ying finally decided to make a move.

But he wasn’t really going to make a move; he was going to give some props as support.

Hiding in loopy Toad’s shadow, he stretched out his hand and put something in loopy Toad’s dog mouth.

“This is...”loopy toad was startled.

“It’s a rechargeable treasure that your lord has enlightened,”Wang Ying replied.

Loopy toad:”...”

The situation was too urgent, and loopy toad had no time to think. It rolled up the rechargeable treasure with its tongue and instantly stretched it in Lotus Sun’s direction. “Miss Lotus Sun, take this! This is the rechargeable treasure that your lord has given you!”

“The... The Charger?”Lotus Sun thought she had misheard.

In the end, a charger had really been delivered to her.

With loopy Toad’s Reminder, Lotus Sun had successfully found the charging port at the hilt of the Ao hai sword... and this was the TYPEC interface!

It had existed since she had upgraded the Ao Hai Sword.

The monk hadn’t said anything, and even lotus sun herself hadn’t noticed it.

Because the location was very hidden.

Besides, who knew that there was a charging port at the hilt!

“How much sword energy can a mere charging device give you?”Old God smiled again.

Lotus Sun connected the charging device.

In the next moment, she felt that Olympian Sea’s sword energy was rapidly filling up at a terrifying speed!

And then.

Lotus Sun raised her sword again and swung it at Old God!

Qingcheng one sword!

Qingcheng one sword!

And it was... Qingcheng one sword!

At that moment, Ao Hai, who could feel the power in his body gradually filling up, turned his gaze to Lotus sun and asked gently, "Swordmaster, this is too troublesome. Do We need to use ten swords at once?"

Lotus Sun covered her mouth and looked astonished. "Student Wang Ling's rechargeable treasure can replenish so many swords..."

"It can indeed." Ao Hai nodded. "But now that the sword spirit space is limited, it can only be used ten times at a time. "If we calculate the total energy provided by this rechargeable treasure, it can provide a total of ten thousand sword Qi."

"?" "When Old God heard this, he was so shocked that his feathers exploded on the spot.

Was this a nuclear rechargeable treasure? ? ?
